National Society of Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America.
A charter was granted in the District of Columbia, June 7, 1898, to Eugenia Washington, Helen M. Boynton and Pella H. Mason, "who have associated themselves together and formed a perpetual society to be known as The National Society of Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America"; the objects specified being "To preserve the history of Colonial and Revolutionary times, to inculcate patriotism in the present generation, and in times of war to obtain and forward supplies for field hospitals."

The first General Court convened May 13, 1899, the day being selected in order to commemorate the landing at Jamestown.

The Executive Committee decided in 1909 to print each year as fast as practicable, the lineage of members of the Society. Volume I contains the lineage of the eighteen charter members; Volume II, National Numbers 19-50; Volume III, National Numbers 51-100; Volume IV, National Numbers 101-200; Volume V, National Numbers 201-300; Volume VI, National Numbers 301-400; Volume VII, National Numbers 401-450; Volume VIII, National Numbers 451-500; Volume IX, National Numbers 501-600; Volume X, National Numbers 601-900, and Number 1394, Mrs. Warren G. Harding (Florence Kling); Volume XI contains National Numbers 901-1100; Volume XII contains National Numbers 1101-1300; Volume XIII contains Numbers 1301-1500; Volume XIV contains Numbers 1501-1700.
