PREFACE

We study the past for the sake of the future. Our chief attention should not be devoted to the rise and fall of kingdoms and empires, wars and boundary lines, but to the perpetuation of the ideals of the true-blooded Americans who laid the foundations for our great nation of today.

"See No."—indicates a reference to that number in the same volume.
"Also No."—indicates the National Number of a "Daughter" who has entered the Society on the same ancestor and whose lineage has been published in a former volume. This is done to link together widely scattered families. If the number should be 4006, it will be in the fifth volume; if 5005, in the sixth volume, etc.

"Real Daughters" are those whose fathers rendered service in the cause of Independence, and their names are printed in italics in the text and index. There are five "Real Daughters" in this volume.
