Dedicated to
The late Rev. Howard Duane Owings who contributed many records to this genealogy
Acknowledgment and Foreword

The compilers express their gratitude and appreciation to the many individuals who contributed their family records to this genealogy. Their generous cooperation and assistance added many records to the genealogy which we could not have obtained otherwise.

This FINAL edition of OWINGS AND ALLIED FAMILIES has been published to fill the demand of those who did not obtain a copy of the second edition. As this edition has many additional records not in either of the two previous editions and to include all of these records in one volume, any OWINGS who changed their name legally to OWENS are not included. Nor are any OWINGS who allowed OWINGS to become OWENS included. We have listed the children of the OWINGS women, but not their grandchildren nor any further descendants. Because of this, we cannot include our own little great granddaughter.

While we have not proven the ancestry of Richard Owings I who was in Maryland by 1684/5, any of his female descendants are eligible for membership in the Colonial Dames Seventeenth Century.

The manuscript of this genealogy was prepared by computer printer and was proof read but some errors may appear. In any publication dealing with genealogy with the enormous number of names, dates, places, etc., mistakes in the form of spelling, typing and omissions are inevitable, making it impossible to be completely perfect. It should always be kept in mind that in any publication dealing with genealogy to be letter perfect is impossible.
Numbering System

Numbering systems recommended for genealogies have not been used as they tend to become cumbersome with about the fifth generation.

As twelve or thirteen generations of the descendants of Richard Owings I are given in many instances, we have used a simple numbering system. Beginning with the grandchildren of Richard I, who are the third generation, each individual is given the number of his generation and of his number in his family. For example, Richard Owings, oldest son of Richard and Sarah (Hart) Owings is:

Chapter I  CAPTAIN RICHARD OWINGS

The earliest record which we have of OWINGS in the American Colonies is of Richard OWINGS who was in Anne Arundel County Maryland by 1684/5. This Richard OWINGS will hereafter be referred to as Richard Owings I. He may have been the Richard Owin, son of Richard Owin and Ann Phillis, baptized 7 March 1659 at St. Botolph, London, England (from the International Genealogical Index, pp.93,244). A David OWING was born in St.Cruk, York, Yorkshire, England ca. 1617 and married 16 Jan. 1642 at St. Crux, Ellen Hay (born ca. 1621) (Yorks Y 21 St.Cruk, p.127). Other records of OWING and OWINGS have been found in Yorkshire, England; however professional genealogists do not try to trace the ancestry of Richard OWINGS I back to OWINGS, but say that the name was OWEN or OWENS. We, the compilers, believe that the name has always been OWINGS and the OWEN or OWENS are incorrect spellings of OWINGS. These erroneous spellings of the surname are very prevalent at the present time (1985).

We have found no passenger list of any ship on which he might have come to Maryland, but the fact that he was a debtor to the estate of Christopher Randall, 20 March 1684/5 (Original Inventories, Anne Arundel County, Maryland, Box 5, folder 31) proves that he was there. He brought with him his wife Rachel and infant daughter Rachel.

On 12 September 1685, he purchased from Thomas Lightfoot of Baltimore County "The Range", a 364 acre tract in Anne Arundel County (Anne Arundel Land Record, liber WH, no. 4, folio 100). In the above land record, Richard Owings was referred to as a carpenter, a term which at that time designated architects and house builders who employed artisans in wood and brick. On 9 November 1686, he conveyed "The Range" to Jabez Pierpont, planter, of the same county. (Anne Arundel Land Record, liber WH, no. 4, folio 96).

He was issued a patent for "Locust Thicket", a 384 tract in Anne Arundel County, 18 Feb.1688/9 (Patent Record, liber NS, no. B, folio 631). This tract was in the Elk Ridge area which in 1698 was taken from Anne Arundel County and added to Baltimore County. In 1727, it was returned to Anne Arundel County. Richard Owings sold this tract prior to 1705. In 1695, he was issued patents for two tracts in Baltimore County, "Owings Adventure" a 450 acre tract on the north side of the Patapsco River; patent issued 10 November 1695 and "Long Acre", a tract of 225 acres. (Patent Record, liber B.B, no. 3, pp. 540/41).

Richard Owings was on the Anne Arundel County Grand Jury in October 1695 and in May 1699. (Md. Hall Of Records: Provincial Court Judgements, liber TL, no. 1, pp.578: liber WT, no. 3, p 15). He served as Captain of the Rangers on the Potomac River from 18 October 1697 to 16 May 1701, when the Rangers were disbanded. (ARCHIVES OF MARYLAND, Vol. 23, pp. 246-47: Vol. 23, pp. 121-2). The duties of the Rangers were to protect the inhabitants of the area from attacks of "unfriendly Indians". For the remainder of his life Richard Owings was referred to as Captain Richard Owings.

He removed to Baltimore County by midsummer 1702 as he was listed as a taxable with one man servant in North Patapsco Hundred of Baltimore County then, a taxable was a male 16 years of age or over. (Md. Historical Society: A book for recording the County Taxables and Leaveys for Baltimore County, p. 64). In 1705, Richard Owings Sen'r and Richard Owings Jun'r appear in the same household as taxables in the Upper Part, North Patapsco Hundred of Baltimore County, so the younger Richard evidently became 16 years of age between Midsummer 1704 and Midsummer 1705.

Richard Owings served on the Baltimore County Grand Jury in the June 1711 Court and again in the March 1715/6 Court. (Baltimore County Proceedings, liber IS, no. B, part 1, folio 201: part 2, folio670). He died before 14 November 1716, as on that date, "Rachel Owings" of Baltimore County was named administrix of the estate of "Richard Owings", late of the same county, deceased intestate. Sureties: "Richard Owings" and "Henry Owings" (Baltimore County Testamentary Proceedings, liber 23, p. 84).

Rachel Owings died before 27 May 1729, as on that date, her son Richard offered for sale in the Maryland Gazette of Annapolis, a good plantation, consisting of 329 acres, which could only have been "Long Acre" and the adjacent remaining portion of "Owings Adventure", one third of which would have been the life estate of Rachel, the widow of Richard Owings I and could not have been offered for sale until after her death. ("Maryland Gazette", no. XCI, June 3-10, 1729). Richard and Rachel Owings had nine children:

1. Rachel OWINGS, b. 1683/4 (in a deposition made 22 Mar. 1730/31: Baltimore Co. Deeds, liber IS, no. 1, folio 921; Rachel Owings stated that she was about 47 years old and was a sister of Samuel Owings): d. in Baltimore Co., May 1761 (her will in Baltimore Co., Md. Bk. 11, p. 348, dated 11 June 1759): m. ca. 1711, John Willmott Jun'r (b. 1682/3: d. 1748) son of John Willmott. John Willmott Jun'r was a vestryman of St. Paul's Church, Baltimore in 1714/15. He and his family lived on a plantation on the Gunpowder River in Back River Hundred, the area which became St. Thomas Parish in 1742. Further references
Richard and Henry Owings were sureties for their mother when she was made administratrix of their father's estate, therefore they would have been the oldest sons of Richard Owings I.
John, Robert, Samuel and Joshua were named in the will of Darby Lane (Baltimore County, Md. Wills, Vol. 5, p. 114), dated 2 Apr. 1722. In St. Paul's Parish Register, Samuel Owings stated that he was the son of Richard and Rachel Owings.
Richard Owings II, oldest son and heir-law of Capt. Richard and Rachel Owings, was born the latter half of 1668 and probably died in 1736. He married in Baltimore County, Maryland ca. 1710, Sarah Hart (d. 1769) only child of Stephen and Catherine Hart. Stephen Hart died in 1696/7. (Inventory of Stephen Hart's estate was made 23 Feb. 1696/7. Baltimore Co. Probate, liber 14, folio 149). Following his death Catherine Hart married second, John Scutt and thirdly Henry Knowles, both of Baltimore Co. Sarah Hart inherited in 1703 from her step-father John Scutt, two tracts of land and a dwelling plantation "Scutt's Level" in Soldiers Delight Hundred, St. Thomas Parish (now the second district of Baltimore Co.). (John Scutt's will dated, 4 May 1703, Baltimore Co. Wills, liber 11, folio 393). From Henry Knowles, Sarah Hart Owings inherited in 1714, "Knowles Purchase", (Henry Knowles' Will dated 4 Jan. 1713: probated 15 May 1714. MARYLAND CALENDER OF WILLS, by June Cotton Baldwin, vol. 4 p. 14) 310 acres which was part of a larger tract called "Andover" which was on the southeast side of the Patapsco in Queen Caroline Parish of Anne Arundel Co., Maryland. Richard Owings Jun' r was named as security for Catherine Knowles as executor of the estate of Henry Knowles, 12 June 1714. (Baltimore Co. Testamentary Proceedings Vol. 22 p. 350). Richard was executor of Catherine Knowles' will, dated 8 June 1716. (Baltimore Co. Wills, liber 3, folio 384).

Richard Owings II inherited by primogeniture all of the lands which his father owned at his death. He patented in his own right, two other tracts, "Owings Addition" (130 acres surveyed 6 April 1721, adjacent to the southeast end of "Owings Adventure") and "Owings Outland Plain" (470 acres, surveyed 3 April 1723, which lay farther up the river and was in fact the first tract surveyed in what is now Carroll County).

After the death of his mother in 1729, Richard Owings disposed of all of his land in Baltimore County. He divided "Long Acres" between his brothers John and Henry, conveying 159 acres to John on 4 April 1730 and the remaining 106 acres to Henry on 15 March 1730/31. He sold all of "Owings Outland Plain" to William Smith, 28 May 1730. He sold "Owings Adventure" and 100 acres of "Owings Addition" to William Richardson of Anne Arundel County on 30
September 1731. The remaining 30 acres of "Owings Addition", he conveyed to his niece Ruth Norwood, daughter of his sister Ruth Norwood, for her lifetime, on 24 May 1732. He retained the "Valley of Owen" in Anne Arundel County: his oldest son Richard Owings III inherited it intact. Following all of these real estate transactions Richard and Sarah Owings appear to have moved across the Patapsco and settled on "Knowles Purchase". He qualified as a vestryman of Christ Church, Queen Caroline Parish on 29 August 1736. As he does not appear in the vestry minutes again, it is presumed that he died soon after. Sarah Hart Owings then moved to "Scutt's Level" and on 12 Sept. 1743, she and her oldest son Richard Owings III sold all of Knowles Purchase to Gideon Howard of Anne Arundel County. (ANNE ARUNDEL GENTRY, by Harry Wright Newman, vol. 2, p. 351). On 30 Oct. 1765, she divided "Scutt's Level" among her three youngest children as follows: Stephen Hart Owings 48 acres, to John Owings 109 acres and to Aquilla Conway, husband of her daughter Ruth, 83 acres. Sarah Owings continued, however, to pay quit—rents on all of "Scutt's Level" until her death in 1769. Richard and Sarah (Hart) Owings had four children. (Richard, Ruth and Stephen Hart Owings were named as grand children of Catherine Knowles in her will (cited above) John Owings was referred to as the son of Sarah and as the son of Richard Owings in the Proprietary Debt. Books of 1769, 1770 & 1771)

South Carolina, (Laurens Co. S.C. Deed Bk. 2. p. 328). Anna Owings was the daughter of Edward (son of Thomas Stonestreet) (Will of Thomas Stonestreet, dated 14 Oct. 1706 Charles Co. Maryland Wills, liber 27, folio 170) and Susanna Stonestreet of "Morrice's Help", Charles County Maryland. (Will of Edward Stonestreet, dated 19 Dec. 1740. (Charles Co. Maryland Wills, liber 27, folio 170). Richard Owings III inherited by primogeniture "The Valley of Owen", 361 acres in Anne Arundel Co. from his father. On 23 Sept. 1748, he sold this tract to Caleb Dorsey. (Provincial Court Deeds, liber E 1, no 8, folio 303). He and his family lived on "Scutt's Level", his mother's property in Soldiers Delight Hundred. In 1757, he and his family removed from Maryland to the present Laurens County South Carolina. Sept. 1758 he surveyed a tract of 150 acres on the south side of Wateree River between Dutchman's Creek and Colonel's Creek. (South Carolina Land Patents, vol. 7, p. 95). On 16 Sept., he surveyed 150 acres on both sides of Raeburn's Creek, a tributary of the Saluda River. On 10 Jan. 1771, he was granted 100 acres on Broad Mouth Creek on the Saluda River, which became his dwelling plantation. (Royal Grants, vol. 22, p. 548, South Carolina Archives Columbia). He last appears in the 1790 census, so it is presumed that he died soon after.

Richard and Anna (Stonestreet) Owings had nine children: (St. Thomas Parish Register, Garrison Forest, Baltimore Co. Maryland, pp. 6, 10)

4.1 Sarah Owings, b. 29 July 1738; d. in Laurens Co. S.C. after 13 Aug. 1828 unm.

He was listed in the 1790 Laurens Dist., S.C. census (p. 72) as head of a family of 1 male (over 16 years), 2 males (under 16 years) and 5 females. On 2 March 1813, he surveyed 20 acres on Trumbull Creek in the present Dickson County Tennessee, which he sold to Isaiah Tidwell on 10 Sept. 1814. (Dickson
4.5. Butler OWINGS, b. 24 Aug. 1748; d. before 1790; m. Elizabeth McLaine, dau. of Daniel McLaine. On 11 Aug. 1787, Daniel McLaine conveyed 100 acres on Reedy River to his dau. Elizabeth Owings, wife of Butler, by deed of gift. (Laurens Co. S.C. Deed Bk. B, p. 300). Elizabeth Owings was listed in the 1790 Laurens Dist., S.C. census (p. 74) with one male under 16 and one female. This shows that Butler and Elizabeth Owings had one son whom we have not identified.

4.6. Archibald OWINGS, b. 2 March 1750. See further.

4.7. Greenberry OWINGS, b. 13 April 1752. During the American Revolution, he was loyal to the British, which was attested by John Cunningham at Charleston 27 Oct. 1780. (LOYALISTS IN SOUTHERN CAMPAIGN OF REVOLUTIONARY WAR, by Clark, vol. I, p. 264). We have no further record of him.

4.9. Jonathan OWINGS, b. ca. 1756. He was paid £34 5s 13d sterling for serving 143 days in the Laurens County South Carolina Militia in the American Revolution. We have found no further record of him. Some researchers of the OWINGS Family have confused him with his nephew Jonathan Owings, son of his bro. Richard Owings IV.

In 1896, John Calvin Owings built this Victorian house in Laurens, South Carolina. He contracted with architects from Knoxville, Tennessee in 1895 to build the house on West Main Street, Laurens. This example of Victorian architecture reflects the highly ornamented, massive style of architecture, decor and furnishings popular in the 19th century.

Its intricate clapboard and shingle siding, high multiple roofs, circular towers and rambling porches are characteristic of this architectural style which reflected the increasing prosperity within the region.

The original set of drawings and plans for the house remains in the possession of the present owner John Calvin Owings II grandson of John Calvin Owings.

Chapter III  HENRY OWINGS

Henry OWINGS, second son of Capt. Richard and Rachel Owings, was born in Anne Arundel County, Maryland ca. 1692: d. in Baltimore County late in June 1763. He married in Baltimore Co. ca. 1718, Helen Stinchcomb (b. ?: d. soon after May 1784) dau. of Capt. Nathaniel and Hannah (Randall) Stinchcomb of "The Tanyard", North Patapsco Hundred, Baltimore County. Henry Owings inherited no land from his father. On 30 Aug. 1725, he was granted a tract of 180 acres called "Gilead" on the north side of the north branch of Patapsco Falls, on a road dividing Baltimore and Carroll Counties, by King James II. (Land Grant from Liber PL # 6, p. 154; Maryland Hall of Records). In 1729, he patented "The Plains of Paran" a 200 acre tract on the south side of Gwyn Falls in Baltimore County. (Maryland Land Grants, PL#7, folio 119, Md. Hall of Records). He purchased from his older brother Richard Owings II a tract of 106 acres called "Long Acre" in the present First Dist. of Baltimore Co., on 15 Mar. 1730/1. He probably lived on "Long Acre" as he devised all of this tract to his widow Helen during her lifetime, with reversion to his second son Bezaleel. If Bezaleel died without issue "Long Acre" would revert to his oldest son Elijah Owings. Helen Owings lived on the above plantation until her death. (Gilead was advertised in the "Maryland Gazette" as early as 14 July 1763 to be sold at Public Vendue "Fursuant to the Will of Henry Owings, deceased". Mrs. Helen Owings is last mentioned in the will of her dau., Michal Owings, dated 20 May 1784. In his Will, Henry Owings (Baltimore Co. Robert Owings built his colonial homestead in the center of this tract. Joshua Owings was the sixth and youngest son of Capt. Richard and Rachel Owings, born 5 April 1704: died 11 April 1785; married at St. Paul's Church, Baltimore, 9 March 1735, Mary Cockey (born 10 December 1716: died 10 December 1768) daughter of Capt. John and Elizabeth (Slade) Cockey of "Hellmore's Addition" in Back River Upper Hundred, Baltimore County (St. Paul's Parish Register, Vol. I, pp. 34, 155). Capt. Cockey was one of the Justices of Baltimore County in 1726-27. Joshua Owings patented "Shiloh", a 150 acre tract in Baltimore County in 1738 (Baltimore Co., Land Patent, liber EI#6, folio 82) and "Shiloh Compleated", a 424 acre tract in that county in 1750 (Baltimore Co., Land Patent, liber CY & CS #4, folio 36). He owned other lands in Baltimore Co., and in Frederick County, also. He and his family lived near Harrisonville, Soldiers Delight Hundred, Baltimore Co., in a handsome mansion, called "Harmony House", built in a cruciform shape with thick walls and narrow windows. Shortly before his death, he gave "Harmony House" to his daughter Marcella and went to live with his youngest daughter, Mrs. Rachel Shipley. He contributed toward the building of St. Thomas Church, Garrison Forest; was a vestryman in 1745-46 and in 1752-55 and church warden in 1747 and in 1766 (St. Thomas Parish Register, pp. 88, 135, 103, 107). However he became increasingly interested in the Methodist movement and became a warm friend and frequent host of Bishop Francis Asbury. He was mentioned in Bishop Asbury's Journal very often. In 1773, he was one of those persons who purchased one acre of "Collett's Neglect" on which to build a meeting house. (Journal of Bishop Francis Asbury, Vol. I, pp. 55, 67, 70, 71, 110). In his will, dated 6 December 1780, Joshua Owings named his sons Joshua, John Cockey and Edward Owings and daughter Rachel Shipley, wife of Talbot Shipley of Anne Arundel County and named dau. Rachel Shipley as executrix. (Baltimore Co., Wills, Bk. 35, p. 19. Anne Arundel Co., Wills, folio 19, Bk. T.G.#2, no 35).

On 24 May 1791, in partnership with Christopher Greenup, Walter Beall and Willis Green, he purchased from Jacob Myers a small furnace in Slate Creek, Bath County, Kentucky ("The Lure of Kentucky" by Maude Ward Lafferty, p. 169). Benedict Francis van Pradelles of Lexington, Kentucky (Their marriage was recorded in Baltimore and at Swedes Church, Philadelphia, also). Lieut. van Pradelles was a native of Dixmunde, West Flanders and formerly an officer in the Royal Deux-Ponts Regiment which distinguished itself at Yorktown. The van Pradelles settled in New Orleans where he was register of the land office for the eastern district. In Dec. 1808, Benedict Francis van Pradelles died of yellow fever and was bur. in St. Louis Cemetery, New Orleans, 12 Dec. 1808. Cassandra left New Orleans Aug. 1813 on a ship bound for Baltimore to visit her relatives. The ship was captured by pirates and all on board were made to "walk the plank". Years passed before any of her family learned of her fate. They believed her to be dead and her brothers erected a shaft to her memory at Sherwood Chapel Churchyard, Cockeysville.

CASSANDRA D. van PRADELLES
Lost at Sea in 1815, age 40 years.

(The compilers visited Sherwood Chapel Churchyard, Cockeysville, 17 Aug. 1974 and copied the inscription on Cassandra's shaft and the other tombstone inscriptions there.)

Dr. John R. Moore, who married Cassandra's dau., Mary Penlope encountered, by mere chance, the pirate who had killed his wife's mother: the pirate unwittingly revealed her fate! Dr. Moore graduated in Medicine in Kentucky and moved to New Orleans. He was a very religious man and often on Sunday afternoons, with his pastor, visited the prisons of the city. On one occasion, the jailor told him of an old pirate, a terrible old character with an awful record, whom he (Dr. Moore) should talk with. Whereupon the pirate told him of taking the jewels from a "pretty little thing" from Maryland before making her "walk the plank". (This information was in a letter written to Noah E. Offut, Cockeysville, Maryland, by Dr. V.P.M. Yeaman (grandson of Dr. John R. and Mary Penlope (van Pradelles) Moore of the Presbyterian Church, Mt. Sterling, Ky., in 1920. It is attached to the John Cockey Owings' Bible Record at Md. Hist. Soc., Baltimore)

Cassandra Owings van Pradelles' will, dated 31 July 1813 (Baltimore Co., Md. Wills, liber W.B. McK. folio 390), named her six children and appointed her sisters Charlotte Deye Owings and Frances Thwaites Owings as executrices. This will was probated 30 Sept. 1816 after her dau. Colgate Donaldson, widow, petitioned the court of the Parish and City of New Orleans at the March 1814 Court, believing her mother to be dead.

§4.3. Thomas Deye OWINGS, first son of John Cocke and Colgate Deye (Colgate) Owings, b. 7 Mar. 1776; d. at Brenham, Texas, 6 Oct. 1853; m. in Lexington, Fayette Co., Kentucky, 17 Mar. 1804, Maria Smith Nicholas (b. 23 Oct. 1780; d. 9 Aug. 1825) dau. of Col. George Nicholas, first Attorney General of Kentucky and his wife Mary Smith of Baltimore. Thomas Deye Owings went to Kentucky to manage his father's Slate Iron furnace, grist mills and real estate. In 1810, he became sole owner of the furnace, grist mills and real estate by inheritance. During the War of 1812, cannon, cannister and grapeshot used in the Battle of New Orleans were made at this furnace. Thomas Deye Owings not only made cannon balls for the War, but he himself went. On 1 Apr. 1813, he was commissioned Col. of 28th U.S. Infantry and helped win the victory of Commandant Perry of the Naval Battle of Lake Erie, 10 Sept. 1815. He had studied law under Col. Nicholas at Lexington: was in Kentucky House of Representatives 1815-18; State Senate in 1823 and Associate Judge of the First Circuit Court. ("Thomas Deye Owings 1776-1853 Soldier and Pioneer of the West", Md. Hist. Mag., Vol. 30, no.1, p.39). Owingsville, the county seat of Bath County was named for Col. Owings. He and Richard Menefee Sr. owned most of the land in that county and it was agreed that the town would be named for the one who in the shortest time erected the finest residence. Col. Owings won! He employed Benjamin H. Latrobe, the architect of the National Capitol to build his mansion of home made brick, black locust handcarved woodwork and mantels. It had an exquisite handrail which was constructed at Baltimore and brought across the mountains by ox cart. Many notable guests were entertained in this mansion, among them, according to tradition, Louis Philippe, afterward King of France, from 17 July 1814 to 22 July 1815 when he was recalled to France. ("The Lure of
The story is told that when the mansion was completed, Col. Owings invited the entire town to attend the "house warming". The dining room would not hold all of the guests so tables were set up out in the long hallway. Upon them was spread the best that pioneer Kentucky could offer. Col. Owings, as host, sat at the head of one of the tables, just under the spiral staircase and prepared to serve the first dish of "Burgoo", when suddenly a black snake uncoiled itself from a base rafter overhead and with a splash! dropped into the half filled platter. Some of the guests considered it an ill omen, which it probably was as Col. Owings' fortunes began a decline following this incident. ("The Owings House Mansion", by Susie A. Weir. Contributed by Mrs. Charles Owings). The Owings furnace went bankrupt in 1822, Maria Owings died and Thomas Deye Owings offered his services and that of two of his sons in the War with Mexico. At the close of the War, he lived in Brenham, Texas, where he died. Before his marriage Thomas Deye Owings had an illegitimate son, the son of a Mrs. Jackson, who entrusted him to Maria Owings, when she (Mrs. Jackson) was on her death bed.:

5.1. Thomas Jackson OWINGS, b. 1800: d. at Owingsville, Apr. 1830, unm. He had studied law and was an attorney. In his will, dated 15 Apr. 1830 (Bath Co., Kentucky Will Bk. family lived in Bath Co., Kentucky (1860 census, p. 6). He served in the Mexican War. At the outbreak of the Civil War, he decided to move his family out of Kentucky and as he had large land holdings in Texas, he removed from Kentucky and settled in Washington County near Brenham. Shortly after the end of the Civil War, he decided to return to Kentucky. In the summer of 1865 he sold eight bales of cotton at what seemed to be a fabulous price, and took ship to New Orleans with his negro body servant, Ben. It is supposed that he died of yellow fever near the mouth of the Mississippi River before the boat docked. He was bur. first in New Orleans, a few years later his body was removed by order of the Kentucky Legislature to the State Cemetery in Frankfort, Kentucky. Their oldest daughter Charcilla managed to get her brothers and sisters back to Kentucky.

RICHARD OWINGS wife RACHEL OWINGS

dau. of John and Hannah (Stinchcomb) Owings, Richard Owings and his family lived at Rochester, Delaware Upper Hundred, Baltimore County. He was early converted to Methodism by Robert Strawbridge (whose funeral sermon he delivered in the summer of 1781 to a vast concourse of people under a large walnut tree). (from HISTORY of WESTERN MARYLAND, by J. Thomas Scharf, p. 903: Journal of Bishop Francis Asbury, Vol. 6, pp. 53,462). A year after his death, his widow and children moved to Bourbon County, Kentucky where he had owned 2,000 acres of land. Rachel Owings appears to have lived the remainder of her life in Kentucky and to have died there. In his will (Baltimore Co., Md. Wills, liber 4, folio 180-182) dated 5 Oct. 1786, Richard Owings named his wife Rachel and provided that his 2,000 acres of land be divided equally among his five children. In May 1968, the Virginia Methodist Historical Commission erected the following marker on his grave at the Old Stone Churchyard, Leesburg, Virginia:

IN MEMORY OF RICHARD OWINGS

First native born Methodist local preacher born in Baltimore County, Maryland, November 13, 1738 and died October 7, 1786 at Leesburg, Virginia and was buried on this spot. He was converted under the ministry of Robert Strawbridge and was received on trial in 1763.

He served Baltimore Circuit 1775, was a local preacher in Maryland 1776 to 1785. As a local preacher he travelled extensively. In the fall of 1783, he was the first Methodist preacher to cover the entire range of the Alleghany Mountains bearing the standard of the Cross in Redstone, Pennsylvania and gathering a class which became the Redstone Circuit.

Ordained Deacon in 1786, he served Patuxent Circuit, May 21, 1786 to October 7, 1786. During this time he was pastor of the "Old Stone" Methodist Church which stood within the bounds of this cemetery.
