DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM HUGHES

Don Norman

The ancestry of the Hughes family, progenitors of the famous scouts and Indian fighters Jesse and ---- has not been established and perhaps, never will be. Three different researchers have written their own versions of the origin of the family and each probably had good reason for their opinions.

Paul Hardman of Charleston WV believes that the progenitor of the central WV line was William Hughes, a son of Jesse Hughes of Powhatan VA and a possible grandson of Hugh and Ann Hughes who were enrolled on the census at Martin's Hundred, VA February 4, 1624. This couple had arrived in America on the "Guifte" some years earlier.

William L. Hughes of Jane Lew, WV, wrote, "...it is a well established fact that Jonathan Hughes, ... was descended from the Jesse Hughes family, who came across the waters with other emigrants in 1675..." A third researcher maintained that John Hughes and his wife Jane (Evans) Hughes, were born in Mireonshire, Wales. This writer alleges that their son, Hugh, was born there in 1671 and that he left home in 1680. The parents came to America, came to Pennsylvania, and found Hugh.

Absolute proof of the ancestry of William Hughes may never be found, although it is generally agreed that his parents and grandparents had lived in America. Therefore, we will begin the enumeration of the line with William.

1. WILLIAM HUGHES

William Hughes was born in the late 1600's in VA or Pennsylvania and died in 1767 in Hampshire County VA. His will was probated June 9, 1767.

William settled on a 400 acre tract of land on the Great Cacapon river. This tract was surveyed by George Washington and the grant from Lord Fairfax was dated April 8, 1852. This tract was within the boundaries of Hampshire County VA.

In 1754, the French and Indian War began and William enlisted in the VA militia. On the occasion of George Washington's retirement as Commander of VA troops on December 27, 1758, an address of appreciation was signed and delivered by the officers of the Regiment. William Hughes is the eighth signer.

In January 1762, the VA General Assembly recognized the services of the officers of the VA Regiment of militia. William Hughes' name was twelfth on the list of lieutenants. On May 22, 1762, William was commissioned a Lieutenant in Colonel Adam Stephens' Regiment of militia and on June 8, 1762, he was commissioned Adjutant of that Regiment.

William was given a land warrant for 2,000 acres of land in partial payment for his services to the Colony. This land returned for this warrant, No.299, was conveyed to John May January 17, 1780.

William had eight children, named in his will. The name of his wife is not known, but is believed to be Sudna or Sudrah.

3. THOMAS HENRY HUGHES 1. WILLIAM HUGHES

Thomas Henry Hughes, a son of William and Sudna Hughes, was born in Augusta or Frederick County VA about 1717 and was killed by Indians near Hacker's Creek, Harrison County VA May 4, 1778. He married Susannah Baker about 1738 in Chester County, PA. Susannah, a daughter of Robert and Susannah (Packer) Baker, was born in 1725 in Chester County, PA and died after 1780 in Sycamore Lick Run, Harrison County.

George Washington's "Journal of my Journey Over the Mountain 1747-1748" Page 91 states: April 2, 1750, "Then survey'd for Thomas Hughes a certain tract of waste & ungrand land situate in Frederick County & on Cascapehon(river)& bound as followeth beginning at red oak & white oak at the foot of a steep mountain run thence N'25W' One Hundred and Seventy, 4 poles to an Elm and red Oak saplins thence N;45'W' Three Hundred and Forty", etc.

Thomas moved with his family to present day Hampshire County WV about 1750. His grant for 419 acres of land "...near Lick Branch of the Great Cacapon..." is dated November 18, 1752. Thomas moved to present day Harrison County WV about 1755. He conveyed his Hampshire county land to Henry Fry in two parcels, 200 acres February 12, 1759 and the remaining June 8, 1761. The family settled on Hacker's Creek about 1773. Various reports list Thomas as having seven to 15 children.

A 1774 payroll list of Harrison County VA soldiers who served in Captain William Lowther's VA militia company in Lord Dunmore's War credits Thomas with 132 days service.

14. JONATHAN HUGHES 2. HUGH HUGHES 1. WILLIAM HUGHES

Jonathan Hughes, a son of Hugh and Susannah Hughes, was born in Hampshire County VA (WV) March 25, 1753 and died near Salem, Harrison county VA (WV) in September 1849. Jonathan married Vercetta about 1781. This marriage didn't last and he married Abigail Jackson. Their marriage bond was dated July 11, 1786 in Wilkes County, NC. Abigail, a daughter of William Jackson, was born in New Jersey in 1765 and died in Harrison county VA (WV) July 1, 1842.

Jonathan was a veteran of the American Revolution. His successful application for a veteran's pension in Gallia County, OH was dated March 19, 1834. Excerpts from his pension file, S9591, detail his military service.

He enlisted in Greenbrier County VA as a Minuteman in June 1774, under Captain John Cook and Lieutenant William Gilliland and was sent to Ellis Fort at the "Little Levels". He continued there until the spring of 1777, when he was attached to Captain Hamilton's company and stationed at Jamor Rennix's for three months.

In the spring of 1778, he went to Hampshire County VA and in October 1779 joined Captain George Bell's Company of Colonel Posten's Regiment and was promoted to Ensign and served a tour of three months. In 1780, he served a further tour of duty under the same officers.

After the war, Jonathan was an itinerant schoolmaster and was teaching in Gallia County, OH when he was 90. He went to Wilkes County North Carolina in 1783, to South Carolina in 1790, to Georgia in 1791, to Greenbrier County VA in January 1792 and to Harrison County in 1808. On January 28, 1829, he was in Gallia County, OH. In 1833, he spent four months in Jefferson county, Indiana. On July 7, 1835, Jonathan applied for a transfer of pension from the OH roll to VA, as he had "...returned to Harrison County, where my children live."

22. ELIAS HUGHES 3. THOMAS HENRY HUGHES 1. WILLIAM HUGHES

Elias Hughes, a son of Thomas Henry and Susannah (Baker) Hughes, was born about 1757 in what is now Hardy County WV and died December 22, 1844 near Utica, OH. (Many historical documents call him "Ellis"). He married Jane Sleeth about 1780. Jane, a daughter of Alexander Sleeth, died in 1827.
Elias was a frontier scout and Indian fighter. He came to Harrison County VA (WV) in 1770. In 1772, he was one of the first explorers of the Little Kanawha River Valley in present day WV. He was in the battle of Point Pleasant in "Lord Dunmore's War." A payroll for Captain William Lowther's Company of Va militia credits
  Elias with 132 days service in Lord Dunmore's OH campaign in 1774.
  The 1782 census of Monongalia County VA (WV) lists Elias and his family in that county. In 1796, Elias became a hunter for a surveying party in present day Licking County OH. In 1797, he moved to the Muskingum River in OH and lived for a while at present Zanesville, OH.
On April 6, 1798, Elias and his family began the trek to Licking County, OH. When the first militia was raised in that county in 1802, Elias was elected Captain. In the War of 1812, he was a Captain of Militia and was commissioned a Lieutenant in Colonel Rennick's Mounted OH Volunteers.

25.JESSE DAVID HUGHES 3.THOMAS HENRY HUGHES 1.WILLIAM HUGHES

Jesse David Hughes, a son of Thomas Henry and Susannah (Baker) Hughes, was born in VA about 1751 and died in 1829 on Turkey Run, Jackson County VA (WV). He married Grace Tanner in 1771 or 1772, the same year that he settled on Hacker's Creek in Harrison County VA (WV). Grace, a daughter of Edward and Rachel Tanner, was born in VA in 1753 and died in Roane County VA (WV) January 18, 1842.

Jesse served in the Harrison County militia, was an Indian trader and became one of the most famous of the frontier scouts of his time. A payroll of Captain William Lowthers Company of VA militia credits Jesse with 132 days service in Lord Dunmore's OH Campaign in 1774.

Order book No.1 of Harrison County VA records shows that Jesse was twice elected captain of Harrison County Militia and further shows that on May 17, 1786, "Jesse Hughes came into court and took the oath of allegiance and the oath of Capt. of Militia according to law".

Jesse seems to have been paid for his militia services in the form of a land grant, for he transferred 164 acres of land to Peter Hartman and 200 acres to John Waggoner on July 11, 1791. This land was described as being part of "...a pre-emption warrant of 1,000 acres No. 2411 date March 20, 1783, lying and being on Jesse Hughes Run in the County of Harrison...."

In 1778, a party of Indians murdered Jesse's father, Thomas Hughes and in 1787, another party of Indians led by the white renegade, Leonard Schoolcraft, captured Jesse's daughter. Although Jesse was able to purchase his daughter's freedom the following year, the two incidents turned Jesse and his brother Elias into implacable enemies of the Indians.

Folklore and popular historians, writers who were more interested in bloodshed and attention getting stories than in historical accuracy, have amplified Jesse's savagery beyond its actuality. An example is the accusation that Jesse and four other men of butchered an entire Delaware Indian town of "more than 100 people" in June of 1772. This massacre was first reported in A.S. Withers' "Border Warfare", published in 1831. Withers was not certain that the story was true and gave the names of only two of the alleged assassin, William White and William Hacker. L.V. McWhorter, in a footnote to the Withers story, added the names of Jesse Hughes and John Cutright.

An anonymous writer of an article in "Awhile Ago Times", reprinted in "The Hacker's Creek Journal" states that Chief Bull and his Delawares had moved from Bulltown a month before the alleged massacre and terms the entire story "A Ridiculous Tale." The writer references a number of documents proving that the Delawares moved south to the lower Mississippi, where Chief Bull died. There are a number of incidents recorded where Jesse tracked down and killed Indians, but these seem to have been Indians who had attacked white settlements or who had ambushed white settlers. In short, Jesse seems to have treated the Indians in the same manner that they treated whites.
