BY

JOSEPH J. CASEY, A.M.
ILLINOIS HISTORICAL SURVEY
PREFACE.

Having become much interested in tracing the pedigrees of several Virginia families, I was advised to procure a copy of Hening's "Statutes", as a most indispensable adjunct in my researches. A hasty glance through its pages convinced me that it was a mine of genealogical lore. It substantiated with all the authority of Law, many statements of family history, for proof of which I had hitherto searched in vain. If so useful to me why not be made as useful to others?

I had arranged all the names in the original thirteen volumes, and was on the point of giving the manuscript to the Printer, when my attention was called to three supplemental volumes published as a continuation of Hening by Samuel Shepherd, Esq., of Richmond. A copy of Shepherd's book could not be found in New York. Had not assistance come to hand, my ambition to figure on the title page would have been nipped in the bud. W. W. Scott, Esq., Librarian of the State Library at Richmond, heard of my dilemma, and most generously enabled me to complete my work. With that courtesy so distinctive of the Virginian, it mattered not that I was an utter stranger to him. So whatever of praise the book may merit, Mr. Scott must have the greater share.

In the list, the volumes are numbered consecutively from I to XVI, the volumes I to XIII indicating Hening, the volumes XIV to XVI, the three supplemental volumes of Shepherd. The numeral in parenthesis indicates the number of times the name appears on the page. The foot-notes refer to the various spellings of what I have supposed to be the same name. Every name is printed exactly as found in the "Statutes", and discretion in Christian names has not been exercised except in cases where an inference was palpable.
