PREFACE
PREFACE

I know no more fitting preface for this volume of the Lineage Book, which embodies the spirit of the past and the present, than to quote a verse and the chorus of a song written at the time of the American Revolution and widely sung through the entire war.

Liberty Song.

"Come join hand in hand, brave Americans all,
And rouse your bold hearts at Fair Liberty’s call,
No tyrannous arts shall arrest your just claim,
Or stain with dishonor America’s name.

Chorus.

"In freedom we’re born, and in freedom we’ll live;
Our purses are ready,
Steady, friends, steady,
Not as slaves, but as freemen our money we’ll give."

Ellen Dudley Clarke.

"See No."—indicates a reference to that number in the same volume.
"Also No."—indicates the National Number of a "Daughter" who has entered the Society on the same ancestor and whose lineage has been published in a former volume. This is done to link together widely scattered families. If the number should be 4006, it will be in the fifth volume; if 5005, in the sixth volume, etc.

"Real Daughters" are those whose fathers rendered service in the cause of Independence, and their names are printed in italics in the text and index. There are seven "Real Daughters" in this volume.
