INTRODUCTION

My name is Carol Ann (Rowland) Petersen, the compiler of the information enclosed herein. To ascertain how I fit into the Rowland family, see page 180, "Descendants of John Rowland, Son of William Rowland", Botetourt County, Virginia.

The enclosed data is based on documentation - not speculation - except where noted, and has been obtained from a variety of sources ranging from court house records, tombstone inscriptions, census records, genealogical publications and current family members. My documented sources in obtaining the enclosed information is listed at the back of the book. I thoroughly enjoyed the letter writing and the visits to various family members in securing some of the data enclosed within.

The Rowland family information concerning William Rowland's children has been divided into 2 books due to the overwhelming amount of data obtained. This book pertains to John Rowland and the second book (not yet compiled) will relate to the other children of William and Sarah (Potts) Rowland.

Doubtless, some mistakes have probably been made in a few instances, as perfection is hardly expected in work of this kind, but every effort was made to obtain accuracy. To those who have contributed data pertaining to individual family branches, I say, "Thank You". I couldn't have done it without you.

As younger members of our family read the enclosed material, it is my wish that they will feel a great deal of pride in their family heritage and will pick up where I have left off, keeping this important family book up to date as much as possible for those descendants yet to come.
Robert Rowland (middle name unknown), father of William Rowland, is at the present time of this writing (1999), the oldest progenitor "definitely known" on our Rowland family line. I have steadfastly attempted to trace Robert's life before his arrival in Augusta County, Virginia, but, due to lack of records kept in early frontier life, I have been unsuccessful in ascertaining family data prior to this time. Originally the land Robert purchased was in Augusta County, Virginia, until the boundary lines were changed placing him in Botetourt County, Virginia. Therefore, our family history begins in Botetourt County, Virginia.

Botetourt County (pronounced Bot'e tot), Virginia, began receiving their first substantial influx of settlers around 1730. These first white inhabitants (land buyers) in the area consisted mainly of German and Scotch-Irish immigrants. Many of them traversed in wagon trains (for protection) down the old *Wagon Road from Pennsylvania and Maryland in search of rich, fertile land to farm. Others followed a western trek from the east coast, across Virginia to the then boundary of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Times were very hard and traveling westward very dangerous, and upon securing their new land, cabins had to be built, animals killed for food, land cleared of timber, crops planted, and rifles had to be kept at hand for protection from the local Indians, who were irate due to the intrusion of the white man upon their land. Forts were built for the settlers protection, and construction of churches soon followed.

* Also, was called "The Indian Road", "Carolina Trail", or "Great Road".
Records show that Robert and Martha Rowland appeared in Augusta County, Virginia, (later Botetourt Co.), when he purchased 369 acres of land at the head of Looney's Mill Creek as early as July, 1746 (see map). Robert increased his land holdings in September, 1755, when he acquired 244 acres and, also, 113 acres on the waters of the James River. Thus, Robert and Martha Rowland became very important and wealthy landowners in their community.

Where Robert and his wife, Martha, came from prior to their arrival in Augusta County, Virginia, is at this time (1999) left to supposition, as I can find no verifiable records to support their early roots. Early records show they had 4 sons (place of births unknown at this time).

2-1 * William Rowland b. ? d. 1 Dec. 1776
married: Sarah Potts before 1760

2-2 James Rowland b. ? d. @ 1805 married: Margaret --- @ 1767

2-3 Thomas Rowland b. ? d. @ 1814 married: Mary Russell @ 1769

2-4 George Rowland b. ? d. ?
married: ------

Robert and Martha's home was built on their 369 acre plot of land located on Looney's Creek, and here they resided until their deaths. Along with an extensive farming operation, Robert had a gunpowder mill in which he made and sold powder on order. Robert and Martha were active and prosperous citizens, pillars of their community. Records show Robert was active in the Augusta County militia.

At this date (1999) no verification has been made on Martha's maiden name. I believe Martha passed away prior to Robert's death, as she was not mentioned in his Will (copy follows) In his Will probated February, 1782, Robert left his estate to his 3 living sons, James, Thomas, and George, and the descendants of his deceased son, William.

* Our direct Rowland line.

Once friends and kin often came to now forsaken places-
They tended bulbs and trimmed the shrubs with tears on loving faces;
And often did one come alone
in humble supplication,
To kneel again, in sun or rain,
in reverent meditation -
Or pause in solemn silence,
recalling days long past;
Memories, relived again - in spirit, joined at last.

But that was oh, so long ago;
they rest here with us now -
The years pass by; how time does fly, each day the same, somehow - Carved stones proclaim that we remain beneath once hallowed ground;
Time dissipates the names and dates
and broken stones abound, While other graves have had no sign above what once was sod -
They rest unknown, except to us, and our Almighty God.

Hark: Does someone pass this way?
a woodchuck, seeking food -
She finds some sprigs and tender twigs to offer her young brood.
Though no man walks among us now,
we wait not here alone;
The birds still fly and angels sigh
sweet songs of Heaven's home.
So patiently and silently,
we wait upon the Lord;
For He has promised to His own - eternity's reward.
All communities change across time, of course, and in the twentieth-century so many American towns and cities have changed so dramatically few can remember what they were once like. Not Fincastle. Circumstance, and lately the determination of many of its most avid residents, have preserved a great deal of its appearance at its zenith. The record of that history, and the face of an old American town that still shows its handsomest side from every angle, makes an impressive volume.

2-1 WILLIAM ROWLAND
(Son of Robert and Martha Rowland)

Born: before 1740  Died: 1 November 1776
(Botetourt Co., Virginia)

Married: Sarah Potts - before 1760
Born: 19 January 1745  Died: 28 January 1829

As previously stated, William's birthdate and place of birth is at this time unknown. He resided with his parents, assisting in working the family acreage until old deed records show the 113 acres of land originally purchased by his father (1755) was deeded over to him in June, 1763. William was married and had started his own family by then. In August, 1763, (2 months later), he increased his land holdings by acquiring an additional 248 acres at the waters of the James River. As he prospered and his family grew larger, in April, 1767, he and his wife, Sarah, purchased an additional 266 acres situated along Craig's Creek. This was an extensive amount of land to own back in the middle 1770's, when all the work and labor was done by hand and with small crude implements.

William and Sarah (Potts) Rowland were both strong leaders in the settlement of Botetourt County, and they raised their children to be strong. God called William home at a fairly young age with his children minors at the time. He passed away 1 November, 1776, and his Noncupative Will was probated March, 1777, (copy follows). This legal document divided his estate equally among all his children. His wife, Sarah, remarried approximately 2 years after his death.

As was the custom in those days, after money from the sale of his estate was used up, in 1782 his children left without any financial support were bound out to other relatives or friends, with the exception of their first born, Elizabeth, who by that time was about to be married. Many of the birthdates of William and Sarah Rowland's children are unknown, so the following list of their children may be out of birth order:

3-1 Elizabeth Rowland - not bound out
3-2 Robert Rowland - bound out to Thomas Rowland
3-3 Amy Rowland - bound out to James Rowland
3-4 * John Rowland - bound out to George Graham
3-5 George Rowland - bound out to George Graham
3-6 William Rowland, Jr. - bound out to John Armstrong
3-7 Sarah Rowland - bound out to Thomas Rowland
William's widow, Sarah, who remarried to Samuel Burks on 1 March 1778, in Botetourt County, Virginia, moved to Cumberland County, Kentucky, in the 1780's, as did some other families in the community. As records bear out, most, if not all, of William and Sarah's children, also, at some point moved to Kentucky to begin a new life. After the death of Samuel Burks in Kentucky, Sarah (Potts)Rowland Burks remarried again to Jeems Simpson in 1809 in Barren County, Kentucky.

* Note: From the Bible of Isham Burks, "Sarah Simpson, mother of John Rowland and Elizabeth Burks, departed from this life on 28 of January 1829 about 15 minutes after twelve o'clock, aged between 80 and 90 years".

From this point on, you will follow the life and lineage of William and Sarah's son, JOHN ROWLAND. So to better understand and follow your own direct lineage, I have sub-divided into chapters his children and their descendants.

NOTES on WILL of WILLIAM ROWLAND

Will & Probate: "The Nuncupative Will of William Rowland, decd, taken on the oaths of James Rowland, John Potts Sr. & John Potts Jr., on Monday the 4th of November, 1776, being the third day after his decease. The deponants being severally, examined, agree and say that three days before William Rowland departed this life, James Rowland and John Potts Sr. asked William if he would not make a Will and regulate his affairs. William answered it was his desire.

James Rowland asked him in what manner he would make it. William answered that he would give every child he had an equal part. James said it may be you have some objections viz to have some more than others, perhaps you intend to leave your land to your boys and an equal share of your moveable estate to which said William no answer, but turned his head from them. They say further that they the deponants twice put the same questions to said William during his last sickness and received from him the same answer and that to the best of their knowledge he was at the time in proper use of his reason. They further say that they have often in his lifetime and when he was in perfect health heard him say that it was fit that children alike near should fare alike, and that if ever he would make a Will it should be in that manner and not that one son should possess the whole of his land and further say not taken before me the day and year above written.

JOHN ROWLAND
(Son of William and Sarah (Potts) Rowland)

Born: 15 August 1766 - Botetourt County, Virginia
Died: 11 January 1843 - Boone County, Missouri
(Buried: Bethlehem Cemetery - no stone)

Married: NANCY BARNETT - 13 April 1796 - Washington Co., Kentucky

Born: 16 July 1777
Died: 25 February 1844 - Boone County, Missouri
(Buried: Bethlehem Cemetery - no stone)

John Rowland moved to Mercer County, Kentucky, from Botetourt County, Virginia, where he was born, along with other members of his family. Census records show he was there prior to 1790. Here he married Nancy Barnett in 1796. Nine of their ten children were born in Mercer County, Kentucky.

John settled close to his brother, Robert, as in the 1810 census, John is listed as an adjoining entry next to his brother residing on 164 acres on Doctors Fork of the Chaplin River, which he had purchased in 1795. His brother, Robert, passed away in 1812 in Mercer County, Kentucky. In 1818 John sold his land and moved his family further West.

Upon reaching Boone County, Missouri, in 1818, with all that the new land had to offer, John and his family decided they had reached their final destination. They settled in Township 50 near present day Harrisburg. The land was virtually uninhabited with wild animals to contend with. Snakes abounded in the thick forests of trees, so the land had to be cleared for their cabin and crops. The few white pioneers in the area all banded together helping each other for safety's sake. The book, "History of Boone County, Missouri," relates several short tales about the hearty pioneers mentioning John Rowland among them.

Before any churches were built, the early settlers held their services at John Rowland's place. When it came to the time that his cabin could no longer accommodate the local pioneers, he donated several acres of his land for a church to be built, along with a cemetery. This became the Bethlehem Church and cemetery. The old church is still standing, and the Bethlehem cemetery is still being used today, where many of the Rowland's are buried. John was, also, very instrumental in erecting a school house for the area children to learn how to read and write.
The John Rowland family contributed extensively to the building of their local community, and in doing so were prominent early day pioneers of Boone County, Missouri. John Rowland passed away 11 January 1843 and is buried on his land in the old Bethlehem Cemetery. His Will (copy follows) left his estate to his wife, Nancy, and his children. Nancy, who passed away 24 February 1844, is, also, buried there, although there is no stone remnant left today to designate their burial plots.

Following is a listing of their 10 children:

4-1  William Thomas Rowland
4-2  Barsheba Rowland
4-3  Sallie Rowland

Married: NANCY COPELAND - 29 June 1819
(Howard County, Missouri)

Born: 27 February 1803 - Kentucky
Died: 12 May 1877 - Daviess County, Missouri
(Buried: Black Cemetery)

William Thomas Rowland, son of John and Nancy Rowland, was born in Mercer County, Kentucky, and as a young man resided in Boone County, Missouri, where he took on much of the responsibility of helping his father clear and farm the family estate. He married Nancy Copeland in 1819 in Howard County, Missouri, and they immediately began their family. They purchased their own land (80 acres) in the district of Franklin, near the old town of Persia, in Boone County, Missouri. Here he carried on his very successful agricultural pursuits with the assistance of his slaves becoming a very wealthy man.

William was well educated (for a man in those days) and showed early in his life the makings of a leader. He was a staunch Democrat and gained prominence in Boone County by representing his home county in the state legislature in 1842-44, several times being a delegate at the national convention. William and Nancy were, also, strict members of the Presbyterian faith, their family being very active in local church activities.

In the middle 1840's William and Nancy moved their family to Daviess County, Missouri, purchasing considerable land in Jefferson Township and following in the agricultural business. Here, too, the William Rowland family became very prominent leaders in their local affairs. William and Nancy resided in Daviess County, Missouri, until their deaths, both passing away in 1877. They were true pioneers, wholly giving and devoting themselves in public and private toward developing a better life for those who follow. They were the parents of 12 children as follows: (2 not named)

The Colonial Brick House in 1905

Verner, Ella T., Silas A. Riggs in yard

It is located one and one-fourth miles northwest of Weatherby, Missouri, and was built in 1865 by Absolom Hicks Riggs. The bricks were molded and kiln dried on the farm. Limestone rock was burned in a deep trench to make the mortar.

Three of the original seven large elm trees still shade the front of the house today. These trees were set in the corners of an old rail fence by two small sons of the builder, Silas A. and Bennett Riggs, about 1859.

The house and farm have been occupied and operated continuously by Absolom H. Riggs and his descendants since 1859. Lillian Riggs Mathias, present owner and operator, is the daughter of Silas A. Riggs and granddaughter of Absolom H. Riggs.

SAMUEL N. ROWLAND
(Son of John and Nancy (Barnett) Rowland)

Born: 18 June 1811 - Mercer County, Kentucky
Died: 1851 - Boone County, Missouri

Married: Emaline M. Schooling - 25 October 1832
(Boone County, Missouri)

Born: 4 June 1816 - Kentucky
Died: 27 June 1863 - Boone County, Missouri

Samuel N. Rowland, son of John and Nancy Rowland, was born in Mercer County, Kentucky, but moved with his family when a young boy to Boone County, Missouri. He fell in love and married Emaline Schooling with the wedding having taken place at her parents farm. Reverend Fielding Wilhite, well known Baptist minister of the Boone County area, performed the ceremony. Samuel, a farmer, set up residence in Boone County planning to raise his family there. He passed away at a fairly young age leaving Emaline the responsibility of rearing their children, most of whom were very young at the time of their father's death.

Of interest...In 1878 William and his brother-in-law, George W. Rowland, had a severe confrontation at the church, which met at the Union Church in Bourbon Township. They both met at the church (with other members) to see if the dispute between them could be amicably ended. The meeting resulted in William Wade shooting George Rowland in the back. The lead ball was never recovered from George's back, which caused him pain for the rest of his life. William disappeared. (See newspaper article at back of this family section for all the details).

About 8 o'clock on Saturday evening last, at Union Church, in Bourbon township in this county, and about 7 miles SW of Sturgeon, one of those family and business feuds which too frequently generate irreconcilable misunderstandings and estrangements, culminated in a bloody affray and the dangerous wounding of one of the parties and the escape of the other.

Some of the facts being extraordinary and the scene of the trouble some 18 miles north of Columbia, and the reports very conflicting, we dispatched on Wednesday a special messenger to the neighborhood with instructions to obtain all the facts, fully, reliably and impartially, that the readers of the STATESMAN might know them as they really are and that no injustice should be done any of the parties. The facts are as follows:

George W. Rowland and Wm. J. Wade are old and very respectable citizens of the county, are brothers-in-law, and reside within a 1/2 mile of each other on adjoining farms. Both are also members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, which worships at Union meeting house. Wade married Rowland's sister, the wife of the latter having been a Miss Callaway. Wade is the administrator of the late Robert Schooling, who was the grandfather of Rowland, and in whose estate he had some interest. In addition to this, George W. Rowland, his brother, Marion M. (since deceased), and Wm. J. Wade, were partners in a beef contract. Since the death of Marion M. Rowland which occurred more than a year ago, serious disagreements arose between the surviving partners in the settlement of the estate, as also in regard to the estate of the late Robert Schooling, these disagreements finally resulting in alienation between the parties and their families. As to the points of difference between them, which assumed such form as to lead to bitter words on both sides and to non-fellowship of each other in the church of which they were members, it is not important here to speak, even if they were all known to our reporter. Suffice it to say that an attempt was made by the authorities of the church to adjust and reconcile them in order to restore its peace and fraternal Christian relations between the widely estranged and mutually hostile parties. For this purpose a meeting of the church was attempted to be held on Saturday, March 23, in the forenoon. Rowland attended, but Wade was absent, sending word that business prevented his coming; that he would attend in the afternoon, and requested an adjournment to that time. At the afternoon session Wade was present and Rowland absent.

Another meeting of the church was fixed for last Saturday afternoon, which both parties attended. Some 6 or 8 other persons, all gentlemen, were also there—most of them however at the time of the affray out of the house. George W. Rowland and Jasper Caldwell first entered the house and engaged in conversation. Rowland sitting or leaning on the back of a pew near an aisle with his feet on the floor. Caldwell stood near and to the left of him. The next person who entered the church was Wade, who passed down the and putting his hands in the outside pockets of his coat, "my pockets are not big enough to hold brick-bats and I have no arms". Wade passed in, saying nothing, and, when he reached a point in the church 15 or 20 feet from Rowland, and unobserved by Rowland, he drew a pistol and fired at him, the ball striking him in the middle of the back and near the spinal column. At the discharge of the pistol Rowland fell backwards over the pew into the aisle. Wade at once passed out of the church by the same aisle, pistol in hand. When near Rowland he made demonstrations, some of the witnesses state, to shoot Rowland again, but Rowland although prostrate on the floor knocked the weapon (a new revolver) from his hand, and it was afterwards picked up in the church. Rowland now has it in his possession. Others deny that Rowland knocked the pistol from Wade's hand and assert that he dropped it himself to the floor.

The firing in the church drew those outside to the scene, and Wade on reaching the door saw them and commenced firing with a second pistol which he had. Some assert that he fired at Jasper Caldwell and George Bullard; others that he shot in the air above them. In any event it is true he fired 2 or 3 shots besides the one at Rowland, and that the shots occasioned no little alarm and "scatteration" among those outside.

Wade passed out of the church, and, bidding those in hearing, "good day", mounted his horse and left, and has not since been seen or heard of. The same evening his horse, with the bridle reins tied up to the head stall, was found in Wm. Matthews pasture, 21 miles distant from the church. The impression has gone around that Wade has probably committed suicide, but this impression is no doubt an error. The best informed opinion is he is still in the neighborhood concealed and awaiting developments. It has been reported, but we learn the report is untrue, that Wade a short time since told his son (John) that he had lived long enough and intended to kill himself.

After the shooting of Rowland and the departure of Wade, the parties outside entered the church, vis: Daniel Hall, S. S. Graves (who came to the church with Wade), H. Melvin and J. S. Wade (son of Wm. J. Wade). Observing Graves, Rowland ordered him to leave, stating that he was the cause of the trouble, and asked for a pistol to shoot him. Graves did not leave. Rowland also ordered Melvin to leave and he did so.

Very soon after the difficulty Rowland was taken to Daniel Hall's, a fourth of a mile distant, and later in the evening to his own home, by Daniel Hall, Robert Berry, and J. S. Riley. Physicians were called, but after probing the wound have been unable to find the ball. Rowland's left leg was at first considerably paralyzed, but is recovering, and little doubt is now entertained that he will finally recover.

Wade has a wife and 7 children, 3 of them grown. Rowland has a wife and 5 children.

Prior to this sad affair at Union church, and yet connected with it, there are some interesting circumstances connected with the partnership account book of the Rowland Brothers and Wade which ought to accompany this narrative of the final catastrophe. Some of these facts are affirmed on one side and denied on the other, and therefore they figure with "ragged edges" in the controversies which preceded the bloody meeting.

George W. Rowland was the custodian of the account book, and it is alleged that Wade very much desired to get possession of it to show to the church meeting. Rowland refused to let him have it, and it is charged on the one side and denied on the other that Wade hired one Charles W. Harris, an ex-penitentiary convict, to steal the account book and deliver it to Wade, promising to pay him for it. It is also alleged that Harris "gave away" Wade, and informing Rowland of the contract to steal the book, they concocted a scheme by which to entrap Wade, and thus confirm Harris' statement. For this purpose one night some months ago (it is alleged) Larry Rhine, George Bullard and George Sims concealed themselves in a woodshed near the stile in front of Wade's house, that on that night Harris and Wade met there, that Harris went to Rowland's house to get the book and pretended to have stolen it, but really got it from Rowland, that on its delivery to Wade, it proved the wrong book, and that therefore Wade refused to pay. All of this is denied by Wade.

F. KIRBY
It is hard to believe that I shall no more hear the glad voice nor meet the merry laugh that burst so often from his glad heart. I shall often weep when I think of him; but there is a pleasure in thinking of the one that is gone which I would not part with for the world. I think of him now as an angel among angels. The beautiful eye has lost its luster, the hand is still and cold. His heart so lately pulsating with joy is not beating now. Every lock of his hair, every feature of his face, is a treasure that I shall prize the more as the months of sorrow come and go. Oh, how cold, how damp, how dark the grave looked, but the dead do not feel it. Sleep on, dear Marion, till the judgment morn. When they filled up the grave, every moldering sound from the ground is saying gone, gone, gone. I shall often think of the form that is moldering among the dead, and it will be a mournful comfort to go to the grave of him that was once the light and joy of the house, and the idol of my heart. Dear Savior, as thou hast taken him from me, give me the place too, in thy bosom, set thy seal in thy heart. Oh, when I went back home, it was strangely changed, it is silent, cheerless, gloomy. When did I ever enter the door when he was present, without the greeting of his lips and eyes, that I shall greet no more on earth. Often in my imagination I think I hear his voice; but it was only my own fond heart's yearning for the lost. He will not come again.

Sleep on in peace, thy race is run, thou flower so soon departed; sweet be the sleep of death to thee, so young, so guileless hearted.

No more to know a throb of pain, nor feel thy heart strings breaking. Those weary eyelids sealed in sleep, That knows nor dreams no waking.

Fond hearts still keep their loving watch O'er all thy lonely sleeping, and eyes that longed to see thy face For thee are often weeping.

The soul hath found a living stream It's restless fever slaking, Hath found a balm for all its woes, For all its pain and aching.

Then rest thee in thy quiet bed Till in the judgment morning, Thy dust shall rise to meet thy King, In robes of fair morning.

CHAPTER EIGHT

4-8 JOHN C. ROWLAND

HIS DESCENDANTS
John C. Rowland, son of John and Nancy Rowland, was born in Mercer County, Kentucky, moving to Boone County, Missouri, with his family when a very young child. His teenage years were spent working the family farm, and after his marriage to Ellen Phillips, who came from the renowned Phillips family of Boone County, they began life together on their farm outside of Centralia.

Leonard, or Lynn as he was called, came to Boone Co., Missouri, where his older brother was a resident, to further his education and train to be a lawyer at Missouri University. He met Elizabeth, and they married when she was only 16 years old. After the births of their two oldest children, they moved back to his home place in St. Landry Parish, Louisiana. Leonard joined the Civil War on the Confederate side, attained the rank of Captain, and was badly wounded near the end of the war. He died several weeks later from his wound, and was buried in the family cemetery on Black Lake Plantation. The plantation crops having been destroyed by the Union soldiers, and the slaves set free, the Singleton family were financially broke and had to sell the old plantation. Elizabeth was only 27 years old at the time of her husband's death, and left with 4 young children to raise by herself, she went home to Boone County, Missouri, to bring up her children. Although asked by several men to marry them, Elizabeth did not remarry. She is buried in the Grand View Cemetery, Boone Co., Mo., near many of her family members.

George Washington Rowland, son of John and Nancy Rowland, was born in Mercer County, Kentucky, and moved to Boone County, Missouri, when just a baby. His childhood was spent with his family helping to work the farm and doing odd jobs for his neighbors. After his marriage to Letticia, or "Letty" as she was known, they resided in Howard County for several years before moving to Cass County, Missouri. Around 1847 they bought a farm and constructed a log cabin on it in which to house their growing family. He cleared the land and planted crops. George was very instrumental in the growth of the little town of West Union, preaching in the newly organized Cumberland Presbyterian Church there. During the Civil War, with the border skirmishes all around his area, he moved his family across the border into Miami County, Kansas. When the war was over, they returned to find their log cabin burned to the ground. They rebuilt a two story frame home, and here they lived out their lives.

Reflections on of My Grandparents
Bolivar and Mary Rowland

By Ruth Louise Rowland Turnbaugh, 1997

Grandpa died from a massive heart attack when I was only five years old, but I remember he always had time to listen to me when I needed someone to talk to. He died at the age of 70.

Grandma was widowed at about age 58, and figured prominently in our family life. She had a nice soft shoulder to cry on and was a good listener. She often helped out with the little things that were important to me, like tap dancing lessons. She did a lot of babysitting, as my folks liked to travel (daddy had a railroad pass for free travel.) She died at the age of 90 and was active until her death. She came down to visit us on the train, by herself, at the age of 88. We lived in East Alton at the time, about 100 miles from her home in Hannibal, Missouri.
James Carl Rowland was born in Hannibal, Missouri on August 18, 1892. He worked for the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad, starting as a messenger in the telegraph office. He married Bessie Clem Fox in 1915 in Hannibal.

He was always interested in electrical devices and built the first radio in Hannibal. People came from miles around to see and hear the amazing crystal set. He worked as an electrician for most of his 45 year career with the railroad.

He had many hobbies, including woodworking. He was a skilled woodworker with all of the tools (lathe, saws, drill press, etc.) and made many beautiful items that are now family treasures.

J.C., as his friends knew him, was a Mason, and he and his wife Bessie were active in the Eastern Star. He retired in Clearwater, Florida, and died on January 15, 1962 in Hannibal.
Bessie Clem Fox was born on August 18, 1892 in Marcelene, Missouri, the boyhood home of Walt Disney. Marcelene is located in Chariton County, Missouri, along the Atchison, Topeka, and Santa Fe railroad line. Many such towns were created by the railroad to supply fresh water and fuel for the trains.

On June 23, 1915 Bessie married James Carl Rowland in Hannibal, Missouri. They raised a family of six children in Hannibal, before moving to Clearwater, Florida after J.C. retired from the CB&Q railroad. She was a Christian and very openly opposed to women smoking or wearing shorts. Her family never saw her in anything other than a dress. During a visit by her daughter Ruth's family in 1957 she continued the ruse, and only wore dresses during the visit. After the long, hot week, the Turnbaugh family headed back north, but realized after only a few miles that they had forgotten something at the house. When they returned, Bessie had already changed into her shorts, and was quite surprised to have finally been caught. Everyone, including Bessie, had a good laugh over it.

She was an excellent cook and seamstress, and made many dresses for her four daughters. In her later years she was an active volunteer worker, especially enjoying sewing projects. Her last eight years were spent in a Perry, Missouri nursing home, and her specialty was making monkeys out of men's work socks. She embroidered the faces onto the heel of the socks. They made and sold hundreds of the toys for charity fundraisers, and many of them survive today as family treasures. She also made little red riding hood dolls out of white socks. She made all of the dresses, slips, under pants and capes by hand. She always said she was a "frustrated dressmaker" and everyone saved scrap material for her projects.

After her husband died in 1962, she moved back to Missouri, where she died in 1970.
Ruth Louise Rowland Turnbaugh

Ruth Rowland was born on January 11, 1923 in Hannibal, Missouri, the boyhood home of Mark Twain. She was the middle child in a family of five children. Elizabeth, the oldest, was 1 ½ years older than Charles, the only boy. Helen, two years younger than Charles, died at the age of four. Dorothea ("Dot") followed Ruth and finally Mary arrived in 1933 when Ruth was 10 ½. "There was a stigma in being the middle child," she says. "Never the oldest and not long the youngest." She was pretty independent as a child and kind of headstrong. Her closest ally was her brother Charles, and anytime a fight arose it was always Ruth and Charles against Liz and Dot.

When Ruth was thirteen they completed the Mark Twain Memorial bridge over the Mississippi River, and she was there when President Franklin D. Roosevelt cut the ribbon to open the bridge. "Liz and her husband lived up the hill, about a block away, and we watched from the porch."

Her favorite activity in school was the band, and she started as a drum major in the Junior High band and went on to become the drum major in the Hannibal High School band. She also played clarinet and drums in the band that won 1st place in the national competition during her senior year.

After High School Graduation in 1940, Ruth moved to Burlington, Iowa for a year and worked in the defense plant at the beginning of World War II. She was eighteen years old and "not as grown up as I thought I was," she recalls. From there she moved to St. Louis, where she lived for several years, and met her future husband, Howard Tumbaugh.

Ruth and Howard were married on November 27, 1946 in St. Louis, and moved to East Alton, Illinois and then Rosewood Heights, where they raised their children; Penelope, David and Gregory. She worked as a bookkeeper at the Alton Box Board Company.
In 1962 the family moved to Deerfield, Illinois where she worked for Volkswagen of America. After the children left home, they moved to the southwest side of Chicago, and worked as head bookkeeper for the Economy Folding box for 17 years; retiring in 1988. She moved back to her hometown of Hannibal, Missouri, just in time to help organize the 50th class reunion. It was a great opportunity to get reacquainted with her High School friends.

She has had a happy and useful retirement life, and is very active with volunteer work, including many hours with the Hannibal Regional Hospital Auxiliary. She served as co-chairperson of the hospital gift shop for six years, and continues to work in the gift shop. She is also a very active member of the First Presbyterian Church of Hannibal.

During her absence, Hannibal became quite a tourist attraction. She worked for several summers in the Mark Twain home and museum, providing information and assistance to the tourists.

She became ill in February, 1998 with intestinal problems and died on September 21, 1998 at Willow Care Nursing Home, Hannibal, Missouri. Burial was at Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Hannibal on September 25, 1998.

Family of Barnett Stephen Rowland

Standing - Minnie Rowland, Emmet DeWitt Rowland, Lila Mae Rowland & Letticia Armita Rowland

Seated - Barnett Stephen Rowland, James Banyon Rowland, Emma (Rowland) McAninch & Fred McAninch
I was born in the old McANINCH farm house on what is now called "Y" highway South of Belton and West of Peculiar, Cass County, Missouri. I am told it was a very cold day, and I had respiratory problems after birth. I have also been told that out on the farm and in the winter time, there were very few medical facilities available. I was in need of what is now known as an incubator. Farmers had a way of improvising; and, as a result of farmers' ingenuity, I was apparently put in a wide-mouth jar (size is unknown since I was a short, fat baby) and the jar was wraped in cloth. It was then placed next to the wood-burning stove in the living room. On February 15, 1939, I was enrolled in the Cradle Roll Department of the Peculiar Methodist Church. The Cradle Roll certificate was signed by three people. One man is very important to me. The superintendent of the Sunday School was Joel M. Knight who is my uncle.

At the time of my birth, Franklin D. Roosevelt was President of the United States - and World War II was starting in Europe. In 1939, Hitler's troops were in Poland and were already using concentration camps for Jews, Gypsies, criminals, Jehovah Witnesses, political prisoners, non-productive people, retarded, etc. This war produced heroes such as Dwight D. Eisenhower, Douglas MacArthur, Joe Foss, medal of honor, and Audy Murphy, who was the most decorated man in World War II. The pin-uns for the soldiers at that time were Rita Hayworth, Betty Grable, Marlene Dietrick; and the newsmen of the day were Edward P. Murrow and Walter Cronkite.

During these years, I lived on a farm; and from what I have been told, was taken everywhere with my older brother, Milton Dean. A story told to me about my childhood and my older brother was one concerning a wheat field. The wheat was higher than my head and my big brother decided we would go out to meet my father. Because it was in the middle of summer and very hot - and also because there is very little air below the level of the wheat, I was almost suffocated. Big brother's intentions were honorable though. He wanted us to ride back on the wagon.

Between 1939 and 1940, we lived at the McAninch farm in Peculiar. We moved to a second farm on YY highway approximately four miles West of Peculiar. I started school in Peculiar and went there two years. My favorite friend during those two years was a girl by the name of Doris Ann Wolf. Her father was a bus driver, and once or twice each week Doris was allowed to ride the school bus with me. The front seat on the bus was reserved for us, and we, at that tender age, decided we would get married, be farmers, and raise two children - a boy for me and a girl for her. Although we did not move from that house, I did change schools and that was the end of that two year romance with Doris Ann.

Living on that same farm, I remember slopping the hogs, milking the cows, feeding the chickens, carrying water to the house and taking a bath when it was my turn on Saturday night in the galvanized bath tub. The water was some times dirty when I got to it. On that same farm, I can remember the first night we had electricity in the house. The naked bulbs hung from the ceiling and were almost blinding compared to the kerosene lamp that we had used the night before. We also had an outside bathroom, and it was never a place to go to for social events. At approximately the age of six, I started smoking corn silks rolled in the Montgomery Ward's catalog. It did burn the throat - but it sure made me feel like a man.

Radio had many interesting stories at that time. The sound effects were terrific and young children felt like they were a part of the story. Sunday afternoon was always mystery time.

On the farm we had horses to ride. My grand-father lived with us for many years and I am told that I used to sit on his lap and listen to his pocket watch. He carried his pocket watch in the top part of his bib overalls, and I apparently asked for the watch when he died. When my grand-father passed away, I was given the watch by the rest of the family.
We lived next to a family - Leonard Johnson and Maxine Johnson - were the head of the family - and they were very good neighbors. Mother was a house-wife and she also baked and sold cakes. Daddy farmed and drove a milk truck for the Country Club Dairy -- and he was also a carpenter. We had family dogs named Tippy and Terry when we lived on the farm.

One day Mother had her favorite pig by the tail and was carrying it back to the barn yard. This pig continually got out of the barn and would come up to the house to get additional food. He was a small pig and apparently had a weak tail. On the way back to the barn, Mother found the only thing in her hand was the pig's tail - and the pig was on its way back to the house to try and find more food.

Milton Dean always had a horse. The horse he most favored was named Flash. Of the four kids in the family, he enjoyed to farm most. While living on the farm, my younger brother James (Jim) had a tonsillectomy and I thought sure he was going to die.

Life was quiet and slow-moving on the farm. We would play sports such as baseball or football and go swimming in the nude out in the creek. Life was easy and there was no war at that time. In 1950, the Korean War started and President Truman referred to it as police action.

Around 1952, I was approximately 13 years of age - and we moved to Belton. I thought that was about the best thing that could happen because we would not have chores to do - and we could sleep in in the mornings - like all of the city dudes did. During the first summer in the city, I played with the other kids on the block, went swimming at Cemetery Creek, and acted like a lazy farmer. In 1954, we took a vacation and went to California to visit my mother's brother and his family. It was the first trip we ever took - a trip of any length - and the entire family was very excited for many weeks before the trip. After we returned home, we were very tired.

On December 14, 1952, my grandfather, Charles Benjamin Bridgforth, passed away. He was, at that time, my favorite relative - and it was the first time I could ever realize the impact of a death.

During the spring of 1954, I joined the Kennimer Chapter of DeMolay and I also joined the first Baptist Church of Belton and was baptized by Prestre Monty Peterson. In 1955 I was engaged to a young lady by the name of Joyce Atkins; however, we never married. We were engaged for approximately one and one-half years.

On March 5, 1956, I joined the National Guard and was a member of the National Guard for two years, two months, and 25 days. I was a member of the 110th infantry 35th division located in Kansas City, Missouri. From the National Guard, I joined the U. S. Air Force. On May 21, 1957, I graduated from Belton High School, Belton, Missouri. During the week before graduation, the tornado of South Kansas City came through the city and destroyed several hundred homes. As a member of the National Guard, I was mobilized and spent the last week of school walking my post a mile a minute and carrying my gun with nothing in it. They did let me go home to graduate on Friday evening. A friend of mine, Brian Frank, was also in my graduating class and a member of the National Guard unit. He and I both got to go home.

The year after graduation, Nikita S. Khrushchev became President of the Soviet Union. He was, in my opinion, a very brutal man; however, he did warm up to the American ways before he left office.

On May 1, 1958, I joined the U. S. Air Force. I was taken by Braniff Airlines to Lackland Air Force Base at San Antonio, Texas. I spent four weeks in basic training and then spent the next eight weeks in Tech School at Keesler Air Force Base at Biloxi, Mississippi. I was a radio operator and was transferred after Tech School to the 90th AC&M Squadron, Winslow, Arizona.

On July 10, 1959, I married Carol Sue Miller. She was the daughter of Charles Cecil Miller and Edna Fern Gaugh. The marriage only lasted one and one-half years, and ended in divorce. There were no children.

I was discharged from the U. S. Air Force on April 30, 1962. I was discharged at Luke Air Force Base in Arizona.

After discharge from the Air Force, I went back to Winslow, Arizona and spent a few days with Mom and Pop Laux. They were not relatives; however, during the three years, eight and one-half months that I spent in Winslow in the Air Force, I spent many enjoyable days with them. I considered their home my home away from home, and I feel as close to them as I do any of my relatives. After leaving Winslow, I took the train back to Missouri. I did not have a job, and after a short time, I did get a part-time job at Richard Gobower Air Force Base as a civilian worker in the basic exchange stock-room.

About September 1st, 1962, I began work as a credit clerk at Burstein-Appleby Electronics at 1012 McGee, Kansas City, Missouri. I worked for this company approximately 4 years. I received minimal pay; however, I did get a lot of worthwhile experience in credit and collection.

While working with Burstein-Appleby Company, John F. Kennedy, President of the United States, was killed on November 22, 1963 - at one O'clock central standard time, in Dallas, Texas. All major broadcasting systems ceased normal broadcasting and was trying to give up-to-date information concerning this murder. On the way back to Washington, D. C. from Dallas, Lyndon Baines Johnson was sworn on the plane as President.
Around this time, I met Leola Marie Reiner. She was a friend of my sister -- and the daughter of Leo Rein and Mildred Juanita Barnes Rein. As time went by, we became more than friends -- and on May 28, 1967, Leola and I were married. We went to New Orleans on our honeymoon -- and when we returned to the Kansas City area, we lived at 4328 Forest in Kansas City. The day before we were married, I had quit my job at Burstein-Appleby Company to begin work one week later at St. Luke’s Hospital, Kansas City, Missouri. I was the Assistant Accounts Manager at St. Luke’s Hospital and worked there for approximately 9 months.

On March 4, 1968, I began work at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Kansas City, Missouri, as the Patients' Account Manager. Leola and I moved from 4328 Forest to 4326 Forest, and lived there approximately 2 years. At that time, Lee worked for Harris Unham Brokerage — and at a later date, Lee moved her employment to Tierney Envelope.

On October 25, 1970, our daughter, Michelle Leigh Bridgforth, was born. She weighed in at 10 lbs. 2 oz., and was born at 07:45 hours. She was a beautiful baby. While Lee was in labor, this was also the same date the time was changing from daylight savings to central standard time — and the clocks in the hospital were on an automatic time changing system. They would advance several hours within one minute — or the hands would go back several hours in less than a minute. During the labor pains, I was timing them, and at one time, when I looked at the clock, it was advancing very rapidly. Without thinking, I told the clock to slow down because the next labor pain was not supposed to be here for four minutes — and it was going too fast.

As stated above, this was our child; however, Lee did have two children by a previous marriage. In October, 1971, her son, Michael Edward Reiner, came to live with us. Although I was not his father,
I have always considered him my son and always will.

On June 2nd, 1971, my father, who had been suffering from cancer, died. The entire family was at the funeral as well as approximately 200 other people. It was a sad time for the family; however, Daddy went from approximately 212 pounds to approximately 100 pounds during those six months.

Time went on and the family grew. We moved from Kansas City to 7913 Crescent, in Raytown, Missouri, before Michelle was born and it has always been a very pleasant and reasonably quiet neighborhood.

The most memorable experience during 1974 was the resignation of Richard Milhouse Nixon. I never liked him as a President; never voted for him, and was happy to see that he was finally kicked out of office. I considered him a tyrant - and on many occasions referred to him as "King Richard Nixon". I sincerely believe this individual would have attempted to become a dictator in the United States if he were allowed to stay in office.

On November 2, 1974, my mother was killed in an automobile accident. She was with her best friend and sister-in-law at the time of the accident. She has been missed by many and because she was a passenger in the car of Lena Opal Musick Bridgforth, Aunt Opal had a very difficult time adjusting. It was an accident.

Son, Michael, quit school after his junior year and joined the Army on June 6, 1976. He took basic training in Kentucky - and then was transferred to Fort Riley, Kansas. During February, 1976, he was transferred from Fort Riley to Germany.

Many experiences during my life have not been included in this autobiographical sketch. One incident that stands out is Halloween pranks. Every year we would walk from our house, (when we lived out on the farm), to the home of Joe Brock, and turn over his little old shack out back that he dearly loved. This was approximately two and one-half miles from our house and one year he was sitting in the out-house waiting for us. That year about six of us went over to turn over the out-house -- and as it was going over he yelled out; and during the excitement, I accidently nut my foot in the wrong place and went down in that nasty stuff. It was still fun, and each year my cousin, Harold Eugene McAninch, would get blamed for doing the prank - and was always required by his parents to help Mr. Brock return the toilet to its original position.

Hobbies during my 39 years have included writing poetry, painting pictures, and some sports. Although I have been drunk several times, I do not like the taste of liquor and prefer not to drink more than one or two mixed drinks. A "hang-over" is terrible.

Another incident was the first argument Leola and I had. It was five years after we were married and it really got to my ego. After the argument I said to Lee, "this is our first argument, Hon, I thought we had a perfect marriage". She looked at me, and with a very stern voice, said, "for you maybe!" In addition to the argument, that even deflated by ego more - and when I reminded her of it four or five years later, we both had a good laugh.
