DESCENDANTS OF
EDWARDS WEST SR. and SARAH EDWARDS

There are many WEST families and many more branches of each. This branch, covering the descendants of EDWARDS WEST SR., the ninth child of JOHN WEST SR. and his wife, ELEANOR LAWS EDWARDS, is just one branch of this family tree. JOHN WEST SR. was the third child of nine children of THOMAS WEST and his wife, SARAH TRAMMELL. Thomas and Sarah's descendants were presumably born in Fairfax County, Virginia. They migrated first to the area known as Kentucky County, Virginia, which later became the State of Kentucky. About the year 1795, they migrated across the Ohio River near Limestone (known today as Maysville,) Kentucky to the area known as the Northwest Territory. This portion of the Northwest Territory later became the State of Ohio in 1803. The WEST families originally settled in the area which became Adams County, Ohio. As the population and area grew, boundaries changed. The WEST families were instrumental in establishing and settling other early counties in Ohio; namely, Brown, Clermont, Clinton, Highland, Champaign, and Washington. Although many WEST families and their descendants have remained in Ohio, many branches have migrated further westward to areas which later became known as the States of Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, Colorado, Texas, Oklahoma, Oregon and beyond. The descendants of Thomas West and Sarah Trammell are found in forty-seven of the present fifty states of America.

Donal S. West, a descendant of Robert and Henrietta Fairfax West, has spent many years during his retirement researching the many and various branches of the WEST families. He has travelled all over the United States to grave sites, court houses, libraries and archives, and has corresponded with hundreds of WEST families. This book is just one in a series that Donal has researched and published. Although many sources are not cited, the information included in the volumes is real. Donal has either seen the birth or death records, gravestones, marriage records, etc. or has seen primary evidence from the respective families which are included in these volumes. The information included in this book is primarily the result of Donal's research.
Documentation of the births, deaths, marriages, census, probate records, etc. for Mrs. Lola E.
Lindsey's research are cited in the Family Group Sheets for her direct ancestral lineage.

Lola Edwards Lindsey, a descendant of John West Sr. and his wife, Eleanor Laws Edwards, through Sarah Edwards and Edwards West Sr.'s daughter, LETITIA WEST, produced this five volume series of the known descendants of EDWARDS WEST SR. and his wife, SARAH EDWARDS, using the computer software program, ROOTS III by COMMSOFT. This five volume series is available at the Allen County Library, Genealogy Department, Fort Wayne, Indiana.
Additional copies may be available at a later date in other genealogical research libraries.

These five volumes are dedicated with sincere appreciation and thanks to all of the families who have given of themselves by providing endless family information, photographs, and other documents to these researchers who have compiled this book:

WEST FAMILY COAT OF ARMS

Surnames are derived from occupations, places of residences or from nicknames. The surname WEST quite obviously indicated the direction in which the family lived.

The name WEST comes from France and old records indicate that the forefathers of this family quite possibly arrived in England during the reign of William the Conquerer, the first Norman King of England who was crowned on Christmas Day in the year 1066. Surnames were given to individuals after the arrival of William in 1066 and names were recorded in the Doomsday Book.

The motto "Jour De Ma Vie", which appears on the WEST coat of arms is written in French which could indicate a French origin. Translated the motto reads "Day of my Life".

There were more than thirty-two different coats of arms known to have been used by families named WEST in England. The WEST family lived in almost every county in England and many in Ireland. Nineteen coats of arms have some variation of the fess dancette which may indicate a common origin, with differences in color and changes to distinguish the different branches of the WEST family.

This coat of arms descends from the Lord De La Warr family. The Lords De La Warr, quartered the West and De La Warr arms, but cadet branches and the West families who were not titled used the WEST coat of arms alone.

Descendants of John West, brother of Lord De La Warr, Governor of Virginia 1635-7, were entitled to use the crest shown on the prior page.

ARMS: Argent, a fess dancette sable.

CREST: Out of a ducal coronet or, a griffin's head azure, eared and beaked of the first.

HERALDIC COLORS:

Gold, Argent Silver, Sable Black, Gules Red and Azure Blue.

WEST immigrants from England and Ireland who migrated to New England, Pennsylvania, Virginia and South Carolina, such as the WEST families who are represented on the Family Group Sheets described in this series of books on one WEST descendant and his descendants, may have descended from any one of the many WEST families using one of the thirty-two variations of the WEST Coat of Arms. The compilers of this five volume series believe that the WEST family described herein descends from the Lord De La Warr family; however, additional research is needed to validate that the Thomas West born circa 1730 described herein descends from Lord De La Warr in England.

Obituary Notices

MRS. FRED GELTER

Mrs. Elizabeth Mueller-Gelter was born in Donzdorf, Radolfzant, Germany, November 14, 1832. She was baptised in infancy and confirmed at the age of fourteen in that country.

She was married to Frederick Gelter on March 24, 1852. On their voyage to this country they were 69 days on the ocean out of sight of land. They settled in this country and endured quite a few hardships and losses, and yet, in spite of all, she often spoke of God's goodness in her life. At the time that she and her husband began their home this country did not know of the many conveniences that we have now; they endured the hardships of the early days.

About three and one-half years ago her husband died. Seven children are still living to mourn the loss of their mother: Mrs. Elizabeth Northwurm, Fred, Daniel and Leonard Gelter, Mrs. Dorothy Prince, Emma and Lewis Gelter. There are also 21 grandchildren, 29 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. In the later years and even in her last illness she still took an active interest in the affairs about her and her mind remained clear to the last.

During her last illness, in which she was bedfast since September, she was patient, yet oft expressed the wish that the Lord would soon call her home after all the years of her stay upon this earth.

On the morning of the 5th her wish was fulfilled and she quietly fell into that last sleep, which, if it be the sleep in Jesus, means but the awakening into eternal glory; having lived on this earth for the space of 80 years, 8 months and 7 days.

"But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him." I Thess. 4, 13-14.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all who assisted us in our sad bereavement: the neighbors for their kind help; the minister for his counseling words of comfort and many visits; the singers for their beautiful songs; Mr. Hook for his kind and efficient manner in conducting the funeral; all friends for their beautiful floral offerings; also the Frieling Circle, the Gleaners, the Willing Workers, the Royal Neighbors, The Dorcas Society, the Missions Society and the W. C. T. U. of Russellville, Ohio.

The Children.
man's Green & Co. prize. The scene of his "The Spreading Stain" was laid along the "B. R. & Z" Railroad, which was fictional composite of the O. R. & C., the C. G. & P. and the F. & B. His "Seven Horizons" an autobiography, included mention of his railroad service which he began as a boilermaker's helper on the E. P. & S. W. He had previously been a sailor, surveyor, sheep herder, explorer and miner. He was a gifted linguist and musician; and served as church organist at Ripley.

OBITUARY

FREDERICK WM. GELTER
Frederick William Gelter, son of Frederick Gelter and his wife, Elizabeth (nee Miller) was born in Newport, Ky., on Sept. 18, 1885. He was one of a family of nine children, three of whom are still living, namely: Mrs. Dorothy Prine, Emma Gelter and Dan Gelter.

He was baptized in infancy and confirmed when the family was in Higginsport and transferred his membership to the Lutheran church here when he moved into this neighborhood.

On Nov. 27, 1882, he was joined in marriage to Victoria West. Seven children were born to the couple, five of whom are still living: Ada (Mrs. John Wolfe), of Silverton; Edgar, of Newport; Frank, Alonzo and Raymond, of Georgetown; two of them, Mary and George, preceded him in death. There were 12 grandchildren, one Harold Gelter, whom he took and reared. There were 8 great-grandchildren.

His wife died in March, 1938, and since that time he has, for the most part, been living alone as he wished. Rich in a circle of friends he quietly passed out of this life on the morning of July 31st, having reached the age of 91 years, 10 months and 13 days.

Journey's End
No way is so long but finds its goal,
No path so steep for struggling soul,
But gains at last the mountains crest
With vision bright and well-earned rest.

And when life's race is nobly run;
It's battle fought; it's victory won;
God will make up its cost to me
Throughout a blessed eternity.

Card Of Thanks
We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many relatives, friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown us in the great loss of our beloved father.
Especially do we wish to thank Rev. Frey for his counseling words; Dr. W. L. Faul, for his untiring efforts; all donors of the beautiful floral offerings, and the cards of sympathy and Knechtly & West funeral directors for their kind and efficient management of the funeral.—The Bereaved Children and Grandson.
