PREFACE

For many years I have been interested in gathering information about my family history. In order to make this data available to others who have expressed an interest in this family, this booklet has been compiled.

I have not endeavored to include data on all of the descendants of our immigrant ancestor, Thomas Koppenheffer. However, I have attempted to list all of the descendants of John Copenhaver and Rebecca Kegley. Nevertheless, the list of some families is still incomplete. Due to lack of time and money, it will be impossible to name every member of all of the families.

Today, members of the Copenhaver Family are in all walks of life. Our early Copenhaver ancestors were farmers in Pennsylvania and today many of their descendants are farmers in Virginia and other parts of the country.

Members of the family have always been ready to answer their country's call for help in time of war. Copenhavers were prominent in the Revolutionary War. Others served in the War of 1812, the Civil War, World War I, and World War II.

Let us not lose sight of the fact that if it had not been for the pioneering spirit of our ancestors, we today may not have had the great heritage that is ours to enjoy. In this age when so many have lost their human rights and privileges, let us always be thankful to God for the freedoms that we enjoy and that were, in part, made possible by those who have gone on before.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I am indebted to the many relatives and friends who have helped to make this book possible. I want to thank Mr. Cornelius Koppenheffer of Emporium, Pennsylvania for allowing me to use all of the data about our immigrant ancestor, Thomas Koppenheffer and the family in Pennsylvania that he has acquired through research. Without his help, it would not have been possible to include this information on the early history of the Copenhaver family.

I would also like to thank the following people for their assistance in obtaining material for this book: Mrs. Rachel Spurlin, Rural Retreat, Virginia; Mr. Bruce Givens, Norman, Oklahoma; Miss Ruth Copenhaver, Crockett, Virginia; Miss Augusta Bean, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Mr. W. F. Coley, Waynesboro, Virginia; Mrs. Mary Toons, Indianapolis, Indiana; Mrs. Lou Emma Osborne, Johnson City, Tennessee; Miss Mae Snavely, Wytheville, Virginia; Mrs. Mamie Copenhaver, Dearborn, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, Pulaski, Virginia; Mrs. Pearl Copenhaver, Rural Retreat, Virginia and Mrs. Luther Hedrick, Crockett, Virginia.

The information for this book has been gathered over a period of years. It is correct as far as I have been able to determine. If any data arrives too late to be included in the book, it will be sent to you at a later date.

THE EARLY KOPPENHEFFER FAMILY IN AMERICA

Among the list of Palatines imported in the ship, "James Goodwill," Mr. David Crokatt, Commander, from Rotterdam, but last from Deal, England, June 15, 1728, arriving in Philadelphia on September 11, 1728, was our immigrant ancestor, Thomas Koppenheffer. He also took the Oath of Allegiance on September 11, 1728. He was probably from Wurttemberg, Germany but we are not sure of the exact location of his home.

Thomas Koppenheffer, along with other Koppenheffers, eventually settled at Heidelberg Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Lancaster later became Dauphin County. Today, Heidelberg is Jackson Township located in Lebanon County, just east of Myerstown, Pennsylvania.

Some members of the Koppenheffer family belonged to the Lutheran Church and others to the Reformed Church. Koppenheffers were charter members of Christ Lutheran Church in Berks County, Pennsylvania. It was started in 1743, and is about a mile west of Stouchsburg on the old road of Route 422. Many records pertaining to the Koppenheffer family were found here.

The parents of Thomas Koppenheffer, (or Koppenhofer as it was sometimes spelled), were Wolf (gang) Koppenheffer and Anne Maria. They arrived on the ship "Pensilvania" at Philadelphia accompanied by their son, Michael, and three daughters. Wolf and Michael took the Oath of Allegiance at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on September 11, 1732. They settled at Heidelberg township, Lancaster, Pennsylvania.
Their Children

Thomas, farmer, Heidelberg township, Lancaster County
Michael, farmer, Heidelberg township, Lancaster County
Anna Rosina (Susanna), (February 15, 1715-April 12, 1778) married December 18, 1734 Christopher Meyer, Lebanon County.
Anna Barbara, (died March 8, 1748), married October 6, 1735 (John) Peter Kucker (died January 1775), farmer, Lebanon County. Their daughter, Anna Catherine, (January 12, 1738-September 16, 1794), married May 24, 1757 Colonel Adam Orth, (March 10, 1733-November 15, 1794), Lebanon, (Iron Forge), Lebanon County.
Anna Catherine, (June 15, 1717-February 13, 1763), married August 2, 1738 Matthias Smyser, (Schmeisser), February 17, 1715-April 12, 1778), weaver, Manchester township, York County.

Thomas Koppenheffer, a farmer, married Anna Maria Zinn. It is believed that his children were by his first wife. His second wife was Anna Elizabeth Holtzmann, (born February 1715, died June 2, 1748), "recently from Germany." His third wife was (Catherine) Elizabeth Lehman, (a widow). They were married on January 25, 1749. Thomas died in 1762 as his will is dated March 2, 1762. To his wife Elizabeth, he left 129 pounds, twelve shillings and four and three-fourths pence. To each of his children he left sixty-three pounds, twelve shillings and one pence.

Christina, (November 18, 1780-1884), married 1798 Philip Henry Houtz, (1770-1848). They moved to Ohio in 1835. In 1849 the family moved to Rockcreek Township, Wells County, Indiana. Philip was the son of Henry Houtz, (1745-1796), and Barbara Dups, (Dubbs), (1748-1811). Henry was the son of John Philip Houtz, (1709-1766), who arrived from Switzerland on August 29, 1730, and Anna Margarettta Royer, (1718-1789), daughter of Sebastian Royer.

Michael Koppenheffer, a farmer and distiller of Mifflin Township, Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, married Anna Catharina_______.

He died in 1823.
Simon Coppenheffer, a farmer of Newberry Township, York County, Pennsylvania, married (Eva) Maria Elizabeth. They left Heidelberg Township, Lancaster County in about 1770 and settled in Manchester Township, York County. In about 1783 it appears that he sold his 230 acre farm to his cousin Michael Smyser and settled in Newberry Township, York County. Simon Koppenheffer served in the Revolutionary War with the rank of Captain. He died on August 28, 1802.

Their Children

Simon, (February 13, 1756)
Johannes Michael, (October 15, 1758), farmer and tanner, Conewago Township, York County, married Jane Gutwalt. He enlisted on July 1, 1776 and served in the Revolutionary War. Michael died on July 28, 1836.

Johannes (November 25, 1764)
Benjamin (September 30, 1766)
Maria Barbara, (1771), married George M. Davits
Catherina married Abraham Rankin

Thomas Koppenheffer, was a farmer in Hanover Township, Lancaster County, now Union Township, Lebanon County, Pennsylvania. More information will be found on the following pages.
Regina married January 3, 1781 John Deiss (Tice), Lebanon County.
Maria Eva Catherina married August 30, 1763 Christian Lehman, (July 29, 1744–June 22, 1819), Lebanon County.
Catharina married (1) Michael Bollinger, Lebanon County.
(2) June 24, 1777, Joseph Flory, Lebanon County.

Captain Thomas Koppenheffer was born in Heidelberg Township, which is now Jackson Township, Lebanon County, Pennsylvania. He was confirmed on Whitsunday, 1754 when he was fifteen years old at Christ (Tulpehocken) Evangelical Lutheran Church, Tulpehocken Township, Berks County. Today this is Marion Township in Berks County, West of Stouchsburg, Pennsylvania.

On March 29, 1764, Captain Thomas received a loan of seventy-eight pounds from his brother Simon. It was to be repaid by May 1, 1765 or Simon was to receive, among other things, "one white-mane and tail horse colt,"..."100 bushels of wheat in the house and barn,"..."fifteen bushels of buckwheat."

In July 1764, Capt. Thomas Koppenheffer purchased 137 acres, one-half of a larger tract, from Jacob Moser (Musser), (his father-in-law). On November 16, 1767 he paid the Jacob Moser estate sixty-two pounds, seventeen shillings and two pence to the following: Catharina Koppenheffer (his wife), eldest daughter of Jacob Moser; Rachel, wife of Adam Goodman (Gutman), Eve Werick; Christianna, Elizabeth, and Jacob Moser, a minor. Peter Hedrick was a guardian for Jacob Moser.

On May 31, 1769, Captain Thomas sold Peter Hedrick 137 acres of land in Hanover Township, Lancaster County for 149 pounds, eight shillings and ten pence.

Captain Thomas was a prominent man in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania during the Revolutionary War and was later an important landowner in Montgomery County, Virginia. It is thought that he furnished wood for the Iron Forges of the Miess family at Union Forge and for his cousin Colonel Adam Orth at Lebanon.

Captain Thomas Koppenheffer was on the committee that drew up the Hanover Resolutions in 1774.

THE HANOVER RESOLUTIONS OF 1774

As early as the spring of 1774, meetings were held in different townships, the resolves of only two of which are preserved to us. The earliest was that of an assembly of the inhabitants of Hanover, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, held on Saturday, June 4, 1774, Colonel Timothy Green, chairman, "to express their sentiments on the present critical state of affairs." It was then and there "Unanimously resolved:

"1st. That the recent action of the Parliament of Great Britain is iniquitous and oppressive.
"2nd. That it is the bounden duty of the inhabitants of America to oppose every measure which tends to deprive them of their just prerogatives.
"3rd. That in a closer union of the Colonies lies the safeguard of the people.
"4th. That in the event of Great Britain attempting to force unjust laws upon us by the strength of arms, our cause we leave to Heaven and our rifles.
"5th. That a committee of nine be appointed who shall act for us and in our behalf as emergency may require.

"The committee consisted of Colonel Timothy Green, James Caruthers, Josiah Espy, Robert Dixon, Thomas Koppenheffer, William Clark, James Stewart, Joseph Barnett and John Rogers."
Thomas Koppenheffer was a Captain of Militia in Colonel Timothy Green's Battalion, mustered in Hanover Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania from August 12, 1776 to February 1777. In 1777 he was Captain of the 1st Company of Colonel John Roger's 6th Battalion. On August 30, 1777, his Company was stationed at Chester, Pennsylvania, under Colonel Alexander Lowrey. In 1779 Captain Thomas Copenhaver had the 3rd Company of the 6th Battalion of the Lancaster County Militia.

Captain Thomas married three times. Most of his children were probably from the first marriage. He married Catharina Mosser (Musser) before 1760 in Pennsylvania. Her parents were John Jacob Mosser, (died 1766), a farmer and Catharina ___________. John's parents were John Adam Mosser, (September 8, 1684-January 8, 1770), and Anna Maria Boehm. John Jacob Musser lived near Capt. Thomas Copenhaver in what is now Union Township, Lebanon County. His father, John Adam, came on the same ship as Thomas Koppenheffer the Immigrant in 1728, and the two Lutheran preachers, John Caspar Stoever, Sr. who went to Virginia and John Caspar Stoever, Jr. who stayed in Pennsylvania.

On October 27, 1778, Captain Thomas married Elizabeth Niess, (Neese-Nease). Later, in about 1783 or 1784 in Montgomery County, Virginia, he married Juliana Seek (Six). There was one daughter, Magdalena, born to this marriage. Juliana died in Wythe County, Virginia in 1813.

It was probably in about 1780 that Capt. Thomas Coppenhaver and his family moved into Montgomery County, Virginia. In October 1781 he bought land on which he had already been living. This was located near what is now Rural Retreat, Wythe County, Virginia. In 1782 he was listed in the Montgomery County personal tax roll. In 1783 John Maxwell sold Capt. Thomas 310 acres of land located on the south branch of Reed Creek on the tract known as Radcliffs Marsh. On September 1, 1789 roads were established from Coffmans Glades to James Scott's on the head of Cripple Creek. Thomas Coppenhaver, Peter Raizer and David Bustard were overseers. Captain Thomas sold about 115 acres of land to Thomas Nease in 1790. On June 15, 1798, Captain Thomas was granted a license to retail goods and on November 14, 1799, he was fined for refusing to serve as a juror. He died intestate in 1802, in Wythe County, Virginia and is buried there. The personal property of his estate was inventoried and sold at public sale by the executor, Michael Moyers, (his son-in-law), on March 4, 1803. This did not include real estate. On January 9, 1814, Frederick, Samuel, and Henry, sons of Captain Thomas, sold three-tenths of the farm or 193 acres, located on Reed Creek, to George Wampler for 450 dollars. This was in accordance with the will of Juliana for dividing the property after her death.

Their Children (?)

Maria Catharina, (July 8, 1760), married June 24, 1777 Michael Moyers (Myers) a farmer, of Pennsylvania, later Wythe County, Virginia.
Christina married Michael Brown, a farmer, Wythe County, Virginia.
Thomas III, (July 16, 1763), married Barbara Staley.
* Catherine (1765? - November 27, 1830), married John Rosenbaum, a farmer, Washington County, Virginia.
Elizabeth married (1) February 27, 1793 Henry Groseclose
(2) February 17, 1795 Philip Wiseman

John was a farmer.
Samuel married February 4, 1802 Lavenia Williams, farmer, Wayne County, Kentucky
Henry married June 8, 1802 Barbara Vaught, farmer, Virginia
Magdalene (Molly) married September 2, 1802 George Wiseman

* Catherine may not have been a daughter of Captain Thomas Copenhaver but the death record of her son, Adam Rosenbaum, in Marion, Virginia, states that his mother was Catherine Copenhaver. Also, Mrs. Callie Hufford of Rural Retreat, Virginia, daughter of Polly Copenhaver Weaver, told me that when she once visited Adam Rosenbaum with my grandmother, Missouri Copenhaver Hounshell, he told her that they were related.

Thomas Copenhaver III, a farmer of Wythe County, Virginia, married Barbara Staley. He was born in Hanover Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania and was living in Montgomery County, Virginia in 1780 when he served for four months in the Army in Virginia and North Carolina. He lived in Wythe County, Virginia for many years before moving to Lincoln County, Missouri in 1831. Thomas III died in Missouri in 1836.

Their Children (?)

Mary married June 17, 1802 Jacob Creger
Elizabeth married December 8, 1806 Peter Creger
Valentine (died 1825) married May 28, 1819 Elizabeth Wissman
Joseph married June 31, 1819 Nancy Moore
Jacob (died 1878)
Geter (Peter) (Died 1843)
Abraham
Martin S. married April 21, 1821 Polly Creager
Frederick Copenhaver was born near Lickdale, Union Township, Lebanon County, Pennsylvania. It is about twenty miles east of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. In about 1780 he moved with his father to Montgomery County, Virginia. Sometime before 1790 he married Eva Phillippi, born July 1, 1770. She was the daughter of John Phillippi and Eva Barbara Eichelberger. In 1801-1804 Frederick Copenhaver, a farmer, moved with his family from what is now Wythe County, Virginia to what is now Smyth County, Virginia in the Chilhowie area. Frederick died on January 20, 1836 in Smyth County, Virginia and is buried thereat Mt. Zion. Eva died on July 9, 1857 in Smyth County and is also buried at Mt. Zion.

Their Children

Henry (August 21, 1790-July 20, 1868) married September 28, 1818 Barbara Phillippi (November 5, 1800-February 20, 1889) daughter of Christian.

Christley (February 23, 1792-December 25, 1873), married (1) Mary Cullop, (2) Elizabeth Groseclose (February 21, 1811-March 29, 1872).

John Christian (June 3, 1793) married Elizabeth Cullop.

Catherine married (1) John Mercer (2) September 15, 1837 William Davis

Molly married James Johnston

Christianna (January 28, 1808) married (1) Wells and had a son William Anderson Wells, (2) Adam Rosenbaum (August 16, 1802-December 27, 1893) and had a daughter, Elizabeth, who married John Alfred Copenhaver.

Thomas (December 22, 1811-January 3, 1882), married June 20, 1832 Rachel Tilson (February 4, 1812-October 19, 1884).

THE COPENHAVER FAMILY IN WYTHE COUNTY, VIRGINIA

The first name of the father of John Copenhaver (born in 1800) is unknown. However, he was a grandson of Captain Thomas Copenhaver and was, probably, the son of his son John. The mother of John, (born 1800) was Catherine Neff. She was born on September 9, 1776 and was a daughter of Michael Neff. The Michael Neff farm was located about three miles out of Rural Retreat, Virginia on the road to Cedar Springs, not far from the farm of Captain Thomas Copenhaver.

John Copenhaver was born on January 2, 1800 near Rural Retreat, Virginia. In about 1805 his mother, Catherine, married Henry Umberger, Sr. who lived at the Umberger home about four miles northwest of Wytheville, Virginia on what is now (1958) Rose Hill Farm, home of F. B. Kegley. On November 28, 1821, in Wythe County, Virginia, John Copenhaver married Rebecca Kegley, daughter of Christian Kegley. She was born on March 9, 1800 on her father's farm about three miles from the Henry Umberger, Sr. farm. They started housekeeping in a log cabin which stood close to the present home of Mr. F. B. Kegley.

Since Captain Thomas Copenhaver died intestate, it was many years before his estate was settled. The final settlement came in 1838 when George Wampler, trustee of the estate, put the farm up for sale. John Copenhaver bought his grandfather's old home including 351 acres south of Rural Retreat on Upper Reed Creek which was part of an area called Radcliff's Marsh. Later in 1843, John bought 389 acres of land from Christopher Brown on Upper Tate's Run which was to become the Ephraim Copenhaver estate.
John was a prosperous prominent landowner in Wythe County and he raised a large family of fourteen children. The first ten children were probably born near Rose Hill Farm and the last four near Rural Retreat, Virginia. John's mother, Catherine Umberger died on October 9, 1847 and is buried at St. Pauls near Crockett, Virginia. Rebecca Copenhaver died on August 12, 1871 and is also buried at St. Pauls. John Copenhaver died on November 20, 1873 and is buried at St. Pauls by his wife and mother.

Based on the analysis, social media has become a central aspect of modern communication. It provides an opportunity for people to connect with others, share information, and express themselves. However, the rise of social media has also brought about a number of challenges, including privacy concerns, the spread of misinformation, and the impact of social media on mental health. As a result, it is important for individuals and society as a whole to approach the use of social media with caution and consideration.

XIV. JOSEPH COPENHAVER, (born near Rural Retreat, Virginia), died on January 7, 1846 near Rural Retreat, Virginia and is buried at St. Pauls near Crockett, Virginia.
The Capp family is supposed to be of Scotch descent and trace their origin to the days of Bruce. Because of religious differences, they went to the Palatinate in Germany and became Germanized.

The first member of the Capp family in America was Andreas Kapp. With his wife, Reginia Sophia, he left the Palatinate and with many others, moved to America in 1710. They first settled on the Hudson River, New York. Later, they became dissatisfied with property conditions so they purchased land in Pennsylvania. Under the leadership of Andreas Kapp in 1728 they marched through unbroken wilderness assisted by friendly Indians, and settled in the Lebanon Valley about twenty miles from the present city of Reading. They called their settlement Heidelberg.

Andreas Kapp died in 1746, without issue, and left a large landed estate. In 1732 his two younger brothers, John Michael and George Frederick, had arrived at Philadelphia from the Palatinate on the ship "Pennsylvania." They purchased 425 acres of land next to Andreas's holdings. Their surname in autograph signature on the passenger list, on the oath of allegiance and on the title to their lands was spelled Capp and this spelling has been retained by the descendant of John Michael Capp.

John Michael was supposed to have attended the University of Heidelberg, Germany. However, there is no record of him doing so. Nevertheless, he may have been at the University for a short period of time. John Michael married Margaret _______ in 1737. In 1751, nineteen years after he had arrived in America, John Michael returned to Europe to visit his native town of Heidelberg. When he died in 1764, he bequeathed a considerable estate to his wife and children. Margaret Capp died in 1785.

THE MICHAEL NEFF FAMILY

It is said that the father of Michael Neff was John Nave or Neff and that he was born in Pennsylvania in 1725. It is also thought that John's wife may have been a member of a French Huguenot family. They had at least one son, Michael, born in 1744.

Michael Neff was born in Pennsylvania. He probably married Christine Capp before moving to Virginia. They raised their family near Rural Retreat, Virginia on the Glade Spring Road. Michael Neff died in about 1824 in Wythe County and is buried there. Christina Neff died in about 1830 in Wythe County, and is also buried there.

THE EARLY KEGLEY FAMILY

George Kegley, (Goegle, Keckle), was one of the early pioneers in the area of Southwest Virginia known as Wythe County. According to church records, some of his numerous children were born before the Revolutionary War. He may have been there as early as 1768. The date of his marriage and the surname of his wife is unknown. He lived on land adjoining the present town of Wytheville. He died in about 1818 in Wythe County, Virginia and is buried there. George Kegley, Sr. had a large family of children, among which were at least five sons.

THE LEEDY FAMILY

According to the "Leedy Chronicle" for July 1920, our immigrant ancestor was Abraham Leedy who came from Switzerland early in the 18th century. There are various ways of spelling the name. The name appears on early records as "Ludi." It has also been written as "Lidi," "Lydi," and "Liedy" but today, "Leedy" is the way most of the family spells their name.

It is said that the Leedys first settled in Pennsylvania, then some of them went to the Valley of Virginia. Later others went to Southwest Virginia, into what is now Wythe County.

Abraham Leedy had four sons and one unmarried daughter. Nothing is known about the wife of Abraham or dates pertaining to him. He probably died in Pennsylvania.

Jacob Leedy is the ancestor of the Leedys of Franklin and Perry County, Pennsylvania and Youngstown, Ohio.

John Leedy, Sr. is the ancestor of the Leedys of Southwest Virginia.

Samuel Leedy is the ancestor of the Leedys of Rockingham County, Virginia.
Abraham Leedy is the ancestor of the Leedys of Bedford County, Pennsylvania.

John Leedy, Sr. was probably born in Pennsylvania. He came into what is now Wythe County, Virginia at an early date. In 1795 he purchased a tract of land from Nicolas Tarter paying 125 pounds of English money. In 1812 he bought 250 acres from John Crockett which dates to a grant from King George III. John Leedy acquired 350 acres from George Helm in 1813 and later paid cash for other lands. Nothing is known about his wife. John made his will on May 22, 1820 which was witnessed by Christopher Brown, Henry Huddle and Peter Wampler. He died in 1822 in Wythe County, Virginia and is buried there.
