A people that takes no pride in the noble achievements of remote ancestors will never achieve anything worthy to be remembered with pride by remote generations.

HAUGHEY ARMS

Wheat, emblematic of wealth

Wheat in Fess, the belt or banner of a Commanding General

Red Chief — signifies Royalty

Peacock — signifies Pomp and Power

The Motto is Irish and means

"A Plain Honest Man"
The Haughey family in the U.S. is made up from emigrants who came from the ancestral home in County Armagh, and Down, Ireland. The name is derived from EOCHAIDHA which was the name of the fifty-first king of Ulster. The name signifies a Mounted Knight or a Horseman. The development from the ancient spelling to the modern spelling can be traced in Duidl Mac Firbis "Annals of the Four Masters" and in his Chronicum Scotorum. In the index of the latter, following Ua Eochaidha in parenthesis is O'Hoe, Hoey, King of Uladh. The modern families are descendants of the O'Haugheys of the 11th and 12th centuries and of Eochaidha, King of Ulster in 1014. Mac Firbis in his "Four Masters" published in 1666 says O'Heoghy was the original name of the rulers of Ulidia (Ulster) and that the name was still to be found in that County (Down) as Haughey, Hoey, etc. The prefix O in early times designated the son of or the descendant of. Surnames later were used and then at times the O or Mac was omitted.

According to family lore the earliest members of the Haughey family in America were brothers Thomas (the line of which this booklet follows) and Patrick Haughey who came to Penn., probably near Philadelphia about 1725. Haugheys are found in marriage lists of Delaware in 1752 and on tax lists in 1776. Delaware at that time, however, was called the three lower counties of Penn. Like the family in Ireland the first Haugheys were Catholics but intermarriage soon results in finding names among the Quaker communities and the Presbyterian group, etc. Other Haugheys came later from the Irish Shores as research on the families here in America show. If family lore is correct, we know nothing of Patrick Haughey's descendants at this time, unless they are the Delaware families.

Thomas, the Emigrant, married and had a son John; how many more children we do not know. Thus John becomes the first of this family genealogy born in America and it is through his son, Thomas, a Revolutionary Soldier of Virginia, that the many branches represented in the following manuscript can proudly trace their ancestry.

Perhaps it is well here to say a word about the correct pronunciation of the name Haughey. Someone said it is He-Haw (Horsemen!!) backwards. Thus use two syllables Haw-He. True many have shortened the pronunciation and thus we get the Hoy, Huey, Hoey, etc. who may belong to our Haughey common ancestry.
SOUTHWESTERN VIRGINIA

"Southwest Virginia comprises all that portion of the state running down wedge-shaped between Kentucky on the north and North Carolina and Tennessee on the south, reaching the Alleghenies in the east to the Cumberland Gap in the west. This area is some 230 miles in length with an average width of about 100 miles and embraces 15 counties...of these counties Carroll, Grayson and Washington join N.C. ... Montgomery, Pulaski, Giles, Grayson, and Wythe are in what is known as the Valley of New River; Smyth and Washington in the Valley of the Holston; Russell and Scott in the Valley of Clinch and Lee in Powell's Valley...The mountains of Carroll and Grayson are pregnant with copper and iron...Wythe is rich in iron, coal and lead. Smyth and Washington...could glut the markets with salt and gypson...blue grass of Tazwell, Bland and Buchanan would fatten the cattle on a thousand hills...with rare exception this whole country abounds with limestone...No country under the sun is blessed with a more genial summer climate, purer water or grander scenery."(1) This is the merest outline of Southwestern Virginia—the land of the "Over the Mountain Men", the land of "Before the Gates of the Wilderness", the land of "Wilburn Waters, the Bear Hunter of White Top Mountain". It is to this land that the Haugheys about whom this genealogy is concerned came, just when though, the writer is not sure.

"England paid dearly for her Irish policy" says Jos. Waddell in his "Annals of Augusta Co. Va." The fiercest enemies she had in 1776 were the descendants of the Scotch-Irish who had held Ulster against James II. The people of Ulster (the Haugheys came from Armagh Co. Ulster, Ireland, according to family records) had heard of Pennsylvania and the religious liberty accorded there, so came to that region in droves. But the people of Pennsylvania seemed jealous at that time and strict measures were adopted against the Scotch-Irish element, so many migrated into Virginia. Whether this was the case with the Haugheys is not known but it could have been.

This work may not be the first organized effort to present this family as one of the early Pre-Revolutionary pioneers but up to now the writer is unable to find any public or published writings. Stephen G. Haughey (see 5th generation) who is at this writing (1954) 85 years of age, says that he visited the land of the Haugheys in Armagh Co. Ulster, Ireland, while serving as Chaplain overseas in England during World War I. It is the hope of the writer that further research may be done and added to this meager beginning.

GENEALOGICAL AND HISTORICAL RECORD of the
DESCENDENTS OF JOHN HAUGHEY

FIRST GENERATION

John Haughey

Little or nothing is known yet concerning John Haughey. He is, family research says, the first of the 'clan' born on this side of the waters, a son of Thomas Haughey, the Emigrant.

Family history also says he was in Pennsylvania, probably Philadelphia. Also up to this point it is not known whether he took part in the Revolution. Whether he and the family were ever in Grayson Co. Va. (which was Fincastle 1772-1777 and Montgomery 1777-1790) where his son Thomas first appears on tax records (found in the Archives, Richmond, Va.) as early as 1794, Grayson Co. Va. is not known. Thomas is listed in the Montgomery Co. Va. Militia 1781-1783. See Supplement.

If further research reveals anything about the John Haughey whom two or three records say is the father of Thomas Haughey of Grayson Co. Va., it will be added as a supplement. Spellings are hindering somewhat early research and even now the name is found in various ways: O'Haughey, Houghery, Haghey, Hughey, Hocky, Hockhey, Heighe, Haughe, Hauge, even Haughe, Hoy, Hoey, and Houie, etc. These spellings are on material definitely known to be or mean 'Haughey'.

Children:

(1) Thomas  b. 1759  d. 1847
There may have been others—old family letters speak of Thomas as the only son of his father John, however.
SECOND GENERATION

(1)

Thomas Haughey² (John¹)

According to the tombstone record in Hussey Graveyard, Bowersville, Ohio, Thomas was born July 20, 1759 and died Apr. 7, 1847. His wife Violet (Clanch) Haughey was born Dec. 21, 1769 and died Nov. 18, 1846. Records say Thomas was born in Virginia. There may be some question about this. He was in Virginia it is true but depending on whether his parents came to Virginia hinge the truth of his birthplace. References in biographical sketches of his descendants, statements of Revolutionary service as found in several places, all state Virginia as the original home. As stated before Thomas Haughey appears on a personal tax list of Grayson County, Va. as found in the Archives at Richmond, Va. as early as 1794 and from 1802 until 1815 on the 'Land tax' list. Refer to the supplement for additional information. Thomas married Violet Clanch about 1786. They came to Ohio about 1815, leaving it is understood only one married daughter Jane Barber in Virginia. They settled in Greene Co. Ohio.

Literature abounds with many interesting stories of early times in the Ohio country. One quite interesting story and typical of many others was found in some of the histories of Greene Co., Ohio. This is about the county seat Zenia (Greek word for Hospitality) and is substantially as follows:

Zenia — Jail

It was the 2nd day of bleak Dec. 1822. There was no person for debt in the debtor's room but there was a stove - to warm any of God's poor, if they should be thrown in, and the commissioners with an eye to economy and turning of everything to the public good, rented this stove to John McPherson, for 75 cents a month, to be returned any time, on the order of the jailor, (after a sufficient time being allowed for it to get cool).

THIRD GENERATION

Descent of John³

John³ (Thomas², John¹), the eldest son of Thomas, was evidently named after his grandfather. According to historical accounts, John preceded his father to the Ohio country. A lovely old brick home still stands south of Bowersville, Ohio (1954) as a memorial to this pioneer son. It is at this home with John that the parents Thomas and Violet spent their last days.

John was born either Jan. 2, 1787 or Jan. 18, 1789 (records vary) in Virginia. He married Patience Sturdyven (Sturdevan) about 1809 in Virginia. She was the daughter of John and Sarah Sturdeyven or Stedivan (note spellings). When their first son James N. was but a few months old the young couple came to Ohio. John died Dec. 6, 1876. The author has letters from a Mrs. Mary Patience Taylor, Alexandria, Ind., a granddaughter but does not know for sure to which of his 11 children she belongs (thinks it may be Lourena). When John and Patience first came to Ohio, they owned land on which part of Wilmington, Ohio, is now built.

Descent of Barnett³

Barnett³ (Thomas², John¹) was born in Grayson Co. Va. Apr. 4, 1792. He was married there Aug. 27, 1815 to Miss Margaret Barber b. Apr. 21, 1799 (daughter of Allen Barber by his 1st. wife) Allen Barber's 2nd wife was Jane Haughey, sister to Barnett. Shortly after his marriage he came to Union Twp., Clinton Co. Ohio and then to Greene Co. (Bowersville, Ohio) in 1829 where he lived until his death Oct. 9, 1844. They had ten children. It is understood that they came as bride and groom horseback from Grayson Co., Va. to Ohio, Margaret riding and Barnett walking at her side with his gun. Records are on file in the Greene Co. courthouse showing the land he and Margaret owned. Later Margaret married Latham Starbuck April 19, 1854.

There were six children Frank E., Ida M., Clara A., Joshua A., Barnet, and William Isaac. One son (we think it was Joshua A.) lived in Neb. and died in Colo. Miss Irvin had a brother in Atlanta, Ill.

Descent of Margaret (Peggy)³

Margaret³ (Thomas², John¹) was born in 1796 in Va., married Christopher Hussey, Jr. in Greene Co., Ohio Jan. 13, 1820. She died Nov. 1, 1837 at age 40 yrs. 11 mo. Christopher later married Catharine Lockhart b. 1817. Christopher was born Jan. 12, 1794 d. March 8, 1873.

Children (Hussey):

(41) Mary Hussey
(42) Elizabeth
(43) Joseph
(44) Nancy
Descent of Susan

Susan (Thomas, John) Susan married on Nov. 3, 1833 Isaac Pearson who came from North Carolina. Very little is known about them. They did own land near the other Haughey families. The following list of children is probably very incomplete.

Children (Pearson):

(45) Thomas He had, it is understood, 3 daughters and two sons, Thomas Gilbert Pearson Jr., and Charles Pearson. They lived at Archer, Alachua Co., Florida. Thomas Gilbert Pearson Jr. is the author of a large volume on "Birds of America".

(46) daughter

Descent of Sarah (Sally)

Sarah (Thomas, John) Little is known of Sarah. She was born Nov. 2, 1806 in Va., married David P. Lee Jan. 17, 1828 and she died Mar. 20, 1854. Undoubtedly they had several children but at present we have no complete list of them. (See Supplement)

Children (Lee):

(47) Violet Lee
(48) Mary R. Lee m. Jeremiah Stephens, son of Andrew and Ann (Smith) Stephens

Descent of Jane

Jane (Thomas, John) Jane is the one child who did not come to Ohio with her family. She was evidently married before they came in 1815 to Allen Barber as his 2nd wife. She may have been the oldest daughter though not necessarily. Allen Barber's daughter Margaret by his first wife married Barnett Haughey, brother of Jane. The will of Allen Barber in "Over The Mountain Men" by Worrell, page 54, as probated Dec. 1849, Grayson Co., Va., names wife Jane; children: Jeremiah, Thomas, Susannah Stone, Stephen, Margaret Houghery (Haughey), Elizabeth Jackson, Joseph, Violet Hatch, Mariah, Sally, Nelly Byrd, Nancy and Malinda. Just which children belonged to Jane we are not sure, probably seven or eight. It is known that Violet Hatch was her daughter, named Violet after her grandmother and married to Ebenezer Hatch. Margaret of course belonged to the 1st wife. Violet Barber Hatch resided in Jamestown, Ohio, and lived to be over 100 years old. She had a son Orange Hatch. Thomas and Joseph probably belonged to Jane as they are common names amongst the Haugheys, likewise Sally and Nancy. There was also a son Charlie Hatch.
Children (Barber):

(49) Violet m. Ebenezer Hatch
(50) Thomas
(51) Joseph

Probably others of the above also

(8)

Descent of Nancy³

Nancy³ (Thomas², John¹) b. 1802. Practically nothing is known of Nancy. Records show she married 1st James Lee in 1820, and 2nd John Ross Chapman. More thorough search of census records and marriage records of Greene Co., Ohio, would probably reveal information. This is true of some of the other sisters also. She and John Chapman are located in the 1850 census for Liberty Twp., Clinton Co., Ohio. Her age is given as 48 and his as 50. A girl S.M. Haughey age 10, is listed in their household. The child must have been a niece of Nancy, one of the brothers' daughters.

Children (Chapman):

(9)

Descent of Alice³

Alice³ (Thomas², John¹) It is only known that Alice married 1st a Mr. Sturdevan (Sturdyven) a brother to her brother's (John) wife, Patience. Later she married John Bentley and it is understood that they moved to Ill.

Children (Sturdevan):

(52) Nancy

Since making this book, additional information has come to light. Alice and John Bentley did come to Ill., settled near the other Haugheys. The tombstone inscriptions in the clear creek cemetery (near Atlanta, Ill.) reveal that Alice, wife of John Bentley died Aug. 11, 1855 age 61 yrs., 6 mo., 12 days. John Bentley was born Mar. 12, 1800 and died Oct. 23, 1893. Two other wives are buried there with him and Alice; Lucy F. aged 58 and Philena S. born Mar. 17, 1851 d. Oct. 1, 1894. A daughter, Serena Bentley, by this last wife married John Boyd. John and Alice had at least 3 children.

Children (Bentley):

(53) Rebecca b. Mar. 17, 1829 Clinton Co., Ohio. She married Jesse Oldaker and is the grandmother of Miss Jessie S. Oldaker and Miss Ethel Oldaker, Atlanta, Ill.

(54) Benonin b. 1835 d. Aug. 10, 1855

(54½) Harvey
Descent of Polly\textsuperscript{3}

Polly\textsuperscript{3} (Thomas\textsuperscript{2}, John\textsuperscript{1}) Little is known. It is thought she may have 1st married a Mr. Poague but this is only tentative. As a 2nd marriage, she married a John Hoblett, and they came to Illinois. No more is known at this time.

Children (Hoblett):

Descent of Violet\textsuperscript{3}

Violet\textsuperscript{3} (Thomas\textsuperscript{2}, John\textsuperscript{1}) Of course it is evident that she was named for her mother. One record we have says she married Johnathan Pearson and the other Edward Pearson, the date of marriage given as July 17, 1823. Marriage records in Greene Co. Ohio might be found to clear the record.

Children (Pearson):

Descent of Andrew M.\textsuperscript{3}

Andrew M.\textsuperscript{3} (Thomas\textsuperscript{2}, John\textsuperscript{1}) born in Va. 1805 came to Ohio with his father and married first Ann January on Jan. 10, 1828 and on Dec. 25, 1842 2nd Mary Ann Ellis (1819-1849), daughter of Henry and Charity (Harper) Ellis. Sometime during his active life he went to Arkansas but later returned to Greene Co. and Clinton Co., Ohio. Records at the Greene Co. Court House, Zena, Ohio, show several tracts of land belonging to him. A short will may also be found there. Evidently he lived with his daughter Susan during his last days as his will leaves all his material wealth to her. He died Feb. 14, 1875 at the age of 70 years. He is buried in the Hussey Graveyard, Bowersville, Ohio, near the graves of his parents. His sister Margaret and John, his brother, are also buried there.

Descent of Joseph³

Joseph³ (Thomas², John¹) the youngest son and child of Thomas and Violet was born in Va. Nov. 2, 1808, and died in McLean Co., Ill. July 5, 1868. He was only 7 years old when he came to Ohio with his family. On Jan. 7, 1830, he married Miss Esther White born also in Va. about 1804. She had a brother John White according to family letters who owned a shoe store in Jamestown, Ohio. Evidently Esther's parents came to Greene Co., Ohio, also, although at present nothing more is known of them. She died Jan. 19, 1889, also in McLean Co., Ill. and is buried with her husband at Roaches Chapel near Atlanta, Ill. Joseph and Esther owned land in Greene Co., Ohio, (about 105 A.). It was on the headwaters of Caesar Creek in Silver-creek Twp. being a part of a Military Survey patented to John Brown (1228). It was situated on what was known as the Pleasant Hill road and went to a stake in the county road from Port William to Jamestown. He sold 1 acre to the Methodist Protestant Society and the remaining 103 A., 2 rds. and 13 sq. poles to Robert Ross on Sept. 6, 1848, for $2,000. Then with his family (note his father Thomas and mother Violet had died the previous year) consisting of wife, 9 children, ranging in age from 17 yrs. to 4 yrs., he left Ohio in a covered wagon and came to the new Illinois Country. They first settled in Logan Co., where he rented a farm for a couple of years, then a farm was entered in Mt. Hope Twp. Joseph rented a farm for a couple of years, then a farm was entered in McLean Co. between Atlanta and McLean, Ill. This first land was 160 acres in section 1 and 12 on which he built a home and into which he moved his family in the fall of 1850. He remained there until a few years before his death and spent his last years in McLean, retired from active labor. Several hundred acres were added to his original 160 acres while farming. In McLean Joseph bought of Abijah Wood and Hannah, his wife, the N.E. ½ of the east 220 feet out of lot 4 of the town of McLean, McLean Co., Ill., Warranty Deed dated June 30, 1865. (In book 55, page 445 Court House Bloomington, Ill.)

Descent of James Martin

James Martin (Andrew H. 3, Thomas 2, John 1) was born in Ohio Nov. 7, 1833 and married Nov. 8, 1853 Miss Phoebe F. Oren. (The writer saw (1953) their marriage license in the Court House at Wilmington, Ohio, issued almost to the day 100 years ago.)

If one had the time a very interesting story could be told of the full life of James M. and his helpmate. In his youth with his father he went to Arkansas but after a few years returned to his native state and married. His wife was born near Wilmington Feb. 10, 1837, was the 7th of 10 children of a Quaker family. In 1866 they moved to Ill. and first settled in Logan Co. Soon after they moved to Lincoln. Not long after that the family settled in Mason City, Ill. Elder Haughey as he was then called became the 5th Baptist minister in Mason City, Ill. In 1903 James M. and Phoebe celebrated their golden wedding day. At that time the church people presented Mr. Haughey with a black ebony gold headed cane engraved with his name. A granddaughter (daughter of Cal) has the cane today. Besides being a minister, according to Mason Co. Ill. history, in 1866 Mr. Haughey and Sheridan Eulass formed the first newspaper in the town. The name was "Mason City News", first issue being July 4, 1867. That same day the laying of the Jacksonville Branch of the C. & A. reached the Corporation (Mason City) from the South. Later the paper was published by J.M. Haughey and W.S. Walker. In 1871 Mr. Walker sold his interest to J.C. Warnock and the name was changed to "Mason City Independent". The library at Mason City, Ill. contains old bound copies; also the Newspaper office has some of the old issues, even the one honoring the Haugheys on their golden anniversary. James M. died Jan. 30, 1912 in Mason City. He had married we were told 3333 couples.

"Mr. Lewis Harley who died Jan. 8, 1873 was well known to people of McLean and Logan counties and will long be remembered by a large circle of friends. He was a native of Pennsylvania, his birthplace being near Philadelphia. When but a boy his people came west as far as Ohio locating at Dayton. They moved from there to McLean Co. Ill., being among the first settlers of the county (Dale Township) locating at what is now known as Harley's Grove, the name originating on account of the Harley's being the first settlers there. In after years his father's brother and himself ran a saw-mill for about six years. He then removed to Logan Co. Ill. and engaged in farming until the time of his death. He was married Mar. 27th 1852 to Miss Elizabeth Haughey, her people being early and prominent pioneers of McLean Co.; Mr. Harley being a resident of Logan Co. at the time of their marriage. Descent of Lorenzo Dow$^4$

Lorenzo Dow$^4$ (Joseph$^3$, Thomas$^2$, John$^1$) was born in Ohio 1835. Family records say he lived in Arkansas. At the time that the father Joseph made his will he mentions Lorenzo Dow's children which he says are 4 in number. This was in 1867. His wife's name evidently was Elizabeth (1860 census). The writer was curious about his name. The other children seemed to have most common names but this Lorenzo Dow was so different. In searching old Ohio records time and time again was found the name of Lorenzo Dow, a great itinerant pioneer preacher. Undoubtedly he was named for him. He moved with his family to Joplin, Mo., sometime after 1860.

Children:

Esther Mary4 (Joseph3, Thomas2, John1), the youngest child of Joseph and Esther, was born in Ohio, Greene Co., Dec. 2, 1845. She told the writer's mother about the wagon trip from Ohio to Ill. About all she remembered was having to walk up hill. The family came with everything they owned; two covered wagons, 6 horses, and a carriage and the money (about 400 dollars) from the sale of the Ohio farm of 100 or so acres. It was at the home place in Ill. between McLean and Atlanta, Ill. that she became acquainted with Samuel Bevan b. Aug. 8, 1843, at Port William, Ohio (only a few miles from where Esther was born) and who had come to Ill. with an uncle. They were married Aug. 23, 1863. She and Samuel farmed many years. They owned a farm near McLean but in later years they lived and farmed and owned a dairy west of Bloomington, Ill. It was known as the Bevan Dairy. A son Harry afterwards had the dairy for years.

Samuel died Sept. 26, 1907 and Esther died May 29, 1913 at her son's Harry Bevan who at that time had the dairy east of Bloomington, Ill.

Iona (Allen B., Joseph, Thomas, John) The following article is from a Denver, Colo. paper of Apr. 21st, 1950:

"School Teacher Dies
Mrs. Iona Chandler, Pioneer, Denver
Mrs. Iona Chandler, grand old lady of the Denver Public Schools, died in Porter Sanatorium last Sunday Apr. 16th at the age of 81. She had been a patient there since March 27. Mrs. Chandler retired in 1931 after 46 years of teaching in the Denver public schools. Her first metropolitan school was Franklin but she had taught at Fairmint and for more than 20 years at Elmwood. Born in McLean, Ill. Aug. 13, 1868 she was brought to Colo. as a very small girl by her parents.

Her father was Allen Haughey, a mining man, who after a sojourn in Joplin, Mo., settled in Leadville about the time of the Gold Rush. Mrs. Chandler was fond of describing vividly remembered journeys to Leadville by stagecoach, remembered the old narrow gauge railroad from South Park and of getting her first teaching experience on a Ranch where several children of the community came to school. This was located in Bennett, Colo. She was married to the late William Henry Chandler Sept. 16, 1896. Their eldest son Harold W. Chandler was born in 1899, their 2nd son Fred two years later. In 1903 Mr. Chandler died and his wife then returned to teaching school, to rear and educate her boys. Harold who lives in St. Louis, Mo. is a railroad inspector for the Interstate Commerce Commission, has a son, William Harold, now a student at Peabody College in Nashville, Tenn.

Fred A. who resides in Englewood is in the chief engineers office of the Bureau of Reclamation at the Denver Federal Center. His son Fred Jr. is employed by both the Wire and Metal Products Co. and the Oxford Texaco Co. Mrs. Chandler was a life member of the Colorado Educational Association, and as a daughter of a Civil War Veteran, belonged to the Daughters of Veterans.

Funeral services were conducted Wed. Apr. 19th from the Olinger Mortuary followed by interment in Riverside Cemetery. Harold Chandler and wife came here for the funeral.
