DEDICATION

FRANK JAMES FORSYTH, SR.

Interviewed by Claire Kelly

Volume IV of the Pike County Historical Society Papers is dedicated to Frank James Forsyth, Sr., whose likeness is portrayed on the front cover. He is the son of Reverend James Henry and Anna Margaret (Cummings) Forsyth of Rockbridge County, Virginia. The family of six came to Pikeville on the steamboat Cando in 1901. The father organized Sunday Schools and promoted the construction of chapels on several creeks around the county. This Sabbath School work was sponsored by Presbyterians, who have historically been supportive of education in America. Frank often assisted his father by playing a portable organ.

Frank was an honor student in Pikeville Collegiate Institute. He was the first Pike Countain to earn a degree at the University of Kentucky. (He graduated from the College of Mechanical Engineering in 1913.)

In 1914 he was married to a former classmate, Georgia Dils, a daughter of John A. and Ann (Williamson) Dils and grand-daughter of Col. John and Ann (Ratliff) Dils. Their children, all active in business and professions near the region, are Frank, Jr., Anna C., John D., William, F., Hibbard W., and Daniel H.

For more than fourscore years Frank has been active, man and boy in the area of Pikeville. As a youth he assisted in organizing the Pikeville Concert Band, continuing with it during its 15 years of existence. He has been an active member and often chairman of Zoning, Park and Airport Boards. He is a Mason. He was elected President of the Pike County Historical Society at its organizational meeting in 1963, and served on committees until the present. He has supported the Society's publishing program from its first booklet in 1971 through six other Papers and genealogies.

Mr. Forsyth's family and friends admire and respect him--for his intellectual, moral, and ethical standards--also because he encourages others to improve themselves. As an example, he earned his Electrical Engineering Degree 40 years after he earned his Bachelor's Degree. He has long been and still is a self-employed engineer, and has taught at the Mayo Vocational School, worked 18 years for the Kentucky Department of Mines and Minerals, and has contributed a good portion to a textbook, Practical Coal Mining, published by Kentucky Mining Institute.

The Pike County Historical Society, Mindful of Frank's many years of service to the study of history in the region, and of his continuing work in promoting goodwill among his fellowmen, honor him in its Minutes and dedicate to him this volume of Papers, this October 27, 1980.

District Court Records of Virginia 1700-1800 before Ky. was made a State show that Thomas Sowards, born 1746, made a settlement in Turkey Cove in 1771 with his brother-in-law Jephta Massey. William McGhee also claimed the land. So this is the Court Records and Dates.

"Thomas Sowards said in 1802, he was 56 yrs. old, and that he and his brother-in-law, Jephta Massey, settled at Turkey Cove in 1771, and planted corn, cabbage, peach stone and apple seed, and remained on the land until obliged to remove on account of Indian War."

John Hoover, James Fugate, and Henry Hoover said that, "In 1782 they drove General Shelby's stock to range in Turkey Cove." Nathan Richardson, age 65, said that, "In 1771 he was on a hunting expedition and met Thomas Berry, David Carson, and William McGhee. Thomas Berry said, "He knew of William McGhee's improvements of the land in 1771'." William Collier said that, "In the winter and spring preceding Christian's Campaign, he remained at the camp of Thomas Lovelady". William was a hunter and trapper. He said, "Thomas Sowers now called Sowards came in with Massey in 1771 and settled on the land."

Jephta Massey, who invited Thomas Sowards to come there, made the first Settlement in Turkey Cove in April 1775 and remained there until June, when everybody was driven away by the Indians, but returned in the Fall. William had a Certificate dated in 1779. Thomas Sowards and Massey had a Certificate dated in 1775. So Sowards and Massey were the first settlers there.
THE SOWARDS FAMILY

by Lois Sowards Coleman

Thomas Sowards was the progenitor of the Sowards families of Eastern Kentucky. Thomas Sowards I died in 1797. His birthdate is not known but his wife's name was Melesent Mills. Four of their children were Isaac Sowards, Thomas Sowards II, Robert Sowards and Rebecca Sowards who married John Lewis on 29 April 1791. Isaac Sowards died in 1803, leaving several children. Robert Sowards, born in 1783, served in the War of 1812. He received Land Grants in 1812, 1815, and 1816. Thomas Sowards I is listed in the "Historical Register of Virginians in the Revolutionary War," by John H. Gwathmey. His name also appears in the "Index to Revolutionary Records" in the Virginia State Archives, compiled by Dr. H. J. Eckenrode in 1912 and 1914. He is also listed on the tax list of Virginia in 1774 and 1775. He served in the Virginia Militia and received pay and Land Grants in 1775 and 1780.

Court Records of Augusta and Botetourt counties in Virginia show that a Thomas Sowards and his brother-in-law, Jeptha Massey, made a settlement at Turkey Cove in 1771. They and all the other settlers were driven away by the Indians in 1771 and 1772 but returned in the Fall of 1772. The Sowards family came to Kentucky before it was a State (1794).

Thomas Sowards II died in 1812. He married Lieutisha Hall of Virginia. She was born in 1772 and died in 1876 at the age of 104 years. He does not appear in the 1810 Census of this area but Lieutisha "Tisha" Sowards is shown with 2 males under 10, two females under 10, one female 10-16 and one female 26-45 years.

In 1812 (Floyd County, Ky.) an Administrator was appointed for the Estate of Thomas G. Sowards. Richard Damron was the Administrator and in August of 1812 an inventory of the Estate was taken and received in Court. It was held over until the September Court. In November of 1812 Lieutisha Sowards petitioned the Court through her lawyer to have Damron removed and she be appointed Administrator of Thomas Sowards' Estate. The motion was denied. Lieutisha also asked that certain items be excluded from the Inventory including hogs, a three-year-old heifer, etc. In 1814, James Ratcliff was appointed Guardian of the heirs of Thomas Sowards. In 1815 Lieutisha asked for his removal.
Rhodes Mead was then appointed Guardian. Thomas Sowards' heirs were named for the first time in 1815 when James Ratcliff was appointed Guardian.

In March 1817 the amount of the sale of the Estate of Thomas Sowards was received and recorded in Court. In 1818, 1819 and 1820 Ratcliff gave his annual reports to the Court. Entries in the Court Orders show that each change of Guardian demanded that all monies be turned over to him immediately. All the above Court records are from Floyd County, Kentucky, as Pike County was not formed at that time.

Thomas Sowards had four sons and two daughters of which some type of record has been found: They were:

Mahala Sowards, born 1794, married David McBroom on 15 December 1815, Floyd County, Kentucky. No further record of this family has been found.

Lewis Sowards, born 1798, married Ollie "Oly" Morgan on 4 July 1833 in Pike County, Kentucky.

Susanna Sowards, born about 1800. No records after 1815. Possibly died young.

Thomas Sowards, born 1804, married Stella Justice, 22 January 1824 in Pike County, Kentucky.

Charles Sowards, born 1809. No further records have been found on Charles.
Thomas Sowards took up land along the Levisa Fork of the Big Sandy River, extending from what is now Millard to Pikeville. This included several tracts in Pikeville. According to records in the Pike County Court Clerk's Office, the Sowards family from 1868 to 1919 sold thousands of acres of land in Pike County and many very large tracts of land inside the City of Pikeville. Kentucky Sowards, the Aunt of the writer, sold more than 200 acres of land inside the City of Pikeville, some of it was sold after my birth in 1913. Below are listed some of the deeds recorded in Pike County from 1868 to 1919.

5 Dec. 1860 - Thomas Sowards to John Dils, Jr., six hundred acres on the Levisa River.

7 May 1868 - Thomas Sowards to John Dils, Jr., six hundred acres on the Levisa Fork.

7 May 1868 - Thomas Sowards to C. Cecil, tract on Sandy River.

25 Oct. 1870 - Kentucky Sowards to A. F. Baum, thirty-one thousand acres (31,000) on the Sandy River.

July 1871 - Kentucky Sowards and William Scott to A. F. and E. H. Baum, thirty-one thousand acres (31,000) on Sandy River.

14 June 1873 - Kentucky Sowards Scott to Hibbard Williamson, eight and one half acres in Pikeville.

22 July 1872 - Kentucky Sowards Scott to William Craig, two acres in Pikeville.
15 July 1873 - Kentucky Sowards Scott to O. C. Bowles, tract in Pikeville.
20 Sept. 1873 - Lewis and Morgan Sowards to John Fiddler, large tract on Sandy River.
15 April 1873 - Kentucky Sowards Scott to Andrew Scott, large tract in Pikeville.
30 March 1884 - Kentucky Sowards Ferrell to L. J. Williamson, large tract in Pikeville.
1885 - Kentucky Sowards Ferrell to John W. Ford, large tract on Sandy River.
1 April 1889 - Kentucky Sowards Ferrell to C. H. Atkins, large tract on Sandy River.
6 January 1900 - Kentucky Sowards Salyers to City of Pikeville.
25 April 1904 - Kentucky Sowards Powers to Pikeville Board of Education.
19 August 1908 - Kentucky Sowards Powers to Stuart Bowman, 15½ acres in Pikeville.
18 April 1917 - Kentucky Sowards Powers to M. C. McCombs, 180 acres in Pikeville.
18 April 1919 - Kentucky Sowards Powers to Rebecca Cline, tract in Pikeville.

22 February 1919 - Kentucky Sowards Powers to R. A. Hellier, fifty thousand acres (50,000), Hellier, Kentucky.

The following are stories about the Sowards family that have been handed down through the generations:

"After a very severe winter, food supplies were running low and as soon as the first Spring thaw came, Thomas left his home in a homemade Jack boat and rowed down the river to Catlettsburg, Kentucky to get food. This was about 125 miles from Pikeville and it took him several weeks to make the trip. Lieutisha remained at home to care for the children and livestock. One day when she went out to feed the stock she recognized the tracks of a large bear that had come close to the home. The home was strong but she was alarmed for the safety of the livestock so she decided to set a trap for the bear. On one side of the house some of the mud daubing had fallen out between the logs and there was an opening nearly into the kitchen. Lieutisha tore out more of the loose mud and then poured a large amount of honey around the opening. She warned the children to stay inside and they all kept a close watch for the bear. One day they saw him waddling down the hill and he was much larger than they had expected. He immediately got the scent of the honey and he approached the house. He stepped up his pace and followed the scent right to the opening in the house. He climbed up on his back legs and braced himself against the house with his front paws and began licking the honey as fast as he could. He seemed to be very hungry. Lieutisha was prepared for him and quickly grabbed the heavy rope she had placed against the wall. She grabbed one of the bear's paws with the other hand and bound his paw to a strong peg she had driven into the wall for that purpose. She then pulled his other paw through the opening and tied it securely so that he could not get down. She cautioned the small children to stand back and stay away from the door. She went outside, picked up a heavy batten stick and beat the bear unconscious. She was afraid to untie the bear so she just let him hang there until her husband returned a few days later. He was told what happened and then he shot the bear and together they untied him and dragged him away from the house and buried him in their backyard. The children insisted a marker be placed at the bear's grave and it remained there many years after members of the family had passed away."

Another story that has passed down follows:

"One day Lieutisha was carrying her husband's dinner or midday meal to him in the fields. She became hot and tired from the long walk and sat down on a tree stump and laid her arm across the stump to rest. She was unaware of anyone near but suddenly a sharp pain went through her arm and she saw that she had been struck by an arrow from an Indian's bow. The blood began gushing and the pain became more severe as she watched the Indian come nearer. She started screaming as loud as she could and luckily her husband was in a cleared field not too far from the spot and rushed toward the sound of her scream. He got there in time to shoot the Indian through the head before Lieutisha was harmed further. She had a large scar on her arm but survived to tell the story to her grandchildren.

One well known hollow in this vicinity is "Turn Hole Hollow." There the water was clear and beautiful and very deep. Fish were plentiful there as recently as 1930. Garfield and Richard Harrison Sowards caught many fine fish in "Turn Hole" over the years.

As stated before, Thomas Sowards died about 1810-1812. Lieutisha Sowards died in 1876 and is buried in the Sowards Cemetery near Shelbiana, Kentucky. Thomas Sowards is buried on South College Street in Pikeville, near the Catholic Church.
THOMAS SOWARDS FAMILY

Thomas Sowards, the son of Thomas and Lieutisha (Hall) Sowards, was born in 1804 in what was then Floyd County but now Pike County. Thomas married Stella Justice and they had these children:

William Sowards
John Wesley Sowards
Louisa Sowards
Martin Jefferson Sowards
A. Jackson Sowards
Letitia Sowards
Martha Sowards.

All four boys served in the Civil War. William, John Wesley and Martin served in the Union Army and A. J. "Eff" served in the Confederate. Thus, it was during the War, brother against brother, and families divided, all of which was heart-breaking for the parents. John Wesley lived on Blaze Branch at the time of the War, and once he walked through deep snow at night across the Cumberland Mountains to warn the Confederate brother's troops that the Union Forces were on their way to attack them. He begged them to move on but they refused, saying they were well fortified on the mountain and would capture the Union Troops. The Union Forces arrived and the boys each led a Company of men who executed a pincers movement and captured the fortification, destroyed all the supplies and freed the prisoners. One of the prisoners that was captured was "Eff", their brother. They went to Wise, Virginia, and captured more prisoners and then returned to Louisa, Kentucky. They were with the 39th Kentucky Infantry and were attached to the Michigan and Ohio Cavalry. "Eff" spent the remainder of the War in a prison in Louisville, Kentucky. The other brothers never returned home. William died from smallpox and Martin and Wesley died of typhoid.

LEWIS SOWARDS FAMILY

Lewis Sowards was born in 1798 in what is now Pike County but was then Floyd County, Kentucky. He lived to be 92 years of age. He married Ollie Morgan, daughter of James Morgan, on 4 July 1933 in Pike County. Ollie Morgan was born about 1810 in Virginia. She died 14 June 1884 and Lewis died in 1890. Lewis was a captain in the Civil War and served in the Union Army, 39th Regiment Kentucky Infantry, Company E. Four of his sons and his son-in-law served in the Union Army. They were:

Capt. Thomas J. Sowards - Company C
1st Sgt. Henry Sowards - Company E
William H. Sowards - Company E
Morgan C. W. Sowards - Company E
William Scott, son-in-law - Company E

all in the 39th Regiment Kentucky Infantry. There were also about 15 other relatives, nephews and first cousins who served in the 39th.

Morgan C. W. Sowards was born about 1834 in Pike County. He married 1st Minerva Adkins on 22 June 1865, Pike County. Eight children were born to this union. After Minerva's death, Morgan married 2nd Laura Hyatt of Virginia. She was born about 1850 and died in 1925. Three children were born to this union. Morgan ran the first hotel, or boarding house, in Pikeville. It was located on Third Street and a large barn, or stable, was located behind the house for the guests to keep their horses and rigs. His cornfield was located where the old Pikeville High School stands on the corner of Fourth and Cline Streets. The City sidewalks were made of wood and the writer can vaguely remember one that ran alongside the road that led to the River Ferry at the end of Main Street. This walk connected Main Street and Scott Avenue. Members of my family can remember an old movie house, "Nickleodium" on the corner of Second and Pike Streets and particularly the time the young people turned the old
"pot belly" stove over on Saturday night.

The children of Morgan C. W. and Minerva (Adkins) were:
John D. Sowards, born about 1861
Georgia A. Sowards, born about 1864, married a Johnson
Lewis H. Sowards, born about 1868, married Ella Wolford
Kentucky Sowards, born about 1869, married a Justice
Henry Sowards, born about 1871, never married. Died at age 18 of typhoid.
Virginia "Jenny" Sowards, born about 1872, never married
Frances Sowards, born about 1874, married Duke Wolford
Annie Sowards, born about 1874, married John Fuller.
The children of Morgan C. W. and Laura (Hyatt) Sowards were:
Mary Sowards, born about 1875, married Philip Koepher
Sophia Sowards, born about 1880, married L. D. Chaney Garfield Sowards, born 1887, married Ruth Marrs.

During the time of the Civil War, Morgan Sowards ran a General Store at the Forks of the Levisa River near Millard.
Most of the supplies for his store were brought in by steamboat but some were brought on pack horses. Our family has heard many times an incident that happened during the War when a group of Confederate Soldiers rode through. They stopped and robbed and ransacked Morgan's store. Morgan's wife, my grandmother, said they took large bolts of material and strowed them up and down the road, rolling them in the dirt and letting their horses walk over them. My grandfather, Morgan, became so angry that he grabbed his shotgun and followed them down the riverside. He found his father, Capt. Lewis Sowards, and stayed with his troop of soldiers and fought in his father's Division. He was never "mustered in" or "mustered out" of the Army.

A CIVIL WAR INCIDENT THAT HAPPENED ON HARMON'S BRANCH

My great grandfather, Harmon Marrs, grandfather of Ruth Marrs Sowards, owned and lived at Harmon's Branch near Boldman, Kentucky. His old homeplace was about where the Green Meadows Country Club now stands. My great grandmother, Jennie Marrs, was outside making apple butter when a troop of Union Soldiers came along and arrested her as a Rebel Spy. They were on their way to Pikeville with her when they met Col. Dils and Capt. Lewis Sowards and their Company of soldiers. Col. Dils said, "What the hell are you doing with Aunt Jennie? Turn that woman loose." In later years, Capt. Lewis Sowards' grandson, Garfield Sowards, married Ruth Marrs, granddaughter of Jennie Marrs.

WILLIAM HARRISON SOWARDS

William Harrison Sowards was born in 1847 in Pike County, a son of Lewis and Ollie (Morgan) Sowards. He married Linchey Price on 26 September 1873 in Pike County. He served as Postmaster of Pikeville during the administration of Benjamin Harrison and continued in that office during President McKinley's term. All the Sowardses have been Republicans since that organization of the Party. William Harrison moved to Spokane, Washington, and died there in 1933.

William Harrison Sowards was a son of Lewis and Ollie (Morgan) Sowards. He moved to Chehalis, Washington, and died there in 1933. A newspaper obituary follows:

WAR VET HAD THINGS READY FOR FUNERAL

William Sowards, 86, of Chehalis, Arranged Own Details for Burial; Had Coffin Made "A Little Roomy"

CHEHALIS, Oct. 5 -(Special)- When William H. Sowards, 86 year old Kentucky Civil War veteran, whose funeral was held yesterday at Chehalis, died Sunday, he had everything arranged in advance, even to his homemade casket, which he had kept stored with a local undertaker the past five years. Throughout his life Sowards, a lifelong member of the Methodist church, had disliked owing anyone. He had paid his funeral expenses in advance and had a written agreement with the undertaker, which included all the details of his burial.

Five years ago Sowards had his friend of many years, J. M. Hatfield, make his coffin, according to special requirements. The casket was rectangular in shape, made of cedar lumber brought from Hoquiam. There was no glass in the top, which was but a single cedar board. Sowards had told Hatfield that he wanted the casket "a little roomy, so I can have room to turn over." He bought all the trimmings, the padding of cotton and the silkaline lining. He also bought a blue suit in which to be buried. Though he had worn it a few times previous to his death, he had an arrangement with a Chehalis cleaner to get it as soon as he died, so the suit could be made ready for his funeral. Another detail of his burial was that he should wear no tie. "I've never worn one in life, so I'll wear none when I die," he said. Also it was stipulated that he should be buried shoeless.

Often, when Sowards met the undertaker whom he had engaged to bury him, he would say jokingly, "Now, be sure you keep my coffin dusted off and ready for use." Sowards had always believed that a person about to die invariably had a premonition of approaching death. All summer he would tell his family that he did not expect to see another winter. About two weeks ago he lay down at home and said that he expected to die soon. He was not sick, felt no pain, but said he had fulfilled his mission in life, had done all he could, thought he had been kind to all and was not in the least afraid to die. Within a few days before death came, Sowards gathered the fruit in the yard and did other little kindnesses that would be of help to his faithful wife of years. It had been his lifelong desire to die in peace and to be buried when the sun was shining. All seemed to work out as he had planned. Sunday was a most beautiful, sunshiny day. He bade his family farewell, went to sleep and died peacefully soon afterwards.

At yesterday's funeral, members of the Chehalis Masonic Lodge, of which order Sowards had been a member at Pikeville, Ky., 49 years, had charge of the graveside services. Again the sunshine was unusually beautiful. The last wish of the veteran of the Union army, who fought for his country during three years of the Civil War was gratified.

Richard Harrison Sowards, son of William Harrison, was Sheriff of Pike County in 1917. He also served as Deputy U. S. Marshall of Pike County and was a Government Deputy for Pike, Floyd and Knott Counties for three years. He married Rebecca Moore.
THOMAS JEFFERSON SOWARDS

Thomas Jefferson Sowards was born about 1836, a son of Lewis and Ollie (Morgan) Sowards. He married Virginia Ratliff on November 3, 1858 in Pike County. He served with the Union Army and was a Captain of Company C, 39th Kentucky Infantry. The known children of Thomas Jefferson and Virginia (Ratliff) Sowards were:

- Mary E. Sowards, born 1860
- Paulina M. Sowards, born 1862
- James G. Sowards, born 1864
- Madora Sowards, born 1869
- Ada Sowards, born 1871
- Mintie Sowards, born 1877
- Harrison Sowards, born March 1880
- Lewis Sowards, born about 1882-1883, father of Virginia Nagel.

JAMES M. SOWARDS

James M. Sowards, son of Lewis and Ollie (Morgan) Sowards, was born about 1837 in Pike County. He married Anna Reynolds on 4 November 1866 in Pike County. Their known children were:

- William Sowards, born 1868
- John L. Sowards, born 1869.
AMERICA SOWARDS

America Sowards, daughter of Lewis and Ollie (Morgan) Sowards, was born in 1839. She married Joseph G. Walker on 1 August 1861 in Pike County. He was a school teacher.

KENTUCKY SOWARDS

Kentucky Sowards, daughter of Lewis and Ollie (Morgan) Sowards, was born 21 April 1843 in Pike County. She married 1st William M. Scott on 14 September 1860, Pike County. They had one child, Johnie Scott, born 19 November 1861, died 19 May 1865. They later adopted a child, Rebecca Scott, who married John S. Cline of Pike County. William Scott died 17 July 1875. Kentucky married 2nd Richard Ferrell on 18 May 1876. He was born 11 March 1831 and died about 1880. Kentucky married 3rd Samuel Salyers. No information available on Samuel. Kentucky married 4th Jim Press Powers about 1900. He died about 1917 and Kentucky married 5th U. S. Musick who died about 1922. Kentucky's 6th husband was Allen Maynard, who survived her. Aunt Kentucky Sowards died in 1925.

Scott Avenue in Pikeville was named for Kentucky's first husband, William Scott. Kentucky Avenue was named for her. She was one of the original organizers of The First National Bank of Pikeville and was the largest stockholder at that time. She gave to the Bank the land on which the present Bank stands. She also gave land and built the First Christian Church on Scott Avenue. Her father, Lewis Sowards, had built the first brick building in Pikeville.

HENRY C. SOWARDS

Henry C. Sowards, son of Lewis and Ollie (Morgan) Sowards, was born about 1845. He married Frances L. Johnson on 24 October 1866 in Pike County. Their known children were:

- America Sowards, born about 1868
- Ollie Sowards, born about 1871
- Morgan Sowards, born about 1872
- Lewis Sowards, born about April 1880
- Tony Sowards
- Blaine Sowards
- Jefferson Sowards

Henry Sowards was a 1st Sgt. in the 39th Kentucky Infantry and served under his father in Company E.

GARFIELD SOWARDS FAMILY

Garfield Sowards, son of Morgan C. W. and Laura (Hyatt) Sowards, was born 12 May 1887 and lived in Pikeville all his life. He died in 1976 at the age of 88 years. He married Ruth Marrs, who was born 21 June 1890 and died 22 August 1971 at the age of 81 years. Five children were born to Garfield and Ruth (Marrs) Sowards:

- Fern Sowards, born 19 November 1907, married Ernest Wolford, former County Court Clerk of Pike County.
Homer Clay Webster Sowards, born 23 August 1909, married Elizabeth Billiter and died in 1961, age 51 years.

Laura Opal Sowards, born 3 April 1912, married Charles Edwin Childers of Etty, Kentucky, in 1935.

Lois Virginia Sowards, born 14 December 1913 (the writer), married Clifford O. Coleman in 1932.

Lois Sowards Coleman has one daughter, Garlena Ruth Coleman, born 4 October 1941. She married Walter J. Smith of Ft. Walton Beach, Florida, and they have two daughters, Lauraline P. Smith and Ashley Renee Smith.

Jim Press Sowards has two daughters, Barbara Rhea Sowards, born June 1940, married John Grider of Bowling Green, Kentucky, and they have two daughters, Janet and Diane Grider. Jim's other daughter is Sarah Ruth Sowards, born February 1952. She married Terry Thompson and they have one son, Michael Chase Thompson, born July 1979. They reside in Lexington, Kentucky.

Garfield Sowards, my father, was in the coal business most of his life. As far back as I can remember he had several men working for him as he shipped coal from Pikeville during World War I and World War II. During the time of World War I, we can remember the river freezing over solid and that it would stay frozen for many months. Dad would have wagons and teams haul coal from the mouth of Chloe and Ferguson Creeks, down the middle of the river on the ice. They would take it to the end of Third Street and then up Third Street to what was then the old Pike Wholesale Grocery. This was where Betsy Ross Bakery used to do business and where B. & L. Furniture is now located. The coal was then loaded by hand from the wagons and on to C. & O. Railroad box cars on the side tracks that are still there. The Railroad did not furnish coal cars at that time.

My father was a very fine ice skater and I can remember when he would do fancy skating, making a figure eight and skating backwards. When we would ask him where he learned to skate like that, he would tell us right here on the Sandy River in Pikeville. Many of the townspeople skated on the frozen river back then.

When Dad was a young man, in the early spring he would run log rafts down the river to Catlettsburg, Kentucky. River traffic was rather heavy on the Big Sandy in the early part of this century. Steamboats came to Pikeville often and my grandmother has told me many times about riding them from Harmons Branch to Pikeville. She made the trip often.

When our family lived on Third Street in Pikeville, about 1916, there was an old tin building located at the end of Second Street. Prisoners were kept in this building and they went out and worked on the roads each day. When the building was no longer used to house prisoners it was used for a roller skating rink. My father, Garfield Sowards, skated there. He participated in many sports and particularly liked baseball and played well. Other local men who played baseball with him were Sidney Trivette, Butler Bales, and a Brewer man. One of the Pike County coal companies located at Rockhouse, Kentucky, contacted my Dad and hired him to play baseball for their team. This was before my time, about 1910. They made him a very attractive offer to stay at Rockhouse and play ball for them but he would not stay away from Pikeville for very long at a time. He always thought that Pikeville was "the garden spot of the Nation." When I was a child I remember seeing him play baseball in the west end of Pikeville. The ballpark was located about where Myra Barnes Avenue is now. That was before Cline Street was paved. Cline Street was paved about 1920-1922. Dad was a member of the Christian Church and played baseball on the Church team. They had the best team in the area at that time.

In 1918 Pikeville had one of the worst floods. It was often referred to as the "ice tide." The River had been frozen solid for many months and when the spring thaws came and the ice began to melt and break up it would fly several feet in the air in large chunks. Our family lived on Third Street at that time and it was in a rather low lying area. Several of us became ill with scarlet fever shortly after the flood. We had never experienced a flood of that size and we remained in our home until we had to be carried out. I can especially remember Dad making us eat our noon day meal before we left the house. By then the water was on the top step ready to run into the kitchen. We thought sure our home would be washed away, off its foundation and down the River. Dad had a driver working for him by the name of Bill Keene and he swam a large horse around the house and tied the house to a big tree with a heavy rope. All the "old timers" in Pikeville well remember the "ice tide" of 1918.

In the early 1920's and 1930's the coal business was "on and off" as it is today. When business was slow, Dad always managed to get something else to do until it came back again, and it always did.

Garfield Sowards served as the first highway patrolman in Pike County. The only highway was between Pikeville and Williamson and he patrolled that road. Many people were killed on that highway because of the sharp curves. One particularly bad curve on Town Mountain was called "Dead Man's Curve" because so many accidents occurred there. Town Mountain has been cut down considerably since that time.

Dad also served as a deputy sheriff in 1917. He attended the old Pikeville Academy School on College Street. Professor T. M. Riddle was one of his teachers of whom he was very fond.

Our family has many pleasant memories of our parents and of Pikeville and Pike County.

Christian Church, Scott Ave., 1883.
The first congregation of the Christian Church in Pikeville, Kentucky was organized in 1883, after a meeting held in the public school by the Rev. Mr. Petty who was an Evangelist in the State of Kentucky. The charter members were: Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. L.J. Williamson, Mr. J.H. Rutroff, Mr. Henry Sowards, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Sowards, Mr. R.M. Ferrell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reothford, Mr. David Steel, Mrs. Eliza Steel, Mrs. Mary Leslie, Mrs. Mat Amick, Mr. William Sowards, Mrs. Kentucky Scott, and Mr. and Mrs. Silas Scott.

A lot was given to the Church by Mrs. Kentucky Ferrell by deed dated August 11, 1893, to "L.J. Williamson, J.H. Rutroff and J.M. Scott, Trustees of the Christian Church of the City of Pikeville, Kentucky, and their successors in office for the purpose of public worship." A boxed and stripped building was erected on the lot in 1887. Mrs. Ferrell is the same person as Mrs. Kentucky Scott, a charter member, and Mrs. Salyers, shown with her husband in the center of the Christmas picture of the interior of our first church building and Mrs. Kentucky Powers, who also gave to the congregation the brick building which we are now occupying as our Church home. She was a woman of great generosity.

Cemetery Inventory

By: Eldon J. & Ruthie J. May

The purpose of this project is to preserve the information found on tombstones. Our first priority is to complete the cemeteries that are no longer receiving burials. All information on the tombstones is to be copied. The name and location of the cemetery, the date it was inventoried and the name of the person who inventoried it are to be included. Make a sketch of the cemetery showing the location of the graves with the number corresponding with the names on the form.

Keathley Cemetery at Richam Station on the Willie Riddle Farm on Shelby Creek

At the lower side of the cemetery is a rock enclosure with two graves. One is a Revolutionary War Soldier, John May, Sr. The other is his wife, Sarah Phillips May. Their grandson put up the stones. They are not legible. There are 12 graves that are identifiable; two with partial inscriptions and 19 unidentified.

*This date could be wrong. An 1880 census shows an Allen Lesley living with his grandson in Floyd County. The dates of Allen and Elizabeth Lesley could have been transposed since the stones were erected by their son-in-law, probably years later.

OBITUARY OF JESSE JONES

Jesse Jones, of Fed's Creek, Pike Co., Ky., was born in Johnson Co., Tenn., in the year 1831 and died Feb. 23, 1913. He became a member of the Methodist Church, South, about the year 1855. In 1852 Bro. Jones moved from Johnson Co., Tenn. and the writer met him soon after his arrival on the Knox Creek charge. At the time of his death he was an old man (82) full of years and feeble in health, but with a strong faith in God. I talked with Bro. Jones frequently on the subject of religion. He was always cheerful and often expressed his faith in his Lord. He often spoke of going home and he is now in that home which he so often mentioned.

He was united in marriage to Miss Phoebe South, of North Carolina and to this happy union ten children were born, four of whom have preceded the parents to the spirit land, six (two sons and four daughters) are left to mourn the loss of father and mother. The surviving children are John and William Jones, Fannie Griffey, Jane Gearals of Feds Creek, Polly Fuller of Greenbrier, West Va. and Sarah Greene of Greenup Co., Ky.

JAMES AND SARAH (TACKETT) HUDSON FAMILY

BY: ELSIE HUDSON

Among the families who first came to the North American Continent from Europe, few have been more deserving or more neglected in historical writings than those named Hudson. Around 1500 a Henry Hudson came into England with great wealth and extended influence. He helped organize The Muscovy Trading Company, which was a great company of its time. He was created High Admiral of England, by patent 14 May 1550 and retained office until March 1554. Appointed again by Phillip and Mary in 1558. Hudsons were in Va. and N.C. by 1790. In the early English settlements there they are listed as explorers, taming the wilderness, in wars to hold the land, and building for the future. It is said they maintained a low profile in troubled times.

Joseph Asberry Hudson and wife Mary are listed in 1860 federal census in Wilkes County, N.C. He was born in 1827, she 1829.

A letter from his grandson, John Lee Gillespie, to Woodrow Hudson, relates the following, as told to him by his mother, Phoebe (Hudson) Gillespie:

Joseph Hudson and family lived on a farm in Wilkes County, N.C. They wanted to come to Kentucky, but had the farm there. Some man came into the area, made friends with Joseph, and told him he had a farm on Beefhide Ky, now Pike Co. and he would trade; he liked it here. Joseph being honest and truthful believed him and so they shook hands and traded. When the family arrived on Beefhide, there was no farm or person by the name given. A farmer had a house and let the Hudson family live in it. They remained here a year or two, then moved to Goose Creek in Floyd Co., Ky. Here Mary died, and Joseph still wanting his farm back, set out for N.C. He got to Cushaw Creek on the head of Beaver, where he became ill. A kind family took him in and cared for him until he died there. No dates are found. And the Hudson farm was never reclaimed by the family.
1. JAMES HUDSON, s. of Joseph Asberry and Mary _____ Hudson, was born in Wilkes County, North Carolina, in 1859. James came to Ky. after 1870. He was in the Floyd Co. 1880 federal census. He m. THE MILLERS OF FEDS CREEK, PIKE COUNTY

By Mary (Jones) Miller and Lena Pugh
Abstracted by Dorcas Hobbs

Eli Jackson Miller was born about 1818 in North Carolina. He married Rachel South, who was also born in North Carolina about 1828. They came to Pike County just before June of 1860, probably early that Spring. They settled on Motley's Fork of Feds Creek. One of Rachel's sisters Phoebe (South) Jones and her husband Jesse Jones had migrated to Kentucky earlier and had settled on the upper waters of Feds Creek. Another sister Annie (South) Esteridge had settled on Paw Paw of Knox Creek which empties into the Tug Fork.

Eli and Rachel, with the help of their neighbors, built a log house and Eli made the furniture for it. They cleared the land and planted crops of corn, oats, beans, potatoes and many other vegetables. The first four children were born in North Carolina and the last four were born in Pike County, Kentucky.

Eli could do about anything. He made spinning wheels, tanned leather and then made the shoes, he was a blacksmith and made forks and knives as well as plows. He could make about any kind of furniture that was needed. During the Civil War Eli was carried off to prison for not joining the Army. He was taken to Richmond, Virginia. Rachel had to take over and try to keep the family together. She hid the horse so the Army wouldn't take him by tying him under a large cliff with an overhanging rock and two of the children, Sarah and Henry, carried food and water to him.

One day the robbers came and took all the good clothes and started to take the two milk cows but Rachel pleaded with them and they finally left without them. After that Rachel moved almost all their possessions across the creek to a cave.

My grandfather (Lena Pugh's) Louis Keene took a sack of corn to Johnny Mutter's grist mill. Johnny was Louis's father-in-law. While the corn was grinding the two men were talking and Louis's son, Harrison Keene, who was then ten years old, was nearby when the Mutter girls started shouting for them to run because the robbers were coming. They sprang out of the mill door but the foe was already close and began to fire at them. Johnny Mutter fell over the fence and lay still but Louis Keene fell with nine bullet holes through him. Johnny Mutter was shot through the leg but Louis was dead in the mill yard with his little boy, Harrison, standing over him. Johnny's widow, Susie Keene, had seven children to raise and they had a hard time keeping enough food for them.

Grandfather Eli Jackson Miller was in prison when this happened but soon after, since the Rebel Army didn't have enough food to feed the prisoners, they opened the doors and let them go. Eli contracted pneumonia on the way home and a good couple took him in and nursed him. His friend came on to Feds Creek and told Rachel what had happened and she got the horse and started out to find Eli. When she found the home where he had stayed, they told her that he had recovered and had gone home. When Rachel got back home he was there with the children. Eli soon got his health back with the help of Rachel's home cooked meals.

They were somewhat oppressed at this time because of the hardships brought on by the Civil War and so Eli and Rachel agreed to part with some of their land. They sold their home and 200 acres of land to Harper Phillips. Rachel and Eli built another home about a half mile up Motley and moved their effects up there.

In November of 1896 Rachel took a type of flu and died in a few days. Eli Jackson Miller died two weeks after Rachel of the same thing. They were both buried on the farm of their son, George McClellan Miller.

The children of Eli Jackson and Rachel (South) Miller were:

SARAH JANE MILLER, born 1850 in North Carolina
ELI HENRY MILLER, born 1852 in North Carolina
MARY MILLER, born 1857 in North Carolina
JOHN WATKINS MILLER, born 1859 in North Carolina
GEORGE MCCLELLAN MILLER, born 1862, Pike County, Kentucky
REBECCA MILLER, born in Pike County
SHERMAN MILLER, born in Pike County, died in infancy
LEONARD ROSS MILLER, born 1864 in Pike County.

(Note: It will not be possible to include the complete families of the children of Eli Jackson and Rachel Miller as the "Genealogy" prepared by Mary Jones Miller contains 166 pages. We will list the families through the grandchildren and most of the great grandchildren of Eli and Rachel.

*This list has been compiled from Zerox copies of Bond Book I and license files, plus published lists of Jillson, Burns and The East Kentuckian by Henry Scalf. The Book is mostly brief notes of persons officiating at the weddings.

Clyde Runyon, the owner of the zeroxed records, graciously loaned them to Mrs. Kelly. He is preparing a book with complete information about Pike County marriages, including the ones which took place while the Pike area was part of Floyd County, which included all or parts of 15 Eastern Kentucky counties.

The First National Bank of Pikeville began business as a State Bank under the name of the Bank of Pikeville. At the first meeting of the Board of Directors, of September 20, 1888, A. J. Hatcher was temporarily elected President and W. M. Connolly, Secretary and Treasurer. The purpose of this meeting was to make plans for a brick bank building with law offices over it. The property was later purchased from Mrs. Kentucky Ferrell, size 24' X 40', for $700.00 and was paid for by the sale of capital stock. With the lot went the privilege of adjoining the bank building to the side of a store house on the next lot.

The following permanent officers were elected by the Board of Directors on December 8, 1888, R. M. Ferrell, President; C. W. Parson, Vice President; and Hi Williamson, "Cashier Temporary", who was later replaced by J. B. Hatten as the Permanent Cashier and Secretary at a salary of $800.00 per year.

When the building was completed, the part occupied by the Bank contained 76,580 brick, which, at $3.00 per 1,000 amounted to $229.74 plus $236.74 for labor. The vault door was purchased from Hall's Lock and Safe Company for $100.00, less $5.00 freight, to be paid on arrival.

The Directors of the Bank of Pikeville met in the court house on June 29, 1889, and adopted Minutes to the previous meetings and By-Laws for the government of the Bank, which was to open officially on July 1, 1889.

On April 1, 1890, the Directors decided they should provide better protection for their customers' funds and valuables. A time-lock burglar-proof safe was purchased from Hall's Lock and Safe Company in Cincinnati at the price of $675.00. This was later traded in on a Mosler Safe, which has a round top with a rotating combination lock center section, approximately five and one-half feet tall. Inside capacity of the center section was approximately nine and one-half cubic feet. This safe was the very latest protection in the bank-vault line at that time. It can still be seen in the inner vault of the bank, as the large outer vault was later built around it and the safe has never been removed.

Application was made for the conversion into a National Bank and permission was granted on February 20, 1903. The name was officially changed to The First National Bank of Pikeville, and the following officers were elected to operate the rest of that year: John W. Ford, President, J.P.Powers, Vice President, J. C. Bowles, Cashier, and W. W. Gray, Assistant Cashier.
We have enjoyed good leadership by our past and present officers. Following are the men who have served as Presidents; R. M. Ferrell; John W. Ford; W. W. Gray; George W. Greer; Mack Bowles; Kelly Day; Norman A. Chrisman; and Walter P. Walters, Sr.; our current President.

On January 13, 1925, the Office of "Chairman of the Board" was created, with George W. Greer elected to hold this newly elected office. He was succeeded in this office in later years by the following: Mack Bowles; Cecil R. Greer; Robert H. Hobbs; and James G. Hobbs; our present Chairman.

In 1932, $3,235.00 was spent for the installation of the Mc Clintock Bandit Barrier Protection System. Up until this time, a guard has been employed for the lobby of the bank.

Extensive remodeling of the bank was undertaken again in 1952, and the new lobby and exterior was completed in early 1953.

The first branch bank was opened at South Williamson Ky, on August 1, 1963, to better serve the Pike County Public and the growth of First National Satelite Facilities was on the way. Presently there are five branches of the bank and another is to be in service by the end of the year, 1980.

Ninety years after opening its doors as the Bank of Pikeville, The First National Bank has become the fastest growing bank in Eastern Kentucky. A new multi-million dollar brick structure, housing a modern bank and cafeteria will be open for business before the end of 1980.

In contrast to the 76 thousand brick used in its initial construction, the new seven story First National Bank Building is constructed of over 600,000 bricks with concrete parking space for 100 plus cars.

We have enjoyed serving our community and helping it grow. We hope Eastern Kentucky will continue to progress and that we will share in that progress.

Floyd County, Kentucky, was created in 1799 by an act of the General Assembly, to be effective June 1, 1800. The original Floyd County contained, whole or in part, 15 present day Eastern Kentucky counties. The above map, prepared in 1950 by Henry P. Scalf, editor of THE EAST KENTUCKIAN, was the first attempt to accurately delineate the boundaries of the original area.
