Common Errors in Hull Lineages on the Internet

These men were brothers and sons of Thomas Hull, the Younger. Thomas Hull, the Younger, was a son of Richard Hull and this is where the lineage ends, as the parish records terminate with this generation.

There is absolutely no evidence to assign this family to a lineage which includes Hugh Hull and Matthew Hull. These Hulls are an entirely separate family from the Crewkerne, England, Hulls, and are not known to be related.

The Reverend Joseph Hull Line

Rev. Joseph Hull did not marry Joanna Coffin, as his first wife. There is also no proven evidence that Rev. Joseph even married a Joanna. It is well documented that the given name of his second wife was Agnes, but her surname is unknown; there is absolutely no evidence that she was Agnes Coffin.

HFA #170 Daniel Hull, who married Mary Quinney, was not the son of HFA #56 Joseph Hull of New Jersey, but rather the son of a Maryland Joseph Hull and Rebecca ____. No connection between the Maryland Joseph Hull family has been found to the Rev. Joseph Hull line or to any of the other HFA families, and especially not to the New Jersey Joseph Hull.

HFA #402 Samuel Hull, who married Martha Glover, and HFA #403 George Hull were not the sons of the above Daniel Hull and Mary Quinney. Their HFA lines have not yet been found. This Daniel Hull did not marry Mary Quincy, but rather Mary Quinney.
The history of "MY" HULL family in the United States begins with Samuel HULL, born about 1735 and his wife Martha Glover, born in 1744. It is believed by many that this HULL line really begins in England, with Rev. Joseph HULL immigrating to the United States in 1635 and settled in Massachusetts. I will trace the HULLs from Hugh HULL (see Phyllis Hughes' notes on previous page), born about 1440 in England down through Daniel Hull born in 1699, which some believe to be the father of my Samuel HULL (I do not have any documented proof of this relationship), down through Ida Belle HULL (1867 - 1951), my grandmother and daughter of George HULL (1843 - 1935) to my children: Mary, David and Craig Langan and to my grandchildren: Libby and Alex Stewart. Also included in this accounting will be all the children of George Hull and their descendants that I was able to find. Including listings of many other ancestors and descendants of known Hull family members.

It took over ten years to compile and assemble this book, which is still in the work of adding and correcting family information. (Family history is never finished.) Thanks goes out to the many people who contributed to the information in this book. Special thanks goes to Dell Smith of Gregory, South Dakota for all of her input and her earlier writings and to my mother who started the research and inspired me to continue with this finding of history. THANK YOU.

This book has four sections; first I will start with Hugh HULL (ca. 1440) born and lived in England (see Phyllis Hughes' notes of previous page) through Daniel HULL (ca. 1699). Second I will take up with Samuel HULL, the first proven ancestor of my HULL line, to George HULL my great grandfather. The third section will be George HULL'S children, their families and descendants through January 1, 2000. The fourth and last section will be on how Ida Belle HULL is connected to the Royal Family in England and her (and my) connection to George Washington, the first President of the United States. It seems there are two.

NOTE

No documented proof of any connection between the early Hulls found in The Hull Family in America compiled by Col. Weygant and published by The Hull Family Association in 1913 and Samuel Hull of my line has been found. Therefore I am removing all previously published references from this book until a connection can be confirmed.

Samuel Hull (1735 – 1814) and Martha Glover (1744 – 1825) are now considered the first known Hull Parents of my line. When new documented information is found it will be added to this accounting of the family history for Ida Belle Hull and the Langan Family Tree. R.P.L. 1-1-2002

NOTE: Many earlier writings says this Samuel Hull, son of Daniel Hull and Mary Quinney, is the Samuel Hull that my line of Hulls are from. More recent research seems to point to the fact that this Samuel Hull is NOT the Samuel Hull that married Martha Glover and the parent of Uriah Hull, my ancestor. No documented proof of any relationship has been found.

NOTE

The descendants of Hugh Hull through Daniel Hull is included in this book only to show what older research and writings has come up with and printed. At this time this line of Hulls are NOT being listed as ancestors of the Samuel Hull that heads my line of Hulls. Also some research does not include Hugh, Hough and Matthew Hull as part of the ancestors of the Rev. Joseph Hull. So I, and you, must take these Hulls only as people of interest.

Descendants of Samuel Hull

Generation No. 1

1. SAMUEL10 HULL (DANIEL9, JOSEPH8, BENJAMIN7, JOSEPH REV.6, THOMAS (YOUNGER)5, RICHARD4, MATTHEW3, HOUGH2, HUGH1) was born Abt. 1735 in Unknown == Still researching his birth parents and place of birth., and died August 02, 1814 in Gratiot, Licking County, Ohio == Buried in Hopewell Township, Licking County, Ohio.. He married MARTHA GLOVER May 02, 1758 in Morristown, Morris Co., N.J. as found by Phyllis Hughes, HFA Genealogist, in Morris County, N.J. records.7, daughter of URIAH GLOVER and MARTHA ___. She was born Abt. 1744 in Place Unknown == Possibly at Southold, Suffolk County, New York., and died May 14, 1825 in (Maybe Licking County, Ohio?) Buried in Hopewell Township, Licking County, Ohio.

Notes for SAMUEL HULL:
[Langan New 2000.FBK]

NOTE! NOTE! NOTE! NOTE! NOTE!

Many accounts of Samuel Hull being the son of Daniel Hull and Mary (Quincy) Quinney and a descendant of the Rev. Joseph Hull (immigrant from England in 1635) has been published in the past by such people as Col. Charles H. Weygant (1913), Thirza Eleanor Bunce (1952), William Hull (1964), David Boatman (1976), Marion J. McHale (1979), Orra Eugene Monnette, and many others. More recent research by such people as Professional researchers at Swarthmore College at Swarthmore, Pennsylvania, where the early Hull records are housed, Patricia Hull Fulton, Phyllis J. Hughes (Hull Family Association Genealogist), Robert W. Barnes and F. Edward Wright (two eminent Maryland genealogical authorities), and others has come to the conclusion that existing found records show that this Daniel Hull and Mary Quinney may not be the true parents of this Samuel Hull. They have not been able to find any first proof of any such relationship. On the contrary found records seem to show that Daniel Hull and Mary Quinney may NOT be the Parents (or at best are the undocumented parents) and the above published accounts must be held with skepticism. With this information in hand I am, until further research can prove otherwise, assuming that Samuel Hull and Martha Glover are the FIRST known (provable) ancestors of my line of HULLs. R.P.L., 2 February 2000.

SAMUEL HULL -- Samuel Hull, (son of Daniel and Mary (Quincy) Quinney Hull???). Samuel was born in 1735. He died at Gratiot, Ohio in 1814. He married Martha Glover in 1758. Some reports has Samuel fighting During the Revolutionary War and having him being a Private in Capt. Hugh Stephenson's Company which was among those paid off in the war at Romney, now West Virginia. FROM: "Hull Families in The United States" By William E. Hull. Copyright 1964. (SEE ABOVE NOTE and NOTES FROM PHYLLIS J. HUGHES BELOW)

SAMUEL HULL, 1735 - 1814, of Maryland, Harrison County, Virginia (now West Virginia) and Licking County, Ohio. (Son of Daniel and Mary (Quincy) Quinney Hull???); married ca 1764 in Culpeper County, Virginia to Martha Glover, 1744 - 1825. Samuel Hull was born to Quaker parents in Harford County, Maryland, and died at Gratiot, Licking County, Ohio. His wife, Martha, died in Hopewell Township, Licking County, Ohio. The family of Samuel Hull while living before and during the Revolution War, in Virginia, suffered much from ravages of hostile Indians in addition to privations and hardship incident to frontier life. They had fifteen children. FROM: "The Descendants of Rev. Joseph Hull" and "The Hull Family in America" By Col. Charles H. Weygant, 1913. (SEE ABOVE NOTE about Daniel and Mary (Quincy) Quinney Hull.)
The following are notes written by Phyllis J. Hughes, Hull Family Association Genealogist, 1996:

Col. Charles H. Weygant version; Samuel Hull married Martha Glover in 1764 in Culperer County, Virginia.

Fact; Their marriage record was found in the Morristown Presbyterian Church records of 1758 in Morris County, New Jersey. (History of the first Presbyterian Church, Morristown (Morris County), New Jersey, The Combined Registers, from 1742 to 1885, Part 2, Page 113, Morristown New Jersey First Presbyterian Church, undated.)

Col. Weygant's version; The above couple's son Levi was killed by Indians while plowing in a field. Another son, Samuel Jr., "moved west."

Fact. A Harrison County, Virginia court record and a county history prove that the son Samuel Jr., not Levi, is the son who was killed by Indians in 1790. (Morman's Family History Library Microfilm #846,911 Harrison County, West Virginia Court Records, Minute Book, 1784 - 1792, book 1, pages 471 and 470; book 2, pages 4 and 12. Also History of Harrison County, West Virginia, Morgan town, WE'VE, by Henry Haymond; Acme Publishing Co., 1910, pages 113 - 114.) There is no proof that Levi was born to this family and Samuel Jr. is not the son who "moved west" as the court records for him and his orphan son in 1790 in Harrison county, W.V. verify that he was still living in Harrison County, W.V. when he died.

Col. Weygant's version: The daughter Elizabeth "Betsey" married Mr. Shipp.

Fact; Harrison County, West Virginia marriage records shows that the daughter Elizabeth "Betsey" married Edward Harbert, nor Mr. Shipp. (Morris, Earle H. "Marriage Records, Harrison, Virginia (West Virginia), 1784 - 1850, Fort Wayne, Indiana; Fort Wayne Public Library, 1966, pages 12, 13, 15, 16, 18, 27, 37, 38, and 45. Typescript. Also Mormon's Family History Library Microfilm # 163,765 and #163,730, W. Guy Tetrick, "Family Records of Harrison County, West Virginia." Manuscript, undated.) It Was a granddaughter, Elizabeth, the daughter of Uriah Hull, who married Nathan Ships. (Beernick, Sandi Shipp, "The Ships/Shipp Family of Licking County, Ohio," 1988, un paginated. Manuscript. (received from the Author, Omaha, Nebraska.))

Col. Weygant's version: The son James died young.

FACT; Harrison County, West Virginia marriage and land records show that son James did not die young as he married Hannah Lambert in 1798 and was still alive in 1800, when land records for him exist. (Morris, Earle H., Marriage Records, Harrison County, Virginia (West Virginia), 1784 - 1850. Fort Wayne, Indiana; Fort Wayne Public Library, 1966, pages 12, 13, 15, 16, 18, 27, 37, 38, and 45. Typescript. Also Harrison County, West Virginia Land Records, Book 1, Pages 185, 206, 238; Book 4, Page 48.)

FACT; Harrison County, West Virginia Land and marriage records show that a son Davis, who married Mary Wamsley, was omitted in this family. (Morman's Family History Library Microfilm #163,765 and #163,730, W. Guy Tetrick, "Family Records of Harrison County, West Virginia," Manuscript, undated. Also Harrison County, West Virginia Land and Marriage Records.) No records of any kind have been found for the sons Levi and Isaac. When quite ample records have been found for the other sons, these two sons must be considered undocumented and questionable.

Col. Weygant's version; Samuel Hull and Martha Glover had six daughters: Mary, Sally, Ruth, Patty, Hannah, and Betsey.

FACT: No records have been found for the following daughters: Mary and Sally. The same applies as stated immediately above for the two sons.

Col. Weygant's version: The son Uriah married Nancy Rose.

FACT: No evidence has been found that the son Uriah married Nancy Rose (Note: Joseph Hull, Rev. Joseph Hull Line, also married a Nancy Rose; perhaps these two men were confused with each other).

Licking County, Ohio cemetery stones, marriage records, and land records prove that Uriah did marry an Isabella (---?---) and also Elizabeth Dickinson, both names omitted by Col. Weygant.

Col. Weygant's version: No marriages were given for these children: James, Ruth, George, and Charles.

FACT: Harrison County, West Virginia marriage records, Licking County, Ohio land records, and Fulton County, Illinois marriage records prove that James married Hannah Lambert; Ruth married Joseph Lambert; George married (1) Hannah Rees and (2) Lucy (Ferris/Farris) Roberts; and Charles married (1) Mary Lambert and (2) Mrs. Sophia (Wiggins) Rodgers. None of these lines were carried down in Col. Weygant's version, but I have been able to trace all of these lines down to present-day people through primary sources. I now have data on all of the Hulls mentioned in this article which would fill considerably more than Mr. Thornbury's "eight large boxes." P.J.H.

NOTE !!! One account has this line of Hulls as being of Scotch and German (not English) stock and Samuel Hull, the father of the family, being a pioneer in the mountains of Virginia, and among the first settlers of Licking County, Ohio. They were almost unanimous in the Methodist faith. Later moving to Indiana. It was in May of 1846 that the family started moving to Boone County, Iowa and became the first white settlers in Boone County. R.P.L.

Notes for URIAH HULL:
[Langan New 2000.FBK]

URIAH HULL -- Uriah Hull, son of Samuel and Martha Glover Hull, was born in (Virginia??) about 1765, he married Isabella _?_. They moved to Licking County, Ohio about 1808 and died there about 1830. They were very successful and their lives most uplifting in the community where they lived. FROM: "Hull Families in The United States" by Rev. William E. Hull. Copyright 1964.

Writing of Col. Charles H. Weygant ("The Descendants of Joseph Hull" and "The Hull Family in America" - 1912) has Uriah Hull marring Nancy Rose -- Dave Boatman writes in "THE HULL FAMILY REGISTER" Volume 1, dated 1976, Nancy Rose was a first wife and list no children with her. More recent accounts including that of Phyllis J. Hughes (Hull Family Association Genealogist) says no evidence has been found that shows Uriah ever married a Nancy Rose.

Uriah was in the Revolution and the original of his application for a pension, which was refused because he was not wounded in the war, has been seen by relatives that were searching for the Hull Roots. He was also in the Militia of Pennsylvania (now West Virginia). He was Ensign in the 5th Regiment of Cumberland Company. This record is dated February 4, 1793. (NOTE: Phyllis Hughes says this could be our Uriah Hull.)

URIAH HULL

A letter from John A Hull (son of Samuel Hull II), grandson of Uriah Hull dated May 3, 1887 to a cousin states, "The state of Virginia gave Uriah Hull a land warrant for his service, it was situated on a high plateau, called the 'Bull Pasture', which is now in West Virginia. (NOTE: this could be an error as no records has been found of this land, per Phyllis Hughes.) About 1808 he sold his farm for a song and went west where he located on the present site of Newark, Ohio. Uriah's sons, Samuel and George were drafted into the war of 1812. These boys had only flax and buckskin clothing. Their mother (Isabella) got some sheep into the house on Christmas Day, Sheared them and wove cloth and sent the boys some woolen clothing. Samuel was Ensign in Captain Joseph Sutton's Company." ("Roster of Ohio Soldiers in War of 1812" list both Samuel Hull and George Hull as Privates. A Benjamin Hull also was listed as a Private in Captain Joseph Sutton's Company.) They served from September 30, 1812, until March 30, 1813.

At the Recorder's Office at Newark, Ohio, deeds for lands that were sold by Uriah and his wife Isabella from July 15, 1816 to 1830, when he was spoken of as deceased, were found. These were records which showed that Samuel and Mary Hull sold land which they inherited from Uriah after his death in 1830. Uriah and Isabella had six sons and two daughters.
Relatives visited Claylick, Licking County, which was the site of the old Hull Homestead and traveled in a car over the same ground which the forefathers had so laboriously traveled on horseback over 140 years before (from 1952). The vial records were destroyed but they found from other sources some sketchy records of the children. Uriah and Isabella's children mentioned by names were Elizabeth and Samuel in addition to George we already knew of. Samuel was always called "The Reverent Samuel" by his descendants. His license as a local preacher is in the family Bible which is owned by Don Hull of Sullivan County, who is the great-grandson of Rev. Samuel.

Because the records were destroyed in a fire in the courthouse, we do not know for sure the name of our great-grandparents on the Hull side, but we believe it to be George the son of Uriah and Isabella Hull. His birth date could be from 1783 to 1788. FROM: "HULL - STEVENSON LINES and Allied Families" By Thira Eleanor Bunce, 1952. Also found in "Hull and DeLany Family History" by Mary Christensen and Dell Smith, 1984.

URIAH HULL == Submitted by: Sandi Shipps Napravnik.

Uriah Hull, son of Samuel and Martha Glover Hull, was born in (Virginia ??) about 1765.

He was in the militia of Pennsylvania, now West Virginia, and an ensign in the 5th Regiment of Cumberland County in 1793. The state of Virginia gave Uriah Hull a land warrant, for his services, to a high plateau called "Bull Pasture" which is now in West Virginia. About 1808 he sold his farm in Virginia and went west, where he located in Franklin Township, Licking County, Ohio.

In the war of 1812 he served with Capt. Bartholomew's Company beside friends and relatives from Licking County area. When his sons, Samuel and George, were drafted into this war, the boys had only buckskin and flax clothing. Their mother brought sheep into the house on Christmas Day, sheared them, wove cloth and sent the boys woolen clothing to keep warm.

Uriah Hull was married three times. His first wife was Nancy Rose. His second wife was Isabella, surname unknown, who gave his six sons and two daughters. They were: Elizabeth, born 1782, married Asa Ships and Nathan Ships; Samuel (Rev.) born 1789, married Mary Bower and Mary Carter; George, born 1794, married Elizabeth Cummins and Hannah Crooks; Charles, born 1795, married Phebe Snider and Nancy, surname unknown; John, birth unknown, married Sarah, surname unknown; Isabella, birth unknown, married Joseph Bower. Other children of Uriah's, but of whom the mother has not been clarified are; Martha, birth unknown, married Henry Trout; Anna, born 1794, married Aaron Duckworth; David, born 1799, married Nancy Hull and Anna Tracy; Mary, birth unknown, married William Dodd; and William, birth unknown, married Sarah, surname unknown. His third wife was Elizabeth Dickinson whom he married on August 27, 1826, in Licking County, Ohio.

Uriah and Isabella and their family finally settled in Franklin Township in an area to the north of Ellis Chapel, Ohio. His daughter, Elizabeth Hull Ships, her husband Nathan, and their family lived across the road from them.

Upon Uriah's death in 1830, he was buried in Ellis Chapel Cemetery next to this second wife, Isabella, and other family members. Submitted by Sandi Shipps Napravnik.

FAMILY OF URIAH HULL AND SARAH MUNCY == From "HISTORY OF BOONE COUNTY -- 1880"

The HULLS are of Scotch and German stock. The father of the family, Samuel Hull Sr. and his son Uriah, being pioneers in the mountains of Virginia and among the first settlers of Licking County, Ohio. They are almost unanimous in the Methodist faith, and Dr. James and his son, Wesley C., are the only two that ever faltered in their democracy, so far as heard from. In early days in Boone County, when local questions were prominent and all-absorbing, they sometime "bolted" and they were so strong that, by fusing with the three Whigs in the county, they could carry the election, and for several years the old liners had to look out or the Hulls and the Whigs would unite and beat them. They had all raised large families and the present generation (in 1880) can scarce be counted.

In May, 1846 (1849) came John Pea, James Hull, John M. Crooks, S. H. Bowers and Thomas Sparks. They all settled in or near the timber bordering on a creek which empties into the Des Moines River about three miles north of Elk Rapids. Two of them John Pea and James Hull, came near the same time, probably on the same day, although they were not from the same neighborhood in the East, and probably had not met till arriving in Boone County.

Uriah's Son, James Hull, who came to Boone County that same time John Pea did, was from Indiana. He was the advance guard of a numerous following of enterprising farmers of the same name and of the same ancestry. He first located at Pea's Point, where, in years afterward, numerous representatives of the same family and from the same locality in Indiana settled. In later years he moved to Boonesboro, where he still resides (in 1880). Later came Jesse Hull, John Hull, William Hull, and others of the same name and family.

The Hulls were so numerous at one time that they became quite an important element in the politics of the county. There were in early days the Democratic party, the Whig party, and the HULL party. On questions of national and State politics the Hulls were Democrats, and the Democratic party was largely in the majority, but on local questions the Hulls did not always vote with the Democratic party, and if they went with the Whigs the Democrats were in the minority. Thus it was that in all contests of a local character it was a matter of vital interest to know how the Hull party would vote. The first contest in which the Hulls showed their strength was in an election which the location of a certain road. The policy of the dominant party was to have the road run through the timber; the Hulls objected, and by uniting with the Whigs came very nearly defeating the measure, and would have done so had not some of the Whigs broken away from the alliance. The Hulls have always been known in the county as an active, energetic, and intelligent class of people; they represented nearly all of the known callings, trades, and professions.

The Hull family is the most numerous family in Boone County. The Jones and Smiths stand no show with the Hulls. Of the early settlers were three brothers; James, GEORGE and Uriah. GEORGE and James came here in 1849 (1846), and Uriah came in 1851. James was a doctor, and was known as Dr. Hull. He has three sons, Wesley C. Hull, Samuel A. Hull and Fenlon W. Hull, and four daughters; Mrs. Jno. M. Wane, Mrs. R. M. Gwinn, Mrs. Jessie Seigle and Mrs. Milden Luther. His widow, Sophia, still survives (in 1880).

GEORGE Hull had four boys, Uriah, James, William and George F. and one daughter, Mrs. Judge Montgomery. In later life he married Mrs. Hannah Cooks, Mother of Hon. George W. Crooks, who still survives (in 1880).

Uriah had one son, Phillip, and four daughters, Mrs. John Hoffman, Deceased (in 1880), Mrs. L. B. Gilden, Mrs. Ben Holcomb and Mrs. J. B. Patterson. The old mas still survives (in 1880).

Levi Hull, one of the early settlers, was a cousin of James and Jesse. He died of cancer about 1860. He left one son, James, and several daughters, among them Mrs. E. J. Vontrries.

An Uncle of these, George Hull, came to Boone County about 1849. Of his family that came to Boone County were Jesse, William, John, Nathan, Isom, George, Jackson, Martin, Sarah, Anna Grogan, Mary Dickison, and Martha Long. Of these, John, Jackson, Martin and Mary now survive (in 1880). Jesse had three boys, David, Risse and William, and four girls, Civilla, Grace, Amanda Luther, Carrie Graves and Mary Hull, all of these survive (in 1880) but William and Mary.

John had four boys and two girls. His son Henry was the first child born in Boone County. William had eight children, Nathan had seven, Isom had eight. George was lost in the army, and the others have all done well in multiplication. Some of these were here as early as 1847. Jesse was a long time stage agent and kept a wayside tavern at Bell Point. John A. and S. Asbury are sons of Rev. Samuel Hull, of Terra Haute, Indiana, and nephews of Dr. James, GEORGE and Uriah. John A. came in 1854 and Asbury came at the same time, but he returned to Terra Haute, coming back in 1868.

Notes for SAMUEL A. REV. HULL:
[Langan New 2000.FBK]

SAMUEL HULL -- Samuel Hull, son of Uriah and Isabella Hull was born June 23, 1789 and died September 14, 1857. He married Mary Bowers, born July 15, 1795, in Licking County, Ohio on November 29, 1814. She died June 5, 1821. Seven children were born to this union; Nancy (1815 -- 1874); Susanna (1817 -- 1937 ??) who married Francis Hall; and five more children (one we think was George).

The Rev. Samuel Hull married a second time to Mary Carter Harrison, daughter of Francis Jackson Carter of Virginia and Cocks County, Tennessee. They were married August 10, 1824 at Carlisle, Indiana. Both of her husbands had been pastor of the Methodist Church in Carlisle, Indiana. Several interesting stories are related regarding the experiences of this family in the pioneer days of Ohio. A hand-lined notebook of the Rev. Samuel Hull, the records of which contains Sermon outlines, records of weddings preformed, and his own family records. The book, in good state of preservation, is how owned by Mrs. Sylvia Senn, his great-granddaughter of Los Angeles, California. This second marriage, not only brought together two unusual personalities, but also two interesting sets of children. Samuel Hull had two daughters, Nancy and Susanna Hull; and Mary Carter Harrison Hull had Euseba, Edith, Marianda, Fenelon, and Madison Erastus Harrison. Samuel and Mary Carter Hull were parents of Eight more children. FROM: "Hull Families in The United States" by Rev. William E. Hull. Copyright 1964.

GEORGE HULL == Not much is known about George Hull as many of the records were lost in a Court House fire. What we do know is that he was born about 1874 in Virginia. His parents were Uriah and Isabella Hull. His first wife was Hannah Crooks. (Hannah may in fact be George Hull's second wife.) No records has been found on her other then her marriage to George Hull. [Langan New 2000.FBK]

SAMUEL HULL -- Samuel Hull, son of Uriah and Isabella Hull was born June 23, 1789 and died September 14, 1857. He married Mary Bowers, born July 15, 1795, in Licking County, Ohio on November 29, 1814. she died June 5, 1821. Seven children were born to this union; Nancy (1815-1874); Susanna (1817 -- 1937 ???) who married Francis Hall; and five more children (one we think was George).

The Rev. Samuel Hull married a second time to Mary Carter Harrison, daughter of Francis Jackson Carter of Virginia and Cocke County, Tennessee. They were married August 10, 1824 at Carlisle, Indiana. Both of her husbands had been pastor of the Methodist Church in Carlisle, Indiana. Several interesting stories are related regarding the experiences of this family in the pioneer days of Ohio. A hand-lined notebook of the Rev. Samuel Hull, the records of which contains Sermon outlines, records of weddings preformed, and his own family records. The book, in good state of preservation, is how owned by Mrs. Sylvia Senn, his great-granddaughter of Los Angeles, California. This second marriage, not only brought together two unusual personalities, but also two interesting sets of children. Samuel Hull had two daughters, Nancy and Susanna Hull; and Mary Carter Harrison Hull had Euseba, Edith, Marianda, Fenelon, and Madison Erastus Harrison. Samuel and Mary Carter Hull were parents of Eight more children. FROM: "Hull Families in The United States" by Rev. William E. Hull. Copyright 1964.

GEORGE HULL == Not much is known about George Hull as many of the records were lost in a Court House fire. What we do know is that he was born about 1874 in Virginia. His parents were Uriah and Isabella Hull. His first wife was Hannah Crooks. (Hannah may in fact be George Hull's second wife.) No records has been found on her other then her marriage to George Hull. His second marriage was to Elizabeth Cummins on July 25, 1813 in Licking County, Ohio by Rev. Levi Shinn. They had six children that we know of: Sarah, Uriah, Mary, James, William, and George F. Hull. He died on May 7, 1862 at Boonesboro, Boone County, Iowa. Elizabeth died April 17, 1858 also at Boonesboro, Iowa.

George and his brother Samuel were drafted into the War of 1812. He and his brother had only flax and buckskin clothing to ware. Their mother, Isabella Hull, got some sheep into the house on Christmas Day, sheared them and wove some wool cloth and sent the boys woolen clothing. Roster of Ohio Soldiers in the War of 1812 list both Samuel and George Hull as Privates. They served from September 30, 1912 until March 30, 1813.

The Hull family was the most numerous family in Boone County, Iowa Of the early settlers were three brothers: James, George and Uriah Hull. George and James came in 1849 and Uriah came in 1851.

George Hull had four boys: Uriah, James, William and George F. Hull and one daughter. Mrs Judge Montgomery. In later life he married Mrs. Hannah Cook, Mother of Hon. George W. Cooks.

She married MR. BEACH. He was born Unknown.

Notes for ELIZABETH HULL:
ELIZABETH HULL - BEACH = = The first white baby girl to be brought to Boone County, Iowa was Elizabeth Hull-Beach. Mrs. Beach came here as an infant with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hull, who were in the original party of Indiana who led the trek to this section of the state. She was born in Jefferson County, Iowa, August 29, 1846 (1845), and came to Boone County in a covered wagon, drawn by an oxen team. Her father and mother had a big kettle, like they used for rendering lard and they would build a fire in it with hard wood, let it simmer down enough to be put in the wagon up front of them, and in that way they kept their little daughter warm.

In the party, which was the first group of white people to come to Boone County to settle, were the following: John Pea, J.M. Crooks, Samuel Bowers, James Hull, Martha Cooks, Catherine Crooks, Mary Jane Hull, George Crooks, and Jake Crooks.

Before her death, Mrs. Beach used to talk by the hour to her daughter of those pioneer days and, realizing that those words would be of interest to coming generation, Mr. Wirth made notes of her mother's recollections of the past. "They arrived in Boone County on Friday, Mary 14, 1846," the late Mrs. Beach recalled. "Later they went back to Jefferson County to harvest the wheat they had sown. They then returned to Boone and reached this County again on December 31, 1846. It was bitterly cold during the return trip, my mother told me."

Many "First" of Boone County's history were intimately remembered by this child of the pioneers who, herself, experienced the pleasures and pains of the early days of Boone County, Iowa. "They were the happiest days of all. Nobody had anything much and what they had they were always ready to divide with others," she related to her daughter in one of her visits about early Boone life.

In 1847, the first sermon ever delivered in Boone County was given by a missionary from Fort Des Moines at the Hull Home, residence of the parents of Mrs. Beach. One Sunday, as Mrs. Beach recalled the incident, the missionary who was stationed at Fort Des Moines with the troops there as a protection to the settlers from the frequent Indian raids, rode into the Hull yard. He told the family that he wanted to preach to the settlers the following day.

"We had no telephones nor auto with which to notify the neighbors but we went around by horse and told them all about it," Mrs. Beach said. There were fourteen present at the service. Also, Mrs. Beach stated that the first school was held in the home of her mother, located on the place which later was known as the Mike Myers farm. "The first school I attended was down on what was later known as the Ed Wane place. It was used as a schoolhouse and a church of the M.E. denomination was held there."

"After we came to Boone, in 1855 the first church was located north of the site of the old White schoolhouse, which I also attend," Mrs. Beach recalled. "The first elder was Mr. Hayden of Oskaloosa. He had the territory from Oskaloosa to Fort Dodge as his circuit and he made the rounds on horseback. Sometimes he had to swim and some times he had to dive to get around, but he made his regular visits. The first man here as a preacher was John Boyds and the second was Mr. Hestwood."

How Honey Creek got its name was included in Mrs. Wirth's story of her mother's words. "One Sunday my father, Mr. Crooks and Johnny Pea went out bee hunting. Sam Bowers remained at home with the women. The three came across a log over the creek. They found that the log was filled with honey and from this they called the stream Honey Creek."

Mrs. Beach's father and Sam Bowers put the first plow in Boone County and her mother dropped the first grain of corn in the county. "In 1847", Mrs. Beach related, "we got low on bread and my father went to the mill at Oskaloosa for some meal. Those at home subsisted on hominy and milk as long as they held out. "Mrs. Pea said to mother that they were going to starve to death, but mother said she knew she had too much faith in living God to think that. In a little while, provisions were secured to last until father came home from the mill."

In describing the log shanty built by her father, Mrs. Beach said the first floor they had was called a puncheon floor. This she explained was made of logs split open and laid down on joists. They had a fireplace and the shanty did not have any windows in it. The door was just a quilt hung up to keep out the cold. For their table, they split a big log in two about four feet long and bored four big holes in it and then took sticks and stuck in the holes for the legs, and then set up against the side of the house. For a salt box, they took a knaw out of a tree and used it for salt.

1. MELINDA JANE\textsuperscript{14} HULL (URIAH\textsuperscript{13}, GEORGE\textsuperscript{12}, URIAH\textsuperscript{11}, SAMUEL\textsuperscript{10}, DANIEL\textsuperscript{9}, JOSEPH\textsuperscript{8}, BENJAMIN\textsuperscript{7}, JOSEPH REV\textsuperscript{6}, THOMAS (YOUNGER)\textsuperscript{5}, RICHARD\textsuperscript{4}, MATTHEW\textsuperscript{3}, HOUGH\textsuperscript{2}, HUGH\textsuperscript{1}) was born August 01, 1847 in Boone County, Iowa, and died September 19, 1936 in Bellingham, Whatcom County, Washington. (Age 89)\textsuperscript{7}. She married (1) JOHN HOYER\textsuperscript{7} February 16, 1866 in Boone, Iowa\textsuperscript{7}. He was born Unknown in Place Unknown\textsuperscript{7}, and died Unknown in Place Unknown\textsuperscript{7}. She married (2) MICHAEL BENJAMEN MILLER\textsuperscript{7} July 16, 1906 in Nebraska, son of JACOB MILLER and MARY GRAY. He was born August 30, 1845 in Germany (Bavaria) or Butler County, Pennsylvania\textsuperscript{7}, and died March 15, 1923 in Bellingham, Washington\textsuperscript{7}.

Notes for MELINDA JANE HULL:

MELINDA JANE HULL

"The HULL Family has a long history in America and are of different branches. A 1913 Publication, "The Hull Family in America" covers much of this families history and lineage. However, later genealogists (Hull Family Association Researchers) question this publication and note confusions and inaccuracies. Our Hull Family lineage apparently falls into the latter category and the ancestral line prior to SAMUEL HULL AND MARTHA GLOVER are unclear and questions the relationship to the HULLS of CREWKERNE, ENGLAND.

SAMUEL HULL == b: 1735 in Hartford Co., Maryland is therefore, the first known Hull in this line. He married MARTHA GLOVER born 1735 and their son; URIAH HULL born about 1765 in Verginia is next in line. He married ISABELLA (last name unknown). He died in 1830 in Licking County, Ohio. The son of Uriah and Isabella was GEORGE HULL who married ELIZABETH CUMMINS. They also had a Son named URIAH b. November 1919 in Ohio.

URIAH HULL == was born November 1818 in Licking County, Ohio and died 2 January 1902 in Holt County, Nebraska. He is buried in Paddock Cemetery (cemetery records and picture of gravestone). He married Sarah "Sally" Munsey about 1835 and they had at least 10 children. The children are: James b. 1839; Peter b. 1842; George b. 1843, all born in Indiana. The rest of the children were born in Iowa and are: Melinda Jane b. 1847; Mary Elizabeth (Libbie) b. 1849; William b. 1852; John Wesley b. 1854; Catherine (Kate) b. 1858; Hannah b. 1860; and Charles Albert b. 1864. It is unclear as to whether there was a child called "Polk" or whether this could have been a nickname. My mother, Mamie (Mary Jane) Hubby, believed this was one of Melinda's brothers and refereed to his as Uncle Polk and Aunt Julia. An Uncle "Pokie" (Pokey) is referred to in an old magazine story of true stories of the Old West.

The family apparently made their living by farming. A story by a family member in "True Tales of the West" magazine indicates this and that Uriah took sick when quite young and that Sarah then ran the farm. It is not known when Uriah Hull went to Nebraska or whether Sarah accompanied him there.
SARAH MUNSEY (MUNCEY) = was born 28/29 August 1819 in Knoxville, Kentucky and died 7 November 1894. Her parents were; PETER MUNSEY (MUNCEY), born 27 March 1782 in Clay County, Indiana and FRANCES OWENS WOOD, born 15 October 1782 in Montgomery County, Virginia. She died 14 May 1844 in Clay County, Indiana. (See further documentation re: this family line.)

MELINDA (MALINDA) JANE HULL — the first daughter of Uriah and Sarah Hull was born August 1847 in Boone County, Iowa and according to family lore was the first white child (girl) to be born there. She died September 1936 in Bellingham, Washington and is buried in Bayview Cemetery (cemetery records). She married JOHN HOYER 16 February 1866 and they had 6 children: John, Joseph, James, Uriah (Dude), Katherine, and Charles.

The first 5 children were born in Iowa and Charles was born in Nebraska. Katherine was next to the youngest child and was born in 1877. She was about 1-2 years old when the family came to Nebraska. Melinda was pregnant with Charles and it is unclear as to whether John accompanied them or was deceased at the time. Her grand daughter, Mamie Hubert though that she came by wagon and alone with just her children.

It is known that in 1906 Melinda married MICHAEL BENJAMIN MILLER in Nebraska. He was the widower of Mary Elizabeth (Libbie) Hull, Melinda's sister who died in 1905. About 1913 the couple moved to Bellingham, Washington where Michael's son (William Edward Miller) and several of Melinda's siblings lived. Accompanying them was Edna Miller (Chapman), William Edwin's daughter. She has been living with them since the death of her mother. They lived and owned a home on Michigan Street where they lived until Michael's death. Later Melinda moved to a home adjoining her son, Uriah's property on Lincoln Street.

Melinda was a hard working, stern and religious woman who always seemed somewhat "old fashioned". She often wore black, high laced shoes and usually wore long gingham dresses covered with a white apron. She was known by her family as "Granny" or "Aunt Jane". She was prone to "favorites" in her family and often more indulgent with them than others. She was cautious with money and untrusting of banks having known several land-bank failures in her time. At the time of her death, some $750 was found sewn in a flannel petticoat. With the help of Lin Hadley, the District Congressman, she was able to obtain a Civil War Widows Pension after Michael's death (copy of Act of Congress granting this pension).

JOHN HOYER = there is no known information about John Hoyer although he was thought to be "Pennsylvania Dutch". Where he came from or where he was born and died is unknown.

MICHAEL BENJAMIN MILLER = was born 30 August 1835 in Butler County, Pennsylvania. He died 15 March 1923 in Bellingham, Washington and is buried in Bayview Cemetery. He was a Methodist minister and was Pastor of a church in Nebraska for about 15 years. He was a Civil War veteran having served for 3 years with Company B from Iowa.

Michael and his first wife, Mary Elizabeth (Libbie) Hull had 12 children. Nine were born in Boone County, Iowa and at least one in Montana and it is unclear where the remaining two were born. (See Michael Miller/Elizabeth Hull family documentation for listing of the children, birth dates and spouses).

KATHERINE (NMI) HOYER = THE ONLY DAUGHTER OF John Hoyer and Melinda Hull is next in family line. She was born in Iowa in 1877 and died in 1949 in Bellingham, Washington and is buried in Bayview Cemetery (cemetery Records). She Married Charles Edward Hubby in 1893 in Nebraska. They had three children; Mamie (Mary Jane), Agnes Theresa and Charles Everett Hubby. She came to Nebraska with her mother and four older brothers when she was about 1-2 years of age.

After their marriage the couple lived in Missouri and Nebraska before coming to Bellingham, Washington in about 1903. Charles preceded the family in order to find housing and employment. Katherine was always called "Kate" or "Aunt Kit". She had a particular talent for practical nursing and after the birth of her own children, often acted as mid-wife at other births. In later years she was to take expectant mothers into her home, or went to theirs, to act as mid-wife and to assist physicians with home deliveries. (Note: more than one child was born on the round oak table now in possession of her grand daughter, Dorothy Clement). She was also present and assisted at the birth of some of her grandchildren.

She was a fun loving, outgoing woman who loved to socialize. She was an excellent cook, baker, and seamstress. She had limited, if any, formal education; loved nursing expectant mothers and infants and had she lived in other times, may have become a trained nurse. Home remedies for treating colds and fevers was another of her specialties. She also loved cats and canaries and always had at least one of each. She would often whistle to her canaries and in this way coax them to sing to her.

In later years she would go for several months at a time to a grand daughter's (Mamie Rice Hubbard) home in Oregon to care for her children while their mother was away doing seasonal employment. After the death of Charles she moved to the home of her eldest daughter, Mamie Hubby Hubert, Where she resided until her death in 1949."

William M. Hull — William Hull by Lila Hull, wife of Guy Lester Hull

William Hull and Sara Elen Ross, who were Guy's grandparents were married in Boone, Iowa. They arrived in Nebraska by team and wagon, with there two sons, Elmer and Clyde, around 1880. They homesteaded near Meek, Nebraska.

They had a family of twelve children. They were: Sarah, Levi, Alice, Arch, Johnny, Billie, Altha, Esther, Edwin, Edna, Elmer, and Clyde. Johnny passed away when he was seventeen years old.

Elmer Hull married Mary Osier at Sottsville, Nebraska on November 2, 1899. These were Guy's parents. The children of this family were: Claude, Guy, Doyle, Harold, and Mary Ellen.

Elmer was born April 26, 1876 and passed away February 27, 1967 at Lynch, Nebraska. Mary Osier Hull was born June 28, 1882 and passed away October 3, 1969 at Lynch, Nebraska. Guy's nationality is Dutch, French, and Irish.

Mary Theodore and Charles Victor Osier came from French, Canada. Their nationality was French.

At the Old Settlers picnic I heard George Hammond ask Guy's Grandmother, Sara Hull, what was the worst thing that happened to her during her first one hundred years of life. She said it was the grasshopper disaster. They cleaned us out. They even ate onions down into the ground. They took everything, leaving us bare land. Grandmother Sarah Ellen Hull passed away when she was 108 years old on July 5, 1964. Both William Hull and Sarah Hull are buried at Paddock Union Cemetery 15 miles North of O'Neill, Nebraska, 3.4 miles east off of Highway 281. Written by: Lila Hull

Notes for GEORGE HULL:
[Langan New 2000.FBK]

GEORGE HULL -- George Hull, son of Uriah and Sarah (Muncy) Hull, was born on December 27, 1843 at Terre Houte, Indiana. He Died February 8, 1935 at Crane, Montana, he is buried there. Funeral services for George were in the Crane Church with Reverent Carl Calhoun officiating. He is laid to rest in the Crane Cemetery. At the time of his death he had eight children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, being a total of 118 living descendants at that time.

George's parents moved to Boone County, Iowa where his boyhood days were spent.

George married Eunice Ross in 1861. She Passed away in 1869, to this union there were born: Frank Wesley, Ida Belle, and Eva Hull. Grandpa Hull's favorite saying was, "It's no laughing matter, but you may as well Laugh!" Ida Bell Hull would marry John Charles Langan.

In his later years while he was living at his son Frank's home, he had his own room where he had a single bed, tiny window, his spittoon, and a chair. He had broken his hip when he was younger and it healed crooked so he walked very little, with a cane.

He had his favorite chair in the living room where he spent most of his days. When he had company, they would close the door and sing the old songs. He loved to sing and sang very well. In the summer he would go outside and sit on a seat from the back of an old touring car and sun himself, and watch his great grandchildren playing. He was always very good to them. It was here while living with his oldest son, Frank, that he died on February 8, 1935, having reached the age of 92 years, one month and twelve days.

In 1872 at Ogden, Iowa George Hull married (his second marriage) Julia Ann Souder. She was bom June 29, 1884 in Iowa. She died August 9, 1924 in Califomia and she is buried there. ( Emmet Hull is a son of George and Julia Ann (Souder) Hull. Emmet Hull is the father of Mary (Hull) Christensen and Dell (Hull) Smith.

George moved from Iowa to Holt County, Nebraska in 1878, where he resided until 1905. He farmed in Nebraska for several years. It was while they were living there he slipped and fell through a manger in the barn while feeding his horses hay from the hayloft. He injured his leg and arm so bad, it left him a cripple for the rest of his life. He has to use a cane to walk and it wasn't easy then.

After he was unable to work, he spent his later years visiting with his children. In 1920 George was living with his daughter, Ida Belle (Hull) Langan on their farm about five miles north of Gregory, South Dakota. He was 77 years old then and his second wife, Julia (Souder) Hull had gone to care for her ailing mother. When her mother died she moved to California where she died on August 9, 1924 and was buried there. George was a kind man with a mild temper and he loved little children.

Notes for FRANK WESLEY HULL:

FRANK WESLEY HULL == Frank Hull was born August 30, 1864 at Boone County, Iowa. He passed away with a lingering illness, at his home in Crane, Montana, early in the morning on October 24, 1941 at the age of 77 years, one month and twenty four days.

He is the oldest son (child) of George and Eunice (Ross) Hull. At the age of 14 years he accompanied his parents to Paddock, Nebraska, and grew to manhood in the vicinity. On August 20, 1887 Frank was married to Hortense Robertson. In the spring of 1904 the family moved to Newlon, Montana. Hortense was born January 20, 1876 and died in November of 1945.

In 1920 they moved to Enid, Montana, where four years were spent farming and raising livestock. In 1924 the family moved to Crane, Montana where they have since resided.

Frank was a farmer and a hard working man. Hortense was a musician and her father was a doctor. She was a very pleasant person and liked to keep busy. Their six children are: Earl, Ora, Sam, Ethan, Merritt and Ruth Hull.

A letter written by Hortense (Hortie) Hull, Frank Hull's wife, telling of their trip from Nebraska to Montana, to her brother William Robertson and wife Sadie. People she spoke of in the letter are: grandpa Hull (Polk) is George Hull, Frank's father, Julia is George's wife. Sam, Earl, Ora, Merritt and Ethan are Frank and Hortense's children. Emmet Hull and wife Tillie. (Tillie is Matilda DeLany Hull.) Julia is Emmet's mother and Frank and Emmet are half brothers. Frank's mother's name was Eunice. Frank and Emmet have the same father George Hull. Ben Preble is married to Frank's half sister and Emmet's full sister Henriette Hull. FROM: "HULL and DeLANY FAMILY HISTORY" by Mary Christensen and Dell Smith, 1984.

The Following is a letter written by Janet (Hartl) Fleming, as she remember her Grandpa, Frank Hull, who she always called "Little Grandpa".

"I only remember seeing his without a mustache a very few times, he looked better with it. He was very active in Richland County fairs, and always had lots of entries. He had about three acres of garden and an orchard where he raised all sorts of wonderful things to eat. Orchards were rare in Montana and it was hard work maintaining his.

He was very much an individual and delighted in shocking Grandma Hortenes and her friends. He built the fire at the church every Sunday morning, and promptly went to sleep in the front row and snored. Grandpa Frank was quite a story teller and never spoke one sentence without cussing. One time he told this story at church. 'I dreamed I died last night, and went to Hell. There were so many preachers standing around the fire, I damm near froze to Death'.

He had a horse named Old Blue. He gave my sister Dorothy her colt when she was born. It was our saddle horse, Mollie. My Grandpa loved fine animals. He had a Boston Bull Dog named Spider, who wiggled his was into everyone's heart. I remember him getting into bed with me and crawling under the covers to the foot of the bed and as a kid I thought he was a good foot warmer.

Little Grandpa was an ardent Cribbage player. I didn't know that there was any other way to count until I started to school, 15-2-15-4 15-6-and a pair is 8. He would eat at the neighbors (Howards) at noon and then come home for lunch. We knew he had eaten because he started his meal those days with bread, sugar and cream.

Grandpa Frank was very good and kind to all of us and I'm glad I had him for a grandfather." By: Janet (Hartl) Fleming, Granddaughter.

Notes for Ida Belle Hull:
[Langan New 2000.FBK]

Ida Belle Hull was born January 27, 1867 in Boone County, Iowa. She is the second child of George and Eunice (Ross) Hull. In 1878 Ida moved with her parents to a homestead in Holt County, Nebraska. While they were living there she met and married John Charles Langan at O'Neill, Nebraska in 1884.

In 1903 she together with her family came to Rosebud, South Dakota, where Ida and her husband had a cattle and horse ranch. She was a very friendly person with a wonderful sense of humor. She was truly a Christian woman and a true pioneer of the old west. Her kindness and generosity was known and appreciated by all who knew her. She died July 6, 1951 at Gregory, South Dakota and she is buried in the Gregory Catholic Cemetery.

From: HULL AND DELANY FAMILY HISTORY, Compiled by Mary Christensen and Dell Smith, and written by Dell (Hull) Smith, Gregory, South Dakota. Copyright 1984, Mary Christensen and Dell Smith.

IDA BELLE (HULL) LANGAN -- Funeral services for Mrs. Ida Belle Langan, 84, were held Monday 10:30 A.M., Father R. M. Demeyer, S. J. conducted the service.

Ida Belle Hull was born at Boone, Iowa, January 27, 1867, and died in the Gregory Community Hospital July 6, 1951.

In 1878 she migrated with her family to a homestead in Holt County, Nebraska; and was married to John Charles Langan of O'Neill, Nebraska, in 1884. Born to this union were ten children.

In 1903 she, together with her family, came to the Rosebud where she and her husband operated a cattle and horse ranch. During the settling of the Rosebud, Mr. and Mrs. Langan kept open house, all were welcome and no one was ever turned from their door.

Mrs. Langan and her husband were the owners of the first building erected in the town of Gregory, South Dakota. They also built several other buildings used for early day businesses on Main Street. They were charter members in the founding of the town of Gregory, South Dakota and were among the sponsors of the building of St. Joseph's Catholic Church and The Gregory Rolling Mill.

She was a true pioneer woman in the old west and her kindness and generosity was known and appreciated by all who knew her.

She was preceded in death by her husband, the late John Charles Langan, and one son, George, who died in infancy. She leaves to mourn her death five daughters and four sons: Marguerite Holstein, of Casper, Wyoming; Walter Langan, of Newell, South Dakota; Frank Langan, of Gregory, South Dakota; Grace Jarmin, of Bloomington, Illinois; Nora Langan, at home; Estella Daily, of Canby, Minnesota; John Clarence Langan, of Eugene, Oregon; Eileen Morgan, of Sioux City, Iowa; and Oliver Langan, at home. She also leaves to mourn her passing fifteen grandchildren, one great-grandchildren; three sisters and one brother. Interment is in St. Joseph's Catholic Cemetery, Gregory, South Dakota.

From: Obituary -- GREGORY "TIMES -- ADVOCATE" newspaper, Gregory, South Dakota. July 12, 1951.

The house Ida Langan lived in in Gregory has been torn down and the lot is now vacant. The farm house she and her husband Owen and lived in five miles north and east of Gregory is still standing but vacant and ran down. R.P.L. June 1999.

Notes for JOHN CHARLES LANGAN:
[Langan New 2000.FBK]

JOHN CHARLES LANGAN === NOTE: Date of birth of John Charles Langan????? St. Matthew's Catholic Church at Shullsburg, Wisconsin has his Christening as May 1, 1859. Some writings has his birth as May 20, 1859. His obituary and his daughter, Grace Langan Jarmin, list his birth as May 20, 1861. The 1860 U.S.Census list John as being age 1 in August, 1860. The Catholic Church sometime listed all events taking place during a month as being the 1st of the month. Therefore I am accepting May 20, 1859 as being his ACTUAL date of birth.

The Following notes were taken from a letter Grace Langan Jarmin wrote a year before she died:

The Langan family is of French Origin, and Langan is a very common name in France. Our French progenitors were French Barons who owned large Feudal Estates in Ireland. Cromwell seized these estates and held the Irish at bay by threatening the lives of their children. It was during the potato famine in the 1840's grandfather Patrick (George??) Langan and his wife left Ireland on a refugee ship sent by the United States, and they settled in a Irish Commune at Shullsburg, Wisconsin.

John Charles Langan was born May 20, 1861 in Shullsburg, Wisconsin. At the age of 18 years John came to Fort Randall, latter he moved to Holt County, Nebraska.

John Charles Langan and Ida Belle Hull were married at O'Neill, Nebraska in 1884. (They are John Clarence Langan's parents and Richard Patrick Langan's grandparents.) They lived on the Rosebud (Indian Reservation) twice, once before they went to Missouri (and/or Nebraska) and once after they returned from Missouri (and/or Nebraska). It was while they first lived on the Rosebud that they raised Morgan horses for Cor. Jordon and Cor. McLaughlin. All army officers had two parade horses. One was furnished by the Army, and one by themselves, which was usually a race horse. Their Morgan Stallion was named Prairie King. He was a very fast race horse so it was easy to sell his colts to Army officers.

Our father went to Wounded Knee, South Dakota from Fort Randall, South Dakota to take wounded soldiers back to Fort Randall. He helped the Indians as much as possible. The Indians were not a war party. They were a hunting party returning to Pine Ridge, South Dakota for the winter with Chief Big Foot. When a soldier tried to take a young Indians gun the Indian reacted. The 7th Calvery massacred the Indians, there at Wounded Knee, including women and children. The Indians trusted our folks and camped near them and would visit.

When our parents, John Charles and Ida Belle (Hull) Langan, moved to Missouri our dad gave Prairie King to Bill Lammaux (mother's cousin once removed). He probably also sold his Morgan mares to him.

Grace wrote that she remembered when her papa and mama were "young" and danced at fairs etc. She said her folks didn't talk about the earlier days with the younger children as all the fun and youth was gone. John Clarence Langan was born at Dog Ear Lake, South Dakota, in Tripp County, in a log house. They left the ranch in 1908. Life was never the same.

In another letter Grace Langan Jarmin writes: -- In 1890 my father was freighting for the U.S. Army at Fort Randall, South Dakota, when the Massacre at Wounded Knee was inflicted upon defenceless, unarmed Indians by the Seventh Cavalry. His wagon had been assigned to the Ambulance Corps to bring back wounded soldiers, but when he arrived, he viewed the almost total decimation of the Indians, including women and children. He therefore withdrew his wagon from the Army and helped the Indians, who remained alive, to bring their dead and dying to Pine Ridge Agency, where the Episcopal Mission gave them shelter on December 29, 1890. The pews were removed and a bed of straw was made for the wounded Indians.

My Father's (John Charles Langan) act of Christian kindness won him the everlasting friendship of the Sioux Nation, and he rented Indian allotment land on Ponac Creek five miles south of Gregory, South Dakota, where he established a small cattle and horse ranch. During all the years we lived on the Rosebud, not a single horse or cow was ever stolen.

My Father sold mounts to the officers at Fort Randall and Fort Jordan, South Dakota. His mounts were 3/4 Morgan and 1/4 Mustang. Later he sold horses to the Homesteaders that were half Percheron and half Mustang. By the time

John Charles Langan was an active member of a group of citizens who did much to establish the town of Gregory, South Dakota. He helped survey the land, and he built the first two buildings in Gregory, one of which he rented as a saloon for $200 a month. He helped to raise a large sum of money to bribe the Chicago - Northwestern surveyors to bring the railroad past Gregory. He contributed some money to subsidize Noel Camper, in order that he would agree to bring his mill to Gregory from Holt County, Nebraska. He gave Father Gessen the money to purchase the High Alter at St. Joseph's Catholic Church.

In 1908 my father abandoned his ranch on Ponca Creek and liquidated his holdings in Gregory, South Dakota. He then purchased 360 acres of land six miles northeast of Gregory, where he lived until his death. This was a decision that he forever regretted. He realized that he and his family were not suited to farming, and that he should have moved on with his rancher friends to Montana.

When the Gregory Bank failed, it was found that the Langan accounts had been embezzled for years, and my father had been issued false receipts for unpaid bills. This blow, coupled with the drought, grasshoppers, and the Great Depression, made it impossible for my father to recover his losses and survive.

John was a hard working industrious farmer, highly respected by all who knew him, and was a kind and loving husband and father. Some years after John's death, Ida moved to Gregory, South Dakota, and their daughter Nora lives with her. John and Ida were true pioneers. Their ten children are: Marguerite, Walter, George (who died in infancy), Grace, Frank, Nora, Estelle, John Clarence, Eileen, and Oliver.

"Grass grows over the old LANGAN ranch. The LANGAN children no longer pick wild flowers and wild fruit or play with their friends, the Hudsons and Cutshalls, along the bank of the Ponca Creek. THEY no longer race with the wind across the prairie on their beautiful horses, but in SPIRIT none of us has ever left the ROSEBUD or forgotten our frontier heritage. I pray we never shall." Signed Grace LANGAN Jarmin. 1979.

JOHN LANGAN SR. DIES EARLY TUESDAY MORNING -- Funeral Services at St. Joseph's Catholic Church Friday Morning at 10 O'clock. John Langan Sr. passed away at the Gregory, South Dakota hospital at 6:30 Tuesday morning, being stricken with a severe attack of pneumonia Sunday.

Mr. Langan and his son John Jr. were in town Friday with a load of hogs, and as the day was warm they became somewhat heated while unloading the hogs. They started home in the late afternoon and both caught a severe cold which developed into pneumonia with both of them.

Mr. Langan Sr., was brought to the Gregory hospital Sunday and a special nurse, Joan Dion, was sent to the Langan home to take care of John Jr. The senior Mr. Langan grew steadily worse and the end came peacefully early Tuesday morning.

The funeral service will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock from St. Joseph's Catholic Church in this city. Mr. Langan was one of the real old timers of this county, coming to Fort Randall, South Dakota as a teamster in 1879.

John was born in Shullsburg, Wisconsin on May 20, 1861, and at the age of 18 years came to Fort Randall, South Dakota. Later he moved to Holt County, Nebraska where he was united in marriage to Miss Ida Belle Hull at O'Neil, Nebraska, over 49 years ago. In 1900 he moved onto the Rosebud Indian Reservation and ranched in Gregory and Tripp Counties, South Dakota. At the time of the Gregory County opening he was living on the Chutall Allotment southwest of Gregory, and in 1907 he purchased a farm five miles northeast of Gregory which has since been his home.

Mr. Langan was a hard working industrious farmer, highly respected by all who knew him and he was a kind and loving husband and father. He leaves to mourn his sudden death his devoted widow, four sons and five daughters: Mrs. Marguerite Holstein of Casper, Wyoming; Walter Langan of Newell, South Dakota; Frank Langan of Gregory, South Dakota; Mrs. Grace Jarmin of Des Moines, Iowa; Mrs Stella Dailey of Gary, South Dakota; Mrs Aileen Green of Naper, South Dakota; and John Jr., Nora and Oliver at home; also one sister, Mrs. Nora Dennis of Omaha, Nebraska and one brother, Martin Langan, of Spencer, Nebraska.

Neighbors and friends join in extending their sympathy to the bereaved ones. FROM: "TIME - ADVOCATE" newspaper, Gregory, South Dakota, December 8, 1832.

The following is a story told by Gerald Langan, (John's great-grandnephew), on John Langan Sr. and his brothers:

On a cold day I went with dad and aunt Mary over to grandpa's place (Martin Langan). His brother John Sr. was down from South Dakota and brother Mike was over from Holt County, Nebraska. They had a BIG crock jar of beer working off behind the stove. Uncle Mike would be behind the stove sampling the beer, then Martin followed by John sampling. A merry lot they were. I was kind'a glad they were enjoying themselves. More often I had to help grandpa pitch combs.

While visiting in Gregory, South Dakota in June 1999 I ran into a man who said he lived in the Gregory area all of his life and knew much of the history of Gregory. He knew the Langans and the Hulls. He was in Mary Hull Christensen's class in school. Mary died is September 1998. His name is Frank Stukel and he says he is 93 years old (in 1999). He had a ranch east of Gregory, when his children was of high school age he moved to town and opened the "Stukel's Corner Cafe". His son Cal Stukel now runs the Cafe (in 1999). He has another son, Don. Frank Stukel says he used to play poker with my dad and he remembers one night he and others were playing poker when a man named Jack (John) Sully was unpleased with his loosing to my father and he waited for dad outside of the poker hall and started a fight. Ol Jack Sully wished he had gone home instead of waiting, because dad had ruffed him up pretty good before it was over. He also remembers my grandfather and my uncle Frank Langan and his children. Frank Langan used to haul cattle for Mr. Stukel and buy wood from him when he had the ranch. He remembers the occasion in which my grandfather shot and killed a man in self defence when he and two of his sons were trying to build a home on Aunt Marguerite's homestead (see newspaper articles on this later in this write-up). It seems that a neighbor did not want anyone to homestead on that piece of land because he wanted it for one of his hired hands; so he ran everyone off with a rifle. But my grandfather would not leave so he started shooting and my grandfather returned fire. The courts and a jury ruled it self defence. This took place in South Dakota in 1909. I have copies of the newspaper Stories of the shooting and the trial from "The Gregory Advocate Times".

Francis Langan now owns his parents (Frank and Margarte Langan) old home on Rosebud Street in Gregory. He rents it to Carol Anderson, who is a waitress at the Corner Cafe.

Frank Stukel says he remembers my father as a football player in high school and in college. He remembers seeing ads in the Sioux Falls newspaper that read "Come see JOHN LANGAN play FOOTBALL. We had a good talk, Mr. Stukel look very good for being 93 years old. R.P.L. 6-30-1999

JOHN C. & IDA BELLE LANGAN

During the potato famine in 1840 (George??) Patrick Langan and his wife left Ireland on a refugee ship sent to the United States, and they settled in a Irish Commune at Shullsburg, Wisconsin.

John C. was one of five or six children. In 1890 John freighted for the United States Army at Fort Randall. He befriended the Indians at Fort Randall that were left after a battle and took them to Pine Ridge Agency. His kindness won him everlasting friendship with The Sioux Indians.

In 1884 John C. Langan married Ida Belle Hull at O'Neil, Nebraska. From this union ten children were born: Marguerite, Walter, George (died in infancy), Grace, Frank, Nora, Estelle, John Jr., Eileen, and Oliver. Only Grace Jarmin of Bloomington, Illinois and John Jr. of Eugene, Oregon remain at this time.

John Langan took his family to a sod house on a ranch rented from the Indians on Ponco Creek, five miles south of Gregory, South Dakota and they lived there until 1908 (that is where John Jr. was born) when they moved to a ranch six miles northeast of Gregory, where he lived until his death.

John Langan was an active member of a group of citizens who did much to establish the town of Gregory, South Dakota.
He built one of the first buildings, which was later used for a saloon, and also helped persuade the surveyors to bring the railroad past Gregory.

He gave Father Guessen the money to purchase the high altar at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Gregory.

The Langan children all went to Gregory High School and grew up in the community before scattering to make their homes in Wyoming, Minnesota, Illinois, western South Dakota, Iowa and Oregon. Frank was the only child to remain in Gregory and lived an active life therein Gregory.

Ida Langan was a very friendly person and would help anyone in need. Her door was always open and she would share what ever she had. She was a true pioneer. John and Ida were both very much a part of early Gregory.

In spirit, none of the Langan children ever really left the Rosebud and Gregory or have forgotten their frontier heritage. Author unlisted. Written between 1980 and 1989.

LANGAN FAMILY == by Grace Langan Jarmin

The Langan family is of French origin, and Langan is a very common name in France. Our French progenitors were French Barons who owned large Feudal Estates in Ireland. Cromwell seized these estates and held the Irish at bay by murdering their children. His mounted soldiers rode four abreast in hours-long processions through the streets of Dublin with the dead and bleeding bodies of Irish babies pinioned on their sabers.

During the potato famine in the 1840's, my grandfather and grandmother left Ireland on a refugee ship sent by the United States, and they settled in an Irish commune at Shullsburg, Wisconsin.

In 1884 my father, John Langan, married Ida Bell(e) Hull at O'Neill, Nebraska. From this union there were eight (ten) children: Marguerite, Walter, Grace, (George), Frank, Estelle, John Jr., Eileen, Nora, and (Oliver). We have six (eight) empty saddles; Only Grace and John Jr. remain.

In 1890 my father was freighting for the U.S. Army at Fort Randall, when the Massacre at Wounded Knee was inflicted upon defenseless, unarmed Indians by the Seventh Cavalry. His wagon had been assigned to the Ambulance Corps to bring back wounded soldiers, but when he arrived, he viewed the almost total decimation of the Indians, including women and children. In 1932 the Langan family scattered to Montana, Wyoming, Illinois, Oregon, and California, and with the help of Divine Providence, we all have done very well. The 3rd generation all have professional college degrees.

Grass grows over the old Langan ranch. The Langan children no longer pick wild flowers and wild fruit or play with their friends, the Hudsons and Cutshalls, along the banks of the Ponca. They no longer race with the wind across the prairie on their beautiful horses, but in spirit none of us has ever left the ROSEBUD or forgotten our frontier heritage. I pray we never shall. Last Saturday this community was startled when it was reported that John Langan had shot a man in Tripp County, South Dakota and had given himself up to officer Blakey.

During the rush for land on the first of October, Miss Maggie Langan made settlement on a claim 4 miles south of Roseland, South Dakota, and the next day secured a filing on the same. The claim joined A. A. Woods who filed on No. 674. It seems that Woods' hired man had also squatted on the same claim as Miss Langan, but had made no attempt to make improvements. Last Thursday, Frank Langan and Leo Hannan went out to build a house for Miss Langan, but were driven away by Woods at the point of a gun. In fact, he shot several times at them. They returned to town and Saturday Mr. Langan accompanied the boys to the place and started to build the house. They had not been at work but a short time, when woods came running towards them with a rifle in hand. Mr. Langan met him and when within speaking distance he told Woods that he did not want any trouble and that he came out to put up the house. At this Woods pointed the gun at Langan but did not shoot. Langan returned to the wagon and as he turned around to see what had become of Woods, Woods fired, the bullet striking between Langan and Hannan who stood about four feet apart. Another shot from Woods' rifle barely missed Langan's head. Langan then returned the shot and Woods ran into a ravine. Thinking that he had had enough, the boys resumed their work. In the meantime Woods, who had gone down into the ravine came up on the other side of them and once more opened fire, from behind a hill. The fire was returned. Woods would rise up and shoot and then duck below the brow of the hill. Several shots were exchanged. As woods did not appear for some time, the boys undercover of a hill, crept around where they could see down the ravine. They saw Woods crawling on the ground his rifle still in his hand. Mr. Langan called to him but he made no reply. About this time Mrs. Woods came out of a corn field and went to her husband, finding that he had been shot, approached Mr. Langan and the two boys. She told them that her husband had been shot thru the side near the heart and that she did not expect to find him alive when she returned to him. She also told Mr. Langan that she tried to persuade Mr. Woods to not molest him and that she did not blame Mr. Langan in the least. After the shooting Mr. Langan drove to Gregory and gave himself up to Officer Blakey who telephoned the sheriff of Tripp County. At the hearing Monday, Mr. Langan waived examination and was held under $1000 bonds which were furnished at once.

Mr. Langan was one of the early homesteaders in this county and is one of the most respected men of the county, and while it is a sad affair, the sympathy of the community is with Mr. Langan.

Woods had no interest in the claim in question and was trying to keep people off at the point of a gun. It is reported that he made his brags that no one would settle on that claim. He was a man about thirty-five years of age and leaves a wife and five children.

The following in the verdict of the coroner's jury: We the jury impaneled to inquire into the cause of the death of Albert Alfred Woods' find after due deliberation and examination of the body and witnesses, that deceased came to his death on the northeast 1/4 15-101-74, four miles south of Roseland, South Dakota, on or about 11:00 A.M. Saturday, October 16, 1909 as a result of a rifle or gunshot wound inflicted at the hand of either John Langan, Frank Langan or Leo Hannan. Signed // John Weaver, A. C. Moss, Oliver Lamoureaux. LANGAN NOT GUILTY == Is Acquitted Of The Charge of Murder, Self Defence Is Proven. == Last Friday the case of John Langan, who was charged with the murder of one named Woods in Tripp County, South Dakota, was tried in Lamro, South Dakota. The trial took but a day and it took the jury but twenty (20) minutes to arrive at a verdict of NOT GUILTY.

During the trial no new facts were brought. It will be remembered that on the 16th of last October Mr. Langan, his son and Lee Hannan started to build a house upon a claim of Margaret Langan. A. A. Woods, who had an adjoining claim, tried to drive them away. In fact he had driven the boys away from the claim the day before. On the fatal day Woods left his house with his gun. Evidently with the determination to drive them away again. When Mr. Langan saw Woods coming he started towards him. When the two parties were within speaking distance, Langan told Woods that he was not looking for trouble. At this Woods pointed his gun at Langan but did not shoot. Langan retreated to where he was putting up the house and Woods retreated behind a hill. When Langan reached the house Woods fired but the shot went wild. In a short time he appeared above the hill and fired again. This time the bullet barely missed Mr. Langan. The shots were returned. Finally Woods failed to appear and Langan with the other two parties went upon a butte to see what had become of him. They soon found that he was wounded and was crawling into the grass. They did not dare risk going to him as he still carried his gun. Soon they saw Mrs. Woods come out of the corn field and go to her Husband. When she reached his side Woods had ceased to move and lived only a short time after that. Mrs. Woods motioned to the men who went to her assistance. She told Mr. Langan that she did not blame him at all, and stated that she had pleaded with her husband not to start any trouble. In her testimony before the court she practically made the same statements.

It seems that Woods was trying to hold the claim in dispute for his hired man.
The acquittal of Mr. Langan was joyfully received by his family and friends. All through the ordeal Mr. Langan has proved himself a man of strong Character. After the shooting he immediately came to Gregory and gave himself up to the authorities, admitting that he did the shooting in self defense, and wanting all the responsibility to rest upon his own shoulders. PLAINSMAN TO HOMESTEADERS
by Grace Langan Jarmin

Since seventy years have come and gone,
    Thus few of us remain
To greet you on this festive day
    And Welcome you again.

You brought to us in nineteen - four
    A way of life still strange
To plainsmen who has only lived
    Upon an open range.

We greeted you as Godly men;
    We clasped your outstretched hands;
With heavy hearts we sold our herds
    And laid aside our brands.

Though parting with misgivings from
    The only life we knew,
Still honorably and upright
    We kindly nurtured you.

Your joyous song of "Empire Gained"
    That ended on Amen,
Re-echoed on no heartstrings of
    Us vanquished cattlemen.

As we watched your ever-plowing turn
    Our virgin plains to sod,
We had little left to lean on save
    Our holy trust in God.

Some plainsmen saw they could not heal
    The new void in their souls;
The beckon of the rancher's wand
    Became their living goals.

Yet we who wisely built with you
    Gained in our hearts the pride
To meet the Future face to face
    Whatever might betide.

HOMESTEADERS ETERNAL

Men like homesteaders never die,
    They merely pass from view;
Of those who cannot see beyond
    The veil of mystic hum.

They live on in the hearts of those
    With whom this earth they trod,
And wait to learn a helping hand
    When they too meet their GOD.

She married John Clarence Langan in 1934, in Madison, Minnesota. He died in February 1989.

In April 1939 the Langans moved from Casper, Wyoming, to a small farm near Junction City, Oregon. In 1940 they moved to a larger farm, 10 acres, in the Willakenzie area of Eugene, Oregon. They sold chickens, vegetables and flowers at the Eugene Producers' Public Market from July 1945 to May 1959, when it closed.

During her later years at the Market, Mrs. Langan began to grow flowers and perennial plants to sell at her booth. She eventually had a retail florist shop there. After the Market closed, Mrs. Langan supplied gladiolus and other cut flowers to more than two dozen area florists.

She was a member of the Willakenzie Grange, Willakenzie Home Extension, a past member of the Lane County Extension Advisory Committee, former Pomona Grange CWA chairperson, and a leader in the 4-H Clubs in Lane County, Oregon.

Mrs. Langan is survived by three daughters, Carol Case of Springfield, Oregon and Ida Mae Broomall and Marguerite Jursch, both of Agoura Hills, California; six sons, Dennis Langan of Fall Creek, Oregon, and John, Richard "Pat", Lowell, Neil and George Langan, all of Eugene, Oregon; two sisters, Bertha Marie DeRoss and Arleva Marguerite Marie, Dennis James, Lowell Kenneth, Neil Clarence, Carol Catherine, and George Aurther Langan. Elona (DeLany) Langan looks back at the "Good Old Days". This story was written by Kay Lundreen of the Register - Guard on May 12, 1974, Eugene, Oregon's local newspaper. She recalls when a pack of gum may have cost a nickel in 1931, but who could afford it? "You can Keep the Good Old Days -- dust bowl and all".

Mrs. John (Elona) Langan has vivid memories of the Depression -- "dust bowl and all" -- when eggs sold for six cents a dozen. But she wouldn't go back to those days or those prices. As a farmer's daughter, she explains, she soon learned that "It took an awful lot of farm products to buy the manufactured products we needed, because comparatively those prices were much higher."

"At that time gum was five cents a package," she recalls. "But it took almost a full dozen of eggs simply to buy a package of gum. Paying for shoes and other clothing was a real problem. It helped a lot when we were able to sell in..."
the Producers Public Marker at near retail prices."

THE LANGANS (John and Elona) -- both from South Dakota farm families -- were married 40 Years ago (1934)
"just on the edge of the Great Depression -- things were starting to get a little better." "we lived on a very limited budget," she said. "But I didn't have too much as a child and so I didn't expect too much. We enjoyed what we had and we're still pretty well satisfied with what we have as we go along."

Mrs. Langan reminisced this week about how it was to bring up nine children on that "very limited budget." She talked in the comfortable white shake house on Armitage Road where the family has lived since 1940, the year after they moved to Oregon. In the early days, she said, she devised a rather simple meal plan: Oatmeal, an egg and toast for breakfast; sandwiches and "baked goodies" for lunch. Because they had cows, there was always plenty of milk.
Dinner customarily followed the same pattern: a meat or chicken dish (hamburger with spaghetti, beef stew, chicken and dumplings (home made noodles), fried chicken, baked or fried ham) or a casserole dish plus plenty of vegetables.
"We've never been really heavy meat eaters," she said. "But I've always been a fanatic about vegetables, I didn't give the family sweet desserts on a regular basis. Usually I served canned fruits."

After moving to Armitage Road the Langans learned from the neighbors about the Eugene Producers' Public Market and obtained a stall there. "In the early years we raised and sold chickens," she said. "One year we dressed and sold over 9,000 chickens." (Note: She was the first retailed in Lane County to refrigerate the chickens to keep then cool and fresh. She took an old pop machine (cooler) and removed the racks and put the chickens in the remodeled box.)

Part of their 10 acres of farmland was soon producing "everything that grows -- beans, corn, tomatoes, cucumbers, carrots, beets -- and we had apple and peach trees. My husband would drive me in to the Market before he went to work at the lumber mill," said Mrs. Langan. "We'd leave at 5:30 or 6:00 O'clock in the morning and get back a 6:00 at night. The first year I went three days a week. The second year I went six days a week and kept that up until the Market closed in 1959."

Mrs Langan developed many regular customers and in time, she says, "every face in Lane County was familiar to Me." While she took care of her market stall, Mrs Langan's mother came to take care of the children. As soon as the children were old enough, they got work in the neighbor's fields. They weeded and picked beans and earned enough in the summer to buy their school clothes through high school," said Mrs. Langan. (Several of her children could pick over a ton, 2000 pounds, of beans a day.) "That way they learned to appreciate what money was."

During her later years at the Market Mrs. Langan began to grow flowers and perennials plants to sell at her booth, and eventually she had a retail florist shop there.

After the Market closed in 1959 Mrs. Langan found herself in a new business -- growing and supplying gloridius and other cut flowers for more than two dozen florist shops in Eugene and the surrounding communities. "During the blooming season, from June to November I have a daily delivery route," she said. "I carry my wares in a van and the florists would pick out the flowers they wanted. If they need special flowers, for a wedding or a funeral, they can order in advance."

The Langans grew between two and three acres of gladiolus in the field behind their home. In addition she grows from seed a variety of zinnias, sweet williams, asters, statice, bachelor buttons, gypsophila and other garden flowers.
"Yesterday I set out about 1,000 chrysanthemums," she said. "I start the seeds in little containers in the window of the house. Then I take them to the shed (green house) and later I'll set them out in the field."

When the flowers begin to bloom, Mrs. Langan is up a daylight to start picking the flowers so that she can start deliveries at 7:30 A.M. Everything is picked fresh each day and "what is left over at the end of her deliveries goes into the compost heap," she said. Mrs. Langan, who now have 24 grandchildren (in 1974), shows no sign of slowing down. She's just as busy as when her nine children were small and she went off each day to tend her Market stall. As she explains: "During flower season -- that's my life." She prefers it, too, to the "Good Old Days" when prices were low and prosperity was always lurking "just around the corner."

NOTE: this was the final installment of a four-part series on "The Good Old Days." This article zeroed in on Mrs.
John Langan who recalled when a pack of gum may have sold for a Nickel in 1931, but who could afford it? And ran in the (Eugene) Register - Guard on May 12, 1974.

MOTHER WE WILL LOVE YOU ALWAYS

Marguerite was born March 23, 1940 in Eugene, Oregon. She was fourth in a family of nine children. She grew from baby to baby sitter. In her own words "On the farm, there was always someone to fight or play with." Beyond the chaos of farm life she managed to maintain an active social life. She received gardening awards in 4-H, was elected Vice President of her class in Junior High School, lettered in High School athletics and was on the debate team.

Following High School, Marguerite attended the University of Oregon. She then met and married a Navy man and started her family. While tending to her young children, she took up puppet making to earn extra income. She devoted much of her life to her three sons, encouraging participation in activities such as 4-H, Scouts and sports. She later helped put her sons through college and purchase their first homes. During this time she was blessed with three lovely grandchildren.

For the last 15 years she worked in the entertainment industry where she made many cherished friends. Most recently she was working on creating a computerized crossword puzzle dictionary and planned to open a bed and breakfast in Prescott, Arizona, called Margueritaville. We are all saddened that these dreams will not be realized.
We love you Mother dearly and miss her greatly. Marguerite was always there for us, committing countless selfless acts on our behalf. She taught us to be strong, kind, prudent and caring, as these were some of her strongest traits. She taught us to be individuals and to respect others. She taught us to work hard as she always did. She was proud of her family and we are proud of her. She loved dogs. FROM: "THE YEARLY JURSCH" written by Gustave (Gus) Jursch (Her Son) == December 1996.

[Langan New 2000.FBK]

GUSTAVE JURSCH == Gus Jursch, in 1999, has completed his fourth year at Cerwin-Vega Electronics and was enjoying his duties as Director of Operations. He recently (1999) went to Europe on a business trip. He traveled to Barcelona, Spain and Gdansk, Poland in search of OEM manufacturers to build speakers for the European division. He then traveled to Belefield, Germany, on a high speed train, to evaluate some industrial woodworking equipment and finally to Berlin to attend the European electronics show. Other than some canceled flights and a little jet lag, the trip was a success. While not working, there was an opportunity to try probably 30 different European beers and some incredible food. The food in Poland was the best. While in Germany, Gus was first treated to Mexican food and then Chinese Food. While both were good, he was looking for something a little more local. He finally got his chance, enjoying a traditional German dinner in a German castle. FROM: "The Yearly Jursch" December 1999, written by Gus and Sharon Jursch.

OTTO GARRICK JURSCH === In December 1999, Otto is becoming quite the "Big Boy" and he will attest to this at every turn. He is talking up a storm, learning quickly phrases like "Daddy can I have money for toys" and "Daddy go to the store and get blueberries for me please." Weighing in at 32 pounds, he can throw the pigskin across the living room. During the Raider game he threw a bullet to his dad that about knocked him over. In addition to football, Otto likes to play basketball, baseball, soccer and golf. He is becoming a big fan of Hot Wheels. He, at the age of 2 1/2, has quite the collection. He still loves trains and is looking forward to driving one in the spring of 2000. He recently (December 1999) rode the train at Roaring Camp near Boulder Creek, California along with Aunt Tammy and Cousin Megan. This was actually Otto's second train trip, he had previously ridden the train with Grandma Linda. This is near Uncle Jim's and Grandma Linda and Grandpa Andy's house. He also rode the BART train and a bus with Grandpa Charlie and Daddy on the way to the Cal game, a heartbreaking loss to Oregon. It is still undecided if he will play college ball for Cal or for Oregon. Dad knows Grandpa Charlie's Vote.

Notes for MARGUERITE MAE "GREATA" JURSCH:
[Langan New 2000.FBK]

MARGUERITE MAE (GRETA) JURSCH === SPECIAL DELIVERY. The Gustave Jursch Family received a special delivery on June 25, 1999. Marguerite Mae Jursch, named after Gus' mother, Marguerite and his Aunt Ida Mae. Labor started at 5:00 a.m. Gus went back to sleep while Sharon showered. Around 7:00 a.m. the contractions seemed regular so they headed for the hospital. On the way the contractions totally stopped and it was thought they would be sent home. After being checked in they settled in the room about 8:00 a.m. and the paper work was finished by 9:00. The nurse said she would call the doctor soon and that it was going to be a long day. The nurse suggested that Gus and Sharon take a walk around the floor to kill some time. Sharon took 10 steps and her water broke and the baby was on the way. At this point Gus passed out and had to be resuscitated. Forty five minutes later the baby was born about three minutes after the doctor arrived. Today (December 1999) Greta (as she is known to her friends) is doing great. She is all smiles and is starting to roll around. She is the apple of Daddy's eye and her brother, Otto, is quite fond of her as well. FROM: "The Yearly Jursch" written by Gus and Sharon Jursch.

Notes for Eva Candace Hull:
[Langan New 2000.FBK]

Eva Candace Hull — Eva Hull is the youngest child of George and Eunice (Ross) Hull. There is no known record of her birth or marriage dates, but it is known she was born sometime during 1869. Her mother died in childbirth. When she was born, she was adopted by Vincent Ross. He was an educated man and she grew up in a nice home. Eva married a man by the name of William Spicklemire. They had five sons and four daughters and one child who died as an infant. The last anyone knew of the family they were living in Idaho. What relationship Vincent Ross had to Eva's Mother, Eunice Ross, if any, was not stated. We have a picture of Eva (Hull) and William Spicklemire with their eight children taken about 1910. GEORGE HULL -- George Hull, son of Uriah and Sarah (Muncy) Hull, was bom on December 27, 1843 at Terre Houte, Indiana. He Died February 8, 1935 at Crane, Montana, he is buried there. Funeral services for George were in the Crane Church with Reverent Carl Calhoun officiating. He is laid to rest in the Crane Cemetery. At the time of his death he had eight children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, being a total of 118 living descendants at that time.

George's parents moved to Boone County, Iowa where his boyhood days were spent.

George married Eunice Ross in 1861. She Passed away in 1869, to this union there were born: Frank Wesley, Ida Belle, and Eva Hull. Grandpa Hull's favorite saying was, "It's no laughing matter, but you may as well Laugh!" Ida Bell Hull would marry John Charles Langan.

In his later years while he was living at his son Frank's home, he had his own room where he had a single bed, tiny window, his spittoon, and a chair. He had broken his hip when he was younger and it healed crooked so he walked very little, with a cane.

He had his favorite chair in the living room where he spent most of his days. When he had company, they would close the door and sing the old songs. He loved to sing and sang very well. In the summer he would go outside and sit on a seat from the back of an old touring car and sun himself, and watch his great grandchildren playing. He was always very good to them. It was here while living with his oldest son, Frank, that he died on February 8, 1935, having reached the age of 92 years, one month and twelve days.

In 1872 at Ogden, Iowa George Hull married (his second marriage) Julia Ann Souder. She was born June 29, 1884 in Iowa. She died August 9, 1924 in California and she is buried there. (Emmet Hull is a son of George and Julia Ann (Souder) Hull. Emmet Hull is the father of Mary (Hull) Christensen and Dell (Hull) Smith.

George moved from Iowa to Holt County, Nebraska in 1878, where he resided until 1905. He farmed in Nebraska for several years. It was while they were living there he slipped and fell through a manger in the barn while feeding his horses hay from the hayloft. He injured his leg and arm so bad, it left him a cripple for the rest of his life. He has to use a cane to walk and it wasn't easy then.

After he was unable to work, he spent his later years visiting with his children. In 1920 George was living with his daughter, Ida Belle (Hull) Langan on their farm about five miles north of Gregory, South Dakota. He was 77 years old then and his second wife, Julia (Souder) Hull had gone to care for her ailing mother. When her mother died she moved to California where she died on August 9, 1924 and was buried there. George was a kind man with a mild temper and he loved little children.

Notes for JAMES ALBERT (BERT) (ARTHUR) HULL:
[Langan New 2000.FBK]

JAMES ALBERT HULL -- James Hull (Bert) was born March 24, 1880 at Boone County, Iowa. His parents are George and Julia (Souder) Hull. He was raised on a farm and received his education in rural schools. James married Belle Starr. He was injured when he was riding a horse. It was icy and the horse threw him, hurting his leg. He was unconscious and it was quite awhile before he was found.

Due to the exposure it caused his leg to become infected and it had to be amputated. He spent the rest of his life with an artificial leg. James moved from Iowa to California, that is where he was living at the time of his death. He is laid to rest in California. Janes and Belle had one son Donald Hull.

Donald Hull was married and had one son. Donald was living away from his father's home. He hadn't seen him for awhile so he was planning to go home to see his father, however, Donald died before he could get home. Donald and his wife had one son, Delbert Lee Hull. Delbert was in World War II. He served in the U.S. Navy. His rank was S2/C. Not much more is known about James Hull and his family.

Notes for ROGER LUDLOW:

ROGER LUDLOW — Roger Ludlow was involved in the first permanent English settlement in Connecticut. On September 26, 1633 a company of men under Lieutenant William Holmes arrived by ship from the Plymouth Colony in Massachusetts, on invitation of the local Indians, and established a trading post near the junction of the Farmington and Connecticut Rivers. In 1635 these first settlers were joined by a larger group which came overland from Dorchester in the Massachusetts Bay Colony. Windsor, with Hartford and Wethersfield, formed the Colony of Connecticut in 1636.

In the development of constitutional government three Windsor men have played prominent roles: ROGER LUDLOW was the principal framer of the Fundamental Order of Connecticut in 1635. The first written constitution of a self-governing people.

OLIVER ELLSWORTH was one of final Committee of five which framed the Constitution of the United States in 1767. He was appointed one of first two United State Senators from Connecticut, and became Chief Justice of the United State Supreme Court.

Notes for GEORGE HULL:

GEORGE HULL -- George Hull, son of Uriah and Sarah (Muncy) Hull, was born on December 27, 1843 at Terre Houte, Indiana. He Died February 8, 1935 at Crane, Montana, he is buried there. Funeral services for George were in the Crane Church with Reverent Carl Calhoun officiating. He is laid to rest in the Crane Cemetery. At the time of his death he had eight children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, being a total of 118 living descendants at that time.

George's parents moved to Boone County, Iowa where his boyhood days were spent. George married Eunice Ross in 1861. She Passed away in 1869, to this union there were born: Frank Wesley, Ida Belle, and Eva Hull. Grandpa Hull's favorite saying was, "It's no laughing matter, but you may as well Laugh!" Ida Bell Hull would marry John Charles Langan. In his later years while he was living at his son Frank's home, he had his own room where he had a single bed, tiny window, his spittoon, and a chair. He had broken his hip when he was younger and it healed crooked so he walked very little, with a cane.

He had his favorite chair in the living room where he spent most of his days. When he had company, they would close the door and sing the old songs. He loved to sing and sang very well. In the summer he would go outside and sit on a seat from the back of an old touring car and sun himself, and watch his great grandchildren playing. He was always very good to them. It was here while living with his oldest son, Frank, that he died on February 8, 1935, having reached the age of 92 years, one month and twelve days.

In 1872 at Ogden, Iowa George Hull married (his second marriage) Julia Ann Souder. She was born June 29, 1884 in Iowa. She died August 9, 1924 in California and she is buried there. (Emmet Hull is a son of George and Julia Ann (Souder) Hull. Emmet Hull is the father of Mary (Hull) Christensen and Dell (Hull) Smith.)

George moved from Iowa to Holt County, Nebraska in 1878, where he resided until 1905. He farmed in Nebraska for several years. It was while they were living there he slipped and fell through a manger in the barn while feeding his horses hay from the hayloft. He injured his leg and arm so bad, it left him a cripple for the rest of his life. He has to use a cane to walk and it wasn't easy then.

After he was unable to work, he spent his later years visiting with his children. In 1920 George was living with his daughter, Ida Belle (Hull) Langan on their farm about five miles north of Gregory, South Dakota. He was 77 years old then and his second wife, Julia (Souder) Hull had gone to care for her ailing mother. When her mother died she moved to California where she died on August 9, 1924 and was buried there. George was a kind man with a mild temper and he loved little children.

At the Old Settlers picnic I heard George Hammond ask Guy's Grandmother, Sara Hull, what was the worst thing that happened to her during her first one hundred years of life. She said it was the grasshopper disaster. They cleaned us out. They even ate onions down into the ground. They took everything, leaving us bare land. Both William Hull and Sarah Hull are buried at Paddock Union Cemetery 15 miles North of O'Neill, Nebraska, 3.4 miles east off of Highway 281.

Notes

GEORGE WASHINGTON == George Washington was born on February 11, 1732 in Westmoreland County, Virginia. While in his teens he trained as a surveyor, and at the age of 20 he was appointed adjutant in the Virginia militia. For the next three years he fought in the wars against the French and Indians, serving as General Edward Braddock's aide in the disastrous campaign against Fort Duquesne. In 1759 he resigned from the militia, married Martha Dandridge Custis, a widow, and settled down as a gentleman farmer at Mount Vernon, Virginia. As a militiaman, Washington had been exposed to the arrogance of the British officers, and his experience as a planter with British commercial restrictions increased his anti-British sentiment. He opposed the Stamp Act of 1765 and after 1770 became increasingly prominent in organizing resistance. delegate to the Continental Congress, Washington was selected as commander in chief of the Continental Army and took command at Cambridge, Massachusetts, on July 3, 1775.
Inadequately supported and sometime covertly sabotaged by the Congress, in charge of troops who were inexperienced badly equipped, and impatient of discipline, Washing conducted the war on the policy of avoiding major engagements with the British and wearing them down by harassing tactics. His able generalship, along with the French alliance and the growing weariness within Britain, brought the Revolutionary War to a conclusion with surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown, Virginia, on October 19, 1781.

The Chaotic years under the Articles of Confederation led Washington to return to public life in the hope of promoting the formation of a strong central government. He presided over the Constitutional Convention and yielded to the universal demand that he serve as FIRST President. He was inaugurated on April 30, 1789, in New York, the first national capital. In office, he sought to unite the nation and establish the authority of the new government at home and abroad. Greatly distressed by the emergence of the Hamilton-Jefferson rivalry, Washington worked to maintain neutrality but actually sympathized more with Hamilton. Following his unanimous re-election in 1792, his second term was dominated by the Federalists. His Farewell Address on September 17, 1796 (published but never delivered) rebuked party spirit and warned against "permanent alliances" with foreign powers.

George Washington died at Mount Vernon on December 14, 1799.

George Washington is George Hull's 15th Cousin, 4 times removed. He is my 15th Cousin, 7 times removed.

Notes for ROGER LUDLOW:
[Langan New 2000.FBK]

ROGER LUDLOW -- Roger Ludlow was involved in the first permanent English settlement in Connecticut. On September 26, 1633 a company of men under Lieutenant William Holmes arrived by ship from the Plymouth Colony in Massachusetts, on invitation of the local Indians, and established a trading post near the junction of the Farmington and Connecticut Rivers. In 1635 these first settlers were joined by a larger group which came overland from Dorchester in the Massachusetts Bay Colony. Windsor, with Hartford and Wethersfield, formed the Colony of Connecticut in 1636.

In the development of constitutional government three Windsor men have played prominent roles: ROGER LUDLOW was the principal framer of the Fundamental Order of Connecticut in 1635. The first written constitution of a self-governing people.

OLIVER ELLSWORTH was one of final Committee of five which framed the Constitution of the United States in 1767. He was appointed one of first two United State Senators from Connecticut, and became Chief Justice of the United State Supreme Court.
