DESCENDANTS OF
EDWARDS WEST SR. and SARAH EDWARDS

There are many WEST families and many more branches of each. This branch, covering the descendants of EDWARDS WEST SR., the ninth child of JOHN WEST SR. and his wife, ELEANOR LAWS EDWARDS, is just one branch of this family tree. JOHN WEST SR. was the third child of nine children of THOMAS WEST and his wife, SARAH TRAMMELL. Thomas and Sarah's descendants were presumably born in Fairfax County, Virginia. They migrated first to the area known as Kentucky County, Virginia, which later became the State of Kentucky. About the year 1795, they migrated across the Ohio River near Limestone (known today as Maysville,) Kentucky to the area known as the Northwest Territory. This portion of the Northwest Territory later became the State of Ohio in 1803. The WEST families originally settled in the area which became Adams County, Ohio. As the population and area grew, boundaries changed. The WEST families were instrumental in establishing and settling other early counties in Ohio; namely, Brown, Clermont, Clinton, Highland, Champaign, and Washington. Although many WEST families and their descendants have remained in Ohio, many branches have migrated further westward to areas which later became known as the States of Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, Colorado, Texas, Oklahoma, Oregon and beyond. The descendents of Thomas West and Sarah Trammell are found in forty-seven of the present fifty states of America.

Donal S. West, a descendant of Robert and Henrietta Fairfax West, has spent many years during his retirement researching the many and various branches of the WEST families. He has travelled all over the United States to grave sites, court houses, libraries and archives, and has corresponded with hundreds of WEST families. This book is just one in a series that Donal has researched and published. Although many sources are not cited, the information included in the volumes is real. Donal has either seen the birth or death records, gravestones, marriage records, etc. or has seen primary evidence from the respective families which are included in these volumes. The information included in this book is primarily the result of Donal's research. Documentation of the births, deaths, marriages, census, probate records, etc. for Mrs. Lola E. Lindsey's research are cited in the Family Group Sheets for her direct ancestral lineage.

Lola Edwards Lindsey, a descendant of John West Sr. and his wife, Eleanor Laws Edwards, through Sarah Edwards and Edwards West Sr.'s daughter, LETITIA WEST, produced this five volume series of the known descendants of EDWARDS WEST SR. and his wife, SARAH EDWARDS, using the computer software program, ROOTS III by COMMSOFT. This five volume series is available at the Allen County Library, Genealogy Department, Fort Wayne, Indiana. Additional copies may be available at a later date in other genealogical research libraries.

These five volumes are dedicated with sincere appreciation and thanks to all of the families who have given of themselves by providing endless family information, photographs, and other documents to these researchers who have compiled this book:

COLOR PLATE OF WEST FAMILY COAT OF ARMS
Surnames are derived from occupations, places of residences or from nicknames. The surname WEST quite obviously indicated the direction in which the family lived.

The name WEST comes from France and old records indicate that the forefathers of this family quite possibly arrived in England during the reign of William the Conquerer, the first Norman King of England who was crowned on Christmas Day in the year 1066. Surnames were given to individuals after the arrival of William in 1066 and names were recorded in the Doomsday Book.

The motto "Jour De Ma Vie", which appears on the WEST coat of arms is written in French which could indicate a French origin. Translated the motto reads "Day of my Life".

There were more than thirty-two different coats of arms known to have been used by families named WEST in England. The WEST family lived in almost every county in England and many in Ireland. Nineteen coats of arms have some variation of the fess dancette* which may indicate a common origin, with differences in color and changes to distinguish the different branches of the WEST family.

This coat of arms descends from the Lord De La Warr family. The Lords De La Warr, quartered the West and De La Warr arms, but cadet branches and the West families who were not titled used the WEST coat of arms alone.

Descendants of John West, brother of Lord De La Warr, Governor of Virginia 1635-7, were entitled to use the crest shown on the prior page.

ARMS: Argent, a fess dancette sable.

CREST: Out of a ducal coronet or, a griffin’s head azure, eared and beaked of the first.

HERALDIC COLORS:

Gold, Argent Silver, Sable Black, Gules Red and Azure Blue.

WEST immigrants from England and Ireland who migrated to New England, Pennsylvania, Virginia and South Carolina, such as the WEST families who are represented on the Family Group Sheets described in this series of books on one WEST descendant and his descendants, may have descended from any one of the many WEST families using one of the thirty-two variations of the WEST Coat of Arms. The compilers of this five volume series believe that the WEST family described herein descends from the Lord De La Warr family; however, additional research is needed to validate that the Thomas West born circa 1730 described herein descends from Lord De La Warr in England.

(Note from Compiler Lola E. Lindsey regarding photos/snap shots, etc. enclosed:

If a family provided quality photos and/or snap shots for Volume I and other volumes of this series of books, the photos/snapshots were reproduced, at the expense of Lola E. Lindsey, using color and/or black and white laser printers at Kinko’s in Dallas, Texas. Xerox copies of snapshots or photos, when received, were reproduced if the quality of the xerox copy was somewhat legible and are provided merely to reflect how some family members looked during various periods of their life. Unfortunately, not all family members provided good quality photos/snapshots for reproduction and inclusion for this and other volumes of this series of books, but we are appreciative for the photos that have been included. I wish that all photos enclosed could have been first quality reproductions.)

Services Held For West

Survivors include her husband Ernest of Orchard, daughter Mrs. Glen (Elaine) Miller of Orchard, grandchildren Mrs. James (Sherry) Dostal of Niobrara, Kathy Miller of New York City, Mrs. Garland (Vicky) Bergh of Plainview, Larry Miller of Brunswick, two great grandchildren Bodie and Zachery Dostal of Niobrara, a brother Eugene Dornbough of Chicago and many other relatives and friends.

Mrs. West was an avid student of the bible and spent many hours reading and studying God's word. The family found the following in her bible:

BEATITUDES

BLESSED are they who under stand my faltering step and pale hand,
BLESSED are they who know that my eyes are dim and wits are slow,
BLESSED are they who seemed to know that my days are numbered,
BLESSED are they who look away, when coffee spilled at my ear,
BLESSED are they who never say we have told that story twice today,
BLESSED are they who make it known that I am loved, respected, and not alone,
BLESSED are they who know I'm at a loss to find the strength to carry the Cross.
BLESSED are they who ease the days on my journey Home in loving ways.

Ernest West Services Held

Ernest E. West was born September 2, 1895 at Unadilla, Nebr. to William and Mary Brooks West. In 1902 the West family moved to Holt County, locating on a farm seven miles northeast of Page where Ernest attended a rural school, and later high school in Orchard.

Ernest was in the military service during World War I, serving in the Aviation Section of the Signal Corps.

March 12, 1919 Ernest was married to Ruth Dornbaugh of Tecumseh, Nebr., daughter of Ellis and Ida Prater Dornbaugh. They lived on a farm near Page for seven years. Ernest then gave up farming and took up trucking, corn shelling and later invested in various earth-moving machines with which he was engaged in building roads, waterways, terraces, etc. The family lived in Plainview, Neb. and Garden City, Kansas for a time. In 1929 they located in Orchard where they have since resided.

The Wests celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary March 12, 1964. Ernest was a charter member of the United Methodist Church.

Mr. West died May 23, 1986 at the Neligh hospital at the age of 90 years, 8 months.

He leaves to mourn, one daughter, Elaine Miller of Orchard; four grandchildren, Mrs. Jim (Sherry) Dostal of Niobrara, Kathy Miller of New York City, Mrs. Garland (Vicky) Bergh of Plainview and Larry and Teresa Miller of Brunswick; two great grandchildren, Bodie and Zachery Dostal of Niobrara; and one great granddaughter, Sarah Bergh and one brother-in-law, Eugene Dornbough of Heritage Village in Neligh. He was preceded in death by his wife, Ruth, his brother, Forrest, and his parents.

Services were held at the United Methodist Church Sunday, May 25th at 2:00 p.m. with Rev. Lyie Schoen officiating.

Mrs. Clifford Erb was organist with Mrs. Terry Erb as soloist.

Pallbearers were Gordon Harvey, Floyd Steinberg, Ed Beutler, Bruce Fletcher, Durand Dempster and William Mittels.
