LINEAGE BOOK
OF
THE NATIONAL SOCIETY
DAUGHTERS
OF FOUNDERs
AND PATRIOTS
OF AMERICA

VOLUME VII
1919
A charter was granted in the District of Columbia, June 7, 1898, to Eugenia Washington, Helen M. Boynton and Pella H. Mason, "who have associated themselves together and formed a perpetual society to be known as The National Society of Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America": the objects specified being "To preserve the history of Colonial and Revolutionary times, to inculcate patriotism in the present generation, and in times of war to obtain and forward supplies for field hospitals."

The first General Court convened May 13, 1899, the day being selected in order to commemorate the landing at Jamestown.

The Executive Committee decided in 1909 to print each year as fast as practicable, the lineage of members of the Society. Volume I contains the lineage of the eighteen charter members; Volume II, National Numbers 19-50; Volume III, National Numbers 51-100; Volume IV, National Numbers 101-200; Volume V, National Numbers 201-300; Vol. VI, National numbers 301-400.
LINEAGE BOOK.

ELIZA M. TOMLINSON (MRS. ALFRED BEACH FAIRCHILD).

Born in Stratford, Conn. Died Dec. 18, 1914.

Descendant of Henry Tomlinson, through the Revolutionary ancestor, Jabez Huntington Tomlinson, both of Connecticut, as follows:

3. Huntington Tomlinson (1791—Feb. 5, 1839) and Eliza Tomlinson Mills (June 22, 1873, aged 81 years).
5. Capt. Gideon Tomlinson (March 6, 1731-Jan. 19, 1766) and Hannah Huntington (Dec. 26, 1762, aged 27 years), his second wife.
6. Zechariah Tomlinson (Oct. 31, 1693-April 15, 1768) and Hannah Beach (Feb. 12, 1703-Oct. 5, 1740), his first wife.
7. Lieut. Agur Tomlinson (Nov. 1, 1658-March 5, 1728) and Mrs. Sarah (Wells) Hawley (Sept. 29, 1664-June 29, 1694), his second wife.
8. Henry Tomlinson (April 28, 1681) and Alice (Jan. 26, 1698, aged 90 years).

Henry Tomlinson (1606-1681) with his wife, Alice, and probably two or three children came from Derbyshire, England, and settled in Milford, Conn., in 1652. Tradition says he was first at New Haven. About 1656 he removed to Stratford, Conn., where he was a freeman in 1669. He was “Keeper of the Ordinary” at Milford and also at Stratford. He died March 16, 1681, and his widow married John Birdseye, Sr., in Oct., 1688.

Jabez H. Tomlinson (1760-1849) received an Ensign’s commission April 5, 1780, in Capt. John Riley’s Company, Col. Webb’s Conn. regiment, and served until March 24, 1781. He received a pension in 1832 while a resident of Stratford, Conn., in which place he was born and died; and his widow Phebe (Birdseye) Tomlinson, sister of Mrs. Helen Curtis of Stratford, was also pensioned after his death.
MARY GORDON LANDON (MRS. DALLAS BACHE PRATT).

Born in New York City.
Descendant of Nathan Landon, of Southold, Long Island, through the Revolutionary ancestor, Capt. David Landon, of Guilford, Conn., as follows:

3. Nathaniel Ruggles Landon (June 28, 1784-Dec. 18, 1851) and Mary Griswold (May 29, 1761-April 8, 1871).
5. Judge Samuel Landon (May 20, 1699-Jan. 21, 1782) and Bethia Tuthill (Dec. 12, 1703-Aug. 30, 1761).
6. Nathan Landon (1664-March 9, 1718) and Hannah ——— (m. 1692-Jan. 26, 1701).

Nathan Landon (1664-1718) was born in Herefordshire, England, near the Welsh border; emigrated to Boston, according to family tradition at the age of 15 years. He soon afterwards settled in Southold, N. Y., where he bought land in 1688. He sold land, as an executor of an estate Dec. 18, 1702, and purchased a tract of sixteen acres in Southold June 1, 1711. His name appears on the Southold Records on a deed Nov. 28, 1717. His tombstone is still standing at Southold.

David Landon (1743-1796) was born in Southold, L. I., but settled in Guilford, Conn., where he died Sept. 14, 1796. He was a Captain of Militia in the Revolution.

Descendant of James Wilson of Maryland, through the Revolutionary ancestor, Captain Nathaniel Wilson, of Calvert Co., Md., and Mason Co., Ky., as follows:

2. George Wilkinson (Feb. 22, 1834-living 1919) and Sue B. Wilson (Oct. 8, 1842-living 1919) his second wife.

4. Dr. Augustus Nathaniel Colburn Wilson (m. 1811–1820) and Caroline Randolph Woodson (June 14, 1792–April 28, 1879)

5. Capt. Nathaniel Wilson (1754–March 28, 1795) and Margaret Parker (....bef. Aug. 9, 1833), his second wife.

6. Joseph Wilson, Jr. (....–1762) and Mary Breone (1727–1809).

7. Joseph Wilson (bef. 1717–...1770). His will shows Joseph, Jr., was a son.

9. James Wilson (....–1672) and Margaret (living 1672).

James Wilson (....–1672) of Calvert Co. Md., made his Will May 3, 1670, and it was probated May 29, 1672. He left a wife, Margaret, and sons: James, John and Joseph to all of whom he bequeathed land, Joseph being left forty acres at the death of his mother.

Nathaniel Wilson (1754–1796) of Calvert Co. Md., was 2d Lieut. of the Maryland Battalion of the Flying Camp in 1776. In 1779 he was commissioned Captain of a company of Calvert Co. Militia. He was born in Calvert Co., Md., and died at Maysville, Ky.

   (She m. (2) John Roberts.)
Robert Sedgwick (1600-1656), born in England, settled in Charlestown, Mass., where he was made freeman, March 9, 1636. He was representative to the General Court in 1637, was repeatedly elected and served for many terms. He had received military training in Europe; as recorded in the quaint phraseology of the times, "he was nursed up in London's Artillery Garden," and this training was of great value to the colonists. He was Captain of the first train band in Charlestown, and his name appears second on the original roll of the "Artillery Company of Massachusetts," chartered in 1638, now known as the "Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts," and was its Captain in 1640, 1645 and 1648. He was Major of the Middlesex County regiment in 1643. He was sent in command of a regiment to Jamaica with a commission as governor of the island, and was promoted to the rank of Major General. He died in Jamaica, West Indies, May 24, 1656, leaving a widow and five children.

Samuel Sedgwick (1725-1794) was a patriot of Hartford, Conn. His son, Samuel (1754-1828), served in the army, as a private in Capt. John Barnard's Company, Col. Samuel Wylyes' regiment of Connecticut Line, he also served two years in command of a "traveling forge and set of blacksmith's tools." He applied for and received a pension in 1818, while a resident of Hector, Tompkins County, N. Y. He died in Westmoreland, N. Y.
