PREFACE
PREFACE

Volume Forty-three of the Lineage Book is published in an enlarged edition of fifteen hundred copies. The growth of the Society and the greatly increased interest of the general public have rendered this step not only advisable but necessary in view of the requirements of the near future.

In these days of warfare when all hearts are thrilled by recital of military achievements we turn with quickened pride and affection to the records of these heroes who won the independence of our nation.

The frontispiece is a portrait of Commodore Abraham Whipple who in 1775 commanded vessels in the first naval engagement and captured valuable British prizes.

"See No."—indicates a reference to that number in the same volume.
"Also No."—indicates the National Number of a "Daughter" who has entered the Society on the same ancestor and whose lineage has been published in a former volume. This is done to link together widely scattered families. If the number should be 4006, it will be in the fifth volume; if 5005, in the sixth volume, etc.
"Real Daughters" are those whose fathers rendered service in the cause of Independence, and their names are printed in italics in the text and index. There are eight "Real Daughters" in this volume.
