PREFACE.
PREFACE.

With the Eleventh Volume of the Lineage Book, we enter upon the second decade in our National Numbers, for this book records the names and lineages of our members from 10,001 to 11,000.

This volume also completes the epitomized history of our Society from the beginning in 1890, to the close of the year 1895.

There is an oft-repeated adage which we hope will prove true in relation to our Lineage Books. "First the blade, then the ear; afterward the full corn in the ear." We trust that those who now appreciate the value of the Lineage Book will sow the seed, by interesting others in this publication, which shall spring up and bear an abundant harvest, until there shall be no home of a Daughter of the American Revolution which shall not contain the Lineage Book as one of its choicest possessions.

MEMBERS

NATIONAL SOCIETY.
THE NATIONAL SOCIETY

OF THE

Daughters of the American Revolution.

MISS KATE M. HIGHT.  10001

Born in Indiana.

Descendant of Thomas McCalla, of South Carolina.
Daughter of Milton Hight and Sarah McCalla, his wife.
Granddaughter of Samuel McCalla and Elizabeth Thompson, his wife.
Gr.-granddaughter of Thomas McCalla and Sarah Wayne Gardiner, his wife.

Thomas McCalla, 1777, enlisted in the Pennsylvania Line.
In 1778 he removed South and served under Sumpter. He was captured and imprisoned at Camden, but through the heroic efforts of his wife, was released on parole. He died in 1811, at the age of fifty-five.

Also Nos. 2158, 4524, 9565.

MRS. ANNA CAMPBELL BAKER.  10002

Born in Indiana.

Wife of Albert Baker.

Daughter of Prof. John L. Campbell and Mary E. Johnston, his wife.

NOTE.—The number at the end of the name represents the National Number of the Member of the Society.
Gr.-granddaughter of Witter Johnston and Jane Campbell, his wife.
Gr.-gr.-granddaughter of Rev. William Johnston and Anne Miller Cummings, his wife.

William Johnston was a patriot preacher, who had the courage of his convictions, which made him obnoxious to the Tories and Indians. He died in 1783.

Witter Johnston was a pioneer of Cherry Valley, and one of the garrison in 1776 when it was attacked by Indians and Tories. The family escaped the massacre through the bravery of his brother Hughy, a boy of fourteen, who at great risk ran from the fort to the farm, a mile away, to warn them of the approach of the enemy. Witter Johnston served to the close of the war, and was among those who dined with Washington, when he visited that locality in 1783.

Also No. 9040.

MRS. ABBY SOPHIA MARKEE.

Born in Indiana.
Wife of William A. Markee.
Descendant of Ephraim Warren, of Massachusetts.
Daughter of William D. Daniels and Sarah Fullerton, his wife.
Granddaughter of Stephen Daniels and Sophia Warren, his wife.
Gr.-granddaughter of William Warren and Hannah Dickinson, his wife.
Gr.-gr.-granddaughter of Ephraim Warren and Sarah Kezer, his wife.

Ephraim Warren was among those who responded to the first call to arms, when patriots left the field and fireside to fight for the freedom of the colonies.

Also Nos. 8391, 8568.

MRS. ANNIE ELIZABETH EVANS.

Born in Indiana.
Wife of Adam H. Evans.
Descendant of Maj. Henry Heth, of Virginia.
Daughter of James H. Kintner and Elizabeth Bradford Heth, his wife.
Granddaughter of Richard McMahan Heth and Elizabeth Applegate, his wife.
Gr.-granddaughter of Henry Heth and Agnes McMahan, his wife. Henry Heth, who was born in Ireland, commanded a company in the frontier wars. He served in the Virginia Continental Line during the Revolution. He located his bounty land near Pittsburg, and it is still known as "Heth's Delight." He died there in 1793, aged seventy-four. His sons William and John were members of the Cincinnati. Also Nos. 629, 1211, 9188.

Mrs. Irene Crane Briggs Ward.

Granddaughter of John McKinney and Sarah Taliaferro, his wife; Daniel Mayo and Mary Putnam, his wife.
Gr.-granddaughter of Israel Putnam, Jr., and Sarah Waldo, his wife.
Gr.-gr.-granddaughter of Israel Putnam and Hannah Pope, his wife.
John McKinney, 1778, at the age of nineteen, was lieutenant in the Pennsylvania Line. He served under Washington and Lafayette until the close of the war, and was a member of the Cincinnati. He died in Kentucky in 1833. Also Nos. 1336, 8138. Israel Putnam married at Danvers and the house is still standing, where his eldest son Israel was born. He was fifty-seven and had retired to his farm when he received the news of the conflict at Lexington. At the battle of Bunker Hill, he was a yeoman-warrior, fresh from the plow. He was one of the first four major generals appointed by Congress, and his record shows him to have been a patriot as noble in civil life as he was brave in battle. He died in 1790.

Also Nos. 118, 1205, 2091, 3285, 4155, 7651, 8276, 9193.

Israel Putnam, Jr., commanded a company, and was appointed aide to his father. He served until peace was declared.

MRS. AUGUSTA TERRELL VORSE.
