LINEAGE BOOK

National Society

OF THE

Daughters of the American Revolution.

VOLUME XXII.

21001—22000

1897

LOUISE PEARSONS DOLLIVER,

Historian General.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

1906.
PREFACE.

The twenty-second volume of the Lineage Book contains the National Numbers, 21001—22000.

In this volume it is noticed that many Daughters have entered the Society, who were born in the West, showing that the interest in the work of the Organization is growing, and not confined to the original States.

As the sources of genealogical information multiply these volumes are made more complete, and become more valuable as books of reference.

""See No.—"" indicates a reference to that number in the same volume.
""Also No.—"" indicates the National number of a "Daughter" who has entered the Society on the same ancestor and whose lineage has been published in a former volume. This is done to link together widely scattered families. If the number should be 4006, it will be in the fifth volume; if 5005, in the sixth volume, etc.
""Real Daughters" are those whose fathers rendered service in the cause of Independence, and their names are printed in italics in the text and index. There are twenty-six "Real Daughters" in this volume.
