INTRODUCTION

The beginning of this book was to have been a history of the King family in Preston County, West Virginia. After collecting data for a year it developed that the data thus far gathered would make a better Genealogy for several related families, all of whom were among the early settlers in Grant and Pleasant Districts, Preston County, W. Va. (These Districts were formed in 1852, and prior to June 20, 1863, Preston was in the state of Virginia.) Another year was spent gathering data to make more complete the families represented. The result of three years work is herewith presented by an amateur of no previous experience as a genealogist, and it is hoped that it may, in part, supplement the genealogical work already done in 1914 by Cole and Morton, and that others will take sufficient interest in the history of their respective families to continue to carry on with the genealogical records in the future.

In a work of this kind many mistakes are found and special effort was made to copy records exactly as they were found in Bibles, on tombstones or wherever the information was obtained, some of which may conflict with data found in another place. Where names and dates were not supplied space is purposely left blank for such names and dates to be filled in by those having the information, and desiring the record complete.

The writer being remote from the source of information wrote hundreds of letters and the response and assistance given was indeed encouraging and helped greatly to complete this work. I am truly grateful to those who assisted to secure data.

The index number at the beginning of each family record is for the purpose of locating the parent record of preceding generation quickly and accurately. The last figure in any index number represents the number of the child in the parent family record and the remainder of the number (excluding the last figure) represents the parent family index number.

Edward Thorp King.

JAMES KING
OF LAUREL RUN, (NOW) GRANT DISTRICT,
PRESTON COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA

1. JAMES KING - b. June 5, 1777 - d. April 29, 1864, buried on the "Tiny" (Valentine) King farm, now owned by Albert Metheny near Laurel Run Church. Probably married twice, 1st, according to the Preston County History (Cole and Morton) Elizabeth Hempstead, and 2nd, according to grave stone record, Emma Short - b. 1779 - d. May 8, 1843, buried near the grave of James King. James King was one of five King brothers who was enroute westward from Oldtown or Winchester, Virginia, and it is claimed by some that these Kings were from Staunton, Va. James, John and Valentine settled along Laurel Run, while Thomas and Isaac seem to have continued westward, as very little record can be found of the latter two.

Children of James King:
1. Anne - m. Bayles Shaw, and died near Mannington, W. Va.

THE KING FAMILY IN GRANT DISTRICT

2. THOMAS KING - One of the family of five brothers who supposedly came from Winchester, Virginia. No other record is found of this man, and he, in all probability, went on westward and did not remain at Laurel Run with his brothers, James, John and Valentine.

3. ISAAC KING - Did not remain for any length of time in Grant District, but no doubt went farther west in the early days of westward immigration. There is no record in Preston County of any of his family. His name appears in the Preston County History (Morton and Cole) as having married Elizabeth McCollum, daughter of Daniel, 1754 - 1842 (James 1725 - 1800). The name, I. D. King, appears in the Church records of the Hazel Run Baptist Church, when on Nov. 15, 1856, I. D. King was invited to preach the Church dedication sermon on Nov. 30, 1856. It is claimed by some that these early Kings were all ministers.

4. JOHN KING* - b. 1784 - d. Aug. 30, 1848, buried on the Jehu King farm near Laurel Run Church, Grant District, Preston County, W. Va. - Built and operated a saw and grist mill which was run by water power. The foundation of this old mill is located near the now abandoned Laurel Run school house near the present Laurel Run Church. - Very little information can be found of his family. He seems to have married Elizabeth Show or Betty Messenger, of Wood Grove Furnace. Lived near his mill and probably on the "Jimmie King" place near Laurel Run Church.

Children:
3. Margaret - m. Thomas Douglas.

*NOTE—

The writer can not vouch for the correctness of this family record as many conflicting reports were received regarding the families of John and Valentine King.
VALENTINE KING
AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

5. VALENTINE KING, one of the five King brothers, who came from near Winchester, Virginia, and settled at Laurel Run, in Grant District, Preston County, West Virginia. In 1788 he purchased 185 acres of land from George McDonald for three hundred and seventy dollars, with improvements. This farm was known as the "Tiny" King farm, and in later years owned by Jehu King. An abandoned cemetery on this farm contains the graves of many of the pioneers of the early Laurel Run settlement. One marker contains the letters "V. K.", probably the grave of Valentine King. His wife was Ruth Fleming-b. Mar. 6, 1796, daughter of John Fleming (Archibald). -She died about 1882. A letter written August 19, 1890, by Francis A. Fleming, of Arcana, Grant County, Indiana, quotes "* * * Ruth Fleming married Voluntine King, had two children, William and Issac, and died at the age of 86 or 87." * * *

SOME DESCENDANTS OF JOB THORP.

1. JOB THORP - b. about 1730 - d. about 1762, lived in Middlesex County, N. J., during the middle of the Eighteenth century. His wife, Sarah, was born April 7, 1733. More recent generations of this family added the letter "e" to the name, making it Thorpe, while the old Bible records spelled it Thorp.

Children:
1. Mary - b. April 30, 1752.

After the death of Job Thorp his widow, Sarah, married WILLIAM SPENCER, who was born May 8, 1739.

Aug. 23, 1778, Hannah Lobdell - b. Sept. 11, 1760 - d. Nov. 14, 1826, buried near Ohio Pyle, Penn. - This family came to Fayette County (Hist. of Fayette, by Ellis, 1882) in 1792, and purchased one hundred and fifty acres of land of the Askins tract, for one hundred pounds. Tradition has it that this family lived under an oak tree until they could construct a house. On this farm was an orchard of early bearing which was almost wholly destroyed by a storm in July, 1851. Some of the trees were taken up and carried a distance of half a mile and nearly everything in the line of the storm was destroyed. Rheuben Thorpe formerly had a public house and carried on a distillery in the days when the old Turkeyfoot road was one of the lines of travel from Somerset to Uniontown. Rheuben Thorpe served during the...
Revolution between 1775 and 1780. The record of his services is found in the Adjutant General's Office, State of New Jersey; in Department of Interior, Bureau of Pensions; and in the Adjutant General's Office, War Department, Washington, D. C. (1378018). In the cemetery on the old Thorpe homestead near Ohio Pyle, Penn., is a large monument erected "to the memory of Rheuben Thorpe," by his descendants, and a bronze marker has been placed at his grave by the Monongahelia Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

HISTORICAL RECORDS OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
OF BRUCE TON MILLS, W. VA.

From an Old Church Book.

The Bruceton Mills Charge of the Oakland District, West Virginia Conference, was taken in 1894 from the Brandonville charge which is one of the very oldest in the state. It covers the southern and western portions of Grant District and a considerable area in the west of Pleasant. It reaches to Cheat River and Laurel Ridge and even extends into Fayette County, Penn. Its territory has no equal in Preston County in point of beauty and fertility. Its undulating expanse is seldom too broken for successful farming and the graceful  (illegible) is dotted with spacious and comfortable farm houses, the inviting appearances of which is easily understood when one gazes over the well tilled fields. An Occasional border of woodland adds beauty to the summer scenery. The people are intelligent and thrifty. The very poor are scarcely found among them. They are well informed of the current news of the day and progressive in the matter of schools. The proportions of resident teachers holding first grade certificates is greater than any where else in the county. Ever since the separate existance of this charge it has been ministred to by Rev. Charles E. Feather, the fact that he has been returned for four successive years is of itself an eloquent witness to the ability, faithfulness and zeal which he has devoted to those under his care.

There are eight appointments. Bruceton Mills, Sugar Valley, Harmony Grove, Pisgah, Laurel Run, Hopewell, Faulkenstine, and Wirsing. At all but the last two are church buildings, their aggregate value being $5000.00. None are more than fifteen years old, all are well looked after and in size, appearance and condition, there is little to choose between them. The membership of the charge is about 400 and is made up of the best element of the community. Revival meetings have been held every year with good results. During these four years 100 persons have been added to the fold. At Bruceton Mills a pleasant little village of well painted houses and lying on the banks of Big Sandy sixteen miles from Kingwood. The church edifice stands on the border of the town and will seat 450 people. Not infrequently it is well filled although in the village itself the number of inhabitants is not above 100. The class leader for the entire four years has been J. P. Bowermaster. That as many as 50 persons often attend the class meetings is an effective testimonial to his acceptability. He is miller, squire and landlord. Another prominent member is T. S. Cunningham a prosperous farmer and member of the district board of education. The oldest member at the date of organization of this work was Joseph Feather a wealthy citizen who died June 29, 1896 aged 80 years. Mrs. T. S. Cunningham is the present stewardess and Mrs. J. H. Feather the present Sunday school superintendent. T. S. Cunningham was Superintendent during the years 1894 to 1897. Ella DeBerry was president of the Epworth League in 1894 and Mrs. Lizzie Miller in 1895, since then the league has not been maintained.

Sugar Valley is three and one half miles south of Bruceton Mills on the Kingwood pike. The trustees are Hadey Smith, A. A. Bishop, Staley Liston and Marshall A. Wolfe. G. A. Bishop is also steward. P. B. Michael is also class leader. John G. Cale was Sunday school superintendent in 1895, Mrs. P. B. Michael in 1896 and M. A. Wolfe since then. G. A. Bishop, P. B. Michael and Allen Miller are among the leading members. They are all farmers. The first is district steward, the last was steward in 1895.

Harmony Grove lies four miles south east of Sugar Valley among the Cheat River hills. The trustees are John Galloway, Elisha Jenkins, Henry Seal, Thompson Graham and Nelson Gibson. John Galloway is Class leader and Henry Seal steward. John Galloway was Sunday school superintendent in 1895. Abraham Gibson in 1896. Thatcher Cale in 1897 and Chas. Beerbower in 1898. Henry Seal in an old worker and an earnest advocate for christian interests. Another father in this church was James Shaw who died at the age of 84.

Pisgah is six miles from Harmony Grove and by the Morgantown pike seven miles from Bruceton Mills. The trustees are Ervin and J. Christopher, Jesse Cale, R. F. and Abner F. Walls, George King and Jonathan Gibson. Irvin Christopher is class leader and D. A. Ryan steward. R. F. Walls was president of the league in 1896, Jonathan Gibson since then. Daniel Ryan was Sunday school superintendent in 1895, E. B. Walls in 1896 and 1897, Newton Rogers in 1898. R. F. Walls is a leading farmer and a great church worker. He is a son of George Walls who was class leader thirty years and died two years ago. E. Benton Walls is a merchant.

Laurel Run is two miles from Pisgah on the way to Bruceton. The trustees are Obediah Metheny, Sanfred Ryan, Wm. Metheny, Hosea King and R. F. Walls. The latter is also class leader. Sanfred Ryan is steward, Hosea King was Sunday school superintendent in 1895 and Sanfred Ryan from 1896 to 1898. Obediah Metheny was president of the league in 1895 and 1896 and Hosea King in 1897 and 1898. Wm. Metheny, Hosea King and Sanfred Ryan all farmers are among the most active workers.

Hopewell also on the Morgantown pike is two miles from Bruceton and three miles from Laurel Run. The trustees are A. S. McNair, T. S. Cunningham, and John Collins. Thurman King is steward and A. S. McNair has been class leader for twenty years. Frank Speelman was Sunday school superintendent in 1895, Thurman King in 1896, John Collins in 1897 and Thurman King in 1898. A. S. McNair and John Collins all farmers are among the leading members.

Falkenstine is five miles north west of Bruceton Mills. At this point a commodious school house is used in place of a church. Joseph Reckard is class leader assisted by L. Warman. Samuel Nedro is steward. Charles Thomas was Sunday school superintendent in 1895 and 1896. L. Warman in 1897 and Abner Liston in 1898. Joseph Reckard a wealthy farmer and an old time Methodist and John Spiker also a farmer are leading members.

Wirsing lies two and one half miles north east from Falkenstine and just beyond the Pennsylvania line. This appointment is now suspended since by the laws of that state, that school houses may not be used for public worship. Efforts are being made to have a church building provided. John Wirsing is class leader. Mansel Wirsing is steward and since 1895 Sunday school superintendent.

(signed) C. E. Feather.

T. R. Faulkner took charge of the work in 1901 following E. P. Idleman. It consisted of eight appointments viz: Bruceton, East View, Hopewell, Laurel Run, Pisgah, Harmony Grove, Sugar Valley and Pleasant Valley. Protracted meetings were held at all of the appointments and each appointment had preaching once in three weeks on the sabbath. The same pastor was reappointed to the charge for another year. During the year a lot was bought and paid for in Bruceton for the purpose of building a church. A church here has been a felt need for some time. It is to be hoped in the near future that Bruceton will be able to boast of a neat, comfortable and attractive church. Several hundred dollars have been subscribed and some of it paid for this purpose. The Conference returned me for the third time. We had some good meetings this year. A number were converted and a fine class of probationers were received into full membership at Laurel Run. The Bruceton church has been in process of erection but not completed. Special mention should be made of Sister Cochran of Dawson, Penn., who contributed $150.00 toward the church. Sister Maria Ringer of Terra Alta, W. Va. presented a fine pulpit suite and brother J. W.
Feather of Mountain Lake Park, Md. donated (illegible) for the church and parsonage. The Terra Alta Marble works donated the corner stone. I close this the third year of my pastorate with gratitude to God and to my brethren, to Him for sustaining grace and to them for sympathy and co-operation in the work. May God's riches and blessing rest upon them. May prosperity attend the charge in all the future.

HAZEL RUN BAPTIST CHURCH

The only indications to be found today, of the old Hazel Run Baptist Church is the stone foundation on which it stood. It is located about three and one-half miles northwest of Bruceton Mills, Preston County, W. Va., on a three-cornered lot at the junction of three roads leading from it to Mountain Grove Church, and to the White School and to Bruceton Mills.

The following information regarding the history and membership of the Church is found in the old Church Book, which fortunately has been well preserved for nearly eighty years. The book contains seventeen year's records of the activities of the church and it is regretted that space does not permit publishing the complete record.

The membership seems to have been scattered over a large territory, when a glance at the list of names and where they lived at that time, would indicate.

At a meeting of the church, July 1, 1856, the Church Covenant and Rules were adopted and signed by the following persons: Catherine Strawser, Margaret Brown, Catherine Bright, Hanah Wheeler, Sarah Ann Connelly, Eliza Smith, Mary Ann Harned, Catherine A. Fuller, Hanah Bright, Sarah M. Wheeler, Sarah Myers, Sally M. Laub, Nancy Jane Haines, Phebe Wheeler, Nancy Myers, Charles Connelly, Phillip Pringey, George W. Myers, Jacob Mosser, Phebe Mosser, and Jane Bright.

August 23, 1856, among other business transacted, it was resolved “that this church be called The Hazel Run Church” and again at the meeting on Nov. 15, 1856, “Resolved that the Hazel Run Church be dedicated Nov. 30, 1856. Resolved that we invite Bro. I. D. King to preach the dedication sermon.”

The ministers and the years they served were: P. G. Sturgis, 1856 to 1858; Geo. W. Hertzog, 1858 to 1869; P. G. Sturgis, 1869 to 1870; John Williams, 1870 to 1871; Benjamin Brown, 1871 to 1873.

The following persons were the trustees and deacons of the church: Jacob Mosser, Charles P. Connelly, Wm. Harned, Frederick Pringey, John Sommers, Phillip Pringey, J. Colyer, Martin Luthern, J. Smith.

“Saturday, June 20, 1857 * * * Resolved that the deacons Jacob Mosser and Chas. P. Connelly be the Trustees of the Hazel Run Baptist Church and that they be and are now authorized to get the deed for the land given the said church by James Benson the deed to be made to the said deacons and their successors in office for the above named church.”

The records for the years following indicate that the church evidently prospered under the leadership of the ministers and officers already mentioned. Protracted meetings were held nearly every year which added new names to the membership. On the other hand many members were excluded from the church for various offenses, in some cases the offense is mentioned and in others no reason is stated for the member being “excluded.” For instance, one member is excluded for “conduct unbecoming a Christian,” and another for “embracing Cambelite’s doctrine,” and another “for immoral conduct,” and “anyone knowing to be intoxicated shall be excluded from the fellowship of the church.”

“Aprile the 4th A. D. 1868 * * * On motion Bro. R. Miller & R. Arnold were appointed to make a trade of land with Bro. William.
Harned for hitching purposes. Approved by the church the trade was made and confirmed.”

Other denominations evidently used this church building. At the meeting on July 15, 1868, “the Church authorized the trustees to see the other denominations using the house heretofore care an equal share of repairs or they will be deprived of preaching in our church.”

The last two entries in the original church book are as follows: “August the 23 1873. Brother Jacob Mosser, moderator. Moved and seconded for Brothers J. Sumy, Luther Collins, Samuel Rayman, Rev. B. F. Brown to be sent as delegates to the association with the Indian Creek Church. Carried. Moved and seconded to remodel this church book. Carried. And this constitution. Moved and seconded to appoint a committee to raise balance of money needed to pay for repairing this church. Committee names Brothers Jacob Mosser, Samuel Romesburg, Wm. Smith. Adjourned to meet Saturday, Sept. the 3, 1873 at lamp liting.”

“September the 3 1873. Church met. Moderator, Brother Jefferson Sumy. Letter was read before the church, approved. * * * Moved and seconded to approve the new constitution and articles of faith to be attached. Moved and seconded to retain this book as reference. Moved and seconded to have church meeting the second Sunday of September at 11 o’clock at Center.”

SALEM CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN.

The early history of the Salem Church of the Brethren dates back to about 1830. At that time there was no church building for meetings and the occasional visits into the community by ministers were always occasions for services, which were held in homes of the early settlers. School houses, and even barns were used for services for large gatherings.

One of the homes used for these meetings during the early period of the church was the home of Jacob M. Thomas, who became one of the first ministers. Jacob M. Thomas was born March 15, 1795, and died Nov. 21, 1881, and was buried on his own farm near Salem Church. He was the oldest son of Michael Thomas, of Welch descent, and Magdalena Maust, of German descent, and was reared on his father's farm at Markleysburg, Penn., near the West Virginia state line. In 1818 he married Mary Fike, bought a farm in Grant District, Preston County, W. Va., and lived there the rest of his life. After the death of Mary Fike Thomas he married Hepsy Davis.

At the age of thirty-five, Jacob M. Thomas united with the church, and became an earnest Bible student from the start. He could read English and German equally well, had a wonderful memory, and soon possessed a store of helpful biblical knowledge. In 1836 he was called to the ministry in the Sandy Creek congregation, which was organized in 1835. In 1841 he was ordained, the first Bishop in the First District of what is now West Virginia. For forty-five years he preached a free gospel, and gave practically all his energies to the Master's work. When eighty-five, Bishop Thomas, by special request, preached the first sermon, the Saturday evening before the dedication, in the large church in Markleysburg, Penn.

Salem Church is located in Grant District, Preston County, W. Va., about four miles northeast of Brandonville. The first church house was built about 1842. It was forty by eighty feet in size. The old Salem church was replaced by the present one in 1890. It was first built thirty-five by fifty feet, and later to accommodate the growing congregation, a wing twenty-five by thirty-five feet was added to it.

When this first church was built there were two ministers, Jacob M. Thomas, and John Boger, who did the preaching. John Boger preached in German and was well versed in the Scripture. Boger wrote a small book in German on the Second Coming of Christ. He died in 1852.
The Lutheran Churches of north and eastern Preston County, West Virginia, were included in the Brandonville charge of the Virginia Synod. One of these is St. Peters, now (1933) sixty years old. This Church at present is not supplied with a minister, but maintains a fine Sunday School. The territory of this Church membership extends from Hopewell to Clifton Mills and Wirsing (Penn.) and membership was made up mostly of persons living between Hazel Run and Mary’s Run, western tributaries of Big Sandy.

Up to 1850 no Lutherans were residents on the west side of Big Sandy Creek, but in that year, John Haines, whose father came from Germany, came here from Centerville, Somerset County, Penn., and with his five sons, Jonas, Jacob, Henry, Silas and John, and also two son-in-laws, Jonathan Laub and Jonathan Nedrow, purchased a tract of nearly five thousand acres of land in the Hazel Run settlement, and the edge of Pennsylvania. They were the first Lutherans in that section and were later followed by the Spindlers and Philip Gardner, of Clifton Mills, W. Va., and the Hartmeyers, of Hopewell. This respectable Lutheran element sought to secure a church service nearer than the Crab Orchard and The Frankhouser settlement, and secured occasional preaching by Rev. Nicksdorf, in the old Hazel Run School House, which was located on the left side of the road leading from the mountain to Bruceton Mills. It was destroyed by fire about 1912. These frequent services occurred between 1850 and 1856. The pioneer Lutherans contributed to the building of the Hazel Run Baptist Church, in which they organized and worshiped there up to 1870. The old Hazel Run Church is now out of existence, it being sold to a Mr. Molsby, who removed the building and rebuilt it for a farm building on the farm formerly owned by George Maust.

In 1870, when an account of conflicting services of other denominations, it was deemed advisable to build a Church of their own. Three sites were selected, one near Joseph Dillows, another near Kantner School House, and the third where the church now stands, being the site finally selected. The ground was donated by George Maust and John Haines.

Andrew Spindler was the contractor who erected the church building for the sum of thirteen hundred and sixty dollars. The Church was dedicated Dec. 18, 1870, by the Rev. J. G. Cambell, president of the Synod, assisted by Rev. J. H. Cupp and Rev. J. W. Tressler. The building is thirty-six by forty-eight feet in size, is built on a cut stone foundation. The material in the building is all hard wood. Has a very fine pulpit, now covered with a black and red Brussels carpet, which was donated by Smith W. Hill, who also donated the five chandeliers. Seating capacity is two hundred and fifty people.

On the ground adjacent to the church a cemetery was opened and the first interment was the body of Jacob Haines in the spring of 1871.

The St. Peters Church was organized Dec. 27, 1861, by Rev. J. R. Melhorn, of Pennsylvania, and the original members and officers were:
Jonas Haines and George Beerbower, Elders;
Jacob Haines and Andrew Spindler, Deacons;
George Laub, Secretary, served from 1870 to 1900.

Rev. Summers, Cupp, and Beerbower all died in 1884.

The following from a letter by D. W. Sechler in connection with St. Peters Church:

"For the past twenty-five years the Church has been without a pastor, due to the fact that few Lutherans remain in that section of the County. Much credit is due Mrs. Mary Thornton, wife of David Thornton, who gave much of her time from about 1906 to 1915 keeping the Church in repair. She also had a fence constructed to enclose the cemetery and church building. Mrs. Thornton died about 1927, at the home of Mrs. I. E. Haines, and was buried in the St. Peter Cemetery. A funeral unattended by relatives.

"In the year of 1927, after seeing the condition of the cemetery and Church, my mother, Mrs. Martha Bell (Maust) Sechler, daughter of George Maust, who donated the ground for the Church, persuaded me into trying to repair the building and cleaning of the cemetery. I secured all the names of those who had relatives buried there and wrote them asking for donations towards the work, and the same plan has been followed each succeeding year, and at the present time we have the cemetery in fine condition and all graves cared for and well marked. Two Civil War soldiers are buried in the cemetery. "Colonel" William Adey and Samuel Wheeler husband of Lucinda R. Wheeler, one of the first members of the church.

"The Church building is in fine state of repairs. The foundation repaired, new chimney built, new stone steps, the interior has been papered and all wood-work painted, and new carpet furnished.

"I truly think that this is an old land mark that the people of that section should be very anxious to preserve."
