PREFACE.

The Abbey of Holyrood was founded by King David I. in 1128 on the site of a still more ancient and probably Celtic Church, the foundations of which have recently been laid bare during the excavations made by H.M. Office of Works. The Canons regular, who were of the Order of St. Augustine, took up residence there on the completion of the building about 1176. The Abbey was destroyed by the English under the Earl of Hertford in 1543-4, and again after Pinkie in 1547, nothing but the nave being left. In 1687, the congregation of the Canongate was removed from the Church by order of James VII. that it might become a Chapel for the Order of the Thistle, then established or re-constituted. The parishioners were accommodated in a new church built in the Canongate in 1688, which thereafter became the parish church. In 1768 the roof of the Abbey, which had been repaired in 1758 by being covered with stone, fell in, and the chapel became the ruin it has since remained.

The Register of Marriages preserved in the Lord Clerk Register's Department is contained in eleven volumes embracing the following periods:

I. 20th August 1564 to 16th August 1567; II. 30th May 1600 to 2nd August 1631; III. 21st October 1645 to 1690; IV. August 1687 to 1719; V. 23rd June 1719 to 1790; VI. 1790 to 1804; VII. 1804 to 1811; VIII. 1811 to 1817; IX. 1817 to 1819; X. 1820 to 1832; XI. 1833 to 1854.

The Register is blank from August 1567 to May 1600, from August 1631 to October 1645, and from July 1675 to November 1685, also "there was no partties married within the Kirk of Holyroodhouse from 23rd August 1650 till the 26th June 1651 by reasoun of the Inglish armie in and about the town."

By an unfortunate oversight the second volume, 1600-1631, was omitted to be transcribed along with the others, and the entries therein will be found in an Appendix.

On the 21st July 1565 occurs this entry, "The quhilk day John Brand, mynister, presentit to the Kirk ane writing written be the Justice Clark's hand desyring the Kirk of the Canongait and mynister thairof to proclaim Harie, Duk of Abanye, Erle of Rois, etc., on the one part, and Marie, by the Grace of God Quene Soverane of this realme, on the uthair part. The quhilk the Kirk ordains the mynister so to do with Invocation of the Name of God."

The following note is also inserted in the Register:—

"The persons that has commonicat the time of thair deceis, day and yeir beginning Anno 1565.

"Thomas Scot of Sanct Johnston, hangit at the corse of Edinburgh under ane coller of treson for the religous cause 2nd April 1566.

"Mons. Singnior David wes slane in Halyrudhouse, the ix. day of Merche 1565.

"The Kyng's grace blawin up with puder in the Kirk of Field the x. of Februer 1566.

The Register of Burials in the Abbey from 1706 to 1900 was printed by the Society in 1900.
