A few words for an interested reader:

For love of family history and a natural curiosity this record has been compiled for ourselves and the descendants of Herod and Mary Sarah Frances "Fannie" Rhodes/Rhoads/Roads/ Rodes. Every effort has been made to only use information that can be documented. When available, copies of actual records have been included.

After searching geographical, historical and military records for the development of Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama in the time periods and places Herod is reported to have resided, a deep appreciation developed for the courage and strength he portrayed. Equally as strong and courageous was his wife who had been born and raised in the wilderness of Nelson County, Kentucky. During the years of the Civil War in which her husband served, she would have been alone with small children. It is hoped that she moved from Larue County, KY, where she and Herod were living, back to Nelson Co., KY where she had close family members.

It seems incredible for them to have lived to such advanced ages in a time when their average life expectancy would have been forty years.

It is hoped that a descendant will one day provide positive evidence for Herod's birthplace and parents in order that his ancestors can be joined to him as they have been for his wife.

(Interview conducted by Fern Blanford)

On November 4, 1998 at 1:00 pm I interviewed Helen Bessinger. Helen lives beside the Post Office in Cox'x Creek and is the oldest living cousin of Mothers' that I know. She is now 83 years old. Helen is the daughter of Clarence Rhoades, who was the brother of Pearl Mae Rhoades Leach Thurman.

Helen verified that the picture I have of Robert P. and Josphine Rhoades is indeed them. She can only remember Robert and being sick in bed before he died when she was 3 years old, but remembers Josphine well, and has high regards for "grandma".

I asked Helen why Robert P. and Josphine were living in the Wilson Creek area of Bullitt Co., Ky. but were buried at Poplar Flat Cemetery near Bardstown. According to her the Rhoades' always seemed to have a way of getting into trouble. She was not sure what happened but Robert and Uncle Bean had trouble and Robert was "run" out of the community. From there he went to Belmont, Ky. (in Bullitt Co.) and opened a store. He had financial trouble because he allowed people to charge items from him, then he did not have the money to pay his suppliers so he was about to go bankrupt, so Robert P. and Josphine bought a house on Wilson Creek, Ky in Josphine's name to save what little they left.

Helen also stated that Robert P. was lazy and what was done, Josphine had to do, such as gardening, cutting wood, etc. Robert P. was suppose to be sick all the time.

According to Josphine's death cert, she died of an arm injury. Helen stated Josphine caught her arm in a door, got a staph infection in the wound and died of what is commonly know as blood poisoning. Helen can remember visiting her. Her arm was swollen very large. Josphine was laying in bed with her arm on a pillow. Josphine died at Aunt Ella Maramans' who was Josphine's youngest daughter, also being a sister of Clarence and Pearl.

Several people, including Helen were always told Josphine was 1/2 Blackfoot Indian, making Pearls' generation 1/4, Esthers' generation 1/8 and Ferns' generation 1/16. I have been unable to verify this from the genealogy information I have. I find no names that give any indication. Most of the information I have on Josphine I received from Juanita Totton, whose grandmother was a cousin of Pearls' and she had not heard anything about the Indian Line. For some reason I am intrigued by this family and the possibility of the Indian lineage. There is one person I still want to interview, Vaughn Weathers, who lives in Bardstown with Mrs. Moore. I believe she is related to Josphine through Josphine's mother.

Helen gave me two pictures, one being of Grandma Thurman and Granddad, the other was Carrie "Clev" Rhoades Snellen. Cleve was a sister of Pearl who died in child birth. She had 2 children, Lola, who married Bill Thurman. Lola is still living in a nursing home. The other child Cleve had was Chester "Little Jack", who later killed himself and is buried beside his mother at Poplar Flat Cemetery. (Little Jack was the child born that Cleve died) The picture Helen gave me is a 16/20 in an old frame. The family did not have a picture of Cleve, so as the story goes, this picture was taken of Cleve in the Casket and the eyes were added.

Another story Helen told me is interesting. I always knew Mary Becky Rhoades (cousin of Pearls') married Hal Boblitt after his wife died. The story goes, Mary Becky and Hal were engaged to be married, the night before the wedding he eloped with Annie Gertrude Dickerson who was a first cousin of Mary Becky and Pearls. Mr. Hal and Annie had two children, Willie Lee and Christine who married Bill Polly. Christine and Bill's children are Dixie Hibbs and Marie Taylor. I always knew there was a connection there. I thought it was because Mary Becky and Grandma were cousins but did not realize Christine and Mother were related. Annie Mariah Dodson and Wm. Preston Dickerson were Annie's parents.

On December 15, 1998 I talked with Helen Bessinger again:

On Sunday 12/13/98 Uncle Lee, Linda, Gene, Ann and Sam were visiting at Faye and Judys'. We were discussing family and Sam related the story about visiting an elderly man in a one room cottage in the woods on Wilson Creek Road. Uncle Lee thought it was Uncle Clarence Rhoades, which was Helen's father.

Helen said her husband, Jerry; her brothers Lovell and Bob built this cabin for her father upon his request. He was only able to live in it a short time because of his health.

Her brother Bob was an outdoorsman and enjoyed hunting and staying occasionally with his father. She was sure the son that Sam also met was Bob because he went there often to see about their father and also to enjoy nature.

Since she is the only person we know to "unravel" some of the facts we remember Grandma Thurman talking about, we go to Helen.

We asked Helen about a first wife for Marvin, which we did not know he had until we started "shaking the tree". Helen said her name was Maryetta Sadler. Marvin had bought a car and helped her learn to drive. On this particular day, Maryetta and Pauline (Uncle Henry's daughter) were going some place when Maryetta lost control of the car, went down an embankment, into a creek. Maryetta was killed instantly and Pauline died shortly after. We have a picture of Paulines stone from Poplar Flat Cemetery. According to this stone the deaths were in 1926.

(Interesting, but no proof) FHL 'fiche 6048669. A History of the Valley of VA by Samuel Kercheval, p. 361, gives a description that may be about Herrod's father: "Mr. Valentine Rhodes' mill on Cedar Creek, the dividing line between Frederick and Shenandoah counties...the author...gives a description of the mill). Mr. Rhodes, with the assistance of one of his sons, a youth of about 12 or 14 years of age"...Mr. Rhodes informed Kercheval that when he purchased the mill site he had no more than 10 dollars left."Mr. Rhodes is an ingenious mechanic and first rate mill-wright. He determined, however, on building his mill, to enable himself to go on with it, that he would undertake every job at his trade that he could engage, and if he earned 80 or 100 dollars, he would proceed with his own building until his money gave out; he would then engage in work as opportunity afforded until he could gather one or two hundred dollars more, and so proceeded on until he got his mill to running. It was six years from the time he commenced until he got it to grinding." Kercheval gives a vivid description of the completed structure. It would seem impossible for one man and one boy to have accomplished such a structure."

(1) Herod Rhodes, Union, KY, 10 KY Infantry, 10th Reg., KY Infantry, Company E, rank (in and out)
Private. Enlisted 10 Nov 1861 at Lebanon, MARION CO., KY. He deserted on 3 Jan 1863 at Lebanon, KY. NAFN Film # M386, roll 22. (A Thomas D. Rhodes was also in this company with Herod.
Relationship unknown. A Thomas Rhodes was killed at Crab Orchard, KY on 25 Feb 1862 and Herod deserted the Union Army 3 Jan 1863.)

From the Adjutant General's Report for Company E, 10th KY Vol. Infantry (Union) is found: Herod
Rhodes, rank private, enrolled 10 Nov 1861, mustered in 21 Nov 1861 at Lebanon, KY for 3 years, deserted 3 Jan 1863 at Lebanon.

(2) AFTER deserting, Herod enlisted as a Confederate soldier. He served in Company E, 13th Regiment, KY Cavalry. Dates for enlistment and mustering out not found but probably are available.
Checked for pension application in KY and was told that one could not be found. Need to see original records for confederate service.

361, gives a description that may be about Herrod's father: "Mr. Valentine Rhodes' mill on Cedar Creek, the dividing line between Frederick and Shenandoah counties...the author...(gives a description of the mill). Mr. Rhodes, with the assistance of one of his sons, a youth of about 12 or 14 years of age"...Mr. Rhodes informed Kercheval that when he purchased the mill site he had no more than 10 dollars left."Mr. Rhodes is an ingenious mechanic and first rate mill-wright. He determined, however, on building his mill, to enable himself to go on with it, that he would undertake every job at his trade that he could engage, and if he earned 80 or 100 dollars, he would proceed with his own building until his money gave out; he would then engage in work as opportunity afforded until he could gather one or two hundred dollars more, and so proceeded on until he got his mill to running. It was six years from the time he commenced until he got it to grinding." Kercheval gives a vivid description of the completed structure. It would seem impossible for one man and one boy to have accomplished such a structure."

On 19 Aug 2008, I mailed a request to KY Vital Records for a copy of his original death certificate. On the KY Death Index, he is listed as HARROD Rhodes, age 87, died in Nelson Co., KY.

See picture of Herod and wife Fannie taken in their older years. It is evident they grew up in the "wilderness" and had been through rough times. Just to have survived was a remarkable feat! The average age for someone born in the 1820's in America was about 40 years.

WIFE - Mary Sarah Frances Fannie Jenkins

Mary Sarah Frances Jenkins is listed with her parents and siblings on the 1850 federal census for Nelson Co., KY. Her youngest sister, Amanda Bell, was born later in 1852. Her father, a blacksmith, died before March 1856. Need to check courthouse records to see when his wife received letter of administration and to see if guardians were named for minor children.

1850 federal census for Dist. 2 Nelson Co., KY; enumerated 3 Sept.:

Jefferson Barracks, established in 1826 as the country's first “Infantry School of Practice,” served as a major military installation until 1946. Named in honor of former President Thomas Jefferson, the post played an important role in westward expansion. Jefferson Barracks served as a gathering point for troops and supplies bound for service in the Mexican War, Civil War, various Indian conflicts, Spanish-American War, Philippine War, World War I and World War II. Jefferson Barracks also served as the first Army Air Corps basic training site. Stephan W. Kearny, Zachary Taylor, Jefferson Davis, Robert E. Lee, U.S. Grant, William T. Sherman and Philip Sheridan were a few of the famous Americans to serve at Jefferson Barracks.

William Dickerson died before September 1855 possessing a tract of land on Dry Run in Nelson County KY estimated at 93 acres. He had purchased it in 1836 from the heirs of Henry Wiseheart. He was a widower and died intestate. In the spring of 1857, Herod Rhodes filed the suit documented in this court case.

Herod Rhodes had purchased from several of William Dickerson’s heirs their interest to their father’s estate. He filed suit in order to assure an equitable distribution of the land held by Dickerson. The suit was filed against only those Dickerson heirs whose interest in the land was still active, not against those whose interest he had purchased.

The complaint and various deeds exhibited as part of the case show that William Dickerson’s heirs who survived him numbered nine. They were sons Henry, Andrew Jackson, James, William, Thomas, & John; and daughters Nancy Jenkins, Mary A. Watson, & Elizabeth Dickerson. The disposition of their respective shares was as follows, in chronological order:

5 Sep 1855 Mary Ann Dickerson & John Watson conveyed her share to her brother William Dickerson

1 Apr 1856 James Dickerson conveyed his share to his brother Andrew Jackson Dickerson

27 Mar 1856 Andrew Jackson Dickerson conveyed his share and brother James’ share; Henry Dickerson & Mariah conveyed his share; and Nancy Dickerson widow of Larkin Jenkins conveyed her share; all to Herod Rhodes

14 Apr 1856 William Dickerson & Mariah conveyed his share and sister Mary Ann’s share to Herod Rhodes

As a consequence of these transactions, by the spring of 1856, purchaser Herod Rhodes was entitled to 6/9ths or 2/3rds of the estate, sons Thomas and John to 1/9th each, and daughter Elizabeth to 1/9th part. This was the land division accomplished with the 1857 decree ordered by the court.

* Wm. Dickerson was the grand father of Herod’s wife, Sarah F. Jenkins.

In 1850, one other child of William Dickerson was still alive, son Richmond. He is not mentioned in any of the documents of the case, and so apparently he predeceased his father. His share of his mother's inheritance from her father, which was distributed in 1856, also fell to his nine brothers and sisters who survived him.

It is mentioned in the original complaint of this case that John Dickerson, defendant, is a nonresident of Kentucky. His state of residence is not specified elsewhere, but his interests were represented by an attorney, William R. Grigsley.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

Dearest father, thou hast left us,
And our loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal,
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
When in Heaven in joy to greet thee
Where no farewell tear is shed.

MARRIAGE

Married during the 1880 federal census year, 1879-80.

HUSBAND - John Thomas Ortkiese

There are no known children for John Thomas. He died of typhoid, and in his will he left all of his property to his wife. This will was written 30 Jan 1904 and witnessed by J. N. Shehan and T. M. Greer. John had married two years before his father died of typhoid and had move away from home, but lived nearby on a farm in Nelson County. 1880 CENSUS, LISTED AS JOHN ORTHESE.

On the 1900 Federal Census Soundex, E.D. 92, sheet 20 for Nelson county, KY, he is listed as age 44, born Kentucky, birthdate April 1856. In his household are listed his wife, Mariah L. age 42, b. Apr 1858 in Kentucky; his brother H.R. Ortkiese, age 33, born Jun 1866 in Kentucky and his brother's wife, Lulie, age 16, b. Mar 1884 in ___.

John Thomas married the granddaughter of his Aunt Nancy Dickerson Jenkins. His mother-in-law, Mary Sarah Frances Jenkins who married Herod Rhodes, was the daughter of his aunt Nancy Dickerson Jenkins.

KY Death Record, Ancestry.com lists John as dying 31 Jan 1904 of typhoid. From story handed down in family, he was working on his farm and one day got very hot and stopped at a creek to cool off, drank some creek water. Later he came down with typhoid and died. In his will, he left what he owned to his wife, Mariah.

WIFE - Mariah Louise Rhodes

Her birthdate, 14 Apr 1857, was listed in pension records received from the National Archives for Herod & Sarah F. Rhodes, her parents. Her given names was listed as Mariah Louise Rhodes. (I have used Mariah Lewis Rhodes in the past, but will now use the pension record as the source for her given names.)

On the 1870 census, for Nelson county, Bardstown precinct and post office, her name is listed as Lew and age 12.

The 1880 census, enumerated 25 June, lists Mariah L. as wife of John ORTHESE. Her age is given as 23 and that she had married within the year. Place of birth was Kentucky. Her father listed as born in Tennessee and her mother born in Kentucky.

On the 1900 Federal Census Soundex, E.D. 92, sheet 20 for Nelson county, KY, her husband, John Ortkiese is listed as age 44, born Kentucky, birthdate April 1856. In his household are listed his wife, Mariah L. age 42, BORN APRIL 1858 in Kentucky; his brother H.R. Ortkiese, age 33, born Jun 1866 in Kentucky and his brother's wife, Lulie, age 16, b. No records have been found to indicate Mariah and John Ortkiese had children.
