Reading This Book

If, while reading the following pages of this book, the reader will keep these few facts in mind, a much clearer understanding of the contents will result. The format or style used in this book is known as the Modified Register System, which has been refined by the National Genealogical Society.

Three types of numbers are used: one to uniquely identify the individual, one to indicate the generation into which that person falls, and one to denote his or her birth-order within the nuclear family. The identification numbering system used in this book is called By Descendants, in Sequential Order. The starting person is 1, his first child is 2, his first child's first child is 3, and so on. After all the descendants of the first child are listed, then the descendants of the second child are listed, and so on until 12 generations. The ID numbers are in sequential order.

When an individual is introduced in his/her separate sketch, the name appears in boldface letters with the surnames in all capital letters. The name is preceded by the identification number. The last given name is followed immediately by a superscript number indicating the number of generations from the starting individual in this book. In parentheses following the name is a list of direct ancestors back to the starting individual. Only the given name is listed, preceded by his/her ID number, and followed by the generation number in superscript.

When the list of children is presented, the plus (+) sign indicates that more about this child will be presented in his/her separate sketch. The ID number is printed, followed by M/F indicating the sex. Next a small roman numeral in front of the name designates birth-order. Next the name is followed by the birth and death dates.

The term "Spouse" may have several different meanings: husband, wife, partner, mate, parent, or significant other. The couple involved may not be legally married. The term "stepchild" may have several different meanings: the child may be a stepchild, adopted child, foster child, or just raised in the home. If there are any other children of the spouse, they will be designated as stepchildren.

The index is arranged alphabetically by surname. Under each surname, the given names are alphabetically arranged. The name is followed by the ID number in parentheses, followed by the year of birth and death in square brackets. The number to the right indicates the page where this name appears. The wife appears under her maiden name and under her married names with her maiden name in parentheses.
Foreword

John Newman probably came to America from Ireland in the early part of the eighteenth century, first settling in Maryland or Virginia. This has not been proven. However, a short biography of his grandson, the Rev. Peyton Newman, written for a Baptist publication following his death, states that the family is of Irish origin. Additionally, another Newman family is documented as having come from Ireland in the late seventeenth century, settling first in southeastern Pennsylvania, and migrating from there to Maryland, Virginia and into the Carolinas. Both families, during the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries, were connected strongly to the Baptist church, particularly through association with the Rev. John Alderson, a noted Baptist cleric of the latter eighteenth century in Virginia and North Carolina. Therefore, it is probable that these two Newman families were related in some fashion, if not in America, then perhaps in Ireland. A Baptist church was well established in Dublin by the early eighteenth century and remains there to this day.

In compiling this genealogy I have relied on many sources: birth records, death records, cemetery records, marriage records, deeds, wills, family bibles, letters, newspaper articles, and the knowledge of persons living today. I do not begin to claim that all the information presented here is the result of my own original research. Many people have contributed, casual researchers and serious researchers alike. Wherever possible I have attempted to credit the source of information in the notes accompanying each individual entry. The degree of reliability varies from source to source, and for this reason the reader should not necessarily assume that every fact is correct. Inaccuracies will be found, I am sure, and I would be grateful if those detecting inaccuracies would correspond with me so that my records may be corrected as necessary.

Without wishing to slight anyone who has contributed to this publication, I would like to recognize several persons have been especially generous in sharing the results of their research, most particularly:

Descendants of John Newman

Listing 5366 descendants for 12 generations.

   NOTES for John:

   Deeds and Wills of Richmond County, Virginia, p. 450, where his children are given as John, Leroy, Thomas and James R.

   Considering that John Newman and Leroy Newman, Jr. are both found in Kanawha/Cabell County, Virginia (WV) 1801-1806, it is highly probable that they were brothers.

   His spouse has not been identified.

   ISSUE:

   + 2. m i. Rev. John Newman, born 1730/1740, died 26 July 1826.
   + 4882. m ii. James M. Newman, born about 1745.
   + 4884. m iii. Leroy Newman, born about 1748.
2. Rev. John Newman (1730/1740 - 26 July 1826)

Rev. John Newman was born 1730/1740 in MD. John died 26 July 1826 in Wayne County, West Virginia, at the age of 96.

NOTES for John:

CENSUS: 1790, Stokes County, North Carolina: 2 males b. bef. 1774; 5 males born 1774-1790; one male was John Newman, Sr.
CENSUS: 1800, Stokes County, North Carolina: b. 1755-1775; 1 male b. 1790-1800.
CENSUS: 1784-1787, Surry County, North Carolina: 1 male 21-60; 9 males under 21; 3 females.

TAX RECORDS: 1787, Henry County, Virginia tax records. Henry County, Virginia, 1787.

Cabell County, Virginia Tax List, 1815: Newman, John 10 23; Newman, John 10 33

Note: John Newman, Sr. is always found in the same tax district as his son, Peyton Newman up to 1794. John does not appear on tax lists for 1795. In 1796 there is a John shown along with Peyton but John owns no land. The same is true for 1797. In 1798 and 1799 John Sr. cannot be identified, but a John Jr. appears, owning no land. Again in 1800 and 1801 a John Newman without land is found in the same tax district as Peyton. In 1802 John, this time with 50 acres is found in the same tax district as Peyton. In 1803 John has 100 acres, again in the same tax district as Peyton. In 1804, still near Peyton, John has no land. In 1805 Peyton disappears from Stokes County tax lists but appears for the last time in 1807. Afterwards Peyton is found in Cabell County, Virginia. John, without land, is found in Stokes County, tax lists for 1805, 1806 and 1807. He is still listed, without land, in the last Stokes County tax lists of 1811.

It is impossible to distinguish between John Newman Sr. and John Newman Jr. in these tax records. Perhaps a map indicating boundaries of various taxing districts in which John Sr., John Jr. and Peyton lived would clarify the matter.

According to early Baptist Church records for Stokes County, North Carolina, in 1779 John Newman and George Dodson were pastors of the Scapstone Creek Baptist Church, Stokes County, North Carolina. The church at that time had 170 members. (Information recorded on map of Stokes County published by The Custom House.)

"Early Families of the North Carolina counties of Rockingham and Stokes, with Revolutionary Service," Vol. 1, p. 72. DAR: JOHN MABE (Maib, Maibe) - Born 1758 Albemarle County, Virginia, died 21 July 1843 Stokes County, North Carolina; married during Christmas of 1781, Luinda Hylton (Hilton), born 1761-2, died Stokes County after 1857. They were married on Beaver Island Creek, Now Rockingham County, North Carolina, by the Reverend John Newman...John and Luicy Mabe were members of Snow Creek Baptist Church in Stokes County...

30 Apr 1804, Stokes County, North Carolina; Baptist Preacher Newman visited Moravians at Salem, was sixty-nine years of age, lived some thirty miles from Salem, consulted with a doctor. (Age, etc. suggests that this could have been John Newman of Little Buffalo Creek area of Stokes County, North Carolina.)

On Jan 1794, Surry County, North Carolina, John Gibson sold 96 acres of land in Surry County, North Carolina adjacent to Newman & Morgan Bryan's Old Road. James B. Meredith and John Newman witnesses. (Stokes County Deed Book 2)

15 Nov 1791, John Newman purchased from John Gibson Sr., 104 acres of land located on South Fork of Buffalo Creek, called Little Buffalo. Morgan Bryan's old road, Moses Padget's line mentioned. James Meredith, Peyton Newman and John Newman witnesses. (Notice Item 53, "Bryan's Read")

According to the biography of Henry Newman (Hartsey's West Virginia, Vol. 7, Wirt Co.), John Newman was a native of Dublin Ireland. He fought in the Revolutionary War and settled in North Carolina. He had three sons and one daughter. [This has not been proved.]

Rev. John Newman may not have died in Stokes County, North Carolina. The 1835 list of "Invalid Pensioners of West Virginia" lists a John Newman, 3rd Maryland Regiment who was placed on the Rev. War pension rolls March 17, 1806, and died in Wayne County July 26 1826. This person cannot be Rev. John's son, John, who died some twenty years later. This suggests that the elderly Rev. John Newman came to Cabell/Wayne county with his sons about 1808 from Stokes County, North Carolina.

Some believe that Rev. John Newman may be a son of William Newman, a son of Walter Newman of Cecil County, Maryland. [cf Hunsaker Family Bulletin, August 1975, which says that (Rev.) John Newman was a son of William Newman.]

Dedimus to be directed to Peter House, Henry House, and John Conrad. Also of Mitford Stokes, of Salisbury, in said State, dedimus to Spence McAuley, Evan Alexander and JOHN NEWMAN. Also of Mr. Franklin, formerly a Commissioneer of Army Accounts, now an inhabitant of Stokes County, North Carolina. All in suite of John Johnson vs. John Miller.

The North Carolina Mercury, 2 October 1800. NOTICE. The Subscriber intending to remove out of the state as soon as his circumstances will permit, requests of all persons who are indebted to him, by note or book account, to come forward and make payment. Those that have been indebted to him twelve months preceding the date hereof, who fail to call and settle their accounts within one month from this date, may expect to be proceeded against as the law directs.

All persons who may have any legal demands against me, shall have the same satisfied on application.

(signed) JOHN NEWMAN.

He married Harriet PEYTON about 1760 in Henry County, Virginia.

NOTES for Peyton:

Peyton left Stokes County, NC in late 1805 or early 1806 and purchased land on Mill Creek in what is now Wayne County, West Virginia.

Cabell County Deed Book 7, 1826. Peyton Newman sells 200 acres on Big Sandy River to T. Dumas.

Founded Big Sandy Baptist Church on White’s Creek ca. 1806. Ref: Rly, Wm., THE BIG SANDY VALLEY, Central Methodist Publishing, Catlettsburg, Kentucky, 1887, p. 190. “The Newman Family”. (Sketch of Joseph Newman.) Peyton and Joseph Newman, the grandfather and great uncle of Joseph Newman, of Catlettsburg, came along with the Ellingtons from North Carolina. They settled near the Sandy River, and have multiplied until the family is very numerous. Many of them have become well-off. Joseph Newman, of Catlettsburg, is one of the prominent citizens. His father, Peter Newman, who died nearly thirty years ago, was a leading man of the valley. The Newmans are Democratic, and generally adhere to the Methodist Church. The old stock intermarried with the Ballengers, Hazletts and other noted families.

Ref: Boogher, William Fletcher, GLEANINGS OF VIRGINIA HISTORY, Washington, DC, 1908, pp. 237 ff. This detailed genealogical account of the Virginia Newmans begins with Robert Newman who arrived in Virginia, age 19, in 1618 aboard the ship “Furtherance”. He settled in Elizabeth City (recorded there in 1624). Robert Newman had two sons: William (was in York County, 1698) and John (died in Isle of Wight County, c. 1700). William had a son, John (recorded in York County, 1709). Robert’s second son, John, married Ruth Taberer (dau of Thomas Taberer who died in Isle of Wight County, 1682). John and Ruth had two children: Thomas and Isabella.

Following the lineage of Robert Newman, Boogher then records a John Newman, who came from England to Virginia in 1635, settled in Rappahannock County, and died in 1677. This John Newman, had three sons, Alexander, Samuel and John. Boogher’s genealogical schema is rather complex and difficult to chart, but it appears to show that the Walter Newman line is connected to this John Newman line.

NOTES for William:
a.k.a. William Riley "Ward" Newman He was born William Riley Ward, the son of Daniel and Sarah Amanda [Newman] Ward. In late 1800's, his and two of his brothers were fighting with Frank and Harvey Frazier over some dogs. According to the story that was told, he knifed both of the brothers, and thought Frank would die since he was cut so bad. The three brothers, William, John, and Ora B.
"Shug" thought they would be in serious trouble, so all three came to Ohio and changed their last name to Newman, which was their mother's maiden name. Ora also took the first name of George, which was the first name of one of his brothers, George Richard. Thus his name changed from Ora B. Ward to George Ora Newman. Parts of this story has probably been added, deleted and changed over the years, but this is how it was told to his youngest daughter, Juanita. The Ward and Frazier brothers were racing horses. A comment was made by one of the Frazier brothers that someone had killed his dog. Shug told Frazier's, “Yes, I shot the dog. It was foaming at the mouth and I thought it was mad”. That's when the fight broke out.

Surname is surmised on the basis of the fact that the 1850 census shows a boy, Robert Smith, living in her household. This is quite likely a younger brother. Mary may be a sister of Samuel Smith, Jr., also found in the 1850 Wayne County census, who was married to Allmerinda Newman, daughter of Greenville Newman and Elizabeth Hazlett.
Jo Ann Hensley Smith states that Mary is said to be the daughter of Sarah O. Cole by her first husband before she married Eldridge Smith Sr.

NOTES for Samuel:
Records of George L. Adams, who provides the following notes:
Samuel committed himself to an institution and (according to aunt Eulalia Riuth "Tootsie") when he decided he wanted out, Eva Lena would not sign the papers. He threatened to kill her when he did finally get out. He did finally get out and, according to Aunt Tootsie, went to live with a brother and after awhile he cooled off and went home. Samuel did suffer from mental stress and depression I believe. He was in the hospital from 28 Sep 1932 til 4 Nov 1934.

Newman and others were defendants and the said cause was so proceeded in that at the Sep term of the Court in the year 1867 a decree was pronounced in said cause by the said Court wherein among other things it was by the said Court adjudged, ordered and decreed that Francis Newman, Helen Newman and Caroline Newman by G. G. WILL: 23 May 1884, Will book 2, p. 106, Wayne County, West Virginia. Mentioned in the will are the following:

wife: Clarentine son: Shelby Sanders, late Shelby Newman son: William H. dau: Elizabeth Ferguson & grandson Alexander Smith son: James A.

I have not been able to prove that Allen is actually the son of William Newman. My reason for placing him in this family rests upon the fact that he is known to have been born in Lawrence County, Kentucky, and that William was the only Newman known to have been living in Lawrence County and having children in the period when Allen would have been born. I must be pointed out that if, indeed, William took his family to Missouri in 1830, Allen, who appears to have been left behind, would have been only about fifteen years old. Note also that Allen eldest children bear the names, William and Elizabeth, the same as the parents assigned here.

NOTES for Arrena:
CENSUS: 1850, Cabell County, Virginia, (recorded with family of Abraham Cyrus, Sr.; 1880, Wayne County, West Virginia (D005), age 48 (b. abt 1832).
BIRTH, DEATH: tombstone, which spells her name “Irena.”
The Abraham Cyrus family lived next to the family of Payton Newman. Arrena was probably visiting there, or working there, and got counted in the wrong household); 1860, wife of Andrew J. Cyrus.
Another Arrena is known from will of Smith Cyrus, Sept. 3, 1874, Wayne County, West Virginia.

She married Andrew Jackson CYRUS about 1850 in Cabell County, Virginia. He was born 16 February 1829 in Lawrence County, Kentucky. He was the son of Jesse CYRUS and Nancy CURNETTE. Andrew died 30 March 1919 in Louisa, Lawrence County, Kentucky, at the age of 90, and was buried in Pack-Loar Cem., Wayne County, West Virginia.

NOTES for Andrew:

CENSUS: 1880, Wayne County, West Virginia (D024).
CENSUS: 1900, Butler District, Wayne County, West Virginia. 11 children, 11 living.
BIRTH, DEATH: death certificate #11289, Lawrence County, Kentucky.
Cause of death: pneumonia.
Andrew Jackson Cyrus may have been illegitimate. His death certificate gives his mother's name as Nancy LOAR. Andrew's father, Jesse, is not known to have been married prior to his marriage to Sarah White. Nancy Loar was the daughter of Reuben and Elizabeth Curnette. An old family story passed down in the Joseph Morgan Cyrus family relates that she worked as a cook on an Ohio river boat, and unable to care for her infant son, she took him to his father, Jesse Cyrus, to be reared. Several years later she married Peter A. Loar. Peter and Nancy are buried in the Loar-Pack Cemetery in Wayne County, not far from the graves of Andrew Jackson and Arrena Cyrus.

It is clear that Andrew Jackson and Jesse maintained a close relationship throughout the years. Andrew Jackson was recorded as living in Jesse's household in the 1850 Lawrence County, Kentucky census. Later, in 1870 they owned property together on Buffalo Creek in Wayne County

[See deed citations below.]

Andrew and his wife, Arrena, were first cousins.

From census records recording the birth place of his children, it is apparent that Andrew Jackson Cyrus lived across the Big Sandy River in Kentucky for several years before returning to Wayne County, West Virginia. Son William was born in Kentucky about 1852 (census: 1860, Wayne County, WV). Daughter Martha was first child born in West Virginia (census: 1860, Wayne County, WV), b. abt 1858. The move back to West Virginia must have occurred about 1857-1858. It is not known when the family moved back to Lawrence County where A. J. died in 1919.

BIRTH: Wayne County West Virginia Birth Records (5), dau of St. Luke and C.F.

She married Franklin HOLDER 1894 in Potter Twp., Polk County, Arkansas. He was born 1 December 1868 in Wayne County, Kentucky. He was the son of James King HOLDER and Helen WARNER. Franklin died 10 June 1924 in San Jon, Quay County, New Mexico, at the age of 55, and was buried in San Jon, Quay County, New Mexico.

NOTES for Franklin:
BIRTH: 1870 census, Pulaski County, Kentucky; 1880 census, Marion Co, Iowa; 1900 census, Polk County, Arkansas; 1910 census, Adair County, Oklahoma.
Federal Land Records: Sec. No. 23, T:2S, R:31W, 24 Nov 1903. This records the homestead Franklin received in Polk County, Arkansas in 1903.
Note: the 1870 and 1880 censuses (for family of James King Holder), use the "er" spelling of the surname, and gives the subject's name as "Franklin." Later records use the "ar" spelling of the surname, and give the Christian name as "Frank." Subject's tombstone gives the name as "Frank Holder." However, when, in 1935, his second wife, Alice's will was probated, the name was spelled "Holder".

BIRTH DATE: There is a question about the accuracy of Franklin's birth date. His daughter, Birdie Ann (Bernyce) Mahey gave the date 1 Dec 1868. Using the subject's death date and age from his birth certificate supplied by his son James King Holder, Franklin's birth date would be 30 Nov 1866. The death certificate also states that Franklin was born in Frankfort, Kentucky, which is incorrect. He was born on a farm in Wayne County, Kentucky. Son, James King Holder, also could not supply the maiden name of his mother nor her birth place. Given these facts, the birth date given here by Franklin's daughter is probably more accurate. This corresponds well with his marriage record (1894) which gives his age as 24.

MARRIAGE: Mahey Family Record Book, pp. 74, 87, 106, in files of son, John A. Mahey.

CENSUS: 1910, Westville, Adair County, Oklahoma, household of Frank Holder.

Birdie Ann took the name, Bernyce, when she went to live with the Jennings M. Henry family in Russellville, Arkansas in 1917. From 1950 to 1963 Bernyce was a social worker with the Pennsylvania Department of Public Assistance in Clarion, Clarion County, Pennsylvania. Retiring in 1963, she made her home with her younger son, John A. Mahey, for the remainder of her life.
She married Manasseh Arnold MAHEY 15 June 1927 in Russellville, Pope County, Arkansas; they divorced. He was born 5 February 1897 in Clarion, Clarion County, Pennsylvania. Manasseh died 5 June 1967 in Vets Hospital, Lebanon, Pennsylvania, at the age of 70, and was buried in Clarion, Clarion County, Pennsylvania.

NOTES for Manasseh:

Manasseh Arnold Mahey, youngest child of William Henry Mahey and Myra Arnold, grew up in Clarion, Pennsylvania. He graduated from high school in Clarion, but did not attend college. As did his next younger brother, Francis, Manasseh served in World War I. He joined the Navy, took his basic training at Great Lakes Naval Station in Illinois, and then served as a seaman aboard the hospital ship, Solace for about a year.

Upon being released from active duty in 1918 Manasseh returned to Clarion, Pennsylvania, and worked with his father in the family shoe store. Manasseh had a fine baritone voice, and from the time he was a teenager he sang privately and in public. Being a stalwart member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, he found his way into evangelical singing, and over the next several years took leaves of absence from his shoe store work to lead the singing with various evangelical groups. Most notably, he lead singing with services conducted by Homer Rodeheaver, a disciple of Billy Sunday, in a number of "camp meetings" and other types of evangelical events. During one of these, in the town of Russellville, Arkansas, he met his future wife, Bernyce. She was a foster daughter of Jennings and Anna Henry, and at this time, 1925 or 1926, was teaching elementary school in Camden, Arkansas. They became acquainted, fell in love, and were married in Russellville in June, 1927.

Manasseh took his bride back to Clarion, Pennsylvania. While helping his father in the family shoe store, Manasseh was still involved with music in the evangelical movement. In the fall of 1927 the couple moved to Derby, Conn., to the parsonage of the Methodist church.

Manasseh was employed by the church as its musical director, while Bernyce kept house for the pastor, who was a bachelor.

During the period 1929-1931, worked for the J. C. Penney Company in Philadelphia. During this period Bernyce worked as a glove sales lady in the Wannamaker store in Philadelphia. They then returned to Clarion, however, where Manasseh worked for a time in the J. C. Penney store. In 1931 their first child was born, Everett Arnold Mahey, named after his paternal uncle, Francis Everett Mahey. At this time Manasseh seems also to have entered the insurance business with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, a profession he was later to follow with the New York Life Insurance Company during the mid-1940s. The second child of this family, John Andrew Mahey, was born in 1932.

Manasseh continued to work in his father's shoe store and to occasionally go off to conduct music in evangelical meetings until his father retired and sold the in 1935. After that it is not clear what occupation he followed until 1938 when he and his wife opened a candy and nut shop at the southeast corner of Main Street and Sixth Avenue in Clarion. This business prospered until the advent of World War II, in 1941, when the availability of chocolate and nuts (as well as the City fathers' complaints about nut shells littering Main Street) caused the business to cease.

In late 1941 or early 1942 Manasseh found work in Pittsburgh as a guard at the Veterans Hospital just outside the suburb of Aspinwall. John Andrew Mahey recalls that he was taken out of school in Clarion during October of his year in the fifth grade, when the family moved to Aspinwall. The family moved into a second-floor apartment on Eastern Avenue, owned by a family named Schraeder, an elderly couple without children. The apartment consisted of a living room, kitchen, bathroom and two bedrooms. The family lived there for about two years. Then they moved to a rented house on Lexington Avenue, just across from Aspinwall High School. [The high school has since been torn down and replaced by an apartment complex.] The family lived here for about three years, then moved to another rented house for about a year, then moved to North Hills Estates to a rented house owned by a family friend, where they stayed less than a year, then to a rented apartment on Venture Street off East Avenue, Pittsburgh. In 1950 the family moved from this house back to Clarion, Pennsylvania, where Manasseh had found work as a used car salesman. During these years in the Pittsburgh area Manasseh held several jobs: shoe salesman, used car salesman, hospital guard, and several other short-term jobs. At the same time his wife, Bernyce, was employed steadily as a saleswoman at Verne's Shoe Store, a major business on Fifth Avenue in downtown Pittsburgh.

Back in Clarion once more, Manasseh went from job to job: car sales, clothing sales and other things. Bernyce found employment with the Pennsylvania Department of Public Assistance where she continued to work, first in Clarion, later in Kittanning, Pennsylvania, until she retired in 1983 and made her home with her son, John, for the remainder of her life.

When Bernyce moved her family to Clarion, Pennsylvania, to Kittanning, Pennsylvania, about 1955, Manasseh moved with her, although he did not have work in Kittanning. He found several short-lived jobs, but nothing permanent. In 1967 Bernyce brought divorce proceedings, and the couple was legally divorced.

Manasseh remained in Kittanning for several months, then moved to Miami, Florida where he found work as a clerk in a retirement hotel. During this period, 1958-1963, he was at loose ends. He became engaged for a time to a well-to-do widow, but in the end did not marry her. About 1964 he returned to Clarion, Pennsylvania, living on a small Veteran's pension and Social Security. From time to time he visited his elder son, Arnold, in Harrisburg. In 1967 he moved to the vicinity of Lebanon, Pennsylvania, and while living there became ill with a chronic bronchial condition that had troubled him for many years. This developed into pneumonia (a condition with which he has suffered on several occasions during his life), and died in the Veterans' Hospital at Lebanon. Several days later he was buried in the Mahey family lot in the Clarion Cemetery. Family members in attendance included his two sons, Arnold and Andrew, his sole surviving brother, Frederick H. Mahey, his first cousins William Arnold Jones and Harry H. Arnold, Jr. His tombstone was furnished by the Veterans' Administration, and he was buried next to his mother, Myra Arnold.

Note: The Daily Courier Democrat, Russellville, Ark., published an engagement announcement for this couple (n.d.), reprinted later in June 1927 in one of the Clarion, Pennsylvania newspapers. This announcement is made today of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Bernyce Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Henry, to Mr. Manasseh Arnold Mahey, of Clarion, Pennsylvania, the marriage to be on Wednesday, June 16, at high noon, the Rev. J. B. Kenna of Wichita, Kansas, saying the ceremony at the home of the bride on Oak Street.

Miss Henry received her education in the Russellville High School, graduating with the class of 21. She attended the State Teachers College, and later taught two years in the schools here. After receiving her L. I. Degree from the State Teachers College with the class of 26 she taught in the schools at Camden, returning home Thursday May 26 (1927). Her pleasing manner and sweet personality has made her quite popular among her friends made in her profession and at home.

Mr. Mahey is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Mahey, of Clarion, Pennsylvania. He is an experienced Young People's Worker, a soloist, of ability and intelligent interpretation, a chorus director with years of training. Mr. Mahey is a student of Homer A. Rodeheaver's Practical Training School for Christian Works, and is a member of the Interdenominational Evangelistic Association of Winnico, Ind. This marriage comes as the culmination of a romance started several years ago when Mr. Mahey accompanied Dr. W. W. Orr of Charlotte, N.C. here putting on an evangelistic campaign.

For death notice of Manasseh Arnold Mahey, see Mahey Family Record Book, p. 123.

Joseph died 14 September 1865 in Cabell County, West Virginia.
NOTES for Joseph:
In the 1850 census of Cabell County, West Virginia, Joseph is living in household #373-385 listed as a farmer: Joseph 47, Margaret 38, Mary A. 22, Nancy 19, Jasper 17, Cyrus P. 14, Sarah M. 11, Malinda L. 8, Joseph A. 4, Sylvanus T. 3 and Joseph Cyrus 23.
The younger Joseph is probably Margaret's brother. See her notes for more information. According to Carrie Eldridge's analysis of this census, the family was living on Mud River; the household #371 was at the mouth of Fudge; and the household #374 was between Fudge and Blue Sulphur. This seems to me to not be too far from Mud River Baptist Church and Cyrus Creek.
Ref., "Sim's Index". Newman, Joseph 50 acres Everet's Cr 1826 Bk 3, p. 340. Is this the same Joseph Newman?
CENSUS: 1830, Cabell County, Virginia; 1840, Cabell County, Virginia; 1850, Cabell County, Virginia; 1860, Cabell County, Virginia.
MARRIAGE: Lambert Papers.
DEATH: Death Register, Cabell County, West Virginia. Parents listed as John and Polly. Death reported by Alexander Newman, brother.
Joseph attended the same church as brothers Alex and Harvey - Mud River Baptist. Joseph lived down the road from Harvey in that part of the county that remained in Cabell when Wayne County was formed.
In 1850 census of Cabell County, (W)VA, he is living in household #373-385 listed as a farmer: Joseph 47, Margaret 38, Mary A. 22, Nancy 19, Jasper 17, Cyrus P. 14, Sarah M. 11, Malinda L. 8, Joseph A. 4, Sylvanus T. 3, and Joseph Cyrus 23.
Joseph is probably Margaret's brother. See her notes for more information. According to Carrie Eldridge's analysis of this census, the family was living on Mud River; the household #371 was at mouth of Fudge; and the household #374 was between Fudge and Blue Sulphur. This seems to me to not be too far from Mud River Baptist Church and Cyrus Creek.
He married Margaret J. CYRUS about 1827 in Cabell County, Virginia. She was born 1811 in Virginia, Cabell County, Virginia. She was the daughter of James CYRUS and Sarah [——?——].
NOTES for Margaret:
See her husband's notes for complete census data. Listed living with Margaret in the 1850 census is a Joseph Cyrus age 23. He is 15 years younger than Margaret. There is a possibility that he is her illegitimate son, but I think a much better explanation is that he is her younger brother. This would account for one of the two unknown males age 5-10 in the 1830 census living with James Cyrus. Although the age is a couple of years off, this seems most reasonable, especially considering the inaccuracies of census takers.

4101. Mary Ann NEWMAN (4100. Joseph, 4056. John, 2 John, 1 John) was born 19 March 1828 in Cabell County, Virginia. Mary died 6 February 1901 in Cabell County, West Virginia, at the age of 72, and was buried in Mud River Baptist Church, Cabell County, West Virginia.

NOTES for Mary:

CENSUS: 1860, Cabell County, West Virginia, household of Joseph Cyrus.

Mary married (2) Joseph CYRUS 27 February 1861 in Cabell County, Virginia. He was born 1826 in Virginia. He was the son of James CYRUS and Sarah [——?——]. Joseph died about 1899 in Cabell County, West Virginia.
NOTES for Joseph:
There is no documented proof that Joseph is the son of James Cyrus. However, there is circumstantial evidence pointing in that direction.
#1 In the 1850 Census of Cabell County, (W)VA, Joseph Cyrus was working for Joseph Newman household 373/385. Joseph Newman lived at Cyrus Creek, perhaps not in 1850, but soon thereafter, based on Fred Lambert Paper's interview with J. W. Miller in 1926.
#2 In the 1860 Census of Cabell County, (W)VA, Joseph Newman is living beside Elijah Cyrus, believed brother of Joseph Cyrus. This was most certainly on Cyrus Creek, based on the J. W. Miller interview.
#3 Joseph Newman named one of his sons Cyrus Newman in 1858. And I believe that James Cyrus named his son Joseph Cyrus (after Joseph Newman) in 1836.
#4 The 1860 census lists Joseph Newman as born in North Carolina. This matches the story of their coming from Stokes/Surry County, North Carolina. I believe that although both Joseph Newman and James Cyrus were listed in the 1850 census as born in Virginia, that both were actually born or at least lived in Stokes/Surry County, North Carolina, prior to coming to Cabell County.
CENSUS: 1860, Cabell County, West Virginia, 0094-1191. The Annotated 1860 Cabell County Census states that Joseph had an earlier marriage to ?.

4117. f iv. Mary A. CYRUS, born January 1875 in Putnam County, West Virginia, died in childhood 14 May 1879 in Putnam County, West Virginia, at the age of 4.

In Putnam County, West Virginia, Death Book 1, page 48, there are two Mary Cyrus who died in 1879. The data in the right hand column is reversed. This is obviously true because the Mary Cyrus b. 1802 could not possibly be the daughter of Sylvester Cyrus who was born 1827. This Mary Cyrus' death is recorded as: "Mary A. Cyrus, d. 14 May 1879 d. Curry District, brain fever, 3 yr 11 mo., d.o. Sylvester and Nancy Cyrus, b. Curry District, reported by Nancy Cyrus, mother."

Listing the descendants of James M. Newman
(about 1745 - )

4882. James M.° Newman (1. John?) was born about 1745 in Virginia.
NOTES for James:
Not absolutely sure James is a son of John Newman. He was married in Stokes County, North Carolina 7 Oct 1767. This was prior to other Newmans of this family moving from Virginia to North Carolina. James may be the reason for their moving there.
This James might possibly be a brother of Rev. John Newman whose son Peyton Newman came to Cabell County about 1810 from Stokes County, North Carolina.
He married Tempy Jane Joyce 7 October 1767 in Stokes County, NC. She was born about 1750.
NOTES for Tempy:

4883. m i. James Newman, born about 1779 in Virginia. He married ____ SPOUSE about 1800 in Stokes County, NC. NOTES for James:
CENSUS: 1850, Wayne County, Virginia, where James Newman, Sr. is living in the the household of his daughter Agnes and her husband, Thomas Hutcheson.
[Thomas E. Winter]
There is some confusion about whether or not Agnes is the daughter of James Newman, Sr. A marriage record exists for Agnes which states that she is the daughter of Joseph, not James Newman. Perhaps we are dealing with two different Newman daughters here, both named Agnes.

CHAPTER 4

Listing the descendants of Leroy NEWMAN
(about 1748 - )

4884. Leroy* NEWMAN (l.John) was born about 1748.

NOTES for Leroy:
[Data from Lambert Notes, Marshall University.]

1770 - in Westmoreland County, Virginia, where the birth of his son, Leroy, Jr. is recorded.
1787 census: Leroy Newman, Sr., Richmond County, Virginia., 10 whites and 2 blacks in household.
1790-96: Living in Augusta County, Virginia. [Augusta County tax lists.]
No records found after 1796.

There is a possibility that Leroy Newman was a cousin or a brother of the Rev. John Newman, father of the elder Rev. Peyton Newman. The sons of both Leroy and Rev. John settled in Cabell County during the period 1800-1815. Leroy Jr. seems to have arrived first, then Rev. Peyton Newman. That two eastern Virginia Newman families should have moved into Cabell County is probably not a coincidence. Yet, the relationship of Leroy and Rev. John has not been established. What seems certain, however, is that neither is claimed by the main branches of Virginia Newmans.

He married _____ SPOUSE about 1768.
