GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY
OF THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST
OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS
I first became interested in the Foltz Family History while attending reunions at Riverside Park, Findlay, Ohio about 50 years ago. I heard members of the family tell that our ancestors came from Germany and Virginia.

One year at the reunion we were requested to register under one of three names; Peter Foltz, Phillip Foltz or Noah Foltz, three brothers who were early settlers of Hancock Co., Ohio. I was told Noah Foltz was my Ancestor to register under. I also remember there were folks at the reunion from Fairfield County, Ohio. Later on, as I became interested in finding more of the history of the family, I always took a notebook with me and began filling them with information gained by conversation with older relatives, and visits to genealogical sections of libraries, trips to Fairfield County, Ohio and to Shenandoah Valley, Virginia.

History is my hobby and I thoroughly enjoyed following the trail of the family, first from Germany to Pennsylvania, where today there are many Foltz families living, in fact, a little village in southern Pennsylvania was named Foltz until a few years ago when the name was changed.

The trail led from Pennsylvania to the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia. In an area about 10 miles square in southern Shenandoah Co., we find most of our line lived, however there were many Foltz families in Page County, Rockingham County and Augusta County, Virginia. The relationship of families in these counties to our line I have not been able to trace.

One of the towns in the ten mile area mentioned is Conicville. Jacob Rinker had land here and built in 1749. Downstream from here on Swover Creek is the old Joshua Foltz home, still owned by descendants of that family. Joshua may of been a brother of a Joseph Foltz, who also lived in this area and it is possible they were sons of the emigrant ancestor Joseph Foltz, although I’ve not been able to prove this.

The land of the old Foltz home on Swover Creek was deeded to Ulrich Waggoner, June 25, 1778 by Adam Raider, Executor of Adam Raider Estate for 120 pounds. The deed was evidently written by Jacob Rinker Jr., one of the subscribing witnesses. Ann Bird and Frederick Woolford were other witnesses, Rinker and Woolford signed in German.

Ulrich Waggoner’s daughter married Joshua Foltz, a Revolutionary War Soldier who built the home on this farm. Joshua enlisted from Shenandoah Co. in 1779 and again in 1781. He was a guard of Hessian Prisoners at Winchester, Va. From records of Senate Documents, 23rd session of Congress, Pension Roll no. 13-1833-1834 Joshua Foltz or Voltz or Voltz. Rank - Private, annual allowance $70.00. Service, Virginia Continental, placed on Pension Roll, Sept. 16, 1833. Commencement of Pension, March 4, 1831 ———age 74, dead.
On a trip to the Valley in 1954, we stopped at this farm and talked with an elderly lady, Louise Foltz, a widow of James Foltz, who was living in a smaller house on the farm. She took us to the family cemetery and we saw there a field stone carved with the name Ulrich Waggoner, b. 1720. Some other tombstones of the family there were Joshua Foltz, b. July 20, 1779, d. Aug. 1871, wife Elizabeth, b. Feb. 28, 1783, d. May, 1868. Robert W. Foltz, b. 1830, d. 1901.

We also visited the Zion Church nearby, which has an interesting history. Lord Fairfax deeded 400 acres of land to three Elders of this Lutheran Church, namely John Painter, Peter Fultz and George Dellinger. The land was farmed and profits were used for church expenses. January 1861, there was an agreement to divide the land and congregation between the Lutheran and German Reformed churches. One member of the Lutheran Church was George Foltz (son of Joseph Foltz who was the father of 25 children). Joshua was a member of the German Reformed Church. School was maintained in this church in 1825 when German and English were both taught. Churches were often used for schools with Ministers often being teachers. Zion church was a well kept country church and burial ground, when we visited there in 1954 and 1969. Jacob Foltz (a son or grandson of Joshua) who was killed in the Battle of the Wilderness, his funeral was held in this church.

Another town in this area is Lantz Mills about two miles from the Old Foltz Home. Other villages are Union Forge, Rinkertown, Mt. Jackson, Forrestville, New Market, Edinburg and Woodstock, the county seat. It was at the Court House in Woodstock that I found the Will and Sale of George Foltz recorded. There are many Foltz families living in this area.

In 1969 my husband and I obtained a road map of Shenandoah Co. from the road Commission in Edinburg, and spent a day following the winding roads and visiting many of the old churches with their burial ground beside the church building. Some of the churches we visited were Jacob's Church built 1755, Old Pine Church built 1765, Solomon's Church built 1793, Lanker's church built 1775, Old log Church built 1799. We found graves of many Foltz families in these church burial grounds.

We are told first settlers of this region were the Scotch-Irish, later the Germans poured in, so by the time of the Revolution, the population was 1/4 Scotch-Irish and 3/4 German.

Saw-mills, FLOUR MILLS, Carding-Mills were built on the streams, and by Revolutionary War times, wheat was raised and made into flour and along with cheese, eggs, poultry, wool, flax, live calves and sheep were taken by pack horse to the markets in Lancaster, York, Baltimore and Philadelphia. Each division had 10 or 12 horses and each horse carried about 300 pounds.
I have some records of the Joseph and Joshua Foltz families, but I did not include them here, as I was not sure of the relationship to our line. If anyone is interested I would be glad to share what I have.

There are a number of Foltz families around Newton, Edgar County, Illinois. Some settled there as early as 1839, and they came from the Shenandoah Valley. There are also Foltz families around Clinton and Vermillion, Indiana. Mrs. Grace Ashmore of Oakland, Ill., who is related to the Foltz family by marriage, sent me a number of records of these families and they trace back to Page County of the Shenandoah Valley. I would be willing to share any of these records.

Some years ago I thought the name Foltz was rare in this country, but after research I am convinced there must be some in every state and after all, how many descendants would there be from the 25 children of the Joseph Foltz mentioned, that we believe was our emigrant ancestor?

I owe my husband a Thank You for his patience and cooperation while following a family trail many times on vacation trips.

I would also like to mention here that the spelling of names on old records often varied. The name Foltz might be Fultz, Fols, Voltz (German spelling) or Fults. German spelling of Powell was Paul. Hornighouser and Humrickhouser are found. The name Hizey I found spelled Heizy, Hiezy, and Hiezzy.

The cemetery near Benton Ridge, Ohio was called Flick Cemetery, but one time we were there the name was changed to Tawa Cemetery — either name used, it is the same cemetery.

There may be names in these records spelled incorrectly — I assure you it was not intentional. For any other mistakes or names left out that may be found in a record, I would ask your pardon.

Some of the information used here was from Wayland's History of Shenandoah Co., Va. and a paper on Foltz Family History prepared by E.P. Foltz.

I hope everyone enjoys the book as much as I have enjoyed compiling it.

I wish to express my gratitude to Ted and Barbara Griffin for the many hours they spent preparing the stencils for this book. Not only the work of their hands, but their interest and willingness to help make this book available, is deeply appreciated.

My thanks to Mrs. Ross Foltz, Ivan Steed and his father, Ralph Steed for their generosity in sharing the material they had collected.

I appreciated the help on Shenandoah Co. families and history from Mrs. Kathryn (Foltz) Layman of Harrisonburg, Virginia.

Thanks to Dorothy Blume for names and birth records of the children of John Balthas Foltz, and the Rebecca Foltz genealogy.

For the (4)1. PETER FOLTZ FAMILY, I appreciate the interest and help of Virgie Loy, Mildred Altstaetter, Norman Foltz, Frances Gillis, Mrs. Allen Boutwell, Mrs. James Beals, Carl Foltz, Mrs. Chester Foltz, Mrs. Carfon Foltz, Mrs. Charles Kishpaugh, Mrs. Lloyd Ruesink, Mrs. Charles Patterson, John L. Foltz.

For the (4)2. PHILLIP FOLTZ FAMILY I am grateful for the cooperation of Mrs. Lillian Eveleth, Mrs. Esther M. Foltz, Howard Traught, George E. Foltz.

For the (4)3. NOAH FOLTZ FAMILY I appreciate the help of Mrs. Olive Knight, Vemba Foltz, Mrs. Jessie Nash, Cora E. Foltz, Harold Foltz, Grace R. Foltz, C. Richard Coffey, Olive Amilda Helwig, the children of Albert (Bert) Foltz, the children of Ilo Wilson, Karis Woodward, Maxine Ward, Dorothy Pertot, Ruth Yingling, Mrs. John Lamson, Mrs. Dyle Foltz and Mrs. Garnet Foltz. My method of numbering used in this book ——
The numbers thus ( ) are generation numbers, beginning with the Emigrant Ancestor, Joseph Foltz as generation
(1). Each succeeding generation is numbered from there.
The numbers 1, 2, 3, etc. are simply for number of children as they appear in the family. If you are (7)1, you are of seventh generation and first child born in your family.

JOSEPH FOLTZ (VOLTZ) (FULTZ)

Joseph Foltz came from Germany to Philadelphia, Pa. on the ship Anderson on Aug. 26, 1751 from Rotterdam, Hugh Campbell, Master; last from Cowes, 236 passengers, 50 Catholics.

The name Foltz in early records was written as Voltz, Fultz or Fols. From Rupp's Collection of 30,000 Immigrants to Pennsylvania, we find listed 20 Foltz names as arriving from 1727 - 1771.

Joseph Foltz was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and it is a tradition that he served with his son Joshua and that they guarded Hessian prisoners at the barracks at Winchester, Virginia. Joseph and Joshua were only Foltz listed as soldiers from Shenandoah Valley or Shenandoah County in the Revolutionary War records of Virginia.

JOSEPH FOLTZ - Infantry. The name appears on Army Registration but not as receiving bounty land. Pvt. W.D. record is with the War Department.

In the first census records of Shenandoah Co., Virginia under the list of Alex White, we find listed Joseph Foltz - 3 white; Peter Foltz - 8 white; John Foltz - 9 white. This is from the 1783 tax lists.

In Deed Books of 1790, Joseph Foltz and Mary his wife - by patent. Joseph Foltz is mentioned again in deeds in 1795 and finally in 1802 as Joseph Fultz.

Wayland's history of Shenandoah Co., Virginia reports that one of the members of the Luthern Church near Woodstock, Va. was George Foltz (a son of Joseph Foltz who was a father of 25 children, all growing to maturity).

The History of the Luthern Church in Virginia and East Tenn. by Cassell, 1930, page 10, says Peter Foltz and Joseph Foltz were early members of the Zion Church near Woodstock in Shenandoah Co., Virginia.

In lists of marriages of Shenandoah Co., 1772 - 1850 we find 67 Foltz's listed.

The first record found of any Foltz by this writer was Melchior Foltz, who was listed as living in Livingston Manor, N.Y. the winter of 1710 - 1711.

We have no records of the children of Joseph Foltz, except George Peter Foltz. We have not proved that Joshua was a son, it is only as passed down as tradition. It might be possible that a Peter Foltz arriving in Philadelphia on Aug. 11, 1950 might have been a brother to Joseph.

List of Shenandoah Co., Marriage Bonds:
George Fultz and Mary Rugle, Jan 3, 1787
Peter Hotter, Bondsman.

(Marriage dates of the children were also taken from the Shenandoah Co. list of marriage bonds.

The birthplace of George Peter Foltz is not established, but was likely in Virginia. However, in Powell Memorial Family History, it states he was born in Germany and emigrated to America in the eighteenth century.

George Peter lived in Shenandoah Co., Va. and was a member of the Zion Luthern Church near Woodstock. He held various offices in this church. Mary his wife and three of their children died during the plague of bilious fever that struck the valley during the unusual Autumn of 1804.

He left a will written in 1839 in which was indicated that Joseph Foltz was his father. It named seven children as heirs but no wife was listed. At an earlier date he journeyed to Fairfield Co., Ohio where he purchased land for his son Balthes Foltz and he signed the deed in German. The story goes that he stuck his whip into the ground near a spring and it grew into a willow tree.

Mary Rugle may have been a daughter of "Johannes Rooghel" who came to Philadelphia from Germany on the ship Vernon in 1747.

WILL of GEORGE PETER FOLTZ as found in Court House Records
Woodstock, Virginia.
1. After all expenses are paid, funeral, debts, etc., the following are in the will.
2. To son Daniel, 124 acres of land in Shenandoah Co., Va., conveyed to me by Joseph Foltz, being where Daniel now resides. Daniel to pay sum of $200 as hereafter specified.
3. To John Foltz, 440 acres being same more or less, it being my home plantation - for which my son John Foltz shall pay sum of $200 as here after specified, and furthur I give my son John my wheat farm to him and his heirs forever.
4. I give and bequeath to Louise wife of Phillip Lindamood to her and her heirs forever, 318 acres of land being same where son-in-law Phillip Lindamood now resides.

5. And whereas I have heretofore given to my son Balthes Foltz 320 acres in Fairfield Co., Ohio, I therefore cannot give him anything of my estate at this time either real or personal.

6. And whereas I have heretofore made an advancement to my son George Foltz to the amount of $1000 which is to be considered in full of my estate real and personal.

7. I give and bequeath to each of my two daughters, Leah wife of Peter Humrickhouser and Elizabeth wife of George Coffelt to them and their heirs forever the sum of $800 including the advancement to them made by me, for which several advancements I hold their receipts. To be paid to them by my aforesaid two sons Daniel Foltz and John Foltz, each of them to pay annually $50, the first to be paid 9 months after my decease - They paying to the one first to be paid who shall be in arrears of the advancement by me to them. And after my said two daughters shall be made equal then they are to receive share and share alike until each have received $800.

8. It is my will after just debts and funeral expenses are paid, all remainder of my estate not disposed of, I give and bequeath unto my five children namely, Daniel Foltz, John Foltz, Leah, wife of Peter Humrickhouser, Elizabeth, wife of George Coffelt and Louise, wife of Phillip Lindamood to be equally divided among them.

9. Balance of amount two sons Daniel and John are to pay on lands mentioned in clauses 2 & 3 shall be included and equally divided among the five last mentioned.

10. To take inventory of my clothing and to be divided between my before mentioned four sons.

   April 20, 1839

   Signed and sealed and delivered in presence of,

   A. Rinker
   Jonathan Miller
   John Miller
   Signed, George Foltz (Seal)

After the death of George Foltz, a public sale of his personal estate was held Aug. 18, 1848 and a copy of this sale is filed in the courthouse at Woodstock, Va. The author made a copy of the sale when she visited the Valley in 1969. The Courthouse is built of stone and was built in the 1700's. Many old records are kept there and are available to the public for research.

John Balthes Foltz and wife Margaret came to Fairfield Co., Ohio on horse back about 1822 or 1823. He built a log house in Liberty Twp. and it was still standing in 1957. They are both buried in Sager cemetery near the farm where they settled and lived. They were members of the Presbyterian Church.

Margaret Humrickhouser was the daughter of John Humrickhouser II born about 1751 in York Co., Penn. He was living in Fairfield Co. Ohio in 1821, and was married about 1771 to Barbara . He was the son of John Humrickhouser I, who came from Germany on the ship "Judith" in 1748 and signed in German "Johannes Homrighauser". He settled in York Co., Penn., and in 1771 he moved to Germantown, Penn., where he died the following year.

The following quaint report refers to his Military service during the Revolution. "Return from Seacont Badalion of York Co., Manchester Twp. for them that have Mostert and for them that have not Mostert for the year of our Lord 1779. Simon Coppen-Offer Capt'n... Mostert...

John Humrickhouser

He moved to Virginia before 1790 and was found in the census of 1810, living next to George Peter Foltz. He was mentioned in the deeds of Fairfield Co., Ohio in 1817 and was living there in Bloom Twp. in the Census of 1820. He was reported in Fairfield Co. in 1821 as having 80 grandchildren at that time.
Census records of Liberty Twp., Fairfield Co., Ohio lists
John Balthes Foltz' Family, Aug. 9, 1850. Census takers sometimes made mistakes in name spellings as in this case.

b. 19 May, 1817 Fairfield Co., Ohio
d. 9 Aug., 1850 Hancock Co., Ohio

Both are buried in Tawa Cemetery near Benton Ridge, Ohio.
Peter and Elizabeth came to Hancock Co., Ohio in 1836 to a farm in Section 25. Peter came from Fairfield Co. to Hancock Co. in Oct., 1834 and made entry of land. Peter was a farmer and carpenter. A grandson was an owner of a desk made by Peter.
Elizabeth (Powell) Foltz was a daughter of John Phillip Powell and Elizabeth (Radebaugh) Powell. Nicholas Radabaugh was her maternal grandfather. In the Powell Family Memorial History, Peter Foltz was described as pious and a Christian for many years. He was an exhorter. The last time he spoke in church, he said he had an impression that they would never again hear his voice in church.

John Phillip Powell entered land in Hancock Co. in 1827 and in Seneca Co. in 1825. He had enough land so that he was able to give each of his children 160 acres.

Peter Foltz was the father of 17 children, 8 by his first marriage and 9 by his second.

A brief history of Nicholas Radabaugh on the next page seems fitting as Powell and Hiestand lines trace back to him.
John Nicholas Radabaugh, born 4 Dec., 1752, traditionally Germany died 5 Feb., 1850, Fairfield Co., Ohio, buried Zeigler Cemetery near Lancaster.

Catherine Varner (probably Werner), born 27 Apr., 1750, traditionally Germany; died 27 Dec., 1831, Fairfield Co., Ohio, buried Zeigler Cem. children: (probably not in order and probably incomplete)
1. John Nicholas Radebaugh, b. 5 Dec., 1777, d. 13 Dec., 1862, Fairfield Co., Ohio, mar. Catherine _
2. John Radabaugh, b. 30 May, 1783, d. 11 Mar., 1847, Fairfield Co., Ohio, mar. Eva _
5. Susannah Radabaugh, d. Pickaway Co., Ohio before 1880, mar. Adam Cloar
6. Mary Margaret Radabaugh, b. 1 June, 1791, d. 22 Nov., 1858 Dark Co, Ohio, mar. 24 Sept., 1809 Samuel Hiestand (of Moravian descent; a Bishop of the U.B. Church).
7. Sarah Radabaugh, b. ca. 1795, alive 1880, married John Kemerer.

Traditions agree that Nicholas Radabaugh came from Germany. The History of Fairfield County, 1922 states "The Radebaughs were of German extraction, coming originally from both Germany and Holland. On arriving in America they settled in Pennsylvania, whence they came to Ohio and made their final home in Fairfield County shortly after its organization."

In 1840 when almost 88 years of age, John Nicholas Radabaugh of Fairfield County made application for a pension from the U.S. Government for his services as a soldier in the American Revolution. He stated "that he lived at the time he was called upon or drafted to go out into the War of the Revolution in Manheim township in the County of Berks in the state of Pennsylvania and joined the army in the latter part of September, 1777, and was present and participated in the battle of Germantown, which according to his best recollection took place on the 4th day of October, 1777. He left the service about the first of December, 1777. He continued to say that he "well remembers that about sun-rise of the day of the battle of Germantown the men were drawn up in a line of two men deep and the Brigade Major rode along the line and proclaimed in both the English and German Languages that General Armstrong's orders were that when the British Regulars advanced within about sixty paces, they should take good aim and fire. Washington with the regulars laid upon his left and the battle progressed on the right and left of where he was stationed, and it so happened that his Regiment was not engaged they being in a central position which was not attacked. The British Army were driven back as far as the rising sun. The Company to which he belonged started from Reading, Berks County, and joined the Army at the Trapp, about 23 miles from Germantown." He also stated that he was aged eighty-seven years on the 4th day of December last past.
He signed his name in German script, "Nikolaus Radabach."
No pension was granted because he served less than six months.

Nicholas Radabaugh was found in the published tax lists of Brunswig township, Berks County, Pennsylvania, beginning in 1779 and continuing unto their close in 1785. In 1784 he was noted as having 100 acres of land, 1 horse, 1 cow, 2 sheep, and 4 persons in his family.

Nicholas Radabaugh entered land in Pleasant township, Fairfield County, Ohio, and in April, 1805, he and his family began the journey to make a new home in the wilderness, it taking them four weeks to reach their destination.

Nicholas Radabaugh was an exhorter in the United Brethren Church. Services were held at his home and he gave lodging to the preachers. Samuel Hiestand, an early United Brethren bishop, was his son-in-law.

They moved to Van Buren Twp., Hancock Co., Ohio in 1845
Both are buried in Hassan Cemetery, 17 miles S.W. of Findlay on Mt. Cory - Jenera Road.

Sarah (Heistand) Foltz was a daughter of Samuel and Mary Margaret (Radebaugh) Heistand. Mary Margaret was a daughter of Nichola Radebaugh (a sketch of Nicola Radebaugh is given at the beginning of (4.1), Peter Foltz history).

Samuel Heistand was a son of Jacob Heistand of Shenandoah Co., Va. Samuel emigrated to Fairfield Co., Ohio in 1809 and there married Mary Margaret Radebaugh.

It seems fitting here to list the family as they appear in the Foltz family history several times.

children of Samuel and Mary Margaret Heistand:

(6)3. & 4. Two infants died

Phillip Foltz, father of Tobias, was reared in Fairfield Co., Ohio, but after he grew to manhood he removed to Hancock Co., Ohio where he followed the occupation of a farmer. He was prominent in politics, adhering to the principles of the Democratic Party, he was a member of the United Brethern Church.

Dr. Tobias Foltz was reared a farmer's boy in Hancock Co., Ohio and received more than an ordinarily good education. First, he attended the district schools and afterwards the Findlay High School, and being very studious in his disposition, made the best possible use of his time in the common and High School. He was one of the patriotic young men that offered their services to the Government when the war of the Rebellion came on, enlisting in Company H, Twenty—First Ohio volunteer infantry, and served one year. He was in the battle of Stone River, and in the battle of Chattanooga, and saw considerable hard service. In 1865 he began reading medicine with Dr. E.B. Hiester, and graduated from the Western Reserve University at Cleveland, Ohio in 1870. He began the practice of his profession at Kirby, Wyandot Co., Ohio, remaining there until 1875, when he removed to Lima, Ohio and established himself there in the practice of medicine.

He was a member of the Northwestern Medical Society, and of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church of Lima, Ohio. Dr. Foltz was much devoted to his profession, and answered calls without regard to the standing of wealth of those in need of a physician, for his desire was to heal the sick -- compensation therefore being with him a secondary consideration.

---from record of Allen and Van Wert Counties, Ohio. *1896.

Note: Correct spelling of name Heistand not sure, find it spelled Hiestant, Hiester or Hiestant.

Rebecca and George Katzenmeyer came to North Baltimore on the first local passenger train run on the B & O Railroad through North Baltimore. The town was incorporated in 1876. They lived for many years in the house built by Mr. Katzenmeyer on the site that is now the First National Bank Building. The house was the home of Dr. G., next for many years. Soon after their arrival in North Baltimore, the Katzenmeysers opened a general store, on the site once occupied by Weith's Store.

I visited Arthur and Lillian Walter in 1958. Arthur was crippled from a stroke, Lillian seemed in good health and both had keen memories.
They were living in Fremont, Ohio at this time. Lillian gave me the names, birth and death dates of the Phillip Foltz family.

Lillian and Arthur provided a home for her younger brothers, George and Henry Foltz for some time during their young manhood.

Lillian was a member of the second class to graduate from North Baltimore High School in 1891. She worked in the telephone office that was located in the back of her father's store.

Arthur Walter came to North Baltimore about 1900 and worked as a mortician for F.P. Clark, the company later became Clark and Diebly. Shortly after their marriage, they moved to Bowling Green Ohio where Mr. Walter established an Undertaker business. He soon became a furniture salesman and they later moved to Fremont Ohio and lived there the remaining years.

From History of North West Ohio — Winter:
"Dr. Foltz widely known as an authority and a specialist in treatment of many aggravated cases of Bright's disease and Diabetes.

The lesson of self dependence was learned early in life and he had to become self supporting at an early age after his family was broken up due to the death of his mother. He earned his education and the development of his unusual talents has been due to hard work and an ambition to excell. He received his B.S. degree from Northern University in 1887. He then taught school and when his means justified it he took up study of medicine and in March 26, 1896 graduated from Starling Medical College, now the Medical Department of Ohio State University. He had four certificates of Post Graduate Courses and for three years practiced with his brother Dr. Tobias Foltz of Lima, Ohio. He then located in North Baltimore, Ohio. Patients came to him from all over Ohio and other States for treatment of Bright's Disease and Diabetes. He prepared and read a paper on these diseases before the North Western Medical Society at Tiffin, Ohio. He received most profound attention and was widely commented on."

Dr. Foltz practiced medicine in North Baltimore, Ohio until his death. He was a member of the County, State and Tri-State Medical Societies. He held membership in Masonic and K. of P. Lodges.

He and Mrs. Foltz were members of the United Brethern Church. He served 14 years as Sunday School Superintendent, taught an adult Sunday School Class for many years and also was choir director. He was always interested in helping young people with limited finances to get an education. The family home was located on North Main St. in North Baltimore, Ohio. The family is buried in Maple Wood Cemetery.
From a History of the E.U.B. Church in North Baltimore, Ohio, by Ruth Chase: "And while mentioning names of early members who played an important part in its early history we must not forget the Foltz family — Dr. George Foltz, his brother Henry, sisters Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Katzenmyer — all of them indefatigable church workers and wonderful singers. One of their descendants is Carroll Foltz who is still with us and still faithful to the church of his forbears. Many of us still remember Dr. George Foltz who served many years as our Sabbath School Superintendent, and though busy night and day, as most doctors were at that time, he still found time for church activities and met with the children to drill them in special songs for programs such as Easter, children's Day and Christmas."

The baptismal font was presented to the Church by the survivors of Dr. Earl Foltz in his memory. He was the son of Dr. George Foltz.

From a News Clipping March 4, 1967: "Capt. Warren L. Foltz of Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, won at least 23 medals during a year in Vietnam as an Air Force navigator. He got 21 of the medals today at the Air Force base (Scott Air Force Base, Ill.). Foltz already has two South Vietnamese Government medals - a Gallantry Cross and Silver Star and the Air Gallantry Cross with bronze wings. He also has been recommended for a Silver Star in addition to the other U.S. awards he'll receive today from Maj. Gen. Richard F. Klocko, Commander of the Air Force Communications. His boxscore: the two South Vietnamese awards, 16 Air Medals, three Distinguished Flying Crosses, the Bronze Star and the Purple Heart.

The Air Medals represent 389 combat missions. Mr. Foltz said "my squadron flew the C123 transport on defoliation runs. That means our pilot brought the plane in over the trees from five to 200 feet above them to spray the chemical. We sprayed areas of known Viet Cong infestation or known supply routes. We were real good targets and most of the time those ground gunners didn't miss."

The Plane that carried the crew of which Mr. Foltz was a member sustained about 107 hits from rifle, Machine-gun and cannon fire during his tour in 1966.

He received his Silver Star recommendation and his Purple Heart June 1966, when the windshield disintegrated from ground fire. The pilot was hit in the head and was bleeding pretty badly. The Co-pilot and I were hit too. I got the bleeding stopped on the pilot and helped our wounded Co-pilot bring the plane in."

Warren L. Foltz graduated from Central Michigan University.

(5)3. ABRAHAM FOLTZ

b. 17 Jan. 1844 Hancock Co., Ohio
d. Oct. 1933 Burket, Indiana married:

Mary Ann Powell
b. 1844
d. 1897

Mary Ann was a daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth (Rauch) Powell.

children:

(6)1. Oliver Wilson Foltz
(6)2. Alice Amilda Foltz
(6)3. Infant daughter
(6)4. Albert Foltz
(6)5. William Foltz
(6)6. Jennie L. Foltz
(6)7. Homer or Holmes Foltz
(6)8. Taswell Foltz
(6)9. Harvey L. Foltz
(6)10. Rosina Mae Foltz
(6)11. Floyd Daniel Foltz

Abraham and Mary Ann lived on a farm in Hancock Co., Ohio until about 1868 when they moved to Wood Co. in the Cygnet - Jerry City area. During the oil - gas discoveries in the area in the 1880's, Abraham did not want to lease his land to the oil companies and decided to do the drilling on his own. He was not successful however, and in 1890 the family moved back to Hancock Co. on a farm near his father's. After Mary Ann's death, Abraham married Julia Fox. She was the widow of Jacob Fox. Jacob's first wife was Amanda Foltz, a sister to Abraham. Julia died March 9, 1933 and is buried in Palestine Cemetery, Palestine, Indiana. Abraham and Julia sold the farm in Hancock Co., and in 1907 moved to Indiana. He bought a small farm near Palestine, raising vegetables and sharpening saws for a living. In 1914 they moved to Burket, Indiana, where he was a night watchman at the W.E. Davies store.

Abraham went to Canada to avoid military service in the Civil War when the draft was resorted to in 1863. Two things might have influenced him in this matter. He had relatives in Virginia and a congressman from Ohio was very much against the Civil War and tried to influence people in his state.

Abraham came back to Ohio after the war and married Mary Ann Powell about 1865. She was second of 14 children of Daniel Powell family. Daniel Powell was a brother to Elizabeth Powell who married Peter Foltz. Their father John Phillip and grand father Phillip Powell were early settlers of Hancock Co. The Powell Memorial Church on Lima Road, Findlay was built as a memorial to the descendants of the Phillip Powell Family. Another son, Rev. John Powell wrote the Powell family Memorial History.

children:
(7)1. Nellie Mabel Foltz
(7)2. Grover Clifford Foltz
(7)3. Bessie Verna Foltz
(7)4. Mary Olive Foltz
(7)5. Chloe Delle Foltz

Oliver and Emma Foltz are buried in Maplewood Cemetery on State Route 18, just south of North Baltimore. They were married by a Rev. Arnold and went to housekeeping ½ mile from the Abraham Foltz home. Emma's parents also lived nearby in Liberty Twp. Hancock Co., Ohio.

Oliver and Emma and four children later moved to Henry Twp., Wood Co. on an 80 acre farm owned by their uncle Jeremiah Foltz. They lived there 20 years and their youngest child was born on this farm. Retiring from farming in 1920 they bought a home in North Baltimore where Oliver died. In Sept., 1929 Emma married Martin Harris, a former neighbor. She died six weeks later.

Oliver and Emma raised a granddaughter, Eileen McCrory whose mother Nellie died when baby was six months old.

Oliver was a farmer all his life, taking great pride in crops free from weeds and raising fine work horses. He was a Democrat. Emma was a member of the United Brethren Church.

Tragedy seems to have filled their middle years as three daughters died of T.B. within six years, two leaving families of small children.

Following taken from Wood County Commemorative Historian and Biographical Book, published in 1897.

"Jeremiah Foltz, a retired Capitalist and oil operator, of North Baltimore, Ohio, is a native of Hancock Co., Ohio. There he spent his boyhood days, attending the district schools and working on the farm. After his marriage, Mr. Foltz settled in Hancock Co. and took up farming, continuing that occupation for about 5 years, at the end of which time he moved to Henry Twp., Wood Co., Ohio, where he took up farming again, until in 1888 he came to North Baltimore and built his present fine residence. It is a large roomy house, built in modern style, beautifully and surrounded by charming scenery. Mr. Foltz owns about 300 acres of land around North Baltimore, and is largely interested in the oil business, owning 9 producing wells. He devotes his time to the care of his property and to investing his money in paying enterprises. He holds a prominent place in society, and is looked upon as one of the town's leading and energetic citizens. Politically, he affiliates with the Democratic Party."

The oil born around North Baltimore, known as the oil and gas center of the state, started in mid 1880's. The Fulton Well located north of town produced 100 barrels an hour in Dec., 1886. A second well known as Royco Gusher produced 240 barrels in 50 minutes. Gas was found in the vicinity in 1886 at a depth of 1128 feet. For many years the oil industry furnished employment for many men in the area and the area was also known for it's productive farm land.

Harrison W. Foltz

Taken from the VAN WERT COUNTY HISTORY 1906 - Thaddeus Gilliland

"Harrison W. Foltz, who owns and operates a well-improved farm of 80 acres in Section 28 - Hoaglin Township, has been a resident of this vicinity but a few years; yet he is already widely and favorably known by reason of his energy and enterprises as one of the most influential and prominent citizens of Van Wert Co.

He was reared in Hancock Co., remaining there until about 32 years of age, he went to Jay Co., Indiana and resided there until 1898. He then came to Van Wert County and soon after moved to the farm now owned by him. Mr. Foltz is not only a good farmer but a good citizen, and is always ready to do his share in promoting the welfare of the public. It was largely through his efforts that the pike roads in Hoaglin Twp. were built, as it was the result of a petition started by Mr. Foltz the the first pike road in the Twp., known as John's Pike, was constructed."

Harrison Foltz is buried beside his son in Tawa Cemetery, near Benton Ridge, Ohio. His wife Iary is buried beside her first husband in Maplewood Cemetery, North Baltimore, Ohio.
