According to 1900 Census of Putnam County Mary had 7 children of which 6 were living.

A nephew, George F. Taylor, born October 1879 lived at the same address.
Giles Cottle information supplied by his granddaughter, Martha Louise Cottle Saunders.

Giles Cottle served in the Civil War for the Confederate States. Moved to Fayette County and bought his home in 1890. (Reported that he came from Nicholas County.) His parents were James Marion and Annie Marie Lowe Cottle.

A map dated 1810 shows a part of what is now known as Fayette, Nicholas, Webster, Pocahontas and Greenbrier counties were all combined as Greenbrier County and one dated 1810 shows a John Cottle with "one white tithable male, 0 slaves and 3 horses".

Giles and Isabelle had 16 children (1 set of twins) - 4 died at birth.

Both Giles and Isabelle are buried beside each other at Cassady Branch Cemetery at Dempsey, W.Va.
