CHAPTER 1. INTRODUCTION AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This study started in 1984 as a simple search for some Bibbee ancestors in Jackson County, West Virginia and has gradually evolved into a long and complicated family history extending back as far as 16th century England. Along the way, we have met and corresponded with many wonderful relatives and other researchers, travelled back and forth across the country many times, and learned a lot about genealogical research in the process. Many persons have contributed to this study and some of them to an extent that they probably should be co-authors. My father, Milton Blake of Las Vegas, Nevada, got me started, accompanied me on several trips to Washington D.C. and Jackson Co., WV, and spent many long hours at the LDS Library in Salt Lake City, copying deeds, land transactions, etc.

Of equal help has been Mabel Bibbee of Ripley, West Virginia who welcomed my father and me into her home on our first visit in 1984, gave freely of her extensive library of Bibbee and related family histories, and, together with her brother, Ray, showed us where our Bibbee ancestors had lived and were laid to rest. Special thanks also to the late Gwendolyn Hughes Robinson and her husband, Robbie, who provided much valuable information on the family history of Susan Bibbee and her husband, John Adams Coe. Gwen and Robbie also took us to see the graves of John and Susanna Bibbee in the tiny Bibbee Cemetery in Meigs County, Ohio.

Thanks also to Bobbie Coe Fisher of Ripley, WV, Gary Bibbee of Washington, WV, Dona Bibbee Tysinger of Dunedin, FL, and to Ada Ruth Sayre of Dunbar, WV, who provided much information and hospitality. We are also indebted to Dewitt Williams of the Ripley Public Library whose encyclopedic knowledge of the families and published records of Jackson County saved us many hours of work.

Soon after our first trip to West Virginia, I learned of Don and Carol Connolly of Lincoln, NE, who had been searching for some Bebee ancestors and along the way had compiled a mountain of information on just about every Bibby, Beebe, and Bebee who ever lived. Don sent me many of his data and also told me of several Bibbee/Bibbey researchers that I was not aware of. He continues to be a never-ending source of information and deserves many thanks for his guidance and encouragement throughout this study.

Special thanks also to Gwyn Barker of Omaha, NE, who sent me copies of her many years of research on the Abraham Bibbey line as well as many data, pictures, and other documents, dealing with other Bibbee families. A more recent find was Camille Ammerman, a descendant of John and Elizabeth Spacht Bibbee and a resident of Winnipeg, Manitoba. Camille has provided many important and well-documented records, not only for her line but for many of John and Susanna's other children.

I would like also to acknowledge the many other Bibbee relatives and researchers who gave me or sent me information about their families. Without their input, this book would not have been possible. Finally, I would like to thank the many libraries and research centers that gave freely of their resources and helped us find some often critical documents. These include the LDS Library in Salt Lake City, the National Archives in Washington, D.C. and their regional office in San Bruno, CA, the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C., the D.A.R. Library in Washington, D.C., the State Archives at Columbus, OH and Annapolis, MD, the University of West Virginia at Morgantown, the Sutro Library in San Francisco, and last but not least, the Jackson County Library in Ripley, WV.

In addition to these traditional sources, this study has also utilized the Internet. Starting in 1995, I began searching for Bibbees and related families in various surname lists and in the few West Virginia discussion groups that existed. Since then there has been an incredible increase in the amount of information available and in the number of people who are searching for their ancestors. Probably the single most valuable source of data, at present, is the US GenWeb project. By logging on at <http://www.usgenweb.com> it is easy to select a particular state and then individual counties within that state. Jackson Co., WV's web site, maintained by Les Shockey, contains links to the Jackson County Libraries as well as to the counties from which Jackson County was formed. In addition, there is a Surname List that tells you about other investigators searching for the same ancestors.

This book has been organized into a number of chapters dealing with each of John and Susanna Bibbee's children and their known descendants. Documentation of names, dates, and places is provided by footnotes and personal citations for published and unpublished sources (census, cemetery, courthouse records, etc.); most of these are listed at the end of each chapter. A complete list of published references is given in Chapter 14. Dates for births, deaths, etc., are shown in several different ways depending on how they were derived. For example, "b. 1871" implies that the year of birth was given by a source other then a census (e. g. cemetery record), "b. (1871)" indicates that the year was inferred from census data, while "b. ca 1871" means that the person was born around 1871 based on an "educated guess." The number listed for each descendant (2, 3, 4, etc.) is that person's generation, John Bibbee, Sr. being generation 1.

I have made frequent use of abbreviations throughout. These should be self explanatory. Possible exceptions are "do" which is an abbreviation for "ditto", and the use of the term "op. cit." in the footnotes, which is short for the latin opere citato (in the work cited). It should also be made clear that throughout this document, I have, for simplicity, usually listed a person's place of birth, marriage, etc., as the "daughter" county or state rather than the "parent". As an example, someone born along Pond Creek in what is now Wood Co. WV in 1797, was actually born in Harrison Co., VA because Wood Co. was not formed from Harrison Co. until 1798 and WV was not created from VA until 1863. Anyone interested in the many changes that took place in the counties of VA and WV should consult a publication showing these changes with time.¹

Finally, I have not listed children from parents outside the Bibbee line of descent, unless they were legally adopted. That is, if a Bibbee descendant married a spouse with children, they are not listed, or if a spouse of a Bibbee descendant remarried and had children by another spouse, they are not listed.

In order to try and find the parents of our John Bibbee we have researched just about every family with a similar name that was in America prior to about 1740. One of the major stumbling blocks is the many ways that these families spelled their name. Thus far, at least twenty variations have been noted with Bibby, Bibbee, Bibbey, Biby, Bybee, and Bibbee being the most common. Don and Carol Connolly of Lincoln, NE and Ralph Bibby of Powys, England have researched the Bibby family in England and there is little doubt that most of them came from the north in Lancashire. According to several sources, the medieval English name Bibbe is a diminutive of the given name Isabel. A family named Bibby lived at Ribchester during the 14th century and were descended from a Richard Bibby, living in the late 13th century, who was the son of a woman named Bibbi.¹

It should also be mentioned that there was another family named Beebe or Beeby who emigrated to New England from Broughton, Northamptonshire, England in 1650.² Some of their descendants later moved to Ohio. In addition, there was another English family named Bibb who came to Virginia as early as 1629.³ Confusion also exists in that many of these early settlers could not read or write and left it to the census enumerator or, in the case of legal documents, the County Clerk to decide how their name was spelled. By the early 1800's, however, most of the early families had adopted a particular spelling and continue to use it down to the present day. As a consequence, it is a clue to where a particular family may have originated. Perhaps the most confusing family is Bebee which appears to be a compromise between Bibbee and Beebe. Don Connolly and Mary Gorham have been searching for the parents of a David Bebee, b. ca 1795, who married a Sarah Ann Trobridge in Highland Co., OH in 1820. Some of their descendants were in Scioto Co., OH and Mason Co., WV at the same time as our Bibbee ancestors. I have recently found a line of Bebees who are descendants of the Broughton Beebes and who pronounce their name BB;⁴ it looks like this could be the case for other Bebees as well.

A. William Bibby of Virginia's Eastern Shore

The earliest known immigrant was a William Bibby who arrived in Virginia on The Swan in 1620/21.⁵ This family has been extensively researched by John Bell, Wilford Lee, and others and the interested reader is referred to their publications⁶ which contain many important references and careful documentation of this family's long history in Virginia.

Church records from the parish of Stalmine in Lancashire show that a Wyllyam Bibie was christened on 17 November, 1599.⁷ An earlier marriage on 27 January, 1596, between a Wyllyam Bibie and Elzabethe Burler is also interesting.⁸ It seems quite probable that these were the parents of the William Bibby who emigrated to Virginia in about 1620. William was on the Eastern Shore of Virginia during the muster (census) of Feb.16, 1623/24, ⁹ and he later patented 400 acres of land on the south side of Kings Creek near the present town of Cheriton.

In about 1633, William married a Mary ____ who came from England in 1626. They had two children, Edmund born ca 1634, and Elizabeth, born in April, 1637. Both
William and Mary died during that year, probably due to an epidemic and the children were raised by foster parents. Edmund married Frances Hunt and died in 1660. Elizabeth married a George Freshwater in about 1658 and they had a son, George II, with many descendants living today.\textsuperscript{10}

Edmund Bibby I\textsuperscript{11}, in his will, left his plantation to his son, Edmund II. An earlier will by his father-in-law, Lt. Thomas Hunt, mentions an older sister, Elizabeth, born prior to 1656. Frances Hunt Bibby remarried a Nathaniel Wilkins in 1661 and they had four additional children.

Edmund Bibby II married an Esther in about 1680. They had six children, John (ca 1680), Edmund III (ca 1682), William (ca 1684), Frances (ca 1688), Esther II (ca 1690), and Nathaniel, born in 1696 after his father had died. Edmund II died in 1695 and left a lengthy will, naming his children and his many properties. Of the many children, John inherited the plantation where his parents had lived plus a share in a large land holding called Hog Island. According to Wilford Lee, he never married and died by 1720, leaving his estate to an Elizabeth Benthal and "her heirs at common law."

It is interesting to note that Edmund II was a wealthy landowner and also owned a number of slaves.\textsuperscript{12} It appears that some of these slaves took the name, Bibby, and one of them, Mary Bibby, was freed in 1746 and later moved to North Carolina.\textsuperscript{13} She had several children including a daughter, Frances, and sons, Edmond, William, Absolom, and Solomon, all of whom served in the Revolutionary War.

Edmond III married a Mary Clark and in 1711 they sold 50 acres in Northampton Co. that she had inherited from her father. A book about some Biby family members\textsuperscript{14} states that "Edmund Bibbe (Bibby)- born 1685 Goochland Co., VA, died 174_ Goochland Co., VA. Married Mary, Oct. 1, 1709. Children- Esther, born Nov. 16, 1710; Matthew, born. Jan. 19, 1712/13, Goochland County, VA. Died 174_, Rockbridge Co., Virginia. Left many descendants" Neither Wilford Lee nor I have been able to find any mention of these records in Goochland Co. In fact, some published Bible records from Sussex Co., Delaware, would appear to contradict them.\textsuperscript{15} Here, the same marriage date is given for Edmund and Mary as well as the birthdates of Esther and Matthew implying that these events took place in Sussex Co. which is north of Northampton Co., on the Delmarva Peninsula. Later, in this same Bible record, there is a notation that "William Borroughs, the son of John and Esther Borroughs was born the eight day of January, 1739 or 40. The above William Borroughs departed this life on the fourteenth day of April, 1797, and Esther Borroughs, the daughter of John and Esther Borroughs was born the eight day of January, 1739 or 40." These data are important because in 1759, John Burroughs and his eldest son, William Burroughs of Sussex Co., DE deeded 450 acres in Accomack Co., VA to the Harman family. The Burroughs claim to this land was through Esther Bebbe, deceased, the former wife of John Burroughs. This parcel of land was supposed to have been left to Edmund II 's son, William, implying that he must have died without any heirs in order for the land to have come to his sister.
The sixth and youngest child, Nathaniel, apparently moved to North Carolina where he raised a large family with many known descendants who spread out over the southern part of the country.\textsuperscript{16} It thus appears unlikely, but not impossible, that our John Bibbee was descended from this family. Matthew is a possible parent but this name never appears among John's many descendants (nor does Edmund or Esther).

B. John Biby of James City County, Virginia

A John Bebee was transported to Upper New Norfolk Co., Virginia in 1638.\textsuperscript{17} Presumably, this is the same John Biby who was mentioned in a patent to Capt. John Flood in James City Co. in 1650.\textsuperscript{18} A John Biby was christened in St. Peters Parish, New Kent Co., VA on Jan. 5, 1706.\textsuperscript{19} Nothing further known.

C. John Bibby of Rappahannock, Lancaster, and Essex Cos., Virginia

Another (?) John Bibby (or Bebey) was in old Rappahannock Co. as early as 1652\textsuperscript{20} and probably the same John Bebey was mentioned in land transactions in Lancaster Co. as early as 1653.\textsuperscript{21} The name Beby or Biby appears in the register of Christ Church Parish, Middlesex.\textsuperscript{22} He was later in Essex Co. which was formed from Rappahannock in 1692. All of these places are east of the present city of Richmond. According to Linda Kmiecik,\textsuperscript{23} the above John Bibbe had a daughter Elizabeth who married Richard Bush, and a son, William Bibbe. A recent communication from one of Elizabeth's descendants indicates that this William died prior to 1687 and probably without issue as he left his estate to his sister, Elizabeth.\textsuperscript{24}

D. Thomas Bybee family of Henrico, Goochland, Ablemarle, Amherst, and Fluvanna Counties, VA

Thomas Bybe of St. James Parish, Goochland Co., VA made his will on Nov. 11, 1729.\textsuperscript{25} According to Wilford Lee, this Thomas was born on Nov. 17, 1689 in York Co., VA, the son of an Ann Byby who was brought to Virginia by a Captain Montfort.\textsuperscript{26} There is a further reference to an Anne Biby, in 1700 in Henrico County, VA, who was transported together with a Margaret Macarty, Brayan Oncale and Elizabeth Sanders.\textsuperscript{27} In addition, there are three separate listings for this Thomas Bybee in the International Genealogical Index (IGI) of the Genealogical Society of Utah. These list his father as John Biby/Bybee/Byby and mother as either an Elizabeth or Ann Byby.

Thomas Bybe named two sons in his will, John and Thomas. John, known to later family historians as John "Sr.", was supposedly born between 1706 and 1710 in Goochland Co., VA.\textsuperscript{28} Goochland Co. was created in 1728 from Henrico Co. and was later subdivided into Albemarle, Amherst, and Fluvanna Counties. John was reportedly married to three different sisters, Sarah, Judith, and Jean (or Jane ?) Giles, however, some family members think that there was one wife named Sarah Judith Jane Giles. They had at least seven children including several sons, all of whom were veterans of the Revolutionary War.\textsuperscript{29} The oldest son, John Bybee, Jr., married Elizabeth McCann in 1763 and later moved to Barren Co., KY.\textsuperscript{30} Son Cornelius (Neilly) also served in the Revolutionary War and later moved to Monroe Co., MO. Thomas' son, Thomas Bybee, born prior to 1729, was living in Goochland Co. in 1750 and married to a Darkus . He apparently had a son, Thomas Bibee, born about 1734, who served in the Revolution and later moved to North Carolina and then to Cocke Co., TN. A very large family, who spell their name Bibee, apparently are descendants of Thomas. This connection is greatly strengthened by the common occurrence of the unusual given name, Pleasant, which is found in both of these lines. It seems further probable that the family described by John E. Biby (see footnote 12) are another offshoot of the Goochland Co. Bybees.

E. Other Early Biebys in Virginia

Joseph Beeby arrived in Virginia in 1636 on the Speedwell, and in 1637, a William Beeby, from London to Virginia on the Tristam and Jane. A Henery Bibbye to Accomack Co., VA in 1641, a John Bebey to Virginia in 1653, a James Bibby of Limscombe to America in 1654, a Thomas Bibby to Maryland in 1730, and an Elizabeth Bibe to Henrico Co., Virginia from Newgate Prison in 1722/3. Nothing further known about these people.

Perhaps the most intriguing item is a marriage record of a John Bibby and a John Mackarthy on Nov. 12 (no year given but register was 1702-1708). This was for St. Paul's Parish, Kent Co., MD. It looks like two males were married but more likely they were the parents of the married couple. During a brief visit to the Maryland State Archives, several years ago, I found where a James Bibby had patented a tract of land called James Beginning, consisting of 102 acres in Dorchester County in 1771. Another tract was surveyed for a John Bibby in 1824, consisting of 20 acres in Dorchester County. A search of probate records and an index to Certificates and Petitions found in the Land Office, turned up no Bibbys. Nevertheless, a more thorough search needs to be made of the extensive holdings located in the Annapolis, MD facility.

Finally, there was a Joseph Bibby who came from Lancaster, England to Charleston, WV in 1832. Although this family arrived long after our Bibbee ancestors, they left many descendants and since they lived in the same area, could easily be confused with our family.

This notation probably refers to the fact that there was a calendar change in 1752 and that prior to that, England and her colonies were using the Julian calendar where March 25 was the first day of the New Year. For example, February 16, 1623/24 means it was Feb. 16, 1623, if Mar. 25 was the beginning of the New Year, but 1624, if Jan. 1 was the first day of the year.

Numbering the many different Edmunds and Esthers, in order to avoid confusion, has been used by other Bibby researchers.

Despite more than ten years of searching, we know very little about our John Bibbee and virtually nothing about his wife, Susanna. They are buried next to their youngest son, Elijah, and his family in the tiny Bibbee Cemetery, located in a remote and heavily forested area in Letart Twp., Meigs County, OH. Their ages and dates of death are inscribed on their headstones and their calculated birthdates agree with the information given in an old family Bible. According to these two sources, John Bibbee was born June 4, 1736 and his wife, Susanna, on October 26, 1744.

From later census data and other records describing John and Susanna's children and grandchildren we are fairly certain that this family was in Maryland in 1771 when daughter Susanna was born, probably in nearby Delaware when son John, Jr. was born in 1772, and in Maryland in 1774 when daughter Rachel was born. Son Isaac, born 1776, is said to have come to Wood County by way of Monongahela (1777) and Harrison (1784) Counties. This would agree with the fact that son Joseph was born in Virginia in 1783 and that John, Sr. was paying taxes in Harrison Co., VA (now West Virginia) from 1787-1799. In addition to this tax record, we also have a copy of a deed for 400 acres of land on the east side of the West Fork River that was surveyed for John Bibby on Sep. 8, 1792. According to the deed, this land, known as the "Crooked Bottom" was part of a Preemption Warrant of 1000 acres, No. 2274, dated 16 October, 1782. John Bibby is given as the assignee of George Arnold who was the assignee of Daniel Fink. I interpret this to mean that John bought it from Arnold who had bought it from Fink.

An unpublished history of the Harpold family (copied by Mabel Bibbee in March, 1989), states that Susan Bibbee's ancestors (she was a daughter of Elijah Bibbee who married William Harpold) "came from the Shenandoah Valley and later located at Hartford, Mason Co., WV." We know that the related Charles Parsons family came from the Eastern Shore of Maryland to the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia (Augusta Co.) and then to Hampshire Co., Randolph Co., and eventually to Jackson Co., WV, at about the same time, so it looks like our Bibbees may have travelled a similar migration route.

John was paying taxes in Mason County from 1807-1814, probably in the part that later became Jackson County. By 1816, they had moved to Gallia Co., OH, probably the part that became Meigs Co. in 1819, when they sold the 400 acres on the West Fork. This deed shows that neither John nor Susanna could write, making their "mark" instead. John died on June 21, 1817. Susanna was apparently living with her son Elijah during the 1820 census of Meigs Co., OH and died on July 16, 1828.

Like most families who immigrated to what was then western Virginia, our early Bibbee ancestors were farmers. They took up land where it was available, cut down trees, and planted crops. When the family grew too large for the land to support them, some of the children were forced to move farther west. There were exceptions of course; some were merchants, ministers, and other professions and I have tried to cite these in the text. It is also clear that our Bibbees were devout Christians; most of them were either Methodists or Baptists and this can be seen in the frequent naming of a son after John Wesley, the founder of Methodism.
It is also obvious that a large number of our Bibbee family members served in the military, starting in the Revolutionary War and continuing down to the present. During the Civil War, most of them served on the Union side, largely in Company K, Eleventh West Virginia Infantry, which was formed on August 31, 1862, at Ravenswood, WV. Alfred D. Gilpin (see Chapter 11, p. 386) was the Captain of this Company until he was forced to resign after being wounded in action. 9 Those who served on the Confederate side are listed as being in one of the VA Cavalry or Infantry units. There were also a number of our Bibbees and related families who served in the Home Guards during the Civil War. These militia units saw much action against Confederate guerillas as well as fighting with several Confederate cavalry units during 1863. 10

Copies of pages from this Bible can be found in the D.A.R. Library in Washington, D.C. The original was the property of Thelma Crump Tiner and her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Dyke of Portales, NM (1957). The pages contain the birth and death dates for John and Susanna Bibbee and the birthdates and some other information for each of their children.

CHAPTER 4. WILLIAM AND DEBORAH HUGHES BIBBEE

According to the Crump Bible, John and Susanna's oldest child, William, was born on Nov. 24, 1766. He married Deborah "Debbie" Hughes on Jan. 7, 1795. She was born ca 1775, probably at Hacker's Creek, WV, the daughter of Thomas Hughes, Jr. and Mary Foster. Much confusion exists about this family because there were two William Bibbees living in this area at the same time. During the 1810 census of Mason Co., WV, one was >45 years with wife >45 years and son 16-26. The other was 26-45, with wife 26-45, one son <10, three daughters <10 and three 10-16. We have been able to trace this younger William and his family through succeeding censuses and show that he was the son of John and Susanna who married Debbie Hughes. The other William we believe to be the brother of our John Bibbee based on his age and the fact that John named his oldest son William--a custom we will see again and again in this family.

There are numerous published records that describe a William Bibbee in this part of western Virginia but in most cases it is impossible to tell which one they are referring to. An unpublished manuscript by Delmer Hite in the Ripley Library states that William Bibbee was a Revolutionary War veteran who came to Kanawha (now Jackson) Co. in 1801. There is a single record in the National Archives of a William Biby who signed for some skillets at the Westham Foundry (near Richmond, VA) in 1782. In the tax lists of Harrison Co., WV, a William Bibby was paying taxes here from 1790-1799. In 1801, he was in Kanawha Co., probably in that part that later became Jackson Co., WV. A William Bibbee was on the tax rolls of Mason Co. from 1805-1814. Several sources state that William Bibbee was the first man to take up land in the Union District, Jackson Co., WV and also that a William Bibbee killed the last buffalo in what is now Jackson Co. In this same book, dealing largely with the life of Jesse Hughes, it is said that the William Bibbee who married Debbie Hughes had a brother, Joseph, and that according to family tradition, the Bibbee brothers either married sisters or cousins. A Joseph Bibbee married an Anne Hughes in Harrison Co. in 1795. She was a sister of Debbie, born 1777 in Harrison Co.

Without any real proof, I think that William Bibbee "Jr." was too young to have been in the Revolutionary War and if he had it would be known to his descendants and would have been mentioned by son Isaac in his biography. The Joseph Bibbee who married Anne Hughes in about 1795 could not possibly be the Joseph who was a son of John and Susanna since he was only twelve at the time. He may have been a son of William "Sr." A recent Ancestral File submission to the LDS Church (submitter not listed) has our Joseph Bibbee correctly identified as to birthdate and parents. Another submission, probably by the same person, lists a Joseph Bibbee b. 1764, Harrison Co., VA (parents not listed). This could very well be the Joseph who was William Sr.'s son.

Keeping in mind these many uncertainties, it looks like William "Sr." died around 1815 since he is not listed in the 1820 census. William "Jr." is found in the 1820 and 1830 censuses of Mason County and in the 1840 census of Jackson Co. which was formed from part of Mason Co. in 1831. Earlier, on Jul. 17, 1797, Thomas and Mary Hughes deeded William Bibbee fifty two acres along the West Fork of the Monongalia River in Harrison County. On Jan. 30, 1800, William Biby and his wife, Deborah, sold this land to a John Tingley for $500. This deed shows that unlike many of this family, both William and Deborah signed their names, and for whatever it is worth, they spelled their last name as Biby. Later, on Apr. 2, 1823, Benjamin Wright sold William Bibbee 100 acres along Washington Run, a branch of Mill Creek in what was then Mason Co. and William was paying taxes here as late as 1842 (by then part of Jackson Co.).

On Apr. 25, 1842, the last will and testament of William Bibbee was read at the Jackson Co. Courthouse. In it, he left everything to his wife, Deborah and "his only son, Issac, and his single daughter, Rachel." Analysis of the 1810-40 census data indicates that there were probably two sons and seven daughters but we have only found proof for three of these children. Suspected daughter, Deborah, was of about the right age and probably named after her mother. Similarly, we show the Mary Bibbee who married Eli Gandee in Gallia Co., in 1814, to be a daughter, based on the fact that we cannot fit her into any of the other families based on census data. Elizabeth is an even greater longshot.

Information on the descendants of William and Debbie Hughes Bibbee was provided by Gwendolyn Hughes Robinson, Joy Hughes Jacoby, Opal Meyers, Lloyd and Causba Pilchard, Camille Ammerman, Ralph Sayre, and Ada Ruth Sayre in addition to sources cited in the footnotes.

Susannah Bibbee, the oldest daughter of John and Susanna, was born on July 28, 1769, according to the Crump Bible. She married John Henry Hannaman on Feb. 15, 1787 in Harrison Co., WV.\(^1\) He was born Feb. 15, 1760 in Otsego Co., NY, the son of Christopher and Mary O'Neal Hannaman.\(^2\) They lived in Harrison Co., VA where the first of at least eleven children were born, later moving to Scioto Co., OH, Missouri, Indiana, and finally, in 1830, to Livingston Co., IL. John died here Nov. 15, 1832. Susannah later went to Knoxville, IL where she lived with her son, Judge Robert L. Hannaman, until her death on April 2, 1842.\(^3\)

According to a biographical sketch of her son, Robert L. Hannaman, Susannah was "born on the shores of Maryland, June 11, 1771."\(^4\) The date does not agree with that given in the Crump Bible, but the place would agree well with our earlier supposition that John and Susanna and their older children were living on the Eastern Shore of Maryland (and Delaware ?) during this period. For more information concerning the Hannaman family, a recent history is available.\(^5\) Additional information was provided by Edwin and Jean Dysert of Salt Lake City.

John Bibbee, Jr.\textsuperscript{1} was born on Jan. 8, 1772.\textsuperscript{2} According to five of his children, he was born in Delaware.\textsuperscript{3} He was listed as paying taxes in Harrison Co., VA from 1795-1798 \textsuperscript{4} and in Wood Co. by 1801.\textsuperscript{5} On Apr. 23, 1802, he married Elizabeth Spacht in Wood Co. She was born Mar. 5, 1781 in Pennsylvania.\textsuperscript{6} According to this same account, Miss Spacht had come to what is now West Virginia to work for Mrs. Blennerhasset of Blennerhasset Island fame.\textsuperscript{7} They settled on a farm along the Little Kanawha River near Leachtown. John died here on May 2, 1828; Elizabeth lived until Oct. 11, 1845. They are both buried in the nearby Bibbee Cemetery.

During the 1810 census, John (26-45) and wife (16-26) are listed with a son (<10) and three daughters (<10). In 1820, John (>45) plus Elizabeth (26-44) have two sons (b.1810-1820), one son (b.1805-1810), three daughters (b.1810-1820) and two (b.1805-1810). In 1830, John is gone, and Elizabeth (40-50) is listed with son (b.1815-20), one (b.1810-1815), and one (b.1800-1810) plus a daughter (b.1825-30), two (b.1820-1825), one (b.1815-20), two (b.1810-15), and three (b.1800-1810). Analysis of these records indicates that John and Elizabeth had three sons and nine daughters, and a later genealogy dealing with this family also states that they had twelve children.\textsuperscript{8}

3 11 Generations of the Dentzer, Henckel and Ellsworth Families: undated and authorless manuscript provided by Wayne Worbs, Tacoma, WA, 1995; Ellsworth Genealogy, 1955, compiled by H. E. Siebert and Willard Ellsworth, M.D. Unpubl. ms. in the Spokane WA Library. Jacob Ellsworth, Sr. was a Revolutionary War soldier who served in Capt. Hull's Co., Augusta Co. Militia, in 1779. According to: Arthur Aylsworth and his Descendants in America, 1887, by Homer E. Aylsworth, M.D., Narragansett Hist. Publ. Co., Providence, RI, Moses Ellsworth, Sr. came from England with his brothers David and Arthur to Goshen, NY. He later went to NC with his son, Moses, Jr., and later to Pendleton Co., VA.

8 Acc. to 1955 Ellsworth Genealogy, op. cit., she d. Jan. 17, 1859, aged 55 years, 9 days. I think this should read 65 years, 9 days which would make her b. Jan. 8, 1794.
12 1955 Ellsworth Genealogy, op. cit., mentions a will for Joseph Ellsworth but no reference.
13 Op. cit., p. 29, states that this John W. Ellsworth was mentioned in his father's will as deceased.
15 According to the Dentzer et al manuscript, Mary Ellsworth Van Deventer was daughter of Jacob Ellsworth II and Rachel Bibby. Siebert and Ellsworth, op. cit., however, list her as a daughter of Moses Ellsworth, Jr. We have followed the former but point out this conflict to future Ellsworth researchers.

Isaac Bibbee was born Mar. 29, 1776, probably in Virginia.\textsuperscript{1} According to later accounts,\textsuperscript{2} Isaac was in Monongalia County in 1777 and in Harrison County by 1784. He was paying taxes here from 1795-1800\textsuperscript{3} and then moved to Wood County, settling on Pond Creek.\textsuperscript{4} Some time prior to 1810, he married a Cynthia Lee. She was born (1786) in Virginia, the daughter of Richard Lee and Tabitha Darnell, although proof of her last name is lacking.\textsuperscript{5} Another Richard Lee was also an early settler of Wood County. He came from Delaware, married a Nancy \underline{___}, and also had many descendants.\textsuperscript{6}

During the 1810 census (taken Aug. 6, 1810), Isaac and Cynthia were living in Wood County with Isaac (26-45), Cynthia (16-26), a boy (<10) and a girl (<10). In the 1820 census, there was Isaac (26-44), Cynthia (26-44), four boys (<10), one boy (10-15), one girl (<10), and one (10-15).

Isaac’s will was made in 1823 (see Fig. 8-1).\textsuperscript{7} During the 1830 census, Cynthia (30-40) was listed with a boy (<5), two (10-15), and one (15-20), and a girl (5-10). It looks like the older boy and girl (b.1800-1810) must have married or died. A John Bibbee (b.1800-1810) is listed in a separate household and we are assuming that he was the older son. There is an unidentified son (b. 1810-1820). We also know that a Tabitha Bibbee married a Samuel Smith on Mar. 20, 1825 in Wood Co., and a Cintha Bibbee married a Levi T. Gandee in Jackson Co., WV on Jun. 7, 1832. Based on their first names and the names they gave to their children, I am assuming that they are the oldest daughters. The younger girl (b.1820-1825) appears in later censuses, including 1850, where she is listed as Sarah A., b. (1826 ), suggesting that Isaac lived until at least 1825.

Cynthia was living with her son, Samuel and his family, during the 1850 and 1860 censuses. We could not find her in 1870. The descendency charts listed below, were compiled by Camille Ammerman and the author, from unpublished census data and cemetery records plus county records from Wood, Wirt, Jackson, and nearby counties of WV and OH. Additional data were provided by Meriam Bibbee, Ada, and Gerald Bibbee of Coolville, OH, Grace Bibbee Spillman of Lakeview, OH, and Earlene Smith of Taft, CA. For the Levi Gandee family, we are indebted to Anna Herbertson of Colorado Springs, CO, Judi Kenyon of Boyne City, MI, and Sandy Reuther of Boulder City, NV.

CHAPTER 9. ELIZABETH BIBBEE AND ANDREW FLESHER

Elizabeth Bibbee was born Aug. 4, 1778, probably in Virginia. She married Andrew S. Flesher on Feb. 21, 1793 in Harrison County, WV. He was born May 1, 1771 in Hampshire Co., VA, the son of Henry Flesher and Elizabeth . Although the Flesher family has received more attention than any of John and Susanna's other children, there is little agreement among the many researchers regarding the early history of this family and the identification of Andrew and Elizabeth's many offspring. Part of the problem is that there were two Henry Fleshers living in western Virginia at the same time and they have been assumed by many to be the same person. My best guess, based on everything I have read, is that the Henry who sired Andrew S. Flesher (hereafter Henry "Weston") was probably the Heinrich Fleischer who came to Philadelphia on Nov. 2, 1752, from Rotterdam, in The Phoenix. He was accompanied by a Johannes Peter Fleischer who was probably his brother. This Peter was the father of the other Henry Flesher who married a Catherine Peninger and served as a sergeant in Capt. Michael Bowyer's Co. during the Revolutionary War.

It appears that Henry "Weston" Flesher was living on the South Branch of the Potomac in what is now Pendleton Co., VA by about 1759 and his seven oldest children were born here, including Andrew. In about 1776, the family moved west to where the town of Weston in Lewis Co., West Virginia is now located. Henry died here between Nov., 1802 and Feb., 1803. His will dated Nov. 26, 1802 names his wife, Elizabeth, six sons and four daughters. Andrew's older sister, Ann Nancy Flesher, born about 1761 in Hampshire County, was first married to John Sleeth and then to Charles Parsons whose daughter, Margaret "Peggy" Parsons, married Joseph Bibbee (see Chapter 11).

Andrew and Elizabeth first lived near Weston, but soon moved to a site on the Ohio River in what is now Meigs County, Ohio and later to that part of Mason Co. that became Jackson Co., WV. He was a cooper by trade and was listed as such during the 1850 census of Jackson Co. His will was written on Jun. 4, 1850 and probated in Jackson County on Oct. 14, 1850. In it, he mentions his wife, Elizabeth, and sons Andrew and John B. Flesher. According to Keith Ashley, Andrew died on Sep. 6, 1850, in Ravenswood. His grave has not been located but may be in the old part of the Ravenswood Cemetery where many of the headstones are broken and illegible. Elizabeth died on Jan. 9, 1856 and is buried in the King Cemetery, Jackson Co.

The names of his children and their dates are taken largely from a recent compilation by Ruth Flesher Robb of Ft. Myers, FL. According to Ruth, Andrew Flesher, Jr. left a diary in which he stated that his parents had 18 children, 5 sons and thirteen daughters. Andrew, Jr. said that he was the 9th child and the 5th son. This does not agree with the 1820 and 1830 censuses of Mason Co., WV that suggest two sons born 1810-20 (Andrew, Jr. was supposedly born on Aug. 4, 1806). My analysis of the census data plus Ruth's list suggests that there were five sons and eleven (perhaps twelve) daughters born prior to Dec. 20, 1820, and an additional daughter born 1820-1825. Several other children have been listed by all other workers but none of these have been documented and some are clearly mistakes. These include daughters, Melissa (= Elissa Ann, a daughter of Andrew, Jr.) and Elizabeth Flesher Bush, a daughter of Henry Flesher, Jr., who are listed on all charts beginning with Minnie McWhorter's. The succeeding generations were compiled from data provided by Ruth Robb, Camille Ammerman, June and Keith Ashley, John Barr, John Grimes, Beryl Henry, David Lowell Flesher, Larry Flesher, Ray Flesher, and Carolyn Barber plus the earlier compilations of Minnie McWhorter, Helen Bindemann, and Mary Orth. Daryl Lytton made some excellent suggestions re format and also checked the Rhodes family members. I also received an unpublished history of the Flesher family by a Mrs. David Byrne of Mill Valley, CA that was sent by Kurt Fishback.

I am sorry to say that this chapter can only be considered as a progress report. New data were still arriving at the time that the manuscript was being printed and there will undoubtedly be many revisions as future research takes place. Those interested in this line should be aware of an internet user group accessible at: FLESHER-L@rootsweb.com, and a newsletter, the FLESHER FAMILY REDWOOD, available from Ray Flesher at 333 West Lehow Avenue #2, Englewood, CO 81110-6726.

3. Male Flesher b. (1795-1804). Several researchers list a son b. ca 1794 who died young. There is an unaccounted son, living at home during the 1820 census of Mason Co. (taken Dec. 20, 1820), who was 16-25, that is possibly the one listed here.

Calvin kept a Day Book for his store starting in 1851 and continuing until the 1870's. It listed his customers, many of whom are found in this history, as well as prices for items bought and sold. Abraham Bibbey was born Feb. 8, 1780, probably in Virginia. Sometime near the turn of the century he left the rest of his family and followed the Ohio River down to where the Scioto River enters the Ohio, probably in search of land that had recently been made available as part of the Virginia Military Reserve. On Aug. 8, 1800, he married Susannah Salisbury in Adams County, Ohio. About this same time, Major Henry Massie founded a settlement called Alexandria, across the Scioto River from Adams County in Scioto County. Abraham and Susannah purchased a house here in 1807 for $150. The land in Alexandria, however, was low and subject to flooding so Major Massie purchased additional land on the east side of the Scioto and founded a new town called Portsmouth. In 1810, Abraham and Susannah sold the place in Alexandria to a Thomas Collins for fifty dollars and in 1811, Abraham had lands surveyed that were part of an earlier Military Warrant #4145, located on Turkey Creek in Nile Twp. This consisted of two irregular sections of land comprising 21 and 79 acres.

During the 1820 census of Scioto Co., OH, Abraham (26-44) was living in Nile Twp. with a boy (<10), another male (16-25), a girl (<10) and a woman (>45). Earlier, on Jun. 23, 1806, Abraham was named the guardian of John and Nancy Salisbury, orphaned children of William Salisbury, deceased, Susannah's brother. The two adopted children should have been at least 10-15 years old by 1820, so these are probably two younger children of Abraham and Susannah. The older boy is probably son, Isaac. The older woman is possibly Susannah; if so, she was older than Abraham and still alive in 1820. In addition, Abraham's oldest daughter, Susannah (not proven), is not listed which agrees with the fact that a Susannah Bibby was married on Feb. 25, 1819, in Scioto Co. to a Jacob Worley.

Susannah Salisbury Bibbey died around 1820 and Abraham remarried Sarah Hutton on Oct. 30, 1823, in Scioto Co., OH. She was b. Feb. 20, 1804, Scioto Co., OH, daughter of James Hutton and Elizabeth Harmon. During the 1830 census they were still in Nile Twp. with three girls <5. Isaac was in a separate household with wife, two sons (5-10), one son (<5) and a daughter (<5).

Abraham made his will on April 21, 1838 (see Fig. 10-1 for a transcription). He died on May 2, 1839, and his will was probated on May 25. He is buried in the Friendship United Methodist Church Cemetery, Friendship, OH, a short distance southwest of Portsmouth. A picture of the church and Abraham's headstone are shown in Figs. 10-2 and 10-3 (courtesy of Rebecca Bibbey).

During the 1840 census Sarah was listed with four sons and three daughters. Some of the ages given do not exactly match those from later sources but are reasonably close. Sarah remained on their Home Place until August, 1847 when she sold the farm to Jacob and Joseph Jones and moved, together with her younger children, to Jones County, Iowa. She died here in July, 1869.

Unlike the rest of John and Susanna's descendants, this family decided to spell its name as Bibbey. I suspect that Abraham and his family lived so far from the rest of the Bibbees, that they independently adopted this spelling, perhaps after a census enumerator or county clerk wrote it this way.

As for the previous lines, the names and dates of most of Abraham's descendants were provided by family members and are based on unpublished family records, census data, vital statistics from county courthouses, and to a lesser extent on published reports. I have attempted to cite some of these sources but in most cases have relied on those who sent me the information for documentation. The major contributors are Gwyn Barker, Archie Bibbey, Rebecca Bibbey, Wilma Jean Bibbey, Maude Dunham (decsd.), Virginia Bibbey Peterson, Theresa Rath, David Rorer, and Fran Smith. Please check the footnotes for some late info that couldn't be added to manuscript.

We have no proof that she was Abraham's daughter, but the birthdate and place of birth plus her first name all argue that she was. Perhaps, more significant is the fact that Susannah and Jacob Worley were buried next to Abraham and the rest of his family in the Friendship Cemetery. 30 A Jacob Worley is mentioned in the Scioto Gazette and Chillicothe Advertiser on Nov. 7, 1810. 31 Note also that a John Worley was listed together with Abraham Bibbey in the guardianship order relating to the Salisbury orphans in 1806.

The Last Will and Testament of Ethelinda Bellomy has been filed with the clerk of the District Court. To her children Nancy Gilbert, Benjamin Bellomy, Catharine Frost, Iowa Stanley, Elmira Trisler and Sarah Davis she gives the sum of one dollar each. To her daughter Frances B. Bell and son A. J. Bellomy she gives all of the real estate of which she dispossessed. She gives Frances B. Bellomy and Elizabeth Kentner the rest of her real estate monies and credits. I. M. Carp was named as executor. C. W. Beck and H. R. Layton were witnesses to the instrument.

Ethelinda Bibeey was born in Scott County Ohio December 9, 1831 and died in Decatur County, Iowa May 17, 1904 being 77 years, 5 months and 10 days old. In the year 1841 she was united in marriage to Joshua B. Bellomy. Of this union twelve children were born, three boys and nine girls. Three of the children and their father have preceded the mother and the other children to the better land. Mrs. Bellomy came to this state in 1845 and in the year of 1856 located in Decatur County where she has resided continuously until her death. In early life the deceased was a member of the Methodist Protestant Church. Since coming to Iowa, has never un with other church, and the sympathy for her church and the love for her master never waivered. It was a matter of joy to her to hear the word God preached and to sing the songs of Zion. Her death has removed from the community a good neighbor and caused her children to be bereft of a loving mother. Funeral services were conducted at her late residence by Rev. I. N. Woodward of Leon and the body was laid to rest in the Shy Cemetery.

I will try to put together a supplemental volume on the Bibbeys, including some additional pictures.

47 David also sent me copies of correspondence between Jean and him, describing their Uncle Howard's life. This gentleman deserves to have a book written about him!

In a 1997 telephone conversation, Archie told me a lot of interesting stories about the Bibbey family, including the fact that he and his wife had been married for 63 years. He promised to send me what he had but, unfortunately, it did not arrive by the time that the ms. was sent to the publisher. He also recalled that a William "Bill" Bibbey from CA, was working on a history of the family many years ago.

See obituary, Fig. 10-8, indicating another girl was born.
CHAPTER 11. JOSEPH AND MARGARET PARSONS BIBBEE

Joseph Bibbee was born Apr. 5, 1783, in Virginia, probably in Harrison Co. On Aug. 3, 1809, he married Margaret "Peggy" Parsons in Gallia Co., OH. Peggy was born about 1788 in Virginia, the daughter of Charles Parsons and Elizabeth Chestnut.

During the 1810 census, Joseph, a woman assumed to be Peggy, and a girl (<10), were living in what was then Mason Co., VA. The girl must be a mistake by the enumerator because only son, Elijah, had been born by then. They were apparently still here in 1812 but by 1813 had moved across the Ohio River to Meigs County, where daughter Susan was born on July 18. In 1818, Joseph acquired 68 acres from his brother, Elijah Bibbee, and later got an additional 100 acres here. During the 1820 and 1830 censuses, Joseph, Peggy, and children were still in Letart Twp., Meigs Co., but on Sep. 25, 1830, they bought 125 acres along Mill Creek from Jonathan Wright, in what was then Mason Co. but later Jackson Co., WV. In a sale of the land in Meigs Co. on Nov. 8, 1830, neither Joseph nor Margaret could sign their name, making their "mark" instead.

In 1850, Joseph, 68, Peggy, 62, and their youngest children, Joseph, Jr., 20, and Tamer, 18, were living in the 27th District of Jackson Co. On Nov. 19, 1855, in a sale of the Bibbee farm to John A. Coe, it states that "Joseph Bibbee, late of said Jackson County, who departed this life on 1 August, 1855." On Sept. 17, 1864, John A. Coe sold the Bibbee farm to Andrew Roseberry, "subject to the dower interest of Mrs. Margaret Bibbee, widow of Joseph Bibbee." These dower rights were relinquished on Jan. 10, 1871, suggesting that Peggy may have died around then. We do not know where they are buried, but part of a headstone bearing the inscription "J. W. Bibbee" was unearthed on the old Flesher farm near Ravenswood, not far from where son Elijah and his family are buried.

Information about Joseph and Peggy and their descendants was gathered by Mabel Bibbee, Gary Bibbee, Bob Kelling, Ken Herrmann; Jeff Crouse, Dona Bibbee Tysinger, Gwendolyn Hughes Robinson, Bobbie Coe Fisher, Susan Coe Thomas, and the author. Many additional data can be found in a recent history of Jackson Co, WV, and a new book on the Coe family of Maryland and Virginia.

3. Joseph's oldest son, ELIJAH BIBBEE, was b. Oct. 3, 1809, probably in what was then Mason Co., VA, now Jackson Co., WV. He m. TAMER "FANNIE" SAYRE on Mar. 1, 1832 in Meigs Co., OH. She was b. Dec. 8, 1811, the dau. of Ephraim Sayre and Lydia Fawsett. By 1835 they were living on a farm near Ravenswood, WV. Here, eleven children were born, but only three lived to have children of their own. Elijah d. Oct. 15, 1855; Tamer survived until Jan. 14, 1894. They and some of their children are buried in a small family cemetery on a hill above the old Flesher farm near Ravenswood. The old headstones were removed to the home of Mabel and Ray Bibbee near Ripley, WV for safekeeping.

Fig. 11-1 Ephraim Sayre Bibbee and Eliza Mary Pinnell Bibbee.
Dovie Bibbee Barton, 74, daughter of the late Elmer and Ida Brown Bibbee, died March 12, in Long Beach, California where she had resided the past twenty years.

A native of Kenna, Jackson County, she was born and spent her youth on Divide Ridge near Kenna. Three sisters, Ida, Nola and Hamie preceded her in death, as did her parents and a baby daughter. All are buried in the Emma Chapel Cemetery at Divide, but Mrs. Barton chose to be buried in the beautiful and nationally known cemetery, Forest Lawn, near Hollywood.

The Bibbees are an old and established family in Jackson County, settling first at Millwood about 100 years ago. The Bibbees are of German descent, fine farmers and solid pillars of their separate communities.

On her mothers' side, Mrs. Barton descended from John Bonnett, a victim of the religious persecutions in France some 200 years ago. The Bonnetts went first to Holland then, like many others of their fate, embarked for America. Coming first to Philadelphia where the immigrant Bonnetts are buried. The descendants came into West Virginia, first to Harrison County, when William Bonnett Sr., became an early settler in Jackson County. Through various marriages of the Bibbees and Bonnetts; Mrs. Barton was related to the Parsons, Castos, Harpolds, Browns and Van Dynes. So she leaves many relatives in Jackson County and in the state.

In 1924 she married Charles W. Ball of Barboursville at Ripley and they went to Akron, Ohio to live and work, coming back to the Jackson County farm to weather out the depression. They were living in Chesapeake, West Virginia, and Mr. Ball was working at Belle when he died suddenly in 1948. Mrs. Ball’s health failed and doctors advised her to leave the Kanawha Valley. She sold out going to live with a sister in Long Beach where she met and married Mr. George Barton, a retired railroad man. He survives her. Mrs. Adams Keller Jr. of Charleston is a cousin.

Funeral services were held in Long Beach, Methodist Church before interment in Forest Lawn, Monday, March 16.

CHAPTER 12. REBECCA BIBBEE AND JOHN INGLES

Rebecca Bibbee was b. Nov. 24, 1786.¹ She married John Ingles, Dec. 17, 1805, in Wood Co., WV.² According to Judge Donald Black,³ John Ingles was a son of William and Mary Ingles. William was born in Scotland, came to Philadelphia and later to Pittsburgh, finally settling in 1789 on 295 acres near Belleville, along the Ohio River in what was then Kanawha Co., VA. Black further states that William and Mary Ingles had, in addition to son John, three daughters—Sarah who married Thomas Woodyard, Grace who married Moses Lear, and Marian who married Thomas Gilbruth.⁴

Another source⁵ states that the Grace Ingles who married Moses Sayre (Lear is clearly wrong) was a descendant of the William Ingles (1729-1782) who served as a member of the Continental Congress and who married Mary Draper (1732-1815). They had a son, John Ingles (1766-1836) who married, in 1794, Margaret Crockett.⁶ It is clear that we are dealing with two different families of Ingles.

In the 1810 census of Wood Co. (taken Aug. 6), there was a John Engels (16-26), with wife (16-26), plus a son (<10) and daughter (<10). In 1820 (taken Dec. 3), a John Ingles (16-25) and wife (16-25). In other houses, there were two different William Ingles, one (>45), the other (26-44). In 1830, there was a John Ingle in Western Twp. Wood County, (40-50) with wife (20-30), and two boys (5-10), two girls (<5), and a girl (5-10). In 1850, a John Ingles, 65, b. PA, and wife Mary, 45, were living in Jackson Co., WV, and in 1860, they were still here with girls, Eliza (18), Jane (17), and S.A. (13) plus boy, Zachary (11). According to Edwin Dysert (letter to Camille Ammerman), Rebecca Bibbee Ingles died prior to 1824. This is probably based on the fact that a John Ingles married a Polly Smith in Wood Co. on Aug. 24, 1824.⁷

My analysis of these data is that John and Rebecca were living together with two small children in 1810 but the data for 1820 do not agree. They are too young and no children. Either another family or some major mistakes by enumerator. By 1830, John had remarried Mary (Polly) and had a new family.⁸ He is almost certainly the one living in Jackson Co. in 1850 based on his age and place of birth. A John Ingles, son of William and Grace Ingles, d. Nov. 30, 1868, aged 83, in Jackson Co.⁹ A Mary Engels, 64, born VA, was living in Parkersburg, Wood Co., during the 1870 census. She had an Edward Raymer, 4, b. NY, with her. Another (?) John Ingles, 89, b. MD, was living with wife, Mary, 72, b. VA, during 1880 census of Wood Co., WV.

Efforts to find the two suspected children of John and Rebecca have not been very successful. A Permelia Ingles m. a Thomas Sewell in 1844 in Wood Co.¹⁰ During the 1850 census, she was listed as 35, b. VA. This would make her older than the girl listed in the 1810 census but maybe she lied about her age (a common occurrence, not only in our Bibbee women, but the men as well!). Also interesting is the marriage of a George Ingles to Lucy Hussey on Jan. 12, 1826, in Meigs Co., OH.¹¹

3. Female Ingles  b. (1805-1810).
According to Wood Co. Marriage records, Sarah Ingles m. Thomas Woodyard on Nov. 28, 1816; Grace Ingles m. Moses Sayre, Apr. 9, 1822; a Mary Ann Gilbraith was mentioned in a quit claim deed involving the Ingles heirs (House, John, 1905, History of Wood Co., WV: unpublished ms., Jackson Co. Library, Ripley, WV).

Donald Hoseley, unpublished ms., Meigs Co., OH Genealogical Library, Pomeroy, OH.

According to June Ashley (written comm., 1996), John and Mary Smith Ingles had seven children.

CHAPTER 13. ELIJAH AND MARY WRIGHT BIBBEE

Elijah Bibbee, the youngest child of John and Susanna, was born in Harrison Co., WV on Dec. 23, 1789. He married Mary J. Wright on Feb. 9, 1820, in Mason Co., WV. She was born Mar. 8, 1801 in Pennsylvania, the daughter of Benjamin Wright, Indian scout and pioneer settler of West Virginia, and Sarah Casto, member of another illustrious family.

Elijah bought 100 acres from Benjamin Joy in Meigs Co. (then Gallia Co.), OH in 1816, and he later acquired additional land including 68 acres that he deeded to his brother, Joseph, in 1818. Elijah and Joseph were the only Bibbees paying taxes in Meigs County from 1820-1832. According to some unpublished research by Gwyn Barker, the Bibbee farms were noted for their apple orchards and the town of Apple Grove was named for these orchards. At a later date, the farms were sold to a gravel company who pulled down three large two-story homes and dug many huge pits, now filled with water. The little family cemetery is preserved between some of these pits in a heavily forested area. I visited it in 1986 and photographed many of the flat headstones.

In 1830, Elijah and Mary inherited land in Jackson County from Benjamin Wright and in 1871, Elijah bought some lots in Hartford City, Mason County from William and Mary Ann Snodgrass for $1500. Mary Ann was his daughter.

Mary Wright Bibbee died Mar. 18, 1861 in Meigs Co. and is buried in the Bibbee Cemetery in Letart Twp. During the 1870 census, Elijah was living with his son, Elijah, Jr. and reported owning $7000 in real estate and $7000 in personal property. He died on Oct. 22, 1879 and is buried next to his wife, parents, and several children in the Bibbee Cemetery (see Fig. 13-1 for a copy of his obituary in the Meigs County Telegraph). Names and dates for most of the descendants were taken from census data, cemetery records, and vital statistics from Meigs Co., OH and Jackson, Mason, and Wood Cos., WV, compiled by Camille Ammerman, June Ashley, Suzie Crump, and the author.

4. VITUVAS HARPOLD b. 1848.

Elijah Bibbee, one of the most highly respected citizens of this part of Meigs County, died at his residence near Apple Grove on the 23d inst., at the good old age of 89 years and 10 months—90 years lacking 2 months. He was born in Harrison County, W. Va., December 22d, 1870, and moved to the farm where he died in 1813. He was married in 1820 to Mary Wright, who died in 1861. For 53 years he has been a sufferer from rheumatism. As the infirmities of old age came upon him his sufferings became more and more intense, until with feebleness of old age and suffering with disease life became an insupportable burden to him. He longed for the end, and when it came he hailed it with joy.
