PREFACE.
This volume contains the National Numbers 30001 to 31000,—members who entered the Society in 1900.

It is gratifying to me that the Lineage Book has become valuable as a work of reference to Genealogical and Historical Societies. My interest dates from the time when as Librarian General in 1897, I aided and was closely associated with the work of the Historian General.

As volume followed volume, I have been glad to find an ever increasing number of members who trace their descent from soldiers. We have been familiar with officers of the Revolution, but this is the first recognition of the rank and file. It is they whose feet were bare at Valley Forge, who went over the barricade at Stony Point, who withstood the onset at Cowpens.
