Ninth Generation
Foreword

There are many holes in this research, I hope you will look on it as an opportunity to allow others to have the pleasure of further research. I have spent some eighteen years pursuing this family group, however, there are still a lot of grey areas. The primary Strayer research has been able to focus on some six primary Strayer males and several "same ship" friends who emigrated between 1748 and 1751. These gentlemen are:

1) Han Adam Stroeher, 1748, "Two Brothers", brother of John-Peter of Dover Twp, York Co., PA
2) Johan Mattias Stroeher, 1748, "Two Brothers", also brother of Han Adam and John Peter
3) Johan Daniel Angst, 1748, "Two Brothers", married to the sister of Adam, Mattias and Peter
4) Johannes Mattes Stroeher, 1748, "Two Brothers", son of Han Adam
5) Johannes Matthes Stoeher, 1749, "Priscilla",
   [probably only distantly related to the above and "my" line]
6) Johan Jacob Stehli, 1749, "Priscilla", [probably the father or grandfather of one our line's wives]
7) Johan Adam Stroeher, 1750, "Brotherhood", perhaps son of Johannes Matthes Stroeher 1749
8) Michael Worm, 1750, "Brotherhood", close associate of J. Nicholas Strayer

As you can see, there was an immediate problem- three Matthias Stroeher's and two Adam Stroeher's. The author had made the beginner's error of starting in the middle because her father-in-law had mentioned casually that his great-grandfather had been a constable near Martinsburg, WV, at about the time she and her husband were going to move to an area only 50 miles away. We had obtained and eagerly read a small pamphlet about the Strayer's of Berkeley County, Virginia, tracing them back to John Peter Strayer of Dover Twp., York Co., PA, but had not realized that subsequent research would negate much of the early line research published.

The research of Mr. Claude N. Strayer of Logan Co., OH, was an invaluable starting off point, however, and we eagerly moved to Front Royal, VA, anticipating learning more about my husband's family. Wherever possible I have taken advantage of Claude Strayer's research and later I had the pleasure of corresponding with his close cousin Delores McBride Mustaine of Phoenix, AZ. She has published what I refer to as the "Blue Book of Strayer's" and I have leaned on her research heavily for the descendents of John Nicholas Strayer, Jr., who moved to Logan County, OH, circa 1830. Our own Strayer line was the line that "stayed behind" due, in part, to the the fact that the two elder sons of J. Nicholas Strayer, Jr., were both dead by 1826, leaving widows and orphans. These ladies were quickly enfolded into the care of their own families and so when J. Nicolas' widow and three younger sons migrated to Logan Co., OH, the widows of Adam Strayer the younger and Jacob Strayer remained with the family help that they needed rather than migrate with their mother-in-law and their brothers-in-law.

I have attempted to be as accurate as possible, and if there is a question mark with a date, place or name, then I, myself, am unsure of the accuracy. The direct male tail of descendency for my now late husband was and is my primary focus for this research and so I have limited my research on collateral lines to about 3 generations to preserve my database size. I have expanded a little, within my own family descendency, however.

This research has been full of little surprises and I was fascinated by the Civil War generation. Charlie's great-grandfather was barely 21 years old when he suddenly enrolled with Jeb Stuart's Black Horse Cavalry and his military records eventually list him as captured at Berryville, VA, exchanged for and released but recorded as AWOL for the remainder of 1863. He was in Wilmington, DE, and was licensed to preach in mid 1863, and was ordained to the Baptist Ministry and married in Nov 1863. By all indications, he may never have gone back to even visit. His other three brothers all became ministers as well, which made for very laborious research, as ministers were frequently "starved out", because of fluctuations in the local economics where they served charges. Another fascinating tidbit was that the wives of even the ministers were not above lying about their ages. At one point two nieces ages were given by their parents accurately on the 1900 census and on the 1910 the elder was a year younger than her younger sister and they both had not aged ten more years but closer to only four years. I never did find any bonafide crooks in the family, which I find unlikely given the frailty of mankind.

I hope that you will enjoy my efforts with this volume.

The Possible Ancestry of John-Nicholas Strayer, Sr.

Records searched at York Co. Historical Society, Lebanon Co. Historical Society, and York Co. Courthouse, of PA, and Martinsburg Public Library, in Berkeley Co., WV, suggest that the father of our John Nicholas is the Johannes Mattes Stroeher who emigrated with Johan Jacob Stehli, on the ship "Priscilla", September 11, 1749, under Captain William Muir. Other passengers noted are Rudy Kuntz, Jacob ( ) Kuntz, sick, Jacob Bart and Johan Nick N Neu and Johan Adam Neu. Another ship of interest to the author is the "Brotherhood", under Captain John Thompson; she landed Saturday, November 3, 1750. On board were Michael (X) Wurm, and Johann Adam Stohr. Again, these immigrant records and references can be verified in both Pennsylvania German Pioneers, by Strassberger and Hincke, and Daniel Rupp's, 30,000 Names of German, Swiss and Other Pioneers. There were two other Matthias's, one is believed to be the brother of John Peter Stroher of Dover and the other the son of Han Adam Stroher of Shrewsbury. These two arrived on September 15, 1748 on the ship "Two Brothers". John Peter Stroher arrived in June 1751 on the ship "Patience". Descendants of John-Peter of Dover have consistently claimed that the third Matthias, of the ship "Priscilla", was from Wurttemberg, a check of the period does list a Matthiae Stohr but he had two wives (Anna-Maria Hauler and Anna-Maria Hess) and was still fathering children after 1752, in Wurttemburg.

Marriage Records from the Katholische churches of the diocese of Trier as collected in the IGI of the LDS includes the following:
1) Matthias STROH; M: 28 Jan 1728; Spouse: Margaretha SCHMID; Roemisch-katholische; Bombogen parish, Wittlich deanery, Trier diocese, Rheinland, Preussen.

Christening Records from the Katholische churches of the diocese of Trier as collected in the IGI of the LDS includes the following:
1) Matthias, legitimate son of Joannis and Agneti Stroh of Neuerburg, c. 24 Jan 1704; godfather was bachelor Matthias Hadamayer dieto Neuerburg and godmother was Susanna Schmid wife of the honorable Theodori Schmid.
2) Matthias adolescent legitimate son of Joannis Stroh of deito Neuerburg, was sponsor at baptism for Matthias, son of Germannus and Maria Schoeman of Neuerburg. 23 Aug 1727, Bombogen parish.
3) Mathiae Strohe, Margarethae Schmid; Bombogen parish; Rhnld Preus; c. Germannus, 2 Apr 1732; sp: Germanno Schoeman of Neuerburg and Catharina Dees of Bausen wife of Andrea Dees.
4) Mathiae Strohe, Margarethae Schmid; Bombogen parish; Rhnld Preus; c. Maria Elisabetha, 5 Feb 1745.
5) Mathiae Strohe, Margarethae Schmid; Bombogen parish; Rhnld Preus; c. Johannes, 12 Aug 1748.
6) Mathiae Strohe, Margaretha Schmid; Bombogen parish; Rhnld Preus; c. Anna Margareth, 3 May, 1750.

Between 1728 and 1759, pioneer Johannes Matthias and his wife baptized several children (the possible total estimated number of offspring is sixteen, unfortunately, as yet, there is no sure method of assigning the baptised children to any one specific Mattias Strayer). Witnesses at baptism in the Quittophilla (Hill) Church (Lutheran) included his son John Nicholas Strayer and wife Marie Catherine, his daughter Elizabeth Stroer, Michael or Michel Wurm (Worm) and wife Ana Elizabietha, and Valentine Keller and wife Justina Catherine.

Records of "The Hill Church", from Egle's Notes and Queries, annual volume 1898, pp. 256-257:

"MATTHIAS STROEHER"---
1) Joh. Matthias, b. 27 Jul 1749; bapt. 6 Aug 1749, sp. Philip Beyer, Snr., Daniel Angst and Anna Margaret Zeigeler
2) Mary Catharine, b. 11 Dec 1750; bapt. 21 Dec 1750, sp. Peter Velty, Margaret New and Catherine Neu
3) Catherine Elizabeth, b. 25 Mar 1752, bapt. 12 Apr 1752, sp. John Adam Neu, and wife and Anna Catharine Stroeher
4) Joh. Michael, b. 10 Dec 1759, bapt. 23 Dec 1759, sp. Michael Bohr and his wife

"MATTHIAS STROEHER, SR"---
1) Catarine Elizabeth, b. 18 Feb 1753, bapt. 25 Feb 1753, sp. Peter Feltin and wife Mary Catharine and Anna Elizabeth Holderbaum
2) Mary Magdalene, b. 1755, bapt. 25 Apr 1755, sp. Matthias Boger and wife
3) Anna Mary, b. 26 Oct 1756, bapt. 28 Nov 1756, sp. John Schweickert and Anna Mary Schall

It is unclear whether the above records are for two separate men or for one man whose records changed slightly with the birth and survival of a namesake son or even a different pastor or church secretary. If the records are indeed for two different men then the author favors the Matthias Stoeher list being for the brother of John Peter of Dover and Joh. Matthias Sr list being for "our" Matthias. The third Matthias who is believed to be the son of Han Adam Stroher was not married until later.

In the matter of differentiating the various Matthias Stroeher's, a Matthias of Bomegen parish, Germany, drops off of those church records in 1749-1750, completely, and the only later Stroeher records there are of Germannus Stroeher and his wife Anna Schaaf. With the various protestant/catholic calendar changes going on in that century there might be a case for the baptism of the last daughter in Germany in spring 1750 actually being off by one year. If this daughter was baptized in a final visit home before immigration then Margaretha may have already been carrying J. Matthias who could have been born enroute to the new world or just as they arrived. The ship list for the "Priscilla" says she landed in September 1749 but the records of Quitophilla Church record the baptism as August 1749. Did the church record a previous baptism on the ship? or was this child the son of the 1748 immigrant? The two Mathias' who emigrated on the "Two Brother's", in 1748, may be the brother and nephew of John Peter Stroeher of Dover.

On January 27, 1767, Letters of Administration were issued to Nicholas Streer of Chanceford Twp., York Co., PA, for the estate of Mathias Streer, deceased, who had died intestate. There is no statement of relationship but it is assumed that Mathias is Nicholas' father, uncle or brother. It is possible that he is an older brother but as Nicholas was allowed to finish raising the 2 minor children of Mathias it is more likely that he is the eldest son in the America's. Please Note: all typos and strange spellings are as found in the original documents.

This was a Duplicate Inventory for the estate registered in Lancaster Co., because of the land in Lebanon Twp., on February 11, 1767.

Note that in southwestern Lebanon Co., today, there is a Gingrich Creek and Valentine Keller’s land in Lebanon Twp., of Lancaster Co., PA, was platted directly beside the Quittophilla (Hill) Church (Lutheran). The author was informed at the Lebanon Co., PA, Historical Society, that the Hill Church area was originally part of a large tract of land granted to several brothers named Bardt or Barth. They owned and operated weaving mills along the banks of Quittophilla Creek and invited many German immigrants to follow them from Germany and promised them employment. The closest the author could come to records for a George Gohn was the marriage on January 1, 1751, of Jurg Martin Kohn and Anna Ursula Brehmerin at St. Michaelis & Zion Church and in Will Book A, (1749-62), p.225, the will of George Sohn is given: written January 8, 1761, probated February 8, 1761, resident of York, PA; children: Jacob, Margaret, John & Elizabeth; step-children: Margaret, Daniel & Catherine Bowering; Executors: son Jacob Sohn & George Keontz and witnesses Baltzer Knertzer & Jacob Doudle & Henry Harris.

A researcher, for a collateral line of Strayers, stated that her branch of the family had been weavers of fine linen. However, the following reference seems to indicate that one Matthias Stroher was at least part of the time employed as a stonemason.

(Family Tree Maker, CD213, The Pennsylvania Genealogical Magazine, Disk 2, Vol. XXIV, "Genealogical Gleanings from the Orphans Court Records of Lancaster County", April 20, 1999.)

At the ORPHANS COURT held at Lancaster for the County of Lancaster the 7th Day of December 1756. Before Robert Thompson, James Smith and Edward Shippen, Esquires, Justices. Hans George Dietrick, Administrator of Frena Dietrick his late Wife, deceased, who was Administratrix of Hans Myer, her former Husband, produced an Account whereby there appears to be a Ballance of 8 Ib 17 shillings 3 pe nce. The Accountant prays a further allowance of sums paid by him to Dan Engst (Johan Daniel Angst?) for Carpenters work done to the Mill, to Mathias Strayer (Johan Matthias Stroeher?) for Mason's Work done to the Mill. The remainder to be distributed to the Decedents son John and Daughter Frena or their Guardians.

Extracted from the Family Tree Maker, CD210, NGS Quarterly Volumes 1-85, among the Bible Records published in the National Genealogical Society Quarterly, Vol. 30, p. 151, is the discussion of the Bible record of Christopher Sippel and John Peter Nye written by Mrs. Nellie P. Waldenmaier, Richmond, VA:

"The Bible was printed in German at Halle in 1747 and is 8 1/2 by 5 inches; is leather bound, with one brass clamp and one missing and is held together by a cloth cover (homespun) slipped over the repaired leather binding. Inside the front cover, in German script are the names:

- Johannes Mathes Stroeher, 1748
- Jacob Frederici ---(illegible), 1782

At the top of the first flyleaf:

- Christof Sip---(evidently Sippel)

Below this in German script:

*In the year of our Lord 1775 on the 2nd of September the Good God gave me a little daughter and we named her Elizabeth. Her godparents were Johannes Harbach and his wife.
God grant her long life a happy death and resurrection hereafter. The remainder of the record is in English and details the children of Elizabeth Sippel m. John Peter Nye on 15th August 1796."

Whether this Bible was the former possession of "our" Johannes Matthes Stroeher mentioned in his estate inventory or possibly another of similar name is totally unknown at this time. However, the Bible merits mention as a research tool for later study, especially, since there was some connection with the Nye family at the Quittophilla Church and the date given was near the emigration date for three of the Johannes Matthes Strohers as well as the birth of the son John Matthias, Jr. in the emigration year of 1749.

Introduction

The Mosel River approaches 320 miles in length, arises on the west flank of the Vosges Mountains in the Alsace-Lorraine of France and bears nearly north past Nancy to the German-Luxembourg border where it swings north-east, at Trier, and continues through the wine country to Koblenz where it joins the Rhine River. Kirn-Kreuznach and Herren-Sulzbach are on the Nahe River which enters the Rhine upstream from the Mosel River. The Mosel River is home to Traben-Trarbach and Starkenburg which are the reputed home grounds of John Peter Strayer of Dover Twp., York Co., PA. The County of Sponheim-Starkenburg was split between Baden and the the historical territory of the Holy Roman Empire known as the Palatinate of the Rhine, or Electoral Palatinate, in 1644, and then all went to the Palatinate in 1776. The Palatinate was Electoral due to the ruler having a vote for the Holy Roman Emperor; in German it was called Pfalzgrafschaft bei Rhein, Kurpfalz. So, in the years between 1700 and 1776, Starkenburg was in either Baden or the Palatinate. My inclination is to believe that the Palatinate held sway there as Baden is on the east bank of the Rhine and Starkenburg and its associated towns were on the west bank.

Other areas having families named Stroh, Strohe, Stroeer, Streer, Straer or Stroeher include:

- Johanngeorgenstadt in Zwickau, Sachsen and Chemnitz in Chemnitz, Sachsen near the Czechoslovakian border and only about 30 miles apart in middle southeastern Germany. This family also had a tie of some kind to Giesen, Hessen where two sons married or baptized children in reciprocal association.
- Sersheim in Neckarkreis, Wuerrtemburg had at least two Johann-Matthias Stroeher generations.
- Baden and Bayern also had large families of Stroh’s. Kirn-Kreuznach, on the Nahe River (which parallels the Mosel River), had a large family of Stroh’s and was located about half way between Traben-Trohrbach and Koblenz which are on the parallel Mosel River.
- Other towns with Stroh’s in western Rhineland include: Oberheimbach, Mandel, Kleinhich, Gebroth, Rengsdorf, Cleve, Burgsponheim, Luttringhausen, Sohren, Bombogen, Koln-Stadt, Burg-Wermelskirchen, Geistingen, Heimbach-Neuwied, Linz, Irsch-Trier, Irmenach, Koerich, Thal-Kleinhich at Bernkastel, and Walberberg. These towns all appear to be on the Mosel, Glan, Nahe or Rhine Rivers.

If a center is placed at Starkenburg (on the Mosel River), most of the towns for the, hopefully, related Stohr, Stroh, Stroeher, Streer, and Stroer families (which encompass the Angst, Frantz and Hantz families as well), lie within an area about 18 miles wide and 12 miles tall. These towns are: Starkenburg, Irmenach, Bueren, Flussbach, Luxem, Thal-Kleinhich, Bernkastel, Zell, Dorf, Neuerberg, Bombogen, Wittlich, Horbruch and Enkirche. If the town is “north” of the Mosel River it is in the Eifel region, if it is “south” of the Mosel River it is in the Hunsruck region.

Given that most traffic in the area had to contend with a somewhat mountainous terrain plus a river to ford, bridge or ferry, it is not impossible to see that the various Stroh’s could be related. In fact, in 1749 one Yost Henrich Nicol Strooher of Dorf, in the Eifel, participated as the sponsor at baptism for Elizabeth Margarethe Strooher daughter of Johann-Nicolas Strooher and his wife Elizabeth Catherina Beck at Irmenach, in the Hunsruck. This father, Johann-Nicholas Strooher, was probably the older brother of Johann-Peter Strooher of Dover, PA. I feel that with only about two hundred twenty five square miles in the area in question, it made travel by foot, horse, cart or boat possible for the families and they could have moved around quite freely within this size territory. In the American West, the Butterfield Stage Company ran teams of horses 2700 miles every 21 days which works out to roughly 130 miles per day, (allowing for sunrise to sunset travel in high summer, that averages around 12-15 hours travel at 8-10 miles per hour). A good horse can therefore travel around 5-10 miles per hour and even afoot a human can hike around 25-50 miles per day depending on his health and stamina. Remember, hiking and foot travel were very common in the 1700’s. Think about all of those Hessian infantry and troopers and how much they were marched around for various battles.

Michael Worm (see the addendum which chronicles his immigration) appears to be involved with this family to a great extent. His wife Ana-Elizabethe may be a Strayer widow, daughter or sister and they participated in family baptisms at Quittophilla (Hill Church) Lutheran; in addition, Michael co-owned and operated the Stoney Ribs Plantation in Chanceford Twp., York Co., PA with Matthias’ son John Nicholas Strayer. Recent research has discovered that he made the migration to New Mecklinburgh (later Shepherdstown), in Virginia, with John Nicholas Strayer and John Jacob Staley, circa 1783-1785. John Nicholas was executor of Michael's Virginia estate sale in the period between May 7-15,1792 when the sale and appraisal were made. Further research will be made into the court records of Berkeley County for Michael Wurm's estate. It is referenced as: Berkeley Co. (W)VA Will Book: Vol 2 for 1788-1796, pp. 137,203,204. P. 137 is the Appraisal of 16 May 1792; p. 203 is the Settlement of 26 September 1793; and p. 204 is the Sale Inventory of 7 May 1792. Nicholas Strayer was the executor of the Sale (p. 204).

The reader will notice that for the sake of simplicity the descendents of Johann-Matthias Stroeher, and indeed all of the lines, quickly adopted the anglicized spelling of Strayer; for my own convenience I have maintained the counter line from and about Johan-Peter Stroeher of Dover Twp., York Co., PA, (see appendix), in the original spelling of Stroeher so that I can differentiate the two lines. If there is solid proof or further documentation, for the original three adult immigrant Matthias’s and their descendants, I would be extremely grateful for access. There are many grey areas still, but anyone needing further information may write me at the address or e-mail address in the copyright section. I have tried to maintain a reasonable amount of proof for the direct male tail, but, since much of it is entered within the biographies, I have not footnoted. I hate flipping back and forth to check footnotes in books written by others. I am extremely thankful that there are so many dedicated Strayer researchers out on the internet; some of my greatest breakthroughs came through the kind offices of relatives and cousins who dropped clues and hints galore.

May you live long and prosper.

Nicholas Strayer of Chanceford and Berkeley

Generation No. 1

1. John-Nicholas Strayer Sr was born 08 Oct 1733 in Rheinland Pfalz, Germany; calculated from death information, and died 05 Mar 1809 in or near Shepherdstown, Berkeley Co., VA, on the Warm Springs Road Plantation. He married Maria-Catherine (?Amendt) Abt. 1756 in York Co., PA, daughter of John-George Ament and Mary-Catherine Dietz. She was born Abt. Nov 1743 in Hellam Twp., York Co., PA, and died Bet. 24 Mar 1812 - 12 Jun 1813 in or near Shepherdstown, Berkeley Co., VA on the Warm Springs Road Plantation.

Notes for John-Nicholas Strayer Sr:

John Nicholas Strayer was reportedly (according to family tradition) born in December of 1733, in the Mosel River Valley, near Elinnach, Traebach or the Traben/Trohrbach area of Germany (possibly to one Johannes Matthias Stroehrer and his wife Margarethe Schmid). They are believed to have emigrated from Germany in 1749, on the ship "Priscilla", under Captain James Arnot, landing on September 11, 1749. This could explain why his name was not placed individually on the manifest; that is, he was as yet under the age of sixteen whereupon a signature was required. It is obvious from the records of the Quittohilla (Hill) Church (Lutheran) that he remained at or near that area for some 6 to 10 years, probably working at a trade to help support his father's growing family. Apparently, from about 1759, when he married Marie Catherine until 1762, when he and Michael Worm began "proving up" on a piece of land in Chanceford Twp., of York Co., PA, he lived near what is now Berwick Twp., Adams Co., PA. The York Co., PA, Taxables List of 1762, lists a John Nicholas Strayer of that place (then called Germany Twp.) paying tax of 8 shillings and 3 pence. Certainly their third child Andreas, who may have been known later as John, was born and baptized in that neighborhood.

On August 2, 1762, 100 acres was warranted to Nicholas Streer in Chanceford Twp. of what is now York Co., PA, and plats on file at the York Co. Historical Society also list a 394 acre tract, named "Stoney Ribs", owned by Nicholas Streer and Michael Wurm together. On November 29, 1768, this warranted land was surveyed for John Nicholas Strayer contiguous to or abutting John Jacob Stehli, Sr (who had immigrated with Johannes Mattes Stroehrer on the ship "Priscilla", in 1749), John Jacob Stehli, Jr, and Adam Gohn. Among other York Co., PA, pieces of land in which he had an interest was a tract of about 57 acres named "Hurt My Knee" which was contiguous to and upstream from Andrew Gohn's, 27 acre 89 perches, "Broken Shin". These two tracts were on the western bank of the Susquehanna River and it is obvious that the names derived from the shape of the tracts and were chosen with humorous intent. The 169 acre plat which he and Michael Worm improved near the head of Beaver Run was surveyed January 12, 1769, in Chanceford Twp., York Co., PA, contiguous to or abutting the lands of Peter Winter (Stony Batter), Nicholas Streer (Stoney Ribs), and Jacob Crouls (or Kroutz). The southeastern 88 acres and 30 perches of this tract were deeded to John Gohn on June 26, 1769, and this lesser tract with improvements was deeded April 1, 1778 to Jacob Gohn and Eva his wife. Neither of these deeds is recorded in York Co., PA, according to Frances Davis McTeer, author of Coon-Gohn Descendants from Chanceford Township, York County, Pennsylvania, published 1979. On April 20, 1784, Jacob and Eva Gohn, (York Co. Book of Deeds, Book 2-C, pages 62-64) conveyed these 88 acres and 30 perches to Philip Elias of Chanceford Twp., York Co., PA. On May 17, 1811, at the request of the heirs of Jacob Musser, the whole tract (now 167 acres 47 perches and allowances) was resurveyed (York Co. Surveys, Book C-232, page 159). Jacob and Eva Gohn appeared, soon after 1784, in Berkeley Co., VA. The 50 acres of land, enclosed on three sides by land of Jacob Stehli, Sr., which was owned by the father of Reverend Jacob Goering, had a stream labeled on the Chanceford County plat map as the "Down Branch of Otter Run"; this author believes that Nicholas Strayer's 169 acre land had part of the headwaters of Beaver Run, which would be situated north of Otter Run but south of Fishing Creek.

Transcribed from p. 34, "Strayer Roots", by Frances Elizabeth Strayer Hanson:

Minutes of (What type of court? obvious involved with property and land surveys)

Peter Winter ) against )ON CAVEAT
Michael Worm )

It appears upon hearing that Thomas Coulson had two warrants each for 100 Acres the one Dated in 1747 and the other in 1749. Upon these warrants he had a Survey partly made but not finished & then sold his Rights and Claims to Michael Worms and Nicholas Strayer by Deed dated in 1764 And Strayer to cover a part of these Claims obtained a Warrant for 100 Acres Dated in 1762. Thomas Armor who had acted under George Stephenson & who had began Coulson's Survey as aforesaid finished the survey of Coulson's two Warrants leaving out the Vacancy on which Peter Winter made his Application And then soon after as appears by Armors Draught that he did not at last include more than 296 1/2 Acres. I am therefore of Opinion that there is no foundation for Peter Winters Caveat as the whole Land Surveyed does not exceed the quantity of the Warrants prior to Winters Location But as the Survey was not finished by any Surveyor in Authority I do order that the Deputy Surveyor of the District shall make a new Survey upon these Warrants pursuing the old lines as far as they extend and then those run the second time by Armor and returned the whole in separate Surveys according to the different pretentions of Worm & Strayor. And then lay out the remaining Vacancy on Peter Winters Location Provided always that the Quantity of Worm and Strayor's Tract does not exceed 300 Acres with allowance for Roads.

NOTE: This Survey was finished by November 1768.

When Stehli's Church was founded around 1770, land was surveyed off of Stephen Stehli's land for the purpose. Co-deacons in that church in 1772 were John Jacob Stehli, Jr, and John Nicholas Strayer, Sr.; there are many exchanges of baptisms, and marriages, which were witnessed there as well. During the Revolution, Nicholas Strayer, Sr., may have guarded prisoners at Lancaster, PA, and one of the Jacob Stehli's, definitely guarded prisoners at York, PA; certainly there are several listings, in the PA Archives, for men of that name, as well as for Nicholas' sons Michael and John.

St. Luke's Lutheran and Reformed Congregations, York County, Pennsylvania, 1773-1835:
Joh. Nicol. Streher Communicant 17 September 1775 Commun

From the Commonwealth of PA, State Library and Museum records, written to C.N. Strayer of Logan Co., OH, on April 11, 1939:

"One Nicholas Stroh was a private of the 5th class, 3rd Company, 3rd Battalion, Capt. Henry Custer's Company, in 1780 and 1781; he is listed as a private of the 5th class, 6th Company, 6th Battalion of the Lancaster Co., Militia, under Capt. Thomas McNary, William Ross, Colonel, according to a return dated April 26, 1778."

From the Pennsylvania Archives- Revolutionary Soldiers: Nicholas Strayer, 3rd class; A return of Capt. Thomas McNary's Company the Eighth Class of the Sixth Battalion of York County Militia Commanded by Col. Wm. Ross, April 26, 1778.

It must be remembered that at this time there were at least 4 adult males named Nicholas Strayer in the environs of York Co., PA. "Our" Nicholas, his son Nicholas age about 12-16 years, a son of John Peter of Dover named Nicholas, and a son of Mathias of Shrewsbury Twp. also named Nicholas. What is known is that by the end of the period of 1778 to 1786, both Nicholas Strayer, Sr., and Jacob Stehli, Jr., plus John Adam Gohn (married to Nicholas' sister Anna Catherine), Jacob and Eva Gohn and Michael and Ana-Elizabietha Wurm had removed to the New Mechlinburg (later Nicholas Strayer of Chanceford and Berkeley (Shepherdstown) area of Berkeley Co., VA. On the Tax List of 1787, Berkeley Co., VA: Nicholas Strayer, head of household, plus 3 males between ages 16 & 21, 11 horses, 21 cattle.

In the next few years both a Lutheran and a Reformed Lutheran church were built opposite each other on German Street in the old eastern part of Shepherdstown. The Reformed graveyard is in relatively good condition, includes the graves of several Stayley generations and is now cared for by a United Brethren/Church of Christ affiliate. The Lutheran (St. Peter's) graveyard on the other hand is much vandalized and the church itself has burned down. The only records preserved from this congregation are in the possession of the staff of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, now located near Shepherd's College, Shepherdstown, WV.

"On This Rock, the Story of St. Peter's Church, Shepherdstown", by Gladys Hartzell, pp. 253-256; records of 1795, contributions toward constructing an Evangelical Lutheran church building:

When his brother-in-law, John Adam Gohn-Coon, died in 1789, John Nicholas, Sr., was one of the appraisers of the estate. By the time his own will was probated in 1809, John Nicholas, Sr., had been predeceased by his son, John Nicholas, Jr., around 1805. In his will, written on March 31, 1808, John Nicholas, Sr., stated that the remainder of Dry Run Plantation, on which his son John Nicholas, Jr., had died, was to be inherited by his five grandsons, only two of whom had reached age 21 by his death. Nicholas himself signed this will and the signature interprets as Nickolaus Strohauer. J. Nicholas Strayer, d. March 5, 1809, age 75 yrs, 4 mo, 25 days. Please Note: all typos and strange spellings are as found in the original documents.

The earliest land transaction for Nicholas, Sr., in VA was:

Deed Book 6, p. 357, Berkeley Co., VA: "21 December, 1784, Joseph Covenhover and Sarah his wife and Daniel Covenhover and Patty his wife to Nicholas Covenhover a tract of land which had been of John Covenhover, dec'd, father of Joseph and Daniel containing 174 acres part of a larger tract granted to John Lindsey; for 450 pounds Pennsylvania currency."

The Dry Run Plantation:

Transcript of the Will of John Nicholas Strayer, Sr., Will Book IV, p. 274, Berkeley Co., PA. Probated April 18, 1809:

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Nicholas Strayer, Sr., to the Court of the County of Berkeley, State of Virginia, being of sound and perfect mind and memory do on this 31st day of March, 1808, make and publish this, my Last Will and Testament making void all others heretofore made by me in the following names and form to wit:

First: my will and desire is that all my just debts be paid out of my money at the time of my death. I give and bequeath to my loyal, beloved wife Maria Catherine one-third of all my real and personal estate during her natural life. That is to say that my sons Michael and Adam are to deliver to her the one-third of the produce raised on the plantation where I now reside yearly and every year during her life and after the death of my wife my sons Michael Strayer and Adam Strayer are to take possession of the said plantation with the small place annexed to it commonly called the "Three Ten" which I purchased of John Lyon with all the living stock and household furniture and also my money and outstanding debts that may be due at the time of my decease together with said plantation my said sons Michael and Adam are to divide equally between themselves and have and hold and own it themselves, their heirs and assigned forever.

Secondly: I give and bequeath to my son John Strayer all such goods, chattels and money that he has received of me before my death to him, his heirs and assigned forever.

Thirdly: I give and bequeath to my daughter, Susannah, wife of George Couchman, $600.00 which I have previously to this will lent her husband, George Couchman.

Fourthly: I give and bequeath to the five children of my deceased son, Nicholas Strayer, Jr., the surviving part of the plantation on Dry Run, where my son Nicholas Strayer, Jr. died and which I purchased from Joseph Thornburg, under the following conditions, to wit: the wife of my son is to draw her living from said plantation and raise the infant children of my son during her widowhood, but after her intermarrying she is to draw no support from said plantation. The said five children of my son Nicholas, dec'd, or the surviving part of them are to pay for the bequeath made to them the sum of $2,100.00 which sum is to be divided in 7 payments to be made in the following manner and from the first payment one year after my death and so on yearly and every year after that until the whole is paid. The first payment the sum of $300.00 to be paid to my son John Strayer, his heirs or assigned. The second payment to be paid to my daughter Susannah Couchman or her heirs or assigned the sum of $300.00. The third payment to be paid to my son John Strayer or his heirs or assigned the sum of $300.00. The fourth payment to be paid to my daughter, Susannah Couchman or her heirs or assigned the sum of $300.00. The fifth, sixth and seventh payments which are the last to be paid to my son, John Strayer the sum of $300.00, every year until the whole is paid and after the said payments are wholly and fully made by my said grandchildren the children of my son Nicholas to my children as mentioned John Strayer and Susannah Couchman the said plantation is to belong to them or the surviving heirs as assigned previous.

Fifth: I give and bequeath to my sons Michael and Adam Strayer the plantation I bought of Daniel Snyder in the state of Kentucky supposed to contain 250 acres. To them equally, to be divided, to them their heirs or assigns forever.

Sixth: I do constitute and appoint my son Adam Strayer & George Couchman my sole executors of my Last Will and Testament...According to the full intent and meaning as if I was living and acting myself, given under my hand, the day and year above mentioned, sealed and signed in the presence of us, the following:

T.C. Smith
Josiah Flagg s/s Nicholaus Strohauer
Robert Hastings
Daniel Burchard

At a Court contained and held for Berkeley Co., VA, April 18, 1809. The Last Will and Testament of Nicholas Strayer, Sr., deceased, was proved by the oath of Thomas C. Smith and Daniel Burchart, two of the witnesses, thereto and ordered to be recorded and upon the motion of Adam Strayer and George Couchman the executors therein named, who made oaths thereto according to the law certificed and is granted them for obtaining a probate thereto in due form, giving security whereupon they together with Peter Grove and Josiah Flagg their securities entered into and acknowledged to oath in the penalty of $4,000.00 conditioned for their true and faithful administration of the said estate.

Testate, D. Hunter, C.B.C.

Adam Strayer and George Couchman executors of Michael Strayer dec'd. At a Court held September 13, 1813, for Berkeley Co., VA, the sale appraisal for Michael Strayer, deceased was turned in & accounted to be recorded by the Court. Note: Nicholas Sr's son Michael Strayer had died suddenly the previous year(1812) and in this estate settlement it is stated that his mother Maria Catherine had survived him. The tardy date of the estate settlement shows that her widows rights of one third no longer applied due to her death and the remaining sons were tidying up the estate. The heirs to this final settlement of Nicholas Sr's estate were- Adam Strayer (called Sr.) who would have been heir to 1/2 of the land in his own right plus 1/4 of his brother Michael's half; John Strayer who became heir to 1/4 of Michael's half; Susannah Strayer Couchman who became heir to 1/4 of Michael's half; and the 5 grandsons of Nicholas whose father Nicholas' Jr's 1/4 of Michael's half became theirs.

Notes for Maria-Catherine (?Amendt):
Maria Catherine Amendt, of George Amendt and wife, was born Nov. 9, 1743 and baptised Nov. 26, 1743 according to the records of Christ Evangelical church, York. However on the same dates Catherine Elizabeth and Susan Magdalen Amendt, daughters of George-Elias Amendt and wife, were also born and baptised at the same location! How unusual for brothers to have daughters born and baptised the same day let alone a set of twins! ! However, the McJohn's of Illinois related to me that the will of John-George mentions a daughter married to a John Stohr, who is assumed to be John Nicholas Strayer, by them. This is also substantiated by the following author:

From Coon-Gohn Descendents from Chanceford Twp., York Co., Pennsylvania, By Frances Davis McTeer, publ. 1979, p. 22; According to Pennsylvania Wills, 1682-1834:
Will written September 10, 1770; Will probated September 27, 1770:

Unfortunately, the FamilyTreeMaker extraction of the record of John-George's Will shows only that a daughter Catherine was married to Conrad Hoak and not a Marie Catherine married to a John Stohr. The actual will needs to be examined if possible even if in Old German script. There is also the age and date differential to account for. Baptism and birth records for their son John-Nicholas, Jr, would seem to indicate that she became a mother at the age of 13, roughly, not unheard of, but it is possible that there might have been a first wife also named Marie-Catherine, and the two final children are the only ones belonging to the "second" Marie Catherine.
Nicholas Strayer of Chanceford and Berkeley

There is also a conflict of death date; in the estate settlement for their son, Michael Strayer, it is stated that he died March 23, 1812, and his mother Marie Catherine survived him dying before the estate was settled and appraised in June of 1813. In records found in the Death Section of old St. Peter's Parish Register, p. 2, are listed two deaths and burials: J. Nicholas Stroeher, March 5, 1809, age 75 yr 4 mo 25 da and Marie Catherine Stroeher, December 28, 1820, age 49 yr 25 da, if this lady was indeed Nicholas Sr's wife, the data later collected/entered by the church was incorrect, possibly this date should read December 28, 1812. Further research is to be done, although, on the 1830 Census, there was a couple the right ages, in the household of George Couchman Jr, for Adam and Mary (Sesler) Strayer.

A) With Marie-Catherine's death, her widow's right of 1/3 the income of the property no longer applied and the property was fully vested in Michael and Adam.

B) Michael being dead, the full property had to be appraised and Adam made accountable for his brother's half to all heirs, i.e., his living brothers, sister and the sons of his deceased brother Nicholas Jr.

At a Court held for Berkeley County the 13th Day of June 1813. This appraisement of the Estate of Michael Strayer Deceased was Returned and Ordered to be recorded
By the Court Teste D. Hunter CBC

Berkeley Co., VA, Deed Book 27, p. 183: September 30, 1815, states that Michael Strayer, son of Nicholas Strayer, Sr., died intestate without having heirs of his body.

More About John-Michael Strayer:
Baptism: 24 Feb 1760, 1st Reformed Congregation, Lancaster Co., PA; sp-Michael Wurm, Maria Elizabeth Stroer
Burial: Mar 1812, Old St. Peter's Lutheran Cemetery, Shepherdstown, Berkeley Co., VA

4 iii. John Strayer, born 09 Dec 1765 in Lower Windsor Twp., York Co., PA, later Adams Co., PA; died 23 Nov 1831 in Hocking Twp., Fairfield Co., OH.

5 iv. Adam Strayer 1st, born 04 Sep 1775 in Chanceford Twp., York Co., PA, at Stoney Ribs Plantation; died Bet. 1831 - 1839 in Berkeley Co., VA; no children known. He married Mary Catherine Seslar 12 Aug 1813 in Berkeley Co, VA; born 30 Nov 1781 in Westmoreland Co., PA vs MD; died Bet. 1831 - 1839 in Berkeley Co., VA.

Notes for Adam Strayer 1st:
Church Records: Selected Areas of PA, 1600s-1800s
Adam of Joh. Nicol. Streher and Catharina, born September 4, 1775, baptized September 17, 1775. Sponsors: Adam Gohn and Catharina (aunt).
Adam Strayer-head
1 male 26/45 (himself)
1 male 45 and over (his brother Michael)
2 females 45 and over (his wife and mother)
This census could have a first wife and his mother living with him. His mother died between 1812 and 1813. He married in 1813 to Mary (Polly) Seslar and it appears that her brother John was Marriage Bondsman.

September 24, 1812, Adam Strayer of Berkeley Co., VA, granted deed of trust on 250 acres to secure Benj. Bell in the sum of $2,800. Grantee Richard Gartrell of Berkeley Co, VA.

September 14, 1818, Jacob and Catherine Strayer of Berkeley Co., VA, deeded to Adam Strayer 11 1/4 acres on the east side of Opeckon of Michael Strayer deceased land.

Note: Will of Adam Strayer 2nd (or Junior), November 9, 1818: names wife Mary (Polsal), mother Catherine and sons Adam and John. This is not Adam Strayer 1st and his wife Mary Seslar. Adam Strayer 1st would have died without necessity of a will, post 1831, when he sold his entire encumbered land to George Couchman Jr. Although, it is believed by some family sources that Adam may have been the father of Daniel Evan Strayer, there is no evidence either way and Adams only recorded marriage took place only after the deaths of his brother Michael and mother Anna Catherine. I have therefore placed Daniel Evan with Adam’s brother John who has a large family, not all of whom are named, that placement is reinforced by the estate settlement of John which took place in Fairfield Co., OH, circa 1824.

1820 Census of VA, Middletown, Berkeley Co., Images.online # 105, page 96:
Strayer, Adam, Head
10<16 one male (nephew George Couchman Jr)
>45 one male (Adam)
10<16 one female
16>26 one female
>45 one female (Mary his wife)
2 slaves
1 other colored person not a slave

1822-23, Jacob Strayer deeds to Adam Strayer, Sr.

1825, Adam Strayer granted deed of trust to John Poterfield.

September 11, 1826, Adam Strayer emancipated negro Charles, 40 years of age.

1830 Census of Berkeley Co., VA, Living with George Couchman Jr.

Deed Book 39, p. 118 for Berkeley Co., VA, April 26, 1831-- Adam Strayer sold the land he had acquired from his father Nicholas’ estate, where he lived, a total of some 220 acres 38 poles, to George Couchman Jr., his sister’s son. Adam Strayer owed several deeds of trust on the land. George, Jr. promised to pay the trust deeds and take care of Adam and Mary Strayer for the rest of their lives.

1840 Census of Berkeley Co., VA, examination of George Couchman Jr’s household has no persons of the correct ages for Adam and Mary Strayer.

Generation No. 2

2. John-Nicholas Strayer Jr (John-Nicholas') was born 15 Feb 1757 in Lebanon Twp., Lancaster Co., PA, and died Bef. Sep 1805 in Berkeley Co., VA, while living at Dry Run Plantation. He married Catherine-Marie Staley Abt. 1785 in New Mechlinburg (now Shepherdstown), Berkeley Co., VA, daughter of John-Jacob Staley and Catherina [-?-]. She was born Bet. 1760 - 1770 in Chanceford Twp., York Co., PA, at ?Mulberry Hills Plantation, and died 03 Jul 1841 in Logan Co., OH.

Notes for John-Nicholas Strayer Jr:
John Nicholas Strayer, Jr., was born to John Nicholas Strayer, Sr., and Marie Catherine, on February 15, 1757, and baptised on March 7, 1757, at 1st Reformed Church in Lancaster, PA. Very little is known about Nicholas, Jr.; this is due in part to the fact that he predeceased his father by September of 1805, leaving a widow and five sons. At the time of his death he had been residing on the Dry Run Plantation which his father had purchased from Joseph and Cassandra Thornburg in 1801; therefore, none of their children were born on this plantation. although they were born in Berkeley Co.

At a Court held for Berkeley County the 2nd day of June 1806 This Inventory and appraisement of Estate of Nicholas Strayer decd was returned and ordered to be recorded

By the Court
Teste D. Hunter CBC

His wife, Marie Catherine Stayley, was the daughter of John Jacob Stayley, (Will Book 2, page 198, of Berkeley Co., VA), who had been next door neighbor to John Nicholas Strayer, Sr., in Chanceford Twp., York Co., PA, and she appears to have been the niece of Peter Stehli, whose estate was settled by Malachi Stayley January 15, 1791. John-Jacob Stehli, who immigrated with Johanes-Matthes Stroeher on the ship “Priscilla”, in 1749, is believed to be her grandfather.
Couchman family genealogists from Berkeley Co., WV, however, believe that Peter Stehli’s estate settlement, of 1791, indicates that Peter was her grandfather, but the author cannot substantiate this claim.

At the time of John Nicholas, Sr’s death, in 1809, his two elder grandsons had reached the age of twenty-one or more, and in the will of Nicholas, Sr. (Will Book 4, page 274, Berkeley Co., VA), the widowed Catherine Stayley Strayer and these mature grandsons, were given control of the Dry Run Plantation, with the provision that stated amounts were to be paid annually for seven years to their aunt Susannah Strayer Couchman and uncle John Strayer. On April 13, 1812, the Dry Run Plantation was sold by Jacob & wife, Adam, and the widowed Catherine on behalf of her three remaining underage sons) to Mathew Ransom, of Jefferson Co., VA, for the amount of $6,000.00.

Their two eldest sons, Jacob and Adam both died relatively young; Adam in 1818 and Jacob in 1826. Catherine Stayley Strayer later migrated with her three younger sons, John P., Nicholas and Michael to Logan Co., OH, circa 1828-1834, and is believed to have died August 26, 1841, and to be buried in the Hurst Cemetery, in Logan Co., OH. Conflicting records, however, have a Catherine Strayer living in Pickaway Co., OH in 1850, not far from a Michael Strayer of the correct age to be her youngest son. The Pickaway Co., OH, Michael Strayer had two wives (neither named Malinda) and the marriage of Michael Strayer to Malinda Nichols in Logan Co., OH, before his removal to Indiana, is part of the records supplied by descendents of his brother John P. Strayer, who did live and die in Logan Co., OH. They have John P’s obituary from the Martinsburg, VA, newspaper of the time. The author of this book has found a Malinda Strayer, widow, on the LaGrange Co., Indiana, Census of 1860, and therefore believes that the Michael Strayer who went to Indiana is the correct person and has verified this with further research.

Notes for Catherine-Marie Staley:
1810 Census, Berkeley Co., VA, Unknown Twp., page 547:
   Catherine Strayer 02400 | 110101 | 00
   2 males age 10-15 (John P. and Michael)
   4 males 16-20 (Jacob, Adam and Nicholas, one other)
   1 female 0-5
   1 female 20-30 (Catherine Seibert)
   1 female 45 and over (Catherine Staley Strayer)

Census of 1840 for Ohio appears to show Catherine dwelling with her son Michael at age 80-90. Neither age listed is quite accurate, with a putative birth date near 1768 she would have been 50-55 in 1820 and near 70-75 in 1840, probably she was still young enough to lie about her age in 1820. There is a female age 60-70 in Washington Co., MD in 1830 with a male Strayer as head of Household and with other data matching Nicholas 3rd, the author believes this male is erroneously ID’d on the census as Nathaniel Strayer.

From the Commonwealth of PA, State Library and Museum records, written to C.N.Strayer of Logan Co., OH, on April 11, 1939: "From August 20 to Oct 20, 1781, one Francis Reinhard served as a substitute for John Strayer, in the 4th Class, 2nd Battalion, Capt. David Kraus, on a tour of duty at Lancaster guarding British prisoners of war. A John Strehr is listed on a return of male inhabitants liable for militia duty, the 2nd company, Capt. Michael Holderbaum, 2nd Battalion for 1782. Both of the returns are of the Lancaster Co., Militia."

??It is possible that John lived in Fayette Co., PA, at Union boro in 1810.
1810 Census of PA, Union boro, Fayette Co., page 907:

1 female age 16<25 (Catherine)

Deed Book 27, page 149, recorded August 9, 1815:
Nicholas Strayer III and wife Rebecca sold for $185 to John Strayer Sr a 3 acre remnant of his land inherited from his father Nicholas' share of Michael Strayer's estate.

Deed Book 27, page 183, recorded September 30, 1815:
Adam Strayer Jr and Polly his wife sold for $440 to John Strayer Sr a tract of land on the east side of the Opequon Creek being part of a greater tract of land formerly owned by Nicholas Strayer Sr deceased and by his Last will devised to his sons Adam and Michael Strayer, the latter having died intestate without having heirs of his body; his share of the said land did become vested in his brothers and their heirs, the said Adam Strayer Jr's being one of the heirs of and representatives of Nicholas Strayer Jr, deceased.

Deed Book 27, page 249, recorded June 1815:
Division of land of Nicholas Strayer Jr, deceased, heirs. John Strayer Sr received 8 acres 16 poles and 3 acres which were previously purchased by him from Adam Strayer Jr and Nicholas Strayer III sons of Nicholas Strayer Jr.

Deed Book 27, page 253, recorded December 11, 1815:
Division of land from Michael Strayer Sr, deceased, and Nicholas Strayer Sr, deceased John Strayer was granted Lot 3 containing 51 acres 1 rood 5 poles and Lot 7 containing 5 acres 11 poles.

Researchers for John’s daughter Elizabeth married to John Guseman say that her first child, Daniel Guseman, was born in Martinsburg, Berkeley Co., VA, in 1815 and their second child, Mearely (sp. Mary Alice) Guseman, was born in Lancaster, Fairfield Co., OH in 1818. This places their migration from VA to OH in the 1816 - 1817 range which would agree with her father John’s removal from Berkeley Co., VA.

Berkeley Co., VA, Census of 1820 shows only one male named John Strayer. He is John P. the son of Nicholas Strayer Jr. The other two John Strayer/Strair’s, in VA, are respectively, John Strayer (son of 2nd Lt. Jacob and grandson of J. Peter of Dover, PA), in Shenandoah Co., VA, and John Strair of Ohio Co., VA, who is believed to also be descended from J. Peter of Dover or possibly Han Adam. Instead, a John Strayer is seen at Hocking Twp., Fairfield Co., OH, on the 1820 Census.

1820 Census of OH, Hocking Twp., Fairfield Co., p 77:
- Strayer, John, Head
  - 1 male 45+(John)
  - 1 male 26-45 (?)
  - 2 males 16-26 (Jacob, Michael)
  - 1 male <10 (Abram)
  - 1 female 26-45 (Priscilla age @43)
  - 1 female 16-26 (Ellen, daughter-in-law)

Before me Geo. Sanderson one of the acting justices of the peace for said county have they on the 29th day of May 1834 personally come Daniel Strayer and made oath in due form of law that some time in June 1831 to the best of his recollection he forwarded to John Strayer deceased thirty dollars by mail agreeably to a previous request made by the said John by letter, which thirty dollars was put in hand in part payment of a certain note which said John held against him at his death and on which a payment has been collected by C. King Adm. of said John's Estate, in the court of Common Pleas of Logan County, Ohio and that he is justly entitled to a credit for said $30 on said judgement by reason of said payment.
Sworn to and duly ordered

From this estate settlement several things are inferred about the heirs:

1) His third wife and widow, Martha Thompson Strayer, may have died by May 1834. No death information is currently available for her. However, a Martha Strayer is found on the 1850 Census for Lancaster, Fairfield Co., OH, at age 75, living with the family of Peter (Elizabeth) Litte and children.

2) Apparently, John loaned money to the husbands of two of his daughters, ie John (Elizabeth Strayer) Guseman and George (Catherine Strayer) Weaver, these loans were repaid during settlement of the estate.

3) John also loaned money to both Daniel and Jacob Strayer at times when they may have moved to a new home area- Daniel to Logan Co., OH, and Jacob to Fountain Co., IN. The other Daniel Strayer of Logan Co., OH, was born in 1831, therefore the Daniel being sued, in 1833, must have been Daniel Strayer, married to Virginia Elizabeth Small, who was probably John's eldest son.

4) The fifth living heir may be Michael Strayer, a saddler and harnessmaker, of Pickaway Co., OH. There may have been deceased sisters in between Michael and Abram.

5) The sixth living heir is inferred to be Abraham Wood Strayer, son of John by his second wife Priscilla Wood. Abram would have been 16 yrs old and may have been in Uniontown, PA, at the time of John's death, in 1831, either attending school or apprenticing to the saddle and harnessmaking trade. Abram returned to Fairfield Co., OH, by 1837 when his marriage took place.

Christian King, Administrator of John Strayer's Estate:

"In 1799 there were not more than fifty families in the entire county. William and Christian King and Frederick A. Foster were the first to begin business as dry goods merchants after Lancaster was organized as a village." ....... The first attempt at a special line of goods in the hardware line was that of Christian King, established in 1829. This stock was not in a room set apart especially for the purpose but was kept on one side of what had been a general store, the opposite side being filled, as usual, with a mixture of dry goods and groceries."

Generation No. 3

7. Jacob^3 Strayer (John-Nicholas^2, John-Nicholas^1) was born Abt. 1790 in Berkeley Co., VA, and died Abt. 31 May 1826 in Middletown, Berkeley Co., VA. He married Catherine Seibert 17 Mar 1810 in Berkeley Co., VA, daughter of John-Jacob Seibert and Eva-Elizabeth Battorf. She was born 05 Nov 1789 in Washington Co., MD, and died 08 Mar 1855 in Hedgesville, Berkeley Co., VA.

Notes for Jacob Strayer:
Jacob Strayer was born to John Nicholas Strayer, Jr, and Marie Catherine Stayley, about 1786, in Berkeley Co., VA. As stated previously, Jacob inherited a share of the Dry Run Plantation, on which his father, John Nicholas, Jr., had died, this was accomplished through the will of his grandfather John Nicholas, Sr. This plantation was sold, in 1812, by agreement of Jacob & wife, Adam and their mother Catherine who acted on behalf of the other three still minor grandsons. Jacob married Catherine Seibert on March 17, 1810, in Berkeley Co., VA.

Their first child, John Nicolas Strayer was born January 23, 1811, baptized at the Old German Lutheran Church, on Church St., in Martinsburg, VA, and may have been dead within the first year of life, alternatively there is a male of 0-10 yrs on the 1820 Census and a male of 15<20 years on the 1830 Census, so he may have lived until after 1830 at least.

History of the Lower Shenandoah Valley, J.E. Norris, p. 376, " the period of 1810-1814 was a depressed time for property values and land sales."

"DIED", THE MARTINSBURG GAZETTE, issue of Friday, June 8, 1826:
"On Thursday night last, Mr. Jacob Strayer, of this county." (This makes his death Thursday, May 31, 1826. It is believed that he is buried in an unmarked grave in the Old German Lutheran Churchyard at Martinsburg.)

It is probable that this period of time, post 1826, was when the remaining family in Virginia began to attend the Methodist Protestant church in Berkeley County. At the time of Jacob's death, in 1826, there were 5 documented living children: Jacob Seibert, Elizabeth, Anna Mary, George W., and Catherine. He died intestate and his estate was appraised with the help of Catherine's brother Samuel Seibert. Executors Account of Jacob Stroher estate on October 12, 1828. Appraisal of Estate & Chattels Nov. 8, 1826. Many chattels were purchased by Michael & Samuel Seibert and Samuel Seibert was executor of the sale. These gentlemen were Catherine's brothers.

It appears that a curious custom of that era was the serving of a spiced rum punch or brandy to funeral goers or attendees at estate sales, this is the third estate settlement and sale found which details the ingredients, amounts, costs and in one case names the server of the punch then charges it off as an expense of the estate settlement.

1850 Census of Berkeley Co., VA, AIS and Images Online both searched; Catherine Strayer, is not found by herself or with married children in the area, ie. Anna Mary Strayer Kreglow, Elizabeth Strayer Runk or Jacob S. Strayer. Checked Ohio as well and she was not listed with George W. Strayer or at the Michael Barnes family with her grandson John. However, in adjoining Morgan Co., in Bath town, at Berkeley Springs, with the Swinley family, on page 380, is listed Cath. Slyer, age 50. That would be the correct age for her, it is possible that she is Catherine Strayer mis-indexed and mis-censused. The name written as Slyer could have an uncrossed T. Perhaps, she was employed at the Bath resort or sent to Bath for the famous springs. The Berkeley Springs resort was originally subscribed by George Washington and other investors and is still in 2005 a working resort with spa attached.

Catherine remained in the area of Hedgesville, Berkeley Co., VA, where she had strong support from her brothers and parents, to raise her children. She died there in the home of her son, Jacob Seibert Strayer, at Hedgesville. A Quote from the "Virginia Republican," March 17, 1855 edition, "Died --on the 8th instant--Mrs. Catherine Strayer, in the 66th year of her age--". She was buried in Hedgesville Cemetery, beside Mt. "Departed this life on Friday the 5th inst. after a lingering and painful illness, which she bore with Christian fortitude, Mrs. Mary Strayer, relict of Adam Strayer, and daughter of Captain John Poisal. A few hours before her departure from this scene of trial, she fervently exhorted all around her to seek with unceasing diligence the favor of the God, into whose hands she was about to commit her spirit, and sinking with pious resignation on her pillow, her spirit took its flight to the happy regions of eternal felicity, where the wicked cease from troubling and the (?saints) are at rest."

Subject: Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Records

Dear Ms Strayer,

Thank you for your inquiry concerning the records of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company. When the federal government assumed ownership of the abandoned canal in 1938, the existing records were transferred to the National Archives. They are housed today in College Park, Maryland, under Record Group 79. Although they are fragmentary in nature, they do include documents from 1785 to 1924. Information is available by calling (301) 837-2000.

Additionally, the holdings of the Western Maryland Room of the Washington County Free Library in Hagerstown, may be useful to your research. John Frye may be reached at (301) 739-3250.

Good luck with your research, and thanks again for your interest in the National Park Service.

Notes for Malinda Nichols:
The Wolcottville/South Milford area of LaGrange Co., in northeast Indiana is the center of author Gene Stratton Porter's famous series of books written about the Limberlost forest and swamp. Apparently up until the early 1900's much of this area was undrained and contained much first growth timber and valuable natural resources. South Milford is very near the Ohio/Indiana state line and on the Ohio side was the Great Black Swamp remnant from the last ice age. Family tales from the northwest Ohio connections of the author indicate that this area in general was not completely tamed to farming until the creation of heavy ditching in the late 1800's. At least one tale included the fact that houses were built on piles for drainage and that in the winter wolves would come under the houses and sniff at the warm human smells through the cracks in the floorboards.

"The Methodist effected an organization at Wolcottville in 1839, under the ministration of Revs. Posey and Allen. The society started with but four members, A. Witter, Mrs. Witter, Kizziah Nichols, and another, whose name is unknown. Schoolhouses and dwellings were the first meeting houses. A building owned by Ozias Wright was used several years. The society became quite strong in 1844; but in 1858, had weakened until only seven persons belonged--Susan Griggs, Mary A. Taylor, Malinda Strayer, Mrs. Strayer, and three others. The society got its first real start from a revival held in the Seminary building by Rev. D.P. Hartman, at which time some thirty persons became members. About as many more joined at the time of a revival held by Rev. William VanSlack. Meetings were held in the Seminary until 1874, at which time the church was built at a cost of about $3,000." The congregation has since disbanded but there is a cemetery associated with the old church property.

Children of Michael Strayer and Malinda Nichols are:

66  i. John N. Strayer, born 08 Nov 1834 in Miami Twp., Logan Co., OH; died 02 May 1917 in Lakeside Hosp., Kendallville, IN; lifelong bachelor.

Notes for John N. Strayer:
LaGrange Co., IN, illustrated atlas and Columbia souvenir, publ. 1893. South Milford.
"The first plat of South Milford was recorded in June, 1856. With the building of the Wabash (RR) extension(in progress 1893) new growth is anticipated."; also, "John N. Strayer came to Indiana in 1849 and settled on section 16 in Johnson township, and in LaGrange county he has since remained, with the exception of the time spent in the army. Mr. Strayer was born in Logan county Ohio, where he remained till he came to Indiana. He enlisted at Chicago, September, 1861, in the McClellan Dragoons, and was with General McClellan till he (McClellan) was relieved of command. then they were made a part of the 12th Illinois Cavalry, and so served until discharged at Donaldson, Ky., December, 1864. Mr. Strayer went into the mercantile business (probably at Wolcottville) with Jonathon Law in 1866. They came to South Milford in 1872. He remained in company with Mr. Law till 1883, and since that time Mr. Strayer has managed the large business alone. He has recently built an elegant residence in South Milford. Mr. Strayer has a lively interest in all public enterprises, and is one of the stockholders and superintendent of grounds, of Island Park Assembly (Rome City, IN)."

Apparently John N. Strayer never married and according to Larry Marine Strayer, a correspondent about LaGrange Co., IN, John was part of the Regulator movement in Noble and LaGrange Co's in the late 1800's, they were a form of legal vigilante. Island Park Assembly was probably a part of the Chatauqua movement that swept the country and provided orators and "refined" entertainment to the citizens of the middle USA in the late 1800's. According to Larry the obituary for J.N. Strayer mentioned him as a bodyguard for General George B. McClellan in 1864.

There are two deeds of sale for Daniel Strayer of the Gerrardstown area. Deed Book 78, page 206 and Deed Book 39, page 184, both for land Daniel and his wife Elizabeth are selling. The one deed is dated March 9, 1831, the other is dated May 10, 1825. Daniel was simply selling land that he and his wife had purchased, this may have been a long distance transaction with power of attorney or legal help. The sale in March 1831, in all probability, marks the removal of Daniel and Elizabeth to Logan Co., Ohio., at least from Clark Co., OH. The estate settlement of John Strayer, filed in September 1831, at Fairfield Co., OH, mentions wife Martha, Daniel of Logan Co. and Jacob, who by that time was in Fountain Co., IN.

The Logan Co., OH, family tradition has it that Daniel's father was Adam, 1st, however, there is no family Bible or document in his own hand to clarify the matter. The Logan Co., OH, tradition also says Daniel was in Clark Co., OH, before 1830, then went to Logan Co., OH, in 1831, settling about one mile west of DeGraff. If that is indeed true, then he must have travelled back to VA or used a power of attorney to sell his property. Logan County Strayers say that he was a blacksmith and minister of the gospel for the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was said to be successful enough to obtain 100 acres of land for each of his children. He was also reported to be very strong, probably due to his blacksmithing.

"Historical Review of Logan County," by Kennedy, publ. ?1910, page 540:
Per biography of his son William Monroe Strayer, Daniel Strayer was a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church and later of the United Brethren Church.

Recent finding of an abstract for the estate settlement of John Strayer in Fairfield Co., OH, mentioning a suit filed against Daniel of Logan County, on October 22, 1833, appears to suggest that John is indeed his father. Apparently, Daniel borrowed around $225.00 from John circa 1830, and had only repaid $30.00 by June of 1831 just before John's death. The purchase of land above may be the reason for the note to John Strayer of 1830. Daniel's father John Strayer died in November 1831 and Daniel paid a debt owed to his father as part of the estate settlement in 1835. Daniel inherited as his sixth part of the estate 29 dollars 79 3/4 cents.

19. Abram Wood Strayer (John, John-Nicholas) was born 29 Nov 1814 in PA (possibly Fayette Nicholas Strayer of Chanceford and Berkeley Co.), and died 19 Sep 1866 in Royalton, Amanda Twp., Fairfield Co., OH. He married Ellen Mary Cross 09 Nov 1837 in Lancaster, Fairfield Co., OH; by Rev. J. Myers, daughter of John Cross and Elizabeth ?Collett. She was born 24 Oct 1813 in VA, and died 10 Jul 1892 in Royalton, Amanda Twp., Fairfield Co., OH.

Notes for Abram Wood Strayer:
It has been suggested that because Abram Wood Strayer was reported in a Fairfield County newspaper to be from Uniontown, PA, at the time of his marriage in 1837, that he may have lived there for a few years between 1835-1837. There was a John Strayer, in Fayette Co., PA, on the 1810 Census; it is possible that the John Strayer who married Priscilla Wood in Berkeley Co., VA, in 1798, was John's son and therefore Abram's father, thus making John Sr his grandfather. Not all of John's children are successfully tracked and identified. However, there was an Abraham Wood, in Fayette Co., KY, in 1820, and previously, in Frederick Co., VA. The John & Peter Strayer's who lived in Union Co., PA, in 1820, were reported to be Saddlers and Abram Wood Strayer is recorded in 1850-1860 as a Sadeler and Harness Maker. It is also possible that Abram was visiting relatives in Fayette Co., KY, not in Fayette Co., PA as reported in the newspaper. Also, he might have been learning his trade with a "cousin". Abram consistently listed his father's and his birthplace as PA on the censuses.

Generation No. 4

28. Jacob-Seibert Strayer (Jacob3, John-Nicholas2, John-Nicholas1) was born 26 Mar 1813 in Hedgesville, Berkeley Co., VA; birth date calculated from death information, and died 30 Oct 1894 in Berkeley Co., WV; at Highlands, Berkeley Station, aged 81 yr 7 mo 4 da. He married Sarah Ann O'Burn 17 Dec 1834 in Berkeley Co., VA, daughter of Daniel O'Burn and Sarah Kennedy. She was born 12 May 1812 in MD (per 1900 Census); birth date from her own Bible, and died 03 May 1903 in Berkeley Co., WV; at Highlands, Berkeley Station, aged 90 yr 11 mo 21 da.

Notes for Jacob-Seibert Strayer:
Jacob Seibert Strayer was born March 26, 1813, in Berkeley Co., VA, to Jacob Strayer and Catherine Marie Seibert. He married Sarah Ann O'Burn on December 17, 1834, in Berkeley Co., VA. They lived in the 9th District during the 1850 census season and he listed his occupation as...
Nicholas Strayer of Chanceford and Berkeley

Constable. At the time of his mother's death in 1855, he was reported to live at Hedgesville. The 1860 census reported him living in Martinsburg, and working as a Butcher. Beginning in 1858 or so, one at a time, all of his surviving four sons became Ministers and ultimately there are either Maryland Protestant Methodist or Centre Baptist Association (Pennsylvania) records for each one in assorted pastorates.

During the Civil War years the family was disrupted by several factors, their eldest son, Webster Mathew, had become an assistant Protestant Methodist minister, in 1860, at Frederick, MD, and, just after his 21st birthday, in April of 1861, Daniel Jacob Reese, their second son, joined Company B of the First Virginia Cavalry (a.k.a. J.E.B. Stuart's Black Horse Cavalry). Their daughter Amanda was living at home and working as a schoolteacher in 1860, she died, in 1863, at home. However, after 1863, when that area of VA separated to become WV, and after failed land purchases in 1864-65 and 1866-67, Jacob Seibert and his family apparently, at some point probably in 1868-69, relocated to the Bolivar Twp. area of Jefferson Co., WV, (near Harper's Ferry and Charlestown) remaining there through the census of 1870, until nearly 1874-75 when Sarah manged to buy the 15 1/2 acre farm at Berkeley Station about 4 miles north of Martinsburg, WV, near the Cherry Valley and Potomac Railroad. The notes of Lillian Thomas, his granddaughter, say this property was called Highlands.

Their third son, Otho O'Burn Strayer, was originally, circa 1870, associated with the Protestant Methodists but later he was licensed to preach in the Centre Baptist Association of Pennsylvania. Otho was listed on the 1880 census of Red Stone near Brownsville, in Fayette Co., PA. At the time of Jacob's death, in 1894, Jacob and Sarah Ann, his wife, were living at Highlands near Berkeley Station which Sarah, herself, had purchased. Later, Sarah Ann sold this farm to her daughter, Sarah Dallas Strayer, with the proviso that Mary Seibert Strayer had the right to live there until she died and that on Mary's death, the farm would go to Charles Sumner Strayer (name given fully) Sarah Ann's grandson. Sarah Ann died in 1903, on the farm, but she had already been predeceased by Sarah Dallas Strayer and her daughter Mary S. Strayer registered her death.

There is a small mystery concerning their daughter Mary Catherine Seibert Strayer who appears with a calculated birth year of 1846 on the 1850 and 1860 censuses and a calculated birth year of 1849 on the 1870 census, the name of Catherine disappears from the census between 1870 and 1880 and in 1880 for the first time a daughter Maryetta appears. By the 1900 census, she is shown with a birthdate of June 1846, as M. S. Strayer; she is named in her sister Sarah's will and she was involved in legal property transfers under the married name of Mary S. Strayer-Reynolds through 1925 at least. Per notes of her niece Lillian Thomas her full name was Mary Catherine Seibert Strayer later Reynolds.

Note: Next Door to Robert Hedges (who may have married Sarah's sister).

Per Don C. Wood, genealogist, according to the Land Book of Berkeley County, Jacob owned 4 acres at Hedgesville in 1841.

A letter written to her sister-in-law Sarah Dallas by Otho’s wife Mary Katherine Wooten, on May 4,1870, asked how they were getting along with “The Eichelberger.” Reading between the lines it is suspected that Rev. Eichelberger may have been seen as a possible husband for Sarah or Mary. He married elsewhere and died relatively young.

Notes for Sarah Ann O'Burn:

Deeded to Sarah A. Strayer from J.S. Myer and wife, the 15 1/2 acres, called Highland, on which they lived at Berkeley Station on the Martinsburg and Potomac Pike four miles north of Martinsburg, WV.

At the time of her son Otho's death in 1892, Sarah Ann held the original policy on his life in safekeeping so that it would be available for his daughter Mellie to use in supporting her mother and siblings until grown. Unfortunately, Otho's wife predeceased him and so Mellie had to raise her younger siblings alone.

Land Records 1893: Tax Appraisal, Sarah A. Strayer , 15 1/2 acres 4 miles out of town on the M&P pike values at $18.00 an acre plus $250 for buildings. In 1894, Sarah A. Strayer sold to Sarah D. Strayer for the sum of $100 the 15 1/2 acres above. Deed Book 91, page 335, recorded August 8, 1894.

The Baltimore, MD City Directory of 1891-1892 lists a Sarah Strayer as Matron at the House of Refuge at Baltimore, MD. Per the Historical Society this facility was in part an orphan’s asylum and is mentioned in Scharf’s History of Baltimore. It was later separated into a male and a female facility and the male facility has become the boys “reformatory” in recent years. This was the time period in which her brother Webster was President of the Maryland Conference of the Protestant Methodist denomination centered at Baltimore, he may have helped her obtain her job there.

Land Records of Berkeley Co., VA: 1894- Sarah D. Strayer purchased 15 1/2 acres from Sarah A. Strayer for the price of $100.

Sarah D. Strayer’s will written August 8, 1894 states that her sister Mary S. Strayer is her heir and her nephew Charles Sumner Strayer is her heir when her sister had died. The property was given to her sister for her use during her life. Sarah D. was buried in Green Hill Cemetery, Martinsburg, WV, in 1895, and her tombstone reads Dalla Strayer. The next generation referred to her as Aunt Dallie. Per Holly Hoofnagle Weise, great granddaughter of O.O.B. Strayer, she sent a Civil War Scrapbook kept by Dalla to the Philadelphia, PA, Civil War Museum.

1880 Census of Berkeley Co., WV:
On this census is the first recorded appearance of Mary Seibert Strayer (called Maryetta) and no sister Catherine M. appears, age is also very elastic.

1900 Census of Berkeley Co., WV:
On this census she is initialled as M.S. Strayer birth June 1846, which does not match the year of 1853 which was calculated when she appeared in 1880.

Mary Seibert Strayer reported her mother's death in 1903. Known to the next generation as Aunt Sibie. She raised Charles Sumner Strayer her nephew.

June 30 1925, Affadavit, Berkeley County Deed Book 148, page 29:
#1177- Mary Strayer-Reynolds State of West Virginia
Affadavtit County of Berkeley Jss
C F Small, et al
Recorded June 30, 1925
Charles H. Small having by me a Justice of the Peace in and for the County and State aforesaid duly sworn upon his oath states:
That he is 57 years of age and for 50 years has been acquainted with one Mary S. Strayer; that the said Mary S. Strayer during all that time, and up until the spring of 1906 was unmarried; that in the spring of 1906 she became intermarried with Henry C. Reynolds and that she is the same person who acquired title to certain real estate, under the name of Mary S. Strayer, in a certain conveyance dated April 24, 1904, and recorded October 22, 1904 in Deed Bk No 108 page No 66, in the Records of Berkeley Co., WV and is also the person who joined in the conveyance of the same tract of land to Charles H. and Mary Small as grantees under the name Mary S. Reynolds and which conveyance dated November 21, 1906 was recorded December 29, 1906 in Deed Bk 113, page 17, in Records of Berkeley County, WV.

Pages 2 & 3 of an undated letter fragment to Mellie (Malvinah Strayer Hoofnagle) signed Aunt Sibie, probably, from the items written, the letter was from post 1925, when she and Charles owned a home together in Shepherdstown, and before 1929 when her brother Webster died.

2. about the folks you wrote about I dont know much. We do not have any Lemmin relations. Your Grandfather had Barnes relations that went to Indiana (sic, actually Ohio), I dont know where in that state they are. They are good people. Cousin John Barnes was at our house when we lived at Highland, they had one son, he was a lawyer. The house that you were born in at Harper's Ferry was not in Harper's Ferry but in Boliver, it was all just called Harper's Ferry. I dont know what the street was called. Charles has been suffering with his mouth, he had to have some teeth pulled and that left his mouth very sore, he can hardly eat enough to keep him alive. This Morning----missing fragment--

3. his health is better otherways. Louise is still in New York, but she is not well. Charles was up there four week in June--he left her much better, but now she writes that she is not feeling so well. I expect she will come down here soon to stay. I think it would best then we will be full jammed in. I do not hear much from my Strayer Relations. Your Uncle Webster went to Conference in the spring---- I wanted to go to Philadelphia this summer but was disappointed so will try and content myself to stay at home. This is a very poor letter but it will have to go. I am a little nervous this morning----with much love for you and all the rest. I will stop.

Affectionately,

Aunt Sibie

Note: Cousin John H. Barnes was Aunt Sibie’s first cousin, he was the son of her father’s sister Catherine Strayer Barnes. Catherine died after John’s birth, in 1845, and her widower, Michael Barnes, remarried to Jacob and Catherine’s first cousin, Margaret Kreglow, and migrated to Ohio circa 1849. John H. Barnes was born in VA, in 1845, and was a lawyer in Urbana, OH. He was married to Mary Hubbell and their son Joseph Daniel Barnes was born, in 1869, in Ohio. Highland, a property of 15 1/2 acres located 4 miles north of Martinsburg on the Martinsburg and Potomac Pike had been bought by Mary’s mother Sarah Ann at around 1874-1875. There was family living there, still, up until 1904. There were actually some Lemon relatives (shirt tail) who were married into the Couchman line.

After appearing on the 1850, 1860 and 1870 Censuses, as Catherine or Catherine M. Strayer, her name Catherine disappeared from common use, she began to use the name Mary Seibert Strayer before 1880. The notes of her niece, Lillian Thomas, give her name as Mary Catherine Seibert Strayer. As she only married at the age of 60, after the death of her mother, there was probably some feeling on her part that she was the sole comfort for her mother after her father’s death as well as her sister Sarah Dallas’ death. Her nephew, Charles Sumner Strayer, who she had pretty much raised, moved up to the Coney Island area of New York in around 1904-1905 and later married Louise Dabo. Mary and Charles had previously sold a right of way on the Highlands property to the Cherry Run and Potomac Valley Railroad and apparently Mary used the proceeds to purchased a home, on April 18, 1904, fronting Washington Street (Lot 4 Block JJ, Deed Book 94, page 333) in Harper’s Ferry, Jefferson Co., WV, it is believed that she resided there for two years, prior to her marriage. Mary sold this property to C.C. Johnson, on May 24, 1923, after her husbands death in 1922, for $3100.

Mary suddenly married bachelor Henry Clay Reynolds, of Shepherdstown, at Harper’s Ferry, on the twenty-sixth of April, in 1906. She and her new husband sold the remains of the 15 1/2 acre farm, called Highlands, at Berkeley Station, in late 1906. They were both counted on both the 1910 and 1920 Census at the New Street address (Lot 111, south side of New St., immediately west of the Methodist Episcopal Church) which Henry had purchased in October of 1906. After Henry’s death Mary sold several of his properties including the original home on New Street and in 1925 the family petitioned for Charles her nephew to come down from New York and help her. He set up a trust for the two of them to buy another New St property, the western part of Lot 109 and the eastern part of Lot 110, for a joint home with the right of survivorship to himself and his wife Louise when Mary had died. She had put in $3500 dollars from the sale of her late husbands property and a Trust was set up for the remaining $1500 due on the sale. (Deed Book 125, pages 515, 516, 517) On the 1930 Census the address appears to be a double or duplex as shown below:

Mrs. Mary Reynolds, widow of Henry C. Reynolds, died very suddenly at her home in Shepherdstown last Thursday night, in the 88th year of her age. She had not been in very good health for some months past, but seemed as well as usual last Thursday. During the afternoon she was stricken and later became unconscious. She passed away about 9 o'clock Thursday night. Before her marriage Mrs. Reynolds was Miss Mary Catherine Seibert Strayer and was born at Hedgesville. Somewhat late in life she was married to Mr. Reynolds, who died eleven years ago. Up to the past few months she was exceptionally alert for one so old, both mentally and physically, her only infirmity being extreme deafness. She was a good woman, quiet and gentle, and had for many years been a member of the Methodist Protestant Church. The last of her generation, her only survivors are a number of nephews and nieces. For the past eight or ten years she and her nephew, Charles Strayer, had maintained a home in Shepherdstown. The funeral service was conducted at her residence on New Street by Rev. B. W. John, of the M. E. Church South, Saturday afternoon. The body was laid to rest in Elmwood Cemetery.

Examination of the Reynolds plot, in Elmwood Cemetery, shows Henry and his sister Elizabeth with both headstone and footmarkers; there is an unmarked grave between them where Mary is assumed to rest, without a marker.

"DEATH IS EVER BUSY"

Henry Clay Reynolds, one of Shepherstown's most estimable residents, passed away at his home in this place Wednesday afternoon at half-past three o'clock, in the 78th year of his age. He had been ill for the past two months from a general breakdown and had been bedfast for four weeks. Mr. Reynolds was a native of Berkeley county, but had lived a large part of his life in Jefferson county, having for a number of years farmed one of the Shepherd farms north of town. He was one of the most exemplary men in our community—quiet, courteous, gentle of speech and manner, yet with firm convictions and the courage to express his opinions. He could always be counted upon to take the right side of public questions and to do his full duty. He had for many years been a consistent member of the Reformed Church, serving as a member of the consistory, and was known as a pious, Christian man. Honorable and upright, his influence was always for good, and though he will be missed from our community, his virtues will long be remembered; Besides his wife, he is survived by a brother John Reynolds of Berkeley county, and two sisters, Mrs. Louis Robinson, of Martinsburg, and Mrs. Thos. J. Clapham, of the Yanclevesville neighborhood. Mr. Reynolds was a Confederate veteran, having served with credit during the Civil War as a member of Company F, First Virginia Cavalry. The funeral service will be held at his late home Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

Notes for Sarah Ann Guinn:
The following two obituaries received courtesy Sarah's great-granddaughter Betty Keesecker Skinner of MI. The first is probably from a Denver paper and the second from the DeGraff region.

"MRS. STRAYOR'S FUNERAL IN DE GRAFF, O., TO-DAY"
She Died Soon After Celebrating Her 56th Marriage Anniversary.
The funeral of Mrs. George W. Strayor, who died at her home at No. 27 Twenty-eighth street last Sunday, will take place to-day at De Graff, O. The body was shipped from Denver last Thursday and was met en route by her daughter Annie Sage of Nebraska.

Mrs. Strayor was the mother of J. W. Strayor of New York, who formerly resided in Denver and was at one time a wealthy dealer in real estate. Mr. Strayor laid out the part of Denver lying east of the city park, known as Strayor's addition.

Mrs. Strayor and her husband recently celebrated the 56th anniversary of their wedding. She was born July 20, 1822, at Martinsburgh, W. Va. She came to Denver about 15 years ago and took an active part in church work, being a member of Trinity church. She leaves besides her husband, four children. These are Frank Strayor, of 1443 Corona St., Denver; Mrs. George L. Poole of De Graff, O.; Mrs. Annie Sage of Nebraska and J. W. Strayor of New York.

"Death of Mrs. G. W. Strayer."
Mrs. George T. Pool received a telegram last Sunday, announcing the death of her mother, Mrs. G. W. Strayer, at her home in Denver, Colorado, on that day. Mr. and Mrs. Strayer were residents of Logan county many years ago. The funeral services will be held at the home of Mrs. George Pool, three miles south of DeGraff, Sunday afternoon at one o'clock, conducted by Rev. Gascoigne.
Interment will be at Greenwood. It is expected the remains will reach here tomorrow or Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Strayer were completing their arrangements to come to DeGraff in about two months to make their home here and spend the balance of their days with their daughter.

The Marion Daily Star, Saturday, September 22, 1923:

J. M. STRAYER DIES OF PARALYSIS AT DE GRAFF

Brother of W. B. Strayer, Marion- Funeral Today

Though not unexpected, the announcement of the death of James Strayer, early Thursday morning, cast a wave of sadness through this community, says the DeGraff Journal.

About three weeks ago Mr. Strayer suffered a slight stroke of paralysis, followed in a few days by a second attack. This was more severe and developed into creeping paralysis. Some days before the end came, he was unable to talk, and was unconscious for some time.

Dissolution took place at 6:05 Thursday morning.

Mr. Strayer's brother, W. B. Strayer, and wife, of Marion have been in constant attendance.

Dr. R. M. Strayer, of Columbus, a nephew, and his wife, who is a trained nurse, have also been attentive, all doing what they could for the stricken relative.

James Strayer had been a resident of DeGraff for nearly sixty years, coming here from Logansville with his parents, James Wilson and Sarah Jane Strayer. He had been principally engaged in farming and stock-buying. At one time he was engaged in the meat business in DeGraff, associated with George D. Hayes, now deceased.

James Monroe Strayer was born in Logansville, Ohio, March 23, 1858, and died in DeGraff, September 20, 1923, aged sixty-five years, five months, and twenty-two days.

November 29, 1892, he was united in marriage to Miss Martha Pegan. The death of Mrs. Strayer July 27 last, was a sad blow to Mr. Strayer.

One Brother, W. B. Strayer, of Marion, is the only member remaining of the J. W. Strayer family.

Funeral services will be held at the home on south Main street, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. A. J. Bussard will preach the sermon. Burial will be made at Greenwood.

They had at least one child, George Reynolds Shoafstall, who was born March 22, 1846. 158. Rev. Webster Mathew Strayer (Jacob-Seibert⁴, Jacob³, John-Nicholas², John-Nicholas¹) was born 25 May 1836 in Hedgesville, Berkeley Co., VA, and died 16 Jan 1929 in Oxford, Talbot Co., MD; at the home of his daughter Georgeanna W. Meyers. He married Martha Ann Bevans 28 Mar 1864 in Snow Hill, Worcester Co., MD, daughter of John Bevans and Sarah Smulling. She was born 15 Feb 1844 in Worcester Co., MD, and died 04 Dec 1913 in Oxford, Talbot Co., MD.

Notes for Rev. Webster Mathew Strayer:
Webster Mathew Strayer was born to Jacob Seibert Strayer and Sarah Ann O'Burn on May 25, 1836. He probably attended the Protestant Methodist church in his youth because, in 1858, he is listed on the rolls of the Maryland Protestant Methodist Church as the assistant pastor of the church at Newtown, Worcester Co., MD, and, in 1859, he assisted at Queen Anne, Queen Annes Co., MD. In 1860, he is listed on the Frederick City, Frederick Co., MD, census as a bachelor and Methodist Protestant Minister living with the family of E. I. Drinkhouse, the Methodist Protestant Minister in Frederick, MD that year. Snow Hill, Worcester Co., MD, was his post in 1861-62, and it was during this time that he met his future wife, Martha A. Bevans. At the time of his brother Daniel's marriage, in November of 1863, he traveled up from his pastorate near Alexandria, VA, to perform the marriage ceremony at the home of the bride's parents Rev. and Mrs. Stephen Ott of Pencader Hundred, near Wilmington, DE. Webster married Martha A. Bevans in Worcester Co., MD, on March 28, 1864, and during most of his pastoral life remained in the Eastern Shore area. He ministered at the following locations and dates: Cambridge, Dorchester Co., MD, 1864-65; Warwick, Cecil Co., MD, 1866; Laurel, Sussex Co., DE, 1867-1871; Edesville, Kent Co., MD & Bel Air, Harford Co., MD, 1871-76; Snow Hill, Worcester Co., MD, 1877-82; Chestertown, Kent Co., MD, 1883-84; Starr, Queen Anne's Co., MD, 1885-1888; Buckeystown, Frederick Co., MD, 1888-1891; President of the Maryland Protestant Methodist Conference, 1889-1891; Jefferson, Frederick Co., MD, 1892-1902; Oxford, Talbot Co., MD, 1903-1905; and was superannuated from the ministry 1906-1928. There is a small mystery about Webster's middle name: his Protestant Methodist Denomination listed him on his obituary as Webster Mathew Strayer but his niece wrote to her nephew in the 1940's that his name was Webster Mills Strayer. His son was called Jr on the Census but in his adulthood Webster Jr gave his name on the Census as Webster Mills Strayer and his son was also Webster Mills Strayer.

Transcribed Records of the Union Circuit of the Methodist Protestant Church, Webster lived at Laurel, Sussex Co., DE, during this pastorate:
1869 Baptismal records list Webster M. Strayer as officiating minister. One of the children had the middle name Webster and another had the middle name Strayer. The churches in this circuit were: Providence MP Church, Talbot Co., MD, Mt. Hermon Church, Sharpstown MP Church, Kent Co., MD, Russum MP Church, Barren Creek Springs Church, Wicomicco County, MD, Snethen MP Church, Kent Co., MD, Portsville MP Church, Sussex Co., MD, Delmar MP Church, Wicomicco Co., MD. Laurel, Sussex Co., DE was "central" to Delmar and Sharpstown, by road, on this circuit.

In a very strange Census entry for Laurel, DE, given, very obviously, by a confused neighbor:
1870 Census of MD, Laurel PO, Subdivision 22, Sussex Co., June 9, page 670B:
154/160 Strayer, William, Preacher, age 33, b. VA, personal estate $500 (Webster M., age 34)
Maeton, Keeping House, age 24, b. MD (Martha A., age 26)
William, at home, age 3, b. MD (Webster Jr., actually age 3)
NOTE: Their daughter Martha Bevan Strayer is listed in family reports and on later censuses as born at Laurel, DE, on June 24, 1870 and Webster is reported by his denomination as pastor in charge, for Laurel DE, in that year as well. This is the only listing for a Strayer in Laurel, DE that year.

In 1876, a property owners map of Atkinson's District, Worcester Co., MD, shows Rev. W. Strayer as a resident, south of Millville, near the Potomac River, and west of Snow Hill, MD. Other resident property owners of Atkinson's District include R.E. Bevans, R.F. Bevans and J.H. Smullins. These men were probably related in some way to Webster's wife Martha A. Bevans.

The 1878 History of Maryland, for Worcester Co., MD, includes the following possible family connections of Webster's wife, Martha A. Bevans:
J. W. Silverthorne, Shoemaker
Mary A. Smulling, Confectioner & Baker
Smullin & Bros., General Merchandise & Grocery
George E. Bevans, Harness Maker

The 1880 Census of Worcester Co., MD, vol. 19, e.d. 102, sheet 1, line 1, indexes the family incorrectly as Strager, but it is the correct family group. They were living at Atkinson's District, Snow Hill, MD, and the record shows:
Strager, Webster M., age 44, born WV
Martha A., age 35, born MD
Webster M., Jr, age 13, born MD
Martha Bevans, age 9, born DE
Paul Moore, age 8, born MD
Charlton Bates, age 6, born MD
Seibert S., age 4, born MD (later known as Col. Thorne Strayer)
Georgeanna W., age 2, born MD
Treadway, Janie, age 23, servant

1890 Census Substitute: Reverend Webster M Strayer; 42 Parkin, Baltimore, MD; NOTE: this was apparently a rented home in which his family and sons lived while attending university, also Webster probably used it while attending to his Presidential duties for the Maryland Conference of Protestant Methodist Churches (1889-1891).

NEWS (Frederick, MD), published Dec. 26, 1896:
HANDSOME CHURCH DEDICATED AT BUCKEYSTOWN
"... the new Methodist Protestant church at Buckeystown, this county, was opened and dedicated to the worship of God yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock with a service at which an immense congregation was present... Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, president of the Western Maryland College, at Westminster, preached the dedicatory sermon, and REV. PAUL MOORE STRAYER, of the Chicago University, preached the sermon at the evening service. His father, REV. WEBSTER M. STRAYER, who is pastor, assisted by several ministers, officiated. (the article includes a photo of Webster and a drawing of the church edifice).... A feature of the exercises was the music. The regular choir, which is one of the finest in the county, was assisted by Mr. John Brown, of Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. M. Weller, of New York City; Miss N. Gunkle, of Delaware; Miss Ethel Suman, of Baltimore; Mr. T. C. Suman, Charlestown, W.Va., and SEIBERT STRAYER, of Baltimore."
The 1900 Census of Frederick Co., MD, vol. 30, e.d. 342, sheet 12, line 6, shows the family at Buckeystown District, Frederick Co., MD, on June 11, 1900. The record shows:

Strayer, Webster M., age 64, birthdate May, 1836, born WV
Martha A., age “46”, birthdate November, “1854”, born MD, 8 children, 6 living
Georgia W., age 22, birthdate November, 1877, born MD
Johnson, Katie, age 12, Servant, birthdate March, 1888, born Germany, not a citizen

The following undated, transcribed letter of Rev. Webster M. Strayer to his niece Mellie Strayer Hoofnagle; (mention of Wilson’s son, who was 6 on the 1920 census, and his weight of 20 pounds and having 6 teeth, places the time circa July-September 1913, Martha died December 14, 1913.) Note Bene: Erysipelas is/was a serious, extremely contagious Streptoccal skin infection causing redness, swelling and blistering, accompanied by chills and fever, sometimes causing death from the spreading of toxic substances through the body, the common name was St. Anthony’s Fire.

Oxford, MD

Dear Mellie-

Yours of the 20th instant received- Sorry to learn of Bill’s poor health- Hope health may come to him and to the little one- Your Aunt is in extremis, we have no hope of her recovery- All we can do is to make her as comfortable as possible and await the inevitable- She is completely broken in body and mind- Helpless in every way as a baby- we have a good Dr. and one of the best Nurses.

Mattie is with us, Has been all summer and will stay to the end- Wilson comes in nearly every day, and her husband(William H. Myers) spends every night if Mr. Kronmiller (this was Mattie’s husband) is not here- He comes on Saturday and stops until Monday night- I feel very tired under the Strain- Broke down trying to nurse Martha and Myself three months ago- had to get a nurse- cannot tell when the end may come. The Dr. says she is liable to die any moment but may linger for weeks- All we can do is to watch and wait- It makes it very hard (for) the children- They bear a large degree of the expense. I do not recall much about Erysipelas- It is an infectious disease and often proves fatal. If it strikes the brain there is no help- of course you know how to guard yourself against infection- be careful.
Have not given your message to your Aunt- we keep from her all news from every quarter as it agitates her mind. Wilson's boy weighs about 20 pounds and has six teeth- he sleeps about 12 hours out of the twenty four and devotes the rest of his time to Eating and growing. He is being brought up on prescription. Eats well and regular hours- sleeps also by rule- hourly goes to slop closet and breaks for a lunch about one and then (I think his train of thought derailed here) sleeps a until breakfast. Wilson is one of the greatest Mothers I have known-

Aunt Sibbie was well at last reports- Seibert (aka Col. Thorn Strayer) is in Trenton, N.J. drilling N.J. recruits-- Web and Lucile are well and little Winifred is a big fat girl, learning to talk and has most regular habits- Lucile is a great mother- All send love-

Affectionately
Uncle Webster

About nine years before his eulogy and obituary were published (with Photo) in The Protestant Methodist, Webster was in poor health and had been living with his married daughter Georgeanna Wilson Myers at Oxford Neck, Oxford, MD.

160. Rev. Daniel Jacob Reese Strayer (Jacob-Seibert, Jacob, John-Nicholas, John-Nicholas) was born 15 Apr 1840 in Hedgesville, Berkeley Co., VA, and died 18 Sep 1922 in Germantown, Philadelphia Co., PA, at George Nugent Home. He married Mary Anna Walton Ott 26 Nov 1863 in Pencader Hundred, New Castle Co., DE, daughter of Stephen Ott and Jane Krewson. She was born 29 Oct 1842 in Germantown, Philadelphia Co., PA, and died 18 Feb 1917 in Saltillo, Huntingdon Co., PA, at their Pine Street home on a Sunday.

Notes for Rev. Daniel Jacob Reese Strayer:
Daniel Jacob Reese Strayer was born April 15, 1840, in Martinsburg, Berkeley Co., VA, to Jacob Seibert Strayer and Sarah Ann O'Brien. On April 15, 1861, Daniel became 21 years old; April 16, 1861, Virginia passed the Act of Secession and only a few days later on April 19, 1861, he joined J.E.B. Stuart's First Virginia Cavalry, Company B, which became known as the Black Horse Cavalry.

Hardesty's History of Berkeley Co., VA, p. 183:

"THE BLACK HORSE CAVALRY— The renowned Black Horse Cavalry figured frequently during the war, in Berkeley and Jefferson Co.'s. Their organization commenced in Fauquier Co., VA, June 18, 1859. The first service which the command was ordered to perform, was to report to Governor Henry A. Wise, at Charlestown, VA, at which point were being collected the volunteer companies of the State, to insure the execution of John Brown and his associates. A detachment of this company escorted the prisoners to the place of execution, while the rest of the command was employed in keeping the streets clear; for it was feared, even to the last moment, that an attempt would be made to rescue Brown. The day before the ordinance of secession was passed by Virginia (April 16, 1861), orders were received by Lieutenant Robert Randolph, commanding the Black Horse Cavalry, and by Captain Turner Ashby, of the "Mountain Rangers," to assemble their respective commands and proceed at once to Harpers Ferry, for the purpose of capturing the stores and munitions of war stored there. After remaining there for several days on picket duty, they were ordered on similar service to Berlin Bridge. They took a prominent part in the battle of Manassas, and soon afterward were selected as the body guard of General Joseph E. Johnston. Jackson was accompanied by this cavalry in his expedition to Williamsport, Martinsburg and Harpers Ferry. They continued in the service during the entire war and became renowned for their exploits."

Aler's History of Martinsburg and Berkeley County, West Virginia, page 236-240:
Company "B", First Regiment, Virginia Cavalry- Berkeley County

His Confederate War records state that Daniel had lost his horse and was wounded in the arm at First Manassas (Bull Run) on June 21, 1861 and had left the area and returned to his home (without permission) reporting himself unfit for duty from July 1861 through August 1861. For September and October 1861, he was listed as absent and still on furlough for wound, no horse in service, in addition, he was reported to have been paid October 31, 1861. He returned to his duties by November 1st, 1861 replaced his horse on December 6, 1861, and was paid on December 31, 1861. January and February of 1862, he was present. March and April of 1862, Daniel was present and paid on March 31, 1862, he was also re-enlisted on February 11, 1862. During May 1862 he must have lost the second horse in a skirmish, there are no records, but in July and August 1862, Daniel was listed as absent from the company but on daily duty assigned to drive an ambulance wagon. September 10, 1862, Daniel was captured at Berryville, VA, no horse in service. He was later reported paroled, this may have been at Berryville, VA. November and December 1862 records say that he is absent, captured and paroled but had no horse in service. January, February, March and April of 1863, Daniel is declared absent without leave, captured and paroled at Berryville, VA, but since exchanged and failed to report. The remaining Confederate war record, of 1863, listed him as deserted.

Apparently, however, Daniel took his parole seriously; he next appeared at the Second Baptist Church of Wilmington, DE, on June 26, 1863, where he was baptized and received into membership. On August 28, 1863, he applied for lay preacher status (which was granted as a license to preach for one year). He must have impressed the congregation and the ministerial staff, because on November 15, 1863, a council was constituted to examine him for the ministry and later ordination. In addition, he was courting Mary Anna Walton Ott, daughter of Reverend Stephen and Jane (Krewson) Ott, who lived on a farm in the Pencader Hundred near Wilmington, DE. His older brother, Webster, came up from Alexandria, VA, where he was ministering at a Protestant Methodist church, to perform the marriage of Daniel and Mary Anna, on November 26, 1863, during the week between the ordination council and his actual ordination which took place December 1, 1863.

With the end of the Civil War, the south or any new states formed from the south were bitter places to live, in fact, Daniel's father Jacob (and his wife Sarah Ann and the younger children), had to move to the Bolivar Twp., Jefferson Co. area of West Virginia, in order to make a living. They even boarded ministers in their home during this time (Census record of 1870). That Bolivar Twp. location was about thirty miles southeast of Martinsburg, WV, only a few miles from Harper's Ferry where John Brown's Raid was so stoutly stopped by J.E.B. Stuart, in 1859, (that was before Stuart had resigned from the U.S. Army). Eventually, by the 1880 census, Daniel's mother was able to purchase a small 15 1/2 acre farm at Berkeley Station, north of Martinsburgh, where they retired. Daniel and Mary Anna remained in the Wilmington, DE, area through the birth of their first son, Franklin Reese, in May of 1865. Shortly thereafter, Daniel accepted a charge at Colrain Baptist Church, Lancaster Co., PA, and also simultaneously served Beulah Baptist Church, of Russelville, Chester, Co., PA. These churches were less than fifteen miles apart on opposite banks of Octoraro Creek and the creek doubles as the county line. This was his first official pastorate with Centre Baptist Association and lasted from January 1865 through 1866. Beulah Baptist Church donated a beautiful leather bound pulpit bible to Daniel and in it are recorded the marriages, births and deaths in his family over the next one hundred thirty five years.

In 1866 and 1867 Daniel served as full time pastor at East Nantmeal Baptist Church and part time pastor at Windsor Baptist Church, Eagle, PA, both in Chester Co. On April 18, 1868, Daniel became full time pastor at Windsor Baptist Church and from 1869 to 1870 he supervised the construction of a new church building. Daniel resigned from Windsor Baptist Church on October 30, 1871.

From 1871 to 1873, DJR was pastor at Lower Providence Church and lived at Eagleville, Chester Co. Minutes of the Pennsylvania Baptist Convention list DJR as pastor of Abington Valley and Benton Churches, in 1874, residing at Dalton in Luzerne Co., PA, and in 1875, residing in Hawley, Wayne Co., PA. It is probable that DJR and Mary Anna introduced his younger brother Israel to Nancy Phillips, of Luzerne Co., in this period and that Daniel performed their marriage ceremony. From December 12, 1875, DJR was serving at Radnor Baptist Church, and living at Luella, Delaware Co., PA.

From the Minutes of the Three Springs Baptist Church, Huntingdon Co., PA, which were located in the possession of the Mt. Union, PA, Baptist Church, and returned to the current pastor in 1983-1984:

"March 1877, Elder DJR Strayer was paid $10.00 for a visit from Radnor Baptist Church, Delaware, PA. On March 18, 1877 the churches in the Shirleysburg group sent a formal call to Rev. Strayer offering an annual salary of $250.00 (apparently $250 from each church in the group as $250 was the share for Three Springs alone). June 9, 1877 Brother Strayer chaired the monthly meeting."

By November 1877, the family was installed in a parsonage at Shirleysburg, Huntingdon Co., PA, and Daniel also served her daughter churches at Three Springs, Orbisonia, Saltillo and Broad Top. Their son Daniel Dawn was born while they lived at Shirleysburg; he died; he was buried in the Old Baptist Cemetery, at the edge of the McVitty plot. His tombstone is the typical child's lamb tombstone of the period. The McVitty family was involved in the tannery business in both Huntingdon Co. and Mifflin Co. of Pennsylvania.

First Baptist Church of Broad Top City

"The first preaching by a Baptist clergyman in Broad Top City was on the 28th day of October 1861, when Rev. William H. Purdy visited the place and preached in the school house. At that time Paul Ammerman and his wife were the only Baptists here. Mr. Purdy afterwards labored here successfully, and on the 22nd of March 1862, a church was organized under the above title. Of this society Isaac Trout was chosen deacon, Paul Ammerman treasurer, W.J. Ammerman clerk and George Evans sexton. In addition to these Mrs. Paul Ammerman and David Persing were constituent members.

The society worshiped in the school house till the completion of their present church edifice, which was dedicated November 10, 1863. It is a wooden structure, with a seating capacity of three hundred, and the cost was fifteen hundred dollars.

The pastors have been Rev. William B. Purdy till 1864, then T.C. Gessford till 1866, J.D. Thomas till 1869, J.W. Evans till 1875 and the present pastor D.J.R. Strayer.

The Price Family, Page 203, printed from genealogylibrary.com, February 20, 1999:

"Rev. D.J.R. Strayer performed marriage on Jan. 11, 1877, of A. Rinewalt Supplee, b. East-town Twp., Chester Co., PA, March 6, 1844, and Miss Anna E. Patchell, b. July 18, 1854, to James and Elizabeth (Gravelle) Patchell. Mr. Supplee was a blacksmith and farmer. Baptist. Berwyn, PA."

During this period the Three Springs church enlarged to the point that it could independently support a pastor and DJR and family moved to Saltillo, about three miles around the base of Jack's Mountain from Three Springs, and he served Three Springs, Orbisonia and Saltillo together. DJR also supervised the construction of the Orbisonia Baptist Church (a brick structure now a hardware store) as well as the brick church that became Saltillo First Baptist Church. Daniel's brother Otho was written about in the minutes of the Three Springs church for 1877, he had been associated with the Protestant Methodist church previously but was recorded as giving a testimony of faith and being examined and ordained for the Baptist Ministry at the Three Springs Baptist Church. In 1879, Daniel bought a farm near Saltillo, Huntingdon Co., PA, on which a railroad wye for the East Broad Top Railroad was later built. He also invested in several houses and each time there was a slump in the local economy he would rent the houses and farm out and use the income to supplement his pastoral fees as he temporarily moved on to another position.

The Minutes of the Three Springs Baptist Church, recorded on April 28, 1883, showed:
Brother McCurdy as Chair, and the members voted to call an Ordination session for May 16, 1883, to make him the regular pastor, also Pastor Strayer of St Clair, Schuylkill Co., PA, was invited to participate (he gave the Right Hand of Friendship).

Per records of the Three Springs Baptist Church between April 28, 1883 and May 16, 1883, DJR was at St. Clair, Schuylkill Co., PA. The 1st English Baptist Church of Columbia Co., PA, called Daniel to serve her in 1884 and 1885. Three Springs and Saltillo extended a call to DJR, yet again, on August 28, 1885. On November 14, 1885, Pastor Strayer as Chair, he presented letters of dismissal from the 1st English Baptist Church of Bloomsburg, Columbia Co., PA. DJR remained in Saltillo from 1886 through 1888.

On May 20, 1888, DJR and family were dismissed from Three Springs/Saltillo to join Mt. Bethel Church, Northampton Co., PA. Then, in 1889 to 1893, due to the influence of the McVitty's, Daniel served the churches at Lewistown, Mill Creek and Lockport in Mifflin Co., PA.

Annual Records and Statistics of the Association Minutes of Centre Baptist Association, 1891:
"D. J. R. Strayer, pastor of Lewistown, Lockport and Mill Creek 1889 to present."
"At the afternoon Session of the Centre Baptist Association, September 3, 1891, D. J. R. Strayer was elected Moderator of Centre Association; reelected 1892."
"The Doctrinal Sermon will be preached by D. J. R. Strayer at the Hollidaysburg, PA, meeting of the Centre Baptist Association in 1892."

During these years at least three of their sons attended Bucknell University, in Lewisburg, PA. Their son Milton Philips, also at this time, was given a temporary license to preach but subsequently in 1891 appeared at West Penn Hospital in Pittsburg, PA, working as a nurse. At this time, Daniel also served as the President of the Centre Baptist Association, and it was in 1890-1891 that his son Jacob Ott went west as a Baptist home missionary to Tacoma, WA, where he died at less than 21 years of age. It is a possibility that Daniel lived on the farm at Saltillo and commuted to the Mifflin Co. churches (about 45 miles) by way of the East Broad Top Railroad and the Pennsylvania Railroad.

DJR served Cold Point Baptist Church, near Plymouth Meeting, PA, from 1893 through 1896. City of Philadelphia Directories for the years 1899, 1900 and 1901 list D. J. R. and Mary Anna's home as the George Nugent Home with the designation GTN (I believe that this stands for General Theological Needs) following. Perhaps this means he was the Director? Certainly, at this period, he was presented an engraved gold-headed cane by Moore St. Baptist Church of Philadelphia in honor of the turn of the century. From 1897 through 1901 he resided at Germantown, PA, possibly as chaplain at the Nugent Baptist Home, and additionally served on the staff of Moore Street Baptist Church, Philadelphia, PA. The Moore Street Church has evolved into a neighborhood activity center in recent years.

DJR Strayer, M, W, b. VA, age 70, M1, 47 yr, b VA, f b VA, m b MD,
When it was time to celebrate their 50th anniversary, in 1913, Daniel and Mary Anna held a large family house party at their home in Saltillo. For the occasion, Mary Anna wore the same grey silk dress she had been married wearing, in 1863, and had also worn at her 25th anniversary gathering (this was after giving birth to nine children). The instigator of the celebration was her sister Elizabeth (Ott) Gentry of Wilmington, DE, who had also been in charge of the wedding celebration in 1863. One of the prize features of the party, and other visits, was the presence on the porch of a ceiling-hung double-seated swing, which was still talked about by their grandson, Joseph Reese Strayer, in 1984. The swing had been lovingly cared for by later owners of the home and was still hanging on the porch of D.J.R.'s old house, on Pine Street, when Joseph came to visit us that year in Saltillo.

From October of 1902, until 1918, DJR was supply pastor at the Three Springs and Saltillo Churches. His wife Mary Anna died, in 1917, and it is unclear if she died during the infamous influenza epidemic of those years. The next year DJR entered the George Nugent Home for Baptists, in poor health, from his son Selbert's address in Ardmore, PA, and he remained there until he died September 18, 1922, at 82 years of age. During the last years of his life Daniel sold the Saltillo farm to his son, Selbert Irving, and property records show that Selbert's heirs lost the farm for taxes, by 1947, after he died in 1941. Daniel and Mary Anna are buried in the Saltillo Cemetery and their gravesite has a single metal tombstone that is hollow. Rumor has it that one of the town's drinking bachelors used to hide his bottle inside and escape his sister's eye to go and drink there. If this is indeed true, it must be causing D.J.R. to spin like a top -- he was renowned in the area for his forceful preaching against the liquor trade.

The newspaper write-up for his parents 50th anniversary stated that Franklin was teacher of Chemistry at and Physics at a High School in New York City in 1913. It did not mention a wife. His first wife, Fanny Marshall, was reputed to be a Quaker and to have been childless. His second wife was also named Fannie and is probably the Fannie Strayer who died at St. Peter's, Chester Co., PA, in January, 1984. Franklin's first wife is reported to be Frances Marshall, m. circa 1880, according to IGI of North America, www.FamilySearch.org, transcribed June 17, 1999, Film Number: 2078064. This record is unhelpful as there is no reference volume, page or source given.

Upon Frances's death, Uncle Frank inherited the Marshall family property which would appear to have been located at the corner of W. Goshen and Root Rd. My husband Charles and his sister Betsy recall visiting the house, which was huge to a child. There was a boxwood maze in the rear and wonder of wonders-- an elevator in the main house. This elevator was probably installed to help someone with a physical problem in the house (the house is deduced to be the home occupied by Frances' twin elder sisters (unmarried) and her younger brother Samuel (also unmarried) up until their deaths which occurred by 1929).

"The beginning of Strayer Education, Inc. can be traced to 1892, when Dr. S. Irving Strayer founded a small college in Maryland called Strayer's Business College of Baltimore City. From the beginning, the college built a solid reputation for academic excellence and student service. Over the next 110 years, the school expanded its educational programs, its enrollments, and its geographic reach as it opened 19 additional campuses in Maryland, Washington DC, Virginia, and North Carolina."

Notes for Milton Philips Krewson Strayer:

Annual Records and Statistics of the Centre Baptist Association Minutes, 1891:

Milton P. Strayer of Lewistown is listed as a Licensed Pastor
- no church given.

Milton lived in Pittsburg, PA, from around 1890-1891, until after 1910 (more than long enough to have a photograph made in East Pittsburg); at a guess, the picture shows him at around age 25-30. In 1893-4, Milton married an older woman, widowed and fundless Edna Scully McTighe who had been widowed around six months pregnant by her deceased first husband in 1891. She had had some nine children, not all of whom survived childhood. Because her father had been employed at a bank in a responsible position, her family (and especially her sisters) had pretensions of the family worth and frowned on her marriage to Milton. Milton was rejected by Edna's family who thought him of inferior lineage and funds. After Edna's death from uterine cancer, in 1906, Milton moved to California, after 1910 (by 1913), where he later died in 1917.

Milton K. Strayer was mentioned in the Pittsburg City Directory of 1904 and was working as a foreman and residing at 3289 Boquet. He and Alice moved out to a separate address in 1905-1906 and apparently moved back to have her daughter Helen's help during her final illness. Milton remained in the household through 1908. In 1909, Milton was listed at another address. Milton was mis-censused as Milton Sprayer in the 3rd Ward of Pittsburg on the 1910 Census. The news article for his parent's 50th anniversary at Thanksgiving in 1913 stated that Milton K. Strayer and his brother Charles W. Strayer, were residing in CA, but that they were unable to come for the celebration. It is possible that Milton died in the 1917 Influenza epidemic but no Obituary has yet been found. His death is recorded in San Bernardino Co., CA, a death record will be sought.

164. Rev. Otho O’Burn\(^3\) Strayer (Jacob-Seibert\(^4\), Jacob\(^3\), John-Nicholas\(^2\), John-Nicholas\(^1\)) was born 02 Aug 1848 in Hedgesville, Berkeley Co., VA, and died 16 Dec 1892 in Pittsburgh, Allegheny Co., PA, at West Penn Hosp., on a Friday. He married Maria Katherine Wootten 30 Mar 1869 in Sussex Co., DE, near Laurel at the Wootten Farm, daughter of Jacob Wootten and Mariah Hall. She was born 11 Mar 1847 in Sussex Co., DE, at Wootten Farm near Laurel, and died 20 Sep 1892 in Unknown, on a Wednesday, 10:30am.

Notes for Rev. Otho O’Burn Strayer:
Otto O’Burn Strayer was born, in the year 1848, to Jacob Seibert Strayer and Sarah Ann O’Burn. Information on him is very scarce, but has slowly accumulated. He was associated with the Protestant Methodists in his youth and early career and married, circa 1869, a young woman named Maria Catherine Wootten whose family lived near Laurel, Sussex Co., DE.

At some point a newspaper article was clipped (without header or date) quoting a talk by Rev. O.O.B. Strayer, “The Race Problem from a Christian Standpoint”, at a church conference saying that he was living at that time in Georgia (error according to Holly Weise his great-granddaughter) and proposing a special academy be built there for the education of Black students in order to train them for seminaries and colleges and be independent of all sectarianism. In connection with this, he proposed to organize a system of institutes, to be held one week in the small towns and villages throughout the State, for the purpose of arousing the interest of the Negroes in educational work. These would be followed by courses of home studies and the founding of libraries wherever it was possible.

1870 Census of Somerset Co., MD, Potato Neck District, PO Marion, MD, compiled August 2, 1870:
Strayer, Otha O.B., age 22, MW, Minister of the Gospel,
no property or personal estate, b. VA
Maria C., age 21, FW, Housekeeping, b. DE
Nellie, age 4/12, b. DE
Note: Nick name was Mellie but the name Nellie was used as well.

Per Holly Hoofnagle Weise, O.O.B. Strayer’s great-granddaughter, Otto and his family resided in Philadelphia, PA, in 1872, and she has his financial expense journal of that year.

Prior to 1877 there is some evidence, in the “History of Fayette, Co., Pennsylvania”, publ. circa 1893, pp. 249-250, that Otto was a circuit rider for the Methodist Episcopals of Salt Lick Twp., Fayette County, PA, specifically, the Indian Creek Circuit of the Pittsburgh Conference of the Evangelical Association, which embraced the McClellan school-house class, Poplar Run in Springfield, Mount Pisgah and Stauffer in Bullskin.

He went to visit his brother Daniel at Saltillo, Huntingdon Co., PA, in 1877, and was there ordained to the Baptist ministry. Transcribed from the Minutes of the Three Springs Baptist Church of December 23, 1877, and December 25, 1877: “At a special church meeting held at the Baptist house of worship at Saltillo, December 23, 1877, Pastor Strayer in Chair and Sam’l McVitty appointed Secretary pro-tem. On motion it was unanimously resolved that the Three Springs Church grant license to our brother O.O.B. Strayer who was recently received into fellowship with us and whose ministerial connection was formerly with the Protestant Methodist Church. Resolved that this church hereby agree to call a Council of Ministers and Delegates from the Churches comprising the Centre Association and to meet with the Three Springs Baptist Church, January 8, 1878, for the purpose of ordaining to the Gospel Ministry our brother Elder O.O.B. Strayer. December 25, 1877. According to the above Resolution have written out Bro. O.O.B. Strayer’s License to Preach and handed it over to him.” Later entry: Rev. O.O.B. Strayer received by baptism December 23, 1877, dismissed by letter.
June 10, 1878. Records of the minutes of the Pennsylvania Baptist Convention list an O.O.B. Strayer in 1878 at Dawson Station, Fayette Co., PA.

1880 Census of PA, Red Stone PO, Fayette Co.:
Strayer, Otho O., age 38, born WV
Kate, age 32, born DE (conflicting name)
Melba, age 10, daughter, born VA
( conflicting name and birth state)
Otho C., age 8, son, born VA
Firmian, age 6, son, born VA
Rose, age 4, daughter, born VA

Otho is listed by the Centre Baptist Association as serving the Red Stone Baptist Church, near Brownsville, in 1880. Quoting from "The History of Fayette County, Pennsylvania", publ. circa 1893, page 737, Redstone Township:
"Circa 1847, Redstone Baptist Church was built at the junction of Colvin's Run and Redstone Creek. An inscription on the front of the structure states "Regular Baptist Meetinghouse". The last pastor was Rev. O.O.B. Strayer, who relinquished the charge in November, 1880. In April, 1881, the membership was thirty-eight."

Otho B Strayer; insurance; 1719 W. Lanvale, Baltimore, MD; 1890 Substitute Census

In the following letter, to his daughter Mellie, Otho mentions that he is a published author and recommends that she publish more of his works to gain further moneys to support the family. Mellie was a trained nurse, a statement transmitted to me by Holly Weise her granddaughter. This is verified on the 1930 Census where her occupation is Nurse.

Transcribed letter to Mellie in late 1891:

Dear Mellie=

In case of my death without any other provision for my family, I want you to go over the "Free Lance", and my other published and unpublished mss., and get out a volume. The enclosed slip will help you in selection. Of course, everything I ever wrote was crude- necessarily so under the circumstances- but there is enough character in it to make a large volume.

Rev. S.T. Mitchell will help you to revise it, I am sure, and the American people will buy it. Get out a large 500 page volume to sell for $2.00 and sell it yourself. Any respectable publisher will bring you out such a volume for $1.00. Get out $10,000, that leaves you something for expenses and something to bring up the younger children on. The papers will all require some revision, as, apart from their crudity, there are typographical errors and allusions to current affairs which need to be cut out.

Now, again,- The stories I have mentioned-- "Flesh & Blood" and the 8 shorter stories-- should go in by all means. Also the poems. Also "Bottom Facts", "Letters From a Workingman", "From the Clouds to the Clods", "October Days", and "Country Days".

The rest is a matter of selection. Though some of my Free Lance Editorials should be included, such as "Want To Be Helped", "The Duty of Gov't to Buy Every Poor Young Woman a Piano", "People Blasts", etc.

This communication is strictly for you, Rev. S.T. Mitchell, Rev. A.J. Rowland, your mother, Otho and Arthur.

I have been frail and sick Mellie, for 35 years; ever since I was 8 years old. I have worked under circumstances that few men could or would have stood up under. You must know how often I came home half dead from one kind of work only to take up another & different kind.

I can't stand it any longer. I'm worn out. Good night & good bye.

Otho O'B. Strayer
An inventory in Otho's hand listing his published works by category:

Jan. 24, 1891

Essays: „From the Clouds to the Clods“, „A Study of Celibacy“, „October Days“, „Country Days“, „Bottom Facts“ (5 parts), etc.

Editorial: „Why Face the Fact?“, „On the Folly of One's Trying to be Somebody Else“, „Ex Post Facto People“, „Crony Club Colloquies“ series, „Letters From a Working Man to Working Men“ (several parts), „Concerning Some Lost Virtues“, etc.

Attached notes to the above list:
Three volumes may be made of the above: One of Poems; one of stories; and one of essays; or all may be put in one great octavo volume and sold by subscription. If published in latter form, they will make about 800 or so pages and should be printed & bound for about $1.25 & sold at $3.00. If sold directly, that will be a profit of $1.75 per vol.
If in three volumes, put price at about $1.50, so as to leave a royalty of about $.40 to $.50 per vol. About 4 volumes would be better.

Note: of Otho's published works only two are at present in the hands of his descendent Holly H. Weise- a poem „Life Thoughts“ and the (slightly less than 3,000 word) short story „Uncle Cy's Christmas“.

Transcribed from a letter of Otho O'Burn Strayer to his eldest daughter Mellie (Malvinah).

325 6th St. Wash. D.C.
Feb. 18, '92 (he was to die on Dec. 16, 1892)

My dear Mellie—
Enclosed find an assignment of my insurance policy originally with the name of your mother as beneficiary. The policy is in the hands of your grandmother Strayer. I make this assignment- or rather your mother makes it- for the reason that you mother is not in a condition physically or mentally, to care for that amount of money. (She was to die as well in September of 1892)
Mellie, this puts my insurance, $5,000, in case of my death, absolutely in your hands. Of course, it is as trustee. The understanding being that THE ONLY claim to be paid out of it is that of your Uncle Isaac Wootten for $125, less such an amount as I may hold his obligation for at the time of my decease, which is at present $25-
You are to be trustee, remember, (illegible, missing paragraph) that I am in a very precarious state of health; so much so, indeed, that I dare not even mention it to your mother, who thinks, poor girl, that she has all the sickness herself. I may live to be 10 years older than your grandfather; I may not live over night.
In any event, my dear girl, I am the same old papa I used to be when (remainder lost)

Transcript of the Assignment of the Insurance Policy.
Wash. D.C. Feb. 18th, 1892
The conditions of the above assignment are that the said Malvina R. Strayer shall receive, hold and invest the proceeds of the aforesaid policy of $5,000 in trust for Mrs. M. K. Strayer and her children, Malvina R., Otho O'B., Luther F., Arthur F., Raleigh L., and Bertha R., in such a way as shall secure them a house and support, and shall be and is hereby exempt from any and all legal costs of administration provided for by the state of Pennsylvania or any other state or territory of the United States.

Witnessed: Etta Cerdigen Maria C. Strayer [LS]
Otho O'B. Strayer [LS]

At the time of his death, in December of 1892, Otho had apparently moved away from the Baltimore, MD, area. Perhaps he was living in southern Delaware near Kate's family or else near Washington, DC, as that is where his assignment of his insurance policy took place. It appears that he may have visited or lived in Pittsburg, PA, in December 1892, where he fell into a final illness, as there is some indication that his nephew, Milton P.K. Strayer, may have been living and working there in 1892.

Notes for Maria Katherine Wootten:
Transcribed letter of Maria Katherine Wootten Strayer to her sister-in-law Sarah Dallas Strayer:

Locksley Hall
May 4, 1870

Dear Sister Dallie,

Little did I think it would be so long before I would write, when we parted at the depot, I expected to write immediately after my arrival at Jamestown, and should have done so had not my better-half relieved me by writing himself. I have not had many open moments in which to write. Maria St. Paul (b. March 21, 1870, at Bolivar near Harper's Ferry, WV, later christened Malvinah Ruskin) keeps me engaged most all the day, she is very good at night sleeps some nights all night, she is growing nicely, getting to be quite interesting, takes notice and laughs nicely, tell Mother she would hardly know her little grand-daughter, she has not been sick but two or three days since we came home, and that was owing to the cows milk. I have stopped giving her cows milk. I feed her grated crackers once or twice in a day. I could not get the milk regular and thought it best to stop entirely. I am well and enjoying myself very well.

We came to house keeping the next Wednesday after I came home. The house is large enough but has no convenience about it, no cupboard at all, use a closet under the stairs with shelves nailed up against the steps, have to keep the victuals in cheese boxes to keep the mice out. The people are very kind, the day we went to keeping house we had beef, bread, butter, coffee, several other articles I can't just mention and a day or so following we received pies, butter, three dozen eggs, two loaves of nice bread and ten lb of smoked beef. Mrs. Lockerman sends me milk most every day & Otho helps himself to that- he is looking quite well and is getting along very well preaching twice a day to the same people right-nicely. I think he improves all the time, we have been out twice to spend the day and expect to go again on Wednesday, and several other days soon. The people here are all right-well to do people, live in nice comfortable style. I have not served any since I came home, but shall have to very soon or stay at home. I have a servant-at-present, she mite stay a month or so. I shall have to stop and take Maria, Sadie is doing her best—but all—to no avail.

I will again attempt to write. Otho has just returned from church and it is getting time to retire so you see I shall not get time to write much more. I will now tell you how I made-out getting home. I arrived at Baltimore all right side up, baby fretted a little while I was getting out of the cars but did not fret longer. I took a carriage over the coast, Mr. Willson met me at the carriage and conducted me to the boat—I was very warm and felt much fatigued. I was some sick at night on the boat—it was very ruff. The boat rocked badly, every lady was sick but me. The same maid that was on the "Sue" is on the "Maggie". I saw Mr. Goins passing through the boat at Crisfield, took the cars for Westover early in the morning, found Mr. Strayer waiting at the depot; he had just received my letter in time to read it. Bro. Willson was at the cars. I was introduced to him, he got several subscriptions for the college at ?Galem station. We received a box of fruits from Bro. Webster last week which was very acceptable, he said Webbie had been sick for two weeks and had fallen off considerably, Mattie was not well neither was he, did not-service his pulpit on Sunday.

How are you getting along house cleaning? & how are you & the "Eichelberger" getting along? tell me all the news when you write—what you have done & what you intend doing, has Bobbie gone yet? Otho wrote to him but has not heard from him, give my love to Mother and all the family. How is Maggie getting along? Give her my love, I shall have to close, write very soon and excuse all the mistakes is the request of your sister.

P.S. Otho sends love is much pleased with his salt-dishes. My jelly was all right.

165. Rev. Israel Robinson Strayer (Jacob-Seibert, Jacob, John-Nicholas, John-Nicholas) was born Abt. 1853 in Hedgesville, Berkeley Co., VA, and died Bet. 1900 - 1933 in Missionary location in southern Africa. He married (1) Nancy Phillips Bet. 1874 - 1875 in Luzerne/Lackawanna Co., PA, daughter of Andrew Phillips and Betsy Reynolds. She was born Abt. 1852 in Benton Twp., Luzerne Co., PA, and died Abt. 1878 in Scranton, Lackawanna Co., PA. He married (2) SecondWife Aft. 1880.

1881 Minutes of Pennsylvania Baptist Convention:
I.R. Strayer, Parker City, Armstrong Co., PA
Per his grandnieces notes, Uncle "Robbie" remarried and spent much of the remainder of his life as a missionary in South Africa or other African areas. Query made to Baptist historical group was returned with the statement that the Baptist denominations did not, in the 1885-1900 period, have missionaries to South Africa. This suggests a change of denomination, possibly a return to Methodism as he had studied at the Western Maryland Methodist College, in Carroll Co., MD. The author believes that, post 1884, Israel Robinson Strayer returned to his Methodist roots and volunteered for the African Mission. This will be followed up with further research. Africa Inland Missions which services East Africa was founded in 1895, they have no record of any Strayers serving. This leaves the Methodists and Presbyterians as possible missionary sponsors.

The 1900 Census for Robbie's mother Sarah A. Strayer said that she had 5 living and 4 dead children; by this calculation Robbie was still alive in 1900; his sister Mary's obituary in 1933 (she raised his son Charles) stated that she was the last remaining child of her generation; therefore, Robbie died between 1900 and 1933.

Marriage Notes for Israel Strayer and Nancy Phillips:
Israel and Nancy are suspected to have been introduced by and married by Israel's older brother Daniel J.R. Strayer. In the Minutes of the Pennsylvania Baptist Convention there is a listing for DJR as pastor of Abington Valley and Benton Churches, in 1874, residing at Dalton in Luzerne Co., PA, and in 1875, residing in Hawley, Wayne Co., PA. By December, of 1875, DJR was in Delaware Co., PA.

E-mail received 11/12/2005 from Heather Hill Nadauld great-niece to the ladies mentioned:
Dear Glenda,
Hen or Henderson Emanuel contracted a fever on his world cruise as a young man in Africa.
He wasn't able to have children and wouldn't adopt. Martha never let on that it was he and not her infertility that was the problem. They were delightful people and had lots of friends and traveled all over the world. He had a retirement house on the eastern shore of Maryland. And that's where Martha died. She went out for a swim and had a heart attack.

Hilda Kronmiller and Reginald Norman Lawrence never had children either.

Hope this helps, Heather

The National Cyclopedia of American Biography, Volume XXI. STRAYER, Paul Moore, clergyman, was born at Edesville, Md., Dec. 30, 1871, son of Rev. Webster Matthew and Martha (Bevan) Strayer, is a descendant of John Strayer (Hannes Stroeher), who came from Starkenburg, Sponheim, Germany, in 1727, and settled in Pennsylvania His father was a prominent Methodist minister. Paul Moore Strayer was graduated at Baltimore City College in 1892, taught school for several years, and later studied at the University of Chicago, the Divinity School of Yale University, where he received the B. D. degree in 1903; the University of Edinburgh and the University of Bonn. He was ordained to the ministry of the Methodist Protestant church and was pastor of the First Methodist Protestant church, Pittsburgh, Pa., 1897-98; supply pastor at Sommers, Conn., 1898-99, supply pastor of the Crouch Hill Presbyterian Church, London, England, for several months in 1900, on his trip abroad for study; and pastor of the First Congregational Church, South Norwalk, Conn., 1900-03. In 1903 he became pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church, Rochester, N. Y., and remained there until impaired health forced him to retire in 1925, when he was made pastor emeritus. Dr. Strayer developed various important social agencies at Rochester, in addition to ministering with great success to the spiritual needs of his congregation. Out of the "People’s Sunday Evening" meetings, an open forum for non-church attendants, which he established in 1908, and at which duplication and waste in charitable effort were disclosed, grew the United Charities of Rochester and the Provident Loan Association, for the benefit of persons of small means, for which Dr. Strayer raised $25,000 as a part of its capital. In 1912 he organized a social service department in his church in which various problems affecting the public welfare were given intensive study. Among the results of its work were the establishment of a psychopathic clinic by the city bureau of health, the development of a project to found a farm for inebriates, and opening of Rochester public school buildings in the evening for adults, for social purposes, lectures and music. In the World war, Dr. Strayer was a member of the general war time commission of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ, and of its regional food commission; was Y.M.C.A. religious director at the army camp at Spartansburg, S. C., and later at the "Old Hickory" powder plant, Nashville, Tenn. Dr. Strayer was the fraternal delegate from the Ministerial Association of Rochester to the Trades and Labor Council, in which capacity he was instrumental in adjusting various labor disputes. He was also president of the social service commission of the Presbyterian church in 1917-19 was a director of the International Reform Bureau and the Hillside School for Orphans, Rochester, a member of the Commission Government Association and an official visitor to the State Industrial and Agricultural School at Industry, N. Y. He was one of the founders and the first president, serving three terms, of the Rochester City Club and was a member also of the Genesee Valley Club, Rochester Ad Club, Alpha Chi Club and the Rochester Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Strayer was the author of “Reconstruction of the Church with Regard to Its Message and Program” (1915); “Outline Studies of the Reconstruction Period” (1918) which was widely used by the Presbyterian Home Mission Board, the Y. M. C. A. and the Federal Council of Churches; “A Sheaf of Prayers” (1926) and “Miniature Sermons” (1928), besides many pamphlets, articles, and published sermons. He was an enthusiastic exponent of practical Christianity and the author of many constructive suggestions respecting the duties and opportunities of the church to perform social service. At the same time, he was a man of rare scholarship and thoughtfulness. He was resourceful, energetic, unselfish, patient, and considerate, and had a genius for discovering the hidden capabilities of men. The University of Rochester conferred upon him the honorary degree of D. D. in 1915. In commemoration of his twenty-two years of service as minister of the Third Presbyterian Church, an echo organ with chimes was presented to the church by Mrs. Strayer as a centennial gift in 1927. He was twice married: (1) Oct. 11, 1899, to Beulah, daughter of Jarrett Nelson Gilbert, of Baltimore, Md., who died in 1903, leaving a son, Paul Gilbert Strayer; (2) May 15, 1912, to Emily Betts Loomis, daughter of Edward Richmond Betts of Brooklyn, N.Y. Dr. Strayer died in Rochester, N.Y., Apr. 3, 1929.

Paul kept up a cycle of lifelong correspondence and visits with his first cousin Malvinah Strayer Hoofnagle. Their ages were about the same and apparently they were well acquainted as children. In a letter dated March 24, 1908, he thanked Mellie and her husband Will for an overnight stay at Glen Ridge and mentioned that his "folks" would have joined him in sending their love but were in Baltimore. A letter dated December 14, 1912, chided her for not taking better care of herself and said that "she was a professional and should not expect any untrained member of the family to see what you do not recognize yourself."

530. George Drayton Strayer Sr (Daniel Jacob Reese, Jacob-Seibert, Jacob, John-Nicholas, John-Nicholas) was born 29 Nov 1876 in Wayne, Delaware Co., PA, and died 30 Sep 1962 in Princeton, Mercer Co., NJ. He married Cora Elizabeth Bell 17 Sep 1903 in Aisquith Street Presbyterian Church, Baltimore, Baltimore Co., MD, daughter of Joseph Bell and Elizabeth Johnston. She was born May 1871 in Cambridge, Guernsey Co., OH, and died 01 Feb 1957 in Princeton, Mercer Co., NJ.

Notes for George Drayton Strayer Sr:
George Drayton Strayer, Sr, was born November 29, 1876, to Daniel Jacob Reese Strayer and Mary Anna Walton Ott, at Wayne, near Media, PA, this was during Daniel's ministry at Radnor Baptist Church of Delaware, PA. After completing his high school years, George taught school at Plymouth Meeting, PA, from his 17th year in 1893 for 7 years total until 1900. When he had accumulated enough savings he attended Bucknell University at Lockhaven, PA, for one academic year, 1896-97, taking preparatory work toward a degree in medicine. Later he transferred these credits to Johns Hopkins University and continued his medical studies while working at Strayer Business College which had been started in Baltimore, MD, by his older brother Seibert Irving around 1900. During this period George experienced something of an epiphany and realized that his true calling was to be an educator of teachers. He changed his major and wound up becoming a Doctor of Education instead of a Doctor of Medicine.

Letter dated November 15, 1983 from Susan DeWald, Records, Bucknell University, Lewisburg, PA:
George Drayton Strayer
Home: Plymouth Meeting, PA
Entered: 1896, for one year

On September 17, 1903 George married Cora Elizabeth Bell daughter of Joseph Barrett and Elizabeth (Johnston) Bell of Baltimore, MD, at the Aisquith Street Presbyterian Church of Baltimore. Their first son Joseph Reese Strayer was born in Baltimore on August 20, 1904. The New York City Directory by TROW for the year 1904 (down to July 1, 1905, p. 1319, lists George D. Strayer, student, living at 528 W. 123rd St. By 1907, George was teaching at Teachers College of Columbia University in New York City. The Ellis Island website lists a G. D. Strayer as an arriving passenger on the ship "Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse" from Southampton, Southamptonshire, England, on September 18, 1907. The New York City Directory for 1912-1913, p. 1535, lists George D. Strayer, Professor, working at 525 W. 120th St., he lived at 531 W. 124th St. Shortly thereafter, he invested in property in the new Riverdale suburban development where he built a large home at 417 W. 246th Streer. The home was soon filled with the shenanigans of four rambunctious sons and they were put in the care of a French nursemaid. Their son Joseph credited his facility with the French language and his guest professor status with the Sorbonne in Paris, France to the efforts of Mamselle. George's career was flourishing and eventually he became chairman of the Department of Administrative Education at Columbia. Cora was a whiz at organizing the department "Teas" and her grandson Charles recalled that her recipe for coffee for these occasions involved two large copper wash boilers and several pounds of coffee and produced an excellent tasting product. However, the results were so strong that many of the guests added a half-cup of boiling water to their cups in order to drink what was still a very tasty product. Charles also recalled her famous molasses cookies that were produced in quantity for these occasions, the author can also testify to their flavor as Cora had allowed her recipe to be published.
Nicholas Strayer of Chanceford and Berkeley

in a faculty wives cookbook; curiously, this recipe is still found on the green label jars of “Grandma’s Molasses,” the ingredient the recipe stressed.

When George’s financial affairs prospered he invested in a farm on Moultonboro Neck, opposite Glynes Island, at Lake Winnipesaukee, NH. A huge summerhouse with sleeping porches was built and the tradition of spending the summer months in New Hampshire was born. Eventually all of his sons married and both Joseph and Jack built their own summer homes there on the lakeshore. George Jr and his wife, Mabel, had relocated to Washington state and so upon George Sr’s death the “big” house was passed on to Paul’s widow “Boo”.

After his retirement, Dr. Strayer became a consultant in planning the expansion of facilities for higher education in state universities and colleges.
He completed a study for the New Jersey Board of Education last spring on ways of dealing with the state's increasing college population. His 79-page report was entitled "The Needs of New Jersey
The principal findings were that New Jersey's full-time student population would more than double by 1970 and that this pressure on public institutions would require a minimal capital outlay of
Nicholas Strayer of Chanceford and Berkeley

$135,000,000.

He had previously made a similar study for California in which he prepared a plan for revising the state's system of higher education. It involved upgrading the state colleges and establishing new branches of the state university.

Studied 50 Cities

Dr. Strayer directed studies of schools in more than 50 American cities, including Chicago, Boston, New York, Baltimore, St. Louis, Pittsburgh and St. Paul.

He was co-author with Clifford B. Upton of a series of textbooks in mathematics for elementary and junior high schools.

Dr. Strayer was a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and in 1918 and 1919 president of the National Education Association.

In 1923 he received the Butler silver medal from Columbia, which is given annually to an outstanding educator.

Dr. Strayer began teaching at the age of 17 in a one-room schoolhouse in Plymouth Meeting, Pa., to earn money to attend college. He taught there for seven years before entering Johns Hopkins University. He was graduated in 1903.

He received a Ph.D. from Columbia in 1905 and held honorary degrees from five colleges. The most recent was conferred this year by Paterson State College.

Surviving are three sons, Dr. Joseph R. Strayer, professor of history at Princeton University, Dr. George D. Strayer Jr., professor of education at the University of Washington in Seattle, and John F. Strayer of Alfren, Me., seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

John Franklin Strayer was born on November 18, 1908, to George Drayton Strayer and Cora Elizabeth Bell. He died April 2, 1981, at Chapel Hill, NC, where he and his second wife had retired. Jack, as he was called, had one of the first early pilot's licenses in the USA. He had no children with his first wife Scotty or with his wife Dorothy as well. At various times in his life Jack owned several different businesses, i.e. a swimming pool, a radio station. He was a test pilot during WW II and in the later years of his life Jack was the pilot of the PEPSICO executive jet and retired only with the age deadline for professional piloting. He piloted the stunt bi-plane that PEPSICO used in the 'Marry-Me-Sue' TV commercial in the early1970's, before his official retirement.

"On 19 September 1955 the Model C-1 Skimmer was approved by the FAA, under Type Certificate No: 1A13. The production C-1 Skimmer had a 150 hp engine and 2/3 seats. During 1957 the C-1 Skimmer was improved and developed into Model C-2 Skimmer IV. An 180 hp engine was installed, the cockpit was redesigned to accommodate four seats (giving the "IV" designation), the horizontal tail surfaces were redesigned for added area, the wing floats were modified, and structural improvements were made to the engine pylon and the wings for increased gross weight. The C-2 Skimmer was approved on 24 December 1957, under ATC # 1A13. During 1958 total employment at Colonial reached 275 people. A total 23 C-1 Skimmers and 20 C-2 Skimmer IVs had been built by Colonial, when the company was sold. In 1959 Thurston sold the Skimmer program to JACK STRAYER, a Colonial distributor and a former Grumman test pilot. JACK STRAYER formed Lake Aircraft and developed the Skimmer into Lake model LA-4 by increasing wing span by 4 feet, each aileron lengthened by 1 foot, 17 inches were added to the bow, rear wing-to-fuselage attachment was revised, gross weight was increased, and stretching the fuselage by 2 feet. However, sales were slow and in 1962 STRAYER sold the rights to John Dalton, after only about 20 were built. Dalton formed Consolidated Aeronautics, but was unsuccessful in funding production. At this stage Herbert P. Lindblad got together with Merlin L. (Al) Alson and acquired the rights - forming Lake Aircraft Corporation."

"In 1973 Alan Pottasch and JACK STRAYER of Pepsi began a search for old skywriters and found N434N still with Andy Stinis. They intended to display it at the Pepsi corporate headquarters in Purchase, New York, however, STRAYER, a former skywriter, soon persuaded Pepsi to install navigation and communications equipment and tour it once again. In 1977, STRAYER hired Peggy Davies as a second pilot and then, in 1980, when Davies became a Pepsi corporate pilot, STRAYER hired Suzanne Asbury. Pepsi also gave the aircraft a bright red, white, and blue paint scheme. STRAYER died in 1981 and, in 1982, Steve Oliver joined Asbury as a second pilot for the Pepsi aircraft fleet that included N434P, another 1929 Travel Air. In 2000, Suzanne and Steve Oliver suggested that the aircraft should be retired for safety's sake, and Pepsi-Cola Company donated it to the National Air and Space Museum. The Pepsi Skywriter is currently on loan to the Aviation Museum of Kentucky, but it will be displayed at the Steven F. Udvar-Hazy Center at Dulles Airport."

CORPORATE AIRMEN KEEP PEPSICO ALOFT
Quoted from the September, 1973, Volume 4, No. 8, issue of PepsiCoINK
Nicholas Strayer of Chanceford and Berkeley

Article by Janine Coren

"Leaping tall buildings with a single bound is fairly routine for veteran pilot JACK STRAYER, a member of PepsiCo's "air force." A noteworthy career that includes everything aeronautic from test piloting to skywriting to acrobatics furnishes Mr. STRAYER with all the experience he needs for such stunts as his daring take-off during the Bolshoi Ballet picnic.".............."Early in his highly unusual career, JACK spent a good part of his weekends flying upside down and sideways for delighted crowds while "hauling passengers" to various local sightseeing spots. Using an empty field as a landing strip, JACK would drop off his rider to take in the town and pick him up again when the money or excitement ran out. His self-taught aerobatics routine was used to draw crowds to the airport—thus encouraging more of this type of tourism. Among the first to operate a float plane, JACK, in 1937, chartered out his own to fly passengers to the best fishing and hunting spots around, landing right on the water.".............."As an educator in the Army Air Force prior to WW II, JACK helped turn ordinary pilots into official instructors, accumulating 1070 hours of Army flying time. Then, in 1942, he became chief test pilot of Grumman Aircraft Engineering Corporation, the main supplier of planes to the Navy at that time. In a job that would turn most men prematurely gray, JACK's test flight program included examination of fighters, bombers, and amphibians (land and water planes). JACK had his share of mishaps.".............."During one hair-raising flight, the thick Plexiglas cockpit cover flew off at the speed of 400 mph slammed into the tail and tore off a chunk. At the first feeling of the change in the controls, JACK reduced speed with extreme care to avoid creating damaging stresses on the plane, and brought it home safely. Then there was the time during the freezing dead of winter that his engine just quietly died some 3000 feet above ground. "I just stopped shaking from the cold long enough to get in," he replies calmly. Fires, engines that fell apart mid-air—"We had just about everything," he muses.".............."During such excursions, a 'stand-by' plane was always ready to help the pilot make the all-important decision of whether to abandon the aircraft altogether or try and bring her down. Risking disaster every time he took off, JACK further jeopardized his own safety by flying alongside a plane demonstrating the effect of extreme air pressure on the wings. As they came tearing off, JACK calmly brought his own plane close enough for a photographer to snap the entire spectacle.".............."After a few more adventures, JACK worked his way up to become the president of Lake Aircraft in Sanford, Maine. Aside from keeping a busy flight schedule, he supervised the factory that manufactured the plane, at the same time, he was personally redesigning it to produce a more streamlined, better functioning plane. When the company was sold, JACK went into his own business as an air taxi operator out of La Guardia, and later became a pilot for the engineering firm of Tensorex Corporation. From there, he moved on to PepsiCo Leasing. When the company relocated to Massachusetts, he found his way to Pepsi-Cola. That was roughly three years ago.".............."He now flies one of the only two 1929 Travelaires left. Originally designed for speed, it was converted for skywriting during the Thirties. The "interesting antique" is still a fast plane, JACK maintains. Aside from his flying executives to major cities in a modern corporate plane, often making as many as 20 landings and takeoffs a day and flying at least five days a week, JACK's barnstorming background made him the logical choice to perform for the visiting Russians.".............."It was all planned out in advance," he admits. He paced off the entire area on foot before his flight, and even the distance between buildings and trees was carefully measured; having someone "hand prop" the plane was also purely for enjoyment, since the plane is now outfitted with a self-starter.".............."When skywriting Pepsi, as JACK will do on behalf of bottlers around the country during the rest of his stay with the company (he retires in November), JACK straps the directions for writing the letters (backwards, of course) onto his knee. "It's the S that gets to you. It's easy to remember to do the P and E backwards. But sometimes another plane catches your eye, and before you know it, the S is coming out wrong." The plane was purchased during Pepsi-Cola's search for 75th anniversary memorabilia. Joseph Block, Vice-President for Public Relations says: "This Travelaire has already written Pepsi in the sky some 7000 times during its lifetime. Now we're putting it back to work.".............."After the reception for the Bolshoi Ballet and Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin, the group adjourned for a stroll while preparations began for the day's dramatic climax: the flight of the famous Pepsi-Cola skywriting plane, a 1929 Travelaire. Company pilot JACK STRAYER first made a couple of test taxi runs over the grounds, and then backed off to a far corner beyond the lake. He revved up, bounced through a long curving run past the onlookers, and lifted off just before Nicholas Strayer of Chanceford and Berkeley running out of lawn. Hearts stopped as he appeared headed (depending where you stood) either for the corner of Building 2 or for the encircling trees. With a last-minute bank, however, he cleared both. Soon he was back; buzzing the picnic grounds and emitting a token white scarf of smoke (FAA ceiling regulations kept him under the La Guardia traffic pattern, too low for aerial penmanship)."

SKY ARTIST

Can you hold your altitude within 10 feet and keep an exact heading?
By Alton K. Marsh (From AOPA Pilot, March 2003.)

"............"Pepsi began its historic involvement with skywriting in the early 1930s using a 1929 Travel Air D4D but shifted its advertising budget in the 1950s in favor of television. When the Travel Air later was destined for the Pepsi museum, former Pepsi skywriter "SMILIN' JACK" STRAYER flew it to Purchase, New York, landing on the company grounds. Later he talked Pepsi officials into restarting the Pepsi Skywriting program. The plane has since retired to the Aviation Museum of Kentucky in Lexington, where it awaits a spot in the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum.

"............"How did this Oregon native (Susan Asbury-Oliver) get a job as gypsy skywriter, touring the country in a comfortable motor home and rarely seeing her house in Colorado?

"............"It was 1980, the airlines were in trouble, and the pilot job market was flooded with experienced people. Pepsi ran an ad in Trade-A-Plane and The Wall Street Journal for a skywriter. She had seen STRAYER (then the Pepsi skywriter) two years earlier during the Rose Festival in Portland, Oregon. When he came to Portland-Hillsboro Airport where she was instructing, she looked on in awe. "That is so cool!" she remembers thinking. But she had no serious tailwheel qualifications. She had flown a Stearman once and was flight instructing in a Taylorcraft (and had flown a Great Lakes a couple of times) but had no time in big biplanes like the Pepsi Travel Air."

"............"Her interview included a flight in a Champ. He put me in the back and asked, 'What can you see?' I said, 'I can't see anything.' He said, 'Good, let's go.'" She flew 20 minutes, did three takeoffs and landings, and STRAYER gave her headings and altitudes. He would say, "Hold that for two minutes."............"He was seeing if I could hold an altitude and heading exactly, not 10 feet off or 5 degrees off. If you can't hold an altitude and heading you cannot skywrite. It's all going to be a mess," she recalls. ............"On her first trip skywriting, he wrote PEPSI and talked to her on the intercom while he did it. Before the next flight he said, "OK, your turn."............"I didn't think I had a clue," she recalls.

"That first one I wrote was one of the better ones I wrote for a while. I was remembering all the things he had said. So much of skywriting is feel, the amount of G to pull to get the turn just right." She worked with him for a year until he retired, and then she was chief Pepsi skywriter. That led to meeting Steve, and to marriage after "love at first flight."

BARNSTORMERS AND SKYWRITERS

By Charles H. Stites
"This part of Suzanne's story begins in the early '70s, when a Pepsi corporate pilot named Jack Strayer reacted to an inquiry from the marketing department. It wanted to know if there was a skywriter around that could be used to help commemorate a company anniversary. It seems that many years before, Pepsi had used a Travel Air as a skywriter. It wasn't long before Strayer had not only found a Travel Air, he had found THE Travel Air. It was the actual airplane that had flown for Pepsi since 1932, and all those years later, it was still equipped for skywriting. What was intended to be a one-time skywriting event snowballed into a full-time aerial promotional tool as Strayer began to get appearance requests from Pepsi bottlers throughout the country. The old Travel Air was barnstorming again. "By the late '70s, cross-country travel in the open-cockpit biplane was beginning to take its toll on Strayer, and he advertised for help. There were several "assistants" who ferried the big bird, with one even moving on to Pepsi's corporate travel department herself. But, around 1980, the position was open once again. And, as it happened, there was a young flight instructor/charter/ferry pilot who was having trouble finding a corporate flying job. Someone told her about Strayer's ad, and she sent him a resume. After a short but exciting checkout-and to her surprise-Strayer selected Suzanne." "Just over a year after Suzanne began to fly for Pepsi, Strayer was approaching retirement and began to turn over more of the responsibilities to the fresh-faced girl barely out of her teens. He began to teach her the art of skywriting. Over the next few months, she slowly honed her skills. Mostly, it was practicing the four letters that made up her employer's name and ferrying the Travel Air from engagement to engagement. Then, still short of his planned retirement, Strayer fell ill with pneumonia and passed away. Pepsi called Suzanne and asked her to come to New York."

Notes for Malvinah Ruskin Strayer:
Malvinah was living near her aunt Margaret Strayer Thomas at Philadelphia, PA, in 1892 through 1894 at least. Malvinah purchased a four place cemetery lot (1855 Sec. 2), in 1894, at Ivy Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia, PA, there she buried her brother Raleigh in 1894 and later her daughter Virginia and her husband William and herself. Malvinah probably raised her younger siblings until they reached adulthood or died. Her granddaughter Holly H. Weise states that her grandmother was a trained nurse and married circa 1896.

The 1891-1892 City Directory for Philadelphia, PA, lists Nellie Strayer, nurse, for Dr. Paul Guilford, home address N 17th at corner of Summer. This address in the prior year's directory included at that address a Dr. Edgar Strayer, it is unknown what if any connection is there.

In 1893-1894, the year that Raleigh Lee died, the only Strayer listed is Luther who was clerking in Philadelphia that year and residing at 518 Barnewell. In all probability, he was the official breadwinner in the surviving children's household.

e-mail received 02-15-2006 from Martha Jane Strayer Murphy:
My father was an anesthesiologist and practiced medicine for many years at a hospital in Inglewood, CA. He was forced to retire due to poor health (both he, his sister Winifred and I think his father and grandfather all suffered from hardening of the arteries/heart problems). My mother was the youngest of 5 siblings, all who are dead now except for the second oldest sister named Deborah Dixon Bryant, who lives in San Diego near her son John Bryant. My mother died from cancer about 4 yrs ago while living with my sister Patty in Bakersfield, CA. Both my parents were cremated, as was my brother Thomas Dixon (Timmy), and my twin Barbara Jean.

Per Martha Jane Strayer Murphy her father was a natural red head as is her sister Peggy's son Todd, who much resembles Webster III at a young age.

Marriage Notes for Webster Strayer and JoAnn Dixon:
I recall my Mom telling a story about my Dad. He was in the Suez Canal (I guess as a medic?) during WWII. The war was over but he still had 6 months left to serve. He was bored, wanted to marry Joanne and get on with his life, and he almost deserted! Somehow I think he was able to get out of the army early, but he just thought it was stupid to be there when the war was over. He had met my mother at Kelly Field in TX in 1944 or 1945, so I'm not sure if he had been stationed in TX and went to the canal from there. These are the stories that make these people real to us, as family.

Notes for Lois Esther Curry:
Lois earned a Doctorate in Psychology during the 1920's and worked with the well-known Dr. Gesell on research for his monographs on Co-twin Control. These studies helped demonstrate that genetically inherited characteristics held true even if twins were separated at birth and raised in separate environments- one advantaged the other not as well advantaged. With the birth of her children Lois, as did so many of our mother's in that generation, put her career on the back burner and the only work she did outside the home was for a well known private school in Princeton, NJ as a teacher.

Notes for Charles Drayton Strayer:
Charles Drayton Strayer was born August 8, 1931, at Eitel Hospital, Minneapolis, MN, to Joseph Reese Strayer and Lois Esther Curry. He had been scheduled for delivery after Joe's sabbatical ended and they had returned to the East Coast near George, Sr.; needless to say, he was early by about two and one-half weeks and thus confounded the elders. At age five Charles accompanied his parents during a sabbatical year spent primarily in Paris, France, but including side trips to England, Germany and other French cities. Because Charles was of elementary age, in Europe, he spent at least part of one year attending a small lycee or school and consequently had a smattering of very good schoolboy French. Upon their return from Europe, Charles attended school in Princeton, NJ, for one year before contracting a neuronitis that caused his hospitalization for nearly a year with extensive physical therapy. Highlights of his boyhood included summers spent at the family compound at Far Echoes, Moultonboro Neck, on Lake Winnipesaukee, opposite Glynes Island. This compound had been purchased by his grandfather George, Sr., and George's three surviving sons each had a personal piece of the original land after his death with their own summerhouses.

When he reached high school age, Charles apprenticed to become a machinist with a large company in Winchendon, Massachusetts which produced what are called "elephant tools", that is, very large tools for manufacturing other large machinery. After the apprenticeship ended he worked for and passed the New Jersey "Black Label" electricians certificate. While spending a summer working at his uncle Jack's business in New York City, Charles attended a museum exhibit of Jacques Roualt's paintings of Christ and was so profoundly affected that he declared himself a Christian. Shortly after this he migrated to Findlay, OH, site of Findlay College, a small seminary, and spent about eighteen months studying for the ministry. Deciding that he would not make a good minister he turned in another direction.

Through a classmate he met Mary Ruth Hawkins, a student at Miami University, in Athens, OH. Mary Ruth had a very practical father and he insisted that she learn a trade to help her earn her way through college. Around the time she enrolled at Miami University, there was considerable construction being performed, and she waded right in and looked for an opportunity to use her Journeyman Bricklayer Certificate. Thanks to the university's building program she was able to finance her entire student expense while laying brick on several buildings (she never did corners - only straight wall). Her relationship with Charles developed over several months and they were married in November of 1954, in the Findlay College Chapel. As soon as Mary graduated in the Class of 1955, they located at a rented trailer in a trailer-court on Route 224, near Findlay, OH, and later moved two trailers to farmland they started to buy in Blanchard Twp., Hancock Co., OH. The next few years were busy for the young couple and they quickly enlarged their family. For several years they attended the local Presbyterian Church on Rte 224 west of Findlay, OH, but later they became Episcopalians and attended Trinity Episcopal Church in Findlay, OH. Charles worked for both Cooper Tire and Rubber, and Gar Wood Manufacturing during these years to supplement their income from the sheep and grain they raised on their farm. They eventually purchased a house scheduled for demolition due to the enlargement of Trinity Episcopal Church's parking lot. This house was cut in half and moved to their farm and reconstructed there. Charles became a partner with "Jim the Bicycle Man" of Findlay, OH, and they pooled their money and opened a store called "Charlie the Bicycle Man" in Lima, Allen Co., OH. Mary died in the spring of 1969 and she is buried beside her second son Matthew Franklin in Pleasant Hill Cemetery, Hancock Co., OH. During the bicentennial of 1976, the ladies society of Trinity Episcopal Church purchased materials and designed and sewed a complete set of needlepoint kneelers for the church, these kneelers were dedicated during the Advent season of 1976. Charles's wife Glenda executed the infinity symbol and dedicated it to Mary's memory.

With a 40 plus mile commute and four minor living children, Charles invested in a duplex behind the bicycle shop, moved the children to Lima, Allen Co., OH, and sold the farm in Hancock Co., OH. During this period he had also enrolled at Ohio State University's Lima, OH, campus and started on further studies toward a teaching certificate. He had met and corresponded with Bonnie Jo Barthold, a divorcée, who was with the Peace Corps teaching English and was due to return from Ghana in the late summer of 1969. When Mary died, he proposed marriage by letter and Ms. Barthold accepted. They were married from her mother's home in September of 1969, at St. Philip's-In-the-Hills, an Episcopal Church, near Tucson, AZ. All four children, who flew out with Charles, attended the ceremony. After a brief trip into old Mexico for souvenirs, they all returned together, by plane, to Lima, OH, for the school year had begun. Ms. Barthold flew to Arizona after Christmas and informed Charles that she was not coming back. Charles filed for divorce and it was granted in July of 1970.

During the spring of 1970, Charles became interested in the organization called MENSA and took and passed their entrance exams. Among the membership materials that he received in June of 1970, was a volume listing all members of the organization with addresses but no phone numbers. In this book he found the name G. Siverling with an address only two blocks away diagonally from the Bike Shop. Looking in the local phone book he found a listing and, expecting only to find a congenial conversational companion, probably male, he called and invited what turned out to be a young woman to join him for dinner. After several proposed times, a Monday date was arranged and a reservation was made at a local restaurant. When the couple met they were very compatible. Charles was inspired to offer marriage on this first date and Miss Siverling was startled to find she was accepting! After a brief engagement of about six weeks, they were married in the McComb United Methodist Church by the same Methodist minister who had married the bride's parents in 1939 (this was to be Rev. Dietrich Worthman's last publicly performed marriage ceremony). Glenda Siverling had been a student in Pre-Medical Technology at Bowling Green State University, from 1960 through 1964, completing 3 years of her degree program. In September of 1964, she moved to Madison, WI, and studied to become a Cancer Cytotechnologist, at the State Laboratory of Hygiene, on the University of Wisconsin campus. She returned to Ohio, in 1967, and located in Lima, OH, where she worked at St. Rita's Hospital.

During their engagement the couple had located a 40-acre farm near Delphos, in Allen Co., OH. In October of 1970, they and the four older children (Daniel, Caleb, Abigail and Hannah) moved to the farm. The bicycle shop, which Charles by now owned solely, was lost during the period 1974-76, due to under-capitalization and the restrictive policies of their major supplier Schwinn. Charles and Glenda took instruction and joined the Catholic Church with the children in the Easter season of 1977. They lived on the Delphos farm until 1982, when they were forced out of farming by a slump in the tomato growing industry in that area of northwestern Ohio (brought on in part by the sale of the Libby, McNeil & Libby plant at Leipsic, OH, to a California company named Richardson). When her own younger children started to arrive Glenda had resigned from the hospital and become an unenthusiastic but surprisingly competent farmhand. During the years from 1976 through 1982, the couple cooperated in planting, cultivating, spraying and harvesting between 10 and 20 acres of tomatoes every year, in addition to soybeans and oats. During the final year Richardson's bought out Libby's and the handwriting was on the wall. Charles obtained a position as Physical Plant Manager for Christendom College, in Front Royal, VA, and after liquidation of the farm they and five children (Hannah, Sarah, Joseph, Margaret and infant John Jacob) relocated to the Shenandoah Shores development on the south bank of the Shenandoah River, with a view upstream to a dam built for flood control and electricity generation (this was on the high bank, thank you very much). The dam was immediately below the Christendom College facility. They lived there for two years until bickering among the academic and financial arms of the College made the position untenable and Charles resigned.

The couple relocated to Saltillo, Huntingdon Co., PA, and after the birth of their daughter Susan Marie, in June of 1986, Charles decided the area was economically unfeasible and began plans to return to the northwest Ohio area. This process was started by Charles buying an over the road tractor and hauling steel and turf with a flatbed truck for a company out of Kirkwood, OH. Charles' father, Joseph Reese Strayer, had been widowed during the winter of 1983, and in the summer of 1986, he announced his forthcoming marriage on August 8 (Charles' birthday) to Dr. Sylvia Lettice Thrupp, a fellow historian, who had taught at the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, MI. Charles and Glenda with infant Susan attended as did Daniel and Caleb with their wives and children. On October 13, 1986, Charles was in a trucking accident near Bucyrus, OH, and was admitted to Mansfield Hospital in critical condition. He died one week later and was buried from St. Michael's church Findlay, Hancock Co., OH, to Pleasant Hill Cemetery beside his first wife Mary Ruth Hawkins and their second son Matthew Franklin.

Notes for John Lloyd-Butler:
Per Bill Cooley e-mail of 11-24-2003:
The Lloyd-Butler's were a very prosperous family and must have had some connection with Occidental College as you can see. In addition to the collection, she is listed among the sources for student aid. Since he is a native of CA, they might have met if she had gone out to Oxy. Her cousin, Demaree Caughey Bess, started there a few years earlier before transferring to Iowa.

From Occidental's library:
"John Lloyd-Butler, a rancher from Saticoy, California, took an interest in American railroading, but was never able to devote himself to it until he retired from ranching. He and his wife spent the last ten years of his life traveling the American railroads and buying books on the subject. The result is the John Lloyd-Butler Railroadiana Collection, covering the history and development of the American Railroad from 1846 to the early 1970s. It contains over two thousand published books, rare government reports, railroad periodicals, and ephemeral materials, including time-tables, advertising brochures and tickets."

In Memoriam -- John L. Caughey Jr.,
former medical school dean

John L. Caughey Jr., dean emeritus of student affairs and professor emeritus of medicine and medical education, died September 4. He was 97.

A memorial service has been scheduled for 5 p.m. October 22 in Amasa Stone Chapel, with a reception to follow in Tomlinson Hall. Caughey's family plans to attend.

Caughey was with the CWRU medical school from 1945 until he retired in 1974. For 21 years after his retirement, he continued to interview prospective students for admission into this school. The last of these students graduated in 1999. He, along with Joseph T. Wearn and T. Hale Ham, led the development of the revised curriculum launched in 1952, which was widely credited with initiating changes in medical education across the country and around the world.

Caughey is survived by a son, John L. Caughey III, of Columbia, Maryland, and four grandchildren. The family suggests memorial contributions to the John L. Caughey Jr., M.D., Center for the Integration of Science and Medical Care, c/o the Office of Development at CWRU's School of Medicine, W174 Wood Building, location code 4923.

Faculty curriculum vitae, University of Maryland:

John L. Caughey’s research involves the ethnographic, comparative investigation of contemporary cultures as systems of meaning. He has done field research in Micronesia, South Asia, and the U.S. (including field work with Old Order Mennonites, on a Psychiatric Ward in Philadelphia, with psychotherapists in Washington, D.C., with South Asians in America, and with Americans in South Asia). He is particularly interested in how contemporary individuals handle multiple cultural traditions including how they simultaneously or alternatively construct senses of self out of diverse cultural models of race, gender, ethnicity, and personality. His work on individuals and their cultures also includes ethnographic investigations of the cultural dimensions of imaginary experience (such as dreams, daydreams, memory, and media use).

   Notes for David Sweet:
   New York Times
   Friday, May 25, 2007
   Dr. David E. Sweet, president of Rhode Island College for the past seven years, died Sunday night at Roger Williams Hospital. He was 51 years old.

   Dr. Sweet was hospitalized Sunday after he went into a coma, and doctors said he apparently suffered a diabetic seizure and cardiac arrest. John S. Foley, vice president of the college, said Dr. Sweet, a Christian Scientist, had declined medical treatment after he became ill last week.

   When Dr. Sweet became president of the school, in 1977, it was largely a teachers' college. He added a number of programs, including a successful one in business management. He also established a graduate program leading to a master's degree in social work.

   Dr. Sweet had been president of Minnesota Metropolitan State College in St. Paul since its founding in 1972. Minnesota Metropolitan was authorized by the Legislature of that state to provide nontraditional education for those over the age of 20. It had no classes, no campus, no grades, no library and no tenured faculty. Instead, students and advisers fashioned “contracts” that included educational goals and assessment criteria.

http://www.gdhspa.org/SalemUnionChurch.htm
Salem Union Church, Dover Twp., York Co., PA:
On the 30th of May 1759, Salem Union Church was formed; George Spaar and Peter Streher were first elders...... The first death recorded in the church ledger was that of George Frederick Scheatle (Shettle), who died of apoplexy, May 20, 1763, aged fifty years, buried on Whit-Sunday, in the new church yard. His was the first funeral to be held in the New Kirke and his burial the first in the new cemetery. The second person was a child of John Peter Streher, July 5, 1763, aged five years....... The following is a copy of a legal record: I, Peter Streher, of Dover Township, in the county of York, and Province of Pennsylvania, farmer, in consideration of the esteem and affection I bear toward the German Lutheran and German Reformed Congregations of said township, for the sum of five shillings paid by George Stouch and Adam Bartmess, trustees and representatives of the Lutheran congregation, Jacob May and Jacob Meyer, trustees and representatives of the German Reformed congregation, do convey unto them and their successors forever in trust for said church congregations, 3 acres of land. The deed of the three acres as a site for a church and burying ground was dated January 5, 1765. Upon the death of Peter Streher, his two sons, who inherited the property, had the church land surveyed and in accordance with letters patent on May 8, 1797, executed another deed in trust for the same tract of land to John Overdier and Jacob Stouch, trustees of the Lutheran congregation, Peter Upp and Jacob Lauer, trustees of the Reformed congregation. The second indenture was made in order to make the title to the church property good after the surrounding land was patented.

Notes for Moses Stroeher:
Moses Strayer

Moses Strayer is a native of York County, Penn., born February 14, 1808, son of Peter and Mary (Spahr) Strayer, of York County. His grandparents were born in Germany; they came to this country at an early day and settled in Dover Township, York County. The father was a farmer in Dover Township, having a farm of about 800 acres of well improved land, which he farmed until fifteen years before his death, at the age of eighty-six years. He took an active interest in church and school matters, gave the ground upon which Strayer's Church is built, and was a leading member of the building committee. He had ten children: Catharine (deceased), Daniel (deceased), Peter, Samuel, Jacob, Susannah, Moses, Eve (deceased), Sarah (deceased) and Henry (deceased). Moses Strayer is a farmer and a tanner by trade, and followed those occupations for forty-nine years, but has now retired from business. He owns 300 acres of improved land, embracing three farms, one in Franklin Township, one in Adams County and one in Washington Township. He has also a house in Dillsburgh. In 1833, he married Susannah Sheffer, daughter of Samuel Sheffer, of Washington Township, York County. She died June 14, 1881, at the age of sixty-four years, leaving eight children: Cornelius, Mary, Samuel, Lizzie, George, Catharine, Nancy and Annie. Mr. Strayer is a Lutheran. His wife belonged to the U. B. Church. His grandfather, who has been dead ninety-four years, is buried at Strayer's Church, in Dover Township.
