BIRTH-ESTIMATED DEATH: FHL Film #0972368, Pensions for Revolutionary War Service: Pension for S 16002 report an Evan Thomas born 28 Feb 1753 in Chester, Pennsylvania who fought in the Revolutionary War as a private in 1777, 1778, 1779, 1780, 1781 and 1782, usually for six month periods each. It appears his pension was denied as he had been given land. However, he may have received some pension commencing on 4 Mar 1831. No family relationships were given. Sworn and subscribed by Hamilton Goffs and William Martin. Joseph Johnson, J. P. certified that Evan was infirm and unable to attend court. On March 6, 1935 a Walter Anderson, Box 1172 of Clarksburg, WV sent a request for a pension record for Evan Thomas and for an Arthur Trader. See VII, pages 28 through 36 in the files of Jan Hornick, Englewood, Colorado. On 16 Feb 2001 Vince O'Shaughnessy observed: "It also shows he moved to Loudoun when he was 23 years old [Abt 1776] and then moved to the District of West Augusta later called Harrison County, VA in June 1777."

She was the daughter of Wilford and Lydia Ann (Hustead) Freeman, one of ten children...Her paternal grandparents were Alfred and Synthia (Thomas) Freeman...Her grandfather, Moses Hustead, was a Revolutionary War soldier and a pioneer settler. She was a descendant of Robert Hustead, who came to America in 1635 from Dorset, England...Augusta attended Taylor School near Corbin Branch, where her cousin, John Russell, taught one year. She had a beautiful style of penmanship, wrote poetry, and was very good in mathematics. On April 24, 1898, at age 19, she was married to William Robert Constable in the Pruntytown Methodist Church...W. Robert and Augusta had four children: Robert, born December 1900, died 1924; Georgia, born October 14, 1902; Charles, born August 9, 1906, died October 4, 1946; and William Lee, born June 15, 1918, died October 15, 1918...At the time of William Lee's death during the flu epidemic, Augusta went among the flu cases in Watson and assisted those who were ill. She always raised a big garden, sold produce, and took time to visit sick folk. She joined church at the age of ten and attended "Old Ironsides." Augusta remained faithful to her early training, died December 4, 1963 and was buried near her mother and three sisters in the Middleville Cemetery. Sarah E. and William were married December 16, 1869.

CENSUS: 1870 West Virginia, Taylor County, Booths Creek Census; DPL Film WVa-1870, Roll 16, Page 2: "William Dunham, 26, M, $200 (personal property); Sarah E., 19, F, Keeping House, $1000 (land)"; they had been married in the previous December; they both were born in Virginia. BIRTH-PARENTS: Information from Taylor County Clerk to Janet Gesas March 1974. "William and Sara E. Harr Dunham." The information was recorded twice: Dec. 21, 1875 and Jan. 22, 1876. It would seem likely that the former date is the more accurate.

95. Allice or Sarah Jane or Arie Jane HARR (Virginia REED, Malinda Thomas MARTIN OR RIGGS, Rebecca THOMAS, Evan) was born on 26 May 1854 in Taylor County, Virginia. She died on 13 Jul 1917 in , of Harrison, West Virginia and was buried in Jul 1917 in Kinceloe Creek, Harrison County, West Virginia.

BIRTH: Information by letter from Taylor County Clerk to Jan Gesas, Salt Lake City, received 23 January 1974, providing births of Thomas F. Harr's children: "Sarah J. Harr, daughter of Thomas F. and Virginia, born May 26, 1854" in Taylor County, which was then Virginia. NOTE: It would appear that several of the Harr children went by different names than their birth names as they grew older.

CENSUS: 1860 Virginia Census, Taylor County; "Alice" was age 6 when recorded 10th day of June 1860. See father's notes.
CENSUS: 1870 West Virginia Census, Taylor County; FHL Film #55, 3198. Alice Harr listed as age 16, born in Virginia. The census was enumerated on 22 July 1840. (This would confirm her birth year of 1854.)

CENSUS: 1880 West Virginia, Harrison County, Union District; Denver FRC Film 1404, E. D. 116; Sheet 43, enum. 29 June 1880: "Curry, Johnathan, 31; Eary J. E., 26, wife; Ora Belle, 26, Dau; Howard, 1, Son." All born in WV, including their parents.

CENSUS: 1900 West Virginia, Harrison County, Union District Census.

NAME VARIATIONS: It would appear that Sarah J. Harr, born 26 May 1854, daughter of Thomas F. and Virginia Harr, is the same person as Allice or Alice Harr. See the original birth information above from the Taylor County Clerk. FHL Film 818, 639, Book 15 has deeds in Taylor County. One dated 12 September 1879 on page 22 is to Mary E. Scranage from William Durham and Jonathan Currey and "Arie Jane Allice Currey" of Harrison County and Charles L. Harr (her brother) of Taylor....land near Harmony Grove School House. Later in the deed Allice's sister is mentioned: William and Evaline Dur(n)ham. Another film, FHL Film 22436, Part 3 has Harrison (and other counties) Cemetery Records. Among them are "Alice Currey" along with J. T. Currey (her husband). The birth date is given as May 26, 1854. Thus it would appear that "Sarah J.", "Alice", "Arah" or "Arie Jane" and the more commonly used "Allice" are the same person.

DEATH: FHL Film 22436, Part 3, Harrison (and other counties) Cemetery Records. " Alice Currey, born May 26, 1854; died July 13, 1917; wife of J. T. Currey, buried at Mt. Carmel Baptist Church Cemetery, Kincheloe Creek, Harrison County.

He died on 17 Nov 1917 in , Probably in Harrison, West Virginia and was buried in Kincheloe Creek, Harrison County, West Virginia.

BIRTHPLACE-PARENTS-MARRIAGE: Information from Taylor County Clerk, Elizabeth Williams, on Feb 20, 1974: Jonathan Currey, age 22, born in Taylor County, parents John B. and Polly Currey married Allice Harr, age 17, born in Taylor County, parents Thomas F. and Virginia Harr. Marriage date: May 14, 1871 in Taylor County. See files of Janet Gesas Hornick, Englewood, CO. H-6, #10. NOTE: His age at the time of marriage and the following 1860 Census would support a birth year of 1848.

CENSUS: 1850 Virginia, Taylor County Census; DPL Film VA 1850-9, page 295: "John B. Currey, 27, Farmer; Mary, 25; Edwin, 13m; Nathan, 11m, Francis, 9f; Perry, 7m; William, 5m; Angeline 5f, Jonathan, 2m." All born in Virginia. NOTE: This census was enumerated on 1 July 1850 and thus Jonathan would be turning 3 in September. It would appear that his year of birth would be 1847 or 1848. NOTE: Another
Jonathan Currey, born 1826/1826, listed on page 319.

CENSUS: 1860 Virginia, Taylor County; SLC FHL 975.455 X2z, page 83: "Currey, John B., 48, farmer; Permelia, 38f; Francis C., 19m; Perry, 17m; J.F., 17m; Marg't J., 15f; Angeline, 15f; W.M., 14m; Nancy J., 13f; Jonathan, 11m; Harriet, 9f; Clinton; 3m; Thaddus, 1m." All born in Virginia. See T-2.

DEATH: FHL Film 22436, Part 3, Harrison County (and other counties) Cemetery Records: Lulu is the third name following her mother, "Alice" and father, J. T. Currey: "Lulu V. 97. Lourenna Caroline HARR (Virginia REED, Malinda Thomas MARTIN OR RIGGS, Rebecca THOMAS, Evan) was born on 7 Feb 1859 in Harmony Grove, Taylor County, Virginia. She died on 26 Sep 1924 in Lost Run, Taylor County, West Virginia and was buried in Harmony Grove, Taylor County, West Virginia.

BIRTH: Information from Taylor County Clerk, 23 January 1974, in a letter to Janet Gesas, reporting births of Harr children in Taylor County during the 1850's and 1860's. "Susannah C. Harr, daughter of Thomas F. and Virginia, born Feb. 7, 1859." It should be noted that the cursive "L" and the cursive "S" of the mid-1800's appeared very similar. The clerk copying the record could easily have mistaken "Lurena" or "Laurenna" or some variation for "Susannah."

BIRTH-PARENTS-MARRIAGE-DEATH: "Laura Caroline Harr Green died September 26, 1924, at age of 64 years, 9 months and 16 days. Born in Taylor County February 9, 1860 to Virginia Reed and Ferman (Thomas Firman) Harr." This death record was provided by the Taylor County Clerk to Janet Gesas in January of 1974. In the same letter were births, including children of "John W. and Lurenia C. Harr Green." See H-6, #7. See obituary.

CENSUS: 1860 West Virginia, Taylor County, Pruntytown P.O. Census; Denver FRC Film 1381, Drawer 15/5, Page 321 (532). (The Denver FRC film is significantly clearer than the DPL Film.) NOTE: Her name was clearly listed as "Lurenna" and her age, 1.

CENSUS: 1870 West Virginia Census, Taylor County, Booths Creek Township, "Lurena C. Harr, age 11, F, born in Virginia," is listed on Roll 1699, page 114. This would confirm her year of birth as 1859. She was enumerated with Malinda Reed, age 62, her grandmother.

Lourenna married John William GREEN, son of James William GREEN and Lydia Ellen or Eleanor GOODWIN, on 10 Nov 1875 in Taylor County, West Virginia. John was born on 28 Sep 1849 in Taylor County, Virginia. He died on 14 Aug 1924 in Taylor County, West Virginia and was buried in Harmony Grove, Taylor County, West Virginia.
