Notes for William Hicks I:
General Notes:
Native of North Carolina and of English Descent

He was educated and married in his native state where he owned a farm upon which he resided most of his life, but was not himself engaged in farming. At the age of twenty five, he began the study of medicine and afterward practiced that profession for many years. Later in life, he became quite a politician, and at one time was sheriff of Person County. His death occurred February 19, 1849, in his eightieth year. He and his wife were life long and devoted members of the Primitive Baptist Church. While he was sheriff he lost all his property in consequence of having levied on some negro property, without taking the property in possession, or taking a delivery bond.

Notes for James Jones Hicks:
General Notes:

JAMES J. HICKS was born in Person County, N.C., September 2, 1820, to William and Elizabeth (Lunsford) Hicks, both natives of North Carolina and of English descent. William Hicks was educated and married in his native State, where he owned a farm upon which he resided most of his life, but was not himself engaged in farming. At the age of twenty-five, he began the study of medicine and afterward practiced that profession for many years. Later in life, he became quite a politician, and at one time was sheriff of Person County. His death occurred February 19, 1849, in his eightieth year. He and wife were long and devoted members of the Primitive Baptist Church. While he was sheriff he lost all his property in consequence of having levied on some negro property, without taking the property in possession, or taking a delivery bond. James J. Hicks, the youngest of his father's family was employed on his father's farm until he was twenty-two years old. He was then employed at overseeing in North Carolina for two years, after which, in 1846, he came to Kentucky, where he was engaged in the same business for some four years. He then bought a partially improved farm in Henderson (now Webster County), upon which he resided for twenty-three years. In 1873, he sold this place and bought another, two miles north of Providence, where he was extensively and successfully engaged in farming and stock raising until the fall of 1884, when he sold out and removed to Providence. He was married, November 10, 1842, to Miss Anna Peed, a native of Person County, N.C. Ten children were the fruit of this union, of whom three sons and three daughters are living. Mrs. Hicks is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. Mr. Hicks belongs to no church, and in politics, is a Democrat.

From 1870 Webster Co census, page 22. James Hicks was a farmer: valued property at $3500 and $600. Other children listed are: Cadwallder, 22, farmer, $2500, $100, b. KY; Sheloy, 16 (male), farmer, b KY; Victoria, 13 b KY: and Montzoma, 11 (Male) b KY. (According to family records the spelling should have been: Cadwalder, Shelby, Victoria, and Montgomery.)

Query KY Ancestors Vol 20, No 2, Page 126 indicates the wife of James J. Hicks may be Anna Peed, who he married 10 Nov 1842 in Person Co., NC. James Hicks was the son of William Hicks of Person Co., NC. He migrated to Henderson Co., KY in 1846.

Notes for Alexander Gray Brown:
General Notes:
Come to Ky as a boy in 1850 from N. C.
Lived with his brother Robert until he was 25 years old.
Buried
NEAR BAKER SCHOOL HOUSE
CLOSE TO Dixon, KY.

He wanted to serve in the Southern Army but there were no guns for him. He ran "salt" wagon from the Illinois line through Kentucky for the South desperately needed salt. His route was in an area called the "strip", which was populated by southern sympathizers.

As told by Aunt Lennie (Brown) Martell

Some Notes on Grandpa's Life:

Alexander Gray Brown
My father died in the fall before I came to Kentucky with my bother, mother and sister. My father's name was William Brown. I was born twelve miles from Hillsboro, Orange Co., North Carolina. June 3, 1836.

I came to Kentucky in the fall of 1850 in company with mother, Mary Morrison Cummings Brown, and sister Margaret Jane Brown, who afterward married Chester Dossett who came out here at the same time, and brother Robert Brown who was older than I. Brother John came with us to Tennessee, and stayed there until the next fall, then came to Poole, Kentucky where he located first.

Brother Dave Brown came one year before I did, and married Mary Thornsberrie- Russell's daughter, the next year after I came.

Bill Dossett, Bill Garrett, Tom Freeland, Bill Hutchinson, Cester Dossett and Margery Hopkins and 6 negro slaves; Nathan Edd, Ellen, Nathan's wife, Mariah Nathan's sister: Juleitt, a little girl; and old Aunt Nancy who had been in the family of Brown since before my father was born. Us children called her mamma, and she would fight for us if she though one tried to run over us.

Bob Brown married Macy Elizabeth Leathers in North Carolina and his son James Lipcomb Durham Brown learned to walk on the way out here.

I was 14 years old when we emigrated to Kentucky. I lived near Mudtown, about 6 or 7 miles from Poole. White Lick Creek emptied into Highland Creek about a mile above Mudtown. I lived between Poole and Mudtown 6 years, then we went to McLean Co. Worked for Bill Halbrooks and Bau MCFarland, came back to Petersburg and cast my first vote for Buchanan- lived at brother Bobs till I married when I was 25 years old.

I married Bill Duncan's daughter, Susan Elizabeth who died in less than a year. The in a little over a year, I married - J. J. Hicks (James Jones Hicks) daughter, Roseanah Hicks. We lived near Jess Anderson Tappa 4 years, then moved within a mile of Jonestand where Bob Gupson lived - stayed there 4 or 5 years then moved near Clay near where Marshall Clark lives. Stayed 1 year, then moved to Hopkins Co., stayed 1 year - then moved 2 or 3 miles of Poole. Stayed 1 year there - then moved to Green Tolley School District, afterward called Baker - when the school house was built in a different place.

These Notes were given to Vida Asher by Grandpa himself.

"Alexander. He was a big tall slender man. He was't big, but he was tall and he would drive a buggy down in there and stay, I don't know how long he would stay, I guess a week and I guess at Mr. Brown's longer than that. And he drove a buggy down there one time and the colored people, white, too, this happen to be a colored one. They stole his buggy wheels off from his buggy and Everitt Givens knew a little something about it, I don't know how he knowed about it, he just knowed that type, and he told them, they better get them wheels back on that buggy and they got the wheels back. He'd be stranded down there without a way to get back.

He lived with Mr. Dave Brown up there in Dixon."

After settling down in the Baker School District, the couple built a "homeplace" and remained there until Roseanah died on June 6, 1897 from some sort of epidemic. After which his son Robert Lee Brown loaded this family in an ox drawn wagon and emigrated to Arkansas. Alexander continued living on the "homeplace" with his son James Valladigham "Ham" Brown and his family until the "homeplace" was sold. Then he lived with his son Dave Brown until his death March 9, 1929.

From: Kentucky, A History of the State. Perrin, Battle & Kniffin. 2nd ed., 1885, Webster Co

SHELBY HICKS was born in Henderson County, Ky., January 15, 1854, a son of James J. and Ann (Peed) Hicks, natives of North Carolina, and of English descent. James J. Hicks was married in his native State, where he was engaged in farming for many years. In 1845 he removed with his wife and family to Henderson County, Ky., where some few years later he bought a farm, which was afterward cut off into Webster County, upon which he remained until 1874, when he sold out and bought a farm near Providence, where he still resides. Our subject received an excellent education at Lincoln University, in Illinois, and was employed during the summer season on his father's farm until he was sixteen years old, after which he taught and attended school until he was twenty-two years old. He then engaged as a salesman in a drug store at Providence, Ky., for one year, after which he engaged in the drug business on his own account at Cynthiana, Posey Co., Ind. for two years. For the past four or five years he has been engaged with Prof. W.S. Coleman at Providence Male and Female Academy. The buildings, which are large and commodious, are situated on the top of a hill near the town, and are furnished with all modern appliances, and an excellent library. Prof. Hicks was married, December 26, 1883, to Miss Sallie C. Givens, daughter of T.K. Givens. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are members of the United Baptist Church. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity, and is now, and has been for several years, secretary of his lodge. He is a Democrat.

Notes for John William Wood:

Genera Notes:

Was hit in the head with a rafter while helping build a house. Some believe that this may have contributed to his "light strokes" which started around 1924. He had lost his first wife in 1919 and had remarried. This was about the time that Aunt Sue was born. In 1939, at age 59 he had a major stroke. He was found crawling in the mine. In 1941 he had a "bad stroke", Dr. Davinport reported that Grandpa Wood's blood pressure was "the highest that he had ever checked".
