THE WILLIAM WILSON FAMILY.

FOREWORD.

For several years it has been my effort to assemble the names of the descendants of William Wilson and Elizabeth Blackburn, who settled finally in what is now Hardy County, West Virginia. The task has been an arduous one with many discouragements, but after much labor it is here presented in the best form possible under the circumstances.

It was my main purpose merely to assemble the names of which there are now over 7,200. It is my guess, (not even an estimate,) that at least 1,500 are not yet included. Many of the "children" disappeared in the early part of the eighteenth century and no further traces have been found.

A word as to the accuracy of this list. Please remember all had to be accumulated by correspondence. In many cases no replies were received and information had to be gathered from the best available sources. Very often the data were given from memory. Many of the dates and the spelling of the names have been changed three or four times as later information would come in. Occasionally a name would be spelled one way as a child and by the same informant would be spelled another way when used as a parent. This will account for a few apparent indications of carelessness on my part.

Some idea of the magnitude of this list and the difficulty of preparing it and the chances of errors is indicated. There are over 7,200 names of descendants. Each name has a number and from one to three dates, (birth, marriage, death.) Thousands of the names are repeated as parents; every marriage adds an additional name of husband or wife. This means that over 10,000 names and over 25,000 numbers and dates are listed. Most of the work has been copied two or three times and new numbers given as the list expanded. If you find errors, (and there are many,) please consider the number of chances for mistakes.

Effort was made to list the children of each family in the order of their ages. Occasionally, after the material was typed, additional information would show the first order was not correct; but to change the order would have necessitated the changing the numbers in thousands of cases so the original order was retained. If the month, day and year are given the information may usually be considered accurate. Where only the year, or often no date at all is given, the information may not be accurate. Errors and omissions are impossible to avoid but they have been reduced as low as possible.

No effort has been made to give biographies except for the very earliest generations. It is hoped that in the near future some one with the means, inclination, and opportunity will take up the biographies. It would be a valuable piece of work and should be done. The descendants have been in all American wars from the Indian and the Dunmore War to the present World War. They have occupied civil and judicial positions from justice of the peace to state supreme and federal judges. They have held important positions in financial, professional, industrial and agricultural fields. No effort has been made to eulogize in the short biographies; only mere statements of facts as to their lives are noted.

William Wilson is given the arbitrary Roman numeral of (XV;) his children have (XVI;) the grandchildren, (XVIII,) and so on. Each generation is thus given the same Roman numeral showing how far each is removed from William Wilson. The order of the children in each generation is shown by the figures following the Roman numeral.

For those unaccustomed to this classification it will be easy if they will remember to turn toward the back of the book for the name repeated as a PARENT while they will turn towards the front of the book for the name of any parent as a CHILD.

After some names will be found double or hyphenated numbers as (XIX 476-3.) This means that after the regular numbers were allotted, new names came in and the extra numbers had to be used.

Many names have two 's before them. This indicates that nothing further is known concerning them.

This material has been prepared as my tribute to the ancestors who went through many hardships that we descendants might have a better world. This contribution has been a pleasant though laborious one. It is my hope that future generations may find it an aid in knowing more about who and where their ancestors were.

My obligations to those who have assisted are great. It is impossible to list all who have aided but to all my thanks are expressed.

Special Request

It is especially requested that my attention be called to any errors of omission or to any inaccuracies. There must necessarily be many such errors and the correct information is earnestly desired. If feasible, later, a supplement will be issued making these corrections.
SHORT BIOGRAPHIES.

DAVID DAVIS WILSON (XIII) was born in Scotland about 1650; his son DAVID WILSON (XIV) was born there about 1685 and took part in the Scotch Rebellion of 1715; when the Scots were overthrown he fled to Ulster Ireland. This information is from family tradition. The maiden names of their wives are not known.

WILLIAM WILSON (XV I), born Nov. 16, 1722, in Ireland, came to America in 1737, landing in Philadelphia; afterwards came to Shenandoah County, Virginia. With him were his two cousins John and William White, both of whom were later killed by Indians in Randolph County, (West) Virginia. In 1746 William married Elizabeth Blackburn, daughter of Archibald Blackburn; she, too was born in Ireland. William lived in Shenandoah County at first then moved to Hampshire (now Hardy) County, (West) Virginia. The date of his moving is not known but it was not later than 1780 for at that time his son, Moses, died and was buried on the Wilson homestead on Trout Run, near Wardensville, in Hardy County.

In May 1770 he bought from Andrew Vannoy two tracts of land, 318 acres, on Lost River; in August 1771, from David Williams, 118 acres on both sides of Lost River, and 438 acres from James Scott. All these tracts are in Hardy County. It was a general custom then for a man to make a "lease and buy" contract for land. The rental was a mere token, often only an ear of corn each year. It is likely this land was leased some earlier than the purchase and he may have been in Hampshire County some years before the death of his son, Moses.

The will and inventory of William are given at the close of this sketch. They show the manner of writing wills at that time, what property he had, and give a clue as to where the children were. It is interesting to know of the household property of a well-to-do farmer of that period. Compared with the present it seems very meager but evidently he had his home well furnished.

There were two children with the same name, Moses. It was often a custom when a child died young to give the next one the same name.

The graves of William, his wife Elizabeth, and his son Moses are about two miles from Wardensville on the farm of E. W. Garrett. Large trees are in and around the graves. The head stones are still legible in 1942. Several other head stones are still standing and many depressions show still other graves. The owner of the farm, Mr. Garrett, was very courteous to visitors to the graves and gave a good deal of information as to surroundings. Remains of the foundations of the old church are near. The exact location of the graves was not generally known for many years but in the summer of 1937, the writer with the aid of a very old citizen finally located them again.

This Inventory and appraisement of the Estate of William Wilson, dec'd., was this day returned into Court and ordered to be recorded.

By the Court-

Ed Williams-
BENJAMIN WILSON (XVI l), the oldest son of William Wilson (XV) and Elizabeth Blackburn, was born in Shenandoah County, Virginia, Nov. 30, 1747. He likely went with his father to Trout Run, Hardy County, where his early life was spent on his father's farm. At twenty-three he married Ann Ruddell, daughter of Stephen and Mary Ruddell. She was born Sept. 20, 1754 and was barely sixteen at her marriage. For a few years they lived on Cedar Creek in Shenandoah County but soon went further west.

In the fall of 1774, young Benjamin made his first appearance in official and military life, serving as lieutenant and later as aide on the staff of Lord Dunmore in the expedition against the Ohio Indians in the Scioto Valley. He commanded the troops guarding the council when the treaty was made at Camp Charlotte. Benjamin described Chief Cornstalk as being majestic in appearance and impressive as a speaker, not being surpassed by the finest orators of Virginia.

At the conclusion of hostilities the Virginia troops returned in small bands by different trails. Colonel Wilson led his group by way of Tygart's Valley in (now) Randolph County and stopped near the site of (present) Beverly to examine the land. It so pleased him that he bought the "tomahawk rights" of two settlers and later moved to the county with his family and built a fort in 1777 on his own farm, as a place of refuge for the settlers during the bloody wars which began that year. He was captain of the militia and later was colonel. At the beginning of the Revolutionary War he equipped and maintained his own company of troops. During this time his family had narrow escapes from the Indians as related in Maxwell's History of Randolph County.

At the close of the Revolutionary War Colonel Wilson took an active part in formulating representative government. For several years he was delegate to the Virginia Assembly. In 1789 he and his brother John were delegates to the convention ratifying the Constitution of the United States. Upon the formation of Harrison County in 1784 he became justice of the peace and clerk of the county court, continuing to serve for thirty years. By the act of the Virginia Legislature, when Randolph County was formed in 1786, it was ordered that the first court be held in his house. Colonel Wilson then moved with his large family to Simpson Creek, near Clarksburg, in order to retain his position as clerk of Harrison County and his brother John became clerk of Randolph.

After the death of his first wife, Benjamin, on Dec. 15, 1785, married Phoebe Davisson, daughter of Daniel and Prudence (Izard) Davisson. His later years were spent in peaceful pursuits connected with the development of his community. He was one of the members named in the charter of Randolph College in Clarksburg. When the War of 1812 started he was commissioned as Colonel of the third division, twentieth brigade, but owing to his advanced age was soon given an honorable discharge. During his military visit to the Ohio he learned of the valuable land in Licking County and after the close of the war purchased a large tract near Newark. Several of his children and relatives settled in and around that city where many of their descendants still live.

In 1827, he received a small injury from which he died on December 2. He is buried in the burial ground of the Old Brick Church of Bridgeport, near Clarksburg, W. Va. His will follows this sketch.
WILL of Benjamin Wilson (XVI 1) as recorded in Harrison County, West Virginia, in Will Book 4, page 70.

In the name of God Amen this twentieth day of March, One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, I Benjamin Wilson, Sr., of the County of Harrison and Commonwealth of Virginia, calling to mind the uncertainty of this life, and being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, ordain, and constitute this and this only to be my last will and Testament in manner and form following; that is to say first I commit my soul to Almighty God my Savior and Redeemer, and my body to the earth to be decently buried and where as it hath pleased God to bestow on my hands Goods, Chattles, these I dispose of in manner and form following to wit:

My sons William B. Wilson, Stephen R. Wilson, Benjamin Wilson, John Wilson, Cornelius R. Wilson, Thomas Wilson, and Josiah D. Wilson and my daughters Mary Sarah Ann, Edith Elizabeth and Deborah hath received as much of my estate as intend they shall receive. Therefore I exclude this thirteen children from any further part estate either real or personal. My son Archibald B. Wilson having received an education at my expense which is sufficient to enable him to pass profitably through life if rightly improved. Nevertheless should he be reduced to what ocasioned by Bodily Infirmity in that case only my executors is to find him food and raiment and comfortable accommodation provided he will live with them and refrain from the intoxicating use of spiritous liquors and conduct himself with common decency. I also will him all my wearing apparel and not any more of my estate either real or personal.

I give and bequeath to my son Phillip D. Wilson one tract of land in Randolph County upon the waters of Bills Creek adjoining my brother William's survey on the upper side, which tract on same Creek contains 400 acres, also one other tract of land containing 175 acres or the head waters of the right hand fork of Ebermans Creek near the top of Cheat Mountains, also one Negro boy named David which lands is to be enjoyed by him and his Heirs forever. But not to have a fee simple in said lands until he arrives to the twenty-third year of his age.

I give and bequeath to my son Noah L. Wilson a part of the tract I now live on to include Humphreys and Halls Improvements beginning at a white oak a corner of the original survey near Halls fences and run and the line to run with Halls fence leaving the on the left hand to the upper ridge thence with my several lines to the beginning also one other tract of land I bought from James Kelly adjoining, also one tract of land on the head waters of the left-hand fork of Files Creek in Randolph County containing 145 acres. Also one other tract on Shavin River in said county above the branch road containing 124 acres to be enjoyed by him and heirs forever. But not to have a fee simple in said lands until he arrives to the 23rd year of his age. But the rents issues and profits of those lands is to belong to my estate to aid my executors to pay the several legacies in this will mentioned until Noah arrives to said 23rd years of his age.

I give and bequeath to my daughters Margaret, Phebe, Martha, Julia, Harriet and Rachel each and every one of them a Negro girl to be of the age of five years or upwards, also a horse, creature of middle price, a new saddle and bridle, one feather bed and furniture, two milch cows, six sheep, and fifty dollars worth of household furniture to be paid or delivered to them when they shall respectively marry or arrive at the age of twenty-one years, but not any more of my estate real or personal. But should any of my daughters depart this life before they marry or arrive to the age of twenty years, in that case their intended Legacys is to belong to my estate. I also give and bequeath to my two sons David B. Wilson and James D. Wilson the tract of land on which I now live, Noahs part excepted. My interest in the Hickman place and the Stewart place and a small tract adjoining Wilkinson Baxters and Amos Stouts lands and one acre for the adbutment of my mill dam and a small piece of land on the side of the hill below the mill dam and a small piece of land I bought from John Wilsonson, which includes the coal bank, also a piece of land containing 49 acres willed to me by Robert Dicks and a tract of land adjoining John Slocum, called the Sugar Campl also all my lands in the County of Harrison, Randolph, Lewis, and Wood deeded to my by Joseph Scott Marshall of Virginia to be enjoyed by them and their Heirs forever, but subject to the following provisions and corrections hereafter mentioned.

I also give and bequeath to my two sons David and James and my widow Phebe Wilson all my mills, carding machines, and all the utensils to them belonging and all my negroes slaves except Dinah and David, and all my personal property of all and every kind, both animate and inanimate which lands slaves and other property is put into their hands to pay my debts raising and schooling my children, and paying off all the legacys and bequeathers in this will mentioned and after all the debts, legacys and bequeathers are fully paid off, then the unsold lands, the Negroes and their increase, and all the personal property that may be on hand is to belong to David and James, except so much thereof as will give my widow a decent and plentiful maintinance during her widowhood, which is to consist of her raiment, bed, and furniture and cupboard furniture, a riding horse creature a good saddle and bridle, and ten dollars annually in cash during her life and two milch cows wool and flax for her own use and such diet as she may choose for her comfort. She is to have Negro Dinah to wait on her or any other female Negro she may choose. But should my sons David and James or their successors refuse, neglect or delay to give my widow such necessary support, it is my will and she is fully impowered and authorized after all the Legacies are paid off to claim her dower in my lands which allowance is made to her provided she dont remove. This is my will, but should my widow renounce my will, it will disable my sons David and James from giving my daughters the legacies I wish and intend they should have.

In case my widow doth renounce my will, my two sons David and James will be only bound and required to give my daughters only the one-half of the amount of legacy before mentioned and that in property only. Whereas it appears to me my son David is laboring under a pulmary complaint and may depart this life before my youngest child arrives to lawful age—in that case I will and direct that my son Daniel D. Wilson is then to stand in the room of my son David and enjoy all that part of my estate both real and personal that David was to enjoy and to be clothed with the power of an executor and to do and perform all things in this will required in union with the other executors and the tract of land which I will to David is to revert back to my estate and to be the property of James & David in common forever. But if James or Daniel depart this life before the will is fully executed, in that case my son Philip Doddridge Wilson is to succeed in the room of the deceased and to do and perform all matters and things required of the deceased brothers. But should Phillip and Noah depart this life under the age of 21 years, not having a lawful child or children, the deceased one landed estate is to descend to the survivor. I will and bequeath to my son Daniel D. Wilson that tract of land I bought from Levi Smith, but subject to the aforesaid reservation, otherwise to be the sole property of said Daniel and his heirs forever, but he is not to fee simple therein until the 23rd year of his age and the land to remain a part of my estate until he arrives to said age.

I will and bequeath to my acting executors one tract of land in Randolph County containing 170 acres, known by the name of the Salt Lick Place, to be sold if need should require it to enable them to pay off my childrens legacies, and they are hereby impowered to make a deed of Conveyance, but if not sold to be the property of my acting executors when all the Legacies are paid off. I will and bequeath and make over to my executors and executrix all my money and book accounts, bonds notes, covnants, and contracts, etc. to enable them to pay my debts, school and clothe my younger children, and pay land taxes and to aid in discharging the several legacies and devices in this will mentioned. I also direct that a note due by James Martin pay no interest until six years after its date.

It is my earnest desire and will that my widow and executors make no division of my estate but for it to remain their common stock until my youngest surviving children arrives lawful age, and all the legacies paid off and that they in all their transactions about my estate coolly and deliberately consult one another and be strictly governed by reason, justice, frugality, and economy.

I will and direct my executrix and executors to give out of my estate to my three sons Daniel, Phillip, and Noah each and every one of them a good horse, creature of middle price, a new saddle and bridle, and a single set of farming utensils and twenty dollars in money, and it is my wish and desire that each one of them live with by executors and be subject to them until they arrive to the twenty-third year of their age and if my estate and their own industry will justify it at said age I allow each and every one of them to have one yoke of oxen, two milch cows, six sheep and a common feather bed, and furniture in addition to what is heretofore willed to them. But should Phillip or Noah be disobedient to their mother or my executors during their nonage, my executors is to bind them to masters to teach them good morals and industry.

I will, give, and bequeath to my grandchildren the sons and daughters of my son William B. Wilson and Elizabeth his wife share and share alike of two tracts of land in Randolph County on the waters of Ebermans Creek on which my son William now lives which two tracts of land was conveyed to me by my son William on the 28th day of October 1811 as will more fully appear by the records of Randolph County Court, but reserves to my Son William B. Wilson and Elizabeth his wife a life estate in said two tracts of land which is bequeathed to said children and their heirs forever.

I do hereby give and bequeath to my grand-daughter Prudence Duncan all my right title and interest in Jude, a mulatto girl, now in the possession of said Duncan and her increase if any to be at the disposal of said Duncan.

Benjamin Wilson sen (seal)

ARCHIBALD WILSON (XVI 2), second son of William Wilson (XV) and Elizabeth (Blackburn) Wilson, was born near Winchester, Va., June 13, 1749. On August 14, 1771, he bought an arithmetic from the store of James Cam Dowd and so noted in the book. (This arithmetic is still in the family). He was married, June 21, 1775, in Dunmore (now Shenandoah) County, to Ann Claypool. The ceremony was at the home of Cuthbert Harris and was performed by Rev. Peter Muhlenburg, later famous as a fighting minister in the Revolutionary War.

In 1774 he joined Lord Dunmore's army and was in the famous expedition against the Indian towns on the Scioto River in Ohio. With him were his two cousins, John and William White mentioned above in the sketch of Benjamin Wilson. As they returned from Ohio they selected land near (present) Parkersburg, W. Va., on which they made tomahawk improvements. Archibald joined the Revolutionary army in 1776 and served to the close of the war. On January 20, 1776 he was commissioned Lieutenant of Militia of Dunmore County, the commission being signed by Edmund Pendleton, John Page, Thomas Ludlow, Dudley Diggs, O. W. Campbell and P. Carrington. In 1777 he was commissioned captain and at the close of the war was major.

In 1804 Archibald moved from his home on Cedar Creek, Shenandoah County, to Wood County, (West) Virginia, where on his return from Ohio he had made his tomahawk claim. Two years later he moved to Licking County, Ohio, settling on a portion of the "Wilson Section", near Newark, Ohio on land purchased from his brother, Benjamin. Previous to this two of his children, Abraham and Jacob, had come to Licking County.

His first wife died May 6, 1787 and on August 31, 1791, he married Nancy Newman. Archibald died March 27, 1814; he and both his wives are buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Newark, Ohio. No will or inventory has been located.

DAVID WILSON (XVI 3), third son of William and Elizabeth Wilson, was born Sept. 8, 1751. He married Mary Miller, Sept. 24, 1778, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. Moffitt. David lived in Hardy County, (West) Virginia, until 1804 when with his son, George, he came to Licking County, Ohio, and built a log cabin on land purchased from his brother, Benjamin. His second son, Jacob, was the pioneer Wilson to locate in the county, having come in 1803.

David and his son George started back to his Virginia home to bring the rest of his family to Ohio. George died at the home of his uncle, Archibald, near (present) Parkersburg, W. Va. The father continued his journey to the home of his brother, Benjamin, near Clarksburg, where he died August 12, 1805. In the meantime, his son, Enoch, died in Hardy County. His widow with seven remaining children started in the fall of 1805 for their new home in Ohio. Her possessions consisted of a team, wagon, and very meager furniture. A cow tied to the wagon trailed behind, and one sow was taken in a crate. From this humble beginning the family in a few years reached high prosperity.

Soon after their arrival in Licking a panther tried to catch the hog. Mrs. Wilson and her two small daughters, hearing the noise, ran out with the always trusted rifle. The panther jumped from the sty and ran up a leaning tree. The daughters, swinging a tin lantern with holes punched in it to let out the light saw the gleaming eyes of the panther and Barbara, the eldest, took aim, fired and ran into the house. The next morning at the foot of the tree they found the panther shot squarely between the eyes.

David was buried in the Wilson family grave yard near Bridgeport, W. Va. No will or inventory has been located.

WILLIAM WILSON (XVI 4), fourth son of William and Elizabeth (Blackburn) Wilson, was born in what is now Shenandoah County, Va. February 8, 1754. On August 19, 1779, he married Sarah Friend, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (Skidmore) Friend. Her father was a famous Indian scout and a Revolutionary soldier; he was born about 1735, died in Sutton, (West) Virginia, November 15, 1827.

William and his wife lived at the mouth of Leading Creek, Randolph County, and took a very active part in the affairs of his county. He was judge of the county court for many years, the first representative from Randolph to the Virginia Legislature, captain of the State Militia in 1787, major in 1794, justice of the peace in 1791, assessor in 1795 and 1810.

In 1826, William moved to Ohio on Wills Creek near the junction of Seneca and Beaver Forks in what is now Noble County. At this place he built a mill run by horse power, and he managed it until the death of his wife, October 20, 1839, when he moved to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Casner.

In his early life he had been a surveyor and did much work in Virginia. At the age of ninety-five he was called back to that state as a witness in a suit over land which he had surveyed. Of course the trip was made on horseback, the only possible way then. Soon after his return he fell on an icy door step, fractured his hip and soon died from the injury. He is buried in the Casner Cemetery on the John Yoho farm, one mile north of Mt. Ephriam, Noble County, Ohio. No will or inventory has been found.

"He was a man of equable temperament, social, boyish, mild, good disposition, musical and happily adapted to the enjoyment of life—always contented and happy .... When heard from in his old age he was playing the violin to his grand and great grandchildren."

JOHN WILSON (XVI 5) was the fifth son of William and Elizabeth (Blackburn) Wilson. He was born August 12, 1758, likely near Wardensville, (West) Virginia. He was one of the first justices of the peace appointed when Randolph County was formed and was elected first clerk of the county court. In 1788 he was allowed three hundred pounds of tobacco for collecting the land taxes. The county court was held in his house from 1803 to 1808. He was major of the militia in 1787, county sheriff in 1788, first clerk of the circuit court in 1809, assessor in 1788, one of the trustees of the town of Beverly in 1790. (He held the office of circuit clerk for more than thirty years).

When eighteen he was wounded in a desperate fight with the Indians at Wheeling, (West) Virginia; a bullet entered his arm and lodged in his hand. He served in the Revolutionary War and was allowed a pension by the State of Virginia for his services. Application was made by his widow in 1857 for a U. S. pension but after so many years documentary proof of his services was never completed.

When the convention was held in Richmond to ratify the Constitution of the U. S., he was one of the delegates and favored ratification. When Randolph Academy was established in Clarksburg he was one of the first trustees along with Edmund Randolph, Patrick Henry, and others.

John Wilson was married August 2, 1796, to Mary Warthen, daughter of John Warthin, of Welch descent. The marriage was in Randolph County and was performed by Matthew Ryan. The National Archives Bureau of Washington states that he had been married previously but the name of the wife was not given. They say also, that he died in Harrison County, April 12, 1827.

No will or inventory has been found.

JAMES WILSON (XVI 8), eighth son of William and Elizabeth (Blackburn) Wilson, was born in Hardy County, (West) Virginia, July 25, 1763, and died in Palestine, Illinois, Aug. 18, 1822. After the death of his mother, James sold the farm inherited from his father and went west. His first stop, in 1815, was near North Bend, Ohio. Meanwhile his son William, had married Miss Elizabeth Kittrell and moved to Crawford County, Illinois. In 1819 James and the rest of the family moved to Crawford County where he remained until his death. He at once built a large two story house as a residence and a tavern. This house was for many years the residence of his son Isaac N., and was used until about 1898 when it was replaced by a more modern building.

James took an active part in the early activities of Crawford County and was first probate judge. All this is shown in the county records. He was buried in Palestine, Illinois.

No will was left but the record of the probate court concerning the estate follows this sketch.

Benjamin Wilson came into court and acknowledged the receipt of $295 that he had received of his father in his life time for which he now gives up all claim to any thing further of the personal estate of his father.
It appears that the balance of the estate remaining in the hands of the Administrators at settlement being $527.25 when equally divided among the remaining five heirs amounts to $105.45 each, being less than either of the other heirs have received of their fathers estate.

It is therefore decreed and ordered by the court that the said Administrators pay to James H. Wilson $105.45. To John C. Alexander in right of his wife Nancy $105.45. To Isaac N. Wilson $105.45. To Guy W. Smith in right of his wife Jereta $105.45. To Presley C. Wilson $105.45. Whenever legally required so to do by the said legatees or their guardians. Given under my hand and seal this 25 day of Septt 1826.

ELIZABETH WILSON (XVI 10), oldest daughter of William Wilson (XV ) and Elizabeth Blackburn, was born, July 2, 1766, in Hampshire (now Hardy) County, (now West) Virginia. Her birth place was on the farm where her father died, a few miles from Wardensville, W. Va. On December 20, 1785, she married Abraham C. Claypool who, as indicated by land records, lived near the Wilson homestead. They lived, probably, in Hardy and Randolph counties and afterwards moved to Rose County, Ohio, near Chillicothe, where Elizabeth died March 20, 1848.

Abraham C. Claypool, son of James Claypoole (spelling at that time) was born April 2, 1762; served in both houses of the Ohio General Assembly; served in the War of 1812; was by an act of the Virginia Legislature, in 1788, appointed as one of the trustees of Randolph Academy, died on May 5, 1845, near Chillicothe.

No will of Abraham or Elizabeth has been located.

MARGARET WILSON (XVI 11), youngest child of William Wilson (XV ) and Elizabeth Blackburn, was born April 7, 1769, on the Wilson Homestead in (now) Hardy County, W. Va. On January 22, 1788, she was married to Cornelius Ruddell, son of Stephen Ruddell. (The name is spelled Ruddell, Ruddle, Riddle, Riddell.) They seem to have moved to Kentucky and later to Madison County, Indiana. Little is known about their history, except that Cornelius Ruddell was a M. E. Church minister.

On the death of his first wife, (Margaret Wilson) he married Catherine Bushfield. There was one child by this marriage, James Edward Ruddell. No Will has been located.

Of the other children of William Wilson (XV ) very little is known. MOSES I (XVI 6) died when two years old and buried on the Wilson homestead near Wardensville, W. Va. MOSES II (XVI 7), born May 1, 1758; died April 7, 1784; no record of any marriage. SOLOMON (XVI 9), born July 2, 1766; died Sept. 8, 1819. He inherited land from his father and this indicates he was living in Hardy County in 1794 when his father wrote his will.
Families and "In-laws."

The following two lists were the hardest of all to compile. They are more suggestive than definitive. To go over several thousand names and check for maiden names and childless marriages would take more time and strength than was available. What is given will be helpful. Corrections and additions will be welcomed.

Index of "In-laws."

This list contains the maiden names of the wives of the Wilson descendants; also the names of the husbands of the descendants where it is not known there were any children. If there were children from a marriage the names of the "in-law" husbands will be found in the Index of Families.

Revolutionary Ancestors and Patriotic Societies.

Often persons, wishing to join the Sons or Daughters of the American Revolution or other patriotic societies, hesitate on account of the difficulty and expense of getting the necessary documentary proof. These National Societies usually allow any one to utilize the proof of a member already accepted provided the member gives written permission for this use. Such general permission has been given in the following cases and copies of the proof will be furnished by the National Societies on application of any one wishing to join.

Descendants of BENJAMIN WILSON (XVI 1), through proof of his services made by Miss Virginia Chevalier Cork, (XXI 352), 7 1/2 Greenbrier St., Charleston, W. Va.; National D. A. R. number 106, 132. Of ARCHIBALD WILSON, (XI 2), through proof of Miss Alta M. Smoots, (XX 426), 222 Hudson Ave., Newark, Ohio; National D. A. R. number 209, 219. (The descendants of ARCHIBALD by his first wife, Ann Claypool, may join also through proof of services of James Claypool made by Miss Emma Claypool (XX 1637), Marolt Hotel, Indianapolis, Ind.) Of WILLIAM WILSON, (XVI 4), through proof made by Mrs. Sarah Minna Hyman, (XXI 763), Hyman, Texas; National D. A. R. number 30, 359. (Mrs. Hyman has been a member of the D. A. R. over forty years and has done much in gathering data. The descendants of WILLIAM may join also through the services of Jacob Friend on proof made by Mrs. Hyman). Of ELIZABETH (WILSON) CLAYPOOL, (XVI 11) through the services of James Claypool on proof made by Miss Emma Claypool, (XX 1637), Marolt Hotel, Indianapolis, Ind.; National D. A. R. number 295, 140. Of MARGARET (WILSON) RUDDELL, (XVI 12) through proof of the services of Captain Thomas Beggs made by Mrs. Jane E. Hoffman (XX 1685), Turtleback Ranch, Wheatland, Wyo.; National D. A. R. number 136, 691.

Supplementary memberships may be obtained in many cases. The descendants of MARY WILSON (XVII 1) and John Haymond through the services of William Haymond by using the proof of Mrs. John E. Hoffman, (XXI 120), Morgantown, W. Va. Descendants of SARAH HAYMOND (XVIII 6) and Levi Maxwell, through proof of the services of Robert Maxwell and of Alexander Lewis, made by Miss Rosalie Haddox, Columbus, Ohio; National D. A. R. membership number 136, 454. Descendants of WILLIAM B. WILSON (XVII 42) and Margaret Stadden, through proof of service of Thomas Stadden, made by Miss Maude B. Stadden, 345 Hudson Ave., Newark, Ohio; National D. A. R. membership number 185, 772.

It was decided near the close of this compilation to add this section as to Patriotic Societies. Many other names could have been added if the decision had been made earlier. It would be helpful if any one joining through the services of soldiers not named above would write me the particulars and such information will be included in any supplement issued.
Number of Descendants of each child of WILLIAM WILSON (XV).

On the right hand side of the Roman number start with the name of the person you wish to connect with the other. Above the line write the name of the husband or wife. Then on the next line above write the names of the parents, always keeping the name of the Wilson descendant above the line and the husband or wife below. On the left do the same with the other person you wish to trace. At some place above the names you will find the common ancestor and can thus trace the relationship.

SUPPLEMENT OF ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS
DESCENDANTS OF
WILLIAM WILSON
AND
ELIZABETH BLACKBURN

Compiled by
C. J. MAXWELL

DALLAS, TEXAS
This supplement contains additions and corrections to the "Descendants of William Wilson and Elizabeth Blackburn" issued in January, 1943. Since then over eight hundred additional names and many corrections were obtained.

To arrange them in a manner easy to connect with the names already printed was very difficult since it was necessary for reference purposes to retain the numbers already assigned; often new names had to be given a supplementary number as (XIX 884-33). After this was done still more names would come in and additional designations had to be made as (XIX 884-33-1). By using care there will be little difficulty in following a family line forward or backward. Just keep in mind to turn toward the back of the book for the name of a child as a parent and turn toward the front for the name of a parent as a child.

Before each addition or correction is given the page of the main volume where the entry belongs. If an entry is only a correction the new material is underscored. Other data as to the name is not repeated from the first printing; only the corrections are indicated. New material is shown in regular type.

The supplement has two indexes: "In-laws" and Families. In January, 1943, only the names of husbands were printed where no known children were listed. In the "In-law" Index of the supplement an attempt was made to include all husbands of families in the supplement and also any omitted from the former index. To get a complete list of "In-laws" and Families it will be necessary to consult both indexes in both volumes.

This supplement is printed and sent at my expense to all already having the first volume.

ABRAHAM CLAYPOOL and wife Elizabeth (Wilson) Claypool are buried in the old family cemetery near Chillicothe, Ohio. To reach this cemetery: Go East from Chillicothe on U.S. Route 50, for seven miles to Jones Cross Roads; turn right on the Lancaster Pike about one and one-fourth miles to the B. & O. R.R.; turn left up Schooley Hill past a cemetery and church, about three-fourths of a mile. This will bring you to the Robert Stone farm on which the Claypool cemetery is located. (Information from Mr. Clifford H. Vanse.)

CORNELIUS RUDDELL was born in Hardy (earlier Augusta and Hampshire) County, (West) Virginia, August 5, 1769. He was the son of Stephen Ruddell and his first wife Mary (Bird?); was a brother of Ann Ruddell, first wife of Benjamin Wilson (XVI 1). Stephen Ruddell, father of Cornelius, was the son of John Ruddell (born about 1690), and Mary, daughter of Neal and Ann Cook. John Ruddell's will is in Will Book A, page 338, Shenandoah County, Virginia. Stephen's will is recorded in Woodford County, Kentucky.

In 1782, when Cornelius was thirteen, his father, then a widower, married Mrs. Sarah (Barnes) Beggs, widow of Thomas Beggs. Mr. Beggs left a family of five children with whom Cornelius grew up. Stephen Ruddell moved to Woodford County, Kentucky, about 1783, where his will was probated in 1800.

Cornelius was married to Margaret Wilson, (XVI 11), youngest daughter of William Wilson (XV 1), January 22, 1788; each was eighteen at the marriage which was probably celebrated at the parents of the bride in Hardy County. To this marriage, thirteen children were born; the eldest, Mary Ruddell (XVII 94), became the second wife of Charles Beggs, step-brother of her father and later very prominent in early Indiana history. Margaret (Wilson) Ruddell (XVI 11) died September 19, 1826. In 1829 Cornelius married Catherine Bushfield. There was one child by this marriage as indicated on page 17.

Cornelius died in his eightieth year, July 15, 1849, near Utica, Clark County, Indiana.

(This Cornelius must not be confused with his uncle, Cornelius Ruddell, who died in Botetourt County, Virginia in 1798.)
