This is a preliminary genealogical compilation of the Swartz family of which I am a member. I felt it important that this information be distributed to avoid risk of loss. It will serve the function of crystallizing an extensive amount of Swartz data at a moment in time. A far more detailed genealogy with extensive biographical data is contemplated for eventual publication. Also, the full text of the Shenandoah County Court House records pertaining to the Swartz lineage has been transcribed, thanks to the efforts of Mr. Fred P. Painter, but is not included at this time.

An advantage of a preliminary work is that it can stimulate response and, subsequently, accumulation of additional data. Please let me know of any incorrect, new, or missing information. Besides the items recorded I would also like to have degrees and occupations. Photographs, particularly of early ancestors, biographies and vitae would also be greatly appreciated. Send information to my home address, R. R. 9, Box 10A, Muncie, Indiana 47302, or to Department of Anthropology, Ball State University, Muncie, Indiana 47306.

A modified version of the Lincoln designation system is employed in this genealogy. Males are indicated by capital letters, and females by lower case letters. All persons in the genealogy with known full names are indexed twice, by given name and surname. Surnames identical to given names, e.g. Frederick, are listed as a unit after given names, rather than being intermingled alphabetically. Numbers preceding surnames in the index specify unrelated families, or families, though probably related, e.g. Omdorf, whose genealogical tie is not known to the compiler. A question mark means that the preceding is questionable. If the question mark is enclosed in parentheses, the preceding item is questionable. The abbreviation wp stands for will proved. Other abbreviations are self-explanatory.

Caution: Multilith reproduction will rapidly fade if exposed to bright light. Shelving or housing of this manuscript where it would be exposed daily to sunlight is not recommended.

There are too many individuals who have assisted me to acknowledge separately. I wish to thank you all.

INTRODUCTION

The first "Swartz" was Burkhard, or Puerhard, who appears in a document dated 1149 as a citizen of Zürich, Switzerland. This document is in Latin and he is referred to as Burkhard Niger, but in 1153 his name appears as Puerhard Swara on a German document. In 1251 a Rudolph der Swartz is recorded. TOBLER-MEYER, WILHELM, Deutsche Familiennamen nach ihrer Entstehung und bedeutung... mit besonderer Rücksichtnahme auf Zürich und die Ostschweiz. 1894. Zürich.

"Swartz (Schwartz), Mennonite family found in North America. They descend from the Swiss Schwartz family. Felix Schwartz, of Regensdorf, canton of Zürich, was an anabaptist in 1527 and Adelheyt Schwartz in 1530. Mennonites by this name were found in the 17th century in the Emmental, Switzerland, and in the early 18th century in Alsace (q.v.)." WENGER, JOHN C., The Mennonite Encyclopedia, 1955, Mennonite Publishing House, Scottsdale, Pa., Vol. 4, p. 666.

"Meanwhile more and more Anabaptists were coming to Alsace from Switzerland, especially from Berne, particularly from 1671 to 1711. There must have been hundreds of them." Ibid., Vol. 1, p. 70.

"In America most Swartz families are descendants of Abraham Schwartz (Swartz), bishop of the Deep Run Mennonite (MC) congregation in Bucks County, Pa., ordained preacher in 1738 and bishop in 1756. Swartz arrived at Philadelphia on the Friendship on Oct. 16, 1727. In 1778 he and Bishop Andrew Ziegler of Skippack deposed Bishop Christian Funk for his favorable attitude toward the American Colonies who were in rebellion against England. Early in the 19th century his grandson Christian Swartz moved to Waterloo County, Ont., and became the head of a large family there. Other descendants of the Deep Run pioneer found their way to Virginia and Ohio and points farther west." Ibid., Vol. 4, p. 666.

Abraham Schwartz is inscribed on two gravestones at the Deep Run Mennonite Church Cemetery, Bucks County, Pa. Gravestone S-3-12 is gray and the larger. On this marker a year of birth of 1701 and a date of death of May 2, 1785 appear. The adjacent gravestone, S-3-13, is red and smaller. On it a date of death of September 26, 1782 appears. Marker designations are after the records of Walter Rush, Plumsteadville, Pa.
In Deed Book 21, pp. 426-30, Shenandoah County Court House records, Doylestown, Pa., Deep Run property purchased by Abraham Swartz, Sr., on November 20, 1739, is sold to Abraham Swartz, Jr., on November 5, 1783.

"Mr. Joseph Swartz of Saumsville, the grandson of John, says he has heard from his father the name of the father of John Swartz, but does not remember it. He thinks that it was Abraham." Written notes, probably recorded by William P. Swartz ca. 1896-1900. Joseph Swartz, Jr., died in 1907.

"Four brothers, named Peter, Philip, John, and _____ migrated from Alsace-Lorraine to Germantown, Pa. Peter was our direct ancestor. He was a clockmaker by profession and was known as 'Peter the Clockmaker.' He migrated to Shenandoah Valley with the 1732 Hite expedition and may have had a son, also named Peter. A clock made by him was kept in the family for many years. This is the most formalized and explicit account of a widely known legend told in the writer's branch of the family. It was relayed by Mrs. Rebecca Miller (Henkle) Funkhouser, wife of Isaiah Funkhouser, to grandnephew of Regina (Funkhouser) Swartz, to Herman F. Swartz, Sr., in 1932.

A Peter Black is recorded as a resident of Shenandoah County, Va., in the state enumeration for 1783, heads of Families of the First Census of the United States Taken in the Year 1790, Records of the State Enumerations: 1792 to 1793, Virginia (2nd ed.), 1952, Southern Book Co., Baltimore, p. 63, and on the 1785 enumeration list of Samuel Porter of residents in sections from the North Mountain of Massanutten, including Tan's Brook and the adjacent portion of the river, Ibid., p. 106.

A "Peter Swartz, watch and clock maker" is mentioned in Deed Book L, p. 210, Shenandoah County Court House records, Woodstock, Va. This individual is also mentioned in Deed Book L, 155, 210; 375-7, 413-5, 446-7, Deed Book M, pp. 24-8, 339, Deed Book E, pp. 374-8, 395-6, and in the marriage records. From these sources it can be learned that he married Hannah Fannywit on April 15, 1798, owned property in the northwest of Woodstock in late life, and died between June 6, 1799 and March 20, 1800, probably just prior to the latter date.

An old grandfather's "Swartz clock" is in the possession of Miss Elizabeth K. Miller, 144 So. Muhlenburg St., Woodstock, Va. (see Appendix E).

Bond for Abraham Swartz, dated April 23, 1773, is mentioned as a paper in the possession of Peter Swartz, Hill Book E, pp. 395-400, Shenandoah County Court House records, Woodstock, Va.
"From the most reliable accounts now available, it is found that the first Mennonite families who settled within the present limits of the State of Virginia, came principally from Pennsylvania in the year 1754. Most of these pioneer families came from Lancaster and Franklin counties in that state and located in what are now Shenandoah and Page counties. The family names of these settlers were that of Allebaugh, Blosser, Branneman, Fauber, Funk, Graybill, Kauffman, Stauffer, Schenk, Swartz, Rhodes, and Wenger." HEATWOLE, L. J., The Virginia Conference, pp. 193-224. In Mennonite Church History, by J. S. Hartzler and Daniel Kauffman, 1905, Mennonite Book and Tract Society, Scottsdale, Pa., p. 198.

"I...am now giving you result of my investigation in the Driver-Swartz-Geil relationship here in Rockingham County, Va. From the fact that the Funks, Swartzes as well as the Treibers (Drivers) originally came from Bucks Co., Pa. it proves that they were all close connections." HEATWOLE, L. J., letter dated Oct. 23, 1912, on file at Menno Simons Historical Library/Archives, Eastern Mennonite College, Harrisonburg, Va.

"At a later period, families of other names joined these two colonies of 1754, one of which became established along the North Fork, and the other on the South Fork of the Shenandoah river—the first being not far from what is now the town of Woodstock in Shenandoah county and the second near Luray in Page county." HEATWOLE, 1905, op. cit., p. 198.

"During the first fifty years that these Mennonite colonies resided in the state, it appears that no records were kept of titles to their lands, of their families, or of their church. Lord Fairfax, one of the largest landowners in the state, having about this time established his claim to the Northern Neck, the boundaries of which on the south crossed the Shenandoah Valley at or near the line which now divides the county of Shenandoah from Rockingham—our pioneer Mennonites suddenly found themselves occupying the unwelcome and uncertain position of squatters upon an English lord's estate, and at once had to face the issues of choosing between paying an annual rental for the use of the lands they occupied or abandoning them altogether," Ibid., p. 200. Herman F. Swartz, Sr. recalls a suit the family had with Lord Fairfax.

"...After the general exodus of members that took place from Shenandoah to Rockingham a number of families still remained behind, apparently preferring to take all risks than to abandon their homes. The sequel follows that being without ministers or permanent organization, the older ones all died, the younger ones forsok the faith of their fathers and united with other denominations, until at the present time, we have the sad spectacle of numbers of people living in the county who themselves know but little, if anything of the doctrine and usages of the church today." Ibid., p. 220.
"According to tradition, Lutheran activities began in the neighborhood of Mt. Olive about 1806, when Borden's school house was erected by local co-operation near Saumsville [John Swartz, Sr.'s home]. Here Rev. J. Nicholas Schmucker soon began to preach for the community. Later Hottle's school house, with dwelling attached for the teacher and his family, was built near Mt. Olive. Mr. Schmucker preached there also. This house was used jointly by the Lutherans and the Reformed. In 1824, on the site of Hottle's school house, was erected Friedens Church. It was located about a mile south of Mt. Olive, and was held jointly by the Reformed and the Lutherans. Mr. Schmucker continued to be the Lutheran pastor for the community until about 1850." WAILAND, JOHN W., A History of Shenandoah County, Virginia, 1927, Shenandoah Publishing House, Strasburg, Va., pp. 418-9.

Philip Swartz and Regina Funkhouser were married on May 17, 1816, by Nicholas Schmucker, "near Friedens Church (S.E. 1/4 miles), Shenandoah Co., Va." SWARTZ, WILLIAM P., A Continuous Family Genealogy, 1896, p. 31.

"My father and mother were members of the Lutheran church, which was also the church of their ancestors so far as I can learn, as it was the faith of about all the connections and relatives in the Valley bearing my father's family name." SWARTZ, JOEL, A Short History of a Long Life, 1904, p. 38.

The only record that John Swartz, Sr. was born in 1760 is a letter from George O. Swartz to Rev. P. Allen Swartz, dated December 16, 1940. He bought property near Saumsville in 1784 (see Appendix D). His will was proved on August 11, 1817, Shenandoah County Court House Records, Woodstock, Va., Will Book K, pp. 278-30.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Swartz, William P., A Continuous Family Genealogy (record started in 1896)
There are a number of Mennonite Swartzes in Rockingham County. They may have settled there from further north when the Fairfax line was established, maintaining their Mennonite identity. These Swartzes trace their descent from Samuel Swartz (1779-1867), who married Barbara Geil, "History of the Descendants of J. Conrad Geil and His Son Jacob Geil, 1914, So. English, Iowa.

-.---. Samuel Swartz, who was a weaver by trade and owned a farm on Keam's Bottoms, located south of Mt. Jackson, often walked to Rockingham to attend worship. It is distinctly remembered by relatives now living that he wore a very broad-brimmed hat, had short knickerbocker pants, and wore long stockings that were secured above the knee with long brown garter bands. HAYLAND, JOHN W., A History of Shenandoah County, Virginia, 1927, Shenandoah Publishing House, Strasburg, p. 424.

J. Eldred Swartz, Mt. Jackson, Va., is the son of Charles Franklin Swartz, and the grandson of Silas Swartz (phone conversation, August 1, 1966).

A Silas Swartz is mentioned in Wengert (ibid.) as the grandson of Samuel Swartz, and the son of Christian Swartz.

The quote comprising the two paragraphs below is from a letter to the writer by Fred P. Painter, Woodstock, Va., dated September 13, 1966.

"As I promised I spent the evening with Mrs. Lucy Bellinger, daughter of Isaac Swartz. Following is her family. Her grandfather was Samuel Swartz (not the Samuel Swartz mentioned above) who died at age 60, near Lantz Mills, west of Edinburg, leaving following children: Rebecca, who married Joe Hottel, Sarah Ann, never married, Sophia who married a Kibler, Isaac, John, Larry, Harrison who moved to Ohio, Annanias, David, Eliza who married a Richard, Maria, Josiah and Sophia were twins. He died in infancy, she claims some relationship with the family of plasterers at Calvary.

"I then was able to see Miss Bessie and her sister Ruth on last Saturday. Their father was Lemuel, born Oct. 11, 1836, d. 1935. His father was Philip Peter Swartz, b. Dec. 16, 1817, d. Mar. 5, 1892, owned 400 acres farm 3 miles south of Strasburg on the river. What else they know is taken from the Hottel history, which gives Philip Peter's father an George, who married Elisabeth Hottel Apr. 14, 1801."

HISTORY OF THE SWARTZ CLOCK

See page two for family recollections of "Peter the Clockmaker" and the Swartz family clock. On July 18, 1967 Luther Edward Swartz (AADPG) informed the writer that the Swartz clock he knew as a child in the Miller house was presently owned by Miss Elizabeth R. Miller, Woodstock, Va. There is a slot in the ceiling of the old Miller house to accommodate the top of the clock.

1867 - Jacob Miller (AAA-hus.) bought clock at auction of Philip Swartz (AA) estate. A $5.00 clock is mentioned in the estate of Philip Swartz in the Shenandoah County Court House Records, Mill Book 13, p. 95.

1906 - Jacob Miller dies (outlives wife) and his son, Levi Funkhouser Miller (AAAЭ), inherits the clock.

1931 - Levi F. Miller dies without heirs. Clock is purchased at auction at Orinda, Va., by Harvey Miller (a distant relative, but not a descendant of Jacob Miller—no Swartz tie). Clock is remodeled at Winchester, Va., immediately after sale. Work was done by Boyd Medley (deceased), an antique finisher. Apparently fitted with metal (replacing wood) workings and a new dial face (without moon phases). Clock removed to Washington, D. C. by Harvey Miller.

1932 - Mention of the clock to Herman F. Swartz, Sr. (AADF) by Mrs. Rebecca Miller (Henkle) Funkhouser, see page two.

1946 - Clock taken to Strasburg, Va.

1952 - Harvey Miller dies and clock is inherited by his daughter Miss Elizabeth H. Miller. Presently the clock is located in her residence at 144 S. Muhlenburg St., Woodstock, Va.

EARLY SWARTZ FAMILY BIBLES

1. GEORGE MILLER BIBLE

"The late Mr. Thomas Newell, of Shenandoah county, informed the author that he was then a young man in 1764. His father's residence was about one mile from Miller's house, and hearing the firing he instantly took his rifle, and ran to see what it meant. When he arrived at the spot, he found Miller, his wife, and two children, mutilated in their blood, and still bleeding. He was the first person who arrived; and in a few minutes Bowman and several others joined him. From the scene of the murder they went to the house, and on the sill of the door lay a large folio German Bible, on which a fresh killed cat was thrown. On taking up the Bible it was discovered that fire had been placed in it; but after burning through a few leaves, the weight of that part of the book which lay uppermost, together with the weight of the cat, had so compressed the leaves as to extinguish the fire." This account appears in HANDHEAVEL, SAMUEL, A History of the Valley of Virginia, 1833, p. 33, and is related on a note glued inside the front cover of the Bible by Joel Swarta (AAD).

After the quote he writes "This was about the year 1760. I knew the author of this history personally & am a near relative of the Miller family. Very truly Joel Swartz. Harrisburg 9/30, 1880." George Miller was Joel Swartz's grandfather-in-law.

The present owner of the Bible is John Miller (great-great grandson?) of George Miller, Clary, Va. It was published at Tübingen, 1739, by Berliets Johann Georg Gotta. The present writer obtained a family record leaf from the Bible, July 19, 1967. Jacob and Rebecca Ann Swartz (AAD) Miller family information are recorded on it.

2. REGINA FUNKHOUSE SWARTZ (AA-wife) BIBLE

Donald Reed Swartz (AADCD B), Juniper Ridge, Shelburne, Vt. 05481 possesses a Bible dated at Germantown, December 3, 1769, Saur. A bookplate, numbered 612, records it as owned by William Faley Swartz (AADC). The following is inscribed in the Bible:

My Grandmother Funkhouse
My mother's & my own
Bible

March 7, 1870 Joel Swartz
3. JOEL SWARTZ (AAD) BIBLE

Mrs. Philip Allen Swartz (AADCA—wife) gave the present writer this Bible July 27, 1968. It was published at Hartford, 1867, by Case, Lockwood & Co. Inscribed in it is "A gift to Willie [William Paley Swartz (AADC)] on his 21st birthday. Dec. 24, 1879."

The George Swartz (AB) Bible is in the possession of Claudia May Jackson (Acbse) (Swartz) of Saumsville, Va. The Joseph Swartz, Sr. (AD) Bible is in the possession of Josephine Swartz Fuelle (ADPBd), 10194 64th Ave. N., Largo, Fla. 33542.
APPENDIX D

EARLY SWARTZ PROPERTIES

Various Shenandoah County Court House Records show that Peter Swartz owned lots 40, 45, 47, 60, 89, 140 and 153 in Woodstock, Va. For lot locations see map on p. 132 of MAYLAND, JOHN N., History of Shenandoah County, Virginia, 1927, Shenandoah Publishing House, Strasburg. Only lot 89 faces on Main Street (west side), between Locust and Foundry streets. It may have been the site of Peter’s clock shop. Jacob Fry, a somewhat later Woodstock clockmaker, owned lot 106, across the street at the south end of the block.

On a deed dated January 10th, 1855, in possession of present property owner, Leslie Lohr (AD3A B), Joseph Swartz (AD) and wife Sarah, legatees of John Swartz (A), sell property to their son-in-law Isaac Hoekman, husband of Catherine Swartz (ADb). The contract was testified by William Smith, January 26th, 1855. According to William P. Swartz (AADC) John Swartz, Sr. purchased this property in 1784. It is located near Saumsville, Stonewall Magistrate District, Shenandoah County, Va.

In the will of John Swartz, Sr., Shenandoah County Court House Records, Will Book k, pp. 278-80 property purchased from Jacob Grove is deeded to Philip (AA), property purchased from John Alsep is deeded to George (AB), and property purchased from Ulrick Feller is deeded to John, Jr. (AG). Joseph (AD) and Christian (AH) (after his mother’s death) are given portions of the original plantation.

On a deed in the possession of Mrs. Eldred Halsey, present owner of Philip Swartz (AA) property at Cottontown (now known as Lebanon Church), Davie Magistrate District, Shenandoah County, Va., the original owner was Allison, then Holmes. No Jacob Grove is mentioned prior to Swartz ownership. Philip Swartz sold the property, 199/2 acres, to William C. Meadley on March 1, 1853. Philip Swartz had moved to McGaheysville, Va. just prior to the Civil War. Upon his return to Cottontown he lived with his daughter’s, Rebecca Ann Swartz (Miller) (AAa) family till his death.
