INTRODUCTION

The History of Casper Barnhart
and his known descendents

This history is written to record the many clues regarding the origin of this family and their descendents. There are always too few facts, but many clues. It is compiled from family histories, census records, obits, bible records, tax records, wills, deeds, and cemetery headstones. As such it manifests some wishful thinking, a few errors, but should enable everyone to arrive at a picture of their family tree.

The surname "Bernhardt" appears to be of OHG (Old High German) origin. Kaspar (Casper), the "nennen" or call name is of Persian origin, derived from Gaspard, one of the three wise men, but in no way indicative of the place of our origin.

Because of the volume, it is being worked up by separating the material into chapters, each representing one of the known grandchildren of Casper. On some much forthcoming, on others but little.

Since there is some inter-marriage between descendents, when this occurs the lineage will usually follow the male parent, with a notation of the chapter involved.

Each chapter will have the grandchild listed as generation No 1, with his descendents in the following generations, listed in order of birth.

Corrections, additions or other facts of interest when known about our heritage either here in the states or in Germany will be appreciated.

This manuscript is a multiple exercise and could not have been written without the generous help of Suzy Hepler, a Butler geneologist, also a Barnhart descendents, who did much of the work on obits, cemeteries, family histories and census records. And to the many other family members who graciously volunteered their time and furnished their own family records.

Co-authored by Howard D Barnhart of Butler Co, Pa and Janet Warter, of Westmoreland Co, Pa.

(Editors note) Because of the many corrections and additions showing up during the assembly of this manuscript, it was deemed more practical to print Volume two which will be available to all subscribers of this work.

To determine if a correction or addition exists on your ancestral lines, refer to the Addendum, an item showing the same page number as in the text.
JANET K. WARTER

Janet Kirchner Warter was born in Greensburg, Westmoreland Co., PA in 1933 and grew up next to the present Twin Lakes Co. Park, just a few miles from Old Hanna's Town and the home farms of three children of John William Barnhart -- John Barnhart, Sr., William Barnhart, Jr., and Catherine, married to John Mechling. She is descended from John, Sr., whose farm, purchased in 1825, was home to two more generations of Barnharts, the property finally passing out of the family in 1917. Janet’s last Barnhart ancestor is Great-Grandmother Anna Mary Barnhart Yockey (1853-1935), wife of Benjamin Henderson Yockey.

Janet is a graduate of Greensburg High School, Pennsylvania State University and Louisiana State University. She and husband, Stuart L. Warter, moved to Huntington Beach, California in 1965. Both are teachers at California State University Long Beach, Janet in the Geology Dept., and Stuart in Biology.

Janet's interest in genealogy began about 10 years ago, her Barnhart ancestors being among the very first (and favorite) of her several early Westmoreland Co. Pennsylvania German families being investigated. She also has connections to the Yockey, Bash, Lauffer, Ringle, Lobinger, Brinker, Neligh, Shupe and Swartz families. She is a member of the Westmoreland County Historical Society, Orange County California Genealogical Society, Palatines to America, and the German Genealogical Society of America.

HOWARD D BARNHART

Born 13 Dec 1915, on the original farm settlement of a Gt Gt Grandfather Daniel Heck about ten miles from the Barnhart settlement in Buffalo Twp., now Fairview Twp. and Donegal Twp., Butler Co., Pa. In 1917 his father purchased a farm adjoining another ancestor Geo Daubenspeck, who settled in 1797, George's grand daughter, Anna Maria Daubenspeck married William A Barnhart, s/o Jacob Barnhart Jr.

After High School, he worked in the Oil Fields, finally in management as General Mgr., of the Stardrill-Keystone Mfg Co of Beaver Falls, Pa one of the pioneers in designing and building drilling rigs.

During WWII, drafted early in 1941, served overseas in the African Theatre as 1st Sgt, Hq & Hq Company, in a combat unit, CF8012. USAFSA.

In 1961 moved to La Habra, Ca, where he entered the US Post Office, becoming Asst Postmaster of the La Habra Office. Upon retirement in 1980, became interested in genealogy. This interest was initially acquired in the 1920's when a great aunt, Emme (Barnhart) Hoffner, told a story about her grandfather's maternal grandmother, Mary Magdalena (Schneider) Allimong, being caught in an Indian Raid Sugar Creek Twp., (now Armstrong County) Old Westmoreland Co., Pa. She was tomahawked, scalped and felled to the ground. She feigned death, and survived. Two brothers were killed. Luckily she had been caught outside the cabin and thus escaped burning to death in the cabin. With no hair, she wore a knitted dolly, tied in place with a scarf for the rest of her life.

Doubly descended from both brothers, Johan Wilhelm, and Jacob, sons of Casper, when third cousins Elizabeth Jane Shakley and David W Barnhart married, his ancestral record is in both Chapters 13 and Chapter 5.

He has compiled several family genealogical histories, on Whittingtons, Allimongs, Hecks, Heggs, Byerlys, Pfluegers (Fleeger) and Daubenspecks.

When coming to America in 1764, the Barnharts spelled the name "Bernhardt". Fortunately, the name Bernhardt is one of the ten surnames used by Dr Wolfgang Fleishauer as an example of how surnames came into being. Bernhardt or Bernard (as used in the North) is also sometimes used as a "nenner" or call name. It could have been used either as an epithet or a honor name, later to become a surname. It could also have become a clan totem (or due to patronyms) the family surname.

The root word is OHG (Old High German) berin-hard and is very old. Berin comes from the root word "bero", an Indo-Eurasian word meaning bear. In OHG it became Bern, as today Bern, Switzerland, the "City of the Bear". In Nordic "Bjorn". Old flags, standards, and pennants often showed a picture of a bear. The word "Hardt" bold or tough, the name "Bold as a Bear", or "Tough as a Bear" if one may prefer.

By 350 AD or so, the Germanic tongue split into three languages, classified as East-Gothic, North-Old Norse, and West-Anglo, Frisian and German. The last classification German, first became "Old High German" OHG. There was a considerable mix of letters & sounds during the next few centuries. The original letter similar to our English p was changed to D in Old High German in the 9th century. Then spread North over the years but often remained DT in OHG, the T part of the OHG alphabet remained. In coming to America, many families dropped either the D or the T. The T is considered coming from principally Baden or Bavaria, both High German lands. It is felt, peoples coming North from those areas, into upper Baden or Rheinhessen, intermingled with the locals speaking Low German, and so in coming to America while speaking Low German, carry the tell tale DT denoting a High German origin.

There are some clues indicating the family surname may have originated in Subia (Swabia) after Charlemaigne's time as a Duchy. Stutengarten was its Capitol, now modern Stuttgart. While speaking High German, they soon developed their own dialect, considered almost slang by those speaking classical German. The Swabians spoke with a lilting intonation, particularly of au & sch, adding le to the end of most of their nouns, disregarding the ge ending, and dropping the letter 'n' on infinitives. Swabia has now disappeared today, the new Baden-Wurttemburg province established by Gen. Eisenhower after WWII absorbing the area. They still speak the dialect and can be easily identified. Sentences of ten words become four, words of eight letters become four or five. Madchen "little girl" in German becomes Madle. Auf Weidersehen or good by becomes "Adele". What do you want? in High German "Was willst du?" became "Na witt?". While butchering the German language, they look down on those speaking correct High German as snobs. My grandfather Barnhart used certain words indicating a slang dialect, however it is my thought, these may have come from his mothers side, whose lines trace back thru Low German to the immigrant Michael Schlectle (modern Shakley). This name changed to Schectel, then Shakely, then Shakley.
A brief map of the area from which the Swabian people originated. Called Suevians in 44 BC when Julius Caesar invaded their lands. Became a Duchy in the late 9th century, after Charlemagne’s rule. In 1268 the Duchy ceased to exist, and was divided up among the German nobles. In 1495 Wurttemburg became a Duchy and became the ruling authority. The present state came into being on 19 Sept 1945, when General Dwight D Eisenhower announced the foundation of the State of Wurttemberg-Baden. The new state includes the area where the Swabian people originated.
Before the Barnhards left Baden, the question arises, what prompted them to leave. Further why they left without securing the proper manumission documents. This family was serfs of the Margrave of Baden. One of the reasons given by the family in Butler, follows: conscription.

King Louis XV of France had offered subsidies to Baden, in the political intrigues involving the succession in the Dukedom, in exchange for their furnishing a contingent of troops when called upon, amounting to 6000 men. When war broke out between France on the one hand and the alliance of England and Prussia on the other, in 1756, the Duke of Baden, Karl Eugen was called up on to furnish them. We in America think of the 7 years war as existing in our country between French Canada using Indian allies against the colonies of Great Britain. But war reigned in Europe also. Baden had no conscription in their constitution. So the Duke used two of his best officers to take squads out at night to raise 6000 men. He was accused of raiding the farms and taking the boys out of their beds. After furnishing the 6000, he continued to gather them up to fill out losses in battle. They were taken when reaching 16 years of age. This continued until 1763 when the Treaty of Paris terminated the war. These men would then be gradually withdrawn from the Battle Fields to their own capitols. Baden conscripts probably were returned to Stuttgart by the following winter and no doubt released by Spring to return home.

Johan Wilhelm was probably conscripted in the spring of 1762 as a replacement and returned in the spring of 1764. He stated he came from Stuttgart down the Neckar (river) to the Rhine, thence to his home. As a serf of the Duke, he would not otherwise be permitted to travel to Stuttgart.

At that time, Northern Baden was but a few miles from territory included in the Kingdom of Prussia. So he would be fighting on the frontier of his countrymen and against them. When the Revolutionary War came on in Penna, he would not dare be caught by the Hessians as a prisoner of war.

Interested in genealogy while in high school, I ask my grandfather Barnhart why the Barnharts came from Germany to Penna. Grandfather Dale Barnhart was the grandson of Susanna (Barnhart) Shakely, the granddaughter of Johan Wilhelm Barnhart. So his story came down from Wilhelm. He told me, he was told by his grandmother; quote "So his sons would not have to fight against their own countrymen to further the political aims of their rulers!" These clues fit very well, their coming in 1764 and failure to secure the necessary papers for clearance to leave Baden.

It would appear, that Wilhelms tour of duty in the service of France would be quite a good reason for his not wishing to serve in the Revolutionary Army, while his younger brother Jacob did volunteer in the York Militia. But both had left Philadelphia County and moved westward by then.

Most of us think of the French and Indian War as an extension of the seven years war, but it was not. The Indians continued the fight as they were unhappy with the settlement between England and France, leaving them out in the cold, and the continuation is known as "Pontiacs War".
Therman (German Statistical Records) believe Casper was born in D-6555 Sprendlingen, just East of Bad Kreuznach. This would be about the 4½ hours distance from Kaiserlautern, as indicated by Wilhelm, if one rode horseback, but Wilhelm does not state how it was measured. Sprendlingen, in 1707 came under the jurisdiction of the District of Kirchberg and was under the authority of the Margravate (Duke-dom) of Baden. This is an interesting tid bit, since Jacob Bernhardt, B 1713 who came to Penna with his family some years earlier, was born in Riflebach, Disct of Kirchberg. And it was his son Henreich who lived near Casper in Limerick Twp, Phila. County, Pa and was the Henreich Bernhardt who witnessed Casper’s will in 1789/90.

In any event the Bernhardt's, Casper, wife Maria and four children left their home land early in 1764 for the trip to America. They did not seek to get their departure authorized, probably for good reason, and went by barge down the Rhine to Rotterdam.

But we have not as of this date, determined the home town in Baden. A search of the records of the Amt of Sprendlingen, between 1700 and 1750 by the Pastor of Sprendlingen, in 1992, at our request, covered three churches, Sprendlingen, ST Johans, and Wolfheim fail to show a Casper or Wilhelm. Further, names of brothers or cousins, believed by GGSA to be of this family also fail to show. A translation of the script gives the town as Thalby, in the Mittellukalz. Dr Sweitzer believes this is a mis-translation. Mittellukalz is probably the Middle Pfalz. (The Pfalzers was the name often applied to the German Reformed faith, versus Lutheranism.) Today all German records combine Lutheran and German Reformed.

In any event, proper manumission was not secured and the German records show a 10% tax or fee was levied on all asset owned by the Bernhart families in Baden. The tax mentions brothers Casper & Wilhelm by name together with their date and ship, information which must have been noted in Rotterdam. Noted as Serfs of the Duke of Baden. Altho Casper & Wilhelm were noted as brothers, this cannot be. Casper 1719 and Wilhelm 1746 were 27 years apart in their ages. Their sons declared themselves first cousins when coming to Butler County in 1797, ie sons of Jacob 1749 and Wilhelm 1746. There were also other brothers of Casper, some older than Casper. A Wilhelm left this area with his wife and family in 1757/8 for the states and it is believed the tax was levied to cover his unauthorized departure, and linked with Casper’s departure. These permits show or are listed under Auswanderungen aus Rheinpfalz und Saarland im 18 (Stuttgart & Aalen) Konrad Verlag P244 No 1374.

From these few records, GGSA believes Casper had a brother Wilhelm, a brother Christian (manumitted 16 May 1744) and other close relatives, Maria (14 Feb 1741) Martin (9 Jan 1754) and others. Conditions for living under their Lord or Hofmeister may have been very difficult to account for so many of this family to give up and leave. The Tax lien on Casper & Wilhelm shows paid by April 1, 1767, some three years later. It is doubtful whether Casper, Wilhelm, or Jacob ever contributed to its settlement. Coming to America w/ little or no assets, they had a family to support.
In attempting to identify all members of Casper's family, one notes clues, which cannot be substantiated. I will mention several of interest which may prove of value in the decades to come.

Casper Bernhardt came to Philadelphia on the ship "Snow Chance" 10 Nov 1756. Is this the same Casper who brought his family over in 1764? It may be that he was checking out the territory. In coming in 1764 Casper moved once or twice before settling in Limerick Twp, Philadelphia Co., Pa. Of interest here is the fact that a Jacob Bernhardt, Born 1713 Dist. of Kirchberg, Baden came with a brother Henreich on the ship "Marlboro" 23 Sep 1741. He purchased 25 acres of land in Northampton Co 17 Jun 1754. In 1757 he sold this land, (note Caspers trip in 1756). Jacob B1713 then purchased 65 acres of land in Limerick Twp. Montgomery Co. (then Pennsylvania). When Casper arrived in 1764, it is not known just where he settled, but later moved and settled near Jacob's land, neighbors, belonging to the same church, Falkner's Swamp Ref. Church. Jacob's son Henreich was also a neighbor and witnessed Casper's will. Jacob's brother Henreich, who came with him on the Marlboro, was noted as handicapped (unlearned) and disappears from all records. He could be a brother of Casper or a cousin, certainly family.

There are other clues not substantiated. A letter between a grand dau of Wilhelm's Susanna and a Gt grand dau Ora Yingling suggest a third brother of Wilhelm and Jacob, but do not suggest a name. Other family legend suggest a name either Peter or Paul. Some suggest a younger son of Casper, poor, indentured for seven years upon arrival, who lost track of the family.

Casper would be 45 years of age when he settled in Penna. He had with him, his wife Anna Maria and at least four children, as mentioned in his will.

Maria [Mary] Married Matthew Dekker (Decker)

Apparently later in life, Casper was able to purchase a small plot of land where he lived out his life. He died in the fall of 1800. A copy of his will is enclosed. It would appear the copy is made after a translation of the original script was done, but the copies may have been made just after his death, when probate was made in Easton, Pa. Signatures appear genuine, but a word preceding his wife's name was removed.

Some comments on his life is made in the following historical sketch on William (Wilhelm) by Janet Warter.

Editors note: There is a great possibility the word omitted is "deceased" If Mary died between the time the will was dictated and later probated, it may have been included in the English translation. If so, was noticed and removed so as not to invalidate the intent of the will.

The will shows his residence in Limerick Twp. There is a strong possibility this acreage came from the farm of Jacob B1713, and thought to be a brother. This farm is very close to the present Valley Forge Park as complaints were made to the authorities at the time, that soldiers from the camp were burning up the rail fences for firewood. Complaint made by Jacob, B1713 and his history shows General Washington rode out to inspect the complaint. Any settlements or remuneration not known. Howard B.
JOHN WILLIAM BARNHARDT 1746-1823
By Janet K. Warter

According to Rupp's "Thirty Thousand Names of Immigrants", between the years 1727 and 1775 at least 42 men with the surname BERNHART, BERNHARD or BERNHARDT arrived at the port of Philadelphia and took the Oath of Allegiance to their new homeland. Listed among these were Casper Bernhardt and Wilhelm (his brother? son?) who arrived with the rest of the family on Nov. 10, 1764 on the ship BOSTON (Rupp p.367-368). As was true for almost all these early voyages, the ship had sailed from Rotterdam and stopped a few days later at Cowes, a seaport of Hampshire, England, on the west side of the Isle of Wight. After taking on provisions, the small ship with its 203 or more passengers from the Palatine area of Germany (and possibly Switzerland) began the difficult 12 weeks crossing. Typically there would be illness due to rough seas, poor food and water and overcrowding, plus storms and often unsympathetic ship captains, all leading to weeks of misery. Many would not survive the Atlantic crossing. The number of men who took the Oath of Allegiance at the arrival of the BOSTON was 68, the remainder of the 203 passengers being women and children. Casper Bernhardt's family included his wife, Anna Maria, two sons (William, about 18 years, and Jacob, about 14) and two daughters (Marilis and Maria) ages unknown.

The location of the home village of the Casper Bernhardt family is still unresolved. Where Casper and his family lived the first few years after 1764 arrival in Philadelphia is also unknown. We find him first in 1767 on the tax list of Upper Saucon Twp., Northampton Co. (now part of Lehigh Co.). This tax list gives occupation, with assessment for house and other buildings, acres of cleared land and wood land, number of horses, and mares, horned cattle, bound servants, negroes and mulattoes. Here, in Upper Saucon Twp., Casper Bernhardt is listed as "poor" with no property, and no taxes owed. He is listed similarly in 1768 and 1769. In 1770 he appears on the Salisbury Twp. tax list, where he has 1 cow, but no other taxable property. The 1774 tax list (assessed Nov. 1773) for Salisbury Twp. has both Casper and William. Both are listed as "laborers", each with one cow and no other taxable property.

At the age of about 26, William Barnhart had married Anna, daughter of Rudolph and Barbara Schmidt, probably neighbors or church friends of the Barnharts in Salisbury Twp. (12 May 1772 Zion Ref. Church of Allentown) Rudolph Smith appears on Salisbury Twp. tax lists in 1762, 1764, 1769, 1770 and 1773. He was still living there in 1777, when his will was written. He died in 1778. The marriage of William and Anna was performed by Rev. Abraham Blumer and is recorded in the marriage register of the Reformed Congregation, in Northampton Town. A year later their first child, Anna Catharina Barnhart (born 4 July 1773), was baptized on 11 July 1773, according to the records of Zion Ref. Church, Allentown. Sponsors were John and Catherine Gerhard.

In 1769, land had become available for settlement in Westmoreland Co., while property in the eastern counties of Penna., was probably becoming expensive and more difficult to acquire by the most recent immigrants and the sons of earlier settlers. (After the land west of the Allegheny was purchased from the Indians in 1768, the Penn family of Philadelphia opened land offices with a branch in Carlisle. These show applications for land as early as April 1, 1768 in what is now Westmoreland Co.).
Many German families from Northampton and neighboring counties would take advantage of this opportunity to make new homes in the Westmoreland wilderness. By 1774, the Casper Barnhart family had been in Penna., for ten years. William was married and probably also Jacob. Whether it was the opportunity for affordable land over the mountains, or the political unrest in the Colonies as the Revolution approached, perhaps both, William and Anna made plans to leave Salisbury Twp. On 1 Sep. 1774, a land warrant application for 150 acres in Westmoreland Co. was recorded for "William Barnhard of Northampton Co., adjacent to Samuel Miller, Peter Ury and Moses Prior in Hempfield Township". His parents, Casper and Anna Maria and two sisters, Marilis and Maria, also moved within the next few years, but to nearby Montgomery Co.

Tax records for Limerick Twp. list Casper Barnhardt in 1772, and in 1785-1788 where he is taxed on 17 acres, with dwelling, one cow. occupation not given. Casper Barnhart indicates his last residence as Limerick Twp., where he died in 1791. His grave site has not been located, but the most likely cemetery is the old St. Johns Ref. cemetery near Limerick Village. According to James Arthur Barnhart (who visited the cemetery in 1984) it is the only old cemetery in the area. He found many stones missing, broken or illegible, but dates on those he could read were just prior to, and after 1791.

The biography of Paul S Barnhart in Boucher & Hedley's "New and Old Westmoreland" (p.101) states that William "settled in Westmoreland Co. Pa., about 1774, on a farm several miles east of Greensburg". However, it appears unlikely that they were in Westmoreland the summer of 1774, based on the September date of the land warrant. It would not be logical to begin a hard, over-the-mountains journey with winter coming on. Also the summer of 1774 was a troubled period, with severe threat of Indian attack in Westmoreland Co. As described on p.68 of Albert's "History of Westmoreland Co.", "The stockade at Ligonier was put in repair, and one which had been begun at Hannastown was now hurried up.... It is to this date we trace the erection of the many blockhouses which afterwards offered shelter during the Indian depredations through the Revolution...Fort Shippen, at John Proctor's, Fort Allen, in Hempfield Twp. one at John Shields on the Loyalhanna about 6 miles from Hanna's... Rumors of an impending Indian uprising, combined with the events of "Dunsmore's War" (when an oppressive militia, commanded by John Connolly, took possession of Fort Pitt in January, 1774, and attempted to hold the surrounding countryside as part of the State of Virginia) caused many settlers to abandon their land, livestock and crops and flee back over the mountains to eastern Penna. Those who remained gathered at Ft. Shippen, Ft. Allen, Hannastown and Shield's blockhouse in 1774 to sign petitions for assistance to be sent to the Governor of Pa. Had William Barnhart been in Hempfield Twp., at this time, he would surely have joined his German and Scotch-Irish neighbors in signing the petitions.

For those who remained in their primitive wilderness homes in Westmoreland, and for those returning after the crisis was over to reclaim their land, the winter of 1774-75 was a very difficult one. Food was in short supply, since few crops had been harvested the summer of 1774. The settlers survived by hunting game in the woods, sharing their meager supplies.
Such were the conditions that William and Anna Barnhart, and infant daughter Catharine, were to face when they arrived in Westmoreland Co., probably in the spring of 1775. Most likely in the company of other Northampton Co. friends, (and possibly brother Jacob and wife Catharine) they would have started the difficult trip from the vicinity of Allentown to Hempfield Twp., following the Forbes Road to Hannastown. They probably walked most of the way, with a horse or two to carry supplies and their few possessions. The "Great Road" was little more than a path through the forest, nearly impassable to wagons in those days. Anna Barnhart was probably pregnant with their second child during this journey, since Rudolph was born 6 Oct. 1775 in Westmoreland Co.

William and Anna settled on their 154 acres of warranted land called "Hopewell", along Slate Creek, located today about 3/4 mile south of the present East Gate Shopping Plaza and Westmoreland Mall on Route 30, just east of Greensburg. The road running through the old Barnhart land along Slate Creek is presently known as the Slate Run Road. The Barnhart land extended southwesterly from the present "Roadman Lakes" on Slate Creek for about a mile, occupying the creek valley and extending up the adjacent wooded hillsides, (See map and patent book documents). Their cabin was most likely located at the southern end of the valley, closer to the Harrolds Ft. Allen settlements.

We can only imagine the hardships our pioneer ancestors endured during the first few years of their settlement. The Barnharts were surely dependent at first on the moral and physical support of their German Ref. and Lutheran Brethren whose log cabins and small farms were already established, some around nearby Hannastown and the area that would become Greensburg, and many more at the Harrold's and Brush Creek settlements. Most of the early German settlers of Westmoreland Co. retained the German language and customs, and probably did not mix as freely with their Scottish-Irish neighbors. The fortifications at Hannastown and Ft. Allen must have given some feeling of security to the Barnharts. From the southern end of their tract, the straight distance to Hanna's Town "as the crow flies" would be about 4½ miles, and to Ft. Allen at the Harrold Settlement on Little Sewickly Creek, about 5 miles. Two cabin - blockhouses, or "stations" were also near--"Miller's Blockhouse" at the home of their neighbor Samuel Miller, less than 2 miles north across the present Penna. Rail Road, and "George's Station", at the home of Adam George, about 2-3/4 miles north-east, near what is today called "George's Station", on the Penna. Rail Road. But the Indian attack on Hannastown was still 7 years away (1782) and although danger was always present, there would be a few years when the events of the Revolution were the main distraction on the Westmoreland frontier.

October of 1775 brought the birth of the first Barnhart child at their new home. Baptismal records show that Balthaser Meyer, German schoolmaster at the Sewickly Creek settlement of Harrold's, baptised Rudolph, "son of Wilhelm Barnhart and Anna" on 25 Dec 1775. Sponsors were Jacob Bernhart and Catharina. (Ruff's "German Church Records of Westmoreland Co. Pa." Vol. 1, p.6) I like to think of the William Barnhart family spending the first Christmas Day in their little cabin, celebrating with friends and relatives the Christening of two month old Rudolph.
Three years later, on 27 Sept. 1778, William and Anna's third child, Joh. Phillip Barnhart, was born. He was baptised 25 Oct. by Balthasar Meyer. Neighbors Philip Kuns (Kuhns) and wife Margaretha are recorded as sponsors (Ruff, Vol.1, p.13).

The following Spring, Catharina Barnhart, wife of Jacob, had a baby girl, Elizabeth Catharina, their third child, born 15 Apr. 1779. She was baptised 13 June by Meyer, and sponsored by Peter Tscherry and Elizabetha (Ruff, Vol. 1, p. 15). Although this is the first child of Jacob & Catharina to be recorded in the baptismal books of the German Reformed congregations of Westmoreland, they already had three sons, Peter, Jacob Jr. and William. The family history written by Howard Barnhart indicates that Jacob, Jr. (his ancestor) was born 10 Apr. 1776.

The fourth of William and Anna Barnhart's eleven children was Wilhelm (William, Jr.) born 5 June 1781 and baptised 22 June by Meyer (Ruff, Vol. 1, p.21). Sponsors were Christopher Truby and his wife, Sibilla. Christopher Truby lived at the present site of Greensburg, and owned part of the land which became the heart of the new County Seat a few years after the destruction of Hannastown. For a while, it was known as Truby Town.

Conditions in frontier Westmoreland County deteriorated rapidly during the summer of 1781, with fears growing of a possible Indian attack on Hannastown. It came the following summer, on 13 July 1782. Knowing that they lived so close to Hannastown, and especially to Miller's blockhouse, where many were killed or captured, we must wonder about the actions of William and Anna Barnhart and young children on that fearful day. Most likely they would have fled to the fortified cabin at George's, about 2-3/4 miles from their farm. According to Albert ("History of Westmoreland Co." p.145), nearly 40 men with their families gathered there, probably more than were trapped in the fort at burned-out Hannastown a few miles away. For Anna Barnhart and her four children (Catharine, age 9; Rudolph, 7; Phillip not yet 4 years; and 13 month old William, Jr.), it must have been a terrible experience. The attack at Hannastown had come about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The gunfire and shouts of the Indians could be heard for several miles, and smoke from the burning cabins of Hannastown must have filled the air. About 30 of the armed men at George's launched a rescue party late that night, but found that the Indians had deserted the attack on the fort and headed North, taking with them, as prisoners, the survivors of the Miller's blockhouse attack the same afternoon.

The remainder of 1782 must have been a difficult period for the settlers all around Hannastown. They would have been fearful of another Indian raid, and many suffering the shock of the destruction of homes and property, and the death of family, neighbors and friends. That the Barnharts survived it all there can be no doubt. Their property was spared. A tax assessment for Hempfield Twp. for 1783 lists William Barnhart with 100 acres of land, 1 horse and 3 cows. Jacob Barnhart had no "land," 1 horse and 4 cows. (Jacob did not have land warranted in his name until 1800).

The spring of 1783 had brought a baby girl to Jacob and Catharina Barnhart—Anna Harriett, born 3 Apr. and baptised 15 Aug. 1783 by Johann Wilhelm Weber. Reformed Pastor at the Harrold's Settlement. Sponsors were neighbors, Adam and Elizabeth George. Then on 16 Sept. 1783, William and Anna's fifth child, Daniel Barnhart was born. Daniel was baptised by Weber only a week later (28 Sept.)—perhaps he was a weak baby and not expected to live? Daniel was sponsored by "Hendrick Brincker and Margrettha." Also, Webers baptismal records for 1784 show that William and Anna Barnhart in turn sponsored, on 12 Dec. 1784, Anna, the daughter of Henry and Margaret Brinker. Weber added a note that this child later died, but no year was given. The Barnhart and Brinker families would later have marriage ties (see Section on John Barnhart, born 1785 and Elizabeth Brinker, born 1788).

The year 1785 brought additions to the families of both Barnhart brothers.
Andrew (Andrew) Barnhart, son of Jacob and Catharina, was born Feb. 1785 baptised 23 Mar. 1785 by Weber. William and Anna were sponsors. Then on 14
Nov. 1785 was born the sixth child (and fifth son) of William and Anna, my ancestor Johannes Barnhart. John was baptised by Rev. Weber on 26 Dec.
1785. Sponsors were Michael and Catharina Reinert (Reinhart or Rhinehart).
(Ruff, Vol 1, p.108).

The year 1785 is also notable for the moving of the Westmoreland County Court from Hannastown (where Sessions had been held in the house of Robert Hanna since the burning of the settlement in 1782) to Newtown or Newton (Greensburg), where the first Session of Court met in January of 1787.

The next known record of the Barnharts is the first United States census, taken in 1790. Here William is recorded as head of household and the only "free white male of 16 years and upwards", and the rest of the family as 5 "free white males under 16 years", and 3 "free white females of any age". That summer of 1790 William Barnhart would have been about 44 years old, with Anna probably close to 35, some 9 yrs younger. B 3 Jul 1755. The approximate ages of their 7 children would have been; Catharine -17, Rudolph -15, Phillip -12, William -9, Daniel -7, John - 5 Anna Maria -3.
The Jacob Barnhart family was enumerated similarly, with 4 males under 16 and 5 females. Jacobs age in 1790 would have been around 41 years, and Catherine, 42 years. Ages of their children: Peter-15, Jacob, Jr -14, William-13?, Elizabeth Catharine - 11, Anna Maria -7, Andrew -5, and Catharine -3. Only two of their three known daughters were counted in this census. Anna Maria (Mary) is known to have married, borne 8 children and lived to be 89. Elizabeth Catharine is mentioned later in a record for 1796. Therefore the youngest child, Catharine, must have been deceased by 1790, or there is confusion in the census of identifying her.

On 8 Sept. 1791, another son, Abraham, was born to William and Anna. Abraham was baptised on 2 Oct. by Rev. Weber, and sponsored by Philip and Margaret Kuntz (Kuhns). The baptism may have taken place at the log school house in Greensburg, where both the Lutheran and Reformed congregations had held services for a few years. The school house had been built around 1784 (when Greensburg was still Newtown) in what is now old St. Clair cemetery and park. In earlier years the congregations probably met at Harrolds.

In August of 1792, William Barnhart was one of 6 trustees elected by the Greensburg Reformed congregation to join with the Lutheran trustees to purchase property for a Union Church and cemetery in Greensburg. The other 5 Reformed trustees were Christopher Truby, Simon Drum Jr., Henry Hiesly, Daniel Dorny (Turney) and John Wetzel. The Lutheran trustees were Peter Ruch, Philip Kuntz, Dewalt Mechling, Ludwig Otterman, John P. Miller and William Best. (Ruff, Vol.2, p.89) Their new log church would not be a reality until 1795, however.

Another event of 1792 for the Barnhart families was the BIRTH OF Susanna, daughter of Jacob and Catharine, on 30 Dec. baptised 18 Nov. 1792 by Rev. Weber, and sponsored by Johannes Walker and Catharina Barnhart. Wm. Henry Barnhart’s daughter. (Ruff, Vol.2, p.176) Catharine would have been 19 years old, and so old enough to act as sponsor for her niece.

In 1793, William and Anna appear in the baptismal records of Weber as sponsors of Jacob, son of Samuel and Barbara Bier, on 5 May. Jacob and Catharine also were sponsors that year, on 1 Sept. 1791 at the Harrold Zion Lutheran Church for Anna Catharina Erdmann, daughter of Abraham and Susanna Erdmann. Since Catherine’s maiden name was Erdman, it is possible that Abraham Erdman was her brother or some other relative.

The following year, 1794, the year of the Whiskey Rebellion, must have found the Barnharts active, along with their Hempfield Twp. and Greensburg neighbors, in resisting the tax. According to Albert Barnhart, (an elderly descendent of William Barnhart thru William, Jr.) who once lived in the Greensburg area, family tradition records that the Barnharts were quite involved in the Rebellion. Most of the community evidently felt quite strongly about the unjust tax on one of their most important products. In 1794 there were 16 distilleries in Hempfield Twp. making whiskey, plus the many private stills. This was also the year of the birth of another son, David, to William and Anna Barnhart. David was born 2 Mar. and baptised 11 Mar., 1794 by Rev. Weber. No sponsors were listed, (Ruff, Vol. 2, p.181).
The spring of 1795 finds William and Anna sponsoring Jacob, son of Michael and Anna Maria Truby, May 3. Also that summer was built the Union Church of the Luthern and Reformed Congregations, a log structure and the first church to be built in Greensburg. It was erected on what is now the NW corner of Main and Third Streets, on land purchased 28 Feb. 1795 from Christopher Truby, a member of the Reformed congregation, and one of the landowners of most of central Greensburg. As described by Ruff (Vol.2, p.91), the log church "was quite primitive with floor of roughly dressed logs and crude benches or pews. There was a plain pulpit and altar and no heat". This log structure was used until 1819, when a brick church (the "Old Beehive") was built on an adjoining Main Street lot.

Other events of importance to the Barnhart families were also transpiring at this time. The next few years would see the departure of the oldest sons of William and Jacob from their Hempfield Twp. homes. Land was now available for settlement (The Donation Lands) in Butler County to the north, and the Indians has been pushed farther westward, no longer threatening the area. The Battle of "Fallen Timbers" of 1795 had destroyed the confederacy of the great chief "Pontiac" whose forces retreated to Ontario, Canada. Altho there were one or two severe defeats inflicted by the Indians on General Butler's Army and one or two other expeditions, General "Mad" Anthony Wayne in his victory near present day Toledo, Ohio ended the threat by both the British Forces and their Indian Allies. With the defeat at Tippecanoe, they were further pushed across the Mississippi River. It is interesting to reflect that while land in Butler County, then still part of Westmoreland, not opened until 1796, our entrepreneur ancestors foresaw these events taking place and had already cleared a portion of the Allegheny Plateau. (Kinkade, p. 1804). By the time of the early 1790's.

Rudolph Barnhart, in the company of James Hemphill, had gone to Butler Co. in 1794, made a small clearing near the present site of Karns City in Fairview Twp., then returned home to Westmoreland Co. for the winter. (1895 Hist. of Butler Co., P.530). (Editors note: One can recognize the location of this clearing by travelling North East on route 68 about two miles to the junction of 68 and 268, then take the left fork, Rt. 268 north about another two miles. The clearing abandoned by Rudolph was then claimed by Mr Kinkade. One will pass under the Old Western Allegheny Railroad (now Penna RR) and this is the spot. A large coal mine was here and one can still see the old spoil pile and the traces of the incline carrying the coal up a hundred feet to the level of the tipple where it was loaded on the RR. This farm was also very prolific in Oil Production in the late 1800's and one of the largest or most productive of wells is just to the right of Rt. 268 about 1/4 mile before coming to the RR crossing. It supposedly was rated around 10,000 Bbl per day. In 1989 this well was still standing).
Editors notes: The Butler Co. tax list of 1803 was taken to establish whether there were sufficient land owners to justify the cost of establishing a new county. There were and so Butler County was established in 1804. People on the list may have come into the County in prior years and claimed land, clearing their required six acres (by deadening the trees) and building a cabin. The tax list taken in the summer of 1803 shows 143 families in Buffalo Twp, one of the four Twp.'s in Butler Co. A total of approx 893 families existed in the county in the 1803 count. Fairview Twp. and Fairview Borough were listed for the first time in 1850; Donegal Twp. had been split off by 1810.

The tax due of $ .92. Jacob Jr. 200 acres, 2 cows, 1 horse, valuation $207.00, tax due $ .62, and Philip Barnhart on 200 acres, 1 cow, 1 horse, valuation $222.00 with $ .67 tax due. Very few families owed as much taxes as $1.00 in the entire county. There are some families not present, but owning land, however where cows and horses were present, this was an indication of the habitation of these people.

William Barnhart
By Janet K Warter

Back in Westmoreland Co., William and Anna added another daughter to their large family, Elizabetha, born 27 Mar. 1796 and baptised by Rev Weber on 17 April 1796. Sponsors were Philip Dorny (Turney) and Elizabeth (Ruff, Vol. 2, p. 188). Also that spring, on 22 April 1796, Rev. Weber held the first communion service, in the new log Union Church in Greensburg, p.517). Taking part were the following Barnharts: Jacob and his son Peter, William and Anna, Elizabeth (presumably the 17 year old daughter of Jacob and Catharine ), and Catharine Mechling (oldest daughter of William and Anna, and now married to John Mechling.

In 1797, Jacob Barnhart's two other sons, Peter (about 22 years old) and Andrew (12 years), joined their brother Jacob Jr. at the Butler Co. settlement. William's son Philip (19 years) joined their older brother Rudolph, who had brought his wife (Christina Rice-Reiss) to what is now Fairview Twp., near Millerstown, Chicora, the previous year. Peter and Philip may have remained, but it is likely that the two much younger cousins, Andrew and Daniel, returned to their parents homes in Westmoreland Co. that year. While Daniel may have made the trip at the same time, he didn't settle there until around 1815 when he brought his family, as per the notation in his bible, which was passed down to his eldest daughter. All would eventually make their homes in Butler Co., however. An account of the history of Fairview Twp. (1895 Hist. of Butler Co., p.530) says that Rudolph's new land was "on the southern line of the township, northwest of Millerstown, a part of which he afterwards sold to his brother, Philip, who came in 1797" Page 531 continues...in 1797 Daniel Barnhart (Single?) had bought a part of John Hemphill's tract". It seems, however, that all this property eventually settled by Rudolph, Philip and Daniel was actually owned by their father, William Barnhart. His will (proved Jan., 1823) says "I give and bequeath unto my sons Rudolph and Philip, the tract of land they now live on, situate in Donegal Township, Butler County, 439 acres, to be equally divided between them, patented out of my estate, which is to be their share in full".
And further on in the will, "Item, I give and bequeath unto my son Daniel Barnhart all my right, title, interest and claim to that tract of land in Butler County which I purchased from Mr Hemphill, and $60.00 to be his share in full." Research into Butler Co. land warrants and deeds could add more information here.

Another record for 1797 (Ruff, Vol. 2, p.194) has William and Anna as sponsors at the baptism of Philip, son of Philip and Elizabeth Dorni (Turney) on 6 May.

(Editors note: The first map of the Millerstown area, taken around 1840, shows Rudolph's land on top of the hill and just north of the borough of Millerstown, about 1 mile distant. Millerstown is built on a steep hill side on Rt. 68, about 6 miles NE of Butler, Pa. To the left of this settlement is that of Jacob Barnhart Jr. Daniel's is still further to the left and was referred to as "Barnharts Hollow.")

The Hempfield Township tax records for 1798 give us some interesting information. William Barnhart's occupation is given as "joiner" and Jacob as "shoemaker". A joiner is a specialist carpenter, who planes lumber in order to obtain a close fit which then is used in constructing table, cabinets or bureaus. This is the first indication that they had trades other than farming.

The 1798 U.S. Direct Tax (known as the "window tax") list for houses worth less than $100.00, shows William Barnhart with a cabin 28 x 25 ft., value of $30.00, a barn 40 x 30 ft., and 279 acres of land, valued at $196.00. His neighbor was listed as Michael Truby, Jacob Barnhart had a cabin 20 x 18 ft., valued at $10.00, two stables (28 x 16 and 24 x 14 ft.), and 100 acres valued at $60.00. His neighbor was listed as William Barnhart.

(Editors note: Improvements usually meant the required clearance of six acres of woodland; by deadening trees; necessary for preparing land for cultivation.)

On May 21, 1798, the last child of William and Anna Barnhart, Joh. Georg was born. He was baptised a week later, 29 May, by Weber, with George Stattler as sponsor (Ruff, Vol. 2, p.20). This child died 13 July 1802 at 4 yrs., according to the William Barnhart "old German Bible" record.

In 1799, Weber's baptismal records (Ruff, Vol. 2, p.209) show that Wilhelm, born 6 May 1799, a son of Rudolph "Bernhart" and Christina, was baptized 8 Sept. Sponsor was his grandfather, "Wilhelm Bernhart". Rudolph and Christina probably brought their first born back to Westmoreland Co. for the baptism at Greensburg.

During the next several years William and Anna Barnhart are listed as sponsors at the baptism of children of some friends and neighbors, and for five of their grandchildren: 1803 – Catharina, d/o Johann Mächling and Catharina; 1805 – Anna, d/o William Bernhart, Jr. and Catharina, and Daniel, s/o Philip Bernhart and Elisabetha; 1809 – Elisabetha, d/o Daniel Bernhart and Catharina, and Anna Maria, d/o Philip Bernhart and Elisabeth. (German Church Records of Westmoreland Co., PA, Vols. 2 & 3). Their last sponsor listing is Oct. of 1812. The date of death of Anna Schmidt Barnhart is unknown, but no further records for her beyond 1812 have been located. William evidently outlived her by some years.

In a deed dated 6 Nov. 1820, William Barnhart transferred title to his 273 acres of land to his sons John and David for one dollar (Westm'd Co. Deed Bk. 24:258). These two younger sons probably continued to live on the home place and supported their father until his death on 6 Jan. 1823, a few months short of 77 yrs. of age. In his Will (Westm'd Co. Will Bk. 2:85), written 1 Aug. 1822, William divided his assets between his surviving children (6 sons and 3 daughters) and the heirs of his son William, Jr., who had been killed in a barn-building accident. The original Will is still preserved at the Westmoreland County Courthouse in Greensburg. It is neatly handwritten (possibly by his neighbor, Hugh Jamison, one of the witnesses), three pages on unlined paper, 12 6/8 “ long. (A reduced size copy of this document is included here.) Some interesting items in the Will are mention of an indentured servant, Fanny Kerns, who was to receive $25.00, and either serve out her term with Elizabeth, or remain at the home place with John. (Fanny, the "bound girl", must have been housekeeper/cook for William after Anna's death.) William also mentioned valued personal property -- his clock, copper kettle, stove and three beds (spelled "beads"). Since William was a carpenter ("joiner"), the beds and clock case could have been his own handiwork. These items were to be appraised, then purchased by John or David, or other children. Unfortunately, we have no information about the location of any of these heirlooms, or if they still exist.

The family Bible of William and Anna Barnhart may still be in the possession of descendants of Philip, who had it in 1911. (See "Extract from Old German Bible, Paul S. Barnhart, 1949.

As indicated earlier, William Barnhart's "Hopewell" tract warrant of 1774, and second warrant of 1787 (total of 273 acres and 47 perches) had been deeded to his two sons John and David in 1820. In 1825, two years after William's death, John and wife Elisabeth sold their share of the property to David for $1000.00.
(Deed Bk. 24:260) and moved to another farm close to the home of his sister, Catharine Mechling, and the farm of his deceased brother, William Barnhart Jr., not far from Old Hanna's Town. Although David and wife Betsy (Hugus) were probably living in Mt Pleasant Twp., he still sold 224 acres and 44 perches to Jacob Kiehl Sr., for $2738.60. (Deed Bk. 24:260-263). Fifty Acres had already been sold to Hugh Y. Brady. Kiehl paid off his mortgage in full by 1851, reselling in the meantime two portions of the property: 113 3/4 acres to James Gemmell in 1841 and 24 acres 37 perches to William Ambrust in 1843, both with David Barnhart's release.

The place of burial of William and Anna Barnhart is unrecorded, but it would most likely be the "Old German Cemetery" near the old log Union Church in Greensburg (vicinity of Main and Third Streets), which William had helped to establish.

That cemetery was abandoned as a burial place years ago, and many graves were moved by relatives to other cemeteries. But old graves of many early settlers must have remained, unmarked and forgotten. The cemetery site eventually became a park and playground, and in later years was paved over for a small shopping plaza.

William and Anna Barnhart raised ten children to adulthood, a remarkable thing for the time. Today their descendents must number in the hundreds (thousands), only some of whom are recorded in these pages.

(Editors note: It is regrettable that grand children who knew the place of burial did not record the location of burial sites and pass it on to the following generations. Williams brother Jacob was buried on the original farm he settled in Fairview Twp., Butler Co., Pa. He and his wife Catharine (Erdman) had their graves marked by hand picked sand stone marker about 12" x 16" and 14" high, with a hole cut in the center for a flag marker. This stone was removed or stolen in the late 1980's. The writer was interested in getting the site officially marked by either the Veterans Administration or the DAR. A letter is enclosed in the section following, that of Jacob Barnhart showing an attempt to have this site marked and recorded.)

THE OLD GERMAN BIBLE, somehow, got into possession of Philip, who moved to Butler County. It also contains his family record. His son, back from Ohio to visit, about 1875, found the Bible in a second hand book store, grabbed it, and took it home with him. His son, W. E. Burnhardt, of Kansas City, Mo., a railroad official, had the Bible in 1911, the date of his letter to me, giving above history. Presume WEB has passed on by this time. The Bible is likely in hands of one of his children - highly prized. WEB would not consider parting with it, at the time I wrote him. He has no doubt admonished his children to hang onto it.

Maps and Atlases
An old map of Hesse, showing Darmstadt location as well as Sprendlingen.
Jacob Barnhart, who was a neighbor of Casper's in Limerick Twp., Philadelphia was born in Reifenbach in 1713, a town about 10 miles south of Kirchberg, and about 20 east of Sprenlingen. Thought to be a brother to Casper, or at least a cousin, it was his son Henrich, who witnessed Casper's will in 1790 in Limerick Twp. Philadelphia Co. Pa.

By 1764, Jacob was 20 years of age. He was working in Sprenlingen, perhaps near the Erdmans. He did not go to Limerick Twp., with his father in 1770-1774 time frame. By 1773, he was married to Anna Catharina Erdman, b. 1716, Lehigh Co., Pa. Anna Catharina was the daughter of Andreas and Anne Bonger, b. 1710. Anne Bonger's parents were John Bonger and his wife, Anna Catharina Beissner. Andreas came from Darmstadt, Hesse, Germany to Philadelphia on the ship, the Annette, on 24 Oct. 1737.

Jacob and Ann Catharina left the area of Lehigh Co. around 1774/75 and moved to York Co., Pa. Probably due to the war clouds forming, he knew that if he was captured by the Hessians, employed by King George III, he would be impressed into the German Army as his father had done to Baden illegally in 1764. While his family left in Baden had paid off the fine imposed by 1767, this would not clear up his citizenship, as he had not taken the oath of Allegiance to the Prov. of Penna. by this time. And if he had, the Hessians would probably not have honored it. Jacob and Anna moved to their new home by 1774/75 in York Co., then on to Westmoreland Co. around 1777, then to Butler Co., Pa. around 1800/01. She lived out her life in Buffalo Twp., now Donegal and Fairview Twp., dying in Dec. 1827. She was buried in the woods just below the cleared section of White Oak Cemetery, Fairview Twp., Butler Co., Pa.

Note the map and drawing of the cemetery, including the grave site.

Our next record of Jacob shows up in his military service during the year 1775 in the York County militia. While the material in his DAR file in Washington D.C. lists him as a Capt. with the duties of transferring prisoners, we have not been able to substantiate this fact from his war record.

York County became aware of the need to establish a military force long before the Safety Committee was established or before the budding Continental Congress came to power. In 1774, York authorized a military force, to consist of rifle companies. Since Colonial troops were equipped with the Charlesville musket, or local made copies, a smoothbore of .70 cal was used by lines of infantry firing into each other at a distance of not more than 40 yards. But the rifle gun, as developed by German craftsmen in the Lancaster area, became known as the Pennsylvania or Kentucky rifle was quite a different weapon and accurate to 250 yards. It had a 25 caliber 32 1/2 inch barrel, 270 grains of black powder, and a 34 bolt action primer.
The first rifle company was formed in York in Dec. 1774. The record states they left York for Cambridge, near Boston on Jul. 11, 1775. While some local historians claim the company arrived in time for the fight at Bunkerhill, on June 16-17, this is doubtful. The minutes of the York Moravian Church, written by Pastor Neisser (originally in German) makes the following comments:

June 5, 1775 Today prayers were publicly offered up in behalf of the American Colonies.

Also:

July 1, 1775 This afternoon a company of 100 men, of this town, left for the American Army in New England, with the ringing of bells, after a sermon had been preached to them by the Presbyterian minister on the text 1st Sam., X 12, in which they were exhorted to keep God before their eyes during the expedition and then they could be assured of His protection and guidance; otherwise this would not be the case.

The York history states they arrived by July 1st, which must be incorrect. That they arrived in time for the fight on Boston Heights is undoubtedly correct. They were identified as Capt. Michael Doudel's company of riflemen, recruited in Yorktown and also at Samuel Getty's Tavern (now renamed Gettysburg, Pa.).

In those days with no TV's, telephones, daily papers, news was passed around by wives over the back yard fence. Everybody, Tories and Colonists intermingled freely, and both sides knew every Colonial Officer or British Officer by name and rank and exchanged what information they had gathered up. Every officer, injured, wounded or killed was immediately known by all. These companies of riflemen (sharphooters) were divided up and one or two assigned to each colonial officer. They were used by that officer to pick off enemy shapshooters, runners, messengers on horseback and the occasional Regimental British officer (usually on horseback) when he showed. These men had been selected by qualifying with their rifle. The mark was a wooden plate 9" in diameter, which they were required to hit at 250 yards. It is said that General Putnam had a sharphooter at his side continually. On the regimental front facing him, a British Officer often exposed himself. The General asked his sharphooter if he could "lay him" or "trim his wick". The soldier lowered as he could. Putnam ask him to "lay out". The soldier took a comfortable position, and when the Officer next offered an exposure, the rifle cracked and the British Officer fell off his horse. The distance was around 250 yards. According to gossip, this York Company shot over 47 British Officers during the next four to six weeks. The British gave up trying to clear the hills around Boston.

The 2nd Rifle Company was formed in Feb. 1775, Capt. Hartman Deutsch.

The 3rd Rifle Company was formed on Dec. 16, 1775, George Irwin, Captain and 1st Lt. William Bailey second. However by 1776 when the Company was disbanded to form the nucleus of the new Five Battalions, authorized by the Congress, William Bailey was the Captain. The return was made June 14, 1776 and on the muster roll see the name of our ancestor, Jacob Barnhart. (Ref. P.419 History of the Annals of Casper, Henry, Baltzer and Geo. Spangler written in 1896, reprinted 1985. Covers the history of York, Penna.) The muster rolls are in the possession of the Historical Assn. of York.)
Some of the original 7 companies of infantry established by York County, Pa prior to the authorization by the Committee of Safety of the province of Penna. They were disbanded in 1776 and these were the first seven Battalions of Riflemen in the province of Pennsylvania.

York County Troops in the Revolution. 419
In order to clear up the record of several Jacob Barnharts in the general area, a few comments will be offered:

Jacob Barnhart, B 2 Apr. 1749, s/o Jacob Barnhart, B1713 and who lived near Casper in Limerick Twp. Philadelphia County. This Jacob B1749 married Anna Dottar, who divorced him around 1805. He had left her and went to Baltimore to manufacture musical instruments. He later gave this up, became a sailor and went to sea. Presumably lost at sea, was never heard of again. He left behind several children. Never served in the service. Was brother to Henreich 1754-1834 who later in 1790 witnessed our Casper's will.

Jacob Barnhart, living in York was a blacksmith all his life. He was christened John Jacob 5 Aug 1759, s/o Nicholas & Maria Eva Bernhardt. Known as Jacob, was too important manufacturing war equipment to be conscripted.

Jacob Barnhart, who came into the area around war time, went down to Cumberland, bought property there, sold it after the war and moved with his family to Prentis County, Ohio where today his descendents live in Oh. and Mich.

It was our Jacob, B1749 who received the pension for war time service and whose wife Catharine continued receiving it after Jacob's death in Millers-town (Chicora) Pa.

Altogether there were six rifle companies formed, Dec. 1774, 2 Feb 1775, 3 Dec 1775, 4 27 Dec 1775 and the sixth early in 1776.

All males in York between 15 thru 50 liable to conscription. Those volunteering were known as "Associators" those not as "Non-Associators". In 1776, the Continental Congress awoke, and assigned Pa. a quota of 6000 men, 400 to be furnished by York, later amended 12 Aug 1776 to 515 men. The men of the Rifle Companies disbanded were formed into the new battalions. The 3rd Company, including our Jacob became the 7th Company of the 3rd Bttn. This company was then activated during the summer of 1776, commanded by Capt. Michael Hahn. In the third company in the 3rd Bttn, we see the name of Peter Dinkel, who was the maternal grandfather of Anna Margaret Spangler, who married Jacob Barnhart Jr., in Greensburg, Westmoreland Co. Pa.

The 3rd Company of York, as constituted in Dec. 1775 was called the Independent Light Infantry Company. It was assigned to the 1st Bttn. of York Co., This Bttn. was never completed after Congress authorized five Bttns., in the spring of 1776.

The 4th Company initiated in the spring of 1776 had Michael Hahn as Captain, and Baltzer Spengler as 1st Lieutenant. Baltzer Spengler was the paternal grandfather of Anna Margaret Spangler who married Jacob Barnhart Jr. in 1800 at Greensburg. At his age, he was evidently appointed for political reasons and when the five Bttns. were formed for active duty had resigned.

The five Bttns, under the command of General Hugh Mercer, hero of the Ft. Duquesne fight marched to New Jersey. After some deliberation, two Bttns. became part of the Flying Camp (Penna Line) three returned to York.
The troops of the three returning Btns., as well as new troops conscripted were divided into 7 classes. One or two classes would be called up at a time, thus permitting troops quite some time at home, to sow their fields and harvest their crops in order to ensure the survival of their families. If when called up, their unit was involved in a particular campaign they remained in service for that action. It is noted the 3rd Btn. was conscripted from Heidelberg, Berwick, Paradise, New Pleasant, Hanover and Germany Townships. These townships appear to be in the northern and western parts of York Co.

Where Jacob and Anna Catharine settled in York Twp. is unknown. It would appear from his military service in the area North and West up to 25 or so miles. We have reason to believe the oldest son Peter was born in 1775 in the area. Their second son Jacob Jr. who died 15 Nov. 1838 was listed as 62 years, 2 months, 2 days old. This would place his birth around 8 April 1776. Also, in York Co., the muster roll places him here in June 1776. Jacob, the father 3, 1749.

While we don't have the mustering out date of the 3rd Btn., we do have the dates for other Btns., and these are dated in the summer of 1778 thru 1781.

While troops in the classes may not have been called up for duty, they were still required to show up for exercise day. If they didn't, a fine was levied. Page 54 of the York History for the 3rd Btn., shows a total of 4565 lbs (English money) paid for the period of 1777-1778. Capt. Collins Company had 22 shillings in non-attendance, the biggest offender being Jacob Barnhart. Fines of 18 lbs. 15 shillings a penalty. Since fines could be paid in depreciated continental currency, the fine was not too heavy on the offender. Where was Jacob? That he didn't show up for the exercise-day? Probably tilling land, tending the still, clearing out trees, building the barn and what not. In the 1783 census he was there in Hempfield Twp. with his brother William. Considering the three days or so travel by horseback each way from Greensburg to York, he probably felt it advisable to pay the fines as the easiest way out. Some time between 1778 and 1783 he had moved his family to Hempfield Twp. Westmoreland Co. But that he lived there long enough in York to become acquainted with the Spanglers and Dinkels is evident.

Peter Dinkel, who served in the 3rd Company, 3rd Btn., owned a hardware store on the North side of Market Street, East of Beaver Street. He was the son of Johan Daniel Duenkel and Maria Ursula Von Ernest. Married Anna Margaret Ruhl, d/o John William Ruhl and Gertrude (---) Ruhl. Their daughter Margaret Dinkel 1760-1822 had a Union (Per baptismal cert. of Christ Lutheran Church of York) with one Michael Spangler, s/o Baltzer Spangler, and as a result a daughter, Anna Margaret Spangler 1779-1861 was born. Michael never acknowledged this child. Margaret Salome Dinkel then had another Union with a prisoner of war, producing a son. In 1784 she married Leonard Baumgartner and they had some six or seven children of their own. Leonard was a good father and offered to adopt both her children. The son agreed and we have a copy of the adoption papers. The daughter refused to give up the Spangler name, although living with the Baumgartners.

There is quite a bit of gossip connected with this line which may prove of interest. Dan'l's picture shows on P. 86 of the York History, dressed in finery, wearing a wig, looking like a British Magistrate of the 17th century.
One of the more interesting ancestors of the Barnhart family is a lady known in history as "Shiny Cap" Dinkel. A real colorful person, we have a record of who she was from two sources, and a lot of insight into her personality. From P.85 History of York as written by Ed. W Spangler 1895:

Philip Caspar Spengler, s/o Caspar, married Margaret Salome Dinkel, B 6 Apr 1736, D 29 Jun. 1813, interred Zion's Lutheran Churchyard, York, pa. Margaret was the dau. of Johann Daniel Dunckel (Dinkel) a nobleman of Strasburg, Germany, and Maria Ursula his wife. Maria's father was also a nobleman, Peter Von Ernest Von Colmar. In the family hymn book, edition 1733, is written the following inscription: "Maria Ursula Duncklerin, Geboren Gornussin Von Colmar; geboren 1713, den a April" According to tradition Maria Ursula's father's name was Peter Von Ernest and not Gornussin. It is believed to be an affix and a corruption of "Garnichts thun", complete idleness, used to denote aristocratic birth as distinguished from a plebe.

In the German bible of Rev. David Contler is written: "David Contler, born 28 Apr. 1740, in Schlotterdam, on the Hackensach River, New Jersey. Married Oct. 30, 1763, Maria Catharina Dunkel, daughter of Honorable Johann Daniel Dunkel, deceased and Ursula, his wife. My wife was born June 22, 1746, in Alsace, Bruhn, Germany. The Von Ernest Coat of Arms consists of an anchor in a shield, above it a tunic of armor, surmounted by a dove carrying an olive branch in its mouth.

The Dunkel Coat of Arms (Siebmacher's Wappenbuch, Astor Library, New York, Vol. 5:1-3 p.4) represents three heads and sheaves of wheat on a shield, with a coat of armor above, surmounted by three heads and sheaves of wheat.

Johann Daniel Dinkel was detained in Germany and was not permitted to depart with his wife and children to America. He died of a "fever" soon after. The wife and children arrived in Philadelphia 1753. Peter Dinkel, the only son was about 15 years of age at the time. At his baptism, the King and Queen of Prussia were sponsors. The baptismal cloth, a square piece of silk velvet with golden tassels, used on that occasion, was afterwards used in the baptism of Maria Ursula's grand-children. Her children were: Maria Catherine, wife of Rev. David Contler, Dorothea, wife of Rudolph Spangler, Margaret Salome wife of Philip Caspar Spengler, Anna Maria, wife of Lt. Col. Philip Albright of Revolutionary fame, and Peter Dinkel, a member of 3rd Co. 3rd Bttn. York Co. Militia in the Revolution. Maria Ursula died 29 Sep. 1793, and was interred in Christ Lutheran churchyard, York.

By the populace she was called "Shiny Cap Dinkle" from the handsome cap and robe she wore, spangled with gold. She sat in state one day in each year to receive her children, grandchildren and friends. The pews occupied by the family in Christ Lutheran Church, York, were known as the royal pews, and were not allowed to be profaned by occupancy by the unaristocratic. She sold some of her jewels for $2,000.00 and with the proceeds purchased the house on the south side of West Market street, below Beaver street. (Editors note: we wonder if she used her silk, gold spangled baptismal cloth at the baptism of her two illegitimate great grand children, which would have taken place before her death). One of these great grand children was Anna Margaret Spangler, who in 1899/00 married Jacob Barnhart Jr. in Greensburg.

The fortunes of war affect the destiny of many families and we can be fortunate that both Jacob Barnhart and Peter Dinkel were in the 3rd Bttn of the first five formed in York Co. When the five were marched to New Jersey in 1776, only the first two were selected to incorporate into the "flying camp" and become in the Colonial Army, the three remaining marched back to York, but were still militia subject to recall. Of the first Bttn, few if any of the men ever lived to return to York. Captured in the Battle of Long Island they were imprisoned in the "prison ships" in New York harbor and either died there of wounds, starvation, or disease. A few Officers were exchanged, if they had friends or relatives with political clout in New York City.

Many Barnharts also had another ancestor in the battles fought around Philadelphia, at Germantown, Redbank and Brandywine, no doubt against ours as an opponent. He was Christian Pflueger, a Grenadier, of the Von Linsingen Grenadier Bttn., First Hessian Division, from Kassel-Wehlheiden, Hessen. The Division sailed April 1, 1776 from Hessen for America, arriving in New York in the summer of 1776, and fought in the Long Island fight. The war records of this division in Germany also show they fought in the three battles around Philadelphia, mentioned above. In the early summer of 1778, Christian is listed as missing, code 12, his last roll call in late March. He later shows up in Lancaster, Pa as a prisoner of war in 1778, under the Prisoner of War contract making boots for the colonial army, where he met and married Maria Elizabetha Byerle, coming to Butler Co., Pa. in 1797. For those interested in the Pflueger history see either Frank Woods excellent history or the Byerly history written by this writer.

We have no record of Jacob's release from service nor his departure with his family from York to Greensburg. It is believed by this writer that the family left around 1777-78 when his military absences started to accumulate. That Wilhelm took an interest and looked after Jacob's family is evident, during his absences in the service. The record of his unit shows that in 1777 it became activated when the British campaigned in the area of Philadelphia. Germantown, Redbank and Brandywine were either at best, stand offs or defeats. General Howe captured Philadelphia 27 Sept. 1777, one week after Congress had departed (19 Sep 1777) for York, Pa. They took a round-a-bout route to Reading, thru Lancaster to York, met for one day in session 27 Sept. and arrived in York for their first session on 30 Sept. 1777, bringing with them their records, all moneys available and the other necessities of government in a few horse drawn wagons.

Jacob is listed in DAR record #452933 as an infantry soldier until June 20, 1781. Even so, he may have spent most of the winter in Greensburg as the British Army would go into winter quarters and be dormant except for a few scouting or foraging forays. Colonial commanders were only too willing to have their men go home, which saved them the expense of providing food or material supplies, and enabled the militia soldier to look after the welfare of his family, by gathering up a few woodland animals for the winter food supply. (One way of determining when Jacob would be with his family would be to check the sponsorships of his and Wilhelm's family baptisms. But generally these people would be home for some five months during winter and early spring. For this they were called "Summer Soldiers" a term which should not be used disparagingly.)
The record of the Barnharts in Westmoreland Co. is covered well by Janet in the section William Barnhart. While Jacob lived in York Co. his first born Peter then Jacob Jr. and perhaps William was born there. We have by 888 page from the 1850 census listing him as 75 for a birth date of 1775. Jacob's age from his headstone in White Oak as April 19, 1776. William has no headstone in White Oak, his being the first burial there when land for the cemetery set aside by Andrew. By this time Jacob had already died and was interred down near the spring in the woods some 300 ft. below White Oak. This location was marked by the Veterans Admin in 1952 at the request of the writer. There were two graves at this site marked by flat stones presumably of Jacob and his wife Catharine. The land was set aside by Andrew later as Jacob's will indicates a gift to the Church of 1 acre.

Page 45 shows the highway map covering this area. The original church was just north of and facing Hiway 268, known as the Union Church (Luth & Ref.) later when the roof fell in as the "Broken Down Church".

Jacob and Catharine lived here in their log cabin, clearing land, planting orchards, growing crops and otherwise living a fairly comfortable life.

It is difficult to construct Jacob's military record. Even as late as WWI, 1918, extreme reluctance of officers to document enlisted service records was customary. If the soldier didn't leave a handwritten record with his family such history was lost forever.

We have a few clues to his service. York County, because of Indian problems recognized the necessity of arming. In 1775 they authorized six companies of riflemen, the first company going to Cambridge, Mass in July 1775. These men were known as Associators. You will see Jacob's name in roster of Capt. Bailey's Company. In 1776 these companies were disbanded to form the five Battalions authorized by the Safety Committee of PA. Jacob is shown in the 7th Co., 3rd Bttn. From 1776 onward a few clues cloud the picture. Jacob drew a pension during his lifetime and after death it went to his widow Catharine. One of our genealogists suggests pensions indicated Continental service in addition to state Militia service. (Dr. Sweitzer). No Militia records indicate Jacob was other than a private. But he was also a Corporal indicating other service. There is a record of Jacob's service June 12 to 20th. 1781. Probably a prisoner detail from York to Reading, PA. We know that General Washington captured Philadelphia from the British June 6-7, 1781. And June 12-20 appears logical for a prisoner detail from there to Reading. Perhaps a word is in order here about this event.

When the British realized they were being cut off and had to evacuate the City, they ordered General Knyphausen, of the Hessian forces to form the rear guard. The British used baggage wagons, carts and other vehicles to depart. The Hessians were ordered to protect the rear, but keep up with the British. Hessians were in wool uniforms, under full packs, three days rations, would fight delaying actions, and then double time to catch up to the British. The weather for those few days was in the 90's. Officers were ordered to not delay nor stop for any wounded or fallen. It is reported the Hessians dropped like flies. British Army Headquarters in NY reported a loss of 50% of their Hessian forces. But one should remember; Hessian troopers quartered in Phila, among the ethnic Germans there were well aware of the "Settler Status" offered by the Colonials for all desertions. Perhaps it wasn't so bad when the going got most difficult to give way to fatigue.
A diary by Emme Heck (Gt aunt of the writer) states her Great grand father Christian Pflueger, a Hessian in the Von Linsingen Grenadier Btn, was in that retreat and surrendered during that withdrawal.

The next reference to Jacob in 6th Series Vol. 11, Page 628 lists Capt. Peter Fornds payroll from July 8 to Sept 8, 1781 (c) Jacob Barnhart Detachment of York Militia guarding prisoners of war from Yorktown to Reading, Pa. The name Yorktown is confusing. Did they mean the city of York, Pa or Yorktown, Va where Cornwallis surrendered the British Army? Yorktown officially occurred 19 Oct 1781 although the agreement was reached several days before. We don't find Capt. Fornds name in Militia Records. Was he a Continental Officer? Was Jacob in the Battle of Yorktown and then on the way home with other Penna. Militia escorting prisoners from Yorktown, to Frederick, to York, to Reading?

The direct route for escorting prisoners from Yorktown would be thru Baltimore, Philadelphia to Reading. Taking them thru York, Pa suggests the detaining troops were from York Militia. The minutes of the York Moravian Church of York, Pa. indicate British prisoners in York to wit: Jan 8, 1782 "For the past two days, prisoners of Lord Cornwallis' Army have been passing thru our town". These minutes were written daily by the Church during the Revolutionary period and are considered as accurate as any record. If he was in the Continental service during this period, this would account for his pension. If so he would have missed spending Christmas of 1781 with his family in Greensburg, and would probably arrived home the middle of January 1782.

It is known that General Washington assaulted Yorktown, Va on Sept 28, 1781 until the surrender on Oct 19, 1781. He used a force of over 11,000 troops. The Continental Army was only authorized 10,000 troops, so losses, leave, desertions, and wounded often accounted for almost half his authorized strength. Probably half his effectives were Militia and many of these would have been enlisted at the time, the enlistment bonus being a pension and perhaps a promotion in grade.

Certainly during this period, the credit for holding his family together and looking after its needs must go to his brother Wilhelm Barnhart back in Hempfield Twp. Westmoreland County. While the Safety Committee's rules state that families of soldiers in need must be maintained by the County, Westmoreland County was on the western frontier with little or no government to maintain it, succor came from family, relatives and neighbors.

Family Background of Anna Schmidt Barnhart
by Janet K. Warter

Anna Schmidt, wife of Johann Wilhelm Bernhardt (John William Barnhart), was born 3 July 1755, probably in Salisbury Twp, south of Allentown, PA., in what is now Lehigh Co. (then Northampton Co.). The name of her father (Rudolph Schmidt) and her birthdate were written in the Barnhart family Bible by her husband, along with his own birthdate, their marriage date and the birthdates of their 11 children.

Rudolph "Smith", as he preferred to be known, came to America at the age of 21 on the ship "Francis and Elizabeth", which landed in Philadelphia 30 Aug. 1743 (Staussberger & Hinke, Vol.1, p. 331). According to p. 76-77 of Faust & Brumbaugh, Rudolph had left the village of Rumlang, Canton Zurich, Switzerland, for America in the company of the Caspar Hinnen (Hinna) family and Heinrick Hinnen, Caspar's unmarried brother. (The names of these three men appear together on the Francis & Elizabeth passenger list.) In the April 4, 1743 Rumlang church record entry by Pastor Hans Heinrich Vollenweider, Rudolph is listed as "Rudolff Schmid, the deceased Fridlis' son, born 1722".

Rudolph married Barbara Weiss and settled in Salisbury Twp. near the southern edge of Allentown. The location of his house is shown on a 1760 map for a new road from Macungie Twp. to Bethlehem (LDS microfilm 021680). His house is shown near Trout Creek, about half way along the proposed road. PA route 145 going north into Allentown crosses Trout Creek near this location today. The History of Lehigh Co., Vol. 1, p. 588 tells us that the village of Mountainville, at the intersection of Emmaus Ave. and Rt. 145 (4th St.), "... is built on land at one time in possession of Rudolph Smith, who erected a log tavern at the crossroad prior to 1800." The 1936 Proceedings of the Lehigh Co. Historical Society, p.9, adds this: "Mountainville was once called Smith's, as Rudolph Smith, Senior, had a hotel there in Revolutionary times, which he received from his father-in-law, George Weiss, and which his son also conducted". Also on p. 18: "Jacob Weiss had a tavern at Mountainville in early days, and was succeeded by his son-in-law Rudolph Smith who kept it many years ..." From these two records we obtain Barbara's maiden name, but no clear indication of whether she was a daughter of George or Jacob. (There is also confusion concerning the tavern, since Rudolph's tavern was part of his own home, according to the petitions of 1772 and 1773, and not a separate building which he purchased from Weiss.)

Rudolph "Smith" is on the Northampton Co. tax rolls for Salisbury Twp. (LDS microfilm 021682) in 1762, 1764, 1767 (listed as "lame", with 40 acres cleared land and 85 acres wooded land, no animals), 1769, 1770 and 1773 (listed as "poor", 40 and 80 acres, no animals or tax due).

Other interesting Northampton Co. records concerning Rudolph Smith verify that he was a tavern keeper for a number of years, as mentioned earlier. Because he lived along a well-traveled road, and was not able to do heavy labor, in 1762 he petitioned for a license to keep a public house. He appears in several lists of tavern keepers through 1773. In 1778, his son Jacob Smith is listed as tavern keeper (LDS #0211680). Another version of Rudolph's petition, this one dated 1763, (not microfilmed) is located in the Archives at the Courthouse at Easton. His petition of 1762 had apparently not been successful.

Rudolph Schmidt died in 1777. His Will (Admin. 739 of 1777) mentions wife Barbara and 5 children: Jacob, Anna, Catharina, Rudolph and Daniel. Baptismal records of Zion Reformed Church, Allentown (LDS #020345) show son Jacob Schmidt and wife Catherine as sponsors for other family members, but none of their own children are listed. Four children of Catharina and husband, John Kauper, were baptised 1776 to 1783. Ten children of Rudolph Schmidt, Jr. and wife Catherine were baptised between 1794 and 1814. Schmidt/Smith baptisms continue in these Church records through 1850, which is as far as was checked. Although the 1772 marriage record for Anna Schmidt and Johann Wilhelm Bernhardt is in the Zion Reformed Church records, as is the 1773 birth and baptism of their first child, Catharina Barnhart, no other entries for them are found. William and Anna Barnhart departed for Westmoreland Co. around 1775, and their other children were born in Western Pennsylvania.

In 1784, Barbara Smith sold the property to her son-in-law, John Keipper (Kauper) and daughter, Catherine Smith Keipper (or Kauper). Listed as co-sellers are "Jacob Smith, eldest son and heir of the Rudolph Smith, deceased, and Catharina his wife, and William Barnhart of Hempfield Township of the County of Westmoreland in the said State of Pennsylvania, carpenter, and Anne his wife, being a daughter of the said Rudolph Smith deceased ..." Rudolph Smith (Jr.) and Daniel Smith are listed as co-buyers with John Keipper. The deed describes "a certain Messuage and two tracts of land lying contiguous each other", containing 144 acres and 59 perches. Patents for these two tracts had been recorded in 1781 and 1782, after Rudolph's death by Barbara and Jacob "in trust for the use and benefit of himself and other children of the said Rudolph Smith." Property joining these two tracts included "land late of William Allen Esquire" (the founder of Allentown) and "land of said William Barnhart." This transaction settled the estate, with the property remaining in the possession of three of Rudolph's children. William and Anna Barnhart acknowledged the receipt of Anna's share by appearing before John Moore Esq., Court of Common Pleas, Westmoreland Co., 19 August 1789.

In checking on the above reference to William and Anna Barnhart owning property next to Rudolph Smith, there is a land warrant in Northampton Co. records (LDS microfilm #021687) issued 14 April 1773 to William Bernhard for 50 acres "Joining James Allen, Jacob Shoody and Rudolph Smith in Salisbury Twp. in said County." There was no indication in William Barnhart's Will that this property was still in his possession. A search of Northampton Co. deeds under William Barnhart’s name should turn up a sale of this land. It is interesting to know, however, that William and Anna had a home to return to, if their Westmoreland Co. homesteading proved unsuccessful!

Miss Abbie Brown,
346 Wagner Ave.,
Butler, Pa.

My dear Miss Brown,—

I received a letter from your brother, Rev. Wm. Brown, giving what information he had relative to the Barnhart's and find that it does not correspond exactly with what I have, so am giving you below the record which I think came from Elias Shakely, Butler, Pa., just as he sent it and presume it was taken from a Bible record:-

This is the History of:-

I, William Barnhart left my Fatherland in the year of Christ 1764 on the 12th day of March. I was born in Littleukaitz six hours distant from Kiserlanter. My Father's name was Chafyer and my Mother Mary died on the 7th of January 1823.

"Help, Lord, that I may live long,
From my heart may give Thee praise,
And in my distress on Thee call,
As long as my tongue can speak."

I, John Wm. Barnhart, was born on the 3rd day of March 1746 and was married March 12th 1772 to Anna my beloved wife honorably born daughter of Honorable Rudolph Smith. She was born July 3rd 1756.

On the 4th day of July 1773 there was born to us a daughter and the name of Catherine was given to her.

October 6th 1775 there was born to us a son and name of Rudolph was given him.

September 27th 1778 a son was born to us and the name of Williams was given him.

September 16th 1783 a son was born to us and he was called Daniel.

November 19th 1785 a son was born to us and he was called John.

November 30th 1787 a daughter was born to us and given the name of Mary.

September 8th 1791 a son was born to us and given the name of Abraham.

March 27th 1796 a daughter was born and given the name of Elizabeth.

March 12th 1798 a son was born and given the name of George.

You will notice in your account a son was given as "David" and no mention of "George" was made. You also give a generation before the record I have and the three sons, of which I only have the name of one, John William, whose birth I have as March 3, 1746 and you have as May 3, 1746.

Our record shows that Daniel Barnhart was born September 16, 1783 and your record shows 1782.
They lived in the Palatinate (probably the lower Palatinate), near a place called Thale (from which it is inferred that the word means "valley" in German, and I know of no place called Thale except one near the base of the Harz Mts., at least seventy-five miles from the nearest point of the upper Palatinate, and much farther from the lower Palatinate.)

Whether this Casper ever came to America is uncertain.

It is said that three of his sons did; however, one of these was John William (Johann Wilhelm), who left Germany 12 May 1764.

According to the Philadelphia records, Casper Bernhardt and William Bernhardt came on the ship "Boston," Master Catt. Master Catt. landing on 10 Nov. 1764, and probably about date 1763 is an error.

John William Bernhardt is said to have had two brothers. In this country, one who "stayed east," and another Jacob, who went west with him.

Whether the Casper Bernhardt who came in the same vessel with Wilhelm (whom I have no hesitation in identifying with Johann Wilhelm), was Wilhelm's father, or the brother who "stayed east," I do not know. It was probably his father, if they came in 1764, for John William was then only 18 yrs. old.

(If appears to me highly probable that the above three brothers were Johann Wilhelm, Jacob, and Peter. Of these notes and that they came to this country with their father, Casper, in 1764; Johann Wilhelm being the only one of the boys at that time above 15 years of age.)
CHAPTER ONE

Anna Catharina Barnhart

CATHARINE BARNHART (1773 - 1854)
by Janet K. Warter

Tax records indicate that William and Anna Barnhart lived in Salisbury Twp., near Allentown, in what is now Lehigh Co. (then part of Northampton Co.) before migrating to Westmoreland Co. around 1775. Their first child, Anna Catharina Barnhart, was born 4 July 1773, and baptised on 11 July 1773 at the old Zion Reformed Church at "Northampton-Town" (now Allentown), where her parents had been married the year before (12 May 1772) by the Rev. Abraham Blumer. This is the famous Church where the Liberty Bell was hidden in 1777 -- smuggled out of Philadelphia, taken through British lines by wagon, and buried beneath the floor of the church on 24 Sept 1777, where it lay hidden for nearly a year.

Catharine's future husband, John Mechling (Mechlin, Maklin or Machling), was also born in old Northampton Co., on 19 May 1773, the 9th child of Dewalt (Theobald) and Sebilla Mechling. He was baptised 30 May 1773 in Jerusalem Luthern Church, Salisbury Twp. The Dewalt Mechling family arrived in Westmoreland Co. a year or more before the Barnharts. Land records show that Dewalt Mechling had two large tracts: 343 acres called "Mechlingberg" (1769 warrant), located just west of the Barnhart land, and 732 acres called "Longsides" (1774), just south of old Hannastown. So Catharine Barnhart and John Mechling grew up as neighbors. After their marriage, John either inherited or purchased about 250 acres of the "Longsides" property. (Portions of this tract had gone to Michael Mechling and Dewalt Mechling, Jr. in 1782.) In 1815, Catharine's brother, William Barnhart Jr., became a neighbor, settling on part of the "Longsides" tract he had purchased from Michael Mechling. As a matter of local historical interest, it was on the Mechling "Longsides" land that the Indians murdered Capt. Joseph Brownlee and his small son as the captives were being marched from Miller's Blockhouse towards Hannastown the day of the attack, July 1782. Brownlee was later buried where he fell, the spot marked for years by a wild cherry tree, and later by a white monument visible on the hillsides.

John and Catherine Mechling had 10 children, as indicated by baptismal records in Vol. 2, 3 & 4 of "The German Church Records of Westmoreland Co., PA" by Paul Miller Ruff. Of the 10 children, only four survived to adulthood, and only three were living in 1847, when John Mechling wrote his Will: Susanna Rumbaugh, Anna Sindorf, and Mary Kunkle (widow). Magdalene Weaver was deceased, leaving 4 children. No male heirs (Solomon, John and John Frederick Mechling) survived to be mentioned in the Will. The home farm was willed by John Mechling to the children of his deceased daughter, Magdalene Weaver. The other three daughters received title to the farms where they were already living with their families. (Westmoreland Co. Will Book 3, p.
262.) John Mechling died 3 Mar. 1850. Catherine Barnhart
Mechling died 4 years later, 7 July 1854, at 81 years of age.
Their daughter, Anna Mechling Sindorf, died a few months before her mother on 27 Apr. 1854 (of cancer), and was buried on her parent's farm, according to the death certificate. Perhaps John and Catherine Mechling were also buried on their farm in a private burial ground.

1 Catherine and John Mechling had 10 children: Susanna, Anna, Mary, Catharine, Solomon, Johannes, Magthaline, Esther, Christina and John.

2/1 Susanna Mechling, B 10 Sep. 1758, Henry Rumbaugh. Nine children:

3/8 Charlotte Rumbaugh D age 10, 1 Sep. 1842
3/9 Franklin Rumbaugh D age 7 yrs. 10 mo. 2 da. 17 Sep. 1842

Henry's will written 1865, Westmoreland Co., will Book 4, P. 74 lists his children, probably not in birth order. Proved 1866, it lists the first seven as living, and mentions his wife Susanna.

German name Weber, means a weaver, anglicized upon coming to America.
Both surnames carried forward in Penna. unto this day. Of interest here is the "henner" or call name, Magthalina. The "th" sound became a d in the 9th century in middle and western Germany, after moving North from the Bavarian area. Often the spelling remained "th" an
(OHG) characteristic (Old High German) usually indicating a distant ancestor originating in Austria or Bavaria, as folks used family names,

Rudolph Barnhart, born 6 Oct 1775, Bap. 25 Dec 1775 was born in the log cabin in Hempfield Twp. Westmoreland County, early in the fall after their sojourn from Northhampton County near Easton. When Wilhelm and his wife left their old home for the new settlements in Westmoreland, they already had a baby girl with them, Catharine, born 1773. This baby would be coming two years of age in July 1775. With Anna pregnant, this would be a rough trip, with even more a difficult summer and winter to follow. Wilhelm would first need to build a rough cabin. Gradually this would be refined and secured against the winter weather in the months to come.

To maintain settler status, he also needed to clear several ac. the first year, and with no family to help cut and peel the logs; deaden trees, he would be desperately busy to beat the coming of the Northern storms. But with other settlers near by, he would have help in erecting the walls and roof of the cabin, and no doubt there was woodland game enough to ensure survival. Our histories tell us, that the first settlers had an extremely difficult time in harvesting the crops, due to wildlife finding it easier to live of settler crops than survive in the woods. But we know that the settlers already there would be a mainstay for the new arrivals.

It was usually the lot of the eldest son to learn the farming chores early in life. Land had to be cleared, buildings upgraded, winter food for the live stock gathered and cured, as well as stockpiling provender. As the eldest son, he would have been coached in stocking and bagging the woods animals for food probably by the time he was 7 or 8. Rudolph is credited with bagging a deer on one of his first trips to Butler Co., with the Hemphills in one of the Butler Co. histories.

During Indian raids on the frontier, Rudolph would prove to be adequate for the time, as he was only six coming seven in July 1782, when the attack on Hannastown, resulted in its destruction and burning by the Indians. At age 7 the writer was expected to bring in small game for the table. Sometime around the winter of 1777 or the spring of 1778 his Uncle Jacob with his family would appear and need help in establishing his homestead and support the family. Rudolph with his cousins Peter and Jacob Jr., would be toddlers, and with Jacob Sr called up for his turn on Militia duty in York, Pa., during much of the summer, it would be Wilhelm who carried the burden.

By 1783 when the census was taken, both Wilhelm and Jacob were in residence. With the surrender of Lord Cornwallis and his troops at Yorktown, Va on Oct. 16/19, 1781 and the return of Penna. Militia with the British prisoners in York in early Jan. 1782, the frontier families were now free to establish their settlements on the frontier. The US Census of 1790 show Rudolph as 15 years of age, no doubt ready and able to make his way.

Rudolph would be coming 19 years of age in 1794 when he made his first trip to the new frontier with the Hemphills in what is now Butler County.
CHAPTER TWO
RUDOLPH BARNHART

By Howard D Barnhart

By 1803 the new population in Buffalo Twp. Westmoreland Co. was considered sufficient to warrant a new County, and a census tax was taken that year to determine the new tax basis. By 1804 a new county was established and named Butler Co. Armstrong County, formerly Sugar Creek Twp., Westmoreland Co., was also established the same year 1804. The census show Rudolph with 200 acres, 1 cow, valuation $207.00, with tax due of $.62¢. The presence of a cow is considered proof of family in residence.

Rudolph had married Christina Rice (Reiss) by 1798, the daughter of Anna Catharine (Lauffler) Rice, (Christina was a sister of Elizabeth Rice, who had married Rudolph's brother Philip). While Rudolph had originally selected land for settlement several miles north of Millerstown, where Mr Kinkaid later settled, in 1795 he relocated his claim on land just north of and touching the settlement later to be named Millerstown. This property was no doubt paid for by his father Wilhelm, as Wilhelm's will in 1822 conveys this property to Rudolph. Wilhelm will conveys 439 acres to be divided equally between Rudolph and his brother Philip. No doubt there was an oral promise made sometime around 1795.

A Barnhart family bible, which was handed down to David Daubenspeck, a son of Elizabeth (Barnhart) Daubenspeck, d/o Daniel & Catharine (Hoeltzer) Barnhart came into possession of Sarah Elizabeth (Cannon) Swanson, a granddaughter of David Daubenspeck. An entry by Elizabeth Barnhart reads as follows: "She was five years old in the fall of 1814 when the family moved from Westmoreland to Butler Co. just north of Chicora, in the area where her Uncle Rudolph lived. They had no home for the winter and moved in her Uncle Rudolph's cabin, where they lived with his family for the winter and the next summer, a short distance from town. In the summer of 1815 they built a log cabin on land later owned by son David and moved in the fall. (Ed. note) The above item is confusing. The person son David cannot be David Daubenspeck, Elizabeth's son but must be David Barnhart, her brother who married Susanna Shakley, and who lived there during the 1850 census. (The farm of David Daubenspeck was not split off and deeded to David Daubenspeck until after 1837 when his grandfather Philip Daubenspeck died. (The writer was raised on the farm adjoining David Daubenspeck's and knew his children well, often working on this farm during his high school years).

Rudolph was living during the 1850 Census, and is buried in White Oak Cem., next to his wife Christina. His stone reads: 10-6-1775 3-21-1851 age 75 years 5 mo. 15 days, born in Westmoreland. Her stone reads: 4-14-1773 10-14-1853 71 yrs. 6 mo. 20 days Wife.

John Philip Barnhart born in the little log cabin of his parents Johan Wilhelm and Anna (Schmidt) Barnhart in Hempfield Twp. Westmoreland County, Pa., on a beautiful Autumn day, with the help of a long forgotten friendly mid-wife, on 27th of Sept. 1778.

John Philip, as was the German custom became known by his "nenner" or call name Philip. He was their third child and was baptised by Balthaser Meyer on 25th Sept. 1778. Their neighbors "the Kuhns" were his sponsors.

Philip would be aged three, coming four, when Hannastown was assaulted by the Indians under Chief Guyasuta (a Delaware) and burned. We next see Philip in the listing under the 1790 Military census where he would be listed under the 16 yrs of age grouping. He would be 11 yrs during the June census taking. Philip is credited with coming to Buffalo Twp. Westmoreland Co. (now Butler Co.) in the 1895 History of Butler County during the year 1797 with his brother Rudolph. He may have come on the trip as an adventure or to look over the possibility of later claiming land, and possibly came on later summer trips to help clear land, erect cabins either for himself or for brother Rudolph.

On 17 June 1800 he married Elizabeth Rice (Reiss; a sister of Christine who had married brother Rudolph. The probability is that he had an oral promise from his Father Wilhelm for land purchased in the area, and that he had his cabin built and ready for occupancy at the time of his marriage.

The Tax Census taken the summer of 1803 shows Philip with 200 acres, 1 cow, 1 horse, Value $222.00 tax due $ .67c The presence of a cow confirms occupancy of the premises. The tax base was considered adequate and the new County of Butler was established in 1804. Page 513 of the Butler history credits him with being a settler in 1797, and this could be as marriage was not a requirement, particularly if a cabin was up.

The following excerpt is taken from the Butler Co. history of 1895, Page 512 thru 513. "Millerstown derives its name from the fact that a little Grist-mill was erected on its site in 1805 by Abraham Lasher. The mill changed owners several times by 1836 in which year it and about 150 acres of adjacent land was purchased by Philip Barnhart from James Hemphill. Philip had the tract surveyed into town lots under the name of Millerstown. The Post Office already had a town Millerstown in Pa., and so named the town "Barnharts Mills", in honor of the Barnhart family. In conducting the sale, the auctioneer announced that who ever purchased the first lot and who would build on it, would have the price remitted. Philip's brother Daniel purchased the first lot. Philip then tore down the old mill and erected on its site a new and improved one."

Editors note: (The old mill building was still standing in the 1920's and the writer remembers it standing forlorn and dilapidated on Buffalo Run to the right of route 38 about 100 ft up the run from the road).

3/4 Mary Florence Barnhart 1862-1865

3/5 Arthur Gooding Barnhart, 1867 (twin)
3/6 Austin Frederick Barnhart 1867 (twin).
William Jr. was born 5 June 1781 at the Barnhart homestead on Slate Creek, the year before the Indian attack on Hannastown and nearby Miller's Station. He was the third son of William and Anna. His birthdate and baptism by Balthaser Meyer (the German Schoolmaster at Harrold's Settlement) are recorded in Vol. 1, p. 21 of "The German Church Records of Westmoreland Co., PA", by Ruff.

The exact date of his marriage to Catharine Rumbaugh (Rambach) is unknown. But by October of 1805 their first child had been born, so the marriage was probably in 1803 or 1804. Because no Rumbaugh (Rambach) family baptisms are found in the earliest Westm'd Co. church records, Catharine was probably not born in Westmoreland. The Rumbaugh family apparently settled near Mt. Pleasant some time after the 1790 census.

Exactly where William Jr. and Catharine lived in the early years of their marriage is unknown, but they are in Hempfield Twp. for the 1810 census, not far from John and Catharine (Barnhart) Mechling, near Hannastown. On 3 May 1815 they purchased about 225 acres in Hempfield Twp. in this same locality from Michael Mechling and wife Margaret (Westm'd Co. Deed Bk. 11:413). This was the land Michael Mechling had received from his father, Dewalt Mechling, in 1782, and was part of the large Mechling "Longsides" tract of 1774. On 11 April 1818, an additional 21 acres, 150 perches was purchased from neighbors, Benjamin and Jane Kirkpatrick (Westm'd Co. Deed Bk. 13:28-29). This smaller section of land was part of the original 219 acres patented to Robert Smith in 1790, and which had passed through three other owners before Kirkpatrick (1811), who still retained most of the property. This made a total of approximately 246 acres, some of which William apparently farmed.

We know little of William Barnhart Jr. beyond this date (1818), as an accident in 1820 caused his untimely death at the age of 39. He was killed while hauling logs for his new barn (See biography of Samuel Barnhart, p. 1254 of "Old and New Westmoreland" by Bucher & Hedley.) According to Catharine Barnhart Long (personal communication), a livestock feed box was made from the log which killed William Jr., and it remained in the barn through several generations on the original farm property. (Catharine Long was the last Barnhart descendant to live on the property.)

William Jr. and Catharine had seven children before his death: Anna (1805), John (1807), Sarah (1808), William (1812 - died in childhood, death date unknown), Mary (1814), Leah and Catharine (birthdates unknown). William’s farm eventually passed to his only surviving son, John (1807-1858), who would have been about 13 years old at the time of his father’s death. A survey was made of the property in 1836, at the request of John Barnhart
CHAPTER FOUR

"one of the heirs and legal representatives of William Barnhart, deceased ..." The survey map shows 204 acres, 56 perches. In 1840, John built the brick house standing today. He also died young — at the age of 51, of diabetes.

Much interesting family information can be found in the biographies of John's two sons, Samuel Barnhart (1838-1918) and William R. Barnhart (1841-1922), published in "Old and New Westmoreland" and "Biographical and Historical Cyclopedia of Westmoreland Co.", and in the narrative family history "A Grandmother's Reminiscences", written in 1959 by Lavinia Barnhart Branson (copy available at the Westmoreland Co. Historical Society.) Lavinia Branson was a daughter of William R. Barnhart. These two sons of John (Samuel and Wm. R.) inherited the family farm, which they divided, Wm. R. living at the site of the original house of his father and grandfather. (See also the biographies of Paul Shupe Barnhart (1880-1952), and George Shupe Barnhart (1867-1945), sons of William R. Barnhart, in "Old and New Westmoreland".

The last Barnhart family member to own and reside at the original homestead was Catharine Agnes Barnhart Long (1899-1988), a daughter of George Shupe Barnhart. In recent years several small lots along the public road had been sold off by Catharine Long, and after her death, the remaining property, containing the brick house, was also sold. The country road along the old Barnhart property is now marked "Barnhart Road".
Survey of the farm of William Barnhart 1741-1820 in 1836. At the request of a son John Barnhart, who inherited the farm.
This map dated 1895 shows farm locations of many of the Barnharts.

CHAPTER V
Daniel Barnhart 1783-1852
By Howard D Barnhart

Daniel Barnhart, the fifth child of Johan Wilhelm & his wife Anna (Schmidt) Barnhart was born 9/16/1783 on his father's farm in Hempfield Twp, Westmoreland Co., Pa. The year of his birth 1783 was the year following the destruction & burning of Hannastown by the Indians, so frontier conditions were at the best hazardous to the young lives. There would be the anxiety of getting their meager crops in by winter. This summer was the first full year that Uncle Jacob was home from the wars, so this was a help to the young families.

Daniel had married a neighbor girl, Catharine Hoelzer either in 1807/ or 08. Geneologists use the 8 mile factor as the limit of travel to visit ones love so Catharine was one of their close neighbors. Daniel no doubt made several trips with his brothers to the new lands, shortly in 1803 to become Butler County, but it is evident he did not choose a homesite in those early years.

The surname Hoelzer is spelled several ways, Holtzer, Hoelzer and even Halver.

Daniel and his wife Catharine are buried in the "Old Barnhart" cemetery, also known as "White Oak". The grave site is almost on the bank of Rt 268, just across the road from the original location of the Union Church, and next to the grave site of his brother Philip, and his wife. Daniel died 11/6/1852 and his wife 11/20/1879. In this grave site are most of his close relatives. There is no mention of Daniel in the 1803 Butler County tax list, altho R C Brown (History of Butler Co.) in his 1895 version lists Daniel as coming in 1797. Our best reference to his coming is contained in Elizabeth Barnhart's Bible (his eldest daughter) which is last known to be in the possession of a descendent Sarah Elizabeth (Cannon) Swanson, a grand dau of David Daubenspeck, Elizabeth (Barnhart) Daubenspeck's son. The notations in this Bible are somewhat confusing and evidently were written years later.

This Bible lists his wife as Catherine Holtzer, a resident of the same neighborhood. It lists three sons, and five daughters, altho much later in the naming shows 9 children. The order listed does not agree with the birth dates as listed. One other confusion is naming their burial site as the "Old Sugar Creek Church Graveyard, Armstrong Co., Pa." This is understandable as at the time of death the Old Union Church located at White Oak consisted of both Lutheran and Ref. Ch congregations. Only later when the old church fell in did the Ref. Congregation build a new church building down the road Rt 268 across the line in Armstrong Co., where it exists today. Her bible further states that when she (Elizabeth) was coming six yrs old, the family left Greensburg and moved to Butler Co., where her uncle lived. With no home to live in that summer (1814) the family moved in the cabin with her uncle Rudolph and his family. (a lot of people to live in a 16 x 24 cabin) They lived there that winter and the next summer. Her father built his new cabin near Uncle's close to town and they moved in the fall of 1815. David lived out his life in that cabin and died there, the property going to his son David at his death in 1852.

There are two other dates mentioned in this bible. The first is the marriage of Johan Wilhelm on 12 Mar.1772. The best reference is 12 May 1772 and one could have been a mistranslation from the original German, of May. The second date is July 3, 1775 with no explanation. I am assuming that this is the actual date they arrived in Hempfield Twp, Westmoreland Co. after their move from Northampton Co that summer.
CHAPTER V
Daniel Barnhart 1783 -- 1852

Daniel born 9/16/1783 Bap. 9/20/1803 by Rev. Johan Wilhelm Weber, Pastor of the Rev. Ch. at Harold's Settlement. Moved to Butler Co. in the summer of 1814, and built his cabin near there in the summer of 1815.

It was Daniel's brother Philip who laid out the new town of Millerstown, and sold lots. The auctioneer announced that the first buyer of the town would have the price remitted in full. Daniel purchased the first lot and built a "unpretentious" cabin. John F Wiles stocked this building and had a pioneer store, but it was known David Barnhart's pioneer store, 1836.

The 1850 census of Butler Co., Fairview Twp., Family #104 on the top of the hill just North of Millerstown, shows Daniel Barnhart, age 66, his wife Catherine and a grandson (E Boyer) living there. This farm passed on to his son David at his death.
CHAPTER V
Daniel Barnhart 1783 - 1852

1/1 Daniel & Catharine (Hoelzer) Barnhart had 9 ch: Elizabeth, Catharine, Mary, William, Susanna, David, John, Christine and Daniel.

2/1 Elizabeth Barnhart, eldest child, B 8/1/1809 Hempfield Twp., West Moreland Co., Pa. D 10/12/1881. Moved to Butler Co., Pa 1814 with her parents. She married George Daubenspeck on 27 Dec. 1825. B 11/30/1799, D 10/1/1881. Buried in the old Reformed Ch Cemetery in the center of the town of Fairview. George was s/o Philip & Mary (Frieze) Daubenspeck. He took his wife home to live in the cabin, built 1806/7 by his father on the original Daubenspeck homestead settled by his grandfather George Daubenspeck, a Rev. War Vet, who settled in 1797 with his wife Barbara. In those days families were often doubly or triply related. It was Geo's sister Anna Maria Daubenspeck, who married William A Barnhart, s/o Jacob Barnhart Jr., s/o of Jacob the Rev. War Vet.

The census of 1850 shows Geo & Elizabeth living in the original cabin. Philip had died in 1837. This cabin was lived in until 1874 when it was torn down and replaced with a more modern home by a son Geo F Daubenspeck. In 1850 the cabin as was usual in that area was built so that a corner of the cabin included a spring, this so that in the event of an Indian attack, the occupants could not be denied water. In those times Indian settlements were still intact in the County. In the Bruin valley just three miles distant, Indians still claimed hunting rights up to 1819. This home, built in 1874 is standing in good condition.

Elizabeth & George had at least 10 children, perhaps 12:
Daniel, Philip, David, Abraham, Lavina, William, Susanna, Mary Jane, George F, Jacob D, & perhaps an Andrew. One known baby died.

3/1 Daniel Daubenspeck B 3/31/1827 D 2/19/1865 (Civil War service, Co. K 206 Reg't, Penna. Volunteers). Married Christine Forringer, D 3/2/1898. Ch: Mary, Susan, Nancy, Amelia, Adelie and Emma. All but Susan died young and are buried in White Oak Cemetery, Fairview Twp. An indication of the hazards a widow faced during and after war times, when her husband died, in the service. Christine B 4/2/1826, married Daniel 11/9/1848. (Elizabeth's Bible states 7 children were born to this marriage, but are not named).

4/1 Mary S Daubenspeck, B 1851 D 11/7/1864 at age 13.

For the interest of those of Daubenspeck Ancestry, it may be of value to learn something about the origin of the Daubenspecks.

A researcher, Annette K Burgert, in researching ship manifests noted that some 14 families on the ship "Harle" came from the town of Freinsheim. This is an old walled town, in the wine country, and pretty much escaped damage in WWII. Its west of the Rhine, about eight miles west of Frankenthal, some 9 miles west of Ludwigsheaven, or about 15 miles west of Mannheim. The church is built of field stone and houses two congregations, Lutheran and German Reformed, each maintaining their own records.

The Reformed records show a family of Daubenspeck, also spelled Taubenspeck. Dorothea Daubenspeck, died age 56 yrs, 30 Sep 1726 wife, (B ca 1670) Georg Taubenspeck, Died age 73, on 3 Jan 1743, husband (B ca 1670)

CHAPTER V
Daniel Barnhart 1783-1852

3/6

William Barnhart Daubenspeck, B9/11/1838 was born on the family farm in Pkr. Twp. Butler Co. Pa. His grandfather died in 1837 and at his death farms were split off the original 275 acres going to 3 sons David, Abraham and Jacob, leaving some 40 acres remaining with the original log cabin, lived in by George and his wife Elizabeth (Barnhart) Daubenspeck. She was the eldest dau of Daniel and Catharine (Hoelzer) Barnhart.

In 1862 the writer's great grandfather David George Barnhart was drafted for military service in the Civil War. With a family of two children and one on the way, he chose to pay the $300.00 option to have someone else to go in his place.

William Barnhart Daubenspeck, David's first cousin volunteered to go in his place. At practically his first big battle at Freder­ick, Va. he was struck by an artillery shell and killed. This information is not only in Elizabeth Barnhart's bible but was also told by Abraham Daubenspeck to the writer's family. I was 4 years old in 1919 when Abraham died and remember him well. He lived on the adjoining farm to where I was raised. When his cousin was killed (after accepting the draft assignment) my Gt Grandfather changed his name, dropping his middle name George (named for his uncle George Daubenspeck) and replaced it with the initial W. in honor of the cousin William (a son of George) who died in his place. Thereafter my great grandfather signed his name David W Barnhart, and causes some confusion as the original name shows in the 1850 census.

The soldier who was standing beside William when he was struck is also a member of the Daubenspeck family thru marriage.

Three sons in this family, sons of George & Elizabeth volunteered and accepted $300.00 ea to go in the place of fathers who had family to care for.

William Barnhart Daubenspeck, B9/11/1838, was killed 12/13/1862. Another son Daniel Daubenspeck, B1/31/1827 died on the battle field 2/19/1865. The third son Abraham survived to return home.

Susanna Daubenspeck, sister to William and Daniel who were killed in the Civil War, was also a war casualty. Her husband James Hutchinson was badly wounded and returned home to die. She then married (2) Shryock Harper. Shryock's daughter Ora who married a minister much older in life, was also in the Civil War and according to legend was in the ranks standing beside William when he was killed by an artillery shell. Shryock is best known today as the man who built the water powered mill, later sold to Joseph Whalley, which passed to his son Arthur H Whalley and today is shown on the maps as Whalleys Mill.

3/9 George Frieze Daubenspeck. Born & raised on the original farm of his father Philip, it was he who in 1874, built the present house on this small farm, and probably tore down the old cabin. (a descendent and myself in June 1991 visited this house and was able to go thru it on invitation of the present owner Cliff Eiler. One feature was the walls which started three foot thick at the cellar floor and narrowed to 18" at ground level. Another was the framing which consisted of 4/4 wall studs, which were evidently hand hewn. He D 1919, & had m 30 Jun 1868 Elizabeth Perry, B 1841/2, d/o Thomas Perry, N. Cem Butler, Pa. My earliest recollection of this house was in 1919 when the family often visited the occupant family Joe Morrow, who often made reference to it as the "Old Daubenspeck Place." Little did I know then, that my Gt Gt grandparents had lived there and he "Philip" had gotten the 250 acre tract from his father Geo Daubenspeck, the original Settler, who settled the 550 acres, giving half to his son Geo, (with the buildings on the top of the hill) and the balance to son Philip.

  Infant son Wm Barnhart, D 13 Dec 1895
  Olin V Carnahan D 30 Jan 1893.
"Johannes Bernhardt" was born 14 Nov. 1785, the sixth child of William and Anna. He grew up at the Slate Run homestead, and when he married at the age of 28 years (15 Mar. 1813), he and new bride, Elizabeth Brinker (daughter of George and Catherine Brinker of Unity Twp.), came back to the home place to settle. If John's mother, Anna Schmidt Barnhart, was indeed deceased by 1813, this would have been a logical action. Some or all of John's four younger brothers and sisters were also living at home. In 1813, Anna Maria would have been 26 years; Abraham, 22 years; David, 19 years; Elizabeth, 17 years.

By 1820, William Barnhart at age 74 had transferred title of his Slate Run property to his two youngest sons, John and David (Westm'd. Co. Deed Bk. 24:258.) In 1825, two years after his father's death, John sold his share of the home property to his brother David (Deed Bk. 24:260), and moved with wife Elizabeth and young children to a newly purchased farm close to Hanastown, and only a few miles from John and Catherine Mechling and the home of his deceased brother, William Barnhart, Jr. Purchased 5 Feb. 1825 from James Brady of Greensburg for $1320.50, about 100 of the 110 acres and 7 perches were originally part of the two patents to William Shaw (total of 433 acres) of 1786, and 10 acres were from land originally patented to James Bovard in 1815 (Deed Bk. 16:95-96.) Owners of the adjoining property were listed in the deed as Benjamin Kirkpatrick, Joseph Brady, Peter Snyder, heirs of James Bovard and John Bender. At the time of this move to their new farm, John and Elizabeth had 5 living children -- Anna (1814), age 11; Catharine (1818), age 7; William (1820), age 5; John (1822), age 3; Elizabeth (1824), less than a year. Their second child and oldest son, George (1815), had died in 1822 at 7 years of age. In the next few years, two more sons joined the family on the new farm -- Philip, born 1827 and Solomon, born 1830.

Sometime during the late 1830's or early 1840's, John Barnhart built a steam-powered flour mill on his property, powered no doubt by coal, since outcrops of high grade bituminous were present on his land. His oldest son, William, now a teenager, assisted his father in running the mill business. William gradually took over as major operator, and after his father's death, received title to the steam mill and surrounding 40 acres. "Barnhart's Mill" served the surrounding countryside for many years (Biography of William Barnhart, p. 561-563 in "Old and New Westmoreland".)

On 27 Oct. 1845, Elizabeth Brinker Barnhart died at the age of 57, and was buried in the Old German Cemetery in Greensburg. John was remarried nearly two years later, on 12 Aug. 1847, to Susannah Nelich Swartz, widow of John Swartz (deceased in 1843), of Unity Twp. (Less than a year later, 25 year old John Barnhart, Jr. would marry Susannah's daughter, Sarah Swartz.) Susannah (1795-1881) was a daughter of Rev. War Vet. Paul Nelich and wife Veronica Shupe Nelich, of Franklin Twp. Both are buried in Denmark Manor Cemetery. (The family name has many different spellings -- Neleigh, Naly or even Neely.)

In 1851, John purchased 75 acres from Henry Reamer for $1901.00 (Deed Bk. 32:432). This property was later willed to his son Solomon.

John Barnhart wrote his Will 21 Feb. 1860, and died 14 May 1863. He was buried in the Old German Cemetery with Elizabeth, mother of all his children. In his Will (Will Book 4:445), John Barnhart disposed of his land as follows:

"...to my son JOHN BARNHART I devise and bequeath my home farm of land situate in Hempfield township, marked letter A on the diagram of partition, containing 108 acres and three quarters and 31 perches strict measure."

"...to my son PHILIP BARNHART I devise and bequeath that part of my land west of the big road, marked letter B in the diagram of partition, containing 57 acres and _ perches strict measure."

"...to my son WILLIAM BARNHART I devise and bequeath that part of my land on which the steam mill is erected, marked C in the diagram of partition, containing 42 acres and 60 perches strict measure."

"...to my son SOLOMON BARNHART I have heretofore given a tract of land purchased from Henry Reamer, which I conveyed for his benefit."

Each son who received property was to pay a designated amount of money to their three married sisters: Anna (wife of John Baker), Catharine (wife of Isaac Baker), and Eliza (wife of Henry Hartzel). He also provided for his wife Susannah: "Should my beloved wife Susanah survive me in that case I allow her to have the use and occupancy of the old room and kitchen in my mansion house with all necessary privileges in and about the house. Said John to keep a horse and two cows for her and pasture the same, with stable room in the winter and feed for the same of any kind and furnish her with all necessary fuel used at the house and give her all necessary for life both in health and sickness ..." The sons were to provide a certain number of bushels of wheat each year for Susanah, plus John made this additional statement -- "...out of my personal estate I will and devise to my beloved wife Susanah one riding mare, saddle and bridle, two milk cows, two good beds [beds] and bedsteads, a column bureau and as much of household and kitchen furniture as she will say is necessary for her own use, to have her choice together with the grain and privileges allowed her from my sons out of my farm".

John Barnhart was buried in the Old German Cemetery with his first wife, Elizabeth Brinker, mother of all his children.

The 1867 landowners map for Hempfield Twp. (p. 31, 1867 Atlas of Westmoreland Co.) shows the location of the home farm then owned by his son, John Barnhart, Jr., the steam mill, the land of Philip and an adjoining tract of 21 acres purchased by
CHAPTER VI

William in 1852 from Daniel Wible (Deed Bk. 33:368-369).

In 1874, William sold his two pieces of property (the Wible land and the steam mill tract) to his brother, John (Deed Bk. 80:179), a total of 66 acres, for $10,000.00.

Susannah Nelich Swartz Barnhart continued to live at the home farm with son-in-law John Barnhart, Jr. and her daughter Sarah until her death 19 Oct. 1881. She survived John by 18 years. She was also buried in the Old German Cemetery. Later the graves and headstones of John, Elizabeth and Susannah were all moved to Union Cemetery, to the new Barnhart plot, after the Old German Cemetery was no longer being maintained as a burial site.

The old John Barnhart, Sr. property lies today at the northwestern edge of Twin Lakes County Park, formerly the Upper and Lower Jamison Reservoirs and surrounding land. The original 1825 farmhouse and barn site stayed in the Barnhart family until 1917. John Barnhart, Jr. died 1 July 1888, and the home farm of about 95 acres passed to his oldest son, Cyrus N. Barnhart (1851-1937). Cyrus never married, and lived on the farm with his mother Sarah (who lived until 1909) and two unmarried sisters, Susannah and Emma (who married late in life.) A third sister, Anna Mary, lived nearby, the wife of Benjamin Henderson Yockey. Edgar F. Barnhart, the youngest son of John, Jr. and Sarah Swartz Barnhart, inherited the 80 acres which were originally his uncle William’s land. Cyrus sold off the rights to a portion of the farm’s Pittsburgh Coal Seam to Jamison Coal Co. in 1900 (Deed Bk. 303:352) and the rest of the coal rights to Keystone Coal and Coke Co. in 1914 (Deed Bk. 550:524). In 1917 he sold the farm to Simon Peter Kuhns for $8250.00 (Deed Bk. 607:22), and moved to Greensburg with his sisters (Susannah and Emma had been willed a house on Maple Ave., Greensburg, by their father, John, Jr.) In 1942, Albert Kuhns (heir of Simon Kuhns) sold the property to Amos McWilliams for $4,250.00 (Deed Bk. 1123:224-226). Only very recently (1991) has the farm location again been sold. The original farm house and barn are gone, of course, but the foundation of the barn is still recognizable.

Elizabeth Brinker was born 13 Dec. 1788 in the wilds of northeastern Pennsylvania -- Hamilton Twp., Monroe County (then part of Northampton Co.) Her parents, George Brinker (1761-1834) and Catherine (? - 1846), moved to Westmoreland Co. around 1789, and settled in Unity Twp. near the present village of Mutual. Several of George’s brothers and sisters, and his father and mother, Jacob Brinker (1727-1798) and Susannah Hinkle Brinker, also settled in Westmoreland Co. after 1790.

Jacob Brinker, grandfather of Elizabeth Brinker Barnhart, had been born in Switzerland, in Rumiken, Parish of Elsau, Canton of Zurich. He arrived in Philadelphia 28 June 1735 on the ship "Mary" with father, Andreas Brinker (1699-1764), and mother, Regula Herter (1695-1757), and 4 brothers : Henry, Conrad, Ulrich, and Abraham. Jacob Brinker was a boy of about 8 years when the family arrived in PA. Andreas Brinker settled his family in Lower Saucon Twp., Northampton Co, near Easton. He was a Miller by trade.

Jacob Brinker, the patriarch of the Westmoreland Co. Brinker families, had served in the Northampton Co. Militia (late 1750’s -1760’s) and operated a flour mill in Hamilton Twp., in what is now Monroe County. The Mill is believed to have been located on McMichael Creek, in the vicinity of the present village of Scotia. Frontier existence in the 1760’s was very hard due to Indian attacks. In 1763, Jacob Brinker and his neighbors petitioned to have 8 soldiers stationed at Brinker’s Mill for protection. Jacob did not serve in the Revolutionary War, but is considered a patriot by the DAR for his service in giving flour to Washington’s Army during the Revolution. For this he was not paid, and subsequent hard times may have contributed to his later move to Westmoreland Co. Jacob and Susannah Brinker settled in the Denmark Manor community, Penn Twp., around 1791. He died there in 1798, and is probably buried in Denmark Manor Cemetery, although no stone remains to mark the site.

Jacob Brinker and wife Susannah had at least 8 children: Henry, Anna Christine (died young), Susannah, George (father of our Elizabeth, wife of John Barnhart), Margaret, Catherine, Abraham and Jacob, Jr. All of the Jacob Brinker family appears to have moved to Westmoreland Co., except Margaret, wife of George Learn. She and her husband were killed by Indians in 1781, at their cabin near Blue Mt. Their son, John Learn, survived, and later was a Westmoreland Co. settler in Washington (Bell) Twp. Henry Brinker, George’s oldest brother and a Revolutionary War Veteran, was the first Brinker in Westmoreland Co. Henry was a friend and more distant neighbor of William and Anna Barnhart, and served as sponsor at the baptism of Daniel Barnhart in 1783. Henry Brinker owned two tracts of land in Unity Twp. totaling about 572 acres. Brinker Run bears his name today, and the old coal mining village of Mutual today lies within the bounds of his property. George and Catherine Brinker settled on an adjacent tract of 250 acres, warranted 18 Nov. 1789. The 1798 Direct Tax "B" List for Unity Twp. has George Brinker with one cabin (20 x 20 ft.) and one barn (50 x 30 ft.) on 253 acres. His neighbors are Henry Brinker and John Leasure.

George and Catherine Brinker had 10 children: Susanna (1787, died in Hamilton Twp., Monroe Co.); Elizabeth (1788); Margaret (1791); Jacob (1793); Catharine (1795); Magthalena or Polly (1796); Susanna (1799); George (1802); Sara (1806); Anna (1808). Most all their children were born in Westmoreland Co. The oldest son, Jacob, would later marry William and Anna Barnhart's youngest daughter, Elizabeth (1796-1860) in 1816. And, of course, in 1813, William and Anna Barnhart's son John had married George Brinker's daughter Elizabeth. So these two families were linked by two unions.

CHAPTER VI

Anna Maria Barnhart 1787 -

Anna Maria Barnhart, the seventh child of Wilhelm and Anna (Schmidt) Barnhart, born on the homestead located just east of the city today of Greensburg, Pa. Bi1/30/1787 little is known about her childhood. Perhaps more can be learned by reading the opening statement about her parents written by Janet Lee Warter.

She married Michael Ringer in Westmoreland Co, Pa. and lived most of her life there.

She died and was buried in a cemetery near Canton, Oh. This writer just has not had the time to research this family. She had relatives who had moved into Ohio and perhaps her children had settled there. It would be possible for someone to trace this family as she would probably show in the 1850 census of Westmoreland Co. This would list the names of her children and their ages. From this a check of the 1860, 1870 and 1880 census of the counties around Canton would show this family.

To me a genealogist it appears a tragedy that no one in or close to this family has not done so. It is hoped that a descendent who reads this short resume of her life will contact the writer.

CHAPTER VIII
ABRAHAM BARNHART (1791-1871)
by Janet K. Warter

Abraham, the eighth child and sixth son of William and Anna Barnhart, was born on Sept. 8, 1791 at the Slate Creek homestead. He was baptized Oct. 2, 1791 by the German schoolmaster, Johann Wilhelm Weber ("German Church Records of Western PA., 1772-1791", Vol. 1, by Paul Miller Ruff). Sponsors were listed as Philip Kuntz and Margaretha.

We have no record of Abraham’s early life, but he may have spent some of his teen-age summers in Butler County, living with his older brothers, Rudolph, Phillip and Daniel Barnhart, helping out with the many labors of opening up new land for cultivation. These three brothers were pioneer homesteaders, beginning around 1795. His Uncle Jacob Barnhart and large family also established homes there, so Abraham would have had many close relatives who may have welcomed him, when old enough to work. The indication that Abraham may have spent time in Butler Co. comes from a biography of Louis B. Shupe, a grandson of Abraham Barnhart (p. 509-510, "Biogr. and Hist. Cyclopedia of Westmoreland Co.", 1890). It says, "His maternal grandfather, Abraham Barnhart, was born and reared in Butler County, this State, but in early life removed to Mt. Pleasant township where he died on the farm now owned by the subject of this sketch." Of course, Abraham was not born in Butler Co., but the fact that family folklore connected him with Butler Co. at all is probably indicative of some truth.

A few years before the death of his father, Abraham married Hannah Hugus (b. 1795), a daughter of John and Phelopena Hugus of near Mt. Pleasant. The newlyweds settled on a portion of the Hugus property. When John Hugus died in 1844, his Will provided that Abraham and Hannah have "54 acres of land which I purchased from Frederick Bauders, lying adjoining my old place, on the opposite side of Brush Run", to be purchased at $12 and acre. This property was about one and a quarter miles east of the town of Mt. Pleasant, in Mt. Pleasant Twp. The tract was later enlarged to 100 acres by other purchases. Living on the original Hugus farm, on the west side of Brush Run, were David and Elizabeth (Hugus) Barnhart, Abraham’s younger brother and Hannah’s younger sister.

Abraham and Hannah had three children, all daughters: Elizabeth (?-1895), wife of Adam Fisher; Margaret (1822-?), wife of Isaac Shupe; and Hannah (?-1895), wife of George Hartzell.

Abraham evidently was a farmer all his life. He is listed as "farmer" in the 1850 and 1860 censuses for Mt. Pleasant Twp. Hannah died at 65 yrs., 6 Sept. 1861. Abraham Barnhart lived almost 10 years longer. His Will (WB 5:394), written in 1852, 19 years before his death on 29 May 1871 at the age of 79 yrs., left the home farm of 100 acres to daughter Margaret Shupe and husband. Elizabeth Fisher received the tract in Mt. Pleasant.
CHAPTER VIII

Abraham Barnhart 1791-1871

Twp, where she and her husband were then living (approximately 116 acres), and Hannah Hartzell received 110 acres on Jacob's Creek, where she and her husband were then living. The 1867 Beer's Atlas landowners map for Mt. Pleasant Twp. shows property in the names of Abraham's three sons-in-law, "I Shupe, A. Fisher and G. Hartzell." From this information, an approximate location of the Abraham and Hannah Barnhart farm can be determined.

Abraham and Hannah Barnhart are buried at St. John's Union Cemetery, just north of the Middle Church and Cemetery (Presbyterian). Their grave localities are Section F, Row 13, #11 and 12. Beside them in spaces #8, 9, and 10 are three of their grandchildren, children of George and Hannah Hartzell: Cyrus, age 12; Mary Ann, age 19, Abraham, age 17. All three had died in the month of February 1865. One wonders what disease could have taken three members of the same unfortunate family. On the other side, in #13, is another grandchild, Hannah Fisher, daughter of Adam and Elizabeth Fisher, who died in 1861 at age 7.

CHAPTER IX
DAVID BARNHART (1794-1860)
by Janet K. Warter

The birth and baptism of David Barnhart, youngest surviving son of William and Anna, were recorded by Weber (Vol. 2 of "German Church Records of Westmoreland Co. PA, 1792-1804", by Ruff), who baptized David on 11 March 1794, after his birth nine days before on 2 March 1794. No sponsors were listed.

Our first information for David as an adult involves land records: the transfer of the Slate Creek homestead by William Barnhart to his two sons, John and David, in 1820 (DB 24:258-259), followed by the sale in 1825 of John's share to David (DB 24:259-260).

David was married around 1822 to Elizabeth ("Betsy") Hugus, also a daughter of John and Phelopena Hugus, and younger sister of Hannah, wife of David's brother, Abraham Barnhart. We do not know how long he and Betsy lived at Slate Creek before moving in with her parents (or at least next to them) on the Hugus farm in Mt. Pleasant Twp. On adjacent Hugus farm property were Abraham and Hannah Barnhart. Although John Hugus lived until 1844, his Will, written in July of 1835, specified that Betsy and David were to get his "home plantation or tract of land containing 190 acres and lying on the northwest side of the Brush Run..." at $16 an acre. On 6 Nov. 1838, David sold the Slate Creek Barnhart homestead ("Hopewell") to Jacob Kiehl, Sr. (DB 24:260-262), so they must have been in Mt. Pleasant Twp. by then, if not earlier.

David and Betsy Barnhart had four children: John, William H., Sarah (wife of David Musick), and Elizabeth (unmarried, a school teacher).

Westmoreland Co. Deed Book records show that David Barnhart made purchases of land in Hempfield and Salem Townships during the 1840's and 1850's: 191 acres in Hempfield from John M. Hugus in 1843 (DB 27:191-192), 197 acres in Salem Twp. from George Brinker, Jr. in 1846 (DB 28:559-560), and a large tract in Hempfield Twp. near Hannastown from John J. Weible in 1851, for which he paid $12,600.00 (DB 32:401-402). The biography of Frank D. Barnhart (son of John and grandson of David), p. 1126-1128 of "Old and New Westmoreland", says that John Barnhart "went with his brother William H. to a spot near Hannastown, and there settled, and still later made his home in Greensburg for a time". This Hannastown property was the 1851 purchase, which later went to William H. Barnhart, Elizabeth Barnhart and Sarah and David Musick in Oct. and Nov. 1860, after their father's death (DB 45:590-594).

David Barnhart had farmed his land in Mt. Pleasant Twp. until his death on 16 April 1860 at 66 years. In David's Will, John, the oldest son, was designated to take over the home farm. The 1867 map of Mt. Pleasant Twp. shows the farm location, on the west side of Brush Creek, under John's name.
His mother evidently continued to live on the farm until her death at age 79 on 29 April 1877.

David and Elizabeth Barnhart were buried originally in the Old German Cemetery in Greensburg, but were moved in 1901 to Union Cemetery, Greensburg, plot C-240, according to Union Cem. records. Buried with them is their second son, William H. Barnhart (died 1877) and wife Mary (Rumbaugh) Barnhart (died 1844), (both likewise moved from the Old German to Union Cem.) and Miss Elizabeth Barnhart, the teacher, (died 1915). Another relocated grave at C-240 is that of a 2 year old child, Phellipena Barnhart, died 1838. It is likely that this was also a child of David and Elizabeth, since her mother’s name was similar (Phelopena Hugus).

John Barnhart (1823-1884) and wife Elizabeth (Ruff) Barnhart (1829-1917) were buried at St. John’s Reformed (Union) Cemetery in Mt. Pleasant Twp., where the graves of Abraham and Hannah Barnhart are also located. The farm passed to John’s son, Frank D. Barnhart, in 1885.

The Hannastown area land of William H. Barnhart presumably passed to his only child, Addison R. Barnhart. The 1867 landowners map of Hempfield Twp. (Beer’s Atlas reprint) shows the location of the properties of W.H. Barnhart, David and Sarah Musick and Miss Elizabeth Barnhart, northeast and east of Hannastown. This was a familiar region to the David Barnhart family, since two of David’s older brothers (William, Jr. and John) and his oldest sister (Catharine Mechling) had settled in the Hannastown area years before. The 1867 map shows several of these Barnhart properties, still owned by Barnhart descendants of these related families.
Former farm of David Barnhart and wife Elizabeth (Hugus), in possession of their son John on the 1867 Beer's Atlas map of Mt. Pleasant Twp.

CHAPTER X

Elizabeth Barnhart 1796-1846

By Howard D Barnhart

Elizabeth Barnhart the 10th child born to Johan Wilhelm and Anna (Schmidt) Barnhart was born Mar 27, 1796 in the log house on the original settlement of her parents in Westmoreland Co., Pa.

She was baptised a week later Apr 17, 1796 by Rev. Weber (Ruff Vol 2, P-188) Elizabeth at the time of her birth would have had a grown up sister, probably married, a not infrequent occurrence in those days of large families. The years of her childhood would be comparatively peaceful yet still retain a frontier atmosphere. Her father and family members were by now involved in the building and establishment of churches, schools and other vestiges of civilization. By now her uncle Jacob with some of her cousins and even her own brother (or two) were on their way to extend the frontier another 100 miles further west into Butler Co., and in a very few years further west into the middle of the new state of Ohio.

With her family members marrying into the Brinker family, it would be a natural inclination for her also to become associated with the Brinker family. She married Jacob Brinker ca 1815-1818. They lived out their lives in Unity Twp., Westmoreland Co., Pa.

Jacob Brinker died in 1886 at the age of 93. We don't have the exact date of her death but her husband Jacob married a second time in 1849. She probably died around 1847/8 and with a young and growing family Jacob selected a second wife Christina (Balf ?).

With no dates on the birth dates received from family legend, we can't be sure how many of the 8 children were hers. Nor can we be entirely sure that the family group sheet we have constructed is correct.

She is buried in a cemetery in Westmoreland Co., probably in Unity Twp., with her husband and her family.

Jacob Brinker, her husband, B4/20/1793 D6/12/1886 at 93 yrs of age, s/o George Brinker B1764 and Catharine . D1835. His father George Brinker was s/o Jacob Brinker and Susanna Hinkle. Jacob 1793 the husband of Elizabeth was a brother of Elizabeth Brinker who married John Barnhart Sr (brother & sister marrying sister & brother).

CHAPTER XI

John George Barnhart 1798-1802

By Howard D. Barnhart

John George Barnhart, the last son and child of Johan Wilhelm and Catharine Schmidt Barnhart was born 21 March 1798 on the original settlement of his parents. We do not have much on this child as he died very young on 13 July 1802. Is probably interred in the same graveyard as his parents in Greensburg, Penna.
CHAPTER XI
Peter Barnhart 1775-1860
By Howard D Barnhart

Peter Barnhart, the eldest son of Jacob Sr. & Christina Catharine (Erdman) Barnhart was born in one of the rural townships of York Co., during his fathers tenure as a soldier of the York militia during the Revolutionary War. We have no records of his early life. It must have been extremely difficult for his mother Catherine with her husband away in the service much of the time. We find no church records on the first three children of Jacob Sr. Nor do we have the exact date of the family move from York to Westmoreland. Peter would be between 3 to 5 years of age, perhaps a year older. But he remembered the trip well and often told stories about it to the younger generations. In particular the trips over the mountains with the family.

Altho of a very young age for such a trek, he remembered the walking. He had two younger brothers, one a baby. Father, Mother, and three sons together with a horse carrying twin saddle bags in which were packed provisions for the trip, together with their meager possessions. So there wasn't always room to ride, for both youngsters at the same time. Using the Forbes Military Road, there would be settlements or stopping places about every 25 miles, as used by the Express Riders, but when they came to the mountains and had to double trip, the family had to do with makeshift camps quite often. Peter tells that with the baby either carried or in a saddle bag, the older boys did a lot of walking. Mother walked, sometimes carrying the baby. Father led the horse the boys took turns riding. There was no wagon, otherwise they would not have need of saddle bags. When they came to a mountain range, mother with the three kids made a camp by the side of the trail, while father led the horse over the mountain with their possessions. Unloaded he then returned back to the family. The three kids were then put in the saddle bags, mother walked and father again led the way over the mountain. On such occasions they could not reach the next way station and so would made do camping out overnight, or often at a settler's buildings. No doubt much of their possessions would have been already transported to Westmoreland on prior trips.

When Jacob Sr. took his trips to Butler starting in 1795/6 he often took Jacob Jr with him, but left his eldest son at home to look after the family. When Jacob moved permanently around 1798/9 Peter still remained in Westmoreland. He does not show in the 1803 Butler Co. tax census, altho 28 yrs of age. He is listed in his fathers will in 1813, where he was bequeathed $50.00 plus the 150 acres of land which he already had been given.

While in Westmoreland, he met Christina Elizabeth Artman (some call Erdman) and married her around 1807 as their first child Simon was born in 1809. The lady is described as a neighbor in the area. Genealogists have a way of calculating this distance by calculating the time required to walk there in two hours, visit a while and return by midnite. This is usually determined as no farther than 6 to 8 miles. Sometime around 1809/1811 he moved his family and received the 150 acre gift from his father.

CHAPTER XII
Peter Barnhart 1775-1860

We are not able to reconstruct much of his adult life. He did show in the 1850 Census and from this we arrived at his year of birth. A Peter Barnhart shows as guardian for an orphanage in 1844, when the Estate of William A Barnhart (a nephew) was probated. The administrator for the estate George Daubenspeck paid Peter $183.10 for services. This must have been for Jacob Barnhart for whom the Butler Co courts set up brothers John & David as Trustees. Jacob Jr had died around 1733 and the youngest son Jacob was quite young or handicapped.

Peter would be 69 years old at the time of the probate. He died at age 85 and was buried probably somewhere in Armstrong Co., Pa.

I remember my grandfather Abner Dale Barnhart talking about Peter in my young years and realize now, that I should have been more alert and taken a few notes.
CHAPTER XI

Peter Barnhart 1775-1860

Peter Barnhart B1775 D1860 married Christina Elizabeth Artman around 1807 in Greensburg, Pa. This family shows as Fam #88 in the 1850 census of Butler Co. Christina D1/1/1852 and Peter 6/24/60. 9 Ch: Simon, Peter, Catharine, Michael, Elizabeth, Jacob, Joseph, Hannah, and Abraham (not in order)

2/1 Simon Barnhart B1809 D1885 eldest child of Peter & Christina Barnhart, married Barbara Stewart B1815. This family shows up as Fam #87 in the 1850 census, living next to Peter. 6 Ch: Elizabeth, Peter, Catharine, Margaret, Susan and Sybilla.

3/1 Elizabeth Barnhart B1838
3/2 Peter S Barnhart B1845
3/3 Catharine Barnhart B1848
3/4 Margaret Barnhart B1850 D1923
3/5 Mary Susan Barnhart B1854
3/6 Mary Sybilla (spelled Sabilla in old records)

2/2 Peter Barnhart B1813 second child of Peter & Christina married Fanny Kamerer B ca 1820. The gap between 1809 and Peter 1813 would indicate lost children. Of their children we have records of only two: Sophia and Joseph.

CHAPTER XIII
Jacob Barnhart 1776-1838

Jacob Barnhart Jr was the son of Jacob Barnhart Sr and Catharine Erdman, b Apr 1776. It would appear Jacob was born after the move from the East to York Co. While a date of 1773 is given by some descendents, this would appear to be perhaps a marriage date, since the age of Jacob at the time of his death would make the birth date the week of April 3-10, 1776. His mother Catharine was born 14 Feb 1748 in Lehigh Co, Pa. and is buried in White Oak Cem. Jacob was old enough at the time of the move after the Rev. War ended to Westmoreland Co., to well remember the walking and the trip over the mountains. A guess would make him around 4 or 5 yrs of age.

In August Jacob married (Aug 1799) Anna Margaret Spangler in the First Luth. Church of Greensburg. We have her age based on the age at the time of her baptism in Chrits Church of York, Pa. She was the daughter of Michael Spangler and Margaret Dinkel (Duenkel). Not much is known of his boy-hood while in York Co. His father was a class 7 Militia soldier until sometime in the fall of 1778 when he was promoted to Cpl and evidently involved in Continental Service. Since this happened in Oct 1778, at the time General Washington surrounded Lord General Cornwallis's troops at Yorktown, Va., it appears he may have been in that action, the victory which ended the war.

We have no information on his life while in York Co., from church records. When his father started taking summer trips into what is now Butler County around 1795/96 he took Jacob Jr along with him. This leads one to believe Jacob Jr was the eldest, but Census records indicate brother Peter was older. The tax census of 1803, which resulted in Butler County being established in 1804, he already was living there. This can be verified by noting he was taxed on owning a cow, with which families acquired for milk for their young families.

The earliest tax map shows Jacob Jr as having his acreage settlement just North & East of the present town of Chicora by about a mile and just North of Barnharts Hollow, that settled by his cousin Daniel.

A check of the will probate ledger of Butler County indicates no will was ever filed. While his estate was resolved by Nov. 1839, his head stone in White Oak shows his death occurring Nov 15, 1838. He and his wife are buried in White Oak Cem. But the graves were not side by side. Several years ago while visiting this cemetery, the writer saw Jacobs stone broken off and lying near its original site. In order not to loose this stone, the writer laid it behind that of his wife Margaret. When I visited the cem. the following year, the caretaker had carefully cemented it in place beside that of his wife. This appears fitting and so it remains today.

It was noted in the correspondence of one Barnhart geneologist, Paul Shupe Barnhart, who was a retired attorney in Greensburg around 1900, that he believed Jacob had had some thirteen children. Today we can only locate ten from marriage records, apparently some were lost as young children.

In 1837 there was a guardianship established for a Jacob Barnhart, son of Jacob Barnhart, with Jacob Fetters the guardian. This can only be for a handicapped or under age son of Jacob Jr. In 1838 after Jacob's death, his sons John and David were appointed administrators of the estate and apparently took over the guardianship.
CHAPTER XIII
Jacob Barnhart 1776-1838

Jacob Barnhart Jr and Anna Margaret (Spangler) Barnhart had at least 11 children: John, William A, Mary, Susan, Elizabeth, Mary (Maria), Sarah, David, Hannah, Catharine and Jacob, (not in order)

2/1 John Barnhart, B2/6/1800 Greensburg, Pa., Married (1) Christina Busch, (2) Susanna Hepler B9/10/1810. He died 10/28/1886, age 86-8-22 da. John & Susan are buried in the upper cleared section of White Oak. The Hepler section is down about 100 yds S£ E of the main section. 11 Ch: Jacob, Elizabeth, Hannah, Lewis, Katharine, Adam, Isaac, Sarah, Rachel, Susanna, and Joseph. Some historians credit the first 2 Children to Christina, but this is doubtful.

CHAPTER XIII
Jacob Barnhart 1776-1838

2/2 William A Barnhart, s/o Jacob Jr & Anna Margaret (Spangler) Barnhart B1803 on family farm in Millerstown, 07/25/1844 when a leaning tree which he was cutting with an axe broke unexpectedly and threw a splinter which pierced his jugular. Married ca 1823 Anna Maria Daubenspeck, B 8/7/1809 D2/28/1878 d/o Philip & Mary (Frieze) Daubenspeck. (Editors note: There is much confusion and mis-interpretation on this family than usual). The following is the writer's analysis. When Anna Maria married William she changed her name from Anna Maria (as baptised) to Mary Ann Barnhart. She had at least 7 children to William. When he died in 1844, Mary Ann married Andrew Mays and had at least two children to him. Neither survived to adulthood. In addition Andrew had several children of his own, evidently some grown. He was approx 45 or 46 when married.

To add confusion there is uncertainty as to whom she married next. My father says a Mr Ritzert to which there was no issue. But with Andrew they had their children, his children and their children. The estate records indicate she married third her brother-in-law David Geo Barnhart. But she had both a son David Geo Barnhart and a brother-in-law David Geo Barnhart. There was also a Jacob Barnhart unknown parentage involved. In the Butler Courts a Jacob Fetters was appointed Guardian for Jacob Barnhart s/o Jacob Barnhart. He was evidently handicapped and could not be adequately cared for by his aging parents. This was 1832 when Jacob, the father would be 56. He died at age 62. Jacob's brother Peter was guardian for the orphanage and received money to support the Jacob of 1832. When William died in 1844, the estate was not settled until the 50's. When Jacob Jr died in 1838 his estate was not settled until Nov 1852. At Williams death, Jacob 1832 continued to live with his family and shows there in the 1850 census of Fairview Twp.

When the 1850 census was taken, all the Barnhart children, took the name of Mays except my ancestor David George Barnhart B1833 who stubbornly remained a Barnhart, the only one of the family who did so. Later when Andrew was gone, and she remarried they all retook the Barnhart name as can be seen in the 1870 and 1880 census.

Jacob Barnhart 1832 remained single and died in 1875, age 43. He was evidently the son of Jacob Jr but does not show in the estate distribution, as shown in later documents. We have little history on David Geo Barnhart, the brother of William, or his family.

Mary Ann Daubenspeck (Barnhart) (Mays) (Ritzert) (Barnhart) had a most difficult life. He was my great great grandmother. None of her grandchildren were ever able to meet her. She spoke only German and had no schooling, could not write her name, as shown marked with an X. The writer read a letter written for her by a relative in 1845 addressed to the President of the Butler Co. Courts requesting release as Administrator of her husband's will and had her brother Geo Daubenspeck appointed as such. Her two brother-in-laws John & David took over the guardianship of Jacob B1832. Estate papers are in File B180 1/31/1846 presence unknown at this time. To further confuse the issue, Mary Ann's father Philip Daubenspeck died in 1837 intestate and Mary Ann's children were involved and so we have their signatures also on those papers.

Later in her life after her various husbands had faded from the scene, she depended upon her brother George Daubenspeck to care for her. Her brother, George Daubenspeck had married Elizabeth Barnhart, d/o Daniel & Catharine (Holtzer) Barnhart and was double family. She died in Armstrong Co and was buried in George Daubenspeck's plot with a simple stone marked M A D (Mary Ann Daubenspeck). Where her husbands are buried is unknown.

In settlement of the estate of Jacob Jr 1838 settled 24 Feb 1852 the following heirs are listed: Each received $25.18 of total of $251.8:
1. William Barnhart (7 heirs) Solomon, Ann, David, George, Gabriel, Andrew & Kamerer.

In some 3 to 4 years there were 3 estates intestate settled in this family. A Butler Co. history states the German Ref Ch was built on land donated by William. If so, this is probably the Old church in the town of Fairview. But the land title shows Hawk, probably Jacob and his wife Susanna Barnhart. The Hawks are buried in the old "Reformed Cemetery in the center of the town of Fairview. Certainly Geo Daubenspeck and his wife Elizabeth (Barnhart) are there, as well as Mary Ann Barnhart (Mays) (Barnhart)."

CHAPTER XI
Jacob Barnhart 1776-1838

2/2 The Children of William A Barnhart & Mary Ann (Daubenspeck) Barnhart (1) and of Andrew Mays (2) are:

3/1 Solomon Barnhart (by 1850 name changed Solomon Mays) b1824
3/2 Ann Barnhart B1831 (by 1850 Married Francis Mays)
3/3 William Barnhart Ca 1837 (Dec'd by 1850)
3/4 David George 6/6/1833
3/5 Gabriel B1/13/1837
3/6 Andrew Wm B3/28/1839
3/7 Kamerer Ca 1840/41

In addition to the above children, another Male Jacob Barnhart, B1832 shows up in the 1850 census of this family. Since a Jacob Barnhart, s/o Jacob Jr born 1832 had a guardian Jacob Fetters appointed by the Butler Court, this must be the same person. Since Jacob Jr would be aged 56 and his wife 53 at time of this birth, Jacob as head of the family accepted this birth, but we will never know the parentage of Jacob B1832, as both parents were in ill health at that time. He died single in 1875.

My grandfather knew of William, who died in his youth and of Kamerer who died in his early teens. Despondent, he hung self in barn.

In the 1850 census of Fairview Twp, Butler Co, the entire family except David George were listed as Mays. He retained the Barnhart name. His brothers by 1870 except for Solomon reclaimed their Barnhart name. In 1863 David George Barnhart changed his name, from David George to David W Barnhart. This story will be related in the par. 3/4 of David.

The widow Mary Ann Barnhart married Andrew Mays Ca1847/8. He already had daughters Margaret and Mary to first wife, & possibly Frances.

3/8 Lavinia Mays B1850 10 mo's old in 1850 census. Died in childhood.

3/1 Solomon Barnhart B1824 D1902 Took Step father name "Mays" sometime mother remarried ca 1848. Listed as Solomon Barnhart File B57 in grandfathers estate, Jacob Barnhart Jr, D1838. Listed wife Mary Barnhart.
4 Ch: Garth, Foster, Samuel & William.

4/1 Garth Barnhart
4/2 Foster Barnhart
4/3 Samuel Barnhart
4/4 William Barnhart

Solomon then deserted wife & family on news of the gold strike in Calif., and left for the west "Gold Diggins". Went broke and returned home.

He remarried and is shown in White Oak Cem., as w/ wife Elizabeth and at least 1 child and grandchild or perhaps 2 ch;

These 2 grave stones are shown in Solomon's grave plot w/ wife Elizabeth.182/-1913. White Oak Cem.

Solomon Barnhart was a very intelligent and qualified school teacher. My grandfather used to tell stories about his exploits, known as a "graduator" for the township, he was used by the school board to graduate the toughs when they became unbearable for the "School Marm". In those days, the fortunate girls of the area went to the "Academy" at Eau Claire (Butler Co.) and became school teachers. A lot of boys in those days didn't progress thru the grades as today, but remained until 15 or 16 when their father thought they had enough schooling. Some of them were very prankful and made it difficult on the teacher. If they felt like it, would bar the door, not letting the teacher in for the day, otherwise amusing themselves as they saw fit. A day or so of this and the "Graduator" was sent to the school. He would go in very early & wait for the tough boys. Knowing who they were, he would administer a good beating with a hickory rod, so embarrassing them, they would go home and never return. One example where a male teacher was the school master and requested a tough to go out and cut a good hickory rod. This boy brought the rod in the school, threw the teacher on the floor before the coal stove, opened the stove door and sat leisurely on the teacher until the entire rod was consumed.

Another instance was when the toughs: (three boys) of the school ordered the teacher out, to go home and never come back, expecting to get a more pliable replacement. Solomon was detailed to that school and was given the names of those to be graduated. He waited until the school was assembled in the room, entered, closed the door and advised the room, he was employed to graduate three boys (who were sitting in the back row) and bring the school to order. The three got up and made a rush for the teacher. Because of the narrow aisle way, they could only reach him one at a time. The first to arrive was grabbed and thrown against the stove, bringing down stove, stove pipe, etc. He lay still. The second was grabbed and thrown against the blackboard, breaking an arm. The third stopped and was told to go home and never return. The first boy also went home never to return. The parents of the boy with the broken arm talked about entering a suit against the school board. However, the board sent a petition around the school district citing the teacher for his courage and disciplinary practices, which most of the populace appreciated. The Judge threw the case out of court.

Many will remember the Academy of Eau Claire for another distinguished endeavor. This school had a pretty good baseball team and its pitcher was one "Rube Wadell". It was Rube who one fine day, when his team was a run ahead, to show up the opposing team, ask the three outfielders to come in and set on the bench. He then struck out the side, fanning all three batters.

When the civil war came on, he volunteered (42nd Penna. Vol.) and rapidly rose to a Captaincy. He was also a prisoner of the South for a short period.

The will of David Geo Barnhart, also David W Barnhart was not accepted for probate by the Butler Courts, as it was never signed. But he had bought all of his sons a farm when they married. Most of his estate was given before his death to the Miller family in exchange for a life time home for him and his wife Elizabeth.

Editors note: From comments made by a great granddaughter of Gabriel, 1837 who had known him, he looked like the perfect picture of Santa Claus as is pictured today. Short, around 5'2 or so, heavy set, ample belly, wearing a long white full beard, and with white hair, one could assume the image shown of the Santa Claus of old could have been from a portrait of Gabriel.

We are indebted to Charles J Barnhart (1916) for this summary. In looking over White Oak, we see in the grave plot of Charles H (1877) and his wife Clara (1872) a grave stone for Lloyd L Barnhart 1901-1905.

2/10 Catharine Barnhart, B1821 Married Joseph Zillifrew B1820 D10/5/1890. Both signed the estate settlement papers.

2/11 Jacob Barnhart B1832 s/o Jacob & Anna Margaret (Spangler) Barnhart, according to court (Orphans Court) papers in 1837. Lived with William until 1844 then with his sister-in-law until his death in 1875. Single. Probably handicapped.

This completes Chapter XIII on Jacob Barnhart Jr. s/o Jacob Sr & Catharine (Erdman) Barnhart. Of the 13 children mentioned by the genealogist Paul Shupe Barnhart ca 1900, we have identified 11. On the settlement of his estate in 1852, there are several names of heirs whose names are not identified. These are Ann Mary (her mark) Shoup, John Miller and Ann (her mark) Miller.

CHAPTER XIV

William Barnhart the third son and child of Jacob Barnhart, the Rev. War Veteran and his wife Catharine Erdman was born in the difficult period of the war ending (ie combat status) and the move from York County to his new homestead in Hempfield Township, Westmoreland Co., Pa.

With his elder brother Jacob Jr born April 1776, and his younger sister born (Elizabeth Catharine) and baptised in Greensburg area in 1779, it is probable he was born in 1778 and about the time his father was returning from the service. His record shows military entry in Oct., 1778. He was raised in Westmoreland Co., and evidently remained there after his father & family removed to Buffalo Twp., Butler Co., Pa in 1798/99. He does not show in the 1803 Tax Census of Butler Co, altho of 25 yrs of age. He must have stayed in Greensburg and maintained the farm there of his father. Neither does he show in the will of his father, at his death in March of 1813, in Butler Co. His father apparently had decided to grant William the farm in Westmoreland however this farm was sold about this time.

We next hear of William in April of 1813 following the death of his father. William and another brother travelled to Greensburg, to dispose of the remaining assets or possessions. On the return trip they came thru the oft used trail to Butler County thru the town of Freeport, where there was an old log blockhouse built for the protection of the settlers. During this crossing with their possessions, probably on a home made raft, William was drowned. this would be in late April or May of 1813.

An old Butler County History records this event by saying he was the first burial in White Oak Cemetery, his brother Andrew, given the farm, set aside acreage for this purpose. Actually there are several grants of small pieces of land set aside. Jacob's will mentioned one acre set aside for the purpose of building a church. Approx 3 acres were set aside by Andrew, which is now the cleared section of White Oak. An additional tract to the south known as the Wilson tract contains the grave site of Jacob Sr and his wife Catharine by an old seepage spring about 200-250 feet below White Oak.

Whether this grave was ever marked is unknown to the writer. It is not shown in the grave registry of White Oak and may actually have been located near that of his parents at the old spring.

He died single with no descendents or record to reflect on his passing.
CHAPTER XV

Elizabeth Catharine Barnhart 1779-1847

Elizabeth Catharine Barnhart, the fourth child of Jacob Sr and Catharine Barnhart (Erdman) Barnhart was born in Hempfield Twp., Westmoreland Co., Pa. just to the East of the City of Greensburg. Born in the log cabin on her parents settlement, she was the first child to have been born in the area of an established church on the frontier.

Her birth and baptism is recorded in the German Ref. congregations of Westmoreland Co. (See Ruff Vol. I, Page 15). Born 16 Apr., 1779 she was baptised 13 June 1779 by Meyer, the school master pastor who handled the religious functions of that day at that place.

The family showed in the tax census of Westmoreland Co., in the summer of 1798 but moved shortly afterward and were in Butler Co., for the tax census of 1803. Altho Jacob had been making trips in the summers to Butler Co., where he had cleared land and built a cabin, by 1800. Altho there is always a question of just when a family moved from one location to another, the usual key is the listing of the family cow, which always followed the family, being necessary to furnish milk for the babies and younger children.

Elizabeth Catharine Barnhart is listed in Jacob's will of March 1813, and inherited $50.00, a lesser amount, as the will stated she had already been given 100 acres of land, bestowed upon her. Whether the land was partitioned off or another tract of 100 acres purchased for her is not indicated. Certainly this indicates she was married previously and had family on their own. There is a question on just who she married, but this has not been established for sure at this time.

Her birth dates and death do not show in cemeteries in the area, except in one instance Fairview, and this is also questionable.

Editors note: To include the descendents of Anna Maria (Barnhart) Pontius would involve a tremendous amount of material. There are hundreds of names involved. I would suggest for this history to read the Book on the Pontius family written by Harry Pontius of Md, written in the late 1980/90's period. Mr Pontius passed away early this year 1994, but left a large record of his genealogical research.
Andrew Joseph Barnhart, 6th child of Jacob Sr., and Catharine (Erdman) Barnhart was born in the original log cabin in Westmoreland County, just East of Greensburg on 4 Feb 1785. He was baptised by Rev. Weber on 15 Mar. 1785. Andrew moved with the family to Butler Co around 1800 just after the 1800 summer census, as the family shows there in 1800 but were moving.

We next see Andrew in the will of his father Jacob Sr in March 1813. Jacob at that time was living on the 400 acre settlement of his father and was charged in the will with maintaining a home for his widowed mother and doing those functions necessary to keep her in firewood, a milch cow, fruit from the orchard, a certain amount of tea & sugar, new shoes etc.

Due to the rights of his widowed mother during her lifetime, he did not dispose of the property or deed off inheritances until after her death sometime in the 1830's.

As the mice in the local Union church chewed up all the records, we have little to go on to determine his descendents.

It is believed he married Hannah Reep, who died 10/12/1870. One child: Lydia.

2/1 Lydia Barnhart thought to have married Isaac Reep III, there were 5 sons and 4 daus to this marriage.

There is also a belief that Andrew may have married Hannah Artman, d/o Abraham and Sybella Artman.
CHAPTER XVIII

Catharine Barnhart 1787-1844

1/7 Catharine Barnhart was born while the family still resided in Hempfield Twp., Westmoreland Co., Pa., the dau of Jacob Sr. and Catharine (Erdman) Barnhart. Born 24 Jan 1787 and Baptised by Weber on 24 Apr 1787. There was some confusion in retracing this family due to Catharine not being listed in the 1790 census of Westmoreland. But the confusion probably existed since Jacob & Catharine had named two of their daughters Catharine, one called Elizabeth Catharine and the other Catharine. Both daughters are named in Jacob's will dated Mar. 1813 in Buffalo Twp (later Donegal & Fairview Twp).

Catharine would have been 13 yrs at the time of their move and was probably married around 1818 to Geo Thorne.

In addition to the above 4 children, a grave plot beside that of 1/7 Catharine is a Samuel J B 2/4/1854 & probably a bro to George.
CHAPTER XIX

Susanna Barnhart 1792

1/8 Susanna Barnhart, the eighth and last born of Jacob Sr., and Catharine (Erdman) Barnhart was born in the log cabin in Hempfield Twp., Westmoreland Co., Pa on 8 Oct. 1792. Bap. by Rev. Weber 18 Nov 1792, the sponsors were Johannes Walter and Catharina Bernhard. (Catharina Bernhard was the dau of Wilhelm and Anna (Schmidt) Barnhart and was the aunt of the new baby. (Ruff Vol. 2 Page 176). 1794 was the year of the Whiskey Rebellion in Westmoreland and no doubt was a severe jolt financially to the area and in particular the Barnhart family, who were in the distillery business.

Susanna would be around 8 years old at the time the overland trip to Butler Co., was made. No doubt this would be a time of great interest to the youngster, although she would walk the entire distance. The tax census of 1803 just three years later show her father of owning only 1 horse, so no wagon made the trip. The horse would be laden with pack saddle or saddle bags carrying their few personal clothes and possessions. Much of the other possessions had been taken on trips the previous summers, when the new cabin was being built, a shed for the horse and cattle, the necessary clearing of the 6 acre requirement done, and perhaps some crops already planted. But the trip itself would require the droving of the two cows, which was a necessity and young sons would be required to care for them on the way, milking each morning and evening, picketing them out at night to get their forage, and otherwise guarding them against any predators. No doubt Susanna at her age would have the family cat in her care, with perhaps oversight of the dozen or so chickens which accompanied the family.

And then they came to Freeport at the Allegheny River, the crossing used by settlers into Butler Co. Here a delay of a few days would be made to cut logs and construct a raft to convey their possessions over the water. Horses and cows were always required to swim the rivers. This would be quite an experience for an eight year old child and after crossing a short trip of about 8 or 9 miles to the location previously selected by Jacob for his homestead, a tract of approx. 400 acres.

We learn nothing more about Susanna until her father died in March 1813. She is mentioned in the will and received her monetary share, to be paid to her by her brother Andrew, who inherited the farm, with the provision to care for the widowed mother Catharine, during her lifetime.

With the church records of the time destroyed by mice in the attic, we have no information as to she married or when. She does not show in the White Oak Cemetery where her father, mother, brothers and sisters were interred. Nor can we locate her in the 1850 Butler Co. census, when she would be 58 years of age. Hopefully someone reading this short resume of her life will correspond and fill us in on her marriage.
THE ERDMANS

Of the two sons of Casper Bernhardt, Wilhelm and Jacob, mention has already been made of the Schmidt family of whom Wilhelm had selected a wife. Jacob had married Anna Catharine Erdman and perhaps a word here should be made of this lineage.

Our first knowledge of this family comes from Nickel Erdman, born in Germany and who died there. He would have been born around 1650 and probably died around 1710. He had one known son, Johann Yost Erdman B1682, but undoubtedly others, as Erdman shows up in Upper Saucon Twp., Bucks Co. Pa.

Johann Yost (Justus) Erdman B1682, Married 2/18/1711 Anna Catharine Seipel, B ca 1682, D10/29/1760. The family emigrated to America on the 'St Andrews' noted as a Galley, arriving in Philadelphia 5/24/1737. Johann Yost was deceased by 1760, at the time of his wife's passing. The family came from the area or town of Pfungstadt, Amt of Darmstadt, Prov. of Hesse, Germany. Off hand I believe Darmstadt is also the area from which the Schmidts came. Perhaps a difficult time in the city.

Anna Catharine Erdman B2/14/1748 of Andreas and his first wife Anna Dorothea, in Upper Saucon Twp., married Jacob Barnhart Sr B1749 D1813 the Rev. War patriot, Ca 1772. Probably in the Allentown Ref Church. Andreas Erdman, father in law of the Rev. Soldier Jacob Barnhart, also served in the Revolutionary War.

Andreas Erdman B8/5/1721 served in Capt John Stahl's Company, in the Northampton Militia, 4th Bttm. under Col. Philip Boehm, & Maj. Benjamin Van Camp. When Jacob and Catharine moved from York around 1778 to Westmoreland Co, so did Abraham Erdman, thought to be Anna Catharine's brother, as Jacob and Anna Catharine were sponsors at the baptism of their child.

Jacob Barnhart Sr and his wife Anna Catharine (Erdman) Barnhart died and were buried on the original settlement as was customary at the time close by an old spring in the woods. This was before Andrew, the son of Jacob had split off acreage for the cemetery now known as 'White Oak'. The original graves are down in the woods below the cemetery and was marked in 1992 by the Veterans Dept of Butler Co, Pa.
