Explanation of Symbols and Numbers

The number in the bracket signifies the generation.
The letter in the bracket signifies the family.
At the outset readers should know where Sem Eby (5) and Richard Eby (8) fit into the Eby ancestry. Both are descendents of Theodorus (1), with Sem (5) being the great-grandfather of Richard (8). Let’s examine the genealogy tree.

1. Theodorus Eby (1663-1737) - Unknown
2. Christian Eby (1698-1756) - Elizabeth Mayer (1708-1787)
3. Christian Eby (1734-1807) - Catherine Bricker (1744-1810)
4. Christian B. Eby (1763-1824) - Veronica Hershey (1766-1826)
5. Sem Eby (1808-1881) - Anna Frantz (1810-1890)
6. Benjamin F. Eby (1838-1910) - Elizabeth Hoover (1838-1908)
7. B. Amos Eby - Virginia Susan Sheaffer (1881-1956)
8. Richard A. Eby (1911 - ) - Miriam Susan Good (1911 - )

From Sem Eby (5) forward, the family information was obtained almost exclusively from living people and their records. Without the help of my first cousin, Elinor Harsh and second cousin, Lloyd M. Eby, this work could not have been done and I am deeply grateful to them. There were many other first and second cousins who generously provided data relating to their line of the family. Thanks must be given to Emma Eby Snyder, Mary Diller Dorothy Hershey Mansell, Harry and brother Robert Eby, J. Eby Hershey, Robert Eby Ranck, and Paul John Hershey. I’m sure some have been omitted and to them I sincerely apologize.

From Sem Eby (5) backward most of my information was taken from the History of the Eby Family written by Ezra E.Eby, published in 1889. The Eby Family Bulletins written by Dr. Franklin Stanton Aby and published in 1923 and 1924 were also used, but much of his early reference was taken from the Ezra book. Working for a client in 1972, Clyde E. Groff, a genealogist living at 713 Columbia Avenue in Lancaster, Pa. found information that led him to believe that the children of Theodorus were different than published by other writers. This will be covered more in detail later.

Richard A. Eby was born and lived in Lancaster, Pa. and as a young man was employed by Armstrong Cork Co. In 1937 the company transferred him to their plant in Fulton N.Y. as a purchasing agent. He is now residing at Wilobob Terrace, Fulton, M.Y. 13069. Richard has shown remarkable interest and effort in compiling this genealogy.
Elinor Harsh, a retired librarian, now resides at 536 Reynolds Ave., Lancaster, Pa. 17602. Her encouragement, backed up with many hours of work required to be accurately assemble facts was instrumental in getting this work completed. Her tenacity was unbelievable and her help invaluable. I am happy that fate arranged to have us become first cousins and following is how it all came about:

5. Sem Eby (1808-1881) - Anna Frantz (1810-1890)
6. Benjamin F. Eby (1838-1910) - Elizabeth Hoover (1838-1908)
7. Lena B. Eby (1872-1929) - Christian Hoover Harsh (1865-1939)
8. M. Elinor Harsh (1911- )

Mary Elinor Harsh's mother Lena Barabara Eby and my father Benjamin Amos Eby were brother and sister, more understandable in the following brief illustration:

5. Sem Eby
6. Benjamin F. Eby
7. B. Amos Eby
8. Richard A. Eby

7. Lena B. Eby Harsh
8. M. Elinor Harsh
Lloyd M. Eby, a retired farmer now associated with the Mennonite Information Center in Lancaster area resides at 38 Homestead Dr., Lancaster, Pa. 17602. In 1970 I became first acquainted with Lloyd and it occurred through a chance meeting. It was not planned and could even have been called accidental, but no matter what the circumstances, I am delighted that it happened. Lloyd M. Eby is a Mennonite Minister and is Vice Chairman of the Mennonite High School Board of the Lancaster Conference. He is also Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Lancaster Mennonite Conference Historical Society. He is deeply interested in Eby history and with his offer to try and publish my work he provided the needed inspiration. Lloyd is my second cousin and following is how it all came about:

5. Sem Eby (1808-1881) - Anna Frantz (1810-1890)
6. John H. Eby (1852-1920) - Elizabeth H. Mellinger (1852-1924)
7. Ira M. Eby (1887-1972) - Ella M. Book (1887-1949)
8. Lloyd M. Eby (1911 - ) - Martha W. Leaman (1909 - )

Our grandparents, John H. Eby and Benjamin F. Eby were brothers and our fathers, Benjamin A. Eby and Ira M. Eby were first cousins, hence Lloyd M. and Richard A. Eby being second cousins. This also is more understandable by examining the following illustration:

5. Sem Eby
6. Benjamin F. Eby
7. B. Amos Eby
8. Richard A. Eby

6. John H. Eby
7. Ira M. Eby
8. Lloyd M. Eby
George Frederick Newman is tenth generation from Theodorus through Peter (2) and has done considerable European research in 1973 and is considered by many today to be an authority. George recently published a paper and has permitted the use of it’s contents so readers may compare his findings with those of his predecessor historians. He speaks fluent German and spent considerable time in Switzerland compiling his data. Excerpts from his treatise follow:

One of the earliest and most interesting of the Mennonite families to immigrate to America in the 19th century was that of Theodorus Eby (1). Today people throughout the United States and many foreign countries can trace themselves to this early Mennonite pioneer, who settled along Conestoga Creek in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania around the year 1717.

As a descendant in the 9th generation from Theodorus Eby (1), I have been discouraged with the inaccuracies in the definitive Eby texts, and their continuous use as the last word on the Eby family history. Time has proven all too well that our ancestors made numerous mistakes and omissions, but we must consider that they surely did the best they could with the historical and genealogical records available.

The intent of this treatise is to outline in a broad sense the history of the Eby, or as it was originally spelled, the Aebi family in Europe prior to their immigration to America. My findings in many areas are directly opposite the traditional stories of this family’s history as reported by genealogists. This I can only attribute to their lack of documented information and the practice of family traditions being passed on by word of mouth. In every case the information passed on to the reader via this treatise is 100% documented and found by me in Germany, Switzerland, France, Holland, Canada and the United States. It is my hope that this treatise, even though preliminary, will be favorably received by all who read it. It is in no way intended to discredit earlier historians.

Ancient Aebi History

Eby of page 3 of his publication “A Biographical History of the Eby Family” which was printed in 1889, some 177 years after the arrival of Theodorus Eby (1) in America. In this text he states, “The Ebys belong to the Celts, and ancient people of Asiatic origin, who formerly inhabited southern, central and western Europe. During the early ages they lived in the northern part of Italy,” and gradually moved into the valley of Luzern in Switzerland.

Pennsylvania," dates the appearance of "The Great Eby of Eaby Family" in Switzerland at 1050 A.D., but again he used Ezra Eby as his reference.

According to my own research Ezra Eby was essentially correct in his assumptions. My research led me to Mr. Aebi, of the Civil Administration in Grindelwald, Switzerland, who is an expert on the origin of Swiss names. He states, "the name Aebi is one of the most unusual in Swiss history. The Aebi's were of Aryan extraction and originally lived in Asia.

Several thousand years ago they traversed the plains of Europe and settled in what is present day Sweden. In the period from 900 to 1000 A.D., they moved via waterways across the northern part of Europe south to the Alps and settled in Northern Italy, and in Hasli, and the Canton of Bern, Southern Switzerland. In the years to follow they worked as foresters and farmers and gradually became assimilated with the other Swiss peoples."

The Earliest Aebi's

The Aebi's finally moved into other areas in the Cantons of Bern, Solothurn, Bale, Freiburg, and Schaffenburg, which periodically encompassed parts of the Canton of Zurich. In my personal search the oldest record on an Aebi that I found was dated 1388, and was from the Archives in the Canton of Basel. They record a line of civil servants and several mayors with the Aebi name. The Canton of Freiburg had a famous line of Catholic religious leaders, and a line of military men also with the name Aebi. These lines, however, can all be traced to two main families both of which were located in the Canton of Bern. The first in Huttwil and the second in Heimiswil. It is safe to say that all of the Aebi's spread through Switzerland had their starts there. The particular Aebi family we shall be concerned with is the Heimiswill Line.

Ezra Eby, J. Frank Eshleman, and Dr. Franklin Stanton Aby, all state that the Aebi family was from the Canton of Zurich, Switzerland. The fact of the matter is that they were probably never even in that Canton. According to the best experts on the families in Canton Zurich, only a few individual Aebi’s have ever been reported there and that they were all originally from the Canton of Bern.

Religious History

Again my findings run opposite the reported history of this subject. In the period from 1500 to 1560, a great religious revolution was underway throughout Western Europe. Luther, zwingli, Calvin and others were challenging the power of the Roman Catholic Church which had been corrupted. Such a man was Menno Simons, the leader of the Mennonite Church in Europe in 1537. In the years to follow these Mennonites, Tauer or Anabaptists as they were called, endured the harshest religious persecutions the world had seen. They were stripped of their homes, their worldly belongings and even put to death by the State, which forced them to live as religious nomads. As early as 1564, these Taufers took refuge in the Emmen Valley, in the Canton of Bern where they were subjected to persecutions of a lesser degree. These Mennonites were faithful to the "Eighteen Articles of Faith" which were drawn up in a General Conference which was held on April 21, 1632, in Dortrecht, Holland.

Ezra Eby states that the Eby’s belonged to the Vaudois Faith in the period from 1308 until they joined the Mennonite Church in 1537. He infers that they were always Protestants. Most of the early Aebi’s I came across in my research were Roman Catholics, in fact, most of the Canton of Bern was Catholic. The Vaudois and Waldensees were actually located some 150 miles to the east of Bern near the Austrian border.

Durst Aebi Arrives

Some time in the year 1636, in the Canton of Solothurn, Durst Aebi was born into a Roman Catholic family. He was educated in the years to follow and was ordained a Roman Catholic priest in 1664. The year 1665, marked his appointment as parish priest in Baischwil, Canton Bern. He did not hold this position long since he was excommunicated from the Roman Catholic Church in 1666, because he had embraced the Tauer teachings and was passing them on to his parishioners. No records are found for him in the next few years but it is assumed that he married and started a family, while continuing his new found ministry as a Tauer Lehrer (Anabaptist teacher).

In 1670, through 1684, we find that he was preaching in a direct line north from Thun, in the Canton of Bern to the Canton of Solothurn. His family was located partially in Heimiswil in Canton Bern and in Aetigen in the Canton of Solothurn. European Historians tell us of his encounters with the Bernese authorities and of his many arrests, imprisonments and deportations to Germany. The Swiss historian Ernst Muller mentions Durst Aebi on page 144, of his book, “Geschichten der Bernischen Taufer, (History of the Bernese Anabaptists). I have also personally seen and copied over twenty entries on his activities from the “Staat Archives des Kanton Bern” (State Archives of the Canton Bern). He was to become a religious inspiration to all followers of the Tauer faith. Since his activities suddenly ended in 1684, historians believe or permanently left Switzerland.

Dr. Franklin Staton Aby mentions this Durst Aebi many times in his four volumes of the “Eby Family Bulletin” and states that he was the father of Bishop Jacob Aebi, and the grandfather of Theodorus Eby (1), the first member of the family to immigrate to America. In volume 4, page 27, he alleges that Durst or Theodorus Aebi was from Trachselwald in the Canton of Zurich, Switzerland. The town of Trachselwald is in the Canton of Bern and always has been. This is the kind of misinformation which through the many years has led us so far astray in our quest for the truth.
Now to the family of Durst Aebi which is of extreme importance to us if we are to report him as the father of Bishop Jacob Aebi and the grandfather of Theodorus Eby (1). The only reference which I was able to come up with on his wife, Barbara Dysli, was dated July 1721, where she is brought before a Swiss official, placed in the custody of her son Christian and ordered deported. As to how many children they had or who they were, the only reference I found was in Heimatsstelle Pfalz. On this document it states a list of probable children for Durst Aedi. They are as follows: Christian, who married Elizabeth Lichty; Joseph, who married Anna Lichty; Hans Jacob and Barbara. I have seen and copied much information on his sons Joseph and Christian. They like their father, Durst, gave the “Taufer Krammer” (Office of Anabaptist affairs) a pretty hard time and many records exist to tell us of their various activities. At one time I thought that the Hans Jacob on this list and Bishop Jacob Aebi might be one and the same person, but you will see that it is impossible in the next part of this treatise.

The Search for Bishop Jacob Aebi

In my search for the earliest Aebi’s Bishop Jacob Aebi was my number one target since it is written by Ezra Eby and others that he was the father of Theodorus Eby (1). Using the traditional reference material, I visited areas in the Canton of Zurich, Switzerland looking for any type of leads that would get me to the correct archives or civil offices. In the entire Canton of Zurich no one had any information on him. I repeated the same search again in the Canton of Bern and Solothurn but without any result.

On page 4 of Ezra Eby’s book he states that the father of Theodorus Eby (1) was one Bishop Jacob Aebi, who was ordained a Bishop of the Mennonite Church in Zurich, Switzerland in the year 1683. Dr. Franklin Stanton Aby, in volume 1, page 10 of his book, states that the son of Durst Aebi was the Jacob Aebi mentioned in Ernst Muller’s “Geschichte der Bernischen Taufer” (History of the Bernese Anabaptists), on page 209, and that this Jacob Aebi was ordained Bishop of the Swiss Mennonites in 1683. While in the National Library in Bern, I xeroxed an entire copy of this book. When checking page 209, as Dr. Franklin Stanton Aby mentions there is simply no such reference. This part of the book lists various Mennonite enclaves in Germany, in the areas of the Upper Pfalz near Manheim, in the year of 1731. Under group 4, the Mennonite Community of Halmstad is described and under the names listed the abbreviation Jb. Aebi is found. I found a similar reference in H. Frank Eshleman’s book on page 237, which was obviously a translation of Muller’s book, but Eshleman has errored and lists one Peter Aebi.

My next step was to move on to Germany where I tried to find this town of Halmstad. In Heimststelle Pfalz, they gave me the names of several present day German towns with similar names. After several tries I was able with the help of Preacher Schauwalter of the “Mennonitische Forschungstelle,” (Mennonite Research Agency) to find the correct Halmstad or as it is called today Helmstadt. In the records for the Mennonite Community, once there, was the name of Christian Eby. As I moved deeper into the paper work on this Christian Eby, I found one startling reference which said that he was a “son of Jacob” in Halmstad” but was originally from Heimiswil in the Canton of Bern, Switzerland. A second card stated that he, Christian, along with his wife and three children had immigrated to the “Island of Pennsylvania” in 1737, this I shall document later in my treatise.

Jacob Aebi is Found

In the weeks to follow, I found information on several Jacob Aebis, all who seemed to be located in the same general vicinity and in a direct line north from Switzerland along the left side of the Rhine River through the area known as Alsace. They passed through Strassburg, Bouxwiller, Homburg, Hornbach, Zweibruken, Neustadt on the Hardt and seem to have settled near Brenschelbach, Germany. At this point I should also mention that “The Eby Family Bible” which is described by Mrs. Charles Coldren in Volume XLII, pages 13 through 16, of the “Historical Paper and Addresses of the Lancaster County Historical Society” was printed in one of the very towns I found references on Jacob Aebi, Neustadt on the Hardt.

As my search continued I realized that three of the four Jacob Aebi’s I was tracing were the same person. Soon I found references that he was the “Alteste,” oldest or senior citizen of his Mennonite Community, and was known as one of the most devoted of the faith. According to Preacher Schauwalter, the term “Bishop” was and never has been used in the European Mennonite Communities, to signify a senior church leader, the term “Alteste” is always used. The various local ministers would, therefore, be subordinate to the so-called “Alteste.” It is my opinion that this man is Bishop Jacob Eby.

He was born in the Canton of Bern, Switzerland in the year 1652, and probably started his northern movement toward Alsace and Germany around 1670. The date of his marriage is not known but his wife was Anna Ursula Klein. There were six known children in their family as follows:

Maria Magdalena, born in 1684, married Michael Schunk; Maria Katharina, born in 1686, died in the same year; Anton, born in 1688, married Anna Eva Goller; Maria Katharine, born in 1690, (in many cases when a young child died the next child born might be given the same name); Johann Henrich, born in 1692, married Ann Katharine Schmidt; Anna Katharina Born in 1693, married Wilhelm Goller. Jacob Aebi died on January 5, 1748, at the age of 96 years. As you can see there is no mention of Theordorus Eby (1), born in 1663, and the very fact that Jacob Aebi was born in 1652 makes it impossible for him to have been his father.
Who then was Theodorus Eby (1), where in Switzerland or in Germany did he have his roots? It is my opinion that the following may be the case. He could quite easily have been a son of Durst Aebi, who was born in 1636. The Jacob Aebi, born in 1652, who I have just described could have been a brother of Durst Aebi or of our Theodorus Eby (1), born 1663, since the generations are quite close.

I believe that many members of the Aebi family moved to the area near Alsace in the period from 1670-1690 and that Theodorus (1) was among that group. This would mean he came into that area many years earlier than originally written. I also believe that his children were born in Alsace or the Palantinate and not in Switzerland. At that time he was probably already working as a Millright; a trade which he passed on to his children.

When William Penn's agents were trying to encourage the immigration of these Mennonite people to America, Theodorus Eby (1), was among the first to follow. The exact route which he and his family would have taken will never be known. It could have been across France, and Belgium, or even via the Rhine River to Holland. How long they remained in Holland or whether or not the entire family went with him at that time is in doubt. Once in Holland he probably met with many of the Mennonites from Crefeld, Germany who he probably set sail with from the port of Rotterdam, Holland in 1710 or 1711. After their arrival in Philadelphia, they probably remained with the Mennonite Community in "Deutsche Stadt" (Germantown) before their departure for Lancaster County, sometime in 1717. As far as their history in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, it has been covered by numerous historians and genealogists, who even now are trying to resolve the Eby mysteries.

Also, proving that they settled in the area of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. As to whether or not they are indeed related to Theodorus Eby (1) has not been determined, but there is substantial evidence to indicate that it is possible. The following list is of a few of these Ebys who I have found records and other paper work on in the various European Archives. Their arrival is verified in "A collection of upwards of Thirty Thousand Names of German, Swiss, Sutch, French, and other Immigrants in Pennsylvania from 1727 to 1776" by Prof. I. Daniel Rupp.

1. Peter Eby (2), who supposedly arrived in America in 1720. His exact date of birth is unknown but he was baptized on September 21, 1690, in Heimiswil, Canton Bern, Switzerland. His parents were Christian Aebi and Naria Louwenberger. Various historians state that he was a nephew to Theodorus Eby (1), but I found no documented evidence to support that theory. His application to immigrate to America was made in 1719, in Manheim, Germany. See Rupp's book, page 438.

2. Andreas Ewy, who arrived in Philadelphia via the shop “Mortenhouse” on August 24, 1728. See Rupp’s book page 56. Work is currently being done on this line.

3. Heinrich Ebby, who arrived in Philadelphia via the ship “Samuel” from London on August 11, 1732. Several other members of his family are included. See Rupp’s book pages 72 and 73.

4. Christian Ewig, who arrived in Philadelphia via the ship “Townshead” on October 5, 1737. Several other members of his family are included. See Rupp’s book page 110. This is the same Christian Eby who wanted to go to the “Island of Pennsylvania.” I believe he is a brother of Theodorus Eby (1).

5. Jacob Ebi, who arrived in Philadelphia via the ship “Mascliffe Galley” on December 22, 1744. See Rupp’s book page 173. This Jacob Eby may have been Jacob (2) son of Theodorus (1).

6. Nicolaus Ebbe, from Frankenthal, Germany, whose arrival I have no record of, but who died in Philadelphia on February 26, 1779.

7. Nicholas Eby (5), who arrived in New Orleans, Louisiana in 1862. His line is known as follows; Andrew (2), Christian (3), Christian (4). Historians list Andrew (2) in this line as a nephew of Theodorus Eby (1), but again I was unable to find any documented proof. He may also be related to Andreas Ewy on this list.

The Magic Name “EBY”

The single greatest problem in my search for the European Ebys has been the many and varied spellings of the name itself. The name Aebi as it was originally spelled in Switzerland did not cause any problems to our ancestors who spoke the Swiss German dialect. However, the problems began as they immigrated to other countries where the rules of pronunciation were different. For instance, the first change we record is when the family moved to Germany. In Switzerland the “A” in the name Aebi was pronounced the same as in English but in Germany it would have been pronounced “Ah.” For this reason the Aebis in Germany dropped the “A” in their names and spelled it Ebi or Eby. Thus their new spelling when pronounced by the German people was consistent with the Swiss sound. The “E” in German was pronounced as an “A”.

When examining the names used by one family alone in Germany I found the following variations. The father used the name Aebi, his wife the name Ebbe and the children Ewig, Eben, and Ebig. As you can see, this is pretty rough on a genealogist. It is clear from these spellings that even with the spelling change they made that their dialect still caused German officials to write their names in various ways.

Now as these people began to immigrate to America they were again faced with a pronunciation problem. Since they were now spelling their names Ebi or Eby, the British officials would pronounce the name just as it is spelled with the "E" sound. So again many of the early Ebys added an "A" to again try to get the correct sound. The spellings of Aby and Eaby, my own family line, came about because our ancestors were again trying to preserve the correct sound.

The following is a list of the different spellings of the name "Eby". It is by no means complete since I am sure that many people reading this Treatise will know additional variations. They are as follows: Abey, Abi, Abi, Abie, Aby, Abye, Aebi, Aebich, Aebich, Abie, Aby, Eaby, Ebi, Eaby, Eby, Ebe, Ebee, Eben, Ebbe, Eber, Eby, Ebi, Eby, Ebig, Eby, Evi, Evie, Eby, Ewi, Ewie, Ewig, Ewy. It is amazing that so many variations could have occurred to such a short name.

Where Do We Go From Here?

In conclusion, you can see that I was unable to find any documented information to link Theodorus Eby (1) with Durst Aebi, who was born in 1636, or Jacob Aebi, who was born in 1652. So for the time being, the mysteries surrounding Theodorus Eby (1), will remain hidden in the past.

What does the future hold for us in our searches for the earliest Ebys? It is my hope that since so many people are working on Eby genealogical research at present that some effort will be made by someone to organize all the existing material into kind of a research center for those seeking information in the future. This treatise has been written in the hope of aiding future researchers of the Eby family and to alert them that to date much of the printed material is in error. In the years to come more and more information will surely come to light and one day all of the mysteries of the Great European Aebi-Eby family may be resolved.
From the 1972 research done by Clyde L. Groff, a genealogist from Lancaster, Pa., we learn some things previously unknown, or at least unpublished. Mr. Groff has graciously consented to have it used now and for this we sincerely thank him.

Contrary to what has previously been written Mr. Groff has concluded that Theodorus had five male and three female children and was married twice and maybe even three times. He lists them as follows but not necessarily in the order of their birth:

- Peter Eby (2) Believed to have first been married to Annie Mylin, then to Barbara Groff. Christian (3) was the oldest child and the will mentions other children as Jacob, Peter, Henry, Abraham, Isaac, Dorst, Martin, John, Barbara who married John Bender, and Ann who married John Heller.

- Hannes or John (2) Died unmarried

- George (2) Married a girl named Barbara. Christian (3) was the oldest child and the will mentions other children as George, John and Barbara.

- Jacob (2) Died without issue.

- Christian (2) Married Elizabeth Mayer. Christian (3) was the oldest child and other children were John, Barbara Peter, Anna, Andrew, George, Elizabeth, Samuel and Michael.

- Elizabeth (2) Married Johannes Baehr.

- Barbara (2) Believed to have married Henry Bare.

- Mary (2)

Clyde Groff found a great deal of evidence to support his convictions that George (2) was a son of Theodorus but he could not find anything to support Ezra Eby’s claim that David was a son. He feels that there were only three girls but is not sure of their names. Elizabeth is probably one of them, with Barbara and Mary being the other two. In one Will and Testament, an Ann is mentioned and Elizabeth omitted. Groff suggests that since Elizabeth is frequently mentioned, her name might have been Elizabeth Ann, hence the Ann is in one will but not appearing on any other documents that he could find.

Again contrary to Ezra Eby’s book and to further support his belief that Jacob (2) was probably unmarried, Groff quotes from court records and writes:

“Bond on the estate of Jacob Eaby of Earl Town was filed 4th day of January 1745/46 by Michael Widwar and Michael Grebill. The Orphan’s Court Records of his estate start under date of March 3, 1946/47 and continue. Michael Grebill named administrator of the estate and he asked the court to rule on the question of heirs as said Jacob Eby (2) died without issue, but leaving three brothers (Peter Eby (2), Christian Eby (2), and George Eby (2) are three) and he also left issue three sisters, Barbara, Elizabeth, and Mary. The question was about the three sisters being born by a second wife, who was not the Mother of Jacob Eby (2), nor the three mentioned brothers. The court ruled that since all six had the same father, estate was to be divided six ways.

It should be noted that this document omits the name of John (2) as a brother, who according to court records died a year earlier, the names of David (2) as a brother or Ann (2) as a sister. The reference to the girls having a mother different from the boys but having the same father is of great importance. This means Theodorus must have been married twice, something I had not previously read in the writings of other Eby researchers and historians.

All historians do seem to agree that Theodorus did settle in Lancaster County (then part of Chester County) and that the first home built in America by him or his son Peter stands and can be found in Lancaster Co., Pa.
The home is on Peter’s road directly across from Roland’s, also known as Zeltenreich’s Reformed Church. It is near Roland’s mill on Mill Creek south of New Holland, Pa. near the line of Earl and Leacock Townships. The house is in very good order and the walls are two feet thick and the original doors close from the ceiling for rapid entrance in case of an Indian attack. It is believed that both Theodorus and his son Peter (2) are buried in the one acre plot set aside in the Will of Peter (2) for this purpose. There are others buried in this plot but other than one, their exact identities are not known. The one exception is Isaac Eby whose stone is still standing.

The second Eby home built in America is the best known and still stands in Lancaster Co., Pa.

This home, built in 1754 by Christian, the son of Theodorus and his wife Elizabeth, is located on Hammer Creek adjacent to Snavely’s Mill three miles north of Lititz, Pa. near Lexington in Elizabeth Township. A few hundred yards at the rear of the home is the family burial plot. It is known that Christian two, three and four along with their wives are all buried there. Until 1972 the cemetery was a shambles, but it has been partially restored through the efforts of Aden Eby of Preston, Ontario and his second cousin Roy Groff Bauman. Both these men are great-great grandsons of Bishop Benjamin Eby (4), the sixth son of Christian Eby (3) and Catherine Bricker. Our Canadian relatives arranged to have the cemetery cleaned and when they did this we were unaware of the fact that a committee in Lancaster County had been formed to do a similar job. A committee of three of my second cousins headed by Lloyd M. Eby had as its other members, brothers Martin Rohrer Hershey and J. Eby Hershey, both first cousins of Lloyd. These three men engaged the aid of about 35 people who with their contributions and physical aid completely restored the cemetery, purchased and installed two new stones to replace deteriorated stones which now mark the burial site of Christian (2) and (3) and their wives. The stones for Christian (4) and his wife Veronica Hershey are well preserved and still mark their burial plot. The above named Christians are known to us today as Christian I, Christian II, and Christian III. The above figures in parenthesis mark their generation.
It is the hope that enough interest has been generated in the younger generation that the family cemetery on Hammer Creek will be permanently maintained.

Worth mention are several other cemeteries in Lancaster County, Pa. where both ancestors and descendants of Sem Eby (5) can be found.

Old and New Hershey Mennonite Cemeteries

Both plots are located in Salsbury Township between Routes 30 (Lincoln Highway) and Route 340 (Old Philadelphia Pike) between Kinzer and Intercourse, Pa. This new cemetery is adjacent to the church and the old cemetery is about a quarter mile down the road.
Eby Cemetery

This cemetery is in back of the Monterey Mennonite Church located on Eby Road. It is about one-half mile off Route 722, south of Leola, Pa. From Lancaster, Pa., Leola is on Route 23;

Frantz Cemetery

A very small family plot where four sons of Sem (5) are buried. It is located about a city block off Route 30 (Lincoln Highway) on Belmont Road. Belmon Road leads to Intercourse, Pa. and is east of Paradise, Pa. My Great-great Grandparents, Jacob and Elizabeth Frantz are also buried there.

My search included burial sites of uncles and aunts found in the Paradise, Strasburg and Millersville Mennonite Church cemeteries, all in Lancaster County, Pa. and in the Lititz, Pa. Moravian Church Cemetery. My own parents along with other Ebys, are buried in the Paradise Presbyterian Cemetery. Still other relatives can be found in the Weaverland Mennonite Cemetery on Route 897 east of Blue Ball, Pa.
Chapter One

The Family Of:

and
ANNA FRANTZ
From Ezra Eby’s book we extract a few paragraphs covering Sem’s ancestors and starting with his great-grandfather, Christian (2) the son of Theodorus.

Christian Eby (2) and his Descendants.

The fourth son of Theodorus Eby (1), named Christian Eby (2), was born in Switzerland, February 12, 1698. He was married to Elizabeth Mayer, a member of one of the families that immigrated with Theodorus (1). Christian (2) and his wife settled on Hammer Creek, in Elizabeth Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, about three miles north of Lititz. Here he died about the 15th day of September, 1756, and his wife died on the 12th day of December, 1787. They had a family of ten children. Their names, together with dates of birth, death, etc., are as follows:

2. John (3) Sept. 28, 1737 — —, 1794 Rebecca Hershey
3. Barbara (3) Dec. 14, 1740 May 27, 1816 Jacob Hershey
4. Peter (3) Nov. 11, 1742 Nov. 24, 1819 Christian Stauffef
5. Anna (3) Jan. 4, 1745 Jan. 30, 1826
6. Andrew (3) Jan. 11, 1747 Aug. 15, 1830 Barbara Sensenig
7. George (3) Dec. 11, 1748 June 10, 1800
8. Elizabeth (3) Aug. 12, 1751 Jan. 21, 1835 Jacob Hershey
10. Michael (3) Dec. 29, 1755 Unknown

Christian Eby (3) and his Descendants.

The oldest son Christian Eby (3), who married Catherine Bricker, retained the old homestead on Hammer Creek. He greatly improved the dwelling house erected by his father in 1754. The dressed sandstone in front wall bears date 1754 and names of Christian Eby and his wife Elizabeth. *The house and barn on the old homestead were in their time considered stately buildings. The house had originally a large chimney in the centre with fire place in nearly every room on first and second story; it had an arched cellar underneath, walnut and oaken paneled partitions, with some of the window sashes hung on cords with lead weights. The barn was built 99 feet long (only that long so as not to offend a neighbor who shortly before had built a barn of the boasted length of 100 feet). The walls of both, particularly so of the house, are good and solid to this day. Christian (3) was a large, well proportioned and athletic man, retaining unusual health and vigor of both body and mind up to the time of his death. He was an Elder in the Mennonite Church and wore a long beard, which in his later years had turned white. Regular stated Mennonite meetings were held in his house, until a building for that purpose was erected in his neighborhood. He lived during the Revolutionary War and foraging parties took off some of his horses and cattle carrying with them large quantities of flour and grain from his mill. On one occasion his wife's pewter dishes and spoons and an oven full of newly baked bread and pies shared the same fate. During the winter in which the American Army was encamped at Valley Forge a number of disabled soldiers were quartered in the Old Lutheran Church near Brickersville, and were supplied weekly with milk and other necessaries of life from his and neighboring farms.

As already stated, he died on the 14th day of September in the year 1807, and lies buried in the family grave yard on top of the hill opposite the building of the said place. His wife Catherine, who is said to have been an amiable and greatly esteemed person, survived him several years. They had a family of twelve children, as follows:

Christian B. Eby (4), the second child of Christian Eby (3), was married to Veronica Hershey, daughter of Christian and Anna Hershey, on the 2nd of December, 1788. She was born November 19, 1766 and died February 4, 1826. They received the old homestead on Hammer Creek, where they lived and died, and both lie buried in the family grave yard, near their forefathers. They had a family of nine children, as follows:

From the Biographical Annals of Lancaster County, Pa. published by J.H. Beers & Company in 1903 we extracted the following:

"SEM EBY (deceased) was a miller, and followed his trade in the northern part of Lancaster County for many years. Born at Hammer Creek, he was reared on the farm, and was the son of Christian Eby. Learning the milling trade early in life, after his marriage he bought what was known as the Cedar Run Mill, now termed the Martin Mill, located in Earl Township. Five years after his marriage he sold this property and bought a farm in Leacock township, consisting of 132 acres, located near Gordonville. This was his home for thirteen years, when he sold out and removed to the old Frantz farm in Leacock township, comprising 132 acres, and there he lived until his death in 1881, at the age of seventy-two years. He owned four farms and bore a reputation as a progressive and successful farmer. In the Mennonite Church, to which he belonged, he served as a deacon.

Sem Eby and Anna Frantz, a daughter of Jacob Frantz, of Leacock township, were married early in life, and lived together many years. She died at the age of eighty, the mother of eleven children: Jacob F., of Intercourse; Elias, a resident of Strasburg; Benjamin, a miller of Paradise; Christian and Samuel, who are dead; Amos, a resident of Paradise; Ezra, Henry and Joseph, who are all dead; John H., living on the old homestead in Leacock township; Lizzie, unmarried."

From the biography of one of Sem's sons we extracted the following which partially duplicates the preceding article but is worth relating:

The Eby family has given to Lancaster county some of its most worthy and respected citizens. During life the late Sem Eby was one of the leading men of the county, in the northwestern part of which he was born, in 1808, and he passed out of life in 1881. The major part of his life was employed in agriculture in Leacock township, where he accumulated much property and was regarded as not only an excellent man of business and a fine farmer, but also an upright and liberal citizen, and worthy member of the Old Mennonite church. His interest was displayed in many ways in county and township affairs, and for a long period he served on the school board. Sem Eby married Annie Frantz, the daughter of a neighbor, Jacob Frantz; She was two years his junior, and survived him nine years, dying in 1890. In all good works in the Old Mennonite church, she was a leader, and a fit help-mate for her husband, who for many years was one of the elders.

A family of eleven children were born to Sem and Annie Eby: Jacob F., a resident of Intercourse; Lizzie, a resident of Leaman Place; Elias, of this biography; Benjamin, a resident of Paradise township; Christian, who died in childhood; Samuel, a former resident of Leaman Place who died in 1900, at the age of fifty-nine, and left two children; Amos, a resident of Paradise township; Ezra, who died at the age of thirteen; Joseph and Henry, who both died in infancy; and John, who resides in Leacock township, on the old homestead.

Sem and Anna had a family of eleven children, ten males and one female. Four boys died young, but six married to carry on the family name. Lizzie, their only daughter, never married.
Chapter Four covers the family of Benjamin F. (6) and in contrast to his father Sem, it might be interesting to point out that in 1973 he had only three Ebys to carry on the family name.

The father of those three, Thomas Kain Eby (9) resides on Swedesford Road, Ambler, R.D. #1, Pa. 19002, has sons Keith born in 1964, Kent born in 1966 and Richard, my namesake, born in 1972. These three boys are the only ones in the Benjamin (6C) line felt to carry on the Eby name. Their father is the son of Silas Warren Eby, Jr. (8), the son of Silas Warren Eby (7C) the son of Benjamin F. Eby (6C) Silas Warren (7) was my uncle and of course, his son Silas Warren (8C), my first cousin.

From the Biographical Annals of Lancaster County, Pa. Published by J.H. Beers & Company in 1903 we extracted the following:

"Elias Eby was born October 6, 1836, was reared to farm life and grew up a self-reliant, well-informed young man, who at the age of twenty-seven was thoroughly prepared to take charge of large farming operations for himself. Renting a farm in Strasburg township he paid close attention to it and was rewarded by large harvests, and as the years passed by, his means increased, so that in the spring of 1896 he was able to retire from activity. Purchasing a pleasant home in Strasburg, he removed thither and now enjoys life in that pleasant borough.

On December 1, 1863, he married Mary Ann Buckwalter, a daughter of Benjamin and Susan (Jontz) Buckwalter, who was born in Leacock township, on November 7, 1841. Four children have come to bless this union: Enos B., a farmer and implement dealer, whose sad death occurred May 19, 1900, at the age of thirty-five years, six months and twelve days, leaving his widow, Lettie (Herr) Eby, with five children: Morris, Ruth, Ralph, Elias, and Emma; Anna V., born Aug. 23, 1866, who married Ambrose Esbenshade, resides in Philadelphia and has one daughter, Marion; B. Milton, born September 15, 1867, a resident of Lancaster, who married Bertha Ingram, and has one daughter, Arline; and Harry S., born March 21, 1874, who is in the employ of the Strasburg Railroad Company.

For many years both Mr. and Mrs. Eby have been devout, generous, efficient and valued members of the Old Mennonite Church and are among the most respected citizens of the township and borough of Strasburg."

From the Biographical Annals of Lancaster County, Pa. published by J.H. Beers in 1903 we extracted the following articles relating to Amaziah B. Eby and his father Benjamin F. Eby:

"Amaziah B. Eby is a practical machinist, ranking among the foremost of the trade in the State, and a man of high character. He is alert and keen-eyed, intelligent and awake to all the demands his calling makes upon him.

Benjamin Eby, his father, was the third son of Sem Eby, and was born May 7, 1838. He was reared as a farm boy, and his education was such as was afforded by the local day and public schools. He began operations for himself when he was twenty-four years of age, renting property and engaging in farming for twenty years on the land of others. At the end of that period he bought himself a farm of fifty-four acres in Leacock township, near Ellsworth post office, where he has been engaged in general farming for many years. In 1897 he purchased the George Beiler property at Paradise, and made it his home. The place consists of eleven acres of land, with a chopping mill and machine shop, where general machine repairing is done. The milling department is under the management of Mr. Eby, while his son, Amaziah, has charge of the machine work.

Mr. Eby was married in November, 1862, to Miss Hattie Buckwalter, a daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Rohrer) Buckwalter. Mrs. Eby died in 1867 at the age of twenty-six years, leaving two children, Amaziah B. and Ada E. In 1869 Mr. Eby was married to Miss Elizabeth Hoover, a daughter of Benjamin and Barbara (Brackbill) Hoover. To this marriage were born the following children: Annie, Lena, Amanda, Amos, Naomi, and Silas. Annie is the wife of John R. Frantz, a miller at Millersville; Lena is the wife of C.H. Harsh, a farmer of Byerstown. Mr. and Mrs. Eby belong to the Old Mennonite Church, and stand high in the community.

Amaziah B. Eby, who has charge of the machine shop connected with his father's property at Paradise, has made himself quite a reputation as a master at his calling, and has worked in some of the leading shops of the section, notably at Hagerstown. He is regarded as a young man of far more than the ordinary promise, and much is expected of him."

Died: Dec. 21, 1919
Daughter of Daniel McKillips
Born: Aug. 31, 1817
Died: Nov. 21, 1890
and Christianna Denlinger
Born: May 15, 1815
Died: Sept. 3, 1889

From the Biographical Annals of Lancaster Country, Pa. published by J.H. Beers in 1903 we extracted the following:

"Amos Eby was born Aug. 29, 1843, and was reared on the old homestead. His education was secured in the public schools, and he remained at home working for his father until he was twenty-nine years of age. On Oct. 31, 1872, he married Miss Anna McKillips, a daughter of Daniel and Christianna (Denlinger) McKillips. Mrs. Eby was born in Upper Leacock township March 24, 1848, and is the mother of one daughter, Laura M., born Sept. 2, 1880. The family are members of the Presbyterian Church.

After Amos Eby was married he located on the north end of the old homestead in Leacock township, where he remained engaged in farming twenty-four years. He gave considerable attention to dairying, and long had a milk route in Paradise. During these years he handled farm implements and fertilizers quite extensively. Some years ago he purchased a lot in Paradise, where he built a fine residence and made his home. Mr. Eby is extensively engaged in the manufacture of farm fertilizers, some of his make being widely known, such as the Pequea "Phosphate," "Economy," the "Ammoniated," and the "Farmers' Mixture". His goods are sold in Lancaster county, and the business is a very prosperous one.

Mrs. Eby has been an invalid for twenty years, and has suffered greatly, though her suffering has not proved sufficient to break down the sweetness of her disposition and the unselfishness of her heart."

NOTE: John and Elizabeth Eby lived on the Eby Homestead in Leacock Township until their death. John lived here his entire life. John H. Eby was admired by many of his grandchildren because of his stature (almost six feet), wisdom and Christian principles. He was much respected man in the church and community. Many people called him uncle John even if they weren't related.

John was interested in the Sunday School movement of the middle eighties and served as treasure of the Paradise Mennonite Sunday School for many years. He also served as a trustee of the Paradise Mennonite Church of which he and his wife were life long members.
