AGEE

COAT OF ARMS
It is not the purpose of this Record to present a history of the Agee family, but to confine its scope to a genealogical record of all descendants of Mathieu Agee to the extent covered by data on the subject.

About fifty-five years ago the Rev. James W. Agee, now deceased, of Windsor, Mo., after years of research and study, published "A Record of The Agee Family." We owe him a lasting debt of gratitude for his careful research and accurate recording of his findings. His Record was very carefully prepared, and thus he left us a very excellent outline of the earlier generations of this interesting family. His Record affords us a fine working basis for our more recent research. He was a minister and publisher for many years in his home town.

The author of this Record has made a careful, conscientious and pains-taking investigation for the past twenty-five years, which has resulted in this compilation.

The Rev. James W. Agee, in his work, listed the twenty-four children of James and Anthony Agee, sons of the immigrant, Mathieu Agee, and assigned to each a number, ranging from 1 to 24, and designated them as the "24." We have learned that these numbers were assigned, not always in relation to birth dates, but probably with reference to the dates on which data was received by him. There were also two mistakes in the names of the "24." These mistakes have been corrected in this Record. In as much as the former Record is in the possession of a large number of the descendants, it is deemed wise to adhere to the original numbering in order to prevent confusion.

This Record, then, is based on the former Record; on data furnished by individuals copied from their family records; on marriage bonds; on Bible records; on Church records; on historical sketches; on pension and other war records; on deeds, wills, and other recorded documents; on letters from France and England and other authentic data.

The author has endeavored to make this Record as nearly correct and authentic as is humanly possible.

It is hoped that the Record will afford information and pleasure to those who are listed and motivate others to an effort to connect their lineage with one of the original "24."

The Author.
MATHIEU AGEE

MATHIEU AGEE (AGÉ) (AGÉS), the first of the name in America, was born near Nantes, France, about 1670. The family was of noble birth, but because of its espousal of the Huguenot faith, was forced to give up, or voluntarily gave up its claim to nobility, when its lands were confiscated by the French government after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes by Louis XIV. This act of Revocation precipitated a crisis in France which resulted in the egress of thousands of the best citizens of the Kingdom. The far reaching results of this exodus are felt to this day in France.

Mathieu Agee, being a young man at this time, doubtless witnessed the persecutions rampant then, and foresaw that worse conditions were yet to come, arrived at the conclusion that freedom of worship and unhampered citizenship were conditions no longer to be hoped for in his native land, and being unwilling to surrender his firmly grounded and fixed belief in the desirability and necessity of an unmolested citizenship, decided to flee from his former home. Accordingly he left France in 1688, went to Holland, and with some two thousand Huguenots, joined the ranks of William of Orange and accompanied his troop to England, where William deposed the then Catholic King James, and assumed the duties of the Crown. In recognition of the aid rendered his cause by these people, William offered free passage to the new world to as many as wished to go, and free land grants to those who wished to till the soil. A large number of these French refugees took advantage of this offer. Mathieu Agee arrived in Virginia in 1690, received land grants west of Richmond and built a plantation about seven miles from the site afterwards chosen by the Huguenots where was founded the town of Manakin. Here was established a church, King Williams Parish, and Mathieu Agee was for a great many years a communicant there. This church still exists, and in October, 1936, a memorial tablet was placed in the church house by descendants of Mathieu Agee, and in his honor.

That this man was of sturdy character and strong convictions is attested by the fact that he gave up his home and became a pioneer in a new and rugged land rather than suffer the humiliation sure to accrue to those who remained at home and refused to accede to the demands of the State Church. Only the strong possessed the fortitude for such momentous action. In Virginia he became a leading citizen and a man of influence in his community and was ever true and faithful in all his activities and contacts. He married rather later in life than was usual to

ANN GODWIN, daughter of Isaac and Ann Godwin. To this union were born four children, as follows:

1 Judith Agee, married a Mr. Austin. No other data.
2 Isaac Agee, probably never married. No other data.
3 James Agee, born in 1725.
4 Anthony Agee, born about 1726-8.

James Agee and Anthony Agee each had twelve children, designated as the “24.” From these children have descended nearly all of that name in America.
JAMES AGEE, son of Mathieu Agee and Ann Godwin, born in Virginia in 1725, died there in 1821. He was a man of fine character and stalwart physique and very successful in business, acquiring large land holdings and personal property. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, as were his sons, John and Jacob Agee. He married in 1746 to MARY (ELIZABETH?) FORD, daughter of James Ford and Ann Bondurant, and a grand daughter of Jean Pierre (John Peter) Bondurant, born in Virginia in 1729-30, died in 1821. This husband and wife lived together for seventy-five years. Their home was a meeting place for preaching services for many years, and Bishop Asbury, the first Methodist bishop from England to the neighborhood preached there. In as much as there were several marriages between the Bondurants and this line of the Agees, we give here the genealogy in brief, of the Bondurants leading up to the time of these marriages. Jean Pierre (John Peter) Bondurant was born near Lyons, France. To avoid religious persecution he left France, went to Germany, then to England, then to Virginia. He had issue, Ann Bondurant, who married James Ford; they had issue, Mary (Elizabeth?) Ford, who married James Agee. Jean Pierre Bondurant had other issue, John Bondurant, who had issue, John Bondurant, Jr., who had issue, Rev. Thomas Bondurant, who married Rhoda Agee. They had issue, Thomas Bondurant, who married Mary Agee. John Bondurant, Jr., had other issue, Darby Bondurant, who married Ruth Agee. Records of the above will be considered later in this Record.

To James Agee and Mary (Elizabeth?) Ford were born twelve children, as follows:

1. Noah Agee, born in Virginia Nov. 12, 1750.
5. Hercules Agee, no data on this son.
7. Rhoda Agee, born in Virginia in 1764.
11. Mary Agee, born in Virginia.

We do not have the dates of birth of the five last-named daughters, and no doubt some of them, at least, were born at earlier dates than some of those listed above them.

These twelve children constitute the first of the "24."

Documentary proof that James Agee married Mary Ford has recently been discovered in a will. Some had thought that he married Elizabeth Ford. It is quite probable that the name was Mary Elizabeth.
ANTHONY AGEE

ANTHONY AGEE, son of Mathieu Agee and Ann Godwin, born in Virginia in 1719-27, the exact date of birth not known, and died there probably at about eighty years of age. He was a man of finest character, and as a citizen, he was influential and successful. He was the forebear of a long line of worth-while descendants, many of whom were and are prominent and worthy people. His descendants are scattered all over the United States. We regret that we have not a more complete record of these people, there being many broken lines, yet we have much data on many of them. He married a

MISS BINNION or BINYON, of Virginia. To this union were born twelve children, as follows:

2. James Agee, born in Virginia. No further data.
5. Jacob Agee, born in Virginia. No further data.
12. Lear Agee, born in Virginia.

We hope that further efforts may bring forth data on other lines which we do not have at the present time.

His children constitute the last twelve of the original “24” and are numbered from 13 to 24 hereafter in this Record. Their genealogy will be found in Part Two of this Volume.

P. M. AGEE.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 27th day of May, A. D., 1937.

ROBERT B. STRADER.

My commission expires April 15th, 1939.
I, P. M. Agee, the writer of this sketch and the author of this record, am a great grandson of John Agee and his wife, Sicily Ann Hall. From my earliest memory to the age of fifteen years, I was, on every possible opportunity, the constant companion of my widowed grandmother, Mary E. Agee, wife of Pleasant Ford Agee. When old enough I roamed the woods in search of nature's gifts, nuts, berries, wild flowers, etc., with this most charming and cultured woman. It was from her that I received much of whatever early desire I may have acquired for culture and artistic temperament.

The charm of the country side, the lure of nature lore, and the leisure to enjoy it all was always appealing as well as conclusive to retrospection on the part of grandmother. It was during these golden years and in the formative period of my mind, that I learned from this wonderful woman much about my ancestry. Again and again, she related to me what she knew of our ancestry in such an interesting and careful way that it was firmly implanted in my mind, and it seems but yesterday her voice was hushed by the grim reaper.

By a reference to dates it will be noted that my grandmother was for nine years contemporary with James Agee, son of the immigrant, Mathieu Agee, and the grandfather of Pleasant Ford Agee, her husband, and that I was for seventeen years contemporary with her, therefore our three lives extend from 1725 to the present time.

Grandmother was in possession of "A Family Record of The Agee Family" by Rev. James Agee, and was familiar with its contents. She stated to me that she knew of her own knowledge that it was a true record.

She stated to me that the general reputation of John Agee, her father-in-law, was of the highest; that he was a man of noble character and fixed principles. He was the soul of honor and held very strict opinions, as was common in men of his type and generation, yet he did not allow personal opinions to affect his friendships. To him, personal honor and a manly bearing came first in life.

I have had intimate contact with no less than five grandsons and three granddaughters of John Agee, including my father, and these strong characteristics predominated their lives. From my study and investigation of the other descendents of John Agee, I am sure that the same may be truthfully said of them all.

P. M. AGEE, Author.
JOHN AGEE (Mathieu-James), son of James Agee and Mary (Elizabeth?) Ford, born in Buckingham County, Virginia, in 1749, died there in 1810. CELIA AGEE (Mathieu-James), daughter of James Agee and Mary (Elizabeth?) Ford, born in Buckingham County, Virginia, about 1761. She was a woman of charm and beauty, we are told, and it is to be regretted that we have been unable as yet to get any extensive data on her descendants. About them we have the following data which we gladly publish. She married Dec. 9, 1784, to

JAMES BRANSFORD, son of John Bransford and Sarah Easter, born in 1762, died in 1826. He was a brother of Sarah Bransford, who married Celia's brother, James Agee. The Bransford family was one of distinction and prominence in early Virginia history, as well as in England, at an earlier time. To this union were born four children, as follows:

1. Mary Bransford, born Oct. 4, 1785.

MARY BRANSFORD, daughter of James Bransford and Celia Agee, born Oct. 4, 1785, married about 1806 to

L. M. MURPHY. They had issue, but we have no data on it at present.

SARAH BRANSFORD, daughter of James Bransford and Celia Agee, born Jan. 11, 1797, married about 1819 to

POLLY GARRETT, daughter of Charles Garrett and Chloe Agee, born about 1790, married about 1814 to DAVID BONDURANT, son of Darby Bondurant and Ruth Agee, therefore, her first cousin. It will be noticed that there were many marriages between the Bondurant, Garrett and Agee families and their descendants from the early generations in America, down to the last decade of the nineteenth century. To this union were born eight children, as follows:

1. James Agee Bondurant, born in 1815.

The records of the last named eight individuals is to be found under No. 8. Ruth Agee and Darby Bondurant, and is not repeated here. Note also that No. 11. Mary Agee, married Isaac Garrett, doubtless a brother of Charles Garrett, husband of Chloe Agee. Therefore the close relationship of these families.
MARY AGEE (Mathieu-James), daughter of James Agee and Mary (Elizabeth?) Ford, born in Buckingham County, Virginia, about 1775. She was not unlike her sisters in charm and admirable graces. Data which came to hand after the first part of the Record was printed, and which brings to light in somewhat more detail a few items of the genealogy of Mathieu Agee, is given here:

John Francis Chastain, of France, married Frances Jane Reno, or Regnault, or Re'naut, daughter of Charles Reno and wife, Ann. Issue:
1 Elizabeth Ann Chastain
2 Mary Ann Chastain
3 Judith Chastain
4 Charles Reno Chastain
5 Frances Jane Chastain
6 Capt. Peter James Chastain

Elizabeth Ann Chastain married Dr. Joseph Bondurant, and their son, John Peter Bondurant emigrated to America and became the forebear of the Bondurant family in America.

Mary Ann Chastain married Daniel Isaac Fore.

Judith Chastain married Anthony Agee in France. Their son, Mathieu Agee, emigrated to Virginia in 1690 and became the forebear of the Agee family in America. Mathieu Agee married Ann Goodwin or Godwin. Said Anthony Agee and Judith Chastain had a daughter, Mary Elizabeth Agee, who married Peter Jacob Fore, Sr.

Charles Reno Chastain married and moved to Virginia.

Frances Jane Chastain married James Francis Bryant, Sr.

Capt. Peter Jacob Chastain married, first, Mary Magdalene De Rochefoucauld; second, Mary Magdalene Verreuil, widow of Sir Anthony Traube, Senior.

James Agee, son of Mathieu Agee and Ann Goodwin, married Mary Ford.

Anthony Agee, son of Mathieu Agee and Ann Goodwin, married Nancy Jane Berrin, or Binnin, or Binnion.

Judith Agee, daughter of Mathieu Agee and Ann Goodwin, married Noah Austin, and died without issue.

Isaac Agee, son of Mathieu Agee and Ann Goodwin, married Rosa Frances Berrin, or Binnin, and died without issue. She was doubtless a sister of Nancy Jane Berrin, wife of Anthony Agee.

In a work of this type it is impossible to avoid mistakes and seeming conflicts, since names are sometimes used carelessly, but by careful consideration we have arrived at proper conclusions in most instances, and believe that the Record is absolutely correct in the main.

The author hopes and believes that this compilation will afford a vast deal of information, pleasure and happiness to the descendants of our illustrious forebear, Mathieu Agee.
