I started working on this family history in 1946, but did not get the time to continue it until about 1976. At that time I thought that all the Printz families in VA were of our Henry Printz line. According to the FIRST PRINTZ CHARTER, by P. A. Printz, written 1903. In about 1992 I found out that all those other Printz families in Page Co., VA were of Philip Printz/Brentz line. All that work I had done was in vane. It discouraged me so much, that I put away the PRINTZ family history. In 1995 Sharon Huffman of the Philip Brentz line, sent me a copy of Christian Wicks will. In the will it listed all of our Henry Printz children. That corresponded with my list of children from Henry's will. So I started working on our Henry Printz line again, removing all the Page Co., VA Printz families. About that time I finally found Leander Printz families that had moved to Montana and started corresponding with them. One thing led to another and I have finally gotten about as many of our Henry Printz descendants into this book that I can, without taking another year or so to get more. So I decided to publish what I have and if I get enough additional information I can always put out a supplement to this book. I tried to verify all dates as much as I could in the earlier years. The information I received from different families was not verified. I tried not to make mistakes, but mistakes do occur and some people's writing was hard to read, as well as some of the old writings by the court recorders. If you find any mistakes in this book, I would appreciate you calling it to my attention, so corrections can be made if a supplements printed. I would appreciate any additional information on these families that anyone has. I spelled all our Printz lines with the spelling of PRINTZ. Some places I would find the spelling Prince, but in 99% of the time the spelling was PRINTZ. The Philip Printz/Brentz line of Page Co., VA, most of those changed the spelling to PRINCE. They thought the people in VA did not like Germans, so that line changed the spelling to Prince in most cases. I hope that you enjoy reading this book as much as I have enjoyed putting it together.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The information I started with was the First Printz Charter written by P.A. Printz, dated March 1, 1903, from letters of G. W. Printz, Beverly, WV, Eugene Printz, Zanesville, OH, Alonzo Printz, Foraker, OH, John Printz, Peoria, IL and others. The other information prior to 1920 was obtained from the U.S. Census, Birth, Death, Marriage Records, Wills, Deeds, Estate Records from different court houses all over the U.S. The up to date information was obtained from all those I corresponded with and who sent me back their family sheets. Without everyone's help this would not be as complete as it is. There are too many that helped on this book to mention, but I want to thank all those that returned their family sheets to me and put up with all my questions. I want to particularly acknowledge and express my thanks to the following for all their many hours of work and for sharing their results with us for this book.

Descendants of Henry Printz of Winchester, VA

As far as I can tell the father of Henry Printz B. 11-1745 Frankfort on Rhine, Germany, is Michael Printz.

Frankfort is not on the Rhine in Germany, but the old Printz Charter dated March 1, 1903 stated that our Henry was born Frankfort on the Rhine, Germany. The date is about the right date for his birth according to the census records.

In Henry and Philippina (Wicks) Printz marriage record which is found in the PA Archives, Vol. 6, Series 6, it stated that Henry's father was Michael. That is the only thing I have to go on. I have looked and looked for a Michael Printz, Bentz, Betz, Penz, Pentz, and every spelling I could think of to find this Michael Printz who was the father for our Henry Printz. I could not find him in the PA records. I did find a Michael Bretz who served as Capt. in PA Militia from Berks Co., PA 1777-1778. I sent for his military records and they could not give me any more information on him. I do not know if this is our Henry Printz father or not. According to the old Printz Charter dated 1903, it stated that Henry came to Pennsylvania with his parents in 1749. That is all I can find out at the present time. I could not find a Michael that immigrated at that time.

There was a Johann Henrich Printz listed in the Pennsylvania German Pioneers, that came over on the Ship Ranier, Sept. 26, 1749, Henry Browning, Master, from Rotterdam, but last from...in England. I don't think this is our Henry Printz B. 1745, as only the men over 16 signed the ship's register. This could have been a relative. This is the only Printz that I could find that came over to America in 1749.

If anyone ever finds out anything about our Henry Printz's father, Michael Printz, I would appreciate hearing about it.
DESCENDANTS OF HENRY PRINTZ OF WINCHESTER, VA

"Printz Charter" dated March 1, 1903, stated that Henry was born 1745 Frankfort on Rhine, Germany. That he came to America with his parents in 1749. Henry grew up in PA, married and died in Winchester, Frederick Co., VA. The earliest I could find Henry, he was listed as a taxable in 1766-1771 in Reading, Berks Co., PA. In 1768 he purchased lot #82 in Reading very near the main intersection for 140 Pound Sterling. Then in 1771 he and Philippina sold their property for 210 Pounds and at that time it stated that Henry was a stocking weaver. They lived in Pennsylvania for a short time before moving on to Winchester, Virginia in 1770 where he kept a tavern there some years by the name of "The Columbia Inn", which his son Peter operated until moving to Zanesville, Ohio. It was located South of the Town Run. I do not know if Philippina ever moved to VA or if Henry went to VA after Philippina died.

The settlement of Christian Wix estate after 1810 (Christian was 98) left record of these children of Heinrich and Philippina (Wix) Printz, same children mentioned in Henry's will dated 1820:

THEIR CHILDREN:
+ 2 i. Michael Printz *
+ 3 ii. Peter Printz
+ 4 iii. Catherine Printz
+ 5 iv. Susanna Printz
+ 6 v. Elizabeth Printz
+ 7 vi. J. John Printz

HENRY PRINTZ WILL Dated Sept. 9, 1819
Frederick Co., VA

In the name of God, Amen, I Henry Printz of the town of Winchester being weak in body but of sound and disposing mind and memory and calling to mind the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do make and publish this my Last Will and Testament. First I command my soul to God who gave it and my body to the earth to be buried in a Christian like manner at the discretion of my executors hereinafter named. And as for such worldly goods as it hath, pleases God to bless me with. I give devise and dispose of the same in manner and form following. First, I devise that all my just debts, which are very trifling, be paid and also my funeral expenses. Second I devise to my well beloved son Peter Printz the house and lot in Winchester where I now live with all their appertainences to him, his heirs and assign forever he paying unto my son, Michael Printz the sum of Six hundred and Forty Dollars, and to my Son John Printz the sum of Three Hundred and Sixty Dollars in the manner hereinafter mentioned that is to say the said sum to be paid to Michael the year after my decease, and the said sum to John two years after my decease. Third I bequeath unto well beloved son Michael Printz the sum of Six Hundred and Forty Dollars to be paid by my son Peter as hereinbefore mentioned. Fourth I bequeath unto my well beloved son John Printz the sum of Three Hundred Forty Dollars to be paid by my son Peter as before mentioned. Fifth I give and bequeath unto my daughter Catherine Citisinger wife of Nicholas Citisinger, the sum of One Dollar to be paid by my executors hereinafter named as her full portion of my estate and she is not to have any more of my estate. Further all the rest and residue of my Estate including my Bank Stock, give devise and bequeath unto my well beloved daughters Elizabeth Whitman, Susanna Harmon wife of Henry Harmon and my grand children John Wodsell and Rebecca Frost wife of William Frost, said John and Rebecca being children of my daughter Sarah Brininger wife of Daniel Brininger the said residue to be divided unto three equal parts and one of those parts given to the said Elizabeth, one to the said Susanna and the other to the said John and Rebecca to be equally divided them. It is to be understood that the share given as above to the said John Wodsell and Rebecca Frost is the part which their Mother otherwise would have had; but having raised those my grand children, it is my will that they have the share of my estate which I would under other circumstances have given their mother and my daughter Sarah, being in good and easy circumstances I have chosen to give the said property to her children and as a further token of affection for my said daughter Sarah, I give unto her the sum of One Dollar to be paid by my executors and of my estate before the said residue be divided as above mentioned. Seventh Last it should be supposed that I have forgotten my wife Elizabeth, who by agreement lives separate and apart from me, and as I have by deed agreed to claim nothing which belonged to her before I married her and she ---- by the same deed hath agreed to claim nothing from my estate I hereby declaim it to be my will that the said deed which bears date of the Seventeenth Day of November 1819, shall stand confirmed in all its parts and that the said Elizabeth shall have no part of my estate. Nor shall my heirs or executors claim any part of hers. And lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint my well beloved son Michael Printz and Peter Printz executors of this my Last Will and Testament here by revoking all other wills and testaments by me heretofore made and declaring this only to be my last Will and Testament and to do direct that my said executors shall not be required to give security on their qualifying as such and I do further direct that they shall not charge any commission or other compensation for their executing this will, they being sufficiently compensated by the devised and bequests made them. In Testimony where of, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this Ninth Day of September One Thousand Eight Hundred and Nineteen.

B. 12-27-1758 Reading, Berks Co., PA. D. 7-5-1834 Ft. Springs, Sch., PA. Buried in Christ Ch. Cem., Ft. Springs, PA. Son of Nicholas Seitzinger Sr. and Anna Maria Filsmeyer. Nicholas Married (1) 6-20-1780 Reading, Berks Co., PA, ANNA MARGARETHA BARBARA SETLEY B. 10-10-1759. D. 10-30-1809 Berks Co., PA. Daughter of George Setley and Mary B. Kaeppele. Nicholas married (3) MARGARET WHITE. Nicholas was a Rev. War Vet, Ordi. Sgt., Berks County Malitia. PA. They resided Reading PA 1806. An interesting item in the life of Nicholas was his wife, Anna Barbara, and his mistress, Margaretha White. Both women were the mothers of families he sired, and in most cases, he named the children the same, for instance, with Anna Barbara he had a Jacob and with Margaretha he had a Jacob W. Now when Anna Barbara dies, instead of going ahead and marrying Margaretha, in enters the third woman in his life, Catherine Printz. Two family heirlooms were at one time in existence, one a sword that he carried in the Revolutionary War, and was kept in the care of Mr. John A. Seitzinger of Gordon, PA who has since died, and the sword which was kept in a case, has disappeared. The last guardian was John's daughter, Janice Ann, who is very difficult to locate at times. The other heirloom was a valuable piece of printing, a Bible which was printed in Nureenberg, Germany, in 1534, and was at one time in the possession of Mrs. Mary P. Mallory of Buffalo, NY, a great granddaughter of Eliza Seitzinger Hartman.

Nicholas bought from the Penns the strip of land along the river on which he built a public house called "The White Swan", at the northwest corner of Front and Penn where the P.S.V. Passenger Station is now located (1899). This land extended northward a considerable distance beyond Washington St., Eighty Five years ago (ca 1814) he sold to David Kirby the White Swan Hotel property and all the land West of Front St. between Penn and Washington, where it joined the land of George Michael Probst, who built and conducted a brewery on the River Road near Washington, and conducted it for a number of years until he failed. Mr. Probst had bought from Nicholas Seitzinger in 1814, for $800, a lot having a front of 120 feet on the River road and a depth of 200 feet to the River. Nicholas Seitzinger was the first landlord of "The White Swan" and he ferried people and teams across the river, besides having a fishery located there. The last shad caught at Reading was in 1818, just after the construction of the dams below the town, when the fish could not come up the river from the sea in the Spring of the year. The old tavern was at first a small log house, then a stone house, and finally a two-story brick building. Nicholas was in charge of the ferry across the river until they built the bridge. The old tavern, with its large yard adjoining it, was a well-known and favorite place or resort. They had a very pretty lawn on the western side of the tavern, sloping toward the river, where tables and seats were placed.

The County Seat Fight

When George Brentner and John B. Long laid out the first plat of Mason City in 1855, they had an eye to the future. It wasn't to be a one-street town. The two men with their wives, Anna Long and Julia Brentner, set aside a "public square" (Central Park) for the people of Mason City. There was no other stipulation _____ with this site. On the other hand "block 26" present site of the school administration building was given to the people of the county on condition that a courthouse be erected on the site. It was an inducement to get the county seat for Mason City. The two families divided the town sites between them, Brentner taking those west of The unschooled Brentner, who had come to America as a stowaway from Germany, had arrived in Mason City with a pocket full of nuggets from the gold fields of CA. He sought the partnership of the educated Long in the platting of the new town. The plat was prepared June 28 and 29, 1855, and surveyed by Irvin W. Clark, county surveyor. The instrument was acknowledged before John L. McMillin, Justice of Peace of Cerro Gordo County, Aug. 31, 1855, filed on the following Nov. 9 and recorded in plat book A, pages 2, 3, 4 & 5. On this plat the present Federal Avenue was called St. John's Washington and Solomon street; Adams, Clark Street, and Jefferson, Wall Street, State Street was designated the main East and West thoroughfare and is the only street that still carries the original name. As the production on this page shows, the plat extended from what is now 2nd South, to 4th North, West to Jefferson and East along State to Georgia.

The name Mason City was named after the Masonic order, of which most of them were members. Records reveal that the notarial seal of John B. Long as judge has inscribed the Masonic emblem. Streets were given Masonic names. The first grand ball was held in 1856, the occasion being the dedication of the new store building erected by Long.

In 1857 John B. Long and with him George Brentner, gave to Paul Felt a deed for all of what was then Mason City, which had not been sold in lots, for $8,000.00. Felt replatted the city, enlarging it considerably. In this plat the public square was given for the second time to the city. The block set aside for a courthouse was claimed by Felt for the reason that the county seat was there. On filing his plat of Mason City Sept. 18, 1857, Paul Felt owned, besides all of Mason City, several thousand acres of land in the county. Money was plentiful in the boomtime before the panic bubble burst. He went to Buffalo, NY, immediately after the replatting and began negotiations for trading his holdings here for Buffalo property. The deal was reported to involve $50,000.00. The papers were drawn up ready to sign when the panic struck, bringing with it the closing of many banks. The deal was never concluded. Felt had borrowed money to buy his Mason City holdings. With panic came his financial ruin and the ruin of others who had signed notes for him. Felt's holdings were sold at sheriff's sales to satisfy judgments against him. When Felt, Brentner, Long and others realized what threatened them, they laid plans to stave off the unhappy day. The property was first deeded to George Brentner, then Brentner deeded it to Charles Huntley, who went to the Civil War and was killed in battle. It was not until 1865 that the matter came up for hearing with a great lawsuit that was the talk of the country. The suit was brought against Felt and others by the eastern men who had advanced the money. The court set aside the deeds transferring the town to Brentner and Huntley. So judgments were entered against almost every piece of real estate in Mason City and were sold at sheriff's sale. Among the properties sold was the "courthouse square" which the school system was to acquire later. But that is another story.

The press on July 31, 1858, had 14 columns of delinquent taxes with 176 in each column, or 2,464 titles.
altogether-most of them under the heading of "owner unknown". Thus was crushed the last financial hope of cultured educated John B. Long, who made such an auspicious beginning and contributed so much to the new community. The pioneers, in conquering the prairie had themselves been humbled, Long left not long after wards and made his home in Missouri and later Arkansas, but not before being tried by a jury and acquitted on a charge of malfeasance in office. George Brentner, Long's associate, continued to live in Mason City, where his descendants became an important part in the community life.

Judge, Johnson Co., Iowa, MARY HENRIETTA "ETTA" SCHAFFER (SCHAFFER) B. 11-1849 PA. D. 2-12-1934 Hamilton, MT. Buried Corvallis Cem., Corvallis, MT. Daughter of Jonathan Matthew Schaffer and Mary Baker. Probably brother to Nancy Jane Printz's husband, Benjamin Schaffer. John was known as "Big John Printz". He was said to have been a very quiet, gentle, philosophical kind. The head of the family. He had a big desk and a huge wood burning stove in one end of what he called his garage. They resided Hardin Twp., Johnson Co., Iowa 1870, Bitter Root Valley, Missoula
Co., MT. 1880, Edwards Twp., Ravalli Co., MT. 1900. John served in the Union Army Co. G. 6th Iowa Inf. during the Civil War. He was captured & taken prisoner. He was confined at Andersonville Prison where he caught typhoid fever in the prison camp and suffered recurrent bouts of it all his life. While in prison he met Frank Schaffer and together they made a dramatic escape from Andersonville Prison. The guards sat with rifles on high platforms over looking the swamp where the men bathed and drank from it. When anyone got out too far, the guards shot them and left the body float.

John and Frank swam under water to dead bodies, slipped under them and gradually eased them out to the river. After swimming far and hiding out they found a Union Patrol (Sherman's march thru GA). John went home with his friend Frank Schaffer to Iowa and married Frank's sister Henrietta. After their marriage they went to Kansas and homesteaded in a sod cabin. The kids got diphtheria and there were no doctors and they had to be nursed back to health. They left Kansas and returned to Iowa because of John's terrible bouts with typhoid. They eventually moved to Montana on April 30, 1880 because Michael and Harry Printz were there and recommended it. Rebecca was the 1st child to be born in MT. Henrietta almost didn't make it to MT before giving birth. Rebecca was born under an up turned wagon near Corvallis, MT at Willow Creek. In 1881 John set out with a wagon train for CA. (rumor of another gold rush). No gold, lots of Chinese. So the wagon train returned to MT. Henrietta thought it the best time of her life. They homesteaded near Corvallis, MT. and stayed put, turning their homestead into a prosperous farm. John knew how to ranch, farm, hunt, work in the woods, carpenter, paint etc., but he had a small case of gold fever. John had a better education than many of his Civil War cronies. He wrote their names for them before their X. He also read the little weekly newspaper aloud to his friends. Henrietta was very small and very bossy. Christian Science.

It was in October, 1857 that Robert was chosen the first County Judge of Winnebago County. After laying out the town of Forest City he became the first Postmaster there and also established the pioneer store of the town. He built the first residence in Forest City in 1856 and in 1858 the little hamlet was made the county seat. In 1861 he retired from the office of Postmaster after four years, and in 1866 he was elected Treasurer of Winnebago County. In the mean time he also conducted business as a real estate and collection agent and his work in that connection proved the initial step toward the establishment of the Winnebago County State Bank, which has long been regarded as one of the most reliable financial institutions of this section of Iowa. (Winnebago & Hancock Counties History). Rebecca had lived in Forest City ever since having accumulated much property. She at one time owned the part of Mason City where the cement plants are established. Robert was a Royal Arch Mason and buried with Masonic Honors. They built the house with beech lumber from the land. The siding was of maple. A saw mill came to the land and set up across the creek and sawed down trees. Only 20 acres were cleared when they moved there. They cleared 10 acres that spring. John and Ada cut trees at night then Ada trimmed the small branches off the trees during the day while John plowed. The saw mill then cut the trees to size for building. They plowed around the stumps. The stumps would later rot out.

They lived 3 miles from Silver Creek Methodist Church, which they were members. Ada taught Sunday School at the church. John and the girls were all pretty good singers. The children attended Laugerhead School. Mary Ada did a lot of patch work quilts and rug weaving. She had a large rug loom in her old smoke house which she weaved rugs from 1" material that she cut and sewed together and put into balls, by kerosene lantern at night, as they had no electricity until about 1940. She had pierced ears for earrings and when she wanted to stop sewing for awhile to tend something in the kitchen, she always stuck the needle through her pierced ears so that it would not get lost, or to keep the holes open.

This picture should bring back memories to many farmers who tilled the soil in the days prior to the tractor. Proudly displaying their horses are members of the William Dyer family in a picture taken at the farm now owned and occupied by the Russell Dyers.

Taken about 1918, the photo shows Emmett Dyer, Russell's father, who is now deceased, Zoa Dyer, standing on the horse's back, also deceased; then Opal Dyer, Alonzo Dyer, holding his driving horse, Hanley, and Martha Dyer, holding the old family horse, Molly.

THEIR CHILD:
Grudge Fight in 90's Gave Forest City Finest Hotels in Iowa. Entire Town Involve as Hostelries tried to Outdo Each Other, Had Coachmen and Footman in Livery. Even today, if you loiter and listen along the peaceful streets of Forest City, IA., and stop to chat with a few of the 2,010 citizens you will hear a strange story of this town's gay days.

It was back in the showy days of rubber-tired carriages drawn by teams of spanking pacers when Forest City boasted 1,000 residents and was booming. Then like a thunder clap, came "The Great Hotel War" that sooner or later involved nearly every resident of the town, cost the community thousands of dollars, and brought open hostility between friends and neighbors of long standing. Tales of the feud spread, and attracted travelers from the east to visit these preposterous hostelries in this little prairie town. It all began, they will tell you in Forest City today, when two hard-fisted bankers, each determined to boss the town clashed. An Historic Meeting, Fist-banging rivals in business, they were quick to carry their opposition into personal affairs. In the early "90's" a business men's group of Forest City met and agreed to build the town a sorely needed hotel. This historic meeting included Charlie Thompson, president of Forest City National Bank; Brook A. Plummer, president of First National bank of Forest City; G. B. Gilbertson, later elected State Treasurer; Judge C. R. Kelley, second Vice President of Chicago and Iowa Western Railway Co., and approximately 50 other business men of Forest City. As the meeting progressed all were in mutual agreement until the proposed site for the hotel was suggested. Blustering and big, Charlie Thompson stated the hotel would stand at the north edge of town, facing his colonial mansion home. The meeting agreed except one, Brook Plummer's thick-fingered fist banged the table as he roared: "Gentlemen! we're not building a farm! We're building a hotel! Put it in the business district where a hotel belongs!" Two Bankers Clash, a chair banged over as big Charlie Thompson came to his feet. "Who's building this hotel, Brook" he roared, "you or the business men?" Brook Plummer's hard jaw jutted, "Here's $80,000.00, gentlemen, to build the hotel in the business district!" He jerked out a check book. (This seems like a lot of money for those days, maybe it is $30,000.00). "If you refuse this, Thompson," he boomed, "I'll break you by building the finest hotel in the middle west!" "Build it and save that check, Brook!" Thompson rumbled. "I am building this hotel- best it if you can!" And the turbulent "hotel war" was declared. Brook A. Plummer organized the Commercial Hotel Co., whose members included Brook A. Plummer and son, Robert C. Plummer, both of the First National Bank; J. F. Thompson, president of Winnebago County State Bank; Jasper Thompson and Attorney B. J. Thompson, also of Winnebago County State Bank; J. A. Plummer, president of Farmers Bank; and some 65 other business men of Forest City. This move established the two banking factions which ultimately split the town into two "sides at war," the north side and the south side. Charlie Thompson's north faction had the construction of their Summit Hotel well along before Brook Plummer's South faction began building their competitive hotel, Waldorf. Each Cost $65,000. The definite reason for this was Brook Plummer's aim to build a far finer hotel than the Summit at identical costs of materials and furnishings from the same sources. The costs for erecting the Waldorf and the Summit were $65,000 each. They were structures of the finest brick and stone shipped in from ____. Over $12,000 was spent just for furnishings, besides two monstrous grand pianos shipped from Chicago. Each hotel contained 80 (?) rooms, steam heated and with bath and electric lights, besides elaborate card rooms, billiard parlors, reading rooms, and dance floors. Both were decorated by eastern decoration and free for the use of patrons. Charlie Thompson's north faction held opening of the Summit hotel in Nov. 1898. This was a gala day for the townspeople of that quiet little prairie town. All day they were whisked through the mud streets in the Summit's two glistening black Racine stages, trimmed in gold and drawn by prancing jet-black horses. The hand tooled, brass studded harness of which alone cost more than a fine automobile today. High in front the drivers sat, a bit stiffly perhaps, in their dashing livery and blue and gold. Footmen in Livery attending footmen, also swanking it in livery of blue and gold, Ushered the gaping townspeople into the grand dining hall of the Summit, where waitresses in white moved to music across the polished floors. It is small wonder if little Forest City was a trifle overwhelmed by this bit of the luxury and splendor of the metropolis among her mud streets and small false-front buildings. But in February, 1899, the great column-fronted doors of the white stone Waldorf swung wide to shadow the glory of the Summit. Again Forest City awakened to a day of festive show and pomp that is talk in the town yet today. That winter's day two teams of dock-tailed white horses pranced away from the white stone Waldorf, their heavily-studded harness glittering in the sun. They were pulling two snow white Racine Carriages trimmed in gold, and attended by drivers and footmen flaunting the dashiest in white and gold livery. What an impressive picture in White Forest Citizens must have enjoyed that day as they were whisked through the snow for a second taste of "Big Town" splendor. Salesmen flocked in. As months stretched into years, travelers came for many miles to visit the summit and the Waldorf. Salesmen flocked in from all points, sometimes many miles out of their assigned territory, to stop at these hotels. Forest City was fast becoming famous as the "hotel town of the country". Their printed menus were replaced daily as each hotel tried to surpass the other in serving the finest American and French dishes, for which expensive eastern Chefs were maintained. Although their attendance was enormous, both hotels were operating at a distinct lost. One could obtain, at either hotel, three French meals, a room and bath, and all the services of an expensive hotel, for $2.00 per day! As the hotel friction grew more heated, it spread among the business men, who "dead-lined" the town with an imaginary Mason-Dixon line. This separated the north faction from the south faction. When an out-of-town business man, or salesman, came into Forest City, he could transact business only with the faction in whose hotel he was stopping. If he put up at the Summit the Waldorf, or south faction, would do no business with him until he had left town by train and returned, registering at their hotel. Ill-feeling spread. This ill-feeling spread among the citizens and was very apparent in the small boys of the town, who were always on hand to watch the four stages of the two hotels race to meet the incoming passenger trains. When a stage became stuck in the muddy streets, the boys of the opposite faction would gather to jeer. This invariably developed into a "mud-ball civil war" between the young "Federals" and "Confederates". Bloody noses and black eyes were sometimes resultant of these skirmishes. The daily losses at which the hotels were operating was not only growing to frightful figures, but the business men were alarmed at what seemed to be a steady advance of local business depression. Farmers drove miles in hub-deep mud to town for commodities or implements, only to find that they could seldom fill their needs in one faction of the town, and to cross the "deadline" they had to leave town, then return and register at that faction's hotel. If this was a gustful joke at first with these husky sons of the soil, the novelty of it soon rolled itself away under the mud-caked wagon wheels. They took their trade to towns where they did not have to play "hotel tag". But after several years! Gathering, the storm clouds suddenly rolled away one day in their blackest.

Two Bankers Meet. Big Charlie Thompson one day darkened the door of Brook Plummer's bank. "Here's my hand, Brook," he rumbled. "I'm here with a "give or take" offer! What will you give- or take?" Brook Plummer stepped into his vault, and returned to slap down $45,000 in cash! "That's my top offer, Charlie," he answered, "And I won't "take". Brook A. Plummer became owner of the Summit that day; thereby, erasing the "deadline" that separated the town into two turbulent north and south factions. The doors of the "Grand Summit" were closed, and for a few years cobwebs and dust gathered where once hilarity and splendor had reigned. Brook A. Plummer had mortgaged it to the German Savings Bank of Dubuque, IA. He was "town boss" now, and done with those expensive "toys of war" that had almost ruined his town. The great stone Waldorf had dwindled his fortune many thousands of dollars during the glorious but hectic short life. He sold it about the same time, 1903, to C. S. Selverson, for $18,000.

A College Opens, St. Ansgar Circuit of United Lutheran Church then purchased the Waldorf from C. S. Selverson, and with the financial aid of Forest City Citizens converted it into the Waldorf College, that stands today. The ultimate and beautiful result of a preposterous "hotel war". The Royal Summit, however, was not destined to such worthy renovation- but a tragic end!!

A Mr. Shrupp of the German Savings Bank of Dubuque, IA, who held the mortgage on the Summit, took possession and opened its doors again, under the management of Bradford Hopkins, hotel manager from Dubuque. Like a greedy octopus, this expensive "toy of war" wrapped itself around another victim and dissipated his fortune. When in 1909, Robert C. Plummer, son of Brook A. Plummer, offered Mr. Shrupp $10,000 for the Summit, he was only too glad to sell. Robert Plummer gave a half interest in the hotel to Bradford Hopkins and together they operated it, again at a distinct daily loss, until early Monday morning, Dec. 10, 1918. That cold morning Forest City residents were awakened by the cry of "Fire!" and looked out from their windows to see the great Summit Hotel go out in one last roaring blaze of glory!. Today, Forest City's modern life Public Library stands there facing Charlie Thompson's old colonial mansion home. One of the walls is a part of the Summit Hotel that remained intact after the fire. The great "Hotel War" is only a memory.

Note: Brookins Plummer was married to Margaret Jane Brentner (#68). (George and Julia's daughter). Charlie Thompson was married to Cora Jane Clark (#221) - daughter of Rebecca Ann Brentner and Judge Clark and niece of Brookins Plummer. John F. Thompson (no relation to Charlie) was married to Julia Ann Clark (#218), also daughter of Rebecca Ann Brentner, George and Julia's daughter. G. Gilbertson was married to Bell Whitney (#226) daughter of Adeline Brentner, daughter of George and Julia. This must have really divided the Brentner families!

His brothers and sisters had heard they had a brother that was adopted out, but never knew what became of him. After Neil's adoptive parents passed away, Neil began searching for his blood parents. He joined W.A.R.M. which is a Washington adoptive rights movement, which charged him a fee for searching for his blood parents. In 1991 he found out about his brothers and sisters. In Nov. 1991 Neil and his wife traveled to Yakima for a reunion with several of his brothers and sisters and uncle. They warmly welcomed him into the family.
