PREFACE.

For many years the author of this pamphlet has been collecting data relative to the Catlett family of the United States. So far as our extensive investigations have been made, the only immigrants of this name to this country at any time were Col. John and his two minor sons, Nicholas and Thomas, who came over in 1650 and settled on the Rappahannock River in Virginia. Therefore every one bearing this name must trace his descent back to Col. John or his two minor sons. Mr. W. G. Stannard, Editor of the Virginia Historical Magazine and Secretary of the Virginia Historical Society—the highest authority on Virginia genealogies—entertains the same opinion. With this opinion, every one bearing this name, wherever found, has been requested by letter (sometimes several), to give all the information possessed or obtainable, of her or his branch and its history. Many of these letters are still unanswered, and therefore no additional information obtained. It is reasonably certain that a goodly number of families of this name scattered throughout the country are still unrevealed, and therefore cannot be named in these pages.

In all, several hundred letters have been written and many responses obtained. In addition, court records, land books and family Bibles—yes, even cemeteries, with their almost forgotten tombstones—have been levied upon for information. With all these aids, much valuable data have been collected and arranged, and, while thoroughly conscious of incompleteness, it is deemed best to publish what has been obtained.

When this investigation began it was deemed an easy task. Since beyond our immediate branch, few members of the Catlett names were known to us, but, as our researches extended, family after family, branch after branch, were revealed, until our correspondence extended to nearly every State in the Union. With the revelations already made, it is safe to say that the number of descendants of the original immigrant, Col. John Catlett, now living in this country reach far into thousands. The name is purely English, derived from Catt's lot—upon which the first of the name settled—passing through the various changes: Catts' lot—Catelot—Catlett. Its history is given in the extracts from English records published elsewhere.

It is impossible to give the names of all those who have aided us in this work, since their number is too large, but we wish to return here grateful thanks to every one who has contributed in any way towards the accomplishment of the work herein presented. The hope is entertained that the recital of the deeds and virtues of our ancestors may inspire every living member with fresh determination to excel in every good work which goes to make "perfect men and women."
THE IMMIGRANT.

Col. John Catlett came in 1650 to Rappahannock county, Virginia (now Essex county), from Sittingbourne, County Kent, England, naming the parish in which he located for Sittingbourne, his birthplace. His home place, "Green Hill," was at the mouth of Golden Vale Creek (now Essex county). With him came his son, Nicholas Catlett, and half-brothers, Ralph and Edward Rowzie, followed later by his son, Thomas Catlett. (See patents.). Catherine and Sarah Rowzie, wife and sister of Ralph Rowzie, came later as headrights of Capt. Thomas Lucas.

ENGLISH RECORDS.

The family was seated in County Kent, England, as early as 1464, when John Catelot bequeathed "fourpence for the light standing in the middle of Bearsted Church before the high cross." The will of John Catlott, 1499, bequeathed twenty shillings to the reparation of the steeple of Bearsted Church.

The Virginia Historical Magazine contains the following from the History of County Kent, England, printed by Harris in 1917, in three volumes:

"Catts Place, with the manor belonging thereto, called Catletts, otherwise Salmon, is situated in Brenchley parish, about a mile northward from Brenchley Town, but within the Hundred of Twyford, being held of the manor of Yalding. The mansion was anciently the residence of Hugh de Catte, from whom it acquired its name. His descendants continued to possess it until the Reign of Henry VI (1442). (Vol. III, 223.)"

"Sittingbourne lies about the middle of the north side of Kent, in the road between Rochester and Canterbury, and about a mile southward from Milton, in the Bailiwick and Hundred of Milton. It is the Deanery of Sittingbourne and Diocese of Canterbury, a Vicarage valued in the King’s Books at £10 per annum. The church, a large and handsome building in good repair, is dedicated to St. Michael. In it are several Memorials of the name of Catelet. (Vol. I, p. 284.)"

History of County Kent, Hasted, Vol. II, 369, contains the following:

"Catts Place, with the manor belonging to it, called Catlet’s Salmon, is likewise situated in Brenchley parish, within the Hundred of Twyford. The mansion, situated about a mile north from the village of Brenchley, was anciently the residence of Hugh de Catte, who implanted his name upon it. His descendants continued in possession until the Reign of King Henry VI" (1442) (page 369).

“Lawrence Catlote, of the parish of Great Chart, by his will, proved 1469, devised his messuage called The Place, in Chart street, on the death of Joane, his wife, to John, son of Nicholas Phylipp. * * * About the same time, Rowland Clarke sold twenty-one acres to William Catlett, who, Trinity Term, Anno 4th Elizabeth (1562), levied a fine of his estate here. He died, Anno 5th Elizabeth, possessed of 100 acres of land and twenty acres of wood in this parish (Tong), of which Thomas, his son, levied a fine in Easter term, Anno 5th Elizabeth (1563). Rowland Clarke sold a moiety of this manor only.” (Hasted’s Kent, Vol. II, page 604.)

The Virginia Historical Magazine, Vol. III, p. 63, contains the following from Chancery Proceedings, Charles I, C. C. 39, 20th April, 1648:

“Humbly complaining, sheweth unto y’e honour yo’r orrators: George Catlett ye elder, of Blackwell, in County Middlesex, gent., Judeth Catlett, Thomas Catlett, William and Edward Catlett, sonnes of ye s’d Judeth and of Thomas Catlett, late of Sittingbourne, in ye County of Kent, deceased, by ye s’d Judeth Catlett, their mother and guardian, George Catlett ye younger, of Sandwich, in ye County of Kent, marriner, and John Catlett, sonne of John Catlett ye younger, yo’r orrators, George Catlett ye elder, and Thomas Catlett, deceased, George Catlett ye younger, being all sonnes of John Catlett ye elder, late of Sittingbourne, in ye County of Kent aforesaid, gentleman, deceased,— CATLETT.

Hon. Armistead Churchill Gordon, LL. D., of Staunton, Va., has kindly furnished the following for insertion here:

"In August, 1910, at the request of R. H. Catlett, Jr., I wrote to Leo Cullerton, genealogist and searcher, 92 Piccadilly, London, W., asking him to make a search for the armorial bearings of the Catletts of Sittingbourne, County Kent, England. The following shows the result of this investigation:

"'92 PICCADILLY, LONDON, W., 28 September, 1910.

"Dear Sir—My investigation shows a pedigree of Catlett, of Sittingbourne, County Kent, recorded in 1663, when the Heralds visited the county in order to put on record the families of standing and armorial bearings they were using (if with authority).
"The Catlett family recorded their pedigree, but evidently they claimed no arms, for none are found in connection with this record. I have carried my researches over a good field, including a large number of Kentish references, and the results are interesting from a genealogical point of view, but disappointing from the heraldic point of view.

Yours faithfully,

'Leo Cullerton.

"To Armistead C. Gordon, Esq., Staunton, Virginia, U. S. A.'"

The enclosures with the foregoing letter of Mr. Cullerton included a transcript of the Herald's Visitation, which is copied on the following page; a transcript of Canterbury Marriage Licenses, 1568-1750, containing Catlettts; a transcript of Marriages at All Saints' Maidstone (Kent), 1542-1754; of Catlett's "Testamenta Cantiana"; "Intrantes of Canterbury," 1392-1592; "Freemen of Canterbury," 1392-1800, containing Catlett names, together with Catlett extracts from the Registers of St. George's, Canterbury, 1538-1800.

The Canterbury Marriage Licenses contain, among others, the following:

The following seems to be the earliest recorded appearance of the name in Kent, as shown by these papers:

Testamenta.

"1464. In the will of John Catelot, he leaves 4d. for the light standing in the middle of Bearsted Church, before the High Cross.

"1499. John Catlott bequests 20s. to the reparation of the steeple of Bearsted Church."

Marriages at All Saints', Maidstone, 1542-1754.

Descendants of Col. John Catlett.

Virginia Records.

John Catlett and Edward Dudley, 1654, collected the levies of Lancaster County, and in 1658 he witnessed the olographic will of Richard Lawson (Virginia Historical Magazine, V, 159), in which he bequeathed "another heifer" to James Gaines. (Ibid. 264.)

"John Catlett, gent."

"John Catlett, gent."

"John Catlett, gent."

"John Catlett, gent."

"John Catlett, gent."

"John Catlett, gent." in 1666 established the rights of his wife's son, Francis Slaughter, to Indian lands. (Virginia Historical Magazine, XVII, 243.)

Col. John Catlett was vestryman of Sittingbourne parish, colonel of militia and presiding justice of Rappahannock county, 1665, and with Edmund Scarborough and Richard Lawrence in 1663 was commissioner to settle the boundary line between Virginia and Maryland.

In 1668 Gov. Berkeley wrote to Major General Robert Smith commanding the militia in this district, concerning the depredations of the Northern Indians, and recommended that they be destroyed and the women and children sold as slaves to defray the expense. This letter, forwarded to the justices of Rappahannock county, received the following reply:

"We intend, with the assistance of Almighty God, by the strength of our Northern part, utterly to destroy and eradicate without further incroachment than the 'spoyles of our enemies.'"

John Weire.
Thomas Goodrich.
Humphrey Booth.

(William and Mary Quarterly, VIII, 165.)

In 1668-9, Rev. Fras. Dougherty came to Sittingbourne parish from Massachusetts and New York, and became very obnoxious to Col. Catlett and Mr. Humphrey Booth. He refused to administer the Holy Sacrament to them, stating that "his conscience would not suffer him so to doe." Charging him with non-conformity and scandalous living, they made complaint to Gov. Berkeley and Council, who authorized the county court to investigate, and, if found grounded upon truth," to put out the said Dougherty." It resulted in said Dougherty's saying he would "transport himself out of the Colony into some other climaye that may prove more favorable to his aged, infirm and decayed body," etc. (Virginia Historical Magazine, V, 288.)

Essex county records show that Col. John Catlett, of Rappahan-nock county, made a deed, 1663-4, stating that Mrs. Margaret

*Note.—Old Rappahannock county was extinguished in 1699, when it was divided to form the counties of Essex and Richmond on either side of the Rappahannock river. A part of Essex became Spotsylvania county in 1720, and another part of Essex went to form Caroline county in 1727, in which was also a part of King and Queen and King William, Orange from Spotsylvania, 1734, and Culpepper from Orange 1748."
Upton had conveyed certain personal property to Capt. Francis Slaughter, deceased, for his son, Francis Slaughter, Jr., and that he (Catlett) had married Elizabeth, widow of Capt. Francis Slaughter.

He was county justice, 1665, and county colonel in the Colonial forces, and active in campaigns against the Indians, by whom he was finally slain while defending the fort at Port Royal, 1770.

The records of Richmond county, Virginia, contain the marriage contract, April 20, 1672, between the Rev. Amory Butler, of Rappahannock county, and Mrs. Elizabeth Catlett, widow of Col. John Catlett and state that Col. John Catlett, in his will, directed his estate in England be devoted to the education of his children in that country.

General Court Records, Richmond County, pp. 25, 30: In 1670, Col. John Catlett was umpire, and Robert Beverley and John Lewis arbitrators in a certain controversy involving boundaries of contiguous tracts of land.

Economical History of Virginia, by Philip Bruce, states that at this period, 1650, John Catlett, and also John Clayton, of Gloucester county, Virginia, were in the enjoyment of estates in Kent, England.

Mrs. Annie Catlett Bullock, the daughter of Patrick Robb and Elizabeth (Fitzhugh) Catlett, and granddaughter of John Gibson Catlett (the sixth John in direct descent), and who lives at Guinea, Caroline county, Virginia, has inherited the "old Catlett Bible" with records of two generations, which she has furnished for this work. She writes: "I have heard there was another generation included, but one of the old great-grandmothers, who was left a widow, although young and pretty, being anxious to conceal her age, relentlessly destroyed it—so the legend goes." In another letter she writes: "The 'Green Hill' estate once belonged to my father, who inherited it from his father, John Gibson Catlett. I send you some very old papers to read. They are curious on account of their antiquity."

The oldest of these very ancient papers is the original deed given to Col. John Catlett, in 1666, by John Spearman and his wife, Susannah, to the "Green Hill" estate, which has descended through the male line directly to Mrs. Bullock's father. It is so ancient and interesting that it is inserted in full below.

The next is a survey of some land made for the second Col. John Catlett, 11th January, 1688, and gives as a reason for the survey that he "finds his patents of ye land going to decay," 1,364 acres.

The next is the original will of William Catlett, son of the first Col. John, made on the 11th day of April, 1677. This will is given elsewhere.

Another is a copy of a deed of 3,640 acres of land made by Alex. Spotswood, Lieutenant-Governor, at Williamsburg, Va., to Robert Carter, of Lancaster county, on the 22nd of January, 1718. These lands were in the fork of Rappahannock river and adjoined the lands of Col. Catlett; hence an official copy was furnished the latter.

The next, an indenture made on the fourth day of January, MDCCXXX, between John Catlett, gent., of Caroline county, to John Catlett, Jr., of the same county, planter, conveying one moiety of tract of land purchased by him and Richard Buckner, gent., of Augustine Smith, gent., is interesting, since both the signatures of "Jn" Catlett" and Mary Catlett (Mary Grayson), his wife have attached a seal in red wax, an antelope's head, erased. No. Arms of the Catlett family have been found, but this seal, coupled with the gift to his son John of his "silver seal," in the will of the second Col. John Catlett, is significant of armorial bearings.

The will of the third John Catlett, of Caroline county, made the 4th of June, 1730, and witnessed by Jonath. Gibson, George Todd and Robert Lindsay, is also among these valuable papers.

The following is the deed in full to a part of the original tract known as "Green Hill," the remainder having been previously purchased of John Prosser:

Starting with Jno. ye younger, d. before 1626 (when his widow, Sarah Catlett, 24 years old, Mar. (II) Lodowick Rowzee, aged 36, and bachelor, and doctor of physics), and Sarah, his wife, who furnished their only son, Col. John Catlett, as the immigrant to Virginia in 1650. Col. John appears to have married before coming to Virginia, since there accompanied him Thomas and Nicholas, apparently his sons, and since no mention is made of his wife, it is presumed she died before he left England. He was accompanied by his half-brother, Ralph Rowzee, and together they patented lands, and also a half-brother, Edward Rowzee. Thomas and Nicholas Catlett, though coming over at the same time, did not patent lands until later, showing them to be minors. Thomas Catlett was witness in 1661, and Nicholas patents lands and records his mark for hogs in 1665. Col. John, Thomas and Nicholas are found associated closely in all the early records, and unless proven to the contrary it is reasonable to assume that both Thomas and Nicholas were sons by a deceased wife.

Col. John Catlett came to Virginia in 1650 and settled upon the banks of the Rappahannock river. He came from Sittingbourne parish (Kent county), England, and doubtless gave this name to his new church parish. As shown above, he was a man of great importance, if not of distinction. He was presiding justice, burgess, sheriff, colonel of militia, and of the vestry. He was one of three commissioners to settle the boundary line between Virginia and Maryland, with Edmund Scarborough and Richard Lawrence, the last a distinguished Oxford graduate. He seems to have been an expert surveyor, and the records of Maryland show much work done by him in that State.
Descendants of Col. John Catlett.

Descendants of Col. John Catlett, the Immigrant, and Wife, Elizabeth Underwood.

He was born before 1626, probably about 1622, and doubtless married in England before coming over, and had two sons, Thomas and Nicholas. He mar. (II) 1657, Elizabeth Underwood, widow of Col. Francis Slaughter, whom she mar. 1653, and by whom had one son, Francis Slaughter, Jr. After the death of Col. John she mar. (III), 1671, Rev. Amory Butler, d. 1678. Mrs. Butler d. 1673, and in her will mentions her four Catlett children.

Col. Catlett was killed by the Indians while defending the fort at Port Royal in 1670. Port Royal is on the Rappahannock river, in Caroline county, Va., opposite Port Conway. His children were:

(1) John, b. 1658, d. 1724.
(2) Elizabeth, b. 1663, d. 1710.
(3) Sarah, b. 1666, d. 1726.
(4) William, b. 1670, d. 1698.

to John Battaille for 300 acres of land, reciting that Col. John, in his last will and testament, did bequeath the said land, 300 acres, to his two daughters. (Essex Records.)

This, together with the reference to his will in Mrs. Butler’s will, shows that the immigrant, Col. John, made a will, though not found among Court Records.

His only child, Elizabeth, was born after death of her father, as noted in the will of her mother, probated in Essex co. 1710, mentioning son, Wm. Moseley, daughter, Mary Moseley, and daughter, Elizabeth Catlett, born after her father's death, to have her father's effects when 18 years old.

In 1688-9, will of Jno. Thompson, of Surry co., James River, gives to his sister, Elizabeth Catlett, wife of Wm. Catlett, £50.

Nothing further is known of this Elizabeth Catlett.

* In 1699-3, Wm. Catlett, having reached 21 years, will receive one-fourth of the money in hands of M. & J., London (Essex Records). (M. & J. above were initials of Mumford & Jeffries, large and wealthy merchants in London.)
Mrs. Elizabeth Catlett mar. (II) Wm. Moseley and died 1709, and left the following will:

Will of Elizabeth (Catlett) Moseley.

"1. Son Wm. Moseley, dau. Mary Moseley and dau. Elizabeth Catlett (born after death of her father) to have a ring that was her father’s and 3 silver spoons and my pearl necklace, to be delivered to her at age of 18. Dau. Mary a similar legacy. I give all my books not yet bequeathed to be equally divided between my three children. Sole Executor Bro. Samuel Thompson.

This Lawrence was oldest son of the 2nd John Catlett, who is usually referred to as "the 2nd John."

Descendants of Col. Jno. Catlett the Second.

John, known as the 2nd John, was the only son of Col. John Catlett and his wife, Elizabeth Underwood, to leave male issue. It is thought that this John married twice and that Lawrence, and perhaps Elizabeth, were by his first wife, who, it is believed, was a daughter of Major Lawrence Smith, of Bacon’s Rebellion. There are deeds recorded in Spotsylvania co. to Jno. Catlett, Jr., and Richd. Buckner, in 1722, from Augustine Smith, the son of Major Lawrence.

Jno. certainly married Elizabeth Gaines, daughter of Dan’l Gaines, who is believed to have married Miss Rowzie, half-sister of Col. Jno. Catlett the ingt., since Capt. Dan’l Gaines, in his will (Essex co.), Aug. 18, 1682, mentions wife "Margaret," and "orphans of Col. Jno. Catlett to be paid out of the negroes who belong to his estate," and calls Jno. Catlett "his kinsman," and directs that "children of Col. Jno. Catlett to remain with my wife until they come of age or until she married."

Again, in 1671, Mrs. Elizabeth Catlett, widow of Col. Jno., gave power of attorney to Mr. Dan’l Gaines, and also later made him "overseer of her will" and to have main charge of the children (1673). After a suit in May court, 1673, between Rev. Amory Butler (who married the widow of Col. John Catlett) and Capt. Thos. Hawkins, who married the sistr of Mrs. Jno. Catlett, Dan’l Gaines took charge of the Catlett children and Rev. Butler of the estate. (All from Essex Records.)

Col. John Catlett was burgess (1693-1702), and justice of the peace (1692), coroner (1700), president of court, sheriff (1705) for Essex co. He patented lands extensively in Spotsylvania co. and elsewhere. He gave power of attorney to John Mumford (June 16, 1701), of London, to sell all my lands at Sittingbourne, in Kent co., Eng., and at Radwischeim, which he inherited from his father. His will, dated 1724, is given below:

Issue.

Jany, 1724/5. (See above.) Subsequently there was a deed made to his widow “Alice” of slaves and signed by Jno. Catlett, Thos. Catlett of Essex, Francis Conway of Essex, Jno. Taliaferro of Spotsylvania, and Rowland Thornton of King George co. Witnesses: Jno. Catlett, Jr., Chas. Taliaferro, Jr., and John Battaille. (Essex Records.)

Francis Conway, b. 1748, d. 1794, and had Elizabeth, b. 1783, d. 1853, mar. 1802 Lawrence Catlett (See below). The above are believed to be by his first wife. By Elizabeth Gaines he had

(3) John,³ mar. (I) —Taliaferro, (II) Mary Grayson. (See below.)

(4) Thomas,³ mar. Martha ——. He died 1739 and his wife Martha administered upon his estate in Caroline co. He was sheriff of Essex co. 1716, J. P. in Caroline co. 1739, and patented a goodly quantity of lands. (See Thomas branch, below.)

³Mr. John Taliaferro was a frontiersman, as per his testimony given before the commissioners to settle the boundary between the Colony of Virginia and the royal grant by King James of the “Northern Neck” to Lord Culpepper, which had descended to Lord Fairfax, who had married his daughter. These commissioners were to determine the upper waters of the Rappahannock river. According to Col. Wm. Byrd, of Westover, one of the commissioners on the part of the Crown, as recorded by Rev. Phil. Slaughter in “History of St. Mark’s Parish,” page 25, the following is his testimony: “Jno. Taliaferro, Gentleman, aged forty-nine years, saith about the year 1707 he came to live where he now lives above Snow Creek, nine miles below the falls, and there were then but three settlements above his house on the south side of the river. He had been acquainted with the fork of the river above twenty-four years and that one of the forks was called South River until Governor Spotswood, above twenty years ago, named the south branch ‘Rapidan,’ and it has ever since been so called.” The final decision of the boundary gave Lord Fairfax the original county of Culpepper, now included in the present counties of Culpeper, Madison and Rappahannock. prob. 1759 in King George co. By first marriage were Catlett Conway, mentioned in Col. Catlett's will, and Eleanor Rose, b. 1732, mar. 1749. Col. (7) Margaret, to whom her father bequeathed his home-place, "Green Hill," and 1,800 acres on the freshes of the Rappahannock river, married late in life John Gibson, of Essex. It is said by the historian of the family, Wm. Fitzhugh Catlett, that the above legacies were left upon the condition that she remained unmarried. "She preferred matrimony to patrimony and forfeited her right to above."

Will of the second John Catlett, dated 18th November, 1724, and witnessed by John Elliott, John Evars and John Catlett, gives to his two sons, John and Thomas, and his daughter, Margaret, 1,800 acres in freshes of Rappahannock river, in the county of Essex.

(1) Child born dead.

(2) Elizabeth,⁵ b. Mar. 25, 1729, mar. — Johnson, who lived but a short time.

(3) Sarah, b. Jan. 15, 1731, d. April 18, 1732.

(4) John,⁵ b. Oct. 8, 1733, d. Dec. 9, 1789, mar. Elizabeth Thornberry. (See below for descendants.)

(5) Sarah, the second of this name, b. Sept. 8, 1735, d. Sept. 17, 1743.

Kemp Taliaferro was son of Charles, and his wife, Ann, dau. of Matthew Kemp, and grandson of Jno. Taliaferro, “the Ranger,” and his wife, Sarah, dau. of Major Lawrence Smith, of Bacon’s Rebellion. He was of vestry of St. Mark’s parish. For descendants, see below.

(7) Jonathan,⁵ b. Sept. 27, 1739, sells to his bro. Lawrence, in 1770, his part of a tract left to Lawrence, Jonathan, Thomas and George, surveyed and divided in 1764. In this deed he signs from King William co., joined by his wife, Elizabeth, and witnessed by Jno. Quarles, Wm. Aylett and Jno. Catlett (son of Thos.). Who was this Elizabeth, his wife, is not known, nor his descendants, but in King William Records lands and negroes are assessed to Samuel Jones Catlett from 1798 to 1810, to Jonathan Catlett from 1802 to 1810, and to Ann Catlett from 1805 to 1819. It is highly probable that these are descendants of Jonathan and suggests that his wife was a Jones, possibly daughter of Samuel Jones.
Miss Laura Lenoir Norwood, of Lenoir, N. C., in a letter seeking information relative to the Catlett family, says that in the olden days there were several intermarriages between the "Jones," of Orange co., Va., and the Catletts. It is highly probable that the wife of Jonathan was Elizabeth Jones. It is also probable that Sam'l Jones Catlett or Jonathan Catlett may be ancestor of the following and other Catletts now found in and around Richmond, since none are found to-day in King William county. The following are given, with others, in and around Richmond, unclassified:

Descendants of Wm. Samuel Catlett and First Wife, Elizabeth Beasley, of Spotsylvania County.

Booth of lands in Hanover Co. Nothing further is known of him.

(5) Probably "Frank," mentioned in Col. Frank Taylor's diary, as quoted by Rev. Philip Slaughter, D. D., in his history of St. Mark's parish, as one of the animated social circle which had its center at Orange Courthouse. This is the only occurrence of the name that we have found. There is a possibility of his being a son of either Benjamin, Reuben, or Wm., mar. Elizabeth Fitzhugh, 3 sons of the 3rd John, and his wife, Mary Grayson, for whom, as before mentioned, no descent has been found.

(6) John, of King William Co., d. 1802, mar. Mary M. Eggleston (living in 1820), sister of Richard Eggleston, whose mother is said to have been a Jackson. He was J. P. in 1788-93 with Benjamin Temple. In 1773 he advertised a horse taken from John Catlett's pasture in King and Queen Co., near Todd's Bridge, in the Virginia Gazette. Again, in same paper, John Catlett, of King William, in June, 1779, has a stray horse to be delivered either to himself or to Mr. Richard Eggleston, in James City Co. John Catlett, of King William, and Christopher Tompkins made, in 1787, commissioners to estimate damage done by the British at St. David's Point. Virginia Calendar, IV, 447. Issue:

(1) John, of Timberneck, b. 1760, d. 1808, will 3rd May, 1808—an eminent lawyer of King William and Gloucester counties. He bought in 1792 "Timberneck" (the old home of the Mann's and where is now the burying ground containing Mann tombs), from Gov. John Page, of "Rosewell," Mar., in 1780. Ann Walker, b. 1763, dau. of Charles, d. 1764, and his third wife, Lucy (Taliaferro) Carter, of "Cleve," King George Co., Va., and grand dau. of Robt. (King) Carter, and his second wife, Betty Landon. Lucy Taliaferro Carter mar. (II) 1766. Col. Wm. ("Horn") Jones, b. 1734, of Hanover Co., and soon after the Revolution bought "Marlfield," Gloucester Co., the old Buckner home, from Geo. Booth, of Poropotank, whose mother was Ann Buckner, dau. of Col. Thos. and Sarah (Morgan) Buckner, and there died in 1795.

(2) Richard, on tax list of King William Co. in 1788-1791, and believed to have died young and unmarried.

(3) Benjamin, who first appears on the tax rolls of King William Co., Va., in 1802, and continues to 1820, but is mentioned in later years as of King and Queen Co., Va., where he mar. Mary Gwathmey, whose grandfather was Benjamin Temple. Had issue; see below.

(4) Thomas Eggleston, mar. Ann Gwathmey, sister of Mary above, of King and Queen Co. He purchased “Barren Point,” in Gloucester Co., from Francis Thornton in 1794, where he died. Had issue; see below.

The following is the will of Jno. Catlett, of “Timberneck,” Gloucester Co., Va., made May 3, 1808, prob. July 4, 1808. It was re-recorded 6th March, 1821, after the burning of the clerk’s office in 1820, by which all records were destroyed:

"Imprimis: I give to my son Charles my Wilson Creek plantation, to him and his heirs forever, but if he should die without issue living at his death, then it is my wish that the said land should be sold by my executor hereinafter named upon such terms as he shall think proper and the money arising from such sale to be equally divided amongst my daughters living at the time of his death.

"Item.—To my son John Walker Carter the plantation on which I now live, which was purchased of John Page, also that part of said tract purchased of Dr. Marshall’s estate, to him and his heirs forever, but if my said son John Walker Carter should die without issue living at his death, then it is my will that my son Charles should have and possess the said tract of land on which I now live, to him and his heirs forever, and the land which I have given him above to be sold for the purposes aforesaid. It is my further will and desire that all my children should live with my son, or sons, in my said mansion house plantation so long as they remain single, but it is my intention that my son Charles, when he arrives at the age of twenty-one or marriage, shall take possession of his estate left him above, and not before, nor is he to be entitled to any part of the rents and profits until he is of age or marries, but the said rents and profits are to be for the benefit of all of my children until the arrival of that period. It is to be further understood that when my son Charles shall come to the enjoyment of his estate left him as aforesaid that then he is no longer to live in the mansion house except in the event of his being entitled to the said mansion house plantation by the death of my son John as aforesaid.

"Item.—I give to my dau. Hetty a mulatto girl called Sally Peters, to my dau. Sally a girl called Courtney, to my dau. Polly a girl called Evelina, to each of my other daughters a maid a piece to be chosen by them, but neither of them is to choose one older than those already given to my other daughters. It is my further wish that all the rest of my estate of what nature or kind soever, including that part of my father's estate which I shall be entitled to at the death of my mother, and the negroes which I shall be entitled to at the death of Mrs. Brooke, shall be equally divided amongst all of my children, but as I have advanced considerable sums of money and am now bound to pay other considerable sums of money for Bartholomew Yates, who hath intermarried with my dau. Sally, and as it is my wish that all of my daughters shall stand on equal footing, I desire that the amount of the money so paid or to be paid by me for the said Bartholomew Yates shall be upon the distribution of my estate deducted from my daughter Sally's portion. But if Bartholomew Yates should think proper to refund to my estate all the money which I shall have paid for him or shall pay himself any money which I was bound to pay, then it is to be understood that his portion is to be lessened only for the amount of money actually deficient. It is my express wish and desire that upon the allotment of my dau. Sally's portion my executor hereafter named shall secure the same to her and her issue by putting it in the power of trustees or otherwise, so as to prevent Bartholomew Yates, her husband, from selling or disposing of the same. It is my further wish that the whole of my estate be kept together for the benefit and maintenance of all of my children until my son Charles shall be of age or married, at which time I wish his portion allotted him, or if either of my daughters should marry, then I wish those so marrying to have their portion. My dau. Sally will be entitled to her portion immediately or at the end of the year, if Bartholomew Yates will pay and reimburse to my estate all the money which I shall have paid or my estate be bound to pay; then I wish him to live at my mansion house until my son John shall be of age or if John should die as aforesaid, and Charles should in that event be entitled to the said mansion house, then Bar. Yates shall have the liberty of living in said mansion house until Charles shall be of age, but it is to be understood that if the said Yates should live at the mansion house as aforesaid his portion of the negroes and other property is to remain to work on the said plantation for the benefit of all of my children. If the negroes or some one of them should behave himself or themselves very badly, I authorize my executor to sell and dispose of him or them as an example to the others. I do hereby nominate my friend William Jones my whole and sole executor so long as he lives, and if my estate at his death is not distributed among those who are entitled, then I appoint my brother George Catlett my whole and sole executor. I expressly wish and desire that as my children shall be entitled to an allotment of their portion respectively, my aforesaid friend Wm. Jones, with one or two other friends chosen by himself, shall make the said allotment without the interposition of a court of chancery.

"It is not my wish that my executor shall give any security for his executorship, nor do I wish any inventory or appraisement of my said estate to be made.

"In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal this 3rd day of May in the year of our Lord 1808.

"JOHN CATLETT. [Seal]

DESCENDANTS OF NICHOLAS AND SUSANNAH CATLETT.

Accompanying Col. Jno. Catlett, the immigrant, besides his half-brothers, Ralph and Edward Rowzie, were Nicholas and Thomas Catlett, believed to be the sons of Col. Jno. by his first wife (name unknown), who died before his emigration to Virginia in 1650. Nicholas was a headright of Col. Jno. Catlett and Ralph Rowzie in a patent of 400 acres of land on 23rd May, 1650, situated on south side of Rappahannock river. (Land Book 6, page 12.)

Nicholas patents, with Wm. Moseley, October, 1670, 646 acres and in 1672 1,750 acres, and in September, 1672, 1,200 acres, all on south side of Rappahannock river, and the last adjoining Capt. Booth's. (Land Books, Vol. 6, pages 320, 384 and 539.)

In 1669, with Col. John, Nicholas witnessed a deed in Essex Co. Nicholas and Susannah, his wife, on 28th March, 1668, sold one-half interest (i. e., 285 acres) of land, and in deed witnessed by Col. Jno. Catlett was signed:

SUSANNA X CATLETT.
NICHOLAS Q CATLETT.

Nicholas Catlett recorded, Feb. 2, 1665, his mark for his hogs in the Essex court, viz: Two crops and a slit in each ear and an undercut in the right ear (Essex Records).

Nicholas married before 1668 (as in that year they made the above deed). Susannah, believed to be the daughter of David Meriwether, son of Nicholas, the immigrant to Essex Co., who died Dec. 19, 1678. Nicholas Meriwether had five sons—Nicholas, Francis, David, Wm. and Thos., of whom Francis, with his wife, Mary Bathurst, made a deed to David, "son and only heir of Nicholas Catlett," on Aug. 10, 1696 (Essex Records).

A partial corroboration of the above is that Thomas, the son of David Meriwether, named his oldest daughter Susannah, probably after both his mother and sister.

Nicholas was dead before 1695, as in that year David Catlett ("planter") makes a deed, reciting that he was son and only heir of Nicholas Catlett.

In 1716, in a list of tithables in St. Mary's White Chapel (Major Ball's list), Mrs. Catlett is given with four.

In 1728 Wm. Catlett has a suit in Lancaster Co. with Wm. Auch. His name occurs again in 1731 (Lancaster Records). This Wm. and Mrs. Catlett, presumably son and mother, can, by the process of differentiation, be placed only as son and wife of David.
Descendants of Col. John Catlett.

In 1735-40 there lived in Lancaster Co. Geo. Neville, who came with his father from London and a Mr. Gibbs, of Scotland. A daughter of the latter married Geo. Neville, and the two families, being friends of Lord Fairfax, the latter induced the young couple to move to his lands in Fauquier Co. (Wm. Mauzy Buck’s Family M. S.).

From the frequent subsequent unions of the Catletts of Fauquier and Frederick counties with the Buck, Richardson, Calmes, Neville and Blakemore families, all of whom frequently intermarried, it is fair to presume that Wm. Catlett also went to Lord Fairfax’s domain and became the progenitor of the Catlett family in Shenandoah Valley. This is further suggested by finding his name, Wm. Catlett, as a witness with Marquis Calmes, to an old deed to Peter Catlett (his son?), now in my possession, to the “White Post” tract of land, Aug. 21, 1759. This deed, lent me by Mrs. Fannie Catlett Cravens, of Kansas City, Mo., is a long and curious document, as were all indentures of that date. Its location was “on south side of great road that goes by and from Col. Jno. Hite’s to Ashby’s Bend or Gap, * * * known by name of Dutch Wagon Road.” It was purchased “of the trustees appointed by act of Assembly for the sale of the estate of the late George Carter, Esq., dec’d, being Lott no nine and joining lands of Col. Landon Carter and Lord Fairfax—""Quit rents payable to our sovereign Lord the King.”

This is the “White Post” farm so long the home of the Catlett family in Frederick, and from which so many fledglings of this branch have flown to the West and South.

The constant recurrence of the names of David, Robt. and Peter in this branch, names almost unknown in the Eastern branches, gives emphasis to the belief that they are descendants of David.

Information relative to Thomas, who came with Col. John the immigrant, is very scarce and meagre. In 1661 he was a witness to a conveyance of Jno. Catlett and wife Elizabeth (Essex Records). In 1672 he patents 50 acres of land on west branch of Elizabeth river (Land Book VI, page 417).

In 1709 a Reuben Catlett enters a suit in Northumberland county and suit is dismissed (Northumberland Records). This Reuben must have been of age in this year 1709, and, if so, could not have been son of David, who, on his own deposition, was 21 years old in 1690. Again, in 1695, David Catlett (planter) makes a deed alone, no wife’s signature, to lands, reciting that he was the only son and heir of Nicholas Catlett (Essex Records). He was not, therefore, the father of Reuben. Again, all of the issue of Col. John and Elizabeth (Underwood) Catlett up to this time are fully accounted for. Therefore, Thomas only can be assigned as father of Reuben.
But this gives but little relief, since this is the only occurrence of Reuben in the records. The name of Reuben occurs much later in the children of John and Mary (Grayson) Catlett, but he, too, seems to have left no descent. Therefore, no known descendants of Thomas the immigrant can be found.

Presuming that William, the son of David, is the progenitor of all of the Catletts of the Shenandoah Valley, we will have:

Wm., of Lancaster, mar. and moved to valley about 1740-45, died about 1788, since he disappears about this time from the tax books of Frederick Co., where he had paid taxes on 500 acres for years. He is believed to be the father of John, of Fauquier, will 1778; of Peter, will 1785, prob. 1791; James, will 1797; and Robt., estate administered in 1804, all of Frederick Co. From the wills and the intermarriages of the four families, it is almost positive that these were all brothers.

In the Fauquier records occurs the will of Jno. Catlett, recorded 23rd March, 1778, in which he mentions “son John, one shilling; son Wm., 190 acres; son Alexander, 179 acres; to dau. Elizabeth, two negro boys, certain rents and other property; to dau. Jane Coppage, certain personalty; to dau. Barsheba Young, personal property; to granddau. Margaret Hume, personalty; to Mary Ann Hagan, Eliz-abeth Catlett, Jane Coppage, Barsheba Young, Isabell Summers and Frances Priest, residue of estate.”

On May 2, 1778, soon after recording of above will, Wm. and wife Lettice, and Alexander, of the county of Loudoun, and Susannah, his wife, convey to James Dowdell the above devised lands. (Fauquier Records.)

Of John, cut off with a shilling, we have found no records in Virginia. We find, in the History of the Scott Family, that Frances Ann, daughter of James Scott and Frances Collier, married (I) Renben Coleman, who died in 1796 in Georgia, and she married (II) Jno. Catlett, with no issue. She was doubtless his second wife.

In “Smith’s Story of Georgia,” lands were granted in 1767 in Burke Co., Ga., to Jno. Catlett. In 1774 the same author mentions that Jno. and Wm. Catlett sign with others a protest in Burke Co. against the Patriots or “Liberty Boys.”

These extracts from Smith’s book suggest that the John mentioned may have been the son of Jno. Catlett, whose will is given. We find further the will of Geo. Catlett in Chatham Co., Ga., in 1789, who was probably the Judge Catlett already alluded to as dying in Georgia without issue and his estate given to strangers, and Wm. Catlett on the jury in Montgomery Co., Ga., 1816. Wm. may be a descendant of the above Jno.

Frederick County Catletts.

Allusion has already been made to Wm. Catlett as probable father of John, of Fauquier, Peter, James and Robt., of Frederick County.

In Frederick Co. occur the following wills:

Book 5, page 303: Peter Catlett's will mentions wife Ann, nephew Henry, son of his bro. Robt.; nephew Jno. son of his bro. James; nephews Jno. and Peter, sons of his bro. Robt.; nephew Charles, son of his bro. James, and in a codicil changes a bequest to his nephew Jno., son of his bro. Robt., and he to pay to each of his five bros., Robt., David, Peter, Jesse and George, also to his cousin Chas. Catlett, son of his bro. James, etc., dated Sept. 22, 1785, prob. April 8, 1791.

Book 4, page 448: Peter Catlett's will mentions wife Mary, dau. Edy. Jas. Catlett, Jno. Bell and Polly Catlett, executors; Robt. and Henry Catlett, witnesses. Will dated April 3, 1778; recorded June 1, 1779. In the appraisement of his estate he is spoken of as Peter, Jr.

In the Jefferson Co., Ky., Records is a deed dated June 20, 1800, to lands, signed by John Catlett, Nath. McPherson and wife, Elizaboth, James Catlett, Charles Catlett and Jane Gosney, widow of Henry, and Ely Catlett, reciting that they are heirs and heiresses of James Catlett, deceased. In same records, on Aug. 1, 1801, Edith Catlett sells one-sixth part of 500 acres granted to James Catlett in 1785, grandfather of said Edith.

March 16, 1801, Charles Catlett and wife Catherine, of Frederick Co., Va., convey 500 acres given him by his deceased father James Catlett (Jefferson Co. Records).

In 1783, in Jefferson Co., Ky., occurs also an olographic will of Robt. Catlett, leaving his estate to his bro. Charles (Book 1, page 2). This Robt. was a son of James, whose will is given above.

Robt. Catlett seems not to have left a will. His estate is appraised and sales account rendered Jan. 2, 1804 (Frederick Records).

From the above it is fair to presume that William, who came from Lancaster to Frederick, some time about 1735-1750, and appears for the last time in tax book of Frederick Co. in 1788 for 500 acres, had four sons, viz:

(1) John, of Farquier, will 1778, whose descendents are given beneath.

(2) James, mar. Jane ——. He had deed to land in Frederick Co., 1753, and was in a poll for Geo. Washington in Frederick Co. in 1758. Will given about 1797, and had issue.

(3) Peter, Mar. Ann Calmes, dau. of Marquis Calmes, b. 1705,
Descendants of Col. John Catlett.

d. 1773, mar., 1725, Winnifred Waller, b. 1709, d. Oct. 6, 1857. No issue. He bought "White Post" farm in 1759 (see deed above), and at his death bequeathed it to his nephew, Henry Catlett (son of Robt.), who mar. Miriam Calmes, the niece of Ann Calmes above. Peter's will, 1785, given above, mentions the sons of his two bros., Robt. and James.

(4) Robt., b. 1721, d. Feb. 26, 1803, mar. Mary Floyd, living in 1816, and had numerous issue. He left no will, but his estate was administered 1804 (Frederick Co. Records, Book 7, page 191).

Before giving descendants of above it is well to insert here the following marriages, taken from Frederick Co. Records:

Marquis Calmes Richardson and Henrietta Catlett, married by Alexander Bahlmain, Feb. 19, 1789.

Jesse Catlett and Ruth Banham, by Elisha Phelps, Feb. 9, 1792.

Joseph Catlett and Nancy Allensworth, by Wm. Williamson, Jan. 6, 1801.

William Catlett and Lucy Ashby, by Wm. F. P. Davis, Nov. 30, 1803.

Jno. Campbell and Dorotha Catlett, by Wm. Hill, March 10, 1803.

Peter Senseny and Louisa Catlett, by Sam'l O. Henderson, Nov. 22, 1808.

Horatio Catlett and Mary Ann Catlett, by Wm. Hill, Dec. 22, 1809.

James Allensworth and Eliza Catlett, by Wm. Northern, Jan. 16, 1810.

Adam Hamburgh and Matilda Catlett, by Wm. Northern, Feb. 3, 1813.

Here, too, may be entered records from several Family Bibles. It appears that John Catlett, who married Allie T. King, kept a most complete family record, which has been copied by several of his descendants.

His grandson, Jno. Allensworth Catlett, before emigrating to the West, copied this record and carried it with him, and a copy is now furnished by his grandson, John Asabel Catlett, of Clarks-ville, Tenn., who writes:

"While out at the old Allensworth graveyard I was shown the place where my great-great-grandfather was buried, and along the creek, Little West Fork, the place where he first settled in 1783 and built his mill, blacksmith shop and still. Just above the old mill-dam they showed me a tree—beechnut—that has just died, carved with my grandfather's initials, J. A. C., on the day he came there from Virginia (July 27, 1823). My father carved his initials on it just fifty years later (July 31, 1873). It is wonderful that the initials and date should have lasted, but it is clear even now that the tree has died, and seems to be the only record that our family has been able to keep for that length of time."

The writer of the above is a descendant of Joseph King Catlett, d. 1802, and Nancy Allensworth, d. 1802, leaving a son, John Allensworth Catlett, b. 1801. The father or grandfather of Nancy Allensworth settled in Kentucky in 1785, and it seems that John Allensworth followed him in 1823.

The record from this same original Bible of Jno. Catlett has been sent to me by Mr. Grandison Catlett, of Bucktown, Va., who is a grandson of Jno. and Allie T. King Catlett, through his youngest son, John, b. 1797, d. 1873. The following are the records:

"Robt. Catlett, my father, departed this life Feb. 26, 1803, 2:30 o'clock, age 82 years.
"Peter D. Catlett died Feb. 25, 1871.

Their children were:

Nancy Catlett, b. May 17, 1776.
Elijah Catlett, b. Dec. 23, 1777.
Joseph King Catlett, b. Nov. 3, 1779, d. Feb. 26, 1802.
Amelia F. Catlett, b. Feb. 21, 1784, d. April 30, 1802.
Louisa Catlett, b. Nov. 7, 1787.
Mary F. Catlett, b. Dec. 24, 1789.
Patsy D. Catlett, b. March 26, 1792, d. Feb. 26, 1871.
John Catlett, b. March 27, 1797, d. May 24, 1873.

All born in Frederick County, Va.

The following marriages are recorded:

Joseph King Catlett, d. 1802, and Nancy Allensworth, d 1802, Jan. 6, 1801.
Nancy Catlett and Spencer Lehue, June 10, 1802.

Patsy D. Catlett, d. 1871, and Alexander Catlett, Jr., Aug. 26, 1813.
Elijah Catlett and Peggy Sperry, Feb. 18, 1816.
Jno. Catlett and Cornelia T. Catlett, Dec. 8, 1825.
The following also occurs in Mr. J. A. Catlett's Bible:

"John Allensworth Catlett (son of Joseph King, d. Feb. 26, 1802, and Nancy (Allensworth) Catlett, d. April 7, 1802), born Sunday, Nov. 1, 1801, in Frederick Co., Va..

Addison Cyrus Catlett, b. Aug. 3, 1853, mar. Maria Leavill, April 29, 1903.
DESCENDANTS OF JNO. 4 (WM. 3 DAVID, 2 NICHOLAS) OF FAUQUIER WERE, ACCORDING TO HIS WILL, DATED MARCH 23, 1778:

(1) Jno., 5 cut off with a shilling, believed to have gone to Ga.
(2) William, 6 mar. Lettice Lee (?). (See below.)
(3) Alexander, 5 mar. Susannah Hanson (?) and had numerous descent. (See below.)
(4) Jane, mar. —— Coppage.
(5) Barsheba, mar. —— Young.
(6) A dau., mar. —— Hume and had Margaret.
(7) Mary Ann, mar. —— Hagan.
(8) Elizabeth Catlett.
(9) Isabell, mar. —— Summers.
(10) Frances, mar. —— Priest.

(1) Of the above, as already mentioned, John is believed to have gone to Georgia and entered lands in Burke Co. in 1767. There may be numerous descendants of this John now living in Georgia, but the writer has failed to find them. There are, however, traditions in several branches now residing in Arkansas and Illinois which point strongly to this John as an ancestor.

(2) William, to whom a legacy of land was left by his father, sold the same immediately after receiving it, to James Dowdall, and this deed is signed by his wife, Lettice ——. His brother Alex, who received a similar tract, sells it at same time to the same James Dowdall, and is joined by his wife, Susannah Hanson. Since Arthur Lee married Charity Hanson and had a niece, Lettice, daughter of Philip Lee, and his wife, Bridget, of Maryland, who is unaccounted for in “Lee of Virginia,” and with this branch of the Lee family in this book is given an “Excursus of the Hanson Family” (page 153), it has been suggested that the wife of Wm. Catlett was Lettice Lee. This suggestion is further emphasized by the peculiarity of the name “Lettice” in the Lee family after the marriage of Richard Lee and Letitia Corbin (about 1674).

Again, Thos. Lee, Sr., and wife, Mildred Corbin (Washington), lived in this section and made sales of land to several members of the Catlett family. These, however, are mere suggestions, and leave the surname of Lettice still in the domain of conjecture.

By this marriage there was only one child, John, b. 1776, and William mar. (II) Miss Miller. This son John kept an accurate age-book, which has preserved a record of the births and marriages of this branch, which has been kindly copied by Mr. Denver E. Catlett, of Okonoko, W. Va., and are herewith reproduced.

Descendants of Alexander and Susannah Hanson Catlett, Son of John, of Fauquier. Will 1778.

He seems to have been a prosperous man. In 1776 he is a citizen of Prince William County, Va., and published in the Virginia Gazette "one Chas. Adams, who sold him a negro woman whom he knew to be a lunatic." In 1778, as the deed given above shows, he was a citizen of Loudoun County, Va., In 1790 the census of Maryland places him in Montgomery County, Md., with two white males over sixteen years, and six white males under sixteen years, and two Descendants of Col. John Catlett.

white females. He probably had at this time seven sons and one daughter besides himself and wife.

In the early part of the nineteenth century he settled at the mouth of the "Big Sandy River" in Kentucky and gave the name of Catlettsburg to the now thriving city built upon his lands on the Ohio River, as the following will show. He seems not to have left a will, as in June, 1823, at a court held in Greenup County, Ky., Horatio Catlett obtained letters of administration on the estate of Alexander Catlett, Sr., and appraisers were appointed that made their final report on the 23rd January, 1824, and ordered recorded.
Alex. Catlett was appointed commissioner of revenue taxes by the county court of Greenup, Ky., Feb. 24, 1805 (County Records).

Extract From Ely's History of the Big Sandy River.

"The Catletts

were Virginians. Sawny, the father of Horatio, came with his family to the 'mouth' early in the century. He brought negro slaves with him and was a well-to-do man. The creek running through the town of Catlettsburg bears the Catlett name, in addition to the name of the live, busy mart of trade often called the 'Gate City'—the only monuments commemorating the once proud family.

"Sawny Catlett's bones lie buried in the old Catlett burying ground near the barn of Col. L. T. Moore. His son Horatio was the first prominent hotel-keeper at the 'mouth.' He was also a merchant, postmaster, farmer, ferryman and general trader. A line of stages ran through the place from Lexington, Ky., to Charleston, Va., in early times, and Mr. Catlett had the honor of entertaining such notable personages as Gen. Jackson, Henry Clay and Felix Grundy. While the 'Catlett House' was only a plain log building, the splendid menu spread for its guests, with the charming loveliness of the ladies of the household, made it a hostelry far in advance of its day. Several of the present matrons, who were young misses in the days of the Catletts, tell us that the Misses Catlett were the most charming and lovely maidens they ever knew.

"As the outgoes of the Catletts were greater than their income, they got badly in debt, and to extricate themselves they sent away one by one of their numerous slaves, and then followed on after them to the west of the Mississippi, hoping, no doubt, to raise enough money by the sale of the negroes to lift the mortgage from the Catlett estate at the 'mouth.' But, like nearly all such cases, the scheme failed.

"Fry and Lester, who inherited from Wilson, the mortgagee, the title to the property, as the mortgage had been closed, came upon the scene. In 1849, being in sore need of ready cash, he laid off the town of Catletts-burg, from Catlett’s street to Division Creek, and in less than two years sold the remainder to a syndicate consisting of John Culver, Wm. Hampton (grandfather of Geo. Shortbridge Hampton, who later married Ann P. Catlett), who in 1857 laid out that part of the town which lies above Division street. In 1847 Horatio Catlett returned to the ‘mouth.’ Hearing before he came that the valuable property was about passing from his ownership caused his rage to boil over on reaching the hotel, and he died so suddenly that an autopsy was deemed necessary. * * * His remains are interred by the side of his father and two of his daughters. The death of Horatio Catlett ended the Catlett dynasty at the ‘mouth.’ They will long be remembered as giving their name to the creek running through the town and to the town itself.”

From the census of 1790 it was inferred that Alexander had seven sons and one daughter. All cannot be accounted for. The following children only are given:

(1) Dr. Hanson, of Kentucky, a surgeon in the U. S. Army. His record, given by Heitman is: Surgeon’s mate, 26th March, 1804, resigned 23rd November, 1804; surgeon 1st Infantry, Feb. 18, 1813; post surgeon, 1816; asst. surgeon, 1821. Died 21st October, 1824. He married Minerva Lyon, dau. of Hon. Matthew Ly on, M. C., from Vermont and Kentucky. He was second to Charles Dickerson in his duel with Gen. Andrew Jackson. There was passed by Congress “An act for the relief of the representatives of Dr. Hanson Catlett, late of the U. S. Army,” approved Feb. 24, 1832 (6 U. S. Statutes at L.). Dr. Hanson Catlett had issue:

(a) Albert Gallatin, his only son, named for the great statesman, who was a close personal friend of Dr. Catlett, was born at Old Fort Belle Fountain, Mo., Nov. 26, 1818, mar. Oct. 29, 1835, at Wellsville, Ohio, Catherine Ann Aten. He was in wholesale grocery business in Pittsburg, Pa., and afterwards in same business in Wellsville, Ohio, where he died March 14, 1848. Issue:

* John Chadwick married a daughter of Col. Shortridge, sister to the mother of Geo. Shortridge Hampton, who married Ann Catlett Hepburn, 1915; (b) Fred Wayne, b. Feb. 10, 1882, mar. Florence Chase, of Cambridge, Mass., and is an attorney at law and professor in Washington University, Seattle, Wash., and has two children: Dorothea Lucille, b. May 12, 1910, and Fred Wayne, b. Jan., 1914.

(b) Ann Fairfax mar. (I) Dr. James S. Hepburn, surgeon U. S. Army, and died 1833 in New Orleans, La., where he went to aid in the suppression of the cholera epidemic. Issue, several children, of whom only two reached maturity, viz:

I. Frances, b. 1822, d. 1914, in Washington, D. C. She was a woman of great intelligence, and her extensive acquaintance with public men gave her a fund of valuable information. She furnished indirectly some of the material of this branch of the family.

II. Hon. Wm. Peters, b. Nov. 4, 1833, in Wellsville, Ohio, moved to Iowa with his mother and step-father in 1841, and died at Clarinda, Iowa, Feb. 7, 1916. He was a lawyer of eminence, a soldier of distinction, being captain, major and lieutenant colonel of the Second Iowa Cavalry in the Civil War; member of Congress from Iowa in 47th, 48th, 49th, 53rd, 54th, 56th, 57th and 58th Congresses as a Republican. Col. Peters mar. Melvina A. Morseman, Oct. 7, 1855, and had issue four children: (a) Edith, mar. W. F. Thummill; (b) Frank, died and buried in Clarinda, Iowa; (c) Margaret, mar. R. H. Chamberlain and has Hepburn, of Bayonne, N. J.; (d) Capt. Chas. B. Hepburn, mar. ——— ———, and has a son, Hal, of Oakland, Cal.

Since the above was written Col. Hepburn has died, Feb. 7, 1916, at his home in Clarinda, Iowa, and the Journal, of that city, has a lengthy tribute to his memory. The church, the bar and the Masons aided his fellow-citizens in paying merited tribute at his large funeral exercises. His career was intimately connected with public service in the State and United States. He was the author of many public acts, which bear his name, passed by Congress. Ex-President Roosevelt has said the first session of the 59th Congress would ever be memorable because of the constructive legislation, and named five acts that gave it renown. Four of these acts came from the committees over which Col. Hepburn presided and three of these four bills he introduced.

After the death of Dr. Hepburn his wife, Ann Fairfax Catlett, mar. (II) Geo. Shortridge Hampton, son of Wm. Hampton and his wife, Malinda Shortridge, of Kentucky, b. 1806, d. 1876. They moved to Iowa in 1841. He was a lawyer, and during the Civil War served with distinction on the staff of Gen. Rosecrans.

"Col. Geo. Shortridge, his maternal grandfather, was a brave officer of the Revolution and settled in Kentucky, three miles above Catlettsburg. The Shortridge family impressed their mental and physical vigor upon their descendants, and the Hamptons got much of their dash and energy from the Shortridge house." VI. Son; no issue.

Mrs. Fannie Catlett Cravens is still living in Kansas City and she and her daughter, Mrs. Carter, have kindly furnished much information relative to their branch of the Catlett family.

(b) Hanson, died in California. There is a Hanson George Catlett given as captain and assistant quartermaster in Mexican War, 1847-8, by Heitman, but Mrs. Cravens says this Hanson lived at home in Missouri until he went to California in the gold fever of 1849, where he died unmarried.

Descendants of Col. John Catlett.

He moved to Austin, Texas, where he was living in 1836. The above facts are all that is known of him.

(5) Grandison is given by Mrs. Fannie Catlett Cravens, of Kansas City, Mo., as one of the brothers of her grandfather, Horatio, and Mr. Grandison Catlett, of Buckton, Va., writes that he was named for him at the request of Mr. Alexander Catlett, Jr., brother of Grandison, who married his aunt, Patsy D. Catlett, daughter of John and Allie T. (King) Catlett. “He died when I was very young and I know nothing of him.” It is believed he died unmarried.

(8) Thomas, mar., Jan. 26, 1808, by Rev. Wm. Hill, Polly Payles, as recorded in Frederick County Records, is believed to be a son of Alex and Susannah Catlett. All the sons of the other available Catletts at this time have been fully accounted for. There is a John Catlett, who went early in life to Jessamine Co., Ky. (perhaps attracted thither by his uncle James, who had previously moved there), and is the ancestor of a large progeny in Kentucky and elsewhere, who may be a son of this couple. (See page ——.) There may also be other descendants; if, so, they moved away early in life from Frederick Co., Va., since these records give no further mention of either Thomas or his possible children.

(9) Elisha is given by the Hon. Brice W. Catlett as the father of his grandfather, Alexander Catlett, and Mrs. Fannie Catlett Cravens, of Kentucky, says that her grandfather had a brother by the name of Elisha that lived and died in Virginia; therefore Elisha and his descendants are placed here. A further corroboration is the fact that Mr. Bailey Catlett named his first son Elisha. Elisha mar. —— ————, and had:

Alexander, mar. Mrs. Williams, perhaps néé Bailey, with children, some of whom afterwards lived in Sedalia, Mo., and had issue:

(1) Bailey, mar. Elizabeth Huff, of Hampshire Co., Va. He went West before the Civil War. leaving his family in West Virginia. Issue: (a) Elisha, mar. (I) —— Hardy, mar. (II) ————; (b) Harrison, mar. (10) James. For several years Mrs. Gross R. Scruggs, of Dallas, Texas, has sought energetically to locate her ancestors, James Catlett and wife, Mary Yates. This couple left only two daughters, one of whom, Catherine, married Thos. Butler, and the other, Evelina, married Edward Mason, Jr. Her persistent efforts finally located them in Jessamine Co., Ky., where she obtained the following will, which is given as copied by the present clerk of the court. This will, dated Nov. 1, 1820, prob. December court, 1820, makes James, the son of Alexander and Susannah Catlett, since two of the brothers mentioned, Hanson and Alexander, Jr., are known to be the sons of this couple. Of William we have no data, nor of his sister, Nancy Bailey, who receives only a life interest in the lands given her, hence the presumption that she had no children. The following is the will:

Elizabeth Yates Catlett, after the death of James Catlett, mar. (II) — Dillon, and died in 1839.

James and Mary Yates Catlett moved to Jessamine Co., Ky., in 1817, evidently from Virginia, as is shown by the debts due him in that State. His son-in-law, Thos. This William married — Morse and had Nancy Morse, Vincent Morse, Charles Thomas and Matilda. James Catlett bought his first tract of lands in Jessamine Co., Ky., Jan. 17, 1818, and Thos. He married, Jan. 22, 1777, Rachel Rosett, according to Fauquier Records, as interpreted by the clerk, but the prevalence of a prominent family at this time in this county by the name of Rosell suggests that her name may have been Rachel “Rosell.” She is assessed as the widow of John of Blue Ridge on 100 acres of land in Manassas Gap as late as 1824. He seems to have named his two sons after his two brothers, who died early in life. Issue:

James, Jr., so called in his father's will, may have served in the Revolution, as a James Catlett was a member of the 2nd Va. Regt., in 1777, in Capt. Jno. Willis' company, Col. Alexander Spotswood, colonel commanding (War Records). He qualifies in 1798 on his father's estate and continues a taxpayer in Frederick Co. until 1806, when his lands are assessed to "James' heirs." It is thought that he left no issue.

Peter, Jr., will recorded June 1, 1779, mar. Polly Bell and had a daughter, Edith, mentioned in the wills of her father and grandfather, and also sells her interest in lands left by her grandfather in Jefferson Co., Ky. Nothing further is known.

In 1829 Lewis Ashby Catlett and wife Eliza Ann; Mildred Catlett, the wife of Mandy Oliver, and Alfred Ashby Catlett, all of Frederick Co., Va., sell to their uncle, Buckner Ashby, all of their right to their deceased mother's, Lucy L. Ashby, as one of the heirs of Lewis Ashby, in lands in Jefferson Co. Ky. (Book D B, Jefferson Co. Records, page 242.)

We have no information of the descendants of any of the above.

“I constitute my wife Susan Catlett extrix. and bequeath my whole estate to her during life, after her death to our connections that are the most worthy and attentive to her interests.

“Item—1000 acres in Muhlenburg Co., also my farm in Boone Co. on the Ohio, those lands I wish sold for the best price and the money put at interest for her support. Home and silver to her, also negroes, bonds and notes, and my wife, if it suits her, to leave what remains at her death to Caleb and Elizabeth White, formerly Elizabeth Catlett (dau. of Roht. and Elizabeth (Farrow) Catlett).

“Jno. N. Taliaferro, Clerk.”

His widow must have spent quickly what was left her, since she makes the following application for pension:

“Susan Catlett made oath 27th March, 1834, that she married Peter Catlett 1795, whom she had met after the Revolution in 1793, He died July, 1831, when she had just returned from a visit to relatives in N. Y. and he from a visit to Va. She was 55 years old in 1831. He died in Covington, Campbell Co., Ky., July, 1831, without issue, and she was now destitute and far from her relatives and dependent upon strangers for a home. Sworn to before me.

“Rd. M. White, J. P.”

There is no evidence that pension was ever paid.

"Dear Bro.—I arrived here this evening. Have promise a boat to start to-morrow down the river. My family are all well and have got out safe—much more cheerfully than I expected. There is three familys going down the river with me—one from the city of Washington, a very gentlemanly man with his family, who had been clerk in the war office for several years. Chas. Smith is going on with his family to the mouth of Sandy to take possession of his property there as he says,—I shall expect you to write me frequently to Hopkinsville. My love to our old mother and hope she may be reconciled to my leaving her in her old age, as necessity was the cause. Should she want a winter gown, please to get her a good one on my account, as I hope you may have supply in your hands. I am scarcely any time to write but have never neglected any opportunity to embrace in writing to you. My family joins me in love to you and family and all enquiring friends—not forgetting my respects to my old and worthy friend Mr. Funsten.

OTHER CATLETTS.

In the census of North Carolina for 1790 there occurs, in the Halifax District, Franklin county, the name of Laborne Catlett, with one white male over 16 years of age, one white male under 16 and one white female.

In the census of South Carolina for 1790 one finds in the Cheraw District the name of John Catlett with one white male over 16 years of age, one white male under 16, and four white females.

Allusion has already been made to a John Catlett who patented lands in Burke county, Ga., in 1767, and in 1774 John and Wm. Catlett protesting against action of the "Liberty Boys" in the same county. Again, a John Catlett matriculated in the University of Pennsylvania in 1779 and graduated in 1782, and recently information has been sought by the authorities of that institution as to whether he was from Virginia or Kentucky. Up to this date no member of the Catlett family is recorded as having gone to Kentucky, and yet there is no record of such a student from Virginia. Is it possible that he was the son of the John who was in Burke county, Ga., in 1767?

It is difficult to place all of the above without assuming more descendants of David and Elizabeth Catlett, or of Thomas Catlett, the minor son of the immigrant, yet careful examination of all the early records fails to throw any light on this subject.

There is a large family in Georgia, Arkansas and Mississippi, that have records showing descent from a John Catlett, of Greenville District, S. C. The legend goes that Wm. and John, sons of John, left orphans early in life, were adopted by two men, who subsequently "fell out," and John's "boss" took him to Kentucky, from whom probably descends Jasper L. Catlett, of Vincennes, Ind. (which see).

After Wm. was grown he moved to Jackson county, Ga., where he married Olivia N———. About 1825 they moved to Walker county, Ga., and settled near Pidgeon Mt. and opened up a road across the mountain in the direction of Lookout Mountain, now called "Catlett's Gap."

William died in 1856. They had nine children, viz:

(1) Wm., d. ?2 years old in Walker Co., Ga., leaving five sons and two daughters, whose descendants are living, mainly in Logan Co., Ark., viz (a) Berry, d., mar. ——— ———; (b) Calvin, d., mar. ——— ———; (c) Washington, mar. ——— Morgan and had Lance, Reuben, Martha and Mary; (d) Lance mar ——— Fuller; (e) Posey, mar. ——— Fuller; (f) Frances, mar. Reuben
Satterfield and had two children; (g) Margaret, mar. — — — — — and has a son and daughter, both having families.

(2) Alsey, mar. — — — — — and moved from Jackson Co., Ga., to La. and lived near Clinton (according to Gen'l Howell Carter, who knew him when a boy), and had Mary, mar — — Coon and Susan, mar. Noah Whittington, a sugar planter near Baton Rouge.

(3) Ezekiel, mar. twice, the second time during the Civil War, and died after the war near Artesia, Miss., leaving three children.

(4) Clark, d. in Jackson Co., Ga., and left John and Benjamin, who moved to Marshall, Texas, where they now live.

(5) Dr. and Col. John, b. May 15, 1800, d. 1886. (See below.)

Rev. Wm. A. Catlett, above, was b. 1844, in Walker Co., Ga., mar. there in 1869, Sarah N. Wallin, and later moved to Cross Co., Ark. He was for some time a minister in the Methodist church, but changed to the Cumberland Presbyterian faith and is now a minister in this church. He lives at Wynne, Ark., and has kindly furnished me with this incomplete and unsatisfactory account of his branch.
They have issue: John Monroe, mar. Martha Woods and has Hettie Bell, mar. —- Garnett, of Paragould, Ark., and has two children, James G. L., mar. Nora White and has Wm. Lawrence and Lucile; Richard, mar. Mollie Thompson and has one child; Jessie, mar. Helen Hamsen and has Theodosia, Mabel, Frederick, Cora, Loie and Ida Lee; Wm. H., d. y.

Dr. and Col. John, above, had 18 children, 64 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren. He was a practicing physician of Walker Co., Ga., until late in life, when he removed to Arkansas, where he died. He was appointed colonel commanding the forces which transferred the Cherokees from North Georgia to Indian Territory.

AN INDIANA BRANCH.

The following extract from the letter of Mr. Jasper L. Catlett, of Vincennes, Ind., does not fully coincide with the facts given above, but shows a similar origin of his branch and an entire ignorance of his grandfather. It is, therefore, uncertain whether his father came from this same branch. The occurrence of the unusual name of Jasper in both branches may be suggestive of similar origin:

"Wm. C. Stubbs, New Orleans, La.

"Dear Sir—My father’s people originally came from Virginia to Kentucky or Tennessee, and his father died, when he was an infant, in one of these States. His mother came North to this city with him and he was taken and raised by a man by the name of Timms, and practically spent his entire life near this city. After becoming of age he learned the blacksmith trade and followed it for 30 or 35 years, and then went to farming on a farm in Illinois, which we still own.

"He was born in 1820, and was about 60 years old when he died. There are four of us children—Jasper L., Harlen, Emma and John. I was born in 1860

"As for grandparents on my father’s side, I have no trace of them, as I said before he was only a small child when his father died.

"Hoping to hear from you, I am, Yours truly,

"J. L. CATLETT."

Dr. H. D. Catlett, of West Monroe, La., has given the following imperfect account of his branch, with the request that I write his mother for fuller information. Several letters addressed to his mother have failed to elicit a response, hence this incomplete account is given.

His grandparents were William Catlett and Louisa Culpepper, with many children, among them his father, Wm. Simson Catlett, mar. Beatrice J. Bland and live at Toomsuba, Miss. Issue: (a) Theodosia, mar. J. H. Sims, of Meridian, Miss.; (b) Irene, mar. —— Harden; (c) Wm. C. Catlett, of Toomsuba, Miss.; (d) S. L. Catlett, of Kewnee, Miss.; (e) Dr. H. D. Catlett, of West Monroe, La., mar. by Rev. W. P. Tardy, Mrs. Emma K., widow of A. H. Griffin, of Monroe, La., and has Beatrice A., Kathleen, dy y.; Henrietta, McVea, Royster, d. y., and Carrie Catlett.

John, of Jessamine County, Ky.—early in the history of Kentucky a John Catlett went from Virginia to Jessamine County, Ky. His descendants are numerous and scattered throughout Kentucky. Mr. John L. Catlett, of Coburg, Ky., who has recently lost his wife, leaving him six young children, says he is the son of James, who had, besides himself, four sons and five daughters; that James was the son of Charles and grandson of John, the immigrant, to Jessamine county, Ky. He says that this John had also five sons and five daughters. Among those whose names he recalls, besides his grandfather Charles, are Washington, died in Kentucky; Richard, went to Illinois, and Eliza and Betsy, of the daughters.

He refers me to Geo. Catlett, of Washington county, Ky., as one of the descendants of John who could give fuller information, but letters to him are still unanswered.

The names of Charles and James suggest descent from Charles, of Frederick county, Va., the son of James, who early patented lands in Jefferson county, Ky., which were sold after his death by his son Charles and other children.

Mr. Wm. B. Catlett, of Inverness, Miss., writes as follows:

"I am sorry to say that I know nothing of my father's people. He married my mother, Julia Bradley, in Franklin county, Miss., about 1869. They only had two children—myself and a little girl, who lived only a few months. My mother died when I was about three years old, after which my father and I made our home with my mother's relatives. My father died in 1882, when I was only eleven years old. I don't remember ever hearing him speak of his early life, but I think now that there must have been some reason why he never talked of the past. He was very quiet and reserved.

* * * I have pictures of him and specimens of his handwriting. My father's name was Robert C. Catlett. I would be very glad if I could trace his ancestry back, and if you can give any information I would appreciate it very much. Please let me hear from you at once. Yours truly, W. B. CATLETT."

Mr. Catlett has a son, Robert, who lives with him. No definite information has been secured of Mr. Catlett's ancestry.
THE FOLLOWING CATLETTS HAVE NOT BEEN PlACED:

Robt. Catlett, of London, Sevier county, Tenn., to whom letters addressed have been unanswered.

In the Louisville, Ky., City Directory the following names occur, but letters to each have failed to elicit further information:

Henry D. Catlett, manager, r. 3005 Grand avenue.
Jno. E. Catlett, r. 1013 S. Floyd street.
Van R. Catlett, r. 1463 Hazel street.

It is extremely annoying to know that there are members of this family who could throw much light upon their branches, and thus aid in completing a record of this large family, who will not respond to repeated inquiries for information.

Therefore the writer closes this pamphlet, which he has spent many years in preparing, with much regret at its incompleteness; but, in justice to so many of its members who have freely given full information, he cannot longer withhold it from publication.

It is, therefore, presented to the Catlett Family with many thanks and many regrets.
Descendants of Col. John Catlett.

He patented, in 1650, with John Catlett, 400 acres on south side of Rappahannock, of one-half of which Col. October, 1725, John Grayson, Jr., witnessed, with John Catlett, William Taliaferro and Francis Slaughter, a deed of Augustine Smith to Jonathan Gibson, Jr., gent., of Essex Co., 400 acres in Spotsylvania, for £400. In 1729 he was lieutenant in Capt. William Hansford’s company.

In 1727 Ambrose Grayson, probably brother of John, patented 100 acres in Spotsylvania. Calmes—Note.

Col. William Burwell, of Gloucester Co., owned several thousand acres in Frederick Co. (in what is now Clarke Co.). He met at Williamsburg (the capital of Va.) a Huguenot gentleman, Marquis Calmes, with whom he was so pleased he induced him to settle upon a fine tract on the Shenandoah, three miles east of Millwood, joining his lands. This tract Marquis Calmes called the "Vineyard Plantation" and planted the first vineyard in the valley. He had a numerous family. Many went South and West. Near them was settled another French family by name of Marquis, whose descendants were also numerous in the valley, as the tax books attest.

GENEALOGICAL COLUMN

BEGINNING SUNDAY, MAY 10, 1910, AND NOW REPUBLISHED, WITH ADDITIONS,

1918
"Mrs. William Carter Stubbs has for many years actually spent her summers among Virginia records, and she has sent us such a scientific study of the Baytop family that we are sure we are giving a "bonne bouche" to all genealogists when we print it just as Mrs. Stubbs sent it to us. This genealogy contains so much data concerning the Booths, Taliaferros, Catletts, Stubbses and many other families (besides the Baytops) that we are confident that a host of people will be glad to read it.

"This genealogy opens up wide family connections in Virginia. Many of its descendants have been distinguished in the South, notably in the Scott and McGehee families. It also answers many queries lately made in the Times-Dispatch. It places for the first time Philip Taliaferro, who married Sarah Baytop, in his right place. There are various notes concerning the allied families, and, as the network of families unwinds, so much material becomes plain which heretofore has been inexplicable, and gleams of information dart from the mass of faithful research."

THE BAYTOP FAMILY.

Thomas¹ Baytop and his wife, ——— Pell, were living in County Kent, England, in 1638, when she was left a legacy in the will of her great-uncle, Smallhope Bigges, of “Cranbrooke,” County Kent, England, who mentions “My cousin (nephew) Pell’s children, viz: John, Elizabeth, Richard and Thomas Baytop’s wife.” John Bigges (brother of Smallhope Bigges), in his will, 1640, mentions “Elizabeth Pell living with me, and my Cousin Baytop’s wife, of ‘Tenterden.’” (For these two Bigges’ wills see “Water’s Genealogical Gleanings in England.”)

Note.—Of these, John Pell became a “citizen and cooper of London,” and married Hannah Thorpe, “niece and heir-at-law of Otho Thorpe, merchant, of London,” and of that Thorpe family which came to York Co., Va., in 1701.

Note.—Richard Bigges,¹ muster at West and Shirley Hundred, 22nd of January, 1624, aged 41 (born 1583), “came in the Swan, 1610, and Sarah, his wife; Richard, his son; Thomas Turner, his cozen (nephew); Susan Old, his cozen” (niece). His patent in Charles City County, 1626. “Hotten’s Emigrants” mentions him and wife, and sons, Richard, Thomas and William, at Shirley Hundred. “English Wills,” by William S. Appleton, mentions his will of date 1626.

The Biggeses had five coats-of-arms. (R. H. Hinman’s “Catalogue of First Puritan Settlers of Connecticut,” No. 11, Hartford, Conn., 1832, page 215.) Col. Timothy Bigges, 1683, a suit against Robert Miller. (York Co., Va., records.) John Bigges, 1675, fined 2,000 pounds tobacco for not having his children baptized. (General Court Records.)

Robert Bigges, of Middlesex Co., Va., mar., April, 1703, Mary Armistead, who died 1706. He mar. (II) 1706, Elizabeth Pate, and had issue: Mary, b. 1707; Elizabeth, b. 1711; Jane, b. 1713, and James, b. 1717. (Christ Church Register.)

Thomas¹ Baytop and ——— Pell, his wife, had at least two sons, Daniel² and Thomas.² Of these, Daniel² Baytop was “grocer in Maidstone, Kent, England,” and was administrator, 1691, of his brother, Thomas Baytop, and guardian of the infant, Thomas Baytop (b. 1676).

From York Co., Va., records, 1691: “Daniel, Baytopp, of Maidstone, in ye County of Kent, grocer, brother of Thomas Baytop, and guardian and administrator of Thomas Baytopp, the minor, constitutes Capt. Francis Page in Virginia his attorney to take possession of ye plantations, stock, etc., of ye said Baytopp in ye parts of America in right of ye minor, Jan. 20th, 1691. The said Thomas Baytop, merchant, deceased, came over to Virginia twelve years before the above date, and came from Staplehurst, where he lived for several years in the lawful estate of matrimony with Hannah, his wife, and where was born his son, Thomas Baytopp, May 9, 1676, as appears by the register of Staplehurst and the testimony of his godfather, Peter Burren, of said place, clockmaker, aged 58 years, and John Stanter, clerk, and register of the aforesaid parish of Staplehurst, aged 69 years."

Thomas Baytop (above) married Hannah ——— and moved to Staplehurst, County Kent, England, where he was a merchant and "lived in the lawful state of matrimony with Hannah, his wife, and where was born his son Thomas in 1676." He came to Virginia 1679 and invested in "plantations, merchandise, stock," etc. (York County Records). and April 25, 1681, witnessed indenture of Humphrey and Philip Moody, of York Co., Va., a division of land with Elizabeth, daughter of their brother Josias Moody, deceased (whose widow, Elizabeth, married [II] Thomas Hansford), "300 acres Hampton parish. Other witnesses: Joseph Ring (justice), David Crawford and Richard Moore.—Edward Jennings, clerk court." Also witnessed (24th August, 1682) deed from Philip Moody and wife, Magdalene, of Hampton parish, to Joseph Ring, of same parish, "land patented 1638 by John Waine," Thomas Baytop witnessed also, 26th February, 1682-3, deed from David Crawford to Joseph Ring. Other witnesses were Benjamin Reade and Thomas Chamberlayne.

Joseph Ring was justice York Co.; will proved 1703. Children: Edmund, Joseph, Isaac, Elizabeth, Sarah and Mary. Legacy to Isaac Sedgwick. Executors: His loving brothers, Capt. Matthew Page and Edmund Berkley. His wife, Sarah, was daughter of Edmund Berkley, of Gloucester Co. Her half-sister, Mary Mann, married Matthew Page, b. 1659, son of Col. John. Thomas Baytop died in 1691. The following is from P. C. C. Admon. account book, 1692: "Thomas Baytop, Sr., late in Virginia, widower, deceased; administration granted to Daniel Baytop (his brother), uncle and guardian of Thomas Baytop, a minor, son of defunct, 19th January, 1691-2."

This grant "expired at the full age of said Thomas Baytop, and a new grant was made. 25th September, 1699." Virginia Magazine History and Genealogy, X, 69.)

February 24, 1700, Thomas Baytop witnessed indenture between William Sedgewick, clerk of York Co., and James Cosby, "200 acres in Beaver Dam, on Utey's Creek"—£42. This was the third Thomas Baytop, now 24 years of age. April 19, 1707, Thomas Baytop was the owner of lot No. 9 in Miles Cary's survey of Gloucester town
The Baytop Family.

(now Gloucester Point). Richard Lee, Benjamin Reade, Edmund Berkeley, Major Burwell, Edward Porteus, John Mann, Peter Beverley, Dr. David Alexander, John Todd, John Gwyn, Lawrence and John Smith, Thomas Scott, John Perrin, Ralph Wormley, Mordecai Cooke, William Thornton, John Stubbs, Dr. William Kemp, John Buckner, Robert Carter, Robert Thruston, Col. Whiting and others also owned lots in this town, which was regularly laid off with streets with the names of Gloucester, Bread, Tyndall, Queens, Kings, Read, Marlborough, Fleet and Fish. John Fleet had patented Gloucester town (then Tyndall's Point) in 1662 and was living there in 1667. John Pratt bought lots 79 and 80 in 1719, and William Pratt, merchant (will 1722), was living there 1720, when he married Elizabeth (b. 1701), daughter of William\(^1\) Cocke (secretary of the colony), and his wife, Elizabeth Catesby, sister of Mark Catesby, the traveler. (Mrs. Pratt married (II) Col. Thomas Jones (ancestors of the Jones family in Gloucester Co. intermarried with the Baytops). Gloucester Point was of considerable importance during the Revolution, when troops of the opposing armies camped and fought there, and its citizens were proud witnesses, across the narrow York, of Cornwallis' surrender.

Thomas Baytop married (before 1710) the daughter of David Alexander, of Gloucester Co., and was living in Gloucester in 1726, where, on 6th of February, his signature may be found in the extant Petworth vestry book as witness (with Alexander Roane) to an indenture of the vestry with Lawrence Smith, to whom they bound a “poor child” of the parish. (Lawrence Smith affixed his seal in red wax.) In 1737 he witnessed the will of Dr. Charles Tomkies, an “eminent physician and a justice in Gloucester Co.” This will is preserved in the chancery papers at Williamsburg. (David Alexander and John Edwards were also witnesses to this will.) Dr. Tomkies and Thomas Baytop had married the sisters of David Alexander, daughters of Dr. David Alexander (whose wife, Ann, was one of the two heiresses of Francis Morgan, the other, Sarah, having married Major Thomas Buckner, of Gloucester, church warden of Petworth parish, 1695, son of the immigrant, John Buckner.) Francis Morgan owned a large body of land on the Poropotank from its mouth up, called “Morgan's Neck,” running from “Violet Bank” to “Marlfield,” which was heired by Thomas Buckner's wife and descended to her daughter, Ann Buckner, who married (1) Thomas\(^2\) Booth (b. 1685, d. 1756), church warden Petworth parish, 1714, son of the immigrant, Thomas. Their son, George Booth, of “Poropotank,” finally heired all that neck of land, married Mary Taliaferro and had a daughter, Sarah Booth, who married Thomas Baytop (b. 1751) of the Revolution.

Thomas\(^3\) Baytop and his wife,—— Alexander, had at least two Children—Anne,\(^4\) who married (before 1727) Col. Thomas Scott (the immigrant, ancestors of a large and prominent family throughout the South), and James' Baytop, of "Springfield" Gloucester Co., Va., d. 1766. The settlement of his estate, 1767, with its many accompanying papers, is yet preserved in the family of Mrs. Jefferson W. Stubbs, of "Valley Front," Gloucester Co., Va. It mentions his children, and even the neighbors who were present at "the estate sale," and every article they purchased. He married Sarah Smith, said to be of the "Purton," Gloucester Co., family of that name, and a "sister of Capt. John Smith." She died 1771, and the settlement of her estate (as complete as that of her husband) is also preserved at "Valley Front," with the names of their children and a list of those of the neighbors present at her estate sale, etc. The executor of James Baytop's will was his cousin, Col. Francis Tomkies, son of Dr. Charles and Mary (Alexander) Tomkies (above noted). Col. Tomkies had married (before 1748) Elizabeth, daughter of Mordecai Cooke, and was justice in 1768, and a man of affairs; and his sister, Catherine (b. 1733) married Thomas Scott (b. 1727), son of Thomas and Anne (Baytop) Scott, above. Hence all were related. (See Scott Family.)

Gloucester land books contain a deed (23rd January, 1745) from Robert Pryor* and wife (ancestors of the Roger and Luke Pryor family) to James Baytop, "309 acres on Craney Creek, Ware parish, next to Christopher Greenaway, Mr. Rigault and Thomas Wisdom's land." Ninety-two acres of it had first been granted to Thomas Jefferson, April 1, 1668, and by him deserted, and then granted to Robert Collis, who increased it to "309 acres, at the head of Craney Creek, in Ware parish," and then assigned it, April 21, 1689, to Robert Pryor.*

This became the family home, "Springfield," called in its early history by the Indian name, "Mundunga." James Baytop's assessment to Petsworth parish in 1767 (the year of his death) was £3. 3. 0. In 1758 he was executor of the estate of James Carter, Petsworth parish. Many of these papers are preserved, containing the accounts of the three sons, Thomas, James and John Carter.

Robert and John Carter are mentioned previously in Petsworth parish vestry.

*Note.—Samuel Pryor, of Gloucester, married Prudence Thornton and moved to Caroline Co. (then to Hanover and Spotsylvania). Issue: William, Samuel, John, of Nottoway (father of Hon. Luke, of Alabama); Frank, Joseph (who was the smallest of them all and weighed 220 pounds); Nancy, married Col. Samuel Wells, judge of the County Court of Amelia; Mary (b. in Gloucester Co., Nov. 15, 1730), mar. (I) Major William Berry, of Gloucester, and died, leaving Nancy and Prudence Berry, of whom Nancy married Jonathan, son of Col. George Taylor, and Prudence married Major George Blackburn, both families moving to Kentucky in 1799. Mrs. Mary Pryor Berry (d. 1804), married (II) James Mitchell (d. 1819), and had issue: Edward Mitchell (b. 1760, d. 1837), James (b. 1762, d. 1781), Samuel (b. 1764, d. 1835). Of these, Edward, b. 1760, was great-grandfather of James T. Mitchell, b. 1834, judge of Roger Blackburn was living in Abingdon parish, Gloucester Co., 1777. He was the son of William, living in Gloucester 1702; will in Middlesex, 1748, mentions children, William, Roger and Mary. Ann Blackburn married Capt. Ceeley Saunders, of the Revolution-dary Navy, and had an only child, Major John Saunders, of Norfolk, father of Capt. John Loyall Saunders; Ann B., who married Arthur Taylor, of Norfolk; Mary, who married William Green, and Jane B., who married W. W. Hunter.

James Baytop was tobacco inspector at Poropotank in 1739 (Virginia Magazine of History, etc., XV, April number), and his lists as inspector are before me for 1754. "Thomas and Beverley Whiting, shipped four hogsheads by the Whiting, and also Dr. Charles Leith one hogshead, and Messrs. Beverley and Thomas Whiting one hogshead, by the Ausgood. In 1755 Philip Rootes and John Metcalf, each, one hogshead by the Ausgood. In 1756 Capt. Thomas Whiting & Co., fourteen, and John Metcalf one, and Capt. Thomas Whiting, for himself, seven hogsheads, by the Swift."

Hening’s Statutes, Vol. VIII, pages 78-88, mentions for the year 1765, four tobacco warehouses in Gloucester, “Poropotank, Easter-most, Gloucester Town (now Point) and Deacon’s Neck, where the warehouses are now kept.” In 1757 John Scott shipped nine hogsheads, also March, 1761, nine, by Scott & Du Val. These papers contain the autograph of James Baytop. Thomas Baytop, the Revolutionary captain, succeeded his father as tobacco inspector for Gloucester county.

The original signature of Mrs. Sarah (Smith) Baytop is also preserved, as the executrix of her husband’s estate, with his cousin, Col. Francis Tomkies. Dr. Alexander Dalgleish lived in her family from 1767 to June 1770. (It is claimed for his brother, Dr. John Dalgleish, of Norfolk, that he first introduced inoculation for small-pox into Virginia. He died in 1771.)

Issue of Philip Taliaferro and Sarah Baytop.

Philip Taliaferro, of "Hockley," King and Queen county, was a son of William Taliaferro, vestryman Stratton Major parish, 1762, who was the son of William Taliaferro, Sr., of the vestry of Stratton Major parish, King and Queen county, 1735, and died 1760. This last William was the eleventh and youngest child of Col. John Taliaferro, the Ranger (who was the son of the immigrant), and was also the brother of Col. Lawrence Taliaferro, sheriff of Essex, and not his son, and should have been so placed in the "John Stubbs, of Cappahosic," pamphlet.

Philip Taliaferro was of the vestry, 1775. He had been assigned a seat in the "New Stratton Major Church," 1767. From his propinquity to the Rootes and Grymes family, his given name, "Philip," would suggest a descent from one of these families, with whom Philip was also a popular name. There seems also to have been a Shackelford relationship. He had, certainly, a brother, Richard Taliaferro, who is called his "brother" at the estate sale of Mrs. Sarah Baytop, 1771 (the mother-in-law). It is probable he was also brother to William Taliaferro, who married Elizabeth Holden, called at that date William, "the elder." Richard Taliaferro died 1790, land tax in Gloucester 1787, and his estate tax 1790. He was in the vestry of Petsworth parish, 1785, with James Baytop and George and Thomas Booth, and acknowledging the Protestant Episcopal Church in America. Will, 1786; wife, Elizabeth; son, Richard; executors, Philip Taliaferro and Zachariah Shackelford.

Feb. 18, 1777, Capt. William Taliaferro was paid £12 for the use of twenty-four guns one year (Virginia Magazine of History, etc., XV, 87). Philip was a member of the House of Delegates 1780, justice in King and Queen 1784, sheriff 1791, with John Wedderburn as deputy sheriff.

The expense of Sarah Baytop's marriage, 1770, is mentioned in inventory of her mother's estate, 1771. She was born about 1753.

Line of Thomas Baytop, of the Revolution (b. 1751, d. 1812), Married, 1780, Sarah, Daughter of George Booth (d. 1786), of Poropotank, Now "'Violet Bank.'"

Gloucester County, 13th April, 1775.—Gloucester regiment of militia was organized at Gloucester Courthouse; Col., Sir John Peyton, Bart.; lieut.-col., Thomas Whiting, Gent.; county-lieut., Warner Lewis, Esq.; major, Thomas Boswell, Gent. There were sixteen captains, sixteen lieutenants, and sixteen ensigns. Among the captains were George Booth, William Buckner, Jasper Clayton, John Whiting, John and James Hubard, John Willis and others. Among the lieutenants were James Baytop, Philip Tabb, Thomas Buckner and others; and among the ensigns were Thomas Baytop, Thomas Tabb, Samuel Eddins, John Fox, Christopher Garland and others. (Virginia Gazette, 1775.)

His oath of allegiance as captain of artillery (old paper in possession of his family):

"I, Thomas Baytop, captain of artillery, do acknowledge the United States of America to be free, independent and sovereign States, and declare that the people thereof owe no allegiance or obedience to King George III, King of Great Britain; and I renounce, refuse and abjure any allegiance or obedience to him; and I do swear that I will, to the utmost of my power, support, maintain and defend the said United States against the said King George III, his heirs and successors, and his or their abettors, assistants and adherents, and will serve the said United States in the office of captain of artillery, which I now hold, with fidelity, according to the best of my skill and understanding. THOMAS BAYTOP.

"Sworn before me at the Artillery Park this 12th day of June, 1776.

H. KNOX, Colonel Artillery."

Thomas Baytop was captain-lieutenant First Continental Artillery Jan. 13, 1777; captain Feb. 5, 1778; resigned Dec. 11, 1779. Gen. Charles Harrison's Artillery, Co. 9, as it stood at Valley Forge June 3, 1778: Thomas Baytop, captain-commander, Feb. 5, 1778; William Fleming Gaines, captain-lieutenant; Holland Haynie, first lieutenant; William Stevenson, second lieutenant; James Tyrie, second lieutenant. (See Heitman's List of Revolutionary Officers for him and his brothers, James and John).

Capt. Thomas Baytop received a military land warrant for 4,000 acres May 25, 1784, for three years' service as captain in Virginia Continental line. Original preserved.

William Keyser, petitioning for a pension, stated that he "served in Revolutionary Army under Capt. Thomas Baytop, in Second Virginia State Regiment; that they marched to Hampton, and from there joined Gen. Washington at Valley Forge. In the summer, under the command of Col. Dabney, they overtook the British at Monmouth Church, and fought most of the day, when the enemy then retreated to their ships. They were also in a skirmish near Fort Montgomery under Col. Gist, where they lost twenty-eight soldiers and two officers captured. They were in front of the battle at Stony Point Fort, under command of Gen. Anthony Wayne. Gen. Wayne was wounded and Col. Febiger took command, with Col. Fleury in command of the vanguard," etc. (Virginia Magazine of History, I, 463.)

There is also a receipt of $1,100 for a horse bought of Capt. Samuel Eddens at Morristown, N. J., April 6, 1780. Another, March 9, 1778, signed Wm. Finney, Williamsburg, deputy quartermaster-general, for goods, "part of a cargo arrived at Edenton, N. C., from France; property of the United States, furnished by order of the governor."

Another receipt: "Camp Rariton Landing, July 5, 1778. Capt. Thomas Baytop, of Col. Charles Harrison's Regiment of Artillery, one large red leather portmanteau, for the sum of £15 currency." Signed Jacob Weiss, D. Q. M.

From a census of Ware parish, 1783: Thomas Baytop, two white and twelve black.

The following note to him from "the fighting parson," Col. Chas. Mynn Thruston, of the Revolution (who had married his cousin, Miss Buckner), is an amusing evidence of the nonchalance with which those ancient worthies dispensed their money:

"22nd June, 1788.—Dear Sir: I called in great haste just to see you and to deliver to Miss Livingston a few things sent by her father (i. e., Cornelius Livingston). He desires you by me to collect the bonds of his in your hands, and when done to vest the amount in a negro girl, or girls, for his daughter, and to get a pair of stays for her, as he could get none here.

"I am, with compliments to your lady, sir, your most obedient, humble servant,                  C. M. THRUSTON."

Addressed "To Capt. Thomas Baytop."

Mrs. Wm. C. Stubbs gave this communication to Prof. James T. Harrison, of the University of Virginia, a descendant of "the fighting parson," as being quite too valuable (if only for its signature) to escape his possession. It was relinquished with a smile at the calm manner in which the old gentleman mixed up purchase of "negro maids" and young ladies' "stays." He rented the Petsworth glebe lands, as did also his father. In the vestry book is this entry for 1788: “Received of Capt. Thomas Baytop 505 pounds tobacco for rent of the glebe.”

He was appointed inspector of tobacco at Deacon’s Neck Warehouse in 1791 by Beverley Randolph, Governor. Hening (VII, 479) says that in 1792 the only remaining tobacco warehouses in Gloucester were at Deacon’s Neck and Poropotank. Appointed inspector of tobacco at Deacon’s Neck Warehouse 1794 by Henry Lee, governor. He was also justice for many years in Gloucester. Deacon’s Neck is now called the “Warehouse.” A commission from Gov. Page (the original preserved by Prof. T. J. Stubbs) “to Thomas Baytop, Richard Baynham and Matthew Anderson, issued June 1, 1804, under an act passed by Congress May 21, 1804, to amend an act for appointing electors to choose a president and vice-president of the United States.”

Col. Thomas’ Baytop was master of Boteourt (Masonic) Lodge No. 7, Gloucester, of which an ancient lodge book, beginning April 19, 1800, is preserved in the clerk’s office. It bears a very handsome seal, “England 1773-1857 Virginia,” and some wonderful flourishes in penmanship, of knights, ladies, dragons, etc. (The hospitalities of the courthouse ordinary were long dispensed by Capt. William Rogers, of the Revolution and War of 1812. Here old comrades met and “fought their battles over again”—and John Kiningham was mine host of the Ark Ordinary at the same time. The “Ark” still stands in Gloucester.) He (Thomas Baytop) was justice in Gloucester, 1808.

He was executor of many estates and guardian to the children of many of his neighbors, and with the son, John Jones, was executor of the estate of Dr. Richard Jones, 1784. He was executor also of Christopher Pryor’s estate, 1804, and paid to Mann Page, deputy clerk, $4.89 for recording the appraisement (receipted by Robert West, D. S.).

From a poll of Petsworth district, 1810, for House of Delegates, the candidates were: Thomas Baytop (elected), John Lewis, John Wood and Wm. K. Perrin (elected); and among the voters, John Baytop and James Baytop, Sr., and James Baytop, Jr. (Old family papers.)

Capt. Thomas Baytop served in the Assembly, 1805, with Matthew Anderson; 1806, with Morgan Tomkies; 1808, with Richard Jones; 1809, with Peter Wiatt, and 1811, with Wm. Perrin.

He was of the vestry of Ware parish, 1797, when the church glebes were being sold by the State, after the Revolution. There is preserved in the family papers a long letter to him upon this subject by the minister of Ware, Rev. Elkanah Talley, of whom Bishop Meade said he was more profane than pious (as his letter indicates), and that he “died the death of a drunkard, and a Universalist besides.” This letter was as follows, and related to the preservation, to the church, of Ware Glebe, his method having excited the suspicions of some of his vestry. He seems to have been unfortunate, and was expelled by Botetourt Lodge in 1802—"Brothers Matthew and Samuel Anderson, from motives of decency, requested they might be absent." He married (1789) "the relict of John Anderson, of Hanover county."

"WARE GLEBE, Oct. 24, 1797.

"Dear Sir—Last Wednesday, taking it altogether, may be ranged among my most disagreeable days. All the forenoon engaged in discovering and punishing rascality (?). And as soon as I reached the courthouse, discovered that violent threats had been thrown out against me for attempting to cheat the church and parish out of the glebe, and that the very devil was to be played with me if I did not accede to propositions which were to be made to me in vestry! This, I confess, rowzed my Irish, and I was determined then not to mention in vestry the steps I had taken to secure the glebe for the church (although I had intended on that day to lay the whole of the business before the board), and when it was introduced to be on my guard; to act the philosopher—and disappoint my adversary.

"Now, let me ask you whether I was right or not in not agreeing to anything that was proposed? If you recollect, Mr. Pryor asked if I would withdraw the entry, etc., if the conveyance from Curtis or Brown could be found? To which I answered in the negative, and for this reason: if no patent can be found (which I am now pretty certain is the case), the very instant my entry was withdrawn, another person might make an entry, divest me of my place of residence and wrest the glebe from the church.

"The precarious situation of our church property is a subject which I have repeatedly heard argued by able hands for ten years back. We have, repeatedly, had good counsel on the subject; consequently I have had a good opportunity to form an opinion relative to its situation, the limited uncertain powers of vestries and the great caution that ought to be used in making a conveyance. Under these circumstances, I am certain that some of the methods hinted in vestry the other day would have fixed the title of the glebe in my representatives, in case the Baptist bill passes. Admit for a moment I had agreed to make a conveyance of the glebe to the parish so soon as the patent issues and had bound myself to do so. Mark the consequence. So soon as the Baptist bill passed into a law the reversion of this freehold would immediately revert to me or my representatives.

"Mr. Tomkies' proposition comes the nearest a secure plan of anything that was hinted, but I think there is a small amendment in his plan necessary, which I will point out to you when we meet again.

"As I had been at so much trouble in endeavoring to secure the church, and had sent forward the whole of my proceedings to a person who would have the best counsel in order to secure the property to the church, which was, and is still, my intention; and as those threats were thrown out against me, I would not, on that day, have acceded to any proposition whatever after my original one was rejected, which, if you recollect, was 'that the business should remain in a state of suspense till we could have the best counsel.'

"I had sent forward for counsel in behalf of the church, which will be made to appear to the vestry. Now, suppose there had been a proper mode proposed? The question is whether you would on that day have agreed to it. Had I agreed to any proposition on that day, it would have been immediately said that, although I was about to choose the parish out of their Glebe, the vestry had caught me at it, and that Mr. Hall's threats and the vestry's exertions had forced me to do right!

"That the business might have remained in a state of suspense for many months is certain. True it is Capt. Peter B. Whiting informed the vestry, that Mr. Blair informed him, that a patent would issue in favor of me in six months unless a caveat was entered. But the plain state of the business is this: A patent will issue after the entry, survey, etc., have been returned to the land office and remained there six months, unless a caveat is entered and prosecuted; but not within six months after the survey is made. The papers are in the hands of Mr. Duvall, and in order to have placed the business in a state of suspense till the board could have been fully satisfied, I would have put them in the hands of a member of the vestry. But the threats of one member, the apparent jealousy of some and the warmth of others, forbid my attempting to set Capt. Whiting right and making a proposition.

"The situation of this Glebe (if unpatented, required a survey, which I mentioned to three members of the vestry, towit: Capt. Whiting, Mr. Baynham and yourself, and should have mentioned it to Mr. Pryor, as I went to his house more than once for that purpose, but he happened to be from home. With respect to the land law, I know a number of the upland farmers understand it better than the lowland lawyers, and perhaps your land is in a ticklish situation. I may be counted a fool for throwing out this idea, but certain I am that Cary's and Anderson's representatives had as good a title to our land in Cumberland as Ware parish has to Ware Glebe, and many other men in Gloucester have to the land they hold. Nevertheless, we have lost ours in Cumberland—for what? For want of a patent. With respect to the caveat the vestry are about to enter, etc. Can they sue or be sued? If the land was patented by Brown, if I mistake not, I am intimately acquainted with his legal heir.

"I have mentioned my intentions to three members of the vestry. After fixing the business I was pleased, and mentioned it to a few of my acquaintances how completely I had speculated on and disappointed the dissenters. How my intentions have been so much misrepresented I cannot say. I am your friend and servant,

"ELK'N TALLEY.

"To Captain Thomas Baytop."

In 1788, upon St. John's Day, he (Elkanah Talley) addressed the Masons in Richmond. The year 1798 was his last at Ware Church. In 1799 Thomas Baytop paid $80, "his subscription in full for Ware parish, to John Robins, vestryman, who receipted for same for Rev. Armistead Smith." (Old family papers.)

In 1797—a survey of Ware Glebe for Rev. Elkanah Talley: "By virtue of a land office treasury warrant, No. 2180, dated May 14, 1797, and surveyed October 14, 1797, for 400 acres, which survey containeth 352 acres on Ware river, 217 poles on the river back to a spring on Back creek, 320 poles." (Old Gloucester Survey Book.)

The assignees of Rev. Elkanah Talley, April 28, 1800, for 352 acres, commonly known and occupied as the Glebe of Ware parish: Philip Tabb, Thomas Baytop, Christopher Pryor, Matthew Anderson, Richard Baynham, Morgan Tomkies, Mordecai Cooke, George Wythe Booth, Peter Beverly Whiting, Philip Sansum, William Hall, John Dixon, trustees of the church property in the parish of Ware and county of Gloucester. (Gloucester Land Books.)

The following recalls some names of ancient worthies:

"2ND MARCH, 1809.

"Thomas Baytop, Esq.—Dear Sir: Mr. Lewis told me that you had been kind enough to promise to apply to Mr. Randolph for the money on Mr. Berkeley's draft. If you have received it, I will be much obliged if you will send it by my son, Baylor, who will deliver you this. With many thanks for the trouble you have taken for me, I remain, with real esteem, your ob't serv't, JASPER S. CLAYTON.

"Received of Mr. Baytop the sum of $117 by order of my father, 2nd March, 1808.

J(ohn) B(aylor) CLAYTON."

Obituary of Col. Thomas Baytop in Alexandria Herald, 1812:

"AN OLD RELIC.

"The subject of the following obituary has a large number of relations in this county and in other parts of this and other States, where your paper has circulation. Your readers would be generally gratified by the publication of this old relic, which has been copied from an Alexandria Herald, published in the year 1812. He was a Revolutionary officer of merit and distinction, was the son of Sarah Smith, a daughter of John Smith, and of Colonial fame, and a man sans peur, sans reproche. Capt. James Baytop (son of the above-named Thomas Baytop) served through the War of 1812. Wm. J. Baytop, his grandson, volunteered and served through the Mexican War, and was killed at the Battle of Seven Pines, gallantly leading his company into action in the war between the States. J. C. Baytop, another grandson, volunteered in our late war, served through it all faithfully as an officer of cavalry, and surrendered with his company at Appomatox C. H. Gen. Wm. Taliaferro and Gen. Alexander Taliaferro, whose record is too well known to mention here, have the same adventurous and warlike Smith blood in their veins:

"Died.—On the 11th instant, at his seat, in the county of Gloucester, Capt. Thomas Baytop, aged sixty-one years.

"Capt. B. was an officer in the Revolutionary Army, during a part of its struggle for freedom. At the commencement of the glorious contest he voluntarily stepped forth among the first who tendered their services to their country. True to the cause he had espoused, he resolutely stood by her in the hour of trial and danger, wielding in her defense the sword of liberty, in order to sever the Gordian knot which the hand of tyranny was about to rivet upon her. Nor was this the only way in which he proved serviceable. When the object for which he had contended was obtained, and freedom illumined our happy land, he stopped not short and exclaimed, 'Thus much have I done, the rest I leave to others!' No! But, like a genuine patriot, he endeavored to render himself as useful in the capacity of a citizen as he had been in that of a soldier. And in his love of order and obedience to the laws he sat a worthy example to his fellow citizens, which did not fail to attract their attention and finally secure to him their confidence, as a mark of which he was elected to a seat in the honorable Virginia Legislature, for a number of years, from the county in which he died. He also held the office of magistrate, which, though of little profit, is of much importance to the people, and the duties of which he never failed to discharge with promptitude. Capt. B. was a man of sound principles—no political weathercock was he—during the boisterous reign of terror he remained firm and immovable, pointing to the then Spartan band, but now formidable phalanx of Republicanism. In a moral point of view, few could stand a test with him, none surpass him. He was a kind father, a good neighbor, a humane master; long will his death be mourned by a grateful family, sensible of the loss which nature's law has imposed upon them. Long, too, will an extensive acquaintance deplore the sad catastrophe, which has deprived society of a useful member and themselves of an amiable friend.

"Peace, worthy man! peace to thy departed shade! No impure breeze shall ever waft thy name nor ruffle the green herbage that lightly bedecks thy breast."

"Brigade Quarters, 5d May, 1813.—Brigade Order: It is the pleasure of His Excellency, the Governor, that the following volunteer companies may be discharged and the men permitted to return to their homes, viz:

"Capt. Heath’s Troop of Cavalry, Capt. Taylor’s and Capt. Henley’s Rifle Companies and Capt. Rogers’ Company of Artillery. Brig.-Gen. Taylor will take the necessary measures for fulfilling the Governor’s wishes and for affording these troops the best facilities for their transportation that the moment will afford. The major-general can but regret parting with a body of troops whose composition and appointments made them so effective a portion of his force and whose orderly and soldier-like conduct has gained so much of his confidence. He is, however, gratified to find that the motive of His Excellency for the discharge of these troops proceeds from the impression he entertains of the promptitude and zeal with which they turned out at the call of danger before the regular tour of duty. By order, etc.

"Brig.-Gen. Taylor directs the officers commanding the corps that are to be discharged by the foregoing orders to attend at brigade quarters to-morrow morning at 11 o’clock for the purpose of an arrangement by which the pay of those corps may be secured to them and all means be adopted for their transportation from Norfolk. By orders, etc."

Company of Gloucester Artillery, Fourth Regiment of Artillery of Virginia Militia, Capt. Wm. Rogers. Called into actual service under general orders Feb. 6, 1813. Copied from the original roster brought from Fort Norfolk by Sergt. James Baytop May 9, 1813:

D. Bristow, John Bohannon, Robt. Brown, Reuben D. Berkeley, Chas. R. Burton, Thos. Coleman, John Dawson, Thos. Douglass, John Davis, Geo. W. Dare, John Dunston, Wm. Fleming, Thos.

The account throws much light upon the War of 1812, and extracts from the old papers now at "Valley Front" are published for the first time.

"January 6, 1814.—Regimental Orders from William Camp, Lieutenant-Colonel, commanding Twenty-first Regiment.—O. Seawell, Adjutant, to Capt. William Rogers: Sir—You will convene your company without delay at Capt. Sinclair's, in Robins' Neck, the present station, as a portion of the enemy's vessels renders it necessary to guard that part of the county. You will take with you your field pieces and ammunition."

And again, January 25, 1814.—"Sir: You will immediately convene your company at Capt. Sinclair's, and on your arrival there you will take steps to have every man about brought to your quarters. No man able to walk must be permitted to remain at home. The number and situation of the enemy's vessels renders it advisable that you should have your company full and be at the ground appointed in the shortest possible time. Seven sail are now in sight. You will send for Lieut. (Hugh B.) Gwyn."

Regimental orders, Feb. 8, 1814.—"Capt. Thos. Hall's and Capt. Rich. Jones' companies will relieve Capt. Wm. Rogers' and Capt. Catesby Jones' companies next Saturday. The above companies will relieve each other alternately once in two weeks. * * * The officers in Robins' Neck will send me a return of their companies and ammunition; also a list of those who have not been on duty.
agreeably to my orders, etc. The commanding officer on the ground will send a horseman to each officer commanding the relieving companies with a copy of this order. My adjutant is with his dead brother, which compels me to call on a horseman. I wish to see Capt. Pryor before I say anything about his company to-morrow, if possible. (Signed) William Camp, Lieutenant-Colonel, commanding.”

“To Capt. Hugh Gwyn: I have no other papers in my possession. One list I gave to Capt. Rogers. The others, it appears to me, I gave or sent to Sergt. Baytop. On May 1 (1814) I took command on Ware Neck and was released the 11th. (Signed) John B. Seawell.”

Dec. 19, 1814.—“The contractor owes Capt. Hugh B. Gwyn’s company 135 rations, vinegar, soap and long forage for eight horses three days.

Later (1918), Sergt. Baytop became captain of the Gloucester Company of Artillery, and the muster rolls of successive years are yet preserved, and in which many of the above names repeat themselves.

He was treasurer of the school board, 1830, and paid the salary of Meredith P. Muse, teacher. Late in life Capt. James Baytop interested himself in the erection of Bellamy’s Methodist Episcopal Church, South, built of brick and upon land donated by an humble, God-fearing neighbor, Wm. Bellamy. He became its local minister for several years, and his descendants consider it a monument to his memory.

finer type of a real helpmeet, I have never known her; if children ever had a truer nobler Christian mother, I have failed to see her—friend to the poor, sick and suffering, all knew the tone of her gentle voice and the touch of her healing hand. She gave her three sons to the Confederate Army, and made her home a hospital for as many as fifty sick and wounded soldiers at a time; and waited with a fervent hope while her husband languished in a Federal prison. He was presiding justice of Gloucester county for many years; president of the Gloucester charity school for fifty years, and during that period recording steward of the Methodist District Conference, and was always prominent in the business and religious life of the county.”

(1) William Thomas⁸ Banks (b. 1857, d. 1881).

(2) Cora Carter⁸ Banks (b. 1859), mar. Robert Munford Sinclair, and had Blanche (b. 1885).

It is quite a remarkable fact that two of the sons of James⁸ Baytop left no issue, and one had an only daughter, and amongst his numerous descendants not one now bears the name of Baytop.

Major James⁵ Baytop, of the Revolution (b. 1754, d. 1823), first lieutenant Seventh Virginia Regiment, March 7, 1776; captain, Dec. 11, 1777, transferred to Fifth Virginia Regiment Sept. 14, 1778. Resigned May 12, 1779; major Seventh Infantry Jan. 10, 1799; honorably discharged June 15, 1800. (Heitman.) A census of Petsworth parish, 1783, gives him three white in family and eleven blacks. He was of the Petsworth parish vestry 1785. Col. John Page recommended to the Governor that James Baytop be commissioned lieutenant-colonel, he having been unanimously selected by a full court of field officers, since he had served with credit as captain in the Continental service, and is esteemed an excellent officer of Virginia cavalry. (State Papers, Vol. 1.)

His home was Barren Point, York River. In 1787 he was assessed for 332 acres, and in 1789 for 1,050 acres, and same each succeeding year. He was member House of Delegates, 1793, with John Hughes, and in 1795 with Mordecai Cooke, and the Virginia Calendar of State papers mentions him as balloting, 1794, for a successor to Judge Spencer Roane, of Court of Appeals. He was of the committee, 1790, with Philip Tabb, Armistead Smith, Samuel Cary, Machen Boswell, James Booker and Richard Billups, to settle the account of Sir John Peyton (died 1790), sheriff, with Gloucester county, for revenues and taxes of 1782. Henning’s Statutes, Vol. VII, contains an interesting account of this settlement. John Dixon (d. 1789) and John Whiting (d. 1798) were the succeeding sheriffs.

Sir John Peyton had married (I), 1850, Frances, daughter of Mordecai Cooke, by whom were born all his children. He married (II) Mary Dick, of Fredericksburg, widow of James Taliaferro, with one son, John. Peter Beverley Whiting had been security for certain deputies of Sir John Peyton. Both were now dead, and their widows, Mrs. Ann Mason Fox and Mrs. Elizabeth Cooke Whiting, were also involved in the suit as executors.

Major James Baytop’s taxes in Ware parish, 1796, were £2.13.8. He was executor of Mordecai Cooke, 1796. On June 9, 1792, he petitioned for “arms for Gloucester and Mathews counties, fearing an insurrection of the blacks, being alarmed at the late insurrection on the Eastern Shore.” (Virginia Calendar of State Papers.) He was a member of the Order of Cincinnatus at its meeting at Eagle Tavern, Richmond, Va., Oct. 25, 1796 (with several other Gloucester gentlemen). He was justice in 1816; March, 1822, appraisement of James Baytop’s estate, Mordecai Cooke, executor; Richard Jones, “sheriff and committee of the estate.” (Gloucester records.)

In a deposition (1829) William Armistead, of Franklin county, Ohio, said that in the year 1806 Col. James Baytop, of Hampton, employed him to build him a house on the farm called “Goodwood,” Elizabeth City county, etc. This deposition was in a chancery suit at Williamsburg between James Baytop, plaintiff, and John S. Westwood and others, defendant.

He married three times: (I) Mary (b. 1748, d. 1796), daughter of John Cooke (b. 1718, d. 1795), who married (Oct. 9, 1744) Elizabeth Lee. (Abingdon Register.) In 1796 Giles Cooke, her brother, qualified as “trustee of children of Col. James Baytop by his late wife, Mary Cooke.” (She was sister also to Thomas Cooke, who married Rachel Murrey Yates, below.)

James Baytop married (II) Elizabeth, widow of Matthew Whiting, with sons, Matthew Whiting and John B. Whiting.

In a suit (1805), Daniel et al. vs. Whiting, as to a legacy of negroes, Mrs. Elizabeth Baytop, of York county, deposed; also James Baytop, of York county, and John B. Whiting, who mentioned James Baytop as his “step-father.” John Baytop, “of Middlesex,” also made depositions. In another deposition in York county, 1805, Major James Baytop said he was “late of Gloucester county.” He married (III) Dec. 31, 1807, Catherine Klug Yates (b. 1784), daughter of Henry Beverley Yates (who was son of Rev. Bartholomew Yates and his wife [1741], Elizabeth Stanard). Her sister, Rachel Murray Beverley Yates, had married (1797) Thomas Cooke (his second wife). Another sister, Elizabeth Stanard Yates, had married John Quarles, of King and Queen county. These were the “orphans” of Harry Beverley Yates, who married (I) Lucy Murray, and (II) (1783) Jane, daughter of Col. James Montague. Commissioners were appointed, 1800, by county court of Middlesex county to settle with Thomas Roane "his administration of the estate and guardianship of the orphans of Harry Beverley Yates."

In the final settlement of Harry Beverley Yates' estate James Baytop assumed his part, "in place of his wife," Catherine Klug Yates. James Baytop came into court and made affidavit (1820) that he was "sixty-six years old." (Gloucester Records, Vol. 1, 114.) Issue: James, Thomas, John, Anne, Martha and Sarah Elizabeth Baytop (b. 1790). Of these:

1. James Baytop (b. 1776), "d. 1817, and unmarried," as testified by his uncle, Thomas Cooke. His executor was Mordecai Cooke, in 1821. (Gloucester Records, 1, 411.)

2. Thomas Baytop, d. y., 1805.

3. John Baytop. He was a merchant in Urbanna, of the successful firm of "James Ross & Co.," 1800. He made a deposition in York Co., 1805, as "John Baytop, of Middlesex Co.," and Gloucester County Records (Vol. I) mention him as one of the appraisers (1821) of the estate of Francis Whiting Cooke (his cousin), who died 1820.

4. Martha, mar. John Catlett, of "Endfield," Gloucester Co., and had an only child, James Catlett, murdered when a young man by a favorite slave, to whom he had promised his freedom at his death. Mother and son are buried at "Springfield," in Gloucester Co. (See note.)

5. Anne, the eldest daughter, mar. Thomas Archer, and had Mary, mar. John Minson, and had Archer Minson and others. There are now surviving female descendants only.

The following is a letter from Ann Baytop (Mrs. Archer) "to Mrs. Francis Whiting Cooke" (née Elizabeth Baytop):

"August (undated).

"My Dear Aunt—It gives me great uneasiness to inform you that I cannot, as soon as I expected, return home. Believe me, nothing but the distresses of my poor papa would have detained me so long from one for whom I feel all the tenderness of a child for its mother. I have long been convinced that you have ever supplied that place to me, and I would think myself unworthy the regard of any person if I ever forget the obligations you have conferred upon me. It gives me the sincerest pleasure to hear that you are anxious to see me, and I am certain that nothing would afford me more happiness than to be with you now, but I also wish to be with papa until his affairs are more settled than they are at present. I expect in October the place he now resides at will be sold, and where he will then direct his steps I know not. Heaven, I trust, will look with pity upon his suffering and send him that peace he so much wants, and, I hope, is not undeserving of. I have been some days with Cousin Sally since she came from Matthews county. [This was a daughter of her aunt (above), and who married Mordecai Cooke.] I received the bonnet you were so good as to have made for me, and for which I am extremely obliged to you. Give my love to all the family, and believe me to be Yours affectionately, ANNE BAYTOP.

It seems her father had many financial worries and contracted many debts, and, like a good daughter, she grieved with him; but he was twice married after that, and she herself married, before 1807, Thomas Archer.

(6) Sarah Elizabeth Smith Baytop (b. Sept. 18, 1790, d. April 15, 1879), buried at “Pear Tree Hall,” Warwick Co., mar. (Nov. 18, 1818) Gill Armistead Cary (b. March 18, 1783, d. March 25, 1843), son of Col. John Cary (b. 1745, d. 1795), of Elizabeth City Co., Va., who was member of county committee, 1774, and captain in Revolution. His wife was Susan, dau. of Gill Armistead, of New Kent Co. Cary issue:

(3) Major Richard Miles Cary, of Cary & Co., of Pensacola, Fla., major of Third Battalion, First Regiment, Florida State troops, in Spanish War, and "king" of Pensacola Carnival Association, 1902; (4) Lelia, mar. Henry Hall, Jr., of Mobile, Ala., and had Lelia Cary, Henry and Elizabeth Whiting; (5) Clara Whiting; (6) Martha A.

(d) Gill Armistead Cary (b. June 5, 1828, d. March 5, 1829.
(e) Gill Armistead Cary (b. 1831, d. 1880), lieutenant, C. S. A., mar. Virginia Smith, of South Carolina, and had issue: Belle, and Martha Baytop.

Note.—John Cary (Miles, Miles, Henry, Miles) mar. Susan, dau. of Gill Armistead, of New Kent Co. Issue: Miles (b. 1767); John (b. 1770); Nathaniel and Col. Gill Armistead, of Hampton (b. 1783, d. 1843), mar. Sarah Elizabeth Smith Baytop, above (b. 1790).

"In the close of the genealogy we find 'James Catlett murdered when a young man by a favorite slave." This was perhaps the most intensely dramatic situation ever felt in Gloucester county.

James Catlett was the only son of his mother, who was a widow. He was just returned from college, brilliant, handsome and rich, with life in its fullness spread out before him.

His body-servant, a mulatto fellow, promising, too, and apparently faithful, was present when he read his will to a friend. To this body-servant he left the priceless boon of the human soul—freedom.

Soon after this incident James Catlett one bright morning started with this man to a distant plantation. He was to return that evening, but he did not. The servant did return, and announced that his master was detained. The master's prolonged absence created suspicion, and when the negro was gravely required to tell what he knew he lost courage and fled to the woods. The men of the whole countryside started in pursuit; the women stayed at home filled with a despairing dread.

Dogs were let loose and fell in with spirit for the ghastly chase. A favorite dog of James Catlett led to the discovery of his body near his home, where it was covered deep with earth, brushwood and leaves. Days passed before the murderer was trapped, desperate, weak and famished in the woods.

A trial ensued and he was condemned to death. Old residents have told us of the hanging—how the negroes from all the plantations, and many white citizens, too, filed in garrulous lines from the various plantations to the courthouse to watch a pitiful and tremendous tragedy.

No doubt the condemned body-servant professed religion noisily, if he had not done so before, and his admiring colored friends saw him rise from the gallows to realms of untold freedom within the blue sky which spread above his shame.
This Baytop genealogy embraces so much that it will ever be a valuable reference, not only for genealogy, but also for history. Much light is thrown on the War of 1812. We can hear dramatic tones and smell the battle, if, indeed, afar!"—Mrs. Sally Nelson Robins.

John Baytop (youngest son of James and Sarah [Smith] Baytop) (b. 1756), ensign Second Virginia, June 1, 1778; second lieutenant Aug. 9, 1778; first lieutenant May, 1779, and served till January, 1780. (Heitman.) He died, unmarried, 1799, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Philip Taliaferro, "Hockley," in King and Queen county.

"In the name of God, Amen! I, John Baytop, of the county of King and Queen and parish of Stratton Major, being of sound and perfect memory, do make and ordain this writing to contain my last will and testament and do dispose of my estate as follows:

"Imprimis.—I give and bequeath unto Colo. Philip Taliaferro my mare, saddle and bridle, to him and his heirs forever.

"Item.—I lend unto my niece, Sarah Smith Shackelford, during her natural life my negro woman Hannah and her two children, with their future increase, and at her death to be equally divided between the children she may then have or their heirs, which said negroes I then give to them and their heirs forever.

"Item.—I desire that the money due me from Capt. Thomas Booth (after all just debts and expenses are paid therefrom), together with the rest of my negroes not disposed of, may be divided into five parts, one of which I lend unto Cornelius Livingston and Sarah Hughes during their natural lives, and at their deaths to be given to their children. One other part I give to my sister, Elizabeth Cooke; one other part to my brother, Thomas Baytop; one other part to my brother, James Baytop, and the remaining part unto Philip Taliaferro, which said parts I give to them and their heirs forever; and I do further make the said Philip Taliaferro my residuary legatee and executor of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty-seventh day of Jan'y, 1799. John Baytop. [Seal]

"At a court held for King and Queen county at the courthouse, Monday 8th of April, 1799, this last will and testament of John Baytop, dec'd, was offered for proof by Philip Taliaferro, the executor therein named, and was proved by the oaths of James B. Taliaferro and Richard Taliaferro, two of the witnesses thereunto subscribed, and also by the oath of the said executor, and is ordered to be recorded. Teste. Robert Pollard, C. C."

This copy was made for Mr. William T. Shackelford and addressed to him at Little Plymouth, King and Queen county.
SINCLAIR NOTE.

It is the tradition of the Sinclair family of Gloucester county, Va., this their ancestor, Henry Sinclair, from Aberdeen, Scotland, "the lost heir," was stolen and brought to Virginia when a small child, and identified later by his name and the clothing of a gentleman's son. At any rate, he lived in Isle of Wight county, and was the father (besides of others, perhaps,) of John 2 Sinclair, of "Berry Hill," near Smithfield, Isle of Wight county, and Robins Neck, Gloucester county, whose will was probated in Gloucester county, Aug. 18, 1815. Gloucester tax books give him 1,280 acres in 1795, and 1,440 in 1798. He married (I) Elizabeth, sister of Solomon Wilson, of Isle of Wight, and had Elizabeth, Thomas and Mary Jones Sinclair. In an old survey book at the clerk's office is a survey of 2,000 acres in 1792, "the Mackie estate," at the point of Robin's Neck. Elizabeth Ianson married ——— Webster, and had John, Alice and Archibald Webster. Andrew Mackie appears in the Gloucester tax lists, 1787, with 1,600 acres. In 1792 the division of his estate, with accompanying plat, was as follows: "Mrs. Mackie's dower, 400 acres; Patsy Mackie, wife of Ianson, 160; Charlotte Mackie, 160; Mary, wife (first) of Thos.
