THE HISTORY AND GENEALOGY
OF
THE NATHAN P GOFF FAMILY

FOREWORD

This family history and genealogy consists of two general parts. The first part is the family history. It is written to be read as a narrative, and needs no explanation. The second part contains the detailed genealogical data, organized into sections devoted to the descendants of each of the nine children of Nathan P Goff who lived to found their own families. This second part is designed to be used like a dictionary, or encyclopedia, and is not intended to be read as a narrative. To locate data in the detailed genealogy, consult the name index for page numbers. Locating a name on the indicated page requires searching the page.

Abbreviations used, and their meaning are:
b - born bur - buried cem - cemetery
ch - children
d - died dau of - daughter of hus - husband
hus(1), hus(2) - first husband, second husband m - married
m(1), m(2) - married first, married second s of - son of wife(1), wife(2) - first wife, second wife

The following information, if known to me before final typing, is listed for each descendant of Nathan P Goff who married, and thus founded his/her own family:
a. Full name (maiden name of females).
b. Date and place of birth.
c. Date and place of marriage.
d. Date and place of death.
e. Place of burial.
f. Full name of spouse (maiden name of wife).
g. Date and place of birth of spouse.
h. Full name of parents of spouse (mother's maiden name)
i. Date and place of death of spouse.
j. Place of burial of spouse.
k. Full names and birthdates of all children.
l. Place of birth, and place and date of death of unmarried children.

Children who married are treated more fully in entries devoted to each.

For each married descendant of Nathan P Goff, lineage is shown to our common progenitor, John Turton Goff. At the beginning of each section is shown the lineage of the person to whom that section is devoted. All other entries in that section show the lineage back to that person. In the case of an unmarried child, his lineage is taken from that of his parent. To illustrate how the system works, assume that the Goff lineage of Timothy Floyd Powell is desired. The index shows that Powell, Timothy Floyd, is listed on page 6-7. On that page, Timothy Floyd Powell is listed as one of the children of Charles Floyd Powell', whose lineage to Talitha Jane Goff' is shown. Her lineage is the first entry in section 6, on page 6-1. Combining the two produces the following lineage statement:

Timothy Floyd Powell8, (Charles Floyd Powell7, Floyd Willis Powell6, Nathan Albertis Powell5, Talitha Jane Goff4, Nathan P Goff3, John Shelburn Goff2, John Turton Goff1).

In a similar fashion, the lineage back to John Turton Goff1 of each descendant of Nathan P Goff3 is shown. Female descendants are listed by maiden names, not married names.
The sequence of entries was determined by the simple rule that all descendants of the firstborn child are included before entering details concerning the second child. Then all descendants of the second child are included before entering details concerning the third child, and so on throughout the detailed genealogy sections.

Despite the earnest efforts of many people, the genealogy sections are not entirely complete. An unknown few of the descendants of Nathan P. Goff are not included, and some items of data about others are missing. I urge every reader of this genealogy who can provide missing information, or who can correct any error which is inadvertently included in the data published, to send me the additional data and corrections. I also ask that you send me new data as it develops, --- births, deaths, marriages, etc, making the information as complete as possible. You may wish to place your copy of this family genealogy in a looseleaf binder, as mine will be, so that additional pages can be inserted readily at the appropriate places. In that fashion this genealogy can be a living document, growing as the family grows.

This effort grew out of my desire to inform our children of their heritage, and my resultant search for data concerning ancestors and relatives.
This search led me to Cousins Joy Kidney and Bruce Cannady, who were already active family genealogists. Together we explored ways of uncovering the past. Joy Kidney first suggested to me the compilation and distribution of a family genealogy. She has been very helpful in collecting data, and it was she who assembled and typed the Family Mailing Addresses section. Bruce Cannady has provided much help, not only in the data collection effort, but also providing advice, suggestions and constructive criticism. Before her death last November, Aunt Nora Barnes gave me the clues which led to finding the Elijah C. Goff probate records, which were key documents in establishing Nathan P. Goff's lineage. Lela Reigle collected data, and researched the Madison County, Ia, land records to find the data concerning Nathan P. Goff's land transactions there. Many others have been indispensable to the data collection effort, acting as focal points for the tedious work of assembling data, obviously devoting many hours to the task. These have included Everett Black, Pearl Charest, Minnie Clements, Avo Cox, Velma Emmert, Helen Gjerde, Florence Goff, Hazel Greiman, Marguerite Gutshall, Beulah Hibbs, Iva Johnson, Ruby Moran, Marie McNulty, Elizabeth Niemi, Lea Poulson, Judy Sheward, Maurice Taggart, Ruby Toepfer, Viola VanArsdol and Leora Wilson. I am certain that many others also deserve recognition here. To all of you, I express my deep appreciation for your patience and generous help.

The excellent "Powell Family History" assembled by Beulah Hibbs and Evea
Polk nine years ago has served as a valuable reference and source document.

I have been fortunate enough to personally visit and work on Goff family research in the Library of Congress and the National Archives in Washington, DC, the State of Maryland Hall of Records in Annapolis, the New York Public Library in New York City, the Library and Archives of the University of West Virginia in Morgantown, W. Va., the amazingly broad genealogical collection of W. Guy Tetrick in Clarksburg, W. Va., the Missouri Historical Society Library in St Louis, and County offices in Cumberland, Md., Morgantown, Fairmont and Clarksburg, W. Va., and Muncie, Ind. I also received very fine help by mail, particularly from the National Archives, the Indiana State Library, Delaware County, Ind., and Randolph County, W. Va. To all of these, my thanks.

My particular thanks to Mr. Bradley of the Genealogy and Local History Division of the New York Public Library, whose patient help given cheerfully to a novice amateur genealogist was invaluable.

Finally, I dedicate this family record to my beloved wife Maxine, whose love, understanding, encouragement, and wonderfully patient support are indispensable.

HISTORY OF THE NATHAN P GOFF\(^3\) FAMILY

Nathan P Goff\(^3\) was the son of John Shelburn Goff\(^2\), and the grandson of John Turton Goff\(^1\). Despite the intensive efforts of a number of researchers, the ancestry of John Turton Goff remains unproved and uncertain. I have not thus far found any persuasive evidence of the identity of the father of John Turton Goff\(^1\). Therefore I shall refer to him as the first generation of our Goff Ancestors, and so identify him by a numeral 1 placed as a superscript after his name. John Shelburn Goff\(^2\) is the second generation of our Goff line, and Nathan P Goff\(^3\) is the third generation and are indicated as such by the superscript numerals. Throughout this brief history, the superscript numeral indicates the generation of the individual, always counting John Turton Goff\(^1\) as the first generation and numbering succeeding generations consecutively. Thus the children of Nathan P Goff and Elizabeth Norris are of the fourth generation of our family of Goffs. Nine of those fourth generation children lived to found their own families. A separate section of the detailed genealogies to follow is devoted to descendants of each.

John Turton Goff\(^1\) was one of four Goff brothers who figured prominently in the frontier history of the area drained by the headwaters of the Potomac, Youghiogheny, and Cheat rivers in Western Maryland and Northern West Virginia. The Youghiogheny and Cheat rivers are both tributaries of the Monongahela river, which drains into the Ohio, and thence to the Mississippi. The Potomac river drains to the Chesapeake Bay. Thus the area of interest lies on both sides of the Continental Divide between the Atlantic and the Gulf of Mexico watersheds. A map of the general area is included on page 1-2.

John Turton Goff's brothers were James C, Thomas Jonas, and Salathiel. All four became owners of substantial tracts of land, and their names appear frequently in the land records of the area, including the records of the original land grants. James C, John Turton, and Salathiel spent the remainder of their lives in the area. The fourth brother, Thomas Jonas Goff, moved on to settle in Clark County, Kentucky.

One historian of the Goff family, Thomas Theodore Goff, asserted in his "Letter to the Descendants of Thiel Goff" that the father of the four brothers was Thiel Goff (sometimes given as Tharl or Thyle Goff, probably a contraction of Salathiel Goff), an Englishman of Welsh extraction. This account states that the brothers came from England with their families about 1772, arriving at Baltimore, and settled first near what is now the Georgetown section of Washington, D C.

Another family historian, Paul Hardman, decided that the four brothers probably were born in the State of New York, in the vicinity of Albany, and that they probably descended from the Goff family of Rhode Island. He cites an Augusta County, Va marriage bond, dated 21 May 1766, of Thomas Jonas Goff and Margaret Parsons. He also states, "A few years before the marriage of Thomas Jonas Goff, his brother, John Turton Goff, had married Elizabeth Welsh in Maryland, likely within the bounds of Prince George's County. ... Their eldest child, James C, was born July 21, 1762, thus their marriage must have occurred not later than 1760 or 1761." He further notes that three of the four brothers, James, John T, and Salathiel, were recorded in a census of the Colony of Maryland, taken in the early days of the Revolution, as living in the settlements west of Fort Cumberland. Hardman observes that the brothers were living at the time in the vicinity of Moorefield (now Hardy County, W Va). Hardman concludes that, since Western Maryland's boundaries were undefined, and the claims of Maryland and Virginia to Western territories overlapped substantially, the presence of the brothers somewhat south of Fort Cumberland is not inconsistent with the Maryland census finding.

A historian of the local area, C W Maxwell, concluded that the Goff brothers were immigrants from Germany who landed in Baltimore about 1773. Still another local historian, H F Fansler, accepted Germany as the source of the brothers, and Baltimore as their port of entry, but put the date at 1770.

Whatever may be their differences concerning the origins of the Goff brothers, all sources examined seem to agree that all four were established on the South Branch of the Potomac river near Moorefield in Hardy County, W Va and that at least two, Salathiel and John Turton, joined John Minear's expedition to the Cheat river in March, 1774. Minear's party made a settlement at Horseshoe Bend on the Cheat river in present Tucker County, W Va. There they located land and built a number of cabins. Unfortunately that was the year of the Dunmore War, when bands of Indians scourged Western Virginia, and the danger of Indian raids was very real. The colony erected a crude fort, and the settlers moved into it for safety. At an opportune time that autumn the group left the Cheat river and returned to the South Branch of the Potomac.

Disputes over land ownership delayed their return until the spring of 1776, when John Minear led his colony back to the Cheat river to stay, settling this time where the town of St George, Tucker County, now stands.

Apparently three of the Goff brothers were with the 1776 colony, Salathiel, James C, and John Turton. Just when Thomas Jonas Goff moved to the Cheat river area is not clear. In 1782, when the first census was taken of Hampshire County, Va, he was still living in the Moorefield area. Land records show that he acquired land in Monongalia County on the Cheat river by 1784. He was described in land transfer documents as a resident of Bourbon Co, Ky in 1792, of Randolph Co, Va in 1794, and of Clark Co, Ky in 1796.

Salathiel Goff probably was the most widely known of the four Goff brothers. He was a remarkable man, and became immediately prominent in community matters. He served as a Captain of Militia in the Revolutionary War, and was one of the first justices of Harrison County when it was established in 1784. He was the first president of the Randolph County Court when that County was established in 1787. He died of cancer in St George in 1791.

James C Goff became a very wealthy man, but was known as a miserly eccentric. Fansler, in his "History of Tucker County", describes his as follows. "James C Goff owned numerous tracts of land in Tucker and Preston Counties. He was a money lender as well as a thrifty farmer, and a very miserly person; a Scrooge of the wilderness. He kept his money in gold coins and buried them in the earth beneath his cabin. He hoarded his grains and farmers came from as far away as Maryland to replenish their seed reserves from him. He was born in 1735 and died on his Preston County estate in 1834, when he was 99 years old".

John Turton Goff was described by Paul Hardman as follows. "John Turton and Elizabeth Welsh Goff made their settlement near the Minear claim at St George. They did not enjoy the fruits of their industry long together, for she died in 1780. John T Goff was appointed one of the earliest Justices of the Peace of Monongalia County. He was a very public spirited man, like his brother Salathiel, and continued to serve in an official capacity for his county until death. He was preceded by Cupp as sheriff of the county in 1799, and was accorded the place himself in 1800, which he held until 1803, at the time of his death. John Fairfax succeeded him as sheriff. Like all these thrifty brothers, he managed to amass a considerable fortune, and his prominence and influence as a leader was always felt on the frontier and in the civil affairs of the region. The four brothers had all received exceptionally good educations for that day, and this fact rendered them very useful. His second marriage was to Monacah Carrico, sister of Catherine, James Goff's second wife. John T Goff lived in the manner of a Virginia gentleman, and kept a number of slaves on his plantation, and in contrast to James and Catherine, John and Monacah maintained considerable elegance in their household and appointments."

By the time of his death, John Turton Goff had acquired substantial amounts of land in both Virginia and Maryland. Although settlers had appeared on the western slopes of the Alleghenies as early as 1750, it was not until 1781 that Virginia established a commission to hear evidence, decide claims, and issue land patents for lands on "the Western Waters". John T Goff's name appears in Sims' "Index to West Virginia Land Grants" as follows.

To describe John Turton Goff's land holdings in Maryland, it is useful to discuss the "Deakins Survey of Military Lots". Maryland had used the promise of bonus lands after the war to stimulate enlistments in the Continental Line during the Revolutionary War. In 1787, the State Legislature authorized the Governor to proceed with steps to honor the earlier promises. Colonel Francis Deakins was hired to survey a sufficient number of 50-acre military lots in the empty State lands lying west of Fort Cumberland. In the course of the survey, Deakins' survey crews discovered that some of the "empty lands" were in fact occupied by settlers who had established homes, cleared fields, and planted crops, all without benefit of title to the land. In his report, Deakins indicated which military lots were so occupied, and by whom, and recommended that the settlers be granted a preferential right to purchase the land they occupied. Deakins' survey notes and other records of the military lots are preserved in the State of Maryland Hall of Records at Annapolis. Deakins found that John T Goff was actively farming the lands designated as military lots 2505, 2506, 2508, 2509, 2515, 2516, 2517 and 2518. These lots are very near the western boundary of Maryland, in the Youghiogheny river watershed, separated from the Potomac river watershed by Backbone Mountain, which contains the highest land elevation in Maryland.

It is a matter of interest to me that among the settlers living on the Maryland lands west of Fort Cumberland at the time of the Deakins survey were members of the Goff family, and also the family of William Barnes. These two families joined a hundred years later in Iowa, when a great-great grandson of William Barnes married a great granddaughter of John Turton Goff (Elhanan Davies Barnes - Lydia Emily Goff, 29 Sep 1881, at Winterset, Ia). These two families joined again when another great-great grandson of William Barnes married a great-great granddaughter of John Turton Goff (Zenas Lysias Barnes, brother of Elhanan Davies Barnes, - Amanda Jane Simmons, 15 Dec 1887, Winterset, Ia).
The 1804 tax records of Allegany County, Md, which then included what is now Garrett County, show that John T Goff was listed as the owner of record of 969 acres of land located in District #1, Sandy Creek Glades and Hundreds. These included the eight military lots listed earlier, two of which had been resurveyed into a single 100-acre parcel called "Delight", military lots 1724, 2534 and 2535, and 269 acres in a tract called "Addition".

The will of John Turton Goff is preserved in the records of Monongalia County at Morgantown, W Va. The Index to the Wills in the County Clerk's office leads to a typewritten copy which contains several errors, including the mistaken identification of the will as that of John J Goff. However, in a search of the records in May 1971, I found the handwritten copy of the will recorded in 1803 in Monongalia County Old Series Deed Book #3, pages 586-587.

A copy of the same will is also preserved in the Maryland records. James C Goff, eldest son of John Turton Goff, as administrator for the estate of his father, found it necessary to petition the Maryland Court of Chancery to establish clear authority to carry out those provisions of his father's will which required the sale of his lands which were in Maryland. The record of the case is in the Maryland Hall of Records, recorded in Chancery book 68, pages 349-354. Part of the Chancery record is a copy of John T Goff's will, provided by the Clerk of Monongalia County, Va. The copy of the will which I obtained from the Maryland Chancery records is much easier to read than the copy I obtained from the Monongalia County Clerk. A portion of the Maryland record is reproduced on page 1-6, as a matter of interest. The entire will as recorded and probated in April 1803 is transcribed here.

John Shelburn Goff, son of John Turton Goff and Elizabeth Welsh, was born 2 Jan 1771. Whether this was in England, or Baltimore, or Georgetown, or Moorefield, or some other place, I have not been able to determine. I reject only the suggestion that the Goff's were German immigrants. The family names are too decidedly un-German, and too decidedly English, to persuade me that the family is of other than English extraction.

John Shelburn Goff married Anna, possibly Anna Howell, sister of the Elizabeth Howell who was the first wife of John S Goff's older brother, James C Goff. In the Archives of the West Virginia University Library is the McWhorter Collection, sixty looseleaf notebooks of genealogies of West Virginia families, collected and compiled by Miss Minnie McWhorter of Weston, W Va. She devoted 71 pages to handwritten charts of the four Goff brothers and their descendants. She indicated that John S Goff married Anna Howell, but she misidentified John S Goff as the John Goff who was a son of Salathiel Goff. I have been unable to verify that Anna, wife of John S Goff, was Anna Howell. If she was the sister of Elizabeth Howell, then her father was William Howell.

At the time of his father's death in 1803, John S Goff was living near his father and brothers just west of the Maryland state line, near the present town of Aurora, W Va, in the southeastern corner of Preston County, then part of Monongalia County, Va. By late 1814 he had relocated southward to Randolph County. On 20 Nov 1814, he sold to his brother James C Goff all interest in lands inherited from their father John T Goff. This deed is recorded in Monongalia County. On 19 Dec 1814, John S Goff fought from his brother James C Goff, acting as executor of John T Goff, 200 acres in Randolph County in an area known as the Cove Settlement. This deed is recorded in Randolph County. Both documents identify John S Goff as a resident of Randolph County. The Cove Settlement was in an area now occupied by Tygart Lake, southeast of Grafton.

On 14 Oct 1830, John S Goff and his wife Ann sold the 200-acre Cove Settlement parcel of land to Andrew Miller, Jr. Apparently this was a prelude to leaving for Missouri.

It is convenient at this point to call attention to the family of Job Goff. He was born at Coventry, Rhode Island, 22 Nov 1760, lived in Vermont and New York, and in 1804 brought his family to Harrison County, Va, settling near Clarksburg, about 30 miles from John Shelburn Goff's home in the Cove Settlement. Job Goff's family became locally prominent, four of his five sons serving in the Virginia Legislature. The family is particularly interesting to us because the given name Nathan appeared so frequently. Job Goff's father, a brother, a son and a grandson were all named Nathan. I have not found any direct link between Job Goff's family and John Shelburn Goff. One can speculate that there was a family relationship, that the family ties were what attracted Job Goff to the area, and that these same family ties impelled John Shelburn Goff to give the name Nathan to one of his sons. I have not seen any evidence to support these speculations. It was the Nathan Goff who was a grandson of Job Goff who became a brigadier general in the Civil War, served in the West Virginia legislature, was Secretary of the Navy under President Hayes, became a Congressman for 3 terms, then a Judge of the U S Circuit Court, and finally was elected a United States Senator from West Virginia. Search in West Virginia for records of our Goff family is much complicated by the arrival of Job Goff and the continued presence of his descendants.

John Shelburn Goff moved his family from West Virginia to Missouri in 1830, and then to Delaware County, Indiana in 1833. I have not been able to identify the place in Missouri where the family lived for about 3 years. Evidence of the land sale in Randolph County, W Va indicates that the move from West Virginia to Missouri was undertaken in the late fall of 1830, after the sale of the Cove Settlement farm. The 1830 U S Census reported John S Goff living in Randolph Co, Va. Possibly John S Goff moved to some place in Missouri where relatives were already established. The 1830 Census lists a number of Goff families in Missouri, all in Howard County. Given names of the heads of the Goff families listed were Daniel, David, James, Moses, Thomas, and William. Examining the age groups of members of these families as recorded in the Census suggests that Daniel Goff may have been the father of the others listed.

Kemper's "History of Delaware County, Indiana", published in 1908, contains a biographical sketch of Elijah C Goff, born 30 Sep 1822 near Grafton, W Va, the youngest of the 12 children born to John Shelburn and Anna Goff. This sketch is the source of the dates of the family's moves from West Virginia to Missouri and from Missouri to Indiana. The biographical sketch reads in part, "The Father came to Delaware County six months ahead of his family.---They entered a farm of forty acres of wild and unimproved land and later purchased one hundred and twenty acres, the father continuing the laborious work of clearing and cultivating his land until his life's labors were ended in death, dying at the advanced age of eighty four years. He affiliated with the Democratic party, and was a worthy member of the Methodist Episcopal Church", "---John Shelburn Goff and Anna Goff both were natives of the Old Dominion State."

Helm's "History of Delaware County, Indiana" contains the following as part of the history of Liberty Township. "Methodists worshipped at private homes until 1842. A short time prior to that John Goff settled in the southern part of the township, and began at one to erect a house of worship for the society, and was assisted in felling and dressing the logs by several young men of the neighborhood. When the house was completed he presented it to the society and it was dedicated by John Burt. It was known as Goff's Chapel in honor of its founder. It was occupied as a place of public worship for a period of ten or eleven years.

In Delaware County Deed Book 7, page 490, is recorded a transfer on 23 Dec 1843 of 30 square rods of land from John S Goff to the Methodist Church Trustees for the sum of twelve and one-half cents. One of the trustees named in the deed was Nathan P Goff. On page 443, Deed Book 2, is a copy of a deed of transfer at no cost of 0.25 acre from John S Goff to School District No 4, 16 Feb 1837.

Anna Goff died 15 Feb 1852, and John Shelburn Goff died 2 Jan 1854. Their graves are in the Mount Tabor cemetery southeast of Muncie, Ind. John Shelburn Goff's will is on record in Delaware County, Ind.

THOMAS I MATTHEWS

Nathan P Goff is not named in his father's will, which does name the other eleven children. The likely explanation is that John S Goff believed he had given his son Nathan his inheritance in the form of help and support during the years in which they lived close to each other. The land records of Delaware County, Ind, tell the story. The parcels of land involved are shown on the portion of a map of Delaware County shown on page 1-12.

In 1835 John S Goff purchased 40 acres of federal land and 120 acres adjoining, paying $400 for the 120-acre parcel. In Dec 1837 he sold 80 acres of the 120-acre parcel to his son Nathan P Goff for $100. Nathan was married in Aug 1839, and in Feb 1840 sold back to his father for $210 a 14-acre parcel from the 80 acres he had earlier bought from his father. Before 1856 Nathan acquired land adjoining his farm on the north, and in 1863 sold his 138-acre farm at the time he moved to Iowa.

Proof that Nathan P Goff3 was a son of John Shelburn Goff2 is available in the record of the distribution in 1909 of the estate of Elijah C Goff, who died intestate without issue, leaving no widow, no children, no brothers nor sisters surviving him. The heirs to the estate were nephews and nieces and their descendants. The Petition for Distribution filed in the April 1909 term of the Delaware County, Ind, Circuit Court, lists the names of 40 nieces and nephews of Elijah C Goff. The children of Nathan P Goff are listed as number 31 to 39 in that list. Given that the children of Nathan P Goff were nieces and nephews of Elijah C Goff, it follows that Nathan P Goff and Elijah C Goff were brothers, and that Elijah C Goff's father, John Shelburn Goff, was also the father of Nathan P Goff.

The Petition for Distribution taken from the Delaware Co, Ind, Probate records, contains names of many descendants of the 40 identified nieces and nephews of Elijah C Goff. The entire petition is transcribed at the end of this section, beginning on page 1-16, for its genealogical value to members of the Goff family. All persons named in the petition as heirs of Elijah C Goff are descendants of John Shelburn Goff.

80A bought by Nathan P Goff from his father, 1837. South 14A sold back to his father, 1840.

138A sold by Nathan P Goff at the time he moved to Iowa, 1863.
Nathan P Goff was born 2 Oct 1815. The obituary published at the time of his death gives his birthplace as near Wheeling, W Va. I have found no other evidence placing his parents and their family closer to Wheeling than the Cove Settlement, which was in the area now occupied by Tygart Lake about 10 Miles southeast of Grafton, W Va, and about 100 road miles southeast of Wheeling. Neither have I found any other direct evidence of Nathan's birthplace.

Nathan P Goff was 15 years old when the family moved west to Missouri, and 18 when the move was made to Delaware County, Indiana, settling in Liberty Township about 2 miles east of Muncie. Delaware County records show that when Nathan was 22 years old, he bought 80 acres of land from his father, recorded on 5 Dec 1837. Less than two years later, before he was 24, he married 19-year old Elizabeth Norris on 22 Aug 1839. Elizabeth was Kentucky-born, the daughter of John and Anna Norris. All eleven of the children of Nathan and Elizabeth Goff were born at the same place in Delaware County, Ind, over a twenty year period from the first, Milton Norris, on 16 Aug 1840, to the eleventh, Martha Belle, on 9 Apr 1860.

Nathan P Goff moved his family to Madison County, Iowa, in 1863, settling in Jefferson Township. His first son, Milton Norris Goff, who was absent serving in the Army of the Potomac, did not move to Iowa with the family. Nathan Goff's second daughter, Mary Katherine, had been married the preceding August to Joseph D Simmons and the young couple traveled with her parents to Madison County, Ia. The first crop of corn Nathan Goff planted in Iowa was with the help of two of his daughters, Jane and Adaline, one sitting on each side of his planter dropping the seed as he was driving the team of mules.

Madison County land records show that Nathan P Goff's first land purchase in that county was on 16 Oct 1883 and included 80 acres in the northwest corner of section 18, Township 77, Range 27 (Jefferson Township). This was the family home for the next seventeen years. The original purchase also included 80 acres in the southeast corner of section 12, Madison Township. A map of the pertinent portion of Madison County is included on page 1-14. As a result of several transactions between Sep 1866 and Mar 1872, Nathan P Goff's land holdings ranged between 120 acres and 240 acres, as he bought and sold land adjoining the home 80-acre parcel. From 1872 to 1880 he owned the home 80 acres plus 40 acres adjoining on the north, located in the southwest corner of section 7, Jefferson Township. In 1880, Nathan P Goff moved to a 100-acre parcel in the northeast corner of section 11, Township 66, Range 28 (Douglas Township), which he purchased on 15 Mar 1880. Here he lived until 1897 in the stone house which still stands.

Elizabeth Norris Goff died 16 Aug 1894. A few months later, on 18 Feb 1895, Nathan P Goff sold his farm to his son, Alfred Monroe Goff, but continued to live in the stone house. Part of the consideration stated in the deed as recorded was that Alfred would provide care for his father as long as he lived. In 1897 Alfred M Goff sold the farm he had bought from his father, and moved from Madison County to Union County. It was there, on 23 Feb 1900, that Nathan P Goff died. Both Nathan P Goff and his wife Elizabeth are buried in the Fairview cemetery, Madison County, Iowa.

The 1870 U S Census found Nathan and Elizabeth Goff and their three younger children, Alfred, Lydia, and Martha, living in Jefferson Township. The 1880 Census show N P and S E Goff living in Douglas Township, Madison Co, Ia. Living with them was their recently widowed daughter, M(ary) K(atherine) Simmons and her five children, listed as A J 14, W E 11, N E 9, L O 7, and M J 4.

MADISON COUNTY, IOWA
HISTORY OF THE NATHAN P GOFF\(^3\) FAMILY

Nathan P Goff was active in the affairs of the Fairview Methodist Episcopal Church, serving for some time as Sunday School Superintendent. His granddaughter, Beulah Hibbs, remembers him as "---one of the most patient and kindly Granpa's a little 9-year old girl could have." Beulah's mother, Talitha Jane (Goff) Powell "---told how he would go as a circuit rider to help a minister with his meetings or to have service in case the minister could not get there."

Lela Reigle reports that her mother, Marietta Myers told her this. "After Fairview Church was built, members of the community met at the church, and some one asked what they should name it. Elizabeth Norris Goff said to call it 'Fairview', for it is such a fair view."

NATHAN P GOFF'S OBITUARY

This obituary of Nathan P Goff was published at the time of his death.

"Nathan P Goff was born October 2d, 1815, near Wheeling, West Virginia, and died at his home in Union county, Iowa, February 23th, 1900, with cancer in the mouth, age 84 years, 4 months and 21 days. From West Virginia he moved with his parents to Missouri, living there three years. He went from Missouri to Muncie, Delaware county, Indiana, and was there married to Elizabeth Norris, August 22, 1839, who died August 16th, 1894. With his wife he came to Iowa in the year 1863 and settled in Madison county near Fairview, where he lived for a number of years. He was the father of eleven children, four sons and seven daughters, one son and one daughter preceeding him in death. The others survive him, three daughters and one son are present today. He was converted at the age of fifteen and united with the M E church in West Virginia. He was one of the first members, and was the first class leader and first Sunday school superintendent of the Fairview church. A few days before his death he requested his son, Alfred to read to him from the Bible; he read the fourth chapter of 1st Thess. On his death bed his son asked him if he had any message for the absent children and he repeated the latter part of the 13th verse of that chapter which reads as follows: "Concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope." "For" said he, "I have a hope." Those who have known him during his lifetime can testify to his upright character, earnest piety and strong faith in Christ. His life has been an example worthy imitation not only by his children and relatives, but all who desire to live thoroughly Christian and exemplary lives in service of the Master."

4. Lillie Knight, a minor.
5. Dona C Knight, a minor.
6. Ezra Knight, a minor.

31. The children and heirs at law of Milton N Goff, deceased, who was a nephew of said decedent and who died on the 17th day of February, 1908, some weeks after the death of said decedent and whose widow and children are entitled to the distributive share of said Milton N Goff, deceased, and whose names are as follows:

37. Adaline Anderson, a niece of said decedent.
38. Emma Barnes, a niece of said decedent.
40. Elizabeth Pierce, now Sarah A E Miller, only child of William Pierce, dec'd who was a nephew of said decedent.

Your petitioner would further show to the Court that Earnest Dodd above mentioned is a minor, and that his father Edward Dodd has the care and custody of said child and that the amount coming to said minor would be small, namely; The one sixth (1/6) of the one fortieth (1/40) of said Estate, and he recommends the payment of said share to said father of said minor; That Willie Hilton, Tressie Hilton and Elmer Hilton are minors of tender years and the combined amount coming to said minors would be the one sixth (1/6) of the one fortieth (1/40) of said Estate, and that said children are in the care and custody of their father, George Hilton, and he recommends the payment of said amount to said father: That Helen Louise Giles is a minor of ten (10) years of age in the care and custody of her father Benjamin H Giles, and that the amount coming to said minor is the one sixth (1/6) of the one fortieth (1/40) of said Estate and he recommends the payment of the same to the father of said infant: That Lillie Knight, Dona Knight and Ezra Knight are minors in the care and custody of their mother, Nancy Jane Knight, and that the share of each of said minors would be the one sixth (1/6) of the one fortieth (1/40) of said Estate, and he recommends the payment of said amount to the mother of said minors, for the reason that the amount due and owing said minors above set forth is so small that it would not justify the appointment of a Guardian as the expense connected with the same would be equal to the amount of the legacy.

Your petitioner further shows that each of the above named nephews and nieces are entitled to the one fortieth (1/40) of said Estate and no more, and in the case of the death of a nephew or niece, the children or heirs at law of any such deceased nephew or niece are entitled to the parent's share. Your petitioner further shows that Milton N Goff, deceased, shown at principal Number 31 of this petition died subsequent to the death of Elijah C Goff, deceased, and that therefore, his widow Mary E Goff would inherit one third (1/3) of his interest and the balance of two thirds (2/3) of his interest would be equally divided among his four children.

Your petitioner would further show to the Honorable Court that the above named parties in the judgment of this petitioner are all the heirs at law of the Estate of Elijah C Goff, deceased; that said Elijah C Goff, deceased, was a member of a family of twelve (12) children; that among his brothers and sisters there were three whose names are as follows:

- William Goff, a brother of said decedent.
- Ellen (Goff) Friend, a sister of said decedent.
- Rachael (Goff) Graham, a sister of said decedent.

All of which three last above named have never been heard of since the Civil War and no descendants of the same so far as your petitioner is able to ascertain; that Elijah C Goff, deceased, was the last of said twelve children of his particular family to depart this life, and that information received from him during his life time by this petitioner as well as diligent search and a correspondence with all the heirs conducted by this petitioner and the Attorneys in the settlement of said Estate, convince your petitioner herein that said three last above named are all dead and have been for many years and left no children surviving; and that the above named nephews and nieces and heirs at law to said Estate are the descendants from the other eight children of the parents of Elijah C Goff, deceased.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner prays that each of the above named may receive their respective shares of said Estate, and the Clerk be duly ordered to pay the distributive share of each under order of this Court, and further your petitioner sayeth not. Affiant further says that in his best judgement after making diligent search that the foregoing heirs at law of the estate of Elijah C Goff dec'd are all the heirs at law of said estate and that their respective interests are truly set out as affiant is informed and truly believes.
