Levi Carter Sr. and Descendants
By
Floyd Thomas Pratt, F.H.C., M.A.G.I.
© 1992 revised 2010

The author has compiled a 3-generation comprehensive descendancy report of progenitor; Levi Carter Sr. It is my hope that this will serve as a template for others to record and report on their family history.

PRATT FAMILY HISTORY with Related Families of the Washington, Crawford, Franklin, Ste. Genevieve, Jefferson Counties of Missouri.

Floyd Thomas Pratt

VOLUME SEVEN

I have compiled this Pratt History of Missouri for the Pratt Family Reunion of 1992 held at the Bourbon Park, Bourbon, MO. The information contained is by no means complete or error free. Due to the record keeping of the time periods involved, I am sure many will find errors.

Volume One covered HENRY PRATT SR., HENRY PRATT Jr. and his children, and descendants.

Volume Two covered MARY KIMBERLIN and her progenitors back to Virginia from Missouri with related families.

Volume Three covered ALEXANDER PRATT and MARY KIMBERLIN’s children with related families in Missouri.

Volume Four covers MARY LAURA MAGDALENE MISSEY’s family for two generations back to JEAN BAPTISTE MISSE.

Volume Five continues with the MISSEY family back to JACQUES MISSIER from Paris, France.

Volume Six covers JOHN BLANTON and his descendants from Virginia to Missouri.

Volume Seven covers the LEVI CARTER Family from Wales to Greene Co., Tn.

It is the author’s hope that you will take this information and add to it to increase your knowledge of your ancestors. Only by knowing from where our roots originated can we appreciate the sacrifices of our ancestors and the blessings for our children.

Preface

This body of work has taken 35 years of record searching in courthouses, interviews with living relatives, cemeteries, microfilm reading of census records, deeds and most important of all…libraries from the local town library to the National Archives, resources gathered from all over Missouri and Tennessee.

I have had help from many researchers sharing their research over the years with the intent that one-day, I would be able to compile and share what was found with others seeking their family histories. It is with great pleasure I am able to share this accumulative descendant research in this comprehensive volume of work.

Please make copies of this file for future preservation. I am the only one who knows how to create a book of this caliber.

Layout

There are several sections in this book.

[2] Beginning with his oldest known child and spouse followed by each grandchild until all known children have been completed.

[3] Each descendant has basic information followed by notes comprised of very important source documentation and research recommendations.

[4] Each descendant has spousal information including children and their spouses. If further information is wanted concerning allied families, please contact the author.

[5] Names highlighted in blue are the author’s direct line ancestors.

[6] The end of the book has the author’s pedigree showing his relationship to the common ancestor. Also, there is a short biography of the author explaining his interest and qualifications in family history research.

I hope you will share this book with others in your family and it will become a family treasure.

Any questions you may have concerning information in this book can be asked of the author either at his home address: Floyd Pratt, 6732 Northampton Place, Bradenton, Florida 34207 or by phone 941.758.9273 or by email floydpratt59.verizon.net

It is and always has been my desire to share what I have found with others so they may use our research as a springboard to launch their family histories. Only through knowing our ancestors…can we know ourselves.

1736 Birthblock for Levi Carter Sr.
Date from "Family History of Levi Carter Descendants and Allied Families" by Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger and "The Carters of Greene County, Tennessee" by John Denton Carter. Professional genealogist Viron E. Payne, provided Levi Carter's death date, and approximate birthdate (ca 1736). [These books are available on cd as a .pdf file from Floyd Thomas Pratt.]

[This date has not been verified. Both sources do not give their evidence for the date of 1736 from a professional researcher. It is unknown at this time where Viron Payne he got the date, or who hired him.]

1750-1762 Marriage of Levi Carter & Susanna (??)
Between 1750-1762 either in New Jersey, Pennsylvania or before they moved to Point Marion, Monongahela, Virginia Colonies, because firstborn son; Caleb was born in Point Marion, Monongahela, Virginia Colonies. Checking Catholic or Luthern Churches in New Jersey, Pennsylvania or the Virginia Colonies might produce this marriage. Getting this marriage record is going to require hard research. This means...hands on-site digging through files in courthouses, marriage bond books, newspaper notices and old marriage record books of the local churches. Finding where they domiciled in New Jersey, which has been reported at Gloucester or Gloucestershire County, New Jersey, New England would be the place I would begin my search. I predict, the person who finds this record did exactly as I have suggested above. Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 22 August 2010

1777 Washington County, North Carolina is created
The Johnson City-Jonesborough-Washington County region has a colorful and fascinating history. The county was established in 1777 as Washington County, North Carolina and was named in honor of General George Washington while the Revolutionary War was underway. At that time, "Washington County" included the geographic area that later became the entire State of Tennessee. The county also was part of the "State of Franklin " from 1784 through 1788 (an attempt to create the fourteenth state) prior to Tennessee becoming a state in 1796.

1871-1870 Childbirth of son; Nathan Carter
Nathan Carter was born near Lick Creek, Washington, North Carolina, United States in 1871-1870.

1873 Greene County, North Carolina was created from Washington County, North Carolina.
Greene County is rooted in the "Nolichucky settlement," which was established by pioneer Jacob Brown on land leased from the Cherokee in the early 1770s. The Nolichucky settlement aligned itself with the Watauga settlement in modern Elizabethton. Greene County was formed in 1783, when the area was still part of North Carolina. Frontiersman Davy Crockett was born in Greene County in 1786.

Levi and other Carters, (John Sr.; Joseph; Caleb Sr.; and Nathan) were traced together from New Jersey to Greene County, Tennessee, maybe brothers. Also, David and Ephraim. In 1772, Caleb Carter Sr., claimed 400A of land in Monongalia County, Virginia. Two years prior to the Revolution, they served in Lord Dunmore's War. The document, "Captain Zackquil Morgan's Roll", p. 19-20 with seventy-six names, days served, and pay, dated 4 Oct 1775, included these names:
Levy (Levi) Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Caleb Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Joseph Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0

Levy (Levi) possibly about 40 years of age, had an active frontier life like others of his generation, and was fully capable of withstanding the hardships of military service. During this time, 1775-1777, Levi Carter had land on Indian Creek, at the mouth of LeMasters Run, near present day Arnettsville. The town was Point Marion, Virginia, where Monongalia River and the Cheat River meet. (see map)

Levi Carter and John Carter Sr. both served two months at Pickett's Fort, located on the Monongalia River about twenty miles south of present Morgantown, Virginia. They were under the command of Capt. William Haymond and Lt. Morgan Morgan. This document preserved by the Haymond family, carries the title of "Pay Roll of Capt. William Haymond's Company of Monongalia County Militia", from the 15th of April until the 12th of June 1777. Twenty eight names were on the payroll. [Gwathmey's "Historical Register of Virginians in the Revolution", page 134.]

Later in 1777, Carter's moved south through the Shenandoah Valley Appalachian Mountains, to Surrey County, northwest North Carolina just south of the Virginia line, where Levi Sr., Caleb, Jesse, Nathaniel, John and others are listed as soldiers from North Carolina. (Allen, Penelope Johnson,"Tennessee Soldiers in the Revolution", p17.)

The Carter's of Washington and Sullivan counties, North Carolina (Greene County, TN. by 1783) were included in 1780-81 "Inventory of Taxable Property of the Twelfth District in the Present Circulating Currency" from Washington County, North Carolina. Abraham, oldest son of John Carter Sr.; Caleb Carter Sr., not Levi's son; John Carter; Joseph Carter; and Levi Carter Sr.

They paid taxes until the 1783 Land Act by North Carolina, when each Carter head filed a claim for a given number of acres. Levi Carter, Sr. and John Carter, Sr. with adjoining tracts of land on Lick Creek Possessed no more than squatters rights------ built a Fort (Carter Fort), planted a crop, and tried to obtain a deed.

A historical marker "John Carter established a settlement in 1783" at Carter's Station in Greene County, Tennessee, located 8 miles northwest of Greeneville on Hwy. 70, near the old Albany Post Office. Originally it was on the old Babbs Mill Wagon Road that ran east and west through Greene county from near Rheatown to the Hawkins county line near Bull's Gap. Carter's built their fort on present-day site of Carter's Station and Cemetery, where they fought the Cherokee Indians at Lookout Mountain. It was an intensive battle and lasted nearly a decade, with the whites prevailing.

[It should be noted that this battle which took ten years; the Cherokees fighting for their survival, the Carters seeking more land ensued bitter resentment on both sides of the conflict. When three of Jesse Carter Sr's children married Cherokees, my 3ggrandmother...Nancy (CARTER) married Henry Pratt son of a Cherokee chief, in 1820, her father; Jesse disowned all of them and left them out of his will.-Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009]

A Revolutionary War voucher made out to Levi Carter, State of North Carolina, No. 3538 was for L12:3. The auditors for the counties of Washington and Sullivan, North Carolina, certified that Levi Carter received in account twelve pounds, three shillings, dated 12 June 1783.

The Carter's of Surry County, North Carolina, had supported the Revolution in both Virginia and North Carolina, while living on Indian lands, and had contributed soldiers to the cause. The King's proclamation in 1763, forbid white settlement west of the Appalachian Divide, so they were vulnerable to severe punishment by the British. Local Tories could identify the Carter's as enemies of the King, and soon after 1782, the Carter Patriarch's reached the conclusion that they could save their families by migrating en masse with the other threatened families to the Watauga-Tennessee Valley frontier. Some of the Carter's in the War lived long enough to apply for a Revolutionary War pension about 1830, and gave New Jersey as their birthplace.

These claims along Lick Creek were entered in North Carolina books during 1783-84, but four to ten years passed before receiving a full title. No sooner than the ink was dry on the original claim, ownership began to change by way of sales and purchases, gifts to children or other relatives, and by bequests to heirs. The original surveys and plats of Carter land grants are in North Carolina State Archives at Raleigh.

Signed: J. Glasgow, Secretary. Richard Dobbs Spaight

[A pole was equal to 16.5 feet-----Floyd Thomas Pratt]

Levi Carter's name appears frequently in the Greene County Court minutes from 1783- , as well as that of Abraham, James, Joseph, and Daniel. Caleb and Levi are named in 1784, in court cases as plaintiff or defendant; or to register an earmark for their hogs; jury lists; or appointments. In August 1786, "Ordered that a road be laid off from Babbs Mill to the County line below Swan Ponds", and named Joseph Carter, Abraham Carter, Levi Carter and nine other men to view, mark, and report to the November Court. This was the year 1786, that Levi Carter's son, our Elijah Carter was born. [When the text says our Elijah Carter, Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger is referring to Elijah as her direct line.-----Tom Pratt]

In December 1784, the State of Franklin was organized; and Southwest Territory (South of Ohio) was formed to provide state or territorial government for Washington, Sullivan and Greene counties. Carter Station Campgrounds date back to September 20, 1787, at which time one of the church founders, Joseph Carter received a land grant from the State of North Carolina. A Chriastain Society was organized in 1790 and an outdoor preaching place was built on the hill in the present Carter's Station cemetery. Traveling circuit riders preached at Carter Station in the early years, and services were held there until the Great Revival Era near the turn of the century. Shortly after 1800, a church, 40 x 30 was built of hewed pine logs, two-story covered with boards and had but one window. Two local ministers, the Rev. Benjamin Van Pelt, and Rev. Benjamin Williams served the church for many years. The latter is buried on the camp meeting ground. The Van Pelt home on Lick Creek was a favorite stopping place for Bishop Francis Asbury when he visited the area. This famous camp meeting site, had a large shed early in the century. A second shed was built in 1847--"the best in East Tennessee". In 1836, nine additional acres was purchased for camp meetings. In 1878 the present building was erected. "The present congregation at Carter's Station; United Methodist Church (formerly Albany) is striving to fulfill their obligation to God and to the founders of Old Carter's Station, and pledge to keep in service that which in trust has been passed down to them.
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

Carter's were numerous in America at the time of the first census, 1790, as number 63, appearing 651 times. In 1805, Levi Carter and Peter Cassel were on the tax rolls in Greene County, Tennessee. A newspaper article about Carter Station United Methodist Church, "Early white settlers from New Jersey, by way of Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Surrey County North Carolina, came upon a fortified Indian Village, made peace with the Indians and established a settlers fort in 1783. Many of the settlers and members of their families and their descendants are buried in the cemetery near the site of the fort. The first person buried was a Mr. Hardin whose mocassins became entangled in the brush of a cane-brake on the north side of Lick Creek when he was overtaken by the (Cherokee) Indians, and killed." (Greeneville Tennessee Sun, newspaper, 25 July 1979.)

The 1805 Camp meeting at Carter's Station began 23 August 1805, and lasted four (4) days. 10,000 people came. The families camped. (Greeneville Tennessee first newspaper in 1805.)

1796 State of Tennessee Created
The State of Tennessee is rooted in the Watauga Association, a 1772 frontier pact generally regarded as the first constitutional government west of the Appalachians. What is now Tennessee was initially part of North Carolina, and later part of the Southwest Territory. Tennessee was admitted to the Union as the 16th state on June 1, 1796.

Levi Carter Sr. Post Death Collateral Transactions
Some of the following transactions took place before and after the death of Levi Carter Sr. Not all researchers think it is important to date or list their sources. I have listed these transactions so that future researchers can look these up and put the proper dates on the transaction. As I have always said...Genealogy without documentation is mythology. Let's Get the Facts Straight
By Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

The CONFLICT

I keep running across several sources written by researchers who do not seem to have a firm grasp of the facts. I suppose it depends on your sympathies as to who you wish to side.

When I began my pursuit of my Cherokee ancestry, I read over 45 books covering their early European ancestry their divine guidance to the South American continent and eventually their migration through North America eventually occupying most of the eastern portion of the United States.

In my pursuit of my Cherokee ancestry, I discovered other authors writing books with a lack of truth and facts maybe due to ignorance, or their failure to research, nevertheless one such example follows.

First, in order to explain the story, you the reader needs to be acquainted with the Carter family background.

A large family of Carters reportedly coming from Wales to Gloucester County, New Jersey begins this conflict. There is a large contingent of researchers including myself who feel that my 5th Great Grandfather; Levi Carter Sr. may have been born in New Jersey in 1736.
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

Levi with brothers John, Nathan, Caleb, and Joseph, sibling identity has not been proven left New Jersey and settled for a while in Pennsylvania around the 1760's, as they pushed into the wilderness of North America engaging in warfare with native populations.

They left Pennsylvania and began purchasing land in Monongahela and Preston Counties of Virginia what is now West Virginia. They lived in the area and continued their warlike behavior with the natives.

Living in this area offered them the opportunity to join the American forces against the British and conduct war against both the British and the Cherokees which they had acquired a strong dislike.

This "might is right" attitude set the stage for years of bitter rivalry against the Cherokees. Many Carters lost their lives in that struggle and Cherokee resentment ran strong in the Carter family.

The Carters decided to move to Surry County, North Carolina where they continued their war against the British and the natives.

The Tories, loyal to the British, forced the Carter's out of Surry County and the Carter's fled for the safety of their lives and their families to the western most portion of North Carolina, which was Washington County.

Washington County after the Revolutionary War became Greene County, Tennessee in 1783.

The following collaborates this.

The following is from, "Family History of Levi Carter, Descendants and Allied Families", by Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger, © 1991, Pages 3,5,9,10,11,14.

Levy (Levi) possibly about 40 years of age, had an active frontier life like others of his generation, and was fully capable of withstanding the hardships of military service. During this time, 1775-1777, Levi Carter had land on Indian Creek, at the mouth of LeMasters Run, near present day Arnettsville. The town was Point Marion, Virginia, where Monongalia River and the Cheat River meet.

Levi Carter and John Carter Sr. both served two months at Pickett's Fort, located on the Monongalia River about twenty miles south of present Morgantown, Virginia. They were under the command of Capt. William Haymond and Lt. Morgan Morgan.

Later in 1777, Carter's moved south through the Shenandoah Valley Appalachian Mountains, to Surrey County, northwest North Carolina just south of the Virginia line, where Levi Sr., Caleb, Jesse, Nathaniel, John and others are listed as soldiers from North Carolina. (Allen, Penelope Johnson, "Tennessee Soldiers in the Revolution", p17.)

Also, from the same source...

The Carter's of Surry County, North Carolina, had supported the Revolution in both Virginia and North Carolina, while living on Indian lands, and had contributed soldiers to the cause. The King's proclamation in 1763, forbid white settlement west of the Appalachian Divide, so they were vulnerable to severe punishment by the British. Local Tories could identify the Carter's as enemies of the King, and soon after 1782, the Carter Patriarch's reached the conclusion that they could save their families by migrating en masse with the other threatened families to the Watauga-Tennessee Valley frontier. Some of the Carter's in the War lived long enough to apply for a Revolutionary War pension about 1830, and gave New Jersey as their birthplace.

The Carter's of Washington and Sullivan counties, North Carolina (Greene County, TN. by 1783) were included in 1780-81 "Inventory of Taxable Property of the Twelfth District in the Present Circulating Currency" from Washington County, North Carolina. Abraham, oldest son of John Carter Sr.; Caleb Carter Sr., not Levi's son; John Carter; Joseph Carter; and Levi Carter Sr.

They paid taxes until the 1783 Land Act by North Carolina, when each Carter head filed a claim for a given number of acres. Levi Carter, Sr. and John Carter, Sr. with adjoining tracts of land on Lick Creek Possessed no more than squatter's rights----- built a Fort (Carter Fort), planted a crop, and tried to obtain a deed.

A historical marker "John Carter established a settlement in 1783" at Carter's Station in Greene County, Tennessee, located 8 miles northwest of Greeneville on Hwy. 70, near the old Albany Post Office. Originally it was on the old Babbs Mill Wagon Road that ran east and west through Greene County from near Rheatown to the Hawkins county line near Bull's Gap. Carter's built their fort on present-day site of Carter's Station and Cemetery, where they fought the Cherokee Indians at Lookout Mountain. It was an intensive battle and lasted nearly a decade, with the whites prevailing.

A newspaper article about Carter Station United Methodist Church, "Early white settlers from New Jersey, by way of Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Surrey County North Carolina, came upon a fortified Indian Village, made peace with the Indians and established a settlers fort in 1783".

Many of the settlers and members of their families and their descendants are buried in the cemetery near the site of the fort. The first person buried was a Mr. Hardin whose moccasins became entangled in the brush of a cane-brake on the north side of Lick Creek when he was overtaken by the (Cherokee) Indians, and killed." (Greeneville Tennessee Sun, newspaper, 25 July 1979.)

Rumor Control

As a descendant of the Cherokees that lived in that area, I cannot let writers fabricate stories about the Cherokee peoples to justify their ancestor's warlike actions.

If what the above writer said was true, that the Carters arrived near Lick Creek in newly formed Greene County, Tennessee in 1783, they made peace with the local Cherokees, then what would be the necessity of building a Fort they named Carter’s Fort?

The truth is that white settlers had been forging across the Appalachian Mountains for decades in contrary to the British Crown's assurances to the Cherokee's that they, the whites would not invade native people's land.

This had been the law since the 1756 Proclamation by King George. When the Americans decided they did not want to live by the rules of England, they broke treaty and started to invade and war with the Cherokee and other native peoples, all in the pursuit of stealing their land and resources.

The British came to the Native peoples and assured them that if they, the Cherokees would fight for the British, in what the Americans called the Revolutionary War, the Crown would enforce the 1756 proclamation.

The White Americans also solicited the native peoples to fight on their side, but could not offer any reassurances or protection against white encroachment.
The natives chose the British based on the ideals of preserving their land and way of life.

Technically, they didn't care for either group of Whites or the reasons for the war, however, preserving their families against white encroachment was the foundation of their decision. The lesser of the two evils were the British, so the decision was made to support the British in the hope of preserving their life. What would you have done?

In my opinion, the wrong side won the war. If the British had won, they would have honored the treaties with ALL the natives and there would have been no genocide or "Trail of Tears".

The native’s rights would have been respected and any white encroachment would have been reconciled without war, preserving the sovereignty of the native people nations.

The landscape of North America would have large patches of native people's nations under the guidance and authority of the British Crown…the native populations would have prospered and flourished.

There would be large sections of Cherokee lands, Choctaw lands, Seminole lands, Apache lands, Chickasaw lands and hundreds of other native people's land honored by treaties that the British Crown would have honored, as they had done in hundreds of other countries around the world.

The North American continent would have been one large British colony with many subcultures making up their divisions.

Many forget, that the French land sale to Jefferson in 1803 of the Louisiana Territory had a stipulation that demanded the Americans did not take native peoples land away by force and the Americans were to honor and respect the sovereignty of the Native peoples nations.

It didn't take Jackson long before he violated that portion of the contract and began making agreements with various states like, Georgia to remove and "kick out" the natives under what is now known as the Georgia Compact.

Because the Americans won the Revolutionary War, the beginning of the genocide of thousands of native tribes began and the very people who once helped and assisted those helpless Europeans were repaid by treachery, lawlessness, thievery and murder.

The prosperity of America today, was achieved through a century of bloodshed against the native peoples.

Even though I was not involved in the process or decisions of the 1800's activities with the native governments, I still feel ashamed for the participation that my "other" ancestors may have played in the demise of these great people.

America wears a large red stain on its garment…stained with the blood of its native children.

The War Continues...

The outcome of the Revolutionary War is well documented, however the fighting did not stop. The British and the Americans reconciled but the Carters and other whites continued their war against the Cherokees and other native populations.
As stated above, when the Carter's arrived in Greene County 1783, they arrived in the middle of a 10-year war that had been going on with the Cherokee people. They built the fort because they had to...for their safety.

The war with the Cherokees ended around 1785 due to the superior technology of the whites. Also, the whites outnumbered these small tribes and villages and could destroy a whole tribe with their weapons.

The whites would burn their crops, burn their homes and kill their livestock. Look what they did to the western tribes by destroying the buffalo.

When the Cherokees finally gave up, they lost more than the war. The Americans wanted to set an example and teach other native tribes what the consequences of war with the whites would entail.

The Cherokees once claimed land from the Ohio River to the Appalachians into South Carolina through Georgia to the Mississippi River amounting to millions of acres.

The American Government through threats of annihilation and genocide swindled the Cherokees through a hundred written treaties out of all their lands, except a few parcels of land in North Carolina and Oklahoma.

Even the land in Oklahoma was taken away from them when oil was discovered in 1897.

Carter Animosity

The Carter's had a deep hatred for the Cherokees since they had fought with them most of their lives.

Levi Carter's son; Jesse Carter Sr. married Susanna (HARMON) and raised 10 children mostly in the Greene County, Tennessee area.

The name Harmon means war-man. There are many documented stories of the Harmon's warring with the natives. The Harmon's would go out of their way to fight the natives and they enjoyed it.

Three of Jesse's children married Cherokees; daughter...Nancy married Cherokee, Henry Pratt; son...Jesse Jr. married Cherokee, Catherine (PRESLEY) and daughter...Susanna married Levi Presley another Cherokee.

The Presley's were from North Carolina also of native ancestry and part of the Presley family of Elvis Vernon Presley, the singer.

When Jesse Carter Sr. died in 1849, he left those three children out of his will and gave them no inheritance because they married Cherokees. Jesse's elder Carter's hatred of the people they abused, killed and stole life, limb and property transcended generations and filtered to their sons and grandsons.

Thankfully, Jesse's wife Susanna did not feel the same way and after Jesse died, Susanna gave those three children some property in Monroe and McMinn Counties before her death in 1865.

Thank goodness for the tender mercies of our wives...they may save us yet.

American's Owe a Debt
So, the next time you hear someone boasting about their pioneer ancestors and how they forged a life out of the wilderness, remember without the Powhatan natives, the Jamestown settlement would have been decimated.

The Pilgrims would not have survived without the help of natives like Samoset, who walked into their camp and in English said "Welcome" and Squanto who taught the Pilgrims how to survive!

It was the Cherokees that saved Col. Andrew Jackson in the battle with the Creeks.

It was the Cherokees that forged a new alphabet and printed their own newspaper and created a government and set up schools to teach their children higher education fashioned after the white man…who was suppose to protect them.

And it was the Cherokees that the white American government forced into concentration camps and moved them off of their land and seized everything that was of valuable.

My Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt family were victims of American "manifest destiny" and had to endure the "Trail of Tears".

So reader, when you read about how bad the native Americans were to the pioneers, remember, you are not getting the whole story.

Ask yourself this question, "If the natives of this continent were kind, friendly and generous as reported by all those who came in contact with them, especially to the first forefathers who landed on their shores…what happened to that spirit of cooperation and friendship?"

Prophecy

It is well documented in the Book of Mormon of the Savior's visit to the North American continent after his crucifiction. For centuries, prophets in the Americas prophesied about the Savior and his long awaited visitation.

After the crucifiction, for 3 days the continents in the Americas were shrouded in darkness…day and night. Then a piercing light broke through the darkness and a man descended down from the heavens.

The people fell to the earth in fear and he told them that he was the Savior that had been prophesied by their prophets for centuries. He showed them his hands where he had been pierced by the nails and healed their sick and raised their dead and blessed all.

He set up his church in the fashion as he had done in Jerusalem, with prophets and apostles and informed them, "You are those I have spoken to the Jews, who are not of this fold, as you do not know of the Jews, there are others that neither the Jews nor you know."

After a period of time he retured to the heavens and the people wept. There was peace in the land for 400 years.

So, when Cortez landed, he was greated by the natives as the long awaited Savior that had promised to return one day.

That fateful meeting with the Spainards destroyed those people over a period of time through war and disease and covetousness for their life, limb and property.
Who broke the trust, who became greedy and resorted even to murdering the very people who loved them as a brother?

The architect of such hatefullness of course, is Lucifer himself.

Dilemma

My dilemma is that only Henry Pratt and his sons of my direct line ancestors are Cherokee. All the rest of my lines were French, British, German, Irish, Scottish and Welch and probably more.

So, as proud as I am of my Cherokee people and the trials and suffering they endured, I am conflicted because of my European ancestors and fear their participation in bringing about the demise of such a great and loving people.

I thank the Lord for his promise that in the last days he would raise the descendants of those people who are of native ancestry and "make them a great and mighty people," as it is written in the Book of Mormon.

Each day I live in my lifetime, I see that prophecy being fulfilled in the Hispanic peoples.

Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 22 August 2010

Levi married Susanna from about 1765 to 1767. Susanna died 22 October 1816 near Lick Creek, Albany, Greene, Tennessee, United States.

Birthblock for Susanna ( )

Since Levi or his wife never showed up in a census then approximating their birthdates are difficult. In the book, "Family History of Levi Carter Descendants and Allied Families" by Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger she stated a professional genealogist called Viron E. Payne, found Levi's birth date of 1736. However, failure to disclose his sources, leaves the subsequent researchers still looking for the birthdate. Men usually married close to their age until they reached old age and I think Levi would have been no exception. Born in 1736 or thereabouts, he could have married after age 14 (1750) and before firstborn son; Caleb was born in 1769. Since Susanna died in 1816, this would indicate that she died a few years after Levi died in 1811. Therefore, she was probably close to his age. If Caleb was born around 1769 backtracking 15 years, the age young girls usually married back then, would place her birth at 1754. However, if she married later at age 15-20 then her birthdate would be in the range of 1749-1754. Also, one fallacy to this theory is...we are assuming that Caleb was the firstborn in 1769. If Susanna was closer to Levi's age who was born in 1736, then Caleb may not have been the firstborn. They could have married between 1750 to 1769. Therefore, we really don't know when she was born...best guess 1740-1750. Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 22 August 2010

1750-1762 Marriage of Levi Carter & Susanna (??)

Between 1750-1762 either in New Jersey, Pennsylvania or before they moved to Point Marion, Monongalia, Virginia Colonies, because firstborn son; Caleb was born in Point Marion, Monongalia, Virginia Colonies. Checking Catholic or Luthern Churches in New Jersey, Pennsylvania or the Virginia Colonies might produce this marriage. Getting this marriage record is going to require hard research. This means...hands on-site digging through files in courthouses, marriage bond books, newspaper notices and old marriage record books of the local Methodist churches. Finding where they domiciled in New Jersey, which has been reported at Gloucester or Gloucestershire County, New Jersey, New England would be the place I would begin my search. I predict, the person who finds this record did exactly as I have suggested above. Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 22 August 2010

Levi and other Carters, (John Sr.; Joseph; Caleb Sr.; and Nathan) were traced together from New Jersey to Greene County, Tennessee, maybe brothers. Also, David and Ephraim. In 1772, Caleb Carter Sr., claimed 400A of land in Monongalia County, Virginia. Two years prior to the Revolution, they served in Lord Dunmore's War. The document, "Captain Zackquil Morgan's Roll", p. 19-20 with seventy-six names, days served, and pay, dated 4 Oct 1775, included these names:
Levy (Levi) Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Caleb Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Joseph Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0

Levy (Levi) possibly about 40 years of age, had an active frontier life like others of his generation, and was fully capable of withstanding the hardships of military service. Levi Carter and John Carter Sr. both served two months at Pickett's Fort, located on the Monongalia River about twenty miles south of present Morgantown, Virginia. They were under the command of Capt. William Haymond and Lt. Morgan Morgan. This document preserved by the Haymond family, carries the title of "Pay Roll of Capt. William Haymond's Company of Monongalia County Militia", from the 15th of April until the 12th of June 1777. Twenty eight names were on the payroll. [Gwathmey's "Historical Register of Virginians in the Revolution", page 134.]

Later in 1777, Carter's moved south through the Shenandoah Valley Appalachian Mountains, to Surrey County, northwest North Carolina just south of the Virginia line, where Levi Sr., Caleb, Jesse, Nathaniel, John and others are listed as soldiers from North Carolina. (Allen, Penelope Johnson,"Tennessee Soldiers in the Revolution", p17.)

A Revolutionary War voucher made out to Levi Carter, State of North Carolina, No. 3538 was for L12:3. The auditors for the counties of Washington and Sullivan, North Carolina, certified that Levi Carter received in account twelve pounds, three shillings, dated 12 June 1783.

The Carter's of Surry County, North Carolina, had supported the Revolution in both Virginia and North Carolina, while living on Indian lands, and had contributed soldiers to the cause. These claims along Lick Creek were entered in North Carolina books during 1783-84, but four to ten years passed before receiving a full title. No sooner than the ink was dry on the original claim, ownership began to change by way of sales and purchases, gifts to children or other relatives, and by bequests to heirs. The original surveys and plats of Carter land grants are in North Carolina State Archives at Raleigh.

State of North Carolina, No. #1238 12 January 1793, Levi Carter:
To all whom these presents shall come Greeting----Know ye that we for and in consideration of the sum of Ten Pounds for every hundred acres hereby guaranteed paid into our Treasury by Levi Carter, have given and granted and by these presents do give and grant unto the said Levi Carter, a tract of land containing one hundred and seventy-five acres, (175A) lying and being in our County of Greene, on both sides of Lick Creek. Beginning at the mouth of Punching Camp Creek at a beech, then North 92 poles to an ash, then East 130 poles to two hickories, then South 32 poles to a white oak, then East 25 poles to a post oak, then South 154 poles to a white oak, then West 155 poles to a white oak, then North 94 poles to the beginning; do by the plot hereunto doth appear together with all woods, waters, mines, minerals, hereditaments, appurtenances to the said land belonging pertaining to hold to the said Levi Carter, his heirs and assigns forever, yielding and paying to us such sums of money yearly or otherwise as our General Assembly from time to time may direct. Provided always that the said Levi Carter shall cause this grant to be Registered in the Register's Office of our said County of Greene, within the time limited by law, otherwise the same shall be void and of no effect. In testimony whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patent and our Great to be hereunto affixed. Witness: Richard Dobbs Spaight, Esquire, our Governor Captain General and Commander in Chief, at Newburn, the 12th day of January in the 17th year of our Independence and in the year of our Lord 1793. Signed: J. Glasgow, Secretary. Richard Dobbs Spaight
[A pole was equal to 16.5 feet-----Floyd Thomas Pratt]

Levi Carter's name appears frequently in the Greene County Court minutes from 1783- , as well as that of Abraham, James, Joseph, and Daniel. Caleb and Levi are named in 1784, in court cases as plaintiff or defendant; or to register an earmark for their hogs; jury lists; or appointments. In August 1786, "Ordered that a road be laid off from Babbs Mill to the County line below Swan Ponds", and named Joseph Carter, Abraham Carter, Levi Carter and nine other men to view, mark, and report to the November Court. This was the year 1786, that Levi Carter's son, our Elijah Carter was born.
[When the text says our Elijah Carter, Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger is referring to Elijah as her direct line.-----Tom Pratt]

In December 1784, the State of Franklin was organized; and Southwest Territory (South of Ohio) was formed to provide state or territorial government for Washington, Sullivan and Greene counties. Carter Station Campgrounds date back to September 20, 1787, at which time one of the church founders, Joseph Carter received a land grant from the State of North Carolina. A Christain Society was organized in 1790 and an outdoor preaching place was built on the hill in the present Carter's Station cemetery. Traveling circuit riders preached at Carter Station in the early years, and services were held there until the Great Revival Era near the turn of the century. Shortly after 1800, a chruch, 40 x 30 was built of hewed pine logs, two-story covered with boards and had but one window. Two local ministers, the Rev. Benjamin Van Pelt, and Rev. Benjamin Williams served the church for many years. The latter is buried on the camp meeting ground. The Van Pelt home on Lick Creek was a favorite stopping place for Bishop Francis Asbury when he visited the area. This famous camp meeting site, had a large shed early in the century. A second shed was built in 1847--"the best in East Tennessee". In 1836, nine additional acres was purchased for camp meetings. In 1878 the present building was erected. "The present congregation at Carter's Station; United Methodist Church (formerly Albany) is striving to fulfill their obligation to God and to the founders of Old Carter's Station, and pledge to keep in service that which in trust has been passed down to them.

Carter's were numerous in America at the time of the first census, 1790, as number 63, appearing 651 times. In 1805, Levi Carter and Peter Cassel were on the tax rolls in Greene County, Tennessee. A newspaper article about Carter Station United Methodist Church, "Early white settlers from New Jersey, by way of Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Surrey County North Carolina, came upon a fortified Indian Village, made peace with the Indians and established a settlers fort in 1783. Many of the settlers and members of their families and their descendants are buried in the cemetery near the site of the fort. The first person buried was a Mr. Hardin whose mocassins became entangled in the brush of a cane-brake on the north side of Lick Creek when he was overtaken by the (Cherokee) Indians, and killed." (Greeneville Tennessee Sun, newspaper, 25 July 1979.)

The 1805 Camp meeting at Carter's Station began 23 August 1805, and lasted four (4) days. 10,000 people came. The families camped. (Greeneville Tennessee first newspaper in 1805.)

The following is from, "Family History of Levi Carter, Descendants and Allied Families", by Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger, © 1991, Pages 3,5,9,10,11,14. [This book is available on cd as a .pdf file from this author.]

Levi and other Carters, (John Sr.; Joseph; Caleb Sr.; and Nathan) were traced together from New Jersey to Greene County, Tennessee, maybe brothers. Also, David and Ephraim. In 1772, Caleb Carter Sr., claimed 400A of land in Monongalia County, Virginia. Two years prior to the Revolution, they served in Lord Dunmore's War. The document, "Captain Zackquil Morgan's Roll", p. 19-20 with seventy-six names, days served, and pay, dated 4 Oct 1775, included these names:
Levy (Levi) Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Caleb Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Joseph Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Levy (Levi) possibly about 40 years of age, had an active frontier life like others of his generation, and was fully capable of withstanding the hardships of military service. During this time, 1775-1777, LEVI Carter had land on Indian Creek, at the mouth of LeMasters Run, near present day Arnettsville. The town was Point Marion, Virginia, where Monongalia River and the Cheat River meet. (see map)

Levi Carter and John Carter Sr. both served two months at Pickett's Fort, located on the Monongalia River about twenty miles south of present Morgantown, Virginia. They were under the command of Capt. William Haymond and Lt. Morgan Morgan. This document preserved by the Haymond family, carries the title of "Pay Roll of Capt. William Haymond's Company of Monongalia County Militia", from the 15th of April until the 12th of June 1777. Twenty eight names were on the payroll. [Gwathmey's "Historical Register of Virginians in the Revolution", page 134.]

Later in 1777, Carter's moved south through the Shenandoah Valley Appalachian Mountains, to Surrey County, northwest North Carolina just south of the Virginia line, where Levi Sr., Caleb, Jesse, Nathaniel, John and others are listed as soldiers from North Carolina. (Allen, Penelope Johnson,"Tennessee Soldiers in the Revolution", p17.)

The Carter's of Washington and Sullivan counties, North Carolina (Greene County, TN. by 1783) were included in 1780-81 "Inventory of Taxable Property of the Twelfth District in the Present Circulating Currency" from Washington County, North Carolina.

Abraham, oldest son of John Carter Sr.; Caleb Carter Sr., not Levi's son; John Carter; Joseph Carter; and Levi Carter Sr.

They paid taxes until the 1783 Land Act by North Carolina, when each Carter head filed a claim for a given number of acres. Levi Carter, Sr. and John Carter, Sr. with adjoining tracts of land on Lick Creek Possessed no more than squatters rights------ built a Fort (Carter Fort), planted a crop, and tried to obtain a deed.

A historical marker "John Carter established a settlement in 1783" at Carter's Station in Greene County, Tennessee, located 8 miles northwest of Greenville on Hwy. 70, near the old Albany Post Office. Originally it was on the old Babbs Mill Wagon Road that ran east and west through Greene county from near Rheatown to the Hawkins county line near Bull's Gap. Carter's built their fort on present-day site of Carter's Station and Cemetery, where they fought the Cherokee Indians at Lookout Mountain. It was an intensive battle and lasted nearly a decade, with the whites prevailing.

[It should be noted that this battle which took ten years; the Cherokees fighting for their survival, the Carters seeking more land ensued bitter resentment on both sides of the conflict. When three of Jesse Carter Sr's children married Cherokees, my 3ggrandmother...Nancy (CARTER) married Henry Pratt son of a Cherokee chief, in 1820, Jesse disowned all of them and left them out of his will.-Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009]

A Revolutionary War voucher made out to Levi Carter, State of North Carolina, No. 3538 was for L12:3. The auditors for the counties of Washington and Sullivan, North Carolina, certified that Levi Carter received in account twelve pounds, three shillings, dated 12 June 1783.

The Carter's of Surry County, North Carolina, had supported the Revolution in both Virginia and North Carolina, while living on Indian lands, and had contributed soldiers to the cause. The King's proclamation in 1763, forbid white settlement west of the Appalachian Divide, so they were vulnerable to severe punishment by the British. Local Tories could identify the Carter's as enemies of the King, and soon after 1782, the Carter Patriarch's reached the conclusion that they could save their families by migrating en masse with the other threatened families to the Watauga-Tennessee Valley frontier. Some of the Carter's in the War lived long enough to apply for a Revolutionary War pension about 1830, and gave New Jersey as their birthplace.

These claims along Lick Creek were entered in North Carolina books during 1783-84, but four to ten years passed before receiving a full title. No sooner than the ink was dry on the original claim, ownership began to change by way of sales and purchases, gifts to children or other relatives, and by bequests to heirs. The original surveys and plats of Carter land grants are in North Carolina State Archives at Raleigh.

Birth date and birth location from "Family History of Levi Carter, Descendants and Allied Families" by Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger and the 1850 census.

[Based on the 1850 census age, unless she had been previously married, getting married at age 39 seems highly unlikely. After marriage to Caleb she started to bear children at age 39-40. I think there are errors in her age report in the census records of 1830, 1840, and 1850. I don't think she was as old age she was reporting. I also, don't think Caleb married a woman older than he was. I would think she had been born in the 1770's or 1780's range.]

Date from the headstone states she was born
Date from the obituary states she was born
Since the only census we have on her so far is the 1830 census, she is listed as being born between 1791-1800. Her father; Absalom Templeton married Susanna (CARTER) on 8 October 1799 in Greene County, Tennessee. If we work on the hypothesis that she was born after that marriage then we have a serious problem. Rachel was married to Caleb Carter Jr. on 18 May 1809 also in Greene County...she would not have gotten married at 9 years of age! Therefore, I believe she was born between the 1791-1800 census birth range and probably closer to the 1791 date. This would make her 15-19 years of age when she married in 1809. The only explanation for this is her father; Absalom Templeton had been previously married.
Absalom Templeton is listed as being born in 1771 in Tamaqua, Schuylkill, Pennsylvania, New England. Adding 15-20 years to that age would indicate he could have married between 1786 to 1791 or even a few years later. Therefore, Susanna (CARTER) is not Rachel's mother.

Concerning Rachel's birth location...checking the Greene County, Tennessee Deed records should indicate when Absalom Templeton arrived in Greene County and bought property. Sometimes the deed records even indicate where they came from which would give us a clue as to where he was before he got to Greene County. Rachel may not have been born in Greene County and remember Greene County, North Carolina was formed in 1783 and Tennessee did not become a state until 1796. Greene County, North Carolina was formed from Washington County, North Carolina. Rachel may not be the only children born from Absalom's first marriage.

1820 Federal Census
1820-1826 Family Move
From Greene, Tennessee, United States to Monroe, Tennessee, United States. Checking the Greene County, Tennessee Deed Record Books would probably tell us the approximate date Caleb and family left Greene County for Monroe County. Gold was discovered in Monroe County, the first gold discovery in American history and this transformed Monroe County into a busy location for fortune seekers. This put an extreme hardship on my Pratt ancestors who were Cherokees and Gold was one of the reasons the white settlers wanted to remove them from their land. For a more comprehensive report see the book "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee" (2003) by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C.,

[Unless she was visiting someone back in Tennessee, I think she died in Mississippi.]
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

The whole, basis of assigning children to Sophia is based on submitters stating she died in 1858. I am concerned that after Margaret was born in 1840 there is a gap of 12 years before Nathan is born in 1852. This time difference would suggest that Sr. John had married after 1840 and before 1852, but the 1850 census states Sophia was alive and living with her husband. Therefore, if she did die in 1858, then all the children born up until then are hers and it looks like daughter; Caledonia may have been a complication during delivery because Sophia died the same year as Caledonia was born. John C. Frazier by Kent Myrick
1821 to 1868 , Harrison Co, Iowa after Greene Co, Tennessee
John C. Frazier was born January 15, 1803 in Greene County, Tennessee and died May 21, 1868 in Harrison County, Iowa, buried in the Frazier Cemetery. His first wife's name and marriage date and the names of his parents are educated guesses from birth and marriage records of Greene County. I believe he was the son of David and Elizabeth (Parker) Frazier, and the grandson of Thomas and Sarah Frazier, making him a cousin to the other two John Fraziers who lived in Harrison County. If his parentage is correct, he had at least nine brothers and sisters, whose names I don't know.
Apparantly John married Margaret "Peggy" Carter, probably the daughter of Caleb and Phebe (Williams) Carter on February 5, 1821 in Greene County, Tennessee. They had four sons: William D, James Nathan (ours), Samuel D, and Thomas W Frazier, all born in Greene County. Of the two younger sons, nothing is known for sure. There was a Samuel Frazier of the right age who lived in Jefferson and Oregon Counties, Missouri, and in Fulton Co, Arkansas, who could have been John C Frazier's son. He had two wives, Eliza and Polly and about twelve children. Thomas W Frazier still lived with his father in 1850, but there is no further record of him.
John's first wife apparently died between 1828 and 1830 in Putnam County, Indiana. He migrated there with many other Frazier families about 1829, settling near Reelsville. While there, John and Elizabeth Frazier had seven daughters and three sons.....added this on 8 Jul 2010 originally submitted this to Renz Family Line; Kemp/Strong to Samuel m: Orpha Butler on 15 Apr 2007
This is a part of a story written by Kent Myrick, a descendant of John C Frazier for the historical book of Harrison Co, Iowa. It is a good source for genealogical purposes for our family.

Findagrave Information
John C. Frazier and his first wife Peggy Carter had 4 sons. The third, Samuel D. Frazier, was born 31 Dec 1825 in Greene County, TN. He supposedly "went to Missouri", but no one has ever been able to find any trace of him. If anyone has any information about him, please contact me. He may have married a woman named Eliza about 1845 in TN, but this is unverified.

John had 10 more children with his second wife.

Date from the obituary states she was born
Since Rachel (CARTER) says she was born around 1773 in the 1850 census and that conclusion is flimsy at best relying on her memory where she could have had memory problems and really didn't know when she was born, after all in the same census she didn't know where she was born.

1774 Childbirth of brother; Jesse Carter
Jesse Carter was born near Point Marion, Monongalia, Virginia, United States in 1774.

Childbirth of brother; John Carter
John Carter we don't know anything about his birth, location, marriage or death. Only he appears in two Court documents and disappears after 16 October 1815.

1775 Family Move

Nathan Carter was born near Lick Creek, Washington, North Carolina, United States in 1781-1790.
1783 Greene County, North Carolina was created from Washington County, North Carolina.
Greene County is rooted in the "Nolichucky settlement," which was established by pioneer Jacob Brown on land leased from the Cherokee in the early 1770s. The Nolichucky settlement aligned itself with the Watauga settlement in modern Elizabethton. Greene County was formed in 1783, when the area was still part of North Carolina. Frontiersman Davy Crockett was born in Greene County in 1786.

1783 Family Move
Family move from Washington County, North Carolina to Greene County, North Carolina around 1783
[This may not have been a move. They could have been in the same place when the county was formed around them. Greene County was formed in 1783 and Tennessee was not created as a state until 1896.]

1783-1785 Childbirth of brother; Joseph Carter
Joseph Carter was born near Lick Creek, Albany, Greene, Tennessee, United States between 1783-1785.

Father’s Additional Source
The following is from, "Family History of Levi Carter, Descendants and Allied Families", by Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger, © 1991, Pages 3,5,9,10,11,14.
[This book is available on cd as a .pdf file from this author.]

Levi and other Carters, (John Sr.; Joseph; Caleb Sr.; and Nathan) were traced together from New Jersey to Greene County, Tennessee, maybe brothers. Also, David and Ephraim. In 1772, Caleb Carter Sr., claimed 400A of land in Monongalia County, Virginia. Two years prior to the Revolution, they served in Lord Dunmore’s War. The document, "Captain Zackquil Morgan's Roll", p. 19-20 with seventy-six names, days served, and pay, dated 4 Oct 1775, included these names:
Levy (Levi) Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Caleb Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Joseph Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0

Levi (Levi) possibly about 40 years of age, had an active frontier life like others of his generation, and was fully capable of withstanding the hardships of military service. During this time, 1775-1777, Levi Carter had land on Indian Creek, at the mouth of LeMasters Run, near present day Arnettsville. The town was Point Marion, Virginia, where Monongalia River and the Cheat River meet. (see map)

Levi Carter and John Carter Sr. both served two months at Pickett's Fort, located on the Monongalia River about twenty miles south of present Morgantown, Virginia. They were under the command of Capt. William Haymond and Lt. Morgan Morgan. This document preserved by the Haymond family, carries the title of "Pay Roll of Capt. William Haymond's Company of Monongalia County Militia", from the 15th of April until the 12th of June 1777. Twenty eight names were on the payroll. [Gwathmey's "Historical Register of Virginians in the Revolution", page 134.]

Later in 1777, Carter's moved south through the Shenandoah Valley Appalachian Mountains, to Surrey County, northwest North Carolina just south of the Virginia line, where Levi Sr., Caleb, Jesse, Nathaniel, John and others are listed as soldiers from North Carolina. (Allen, Penelope Johnson, "Tennessee Soldiers in the Revolution", p17.)
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

The Carter's of Washington and Sullivan counties, North Carolina (Greene County, TN. by 1783) were included in 1780-81 "Inventory of Taxable Property of the Twelfth District in the Present Circulating Currancy" from Washington County, North Carolina.

Abraham, oldest son of John Carter Sr.; Caleb Carter Sr., not Levi's son; John Carter; Joseph Carter; and Levi Carter Sr.

They paid taxes until the 1783 Land Act by North Carolina, when each Carter head filed a claim for a given number of acres. Levi Carter, Sr. and John Carter, Sr. with adjoining tracts of land on Lick Creek Possessed no more than squatters rights----- built a Fort (Carter Fort), planted a crop, and tried to obtain a deed.

A historical marker "John Carter established a settlement in 1783" at Carter's Station in Greene County, Tennessee, located 8 miles northwest of Greeneville on Hwy. 70, near the old Albany Post Office. Originally it was on the old Babbs Mill Wagon Road that ran east and west through Greene county from near Rheatown to the Hawkins county line near Bull's Gap. Carter's built their fort on present-day site of Carter's Station and Cemetery, where they fought the Cherokee Indians at Lookout Mountain. It was an intensive battle and lasted nearly a decade, with the whites prevailing.

[It should be noted that this battle which took ten years; the Cherokees fighting for their survival, the Carters seeking more land ensued bitter resentment on both sides of the conflict. When three of Jesse Carter Sr's children married Cherokees, my 3ggrandmother...Nancy (CARTER) married Henry Pratt son of a Cherokee chief, in 1820, Jesse disowned all of them and left them out of his will.-Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009]

A Revolutionary War voucher made out to Levi Carter, State of North Carolina, No. 3538 was for L12:3. The auditors for the counties of Washington and Sullivan, North Carolina, certified that Levi Carter received in account twelve pounds, three shillings, dated 12 June 1783.

The Carter's of Surry County, North Carolina, had supported the Revolution in both Virginia and North Carolina, while living on Indian lands, and had contributed soldiers to the cause. The King's proclamation in 1763, forbid white settlement west of the Appalachian Divide, so they were vulnerable to severe punishment by the British. Local Tories could identify the Carter's as enemies of the King, and soon after 1782, the Carter Patriarch's reached the conclusion that they could save their families by migrating en masse with the other threatened families to the Watauga-Tennessee Valley frontier. Some of the Carter's in the War lived long enough to apply for a Revolutionary War pension about 1830, and gave New Jersey as their birthplace.

These claims along Lick Creek were entered in North Carolina books during 1783-84, but four to ten years passed before receiving a full title. No sooner than the ink was dry on the original claim, ownership began to change by way of sales and purchases, gifts to children or other relatives, and by bequests to heirs. The original surveys and plats of Carter land grants are in North Carolina State Archives at Raleigh.

State of North Carolina, No. #1238 12 January 1793, Levi Carter:
To all whom these presents shall come Greeting----Know ye that we for and in consideration of the sum of Ten Pounds for every hundred acres hereby guaranteed paid into our Treasury by Levi Carter, have given and granted and by these presents do give and grant unto the said Levi Carter, a tract of land containing one hundred and seventy-five acres, (175A) lying and being in our County of Greene, on both sides of Lick Creek. Beginning at the mouth of Punching Camp Creek at a beech, then North 92 poles to an ash, then East 130 poles to two hickories, then South 32 poles to a white oak, then East 25 poles to a post oak, then South 154 poles to a white oak, then West 155 poles to a white oak, then North 94 poles to the beginning; do by the plot hereunto doth appear together with all woods, waters, mines, minerals, hereditaments, appurtanances to the said land belonging pertaining to hold to the said Levi Carter, his heirs and assigns forever, yielding and paying to us such sums of money yearly or otherwise as our General Assembly from time to time may direct. Provided always that the said Levi Carter shall cause this grant to be Registered in the Register's Office of our said County of Greene, within the time limited by law, otherwise the same shall be void and of no effect. In testimony whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patent and our Great to be hereunto affixed.
Witness: Richard Dobbs Spaight, Esquire, our Governor Captain General and Commander in Chief, at Newburn, the 12th day of January in the 17th year of our Independence and in the year of our Lord 1793. Signed: J. Glasgow, Secretary. Richard Dobbs Spaight [A pole was equal to 16.5 feet-----Tom Pratt]

Levi Carter's name appears frequently in the Greene County Court minutes from 1783- , as well as that of Abraham, James, Joseph, and Daniel. Caleb and Levi are named in 1784, in court cases as plaintiff or defendant; or to register an earmark for their hogs; jury lists; or appointments. In August 1786, "Ordered that a road be laid off from Babbs Mill to the County line below Swan Ponds", and named Joseph Carter, Abraham Carter, Levi Carter and nine other men to view, mark, and report to the November Court. This was the year 1786, that Levi Carter's son, our Elijah Carter was born. [When the text says our Elijah Carter, Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger is referring to Elijah as her direct line.-----Tom Pratt]

In December 1784, the State of Franklin was organized; and Southwest Territory (South of Ohio) was formed to provide state or territorial government for Washington, Sullivan and Greene counties. Carter Station Campgrounds date back to September 20, 1787, at which time one of the church founders, Joseph Carter received a land grant from the State of North Carolina. A Chrsitain Society was organized in 1790 and an outdoor preaching place was built on the hill in the present Carter's Station cemetery. Traveling circuit riders preached at Carter Station in the early years, and services were held there until the Great Revival Era near the turn of the century. Shortly after 1800, a church, 40 x 30 was built of hewed pine logs, two-story covered with boards and had but one window. Two local ministers, the Rev. Benjamin Van Pelt, and Rev. Benjamin Williams served the church for many years. The latter is buried on the camp meeting ground. The Van Pelt home on Lick Creek was a favorite stopping place for Bishop Francis Asbury when he visited the area. This famous camp meeting site, had a large shed early in the century. A second shed was built in 1847--"the best in East Tennessee". In 1836, nine additional acres was purchased for camp meetings. In 1878 the present building was erected. "The present congregation at Carter's Station; United Methodist Church (formerly Albany) is striving to fulfill their obligation to God and to the founders of Old Carter's Station, and pledge to keep in service that which in trust has been passed down to them.
Carter's were numerous in America at the time of the first census, 1790, as number 63, appearing 651 times. In 1805, Levi Carter and Peter Cassel were on the tax rolls in Greene County, Tennessee. A newspaper article about Carter Station United Methodist Church, "Early white settlers from New Jersey, by way of Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Surrey County North Carolina, came upon a fortified Indian Village, made peace with the Indians and established a settlers fort in 1783. Many of the settlers and members of their families and their descendants are buried in the cemetery near the site of the fort. The first person buried was a Mr. Hardin whose mocassins became entangled in the brush of a cane-brake on the north side of Lick Creek when he was overtaken by the (Cherokee) Indians, and killed." (Greeneville Tennessee Sun, newspaper, 25 July 1979.)

The 1805 Camp meeting at Carter's Station began 23 August 1805, and lasted four (4) days. 10,000 people came. The families camped. (Greeneville Tennessee first newspaper in 1805.)

1796 State of Tennessee Created
The State of Tennessee is rooted in the Watauga Association, a 1772 frontier pact generally regarded as the first constitutional government west of the Appalachians. What is now Tennessee was initially part of North Carolina, and later part of the Southwest Territory. Tennessee was admitted to the Union as the 16th state on June 1, 1796.

Birthblock for John Hartley
Since his wife Rachel (CARTER) was born around 1773 and that conclusion is flimsy at best relying on an 1850 census age where she could have had memory problems and really didn't know when she was born, after all in the same census she didn't know where she was born. I would guess he was born before her.

1830-1840-1850 Can't find him in any of those census records.

Further research needed
Other than their marriage record, a few tax lists and an inhabitant report in 1827 in Monroe County, Tennessee we really don't have much on this family.

Further research dictates checking the Greene County, Tennessee deed books to find out when John sold his property in Greene County. Checking the Monroe County, Tennessee deed books should reveal when and where he bought property in Monroe County around 1825-1827.

Also, checking the same deed records in Monroe County to see when he sold any property, either him or Rachel. This might reveal his death.

Check the local newspapers in Monroe County to see if there are any mention of his death. Checking the local cemeteries might yield a burial location.

Children from this marriage were:

1777 Washington County, North Carolina is created
The Johnson City-Jonesborough-Washington County region has a colorful and fascinating history. The county was established in 1777 as Washington County, North Carolina and was named in honor of General George Washington while the Revolutionary War was underway. At that time, "Washington County" included the geographic area that later became the entire State of Tennessee. The county also was part of the "State of Franklin" from 1784 through 1788 (an attempt to create the fourteenth state) prior to Tennessee becoming a state in 1796.

Levi and other Carters, (John Sr.; Joseph; Caleb Sr.; and Nathan) were traced together from New Jersey to Greene County, Tennessee, maybe brothers. Also, David and Ephraim. In 1772, Caleb Carter Sr., claimed 400A of land in Monongalia County, Virginia. Two years prior to the Revolution, they served in Lord Dunmore's War.
The document, "Captain Zackquil Morgan's Roll", p. 19-20 with seventy-six names, days served, and pay, dated 4 Oct 1775, included these names:
Levi (Levi) Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Caleb Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Joseph Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0

Levi (Levi) possibly about 40 years of age, had an active frontier life like others of his generation, and was fully capable of withstanding the hardships of military service. During this time, 1775-1777, Levi Carter had land on Indian Creek, at the mouth of LeMasters Run, near present day Arnettsville. The town was Point Marion, Virginia, where Monongalia and the Cheat River meet. (see map)

Levi Carter and John Carter Sr. both served two months at Pickett's Fort, located on the Monongalia River about twenty miles south of present Morgantown, Virginia. They were under the command of Capt. William Haymond and Lt. Morgan Morgan. This document preserved by the Haymond family, carries the title of "Pay Roll of Capt. William Haymond's Company of Monongalia County Militia", from the 15th of April until the 12th of June 1777. Twenty eight names were on the payroll. [Gwathmey's "Historical Register of Virginians in the Revolution", page 134.]

Later in 1777, Carter's moved south through the Shenandoah Valley Appalachian Mountains, to Surrey County, northwest North Carolina just south of the Virginia line, where Levi Sr., Caleb, Jesse, Nathaniel, John and others are listed as soldiers from North Carolina. (Allen, Penelope Johnson,"Tennessee Soldiers in the Revolution", p17.)

The Carter's of Washington and Sullivan counties, North Carolina (Greene County, TN. by 1783) were included in 1780-81 "Inventory of Taxable Property of the Twelfth District in the Present Circulating Currancy" from Washington County, North Carolina.
Abraham, oldest son of John Carter Sr.; Caleb Carter Sr., not Levi's son; John Carter; Joseph Carter; and Levi Carter Sr.

They paid taxes until the 1783 Land Act by North Carolina, when each Carter head filed a claim for a given number of acres. Levi Carter, Sr. and John Carter, Sr. with adjoining tracts of land on Lick Creek Possessed no more than squatters rights------ built a Fort (Carter Fort), planted a crop, and tried to obtain a deed.

A historical marker "John Carter established a settlement in 1783" at Carter's Station in Greene County, Tennessee, located 8 miles northwest of Greeneville on Hwy. 70, near the old Albany Post Office. Originally it was on the old Babbs Mill Wagon Road that ran east and west through Greene county from near Rheatown to the Hawkins county line near Bull's Gap. Carter's built their fort on present-day site of Carter's Station and Cemetery, where they fought the Cherokee Indians at Lookout Mountain. It was an intensive battle and lasted nearly a decade, with the whites prevailing.

[It should be noted that this battle which took ten years; the Cherokees fighting for their survival, the Carters seeking more land ensued bitter resentment on both sides of the conflict. When three of Jesse Carter Sr's children married Cherokees, my 3ggrandmother...Nancy (CARTER) married Henry Pratt son of a Cherokee chief, in 1820, her father; Jesse disowned all of them and left them out of his will.-Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009]

A Revolutionary War voucher made out to Levi Carter, State of North Carolina, No. 3538 was for L12:3. The auditors for the counties of Washington and Sullivan, North Carolina, certified that Levi Carter received in account twelve pounds, three shillings, dated 12 June 1783.

The Carter's of Surry County, North Carolina, had supported the Revolution in both Virginia and North Carolina, while living on Indian lands, and had contributed soldiers to the cause. The King's proclamation in 1763, forbid white settlement west of the Appalachian Divide, so they were vulnerable to severe punishment by the British. Local Tories could identify the Carter's as enemies of the King, and soon after 1782, the Carter Patriarch's reached the conclusion that they could save their families by migrating en masse with the other threatened families to the Watauga-Tennessee Valley frontier. Some of the Carter's in the War lived long enough to apply for a Revolutionary War pension about 1830, and gave New Jersey as their birthplace.

These claims along Lick Creek were entered in North Carolina books during 1783-84, but four to ten years passed before receiving a full title. No sooner than the ink was dry on the original claim, ownership began to change by way of sales and purchases, gifts to children or other relatives, and by bequests to heirs. The original surveys and plats of Carter land grants are in North Carolina State Archives at Raleigh.

1793 Father's Greene County, Tennessee Property Transaction

State of North Carolina, No. #1238 12 January 1793, Levi Carter:
To all whom these presents shall come Greeting----Know ye that we for and in consideration of the sum of ten Pounds for every hundred acres hereby guaranteed paid into our Treasury by Levi Carter, have given and granted and by these presents do give and grant unto the said Levi Carter, a tract of land containing one hundred and seventy-five acres, (175A) lying and being in our County of Greene, on both sides of Lick Creek. Beginning at the mouth of Punching Camp Creek at a beech, then North 92 poles to an ash, then East 130 poles to two hickories, then South 32 poles to a white oak, then East 25 poles to a post oak, then South 154 poles to a white oak, then West 155 poles to a white oak, then North 94 poles to the beginning; do by the plot hereunto doth appear together with all woods, waters, mines, minerals, hereditaments, appurtenances to the said land belonging pertaining to hold to the said Levi Carter, his heirs and assigns forever, yielding and paying to us such sums of money yearly or otherwise as our General Assembly from time to time may direct. Provided always that the said Levi Carter shall cause this grant to be Registered in the Register's Office of our said County of Greene, within the time limited by law, otherwise the same shall be void and of no effect. In testimony whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patent and our Great to be hereunto affixed. Witness: Richard Dobbs Spaight, Esquire, our Governor Captain General and Commander in Chief, at Newburn, the 12th day of January in the 17th year of our Independence and in the year of our Lord 1793. Signed: J. Glasgow, Secretary. Richard Dobbs Spaight

[A pole was equal to 16.5 feet-----Floyd Thomas Pratt]

Levi Carter's name appears frequently in the Greene County Court minutes from 1783- , as well as that of Abraham, James, Joseph, and Daniel. Caleb and Levi are named in 1784, in court cases as plaintiff or defendant; or to register an earmark for their hogs; jury lists; or appointments. In August 1786, "Ordered that a road be laid off from Babbs Mill to the County line below Swan Ponds", and named Joseph Carter , Abraham Carter, Levi Carter and nine other men to view, mark, and report to the November Court. This was the year 1786, that Levi Carter's son, our Elijah Carter was born. [When the text says our Elijah Carter, Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger is referring to Elijah as her direct line.-----Tom Pratt]

In December 1784, the State of Franklin was organized; and Southwest Territory (South of Ohio) was formed to provide state or territorial government for Washington, Sullivan and Greene counties. Carter Station Campgrounds date back to September 20, 1787, at which time one of the church founders, Joseph Carter received a land grant from the State of North Carolina. A Chrsitian Society was organized in 1790 and an outdoor preaching place was built on the hill in the present Carter's Station cemetery. Traveling circuit riders preached at Carter Station in the early years, and services were held there until the Great Revival Era near the turn of the century. Shortly after 1800, a church, 40 x 30 was built of hewed pine logs, two-story covered with boards and had but one window. Two local ministers, the Rev. Benjamin Van Pelt, and Rev. Benjamin Williams served the church for many years. The latter is buried on the camp meeting ground. The Van Pelt home on Lick Creek was a favorite stopping place for Bishop Francis Asbury when he visited the area. This famous camp meeting site, had a large shed early in the century. A second shed was built in 1847--“the best in East Tennessee”. In 1836, nine additional acres was purchased for camp meetings. In 1878 the present building was erected. “The present congregation at Carter’s Station; United Methodist Church (formerly Albany) is striving to fulfill their obligation to God and to the founders of Old Carter's Station, and pledge to keep in service that which in trust has been passed down to them.

Carter's were numerous in America at the time of the first census, 1790, as number 63, appearing 651 times. In 1805, Levi Carter and Peter Cassel were on the tax rolls in Greene County, Tennessee. A newspaper article about Carter Station United Methodist Church, "Early white settlers from New Jersey, by way of Pennyslvania, Virginia, and Surrey County North Carolina, came upon a fortified Indian Village, made peace with the Indians and established a settlers fort in 1783. Many of the settlers and members of their families and their descendants are buried in the cemetery near the site of the fort. The first person buried was a Mr. Hardin whose mocassins became entangled in the brush of a cane-brake on the north side of Lick Creek when he was overtaken by the (Cherokee) Indians, and killed." (Greeneville Tennessee Sun, newspaper, 25 July 1979.)

The 1805 Camp meeting at Carter's Station began 23 August 1805, and lasted four (4) days. 10,000 people came. The families camped. (Greeneville Tennessee first newspaper in 1805.)

This put an extreme hardship on the Cherokees and Gold was one of the reasons the white settlers wanted to remove them from their land. Let's Get the Facts Straight
By Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

The CONFLICT

I keep running across several sources written by researchers who do not seem to have a firm grasp of the facts. I suppose it depends on your sympathies as to who you wish to side.
When I began my pursuit of my Cherokee ancestry, I read over 45 books covering their early European ancestry their divine guidance to the South American continent and eventually their migration through North America eventually occupying most of the eastern portion of the United States.

In my pursuit of my Cherokee ancestry, I discovered other authors writing books with a lack of truth and facts maybe due to ignorance, or their failure to research, nevertheless one such example follows.

First, in order to explain the story, you the reader needs to be acquainted with the Carter family background.

A large family of Carters reportedly coming from Wales to Gloucester County, New Jersey begins this conflict. There is a large contingent of researchers including myself who feel that my 5th Great Grandfather; Levi Carter Sr. may have been born in New Jersey in 1736.

Levi with brothers John, Nathan, Caleb, and Joseph, sibling identity has not been proven left New Jersey and settled for a while in Pennsylvania around the 1760's, as they pushed into the wilderness of North America engaging in warfare with native populations.

They left Pennsylvania and began purchasing land in Monongahela and Preston Counties of Virginia what is now West Virginia. They lived in the area and continued their warlike behavior with the natives.

Living in this area offered them the opportunity to join the American forces against the British and conduct war against both the British and the Cherokees which they had acquired a strong dislike.

This "might is right" attitude set the stage for years of bitter rivalry against the Cherokees. Many Carters lost their lives in that struggle and Cherokee resentment ran strong in the Carter family.

The Carters decided to move to Surry County, North Carolina where they continued their war against the British and the natives.

The Tories, loyal to the British, forced the Carter's out of Surry County and the Carter's fled for the safety of their lives and their families to the western most portion of North Carolina, which was Washington County.

Washington County after the Revolutionary War became Greene County, Tennessee in 1783.

The following collaborates this.

The following is from, "Family History of Levi Carter, Descendants and Allied Families", by Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger, © 1991, Pages 3,5,9,10,11,14.

_Levy (Levi) possibly about 40 years of age, had an active frontier life like others of his generation, and was fully capable of withstanding the hardships of military service. During this time, 1775-1777, Levi Carter had land on Indian Creek, at the mouth of LeMasters Run, near present day Arnettsville. The town was Point Marion, Virginia, where Monongalia River and the Cheat River meet._

_Levi Carter and John Carter Sr. both served two months at Pickett's Fort, located on the Monongalia River about twenty miles south of present Morgantown, Virginia. They were under the command of Capt. William Haymond and Lt. Morgan Morgan._
Later in 1777, Carter's moved south through the Shenandoah Valley Appalachian Mountains, to Surrey County, northwest North Carolina just south of the Virginia line, where Levi Sr., Caleb, Jesse, Nathaniel, John and others are listed as soldiers from North Carolina. (Allen, Penelope Johnson, "Tennessee Soldiers in the Revolution", p17.)

Also, from the same source...

The Carter's of Surry County, North Carolina, had supported the Revolution in both Virginia and North Carolina, while living on Indian lands, and had contributed soldiers to the cause. The King's proclamation in 1763, forbid white settlement west of the Appalachian Divide, so they were vulnerable to severe punishment by the British. Local Tories could identify the Carter's as enemies of the King, and soon after 1782, the Carter Patriarch's reached the conclusion that they could save their families by migrating en masse with the other threatened families to the Watauga-Tennessee Valley frontier. Some of the Carter's in the War lived long enough to apply for a Revolutionary War pension about 1830, and gave New Jersey as their birthplace.

The Carter's of Washington and Sullivan counties, North Carolina (Greene County, TN. by 1783) were included in 1780-81 "Inventory of Taxable Property of the Twelfth District in the Present Circulating Currency" from Washington County, North Carolina. Abraham, oldest son of John Carter Sr.; Caleb Carter Sr., not Levi's son; John Carter; Joseph Carter; and Levi Carter Sr.

They paid taxes until the 1783 Land Act by North Carolina, when each Carter head filed a claim for a given number of acres. Levi Carter, Sr. and John Carter, Sr. with adjoining tracts of land on Lick Creek Possessed no more than squatter's rights------ built a Fort (Carter Fort), planted a crop, and tried to obtain a deed.

A historical marker "John Carter established a settlement in 1783" at Carter's Station in Greene County, Tennessee, located 8 miles northwest of Greeneville on Hwy. 70, near the old Albany Post Office. Originally it was on the old Babbs Mill Wagon Road that ran east and west through Greene County from near Rheatown to the Hawkins county line near Bull's Gap. Carter's built their fort on present-day site of Carter's Station and Cemetery, where they fought the Cherokee Indians at Lookout Mountain. It was an intensive battle and lasted nearly a decade, with the whites prevailing.

A newspaper article about Carter Station United Methodist Church, "Early white settlers from New Jersey, by way of Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Surrey County North Carolina, came upon a fortified Indian Village, made peace with the Indians and established a settlers fort in 1783".

Many of the settlers and members of their families and their descendants are buried in the cemetery near the site of the fort. The first person buried was a Mr. Hardin whose moccasins became entangled in the brush of a cane-brake on the north side of Lick Creek when he was overtaken by the (Cherokee) Indians, and killed." (Greeneville Tennessee Sun, newspaper, 25 July 1979.)

Rumor Control

As a descendant of the Cherokees that lived in that area, I cannot let writers fabricate stories about the Cherokee peoples to justify their ancestor's warlike actions.

If what the above writer said was true, that the Carters arrived near Lick Creek in newly formed Greene County, Tennessee in 1783, they made peace with the local Cherokees, then what would be the necessity of building a Fort they named Carter's Fort?
The truth is that white settlers had been forging across the Appalachian Mountains for decades in contrary to the British Crown's assurances to the Cherokee's that they, the whites would not invade native people's land.

This had been the law since the 1756 Proclamation by King George. When the Americans decided they did not want to live by the rules of England, they broke treaty and started to invade and war with the Cherokee and other native peoples, all in the pursuit of stealing their land and resources.

The British came to the Native peoples and assured them that if they, the Cherokees would fight for the British, in what the Americans called the Revolutionary War, the Crown would enforce the 1756 proclamation.

The White Americans also solicited the native peoples to fight on their side, but could not offer any reassurances or protection against white encroachment.

The natives chose the British based on the ideals of preserving their land and way of life.

Technically, they didn't care for either group of Whites or the reasons for the war, however, preserving their families against white encroachment was the foundation of their decision. The lesser of the two evils were the British, so the decision was made to support the British in the hope of preserving their life. What would you have done?

In my opinion, the wrong side won the war. If the British had won, they would have honored the treaties with ALL the natives and there would have been no genocide or "Trail of Tears".

The native's rights would have been respected and any white encroachment would have been reconciled without war, preserving the sovereignty of the native people nations.

The landscape of North America would have large patches of native people's nations under the guidance and authority of the British Crown…the native populations would have prospered and flourished.

There would be large sections of Cherokee lands, Choctaw lands, Seminole lands, Apache lands, Chickasaw lands and hundreds of other native people's land honored by treaties that the British Crown would have honored, as they had done in hundreds of other countries around the world.

The North American continent would have been one large British colony with many subcultures making up their divisions.

Many forget, that the French land sale to Jefferson in 1803 of the Louisiana Territory had a stipulation that demanded the Americans did not take native peoples land away by force and the Americans were to honor and respect the sovereignty of the Native peoples nations.

It didn't take Jackson long before he violated that portion of the contract and began making agreements with various states like, Georgia to remove and "kick out" the natives under what is now known as the Georgia Compact.

Because the Americans won the Revolutionary War, the beginning of the genocide of thousands of native tribes began and the very people who once helped and assisted those helpless Europeans were repaid by treachery, lawlessness, thievery and murder.
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

The prosperity of America today, was achieved through a century of bloodshed against the native peoples.

Even though I was not involved in the process or decisions of the 1800's activities with the native governments, I still feel ashamed for the participation that my "other" ancestors may have played in the demise of these great people.

America wears a large red stain on its garment…stained with the blood of its native children.

The War Continues…

The outcome of the Revolutionary War is well documented, however the fighting did not stop. The British and the Americans reconciled but the Carters and other whites continued their war against the Cherokees and other native populations.

As stated above, when the Carter's arrived in Greene County 1783, they arrived in the middle of a 10-year war that had been going on with the Cherokee people. They built the fort because they had to…for their safety.

The war with the Cherokees ended around 1785 due to the superior technology of the whites. Also, the whites outnumbered these small tribes and villages and could destroy a whole tribe with their weapons.

The whites would burn their crops, burn their homes and kill their livestock. Look what they did to the western tribes by destroying the buffalo.

When the Cherokees finally gave up, they lost more than the war. The Americans wanted to set an example and teach other native tribes what the consequences of war with the whites would entail.

The Cherokees once claimed land from the Ohio River to the Appalachians into South Carolina through Georgia to the Mississippi River amounting to millions of acres.

The American Government through threats of annihilation and genocide swindled the Cherokees through a hundred written treaties out of all their lands, except a few parcels of land in North Carolina and Oklahoma.

Even the land in Oklahoma was taken away from them when oil was discovered in 1897.

Carter Animosity

The Carter's had a deep hatred for the Cherokees since they had fought with them most of their lives.

Levi Carter's son; Jesse Carter Sr. married Susanna (HARMON) and raised 10 children mostly in the Greene County, Tennessee area.

The name Harmon means war-man. There are many documented stories of the Harmon's warring with the natives. The Harmon's would go out of their way to fight the natives and they enjoyed it.

Three of Jesse's children married Cherokees; daughter…Nancy married Cherokee, Henry Pratt; son…Jesse Jr. married Cherokee, Catherine (PRESLEY) and daughter…Susanna married Levi Presley another Cherokee.
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

The Presley's were from North Carolina also of native ancestry and part of the Presley family of Elvis Vernon Presley, the singer.

When Jesse Carter Sr. died in 1849, he left those three children out of his will and gave them no inheritance because they married Cherokees. Jesse's elder Carter's hatred of the people they abused, killed and stole life, limb and property transcended generations and filtered to their sons and grandsons.

Thankfully, Jesse's wife Susanna did not feel the same way and after Jesse died, Susanna gave those three children some property in Monroe and McMinn Counties before her death in 1865.

Thank goodness for the tender mercies of our wives...they may save us yet.

American's Owe a Debt

So, the next time you hear someone boasting about their pioneer ancestors and how they forged a life out of the wilderness, remember without the Powhatan natives, the Jamestown settlement would have been decimated.

The Pilgrims would not have survived without the help of natives like Samoset, who walked into their camp and in English said "Welcome" and Squanto who taught the Pilgrims how to survive!

It was the Cherokees that saved Col. Andrew Jackson in the battle with the Creeks.

It was the Cherokees that forged a new alphabet and printed their own newspaper and created a government and set up schools to teach their children higher education fashioned after the white man...who was suppose to protect them.

And it was the Cherokees that the white American government forced into concentration camps and moved them off of their land and seized everything that was of valuable.

My Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt family were victims of American "manifest destiny" and had to endure the "Trail of Tears".

So reader, when you read about how bad the native Americans were to the pioneers, remember, you are not getting the whole story.

Ask yourself this question, "If the natives of this continent were kind, friendly and generous as reported by all those who came in contact with them, especially to the first forefathers who landed on their shores...what happened to that spirit of cooperation and friendship?"

Prophecy

It is well documented in the Book of Mormon of the Savior's visit to the North American continent after his crucifixion. For centuries, prophets in the Americas prophesied about the Savior and his long awaited visitation.

After the crucifixion, for 3 days the continents in the Americas were shrouded in darkness...day and night. Then a piercing light broke through the darkness and a man descended down from the heavens.

The people fell to the earth in fear and he told them that he was the Savior that had been prophesied by their... prophets for centuries. He showed them his hands where he had been pierced by the nails and healed their sick and raised their dead and blessed all.

He set up his church in the fashion as he had done in Jerusalem, with prophets and apostles and informed them, "You are those I have spoken to the Jews, who are not of this fold, as you do not know of the Jews, there are others that neither the Jews nor you know."

After a period of time he returned to the heavens and the people wept. There was peace in the land for 400 years.

So, when Cortez landed, he was greeted by the natives as the long awaited Savior that had promised to return one day.

That fateful meeting with the Spaniards destroyed those people over a period of time through war and disease and covetousness for their life, limb and property.

Who broke the trust, who became greedy and resorted even to murdering the very people who loved them as a brother?

The architect of such hatefulness of course, is Lucifer himself.

Dilemma

My dilemma is that only Henry Pratt and his sons of my direct line ancestors are Cherokee. All the rest of my lines were French, British, German, Irish, Scottish and Welch and probably more.

So, as proud as I am of my Cherokee people and the trials and suffering they endured, I am conflicted because of my European ancestors and fear their participation in bringing about the demise of such a great and loving people.

I thank the Lord for his promise that in the last days he would raise the descendants of those people who are of native ancestry and "make them a great and mighty people," as it is written in the Book of Mormon.

Each day I live in my lifetime, I see that prophecy being fulfilled in the Hispanic peoples.

One day this land and nation shall rightfully belong to them.

Jesse married Susanna Harmon, daughter of Hance Peter Harmon Sr. and Margaret Choulyn, 9 January 1798 in Greene, Tennessee, United States. Susanna was born in 1775 near North Fork and Otter River, Bedford, Virginia, United States, died before 4 September 1865 near Sweet Water Post Office, District 1, McMinn, Tennessee, United States, and was buried in 1865 in McMinn, Tennessee, United States.

Susanna (HARMON) was born near the North Fork and of Otter River in Bedford, Virginia, United States in 1775.
2009 Parental Comment
My reasoning behind the hypothesis that Susanna (HARMON) is the daughter of Hans Peter & Margaret (CHOULYN) Harmon family is as follows:
1) Peter Harmon moved from Bedford County, Virginia when he sold the Virginia land on 4 October 1787 and purchased land in Greene County, Tennessee on 4 February 1791. Susanna is 12 to 16 years of age depending on his arrival in Tennessee.
2) Peter Harmon buys land next to Jesse Carter's brother; John Carter when he comes to Greene County, Tennessee. Therefore, Peter Harmon was familiar with the Carter family in the area.
3) Caleb Carter, Jesse Carter's oldest brother is a witness to Peter Harmon's land purchase.
4) When Peter Harmon buys the land on Roaring Fork at Lick Creek, Levi Carter and Jesse Carter also live on Lick Creek, because Levi Carter Sr. and his family helped build Carter's Station fort not far from Peter Harmon's land purchase, i.e., they were neighbors.
5) Susanna (HARMON) names a son, Peter, after her father and a daughter, Margaret after her mother and another daughter; my 3rdgrandmother, Nancy after Susanna's sister Nancy (HARMON) who married Benjamin Neal, but she does not name any son Thomas nor does any of her children name a son Thomas or George who were prominent Harmon families in the area.
Therefore, after considerable research and investigations, these are my reasons for her connection to Hans Peter & Margaret (CHOULYN) Harmon family. Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

1825 Family Move
From Greene, Tennessee, United States to Monroe, Tennessee, United States. Gold was discovered in Monroe County, the first gold discovery in American history and this transformed Monroe County into a busy location for fortune seekers. After selling his land to Abraham Weems on 25 April 1825, Jesse Carter and family moved to Monroe County. This put an extreme hardship on the Cherokees and Gold was one of the reasons the white settlers wanted to remove them from their land. 1825-1830 Family Move
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

From Greene, Tennessee, United States to Monroe, Tennessee, United States. Gold was discovered in Monroe County, the first gold discovery in American history and this transformed Monroe County into a busy location for fortune seekers. After selling his land to Abraham Weems on 25 April 1825, Jesse Carter and family moved to Monroe County. This put an extreme hardship on the Cherokees and Gold was one of the reasons the white settlers wanted to remove them from their land. 1825-1826 Family Move
From Greene, Tennessee, United States to Monroe, Tennessee, United States. Gold was discovered in Monroe County, the first gold discovery in American history and this transformed Monroe County into a busy location for fortune seekers. Henry Pratt family moved from Greene, Tennessee, United States to
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

Monroe, Tennessee, United States about the same time Nancy's parents and siblings moved to Monroe County around the time of the gold discovery in Monroe County in 1826. After selling his land to Abraham Weems on 25 April 1825, Nancy's father; Jesse Carter and family moved to Monroe County. This put an extreme hardship on the Cherokees and Gold was one of the reasons the white settlers wanted to remove them from their land. 1838 Move "Trail of Tears"
A full account of the Henry Pratt family is in my book "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee". In this book I give a full detail of the "Trail of Tears" episode and it is a lengthy discourse. Because of its length, I will not go into it here but suffice to say, due to Henry Pratt's Cherokee ancestry, the government forced him and his family on the Trail of Tears in September 1838 and they jumped the trail in March 1839 and settled first in Crawford County moving to Richwoods Twp of Washington County, Missouri by 1840.-Floyd Thomas Pratt

1840-1849 Father's Family Move
Jesse Carter Sr. moved from Regiment 27, Monroe, Tennessee, United States to 23 Subdivision of East Tennessee, McMinn, Tennessee, United States. It appears this moved was precipitated on the fact that the Cherokees were being forcefully removed from prime farmland in McMinn County and the Carter's wanted to capitalize on their misfortune. Also, strange when, Henry & Nancy were forced on the "Trail of Tears" her parents didn't go with them. I explain Jesse's reasoning for this in the book, "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee" © (2003) by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 1841-1850 Death of 1st Spouse Henry Pratt fails to show up in the 1850 census and is presumed dead. His last child was born 1842 therefore it is likely he died 1841/1850.

1841-1850 Family Move
Nancy Pratt and family moved from Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States to District 24, Crawford, Missouri, United States between 1841-1850.

1849 Death of father; Jesse Carter Sr.

I Nancy Blanton of the County of Washington and the State of Missouri wife of Absalom Blanton, and heir at law of Jesse Carter deceased, late of the County of McMinn and State of Tennessee, have this day bargained and sold and do hereby transfer and convey to John Carter and his heirs forever in consideration of the sum of eighty dollars to me paid all right title & interest of and to the tracts or parcel, of land of which the aforesaid Jesse Carter died did seized and possessed, lying and situate in the county of Monroe and State of Tennessee. On and near the waters of Bat Creek in the second township, second range east of the meridian in the county last aforesaid, to have and to hold the same to the said John Carter, his heirs and assigns forever. I do further covenant and bind myself, my heirs and assigns and representatives to warrants and defend the title for said lands to the said John Carter his heirs and assigns forever against any claim to be made by me or through or under me, but no further. In testimony wherefore I hereunto set my hand and affirm my seal this 29th October 1853. Nancy Blanton [her X mark] witnesses: James M. Johnston, William M. McClung
[It appears that after Jesse's death, Nancy's mother, wanted to make things right with the children who were left out of Jesse's inheritance. Through her son; John she awarded property to each of the children. Also, this didn't take place until Henry Pratt the Cherokee, had died. # 1800-1802 Birthblock for Henry Pratt son of Cherokee parents

Date from the 1810 census states he was born
Date from the 1820 census states he was born
Date from the 1830 census states he was born between 1800-1810.
Date from the 1840 census states he was born between 1791-1800.
[The common denominator in each census is 1800. The range of birth is from 1790-1810. I dismiss 1810 because he was married October 3, 1820, therefore he would not have married at 10 years of age. Usually men married at 18-30 range. If this was true with Henry then his birth would be from 1790-1802.

Therefore his birth could have been from 1790 to 1802. Also, most likely he married close to his age. We do know that Nancy (CARTER) was born 1802-1804, therefore Henry probably was born 1800-1802.]

Red Clay State Park, the site of the last Cherokee council before The Trail of Tears began, is located in Bradley County.

1838 Forced Move "Trail of Tears"
A full account of the Henry Pratt family is in my book "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee". In this book I give a full detail of the "Trail of Tears" episode and it is a lengthy discourse. Because of its length, I will not go into it here but suffice to say, due to Henry Pratt's Cherokee ancestry, the government forced him and his family on the "Trail of Tears" in September 1838 and they jumped the trail in March 1839 and settled first in Crawford County moving to Richwoods Twp of Washington
1939 Arrival in Missouri
After a long cold, hard winter the Pratt’s found a way to escape from their military escort and followed the creeks from the "Trail of Tears" or what is now known as highway 8 in Crawford County, Missouri and settled 12 miles north in Crawford County before moving into Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri by the 1840 census. They began to make friends with other "exiles" who were also in hiding from the government. A local family, the Rinard (Rhinehart) Kimberin(g) family befriended the Pratts and was instrumental in helping the Pratt family to adjust to their new home life. Also, the Absalom Blanton family helped the Pratts and intermarried which was Cherokee tradition. More in the book

1841 Childbirth of daughter; Matilda Jane "Janie" (PRATT) Matilda Jane “Janie” (PRATT) was born in Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States on 20 October 1841.

1841 to 1850 Death of Henry Pratt Death of Henry Pratt calculated to be between 1841 and 1850. This deduction derived from the presumption that he conceived his last known child; Matilda Jane "Janie" (PRATT) who was born according to her death certificate 20 October 1841. Going back 9 months from her birth date indicates he was alive February 1841 if... Matilda’s birth date is correct. His son; Alexander R. Pratt told his son; Carac Pratt who told his son; Orville Carac Pratt that Alexander had gone to California in 1848/1849 during the gold rush. Maybe Henry went with the group but he does not show up in the 1850 census like Alexander does. I have checked available newspapers for that time period but have found no references to Henry Pratt. One of my mentor researchers; Geraldine Mabel (MILLER) Reed said that she thought she had seen a court report in one of those books in the Crawford County Courthouse that mentioned Nancy Pratt, widow of Henry Pratt receiving a cash allotment from the County Court. She could not remember where it was or anything more about it. I looked for it when I was at the Courthouse but there are so many books...hundreds that have not been documented but just piled up in the vault that I could not cover all of them and had no time, or luck in finding any information about Henry Pratt.
Therefore, Henry Pratt could have died on his way to California or on his return to Missouri. After his death, his widow, Nancy (CARTER) Pratt moved from Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri to be near her daughter; Susanna Rebecca (PRATT) Hansel family in Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri. In 1852, Nancy married widower, Absalom Blanton in Crawford County. Regrettably, due to old age, I must leave the mystery of Henry Pratt's death for the next generation to solve.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

Name Confusion fo Henry Pratt
Concerning his name the following should be noted:

[1] In the Goodspeed's article Sarah Ann Pratt says her father's name is "John Pratt, an old honored citizen of Tennessee". Goodspeed published this article in 1888. Sarah Ann died in 1896, therefore she probably gave this information to the reporter who wrote the Goodspeed Article on John A. Blanton. (see John Anderson Blanton's notes for the article.) This is one account of a first name of John. However, most likely someone else gave this information to the reporter. Henry Pratt was never an honored citizen of Tennessee. He and his family were forced on the "Trail of Tears" due to his Cherokee ancestry.

[2] William Jesse Blanton told me that Luther Blanton, son of William Wesley Blanton, grandson of Cynthia Ann Pratt, told him that Henry Pratt's name was John Henry Pratt. Now of course, Luther wasn't born until 1881, also Henry Pratt died between 1841-1850, therefore his remembrance is strictly hearsay because Henry died 30 years before Luther was born!

[3] In the book, "A Century Passes, The Story and the City of Sullivan", 1955, Page 21: "But all was not work and war in that first decade, there was a colorful social life as well. And there were weddings then too, and large families. August 10, 1861. John A. Blanton and his wife, Sarah A., daughter of John Pratt, celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary. There were 15 children born to this union." This was written in 1955 so there is a possibility that they extracted their information from the Goodspeed's story.

[4] Darlene Schatz said that her Grandma Dace, (she would be Sarah Ann (BLANTON), daughter of Elbert Blanton, granddaughter of Henry Pratt) used the name of John Henry Pratt. Sarah Ann Blanton was born 1865, fifteen years after Henry's death. Therefore, she was not personally acquainted with Henry Pratt. Again heresay, no written evidence.

See the book "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County Tennessee" for a 15 page discussion concerning the fallacy of the John Henry Pratt name. Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

Other Pratts

Other researcher's claim that the Henry Pratt in the 1810 Washington Co., Va census had possible sons named Fulden, Oliver and Bernard. If this is true, our Henry Pratt does not name any children with those names. However, in Greene Co., Tennessee at that time was a James Pratt Sr. from North Carolina. Since Henry and his sister Cynthia both named their first son James it seems logical that James Pratt Sr. would be the direction in which to pursue research. However, what bothers me about James Pratt Sr. is...his children. Nancy (PRATT) married Robert Stuart in 1808, James Pratt Jr. married Susanna (COUCH) in 1809 and Polly (PRATT) married Jacob Harmon in 1811. These children were marrying almost 10 years before Henry Pratt was married. This makes them born about 1785-1790. Maybe James Pratt's family was large and spread out over a long period of time.

A complete dissertation on the above comments is available in the book "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee" by Floyd Thomas Pratt (2003)

Nancy next married Absalom Blanton, son of John Blanton Jr. and Mrs., 21 March 1852 in Crawford, Missouri, United States. Absalom was born from 1802 to 1805 in Knox, Kentucky, United States, died 4 March 1872 in Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States at age 69, and was buried in March 1872 in Blanton Cemetery, Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Township, Washington, Missouri, United States. They had no children.

[There is an Absalom Bunton in Sumner County Tennessee. He could be Absalom's family according to William Blanton of Norwood, MO. But, I don't think so. A few doors up is a Thomas Bunton and family. So if the Bunton was a mistake and should have been a Blanton then why two people on the same page with the same mistake? Hardly any of the age records of the Bunton family match up to Absalom's family especially the 10-14 year old daughters since Absalom was married in 1825. According to the records, Absalom was in Greene Co., TN from 1825 (married) to October 30, 1830 when he was making inventory purchases at Nathan Carter's estate settlement. So, I think Absalom was still in Greene County Tennessee but was missed by the censustakers.]

According to Elbert Sevier Blanton Sr.'s obituary, it states that his parents brought him to Missouri when he was less than a year old. This means all of Absalom’s and Cynthia’s children born after 1831-1832 were born in Missouri, because Elbert was born in 1831. However, Absalom purchased 40 acres in Franklin Co., MO in 1838. Once again Absalom managed to elude the census takers and fails to show up in Franklin County where he was living in 1840. I have a theory as to why he tried to disappear from the 1830's to the 1840's...I believe it was because his wife, Cynthia (PRATT) was a Cherokee princess as told by Blanton descendants. If she had fallen into the wrong hands during those turbulent years, she could have suffered bodily harm and her family could have been in danger. Nevertheless, Absalom Blanton & family were living outside Sullivan, Franklin, Missouri, United States by 1840. 1872 Mining Sources
"The limonite bank here is on the southern slope of the Blanton hills. The surface ore occurs in pieces and large boulders and can be traces about one hundred and fifty feet down the slope and sixty feet along the slope. On the hill above the ore, sandstone and chert in blocks and fragments occur; in the ravine or branch at the foot of the hill bedded limestone is found exposed."
[This property is located in Hamilton Hollow off of Hamilton Creek near highway 202, near the Meramec State Park in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri.]

Some rounded surface ore, mostley small, is found here, on three spurs of a low ridge. The spurs point about north and strata of solid sandstone crop out at foot of each. A hole, dug fifteen feet deep on the top of the most eastern spur passed through drifted, sandy detritus, with little ore, then struck a layer of chert. This bank is on a hill thickly covered with detritus, through which single pieces of speclar ore are unequally distributed. The ore itself is of good quality.

1977 A Pratt-Blanton Family Story
This story was related to me by multiple sources. One being, my Great Aunt Eula (RICHARDSON)
Pratt, as well as others.
The story goes, as the Blantons and Pratts were crossing Tennessee on their way to Missouri, they came to an Indian village. One of the Blanton's spotted a squaw nursing her papoose on a tree log. He boasted to another that he could shoot her off of the log at a great distance. As the wagon train left the village he shot the woman and killed her. Several miles from the village the wagon train was halted by a large group of Indians. They stated that they would kill every man, woman and child if they didn't turn over the man who had shot the Indian woman. They deliberated and turned the Blanton over to the Indians. Several miles later they saw him running for the wagon train with the Indians in pursuit. He appeared to be covered in red paint. As he got closer to the wagon train, it was apparent that the Indians had skinned him alive. The red paint was actually his own blood. He died before he reached the wagon train. As to who this Blanton was is not known. He may have been related to either the Joshua Blanton group or the Absalom Blanton group.
[It should be noted that both groups did not come west at the same time. Also, after 33 years I have found no evidence that anyone realted even remotely to the Henry Pratt family came with them when the jumped they "Trail of Tears" in Crawford County, Missouri in March 1839. For more information see my book "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee", by Floyd Thomas Pratt.]

1825 Father's Family Move
From Greene, Tennessee, United States to Monroe, Tennessee, United States. Gold was discovered in Monroe County, the first gold discovery in American history and this transformed Monroe County into a busy location for fortune seekers. After selling his land to Abraham Weems on 25 April 1825, Jesse Carter and family moved to Monroe County. This put an extreme hardship on the Cherokees and Gold was one of the reasons the white settlers wanted to remove them from their land. 1830-1837 Family Move
From Monroe, Tennessee, United States to Bradley, Tennessee, United States between 1830-1837. Looking at the deed records for Monroe County, Tennessee might shed some light on where and when Levi and Peggy bought property. If they bought property in Monore County then when Bradley County was created in 1836 they may have already been living in Bradley County so they did not actually move. However, they may have had land in Monore County, sold it and did make a physical move into Bradley County where they show up in the 1837 Monroe County Circuit Court Record Book. Having conclusive evidence as to their whereabouts when Bradley County was created in 1836 will establish the birth location of their children.

Further Research Needed
In order to find more information about this family, you will need to order the Deed Records of several counties.
[1] Greene County, Tennessee to see if Levi and Margaret bought any property and if they did when it was sold.
[2] Monroe County, Tennessee to see if Levi and Margaret bought any property and if they did when it was sold.
[3] Bradley County, Tennessee to see if Levi and Margaret bought any property and if they did when it was sold.

These microfilms can be ordered at the Family History Centers of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints located in cities around the world. Go to the website...www.lds.org and you will be able to find the nearest one near you.

After locating those properties, then comes the fun part. Going to those counties on a road trip and finding the old homesteads. Check with the local libraries for books already written about your ancestors...especially LEvi and Margaret with finding her maiden name as a priority.

Check with local newspapers in the counties where they died to see if there were any death notices or obits when they died. I am sure the local papers in Bradley County were buzzing with the circumstances about Levi's death.

Walking over the property that your ancestors owned and/or lived, is a thrill that can not be described.

I am sure Margaret's maiden name will be discovered.

Email from Carol Lee spwrc@suddenlink.net 20 August 2010
Hi Floyd, I came across an account of the "Rebellion in Bradley County, East Tennessee" and there is a chapter on the murder of a Levi Carter and his son Robert. This happened 27 Sep 1863 in the 9th District of Bradley County. I went back through the historical information from when your tree was public, and also through all of your old posts and notes on genealogy.com during 2006 looking to see what others may have reported about his place of death. At least one ancestry.com tree places Levi in Bradley County at the time of his death. Is it possible that this is the Levi, son of Jesse Carter (1774-1850; my 4th great grandfather)?
I wonder what your thoughts might be. I've never heard mention of this murder anywhere before. I'll send you the link if you need it. Thank you, Carol Lee

Carol, I have read the account from the book "History of the Rebellion in Bradley County, East Tennessee" by J. S. Hurlburt (1866), pages 245-256 concerning the murders of Levi and Robert Carter on the 27th of September 1863.

I am appalled, as always by the inhumanity men can display towards their fellow brother and call it

To recap, Levi Carter is the son of Jesse Sr & Susannah (HARMON) Carter, my 4th Great Grandparents, thus making Levi my 3rd Great Great Uncle.
The account of this murder is not for the faint of heart. I do not recommend anyone reading this account that has a tender or loving spirit. It will be too hard to take.
There are so many accounts throughout the history of man with examples of this kind of murderous hatefulness towards their fellow man especially during periods of war.
After reading the story, with a heavy heart, I submit an error on the author's report.
On page 256, 2nd paragraph, he states, "Mrs. Carter, made a widow and bereft of her son by this talismanic butchery, died about a year after, measurably from the grief and mental bewilderment of being the victim of such a tragedy."
He is referring to Levi's wife Margaret or Peggy ( ) Carter.
However, obviously he is reporting what someone else had told him without personal knowledge because, Margaret shows up in the 1870 census of Mc Minn County, Tennessee.

1870 Federal Census

CARTER, Margaret w f 60; Ellen w f 23; Margaret w f 7 [All born in Tennessee. Living next door to son; John [37] & Selina [34] (GRUBB) Carter family.]
Margaret died after the 1870 census date and before the 1880 census date.
Concerning Robert's wife; I have no information about her. Not that there isn't information out there but I have not researched that family.
I am sorry that you found out about Levi and Robert in this manner. All I knew, was that Levi died between the census dates.
One of the pitfalls of family history research is the dirty little secrets that you stumble across that shows your "heroes" were not honorable or good and just men...or they were the victims of these dishonorable reprobates.
I can't really say..thank you for sharing that with me, and it grieves me that you had to find out about it that way, but in the sense of finding out what really happened to your ancestors, sometimes we must wade through the worse that humanity offers.
Let me know what more you need from me...your cousin,

Carol, thank you for your check. Now I need to know exactly what you are wanting. If you want an ancestor's disc, then I would need to know where you tie into the Carters. The program then runs a report on all your ancestors in my files...as far as I have records. If you want also a Carter descendancy report, then I can generate a 3 generation report from Levi Carter Sr. down each of his children to his grandchildren with all the notes and sources I have. Since you were so generous, I can give you 4 or 5 generations but I need to know who your direct lines are. Floyd

Good morning Floyd, I would like both if it is not a drain on your resources.
My mother was Mary Estelle Carter b. Chattanooga, TN 30 Nov 1914. Died in Meadville, Crawford, PA 7 Jun 1970.
Her father was John Henegar Carter (1885, McMinn, TN - 1945, Hamilton, TN).
His father was Isaac Buchanan (1859, McMinn, TN - 1905)
I.B.’s father was John H. Carter (1832, Monroe, TN - died bet 1920-1930 in TN)
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

John H. Carter’s father was Levi Presley Carter
Levi Presley’s father was Jesse Carter, Sr. (1774-1849)
Jesse Carter, Sr.’s father was Levi Carter, Sr. (1736-1740 to 22 April 1811).
I’m not positive, but I believe Levi Carter (Sr.’s) father was John Carter Sr. (abt 1695 in NJ-1762 in NJ) who married Sarah Packer. I don’t have any information beyond this.
Many thanks, Carol

Levi married Margaret "Peggy" from 1825 to 1830. Margaret was born in 1809 in Tennessee, United States and died from 1870 to 1880 near Athens Post Office, 9th District, McMinn, Tennessee, United States at age 61.

1830-1837 Family Move
From Monroe, Tennessee, United States to Bradley, Tennessee, United States between 1830-1837. Looking at the deed records for Monroe County, Tennessee might shed some light on where and when Levi and Peggy bought property. If they bought property in Monore County then when Bradley County was created in 1836 they may have already been living in Bradley County so they did not actually move. However, they may have had land in Monore County, sold it and did make a physical move into Bradley County where they show up in the 1837 Monroe County Circuit Court Record Book. Having conclusive evidence as to their whereabouts when Bradley County was created in 1836 will establish the birth location of their children.

1870-1880 Burial of Margaret "Peggy" (?) Carter
Checking the Bradley County Deed records should reveal their homestead location and checking the cemeteries around that location might reveal the burial location. Also, if not found in a cemetery, check the home property to see if there is a family cemetery on the property. I figure Levi and Margaret are probably buried together.

Further Research Needed
In order to find more information about this family, you will need to order the Deed Records of several counties.
[1] Greene County, Tennessee to see if Levi and Margaret bought any property and if they did when it was sold.
[2] Monroe County, Tennessee to see if Levi and Margaret bought any property and if they did when it was sold.
[3] Bradley County, Tennessee to see if Levi and Margaret bought any property and if they did when it was sold.

These microfilms can be ordered at the Family History Centers of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints located in cities around the world. Go to the website...www.lds.org and you will be able to find the nearest one near you.

After locating those properties, then comes the fun part. Going to those counties on a road trip and finding the old homesteads. Check with the local libraries for books already written about your ancestors...especially LEvi and Margaret with finding her maiden name as a priority.

Check with local newspapers in the counties where they died to see if there were any death notices or obits when they died. I am sure the local papers in Bradley County were buzzing with the circumstances about Levi’s death.
Walking over the property that your ancestors owned and/or lived, is a thrill that can not be described.

I am sure Margaret's maiden name will be discovered.

1823-1825 Marriage of Henderson Trimm and Margaret (CARTER)
Henderson Trimm and Margaret (CARTER) were married 1823-1825 probably in Greene County or Monroe County Tennessee. If Margaret was 10 years old in 1820 then I would imagine Margaret would have been married between ages 13-15. This would place the marriage date between 1823-1825.

1821-1825 Childbirth of unidentified 1st Daughter; (TRIMM)
She is listed in the 1830 census aged 5-9, probably more of age 5 than 9. If her mother was 10 years old in 1820 then I would imagine Margaret would have been married between ages 13-15. This would place the marriage date between 1823-1825 and this daugher's birth about a year thereafter.

1822-1823 Family Move
Since Jesse Carter Sr. family moved to Monroe County from Greene County then it follows suit that Henderson & Margaret (CARTER) Trimm's family also moved to Monroe County.

Jesse Carter Sr.'s Will probated in McMinn County, Tennessee, Probate Court, Will probated 10 March 1852.

1852-1860 Death of Margaret (CARTER) Trimm
Margaret (CARTER) Trimm died in 23rd Subdivision, McMinn, Tennessee, United States after 10 March 1852 father's estate settlement date where she is mentioned and before the 1860 census date.

Margaret married Henderson Trim, son of Henderson Trim and Martha Baldwin, from 1821 to 1823. Henderson was born from 1791 to 1800 and died from 1848 to 1850 in 23rd Subdivision, McMinn, Tennessee, United States at age 57.

1823-1825 Marriage of Henderson Trim and Margaret (CARTER)
Henderson Trim and Margaret (CARTER) were married 1823-1825 probably in Greene County or Monroe County Tennessee. If Margaret was 10 years old in 1820 then I would imagine Margaret would have been married between ages 13-15. This would place the marriage date between 1823-1825.

1821-1825 Childbirth of unidentified 1st Daughter; (TRIMM)
She is listed in the 1830 census aged 5-9, probably more of age 5 than 9. If her mother was 10 years old in 1820 then I would imagine Margaret would have been married between ages 13-15. This would place the marriage date between 1823-1825 and this daugher's birth about a year thereafter.

1822-1823 Family Move
Since Jesse Carter Sr. family moved to Monroe County from Greene County then it follows suit that Henderson & Margaret (CARTER) Trim's family also moved to Monroe County.
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

1835-1836 Marriage of Jesse Carter Jr. and Catherine (PRESLEY)
Jesse Carter Jr. and Catherine (PRESLEY) were married 1835-1836.

Family Move
Without knowing who Catherine's father was, we can not determine where they were married. After checking the Greene County, Tennessee Marriages we can eliminate that location. The only clue we have is when son, Nathan Carter died on 9 August 1852 his parents listed his age as 5 (1847) and he was born in Robertson County, Tennessee. Shortly after Nathan's birth (1847) it appears they moved to District No. 1, Union County, Kentucky. Checking the 1840 census for Robertson County did not reveal a Jesse Carter family. There were many Presley families but we don't know if they even married in Robertson County. Therefore, due to her native heritage, they obviously were not welcomed in Monroe or McMinn county as evident from Jesse Sr. leaving them out of his estate settlement, they left the area for a better life. Unless we can locate one of their children's death certificates, we won't know were a majority of them were born. And again, checking the Monroe, McMinn and Robertson County deed records might reveal Jesse Jr.'s property purchases. Don't get him confused with his father who was still alive up until August 1849.

1825 Family Move
From Greene, Tennessee, United States to Monroe, Tennessee, United States. Gold was discovered in Monroe County, the first gold discovery in American history and this transformed Monroe County into a busy location for fortune seekers. After selling his land to Abraham Weems on 25 April 1825, Jesse Carter and family moved to Monroe County. This put an extreme hardship on the Cherokees and Gold was one of the reasons the white settlers wanted to remove them from their land. For a more comprehensive report see the book "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee" (2003) by

1896 Death of Permelia (HAYMES) Carter
Permelia (HAYMES) Carter died in either Mooney Twp, Polk, Missouri, United States or Dallas, Missouri, United States on 28 March 1896.

[Unknown where I got this date but since all the children have full dates then it looks like from a family bible. Permelia (HAYMES) Carter was living with her daughter's family since the death of husband John Carter in 1868. Since The Mallard's moved to Webster, Missouri, United States by the 1900 census then either Permelia died in Polk County, Dallas County or Webster County, Missouri because she is not with the Mallard's in the 1900 census.]

1825 Family Move
From Greene, Tennessee, United States to Monroe, Tennessee, United States. Gold was discovered in Monroe County, the first gold discovery in American history and this transformed Monroe County into a busy location for fortune seekers. After selling his land to Abraham Weems on 25 April 1825, Jesse Carter and family moved to Monroe County. This put an extreme hardship on the Cherokees and Gold was one of the reasons the white settlers wanted to remove them from their land. For a more comprehensive report see the book "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee" (2003) by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

Greene County, Tennessee, Court of Common Pleas and Quarter Sessions (1814-1818), Book 19, Page 151, 25 April 1825
Jesse Carter of Greene County sold to Abraham Weems 100 acres for $400 on Puncheon Camp Creek on April 25, 1825. Part of a 1787 land patent. Signed Jesse Carter his mark. Witnesses: Joseph Carter and George Weems. April session 1826. Registered April 30, 1838.

1825 Family Move
From Greene, Tennessee, United States to Monroe, Tennessee, United States. Gold was discovered in Monroe County, the first gold discovery in American history and this transformed Monroe County into a busy location for fortune seekers. After selling his land to Abraham Weems on 25 April 1825, Jesse Carter and family moved to Monroe County. This put an extreme hardship on the Cherokees and Gold was one of the reasons the white settlers wanted to remove them from their land. For a more comprehensive report see the book "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee" (2003) by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

1840-1842 Death or divorce of unidentified 1st wife 1st wife alive in the 1840 census, but husband remarries on 3 March 1842 to Jarusha (DOBBS) in McMinn County, Tennessee. Therefore, the wife born between 1811-1820 has disapeared and husband, Peter has taken a second wife. The reason I suggest that maybe they divorced is because in the 1850 census, Peter does not show any sons born before his second marriage. This would indicate that either the boys died when their mother did between 1840-1842 or the mother took the boys with her, or the boys are living with relatives.

1863 Military Participation
My notes under Peter T. Carter by Wanda (WEDGE) Greathouse
[1] On May 1, 1863, Peter Carter, who gave his age as forty, and son John L. sixteen years, joined the Union Army at Pattonsburg with CO F. 11th Missouri Calvary for three years. During their time of service, they, along with Alma Talley, step-son and son-in-law Peter were captured by the confederates under the command of Major General Sterling Price. On Oct. 2, 1864, They signed statements to the effect they would not take up arms against the confederate states or perform any military service in the army of the US until exchanged as prisoners of war. However, after their parole they rejoined the Union Army. They were charged with desertion when they were captured. Peter, grandson of Revolutionary War Veteran, Levy Carter died in January 1882 and was buried in the Webb Cemetery.

1863 Spouse's Military Participation
My notes under Peter T. Carter by Wanda (WEDGE) Greathouse
[1] On May 1, 1863, Peter Carter, who gave his age as forty, and son John L. sixteen years, joined the Union Army at Pattonsburg with CO F. 11th Missouri Calvary for three years. During their time of service, they, along with Alma Talley, step-son and son-in-law Peter were captured by the confederates under the command of Major General Sterling Price. On Oct. 2, 1864, They signed statements to the effect they would not take up arms against the confederate states or perform any military service in the army of the US until exchanged as prisoners of war. However, after their parole they rejoined the Union Army. They were charged with dissertation when they were captured. Peter, grandson of Revolutionary War Veteran, Levy Carter died in January 1882 and was buried in the Webb Cemetery.

Jesse Carter of Greene County sold to Abraham Weems 100 acres for $400 on Puncheon Camp Creek on April 25, 1825. Part of a 1787 land patent. Signed Jesse Carter his mark. Witnesses: Joseph Carter and George Weems. April session 1826. Registered April 30, 1838.

1825 Family Move
From Greene, Tennessee, United States to Monroe, Tennessee, United States. Gold was discovered in Monroe County, the first gold discovery in American history and this transformed Monroe County into a busy location for fortune seekers. After selling his land to Abraham Weems on 25 April 1825, Jesse Carter and family moved to Monroe County. This put an extreme hardship on the Cherokees and Gold was one of the reasons the white settlers wanted to remove them from their land. [This census is questionable. If Lewis M. Carter and Elizabeth (FORSHEE) were married on 15 June 1841 then how and why are they in Jefferson County in the 1840 census? Either, they were married before the census date and or this is not them. Another thing, why would they be in Jefferson County when Lewis and parents were in Monroe County? Elizabeth’s parents, John & Louisa (ALLEN) Forshee were in the 1830 & 1840 census of Monroe County so it would be logical that Monroe County was where they would be married. Also, Jefferson County is up by Greene County not anywhere near Monroe County. Too many questions not enough answers. In the 1840 census of his father...Jesse Sr. & Susanna (HARMON) Carter, they don't have any children living with them, unless Lewis was living with a brother or someone else. So, I don't really think this is them.]

1854-1860 Marriage of Lewis M. Carter and Lafrisha Jane (PARKS)
Since Lewis and family were neighbors only a few houses away from the Robert & Hettie (COOK) Parks family where Lafrisha Jane (PARKS) was living in the 1850 census, in all probability Lewis and Jane were married in or around Sweetwater, Monroe County, Tennessee. Probably at her parent's house. Since son; Chesley A. Carter was born in November 1860, nine months prior to that date would be his conception date of March 1860. So, their marriage date would have been before March 1860...we hope.

Loudon Co.

Lewis married Elizabeth Forshee, daughter of John Forshee and Louisa J. Allen, 15 June 1841 in Monroe, Tennessee, United States. Elizabeth was born in 1821 in Monroe, Tennessee, United States and died from 1854 to 1859 near Sweetwater, Monroe, Tennessee, United States at age 33.

1840 Federal Census age 19
Since I could not find any children living with John and Louisa (ALLEN) Forshee in the 1840 census, then there is a possibility that Elizabeth (FORSHEE) age 19 at this census date could have been married. In other words, Forshee may have been a previously married name not her maiden name for Elizabeth and she was a widow when she married Lewis M. Carter in 1841. This brings us to the Lewis Carter census of Jefferson County, Tennessee.

[This census is questionable. If Lewis M. Carter and Elizabeth (FORSHEE) were married on 15 June 1841 then how and why are they in Jefferson County in the 1840 census? Either, they were married before the census date and/or this is not them. Another thing, why would they be in Jefferson County when Lewis and parents were in Monroe County? Elizabeth’s parents, John & Louisa (ALLEN) Forshee were in the 1830 & 1840 census of Monroe County so it would be logical that Monroe County was where they would be married. Also, Jefferson County is up by Greene County not anywhere near Monroe County. Too many questions not enough answers. In the 1840 census of his father...Jesse Sr.
& Susanna (HARMON) Carter, they don't have any children living with them, unless Lewis was living with a brother or someone else. So, I don't really think this is them.]

1854-1859 Death of Elizabeth (FORSHEE) Carter
Elizabeth (FORSHEE) Carter died near Sweetwater, Monroe County, Tennessee after the birth of son; Evan S. Carter in 1854 and before her spouse's marriage to Lefrishe Jane (PARKS) definately before March 1860...the conception date of Lewis and Jane's son; Chesley A. Carter.

Lewis next married Lefrishe Jane Parks, daughter of Robert Parks and Lucinda Henslee, from 1854 to 1859. Lefrishe was born 11 July 1827 in Monroe, Tennessee, United States, died 14 September 1921 in Civil District 3 (Eave Mill), Monroe, Tennessee, United States at age 94, and was buried in September 1921 in Buckner Memorial Methodist Church Cemetery, Hiwassee College, Monroe, Tennessee, United States.

Date from the 1920 census states she was born 1824 in Tennessee.
Date from the death certificate states she was born
Date from the headstone states she was born 11 July 1827.
Date from the obituary states she was born
Even though she was consistent with the 1830-1836 birth date range in the census records, the headstone states she was born 11 July 1827. The key to unlocking her actual birthdate and place is the 1830 census which, I have not been able to locate for her father. Checking the Caswell County, North Carolina deed records might reveal his last sold property in Caswell County and checking the Monroe County, Tennessee deed records might reveal his first property purchase giving us a better understanding as to when they arrived in Tennessee.

Since Lewis and family were neighbors only a few houses away from the Robert & Hettie (COOK) Parks family where Lafrisha Jane (PARKS) was living in the 1850 census, in all probability Lewis and Jane were married in or around Sweetwater, Monroe County. Probably at her parent's house. Since son; Chesley A. Carter was born in November 1860, nine months prior to that date would be his conception date of March 1860. So, their marriage date would have been before March 1860.

Buckner Memorial Methodist Church Cemetery aka Hiwassee College Cemetery, Hiwassee College, near Madisonville, Monroe, Tennessee, United States
BUCKNER MEMORIAL METHODIST CEMETERY This cemetery is located on the campus of Hiwassee College, about two miles from Madisonville, Tenn. It is sometimes called the Hiwassee Cemetery. There are many families buried here who were connected with Hiwassee College, as administrators and teachers. There are also many families who attended the college church and lived in the community. The church was formerly called Keyes Chapel Methodist. These records were made by Deborah Hart and Patricia Craig in 1977 and up-dated by Ra1ph Mitchell in 1983. They are listed alphabetically by surname, but not necessarily alphabetically under the family name.

1777 Washington County, North Carolina is created
The Johnson City-Jonesborough-Washington County region has a colorful and fascinating history. The county was established in 1777 as Washington County, North Carolina and was named in honor of General George Washington while the Revolutionary War was underway. At that time, "Washington County" included the geographic area that later became the entire State of Tennessee. The county also was part of the "State of Franklin" from 1784 through 1788 (an attempt to create the fourteenth state) prior to Tennessee becoming a state in 1796.

Levi and other Carters, (John Sr.; Joseph; Caleb Sr.; and Nathan) were traced together from New Jersey to Greene County, Tennessee, maybe brothers. Also, David and Ephraim. In 1772, Caleb Carter Sr., claimed 400A of land in Monongalia County, Virginia. Two years prior to the Revolution, they served in Lord Dunmore's War. The document, "Captain Zackquil Morgan's Roll", p. 19-20 with seventy-six names, days served, and pay, dated 4 Oct 1775, included these names:
Levy (Levi) Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

Caleb Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Joseph Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0

Levy (Levi) possibly about 40 years of age, had an active frontier life like others of his generation, and was fully capable of withstanding the hardships of military service. During this time, 1775-1777, Levi Carter had land on Indian Creek, at the mouth of LeMasters Run, near present day Arnettsville. The town was Point Marion, Virginia, where Monongalia River and the Cheat River meet. (see map)

Levi Carter and John Carter Sr. both served two months at Pickett's Fort, located on the Monongalia River about twenty miles south of present Morgantown, Virginia. They were under the command of Capt. William Haymond and Lt. Morgan Morgan. This document preserved by the Haymond family, carries the title of "Pay Roll of Capt. William Haymond's Company of Monongalia County Militia", from the 15th of April until the 12th of June 1777. Twenty eight names were on the payroll. [Gwathmey's "Historical Register of Virginians in the Revolution", page 134.]

Later in 1777, Carter's moved south through the Shenandoah Valley Appalachian Mountains, to Surrey County, northwest North Carolina just south of the Virginia line, where Levi Sr., Caleb, Jesse, Nathaniel, John and others are listed as soldiers from North Carolina. (Allen, Penelope Johnson,"Tennessee Soldiers in the Revolution", p17.)

The Carter's of Washington and Sullivan counties, North Carolina (Greene County, TN. by 1783) were included in 1780-81 "Inventory of Taxable Property of the Twelfth District in the Present Circulating Currency" from Washington County, North Carolina.

Abraham, oldest son of John Carter Sr.; Caleb Carter Sr., not Levi's son; John Carter; Joseph Carter; and Levi Carter Sr.

They paid taxes until the 1783 Land Act by North Carolina, when each Carter head filed a claim for a given number of acres. Levi Carter, Sr. and John Carter, Sr. with adjoining tracts of land on Lick Creek Possessed no more than squatters rights------ built a Fort (Carter Fort), planted a crop, and tried to obtain a deed.

A historical marker "John Carter established a settlement in 1783" at Carter's Station in Greene County, Tennessee, located 8 miles northwest of Greeneville on Hwy. 70, near the old Albany Post Office. Originally it was on the old Babbs Mill Wagon Road that ran east and west through Greene county from near Rheatown to the Hawkins county line near Bull's Gap. Carter's built their fort on present-day site of Carter's Station and Cemetery, where they fought the Cherokee Indians at Lookout Mountain. It was an intensive battle and lasted nearly a decade, with the whites prevailing.

[It should be noted that this battle which took ten years; the Cherokees fighting for their survival, the Carters seeking more land ensued bitter resentment on both sides of the conflict. When three of Jesse Carter Sr's children married Cherokees, my 3ggrandmother...Nancy (CARTER) married Henry Pratt son of a Cherokee chief, in 1820, her father; Jesse disowned all of them and left them out of his will.-Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009]

A Revolutionary War voucher made out to Levi Carter, State of North Carolina, No. 3538 was for L12:3. The auditors for the counties of Washington and Sullivan, North Carolina, certified that Levi Carter received in account twelve pounds, three shillings, dated 12 June 1783.

The Carter's of Surry County, North Carolina, had supported the Revolution in both Virginia and North Carolina, while living on Indian lands, and had contributed soldiers to the cause. The King's proclamation in 1763, forbid white settlement west of the Appalachian Divide, so they were vulnerable to severe punishment by the British. Local Tories could identify the Carter's as enemies of the King, and soon after 1782, the Carter Patriarch's reached the conclusion that they could save their families by migrating en masse with the other threatened families to the Watauga-Tennessee Valley frontier. Some of the Carter's in the War lived long enough to apply for a Revolutionary War pension about 1830, and gave New Jersey as their birthplace.

These claims along Lick Creek were entered in North Carolina books during 1783-84, but four to ten years passed before receiving a full title. No sooner than the ink was dry on the original claim, ownership began to change by way of sales and purchases, gifts to children or other relatives, and by bequests to heirs. The original surveys and plats of Carter land grants are in North Carolina State Archives at Raleigh.

1793 Father's Greene County, Tennessee Property Transaction
State of North Carolina, No. #1238 12 January 1793, Levi Carter:
To all whom these presents shall come Greeting----Know ye that we for and in consideration of the sum of ten Pounds for every hundred acres hereby guaranteed paid into our Treasury by Levi Carter, have given and granted and by these presents do give and grant unto the said Levi Carter, a tract of land containing one hundred and seventy-five acres, (175A) lying and being in our County of Greene, on both sides of Lick Creek. Beginning at the mouth of Punching Camp Creek at a beech, then North 92 poles to an ash, then East 130 poles to two hickories, then South 32 poles to a white oak, then East 25 poles to a post oak, then South 154 poles to a white oak, then West 155 poles to a white oak, then North 94 poles to the beginning; do by the plot hereunto doth appear together with all woods, waters, mines, minerals, hereditaments, appurtenanto to the said land belonging pertaining to hold to the said Levi Carter, his heirs and assigns forever, yielding and paying to us such sums of money yearly or otherwise as our General Assembly from time to time may direct. Provided always that the said Levi Carter shall cause this grant to be Registered in the Register's Office of our said County of Greene, within the time limited by law, otherwise the same shall be void and of no effect. In testimony whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patent and our Great to be hereunto affixed. Witness: Richard Dobbs Spaight, Esquire, our Governor Captain General and Commander in Chief, at Newburn, the 12th day of January in the 17th year of our Independence and in the year of our Lord 1793. Signed: J. Glasgow, Secretary. Richard Dobbs Spaight
[1 pole was equal to 16.5 feet-----Floyd Thomas Pratt]

Levi Carter's name appears frequently in the Greene County Court minutes from 1783- , as well as that of Abraham, James, Joseph, and Daniel. Caleb and Levi are named in 1784, in court cases as plaintiff or defendant; or to register an earmark for their hogs; jury lists; or appointments. In August 1786, "Ordered that a road be laid off from Babbs Mill to the County line below Swan Ponds", and named Joseph Carter , Abraham Carter, Levi Carter and nine other men to view, mark, and report to the November Court. This was the year 1786, that Levi Carter's son, our Elijah Carter was born. [When the text says our Elijah Carter, Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger is referring to Elijah as her direct line.-----Tom Pratt]

In December 1784, the State of Franklin was organized; and Southwest Territory (South of Ohio) was formed to provide state or territorial government for Washington, Sullivan and Greene counties. Carter Station Campgrounds date back to September 20, 1787, at which time one of the church founders, Joseph Carter received a land grant from the State of North Carolina. A Chirstian Society was organized in 1790 and an outdoor preaching place was built on the hill in the present Carter's Station cemetery. Traveling circuit riders preached at Carter Station in the early years, and services were held there until the Great Revival Era near the turn of the century. Shortly after 1800, a churc, 40 x 30 was built of hewed pine logs, two-story covered with boards and had but one window. Two local ministers, the Rev. Benjamin Van Pelt, and Rev. Benjamin Williams served the church for many years. The latter is buried on the camp meeting ground. The Van Pelt home on Lick Creek was a favorite stopping place for Bishop Francis Asbury when he visited the area. This famous camp meeting site, had a large shed early in the century. A second shed was built in 1847--"the best in East Tennessee". In 1836, nine additional acres was purchased for camp meetings. In 1878 the present building was erected. "The present congregation at Carter's Station; United Methodist Church (formerly Albany) is striving to fulfill their obligation to God and to the founders of Old Carter's Station, and pledge to keep in service that which in trust has been passed down to them.

Carter's were numerous in America at the time of the first census, 1790, as number 63, appearing 651 times. In 1805, Levi Carter and Peter Cassel were on the tax rolls in Greene County, Tennessee. A newspaper article about Carter Station United Methodist Church, "Early white settlers from New Jersey, by way of Pennyslvania, Virginia, and Surrey County North Carolina, came upon a fortified Indian Village, made peace with the Indians and established a settlers fort in 1783. Many of the settlers and members of their families and their descendants are buried in the cemetery near the site of the fort. The first person buried was a Mr. Hardin whose mocassins became entangled in the brush of a cane-braoke on the north side of Lick Creek when he was overtaken by the (Cherokee) Indians, and killed." (Greeneville Tennessee Sun, newspaper, 25 July 1979.)

The 1805 Camp meeting at Carter's Station began 23 August 1805, and lasted four (4) days. 10,000 people came. The families camped. (Greeneville Tennessee first newspaper in 1805.)

His other siblings would have been: William, Samuel, Susan, Hannah E., John R., Elisha Joel, Absolum, Martha, Rev. Robert "Bob" M., Joel, James (Jr.), Alfira and Amanda Trent of TN. And crossed-referenced to another part of the book document I have (4) Leonard Trent (no birth or death dates), s/o James P.(?) "Sop Trent" & 1st. wife Catherine "Cathy" (Templeton) Trent of TN. No children listed but he was md. supposedly to a Laura (?) of TN. James's 2nd. wife was Martha Jane Pillion of TN and they had at least, the Rev. Robert "Bob" Trent of TN and I don't yet know if HE was also called "Squire Bob Trent" or IF THAT only refers to the one in old William Trent Sr.'s lineage line. I would not think that they both would have been called "squire bob trent"..... don't know if any of this helps or not with Annette's question? and another one...this is confusing...
NOW, I only have this one Leonard for James & Catherine, no other children at this time? and under Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

James & Martha Jane Pillion I have 15 children, but no birth dates so I don't know their birthing order......any help here on these questions of mine?

1. First statement has long list of children belonging to James and Catherine Templeton Trent
2. Second statement has 15 children belonging to James and Martha Pillion Trent

James Trent's family, Sharon Carter, Jarvis site

Sharon Carter is a Trent family researcher, as is Scott Trent, mentioned below.

Most people get the names of James G. Trent's children from his first marriage from a mix of the 1850 and 1860 census schedules. Here's the family as listed in 1850:

James Trent 38 1812
Jane 36 1814
William 16? 1834
Samuel 13 1831
Susan 11 1839
Emeline 9 1841
John 7 1843
Elisha 5 1845

By 1860, Catherine Jane had apparently died. Here's the family:

James G. Trent 47 1813 (William & Samuel married?; missing Emeline, John, Elisha; 13-year-old Absalom added)
Susan 21 1839
Hannah 18 1842 (is she Emeline? not on 1850)
Robert 17 1843 (is he John? not on 1850)
Joel 15 1845 (is he Elisha? not on 1850)
Absalom 13 1847 (old enough but not on 1850?)
Mary 9 1851 (Mary Catherine Trent)
James 3 1857

By 1880, James G. Trent had remarried. Scott has Martha J. Pillion as the name of this wife. Here is the family in 1880. Sarah, of course, is your ancestor:

James J. Trent (60) 1820
Martha J. 27 wife 1850
Milla C. 1 daughter 1879
Sarah E. 10 granddaughter 1870 this is my Sarah Liz

We know (from a letter written by Doug Trent, who has since passed) that James and Martha had at least one more son, Leonard Trent, born in Aug. 1880. They may have had other children that I'm not aware of. Leonard became a preacher, and was known as Len Sop, a name he didn't care for!

It's been nice getting to know you, cousin Katy! Sharon

1850 Gold Rush Trip
It appears that neighbors from the 1850 census; George Mahan living at house #637 and John Shippy living at house #634 decided to go to Placerville and Vicinity, El Dorado, California, United States for the Gold rush. How long they stayed out there is unknown. But Absalom made it back 9 months before the birth of daughter Catherine in 1852. Also due to his frequent and numerous land purchase activity it appears that he was successful in his gold prospecting venture.

Who is Nathan Carter?
Not too sure this is our Nathan Carter or that Levi Sr., had a son Nathan. Can't find a connection as of this date. This information was given to me by other researchers. I can't find anywhere he is listed in a will or acknowledged by Levi or Susannah.

1783 Greene County, North Carolina was created from Washington County, North Carolina.
Greene County is rooted in the "Nolichucky settlement," which was established by pioneer Jacob Brown on land leased from the Cherokee in the early 1770s. The Nolichucky settlement aligned itself with the Watauga settlement in modern Elizabethton. Greene County was formed in 1783, when the area was still part of North Carolina. Frontiersman Davy Crockett was born in Greene County in 1786.

1783 Family Move

Levi and other Carters, (John Sr.; Joseph; Caleb Sr.; and Nathan) were traced together from New Jersey to Greene County, Tennessee, maybe brothers. Also, David and Ephraim. In 1772, Caleb Carter Sr., claimed 400A of land in Monongalia County, Virginia. Two years prior to the Revolution, they served in Lord Dunmore's War. The document, "Captain Zackquil Morgan's Roll", p. 19-20 with seventy-six names, days served, and pay, dated 4 Oct 1775, included these names:
Levy (Levi) Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Caleb Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Joseph Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0

Levy (Levi) possibly about 40 years of age, had an active frontier life like others of his generation, and was fully capable of withstanding the hardships of military service. During this time, 1775-1777, Levi Carter had land on Indian Creek, at the mouth of LeMasters Run, near present day Arnettsville. The town was Point Marion, Virginia, where Monongalia River and the Cheat River meet. (see map)
Levi Carter and John Carter Sr. both served two months at Pickett's Fort, located on the Monongalia River about twenty miles south of present Morgantown, Virginia. They were under the command of Capt. William Haymond and Lt. Morgan Morgan. This document preserved by the Haymond family, carries the title of "Pay Roll of Capt. William Haymond's Company of Monongalia County Militia", from the 15th of April until the 12th of June 1777. Twenty eight names were on the payroll. [Gwathmey's "Historical Register of Virginians in the Revolution", page 134.]

Later in 1777, Carter's moved south through the Shenandoah Valley Appalachian Mountains, to Surrey County, northwest North Carolina just south of the Virginia line, where Levi Sr., Caleb, Jesse, Nathaniel, John and others are listed as soldiers from North Carolina. (Allen, Penelope Johnson, "Tennessee Soldiers in the Revolution", p17.)

The Carter's of Washington and Sullivan counties, North Carolina (Greene County, TN. by 1783) were included in 1780-81 "Inventory of Taxable Property of the Twelfth District in the Present Circulating Currency" from Washington County, North Carolina.

Abraham, oldest son of John Carter Sr.; Caleb Carter Sr., not Levi's son; John Carter; Joseph Carter; and Levi Carter Sr.

They paid taxes until the 1783 Land Act by North Carolina, when each Carter head filed a claim for a given number of acres. Levi Carter, Sr. and John Carter, Sr. with adjoining tracts of land on Lick Creek Possessed no more than squatters rights------ built a Fort (Carter Fort), planted a crop, and tried to obtain a deed.

A historical marker "John Carter established a settlement in 1783" at Carter's Station in Greene County, Tennessee, located 8 miles northwest of Greeneville on Hwy. 70, near the old Albany Post Office. Originally it was on the old Babbs Mill Wagon Road that ran east and west through Greene county from near Rheatown to the Hawkins county line near Bull's Gap. Carter's built their fort on present-day site of Carter's Station and Cemetery, where they fought the Cherokee Indians at Lookout Mountain. It was an intensive battle and lasted nearly a decade, with the whites prevailing.

[It should be noted that this battle which took ten years; the Cherokees fighting for their survival, the Carters seeking more land ensued bitter resentment on both sides of the conflict. When three of Jesse Carter Sr's children married Cherokees, my 3ggrandmother...Nancy (CARTER) married Henry Pratt son of a Cherokee chief, in 1820, her father; Jesse disowned all of them and left them out of his will.-Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009]

A Revolutionary War voucher made out to Levi Carter, State of North Carolina, No. 3538 was for L12:3. The auditors for the counties of Washington and Sullivan, North Carolina, certified that Levi Carter received in account twelve pounds, three shillings, dated 12 June 1783.

The Carter's of Surry County, North Carolina, had supported the Revolution in both Virginia and North Carolina, while living on Indian lands, and had contributed soldiers to the cause. The King's proclamation in 1763, forbid white settlement west of the Appalachian Divide, so they were vulnerable to severe punishment by the British. Local Tories could identify the Carter's as enemies of the King, and soon after 1782, the Carter Patriarch's reached the conclusion that they could save their families by migrating en masse with the other threatened families to the Watauga-Tennessee Valley frontier. Some of the Carter's in the War lived long enough to apply for a Revolutionary War pension about 1830, and gave New Jersey as their birthplace.

These claims along Lick Creek were entered in North Carolina books during 1783-84, but four to ten years passed before receiving a full title. No sooner than the ink was dry on the original claim, ownership began to change by way of sales and purchases, gifts to children or other relatives, and by bequests to heirs. The original surveys and plats of Carter land grants are in North Carolina State Archives at Raleigh.

1793 Greene County, Tennessee Property Transaction

State of North Carolina, No. #1238 12 January 1793, Levi Carter:

To all whom these presents shall come Greeting—Know ye that we for and in consideration of the sum of ten Pounds for every hundred acres hereby guaranteed paid into our Treasury by Levi Carter, have given and granted and by these presents do give and grant unto the said Levi Carter, a tract of land containing one hundred and seventy-five acres, (175A) lying and being in our County of Greene, on both sides of Lick Creek. Beginning at the mouth of Punching Camp Creek at a beech, then North 92 poles to an ash, then East 130 poles to two hickories, then South 32 poles to a white oak, then East 25 poles to a post oak, then South 154 poles to a white oak, then West 155 poles to a white oak, then North 94 poles to the beginning; do by the plot hereunto doth appear together with all woods, waters, mines, minerals, hereditaments, appurtenances to the said land belonging pertaining to hold to the said Levi Carter, his heirs and assigns forever, yielding and paying to us such sums of money yearly or otherwise as our General Assembly from time to time may direct. Provided always that the said Levi Carter shall cause this grant to be Registered in the Register's Office of our said County of Greene, within the time limited by law, otherwise the same shall be void and of no effect. In testimony whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patent and our Great to be hereunto affixed. Witness: Richard Dobbs Spaight, Esquire, our Governor Captain General and Commander in Chief, at Newburn, the 12th day of January in the 17th year of our Independence and in the year of our Lord 1793. Signed: J. Glasgow, Secretary. Richard Dobbs Spaight

A pole was equal to 16.5 feet-----Floyd Thomas Pratt

Levi Carter's name appears frequently in the Greene County Court minutes from 1783- , as well as that of Abraham, James, Joseph, and Daniel. Caleb and Levi are named in 1784, in court cases as plaintiff or defendant; or to register an earmark for their hogs; jury lists; or appointments. In August 1786, "Ordered that a road be laid off from Babbs Mill to the County line below Swan Ponds", and named Joseph Carter, Abraham Carter, Levi Carter and nine other men to view, mark, and report to the November Court. This was the year 1786, that Levi Carter's son, our Elijah Carter was born. [When the text says our Elijah Carter, Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger is referring to Elijah as her direct line.-----Tom Pratt]

In December 1784, the State of Franklin was organized; and Southwest Territory (South of Ohio) was formed to provide state or territorial government for Washington, Sullivan and Greene counties. Carter Station Campgrounds date back to September 20, 1787, at which time one of the church founders, Joseph Carter received a land grant from the State of North Carolina. A Christian Society was organized in 1790 and an outdoor preaching place was built on the hill in the present Carter's Station cemetery. Traveling circuit riders preached at Carter Station in the eyears, and services were held there until the Great Revival Era near the turn of the century. Shortly after 1800, a church, 40 x 30 was built of hewed pine logs, two-story covered with boards and had but one window.
Two local ministers, the Rev. Benjamin Van Pelt, and Rev. Benjamin Williams served the church for many years.
The latter is buried on the camp meeting ground. The Van Pelt home on Lick Creek was a favorite stopping place for Bishop Francis Asbury when he visited the area. This famous camp meeting site, had a large shed early in the century. A second shed was built in 1847--"the best in East Tennessee". In 1836, nine additional acres was purchased for camp meetings. In 1878 the present building was erected. "The present congregation at Carter's Station; United Methodist Church (formerly Albany) is striving to fulfill their obligation to God and to the founders of Old Carter's Station, and pledge to keep in service that which in trust has been passed down to them.

Carter's were numerous in America at the time of the first census, 1790, as number 63, appearing 651 times. In 1805, Levi Carter and Peter Cassel were on the tax rolls in Greene County, Tennessee. A newspaper article about Carter Station United Methodist Church, "Early white settlers from New Jersey, by way of Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Surrey County North Carolina, came upon a fortified Indian Village, made peace with the Indians and established a settlers fort in 1783. Many of the settlers and members of their families and their descendants are buried in the cemetery near the site of the fort. The first person buried was a Mr. Hardin whose mocassins became entangled in the brush of a cane-brake on the north side of Lick Creek when he was overtaken by the (Cherokee) Indians, and killed." (Greeneville Tennessee Sun, newspaper, 25 July 1979.)

The 1805 Camp meeting at Carter's Station began 23 August 1805, and lasted four (4) days. 10,000 people came. The families camped. (Greeneville Tennessee first newspaper in 1805.)

1796 State of Tennessee Created
The State of Tennessee is rooted in the Watauga Association, a 1772 frontier pact generally regarded as the first constitutional government west of the Appalachians. What is now Tennessee was initially part of North Carolina, and later part of the Southwest Territory. Tennessee was admitted to the Union as the 16th state on June 1, 1796.

Later in 1777, Carter's moved south through the Shenandoah Valley Appalachian Mountains, to Surrey County, northwest North Carolina just south of the Virginia line, where Levi Sr., Caleb, Jesse, Nathaniel, John and others are listed as soldiers from North Carolina. (Allen, Penelope Johnson, "Tennessee Soldiers in the Revolution", p17.)

The Carter's of Washington and Sullivan counties, North Carolina (Greene County, TN. by 1783) were included in 1780-81 "Inventory of Taxable Property of the Twelfth District in the Present Circulating Currency" from Washington County, North Carolina.
Abraham, oldest son of John Carter Sr.; Caleb Carter Sr., not Levi's son; John Carter; Joseph Carter; and Levi Carter Sr.

They paid taxes until the 1783 Land Act by North Carolina, when each Carter head filed a claim for a given number of acres. Levi Carter, Sr. and John Carter, Sr. with adjoining tracts of land on Lick Creek Possessed no more than squatters rights------ built a Fort (Carter Fort), planted a crop, and tried to obtain a deed.

A historical marker "John Carter established a settlement in 1783" at Carter's Station in Greene County, Tennessee, located 8 miles northwest of Greeneville on Hwy. 70, near the old Albany Post Office. Originally it was on the old Babb's Mill Wagon Road that ran east and west through Greene county from near Rheatown to the Hawkins county line near Bull's Gap. Carter's built their fort on present-day site of Carter's Station and Cemetery, where they fought the Cherokee Indians at Lookout Mountain. It was an intensive battle and lasted nearly a decade, with the whites prevailing.

[It should be noted that this battle which took ten years; the Cherokees fighting for their survival, the Carters seeking more land ensued bitter resentment on both sides of the conflict. When three of Jesse Carter Sr’s children married Cherokees, my 3ggrandmother…Nancy (CARTER) married Henry Pratt son of a Cherokee chief, in 1820, her father; Jesse disowned all of them and left them out of his will.-Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009]

A Revolutionary War voucher made out to Levi Carter, State of North Carolina, No. 3538 was for L12:3. The auditors for the counties of Washington and Sullivan, North Carolina, certified that Levi Carter received in account twelve pounds, three shillings, dated 12 June 1783.

The Carter’s of Surry County, North Carolina, had supported the Revolution in both Virginia and North Carolina, while living on Indian lands, and had contributed soldiers to the cause. The King's proclamation in 1763, forbid white settlement west of the Appalachian Divide, so they were vulnerable to severe punishment by the British. Local Tories could identify the Carter’s as enemies of the King, and soon after 1782, the Carter Patriarch's reached the conclusion that they could save their families by migrating en masse with the other threatened families to the Watauga-Tennessee Valley frontier. Some of the Carter's in the War lived long enough to apply for a Revolutionary War pension about 1830, and gave New Jersey as their birthplace.

These claims along Lick Creek were entered in North Carolina books during 1783-84, but four to ten years passed before receiving a full title. No sooner than the ink was dry on the original claim, ownership began to change by way of sales and purchases, gifts to children or other relatives, and by bequests to heirs. The original surveys and plats of Carter land grants are in North Carolina State Archives at Raleigh.

1793 Father's Greene County, Tennessee Property Transaction
State of North Carolina, No. #1238 12 January 1793, Levi Carter:
To all whom these presents shall come Greeting----Know ye that we for and in consideration of the sum of ten Pounds for every hundred acres hereby guaranteed paid into our Treasury by Levi Carter, have given and granted and by these presents do give and grant unto the said Levi Carter, a tract of land containing one hundred and seventy-five acres, (175A) lying and being in our County of Greene, on both sides of Lick Creek. Beginning at the mouth of Punching Camp Creek at a beech, then North 92 poles to an ash, then East 130 poles to two hickories, then South 32 poles to a white oak, then East 25 poles to a post oak, then South 154 poles to a white oak, then West 155 poles to a white oak, then North 94 poles to the beginning; do by the plot hereunto doth appear together with all woods, waters, mines, minerals, hereditaments, appurtenances to the said land belonging pertaining to hold to the said Levi Carter, his heirs and assigns forever, yielding and paying to us such sums of money yearly or otherwise as our General Assembly from time to time may direct. Provided always that the said Levi Carter shall cause this grant to be Registered in the Register's Office of our said County of Greene, within the time limited by law, otherwise the same shall be void and of no effect. In testimony whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patent and our Great to be hereunto affixed. Witness: Richard Dobbs Spaight, Esquire, our Governor Captain General and Commander in Chief, at Newburn, the 12th day of January in the 17th year of our Independence and in the year of our Lord 1793. Signed: J. Glasgow, Secretary. Richard Dobbs Spaight

Levi Carter's name appears frequently in the Greene County Court minutes from 1783- , as well as that of Abraham, James, Joseph, and Daniel. Caleb and Levi are named in 1784, in court cases as plaintiff or defendant; or to register an earmark for their hogs; jury lists; or appointments. In August 1786, "Ordered that a road be laid off from Babbs Mill to the County line below Swan Ponds", and named Joseph Carter, Abraham Carter, Levi Carter and nine other men to view, mark, and report to the November Court. This was the year 1786, that Levi Carter's son, our Elijah Carter was born. [When the text says our Elijah Carter, Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger is referring to Elijah as her direct line-----Tom Pratt]

In December 1784, the State of Franklin was organized; and Southwest Territory (South of Ohio) was formed to provide state or territorial government for Washington, Sullivan and Greene counties. Carter Station Campgrounds date back to September 20, 1787, at which time one of the church founders, Joseph Carter received a land grant from the State of North Carolina. A Christain Society was organized in 1790 and an outdoor preaching place was built on the hill in the present Carter's Station cemetery. Traveling circuit riders preached at Carter Station in the early years, and services were held there until the Great Revival Era near the turn of the century. Shortly after 1800, a church, 40 x 30 was built of hewed pine logs, two-story covered with boards and had but one window. Two local ministers, the Rev. Benjamin Van Pelt, and Rev. Benjamin Williams served the church for many years. The latter is buried on the camp meeting ground. The Van Pelt home on Lick Creek was a favorite stopping place for Bishop Francis Asbury when he visited the area. This famous camp meeting site, had a large shed early in the century. A second shed was built in 1847--"the best in East Tennessee". In 1836, nine additional acres was purchased for camp meetings. In 1878 the present building was erected. "The present congregation at Carter's Station; United Methodist Church (formerly Albany) is striving to fulfill their obligation to God and to the founders of Old Carter's Station, and pledge to keep in service that which in trust has been passed down to them.

Carter's were numerous in America at the time of the first census, 1790, as number 63, appearing 651 times. In 1805, Levi Carter and Peter Cassel were on the tax rolls in Greene County, Tennessee. A newspaper article about Carter Station United Methodist Church, "Early white settlers from New Jersey, by way of Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Surrey County North Carolina, came upon a fortified Indian Village, made peace with the Indians and established a settlers fort in 1783. Many of the settlers and members of their families and their descendants are buried in the cemetery near the site of the fort. The first person buried was a Mr. Hardin whose mocassins became entangled in the brush of a cane-brake on the north side of Lick Creek when he was overtaken by the (Cherokee) Indians, and killed." (Greeneville Tennessee Sun, newspaper, 25 July 1979.)

The 1805 Camp meeting at Carter's Station began 23 August 1805, and lasted four (4) days. 10,000 people came. The families camped. (Greeneville Tennessee first newspaper in 1805.)

1783 Greene County, North Carolina was created from Washington County, North Carolina
Greene County is rooted in the "Nolichucky settlement," which was established by pioneer Jacob Brown on land leased from the Cherokee in the early 1770s. The Nolichucky settlement aligned itself with the Watauga settlement in modern Elizabethton. Greene County was formed in 1783, when the area was still part of North Carolina. Frontiersman Davy Crockett was born in Greene County in 1786.

Levi and other Carters, (John Sr.; Joseph; Caleb Sr.; and Nathan) were traced together from New Jersey to Greene County, Tennessee, maybe brothers. Also, David and Ephraim. In 1772, Caleb Carter Sr., claimed 400A of land in Monongalia County, Virginia. Two years prior to the Revolution, they served in Lord Dunmore's War. The document, "Captain Zackquil Morgan's Roll", p. 19-20 with seventy-six names, days served, and pay, dated 4 Oct 1775, included these names:
Levy (Levi) Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Caleb Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Joseph Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0

Levi (Levi) possibly about 40 years of age, had an active frontier life like others of his generation, and was fully capable of withstanding the hardships of military service. During this time, 1775-1777, Levi Carter had land on Indian Creek, at the mouth of LeMasters Run, near present day Arnettsville. The town was Point Marion, Virginia, where Monongalia River and the Cheat River meet. (see map)

Levi Carter and John Carter Sr. both served two months at Pickett's Fort, located on the Monongalia River about twenty miles south of present Morgantown, Virginia. They were under the command of Capt. William Haymond and Lt. Morgan Morgan. This document preserved by the Haymond family, carries the title of "Pay Roll of Capt. William Haymond's Company of Monongalia County Militia", from the 15th of April until the 12th of June 1777. Twenty eight names were on the payroll. [Gwathmey's "Historical Register of Virginians in the Revolution", page 134.]

Later in 1777, Carter's moved south through the Shenandoah Valley Appalachian Mountains, to Surrey County, northwest North Carolina just south of the Virginia line, where Levi Sr., Caleb, Jesse, Nathaniel, John and others are listed as soldiers from North Carolina. (Allen, Penelope Johnson,"Tennessee Soldiers in the Revolution", p17.)

The Carter's of Washington and Sullivan counties, North Carolina (Greene County, TN. by 1783) were included in 1780-81 "Inventory of Taxable Property of the Twelfth District in the Present Circulating Currency" from Washington County, North Carolina.
Abraham, oldest son of John Carter Sr.; Caleb Carter Sr., not Levi's son; John Carter; Joseph Carter; and Levi Carter Sr.

They paid taxes until the 1783 Land Act by North Carolina, when each Carter head filed a claim for a given number of acres. Levi Carter, Sr. and John Carter, Sr. with adjoining tracts of land on Lick Creek Possessed no more than squatters rights------ built a Fort (Carter Fort), planted a crop, and tried to obtain a deed.
A historical marker "John Carter established a settlement in 1783" at Carter's Station in Greene County, Tennessee, located 8 miles northwest of Greeneville on Hwy. 70, near the old Albany Post Office. Originally it was on the old Babbs Mill Wagon Road that ran east and west through Greene county from near Rheatown to the Hawkins county line near Bull's Gap. Carter's built their fort on present-day site of Carter's Station and Cemetery, where they fought the Cherokee Indians at Lookout Mountain. It was an intensive battle and lasted nearly a decade, with the whites prevailing.

[It should be noted that this battle which took ten years; the Cherokees fighting for their survival, the Carters seeking more land ensued bitter resentment on both sides of the conflict. When three of Jesse Carter Sr's children married Cherokees, my 3ggrandmother...Nancy (CARTER) married Henry Pratt son of a Cherokee chief, in 1820, her father; Jesse disowned all of them and left them out of his will.-Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009]

A Revolutionary War voucher made out to Levi Carter, State of North Carolina, No. 3538 was for L12:3. The auditors for the counties of Washington and Sullivan, North Carolina, certified that Levi Carter received in account twelve pounds, three shillings, dated 12 June 1783.

The Carter's of Surry County, North Carolina, had supported the Revolution in both Virginia and North Carolina, while living on Indian lands, and had contributed soldiers to the cause. The King's proclamation in 1763, forbid white settlement west of the Appalachian Divide, so they were vulnerable to severe punishment by the British. Local Tories could identify the Carter's as enemies of the King, and soon after 1782, the Carter Patriarch's reached the conclusion that they could save their families by migrating en masse with the other threatened families to the Watauga-Tennessee Valley frontier. Some of the Carter's in the War lived long enough to apply for a Revolutionary War pension about 1830, and gave New Jersey as their birthplace.

These claims along Lick Creek were entered in North Carolina books during 1783-84, but four to ten years passed before receiving a full title. No sooner than the ink was dry on the original claim, ownership began to change by way of sales and purchases, gifts to children or other relatives, and by bequests to heirs. The original surveys and plats of Carter land grants are in North Carolina State Archives at Raleigh.

1793 Father's Greene County, Tennessee Property Transaction
State of North Carolina, No. #1238 12 January 1793, Levi Carter:
To all whom these presents shall come Greeting----Know ye that we for and in consideration of the sum of ten Pounds for every hundred acres hereby guaranteed paid into our Treasury by Levi Carter, have given and granted and by these presents do give and grant unto the said Levi Carter, a tract of land containing one hundred and seventy-five acres, (175A) lying and being in our County of Greene, on both sides of Lick Creek. Beginning at the mouth of Punching Camp Creek at a beech, then North 92 poles to an ash, then East 130 poles to two hickories, then South 32 poles to a white oak, then East 25 poles to a post oak, then South 154 poles to a white oak, then West 155 poles to a white oak, then North 94 poles to the beginning; do by the plot hereunto doth appear together with all woods, waters, mines, minerals, hereditaments, appurtanances to the said land belonging pertaining to hold to the said Levi Carter, his heirs and assigns forever, yielding and paying to us such sums of money yearly or otherwise as our General Assembly from time to time may direct. Provided always that the said Levi Carter shall cause this grant to be Registered in the Register's Office of our said County of Greene, within the time limited by law, otherwise the same shall be void and of no effect. In testimony whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patent and our Great to be hereunto affixed. Witness: Richard Dobbs Spaight, Esquire, our Governor Captain General and Commander in Chief, at Newburn, the 12th day of January in the 17th year of our Independence and in the year of our Lord 1793. Signed: J. Glasgow, Secretary. Richard Dobbs Spaight

Levi Carter's name appears frequently in the Greene County Court minutes from 1783-1790, as well as that of Abraham, James, Joseph, and Daniel. Caleb and Levi are named in 1784, in court cases as plaintiff or defendant; or to register an earmark for their hogs; jury lists; or appointments. In August 1786, "Ordered that a road be laid off from Babbs Mill to the County line below Swan Ponds", and named Joseph Carter, Abraham Carter, Levi Carter and nine other men to view, mark, and report to the November Court. This was the year 1786, that Levi Carter's son, our Elijah Carter was born. [When the text says our Elijah Carter, Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger is referring to Elijah as her direct line.-----Tom Pratt]

In December 1784, the State of Franklin was organized; and Southwest Territory (South of Ohio) was formed to provide state or territorial government for Washington, Sullivan and Greene counties. Carter Station Campgrounds date back to September 20, 1787, at which time one of the church founders, Joseph Carter received a land grant from the State of North Carolina. A Christian Society was organized in 1790 and an outdoor preaching place was built on the hill in the present Carter's Station cemetery. Traveling circuit riders preached at Carter Station in the early years, and services were held there until the Great Revival Era near the turn of the century. Shortly after 1800, a church, 40 x 30 was built of hewed pine logs, two-story covered with boards and had but one window. Two local ministers, the Rev. Benjamin Van Pelt, and Rev. Benjamin Williams served the church for many years. The latter is buried on the camp meeting ground. The Van Pelt home on Lick Creek was a favorite stopping place for Bishop Francis Asbury when he visited the area. This famous camp meeting site, had a large shed early in the century. A second shed was built in 1847--"the best in East Tennessee". In 1836, nine additional acres was purchased for camp meetings. In 1878 the present building was erected. "The present congregation at Carter's Station; United Methodist Church (formerly Albany) is striving to fulfill their obligation to God and to the founders of Old Carter's Station, and pledge to keep in service that which in trust has been passed down to them.

Carter's were numerous in America at the time of the first census, 1790, as number 63, appearing 651 times. In 1805, Levi Carter and Peter Cassel were on the tax rolls in Greene County, Tennessee. A newspaper article about Carter Station United Methodist Church, "Early white settlers from New Jersey, by way of Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Surrey County North Carolina, came upon a fortified Indian Village, made peace with the Indians and established a settlers fort in 1783. Many of the settlers and members of their families and their descendants are buried in the cemetery near the site of the fort. The first person buried was a Mr. Hardin whose mocassins became entangled in the brush of a cane-brake on the north side of Lick Creek when he was overtaken by the
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

(Cherokee) Indians, and killed." (Greeneville Tennessee Sun, newspaper, 25 July 1979.)

The 1805 Camp meeting at Carter's Station began 23 August 1805, and lasted four (4) days. 10,000 people came. The families camped. (Greeneville Tennessee first newspaper in 1805.)

She stated on the phone that she will be 90 years old next week and started her research on Levi Carter from 1980-1986 and formed the 302 double sided page book in 1990-1991.

She said she sold 200 copies of the book. She no longer has any left, sold out in 1998. I obtained permission from her to scan the book in .pdf format and offer it to the public. I will offer it for free as usual for the $20.00 cd processing fee. She thought that was a great idea and thanked me for my efforts...and I thanked her...for without her work, sacrifice and expense, there would be no book.

Even though she does not have a computer, I will send her a copy of the book on disc so she can see the format and layout. A disturbing thought is she told me that she and Leonard are headed to a nursing home in December. I hope to have her book processed before then. After all there are 604 pages.

Her book is truly a masterpiece and a standard of excellence...as I told her.

I had originally talked to her back in the 1990's when I bought her book. When I received the book, I was overwhelmed with the detail and professionalism in the work that she had created. At that time, my books (Pratt Progenitor Papers) were basically pedigree and family group sheets with notes and documentation, nothing like her work.

After reviewing her book and extracting what I could that was pertinent to my ancestors, I decided to step-up my documentation effort and offer a more comprehensive study of my ancestors fashioned after her efforts.

My crowning achievement was the book, "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee" 2002.

I have seldom run across an individual in family history research whom I would even consider bestowing an honorable M.A.G.I. designation.

Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger is one of those rare individuals. Her attention to detail and documentation is superb and her work is one of the best I have seen from a non-professional.

Walnut Township Biographies
Excerpt from "The History of Dallas County, Iowa" published in 1879 by the Union Historical Company of Des Moines, Iowa
Carter, Joseph, farmer, Sec. 25; P.O. Waukee; born in Campbell County, Tennessee, February 1, 1820; he lived there until he was about eight years of age; his parents then moved to Fayette County, Indiana, where they remained two years, and then settled in Rush County, Indiana; he married Miss Elizabeth Turner, of Rush County, Indiana, February 4, 1840; the same year they emigrated to Gentry County, Missouri, where he lived until 1861, and then, with his family, moved to Warren County, Iowa; came to Polk County in 1864; lived there for two years, and then came here, and has been here ever since; has a farm of 200 acres; has a family of seven sons and seven daughters: John R., Peter W., Elijah T., Susanna, James M., Mary, Jane, Charles R., Isabell D., Hannah, Hiram J., Ada M., Rachel I., William. John R. and James M. served in the late war; John was in the service nearly three years, and James about seven months; both served in the Thirty-fourth Iowa Infantry, Co. K.

Joseph married Nancy Elizabeth Turner, daughter of Thomas Turner and Elizabeth Barrow Lightfoot, 4 February 1840 in Rush, Indiana, United States. Nancy was born 15 March 1824 in Pendleton, Kentucky, United States, died 3 December 1882 in Waukee, Walnut Township, Dallas, Iowa, United States at age 58, and was buried in December 1882 in Waukee Cemetery, Waukee, Walnut Township, Dallas, Iowa, United States.

Someone who has seen the actual record needs to set the record straight...with Marriage Record Book number and page number. Since Elijah and family left Rush County in 1841 then it would be strange if Catherine married in Rush County...2 years after they left. FTP]

[I don't know what significance Clinton County, Missouri had for the Carter clan but several of Elijah's children were married there. Maybe they had moved from Gentry County to Clinton but this county keeps popping up with marriage records for some of Elijah's children.]

[Note: Clinton County Missouri created in 1833, Gentry County, Missouri created in 1841. When the Carters, Glendennings and others moved to Gentry County, Missouri in 1841 from Rush County, Indiana, Gentry County may not have been "set-up" to do courthouse business. Maybe, Clinton County helped out until Gentry County was up and running or...those that married in Clinton County after their arrival may have eloped.]

Catina, looking at the various internet sources concerning Sarah's death location I am amazed that none of you caught the fact that if Sarah was visiting someone in McElhany when she died, which is what has been posted, McElhany is in Newton County, Missouri, full address is: McElhany, West Benton Twp, Newton, Missouri, United States then she was not in McDonald County, Missouri.
If she died in McDonald County which neighbors Newton then she did not die at McElhany.
Her death location needs verification to set the record straight.
Checking local newspapers should settle the argument.
The following website will help you with location problems in the future.
<http://www.histopolis.com/Place/US/MO/Wayne_County/Bounds>
Just put in the state, county and city to get a map and the township of the location.
I am finding a great deal of ancestry.com information fabricated and unverified.
Please have a family member verify her death date and location.

Father's Additional Source
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

Elijah Carter married Susannah Cassel, daughter of Peter Cassel and Elizabeth Cassel of Greene County, Tenn., four months after his father Levi died.

In 1812, Elijah Carter was on the tax rolls in Greene County, Tenn. On Campbell County, Tenn. tax rolls 1818-1823, and by 1830 was paying taxes in Rush County, Indiana. Near White River, Greene County, Tenn., three children were born: Elizabeth, Vincent and Saleta Carter.

Elijah and Susannah lived in Campbell Co., TN from 1818-1823, then they moved to Jackson Twp., Rush Co., IN until 1841. At that time they came west to Gentry Co., MO. by ox-team caravan.

During the War of 1812, with Great Britain, Elijah Carter was drafted at Greene County, Tenn., 10 Jan 1814 for a six month period. #87090. He was a private in Company C., commanded by Captain Jacob Hyle, and Col. Wm. Allison or Ellison, in received a furlough on account of sickness; then served intil 23 May 1814. After four months and seven days, he was honorable discharged at Greenville, Greene County, Tenn. on 10 July 1814. #115873.

Through the Act of 28 Sept. 1850, Elijah was entitled to receive 80A, so made application for bounty land 24 Nov 1851. Having disposed of this 80A legally; another Act on 5 Mar 1855 was for additional bounty. Elijah's application was witnessed by John C. Williams, and John Thompson.

Elijah sold his discharge to William Dixon (Dicks) of Greeneville, Tenn., for the purpose of drawing due money.

No entry was located for Elijah Carter with bounty land application #115973. A patent was issued to Elijah per cash certificate #4002 for E 1/2 of SW 1/4, and W 1/2 of SE 1/4 in Gentry Co., MO., Section 34, Twp 64N, Range 30W for 160A as recorded in the land office of Pattonsburg, Clinton Co., Mo. V.8:219. (Gentry County was formally Clinton Co., MO.) 1 May 1846.

In 1816-1826, the Elijah Carter family lived in Campbell County, Tenn. where seven children were born: Jane, Nancy, Joseph, Catherine, John B., Sarah, and Hiram Carter.

About 1828, Elijah's family was headed for Brown County, Indiana, and by 23 Jan 1830, Elijah and Susannah Carter owned 80A in Jackson Twp., Rush County, Indiana, Section 4, along with many of the Cassel family, who came from Tennessee. New neighbor's were the Glendenning's from Brown County, Ohio.

Father's Additional Source
"Levi Carter, My Patriot, and Allied Families to Carter Cemetery, Gentry Co., MO." by Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger (1991) pages 10 & 11:
Elijah Carter married Susannah Cassel, daughter of Peter Cassel and Elizabeth Cassel of Greene County, Tenn., four months after his father Levi died.

In 1812, Elijah Carter was on the tax rolls in Greene County, Tenn. On Campbell County, Tenn. tax rolls 1818-1823, and by 1830 was paying taxes in Rush County, Indiana. Near White River, Greene County, Tenn., three children were born: Elizabeth, Vincent and Saleta Carter.

Elijah and Susannah lived in Campbell Co., TN from 1818-1823, then they moved to Jackson Twsp., Rush Co., IN until 1841. At that time they came west to Gentry Co., MO. by ox-team caravan.

During the War of 1812, with Great Britain, Elijah Carter was drafted at Greene County, Tenn., 10 Jan 1814 for a six month period. #87090. He was a private in Company C., commanded by Captain Jacob Hyle, and Col. Wm. Allison or Ellison, in received a furlough on account of sickness; then served intil 23 May 1814. After four months and seven days, he was honorable discharged at Greenville, Greene County, Tenn. on 10 July 1814. #115873.

Through the Act of 28 Sept. 1850, Elijah was entitled to receive 80A, so made application for bounty land 24 Nov 1851. Having disposed of this 80A legally; another Act on 5 Mar 1855 was for additional bounty. Elijah's application was witnessed by John C. Williams, and John Thompson.

Elijah sold his discharge to William Dixon (Dicks) of Greeneville, Tenn., for the purpose of drawing due money.

No entry was located for Elijah Carter with bounty land application #115973. A patent was issued to Elijah per cash certificate #4002 for E 1/2 of SW 1/4, and W 1/2 of SE 1/4 in Gentry Co., MO., Section 34, Twp 64N, Range 30W for 160A as recorded in the land office of Pattonsburg, Clinton Co., Mo. V.8:219. (Gentry County was formally Clinton Co., MO.) 1 May 1846.

In 1816-1826, the Elijah Carter family lived in Campbell County, Tenn. where seven children were born: Jane, Nancy, Joseph, Catherine, John B., Sarah, and Hiram Carter.

About 1828, Elijah's family was headed for Brown County, Indiana, and by 23 Jan 1830, Elijah and Susannah Carter owned 80A in Jackson Twsp., Rush County, Indiana, Section 4, along with many of the Cassel family, who came from Tennessee. New neighbor's were the Glendenning's from Brown County, Ohio.

In Indiana, Elijah and Susannah had, 5 more children: Susannah, Lewis, Nathan, Mary, and Martha Carter. Soon four Carter's were married to four Glendenning's. (See Levi Carter, My Patriot for more details).

Date from his daughter; Rachel (CARTER) Rollins 1896 Cherokee application indicates Levi was born around 1795. However, the census evidence does not support this claim. Rachel was born in 1834 and her father died in 1844 in Franklin County, Missouri according to her application. So, she was 10 years old when he died and any and all family information she knew about him and the older Carter family was heresay. In two different census records, Levi is depicted as being born after 1801 and before 1810. Not 1791-1800 as would have been if he had been born in 1795. However, concerning the marital age of Levi Jr., if he was born between 1801-1810 as the census records indicate, then he was very young when he married Elizabeth in 1816. We know Elizabeth was born between 1792-1797 supported by 5 census records, I would think that Levi would not have married a woman older than himself with such an age disparity. Therefore, he in all probability was born between 1790-1795, which gives credence to daughter; Rachel's claim.

John Carter we don't know anything about his birth, location, marriage or death. Only he appears in two Court documents and disappears after 16 October 1815.

Levi and other Carters, (John Sr.; Joseph; Caleb Sr.; and Nathan) were traced together from New Jersey to Greene County, Tennessee, maybe brothers. Also, David and Ephraim. In 1772, Caleb Carter Sr., claimed 400A of land in Monongalia County, Virginia. Two years prior to the Revolution, they served in Lord Dunmore's War. The document, "Captain Zackquil Morgan's Roll", p. 19-20 with seventy-six names, days served, and pay, dated 4 Oct 1775, included these names:
Levi (Levi) Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Caleb Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Joseph Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0

Levi (Levi) possibly about 40 years of age, had an active frontier life like others of his generation, and was fully capable of withstanding the hardships of military service. During this time, 1775-1777, Levi Carter had land on Indian Creek, at the mouth of LeMasters Run, near present day Arnettsville. The town was Point Marion, Virginia, where Monongalia River and the Cheat River meet. (see map)

Levi Carter and John Carter Sr. both served two months at Pickett's Fort, located on the Monongalia River about twenty miles south of present Morgantown, Virginia. They were under the command of Capt. William Haymond and Lt. Morgan Morgan. This document preserved by the Haymond family, carries the title of "Pay Roll of Capt. William Haymond's Company of Monongalia County Militia", from the 15th of April until the 12th of June 1777. Twenty eight names were on the payroll. [Gwathmey's "Historical Register of Virginians in the Revolution", page 134.]

Later in 1777, Carter's moved south through the Shenandoah Valley Appalachian Mountains, to Surrey County, northwest North Carolina just south of the Virginia line, where Levi Sr., Caleb, Jesse, Nathaniel, John and others are listed as soldiers from North Carolina. (Allen, Penelope Johnson,"Tennessee Soldiers in the Revolution", p17.)

The Carter's of Washington and Sullivan counties, North Carolina (Greene County, TN. by 1783) were included in 1780-81 "Inventory of Taxable Property of the Twelfth District in the Present Circulating Currency" from Washington County, North Carolina.
Abraham, oldest son of John Carter Sr.; Caleb Carter Sr., not Levi's son; John Carter; Joseph Carter; and Levi Carter Sr.

They paid taxes until the 1783 Land Act by North Carolina, when each Carter head filed a claim for a given number of acres. Levi Carter, Sr. and John Carter, Sr. with adjoining tracts of land on Lick Creek Possessed no more than squatters rights------ built a Fort (Carter Fort), planted a crop, and tried to obtain a deed.

A historical marker "John Carter established a settlement in 1783" at Carter's Station in Greene County, Tennessee, located 8 miles northwest of Greeneville on Hwy. 70, near the old Albany Post Office. Originally it was on the old Babbs Mill Wagon Road that ran east and west through Greene county from near Rheatown to the Hawkins county line near Bull's Gap. Carter's built their fort on present-day site of Carter's Station and Cemetery, where they fought the Cherokee Indians at Lookout Mountain. It was an intensive battle and lasted nearly a decade, with the whites prevailing.

[It should be noted that this battle which took ten years; the Cherokees fighting for their survival, the Carters seeking more land ensued bitter resentment on both sides of the conflict. When three of Jesse Carter Sr's children married Cherokees, my 3ggrandmother...Nancy (CARTER) married Henry Pratt son of a Cherokee chief, in 1820, her father; Jesse disowned all of them and left them out of his will.-Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009]

A Revolutionary War voucher made out to Levi Carter, State of North Carolina, No. 3538 was for L12:3. The auditors for the counties of Washington and Sullivan, North Carolina, certified that Levi Carter received in account twelve pounds, three shillings, dated 12 June 1783.

The Carter's of Surry County, North Carolina, had supported the Revolution in both Virginia and North Carolina, while living on Indian lands, and had contributed soldiers to the cause. The King's proclamation in 1763, forbid white settlement west of the Appalachian Divide, so they were vulnerable to severe punishment by the British. Local Tories could identify the Carter's as enemies of the King, and soon after 1782, the Carter Patriarch's reached the conclusion that they could save their families by migrating en masse with the other threatened families to the Watauga-Tennessee Valley frontier. Some of the Carter's in the War lived long enough to apply for a Revolutionary War pension about 1830, and gave New Jersey as their birthplace.

These claims along Lick Creek were entered in North Carolina books during 1783-84, but four to ten years passed before receiving a full title. No sooner than the ink was dry on the original claim, ownership began to change by way of sales and purchases, gifts to children or other relatives, and by bequests to heirs. The original surveys and plats of Carter land grants are in North Carolina State Archives at Raleigh.

1793 Father's Greene County, Tennessee Property Transaction

State of North Carolina, No. #1238 12 January 1793, Levi Carter:

To all whom these presents shall come Greeting----Know ye that we for and in consideration of the sum of ten Pounds for every hundred acres hereby guaranteed paid into our Treasury by Levi Carter, have given and granted and by these presents do give and grant unto the said Levi Carter, a tract of land containing one hundred and seventy-five acres, (175A) lying and being in our County of Greene, on both sides of Lick Creek. Beginning at the mouth of Punching Camp Creek at a beech, then North 92 poles to an ash, then East 130 poles to two hickories, then South 32 poles to a white oak, then East 25 poles to a post oak, then South 154 poles to a white oak, then
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

West 155 poles to a white oak, then North 94 poles to the beginning; do by the plot hereunto doth appear together with all woods, waters, mines, minerals, hereditaments, appurtenances to the said land belonging pertaining to hold to the said Levi Carter, his heirs and assigns forever, yielding and paying to us such sums of money yearly or otherwise as our General Assembly from time to time may direct. Provided always that the said Levi Carter shall cause this grant to be Registered in the Register's Office of our said County of Greene, within the time limited by law, otherwise the same shall be void and of no effect. In testimony whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patent and our Great to be hereunto affixed. Witness: Richard Dobbs Spaight, Esquire, our Governor Captain General and Commander in Chief, at Newburn, the 12th day of January in the 17th year of our Independence and in the year of our Lord 1793. Signed: J. Glasgow, Secretary. Richard Dobbs Spaight

[A pole was equal to 16.5 feet-----Floyd Thomas Pratt]

Levi Carter's name appears frequently in the Greene County Court minutes from 1783-, as well as that of Abraham, James, Joseph, and Daniel. Caleb and Levi are named in 1784, in court cases as plaintiff or defendant; or to register an earmark for their hogs; jury lists; or appointments. In August 1786, "Ordered that a road be laid off from Babbs Mill to the County line below Swan Ponds", and named Joseph Carter, Abraham Carter, Levi Carter and nine other men to view, mark, and report to the November Court. This was the year 1786, that Levi Carter's son, our Elijah Carter was born. [When the text says our Elijah Carter, Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger is referring to Elijah as her direct line.-----Tom Pratt]

In December 1784, the State of Franklin was organized; and Southwest Territory (South of Ohio) was formed to provide state or territorial government for Washington, Sullivan and Greene counties. Carter Station Campgrounds date back to September 20, 1787, at which time one of the church founders, Joseph Carter received a land grant from the State of North Carolina. A Chrestian Society was organized in 1790 and an outdoor preaching place was built on the hill in the present Carter's Station cemetery. Traveling circuit riders preached at Carter Station in the early years, and services were held there until the Great Revival Era near the turn of the century. Shortly after 1800, a chruch, 40 x 30 was built of hewed pine logs, two-story covered with boards and had but one window. Two local ministers, the Rev. Benjamin Van Pelt, and Rev. Benjamin Williams served the church for many years. The latter is buried on the camp meeting ground. The Van Pelt home on Lick Creek was a favorite stopping place for Bishop Francis Asbury when he visited the area. This famous camp meeting site, had a large shed early in the century. A second shed was built in 1847--"the best in East Tennessee". In 1836, nine additional acres was purchased for camp meetings. In 1878 the present building was erected. "The present congregation at Carter's Station; United Methodist Church (formerly Albany) is striving to fulfill their obligation to God and to the founders of Old Carter's Station, and pledge to keep in service that which in trust has been passed down to them.

Carter's were numerous in America at the time of the first census, 1790, as number 63, appearing 651 times. In 1805, Levi Carter and Peter Cassel were on the tax rolls in Greene County, Tennessee. A newspaper article about Carter Station United Methodist Church, "Early white settlers from New Jersey, by way of Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Surrey County North Carolina, came upon a fortified Indian Village, made peace with the Indians and established a settlers fort in 1783. Many of the settlers and members of their families and their descendants are buried in the cemetery near the site of the fort. The first person buried was a Mr. Hardin whose mocassins became entangled in the brush of a cane-brake on the north side of Lick Creek when he was overtaken by the (Cherokee) Indians, and killed." (Greeneville Tennessee Sun, newspaper, 25 July 1979.)

The 1805 Camp meeting at Carter's Station began 23 August 1805, and lasted four (4) days. 10,000 people came. The families camped. (Greeneville Tennessee first newspaper in 1805.)

1796 State of Tennessee Created
The State of Tennessee is rooted in the Watauga Association, a 1772 frontier pact generally regarded as the first constitutional government west of the Appalachians. What is now Tennessee was initially part of North Carolina, and later part of the Southwest Territory. Tennessee was admitted to the Union as the 16th state on June 1, 1796.

1815 Court of Common Pleas
Court of Common Pleas, Quarter Sessions, 26 July 1815 and Greene County, Tennessee, Deed Record Book "10", page 487
Indenture made on July 26, 1815, between Jesse, John, Levy and Caleb and Joseph "sell and forever quit claim to heirs of a certain tract of land granted to Levy Carter, deceased, being in Greene County on the waters of Lick Creek wherein we have now been heirs which tract or piece of land as our part as legatees. After the death of our mother Susannah Carter, we will forever warrant and defend", etc. Registered 24 October 1816, in the presence of David Key and Samuel Keller. All signed with a mark.

1816 Marriage of Levi Carter and Elizabeth (HOWARD)
Jefferson County, Tennessee Marriage Record Book "1", page
Levi Carter and Elizabeth Howard were married on 13 July 1816, in Jefferson, Tennessee, United States. Since the Jefferson County 1810 and 1820 census is not available, it is hard to determine if Elizabeth actually lived in Jefferson County or she and Levi just married there. Since Levi is the youngest of his parent's children and he does inherit a portion of his father's property at Puncheon Camp Creek near Albany, Greene, Tennessee, then it is most likely they married at Jefferson and lived at Puncheon Camp Creek until he sold it on 16 April 1819. I think Elizabeth was the daughter of Reason Howard not the John Howard that some have proclaimed in ancestry.com. My reasons are listed at follows;
[1] Elizabeth names one of her daughters Rebecca after her mother, and another daughter Susannah after her husband's mother.
[2] Even though there is no son listed as a Reason Carter, there are plenty of date gaps in her child bearing years to have had one which did not live.
[3] We know Reason had a son, Nathan and Elizabeth names one of her son's Nathan.
[4] Levi and Elizabeth moved to the same county and near Reason Howard family and stays there through the 1830 and 1840 census years and does not leave Bledsoe County until after her mother died 1845. Her father, Reason stays in Bledsoe with a daughter and he dies from 1852. By the 1850 census Elizabeth has moved with her children near Saint John's Twp, Franklin County, Missouri. Concerning the marital age of Levi Jr., if he was born between 1801-1810 as the census records indicate, then he was very young when he married Elizabeth. We know Elizabeth was born between 1792-1797 with much census evidence, I would think that Live would not have married a woman older than himself. Therefore, he in all probability was born between 1790-1795.

1819-1830 Relocation
Levi Carter family after the sale of his inheritance at Puncheon Camp Creek near Albany, Greene, Tennessee, United States relocated to Bledsoe County, Tennessee in time for the 1830 census. Since there weren't any other Carters from his family in Bledsoe County, and there were Howard families in Bledsoe, it appears that Elizabeth wanted to be near her parents in Bledsoe County, Tennessee. I realize that others in ancestry.com have made a mess out of who they think she is the daughter of, but it seems strange that they moved near Reason Howard family and stayed in the Bledsoe County area until after her mother died on 17 December 1845. At that time, Levi and family made the move out west to Franklin County, Missouri where Levi passed on sometime in the 1840's. Looking at the land deeds at Bledsoe would yield an arrival time for Reason Howard and Levi Carter Jr. Looking at the deeds records of Franklin County, Missouri for Levi Carter Jr. could produce his arrival date in Franklin and if he is not listed then maybe he died before they arrived in Franklin County. Evidence from the 1850 census of Franklin County shows that wife; Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter came with the Kelly, Rollins and Dunlacy families.

1845 Bradley County, Tennessee Citizen's Petition for Citizenship for Levi Carter Jr. Family
It appears, on the 18th of October 1845, 73 local citizens of Bradley County, Tennessee signed a petition asking the State Representative; James Lauderdele to grant citizenship to the Richard B. Foreman family supposedly of Cherokee heritage, of which Levi Carter's name was added to said petition. This was another desperate attempt by Levi & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter Jr. family (especially grandchildren) to remain in Bledsoe or Bradley County, Tennessee and avoid the consequences of the 1830 Indian Removal Act. Levi Carter and family may have moved from Bledsoe County to Bradley County between 1840 census date and this 1845 petition date or their name could have been added even with a Bledsoe County residency. I have covered this Cherokee issue of Levi Carter Jr. in 4 previous discourses namely;

[1] "Bob Watson Emails"
[2] "Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter who are you?"

In these discourses I debunk the alleged Levi Carter Jr. Cherokee connections.

Randy Dodson (email address on request with permission) sent me a copy of the 1845 Petition mentioned above. This petition is important for several reasons:

[1] It establishes a possible new residence for Levi Jr. & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter family from Bledsoe County to Bradley County, Tennessee. Maybe not, maybe they still lived in Bledsoe County but their name was added to the Bradley County petition list.
[2] It reveals that Levi Carter Jr. was still alive on the 18th of October 1845 in Bledsoe or Bradley County, Tennessee.
[3] Obviously, their petition was denied and shortly thereafter, the Levi Jr. & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter family left the area under duress and made their trek to Franklin County, Missouri.
[4] This petition was not made in direct request for Levi Carter Jr. and family, but he was added to the list of names without supporting documents of a Cherokee heritage.
[5] In an attempt to circumvent the Federal law of the Indian Removal Act of 1830, like I mentioned in my previous reports, his children had married into Cherokee ancestry and on their behalf...it looks like Levi and Elizabeth were trying to avoid, at all cost, the forced removal of their children and grandchildren.
[7] This petition date debunks Levi Carter Jr.’s reported death date of 1844 in Franklin County, Missouri.

1845-1850 Family Move & Death of Levi Carter Jr.
Levi Carter Jr’s family moved from Bradley County, Tennessee, United States to District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States after 18 October 1845 and before the 1850 census date. This is in harmony with the customary departure procedure. After the death of Elizabeth's mother in 1845, it appears the Levi Carter family left for Missouri. Levi died either in Tennessee, enroute or in Missouri. Checking the deed records of Bledsoe County, Tennessee for his or Elizabeth's last property transaction would let us know if he was alive when he or Elizabeth sold their Bledsoe County or Bradley County property and if he was...checking the Franklin County, Missouri deed records might shed some light on his arrival date in Missouri if he survived the trip.

1845-1850 Death of Levi Carter Jr.
Levi Carter Jr. died either in (1) Bledsoe County, Tennessee (2) Enroute from Tennessee to Missouri (3) In Franklin County, Missouri. Checking the Franklin County, Missouri probate book did not yield a will or estate transaction of a Levi Carter.

Hi, I have noticed a number of Family Trees have included incorrect information on Levi Carter's son John Carter. Causing the problem is a John M. Carter listed on the 1870 & 1880 Johnson, Miller County Censuses, born in Tennessee a few years earlier, living in the same general area of Missouri and possibly related to Levi Carter, but not as a son. Since you are interested in investigating these families, you might find the following of interest. Feel free to let me know if you find any errors in my research.

Bob Watson bwatson1099@aol.com

According to his death certificate, Benjamin Franklin Carter was born in Crawford County, MO 26 Jan 1853. Benjamin was the son of John M. Carter and Cynthia Lynch and is buried in Dixon Cemetery, Pulaski County, MO.

Originally it was thought Benjamin's father John M Carter was the son of Levi and Elizabeth Carter. However, that has changed for several reasons:

1) The 1850 Census for District 31, Franklin County, MO lists Levi Carter's wife Elizabeth Carter and her children, John, Joseph, Matilda, Rachel and Rebecca. John Carter is listed as being born in Tennessee about 1825. John M. Carter had a wife and four children at this time.

2) The 1850 Census for District 24, Crawford County, MO lists a J. Carter born in Tennessee abut 1823. The census taker was to either too lazy to write out people's names or his racial prejudices show up as he used initials instead of complete names making it difficult to accurately track people, especially when there are errors. For example, John's wife's Cynthia sounds like it starts with an S and is listed as S E Carter. Daughter Sarah is listed as SE, daughter Matilda is listed as T J (possibly Tilda Jane), and son Lorenzo is listed as what appears to be RC (possibly Renzo with the C actually being an O). Anyway, this appears to be the John M Carter family.

3) Another 1850 Census for District 24, Crawford County, MO lists a J Carter born North Carolinaa but 1791. All of his family members are listed as being born in Missouri making his entry into Missouri prior to 1827. If John M was his son, then this J Carter's entry into Missouri would have been between 1823 and 1827.

Note: I'm wondering if this District 24 area of Crawford County was inhabited by people with Indian blood as a son and a daughter of my great, great grandfather Samuel Helms moved into this same census area back in the late 1840's and lived there for several years. At the time Sam Helms was living in an area called Indian Creek inhabited by Indians in northwest Washington County just south of Sullivan, MO and just east of Crawford County. Family history has Sam Helms's first wife an Indian.

4) On 9 Feb 1854 a John Carter married an Elizabeth I. Davis in Franklin County, MO. This location and marriage after the 1850 Census makes it easier to believe this John Carter is Levi and Elizabeth Carter's son.

5) The 1860 Census for Cullen, Pulaski County, MO lists a John Easter born Tennessee abut 1823 and an Elizabeth Easter born Tennessee abut 1823. A close look at the actual census shows that the last name is actually Carter. Therefore, they are the John and Elizabeth Carter married in Franklin County in 1854. Also on this census is a George Murphy.

6) The 1860 Census for Johnson, Maries County, MO, lists Benjamin's father John M Carter born Tennessee abut 1823, the four children born in the 1840's (Sarah, James, Matilda and Lorenzo), Benjamin and another daughter Susan. Cynthia must have died 1856 - 1860.
7) On the 1880 Census for Miller Township, Maries County, MO, for my grandparents Thomas Watson and Eliza Matilda Carter-Watson, a George Murphy appears. Who was George Murphy? I don't have the lightness idea, but his living with the John and Elizabeth Carter in Pulaski County in 1860 suggests a family relationship as Eliza Matilda Carter-Watson was a sister to John Carter.

Based on this information I do not believe that Benjamin's father (John M. Carter) was a son of Levi and Elizabeth Carter; however, his living in the Dixon area suggests some kind of relationship.

Unanswered question. What happened to Levi's son John Carter and Elizabeth Davis-Carter after the 1860 Census?

Email from Bob Watson
Floyd, Thanks for responding. The John Carter, I am referring to was the son of:
Levi Carter - Born about 1795, Cherokee Nation, Tennessee- Died 1844 Franklin County, MO
Elizabeth Howard - Born about 1794, Jefferson County, Tennessee- Died after 1870 Maries or Pulaski County, MO

Children of Levi and Elizabeth Carter:
- Susannah, born TN abt 1817 married John Dunlacy
- Betsie E, born TN abt 1819
- Sarah Sallie, born TN abt 1820 married John Kelley
- Rutha Betsy, born TN abt 1822 married David Rollins
- John, born TN abt 1825 married Elizabeth Davis
- Rebecca, born TN abt 1828
- Rachael, born TN abt 1829 married David Rollins
- Alexander, born TN abt 1830
- Nathan, born TN abt 1831
- Joseph Carter (born Tennessee about 1833)
- Eliza Matilda, born TN abt 1840 married Joseph Watson

John Carter (Levi & Elizabeth Carter's son) can be located as follows:
1850 Census – District 31, Franklin County, MO (living with his mother Elizabeth Carter)
1854 Marriage, Franklin County, MO to Elizabeth Davis (9 Feb 1854)
1860 Census – Township 38, Range 11, Pulaski County, MO interpreted incorrectly as John Easter Can't locate John and Elizabeth Carter after the 1860 Census.

John M Carter on 1860, 1870 & 1880 Censuses for Maries County, MO could not have been Levi Carter's son based him having a family when the 1850 Census was taken and the name of his wife.
abt 1842 Marriage to Cynthia Lynch
1850 Census – District 24, Crawford County, MO
1860 Census Johnson, Maries County, MO
abt 1868 Marriage to Sarah Caroline Walker
1870 Census Johnson, Maries County, MO
1870 Census Johnson, Maries County, MO

Children of John M. Carter and Cynthia Lynch:
- Sarah (born Missouri about 1843)
- James (born Missouri about 1845)
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

- Matilda (born Missouri about 1848)
- Lorenzo (born Missouri about 1850)
- Benjamin F. (born Missouri about 1853)
- Susan E. (born Missouri about 1856)

Children of John M. Carter and Sarah Walker:
- Martha A. (born Missouri about 1869)
- Charles M. (born Missouri about 1872)

Levi Carter Family - Why Did They Migrate to Missouri?

by Bob Watson

With the background developed on the Carter family, can we determine why, in 1844, most if not all of members of the Levi Carter family move from Bledsoe County, TN to Franklin County, MO?

The possible answer lies in the environmental issues impacting Tennessee between 1750 and the 1840's. First, the surnames of Carter, Brittain and Howard are of English or Scottish origination. This is importance as in the mid 1700's, the few white settlers in Tennessee were Indian agents placed there by the British government to handle trade with the Indians. These agents lived among the Indians and often took native wives. It is very likely the Caters, Howards and Brittains were Indians agents or the children of Indian Agents and their Indian wives. In 1776, with the outbreak of hostilities caused by the American Revolution, the British used the white settler's westward expansion to their advantage in gaining support from Indian tribes against the rebelling colonies. Such actions and the constant need for land to appease the ever increasing white settlers created long lasting animosities between the Indians and white settlers.

The most obvious question that arises is, if the Carters, Howards and Brittains were Indians agents were they also British sympathizers? By the end of the 1700's, pressures for land from the growing populations in the eastern states, forced Indian tribes to sell or just give up their lands and move further west into Tennessee and Arkansas. This forced movement created further resentment among the Indians to the white man. Racial prejudice among the new settlers to the Indians continued to grow.

An internet finding states: “Settlement of Tennessee proceeded rapidly. Home-seekers poured in from the Carolinas, Virginia, Pennsylvania and even New England. They came with Revolutionary War land-grants, either earned in service or purchased from veterans or speculators. (Often these grants were forgeries.) Many of them came simply as squatters.” Eventually, the white settlers’ desire for land forced most of the Indians out of Tennessee. Various forced movements took place from 1800 to the well known “Trail of Tears” in 1838. While information on mixed marriages (whites & Indians) could not be located for this period, I believe it is reasonable to assume that such families were subjected to discrimination, especially if their fathers' had been English sympathizers in the Revolutionary War.

Thus, while such families may not have been forced to move out of Tennessee by the government, they most likely experienced severe discrimination from the newly arriving white settlers. Therefore, if Levi and Elizabeth (Howard) Carter had Indian blood, their family most likely faced racial prejudices. And, if they were descendants of Indian agents who supported the British during the Revolutionary War, that would have increased the resentment. Carrying this thought further, when we look at the marriages of their daughters, Susannah, Sarah Sallie and Rutha Betsy, to men of English/Scottish heritage (John Dunlavy, John Kelly and David Rollens), it is likely these daughters married men with similar backgrounds.

Supporting this theory, when Sarah (Carter) Kelly dies her husband John Kelley marries her sister Rachel Carter, and Eliza Matilda (age 21), marries Thomas Watson (age 51). Why would Eliza Matilda have married a recently widowed man thirty years older with a family? It is possible her reason was due to the prejudices her family experienced in Tennessee. Racial discrimination, and possibly resentment against the family's support for the British during the Revolutionary War, very likely explains the family's reason for migrating out of Tennessee. Another possibility could be the neighbors' discovery of Elizabeth's illegitimate birth.

Email to Bob Watson 5 September 2010
Ok Bob, finally after all these years I have had so many requests for information on Levi Carter Sr's family that I got around to "updating" my files.
For the last 35 years, I have now written 35 books on my ancestors and allied families and Levi Carter Sr. is Volume 7 of the Pratt Progenitor Papers.
Enclosed is an article I wrote explaining what "updating" entails.
Also, enclosed is a form that explains what I can offer you on disc as a .pdf file.
As I was updating my Levi Carter Jr. file, I read your September 2008 email enlightening researchers as to the difference of Levi Jr's; John Carter and the John M. Carter.
I stumbled across the answer by accident years ago but I don't know if you were informed.
John M. Carter who you said married Cynthia (LYNCH) is the son of Robert B. Sr. & Rebecca (JACKSON) Carter, son of John & Margaret (??) Carter, son of Levi Sr.
Robert and Rebecca were married between 1821-1827 and had several children; John, Elizabeth, Lorenzo, Green, Nancy, Clara, Mary, Robert Jr., Abram.
As I wrote in my report, "Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter Who Are You?", I mentioned that some of Robert's children moved to Maries County, Missouri and knew the Hansell family...remember Lorenzo Carter? After reviewing your email, I agree that John M. is not Levi Jr.'s John but must be related to Lorenzo and Robert's family the dates fit.
Concerning Cynthia (LYNCH), I don't have a record of her except what you sent me in the emails but I think I know who she is...daughter of James Jr. & Elizabeth (PRATT) Lynch.
James & Elizabeth were married in Buncombe, North Carolina, United States in 1810 and moved to Greene County, Tennessee before the 1830 census. They are living next door to father; James Lynch Sr.
They have a large family and one of their sons, Calvin Vilander Lynch was the first postmaster at Vilander, named after him in Liberty Twp, Crawford County, Missouri.
Elizabeth (PRATT) Lynch was of Cherokee ancestry and they left Tennessee for Pulaski County, Missouri in 1841.
Unknown how Elizabeth connects to my Henry and Cynthia (PRATT) Blanton, whom you know were Cherokee, but she is related somehow because the Lynch's settled near my Pratts at Vilander where James Jr. and Elizabeth had died.
Glad you sent me that email back in 2008, I kept it and put it into Levi Jr.'s file, until I was ready to tackle it.

Levi Carter Family Research #2
by Bob Watson

With information provided from a World Family Tree Project (Airheart Connection and Holloway-Stockton Families) http://awtc.ancestry.com/cgi-bin/igm.cgi?op=GET&db=lynnb&id=I466, the following was developed.
According to this web site, Levi Carter was born about 1795 in Cherokee Nation County, Tennessee. No information is posted on the names or birth locations of his parents. He married Elizabeth Howard July 18, 1816 in Jefferson County, Tennessee. Eleven known children were born of the marriage, the youngest being Eliza Matilda who married Thomas H. Watson February 7, 1861. Sometime between 1816 and the 1830 Census, the family migrated 150 miles west from Jefferson County, TN to Bledsoe County, TN. Then, in 1844, the family (adults and children) made a decision to leave Bledsoe County for Franklin County, MO where they are located on the 1850 Census. At least eighteen (18) family members made the trip. The distance from Bledsoe County, TN to Franklin County, MO was over 500 miles as the crow flies.
The trip was especially hard on Levi as he died shortly after arriving in Franklin County, MO.
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

Fifty-four (54) years later, his daughter writes: "Daughter Rachel states in an application in 1898 to the Cherokee Indian Nation (Citizenship Application #1024) for Lewis Kelly that her father Levi left Bledsoe Co. TN in 1844 when he moved west with his children, he took sick and died there." According to the 1860 Census, the Carter clan had moved from Franklin County to Maries County where they remained for many years. Elizabeth Carter lived with her daughter Eliza Matilda and John H. Watson in Maries County for several years before her death between 1870 and 1880.

Floyd, Thanks for the information. I can see you have spent a lot of time and effort researching and writing on the Carter family. I will be reviewing your information in detail after this week to determine the impact on my posted notes. It will likely be 1-2 weeks before I can get back to you. Bob Watson

Thanks Bob, I found where you had posted Rachel's application to the Cherokee Nation. I have several questions, if you don't mind.
[1] If I am correct, Rachel was supplying testimony for and on behalf of George, Joseph and Jeremiah Rollins and Lewis Kelly for their admittance into the Cherokee nation.
[2] Was what you posted a complete transcript of the application?
[3] Where can I get a copy of the application?
[4] Do you know of the disposition of that application? Were they accepted or rejected?
There are several disturbing references in this application that are false and misleading that others have accepted as fact. I intend to investigate and address these issues in detail.
In my research of the Cherokees back in 2000-2002 and in preparation of my book, "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee", I read and studied the details of Cherokee history and the impact the European whites had on their society.
I know a little about these people and when my Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt were forced by bayonet on the "Trail of Tears" in September 1838, I studied the circumstances of the inception, organization, implementation and commencement of the "trail" before, during and after the round-up, including organizational divisions of the company's and all eventual routes they took.
This was done, in an attempt as a last resort to debunk that my Pratts were Cherokees...but European, after all, the name Pratt was English.
In my pursuit to learn the truth, I found who they, my Pratts, really were...Cherokees. That led to the book. I had bought, rented and read over 45 books on the tribes of southeastern America and learned their culture, history and differences.
When I began my family history research in 1975, I had heard the old-timers at our family reunions tell stories of Indian connections but I dismissed them as some Pratt, somewhere, married an Indian squaw.
Little did I know who and what I was going to find, when I started to "look into" this native peoples connection. Rachel's account is fixed with some truth and too much supposition.
For example, the "Trail of Tears" never went anywhere near Franklin County.
The Northern trail under Hildebrand came up through Farmington to Potosi, across what is now Highway 8 into Crawford County to St. James, then south down the Kickapoo Indian Trail now known as I-44 to Marshfield where it met up with another group and headed south into Indian Territory or now known as Oklahoma.
If many Cherokee people came to the home of Levi & Elizabeth Carter in Franklin County, they did so as visitors...not from the "Trail".
Also, by the time Levi Carter and family made it to Franklin County, (mid 1840's) the "Trail" had been over for several years.
It's statements like that, from the application that is prompting me to address her testimony. When I have finished, I will send you a copy.
If for instance, Levi Carter Jr. is on one of the Cherokee rolls, which I have copies of all of them, I will look, then he was on those rolls as a sympathizer to their cause, not because he was Cherokee! Remember he was born after the Cherokee War which lasted 10 years and ended in 1785. Therefore, he had no prejudice or animosity for the Cherokees and it does not surprise me that so many of his children married into the Cherokee people.

Five of Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt's 11 children married five of Blanton children who were 1st cousins, following Cherokee tradition.

Absalom Blanton was not Cherokee but his wife; Cynthia (PRATT), sister to Henry Pratt was, in fact referred to by her family as a Cherokee Princess.

After all my research, you can imagine my surprise when I saw in other researchers "trees" that Levi Carter Jr. was Cherokee. This is a prime case of failing to do their homework before they accept information.

One of the most enlightening books about the Carters is titled "Family History of Levi Carter Descendants and Allied Families---Cassel, Glendenning, Stewart, Cummins/Harvey Clelland, Van Metre" (1991) by Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger. Elizabeth had done an excellent job in the preparation of her book and I will be converting her book to .pdf file for and on her behalf for public distribution.

She told me that she had made 200 copies back in the 1990's and sold out of all of them and does not have any more left. She will be celebrating her 92 birthday next week.

Much of her work is documented and she has written evidence of the Carter's tumultuous life with the natives in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Virginia, North Carolina and eventually Tennessee.

When I have finished that project I will notify you.

Thank you for the work you are doing and I will be looking forward to your reply.

Email from Bob Watson 8 September 2010

Floyd,

My original support for Rachael (Carter) Rollins' application to the Cherokee Indian Nation came from a World Tree Project listing by "Airheart Connections." See following email address:

<http://awtc.ancestry.com/cgi-bin/igm.cgi?op=GET&db=lynnb&id=I466>

Later I came into contact with a person (can't remember name) but the person allowed me to enter a Family Tree on MYFamily.com titled "Lewis Ezell Family." A copy of the original application was posted and I was permitted to download. Since it was difficult to read, I typed the information and posted it in my Family Tree. The downloaded copy is attached. You will need some kind of picture enhancer to read. Sorry I could not look at it before sending as I changed computers a few weeks ago and my enhancing program could not be converted.

Floyd, you may wonder why I have been researching different Carter families in Maries and Pulaski Counties. The reason relates to Carter family connections to various family members.

Thomas H. Watson and his son John Isaac Watson

My great grandfather married Levi and Elizabeth Carter's youngest daughter Eliza Matilda Carter in 1861 in the Dixon area of Maries/Pulaski Counties, MO. Eliza Matilda was Thomas' third wife and the mother of my grandfather Joseph Watson.

Thomas H. Watson's son John Isaac Watson married Martha Jane Rollins, the daughter of Rutha Betty Carter another daughter of Levi and Elizabeth Carter.

Martha Mariah Watson

Martha, Thomas H. Watson's daughter (from his second wife), married Louis Alexander Carter (born MO in 1860) about 1877 most likely in the Dixon area as that is where she can be located in 1870 and in 1880 following the marriage. While I am not 100% certain and have not been able to locate satisfactory documentation, I believe Louis Alexander Carter was possibly the son of Nathan Carter (son of Levi and Elizabeth Carter).

Tabitha Elizabeth Watson
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

Tabitha, Thomas H. Watson and Eliza Matilda's daughter, married Joseph Carter in Maries County August 1880 following the 1880 Census. While I had thought Joseph Carter was a son of John M. Carter, after finding what is possibly a Joseph Carter in the 1870 Census household of an A.Z. or A.L. Carter (born Tennessee about 1823) living close to the Thomas H. Watson farm, that Joseph Carter becomes a stronger possibility. Unfortunately, I can't locate an A.Z. or A.L. Carter or any of the other children on an earlier or later census. Possibly, he was Levi and Elizabeth Carter's son Alexander Carter.

Floyd, I have been away from my Carter research for some time, so it will take me awhile to get up to speed on your notes which I am looking forward to studying in detail.

Floyd,
I forgot to mention in my prior email that the the application was rejected. My understand was that there was not sufficient proof of Levi's Indian blood. I'm still trying to locate some past emails.

Email from Bob Watson 9 September 2010
Floyd,
What can I say? I was so interested in your research, I dropped everything to read it and your thoughts on additional research required. You have done a great job of laying out your documentation on the Carter family. I was also interested in your record keeping method which has apparently worked quite well for you. For me, I find the online Ancestry.com program works good. As you know, I use the story feature to record my research allowing other researchers to provide input to make improvements. Unfortunately, I have not received the level of comments (good or bad) one would expect. So your comments are appreciated.
The question for me, what is my next step? You have made a number of potential connections to my research which, if I can get them straight in my mind, might allow me to fill in some of the holes in your research. For example, the name Lorenzo Carter (son of Robert B. Sr. & Rebecca (Jackson) Carter was new to me. In the booklet "The Cemeteries of Maries County, MO, A Personal History" there is a headstone in Pinnell Cemetery with the inscription"Lorenzo O. Carter, Died Oct. 13, 1882, Aged about 52 Ys 2ms." No wife listed. Pinnell Cemetery is in Jefferson Township which would be less than 30 miles from the Thomas H. Watson location of Miller Township on the 1870 & 1880 Censuses. Unfortunately, the booklet does not have a headstone listing for Elizabeth Carter who could have been buried in the Pennell Cemetery in an unmarked plot. Another location for her burial could be the Fairview Cemetery near Dixon in Miller Township where family history has Thomas H. Watson buried in 1880 in an unmarked plot. While we believe Elizabeth's daughter Eliza Matilda is also buried there (between 1880-1882), there is no record of her death.
By the way. My great, grandfather's name is being used incorrectly as Thomas Wesley Watson in some Family Trees. The error was started many years ago by a lady to got me interested in researching the Watson family and it has taken some time to correct.
The Cemeteries of Maries County booklet also lists in Wentzel Cemetery (Johnson Township – page 383), Sarah Carter – Died Jan. 12, 1892 – Aged 62 Yr. & 2 Ms. No listing is made of a husband. Possibly additional research will provide an answer. I also have a booklet "Tombstone Inscriptions of Pulaski County." Between these two booklets there are 40 Carter names which need to be looked at in detail.
Floyd, what I would like to do (if you don't mind is):
1) Post as much of your research on Carter family members as I can locate in your work on my Family Tree (at all times giving you credit for your research) and conduct a person by person research looking for whatever information is available in Ancestry.com's data bases which by the way is tied into Mormon Church data bases. I will start this after converting my public Family Tree to private so that other researchers do not have access to the information until I return to a public Family Tree format. My reason, in conducting my research I will be guessing at names, dates, etc. to see if matches can be obtained in the various data bases and I do not want some researcher picking up information and assuming my research is accurate. I have done this in the past.

2) Since I have some experience in working with the State of Tennessee on land grants (land purchases & sales) for my Cannon County Keatons (1820-1854), I will tackle the land sales & purchases records relating to the Bledsoe County Carters and related families.

This will take some time as my research time is inconsistent but the satisfaction of finding research connections is very rewarding.

One last thing. There is a January 5, 1871 Maries County land purchase record on Ancestry.com for Thomas Watson and I have always assumed it was in the Clifty Dale/Miller Township area where Thomas Watson was living according to the 1870 & 1880 Censuses and where my grandfather lived throughout his life. Unfortunately, the description on the land record refers to sections and ranges.

Email to Bob Watson 10 September 2010

Bob, first of all, would like to thank you for your prompt reply and thorough responses to my inquiries.

I know when you are on a different project and someone like me, out of the blue, asks for help on a family you are not even working on...makes it hard to switch brain power. I appreciate your time and responses. I appreciate the copy of the application.

There is a website that lets you look at plat maps...this is one for Maries County, if that will help.

Don't get me wrong...you may be right about the Brittain connection. That's why those deeds and the will book in Bledsoe County is so vital.

You have to understand that my reasons for going into such detail about a subject is not to convince my readers to my point of view but to get feedback to dispel my conclusions with known facts that others have which they may not have realized connected to our common subject.

It's OK with me to post my research. When I wrote "Elizabeth *HOWARD) Carter who are you?"

After seeing that application I had to start out "1896 Testimony of Rachel (CARTER) Rollins" with additional information to update the first report.

That's the trouble with digging into history, there is always something, new information, to throw your theories. I had to put my tree into private mode, because the emails were overwhelming.

With 27,000 people in my tree, I couldn't get any work done...always answering emails.

Even now, I can't get to all of them.

What I have been doing is to offer to researchers and interested parties, all my notes on a family that I have been researching for the last 35 years. These notes turn out to be sometimes 400 page books and the only way I can get that info to them is by cd as a .pdf file.

I charge $20 for the processing of the cd. In other words I give them the information for free. This keeps me really busy and I have 3 customers who are waiting for me to finish the Levi Carter Sr. Descendancy Book of 3 generations, which with your help is now finished. It is over 338 pages.

You can post any of my notes, stories, articles and emails you wish to your tree to help others so they don't have to double track what I have already found and waste more research time.

Enclosed is a small report on Levi Carter Sr. called "Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile of Levi Carter Sr." it is small enough to get through my email to you.

Another website that you might find helpful is <http://www.histopolis.com/Place/US/MO/Wayne_County/Bounds>
It gives you townships and cemetery locations for about anywhere in the US.
I really was done with Rachel's testimony, but those step-sons, (Rutha's boys) would not leave me alone. That's why I had to write that addendum.
I really don't know what was going on there with that application but it smells. But, even if it was a fraud attempt, we still got some useful information from Rachel.
When I was in Monroe County, Tennessee, I went to the area that Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt lived and it was exhilarating.
But, I didn't know about Levi and Bledsoe County on the "Trail" otherwise I would have done some research at the courthouse.
Too old now, to travel, but maybe the next generation.
Keep up the good work, you are the only Carter researcher left around that really investigates the material and your conclusions and insight are invaluable to the rest of us because you help us to think outside of the box.
If you hadn't posted that application, I would never have been able or taken the time to do an in-depth investigation into Levi & Elizabeth's history and found the "Trail" where my 3rd GGparents visited them on their western trek in 1838. I thought ALL the Carters were oblivious to the Pratt's plight and it is good to know that Levi & Elizabeth cared. Without your help in bringing that to light, I would have gone to the grave bitter about all the Tennessee Carters.
Your hypothesis concerning Elizabeth (HOWARD) and the Brittain families may be true, and Reason & Dicey (WALKER) Howard maybe wrong, maybe the answers are sitting in a dusty vault in the Bledsoe County Courthouse.
Keep presenting what you find and hope others see it and with the combined effort of all parties we might, get to the truth. Respectfully, Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 10 September 2010

Email sent to all 15 December 2010
Hello all...as with a living viable breathing entity...this Levi Jr. & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter issue about a Cherokee ancestry gets better and better...or in more exact terms, annoying. One of my clients sent me the enclosed Petition and I wrote him the following...email dated 15 December 2010 Concerning the Petition you sent to me, a very important document. I thank you, it helps debunk several misconceptions. That petition forced me to add an additional C2G sequence in Levi Carter Jr.‘s Profile. I have added the following;

1845 Bradley County, Tennessee Citizen’s Petition for Citizenship for Levi Carter Jr. Family
It appears, on the 18th of October 1845, 73 local citizens of Bradley County, Tennessee signed a petition asking the State Representative; James Lauderdele to grant citizenship to the Richard B. Foreman family supposedly of Cherokee heritage, of which Levi Carter's name was added to said petition. This was another desperate attempt by Levi & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter Jr. family (especially grandchildren) to remain in Bledsoe or Bradley County, Tennessee and avoid the consequences of the 1830 Indian Removal Act. Levi Carter and family may have moved from Bledsoe County to Bradley County between 1840 census date and this 1845 petition date or their name could have been added even with a Bledsoe County residency. I have covered this Cherokee issue of Levi Carter Jr. in 4 previous discourses namely;

[1] "Bob Watson Emails"
[2] "Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter who are you?"
In these discourses I debunk the alleged Levi Carter Jr. Cherokee connections.
This petition is important for several reasons:
[1] It establishes a possible new residence for Levi Jr. & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter family from Bledsoe County to Bradley County, Tennessee. Maybe not, maybe they still lived in Bledsoe County but their name was added to the Bradley County petition list.
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

[2] It reveals that Levi Carter Jr. was still alive on the 18th of October 1845 in Bledsoe or Bradley County, Tennessee.

[3] Obviously, their petition was denied and shortly thereafter, the Levi Jr. & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter family left the area under duress and made their trek to Franklin County, Missouri.

[4] This petition was not made in direct request for Levi Carter Jr. and family, but he was added to the list of names without supporting documents of a Cherokee heritage.

[5] In an attempt to circumvent the Federal law of the Indian Removal Act of 1830, like I mentioned in my previous reports, his children had married into Cherokee ancestry and on their behalf...it looks like Levi and Elizabeth were trying to avoid, at all cost, the forced removal of their children and grandchildren.

[7] This petition date debunks Levi Carter Jr.’s reported death date of 1844 in Franklin County, Missouri. Once again, another piece of evidence of a desperate attempt to claim Cherokee heritage when no such heritage existed.

Judge not, Levi and Elizabeth's attempt to avoid an unjust law for the sake of their grandchildren, appears, their deception was based on noble and loving intentions. But nevertheless, as I have proven, Levi Carter Jr. did not carry a Cherokee heritage. Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 15 December 2010

I had previously written PPP Levi Carter Sr. and Descendants back in 1992 and in March of this year I began a revision of that 126 page book and finished in October. In my research, the issue of Levi Carter Jr. having a Cherokee heritage keep popping up and I wrote several articles concerning this issue. When I checked the Cater Auxiliary Folder I sent to you, after receiving your Petition, I found that I had left off some key reports concerning this issue. So, on you new disc, it will contain an updated PPP Volume 7 Levi Carter Sr. and Descendants with the above 1845 Petition in the Levi Carter Jr. Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile and a copy of that petition in a new folder called..."Controversy over Levi Carter Jr. and Alleged Cherokee Connection". It will have all the reports I wrote this summer about this issue and how I proved Levi had no Cherokee heritage. As a bonus on your disc, I am including my book, "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee" which goes into detail about the Carters and the Cherokees and my 5th GGrandparents trek on the "Trail of Tears". End of email dated 15 December 2010. Attached is the Petition mentioning Levi Carter family. Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 15 December 2010

Some have suggested that the petition I just sent you was referring to the Levi & Margaret (?) Carter family of Bradley County, Tennessee. This is not so. Levi Carter (1805) of Bradley County, Tennessee was the son of Jesse Sr. & Susanna (HARMON) Carter. This Levi married Margaret "Peggy" (?) and had a slew of children. Look at his notes for those of you who have the disk and you will see not only was he having children all through the 1840’s but he was the one with his son Robert murdered in the Civil War. All through his research there has been no mention, indication or reference to anything Cherokee about him or his family. If he had been associated with a Cherokee heritage either through marriage or his children's marriage, most likely he would have been forced out of Bradley County long before the Civil War era. Even after his death we see his widow...Margaret staying and living in Bradley and finally moving to McMinn County where she died after 1870 before 1880. No Cherokee issues with this family. However, the Levi Carter in the petition I believe is the Levi Carter Jr. family, son of Levi Carter Sr. This Levi (1795) married Elizabeth (HOWARD) and their last child was born 1838. This is the Levi Carter that his daughters married into Cherokee families and his daughter Rachel wanted to apply with an application for membership into the Cherokee Nation. This Levi Carter family has a great deal of Cherokee involvement. This is the family that I feel was on the 1845 Petition. Because, shortly after that petition denial, his family even with him and wife Elisabeth being of elderly aged, picked-up and endured a forced march to Missouri and Levi was reported to have died in Franklin County, Missouri. In my report, "Let Get the Facts Straight", I reported to you how the Carters had no Cherokee ancestry, in fact I even explained why there was so much Native hostility towards the natives by the Carter clan, that when some of Jesse Carter Sr.'s children married Cherokee spouses, he disowned them and they were not allowed to participate in the family inheritance. So, in conclusion, I see the petition as supporting evidence for the Levi & Elizabeth (Howard) Carter family of Bledsoe County and don't forget, they could have moved from the 1840 census of Bledsoe to Bradley County by the 1845 Petition. Checking the deed records of both counties might reveal that information. Also, any newspapers in the area would have definitely reported the petition and surrounding circumstances. Therefore, the Levi Carter, Jesse's son became a Reverend probably in the Methodist faith and was murdered in 1863. The Levi Carter Jr. after the failure of the petition, moved to Missouri with his son-in-laws and it was the son-in-laws who claimed Cherokee ancestry not the Carters. With their families due to pressure from the government of Tennessee and the 1830 Indian Removal Act, Levi died shortly after arriving in Franklin County, Missouri. His children married into the Cherokee families and they are the ones who tried to get membership into the Cherokee nation. At the age of 50, Levi leaves with his family and grandchildren the state of Tennessee, where they have lived all their lives and heads to Missouri where all their exiled family has settled, without knowing exactly where they were going or what they were going to do, seems to me to have been a decision based on their love of the grandchildren. That type of grandparents love is still being manifested today, where grandparents move closer to their grandchildren to be near them. As soon as we sell our home we will be moving down to Port Charlotte to be near our grandchildren. Remember, If there was any truth or evidence or testimony that the Carters were Cherokee other than wishful thinking and maybe those son-in-laws wanting some of that allotment money the Cherokees were getting from the government, then their applications would not have been denied. I am sure if there were even a little Testimony by a bona fide Cherokee member of the Cherokee tribe, even one good testimony in their favor to validate their Cherokee heritage, then they would have been accepted. Please put this to rest and move on. Floyd

Levi married Elizabeth Howard, daughter of Reason Howard and Dicey Walker, 13 July 1816 in Jefferson, Tennessee, United States. Elizabeth was born from 1792 to 1797 in Tennessee, United States and died from 1870 to 1880 near Clifty Dale Post Office, Miller Twp, Maries, Missouri, United States at age 78.

I think Elizabeth was the daughter of Reason Howard not the John Howard that some have proclaimed in ancestry.com. My reasons are listed at follows;
[1] Even though there is no son listed as a Reason Carter, there are plenty of date gaps in her child bearing years to have had one which did not live.
[2] We know Reason had a son, Nathan and Elizabeth names one of her son's Nathan.
[3] Levi Jr.and Elizabeth moved to the same county and near Reson Howard family and stays there through the 1830 and 1840 census years and does not leave Bledsoe County until after her mother died between 1840-1850.
[4] Her father, Reason stays in Bledsoe with a daughter and he dies from 1850 to 1860. By the 1850 census Elizabeth has moved with her children near Saint John's Twp, Franklin County, Missouri.

1792 Jefferson County, Tennessee created from Greene & Hawkins Counties, Tennessee in 1792
Checking the deed records of Greene, Jefferson and Bledsoe Counties of Tennessee might reveal when Reason Howard first bought property in one of those counties.

1792-1797 Childbirth of Elizabeth (HOWARD)
Without knowing where her father was living in 1792 to 1797, we can't be sure where she was born. Checking the deed records for Burke County, North Carolina would reveal when he left that area and checking the deed records first of Washington County, North Carolina and then Greene County, Tennessee might show when he arrived in the Tennessee area. If no results, check Jefferson County, Tennessee deed books and then Roane and Bledsoe County in that order. So, Elizabeth could have been born in Burke County, North Carolina or Washington or Greene County, North Carolina or if she was born after 1796, then Greene or Knox Counties of Tennessee.

1796 State of Tennessee Created
The State of Tennessee is rooted in the Watauga Association, a 1772 frontier pact generally regarded as the first constitutional government west of the Appalachians. What is now Tennessee was initially part of North Carolina, and later part of the Southwest Territory. Tennessee was admitted to the Union as the 16th state on June 1, 1796.

1816 Marriage of Levi Carter Jr. and Elizabeth (HOWARD)
Jefferson County, Tennessee Marriage Record Book "", page
Levi Carter and Elizabeth Howard were married on 13 July 1816, in Jefferson, Tennessee, United States. Since the Jefferson County 1810 and 1820 census is not available, it is hard to determine if Elizabeth actually lived in Jefferson County or she and Levi just married there. Since Levi is the youngest of his parent's children and he does inherit a portion of his father's property at Puncheon Camp Creek near Albany, Greene, Tennessee, then it is most likely they married at Jefferson and lived at Puncheon Camp Creek until he sold it on 16 April 1819.

It should be noted that George Weems and Nancy (CARTER) daughter of Abraham "Abram" & Priscilla (BENNETT) Carter were married on 6 February 1797 in Greene, Tennessee, United States.]

1819-1830 Move
Levi Carter family after the sale of his inheritance at Puncheon Camp Creek near Albany, Greene, Tennessee, United States relocated to Bledsoe County, Tennessee in time for the 1830 census. Since there weren't any other Carters from his family in Bledsoe County, and there were Howard families in Bledsoe, it appears that Elizabeth wanted to be near her parents in Bledsoe County, Tennessee. I realize that others in ancestry.com have made a mess out of who they think she is the daughter of, but it seems strange that they moved near Reason Howard family and stayed in the Bledsoe County area until after her mother died between 1840-1850. At that time, Levi and family made the move out west to Franklin County, Missouri where Levi passed on sometime in the 1840's. Looking at the land deeds at Bledsoe would yield an arrival time for Reason Howard and Levi Carter. Looking at the deeds records of Franklin County, Missouri for Levi Carter could produce his arrival date in Franklin and if he is not listed then maybe he died before they arrived in Franklin County. Evidence from the 1850 census of Franklin County shows that the Elizabeth Carter came with the Kelly, Rollins and Dunlacy families.

Levi Carter Family - Background Based on Other Family Trees Research by Bob Watson bwatson1099@aol.com

With information provided from a World Family Tree Project (Airheart Connection and Holloway-Stockton Families) http://awtc.ancestry.com/cgi-bin/igm.cgi?op=GET&db=lynnb&id=I466 , the following was developed.

Miller, Maries, MO 1870 Census - This branch of our Watson family history was developed from a single name on this census in the household of Thomas H. Watson. The name was Elizabeth Carter, age 78, born in Tennessee . Since Eliza Matilda, Thomas' wife, was also born in Tennessee , the possible of a mother-daughter relationship arose. Fortunately, several people have researched this branch of the family and have posted "Family Trees." Helping to validate our family relationship, the posted information includes the names of Thomas Wesley Watson and his son, John Isaac Watson. While we accept as accurate information researched prior to 1850, information after that date has been verified through U.S. censuses.

Franklin County , MO - 1850 Census - Elizabeth (Howard) Carter is located on this census in the household of her son John Carter, age 25, born about 1825 in Tenn. Also in the household is (Eliza) Matilda Carter age 12, born about 1838 in Tenn. No wife is shown for John Carter.

Pulaski, MO (Township 38 Range 11) - 1860 Census - Elizabeth (Howard) Carter is located in the household of her son-in-law and daughter, David and Rutha Betsy (Carter) Rollins. The surname Carter is interpreted as Curtis on this census. Also in the household is Eliza M (Matilda) Carter age 22, born about 1838 in Tenn. Also on this census is one of Elizabeth’s sons (John Carter, age 37, born about 23 in Kentucky). His name was incorrectly interpreted as John Easter. Also in the household is a George Murphy age 50, born about 1810 in Illinois. His name appears on the 1880 census in the John Wesley Watson household as a boarder.

Developed from information provided by this Family Tree - Elizabeth (Howard) Carter was born in Jefferson County, Tennessee about 1795. Her father, John Howard, was born about 1754 (location unknown). No birth year or location was shown for her mother, Rebecca Brittain. Providing support for Rebecca Brittain being Elizabeth Howard's mother, the "Family Tree" quotes two sources:

- Jefferson County, Tennessee Court Minutes 1792-1795, p. 194, "Rebecca Brittain appeared in Court and entered into Bond with Tidance Lane and Benj. Brittain her securities for the maintenance of a child begotten on her body by John Howard and thereupon the said John Howard paid into office the sum of six dollars and twenty five cents the fine in full. May 1796 Court Session." Benjamin Brittain involvement suggests he was Rebecca's father or grandfather.

- Tennessee Marriage Record - Levi Carter married Elizabeth Howard on July 18, 1816 in Jefferson County, Tennessee. The bondsman for this marriage was John Brittain. The record ties Elizabeth Brittain to Rebecca Brittain as James Brittain was likely Rebecca's brother or father. Rebecca Brittain has given her daughter John Howard's last name.

John Howard's wife was Sarah Roberts (birth date and location unknown). They were married about 1778. John Howard died in 1820 in Rhea County, Tennessee. The "Family Tree" researcher located a will dated May 26, 1819 naming "Abraham Howard as son and executor and directs that all property should be divided equally between his wife, Sarah Howard and all his children." This shows Sarah being alive when John Howard died supporting the theory that Elizabeth was born out of wedlock. The will also suggests John Howard had accumulated some wealth during his lifetime.

Land deeds indicating both John Howard and James Britain had some wealth and maintained some kind of relationship after the pregnancy issue:

- "James Brittain Deed to John Howard -Jefferson County, Tennessee...29 Nov 1805-registered 7 Mar 1808-James Britain deeds to John Howard 100 acres for $400 on the south side of Bowman's Branch the waters of Bent Creek Adj to John Day, James Britain, Wit:"

- John Howard, Jr. Deed to Levi Day-Jefferson Co. TN-3 Aug 1807-registered 16 Jul 1806-100 acres for $400. On the waters of Bent Creek on Bowman's Branch adj John Day, James Britain. Wit. Thomas Drennan; Stephen Day; John Drennen. The first title is the sale of 100 acres of land by James Britain to John Howard. The second is John Howard’s sale of the same property to a Levi Day. The notation that the land was adjacent to James Britain's property suggests that James Britain had additional land holdings.

When taking into consideration, 1) this known information, 2) Rebecca's daughter's marriage to a person of Indian heritage (Levi Carter), and 3) historical information, it suggests Benjamin or James Brittan could have been an Indian agent and had married an Indian woman with Rebecca Brittain being his daughter:

Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter Who are You?
By Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 4 September 2010

The Controversy
I have read several articles depicting that Elizabeth (HOWARD) that married Levi Carter Jr. on the 13\textsuperscript{th} of July 1816 in Jefferson County, Tennessee was the daughter of John & Rebecca (BRITTAI\textsuperscript{N}) Howard of Jefferson County, Tennessee.

I read an article "\textit{Levi Carter Family - Background Based on Other Family Trees Research}" by Bob Watson. After reading the evidence of such an association, I am not truly convinced that John Howard is Elizabeth Howard's father…it doesn't feel right.

I also read the article "\textit{Levi Carter Family - Why Did They Migrate to Missouri}\textsuperscript{?}" I have an inquiry to the author about that article because they almost have it right but have overlooked several important details.

Also, they have it wrong Levi Carter Jr. was not of native origin.

Maybe Elizabeth (HOWARD) was, but not Levi Jr.

Read my article "\textit{Let's Get The Facts Straight}" © 2010 by Floyd Thomas Pratt.

First things first, I do not believe that John & Rebecca (BRITTAI\textsuperscript{N}) Howard are Elizabeth's parents. My reasons are equally compelling.

Jefferson County, North Carolina was created from Greene and Hawkins County in 1792. Tennessee had not become a state until 1796.

Since Elizabeth was born in 1792-1797 it's unclear where she was born…according to census data.

Without knowing where her father was living in 1792 to 1797, we can't be sure where she was born. Checking the deed records for Burke County, North Carolina would reveal when Reason left that area and checking the deed records first of Washington County, North Carolina and then Greene County, Tennessee might show when he arrived in the Tennessee area.

If no results, check Jefferson County, Tennessee deed books and then Roane and Bledsoe County in that order. So, Elizabeth could have been born in Burke County, North Carolina or Washington or Greene County, North Carolina or if she was born after 1796, then Greene or Knox Counties of Tennessee.

Researchers have put great emphasis on the John Howard of Jefferson County but one vital piece of data they have overlooked is that even after marriage, Levi and Elizabeth did not choose to settle there.

Instead they chose to settle in Bledsoe County near Reason & Dicey (WALKER) Howard family.

Someone needs to check the Roane and/or Bledsoe County deed records to see exactly when Reason Howard born 20 June 1763 in Burke County, North Carolina Colony to Reason & Ester (HAMILTON) Howard bought property there.

Dicey (WALKER) Howard is the daughter of Capt. George Howard who is also in the 1830 Bledsoe County census living a few doors down from the Reason Howard family.

Reason and George are living next door to a son; Nathan Howard family and son; Buckner Howard family and on the next page is Levi & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter family.

John Howard reportedly died in Rhea County in May 26, 1819 ...according to the 1st report mentioned.

Bledsoe and Rhea Counties border and were formed in 1807 from Roane County.

However, John's wife Rebecca (BRITTAIIN) lived past this date and many have failed to disclose her approximate death date.

Carter Cherokee Animosity

There is a very good reason why Levi Carter Jr. was not native Cherokee...the history of the Carters.

I wrote a report on this issue called "Let's Get the Facts Straight". It explains the animosity between the Carters and the Cherokees.

If Elizabeth (HOWARD) was Cherokee and that is stretching it, that could be a motivation for leaving Bledsoe County.

But, Levi Jr. and Elizabeth were in Bledsoe County in the 1830 & 1840 census before their departure for Franklin County, Missouri...long after the forced removal of Cherokee and mixed Cherokee families of the 1838-1839 "Trail of Tears" era.

Someone needs to check the deed records in Bledsoe county to determine when he (Levi Jr.) sold his land and the Franklin County, Missouri deed records to see if he even made it to Franklin County alive.

Death of Levi Carter Jr.

I believe he (Levi Jr.) could have died after the 1840 census in either...

[1] in Bledsoe County before departure

[2] enroute to Missouri

[3] after arrival in Franklin County

Since Elizabeth is a widow before the 1850 census and after the 1840 census then in all probability she went with her children out to Franklin County, Missouri.

This is probably the reason, because some researchers have documented some of Levi Jr’s children married Cherokees.

With her husband gone, she stuck close to her children...this is documented in the 1850 and 1860 census where she is living with children.

Now to address the issue about why Franklin County, Missouri.

Why Franklin County, Missouri?
Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt my 3rd great grandparents were on the "Trail of Tears" and "jumped" the trail in Crawford County in March 1839 leaving the trail from what is now highway 8 out of Potosi to St. James.

They I believe, followed the creeks northward 10 miles settling in Boone Twp, Crawford County before moving to Richwoods Twp in Washington County by the 1840 census.

Henry's sister, Cynthia (PRATT) Blanton married Absalom Blanton in Greene County, Tennessee. She was always known as a "Cherokee Princess" by her descendants.

The Blantons, also left Greene County a little after 1831 because Absalom's brother Abner had moved to Franklin County and Absalom with his family settled a few miles outside Sullivan, Franklin County, Missouri, buying property on 3 September 1838….long before the Pratts 1839 arrival and Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter's arrival sometime in the 1840's.

Absalom was not Cherokee but his wife was. He left several years before the rest and had no affiliation with the Carters and/or Pratts that had moved to Monroe County, Tennessee after the 1825 gold rush.

However, word got back to the Tennessee Carters, particularly Levi Jr. & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter's married children about the Franklin County area being of prime farm land and available.

I am convinced, one of Levi Jr.'s children knew about either Abner or Absalom Blanton moving to Franklin County and after being forced out of Tennessee after 1840, because of their Cherokee spouses moved to Franklin County. Checking the Franklin County deeds might yeild a property transaction and give us an approximate date.

After checking the Franklin County probate transactions, I found no reference to Levi or Elizabeth Carter. Of course, we know Elizabeth died near Clifty Dale Post Office, Miller Twp, Maries County, Missouri, United States between 1870-1880.

Several of other Carter children of Robert B. Sr. & Rebecca (JACKSON) Carter settled in Maries County, including Lorenzo Carter and he connects with another researcher Byron Nelson. More about Lorenzo later.

Who I think are Elizabeth (HOWARD)'s Parents.

Concerning Elizabeth (HOWARD)'s parentage, these are my reasons for connecting her to Reason & Dicey (WALKER) Howard family.

I think Elizabeth was the daughter of Reason Howard not the John Howard that some have proclaimed in ancestry.com.

[1] Even though there is no son listed as a Reason Carter, there are plenty of date gaps in her child bearing years to have had one, which did not live.

[2] We know Reason had a son, Nathan and Elizabeth names one of her son's Nathan.

[3] Levi Jr. and Elizabeth moved to the same county and near the Reason Howard family and stays there through the 1830 and 1840 census years and does not leave Bledsoe County until after her mother, Dicey (WALKER) Howard died on 17 December 1845.
[4] Elizabeth's father, Reason stays in Bledsoe with a daughter and he dies from in 1852. By the 1850 census Elizabeth has moved with her children near Saint John's Twp, Franklin County, Missouri.

[5] Levi Jr's mother; Susanna (??) Carter dies on 22 October 1816 at Lick Creek, Albany, Greene, Tennessee, United States. It was customary for the youngest child in a family to stick close and "take care" of his parents especially after the death of a parent.

[6] Elizabeth's husband, Levi Jr. sells his father's inheritance in 1819 to Caleb Carter in Greene County which indicates that Levi Jr. and family were living in Greene County not Jefferson County.

[7] Instead of moving to Jefferson County to be with Elizabeth's proposed John & Rebecca (BRITTAI N) Howard family, they move to Bledsoe County by the 1830 census living in close proximity to Capt. George Walker and Reason Howard families among others.

The most supporting evidence is that close association with Reason Howard in Bledsoe County for at least 10+ years. Checking those deed records is vital to determining who bought property where and when. Also, when said property was sold.

Finding Levi Carter Jr. in a Franklin County, Missouri Deed book would be decisive that he survived the trip. If he is not in the deed books, then he probably died in Tennessee or enroute.

I checked for him in the U.S. General Land Records...no hit.

As I see it...

So, the scenero as I see it, Reason (1763-1852) and Dicey (WALKER) Howard were married 1 January 1788 in Burke County, North Carolina and shortly after the 1790 census he moved to either Washington or Greene County, North Carolina area. Tennessee was not created until 1796.

He had at least one daughter; Elizabeth between 1792-1797 and a son Nathan born 1802 and son Buckner born on 24 March 1804....and probably more.

Not knowing when he arrived in Roane or Bledsoe County, he could have lived in Jefferson County for awhile maybe John Howard was a brother.

Since Jefferson County neighbors Greene County before Cocke County was formed in 1797, somehow, Reason's daughter Elizabeth met Levi Jr. and they were married in 1816 in Jefferson County.

However, in 1815 Reason had already moved to Bledsoe County because he is on a tax list in 1815. Or...he could have always been in Bledsoe County so when it was formed from Roane County in 1807 he was already there.

After marriage, Levi Jr. and Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter are living in Greene County to take care of his widowed mother.

After the death of his mother, on 16 April 1819, Levi Jr. sold his inheritance from Levi Sr. to Caleb Carter.

1819 Property Transaction
Greene, Tennessee, United States Deed Record Book "12", page 18, dated 16 April 1819
Caleb Carter and George Weems $30. for 6 acres. "I said Caleb, purchased of Levy Carter (Jr.) thus south to Puncheon Camp Creek or small part that fell to me by heirship the 6 acres lying on the West side of Puncheon Camp Creek and being a part of a tract granted to Levy Carer (Sr.) by the state of North Carolina.

[This is Levi Jr.; Levi Sr. died in 1811. It should be noted that George Weems and Nancy (CARTER) daughter of Abraham "Abram" & Priscilla (BENNETT) Carter were married on 6 February 1797 in Greene, Tennessee, United States.]

Levi Carter Jr. family after the sale of his inheritance at Puncheon Camp Creek near Albany, Greene, Tennessee, United States relocated to Bledsoe County, Tennessee in time for the 1830 census.

Granted there is plenty of time for Levi Jr. to have lived in Jefferson County between 1819 and 1830 census date, but checking the deed records in Jefferson County and Bledsoe County might produce when he bought property between those dates. After all, he had money in his pocket after the land sale in 1819, so in all likelihood he bought property somewhere.

When many other Carter families were moving to newly created Monroe County for the 1825 gold rush, Levi Jr. chose to go to Bledsoe County.

Since there weren't any other Carters from his family in Bledsoe County, and there were Howard families in Bledsoe, it appears that Elizabeth wanted to be near her parents in Bledsoe County, Tennessee…her parents being Reason & Dicey (WALKER) Howard.

I realize that others in ancestry.com have made a mess out of who they think she is, even going so far as to challenge her legitimacy, but it seems strange that Levi and Elizabeth moved near Reason Howard family and stayed in the Bledsoe County area until after her mother and wife of Reason; Dicey (WALKER) Howard died on 17 December 1845.

After the 1840 census about that time, either Levi with or without family began the move out west to Saint John's Twp, Franklin County, Missouri. Checking the Bledsoe County deeds is vital to determine when Levi Jr. of his widow Elizabeth Carter disposed of their Bledsoe County property.

If the last property transaction was after the 1845 death date of her mother, Dicey, then that is conclusive that they left the area after the death of her mother. Also, if Levi was the one to have disposed of the Bledsoe County property, then that gives us a closer date when he was alive and when he died before the 1850 census.

At this point, without knowing when he sold his property in Bledsoe, Levi may have died in Bledsoe County, enroute to Missouri or in Franklin County, Missouri.

Looking at the land deeds at Bledsoe would yield an arrival time for Reason Howard and Levi Carter Jr. Bledsoe County was formed in 1807 from Roane County. Checking Roane county might reveal answers.

Looking at the deeds records of Franklin County, Missouri for Levi Carter Jr. could produce his arrival date in Franklin and if he is not listed then maybe he died before they arrived in Franklin County.

Evidence from the 1850 census of Franklin County shows that wife; Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter came with the Kelly, Rollins and Dunlacy families.
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

Elizabeth ends up in Maries County, Missouri, where Lorenzo Carter had married Mary E. Caroline (MORELAND) and Lorenzo had close ties with the John W. & Mary (CARTER) Hansell family.

John W. Hansell's mother is Susanna Rebecca (PRATT) daughter of Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt making Susanna ¼ Cherokee.

That's why I believe one of Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter's children's Cherokee in-laws led the way to Franklin County, Missouri from Bledsoe County, Tennessee...to hook-up with other Cherokee relatives.

Nevertheless, my money is on Reason & Dicey (WALKER) Howard as her parents. It would be interesting to see if Reason left a will in Bledsoe County.

Until a through search is done of those deed records which can be ordered at a Family History Center of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, we can not speculate when or where they were or who Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter really belongs to.

1819-1830 Family Relocation
Levi Carter family after the sale of his inheritance at Puncheon Camp Creek near Albany, Greene, Tennessee, United States relocated to Bledsoe County, Tennessee in time for the 1830 census. Since there weren't any other Carters from his family in Bledsoe County, and there were Howard families in Bledsoe, it appears that Elizabeth wanted to be near her parents in Bledsoe County, Tennessee. I realize that others in ancestry.com have made a mess out of who they think she is the daughter of, but it seems strange that they moved near Reason Howard family and stayed in the Bledsoe County area until after her mother died on 17 December 1845. At that time, Levi and family made the move out west to Franklin County, Missouri where Levi passed on sometime in the 1840's. Looking at the land deeds at Bledsoe would yield an arrival time for Reason Howard and Levi Carter Jr. Looking at the deeds records of Franklin County, Mississippi for Levi Carter Jr. could produce his arrival date in Franklin and if he is not listed then maybe he died before they arrived in Franklin County. Evidence from the 1850 census of Franklin County shows that wife; Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter came with the Kelly, Rollins and Dunlacy families.

Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

1830 to 1840 Death or Marriage of Elizabeth "Betsie" (CARTER)
Since Elizabeth does not show up in the 1840 census with her parents, she either died between the census dates or most likely married someone in the area. I do not have access to the Bledsoe County marriage records to verify her marriage...they were lost in a 1909 fire.

60 F iii. Sarah Carter was born in 1821 in District 6, Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States and died from 1880 to 1900 in Miller Twp, Maries, Missouri, United States at age 59.

Date from the 1880 census states he was born 1818 in Tennessee.
Since her father sold his inheritance at Puncheon Camp Creek, Albany, Greene, Tennessee, United States in 1819, then when they moved to Bledsoe, Tennessee, could be answered by checking the deed records of Bledsoe County for his first land purchase. Therefore, I believe, Sarah was born in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States.

Because of the wide variance of birth years and conflicting birth states it is hard to figure where he was born and when.

1830 to 1835 Marriage of John Kelly and Sarah (CARTER)
John Kelly and Sarah (CARTER) were married between 1830-1835 probably in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States at her parent's home.

1836 Childbirth of daughter; Margaret (KELLY)
Margaret (KELLY) was born in 1836 in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States.

1838 Childbirth of sister; Eliza Matilda (CARTER)
Eliza Matilda (CARTER) was born in 1838 in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States.

1838 Childbirth of son; William Kelly
William Carter was born 1838-1840 in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States.

1840 Childbirth of son; Levi Kelly
Levi Kelly was born in 1840 in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States.

1841 to 1844 Family Move
Moved from Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States to District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States. Looks like most of the Levi Carter Jr. family moved with spouses to District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States.

1844 Childbirth of daughter; Ann (KELLY)
Ann (KELLY) was born in 1844 in District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States.
1844 Childbirth of son; Lewis Kelly
Lewis Kelly was born in 1844 in District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States.

1850-1860 Family Move
From District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States to near Humboldt Post Office, Twp 38 Range 11, Pulaski, Missouri, United States. Checking the Franklin County deed books for the last property transaction of John Kelly would reveal an approximate removal date from Franklin County and checking the deed books, if they have them at Pulaski County would reveal when he bought property near the Humboldt Post Office, Twp 38 Range 11, Pulaski County, Missouri.

1851 Childbirth of son; John Kelly
John Kelly was born in either District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States or near Humboldt Post Office, Twp 38 Range 11, Pulaski, Missouri, United States in 1851. Why would they name another son John? Unless the age 9 John in the 1860 census is an error or the son John born in 1846 died and they named another boy John.

1854 Childbirth of son; Francis Kelly
Francis Kelly was born in either District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States or near Humboldt Post Office, Twp 38 Range 11, Pulaski, Missouri, United States in 1854.

1855 Childbirth of son; James Decater Kelly
James Decater Kelly was born in either District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States or near Humboldt Post Office, Twp 38 Range 11, Pulaski, Missouri, United States in 1855.

1858 Childbirth of daughter; Sarah (KELLY)
Sarah (KELLY) was born in either District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States or near Humboldt Post Office, Twp 38 Range 11, Pulaski, Missouri, United States in 1858.

1860 to 1870 Death of John Kelly
John Kelly died after the 14 July 1860 census date and before the 13 August 1870 census date probably near Humboldt Post Office, Twp 38 Range 11, Pulaski, Missouri, United States.

61 F  iv.  Rutha Carter was born in 1822 in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States and died from 1855 to 1860 in District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States at age 33.

1822 Birthblock for Rutha (CARTER) daughter of Levi Jr. & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter
Rutha (CARTER) was born in 1822 in either Puncheon Camp Creek, Albany, Greene, Tennessee, United States or Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States.
Date from the 1830 census states she was born ??
Date from the 1840 census states she was born 1821-1825.
Date from the 1850 census states she was born 1822 in Tennessee.

1819 to 1830 Family Move
Levi Carter family after the sale of his inheritance at Puncheon Camp Creek near Albany, Greene, Tennessee, United States relocated to Bledsoe County, Tennessee in time for the 1830 census. Since there weren't any other Carters from his family in Bledsoe County, and there were Howard families in Bledsoe, it appears that Elizabeth wanted to be near her parents in Bledsoe County, Tennessee. I realize that others in ancestry.com have made a mess out of who they think she is the daughter of, but it seems strange that they moved near Reason Howard family and stayed in the Bledsoe County area until after her mother died between 1840-1850. At that time, Levi and family made the move out west to Franklin County, Missouri where Levi passed on sometime in the 1840's. Looking at the land deeds at Bledsoe would yield an arrival time for Reason Howard and Levi Carter. Looking at the deeds records of Franklin County, Missourri for Levi Carter could produce his arrival date in Franklin and if he is not listed then maybe he died before they arrived in Franklin County. Evidence from the 1850 census of Franklin County shows that the Elizabeth Carter came with the Kelly, Rollins and Dunlacy families.

1823 Childbirth of brother; John Carter
John Carter was born in 1823 in either Puncheon Camp Creek, Albany, Greene, Tennessee, United States or Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States.
1828 Childbirth of sister; Rebecca (CARTER)
Rebecca (CARTER) was born in 1828 in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States.

1831 Childbirth of brother; Nathan Carter
Nathan Carter was born in 1831 in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States.

1833 Childbirth of brother; Joseph "Joe" Carter
Joseph "Joe" Carter was born in 1833 in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States.

1834 Childbirth of sister; Rachel (CARTER)
Rachel (CARTER) was born in 3 November 1834 in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States.

1838 Childbirth of sister; Eliza Matilda (CARTER)
Eliza Matilda (CARTER) was born in 1838 in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States.

1838 to 1840 Marriage of David Rollins abd Rutha (CARTER)
David Rollins and Rutha (CARTER) were married around 1838-1840 probably in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States at her parent's residence. After marriage, they lived in District 7, Greene, Tennessee, United States next door to his father; William Rollins Sr.

1855 Childbirth of daughter; Susan (ROLLINS)
Susan (ROLLINS) was born in 1855 in District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States.

1855 to 1860 Death of Rutha (CARTER) Rollins
Rutha (CARTER) Rollins died between 16 November 1850 census date and the marriage date of her husband's 2nd marriage. Looking at he 1860 census date, we see additional children Joseph born 1861, Josiah born 1863 and Susan born 1855 then a large gap until the 1870 census which shows David already married to Rutha's sister; Rachel. Then in that census additional Rollins children start at 1872 with William T. Rollins. Therefore, I feel Rutha died after Susan's birthdate in 1855 and before the 1860 census in District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States.

Rutha married David(s) Rollins, son of William Rollins Sr. and 1st Wife, from 1840 to 1841 in Tennessee, United States. David(s) was born in 1821 in Greene, Tennessee, United States and died 4 December 1893 in Miller Twp, Maries, Missouri, United States at age 72.

David Rollins Family As Printed in "A County/Family History - Maries County, MO"
by Judy Rowe Boehmio
the title -Maries County, Missouri – A County/Family History Vol. II, Page 377. Bold and underlines were added to highlight marriages.

"My great great grandfather, David Rollins, was born in Tennessee about 1823. He married Rutha Carter, daughter of Levi Carter and Elizabeth Carter, about 1841. They came to Missouri in the early 1840's with the John Kelley and Levi Carter families. John Kelley was married to Sarah Carter, sister to Rutha and daughter of Lev. They went first to Franklin County, Pulaski County and then settled in Maries County in the 1860's.

David and Rutha had six children: Martha, George, Courtney, Joseph, Jerry and Susan.

Martha married John Watson; George married Sarah Cunningham; Courtney married Robert Davidson; Joseph married Elmina Beaverett; Jerry married Mary Ann Susan Elizabeth Adkisson; Susan married Decater Kelley.

After Rutha died, David married her sister, Rachel Carter. David and Rachel had eight children:
William T., Mary, Emiline, Sarah, Melvina, Morris, Daniel and Jacob. William T. married Cora Groves; Mary married Jesse Kuhns; Emiline, Sarah and Melvina died young; Morris married Sarah Matthews; Daniel married Della Rider and Jacob married 1. Lettie McKnolly and 2. Audie Goddard.

My great grandfather, Jerry Rollins, left, Maries County as a young man and went into Indian Territory, now Oklahoma. He married a quarter blood Cherokee, Mary Ann Susan Elizabeth Adkisson October 25, 1884 in Tahlequah. They made their home in Claremore and had ten children.

George, Courtney, Joseph and Daniel also left Maries County and went into Indian Territory.

David Rollins homesteaded 160 acres in Miller Township, Section 14. He was a farmer and built a log house on his land. David Rollins died December 4, 1893 in Maries County and is buried in Fairview Cemetery. Rachel Rollins died February 3, 1912.

David's son, Jacob, lived on the homestead most of his life. The land is still in the Rollins family. David's granddaughter, Cora Dale Rollins and her husband, Charlie Sherrell bought the property.

The old log house is no longer there. Sterling Kelley, grandson of John Kelley, went to the old home place and sent me a chip of wood from the log house built by David Rollins. It is one of my most prized possessions. There are still many descendants of David Rollins living in the Maries County-Dixon area." Submitted by Judy Rowe Boehmio

John Carter (Son of Levi Carter) vs. John M. Carter by Bob Watson
According to his death certificate, Benjamin Franklin Carter was born in Crawford County, MO 26 Jan 1853. Benjamin was the son of John M. Carter and Cynthia Lynch and is buried in Dixon Cemetery, Pulaski County, MO.
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

Originally it was thought Benjamin's father John M Carter was the son of Levi and Elizabeth Carter. However, that has changed for several reasons:

1) The 1850 Census for District 31, Franklin County, MO lists Elizabeth Carter and her children, John, Joseph, Matilda, Rachel and Rebecca. John is listed as being born in Tennessee abt 1825. John M. Carter had a wife and four children at this time.

2) The 1850 Census for District 24, Crawford County, MO lists a J. Carter born in Tennessee abt 1823. The census taker was too lazy to write out people's names or his racial prejudices show up as he used initials instead of complete names making it difficult to accurately track people, especially when there are errors. For example, John's wife's Cynthia sounds like it starts with an S and is listed as S E Carter. Daughter Sarah is listed as SE, daughter Matilda is listed as T J (possibly Tilda Jane), and son Lorenzo is listed as what appears to be RC (possibly Renzo with the C actually being an O). Anyway, this appears to be the John M Carter family.

3) Another 1850 Census for District 24, Crawford County, MO lists a J. Carter born North Carolina abt 1791. Tennessee became a state in 1797 and was considered a part of North Carolina prior to 1790, thus he could have been born in what is now Tennessee. All of his family members on the 1850 Census are listed as being born in Missouri making his entry into Missouri prior to 1827. If John M was his son, then this J Carter's entry into Missouri would have been between 1823 and 1827.

Apparently the District 24 area of Crawford County was inhabited by people with Indian blood as a son and a daughter of my great, great grandfather Samuel Helms moved into this same census area back in the late 1840's and lived there for several years. At the time Sam Helms was living in an area called Indian Creek inhabited by Indians in northwest Washington County just south of Sullivan, MO and just east of Crawford County. Family history has Sam Helm's first wife an Indian.

According to Floyd Pratt who has his own Family Tree: "The reason why Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States was a hotbed of Cherokee displacements was because the locale offered protection from the soldiers and government from taking them to the concentration camps in Oklahoma and Arkansas. There are several great books on the "Trail of Tears" and if you are interested your local library could help."

4) On 9 Feb 1854 a John Carter married an Elizabeth I Davis in Franklin County, MO. This location and marriage after the 1850 Census makes it easier to believe this John Carter is Levi and Elizabeth Carter's son.

5) The 1860 Census for Cullen, Pulaski County, MO lists a John Easter born Tennessee abt 1823 and an Elizabeth Easter born Tennessee abt 1823. A close look at the actual census shows that the last name is actually Carter. Therefore, they are the John and Elizabeth Carter married in Franklin County in 1854. Also on this census in this John Carter's household is John's brother-in-law George Murphy and daughter Eliza. George Murphy's wife Rebecca Carter must have died 1853-1860.

6) The 1860 Census for Johnson, Maries County, MO, lists Benjamin's father John M Carter born Tennessee abt 1823, the four children born in the 1840's (Sarah, James, Matilda and Lorenzo), Benjamin and another daughter Susan. Cynthia must have died 1856 - 1860.
7) On the 1880 Census for Miller Township, Maries County, MO, for my grandparents Thomas Watson and Eliza Matilda Carter-Watson, George Murphy appears again. Eliza Matilda Carter was a daughter of Levi and Elizabeth Carter, a sister to the John Carter on the 1860 Pulaski County Census, and a sister-in-law to George Murphy.

Based on this information Benjamin's father John M Carter was not a son of Levi and Elizabeth Carter; however, his living in the Dixon area suggests some kind of relationship.

Unanswered question. What happened to Levi Carter's son John Carter and his wife Elizabeth Davis-Carter after the 1860 Census?

John married Ann Moreland from 1839 to 1840. Ann was born 9 February 1820 in Tennessee, United States and died from 1841 to 1850 in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States at age 21.

John next married Elizabeth "Eliza" I. Davis, daughter of Garrett Davis and Eve Shookman, 9 February 1854 in Franklin, Missouri, United States. Elizabeth was born in 1833 near Etlib, Boeuf Twp, Franklin, Missouri, United States and died from 1860 to 1870 in Humboldt Post Office, Twp 38 Range 11, Pulaski, Missouri, United States at age 27.

1819-1830 Family Move
Levi Carter family after the sale of his inheritance at Puncheon Camp Creek near Albany, Greene, Tennessee, United States relocated to Bledsoe County, Tennessee in time for the 1830 census. Since there weren't any other Carters from his family in Bledsoe County, and there were Howard families in Bledsoe, it appears that Elizabeth wanted to be near her parents in Bledsoe County, Tennessee. I realize that others in ancestry.com have made a mess out of who they think she is the daughter of, but it seems strange that they moved near Reason Howard family and stayed in the Bledsoe County area until after her mother died between 1840-1850. At that time, Levi and family made the move out west to Franklin County, Missouri where Levi passed on sometime in the 1840's. Looking at the land deeds at Bledsoe would yield an arrival time for Reason Howard and Levi Carter. Looking at the deeds reacords of Franklin County, Missourri for Levi Carter could produce his arrival date in Franklin and if he is not listed then maybe he died before they arrived in Franklin County. Evidence from the 1850 census of Franklin County shows that the Elizabeth Carter came with the Kelly, Rollins and Dunlacy families.

1841 to 1844 Family Move
Moved from Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States to District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States. Looks like most of the Levi Carter Jr. family moved with spouses to District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States.

1844-1850 Move & Death of father; Levi Carter Jr.
Levi Carter Jr's family moved from Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States to District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States by the 1850 census date. This is in harmony with the customary departure procedure. After the death of Elizabeth's mother in 1845, it appears the Levi Carter family left for Missouri. Levi died either in Tennessee or in Missouri. Checking the deed records of Franklin County, Missouri might shed some light on his arrival date in Missouri.

1850-1860 Death of grandfather; Reason Howard Reason Howard died between 1850-1860 in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States.

I lose track of him after the 1840 census.

Nathan married Zena.

The 1896 Testimony of Rachel (CARTER) Rollins
By Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.  6 September 2010

Additional Evidence

After I wrote my article, "Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter Who Are You?" I ran across some new evidence suggesting some answers to several of the questions raised by my article.

This "new" evidence consist of testimony for an application by Rachel (CARTER) Rollins on the 1st of September 1896, titled by "Cherokee Nation Application Completed by Rachael Carter" posted on ancestry.com by family history researcher Bob Watson on 17 May 2008.

In that application, Rachel (CARTER) Rollins gives a sworn testimony and makes several broad statements concerning her parents and the circumstances of her family's western trek to Missouri.

After careful investigation I wish to alert other researchers as to what is fact, fiction and supposition concerning her testimony.

In order to begin, one must know the circumstances and players involved.

The Players

A little history of Levi Jr. & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter...Levi born circa 1795 in Greene County, North Carolina, the State of Tennessee not officially created until 1796, the son of Levi Sr. & Susanna Carter, her maiden name undiscovered at this time.

Levi Jr. is the youngest of their Carter children. Levi Sr. died in 1811 followed by Levi Jr.'s mother; Susanna Carter in 1816 all in Greene County, Tennessee.

Levi Carter Jr. and Elizabeth (HOWARD) were married 13 July 1816 in Jefferson County, Tennessee. They had several children; two of importance to this report is daughter; Rutha Elizabeth "Betsy" (CARTER) born 1822 in allegedly Bledsoe County, Tennessee, died between 1855-1860 in District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States and daughter; Rachel (CARTER) born same county on 3 November 1834.

What these sisters had in common, besides the same parents, was mutual husband...David or Davis Rollins. In some census records he is listed as Davis and in others he is listed as David.
I think he was named after his grandfather…David Rollins.

After the death of 1st wife Rutha, either in Franklin County or Pulaski County, Missouri, probably after giving childbirth to daughter; Susan (ROLLINS) in 1855, David married sister; Rachel before the 14th of July 1860 census date, either in Franklin County or Pulaski County, Missouri.

On the 4th of December 1893, husband David Rollins died in Miller Twp, Maries, Missouri, United States.

On the 1st of September 1896, Rachel (CARTER) Rollins gave a deposition on an application to the Cherokee Nation on behalf of George, Joseph and Jeremiah Rollins and Lewis Kelly for their admittance into the Cherokee nation.

What makes this noteworthy, in her deposition she gives a short history of her family. The following is a portion of that application.

\- Facts or Supposition?\-
In order to figure out what is fact and what is wishful thinking...or a poor memory we must dissect the above statements.

This process has to be approached with a fact filled response based on researched material and known proven documents.

Age.

First, let's take a look at the date this application was processed...1 September 1896. Rachel was born on 3 November 1834 in Bledsoe County, Tennessee.

This indicates she was 61 when she gave this testimony. I have found in the census data given by the elderly, the reliability of that data decreases as their age increases.

With that in mind, we cannot criticize Rachel for errors in her statement, just be thankful she remembered some basic information.

Levi Carter Jr.

She stated, "Levi Carter was born in the state of Tenisee in about the year 1795, near the Cherokee Nation".

I believe this statement in all probability is true. Let me elucidate.

They moved from the furthermost reaches of the British to Washington County, North Carolina, applying for land grants in what later was to become Greene County, Tennessee.

Arriving in Washington County in the middle of a Cherokee War and with uneasy associations with the Cherokees, they immediately built what became Carter's Fort near Albany, Greene County, Tennessee.

Settling on Lick Creek, Gist's Creek of Lick Creek, Roaring Fork of Lick Creek, Grassy Creek of Lick Creek, Camp Creek, Punching Camp Creek and Dry Fork, they eventually made peace with the Cherokees when the war ended in 1785.

Levi Sr. takes permanent residence in Greene County where he died on 22 April 1811. This establishes a definite birth location for his children born after 1783.

Concerning Rachel's statement he was born "near the Cherokee Nation", in reality everything from the Ohio River south into Georgia, east into North Carolina, west to the Mississippi River belonged to the Cherokee nation.

However through fraud, swindle, hook and crook and worse of all...by fraudulent American treaties, the Cherokees were cheated out of their inheritance and lost all of their land holdings except for a few pockets of properties.

Their national headquarters were located in Echota in Vonore Township, Monroe County, Tennessee…that was until the first gold rush invaded their land in Monroe County in 1825.

Pressure from greedy Georgia pioneers and landowners pushed the Georgia legislation to pass laws to take away the Cherokee's right as a sovereign nation.

With the passing of the 1830 Indian Removal Act, dissolving any rights the natives had left, the once great and proud Cherokee nation was reduced to beggar status, depending on the American government for its survival and sustenance.

Was Levi Jr. born near the Cherokee nation...yes, when?

Levi Carter Jr.'s Birth Date

Due to a lack of definite birth date data on Levi Carter Jr., we can only surmise based on the known facts.

From the 1830 and the 1840 census records, Levi Jr. is depicted as being born after 1801 and before 1810. Not 1791-1800 as he would have been if he had been born in 1795 as reported by daughter; Rachel in the above application.

However, there is collaborating evidence that others have overlooked...concerning the marital age of Levi Carter Jr.

If we are to believe the census data and he was born between 1801-1810, then he would have married Elizabeth between the ages of 6 and 16, which was too young.

We know Elizabeth was born between 1792-1797 extrapolated from 5 census records.

I would think that Levi would not have married a woman older than himself with such an age disparity. Therefore, he, in all probability was born between 1795-1800, which gives credence to daughter, Rachel's claim.

If he was born in 1795, then he would have been 21 years of age when he married Elizabeth.

So, the 1795 birth date is in harmony with the facts...and I am comfortable with that.

Marriage

It is well documented that he married Elizabeth (HOWARD) in Jefferson County, Tennessee on 13 July 1816.

Rachel's statement, "was married to Elizabeth Howard in about 1815, in or near the Cherokee Nation" as I have explained until 1830 there still was a Cherokee Nation in Tennessee.

In my previous article, "Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter Who Are You?" I address her parentage and possible alternatives in detail.

However, I feel there are no indications of Native ancestry in her Howard family history.

Bledsoe County Residency.

Rachel in her next statement states, "and lived in Bledsoe Co, Ten. until 1844 when he with all children started west to the suposed Cherokee Nation".

This statement requires further research in order to make a determination as to when they arrived in Bledsoe County.

Bledsoe County was originally formed from Roane County in 1807. Since Elizabeth's parents, whom I believe to be Reason and Dicey (WALKER) Howard lived in Bledsoe County, then it is logical they should move to the same county.

However, Levi Jr. shows an independent streak from his brothers. When many were staying in or near Greene County or moving to the newly formed Monroe County for the gold rush in 1825, Levi sticks close to his in-laws.

After his parents had died, Levi still had land holdings in Greene County until he sold his inheritance from his father's estate on 16 April 1819 to older brother; Caleb Carter.

Since the 1820 census was destroyed, we don't know where Levi Jr. and family were in 1820.

This is were research is vital to answer the question...when did Levi Carter Jr. buy land in Bledsoe county and where was that property in relationship to Reason Howard's residence?

The Bledsoe County Deed Records should be searched to answer several questions.

The following are the actual microfilm numbers needed to order the Bledsoe County, Tennessee deed records from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints at the Family History Centers located around the world.

Deed book index, vols. 1-4, 1797-1942. US/CAN Film 593009

This information was obtained at <http://www.familysearch.org/eng/library/fhlcatalog/supermainframeset.asp?display=titlenotes&columns=%2C0%2C0&titleno=187278&disp=Deed++books%2C++1808-1885%3B++index%2C> ++

When did Levi's father-in-law, Reason Howard buy property in Bledsoe County or Roane County if he purchased property before 1807?
Ordering the index (593009) would reveal when Reason Howard bought property in Bledsoe County and would tell us when his son-in-law, Levi Carter also bought property.

Ordering the actual microfilmed deed records would give an exact location of their properties and this is important in establishing a close relationship.

I believe Levi bought land after the sale of his Greene County property in 1819.

Rachel states they lived there until they moved in 1844 to Missouri.

The final property transaction (593012) of Levi Carter Jr. in Bledsoe County would reveal when they left Tennessee.

My theory is that Levi & Elizabeth did not leave Bledsoe County until after the death of Elizabeth's mother; Dicey (WALKER) Howard reported on the internet as 17 December 1845.

Since it is an Internet date, with no supporting evidence, we can only hope the person that posted the information knew what they were doing.

This presents a unique opportunity for someone to be a "hero".

By discovering when the homestead property was sold, which should be their last property transaction before they left Bledsoe County, would tell us several things.

[1] That Levi was alive at that date.

[2] If it was before or after the alleged death date of Dicey (WALKER) Howard.

[3] If Levi was alive after 1845.

Westward Migration

Many have inquired as to why Levi and family left Tennessee and moved to Missouri. I gave an answer in my article, "Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter Who Are You" but I will repeat my reasons for the sake of clarity.

Rachel says, "lived in Bledsoe Co, Ten. until 1844 when he with all children started west to the suposed Cherokee Nation and was stoped in Franklin Co. MO. by sickness and then he died."

Why she says, "supposed Cherokee Nation" indicates there probably was doubts that the Cherokees survived the "Trail" or there was a nation to go to.

First of all, the Trail of Tears, which was the main removal effort of the American government, took place between 1837-1839.

What General Scott did was to divide the Cherokees into concentration camps spread out all over Tennessee and Georgia.
The atrocities that took place in these camps are well documented, so I will not elaborate in this report.

When 7000 military, civilian and others began to "round-up" the Cherokees they would take them from their homes by bayonet without allowing them to take provisions or supplies and in some cases, where the children were playing in the fields they forced the parents to leave their children.

A well documented account of these atrocities are in several publications, one being "The Cherokee Removal through the eyes of a Private Soldier" by Private John Burnett 1890.

As the military would "collect" these people, they were force marched to the nearest concentration camp, located in several counties.

They were kept in those camps, without proper food, provisions, and medical treatment until the "companies or detachments" were formed.

The military decided they would divide the Cherokees into several "detachments" of about 1300 Cherokees each and each company would have a leader to take them to Indian territory.

But, as usual in their ineptness, the military made a mess out of this process and many Cherokees died in the process before they even left the concentration camps!!

In fear of losing more of his people, elected Cherokee Chief John Ross asked permission from the military to allow the Cherokees to organize the "companies" and in doing so, saved many lives.

Various "companies" left at various times and took several routes. Some went by rivers, some by direct routes into Arkansas and some through Missouri.

The Missouri routes converged at Jackson, Missouri and one group went directly across the state known as the "southern route" with the Indian Territory as their destination.

Another group under Hildebrand and Taylor went northward and split at Farmington with Hildebrand's group going through Dent County and meeting at Marshfield.

The Northern group under Taylor left Farmington going to Potosi, west on what is now highway 8 through Crawford County to St. James. Then following the Kickapoo Indian Trail (I-44) southward to Marshfield where they all left for Indian Territory.

The reason I have given much information concerning these routes is to show the reader that the "Trail" never went anywhere near Franklin County, Missouri. And especially not 5 years after the trail had ended when Levi & Elizabeth Carter arrived in Franklin County.

So, for Rachel to state they were headed to the Cherokee Nation when they left Bledsoe County, Tennessee is false and erroneous...wrong route and wrong time.

The quickest way from Bledsoe County to Indian Territory would have been through Arkansas, not Missouri, which was out of the way.
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

If Levi and family did leave Bledsoe County, Tennessee in 1844, I believe as a young girl of 10 years of age, Rachel would not have been aware or in 1896 could recollect the reasons for their move westward.

I believe I know the reasons for their Missouri destination.

Why Leave and Why Missouri?

I believe there are several possibilities to this multiple question.

The Grand Children Factor

Levi and Elizabeth’s daughter Sarah (CARTER) married John Kelly around 1830-1835 probably in Bledsoe County (courthouse records destroyed in 1908 fire). John Kelly or his mother may have had Cherokee ancestry.

John and Sarah’s son; Lewis Kelly is named as a recipient on this 1896 Cherokee Nation Application. He is applying for membership in the Cherokee Nation.

When Levi and Elizabeth’s daughter, Rutha Elizabeth "Betsy" (CARTER) married David Rollins around 1840-1841, David Rollins or his mother may have had Cherokee ancestry.

David and Rutha’s sons; George, Joseph and Jeremiah Rollins also are named as recipients on this 1896 Cherokee Nation Application. They are applying for membership in the Cherokee Nation.

Since these children married into Cherokee families, this put the whole family at risk. Hatred and animosity towards the Cherokee was still strong especially at any Cherokees that failed to go with the main group in 1838-1839.

The process the military enforced when removing Cherokee families...if a white man married a Cherokee woman, then the white man could stay but the woman and her half-blooded children had to leave.

Same way in reverse, if a white woman married a Cherokee man then he had to leave with his half-blooded children and the white woman could stay.

This is what happened to my 3rd Great Grandparents; Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt. Nancy was a white woman but she would not leave her family and they were forced on the "Trail of Tears" in September 1838. Nancy (CARTER) Pratt is Levi Carter Jr.'s niece.

When the military removed by force the Cherokees from their homes, white pioneers and greedy settlers moved into their homes and seized their livestock, household furnishings, personal property and took all the possessions from the Cherokees without payment.

This "legal" procedure was practiced throughout the Georgia, North Carolina and Tennessee area and was condoned by the government.

Therefore, if known Cherokees still lived in the area, the whites not motivated by fear of life, limb or property, but by greed wanted them removed and threatened their lives.

This would explain the sudden upheaval of many families related to the Levi & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter family, would pick-up their belongings and make a western trek trying to find peace and safety with their western Cherokee relations.

After all Levi and probably Elizabeth were born in Greene County, Tennessee, the home of Levi's parents, where they are buried and his brother's homes.

They have been in Bledsoe County since after 1819, that would be for 20 plus years, and that was home where their children were born.

I commend Levi and Elizabeth at the ages of 45 plus, deciding to sell everything and accompany their children and grandchildren out west. It took a great deal of courage to attempt and endure such a hard journey...at those ages.

Nevertheless, what would have been their alternative...to watch their family leave them?

That, I think answers the question as to why they were forced to leave Bledsoe County, Tennessee. After all, Missouri didn't have anything for them...or did it?

Missouri...Carter Family

The Brother

In 1826, Levi's older brother; Elijah & Susanna (CASSEL) Carter family moved from Campbell County, Tennessee to Brown County, Indiana.

They shortly thereafter moved and lived in Jackson Township, Rush County, Indiana for the next 14 years and moved in 1841 to Howard Township, Gentry County, Missouri where they lived for 17 years when Elijah died in 1858.

So, in 1844, they were living in Gentry County, Missouri. Gentry County, Missouri is located in the northwestern portion of the state.

The Niece and Cousins

Also in Missouri, Levi's nephew Robert B. Carter had a son living in Crawford County, Missouri.

Robert's son, John M. & Cynthia (LYNCH) Carter had moved to Crawford County, Missouri between 1840-1843. Their daughter Sarah (CARTER) was born in Missouri in 1843.

Robert's brother Lorenzo joined them before 1850. John and Lorenzo moved to Maries County, Missouri by the 1860 census.

As I mentioned in the article, "Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter Who Are You?" Lorenzo became friends with John W. & Mary (CARTER) Hansell family in Maries County.
John W. Hansell is the son of Henry H. & Susanna Rebecca (PRATT) Hansell family.

When Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt family moved into Richwoods Township, Washington County, Missouri by the 1840 census, they eventually settled in what is now known as the Hamilton Hollow area of Johnson Township, Washington County.

Their oldest daughter; Susanna Rebecca (PRATT) who was ¼ Cherokee married Henry H. Hansell from Lincoln County, North Carolina sometime around 1840-1841 in Washington County.

Their son; John W. Hansell married Mary E. (CARTER), daughter of Rev. Valentine S. & Maleta (EPPERSON) Carter from Bradley County, Tennessee on 28 January 1869 in Crawford County, Missouri.

After marriage John and Mary Hansell moved and settled near the Lanes Prairie Post Office, Johnson Twp, Maries County, Missouri.

So, what you have are the following…

[1] Levi's brother; Elijah Carter family is living in Gentry County, Missouri in the northwestern portion of the state by 1841

[2] Levi's cousin; John M. Carter family are living in Crawford County, Missouri by 1843

[3] Levi's niece; Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt family are living in Washington County, Missouri by 1839

None of Levi's family is living in Franklin County, Missouri. As I mentioned, Franklin County was out of the way if you were headed to Indian Territory from Bledsoe County Tennessee.

However, if your destination was Gentry County, Missouri or Crawford County, Missouri then arriving in St. Louis by wagon train or boat was a logical choice.

If your destination was the Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt family, then crossing into Jackson, Missouri and following the trail up to Washington County, would have been the route to take.

If your destination were John M. Carter family, then St. Louis to Franklin County to Crawford County would have been the best route.

And if your destination were Gentry County, Missouri, then taking a boat westward on the Missouri River from St. Louis would get you to St. Joseph, Missouri, which is pretty close to Gentry County…if you could afford boat fare.

Since Levi and troupe ended up in Franklin County, I contend that the Cherokee Nation in Indian Territory was not his destination but finding shelter, solace and safety with relatives was his goal.

This I feels answers the why Missouri question or at least what he was doing in Franklin County, Missouri.
The Death of Levi Carter Jr.

Rachel says "was stoped in Franklin Co. MO. by sickness and then he died. Which stoped the farther west ward move."

She states her father Levi Jr. died in 1844 in Franklin County, Missouri because of sickness.

Since Levi's wife Elizabeth is living with her children in District 31, Franklin County, Missouri by the 16th of November 1850 census date, it appears that Levi was the driving force behind the move to Missouri.

Next door to Elizabeth in the 1850 census is her other married children and spouses. So, it looks like the whole procession called it quits and settled for awhile in Franklin County.

This says volumes of what went on. The driving motivation for leaving Tennessee may have been prosecution because of Cherokee intermarriage, but Levi was the primary force behind the move!

If their destination to the Cherokee nation was their primary motivation, then the son-in-law's with Cherokee ancestry would have taken over the leadership and they would have continued their journey.

Since they chose to stop, indicates their resolve for the Cherokee Nation was not their primary motivating factor. I believe...Gentry County was their destination. This is supported by their northern trek into St. Louis, Missouri then Franklin County.

Another factor...is the fact they did stop in Franklin County. I would imagine this was upon the request or insistence of Levi's wife...Elizabeth.

Maybe she didn't want to leave the burial site of Levi and requested they stay in Franklin County.

This brings us to the burial location of Levi Carter Jr.

Burial Location of Levi Carter Jr.

I have a complete set of cemetery records of Franklin County, Missouri. They were published by the Four Rivers Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 146, Washington, Missouri in 1998 under a series of 11 volumes.

Each volume consists of a census of all known cemeteries in a township of Franklin county...hence 11 townships, 11 cemetery books. I imagine there are over 50,000 names in those books.... and only two are indexed!

Yes, for you, I looked through every one of those books page by page looking for Levi Carter's burial. How else can we know for sure he was not listed?

Since there are two factors about their destination at work here, I submit the following...

[1] If they were headed to Gentry County and were going to use the Missouri River then they should have been in St., Johns' Township, which is the most northern and busiest commercial portion of
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

Franklin County and borders the Missouri River

[2] If they were headed to Crawford County and maybe eventually into the Cherokee Indian Nation, then they would have taken the Kickapoo Indian Trail or what is known today as the I-44 corridor (known back in the 1800's as the Old Springfield Road) down through Crawford County, through Marshfield, Springfield and into Indian Territory.

Therefore, if going to Crawford County to visit relatives, they would have gone through Boles, Central and Meramec townships of Franklin County.

In the 1850 census Elizabeth and children are living in District 31 of Franklin County. I have not been able to find a map showing the districts in Franklin County so I don't know where that area was located.

However…if Levi died in 1844 as Rachel has said, and they chose to stay in Franklin County until sometime before the 1860 census where they moved to Pulaski County, which, by the way was also on the Old Springfield Road and part of the "Trail of Tears" route, then, obviously someone bought property.

I think you knew where I was going with that before you even read it, because I think you are beginning to understand the way I think.

I doubt that Elizabeth purchased property because in the 1850 census she is listed as an occupant, where her son, John Carter is listed first as a head of the household.

Therefore checking the land records for Franklin County from 1843-1850 should reveal either some of the Carter's, Rollins, Kelly's and/or Dunlacy families bought property in Franklin County, Missouri.

Especially since John Dunlacy husband of Levi and Elizabeth's daughter; Susanna (CARTER) died between 1858-1860 in Franklin County.

Deed records v. E-F 1843-1848 US/CAN Film 941166
Deed records v. G-H 1849-1853 US/CAN Film 941167

Deed records v. P 1858 US/CAN Film 941171
Deed records v. Q 1858-1859 US/CAN Film 941172

Finding where they settled in Franklin County would be a good indication as to where Levi Carter had died and where he is buried.

Also, checking the local newspapers of that area might generate an article concerning his death.

Levi Carter Residence in Bledsoe County, Tennessee

Rachel's statement "I remember that when the Indians left Tenisee (actual spelling) of their stoping at fathers house sometime one or two days."

Remember they left Tennessee in 1838 and 1839 by rivers, and various routes, this statement indicates...Levi's house was on a route to the Indian Territory.

Finding his deed record in Bledsoe County would give an exact location of his home. But...I think I know about where they were living.

There were several concentration camps around McMinn County, in my book "Henry Pratt of Greene County, Tennessee" by Floyd Thomas Pratt © 2002, I go into great depth concerning the "Trail of Tears" incident. (Available on cd)

I include pictures, diagrams, paintings and maps of the various "companies or detachments" that left Tennessee for Arkansas and the Indian Territory.

(Trail of Tears route map)

As you can see by this map, Taylor's route was the northern route which my Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt were forced to take.

Coming out of Charleston, on the McMinn & Bradley county line then picked-up what is now highway 60 at Dayton and the "Trail" became highway 30.

Highway 30 splits Bledsoe County in half!!!

Also, this tells me something I did not know before...Levi & Elizabeth visited with the Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt family before they left Tennessee!!!

Since, Henry & Nancy were in Taylor's detachment and Taylor took the northern route, then If what Rachel said is correct that the trail went near her parents home, then of course, he would have visited and probably assisted his niece's family...the Pratts.

This is extraordinary! All of the other Carters of Nancy's family, did not assist or help Henry or Nancy before, during or after they were forced out of Tennessee.

When the military started their detachments, none of Nancy (CARTER) Pratt's family went with them or assisted them.

In fact, I have seen the evidence, the Carters of Monroe County, where Henry and Nancy were living, grabbed all the land they could when the Cherokees were forced out!

(present County map of Bledsoe County)

Notice Dayton on the bottom right and Highway 30 crossing the Bledsoe County Line through Pikesville and across the county. This is a good indication where Levi & Elizabeth Carter were living.
This is exciting news. I did not know this before I started this report because I never did an in-depth analysis of the Levi & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter family.

Since, this is a new revelation to most of all you researchers as well, then it changes the reasons for Levi & Elizabeth to be in Missouri or maybe put a slant on them.

Levi and family knew and were well aware of the plight of the Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt family.

Like I said, obviously they rendered assistance to the Pratts and this dispels the notion that Levi was of Cherokee ancestry because, he and his family would have been forced on the "Trail of Tears" also. It is not like he was hiding from the military...he was in plain sight rendering assistance!

Also, this indicates that Levi & Elizabeth had sympathies for the Cherokee peoples and left Tennessee for the reasons I have previously indicated.

Like I had mentioned, if he was on his way to see his brother, then St. Louis was a logical route, also if he was going to visit the Pratts in Washington County or cousin John M. Carter family in Crawford County then the St. Louis route would have been convenient.

I think he was on his way to Gentry County, but was going to visit the Pratts after their ordeal on the "Trail of Tears" when he died.

Kudos to Levi & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter family for rendering assistance to my 3rd Great Grandparents in a time of great need. I thank you now, and will thank you in person...soon, but not too soon I hope.

Levi Carter on the Cherokee Nation Roll???

Rachel says, "and it is the same Levi Carter that his name come on the Role of the Cherokee Nation b (?) of then friendly relation in Tenisee"

This statement is troubling. I don't know what Rachel means by this statement because I cannot find Levi Carter's name on any Cherokee Roll or census.

The only census I could not check is the 1836 Henderson Roll. I don't seem to have the record in my books.

Since Rachel was offering her testimony by helping her nephews seek membership in the Cherokee Nation, her statement makes me feel she might have been a little coerced when she gave it. Her emphasis on the Cherokee Nation, over and over again is over kill and it appears she was trying awfully hard to convince someone of their Cherokee heritage.
Nevertheless, the only reason Levi if he ever was listed on a Cherokee roll would be as a sympathizer to their cause…not because he was Cherokee!!!

Testimony on behalf of...

Rachel also states the following…"I further state that George Rollins and Joseph and Jermiah Rollins and the said Louis Kelley are cousins their mother being daughter of Levi Carter and Elizabeth Carter. Rutha Carter married to David Rollins in 1841. Sarah Carter married John Kelley in 1837”

What makes this interesting is the fact that she mentions by name the individuals who would benefit from acceptance of this application.

She makes this very clear this is not an application for her or on her behalf but for those 4 boys. Also at the bottom of the application is a statement "Submitted by Nathan Lankford for that of Lewis Kelley"

Let’s take a look at these individuals. George Rollins, Joseph Rollins and Jeremiah Rollins were children of David and Rutha (CARTER) Rollins.

Previously I mentioned that David Rollins first married Rachel's sister Rutha (CARTER). By this marriage there were born 8 children, i.e., Martha, George, Courtney, Joseph, Jasper, Jeremiah, Josiah and Susan.

Since we know that Levi and Elizabeth did not have any Cherokee ancestry, then all of Levi's children also would not have Cherokee ancestry, but I previously wrote that maybe David Rollins and John Kelly may have had Cherokee ancestry.

Following this hypothesis, if David Rollins had Cherokee ancestry, then ALL of David's children have Cherokee Ancestry. Not just the boys and not just Rutha's children but also his 2nd wife…Rachel's children!!! That's 17 children between the two marriages!!!

Why are there only the three boys applying for Cherokee membership?

David and Rutha had 5 sons and 3 daughters, why hasn't the other children applied for Cherokee Nation status? And why not in the same application, giving their cause a stronger case?

David and Rachel had 9 children; William, Mary, Margaret, Susan, Sarah, Melvina, Morris, Levi and Jacob. If David Rollins had Cherokee ancestry in his family, then why didn't any of these children apply for Cherokee Nation status?

In all, David Rollins fathered 17 children and only those three boys applied for Cherokee citizenship? What's going on here?

Let's talk about John Kelly who married Levi and Elizabeth's daughter…Sarah (CARTER). By this marriage there were 11 children born i.e., Margaret, William, Levi, Ann, Lewis, John, Mary, Francis, Decater, Sarah and Andrew.

If John Kelly had Cherokee ancestry, then ALL of his children would have had Cherokee ancestry, then why only Lewis applied for Cherokee Nation status? What's going on here?
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

If David Rollins and John Kelly had Cherokee ancestry, then why didn't they apply for Cherokee citizenship?

Did you notice that the 4 boys in question filed this application after John Kelly had died between 1860-1870 and after the death of David Rollins on 4 December 1893?

If they were really of Cherokee ancestry, where are their supporting witnesses? Getting their 61-year-old stepmother to give testimony on the application was very weak.

And did you notice that none, I repeat NONE of Rachel's children were party to this application?

When the Cherokees left Tennessee, the government made a monetary agreement with the traitorous treaty signers of a sizable substantial amount.

This was an allotment to be paid over a period of time in installments. I imagine there were many who came forth and claimed Cherokee ancestry hoping to share in that allotment.

Otherwise, how can we explain the unusual circumstance of these 4 boys applying for Cherokee Nation status when none of the other 24 children between these three families participated?

Bob Watson informed me that this application was denied and rightly so.

I feel that Rachel was coerced into giving testimony for these boys and Levi Carter never was on any Cherokee Roll.

Levi & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter Family

As the Levi Carter Sr. family history, which is well documented indicates, the early Carters had no love for the Cherokee.

When you grow up in a family bad-mouthing someone, you tend to want to meet this person to determine for yourself and to understand your parent's prejudices.

Most often you find that...that person wasn't so bad after all. I think this is what happened to young Levi Carter Jr.

As he grew up in Greene County living next to the Cherokee people in harmony and even having Cherokees as friends, I think he did not share his parent's prejudices.

After marriage, he and Elizabeth began their family in Bledsoe County near the heart of the Cherokee Nation located in Vonore Township, Monroe County.

When his daughters began courtships with Cherokees, I don't think this alarmed him or Elizabeth and they welcomed these men into their families.

During the "Trail of Tears" era, I think Levi and Elizabeth were appalled at the treatment the Cherokee people were receiving from the American government.
Evidence of this concern was the way they opened their home to the "Trail of Tears" exiles as they passed through Bledsoe County. Not for just a few hours, but as Rachel says...for several days.

With family located in Missouri and probably receiving letters of their well being, I imagine the desire of the Cherokee in-laws to join their relatives in Indian Territory was a motivating factor for their decision to completely uproot from Bledsoe County.

As I said before, only by checking those deed records can we know when they sold their home and the approximate date they left Tennessee.

But, left Tennessee they did and en mass. Multiple families, white and Cherokee made the trip from Bledsoe County probably to Kentucky maybe catching the boats up to St. Louis or traveling by land but eventually reaching St. Louis.

On their way to visit the Pratts, Levi became ill and died. This is not surprising for I have lived in St. Louis most of my life and the winters are brutal. So, I would not be surprised if he died during the winter of 1844.

Rachel says he died in Franklin County, his widow for what I believe...sentimental reasons did not want to leave the area and the family settled en mass into Franklin County, Missouri by the 16th of November 1850 census.

With cousins and family settling in Pulaski County, by the 1860 census some of this group moved near the Humboldt Post Office, Twp 38 Range 11 in Pulaski County, Missouri by the 14th of July 1860 census.

Elizabeth sticking close to family, moved with her daughter's family... Thomas "Tom" H. Wesley & Eliza Matilda (CARTER) Watson near the Clifty Dale Post Office in Miller Township, Maries County, Missouri by the 1st of September 1870 census.

Most so-called researchers on ancestry.com are short on fact finding and long on copying information others have posted...even if it is wrong.

Therefore, it appears no one has taken the responsibility to find out the exact death date of Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter.

We know she was living near the Clifty Dale Post Office with the Watson family on the 1st of September 1870.

Clifty Dale Post Office is a post office ten miles southeast of Vienna and located in South Maries county, west of Gasconade River, near Clifty Dale Creek and natural bridge.

It appears she died between the 1870 census and the 1880 census date because the Watson families do not have her listed with them in the 1880 census.

Checking the cemeteries around the Vienna City area and once again, I know I sound like a broken record, but until you researchers get it right, I am going to say it over and over again...check the deed records to see where and when Thomas Watson, Elizabeth's son-in-law bought property in Maries...
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

County, probably Miller Township.

I cannot stress the importance of deed records...when no one could figure out when Absalom Blanton had died, I found in a deed, his widow had mentioned the date and place.

Without me checking those old dusty deeds in Potosi in Washington County, I guess they still wouldn't know then he died.

If you are going to do a job, do it to the best of your ability. No one is going to remember if you were a good or kind person but they will remember and respect your work that you leave behind.

By locating the Watson's home, they may have had a family cemetery...this could be where Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter is buried.

Also, check the local newspapers, which are probably located at the State Historical of Missouri in Columbia, Missouri. <http://shs.umsystem.edu/newspaper/index.shtml>

Several years ago, the State Historical Society had all the counties send their old newspapers to them for storage and restoration. They microfilmed them and I have sat for hours in those chairs in Columbia looking at old newspapers of Crawford, Washington and Franklin Counties of Missouri.

You can to...I'm no superman. Just willing to do it. When I sold insurance for 30 years, one of my "hero's" is Joseph "Joe" Gandolfo, who has written many books on the art of salesmanship.

He wrote a book called, "Ideas are a dime a dozen, but the man that puts them into practice is priceless". <http://www.amazon.com/Ideas-dime-dozen-practice-priceless/dp/B000MNNH7E>

The difference between successful people and unsuccessful people...successful people will do the things that unsuccessful people won't do.

Take the time, do the research, validate, validate and did I say validate? Leave work behind that helps others, not work that must be checked and validated...wasting more time.

The answers are out there, in a vault somewhere, in a bible, in a newspaper, on a headstone, in marriage, deed or census records, but find them. Just take the time, energy and expense and really make a difference.

I hope this will help those of you interested in Levi & Elizabeth (HOWARD) Carter's family and without searching the Bledsoe County Courthouse vaults, I think I have given you the correct assistance needed to further your research.

Respectfully with love,

Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

1838 to 1840 Marriage of David Rollins abd Rutha (CARTER)
David Rollins and Rutha (CARTER) were married around 1838-1840 probably in Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States at her parent's residence. After marriage, they lived in District 7, Greene, Tennessee, United States next door to his father; William Rollins Sr.

Moved from District 7, Greene, Tennessee, United States to District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States. Apparently Davis Rollins family hooked up with his father-in-law in Bledsoe, Tennessee and made the trip with most of the Levi Carter Jr.’s family and moved with spouses to District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States.

Susan (ROLLINS) was born in 1855 in District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States.

1855 to 1860 Death of spouse; Rutha (CARTER) Rollins
Rutha (CARTER) Rollins died between 16 November 1850 census date and the marriage date of her husband's 2nd marriage. Looking at the 1860 census date, we see additional children Joseph born 1861, Josiah born 1863 and Susan born 1855 then a large gap until the 1870 census which shows David already married to Rutha's sister; Rachel. Then in that census additional Rollins children start at 1872 with William T. Rollins. Therefore, I feel Rutha died after Susan's birthdate in 1855 and before the 1860 census in District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States.

1855 to 1860 Marriage of Davis(d) Rollins and Rachel (CARTER) Rollins
David Rollins and Rachel (CARTER) Rollins were married after the death of his first wife, Rutha (CARTER) Rollins, Rachel's sister and the 14 July 1860 date of the census.

David Rollins Family As Printed in "A County/Family History - Maries County, MO"
by Judy Rowe Boemio
The following was taken from a book available from the Maries County, MO Genealogical Society.
the title -Maries County, Missouri – A County/Family History Vol. II, Page 377. Bold and underlines were added to highlight marriages.

"My great great grandfather, David Rollins, was born in Tennessee about 1823. He married Rutha Carter, daughter of Levi Carter and Elizabeth Carter, about 1841. They came to Missouri in the early 1840's with the John Kelley and Levi Carter families. John Kelley was married to Sarah Carter, sister to Rutha and daughter of Lev. They went first to Franklin County, Pulaski County and then settled in Maries County in the 1860's.

David and Rutha had six children: Martha, George, Courtney, Joseph, Jerry and Susan.

Martha married John Watson; George married Sarah Cunningham; Courtney married Robert Davidson; Joseph married Elmina Beaverett; Jerry married Mary Ann Susan Elizabeth Adkisson; Susan married Decater Kelley.

After Rutha died, David married her sister, Rachel Carter. David and Rachel had eight children:
William T., Mary, Emiline, Sarah, Melvina, Morris, Daniel and Jacob. William T. married Cora Groves; Mary married Jesse Kuhns; Emiline, Sarah and Melvina died young; Morris married Sarah Matthews;

My great grandfather, Jerry Rollins, left, Maries County as a young man and went into Indian Territory, now Oklahoma. He married a quarter blood Cherokee, Mary Ann Susan Elizabeth Adkisson October 25, 1884 in Tahlequah. They made their home in Claremore and had ten children.

George, Courtney, Joseph and Daniel also left Maries County and went into Indian Territory.

David Rollins homesteaded 160 acres in Miller Township, Section 14. He was a farmer and built a log house on his land. David Rollins died December 4, 1893 in Maries County and is buried in Fairview Cemetery. Rachel Rollins died February 3, 1912.

David's son, Jacob, lived on the homestead most of his life. The land is still in the Rollins family.
David's granddaughter, Cora Dale Rollins and her husband, Charlie Sherrell bought the property.
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

The old log house is no longer there. Sterling Kelley, grandson of John Kelley, went to the old home place and sent me a chip of wood from the log house built by David Rollins. It is one of my most prized possessions. There are still many descendants of David Rollins living in the Maries County-Dixon area.” Submitted by Judy Rowe Boemio

Levi Carter Jr's family moved from Bledsoe, Tennessee, United States to District 31, Franklin, Missouri, United States by the 1850 census date. This is in harmony with the customary departure procedure. After the death of Elizabeth's mother in 1845, it appears the Levi Carter family left for Missouri. Levi died either in Tennessee or in Missouri. Checking the deed records of Franklin County, Missouri might shed some light on his arrival date in Missouri.

Levi and other Carters, (John Sr.; Joseph; Caleb Sr.; and Nathan) were traced together from New Jersey to Greene County, Tennessee, maybe brothers. Also, David and Ephraim. In 1772, Caleb Carter Sr., claimed 400A of land in Monongalia County, Virginia. Two years prior to the Revolution, they served in Lord Dunmore’s War. The document, "Captain Zackquil Morgan's Roll", p. 19-20 with seventy-six names, days served, and pay, dated 4 Oct 1775, included these names:
Levy (Levi) Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Caleb Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0
Joseph Carter-162 days; Pay 12:3:0

Levy (Levi) possibly about 40 years of age, had an active frontier life like others of his generation, and was fully capable of withstanding the hardships of military service. During this time, 1775-1777, Levi Carter had land on Indian Creek, at the mouth of LeMasters Run, near present day Arnettsville. The town was Point Marion, Virginia,
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

where Monongalia River and the Cheat River meet. (see map)

Levi Carter and John Carter Sr. both served two months at Pickett's Fort, located on the Monongalia River about twenty miles south of present Morgantown, Virginia. They were under the command of Capt. William Haymond and Lt. Morgan Morgan. This document preserved by the Haymond family, carries the title of "Pay Roll of Capt. William Haymond's Company of Monongalia County Militia", from the 15th of April until the 12th of June 1777. Twenty eight names were on the payroll. [Gwathmey's "Historical Register of Virginians in the Revolution", page 134.]

Later in 1777, Carter's moved south through the Shenandoah Valley Appalachian Mountains, to Surrey County, northwest North Carolina just south of the Virginia line, where Levi Sr., Caleb, Jesse, Nathaniel, John and others are listed as soldiers from North Carolina. (Allen, Penelope Johnson,"Tennessee Soldiers in the Revolution", p17.)

The Carter's of Washington and Sullivan counties, North Carolina (Greene County, TN. by 1783) were included in 1780-81 "Inventory of Taxable Property of the Twelfth District in the Present Circulating Currency" from Washington County, North Carolina. Abraham, oldest son of John Carter Sr.; Caleb Carter Sr., not Levi's son; John Carter; Joseph Carter; and Levi Carter Sr.

They paid taxes until the 1783 Land Act by North Carolina, when each Carter head filed a claim for a given number of acres. Levi Carter, Sr. and John Carter, Sr. with adjoining tracts of land on Lick Creek Possessed no more than squatters rights------ built a Fort (Carter Fort), planted a crop, and tried to obtain a deed.

A historical marker "John Carter established a settlement in 1783" at Carter's Station in Greene County, Tennessee, located 8 miles northwest of Greeneville on Hwy. 70, near the old Albany Post Office. Originally it was on the old Babb's Mill Wagon Road that ran east and west through Greene county from near Rheatown to the Hawkins county line near Bull's Gap. Carter's built their fort on present-day site of Carter's Station and Cemetery, where they fought the Cherokee Indians at Lookout Mountain. It was an intensive battle and lasted nearly a decade, with the whites prevailing. [It should be noted that this battle which took ten years; the Cherokees fighting for their survival, the Carters seeking more land ensued bitter resentment on both sides of the conflict. When three of Jesse Carter Sr's children married Cherokees, my 3ggrandmother...Nancy (CARTER) married Henry Pratt son of a Cherokee chief, in 1820, Jesse disowned all of them and left them out of his will.-Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009]

A Revolutionary War voucher made out to Levi Carter, State of North Carolina, No. 3538 was for L12:3. The auditors for the counties of Washington and Sullivan, North Carolina, certified that Levi Carter received in account twelve pounds, three shillings, dated 12 June 1783.

The Carter's of Surry County, North Carolina, had supported the Revolution in both Virginia and North Carolina, while living on Indian lands, and had contributed soldiers to the cause. The King's proclamation in 1763, forbid white settlement west of the Appalachian Divide, so they were vulnerable to severe punishment by the British. Local Tories could identify the Carter's as enemies of the King, and soon after 1782, the Carter Patriarch's reached the conclusion that they could save their families by migrating en masse with the other threatened families to the Watauga-Tennessee Valley frontier. Some of the Carter's in the War lived long enough to apply for a Revolutionary War pension about 1830, and gave New Jersey as their birthplace.

These claims along Lick Creek were entered in North Carolina books during 1783-84, but four to ten years passed before receiving a full title. No sooner than the ink was dry on the original claim, ownership began to change by way of sales and purchases, gifts to children or other relatives, and by bequests to heirs. The original surveys and plats of Carter land grants are in North Carolina State Archives at Raleigh.

1793 Father's Greene County, Tennessee Property Transaction

State of North Carolina, No. #1238 12 January 1793, Levi Carter:

To all whom these presents shall come Greeting----Know ye that we for and in consideration of the sum of Ten Pounds for every hundred acres hereby guaranteed paid into our Treasury by Levi Carter, have given and granted and by these presents do give and grant unto the said Levi Carter, a tract of land containing one hundred and seventy-five acres, (175A) lying and being in our County of Greene, on both sides of Lick Creek. Beginning at the mouth of Punching Camp Creek at a beech, then North 92 poles to an ash, then East 130 poles to two hickories, then South 32 poles to a white oak, then East 25 poles to a post oak, then South 154 poles to a white oak, then West 155 poles to a white oak, then North 94 poles to the beginning; do by the plot hereunto doth appear together with all woods, waters, mines, minerals, hereditaments, appurtanances to the said land belonging pertaining to hold to the said Levi Carter, his heirs and assigns forever, yielding and paying to us such sums of money yearly or otherwise as our General Assembly from time to time may direct. Provided always that the said Levi Carter shall cause this grant to be Registered in the Register's Office of our said County of Greene, within the time limited by law, otherwise the same shall be void and of no effect. In testimony whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patent and our Great to be hereunto affixed.

Witness: Richard Dobbs Spaight, Esquire, our Governor Captain General and Commander in Chief, at Newburn, the 12th day of January in the 17th year of our Independence and in the year of our Lord 1793. Signed: J. Glasgow, Secretary. Richard Dobbs Spaight [A pole was equal to 16.5 feet-----Tom Pratt]

Levi Carter's name appears frequently in the Greene County Court minutes from 1783- , as well as that of Abraham, James, Joseph, and Daniel. Caleb and Levi are named in 1784, in court cases as plaintiff or defendant; or to register an earmark for their hogs; jury lists; or appointments. In August 1786, "Ordered that a road be laid off from Babb's Mill to the County line below Swan Ponds", and named Joseph Carter, Abraham Carter, Levi Carter and nine other men to view, mark, and report to the November Court. This was the year 1786, that Levi Carter's son, our Elijah Carter was born. [When the text says our Elijah Carter, Elizabeth Carter Schnegelberger is referring to Elijah as her direct line.-----Tom Pratt]

In December 1784, the State of Franklin was organized; and Southwest Territory (South of Ohio) was formed to provide state or territorial government for Washington, Sullivan and Greene counties. Carter Station Campgrounds date back to September 20, 1787, at which time one of the church founders, Joseph Carter received a land grant from the State of North Carolina. A Christian Society was organized in 1790 and an outdoor preaching place was built on the hill in the present Carter's Station cemetery. Traveling circuit riders preached at Carter Station in the early years, and services were held there until the Great Revival Era near the turn of the century. Shortly after 1800, a church, 40 x 30 was built of hewed pine logs, two-story covered with boards and had but one window. Two local ministers, the Rev. Benjamin Van Pelt, and Rev. Benjamin Williams served the church for many years. The latter is buried on the camp meeting ground. The Van Pelt home on Lick Creek was a favorite stopping place for Bishop Francis Asbury when he visited the area. This famous camp meeting site, had a large shed early in the century. A second shed was built in 1847--"the best in East Tennessee". In 1836, nine additional acres was purchased for camp meetings. In 1878 the present building was erected. "The present congregation at Carter's Station; United Methodist Church (formerly Albany) is striving to fulfill their obligation to God and to the founders of Old Carter's Station, and pledge to keep in service that which in trust has been passed down to them."

Carter's were numerous in America at the time of the first census, 1790, as number 63, appearing 651 times. In 1805, Levi Carter and Peter Cassel were on the tax rolls in Greene County, Tennessee. A newspaper article about Carter Station United Methodist Church, "Early white settlers from New Jersey, by way of Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Surrey County North Carolina, came upon a fortified Indian Village, made peace with the Indians and established a settlers fort in 1783. Many of the settlers and members of their families and their descendants are buried in the cemetery near the site of the fort. The first person buried was a Mr. Hardin whose mocassins became entangled in the brush of a cane-brake on the north side of Lick Creek when he was overtaken by the (Cherokee) Indians, and killed." (Greeneville Tennessee Sun, newspaper, 25 July 1979.)

The 1805 Camp meeting at Carter's Station began 23 August 1805, and lasted four (4) days. 10,000 people came. The families camped. (Greeneville Tennessee first newspaper in 1805.)

The only reason I have left this information in about Margaret and children is to give the researcher information about Margaret and children and she did marry a John Carter but not Levi Carter Sr.'s son...John.

1800-1802 Marriage of John Carter and Margaret ( )
John Carter and Margaret (??) were married maybe in North Carolina. Many researcher have given Surry County, North Carolina as the birthplace of their children. However, his parents were in Greene County, Tennessee since the 1780's. By 1780 John would have been 1 to 9 years old, so he was living in and around Greene County, Tennessee by the 1800's. Since he is listed in the 1805 and 1812 tax lists of
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

Greene County, Tennessee before he moved to Monroe County in 1821, then this is probably the area he was married and where his children were born.

1802 Childbirth of son; Baley Carter
Baley Carter was born in Greene, Tennessee, United States about 1802.

1804 Childbirth of son; Robert B. Carter Sr.
Robert B. Carter Sr. was born in Greene, Tennessee, United States about 1804.

Childbirth of son; Isaac Carter
In the Monroe, County, Tennessee Deed Book "H", #884, of 7 October 1828, Isaac Carter is listed as a son of John & Margaret Carter. Can not identify this individual in any of the census records. Therefore, can not place a birth year for him.

John & Margaret ( ) Carter...Who Are They?
By Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 28 September 2010

The Mystery...

Like most family history researchers, I hate loose ends...they upset the balance of harmony. Knowing about someone and not being able to identify them causes a void in the cosmos...John & Margaret ( ) Carter are such people.

I debated whether I should write what I do know about them, after all, many of you have probably grown weary of these discourses...I put to paper, but, after several days of contemplation, I decided I would not get any peace until I did.

I keep collecting data on them and none of the data is conclusive enough to draw a conclusion as to who they were, where they came from and whom their parents were.

Someone, out there, in the vast space of family history researchers knows the answers but has failed to disclose the truth to the world.
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

It looks like, in order to identify these people, we are going to have to do some serious research.

Enough of the introduction let me extrapolate.

John Carter...

John Carter, son of Levi Sr. & Susanna () Carter was born between 1771-1780 near Point Marion, Monongahela, Virginia, United States. This birthdate is an estimate based on the birth of John's resumed first-born child in 1802.

Also, I have found no conclusive proof that the John Carter mentioned as an heir of Levi Carter Sr. in the Greene County, Tennessee, Court of Common Pleas, Quarter Sessions (1814-1818), page 253, 26 July 1815 & Book 10, page 487:

"Indenture made 26 July 1815, between Jesse, John, Levy, and Caleb and Joseph "sell and forever quit claim to heirs of a certain tract of land granted to Levy Carter deceased, being in Greene County on the waters of Lick Creek wherein we have now been heirs which tract or piece of land as our part as legatees. After the death of our mother, Susanna Carter, we will forever warrant and defend" etc. Registered Oct 24, 1816, in the presence of David Key and Samuel Keller. All signed with a mark."

...is the same John Carter that married Margaret () and died between 1826-1828 in Monroe County, Tennessee?

What makes this even harder, there is no place that I have found that mentions John's approximate birth years.

I based his approximate birthdate as a gap in the 1771-1780 range but I could be way off and not even close.

In 1777, Levi Sr. moved from Monongahela County, Virginia (now West Virginia) to Surry County, North Carolina.

After a three-year stint, they moved to Washington County, North Carolina. They settled in the Washington County area later to become known as Albany, Greene County, Tennessee.

In 1783, Greene County was formed from Washington County, North Carolina and in 1796 Tennessee officially became a state.

Presumed Marriage...

John Carter married a Margaret, maiden name unknown at this time around 1800-1802 or even earlier. These approximate dates were extrapolated from their child; Bailey or Baley Carter's birth date of 1802.

However, there was a son born named Isaac Carter birthdate unknown who could have been born earlier.

This process of fixing a marriage date prior to the birth of the first known child is a tricky business.

First of all, we are not positive that Bailey is the first-born child. Second, Not being able to fix an exact birthdate on John leaves us with the possibility that he could have been married previously and the known children, or what we think we know as their children belong to the same spouse.

If John were born closer to the 1771 year, then he would have been able to marry at age 16 which would have been 1786. If he were born closer to the 1780 year, then he would have been able to marry after 1796. In any case he was eligible for marriage between 1786-1796 or later.

Or…maybe Levi’s son John didn’t marry at all and died young and all this is an exercise in futility.

Enter Margaret...

Failure to secure a marriage date or location for John Carter and Margaret (maiden name) has proved a serious stumbling block.

Checking several books including marriages of Greene County, Tennessee and a book that lists all the Carter marriages in the state of Tennessee and not finding their marriage leads me to believe several possibilities.

First, the marriage record was lost...either by accident or negligence. Second, they were not married in Greene County or any other Tennessee county.

Third, the compilers of those marriage records failed to record ALL the marriages when they compiled their marriage books. Fourth, they were not married in Tennessee.

All of these are possibilities. I have read where circuit rider preachers lost their records; one lost his records during a flood.

Only by checking the Greene County, Tennessee actual marriage record book, line by line can we determine that their marriage had not been overlooked.

Of course, checking the Washington County, North Carolina marriage books and surrounding counties would require a great deal of work and dedication.

If you are a direct descendant of this family, then what price would you be willing to pay to learn the truth about your great grandparents?

This leaves us to the one possibility that I believe...they were married outside of Tennessee.

Margaret's birth...

The very first place, in any records, that I have found, that mentions Margaret is the 7th of October 1828 Monroe County, Tennessee Deed Record Book "H", #884. Up until then, she is not listed anywhere.

In this deed record it states…“Anthony Dibrell of White Co., to Margaret Carter in trust for her children, namely, Mary Elizabeth, Robert, William, Henry, Baleys and Isaac Carter, heirs of John Carter, dec'd. of Monroe Co.; undivided moiety of land being 1/3 part.”

This deed conveys several important truisms. First, husband John Carter had died prior to the 7th October 1828. Second, it lists the names of John's children. And divides the property into 1/3 as stipulated by law.

With the death of husband, John between 1826-1828 in Monroe County, Tennessee, leaves Margaret the head of the house and listed as such in the 1830 census.

In the 1830 Federal Census of the 67th Regiment District, Monroe County, Tennessee, on page 104 we have
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

Margaret Carter white female age 50-59 with her children still living at home.

This 50-59-age bracket places her birth between 1771-1780. This puts her in the alleged same age bracket as husband John Carter, which is in harmony with people marrying around their age group.

However, things get dicey in the 1840 census. She is still in Monroe County but she is now listed in the 70-79-age bracket placing her birth between 1761-1770. This discrepancy can be explained by the age of the subjects who when aging…get senile.

By the 1850 census she has moved into her son-in-law's home; Samuel J. & Jane Crockett (CARTER) Rowan family in District 2 (Sweetwater), Monroe, Tennessee and reports her age as 55.

This places her birth date at around 1795 which is all wrong because she was getting married around that time.

In the 1860 census she is listed as age 65 born in 1795 in Virginia. However, she was not in her right mind at the time as shall be revealed.

Incidentally, the Jane Crockett (CARTER) was taken from the Internet and I am not sure where they got Crockett.

I can't find Samuel Rowan in the 1860 census or the 1870 census.

But I did find some disturbing evidence in the Chancery Court Records of Monroe County, Tennessee.

Court Records...

After the 1815 court record of John Carter already mentioned, the next court record of this family was on 7th of October 1828 Monroe County, Tennessee already mentioned, followed by the Monroe, County, Tennessee Deed Book "H", #856, 18 January 1834

"John Duggan to Margaret Carter, Gdn. of minor heirs of John Carter, dec'd, both of Monroe Co."

And Monroe, County, Tennessee Deed Book "H", Page 857, 14 September 1835

"Robert Raper of Wythe County, Virginia, to Margaret Carter of Monroe County; the one half undivided interest in land and one sixth undivided interest in other land."

And Monroe, County, Tennessee Deed Book "H", page 805, 1 January 1836

"James Bell of Wythe County, Virginia, by atty. in fact David G. Shepherd to Margaret Carter of Monroe County; undivided moiety of land being the 1/3 part of land adjoining land whereon William Johnston formerly lived or John Dugan now lives."

And Monroe, County, Tennessee Deed Book "H", page 805, 1 January 1836:

"James Bell, Andrew Kincannon, and John P. Mathis of Wythe County, Virginia, by atty. in fact David G. Shepherd to Margaret Carter; one-half of an undivided tract."

And Monroe, County, Tennessee Deed Book "M", #108, 22 February 1841:

And Monroe, County, Tennessee Deed Book "N", #284, 25 January 1845

Verrry Interesting...

Up to this point most of the deed transactions are in relation to her deceased husband; John Carter. The 1828, 1834, 1841, 1845 deed transactions pertain to John Carter and heirs.

However, for the very first time in 1835 a Robert Raper of Wythe County, Virginia deeds property to her and in 1836 James Bell of Wythe County, Virginia attorney on behalf of David G. Shepard deeds property to her, also in 1836, James Bell, Andrew Kincannon, and John P. Mathis of Wythe County, Virginia, by attorney on behalf of David G. Shepard deeds land to her.

Investigating who these men were from Wythe County, Virginia might reveal her family maiden name. Could be where she was born. One of those men could have been from a father or brother’s estate.

Since I could not find her in the 1870 census I figured she died between 1860 census date and the 1870 census.

However, that was until I found the smoking gun.

1873 Smoking Gun...

Checking the Monroe County, Tennessee US Gen website at <http://www.tngennet.org/monroe/index.html>

<http://www.tngennet.org/monroe/chancery/chanceryindex.htm>

Going through each yearly site I located the following...

1873 Monroe County, Tennessee Chancery Court Case Number(#488) Filed 3 Nov 1873.

1. Mary E. (oldest dau.) wife of M.C. Dibrell (who testifies in Sparta Tenn) and by 1845 she is dead and her 2 or 3 children are dead. 2. Robert Carter 3. F. Bates Carter 4. William Carter ( he may be dead ) 5. Jane C. wife of Samuel J. Rowan of Hill Co., Tex they have been married at least 35 yrs. Mrs. Margaret Carter was due slaves from her mother's estate in Va. Mrs. Margaret Carter d. Jun 1864 Monroe Co. and she was insane from 1860 until her death."

Oh Oh...

This changes everything. Let's take this record line upon line to determine what it actually says.
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

[1] Samuel J. Rowan married Jane Crockett (CARTER) daughter of John & Margaret Carter, our subjects. Jane is listed with a birthdate of 1816-1820 in the 1830 census and 1821 in the 1850 census and 1819 in the 1860 census.

We know that after the death of husband John, Margaret was living with the Rowans for several years.

[2] Daughter; Mary Elizabeth (CARTER) married Montgomery Crockett Dibrell around 1834-1836. She died in 1840 in Sparta, White County, Tennessee. She is listed in the 1830 and 1840 census with a birth between 1811-1815.

[3] Son; Robert B. Carter born 1804 in Greene County, Tennessee married Rebecca (JACKSON) around 1821-1827. He is in the 1840, 1850 and 1860 census showing a dominant birthdate of 1804.

[4] In the above record, they list a F. Bates Carter but I have a Bailey Carter born 1802 in Greene County, Tennessee married a Jane () around 1830-1832. He is in the 1840, 1850 and 1860 census showing a dominant birthdate of 1802.

[5] Son; William Carter actual birthdate can not be determined. He cannot be identified after the 1840 census and we really don't know where he places in the family hierarchy.

Concerning the statement "Mrs. Margaret Carter was due slaves from her mother's estate in Va."
This statement is the "smoking gun." It appears that this Margaret was from Virginia as her census statements verified and she was named in her mother's will giving her slaves.

All we have to do is to find that will.

The last statement in that court record states..."Mrs. Margaret Carter d. Jun 1864 Monroe Co. and she was insane from 1860 until her death."

This would explain the 1795 birthdate in the 1850 and 1860 census.

It appears the search for Margaret's maiden name is going to take us to Wythe County, Virginia.

Further research needs to be in that county to find her mother's will.

It looks like a clean-cut case of identification but something has happened to disrupt the harmony and change what we thought we knew.

Ancestry.com other researchers...

When I was a young man, my mother would get angry with me and would say..."you got another think coming".

This statement would follow something like why did you do this or why did you do that and if you think you were going to get away with that..."you got another think coming".

Well in family history research, I am reminded over and over again as new information is discovered about people that I have to change my viewpoint and what I thought I knew is not what the truth has revealed.

This is very heartwrenching and depressing for the spirit. It looks like this family is one of those situations.

There are two family trees on ancestry.com that both shed some light on this family. However, before you jump to any conclusions let's examine the facts.
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

There is a tree called Neuman and is operated by neumantmsl. No other information is listed and the last time they logged on in ancestry.com was over 6 months ago.

I contacted them through ancestry and have not heard from them after a couple of days.

Using Margaret as the link, I found that Neuman had her listed as Margaret (CARTER) born 2 June 1794 in Montgomery County, Virginia to Robert Carter born 1 January 1769 in Halifax County, Virginia and died March 1801 in Wythe County, Virginia and his wife; Jane (CROCKETT) born 1772 location unknown and died 12 November 1840 in Monroe County, Tennessee.

They state that Robert and Jane were married on 8 May 1793 in Montgomery County, Virginia.

He has several children with Margaret as the first born of four.

What I wanted to ask them, if they ever contacted me, was their proof and verification of that family connection.

They list two more Carter ancestors for Robert going back to the early 1700's.

On the surface, this looks like a connection but after careful scrutiny...I'm not so sure.

They are all the same differences...

Yes, I know it's an oxymoron, but there are similarities and there are confusing differences.

First of all, Neuman is showing Margaret as being born on 2 June 1794. Through my research, Margaret's Birthblock shows the following...

1761-1770 Birthblock for Margaret ()
Date from the 1800 census states she was born
Date from the 1810 census states she was born
Date from the 1820 census states she was born
Date from the 1830 census states she was born 1771-1780.
Date from the 1840 census states she was born 1761-1770.
Date from the 1850 census states she was born 1795 in Virginia.
Date from the 1860 census states she was born 1795 in Virginia.
Date from the headstone states she was born
Date from the obituary states she was born

What I am saying is maybe Neuman is not wrong but maybe we are looking at two different women!

The Margaret Carter of the 1830 and 1840 census birthdates range from 1761-1780. The Margaret Carter of the 1850-1860 census is a definite 1795.

Or...due to her senility as stated in the "1873 smoking gun" previously mentioned she was and had not been in her right mind and was confused as to when she was born.

However, Neuman does list an exact birthdate of 2 June 1794 which would indicate a Bible record or a church record. No conclusion can be drawn.
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

More differences will follow.

Now for the similarities...

Neuman listed Margaret’s father as Robert Carter died in Wythe County, Virginia. Sound familiar?

Remember the Wythe County, Virginia connection I alluded to earlier in my report?

Also, her mother is Jane (CROCKETT) died in Monroe County, Tennessee. Checking the Monroe County probate records might reveal where Jane has given slaves to her daughter as reported in the “1873 smoking gun”.

Margaret names one of her children Robert Carter and a daughter Jane Crockett (CARTER).

However, Neuman lists John Carter as Margaret’s spouse and his John does not match up.

Neuman says that Margaret (CARTER) daughter of Robert married John Carter born 1785 in Cocke County, Tennessee and died 1827 in Monroe County, Tennessee. They were married 17 February 1814 in Wayne County, Kentucky but wait it gets better.

John Carter had been previously married to a Mary Elizabeth (GIBBS) around 1807 and she died in 1812 in Wayne County, Kentucky.

I know what you are thinking…this is not the same family that I had believed was in the 1830 and 1840 census.

But, let's look at Neuman's tree for his John and Margaret's children.

John & Margaret (CARTER) Carter's Children...

John & Margaret (CARTER) Carter's children…Neuman has listed none. Yep…none. No children at all.

So the only children listing we get are the...

1828 Deed Recognition
Monroe, County, Tennessee Deed Book "H", #884, 7 October 1828
Anthony Dibrell of White Co., to Margaret Carter in trust for her children, namely, Mary Elizabeth, Robert, William, Henry, Baleys and Isaac Carter, heirs of John Carter, dec'd, of Monroe Co.; undivided moiety of land being 1/3 part.

And the...

1873 Monroe County, Tennessee Chancery Court Case Number 488) Filed 3 Nov 1873. [http://www.tngennet.org/monroe/chancery/chanceryp.htm]
Samuel J. Rowan and wife Jane C. vs W.F. Hudson et al. In Dec 1832 Samuel Johnston of Monroe Co. sold land to James Bell and Robert Raper of Wythe Co., Va. and the heirs of John Carter of Monroe Co. James Bell sold to Mrs. Margaret Carter the widow of John, and the mother of the heirs of John Carter: 1. Mary E. (oldest dau.) wife of M.C. Dibrell (who testifies in Sparta Tenn) and by 1845 she is dead and her 2 or 3 children are dead. 2. Robert Carter 3. F. Bates Carter 4. William Carter (he may be dead) 5. Jane C, wife of Samuel J. Rowan of Hill Co., Tex they have been married at least 35 yrs. Mrs. Margaret Carter was due slaves from her mother's estate in
Descendants of Levi Carter Sr.

Va. Mrs. Margaret Carter d. Jun 1864 Monroe Co. and she was insane from 1860 until her death.

So, it appears this is the same family.

Now, without further contact with Neuman, and we may never contact, especially if they are no longer members of ancestry.com or have died, we cannot verify their information.

This leads us to the next ancestry.com tree named Carter Family Tree by Stan490.

Stan490…

Stan490 is from Sevierville, Tennessee and last logged on to ancestry.com over 6 months ago.

Stan has Margaret with the same birthdate and location and same parents as Neuman with one major exception…Stan's Margaret died on the 8th of June 1864 in Pennsylvania!

Stan's John Carter was born 12 January 1785 in Wayne County, Kentucky and died 5 September 1821 in Wythe County, Virginia.

And to add insult to injury, Stan's John Carter's parents were William George & Unity (BATES) Carter from Halifax, Virginia and died in Wayne County, Kentucky!

And to make it more confusing, Stan has listed a John Carter in his tree twice one dying in 1821 in Wythe County, Virginia and the other dying in 1827 in Monroe County, Tennessee.

Stan's John Carter had also been previously married, to an Aphia (FAUNTLEROY).

The children of Stan's John and Margaret are as follows;

Notice the Fleming Bates Carter and the F. Bates Carter listed in the 1873 "smoking gun"?

Dancing around the truth…

As I investigated these John and Margaret Carter families I found such a variance that it defies logic.

Obviously, most of these researchers did not do their homework and copied what others had posted. I am guilty of that also, when it comes to families I have not taken a personal research interest in. However, when I finally get to those families then you can see I heavily document my research.

After all the investigative tools at my disposal and with thousands of fellow researchers to document and investigate their work, I have finally arrived at some conclusions about John Carter mentioned as an heir ...son of Levi Carter Sr.

There are no conclusions!

The only thing I can say about him...he was a son and heir of Levi Carter Sr.

I don't know if the John Carter in the 1805, 1811, 1812 tax lists of Greene County, Tennessee was Levi's son or the John Carter who died between 1826-1828 mentioned in the 1828 deed book listing wife Margaret and children is Levi's son.

I don't know if the Margaret born between 1761-1780 was John's wife or someone else and the Margaret born 1795 in the 1850 and 1860 census was even the wife of John Carter...Levi's son.

I don't know if any of those children listed in the 1828 deed record and the 1873 Chancery Court record belongs to John Carter...Levi's son.

But the damage is done.

For 35 years, myself and other researchers had collected evidence and without verifiable proof, connected the John Carter of those sources mentioned to Levi Carter's son John.

Not that we didn't try to verify, just that the information wasn't there.

Due to the conflicting information now discovered by other researchers...I want to write John Carter son of Levi Carter Sr.'s slate clean and just say...he was.

This is the reason I have taken the time to write this 12-page discourse...to right a wrong.

We have been told that during the millennium, the 1000-year reign of the Savior, that resurrected beings and ancestors will be able to access the heavenly records and you will get to visit with your ancestors and correct all the erroneous data.

Temples will be on every corner running 24-7 because of all the temple work that needs to be done for all the people who have ever been born on this earth since father Adam.

And why is this work so important? In Revelation 20:12 it states..."And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is [the book] of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works."

One of those books will be your genealogy all the way back to Adam.

At the age of 19, Tom Pratt embarked on a career in law enforcement. This experience gave him training in detective and investigative skills. Little did Mr. Pratt know, how useful these skills would be in the field of genealogy.

Tom Pratt started his family research career in 1975 after becoming a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. His first calling as a new member was to serve in the newly created genealogical department or known today as the Family History Center in the Springfield, Missouri ward. This two-year calling gave Mr. Pratt a tremendous amount of experience helping others to research their families.

In fact, he felt family research came easy and required little effort on his part. In reality, years of reading and studying increased his expertise and he made it look easy to others.

Over the course of several years, Mr. Pratt was asked by his church to instruct several family history courses. This experience established a deep profound love for family and ancestors.

It was not uncommon for Mr. Pratt to spend 4 to 8 hours a day researching and compiling family histories in addition to his duties, as an entrepreneur in the insurance business.

The first major achievement for Mr. Pratt was a breakthrough on his Pratt family back to the early 1800’s. Not satisfied with just the direct line research, Mr. Pratt branched out to research all connected lines and allied families.

This dedication led to 26,000 individuals and achieved expert status for Mr. Pratt on the families of middle and eastern Missouri, eastern and western Tennessee and central North Carolina.

Concerning Mr. Pratt’s style of research, he is a strong supporter of the “hands on” approach. When he took family vacations, they usually went to libraries, cemeteries, courthouses, National Archive centers, and visited family members in various states. He attended family reunions and obtained his material from the actual sources when possible.
A Little Something About Your Author

Being a researcher of the highest degree, in 1991, Mr. Pratt formed the Pratt Publications Company and offered to the public, a series of books titled, The Pratt Progenitor Papers. This series of volumes are a collection of legal documents, stories, pictures and historical presentations concerning the families of Missouri, Tennessee and North Carolina.

The first three Volumes were released to the public in 1991 and were issued to 18 different libraries including the Library of Congress and the St. Louis Public Library. The next 7 volumes were published with at total of 43 volumes scheduled for publication.

In 1996, Mr. Pratt formed the Genealogical Institute to further the education of serious researchers.

The Genealogical Institute offers a series of educational materials to teach and instruct the uninitiated in the procedures of family history research. These courses offer “a hands on” curriculum designed to instruct in investigative, deductive reasoning and logical procedures for tracking your family history.

Beginners and experienced researchers have found a treasure chest of knowledge when undertaking these courses. Mr. Pratt has taken the hobby of genealogy and has enhanced it into a science. Heavy on instructions concerning documentation, research procedures, alternative sources and common public records, this course is a valuable tool for the researcher. One of Mr. Pratt’s favorite sections of the course is teaching researchers “how to stop” researching and compile their information for publication.

Upon completion of the educational courses from the Genealogical Institute, the graduate is awarded the Master Accreditation of the Genealogical Institute. (M.A.G.I.)

This designation is equivalent to a Doctorate Degree and signifies the recipient has been trained and demonstrated superior research techniques.

Mr. Pratt’s ability in family history research has amazed many educated researchers. When Mr. Pratt is asked for help concerning their “brick wall” in their family research, his quick wit and logical mind rapid fires instructions and procedures so fast they cannot write the material quickly enough. Little do they realize this knowledge has been acquired over 30 years of experience and research.

In June of 2000, Mr. Pratt undertook a new and unprecedented task.

Outside of Washington, Franklin County, Missouri is an old cemetery called the Johnson-Caldwell Cemetery. This cemetery has many pioneer heroes and ancestors of various descendants from that region. Some of the inhabitants were born in the 1750’s and traveled west to Missouri after the 1803 Louisiana Purchase.
Mr. Pratt took down all the information off the tombstones, including every person in the cemetery and researched each individual related or not. 1000 man-hours and two years later, he published the book “Johnson-Caldwell Cemetery of Franklin County, Missouri”© 2001.

Obtaining newspapers, legal documents, personal interviews with ancestors and researching various sources for any and all information concerning the history of the cemetery and the inhabitants produced this master text. What makes this book stand out among the rest is basic content and structure.

First, it is the only book to cover the known and reported inhabitants of an entire cemetery.

Second, this book reports on each inhabitant, their birth and activities throughout their life until their death, including their ancestors, spouses and children.

Third, even the index is unique, listing the individual and their father’s name if known. This is extremely helpful when several individuals have the same given name.

Upon examination, professional researchers have hailed this body of work as a masterpiece and a standard in which all future research of cemeteries should be based. In their opinion, no one has ever produced a body of work about a cemetery as unique and professional as this publication.

Currently, Mr. Pratt is working on a series of books from the Pratt Archive Collections, which is a series of biographical publications concerning a progenitor and a generation of descendants. This collection is a “cradle to grave” report, which covers the subject’s ancestry, birth, marriage, children, and geographical domiciles as well as the political environment during the subject’s lifetime.

In addition, Mr. Pratt is working on additional volumes of the Pratt Progenitor Papers and several books on public records.

With all these accomplishments, Mr. Pratt humbly refers to himself as a Genealogical Anthropologist: resurrecting progenitors.

We in the genealogical world are deeply grateful to be associates of a man of Mr. Pratt’s caliber. Through his dedication to helping the novice as well as the professional researcher, future generations will benefit by his advances in the genealogical field.

In addition, we are thankful for the inspiration that sparks men like Mr. Pratt to magnify their love for people and history. We feel, with a lifetime dedicated to the genealogical pursuit of truth and knowledge, Mr. Pratt’s accumulative body of work, will stand as a quintessential manifestation of this divine love.
