PREFACE
PREFACE.

Our series of Lineage Books has now reached its forty-fifth volume. For many years the printing of these books has been done by the same firm, but this year the Printing Committee decided to make a change in order to have the work done in Washington.

The Lineage Books are carefully edited and should have increasing interest and value, as our great Society grows in numbers and prominence. All the papers filed with the National Society show an advance in character and completeness.

"See No."—indicates a reference to that number in the same volume.

"Also No."—indicates the National Number of a "Daughter" who has entered the Society on the same ancestor and whose lineage has been published in a former volume. This is done to link together widely scattered families. If the number should be 4000, it will be in the fifth volume; if 5000, in the sixth volume, etc.

"Real Daughters" are those whose fathers rendered service in the cause of Independence, and their names are printed in italics in the text and index. There are seven "Real Daughters" in this volume.
