The lineages herein are collateral to that of John McCann (1769-1849), as described in brochure titled "Some Descendants of John Keane of Whithorn Scotland", W. R. & R. L. McCann, 1953. When the aforesaid pamphlet was issued, we had practically no knowledge of any descendants of Cynthia Rebecca McCann, a daughter of John McCann, born September 13, 1798, who married Samuel Swartzwelder in Bourbon County, Kentucky.

In 1954 we ascertained that Cynthia Rebecca Swartzwelder had a daughter, Mary, who married John I. Jones; and they had a daughter, Cynthia Rebecca Jones. Research as to the latter developed a full Wright lineage, which was published under title "James Wilson Wright, Sr. m. Cynthia Rebecca Jones", W. R. & R. L. McCann, 1954; the Jones lineage we publish herein under title "John I. Jones m. Mary Ellen Swartzwelder".

About ready to go to press, we discovered that Mary Ellen Swartzwelder had an older sister, Eliza Ann. Research, accompanied by a bit of luck, developed a full Swartzwelder-Greenleaf-Sindle lineage, the luck consisting of a couple of clues contained in two letters of 1905-vintage coordinated with an unusual name found in a recent Gallatin (Tennessee) telephone directory. This combination of fact and luck enabled the preparation of "Samuel Swartzwelder m. Cynthia Rebecca McCann", Allan R. Sindle & W. R. McCann, 1957, included herein, with its collateral "The Greenleaf-Sindle Lineage."

In developing the forebears of John I. Jones, our task resolved itself largely into a coordination and amplification of copious data gathered by the late Leslie V. Hagan Jr. whose untimely death while we were engaged in the work has made impossible a final check of our manuscript by that energetic and untiring researcher. Inadvertently we may have incorporated some errors herein; but we believe that such errors are indeed minor, and will not detract in any way from the integrity of the work.

To Elizabeth (Lizzie) May Jones, Nevada, Missouri, we are especially grateful for sharing her family records and for gathering from scattered relatives the many vital facts that made it possible to assemble this recording. Thanks to Miss Jones' devotion to family and her painstaking efforts, we are able to name in this pamphlet, or in its collateral Wright lineage, very nearly all descendants of subject marriage. Our appreciation likewise extends to Miss Mary Schooler Gorham, Clintonville, Kentucky, and to Mmes. Wade Hampton Whitley and William Breckenridge Ardery, Paris, Kentucky, all of whom have graciously placed many records at our disposal; and we would be remiss were we not to mention unusual helpfulness from Miss Grace Greenleaf Sindle of Gallatin, Tennessee.

JOHN I. JONES m. MARY ELLEN SWARTZWELDER
Bourbon County, Kentucky

May 8, 1956  Mary Elizabeth Hagan-Bowman & Wm. R. McCann

The parents of John I. Jones (our subject) were THOMAS JONES b. January 19, 1792 on Baughmans Creek near Athens in Fayette County, Kentucky; d. July 26, 1883 in Paris, Bourbon County, Kentucky; i. Paris Cemetery; m. (1st) January 22, 1812 (a Bible record, but January 22, 1814 according to Bourbon County record and Perrin-p. 474) in North Middletown, Bourbon County, to his first-cousin MARTHA (PATSY) ASHURST (q.v.) who was b. November 30, 1794 in North Middletown precinct, d. February 8, 1863, i. Paris Cemetery; he m. (2nd) Lucy A. Monday of Madison County, Ky., b. 1841, d. January 15, 1881, i. Paris Cemetery. Martha's parents were JOSIAH and REBECKAH KENNEDY ASHURST, Rebeckah being daughter of JOHN (Jr.) and ESTHER STILLE' KENNEDY (q.v.) Thomas Jones volunteered as a soldier in War of 1812, was a member of Colonel Johnson's regiment of cavalry, was at the Battle of the Thames (1813), and as honorably discharged (see Perrin, History of Bourbon, Scott, Harrison, & Nicholas Counties, Ky., 1882, p. 474).

Children of Thomas and Martha Ashurst Jones of which we have record, all b. near Clintonville, appear to be -

1. James B. Jones, b. November 14, 1813, d. September, 1835. We think James B. was son of Thomas and Martha, but are not certain; stated dates are in a James Bible, with a group of names and dates of the other children of Thomas and Martha.

2. Josiah Ashurst Jones, b. February 20, 1815; d. before 1882, which is the date of Perrin's History wherein he is mentioned as not living; the Bible, while mentioning his death, reveals no date; nor does the Bible indicate his marriage or any children.

3. JOHN I. JONES, b. February 4, 1820, our subject - q.v.

4. Rebecca Kennedy Jones, b. October 19, (1824?); d. after 1893; m.(1st) June 17, 1844 (according to the Bible, but June 8, 1844 according to Bourbon County records) in Paris, Kentucky, to Valentine Hildreth who was b. April 6, 1814, d. July 10, 1873, i. Paris Cemetery. They had two children - Thomas, d. 1848 and Valentine, d. 1851. She m.(2nd) July 5, 1887 in Paris, Kentucky to Griffin Kelly (1815-1893).

6. Thomas Devine Jones, b. February 7, 1831; d. August 31 (or 29), 1883 at Gallatin, Tennessee; m. October 17, 1855 by minister I. D. Adams to Cordelia G. Osborne who was b. October 17, 1836. It appears that their children were Victor V. Jones, b. March 25, 1857, m. Addie T________-, resided in 1900 at Dale, Oklahoma; T. P. Jones, unmarried in 1900; Paul Jones, unmarried in 1900; Eureka L. Jones, m. J. P. Adams, was residing in Washington, D. C.; Rebecca Ophelia Osborne, b. February 19, 1858, d. March 12, 1861, i. Paris Cemetery; Paulina Osborne, unmarried, residing in Atlanta, Georgia. The distribution of children in 1900 follows - George Thomas Osborne, b. April 21, 1854, was unmarried in Atlanta, Georgia; Mattie Ray Osborne, b. December 24, 1855, m. J. P. Adams, was residing in Washington, D. C.; Rebecca Ophelia Osborne, b. February 19, 1858, d. March 12, 1861, i. Paris Cemetery; Paulina Osborne, unmarried, residing in Atlanta, Georgia.

7. Paulina (often spelled "Perlina") Martha Jones, b. January 7, 1834; d. December 23, 1869; m. July 21, 1853 in Bourbon County to Reverend William A. Osborne (a resident of Harrison County) who was b. January 16, 1826 in Putnam County, Georgia, d. March 1, 1912, i. with wife in Paris Cemetery, and whose parents, we think (proximity of grave-markers) were George (b. 1790, d. November 30, 1869) and Margaret S________ (b. November 18, 1805, d. November 20, 1883), both i. Paris Cemetery. The distribution of children in 1900 follows - George Thomas Osborne, b. April 21, 1854, was unmarried in Atlanta, Georgia; Mattie Ray Osborne, b. December 24, 1855, m. J. P. Adams, was residing in Washington, D. C.; Rebecca Ophelia Osborne, b. February 19, 1858, d. March 12, 1861, i. Paris Cemetery; Paulina Osborne, unmarried, residing in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Lilly Jones, (1865-1900), who is mentioned in will of Thomas Jones, Sr. as daughter and heir, was b. of his second marriage to Lucy A. Monday of Madison County. Lilly m. July 22, 1886 in Bourbon County J. Wm. Lowry. We believe there were no children of this marriage. She d. widowed in Washington, D. C.; i. Paris Cemetery. Above progeny of Thomas and Martha Ashurst Jones has been fitted together cross-word-puzzlelike from deed-information compiled by Leslie Vernon Hagan, Jr. (unfortunately recently deceased), of Austerlitz, Kentucky, from cemetery gravestones, from newspaper clippings, from numerous Bible entries supplied by Mrs. William B. Ardery of Paris, Kentucky, and from vital records of our own gathering. Our compilation may not be complete, nor 100% correct; but we believe it to be reasonably accurate. Before proceeding to the lineage of Martha Ashurst (q.v.), the mother of John I. Jones (our subject), we proceed with --

The paternal grandparents of John I. Jones (our subject) were JAMES JONES b. 1758 in North Carolina, d. June 3, 1839 near Clintonville, Bourbon County, Kentucky, i. Jones Jones graveyard which is on farm now (1954) owned by William Stipp, Sr., westerly of intersection of Clinton-
Paris Cemetery. The home of the Talbotts was a farm called Pleasant Hill Plantation 'on Clin-

Cemetery; m. January 26, 1832 to Louis (Lewis) Talbott who was b. 1802, d April 6, 1847 i Sarah Devine Jones, b. January 10, 1802 near Clintonville; d. September 21, 1891 • i Paris

Armanda Hall; seven children.

8. Benjamin Jones, b. September 13, 1799 near Clintonville; d. September 14, 1824 thereat' m the Stoney Point Baptist Church, but withdrew "in haste and indignation in 1859".

24, 1882 in Clark County; i. Jones Graveyard near Clintonville; unmarried. In 1836 she joined of stones is said to mark the grave of their son Benjamin II. “James Jones was put in Revolution at Yorktown under Washington; he migrated to Kentucky, locating (on Baughman’s Creek near Athens) in Fayette County in 1829 moving to Bourbon County in 1799; he (and wife) joined Stoney Point Regular Baptist Church, 1837; he acquired about 800 acres of land at Jones Crossroad in Bourbon County (the original land was purchased from Dr. Henry Clay and Archie-hald Bedford); and he had a small cigar factory in Clintonville.” - L. V. H. Jr., 1953. According to Perrin (1882, q.v.), James Jones was the first to manufacture tobacco in Bourbon County.

In 1883, on the back of a Thomas Jones funeral ticket, Cynthia Rebecca Jones Wright (1842-1915) wrote, “The Surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown, Oct. 19, 1781 - my great-grandfather, James Jones and his brother William Jones were there - also my great-grandfather, Benj. Penn, went through the Revolutionary War.” Before the war, James Jones worked as an overseer on a relative’s plantation in North Carolina. The log cabin which James built (or acquired from his father-in-law, Benjamin Schooler, Sr. according to Mary S. Gorham, 1953) as a home in Bourbon County still stands on the place, now (1954) owned by Mrs. Mattie Lou Stipp Weathers, back from the intersection of Clintonville and Ironworks Roads; the graveyard is on the hill above the house on the farm of William Stipp. Before his death, James added extras to his house, including cherry and mahogany furniture; some bearing shipping addresses from New Orleans are treasured by the family. The inventory of James Jones (Bourbon County Will Book
2, p. 387) shows the estate to be appraised at $8,752, as of July 2, 1839.

Children of James and Salathiel (Schooler) Jones

1. Wharton Jones, b. May 21, 1783 in Fredericksburg, Virginia; d. July 21, 1845 in Bourbon County; i. James Jones graveyard near Clintonville; m. February 1, 1806 in Bourbon County to Cassandra Talbot whose father was Captain John Talbot of West River County (now probably Anne Arundel), Maryland. In 1816, Wharton joined the Stoney Point Regular Baptist Church.

2. William Schooler Jones, b. December 14, 1784 in Fredericksburg, Virginia, d. May 15, 1846 near North Middletown, Kentucky; i. on his farm thereat; m. May 20, 1819 in Bourbon County to Nancy (sister of Martha - q.v.) Ashurst. William S. Jones was one of the executors of his father’s, James’, interesting will, dated October 15, 1835, probated July 4, 1839 (Bourbon County Will Book “L”, p. 385 and inventory at p. 387). Among descendants of this marriage are John W. Jones and other North Middletown families, the line of descent being (a) John William Jones(b) June 15, 1820, d. March 4, 1889, m. October 20, 1840 Anna Armanda Talbott

Talbott; (b) William Schooler Jones m. Emma Collins; and (c) John William Jones(7), b. October 24, 1884, d. July 24, 1957, m. Beulah Bridges. Other children of William S.(4) and Nancy Ashurst Jones, according to Perrin, were Nancy R. m. Charles Howerton - p. 542; Benjamin
P. Jones b. June 24, 1824 and m. in 1850 to Amanda Roberts (f. Joseph of Bourbon County) children Bell, Luty, Lillie, John, Ida, Rosa, and Frank - p. 583; and Josiah A. Jones b. March

Mason Jones, Allen Gano Jones, Susan A. (m. Alexander K. Young), and Mary L. (m. John G. Redmon) - p. 542.

Stone Point; i. at farm later owned by Alfred Clay; m.(1st) August 24, 1822 Jesse Foster, and
(2nd) March 25, 1836 John Hodge. Among the descendants of these marriages are the Whalays of Paris, Kentucky.

ber 11, 1881 at Georgetown, Kentucky; m. June 24, 1822 to Robert (brother of Martha, q.v.)
Ashurst. Among descendants of this marriage are Ashursts in Georgetown; others have mig-

Paris Cemetery. The home of the Talbotts was a farm called Pleasant Hill Plantation on Clintonville-Paris Pike now owned (1954) by H. C. Gaitskill. Children of Lewis and Sarah Jones-Talbott were: - (a) James William Talbott, b. May 3, 1833, d. March 3, 1861; i. Paris Cemetery; (b) Ariabelle F. Talbott m. W. A. Bacon from which Mrs. Harry B. Clay and some Humes and Bacons of Bourbon County descend; (c) Annie Eliza Talbott m. W. A. Paris Cemetery) m. November 30, 1910 Ellen Frances Reynolds (b. about 1876); Leslie Vernon Hagan, Jr. (12-30-1918 - 7-29-1953, i. Paris Cemetery) m. September 6, 1943 Mary Elizabeth Thatcher (b. 11. Rebeckah Jones, who died young.

The ancestry of James Jones (supra), grandfather of our subject John I. Jones, is narrated by L. V. Hagan, Jr. thus: - "There is not a great deal to be found on the forebears of James Jones, who was the son of THOMAS and AFFIA ASHURST JONES, and who was grandson of WILLIAM JONES of North Carolina and a native of Wales. Will of William Jones mentions his son Thomas Jones and a maiden daughter, Elizabeth Jones (see North Carolina Calendar of Wills). Affia Ashurst, mother of James Jones, was a native of Savannah, Georgia, and a half-sister of Josiah Ashurst, who settled early in Bourbon County and became the ancestor of the Ashurst family thereabouts; several children of Josiah Ashurst married their half cousins - children of James and Salathiel Schooler Jones." - q.v. It is not known definitely when THOMAS JONES came to Kentucky; but before 1799 he was located in Paris, was an original trustee of Bourbon Academy, and was proprietor of the Paris Mills on east side of Stoner Creek as shown by early plats of Paris." (Sketches of Paris, by Keller & McCann (1876), at p. 7 notes that on February 20, 1797 he, with James Duncan and Charles Smith, were "appointed Commissioners to let out and superintend the building of a new courthouse", which was to last for 75 years; and at p. 16 it is noted that in 1805 the residence of Thomas Jones was a two-story log building on the west side of High Street near the then outskirts of "the compactness of the town", presumably about where Cherry Street now shows on the Hardin-Ardery map (1951) of Paris.) "Thomas Jones, before coming to Kentucky, served in the Revolution from his native state of North Carolina; and, at outbreak of War of 1812, he received a civil commission as Warehouseman in Paris. He was buried in the old Paris Cemetery, located where the Ice Plant later stood; all signs of this early cemetery have now disappeared, although many graves were moved to the new cemetery on Sixteenth Street. His will, dated October 4, 1811, was probated at the July, 1812 term of the Bourbon Court. The will of Affia Ashurst Jones is also on file thereat."

Children of Thomas and Affia Ashurst Jones, all b. in North Carolina, and last five living out their lives there.

1. JAMES JONES, b. 1758; d. 1839; m. SALATHIEL SCHOOLER. (q.v.)
2. William Jones, d. 1832; served in the Revolution; settled on farm on the Bourbon-Fayette line, where Winston Spears now (1955) lives; i. at rear of that farm.
4. Garrard Jones.
5. Jane Jones.
7. Zovin Jones.
9. Mary Jones.
10. Sarah Jones.
11. Elizabeth Jones.
12. Martha Jones.

At this point it seems advisable to note, for benefit of those who may investigate further their Jones' lineages, that all Jones' of Bourbon County and thereabouts may not tie into the herein-described William-Thomas-James line which derives from painstaking research and accurate investigation of several years by L. V. Hagan, Jr. who shows the line to stem from North Carolina forebears. As of the turn of the century (1800), we find in Bourbon County records another Thomas Jones whose dates misalign with those of our Thomas (d. 1813); this alternate Thomas Jones m. Browne.
Jones is recorded in the Land Trial Book of 1797 as being of age 52, which would define his date of birth to be 1745, and which it would seem conflicts with the unknown birth-date of our Thomas whose marriage to Affia Ashurst produced a son, James Jones in 1758 - the date inscribed on his gravestone on the Stipp farm near Clintonville. Also of record in Bourbon we find on July 18, 1792 the marriage of a Thomas Jones to Lucy Underwood (Book 1); and, in Book 2 at p. 70, we note a marriage of a Thomas Jones to Judith Waits. In an attempt to explain, we take cognizance (1) of the mass movement of the early settlers into the Blue Grass Country through the Valley of Virginia, (2) of the numerical strength of the Jones population in Augusta County, Virginia, and (3) specifically, of one Thomas Jones who in 1735 was granted 400 acres of land in Goochland County, Virginia, on north side of Rivanna (Kegley’s Virginia Frontiers, 1938, p. 28). There are just too many Thomas Jones’ to use ‘em all.

Schooler Kinsfolk

Regarding paternal ancestry of Salathiel Schooler Jones, grandmother of John I. Jones (our subject, L. V. Hagan, Jr. writes, “The earliest Schooler found in America was WILLIAM SCHOOLER whose will was presented for probate in Caroline County, Virginia by his son Thomas in 1728; this William was a native of London, England; his son THOMAS SCHOOLER, in 1701, had taken up 590 acres of land in St. George’s Parish of Spottsylvania (Essex, until 1721) County, Virginia (Deed Book 1, 1728-1732, p. 31, Land Office, Richmond, Virginia) which land subsequently was owned by JOHN SCHOOLER, son of the above Thomas Schooler, who was b. 1705 in Essex County and m. MARTHA WHARTON; they lived in St. George’s Parish, Spottsylvania County. In 1753 John and Martha Wharton Schooler purchased a parcel of land, and in 1766 deeded land to their son, Wharton Schooler (see Crozier’s Records of Spottsylvania County, Va.).”

Children of John and Martha Wharton Schooler all b. in Spottsylvania County, Virginia.

1. Wharton Schooler, b. 1723; served in Revolution (Perrin, p. 476).

BENJAMIN SCHOOLER I, b. 1725; served in Revolution (Perrin, p. 476); d. 1795 near Clintonville, Kentucky where he had settled in 1789 on 150 acres of land; i. with wife who d. 1795; James Jones graveyard thereat; m. Devine (English) or de Vine’ (French-Huguenot) of Spottsylvania County, Virginia - parents of SALATHIEL SCHOOLER who m. JAMES JONES (1758-1839) = q.v. An old Bible, owned (1956) by descendant Mary Gorham Schooler, Clintonville, Kentucky, printed in London 1791, and containing therein the name “Benjamin Reason Schooler”, is said to have been brought to Kentucky by Benjamin Schooler I whose name (as Schoolner) appears in 1790 Census (tax list) of Fayette County with Patty Schooler and Horton Schooler, all as of date 1-11-1790.
3. William Schooler, b. 1772; served in Revolution (Perrin, p. 476); was living 1793 in St. George Parish (see Crozier’s Records of Spottsylvania County, Va.).

Children of Benjamin I and Devine Schooler, all b. in Spottsylvania County, Virginia.

1. Benjamin Schooler II b. 1758; fought in Revolution; settled in Bourbon County near Clintonville; d. October 22, 1822 thereat; i. James Jones graveyard; m. Pattie (Patsy) Foster. Two married Bourbon-born sons survived them, viz. (a) John S. Schooler m. June 21, 1822 Sophia Standford Hildreth who was daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Ann Hildreth, and (b) Benjamin Schooler III b. April 30, 1797, d. September 27, 1834, i. Clintonville Cemetery, m. The latter line of Benjamin III runs to Mary Schooler Gorham presently (1956) of Clintonville; line of descent is - (1) daughter Mary S. Schooler b. September 26, 1832 in Bourbon County, d. December 18, 1863 at Clintonville, m. January 25, 1854 William Rogers Gorham b. October 5, 1827 in North Middletown, Kentucky, and m. June 19, 1855 in Clintonville, d. December 7, 1857 in Clintonville, and d. July 30, 1896 thereat. Other children of Benjamin Schooler II were John, Elizabeth (m. Crowe), Patty, Nancy, Henry, and Samuel.
2. William Schooler, b. 1772; d. 1835 in Clark County, Kentucky; m. (1st) Betsey Harrison whose lineage is stated in Virginia Historical Magazine, Vol. 55, No. 1, Jan. 1947, pp. 85-94 incl. - information by Miss Calla Smith at 634 North Buena Vista, Burbank, California, and m. (2nd) Juriah ---; many descendants living today in Indiana, Iowa, and California. He fought in the Revolution, 1779-80, as sergeant in Captain Minor’s Company, Colonel John Taylor’s Regiment; while living in Fayette County, under date of October 3, 1828, he applied for pension (claim No. 416944); he lived at Bowling Green, Virginia, before moving to Kentucky.
3. SALATHIEL SCHOOLER (1761-1850) was the paternal grandmother of our subject, John I. Jones - q.v.
4. Wharton Schooler, fought in Revolution; m. Margaret Gatewood, and is an ancestor of several of the Bates, Haley’s, Ballengers, Haggards, and McDonalds of Bourbon County.
Ashurst Kinsfolk

The parents of our subject John I. Jones were Thomas Jones (1792-1883) m. Martha (Patsy) Ashurst - q.v., whose parents were JOSIAH ASHURST, a native of Georgia and a brother of Affia Ashurst Jones (q.v.); Josiah Ashurst, born in Savannah, Georgia, m. July 25, 1793 in Bedford County, Virginia (Bedford Marriages, p. 1) REBECKAH KENNEDY who was b. in Frederick County, Maryland; d. September 24, 1855 in Kentucky; i. on farm owned (1955) by E. F. Pritchard on Paris-Clintonville Road. They moved to Kentucky in November 1794 (see Bourbon Chancery Suit, Esther Kennedy vs. Samuel Hatcher) and settled near Clintonville, where he died in 1820 (see Chancery Suit 744, heirs of Josiah Ashurst).

Children of Josiah and Rebeckah Kennedy Ashurst, all b. in Kentucky.

Kennedy Kinsfolk

Rebecka Kennedy's parents were JOHN KENNEDY Jr., b. October 16, 1742 in Fredericktown, Cecil County, Maryland, d. 1781 aboard British prison ship Jersey off Virginia capes; i. Eastern Shore Chapel, Princess Anne County, Virginia (see Collin's History of Kentucky Vol. II, p. 71), m. ESTHER STILLE' who was b. January 14, 1745 in Frederick County, Maryland, d. October 21, 1820, in Bourbon County, i. grave on farm owned (1954) by Harry B. Clay, Jr. on Winchester Road near Paris. John Kennedy, Jr., a volunteer in Revolutionary War, fought at Cowpens, S. C. January 17, 1781, and was captured March 15, 1781 by British at Guilfords Court House, N. C. His will is dated February 22, 1781, and probated September 24, 1781 in Bedford County, Virginia. Esther, a widow, and her family moved into Kentucky in November 1794; the Virginia Census, 1782-1787, lists her as a resident of Bedford County, and an owner of five slaves. More of Esther Stille's parents later.

Kennedy's parents were DR. JOHN KENNEDY Sr. and his second wife-a MISS OWEN, native of Wales. From letters of L. V. Hagan, Jr. (q.v.) it appears that neither John reached Bourbon County. The elder John, at the age of 7 or 8, and about 1710, was kidnapped from the west coast of Ireland, transported to America, and sold as a bond servant in the colony of Maryland, later becoming a doctor (see Collins' History of Kentucky, Vol. II, p. 71); Dr. Kennedy, thought to be a son of Sir Alexander Kennedy of Scotland, (but proof is lacking), moved to Frederick County, Maryland, and later probably to Bedford County, Virginia. Apparently, at the turn of the century, there was another John Kennedy (son of David) and not of subject lineage (a surveyor, 1776, age 54 in 1803) who journeyed over Wilderness Road to Bourbon County (1) to establish land of Joseph Kennedy, (2) to establish improvements on Kennedy Creek for John Kennedy (son of John), and (3) to look out for land for Joseph and Thomas Kennedy, the latter journeying with John of David, both arriving in April 1776 at Boonesborough where they met Michael Stoner, surveyor and Indian-fighter. One Edward Wilson, age about 65 in 1803, deposeth that "in 1782 he surveyed the preemption for John Kennedy, son of John." (see proceedings, Bourbon County Court, September-October, 1803). To confuse the reader further, we here take cognizance of nearby Madison County, which is proud of its historical Kennedys, many of whom bear given names identical with those in our recital; and we urge any investigator of Kentucky Kennedys to read with care a portrayal of "The Kennedys" at pp. 45-47 in Glimpses of Historical Madison County by Jonathan T. and Maud W. Dorris, 1955 Other pertinent Kennedy references are - Manuscriptof Eli Kennedy (1830), presently the property of Mrs. Pattie (Ware) Rhodus, 1518 S. High Street, Paris, Kentucky; Scott's Papers, Kentucky Historical Society, 1953, p. 154; Eckenrode's Revolutionary Soldiers in Virginia, p. 173; Gwathmey's Virginians in Revolutionary War, p. 440.

Clay's farm where he is buried. In Scott's Papers, 1953, Kentucky Historical Society, p. 154, it is stated "Thos. Kennedy, age 74, says on December 9, 1817, in Paris, Ky., that he came to Ky. in 1776 by Old Wilderness Road, returned to Va. and back to Ky. in spring of 1779, and settled at Boonesboro, then back to Virginia and back to Ky. with my family and settled at Strode's Sta. till fall of 1779 and there till 1785, then where I now live near Paris." Mrs. Thompson Tarr descends therefrom. Children of Thomas Sr. and Ann Locker Kennedy were, (1) Thomas Kennedy Jr., moved to Illinois; (2) James Kennedy, moved to Illinois; (3) Nancy Kennedy m. Ephriam Holland - their son Thomas Kennedy Holland lived in Scott County, Kentucky. Children of Thomas Sr. and Rachel Cook Kennedy were (4) Jesse Kennedy - his daughter was named Mary; and (5) John Kennedy who d. young.

5. James Kennedy, b. Frederick County, Maryland; m. Hazel - came to Kentucky, and had a family of which we have no record.

6. Joseph Kennedy, b. Frederick County, Maryland; m. Christine Van der Akers, the Dutch widow King, mother of John King from whom the Kings of Bourbon County descend. Joseph Kennedy was an ancestor in the Bourbon County families of Hildreth, Grimes, Donaldson, Schooler, Gorham, Houston. Darnaby, Haley, Stipp, Weathers, Stephenson, Crowbey, Perry, Adair, Bobbitt, and Sexton; and Mary S. Gorham (Clintonville, 1956) descends therefrom. Stille' Kinsfolk

The below information pertaining to the Stille' family has been excerpted and rearranged from letter dated July 20, 1953 and other notes written by L. V. Hagen, Jr. - q.v. "The first member of the Stille' family of which we presently have knowledge was PETER STILLE'(A), a French Huguenot who fled France for Sweden. Two sons, Olaf and Axil Stille', both b. in New Amstel, Sweden, emigrated to New Sweden (Wilmingtont, Delaware) during the colonization period. It has been impossible to learn from which of these brothers our Kennedy line descends; but it is believed to descend from Axil, since our line is more closely identified with the Maryland area of Axil, while Olaf's family seem to have lived in the Philadelphia-New Jersey area. By the mid-1700s the Stille' families were numerous in both areas.

1. Olaf Stille', a soldier of Queen Christiana, arrived at Fort Christian, New Sweden with two children on February 9, 1643 - see Hacord's Annals of Pennsylvania, footnote by Rev. Dr. Collin. Olaf, in 1658, was appointed by the Dutch to deal with the Indians; and later he settled between Ridley and Crum Creeks in Delaware County. Pennsylvania, on a farm called Tchoherrasse (Techohersase) where he d. in 1666.

2. AXIL STILLE'(1), a miller, in 1641 arrived at New Sweden aboard the Charity, and he settled first at Upland in Chester County, Pennsylvania. In 1661 and 1673 Axil received grants of land in Cecil County, Maryland; and in 1674 he was naturalized into Maryland, and d. before 1688.

The proven ancestor of ESTHER STILLE'(and of our subject John I. Jones) was JACOB STILLE'(3) b. 1687; m. Rebeckah Calloway(?); his will is filed in Christina Hundred, dated September 4, 1771 and probated February 6, 1774 - see Delaware Collection of Wills, Book K, pp. 74 and 114; he is probably the son of JOHN STILLE'(2) whose f. was AXIL STILLE'(1), supra. John Stille'(2) m. a Miss Moore; and, in 1689 he received a grant of land in Harford County, Maryland. Jacob Stille'(3) was Church Warden of Holy Trinity (Old Swede's) Church, Wilmington, 1733; he received four grants of land in Frederick County, Maryland, 1744-1753. The family of Jacob and Rebecca Stille' is recorded in the published Church Book of Holy Trinity, Wilmington, Delaware, 1890; their children (all presumably b. in aforesaid parish) being:

3. Mary Stille'(4) b. June 22, 1714, baptized July 3, 1714, m. February 14, 1736 to Charles Hodges, they being ancestors of some Hodges and Ewalt families of Bourbon County, Kentucky.

4. PETER STILLE'(4) b. March 8, 1717, baptized March 10, 1717, d. 1765 in Frederick County, Maryland, m. widow MARY BIGGS whose first husband was John Biggs. Peter Stille'(4) furnished a substitute in French and Indian War, 1740-1748 - see Maryland Archives, vol. VI, p. 256.

6. Elizabeth Stille'(4) b. April 8, 1721, baptized April 20, 1721.

7. Margaret Stille'(4) b. December 18, 1722, baptized December 23, 1722.

10. Seth Stille'(4) b. January 16, 1732. 11. Melchoir Stille'.

Children of Peter(4) and Mary Biggs Stille', ancestors of our subject John I. Jones.

1. Jacob Stille'(5). 2. Rebeckah Stille'(5) m. Benjamin Ogle, Governor of Maryland, 1798-1801.

ELIZABETH (LIZZIE) MAY JONES(5) - James T.(4), Mary Swartzwelder(3), Cynthia Rebecca McCann(2), John(1), John(A); b. February 11, 1876 near Clintonville in Bourbon County, Kentucky; unmarried. The stature of some persons is inversely proportional to their physical size; a few pint-sizers are intrinsically jewels of giant energy and wonderful mentality. Such a description fits Lizzie May Jones, the conscientious and accurate record-keeper of the James Thomas Jones family. Loved and respected by all the family, she has inspired the authors (distant cousins) to leave no stone unturned that underneath might reveal a bit of information to improve the quality of this work; and she at age 80 has turned over many a stone for us.

Lizzie May’s parents, when she was nine years old, moved the family from Kentucky to southwestern Missouri in April 1885, stopping for a few months at Lamar, Barton County. In November 1885, they moved a few miles north to stay over the winter at Nevada in Vernon County; and in March 1886 settled on a farm seven miles south of Nevada, which was the Jones homestead until 1910 when father Jones died on December 5th. Mother Jones purchased in Nevada a small domicile which was Lizzie May’s home as brothers and sisters departed until her mother died on February 6, 1939. Elementary schooling for Lizzie May was of the rural variety - the little red-brick symbol of those who struggled for mastery of the three R’s. Starting in Kentucky and continuing in the rural schools of Missouri, she advanced and attended Cooper College at Moundsville, Missouri.

Choosing teaching for a career, Lizzie May taught and went on to school as she could, stopping long enough to attend one term at Cottey - a junior college for women at Nevada, Missouri; and she received from Missouri State Teachers College at Springfield her much-deserved Life Certificate. In January 1912, an attack of typhoid fever forced a withdrawal from teaching, which was not resumed until the fall of 1917 when Lizzie May reentered the schools and pursued her cherished vocation uninterruptedly for thirty years, the last twenty-three of which were spent in refined teaching of fifth-grade pupils in Nevada schools; she retired in May 1947 at the close of the 1946-7 term. This long service, endearing her alike to pupils and faculty, was never a task. Teaching was a fascination that outranked all activities other than home and church. As a member of the Methodist Church, attending with great regularity, she also served as teacher in the Sunday School.

Long-suffering Lizzie May endured a minor displeasure, years on end, regarding her given names. For the facts, we feelingly quote from one of her several 1955-letters - “In regard to my name, my parents really first named me Mary Elizabeth, and then turned it around, shortening it to Lizzie May, and so recorded it; and they always called me that name, which I can tolerate all right - but I have a dislike for plain Lizzie. Preparatory to my retirement, in 1946, I wrote to Washington, D. C., to ascertain if the date of my birth were available. They answered that in 1880 the Census Bureau showed the name Mary E.; but in the end, with the help of affidavits, I secured two delayed birth certificates with Lizzie May thereon, one from Missouri and the other from Kentucky.” So, for purposes of this writing, we chronologists are re-christening our little lady Elizabeth May; but we shall continue, with her family and intimates, to love and admire Lizzie May.

FAMILY OF
SAMUEL SWARTZWELDER m. CYNTHIA REBECCA McCANN
Bourbon County, Kentucky

Allan Rash Sindle & Wm. R. McCann

SAMUEL SWARTZWELDER, b. June 10, 1790 in Pennsylvania; d. August 29, 1826 (according to Bible - 1828) at Paris, Kentucky; m. February 27, 1817 in Paris CYNTHIA REBECCA McCANN. The Reporter, Lexington (Ky.), in issue of Monday Evening, September 4, 1826, carries item captioned "DIED" and reading "In Bourbon, Mr. Samuel Swartzwelder, of Paris." No other information. "Samuel, a native of Pennsylvania, emigrated to this (Bourbon) County at an early date." - p. 500 Perrin's History. At time of Samuel's death, there were two other Swartzwelders in Bourbon, Peter and Jacob, but we know not their relationships, if any. Peter was listed in the 1800 list of taxpayers in Bourbon County; he was a volunteer fireman, 1810; in 1840 Census he is listed in Harrison County, age 60-70 (i.e. b. 1770-80). "About the year 1817, principally through the energy of Peter Swartzwelder, Esq., then a citizen of that place (Paris), a brick church (Methodist - South) was built on the lot where the present church stands." Sketches of Paris, 1876, p. 31. The entries in Samuel Swartzwelder's Bible, owned by Mrs. Alan R. Sindle of Gallatin, Tennessee, are transcribed elsewhere herein. Of Swartzwelder forebears we presently know nothing. A valued possession of Miss Grace Greenleaf Sindle, Gallatin, Tennessee, is an old blue teapot and cup treasured by her grandmother (q.v.) and said to have been brought by some Swartzwelder from Switzerland.

CYNTHIA REBECCA McCANN(2) - John(l), John(A); b. September 13, 1798 near Paris, Kentucky; lived in Paris until later than January 7, 1856; d. and i. presently unknown. Her ancestry is described in John McKeand of Whithorn, Scotland, W. R. & R. L. McCann, 1953. Her father, John McCann (McKeand) emigrated from Scotland about 1755, migrated to Kentucky, and was among the early settlers near Paris, Bourbon County. Her mother was Nancy Penn(4) whose Penn lineage is Benjamin Penn, Jr.(3) b. 1753 in Maryland, d. May 10, 1827 in Franklin County, Kentucky, and m. 1774 in Montgomery County, Maryland, to Rebecca Ryan (b. 1760, and d. January 10, 1840 in Franklin County); Benjamin Penn, Sr.(2) who m. Dinah --- and d. 1777 in Ann Arundel County, Maryland; and Edward Penn(l) of Cecil County, Maryland, whose will was filed for probate thereat in 1741. Nancy Penn was b. June 5, 1779 (Bible of Emily W. McCann), m. August 24, 1797 near Paris, Kentucky, and there d. April 10, 1842, re-interred Paris Cemetery. Edward Penn was in Cecil County, Maryland, as early as May 4, 1676 - six years earlier than Quaker William Penn's landing at Newcastle.

July 3, 1848 at Columbus, Illinois, and whose forebears are described in "The Greenleaf-Sindle Lineage", elsewhere herein. Eliza Ann probably met-up with Henry while she was visiting her uncle, Wesley D. McCann, who had moved from Paris, Kentucky, to Columbus, Illinois, about 1837. After death of her husband, she remained a few months at Columbus, and then returned (before 6-13-1849) with her young daughter to Paris, Kentucky, to reside with her mother there, subsequently serving as a matron in the early days of Berea College, Kentucky. After her mother died, Eliza Ann and daughter Cynthia Grace (during the Civil War) moved to Gallatin, Tennessee, where Grace, a graduate of Berea College, taught private school and music for many years in their Gallatin home. Samuel Swartzwelder's Bible

This caption is written outside on the back cover of a quaint old New Testament, owned and long-cherished by Mrs. Allan Rash Sindle of Gallatin, Tennessee - great-granddaughter of the original owner. Dimensions of the little book, in inches, are 5 1/2 long, 3 3/4 wide, and 3/4 thick, 214 pages - vest-pocket size to the moderns. Covers are protected with age-worn rough buckskin, neatly-folded and strongly-tied by one that loved the Gospel. Faint writing on the front leather is undecipherable. What appears to be a shot-hole pierces the front leather only. The title page reads --

and with The Former Translations diligently compared and revised

With one exception, the vital entries on fly-leaf and memorandums pages are clear and distinct. The following is a careful transcription of the entries in order of their appearances, parentheses by the writer --

"Samuel Swartzwelder's Testament Which is Called The Word of God" (front flyleaf).

"Marthy Ann(7) the daughter of John & Mary Jones was Born the 23 December 1843 = 12 clock Saturday." (Memo. p. 4).

For clarification, the foregoing entries have been numbered in parentheses. Numbers (1), (2), (3), and (4) are children of Samuel and Cynthia McCann Swartzwelder; number (5) is wife of Samuel who m. Cynthia Rebecca McCann; numbers (6) and (7) are daughters of John I. Jones m. Feb. 11, 1842 Mary Ellen Swartzwelder(3).

Regarding spelling of Samuel's surname we note that without exception in Samuel's Bible the orthography is Swartzwelder. Heretofore, in our writings, we have spelled this surname "Schwartzwelder", based on majority instances in the records. We now adopt "Swartzwelder" as correct, and shall use the latter spelling henceforth.

W.R.M. - 1957

The Greenleaf-Sindle Lineage

1. Edmund Greenleaf, son of John and Margaret (probably Huguenots), was baptized Jan. 2, 1574 in the parish of St. Mary's la Tour in Ipswich, County Suffolk, England (elsewhere we have noted a reference, we believe erroneous, stating birthplace of Edmund to be parish of Brixham, town of Plymouth, Devonshire, England, which was the birthplace of Tristam Coffin, see below). A silk-dyer by trade, Edmund with his family emigrated to America and in 1635 settled at Newbury (now Newburyport), Massachusetts, where he kept tavern and was ensign there, June 1639, and later was a lieutenant, moving about 1650 to Boston where he died March 24, 1671. He m.(1st) Sarah Dole (d. Jun. 18, 1663 in Boston) and by her had nine children, whose names appear in the records of the parish of St. Mary's la Tour and two other children, John and Mary, not there recorded; he m.(2nd) Mrs. Sarah (Jurdaine) Hill (d. 1671 in Boston) of Exeter, England, relict of (1st) ---- Wilson and (2nd) William Hill of Fairfield, Conn. - no children.

2. Stephen Greenleaf, baptized Aug. 10, 1628 in St. Mary's, came to America with his parents and resided at Newbury, Mass., until his death, Dec. 1, 1690. He m.(1st) Nov. 13, 1651 Elizabeth Coffin whose parents were Tristam and Dions (Stephens) Coffin, Sr.; of this marriage there were four children of record; he m.(2nd) March 31, 1679 Mrs. Esther Weare Swett, relict of Benjamin, and daughter of Nathaniel Weare of Hampton, N. H. Although a Quaker, Stephen was an ensign 1670, Lieutenant 1685, Captain 1686, and he drowned in a vessel wrecked off Cape Breton while participating in expedition against Port Royal. The name of Stephen Greenleaf appears in a deed, dated July 2, 1659, as one of several (ultimately twenty) proprietors who purchased for 30 pounds and two beaver hats all of Nantucket Island, and shared the island in equal parts; but it appears that Stephen never lived on his proprietorship.

3. Captain Stephen Greenleaf, Jr., b. August 15, 1652 in Newbury, Mass., became a prominent man in public affairs thereat, was famed as the "great Indian fighter", was wounded and maimed in Indian warfare, and was one of Newbury's selectmen in 1675-76, dying Oct. 19, 1743 at Newbury. He m.(1st) October 23, 1676 Elizabeth Gerrish (daughter of William and Mrs. Joanna (Goodale-Oliver) Gerrish of Newbury), who was b. Sept. 10, 1654, d. August 5, 1712, and bore him ten children; he m.(2nd) 1713 Mrs. Hannah Jordan of Kittey, Maine, who d. Sept. 30, 1743, no children of record. "June 4, 1665 Ensign Greenleaf was promoted to Lieutenant." "October 24, 1689 Lt.-Captain Greenleaf was much distinguished in Indian Wars."

4. Rev. Daniel Greenleaf, b. Feb. 10, 1679-80 in Newbury, Mass., d. Aug. 26, 1763 at Boston, graduated at Harvard 1699, practiced medicine for six years, started preaching about 1706, and was pastor of Congregational Church at Yarmouth, Mass., until 1727 when he moved to Boston. He m. Nov. 18, 1701 Elizabeth (1681-1762) daughter of Samuel (1652-1730) and Mary Gooking, granddaughter of Major-General Daniel Gooking (1612-1687) who m. Mary Dolling-the Cookings were a distinguished family in the early days of Massachusetts and Virginia originating in Canterbury, England, and running back to the reign of King John. Daniel and Mary (Gooking) Greenleaf had twelve children.

5. Dr. Daniel Greenleaf, b. Nov. 7. 1702 in Cambridge, Mass., was for a number of years a practicing physician at Hingham, Mass., moving about 1732 to Boston (or Bolton) Mass.; he d. July 18, 1795; he was Surgeon of Regiment at siege of Louisburg, C. B., sailing from Boston March 24, 1745; afterwards in same year he served on a Colony Ship. He m.(1st) July 18, 1726 Mrs. Silence Marsh (relief of David, and daughter of Israel and Mary (Summer) Nichols) b. July 4, 1702 in Hingham, d. May 13, 1762; he m.(2nd) Nov. 18, 1762 Mrs. Dorothy Richardson, relief of Josiah. Daniel and Silence Nichols Greenleaf had ten children; according to text, the first three children apparently were born in Hingham; of the other seven, the stated places of birth alternate between Bolton and Boston - both in Massachusetts.

6. Stephen Greenleaf, b. Oct. 15, 1735 in Boston, d. June 8, 1802, m. Jan. 11, 1758 Eunice Fairbanks of Boston (d. March 8, 1826). They had eleven children, six b. in Boston and five b. in Brattleboro, Vt. to where they moved in 1771 and, upon an unoccupied tract of 800 acres (later known, 1896, as the East Village of Brattleboro) built a home, followed by a store (said to be the first in Vermont), a saw mill, and a gristmill (afterwards used for a machine shop).

7. Major Stephen Greenleaf, b. Jan. 31, 1759 in Boston whence he departed at age twelve with his parents moving to pioneer at Brattleboro, Vt. whereat he lived until death March 5, 1850; self-educated while he worked at his trades of carpenter and wheelwright, he was elected in 1799 to be Town Clerk of Brattleboro, to which office he was re-elected for forty-five years. In the American Revolution, Stephen served in various Vermont commands - Capt. John Sargeant, Col. Warner, Gen. Stark at Bennington, Col. Schuyler at Saratoga, Col. Morgan's riflemen in Gates' Army, and at Stillwater which terminated in capture of Burgoyne and his army; later he was commissioned Major in the State militia, and his portrait hangs with others in the town hall at Brattleboro. He m.(1st) Anna Sargent (d. Oct. 11, 1813), and by her had three children; he m.(2nd) Mrs. Cynthia Ryan (d. Sept. 7, 1859, age 92) by whom he had no child.

8. Major Thomas Sargent Greenleaf, b. March 25, 1784 in Brattleboro, Vt., d. May 2, 1859 at Columbus, Illinois, i. Columbus Cemetery thereat, m.(1st) Dimmis Nash by whom he had three children, one dying in infancy and the other two marrying and remaining in the East; he m.(2nd) 1812-1814 Lydia Miller of Brattleboro, Vt., by whom he had seven children, one dying in infancy, five appearing later in Adams County, Illinois, and one marrying but habitat uncertain (probably Adams County); Lydia d. February 9, 1857, age 64, at Columbus, Illinois, i. Columbus Cemetery thereat. Subject lineage pivots on Thomas Sargent Greenleaf who with his family-by-Miller, in 1840 migrated to Columbus, Illinois, then a small but thriving village competing with Quincy (18 miles to the west) to be the county seat of Adams County, the latter after a battle of years ultimately winning; whereupon Thomas Sargeant and most of his family (in 1850) and McCann kinsfolk gradually moved to Quincy to participate in its wonderous development. "Thomas Greenleaf and Sons manufactured wagons and buggies quite extensively in Columbus. M. T. (Miller Thaddeus) Greenleaf (1821-after 1896) introduced the first machine lathe. Lytle Griffing was the first in the saddlery and harness business. W. D. McCann established a cabinet shop and continued many years." - History of Adams County, Illinois, 1879, Murray, Williamson, & Phelps, Publishers, Chicago. The first family settled in Adams County in 1821; the first in Columbus township in 1830. Town of Columbus was laid out 1835. Population of Adams County in 1830 was 2186, in 1840 was 14,476, in 1850 was 26,508. Quincy in 1827 had but nine houses.

9. Henry Miller Greenleaf, b. August 22, 1815 in Brattleboro, Vt., moved in 1840 with his parents and three brothers and two sisters to Columbus, Adams County, Illinois where he d. July 2, 1848; marker in Columbus Cemetery reads "Died July 3, 1848 - age 33 yrs." He m. February 13, 1845 in Adams County Eliza Ann Swartzwelder who was b. May 13, 1818 in Paris, Ky., d. Feb. 8, 1909 at Gallatin, Tenn., i. Gallatin Cemetery, and whose parents were Samuel Swartzwelder (1790-1826) of Pennsylvania m. Feb. 27, 1817 in Paris, Ky., Cynthia Rebecca McCann (1798-after 1856) a native of Paris, Ky. - q.v. One child, a daughter, was born to the Greenleafs - Cynthia Rebecca Grace Greenleaf, b. March 26, 1846 in Columbus, Illinois, and m. Oct. 2, 1879 in Sumner County, Tennessee, Robert Henry Sindle (1833-1912) - q.v.

10. For descendants of Henry and Eliza Swartzwelder Greenleaf, see Descendants of Samuel Swartzwelder m. Cynthia Rebecca McCann - q.v.

This Greenleaf-Sindle lineage has been gleaned largely from the comprehensive Genealogy of the Greenleaf Family by James Edward Greenleaf, 1896, 553 pp. Frank Wood, Printer, Boston, Mass. The material has been rearranged, briefed, and somewhat augmented as to facts.

Numerals in parentheses, e.g. (4), generally signify the fourth generation of McCann blood; and (im) signifies a name married to a fourth-generation McCann, but not generally of that blood. A child of such marriage would be of McCann blood, and would be designated (5), except that (G1), (G2), (G3), etc. denote the first, second, and third generations of Greenleafs, and (S1), (S2), (S3), etc. have similar designation for the Stiles. Names without numerals, with few exceptions, are kinsfolk, mostly by marriage. The illustrative chart on the mid-pages of this pamphlet, which diagrams the seven principal lineages of the text, has a broader application than that of the relatively few names that are spelled-out. Any descendant of a brother-or-sister of any name below the eight marriage lines would inherently possess the same ancestry as that of the stated names.
