Our first records on Jacob Barrickman in Jefferson County, Virginia, later Kentucky are found in the Jefferson land entries, along with a John Barrickman. The possibility exists that Jacob and John Barrickman were brothers. Both men had been Privates and had Revolutionary War Service in Virginia. On page 190 of Book 2, Jacob Barrickman is listed with 400 acres. The date of this entry is March 15, 1781. and the water courses were the Cox Creek and Salt River.

Listed also in Book 2 on page 190 is John Barrickman with 400 acres on March 15, 1781. On page 219 of the same volume John Barrickman had 200 acres more, this time dated August 21, 1781. June 7, 1780 on page 126 of the same book, 300 acres are listed for John Barrickman. The water courses on all of these entries are Salt River and Atkins Run.

While Jacob Barrickman remained in Kentucky, John Barrickman returned to Morgantown, Virginia. This was later in West Virginia.

Jacob Barrickman voted in Jefferson County, Kentucky, Va., (p.y.) on April 2, 1782 for delegates to the Assembly of Virginia. He served as a soldier in Captain Michael Humbles Company of "Kaintuck" Co. Militia, on the "Lakes Expedition" against the Shawnee Towns. This was commanded by Col. George Rogers Clark in 1780, and Jacob served in a detachment of Jefferson County Militia under Captain Aquilla Whitaker, ordered on command by John Floyd, County Lt. in May and June of 1782.

In April of 1788 John Eber was appointed guardian of the children of Richard L. Barrickman, prominent former Greenwood Resident, left his family two small sheets of note paper upon his death Tuesday at 9 A.M. at the home of his son, Cecil, in Detroit, Michigan.

These bits of paper mean little to outsiders but to his grandchildren they are valuable for they tell the story of Mr. Barrickman's life in his own words. He had written it down and sent to his grandson some time ago.

Barrickman had been in failing health for three years. Funeral services will be held today (Friday) at the J.C. Wilson funeral home at 2 P.M. The Rev. Robert Stewart, minister of the Greenwood Presbyterian Church will officiate. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery.

Richard L. Barrickman came from a family of 11 children. He, being the youngest, was born March 12, 1861, near Kentucky. He was reared on a farm and at the age of 16 attended Lexington College for two years, and worked on his father's farm.

He traded in livestock for two years, then in 1886, he was married to Sallie D. Thomasson. They moved to Woodford County, Kentucky for two years before moving to his wife's farm in Trimble County, Kentucky.

He began farming again and raising peaches. In 1896, he had about 7,000 bushels but there was not much market for them and about half of them were not shipped.

In 1902, the family moved to Greenwood. Barrickman worked at the canning factory that first summer and then bought John Jennings' interest in the store run by Bass and Jennings.

R.L. Barrickman assessed the town of Greenwood for two years and was treasurer one term and filled out an unexpired term for William Bishop. He superintended apple picking for Samuel Billingsly and his son, Byrum, for four years. He and C.H. Inchester ran a plant house for four seasons.

After this Barrickman delivered mail for 10 years. About this time he was stricken with heart trouble and was forced to resign his job with the post office. Upon the death of his wife in March, 1930, Mr. Barrickman left Green-
"Mr. and Mrs. Jarrickman were the parents of five children, four of whom preceded him in death. 4. Edward Lawrence Barrickman, third child of Lawrence and Emily (Hardin) Barrickman, born on Nov. 21, 1863.

"Ed Barrickman, a son of Lawrence, was a good student and liked history. He was patriotic, too, and an "unreconstructed rebel." He went to Miss.
and taught school for a while and then went to Indian Territory then opened for settlement and joined in the Oklahoma Land Rush. He rode from the Kansas border clear across the state, (Oklahoma) to the Texas border on Red River before he found what he wanted, but he finally settled in Frederick, Oklahoma with 160 acre grant. He never married, and when World War I broke he volunteered and served in some capacity in Florida, but never went overseas. While he was gone, oil was discovered on his farm, and when he got back oil speculators had managed to get possession of his land. He went into court, but was cheated out of the land. He moved to Arkansas, and when last heard of he had tried "wildcatting" in the Smackon Field. I suppose he is no longer living."
