MISS JENN WINSLOW COLTRANE
Historian General

WASHINGTON, D. C.
1923
PREFACE

In preserving the lineage of the farmer, soldier, planter, merchant, financier, and others who formed themselves together for mutual patriotism, rising above all sections and places, knowing no country, no State, but one great America, the Daughters of the American Revolution give to the future generations a treasure in the records of their Revolutionary forebears that should stimulate a richer patriotism.

JENN WINSLOW COLTRANE,
Historian General.

"See No."—indicates a reference to that number in the same volume.
"Also No."—indicates the National Number of a "Daughter" who has entered the Society on the same ancestor and whose lineage has been published in a former volume. This is done to link together widely scattered families. If the number should be 4006, it will be in the fifth volume; if 5005, in the sixth volume, etc.
"Real Daughters' are those whose fathers rendered service in the cause of Independence, and their names are printed in italics in the text and index. There are three "Real Daughters" in this volume.
