Baltzer Götz
NUMBERING SYSTEM:

A. Baltzer Götz is Number 1 in this work.

B. All generations of the Götz family prior to Baltzer are identified by small “i” roman numerals, beginning with the oldest documented ancestor of Baltzer: i = Melchoir Götz (Baltzer’s great-great-great grandfather), i-i = Family of Andreas Götz (Baltzer’s great-great-grandfather), i-i-ii = Melchoir Götz (Baltzer’s great-grandfather); i-i-ii-i = Johannes Götz (Baltzer’s grandfather); and, finally, i-i-ii-i-vi = Michael Götz (Baltzer’s father)

C. All generations of the direct descendants Baltzer Götz are separated by a dash (-). Each successive number denotes another generation. Barnhart Götz is Baltzer’s fourth child, and is noted as 1-4 in this work. Likewise, since David Getz is Barnhart’s third child, he is listed as 1-4-3. Grayson Getz, the current owner of the Getz homestead in Shenandoah County, has been assigned the number corresponding with his place in David’s line, 1-4-3-7-2-6-2, which means:

1 - 4 - 3 - 7 - 2 - 6 - 2
| | | | | | | __GRAYSON GETZ (2nd child of Charles Bernard)
| | | | | | | __CHARLES BERNARD GETZ (6th child of Charles Monroe)
| | | | | | | __CHARLES MONROE GETZ (2nd child of Moses Getz)
| | | | | | | __MOSES GETZ (7th child of David Getz)
| | | | | | | __DAVID GETZ (3rd child of Barnhart Götz)
| | | | | | | __BARNHART GÖTZ (4th child of Baltzer Götz)
| | | | | | __BALTZER GÖTZ

D. ASSOCIATED FAMILIES are included at the end of each Part of this work. They are recorded as such:

6-1AF-1
| | | | | | ___First known generation ancestor of that family.
| | | | | | ___ASSOCIATED FAMILY (Related by marriage to the Getz family)
| | | | | | ___Family number (each family has its own number).
| | | | | | ___Descendant of Barnhart Götz to which the Associated Family is related. If the Associated Family is related to Barnhart, there is no number in this position.

Each descendant in an Associated Family is identified using the same numbering system as indicated in C, above.

Introduction

Genealogy is a disease for which there is no cure, and the worst you get this disease the better you like it!

I have always been a student of history. My college minor was history, and my particular interests were German history, and the colonial and Civil War periods of American history. I have always been interested in family history, but my family knew virtually nothing about my great grandfather, Morgan Getz. According to my elder aunts and uncles, Morgan was believed to have been an orphan from the Pittsburgh area of Pennsylvania. Nobody really knew because Morgan never talked about his past. I began my family history research in earnest when my job carried me to Salt Lake City in 1985, to attend a meeting. Once I arrived, I realized my meeting was being held in a hotel 2½ blocks from the Family History Library. I spent every available spare minute in the library (my wife and I have been there a number of times since then). In my first hour, I not only disproved what I had been told, I found that Morgan Getz was born only 20 miles from where I was born, in Shelby County, Illinois. I found out when and where his father, John Getz, was born - in 1809 in Virginia. Then, in 1987, my parents were in a shopping mall in Harrisonburg, Virginia, where they met K.B. Getz. They were told that K.B.'s father, Bennie, was working on their family history and provided me with his phone number. Bennie was able to provide me with a wealth of information and we made the link between my ancestor, John Getz, and his father, Barnhart, who settled in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. As they say, “the rest is history.” Any doubts about my family being in the lineage of the Virginia family of Barnhart Getz were laid to rest at the first Getz family reunion, in 1996.

Michael L. Getz, born in Illinois in 1948, meet Dr. Samuel Getz Showalter, born in Virginia in 1943.
Mike and Sam met at the 1996 family reunion on the Shenandoah County, Virginia homestead. Mike is a fifth generation descendant of Barnhart Götz, via his last son, John. Sam is a sixth generation descendant, through Barnhart’s sixth son, Jacob. Several cousins at the reunion said the only dead giveaway was Mike’s very definite “Yankee” accent.

Every family has traditions and stories that are passed down from one generation to another. Every now and then, a family has one that is worth sharing, and fortunately the Getz family is no exception. There is a Kentucky Coffee tree in the front lawn of Grayson’s home in Shenandoah County, Virginia. The canopy of this tree is so thick that the leaves shed virtually any rainfall. The Kentucky Coffee tree is not native to the Shenandoah Valley and, by Grayson’s account, there are only two locations in the valley where these trees are located - there in the front lawn of the Getz family homestead and at James Madison University, and JMU dug their first seedling in the lawn of the Getz family homestead. According to family history passed down to Grayson from his ancestors who lived on the farm in previous generations, a Getz cousin from Ohio came through the Shenandoah Valley during the Civil War and dropped off a Kentucky Coffee tree seedling with a request to plant the seedling to remember him in case he didn’t return. Kentucky Coffee trees are native to Ohio. By tracing the rosters of Ohio regiments in the Civil War, there are only four possible sources of the original seedling:

1. Harrison W. Getz. Harrison was born in York County, Pennsylvania. At age 23, on February 13, 1864, he enlisted in Company F, 8th Ohio Cavalry. In July-August, 1864, Company F was stationed at Beverly, West Virginia. Some men on detached service were with General Sheridan in the Valley of the Shenandoah. Harrison was mustered out on July 3, 1865. Harrison filed for disability pension on February 4, 1880. His wife, Ida M Getz filed as a widow on March 4, 1896, and Charles Chapman filed for pension benefits on October 13, 1902, listing Harrison as his guardian.

2. John Getz. At the age of 18, on October 31, 1861, John signed a three-year enlistment in Battery I, 1st Ohio Light Artillery. In May-June, 1862, Battery I marched from Franklin to Strasburg, Virginia, then from Port Republic to Harrisonburg, then back to Middletown, between Strasburg and Winchester. From April 30-August 31, 1862, the Battery participated in battles from Strasburg through the Shenandoah Valley, at Cross Keyes, Port Republic, and Luray. During the period of August 31-December 31, 1862, they marched from Fairfax County to Thoroughfare Gap, Virginia, from Thoroughfare Gap to New Baltimore, Virginia, from New Baltimore to Centerville, from Centerville to Dumfries, and on to Fredericksburg and Aquia Creek, Virginia.

3. Owen B. Getz. On February 12, 1862, at the age of 18, Owen was mustered into Company K, 23rd Ohio Infantry for a three year enlistment. Although details of its service are scarce, Company K was recorded as having spent most of its duty in West Virginia. The company was in Raleigh, Virginia in early 1862, at Cedar Creek in September-October, 1864, at Winchester in March-April, 1865. In the National Archives records he is also listed as Orin B. Gets.

4. Peter Getz... At the age of 20, Peter was mustered into service on August 22, 1861, as a trooper in Company A, 1st Ohio Cavalry, serving a three-year enlistment. Company A’s only known activity in the Shenandoah Valley was in March-April, 1862. On that date, Company A covered the rear guard of a march from Harrisonburg to Winchester, up the Valley Turnpike. At the end of the day’s march on March 23, from Bunker Hill to Winchester, they fought a skirmish and took prisoners. Peter was promoted to Corporal on December 1, 1864, and mustered out on September 13, 1865. He lived in Columbus, Ohio after the war. Peter filed for a disability pension on March 27, 1888, and his wife, Rebecca, filed as a widow on May 16, 1912.

The current tree is a third-generation seedling, which grew from sprouts of the previous tree. In the photos of the homestead throughout this work, the dominance of the Kentucky Coffee tree in the lawn is noted. At the family reunion in 1997, a number of seedlings were dug and distributed to those in attendance. There are now seedlings thriving at the homes of Grayson’s Illinois cousins. There is probably little chance that the validity of this story will ever be proven, but the possibility of some day proving that one of these Ohio veterans is in fact a cousin is what genealogy is all about.

In each family’s history there are many stories, some true and some embellished. Within the Shenandoah Valley there is one story involving a Getz which has been re-told and re-printed in numerous works. This is the story of Davy Getz and his Civil War encounter with General George Armstrong Custer. This story is taken from Glimpses of the Past in Shenandoah County, published by The Woodstock Museum, edited by Joseph B. Clower, Jr. The same article appears as “Custer’s Nemesis,” in A History of Shenandoah County, Virginia, by John A. Wayland, pp. 509-510.

“A Yankee Atrocity”

When soldiers shoot one another in combat we call them heroes, but when soldiers shoot innocent civilians, we call them murderers. Davy Getz was murdered!

A faded newspaper clipping from an edition of the Shenandoah Herald of the early 1920s recounts the bloody details of that Yankee atrocity as recalled by Capt. John H. Grabill, then owner and publisher of the newspaper.

“I knew the small family, consisting of Andrew Getz, Elizabeth, his wife, and their simple-minded son, David. David was 30 years old (at the time of this incident). The family lived in a small house near Woodstock Methodist Church, paying rent by performing the duties of sexton of the church. The fact that David was mentally deficient was doubted by no one. A single glance at his countenance was enough to convince anyone. Of him were required no duties of a civil or military character. He was simple and harmless. He was, in every respect, nothing but a very timid child. He had no ambition to be a soldier, but on the contrary was always badly frightened at the suggestion.

"Davy got hold of an old musket and every day amused himself hunting ground squirrels and small birds. In the summer of 1864 a squad of Federal soldiers suddenly came upon him. To their question, 'Are you a bushwhacker?' Davy ignorantly replied that he was. He had no more idea of what a bushwhacker was than he did of transcendentalism. The soldiers seized poor Davy, dragged him down High Street to the pike and then tied him to a wagon. The poor fellow's heart-rending screams aroused the whole town.

"Accustomed as were the people to the brutality of the Federal hordes that prowled through the Valley, nothing aroused their sympathy and horror, not even the burning of their homes and churches by the firebrands of the brutal Sheridan, as did this human outrage. Tied behind a wagon and dragged through the streets, his plaintive cries and shrieks brought ladies to the doors and windows on all sides. Helpless they stood and wept for the poor and unfortunate.

"Close behind him walked the aged father and mother, clasping each other's hands and crying in great distress. They continued to follow their screaming child until they were driven back by the bayonets of the Federal soldiers.

"Custer's camp was about a mile north of Woodstock. Here he was waited upon by Mrs. J.L. Campbell, Mrs. Murphy and other ladies of the town, who gave him a truthful statement of the character of poor Davy and besought Custer to take one look at the man and that would be enough to convince him of the truthfulness of their statements. Custer roughly repulsed them. He was afterwards visited by Moses Walton, a distinguished lawyer of Woodstock, by J.S. Irvin, a Union man of Woodstock, and by Adolph Heller, a prominent merchant and strong Union man whose home both Generals Custer and Torbett had occasionally made their headquarters. Mr. Heller earnestly besought Gen. Custer to release the poor idiot. When Custer intimated that he proposed to have Davy shot, Mr. Heller boldly exclaimed, 'General Custer, you will sleep in a bloody grave for this. Surely a just God will not permit such a crime to be unavenged.'

"The words of Mr. Heller proved to be prophetic. Custer and his entire band were slaughtered by the Indians some years after the war.

"Poor Davy was again tied behind a wagon, compelled to walk to Bridgewater, 45 miles distant, there forced to dig his own grave and was then murdered like a dog.

Very little is known about Davy Getz or his father, Andrew. We are not sure if Davy is descended from our ancestor, Barnhart Götz or from another of the Valley. Davy could be descended from Bernard Getz, the tenth child of Barnhart, but it is highly unlikely that he is descended from any of Bernard's brothers who stayed in the Shenandoah Valley. We know very little about Bernard, but the family lineage of his brothers are, for the most part, complete.

I have found that the most interesting part of researching family history is when I find an interesting story, such as the one of Davy Getz. Every family has such stories which, although they may be of interest only to the family, add to the human side of the family. history. In my research, I have found connections to families who literally helped build this country. In some ways, though, a family history is not complete without revealing the old adage, “A picture is worth a thousand words.” One such photo I found tells a great story to me, personally. My dad told me a lot of stories, from the time he licked the frozen hitching rail (on a dare, of course) in front of the Vine Street School in Shelbyville (which resulted in a raw tongue for several days), to the time he lagged behind while husking corn with Grandpa Getz - he was smacked in the head with several ears of corn as Grandpa, without missing a beat, admonished him in his colorfully verbal way. In my search through old photos with my Aunt Elsie, I found a photo of Dad, taken in 1932, which is priceless to me.

My Dad, Sitting on His A__! This is practically the last time my dad ever sat still long enough to get his picture taken. He retired from farming several years ago so he could do whatever he wanted to do. He’s doing just that. He’s helping my brothers farm!

I am very proud of my heritage. I am born of farm stock, dating back to my immigrant ancestor, Baltzer Götz. I found in my research that virtually every immigrant from whom I am descended worked the land, and virtually every one of them arrived here before the American Revolution. This really doesn’t mean anything, and it doesn’t make the Getz family any better or worse than any other family. I just find it fascinating in light of all the immigration that took place in the mid-nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. I hope you find this work to be both informative and interesting, and I sincerely apologize for any errors which may have been committed in compiling this work. I want to thank all my cousins who have supplied me with information, but most of all I want to thank three of my Virginia cousins: Bennie, Grayson and Matthew Getz, and Nina Mae Bibble. A great deal of Getz genealogy came from Bennie and his previous publication. Nina Mae “volunteered” me to do this work and supplied me with a wealth of additional information. Grayson inspired me through his willingness to open his home to his "yankee" cousin, and his enthusiasm in hosting our annual family reunions and sharing the heritage of the family homestead. Matt undertook the task of checking may information against his own database, and making numerous corrections in my manuscript - a monumental task, in my opinion. Matt has been relentless in searching out new information on the Getz family, and is to be commended for placing the family on the internet.

More than likely, when you read this book, you will find something either inaccurate or incomplete. For either, I apologize in advance. I have attempted to be as thorough and accurate as possible, and I've shared the manuscript with a number of contributors along the way. At the very least, this work is a document upon which others can build, just as I built on what Bennie wrote a few years ago.

Baltzer Götz
and his son,
Barnhart Götz
As we begin to trace Baltzer's heritage, we find that his burial records are our first clue. Baltzer Götz died in Lebanon County, Pennsylvania in February, 1795. The records of the Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church (Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church, Lebanon, Lebanon County, Pennsylvania, Burial Records, 1773-1876, p. 9) of the City of Lebanon, Lebanon County, Pennsylvania recorded his death as follows:

Engstlatt (to the left) is a small town located in the heart of the Black Forest about 45 km South-Southwest of Stuttgart, Württemberg, Germany. It is the birth of our immigrant ancestor. Engstlatt is only about 7 km North of Balingen.
MELCHOIR GÖTZ
b. Abt 1560, Streichen, Württemberg, Germany.

Melchoir, father of Andreas and the great-great-great grandfather of immigrant Baltzer Götz, is the earliest known ancestor at this point in our family research. Melchoir moved the short distance from Streichen to Engstlatt sometime before the birth of his children and probably before his marriage, since there is no record of him in the records of the Evangelical Church of Engstlatt.

Michael Götz was the father of our immigrant ancestor, Baltzer Götz. Michael spent his whole life in Engstlatt. At the age of 27 he took his 22 year old bride, Maria, and started his eventual family of fifteen children. As noted above, Michael and Maria lost three of their children on March 2, 12, and 17, 1726. Michael was a "weber" (weaver) by trade.

b. 20 Jun 1719, Engstlatt, Württemberg, Germany; d. 15 Feb 1795, Earl Twp., Lebanon, PA; bur 17 Feb 1795, Lebanon, Lebanon, PA; m1. Abt 1752 to MAGDEL LUTZ, b. Listed under the name Balthas Götz, our ancestor emigrated to America, at the age of 32, aboard the ship, "Duke of Wirinburg," arriving in Philadelphia on October 16, 1751 (Pennsylvania German Pioneers, vol 1, p. 476). From Philadelphia, Baltzer moved on to Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, where he eventually became firmly established as a landowner in the northeastern part of the county.

A 175 acre tract of land was purchased by Baltzer, then of Earl Township, from John Bitzer on 13 January 1774 for the sum of £1,300 (Lancaster County, PA Deed Book AA, vol 2, pp. 380-385). This is the first record of any land purchase on the part of our ancestor. Baltzer was listed in numerous entries of Lancaster County tax records.

The "Effective Tax Supply, County of Lancaster - 1779 (Pennsylvania Archives, 3rd Series, vol. XVII, p. 577) under Cocalico Township includes:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Acres</th>
<th>Horses</th>
<th>Cattle</th>
<th>Sheep</th>
<th>Negroes</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Getz, Baltzer</td>
<td>100</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>..</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The "Returns and Valuations, County of Lancaster - 1782 (Pennsylvania Archives, 3rd Series, vol. XVII, p. 866), listed Baltzer in the following manner:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Acres</th>
<th>Horses</th>
<th>Cattle</th>
<th>Servants</th>
<th>Tax</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Getz, Balsor</td>
<td>150</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>15.0.0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

These tax roles indicate Baltzer’s ownership of land fluctuated somewhat over the next several years. Baltzer’s final property ownership is witnessed by the sale of some one hundred seventy-five acres in Cocalico Township to one Philip Royer, dated 15 March 1786, for the sum of £1,325 lawful money of Pennsylvania (Lancaster County, PA Deed Book EE, vol. 2, pp. 433-435).

Since Baltzer was living in the Province of Pennsylvania at the time of the American Revolution, he was subjected to an Act of the Pennsylvania General Assembly 13 Jun 1777 requiring an oath of allegiance and fidelity to the new Commonwealth. These "Oaths of allegiance were administered by various justices in Lancaster County. The Lancaster County records (Deed Book L) show Baltzer as taking the "Oath of Allegiance" on May 30, 1778 (Lancaster County, Pennsylvania Deed Abstracts & Revolutionary War Oaths of Allegiance - Deed Books 'A' through 'M' - 1729 through ca. 1770, compiled by Mayhill, R. Thomas (1973).
Baltzer married twice in Lancaster County, with the first marriage being to Magdel Lutz. Magdel died about 1758-1759, but not before three daughters were born (Katharina, Rosina, and Magdalina). Baltzer re-married, this time to Catharina Schmidt, daughter of John Schmidt. They were married on 29 Mar 1760 at the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in New Holland, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania (Sources and Documents of the Pennsylvania Germans: II, "Records of Pastoral Acts at Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, New Holland, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania - 1730-1799", The Pennsylvania German Society, 1977, p. 203), and their son, Barnhart, was born on 26 Jan 1761. The births of Baltzer's children are recorded (Bergstrasse Evangelical Lutheran Church, Ephrata Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, “Parochial Registers, 1753-1915, p.12) as such:

Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church, Lebanon, Lebanon County, Pennsylvania
When Baltzer died in 1795, he was buried in the cemetery adjacent to the Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church, in the town of Lebanon, Pennsylvania. Some years after his death, in an effort to make room for a new church on the grounds, re-located several graves to a new cemetery on the north side of Lebanon. Baltzer's grave was among those relocated to the new cemetery. The re-located graves were not marked with individual headstones, but were noted on a plaque on a wall in the new cemetery.

The following is a translation of Baltzer's will, which was recorded in Lebanon County, Pennsylvania:

In God's name, I, Baltzer Kitz of Earl Township, Lancaster County, widower am still well and in sound mind but am looking forward to my death with my last will and testament.

First it is my will and order that all my true debts should be paid and also it is my will that my son Parnhart should have my large Künzburger Bible for his birthright and should not have the right to get 1/12th. Also I give to my son Parnhart kitz $200 which I have loaned on the man from which I rented land. I have to him loaned some $200 for three years and after those named three years said money my son Parnhart should have but the interest should go to the rest of the Estate. Also I give and bequest to my son Parnhart all my horses and wagons also harness baits.... Also I give and bequest my three daughters said money from ten fields which Philip Cosier owes me. Each piece of land I sit interest on the above £360 so named three years should be given equal shares as written. My daughter Katharina received from her part £12. My daughter Roina received from her part £57 and my daughter Magdalina received from her part £25. Also Magdalina and Katharina to take part of Roina's share that they be equal. Also it is my will that my Katharina should have only half from her part and the other half should go to her children she had with Martin Frank under each and the same part given. Also it is my and that the other half should go to her children she had with

Also I order my son Barnhart King and Adam Brown Executors. Also I gave here my name the 15th day of March in the year of our Lord 1787.
Before witnesses signed and sealed.
It is interesting to note that Baltzer's will is dated a mere two days after he sold his last property in Pennsylvania.

Barnhart Götz, our first generation American, was born 26 Jan 1761, in Ephrata Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Barnhart grew up in the Ephrata area of northeastern Lancaster County, in Earl and Cocalico Townships. Although there is no direct family information relating to Barnhart’s military service during the American Revolution, the muster rolls of Pennsylvania militia include the name of our ancestor. Excerpts of those muster rolls (noting the listing of Barnhart in the ranks) are included below:

Even though there is no record that Barnhart ever applied for a pension or a land grant as a veteran of the American Revolution, these muster roles are strong evidence that he did, in fact, serve in the militia during the Revolution. This company was formed in a part of Lancaster County in which our ancestor was the only known Bernard Getz, and local militia companies were formed from among the local residents. It is yet to be determined if this company of the Pennsylvania militia ever saw action in the revolution.

As previously noted in the Getz Family Bible, Barnhart married Maria "Mary" (Wolford) Wolfsauttin on 12 June 1783. Barnhart and Mary lived in the New Holland area of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania until her death in 1792-93. After Mary's death, on 14 January 1794, Barnhart married Anna Zell, daughter of Nicholas Zell of neighboring Earl Township, Lancaster County. Barnhart and Anna were married at the Trinity Lutheran Church, located in downtown Lancaster, Pennsylvania, pictured below.
Just one year after they were married, Barnhart’s father, Baltzer Götz died in nearby Lebanon, Pennsylvania. It was at this same time that Barnhart and Anna moved their family to the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. They were not alone in their migration to the south. Many Pennsylvania German families migrated from Pennsylvania to Virginia during this same period, primarily because of their hope to find more and better farm land.

The Getz Homestead is located just south of Getz Corner, on the West side Virginia Route 42, in the heart of Shenandoah County, nestled between Massanutten Mountain and the Appalachians. All of the area surrounding the homestead is prime livestock property, having rocky hills covered with grass pastures and bottomland suitable for grain farming. Dairy and beef cattle, along with poultry, continue to dot the landscape today throughout Shenandoah and neighboring Rockingham County. The Getz family homestead was, and still is, typical of the valley’s farms.

It is in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia that our family has planted its roots. Barnhart Götz purchased his first land in the valley on 1 September 1796, as noted in the transcript of the deed (Shenandoah County, VA, Deed Book K, pp. 324-325), below:

Most of the original farm has been in the Getz family ever since the 1796 purchase by our ancestor, Barnhart Götz. It is not known exactly when Barnhart arrived in Shenandoah County, but it could not have been too far in advance of his land purchase.

The Shenandoah County, Virginia homestead of Barnhart Götz, taken from a painted photograph. circa 1900. The barn at left, currently displays a plaque indicating it was constructed in 1804. The addition on the back of the house was added sometime after the second floor was added to the house and clapboard siding was installed over the original logs of the structure.

The births of only a few of Barnhart’s children are recorded in church records. The first child recorded was Daniel, born 5 May 1787. He and Samuel, born 16 Apr 1793 were both born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania (Sources and Documents of the Pennsylvania Germans: II, “Records of the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, New Holland, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, 1730-1799”, The Pennsylvania German Society, 1977, pp. 125 & 171).

The Family Bible of Barnhart Götz, currently in the possession of Mrs. Linda Holman (a descendant of Barnhart’s son David Getz) of Monterey, Virginia, contains handwritten inserts which record the births of some of the other children. Linda brought the Bible to the family reunion in 1998, and its presence proved to be very sensational for all those in attendance. The photos on the next page were taken of Barnhart’s family Bible at the 1998 reunion.
The Family Bible of Barnhart Götz is a leather bound volume, measuring approximately 12" X 18" X 2" in size. It has two metal latches holding the covers closed. Although it shows some water marks, it is in remarkable good condition.

Published in 1770, as noted at right, the Bible is written in the German language, containing both the Alten (Old) and Neuen (New) Testaments.

Beautifully Detailed Engravings, such as the one at left, are located throughout the Bible. This particular engraving is entitled “Das Alte Testament” (The Old Testament).
Although the inserted pages are written in German, certain excerpts can be translated without too much difficulty. Some of these translated excerpts are:

"This Bible was given to me, Barnhart Götz, by my father, Pätz Götz, in 1719."

"In the year 1715, the 12th day of June, I Barnhart Götz and Maria Hoffauffter, in God's name, were married."

"On the 18th day of May 1716, have gave us a daughter, born, in the world and by name Catharina Götz."

"On 5th day of May in 1717, a son was born by the name of Daniel Pätz."

"On the 25th day of January 1718, a son was born and his name is called Diet Pätz."

"On 18 April 1718, Daniel Pätz was born."

The Barnhart Götz Family Bible goes on to list other births and christenings of later generations. Further notations several generations of births in the Bible are written in German, indicating a strong national heritage in the Getz family.

The only true account of Barnhart's children is taken from the Shenandoah County, Virginia probate records after Barnhart's death in 1818. In probate record entries starting in March, 1818, Barnhart's children are listed:

The Estate of Bernard Goetz...

1818 March 18............paid David Goetz one of the sons and heir paid Saml Goetz    dito    dito

By 1825, all Barnhart's heirs except John had been paid their final share of their father's estate. John's final payment was recorded on the 19th day of July 1833. (Shenandoah County, VA Wills/Probate Records, Book S, p. 52.)

The cemetery at Solomon's's Lutheran Church contains the graves of several generations of the Getz family in the Timberville area. Along with a number of other headstones are those of Barnhart and Anna Götz, located in the southeastern quarter of the cemetery.
Memorial Stone, erected between the headstones of Barnhart and Anna Götz by their Virginia descendants in 1998. The inscription on the stone was based on the best information known at that time.

Solomon’s Lutheran Church plaque denotes the contribution of Baltzer Götz to its formation. His exact role is unknown, since he did not live in Virginia.

Barnhart Götz died 18 January 1818 in Forestville, Shenandoah County, Virginia. His second wife, Anna Zell Götz had died just over eight years earlier, on 16 November 1809. It is very likely that Anna died due to complications resulting from the birth of Johannes (John) on 9 November, just one week earlier.

CHILDREN: 1. John (c. 1809); 2. Barbara (c. 1761-); 3. Jacob (c. 1809); 4. Anna (1768-1809); 5. Henry (c. 1791-1800); 6. Veronica "Franny" (c. 1808); 7. Nicholas (1772-1847); 8. Mary (c. 1778-1809); 9. Elizabeth (c. 1778-1823).

Nicholas Zell emigrated to America with his father, Johann Nicholas Zell, and settled in Earl Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania tax records indicate Nicholas Zell lived in Earl Township, Lancaster County at least from 1771 until his death in 1794, and that he owned land on which he was taxed as a "non-resident" in Penns Township, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, from 1775 till his death. Northumberland County deeds describe "173 and 3/4 acres of land surveyed to Nicholas Zell...Zell's acres next to George Kraft and Mary Coffman..." (Northumberland County, PA Deeds, I-31 to I-35, dated 24 Aug 1795 to 7 Jul 1796.) In these same records his nine children were listed as, "John Zell, eldest son, innkeeper in Mt. Joy twp, Lancaster County...Jacob Zell, second son, of Lancaster County...Henry Zell, third son, laborer in Cocalico twp, Lancaster County...Veronica (wife of Killian Schercker)...Ann (wife of Bernard Getz)...Nicholas Zell, laborer in Cumberland County...Barbara (wife of Henry Rohrer)...Mary Zell, minor...and Elizabeth Zell, minor."

Little is known at this time about most of Nicholas' children, except for the interesting fact that the Zell family crosses paths with the Getz family twice, first with the marriage of Anna to Barnhart Götz and next with the marriage of Anna's youngest sister, Elizabeth, to their Shenandoah County neighbor, John Kerlin. This will become apparent when, in a late part of this work, we find John Getz, the youngest son of Barnhart and Anna Götz, marrying his first cousin, Hannah Kerlin, oldest daughter of John and Elizabeth Kerlin.

Nicholas' son, Jacob, purchased his father's land, called "Zell's Fancy," in Northumberland County from his siblings in 1796, which he sold a few months later. He then moved to Lancaster County. (Northumberland County, PA Deeds, I-31 to I-35.)
Letter of Administration, appointing Jacob as the administrator of his brother’s estate. The original document is in the possession of Grayson Getz, of Shenandoah County, Virginia.

b. 1772, Earl Twp, Lancaster, PA; d. Bef 26 Sep 1847, White River Twp, Johnson, IN; m. c 1795 to MARY GALLAGHER.

The youngest son, Nicholas, was located in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania in 1796, then in Franklin County, Pennsylvania from 1799 to 1801 (as indicated in Pennsylvania deed, tax, and census records). Nicholas married Mary Gallagher in Pennsylvania. Nicholas and Mary then moved on west to Montgomery and Preble Counties in Ohio from at least 1810 to 1821, and on west into Johnson County, Indiana from 1822-23 until his death there in 1846-47. An 1822 deed in Johnson County records “First landowners in Johnson County...Nicholas Sell...first land in 1822...Twp 13, Range 3...two parcels of 80 acres each...”. His probate records in Johnson county indicate “Estate of Nicholas Sell deceased Sept. 26, 1847...sales of the personal property of Nicholas Sell...to David Sell...Rachel Sells...”. These same estate records also show a payment to Dr. Isaac Coe on 22 Nov 1845 “for medicine for wife”...and on 14 Jan 1847 “for visit and N. Sells medicine...”

An 1839 deed in Johnson County, Indiana transfers Nicholas’ property to his son, David, on the condition that “David Sell to care for Nicholas Sell and his wife Mary...and their daughter Nancy...” (Johnson County, IN Deed Book F, p. 17, dated 19 Mar 1839).

b. 8 May 1785; d. bef. 1818.

At the time of this writing, nothing is known about Catharina other than her date of birth, which is recorded in Baltzer's family Bible. Catharina was the first child of Barnhart and Maria. Catharina probably died in her youth, since there is no mention of her in any subsequent family records of any type. We know from Barnhart's probate records that Catharina was no longer living in 1818.

(DANIEL) HENRY GETZ
b. 5 May 1787, Shenandoah, VA; m. 29 Dec 1829, Rockingham, VA to HANNAH REINHART (2-1AF-1-5), b. 2 Jul 1807, Rockingham, VA, dau of ADAM REINHART and CHRISTINA _____.

Henry was recorded in Barnhart’s family Bible as “Daniel,” which means he was probably named Daniel Henry. Henry is referred to as Daniel in some related family history works. At the time of this writing, very little is known about Henry or his family. We know from Barnhart’s probate records that Henry was still living in 1818 (Shenandoah County, VA Wills, Book N, p. 110). At that time Henry was paid a portion of his part of his father’s estate. Henry and Hannah were living in Shenandoah County after their marriage. They are listed in the 1830 Shenandoah County Census (p. 113), but they are no longer on the census roles for Shenandoah County or neighboring Rockingham County in 1840. Where they went between 1830 and 1840 remains a mystery at this point.

Moses Getz inherited the Shenandoah County homestead of Barnhart Götz from his father, David, and lived there his whole life. During the Civil War, Moses served the Confederacy by enlisting on 19 July 1861 at Mt. Jackson as a Private in Company G, 136th Virginia Militia. He was mustered into service at Mt. Jackson on 11 November 1861, and recorded as “present” on 10 December 1861 at Winchester, Virginia. Moses was detailed on 23 January 1862 by General Thomas J. “Stonewall” Jackson to shoe horses for the Confederate government. Moses set up a blacksmith shop behind his home for that purpose.

Grayson is the sixth generation to own and live on the Getz homestead in Shenandoah County, Virginia, originally purchased by our ancestor, Barnhart Götz, in 1796. Grayson truly lives on a bi-centennial farm - there has been a Getz living on the farm now for over 200 years!

The Home of Grayson Getz on the rural postal delivery route of Quicksburg, Virginia, as it appears today. In the front lawn is located a Kentucky Coffee tree which may well be a third generation seedling of the original tree planted during the Civil War.
Grayson undertook an extensive project when he decided to restore the interior of the master bedroom of his ancestor, located on the first floor of his home. He stripped the paint and the plaster to reveal the original log walls, beamed ceiling, and wide yellow pine plank floor.

This bedroom is now maintained in its original condition as a memorial to the generations of the Getz family who have grown up on the homestead.

Alice and Grayson Getz hosted a family picnic at their home in the Shenandoah Valley in August, 1996, commemorating the 200th anniversary of the Getz family farm. The picnic was attended by about forty family members, local and distant.
Grayson and Alice Getz were presented a beautiful framed print at the 1996 family picnic.

John Bowers married Hannah Getz in Shenandoah County, Virginia on 9 March 1818, and stayed in Virginia for at least five years. Sometime after Lydia’s birth in 1823, Hannah’s family moved to Ohio and then on to Menard County, Illinois prior to 1860. John Bowers died in Shenandoah County in 1848. In 1854, Hannah accompanied her daughter and son-in-law to Menard County, Illinois, about 20 miles northeast of Springfield. The 1860 census for Menard County lists Hannah as living with her daughter and son-in-law, John Tice (Menard Co., IL 1860 Census, p. 130). Hannah’s probate records list her two daughters, Lydia and Sarah, along with the nine grandchildren of her two other deceased daughters. Their married names were Burkholder and Neff (Menard Co., IL Probate Records, Box 402).

Early in 1869, Hannah wrote her nephew, Moses, concerning the money she had not yet been paid by her brother, Samuel, in settling her father’s estate. Samuel had agreed to pay his brothers and sisters for their share of the homestead. Samuel had died and David, Moses’ father, had taken over the farm. Upon David’s death, Moses inherited the farm and, with it, the unpaid debts of his father and Uncle Samuel. Hannah had expressed her wish that her nephew, the present owner of the homestead, settle his uncle’s debt to her. In Hannah’s behalf, early in 1870, John Tice wrote to her nephew Moses Getz in Shenandoah County. This letter followed another, more direct letter, dated August 29, 1869, in which John Tice stated “I hope there will be no necessity in going to extreme measures in this matter.” The matter, being the money owed to Hannah, was promptly cleared up. The text of the April 12, 1870 letter from John Tice to Moses Getz follows:

Petersburg, Ill. April 12th

Mr. Moses Getz
Dear sir,

I have just received by Express for Hannah Powers $250.00 from you. Two or three days ago I wrote to you that I had received the money of which you spoke and that you did not state in your letter how you had sent the money, but the money has now come and all is right. Your Aunt thanks you kindly for the money for she was needing it very much. I have credited your note for her for the sum of $287.80 and also send you receipt for the same. The Express charges was $2.20, which leaves the $277.80 for which your note is credited to which you also have a receipt. I think that this will be satisfactory.

Write upon the reception of these lines and let us know if you received my letters.

I wish to exchange papers with you occasionally if convenient for I do like to hear from old Virginia the land of my nativity that gave me birth for many fond recollections cluster around her—

Your Aunt Hannah is quite feeble and affectionate very much her days can be but few at most indeed it would not surprise me if she would drop off at any time for she has palpitation of the heart & coughing spells & sometimes she can't get her breath for some time her days are few at most—Sisidia my wife would like to know how many you have in family and whether you are living at the old place yet or not and how and how the relatives are getting along

I must close

Yours very Respectfully

John Rice

To

Moses Getz

Records in the possession of Grayson Getz today indicate the note to Hannah Bowers was paid in full by her nephew, Moses Getz. Two such notes indicating payments from Moses Getz to his aunt, Hannah Bowers, are included on the next page. Careful examination of each note will show each stamp has been dated.

A newspaper clipping found in the family Bible of Moses F. Getz contains the following obituary of Lydia Bowers Tice:

"Obituary, January 6, 1900 (Petersburg, Menard County, IL) MRS. LYDIA TICE was born in Shenandoah County, Va on the 9th day of November, 1822. She died in this city Jan. 5, 1900, aged 77 years, 1 month and 26 days. She came to Menard County with her brother-in-law, Martin Neff, with a sister and her mother, landing near Tice Station, November 25, 1854. She was a daughter of John and Hannah Bowers and was the last of four sisters, three preceding her to the eternal world: Mrs. Martin Neff, Mrs. Sallie Weaver and Mrs. Polly Burkholder. November 26, 1857, she was united in marriage to John Tice, Rev. H.P. Curry performing the ceremony. Her married life was a specially loving one. No wife could be more loving, true and devoted to her husband than was Mrs. Tice. Her love, her solitude, her prayers, her godly life led to the conversion of Mr. Tice, and in Oct. 1890, he made his public profession of faith in Christ and was received into the membership of the Church his wife had affiliated with and in which he has been ever since an earnest and faithful member, and a devoted and wise counselor, having served several years a ruling elder in the congregation. At the early age of 14 she was received on profession of her faith into the Lutheran Evangelical Church and on the 2nd day July, 1870, she was welcomed to the fellowship of the First Presbyterian church in Petersburg, in which for nearly 30 years she has been an earnest, faithful and consistent member. Mrs. Tice was naturally a woman of strong affections and was loyal to all her friends, thoughtful and kind to all her neighbors. An extended eulogy of her life is not necessary. She desired no such laudatin - she needs none. Her life is her best eulogy, her character the most enduring monument. T.J.S."

In 1806, his father removed to Floyd County, VA, engaged in agricultural pursuits and was a soldier of the war of 1812. He emigrated with his family to Illinois in 1831, settling in what is now Menard County, and at what is now the village of Athens. In the spring of 1832, he purchased a farm in what is now Tice Station, on the Springfield & Northwestern Railroad, where he resided, a prominent farmer, until his death, which occurred Oct. 11, 1856, his wife having died at the same place March 14, 1845. They were the parents of eight children." Pages 315 and 316 of The History of Mason and Menard Counties, Illinois contain further elaboration on Tice Station:

"Tice's Station is on the Springfield & Northwestern Illinois Railroad, about four miles from Petersburg. It consists merely of a shipping point for grain, a post office, depot and small store, together with a schoolhouse and church. The place has never been laid out as a village. It is located on the old Tice farm, and at Oak Ridge Post Office. This office was established about twenty-five years ago, with Hampton Woodruff as Postmaster. He was succeeded by Seneca Winters, and he in turn by A.W. Tice, the present incumbent, who is a brother to Judge Tice, of Petersburg. The first and only... (unreadable copy)... the place is kept by Mr. Tice. There is considerable grain brought in and shipped from this little station. The present buyers are Fischer, (unreadable) & Conover, of Petersburg, and Low & Foster, of Havana. A sawmill is in location near the station, owned by Seneca Winters, a prominent businessman in the neighborhood. A large and flourishing school is located near the (unreadable). Within sight of the station is the Methodist Church, built about 1840 on land given for the purpose by Judge Tice. It is a frame building, and cost perhaps, about $1,000 or $1,200. Rev. SAMUEL GETZ
b. 16 Apr 1793; ch. 22 Aug 1793, New Holland, Lancaster, PA; d. 25 Sep 1854, Forestville, Shenandoah, VA; bur. Solomon's Lutheran Cemetery, Shenandoah, VA; m. 12 Feb 1816 to LYDIA PENCE, b. 4 May 1796; d. 23 Apr 1847; bur. Solomon's Lutheran Cemetery, Shenandoah, VA; day of CONRAD PENCE and MARIA EVE MILLER.

Although Samuel and Lydia did not have any children, they played a very important role in our family history. When Samuel's father, Barnard Getz, died in 1818, Samuel became the legal guardian for his youngest brothers and sister. Since Samuel became their guardian, it is most likely that Moses, Elizabeth, Bernard, and John all lived with Samuel and Lydia until they either married or became of legal age to be considered by the court to be an adult.

Samuel was also significant to our family in that he became the second-generation owner of the Shenandoah County, Virginia homestead purchased by Barnard in 1796. Shenandoah County, Virginia census records also reveal that Samuel and Lydia took in members of the Pence family, very likely for the same reasons they raised Samuel's younger siblings. It is because of this that Samuel's will is included below:

\[ \text{Will of Samuel Getz} \]

I, Samuel Getz of the county of Shenandoah and the state of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and publish this present writing, as, and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills, made by me, or which may appear in my name.

\[ \text{Item 1st - I will and direct that my personal} \] estate, or such as I may not herein dispose of be sold at public sale as soon as practicable after my decease, all my just debts and funeral expenses paid and satisfied out of the same.

Item 2 - I will and devise to my friend and nephew, Moses Ketzy and to his heirs of assigns, all my real estate not otherwise disposed of being the tract of land on which I now reside, containing two hundred and sixty-two acres, more or less, and that in consideration of this bequest he pay out to my estate the sum of seven thousand dollars as follows:

(i) Three thousand dollars in twelve months after my decease, and five hundred annually thereafter until the said sum of seven thousand dollars is paid out.

Item 3 - I will and direct that my executors shall pay to my nephew Moses Ketzy, the sum of five hundred dollars, out of the first payments to be paid by him on the land devised to him above, which I give to him or his heirs in consideration of his services and the trouble he has had, or may hereafter have in superintending my business, and waiting on me.

Item 4 - I will and devise to my sister Elizabeth, the wife of Jacob Pence for and during her natural life, the lot of land, as now fenced off, including the buildings thereon containing about four acres, part of the tract of land I live on, being the same now as occupied by them, which is held and enjoyed by my said sister during her life time and after her decease. The same shall revert or fall back to my said tract of land, devised to my nephew Moses Ketzy.

Item 5 - I will and devise the sum of five hundred dollars to the children of my brother, David Ketzy, deceased, to be equally divided among them. That sum being the amount of an inheritance from the estate of my mother, which I give to them, their heirs or assigns, and which is to be paid to them, by my executor out of the last payments to be made on the land devised to Moses Ketz.

Item 6 - I give and devise to Phillip Pence, the sum of three hundred dollars, to be paid out of the first installment to be paid out by Moses Ketz on the land devised to him.

Item 7 - I will and bequeath to Rachel Shaffer the sum of two hundred dollars, out of the third installment, to be paid out by Moses Ketz, on the land devised to him.

Item 8 - I will and bequeath to Catherine Lindawood the sum of two hundred dollars, out of the second payment to be made by Moses Ketz on the land devised to him.

Item 9 - I will and bequeath to my niece, Susannah Pence the sum of seventy-five dollars in cash, 1 cow, or the price of a good cow, provided the same shall not be paid or given to her before her decease, the cash to be paid out of the first installment, to be paid by Moses Ketz on the land devised to him.

Item 10 - I will and devise to my nephew, Moses Ketz and Phillip Ketz all my right title and interest in a house, and lot at Orkney Springs, which lot was purchased jointly by Joseph Zering, John Tanslor, Polly Ketz and myself from Andrew Zerbel.

Item 11 - I give and bequeath all the balance of my estate of every kind to my following married brothers and sisters, or their descendants:

viz: To my brothers Jacob Ketz, Bernard Ketz, the children of my brother David, de efd, the children of my brother Moses, de efd, my sister Elizabeth, wife of Jacob Pence, my sister Hannah, wife of John Powers, de efd, my sister Rebecca, widow of Christian Overholser, etc., and the children of my sister Anna deceased, late the wife of Abraham Yerkes, each other and sister to share equally, and the descendants of those dead to have their parents share equally divided among them.

Item 12 - I will and direct that my executors shall return and hold in their hands the portion or share coming to my sister Elizabeth, the wife of Jacob Pincus, for and during her natural life, and pay the legal interest thereon annually, and after her decease pay over the principal sum to her heirs.

Item 13 - I give and devise to my brother John Ketty or his heirs: if he or any of them should still be living the sum of one dollar, current money, which shall be in full of his or their share of my estate.

Item 14 - I will and direct that my old grey mare 'Shady', shall remain on the farm, and be well taken care of my nephew, Moses Ketz.

Item 15 - I hereby constitute and appoint my nephew, Moses Ketz, and Phillip Ketz, executors of this, my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have unto set my hand and seal this 5th day of June, 1854. Signed, sealed and published and declared by the testor to be his last will and testament, in the presence of us, and the presence of each other:

In 1827, five years after their marriage, Jacob and Elizabeth bought 234 acres near Spring Run, in what is now Hardy County, West Virginia (it was then part of Grant County, Virginia), from Elizabeth’s uncle, Daniel Dietrick. Jacob and Elizabeth then raised their ten children on their new homestead.

The above deed was recorded in Rockingham County, Virginia, on the 2\textsuperscript{nd} day of April, 1827, and recorded in the Clerk’s Office of Hardy County on the 15\textsuperscript{th} day of August 1827.

In family letters between the Getz families of West Virginia and their Shenandoah County, Virginia cousins, it is obvious that it took several years to pay off the monies owed from Barnhart’s estate.

\textbf{The Jacob Getz Home Place, in Spring Run, Hardy County, West Virginia}

Many of the generations of this branch of the family have already been published. One such work is “Genealogical Records of the Seitz/Sites Family, Vol. I - George Seitz/Sites who Died in Hardy County, Virginia (Now Grant County, West Virginia) 1790 and His Descendants,” by John V. Beck and Suzanne Sites Gibson, 1984 (Family History Library Book # 929.273, Si86b, v.1).

Samuel and Hannah pulled up their stakes in Hardy County and, like many others of their day, migrated to the fertile lands of the old Northwest Territory. In their case, they moved to the area of Salem, Illinois, about half way between Terre Haute, Indiana and St. Louis, Missouri. There, they raised their family.

Jeremiah was destined to travel a distance in his life almost as long as his name. Born in what was then the State of Virginia, Jerry moved to Salem, Illinois with his family when he was very young. He grew to adulthood in the Salem area and also married Nancy Catherine Walker there in 1878. In the spring of 1888, he packed up his family and moved to southwestern Kansas. Jerry quickly found there was a vast difference between the fertile soil of Illinois and the dust of Kansas. In June of that same year, he began the long journey of returning to Illinois. In 1894, Jerry again packed his family’s belongings and moved to the small town of Burlington Junction, located in extreme northwestern Missouri. After his wife’s death, remarriage and a drought, in 1902, he moved East again to neighboring Worth County, Missouri. Sometime before 1915, Jerry’s family moved again to Bates County, Missouri, located about 80 miles due south of Kansas City. Finally, Jerry moved his family in 1922 to Rolla, located in south-central Missouri. Jeremiah Matthew Timothy Getz died at the age of 92. His story, although involving a few more moves than most if his kin, was typical of the Getz family of the nineteenth and early twentieth century. The farm heritage continues to this day in many parts of the country.

George and Mary Bowers Getz moved their family from Hardy County, Virginia to North Hampton, Clark County, Ohio, making several stops on the way. There he built a log home and farmed the land, raising grain and hay. George was known for his sturdy split-rail fences and his work in planting large numbers of trees. Mary made a quilt for each of her children and by virtue of her large garden, she often sold fruits, vegetables, butter and eggs in the city market of nearby Springfield, Ohio.

After Paul's passing, Lucille moved to Salt Lake City where she has become known simply as "Grandma". She has served the church in many capacities and, although officially retired, she has maintained close contact with both church members and those of the Getz family who strive to trace our genealogy.

Parkston, Hutchinson, SD; m. 21 Feb 1895, Northampton, OH, to JAMES MADISON FURROW, b. 15 Aug 1857, Christianburg, OH; d. 17 Mar 1937; bur. Parkston, Hutchinson, SD, son of JOSEPH FURROW and ELIZABETH CHILDREN: 1. George William (1896-1987); 2. Mary Elizabeth (1897- ); 3. Harry Getz (1900-1985); 4. Theodore Roosevelt (1901-1902); 5. Dorothy Oral (1902-).

James Madison Furrow, known simply as “Madison”, moved at an early age to Pierceton, Indiana, where he grew up. While in Indiana, Madison was ordained as a minister in the United Brethren Church. After his father’s death in 1863, Madison and his mother homesteaded in South Dakota, settling on 160 acres in what is now the Parkston area and planting trees as a part of their homestead requirements. While visiting his half-sister in Ohio, Madison met Pamelia Getz and a romance developed. Returning home to South Dakota, Madison enlarged his sod home, adding a large wooden kitchen and a bedroom and making plans for marriage. In the spring of 1895, Madison returned to Ohio one last time - to wed Pamelia Getz. From the arrival of the newlyweds in March of 1895 until their deaths, Madison and Pamelia remained in South Dakota, Madison farming and ministering to his local congregation and Pamelia plying her trade as a dressmaker and a homemaker. As she was about to celebrate another birthday, with a twinkle in her eyes Amelia told her friends, “I will be 96 years old on the 12th of May. Isn’t it a dreadful thing to live so long? But what can I do about it?”

Mary Hildebrand, at age 102.

At the age of 100 years, Mary received her B.S. in Education degree from Black Hills University. This was an earned degree - not an honorary one. Mary had taught school for 17 years, which helped her to acquire credits toward her college degree. At the commencement exercises, she wore a gold outfit, and the ovation she received seemed to never end. As of this writing, Mary still does some crocheting and visits with relatives on the phone. She is quite a remarkable person.

Upon the death of his father, Jacob took over the family farm in rural North Hampton, Ohio. Jacob never married, so his mother, Mary, and his cousin, Elisha Getz, lived with him and kept house for him. Jacob lost his hearing when he was very young, but that didn’t stop him from living a full life. For 25 years he never missed a Sunday morning service at the local Donnelsville Brethren Church, even though he never heard a word. At the age of 24, he and some friends went to Kansas to work on a farm. It was while he was in Kansas that he first noticed a loss in hearing. After five years, Jacob returned to his family’s Ohio farm, where he lived the remainder of his total of 92 years.

Israel was born in Grant County, near Spring Run (on the road that leads to Elkhorn Mountain), across and down Dumpling Run to the South Fork River, just below the small hamlet of Peru. The homestead was located about half way up the west side of the mountain. As of 1984, the birth home of Israel Getz was still standing. Less than 1/8 mile away, stood the Getz School, where Israel and his brothers and sisters attended class. Israel died at the age of 74, after being rammed by an angry buck sheep.

John Israel Getz was born on the family farm on Spring Run. As he grew up, he worked in the timber mills near Parsons, West Virginia, where vast virgin timbers were being cleared to meet the needs of a growing nation. He also followed the wheat harvest thrashing crews through the northern plains states. With these experiences behind him, John Israel finally settled down as a grain and poultry farmer in his home area. Around 1916, John Israel moved his family to a farm near Cootes Store, Virginia, and about two years later, they moved again to the Turner farm on Shenandoah Mountain, in western Rockingham County, Virginia. In 1921, John Israel bought the nearby John Meyers farm and moved his family to their new home.

NINA MAE GETZ (BIBBLE)
b. 10 May 1920, Criders, Pendleton, WV, m. RAYMOND BIBBLE.

Nina Mae is the pipeline of family history information in the Shenandoah Valley. She has been the genealogical magnet of all the cousins, and almost single-handedly orchestrated the first family homestead reunion in 1996. Nina Mae firmly believes in keeping busy, both physically and mentally. Many people retire and do as little as possible, but not Nina Mae. Even at 79+ years, when she’s not busy researching family genealogy, she and her son, Larry, are painting barn roofs.

Benjamin, or “Bennie” to everyone who knows him, was in sales for Rockingham Poultry, of Timberville, Virginia for over 30 years before his recent retirement. He now spends his days working in his lawn and “digging up family bones” all over Virginia. Bennie has provided a wealth of information for this work, and many excerpts have been taken from his 1988 work, “The Getzs From Engstlatt to the Virginias.”

According to his obituary, on September 1, 1901, Noah was attempting to board a moving log train near the town of Horton, when he was caught by the train and thrown on the track between the rails, resulting in the train running over him and severely crushing his body. He lived until the next morning, his injuries finally proving fatal. Noah was a member of St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran Church congregation in his hometown, and was buried in the family plot of the church's cemetery.

Listed as John Getz in Shenandoah Men in Gray, page 236., Jonathon first enlisted 19 July 1861 at Mt. Jackson, Virginia, as a Private in Co. G, 136th Va. Militia. He was mustered into service on 4 November 1861, at Mt. Jackson, and was reported as “present” on 10 December 1861 at Winchester, Virginia. He was listed as AWOL (Absent Without Leave) on 25 December 1861 (which is not surprising considering the fact that his regiment was in the northern Shenandoah Valley and near his home). Jonathon enlisted again on 27 June 1863, at Hillsboro, Virginia. This time he joined the 7th Virginia Cavalry (otherwise known as “Ashby’s Cavalry” or the “Laurel Brigade.” He enlisted as a Private in Co. K, and was listed as “present” 31 December 1863 through 30 August 1864. Jonathon was paroled 20 April 1865 at New Market, recorded as age 30, 5’7”, dark eyes, dark hair, dark complexion.

Clarence Herman Getz moved from Getz Corner to Washington, D.C., early in his life to work for the railroad. After many years with the railroad, Clarence worked in real estate. He is the person who sold most of the land that is now St. Petersburg, Florida, as well as the land that Walter F. Reed Hospital now occupies. He eventually moved to Massachusetts, where he became a banker.
After several years in Massachusetts, Clarence moved to Maine, where he became President of the Aroostock Trust Company in northern Maine, one of the state's largest banks. In the early 1980's, Clarence and his wife, Florence, retired to Florida.

Like his cousin, Stanley Branner Getz (second cousin, once removed), Matthew was a member of the Lambda Sigma Chi Fraternity. Matthew worked for his fraternity for five years after his graduation. Matthew has undertaken the most comprehensive compilation of the history of the entire Getz family and includes all direct lines to him in the Orcutt, Canna and Dufour families as well. To that end, a detailed discussion of Matthew’s family will be left to his work. Matthew’s work has been published on the internet. His database includes an extensive collection of most Shenandoah County, Virginia genealogies.

In the records of Solomon’s Lutheran Church for the birth of their first child, Jacob and his wife were listed as “Katie” Elizabeth and Jacob D. Pence, parents.” Throughout most of the Pence family records, the matriarch of the family was known as Katie Elizabeth. Forty acres, known today as the “Pence Acres” of the Grayson Getz farm, was sold by Jacob D. Pence to Samuel Getz, with the provision that life-long rights for 8 acres be given to Katie Elizabeth. She died a mere 11 months after her husband. This provision, it is said, tied up Samuel Getz’s... will for almost 50 years, angering some of the Ohio in-laws.

“The Plight of Ephriam Pence”

“Can nothing be done to help this afflicted man?”, wrote a Forestville resident in February, 1875, as he described the plight of a most unfortunate husband and father in the following letter to the Shenandoah Valley.

“Ephriam Pence, son of Jacob D. Pence living within two miles of Forestville, has been a sufferer of rheumatism for eleven years or more from the pressure, has become flat, and his chin has become sunken to his breast, causing a running sore. Sitting in front of him, you can see but little of his head, so complete is the curve of his neck. Every joint of his fingers, and of both hands is dislocated. The man is truly a living skeleton.

“It would seem to us that all the relief required would be immediately forthcoming were an organized effort of responsible persons made to obtain it. A subscription in the hands of the officers of a Church, or the appointment of a secretary and treasurer, at a public meeting in Forestville, would, in as wealthy and Christian counties as Rockingham and Shenandoah, certainly secure amounts sufficient to relieve all actual distress which the County is unable to meet. We feel satisfied that the Overseer of this Township will do all in his power to assist in the laudable undertaking.

Within three weeks after the letter was published, the New Market bank reported that $46.05 had been deposited to the credit of Ephriam Pence. Forty-four persons in the Forestville area donated $23.65, and thirty from Moore's Store contributed a total of $21.60. Some New Market residents gave to this fund and contributions were made by several persons in Baltimore.

A year later, suffering from rheumatism in its worst form for 13 years, and entirely helpless, Ephriam Pence died on May 7, 1876, at the age of 42 years. After death, his body could not be straightened out and, therefore, his coffin had to be a peculiar one. It was so arranged as to place him in a sitting position. Funeral services, attended by a very large audience, were conducted on May 9, by his pastor, the Rev. J.S. Bennick. He is survived by his wife, son, aged father and mother, brothers and sisters.

Sufficient funds were on hand to send Jacob, Ephriam's blind father, to a Baltimore oculist for an operation hopefully to restore his sight. The operation, however, was unsuccessful. Life Along Holman's Creek, by Joseph Floyd Wine, pp. 209-210.

b. 1808, Forestville, Shenandoah, VA; d. 20 Mar 1860, Delaware, IN; m. 1831, Rockingham, VA to MARGARET RICHEY, b. 13 Mar 1807, Delaware, IN; d. 13 May 1892, Daleville, Delaware, IN.

At the time of his father’s death, Bernard was still a minor. Along with his two brothers, Moses and John, and his sister, Elizabeth, he was placed under the guardianship of his older brother, Samuel (Shenandoah County, VA Wills, Book N, pp. 110-111). A new edition of the Shenandoah Necrology indicates Bernard married Margaret Richey in Rockingham County, Virginia in 1831, and they moved to Indiana in 1835. This work also indicates Margaret was from Delaware County, Indiana. When Bernard and Margaret were married in Rockingham County, Virginia, their marriage bond spelled Bernard’s last name as “GETTS” instead of the way all the other siblings spelled their last name. In all the Indiana records, Bernard’s family continued this spelling.

The papers of Grayson Getz, passed down from generation to generation, reveal that Moses Getz’s final payment of the estate of his Uncle Samuel Getz, was made to the heirs of Samuel’s brother, Bernard, in 1893. The first notation was in the form of a witnessed statement presented to Moses Getz, which stated:

July, 23, 1891

We, the undersigned heirs of Barnet Getz agree to accept as our share each as the just division according to law, the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars, to be paid within sixty days, as our full share of the money due us from the estate of Samuel Getz, Sr. who resided in the County of

Ridge Cemetery, Shelby, IL; m. 20 Oct 1833, Lancaster, Fairfield, OH, to HANNAH KERLIN (12-1AF-1-1-1-2), b. 1807, Fairfield, OH; d. 1 Mar 1867, Dry Point Twp, Shelby, IL; dau. of JOHN KERLIN and ELIZABETH ZELL.

John Getz was the last child born to Barnhart Götz and Anna Zell. Anna died November 16, 1809, merely eight days after John’s birth. At the age of nine, John lost his father and he was placed in the care of his older brother, Samuel and his wife Lydia. Once John became of legal age, he was awarded his inheritance by the Shenandoah County Court. While John was growing up on the homestead he likely grew fond of his cousin, Hannah Kerlin, who probably visited her grandfather’s farm next to the Getz family homestead in Shenandoah County. Soon after he received his inheritance, John deeded his portion of his father’s farm to his brother, Samuel, and left for Fairfield County, Ohio and the hand of his cousin, Hannah. Married in Fairfield County, Ohio on October 20, 1833, John and Hannah’s first son, John was born there. Being a farmer, and seeking rich soil to the west, John and Hannah packed up and moved to Johnson County, Indiana, where they settled in 1837 and raised eight more children. John became one of the original Johnson County land purchasers, having his purchase recorded on August 12, 1835 (“Early Landowners of Johnson County, Indiana,” by Maurice Holmes, Shelbyville, IN, 1974, p. 5, Family History Library Book # 977.2515, R2h).

In 1849, John moved his family to Shelby County, Illinois. He settled in Dry Point Township in the southwestern part of the county, purchasing 120 acres from William H.H. Hopkins in 1853.

The Indenture, made this twentieth day of October, in the year of Our Lord, Eighteen Hundred and Fifty-three, between William H.H. Hopkins & Catherine Hopkins, his wife, of the County of Shelby and State of Illinois, of the

The Headstone of John Getz, located in Ridge Cemetery, on Williamsburg Hill, Shelby County, Illinois. The stone has since been repaired and re-installed at John’s grave site.
The property John purchased is located in what is now the northern portion of the Village of Lakewood, located in southwestern Shelby County, Illinois. It was prime farmland in the area, with an ideal location, situated along a main thoroughfare in that part of the county. John didn’t have much of an opportunity to develop his farm before he died in 1855, leaving his widow and children to fall on hard times. The farm was finally sold upon Hannah’s death in 1867.

John Getz served in Company C, 35th Regiment, Illinois Infantry during the Civil War, along with his brothers, Barney and Emanuel, and their cousin, Alba Kerlin. They all enlisted together from Dry Point Township, Shelby County, Illinois, on July 3, 1861. They were enrolled in Decatur, Illinois, and on July 23 the regiment was accepted by the Secretary of War as Colonel G.A. Smith’s Independent Regiment of Illinois Volunteers. They were mustered into service on August 30, 1861, in St Louis, Missouri. While assigned to training at Jefferson Barracks, John developed chronic diarrhea and died in a St Louis military hospital. He made the ultimate sacrifice before he ever had a chance to serve in battle.

b. 14 Oct 1850, Dry Point Twp, Shelby, IL; d. 9 May 1940, Emporia, Lyon, KS; m. 3 Oct 1873, Rose Twp, Shelby, IL, to PHOEBE CATHERINE KINNISON (12-6AF-1-1-6-3-1), b. 3 Apr 1857, Shelby, IL; d. 17 Aug 1938, Emporia, Lyon, KS; dau. of LAWRENCE KINNISON and ELIZABETH MARS.

Morgan was the last child of John and Hannah Getz, and the only one born in Illinois. Morgan grew up in Dry Point Township, in the vicinity of Williamsburg Hill, southwest of Shelbyville. He was too young to serve in the Union Army, but he saw four older brothers go off to war. One died in the war, and one came home blind from his service. Upon his marriage to Phoebe Catherine Kinnison, he and Phoebe raised their family in Rose Township, west of Shelbyville. Soon after his oldest son, William Simon “Bill” was married, Morgan decided to try his hand in Kansas. In the first decade of the twentieth century, Kansas was considered a new opportunity for farmers, with thousands of acres of prairie available for wheat and other crops. With the exception of Bill and his new bride, Clara, Morgan took his family and settled around Emporia, in the southeastern part of Kansas. He didn’t find his fortune but, with the exception of a short-lived homestead attempt in Montana, he lived the rest of his life there, as did most of his children.

At age 80, Morgan broke his hip in a hunting accident. As he told the story, he was hunting jack rabbits off a bob sled out in Kansas when the team spooked and he fell off. He used a cane since that time.

CORA MAY GETZ (MORGAN)
b. 18 May 1880, Rose Twp., Shelby, IL; d. 10 Sep 1968, Spokane, Spokane, WA.; m. 12 Aug 1900, Shelbyville, Shelby, IL to HENRY WALTER MORGAN, b. 20 Nov 1872, Rose Twp, Shelby, IL; d. 17 Oct 1949, Hamilton, Ravalli, MT.

In 1917, Henry and Cora Morgan packed up their family and all their belongings and set out on their long journey from Shelbyville, Illinois, to Great Falls, Montana. Their destination was Morgan and Phoebe Getz’s homestead in Big Sandy, Montana, where they would stay until they decided where they wanted to plant their roots. Little did they realize that Big Sandy was an arduous fifty miles from Great Falls. These last fifty miles were completed in a buckboard, causing many a stressful moment for Cora, her china closet, china and crystal. Morgan and Phoebe moved their family back to Kansas in 1921 or 1922, but Henry and Cora stayed on, despite a couple of years of summer drought and severe winter cold. They moved to Ulm, a small town just outside Great Falls, and went to work for Ayershire Dairies. All the crystal and china and the china closet were moved again (and have been moved several times since, and are now in the possession of Cora’s granddaughter, Beverly).

By 1928, Henry and Cora had saved enough money to buy a dairy ranch of their own outside Clinton, Montana, just 20 miles from Missoula. They remained in the dairy business almost their whole life, eventually buying a new ranch near Florence, Montana, on the Ravalli-Missoula county line. Both were very hard working, but Cora was the driving force in the family. In addition to the dairy cattle, their garden and orchards provided produce for the local markets, and Cora often had 6-7 local teachers as boarders on the ranch.

Cora and Henry had 49 years together before Henry passed away in 1949. Cora lived to be 89 years old, always keeping her positive attitude. According to Beverly, they left a legacy for their family of determination, good morals and family values, and the belief that hard work never hurt anyone.

Rita and Jim Getz are active Civil War reenactors. Jim is the Captain of the 8th Illinois Cavalry, based in NE Illinois. Rita and Jim draw from their ancestry for their first-person impressions. As reenactors, Jim met Rita before the war in Martinsburg, Virginia, as he was traveling from his home in Illinois to visit his cousins in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. According to Rita, she fell madly in love and “married beneath her station.”

Rita’s lineage has been traced by her mother’s sister, Genevieve Fleenor Daily, through several lines in her work as a member of the Daughter’s of the American Revolution, Magna Carta Dame’s and other lineage organizations. Mrs. Daily has documented eleven (11) ancestors who served in the American Revolution:

- George Armientrou, Rockingham Co., VA
- Henry Dickinson, Washington Co., VA
- David Ellington, Lunenburg Co., VA
- Michael Fleenor, Washington Co., VA
- Joseph Fowlkes, Prince Edward Co., VA
- Robert Haney, Halifax Co., NC
- Ezekiel Hobbs, Washington Co., VA
- Vincent Hobbs, Washington Co., VA
- Jacob Hortenstein, Washington Co., VA
- William Jennings, Sr., Nottoway Co., VA
- Isaac Waggoner, Fairfield Co., SC

Some genealogists believe John’s wife was Elizabeth Hill. The Church Book of the Congregation of St. Gabriel’s Church, however, do not list his wife’s maiden name. Those records do, however, list “Elizabeth dau John Kerlin & Elizabeth Hill of Amity Twp. was born Feb. 6, 1773 & baptized April 18 same year” (p. 95). Elizabeth Kerlin was indeed one of the children of John Kerlin, Jr.

According to Charlotte Curlin of Auburn, California, her husband’s family name was changed by an Ohio school teacher in the mid-1800’s, during the generation of Zachariah Taylor Curls. As was the case in the interaction of different nationalities in early America, the Kerlin children were subjected to the personal opinions and biases of others. Teachers were very influential in the communities in the mid-nineteenth century. Quite often, the children of this generation were the first family members to learn to read and write. When their teacher told them they were spelling their name wrong, they were apt to believe it and their parents and other ancestors were in no position to dispute the claim.

Abraham Doebler was born in Lancaster (later Lebanon) County and died in Lebanon County, Pennsylvania. According to his obituary, "The deceased was the last remaining in our neighborhood of the noble spirits that took an active part in the 'scenes that tried men's souls - when despotism would no longer be borne with patience.' He was but 12 years old when he was a part of Colonel Grub's Regiment during the American Revolution. He also helped quell the Whiskey Rebellion. The obituary goes on to say, "His remains were followed to the 'bourne from whence no traveler returns' on Sunday afternoon, the 19th inst., by an immense concourse of citizens and strangers." For his service, a Bounty Land Grant of 120 acres was awarded the 18th day of December 1855 (No. 40.066) He is listed in Genealogical Abstracts of Revolutionary War Pension Files, Vol I: A-E, abstracted by Virgil D. White, The National Historical Publishing Company, Wayneboro, TN, 1990, p. 994.

Lawrence KINNISON served in Co. G, 149th Regiment, Illinois Infantry during the Civil War. According to his pension records, obtained from the National Archives, he enlisted on February 4, 1865, at Jacksonville, Illinois, and was discharged at Washington, D.C., on August 8, 1865, with a disability acquired at Cleveland, Tennessee in April, 1865. He was originally reported as “deserted” and “absent without leave” on August 8, 1865, but he was officially discharged upon the removal of those charges from his record, per Act of Congress, approved July 5, 1884. His regimental records show him admitted to the hospital on March 4, 1865, with measles, and his being sent to the general hospital the same day.

His pension records indicate that, upon enlistment, Lawrence was age 28, standing 5'10" tall, with grey eyes and sandy hair.

CHILDREN: 1. Andrew (Abt 1730-Bef 1790); 2. David (   -Bef 1831); 3. Isabella; 4.
Andrew and Mary Mitchell emigrated from Ireland to the North American colonies in 1752, accompanied by Andrew’s brother, David, and his sister, Isabella Stuart. They originally settled in a Scots-Irish colony in western Pennsylvania. In 1758, both Andrew and David moved their families to Orange County, North Carolina.
During the American Revolution, John Mitchell served in the company of Captain Williams, of the regiment of Captain Moon, in the North Carolina line for nine months from 1778. He applied for a pension in Maury County, Tennessee, and was awarded an annual pension of $30.00, commencing 4 March 1831. His North Carolina pension number in the National archives is S1856 (he was listed as “West Tennessee, #5790 application files”). John’s military service commenced in the Blue Ridge area, attached to General Rutherford, involving the protection of the frontier from “savages.” His regiment was then assigned to “watch and keep check” on the Tories of Orange and Chatham Counties, in North Carolina.

The three brothers (Andrew, John, and James) are biographically sketched in “Let the Drums Roll - Veterans and Patriots of the Revolutionary War Who Settled in Maury County, Tennessee,” M.P. Lightfoot, Maury County Historical Society, pp. 139-141.

Much of the information about George Mitchell’s children is from his family Bible. George Washington Mitchell moved from Maury County, Tennessee to Moultrie County, Illinois and settled in Marrowbone Township on 4 December 1832. He was a reverend in the Presbyterian Church. He reportedly died as his son, David and David’s family were about to board a train to head West.

James Mitchell was a veteran of the American Revolution. He entered into service in April, 1781, as a substitute for his brother, Andrew. He was only sixteen years old at the time. He served his tour under Captain William Douglas, in Colonel Guilford Dudley’s regiment, primarily watching, pursuing and suppressing Tories in Chatham, Randolph, and Guilford Counties in North Carolina. In the fall of 1781, James volunteered for a second three-month tour under Captain John Taylor. The company was stationed in the Hillsborough area to guard Tory prisoners. In the fall of 1782, he served yet another tour, substituting for John Pew, fighting in two battles in Orange County, North Carolina.

Along with his two brothers, Andrew and John, he is buried in Hunter’s Cemetery, in Maury County, Tennessee. A monument is erected honoring the Revolutionary War veterans who were buried in there.

According to family lore, Bailey Carter Salmons posted bail for a nephew in Floyd County, Kentucky sometime shortly after the death of his wife, Frances. Before the scheduled trial, his nephew left the county and possibly the state to avoid trial. For reasons not fully explained, Bailey sold his farm, packed up his family, and moved to Shelby County, Illinois. At the same time, he changed his name from Bailey Carter Salmons to Carter Bailey Salmons. It is not known why he chose to do this. He surely would have known that he could still be traced because he kept the same last name. His gravestone bears the name, Carter Bailey Salmons.
