PREFACE.

As promised in the last volume of the Marriage Registers of Derbyshire, the marriage records of St. Michael's are printed in this volume.

The Editors do not doubt that these will prove equally interesting to Derbyshire people. In Volume V. they hope to print further instalments of town registers in the shape of those of St. Peter's, and also some village registers, to be followed in next volume by St. Werburgh's.

It will be convenient to give here a list of the Derbyshire parishes of which the Registers have been printed in this series:

VOLUME I.
- Dale Abbey
- Stanton-by-Dale
- Stanley
- Breaston
- Sandiacre
- Risley
- Oakbrook

VOLUME II.
- Brailsford

VOLUME III.
- Duffield
- Boulton
- Heath alias Lownd or Lund
- Church Broughton
- Hault Hucknall
- Mackworth
- Allestree

VOLUME IV.
- Duffield
- Spondon
- Mellor
- Kirk Ireton
- Derby—St. Alkmund's
- Quarndon
- Tickenhall
- Foremark

VOLUME V.
- Norton
- Derby—St. Michael's
- Chaddesden
- West Hallam
- Morton

It has not been thought needful to print the entries
verbatim. They are reduced to a common form, and the following contractions have been freely used:

- w. = widower or widow.
- s. = spinster, single woman, or son of.
- b. = bachelor or single man.
- d. = daughter of.
- p. = of the parish of.
- co. = in the county of.
- dioc. = in the diocese of.
- lic. = marriage licence.

All these extracts have been made by Mr. Ll. Ll. Simpson. Thanks are due to the parish clergy for permission to print these extracts.

It may be well to remind the reader that these printed abstracts of the registers are not legal "evidence." For certificates application must be made to the local clergy.

The Editors will gladly welcome help in the work of transcribing the registers. It is only by volunteer assistance that it becomes feasible to issue this series of parish registers.

Marriages at Norton,

1559 to 1812.

Notes.—Register No. I (1559 to 1653) is a very cumbersome and awkward volume, bound in thin parchment covers, measuring 2 ft. 3 in. by 7½ in., and in consequence is a very uncomfortable manuscript to consult. It is in very bad condition owing to its having been folded up, which causes both the binding and the leaves to be very much broken.* It contains 116 pages of parchment of varying thicknesses; three pages at the end are blank. At the commencement there is a preface in Latin referring to its "religious preservation" and its "multifarious uses." The Register commences with the first year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and the first entry is the baptism of Elizabeth Greene, 30 Sep., 1559. The Marriages commence in the second year of the same reign, though in the same year (1559).

The Register in the earlier portion is divided according to the year of the reign of the Sovereign. I have also entered the dates of the years chronologically, though not always entered so in the Register; this for convenience of reference. There are a number of autographs of vicars and churchwardens who have witnessed the yearly entries. Some of them are excellent specimens of the painfully elaborate character of the Elizabethan era, and would be extremely difficult to forge.

All the entries are in Latin. The Baptisms are entered separately at the commencement of the book, followed by the Marriages, and the Burials at the end. Each year is kept distinct, and the entries are attested at the bottom of each page up to 1612 by the vicar and guardians, or churchwardens. From 1612 to 1622 they are not signed; after this date they are generally signed yearly.

Register No. II (1653-1693) is a more convenient size than its predecessor, being 13¼ by 7½ in. It is on parchment, and contains 76 pages, the first two, one in the middle of the book, and the last one and three-quarter pages being blank. The third page commences with the election of Thomas Rhodes as "Parish Register."

The fourth page commences with Births, Marriages, and Burials mixed till the year 1655, then kept in groups up to 1663, afterwards each are entered by themselves consecutively to the end of the Register, the Baptisms coming first, the Marriages next, and the Burials last; but the Baptisms are divided, and part of them come after the Marriages. The Register is well kept, but the writing in places is very scrawly and very closely written, also very faint, and is scarcely readable. The entries are in English till 1663, when they commence in Latin. At the close of each year the vicar usually signs, and occasionally the churchwardens.

* This has since been remedied, and the book bound in white vellum.
Register No. III (1694 to 1732) is on parchment, measuring 15¾in. by 8¾in., and contains 86 pages, of which thirteen at the end are blank. It is bound in stiff boards covered with parchment, and is in good state of preservation with the exception of the back, of which there is little left. This Register, like the last, is well kept, the entries being in the handwriting of the Rev. S. Trickett and the Rev. Cavendish Nevile. The entries are in Latin. The Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials are kept separate and distinct from each other, and each year is marked off and signed by the vicar.

Register No. IV (1733 to 1782) is on parchment, measuring 16¾in. by 10¼in., and contains 92 pages, being full bound dark brown rough calf, and is in good condition, though some of the pages are rather loose and some are much discoloured; but the writing is clear, bold, and distinct, and is, in fact, one of the most interesting of the Norton Registers, from the manner in which it has been kept.

For the year 1733 the Baptisms, Burials, and Marriages are all entered separately on the first leaf; afterwards the Baptisms occupy the first portion of the Register, the Burials the second portion up to March, 1744, and the Marriages follow to 1753, when Lord Hardwicke’s Act came into force, directing the Marriages to be kept on a printed form.

Register No. VI (Marriage Register No. 1, 1754 to 1793). This is the usual Marriage Register, printed on paper, four certificates on each page, size 14¾in. by 9½in., and contains 188 pages. It is full bound in dark brown rough calf, and in good condition.

The first portion of the book consists of 80 pages of Banns of Marriages and 8 blank pages. The second portion contains 100 pages of Certificates of Marriages, the last five and a half pages are unused. This volume contains a very large title-page to each section, stating that it is published by Joseph Fox, "Parish Clerk to the Honourable the House of Commons" and "Bookseller in Westminster Hall," and "Benjamin Dod, Bookseller to the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, at the Bible and Key in Ave-Mary Lane, near St. Paul's, MDCLIV." It has also a very fine coat of arms of George II. The book is well kept in the usual scrappy writing of the period. This and the succeeding Register contain little of interest beyond the bare names, no other information being given.

Register No. VII (Marriage Register No. 2, 1794 to 1812) is the same size and binding as the preceding one, and contains 198 leaves, the first half containing Certificates of Marriages, and the last half Banns of Marriages. Only 18 leaves are used for the Marriages, the rest being blank. The Register is well kept and in good condition.

There is a very amusing epitaph on the gravestone of a scythe-smith in the churchyard, dated 2 March, 1795:

"My scythe and hammer lies reclined,
My bellows too has lost their winde;
My iron is spent, my steel is gone,
My scythes are set, my work is done;
My fires extinct, my forge decayed,
My body in the dust is laid."

These entries have been extracted by Mr. L. Lloyd Simpson, assisted by Messrs. G. Bailey and E. B. Smith, of Derby. They are now printed by permission of the Rev. G. W. Hall, M.A., Vicar of Norton.

END OF MARRIAGES.
Marriages at St. Michael's, Derby,
1559 to 1812.

Note.—Volume I (1559 to 1730). On the inside of the cover is pasted a paper page of the old Register, on which appears the following curious entries:—"A Poor Blinde Woman Calld Joan Waste, of the Parish of All Saints, Marter, Burned in Windmill Pit, 1st Aug 1556," "May 17, 1722, Hannah, the Daughter of Henry Barton, Junior, was born neither by land nor sea." The first page of the Register is headed: St. Michael's Register. Henry Barton Clarke, began 1718, with other signatures, &c. On the second page is written: "June 24, Ano. 1617.— Md. there is in the hands of Mr. Richard Fletcher, of Darbie, a composition of Allvaston or Auerson with the vic. ye. moother church of St. Michael's, Derbie.—Geo. Dale, vicar." The third page is headed as follows:—"Liber Memorialis sive Registeri continens omnia nomina* . . . . nomina conjugatorum, Baptizatorum, et Sepultorum, in parochia Sancti Michaelis, Derbia, a nono die Novembris, Ano. di. Milles. quingentess. quinquagess. nono at finem huius libri."

The first entry is a burial on March 21st, 1559. The Register is in good condition, the entries being mixed. They commence in 1559 and close in 1730. The book has been rebound in parchment. It contains 135 pages, in size it is 12 in. by 6½ in., and is about 1½ in. in thickness. The early part is in Latin. There are no entries between 1586 and 1593, but on the 7th page there are 21 entries of deaths from plague between May and August, 1593. It will be noticed that there are no marriages between 1648 and 1659. In fact, there are only a few entries of any description between these dates: e.g., five in 1649, one in 1650, one in 1651, and none again until 1655, and then one only, one in 1657, and two in 1658. Volume II contains entries from 1730 to 1800. This volume is of parchment, size 12½ in. by 8½ in., and contains 162 pages, the last being blank. It is full bound rough calf, the back being in a dilapidated condition, which causes some of the leaves to be loose. The pages are rather discoloured, but it is beautifully kept, and for the most part written in large English engrossing style. The entries are mixed up to 1774, after which it contains only baptisms and burials, which continue to the year 1800. From 1754, the marriages are entered in a separate book, although they are also entered in this volume to the year 1774. In 1783, October 1, is an entry: "Began the duty of threepence for Burial and Baptism, Paupers excepted."

* Word indistinct through damp.

Volume III contains marriages from 1754 to 1787. The commencement of this book is on the usual printed form on parchment up to the 96th entry, when the rest are all in writing on ruled lines. The book contains 203 entries, and consists of 48 pages, the last being blank. It is bound in stiff cardboard covers, with marble paper, and is very discoloured and crumpled with damp. The handwriting is fair.

Volume IV contains marriages from 1788 to 1810. This book is written on ruled parchment, 14¾ in. by 9 in., and is half-bound calf, marble paper sides. It is in good condition and well written, and contains 64 pages, with 211 entries.

Volume V contains marriages from 1810 to 1812. This Register is precisely the same size and binding as the last, and has eight paper pages in front on which are entered the Banns of marriages. The marriages themselves are entered on the parchment pages which follow, of which there are 62, but only nine are used, the Register ending with the year 1812. There are 32 entries, moderately well written.

These marriages are extracted by Messrs. L. Lloyd Simpson, George Bailey, and Ernest B. Smith, of Derby, and are now printed by the kind permission of Rev. Canon H. R. Rolfe, Vicar of S. Michael's, Derby.

Marriages at Chaddesden,
1718 to 1812.

Notes. — Volume I (1718 to 1812). Chaddesden was formerly a Chapelry, the Mother Church being Spondon, a village about one-and-a-half miles distant. This accounts for the large number of Chaddesden persons married at Spondon. (See Spondon Register, Vol. 3.) The Register is a large volume, 16 by 7½, and consists of 148 pages of parchment; but only 100 are occupied with the Register. 3 pages being occupied with an account of "Gilbert's Charity," others with an extract from John Beresford's Will and Robert Walker's Will; also an account of the School Lands and Boundaries and Fences, whilst a page at the end of the book contains a very interesting tabular statement of the number of houses in Chaddesden in 1821, with the population divided into Males and Females, showing also the number employed in Agricultural pursuits and those employed in Trades; the rest of the pages are blank. It would appear from Lyson's History of Derby that there must have been an earlier Register than this, as he records: "It appears by the register of burials that Thomas Harris, aged 107 years, was buried Feb. 29, 1659." The Register is bound in full dark brown calf, and is in a very dilapidated condition, the back being much torn and partly loose, consequently some of the pages are loose also. The leaves are much discoloured, and the writing in many places is very faint. The Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials are mixed up to 1754, when the Marriages are entered in a separate book, the Baptisms and Burials being continued to the year 1812.

Volume II (1754 to 1812). This is the usual printed Marriage Register on paper, and contains 250 pages, the first 26 pages having four certificates on each page, and the rest only three. Fifty-two pages only are used, the rest being blank. It is bound, like the former Register, in full dark brown rough calf, and is in good condition.

These entries have been extracted by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, of Derby, and they are now printed by kind permission of the Rev. W. Allis-Smith, M.A., Vicar of Chaddesden.

Marriages at West Hallam, 1638 to 1812.

Notes.—Register No. I. (1538 to 1687). A coverless parchment volume, consisting of thirty-nine leaves, measuring 8in. by 5½in. The Register commences with two Baptisms for Nov. 24 and 28, 1538. The second and third leaves, containing entries between 1545 and 1557, have been torn out. There are no entries of Marriages till 1638. In 1676 there was a religious census taken, shewing that West Hallam contained 107 Conformists, 40 Papists, and 3 Nonconformists. The whole of this Register—Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials—has been transcribed in the Derbyshire Archaeological Society's Journal for 1887.

Register No. III. (1693 to 1786) is on parchment, with five additional leaves of paper, bound in full dark brown rough calf, size 14½ by 9; has been rebacked. Contains Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials. This Register overlaps, but not completely, part of Vol. IV., but the Marriages after 1754 are taken from the separate Marriage Register.

Register No. IV. (1754 to 1802) is the usual printed paper Marriage Register, four certificates on each page, size 16½ by 10½, bound in leather. The first portion consists of 40 pages of forms for the publication of banns, and the second half of 50 pages contains the Marriage Certificates. The Register is in good condition, fairly well written, and for the most part by one Rector.

Register No. V. (1802 to 1812) is a plain paper book, size 15 by 9½. It contains 106 pages, but only 15 are used, the rest being blank. It is bound in stiff boards, paper sides, leather back. The certificates are all in writing.

Amongst the Burials occur the following entries: "1698, April 13, Katharine, the wife of Tho. Smith, als. Cutler, was found fello de se by ye Coroners inquest and interred in ye crosseways near ye wind mill, on ye same day. 1745, Old Sarah Baldack, of Dale Parish, aged 103, buried Apr. 22. 1747, Joseph Mottershaw, John Owen, and Charles Bennett, all three killed by falling in a Pitt and all buried in one grave, June 7th."

These Marriages are extracted from 1638 to 1754 by the Rev. R. J. Burton, Hughley Rectory, and from the latter date to 1812 by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, of Derby, and are now printed by permission of Rev. A. E. R. Bedford, Rector of West Hallam.

DERBYSHIRE—V.
K
Marriages at Morton,

1575 to 1812.

NOTE.—Volume I (1575-1640). This Register is a coverless quarto of parchment, measuring about eight inches by nine, and containing 26 leaves. The first and last pages were quite illegible, but have been restored, with the exception of a few words, which have entirely perished. The entries commence with Baptisms, followed by Marriages and Burials, the latter of which go on to 1648, and overlap some entries in the 2nd vol.

Volume II (1644-1812). There is no description given of this volume. It will be noticed that there is a lapse of four years between this and the last Register. The entries are all mixed up to the year 1683, after which the Burials are entered on the left hand page, and the Weddings and Christenings together on the right; this continues to the year 1739, after which they are entered promiscuously to the end of the Register.

These Marriages are copied by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, of Derby, from extracts made by the late Rev. Chas. Kerry, of Belper, now in the library of Sir Henry H. Bemrose at Derby, who has kindly given permission for them to be printed.
