RHINEHART “RINARD” KIMBERLIN AND DESCENDANTS

BY

Floyd Thomas Pratt, F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

© 1992 revised 2013

The author has compiled a 2-generation comprehensive descendancy report of progenitor Rhinehart “Rinard” Kimberlin. It is my hope that this will serve as a template for others to record and report on their family history.

Preface

This body of work has taken 38 years of record searching in courthouses, interviews with living relatives, cemeteries, microfilm reading of census records, deeds and most important of all…libraries from the local town library to the National Archives, resources gathered from all over Missouri and Tennessee.

I have had help from many researchers sharing their research over the years with the intent that one-day, I would be able to compile and share what was found with others seeking their family histories. It is with great pleasure I am able to share this accumulative descendant research in this comprehensive volume of work.

Please make copies of this file for future preservation. I am the only one who knows how to create a book of this caliber.

Layout

There are several sections in this book.

[2] Beginning with his oldest known child and spouse followed by each grandchild until all known children have been completed.

[3] Most descendants have basic information followed by notes comprised of very important source documentation and research recommendations.

[4] Most descendants have spousal information including children and their spouses. If further information is wanted concerning allied families, please contact the author.

[5] Names highlighted in blue are the author’s direct line ancestors.

[6] The end of the book has the author’s pedigree showing his relationship to the common ancestor. Also, there is a short biography of the author explaining his interest and qualifications in family history research.

I hope you will share this book with others in your family and it will become a family treasure.

Any questions you may have concerning information in this book can be asked of the author either at his home address: Floyd Pratt, 4000 20th Street West Apt 113, Bradenton, Florida 34205-5057 or by phone 941.209.1701 or by email floydpratt59@yahoo.com.

It is and always has been my desire to share what I have found with others so they may use our research as a springboard to launch their family histories. Only through knowing our ancestors…can we know ourselves.

Rhinehart "Rinard" E. Kimberlin and Descendants

First Generation

1. Rhinehart "Rinard" E. Kimberlin, son of James Kimberling Sr. and Nancy Humphries, was born in 1805 in Botetourt, Virginia, United States, died from 1886 to 1900 in Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States at age 81, and was buried from 1886 to 1900 in probably Kimberlin Cemetery, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States.

Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile of Rhinehart "Rinard" E. Kimberlin(g) by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 5 July 2010

In harmony with the first law of genealogy or family history research, i.e., documentation, I submit my famous Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile on this subject including all known documentation presented for the serious researcher. This has been done to help the serious researcher continue in their thirst for family history knowledge without a duplication of effort. All I ask is that you acknowledge my contribution to your family history research. My gift to you…Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

1801-1805 Birthblock for Rhinehart "Rinard" E. Kimberlin(g) son of James & Nancy (HUMPHRIES) Kimberling

Rhinehart "Rinard" E. Kimberlin(g) was born in Botetourt, Virginia, United States between 1801-1805.

Date from the 1810 census states his birth was 1801-1810.
Date from the 1820 census states his birth was 1802-1804.
Date from the 1830 census states his birth was 1801-1810.
Date from the 1840 census states his birth was 1801-1810.
Date from the 1850 census states his birth was 1806 in Virginia.
Date from the 1860 census states his birth was 1805 in Virginia.
Date from the 1870 census states his birth was 1810 in Virginia.
Date from the 1880 census states his birth was 1805 in Virginia.
Therefore he could have been born between 1801-1805.

However, I rule out 1810 as a birth year, because he would have been 15 years old when he got married and that is too young and he would have gone to Missouri with his parents in 1825. So, it looks like he was born between 1801-1805.

A Rose by any Other Name by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2008

AKA

Rhinard, Rynard, Rinard, Renard, Renor, Burnard, Bernard however it was spelled, his given name was actually Rhinehart named after his Great Grandmother, Mary Magdelena (RHINEHART) from Germany. There are other instances where Missourians have taken a name and created slang. For instance, Rolla, Phelps, Missouri was actually named after Raliegh, North Carolina but in the translation it became known as "Rolla".

Pronunciation

My best guess as to how to pronounce Rinard Kimberlin's name I think was revealed in the 1840 census. The censustaker spelled his name as Burnard. The 1830 censustaker spelled his name as Renor. Therefore, I feel his name was pronounced Renard as in Ra-nard. I had been previously pronouncing his name as Ren-ard. But to a censustaker Ra-nard sounds like Burnard but with an R.

Surname

Concerning the surname Kimberlin(g), when Hans Jacob Kümmerlein made his move to Virginia from Germany the frontier of the Appalachian mountains converted his name from Kümmerlein to Kimberling. I have seen it spelled Komberlin, Kimberlin, Kimboling and variations. It appears when Rhinehart moved to Washington County, Missouri, the Kimberling family dropped the "g" and they pronounced it as Kim-ber-lin, not "line" or "ling". Now, when Rinard's sibling, Nathaniel moved down to Stone, Arkansas and his other brother, James lived in the Ozarks of Missouri, they retained the "g", in fact, Kimberling City, Stone County, Missouri was named after Rinard's brother; James Kimberling who eventually moved to Springfield, Greene County, Missouri.

Mistaken Parentage
Some believe Michael Kimberling is the father of Rinard, however, I refute that assumption since Michael Kimberlin married Catherine (HUMPHRIES) circa 1782 and out of all the 11 family trees on ancestry.com, not one lists any children they may have had. I have been fortunate to find a researcher back in the 1970's who gave me several of their children listed in his family.

Also, some believe Michael was actually Johann Michael Kimberlin or Michael Johann Kimberlin born 1 July 1753 in Augusta County, Virginia, which makes him brother to Peter Paulzer Kimberlin...Rinard's grandfather, NOT brother to Rinard's father; James Kimberling Sr., whom was born in 1780-1784.

If Michael and Catherine (HUMPHRIES) Kimberlin began having children after their marriage in 1782, then according to the 1810 census the oldest child was born 1794-1800. There are only two sons listed with Michael Kimberlin family in the 1810 census. Jacob who was born 1794-1800 and Henry who was born in 1805. Therefore, if Rinard Kimberlin who was born 1800-1804 belonged to Michael Kimberline then where is Rinard in the 1810 census?

However looking at James Sr. and Nancy (HUMPHRIES) Kimberlin's 1810 census in the same county, we see that James has 3 sons listed under 9 years of age...Nathaniel age 9, Rinard age 8, and Joseph age 7. Since Rinard fits in the 1810 census with James Kimberling Sr. and does not fit the family of Michael Kimberlin family then James is Rinard's father.

Another point...after Rinard married Frances (PETERS) in 1825 in possibly Giles County, Virginia, he moved to Washington County, Missouri near James Sr. and Nancy (HUMPHRIES) Kimberlin and remained in that county until his death sometime after 1886. I ask...what would motivate Rinard to move from Botetourt or Giles County, Virginia to Washington County, Missouri if his parents were not living in Washington County?

Also, James and Nancy's children were married and living around Washington County all about the same time between 1825-1830. James and son James Jr. moved on to Greene County, Missouri while others moved on to southwest Missouri and Texas. Rinard and sister Nancy Jane (KIMBERLING) Clark remained in Washington County and raised large families.

Checking the Michael Kimberlin family I found that son; Henry moved to Brooke County, West Virginia where he died, son; Andrew moved to Madison County, Illinois where he died and son; Joseph moved to Cass County, Missouri where he died. NONE of them moved to Washington County, Missouri or lived near Rinard Kimberlin.
Also, researchers believe that Michael and his wife; Catherine (HUMPHRIES) Kimberlin died in 1826-1827 respectively. If this is true, then why would Rinard leave Botetourt County, Virginia and move to Washington County, Missouri before his parents's died? Also, why wouldn't Rinard have joined one of his brothers in West Virginia, Illinois or Cass County, Missouri? If Joseph Kimberlin was his brother, then why didn't Rinard move to Cass County, Missouri to be near him? According to the 1850,1860,1870 census, Joseph Kimberlin son of Michael was living in Dayton Township, Cass County, Missouri where he died. The answer is plain...they were not Rinard's siblings and James Sr. and Nancy (HUMPHRIES) were his parents.

With the strong census evidence, and Rinard's movements before his marriage, the marriage record states he was born in 1800, which indicates he was 25 years old when he did marry Frances and living on his own in Botetourt or Giles County, Rinard after his marriage moved to be near his parents and siblings in Washington County, Missouri. Therefore, I still stand by my conclusion that James Sr. and Nancy (HUMPHRIES) Kimberlin were Rinard E. Kimberlin's parents. Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

1802 Childbirth of brother; Joseph Kimberling
Joseph Kimberling was born in Botetourt, Virginia, United States between 1802.

1801-1810 Childbirth of brother; James Kimberling Jr.
James Kimberling Jr. was born in Botetourt, Virginia, United States between 1801-1810. This birth range is speculative. Since James did not live to the 1850 census we really don't know when he was born. I suspect it was after the 1810 census.

1808 Death of grandfather; Peter Paulzer Kimberling
Peter Paulzer Kimberling died in Botetourt, Virginia, United States between June 17, 1808 and October 1808.

All evidence indicates they were married between 1824-1825. Catherine is the oldest known child born August 1828 in Missouri NOT Virginia. Since Frances’ Peters family were still living in Giles County, Virginia next to Botetourt County, then they were probably married in one of those surrounding counties of Virginia or what is now West Virginia. Nevertheless they were married before they moved to Missouri.

"Forest Hills and Vicinity" by John Steele McCormick, © 1970, page 140
"Besides the Harrison's, Summers, Anthonys and various Harman families, the Kimberlin family has always been associated with this area. There were at least two and possibly three foundling families of which the best known is the Rhinard and Frances Kimberlin family who came from Virginia in 1827 and settled in Washington County (according to Stevens history.) They settled at Anthonies Mill about 1845. They were parents of four sons and four daughters all of whom married into local families. Unfortunately, family data was not made available. They were: Joseph, Jacob, Michael, Henry, Mary, Nancy, Catherine, and Vermetta.

Vermetta, in 1853 married Ruben Harman. Curiously, she used the name Henrietta, when she married Ruben. The marriage is recorded at Potosi and the dates correspond to Vermetta’s. The family often spelled the name Kimberling. Ben Kimberling in 1825 in St. Louis, made the first entry for land in Township 40; Range 1 West of Washington County."

1828 Childbirth of daughter; Catherine (KIMBERLING)
Catherine (KIMBERLING) was born in Meremac Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States on August 1828.

Research Note
Since John Jacob Peters Jr. was living in Giles County, Virginia up until 1830 when he moved to Washington County, Missouri indicates that Rinard and Frances were married in Giles County before their first born daughter; Catherine was born in 1828 in Missouri. After their marriage and before the birth of Catherine, Rinard and Frances moved to be near his parents who were living in Washington County, Missouri. The article John McCormick’s book "Forest Hills and Vicinity" 1970 stated the following, "There were at least two and possibly three founding families of which the best known is the Rhinard and Frances Kimberlin family who came from Virginia in 1827 and settled in Washington County (according to Stevens history.)" This is in harmony with the research evidence.

1830 Father-in-Law’s Family Move
John Jacob Peters Jr. moved from Giles, Virginia, United States to Meremac Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States. It appears that after the death of his 1st wife John Jun. and son John III moved to Missouri. Probably because of the Kimberling families who all moved around 1826-1827 to Missouri. John II appears both in the Giles County, Virginia census and the Washington County, Missouri census. It also looks like a majority of his children stayed in Giles County because only John III shows up in the 1830 Meremac Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States census with his father. Also, since Rinard moved to Washington County, Missouri several years before his father-in-law...John Jacob Peters Jr. moved to Washington County, would indicate Rinard moved to be near his parents and John Jacob Peter Jr. moved to be near his daughter and his grandchildren.

1839 Good Friends
by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2008
It should be noted here that Rinard Kimberlin was a good neighbor and a friend to the Henry Pratt family.
When the Pratts arrived in eastern Crawford County in March 1839, they moved into Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri after their ordeal on the "Trail of Tears". They settled near the Kimberlins and struck up a good friendship.

When James Pratt married Rinard's daughter, Catherine in 1847-1848, James probably told Rinard that he wanted a piece of property near Rinard or Catherine told James to buy some property near her parents either way, it was against the law for indians to own or buy land.

Rinard bought the land, the James Pratt family settled on from Firmin Desloge and 3 weeks later sold 24 acres of his 105 acres to his son-in-law, James Pratt.

Rinard did the same for his daughter, Mary after she married Alexander Pratt...James' brother. After James became a property owner it was easier for James and Alexander to pass themself off as a white man even though they were ½ Cherokee. This led to Alexander’s land purchase two years later in May 1856 from William & Martha Hughes, which he later sold to the Ambrose Marion Pennock family from Ohio in 1859.

Rhinehart "Rinard" E. Kimberlin died near Anthonies Mill, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States between 16 February 1886, when he last sold property, and before the date of the 1900 census. 1886-1900 Burial of Rinard E. Kimberlin
No headstone has been found of him or his wife but he was probably buried in the Kimberlin Cemetery now known as Anthonies Mill Cemetery since Kimberlin friends and family are buried there. Long before Jonas Anthony bought out the grist and saw mill from John Harrison in 1856, Kimberlin Cemetery had been established. The oldest recorded burial in the Kimberlin Cemetery that I know of, is Josephine Kimberlin died October 1841 aged 88yrs 2dys, which puts her birth October 1753. I have yet to learn who she was, but she was buried 15 years before Jonas Anthony bought the mill. How or why they changed the name of the cemetery from Kimberlin Cemetery to Anthonies Mill, (which they spelled Anthony wrong), is unknown. They probably changed the name sometime after Rinard's death or in the early 1900's.

Troubling Controversy
As I continue my research into family histories as I have done over the last 38 years, I become more and more annoyed by certain injustices that seem to have taken place. One of these injustices is the naming of Anthonies Mill Cemetery by state and local officials who haven't a clue as to the real and correct origins of the cemetery. I shall present the evidence to the reader and let you draw your own conclusions.

Kimberlin(g) Cemetery
Kimberlin(g) Cemetery aka Anthonies Mill, is located off of Highway N North of where Summer's store then Kimberlin's Store was located in Section 19, Township 39 North, Range 1 West in the Johnson Township, Washington County, Missouri. Latitude: 38.09171, Longitude: -91.08597

When Rhinehart "Rinard" E. & Frances Jane (PETERS) Kimberlin(g) came to Washington County, Missouri in 1827, they first settled in the Meramec Township, Washington County area by the 1830 census.

Rinard bought property in the Richwoods Township, Washington County by the 1840 census. On 21 September 1840, his brother-in-law; John & Mary (HULSEY) Peters sold him 40 acres in what is called the Hamilton Hollow area of Johnson Township.

Hamilton Hollow is another example of an injustice concerning the naming of the area. Originally it was named after Absalom Blanton and renamed Hamilton after the Hamilton Iron Works purchased some property, which originally belonged to the Blanton family.

Kimberlin Cemetery History
On the 6th of February 1854, Firmin Rene & Cynthia Ann (McILVAINE) Desloge based out of Potosi, sold 105 acres to Rinard and family in the Northwest corner of Section 19, Township 39 North, Range 1 west for $300.

How long Rinard and family had lived in the area before purchasing the property is unknown. After establishing residence in that area, Rinard donated the property for a cemetery named in his honor as the Kimberlin Cemetery.

The very first known recorded person with a headstone to have been buried in the Kimberlin Cemetery was Josephine Kimberlin born October 1753 and died October 1841 aged 88 years and 2 days. I have yet to learn who she was, but she was buried 15 years before Jonas Anthony bought the gristmill.

The Gristmill changes hands

Long before Jonas Anthony bought the grist and sawmill from John Harrison in 1856, Kimberlin Cemetery had been established on land donated by Rinard Kimberlin in the furthermost part of his legal property.

Rinard owned 105 acres, which the cemetery is located on, and he established a community burial location for hundreds of his family and friends.

How or why they changed the name of the cemetery from Kimberlin Cemetery to Anthonies Mill, (which they spelled Anthony wrong), is unknown...unless to appeal to Jonas Anthony's vanity.

To change the name of the cemetery from Kimberlin to Anthonies Mill is unconscionable especially when all the facts are known.

Most of the death certificates recorded by the State of Missouri after 1910 of the people, who died in the area, are listed on the death certificate as being buried in the Kimberlin Cemetery...not Anthonies Mill Cemetery.

In fact, I cannot recall seeing any death certificates that name the burial place as Anthonies Mill!!

To add insult to injury, the first and only Anthony to be buried in the Kimberlin Cemetery was John Rush Anthony born 2 September 1864 and died 25 August 1895!

I surmise that they probably changed the name sometime after Rinard's death and in the mid 1900's. This coincides with the Anthonies Mills lake project however, prior to that time period, it was and always was known as the Kimberlin Cemetery.

Questionable Source

ANTHONIES MILL

This settlement was named for Jonas M. Anthony, born in North Carolina in 1800, died at his home in what was then Harrison's Mill, and is buried in the Harrison Cemetery. He married, May 2, 1831, Nancy Twitty, daughter of John and Mary Twitty. The ceremony was performed by B. Hill, justice of the peace of that area.

The Twitty family had come from Davidson County, Tennessee in 1819 to Franklin Co., Mo., but had early removed to the Harrison settlement.

One of their daughters, Ellen, married Batteal Harrison. (see p. ) John Twitty's name appears among the original landholders on the 1829 list made when the county was organized.
His major holding was the eastern half of S. W. quarter of Section 14, Township 39; Range 2, but he owned much in the Hinch area and more in Washington County.

In 1856 Jonas M. Anthony bought out the grist and saw mill from John Harrison who had constructed them. He continued in the milling business until his death. He held slaves and sent them to various nearby farmers to buy grain. One old slave, "Uncle Sol" remained loyal to the family after the war and lived with the Stephen D. Anthony family until his death.

Jonas and Nancy (Twitty) Anthony had ten children, all of whom married into families of western Washington County. His son, John M. Anthony was sheriff of Washington County. John's son, J. Rush Anthony, purchased the old C.E. Summers' store.

Stephen D. Anthony, the eighth child was born in 1848. He took over the management of the mills and, in 1880, greatly enlarged the grist mill and bought new machinery. At this time he discarded the historic burhs. "Hard money" was scarce so Mr. Anthony took out a portion of the meal from each grind as atoll from each customer. His new mill could run about 25 barrels a day. He became independently rich as increased population caused his business to flourish and the land values to rise.

When the post office was re-established in the early '70's, Stephen D. Anthony was named postmaster and the name was changed to Anthonies Mill-this is the original spelling. The original Harrison Mills Post Office was established June 26, 1832 and was the oldest in northern Crawford County.

Benjamin Harrison was first postmaster; John W. Harman was the second (1851); Andrew Harrison was the postmaster in 1856. The original post office was on the old Anthony farm (now owned by Henry Merkel) close to the M. L. Record home. Shortly after it was moved to the Summers' store site (later Kimberlin's store). The office was discontinued in 1953.

Due to its intermediate position between Potosi and northern Crawford County's settlements, Anthonies Mill was a village of relative importance. Until the coming of the railroad all mail came by horse back from Potosi via Anthonies Mill. The first frame house in the settlement was built by B. T. Pinson. The blacksmith shop was built in 1878. The most romantic event in the village was the David Greenlee-Martha Moutry elopement.

Here the Methodists built one of their first churches in this county in 1863 under the guidance of Rev. Valentine Carter who was its first pastor. The Baptists built their church in 1870. Rev. S.B. Grant was the first pastor. In addition to the churches, there was, during the seventies, an established doctor (Dr. A. H. Converse), a druggist, a shoemaker (T. J. Russell), the blacksmith shop (usually run by some of the Harmans), a good store and the mills.

Besides the Harrisons, Summers, Anthonys and various Harman families, the Kimberlin family has always been associated with this area.

There were at least two and possibly three founding families of which the best known is the Rhinard and Frances Kimberlin family who came from Virginia in 1827 and settled in Washington County (according to Stevens history.) They settled at Anthonies Mill about 1845. They were parents of four sons and four daughters all of whom married into local families. Unfortunately, family data was not made available.
They were: Joseph, Jacob, Michael, Henry, Mary, Nancy, Catherine and Vermetta. Vermetta, in 1853 married Ruben Harman. Curiously, she used the name Henrietta, when she married Ruben. The marriage is recorded at Potosi and the dates correspond to Vermetta's. The family often spelled the name Kimberling. Ben Kimberling in 1825 in St. Louis, made the first entry for land in Township 40; Range 1 West of Washington County.

Fallacies and Falsehoods.
Much of what was written above fails to take in the land contribution for the Kimberlin Cemetery by Rinard Kimberling and the Kimberlins as THE major contributor to the Kimberlin Cemetery.

Also not much credit is given to the Harrison family who brought the hand-hewn gristmill stones from the east to establish the Harrison Mill and used the stones for the mill at the now named Anthonies Mill.

After selling the Mill to Jonas Anthony, John Harrison and family moved to Oregon.

Jonas Anthony as a local businessman is credited with the settlement but even Mr. McCormick's article declares that John Harrison had actually settled and established a mill at the location long before Jonas Anthony moved into the area.

So, to keep the record straight, I have given credit where credit is due and the settlement was originally named Harrison's Mill and the cemetery was Kimberlin Cemetery and it is an injustice to give the Anthony family the name of the cemetery where only one Anthony is buried.

Even Jonas Anthony is buried in the Harrison Cemetery. But, hundreds of Kimberlin and related families are buried in the Kimberlin Cemetery.

Rinard Kimberlin a wealthy, long established resident of Washington County is the originator and benefactor of the Kimberlin Cemetery.

Jonas Anthony's contribution was that he was a latecomer and bought an established business and under the guise of vanity renamed the area after himself.

The local inhabitants not knowing the true history of the cemetery, renamed the cemetery after him and even named it wrong by spelling it Anthonies Mill.

I am sure that one-day maybe this injustice will be corrected and my 3rd Great Grandfather; Rinard Kimberlin will receive proper credit for his contribution to the local community and the cemetery will be changed back to the Kimberlin Cemetery.

If not, then I know the truth and now you know the truth.

Resource Note
All evidence indicates they were married between 1824-1825. Catherine is the oldest known child born August 1828 in Missouri NOT Virginia. Since Frances' Peters family were still living in Giles County, Virginia next to Botetourt County, then they were probably married in one of those surrounding counties of Virginia or what is now West Virginia. Nevertheless they were married before they moved to Missouri.

Catherine (KIMBERLING) was born in Meremac Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States on August 1828.

Research Note
Since John Jacob Peters Jr. was living in Giles County, Virginia up until 1830 when he moved to Washington County, Missouri indicates that Rinard and Frances were married in Giles County before their first born daughter; Catherine was born in 1828 in Missouri. After their marriage and before the birth of Catherine, Rinard and Frances moved to be near his parents who were living in Washington County, Missouri. The article John McCormick's book "Forest Hills and Vicinity" 1970 stated the following, "There were at least two and possibly three founding families of which the best known is the Rhinard and Frances Kimberlin family who came from Virginia in 1827 and settled in Washington County (according to Stevens history."
This is in harmony with the research evidence. Some believe Michel Kimberling is the father of Rinard, however, I ask...what would motivate Rinard to move from Botetourt or Giles County, Virginia to Washington County, Missouri if his parents were not living in Washington County? Also, James and Nancy's children were married and living around Washington County all about the same time between 1825-1830. James and son James Jr. moved on to Greene County, Missouri while others moved on to southwest Missouri and Texas. Rinard and sister Nancy Jane (KIMBERLING) Clark remained in Washington County and raised large families. Also, Nancy Jane (KIMBERLING) was named after her mother Frances Jane (PETERS) Kimberling.

1839 Good Friends
by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2008
It should be noted here that Rinard Kimberlin was a good neighbor and a friend to the Henry Pratt family.

When the Pratts arrived in eastern Crawford County in March 1839, they moved into Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri after their ordeal on the "Trail of Tears". They settled near the Kimberlins and struck up a good friendship.

When James Pratt married Rinard's daughter, Catherine in 1847-1848, James probably told Rinard that he wanted a piece of property near Rinard or Catherine told James to buy some property near her parents either way, it was against the law for indians to own or buy land. Rinard bought the land, the James Pratt family settled on from Firmin Desloge and 3 weeks later sold 24 acres of the 105 acres to his son-in-law, James Pratt.

Rinard did the same for his daughter, Mary after she married Alexander Pratt...James' brother.

After James became a property owner it was easier for James and Alexander to pass themself off as a white man even though they were ½ Cherokee. This led to Alexander's land purchase two years later in May 1856 from William & Martha Hughes which he later sold to the Ambrose Marion Pennock family from Ohio in 1859.

1886-1900 Burial of Frances Jane (PETERS) Kimberlin

No headstone has been found of him or his wife but he was probably buried in the Kimberlin Cemetery now known as Anthonies Mill Cemetery since Kimberlin friends and family are buried there. Long before Jonas Anthony bought out the grist and saw mill from John Harrison in 1856, Kimberlin Cemetery had been established. The oldest recorded burial in the Kimberlin Cemetery that I know of, is Josephine Kimberlin died October 1841 aged 88yrs 2dys, which puts her birth October 1753. I have yet to learn who she was, but she was buried 15 years before Jonas Anthony bought the mill. How or why they changed the name of the cemetery from Kimberlin Cemetery to Anthonies Mill, (which they spelled Anthony wrong), sounds like vanity to me. They probably changed the name sometime after Rinard's death or in the early 1900's.

"Besides the Harrison's, Summers, Anthonys and various Harman families, the Kimberlin family has always been associated with this area. There were at least two and possibly three founding families of which the best known is the Rhinard and Frances Kimberlin family who came from Virginia in 1827 and settled in Washington County (according to Stevens history.) They settled at Anthonies Mill about 1845. They were parents of four sons and four daughters all of whom married into local families. Unfortunately, family data was not made available. They were: Joseph, Jacob, Michael, Henry, Mary, Nancy, Catherine, and Vermetta. Vermetta, in 1853 married Ruben Harman. Curiously, she used the name Henrietta, when she married Ruben. The marriage is recorded at Potosi and the dates correspond to Vermetta's. The family often spelled the name Kimberling. Ben Kimberling in 1825 in St. Louis, made the first entry for land in Township 40; Range 1 West of Washington County."

1839 Good Friends
by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2008
It should be noted here that Rinard Kimberlin was a good neighbor and a friend to the Henry Pratt family.
When the Pratts arrived in eastern Crawford County in March 1839, they moved into Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri after their ordeal on the "Trail of Tears". They settled near the Kimberlins and struck up a good friendship.
When James Pratt married Rinard's daughter, Catherine in 1847-1848, James probably told Rinard that he wanted a piece of property near Rinard or Catherine told James to buy some property near her parents either way, it was against the law for indians to own or buy land. Rinard bought the land, the James Pratt family settled on from Firmin Desloge and 3 weeks later sold 24 acres of the 105 acres to his son-in-law, James Pratt. Rinard did the same for his daughter, Mary after she married Alexander Pratt...James' brother.
After James became a property owner it was easier for James and Alexander to pass themself off as a white man even though they were ½ Cherokee. This led to Alexander's land purchase two years later in May 1856 from William & Martha Hughes which he later sold to the Ambrose Marion Pennock family from Ohio in 1859.

Research Note
I am not sure of the significance of Frances listing Catherine with her family on 29 October
1850 to the census taker and then Catherine is shown as married to James Pratt on 30 October 1850. Since little Jacob Henry was 1 year old then we can rule out the possibility they may have just married. Another possibility we would have to rule out, is if the census taker asked Frances to list her children, she listed all of her children even Catherine who was already married and moved out of her parent's home.

1838 Forced Move "Trail of Tears"
A full account of the Henry Pratt family is in my book "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee" © 2002 by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. In this book I give a full detail of the "Trail of Tears" episode and it is a lengthy discourse. Because of its length, I will not go into it here but suffice to say, due to Henry Pratt's Cherokee ancestry, the government forced him and his family on the "Trail of Tears" in September 1838 and they jumped the trail in March 1839 and settled first in Crawford County moving to Richwoods Twp of Washington County, Missouri by the 1840 census.-Floyd Thomas Pratt

1839 Arrival in Missouri
After a long cold, hard winter the Pratt's found a way to escape from their military escort and followed the creeks from the "Trail of Tears" or what is now known as highway 8 in Crawford County, Missouri and settled 12 miles north in Crawford County before moving into Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri by the 1840 census. They began to make friends with other "exiles" who were also in hiding from the government. A local family, the Rinard (Rhinehart) Kimberlin(g) family befriended the Pratts and was instrumental in helping the Pratt family to adjust to their new home life. Also, the Absalom Blanton family helped the Pratts and intermarried which was Cherokee tradition. More in the book "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee" (2003) by Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

1841 Childbirth of sister; Matilda Jane "Janie" (PRATT)
Matilda Jane "Janie" (PRATT) was born in Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States on 20 October 1841.

1841 to 1850 Death of father; Henry Pratt
Death of Henry Pratt calculated to be between 1841 and 1850. This deduction derived from the presumption that he conceived his last known child; Matilda Jane "Janie" (PRATT) who was born according to her death certificate 20 October 1841. Going back 9 months from her birth date indicates he was alive February 1841 if... Matilda's birth date is correct. His son; Alexander R. Pratt told his son; Carac Pratt who told his son; Orville Carac Pratt that Alexander had gone to California in 1848/1849 during the gold rush. Maybe Henry went with the group but he does not show up in the 1850 census like Alexander does. I have checked available newspapers for that time period but have found no references to Henry Pratt. One of my mentor researchers; Geraldine Mabel (MILLER) Reed said that she thought she had seen a court report in one of those books in the Crawford County Courthouse that mentioned Nancy Pratt, widow of Henry Pratt receiving a cash allotment from the County Court. She could not remember where it was or anything more about it. I looked for it when I was at the Courthouse but there are so many books...hundreds that have not been documented but just piled up in the vault that I could not cover all of them and had no time, or luck in finding any information about Henry Pratt. Therefore, Henry Pratt could have died on his way to California or on his return to Missouri. After his death, his widow, Nancy (CARTER) Pratt moved from Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri to be near her daughter; Susanna Rebecca (PRATT) Hansel family in Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri. In 1852, Nancy married widower, Absalom Blanton in Crawford County. Regrettably, due to old age, I must leave the mystery of Henry Pratt's death for the next generation to solve.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

2008 James Pratt's Barn
Where the White Creek Cemetery is across the road from the Kimberlin Cemetery or aka Anthonies Mill Cemetery across the creek was an old board plank barn made of oak planks and beams. When I first began my research in 1976 into the Pratt family I was told by the local residents, the old barn belonged to the James Pratt family who lived on that side of the creek. Now, it is 2008 and I don't know if that old barn is still standing or not. But it was a two story building and must have been sturdy to withstand 100 years of Missouri weather.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

1910 Death of Jacob Henry Pratt
Jacob Henry Pratt died in Dayton Twp, Cass, Missouri, United States on 26 April 1910.

Jacob Henry Pratt white married male was born 28 November 1848 in Tennessee to Mr. Pratt born in Tennessee and Kimberlin born in Tennessee. Filed by the clerk on 10 May 1910.

Research Note
An interesting dilemma has occurred. Henry is listed in the 1910 census on 2nd of May with his wife and according to the Missouri death certificate he had died on the 26th of April 1910. Either his wife had listed him for sentimental reasons or the census taker misrepresented the date that he had visited their home.- Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

Research Note
If you hadn't noticed, Rinard and Docia were married in December of 1898 however, daughter Irene wa born in February 1898. This childbirth before the marriage could have several answers...[1] Irene was Docia's daughter from a previous relationship and was born prior to her marriage to Rinard Pratt. [2] Irene was Rinard's daughter from a prior relationship before he married Docia (GRUELL). [3] The wrong birth month and year were given to the census taker in the 1900 census. There is a large gap between the death of Rinard's 1st wife; Julia in 1882 and his marriage in 1898. Several relationship's could have taken place and since I have no record for that 16 year time period, we really don't know what happened or who Irene (PRATT) really belongs to. FTP

1830 Birthblock of Alexander A. Blanton son of Absalom & Cynthia Ann (PRATT) Blanton
Alexander A. Blanton was born in Greene, Tennessee, United States on 7 September 1829.
Date from 1830 census states he was born in ?? [family not found in census]
Date from 1840 census states he was born in ?? [family not found in census]
Date from 1850 census states he was born in 1828 in Tennessee.
Date from 1860 census states he was born in 1827 in Tennessee.
Date from 1870 census states he was born in 1828 in Tennessee.
Date from 1880 census states he was born in 1830 in Tennessee.
Date from headstone states his birth as September 7, 1829.
Date from family bible states he was born November 11, 1830.
Therefore his birth is from 1827-1830.

1830 Federal Census age 1
Could not find him or his parents in the 1830 census. However, strong evidence suggests he was with his parents in Greene, Tennessee, United States. Since his father was buying sheep in 1830 in Greene County, Tennessee, this would indicate they were still living in that county during the 1830 census.

1831-1838 Commentary
According to Alexander's brother; Elbert Sevier Blanton Sr.'s obituary, it states that his parents; Absalom & Cynthia (PRATT) Blanton, brought him to Missouri when he was less than a year old. This would indicate all of Absalom's and Cynthia's children born after 1831-1832 were born in Missouri, because Elbert was born in 1831. Not sure if the obituary is true. Absalom purchased 40 acres in Franklin County, Missouri in 1838. Where were they from 1830 to 1838?

1832-1838 Move
From Greene, Tennessee, United States to St. Louis, Missouri then to Franklin, Missouri, United States between 1832-1838.

1840 Federal Census age 11
Once again Absalom managed to elude the censustakers and fails to show up in Franklin County where he was living in 1840. I have a theory as to why he tried to disappear from the census of 1830 and 1840. I believe it was because his wife, Cynthia (PRATT) was a Cherokee princess as told by Blanton descendants. If she had fallen into the wrong hands she could have suffered bodily harm and her family could have been in danger. Therefore I think they were still living near Sullivan, Franklin, Missouri when the 1840 census was taken. For a complete report read "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County Tennessee" by Floyd Thomas Pratt

1840-1849 Family Move
Moved with his parents from Franklin, Missouri, United States to Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri United States. His father built a large mansion and developed some property in 1849 called Blanton Hollow. Alexander was 19 years old at this time and had met, widow Nancy (CARTER) Patt's family when they lived in Johnson Twp, Washington County and moved to Boone Twp, Crawford County, Missouri after the death of Henry Pratt. Alexander started courting widow Pratt's 18 year-old daughter, Nancy Mariah (PRATT).

1849 Marriage of Alexander A. Blanton and Nancy Mariah (PRATT)

Alexander Stanton and Nancy M. Pratt both of Crawford County were married on 14 October 1849.

Research Note
Misspelled name in marriage record as Alexander Stanton and Nancy M. Pratt BOTTO. The Botto is from the next two words of the marriage license which states "both of Crawford County". Most likely she was married at her mother's residence next door to her sister; Susanna Rebecca (PRATT) Hansel's home in Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States. After the death of Henry Prattt, their father, it appears that widow Nancy (CARTER) Pratt moved from the Richwoods area in Washington County closer to Susanna near the Hansel home in Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States.

1850 Childbirth of daughter; Catherine "Kate" Jane (BLANTON)
Catherine "Kate" Jane (BLANTON) was born in Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States on 28 September 1850. However, the 1850 census states she was 1 month old on 30 October 1850. This would make her birth in September 1850.

Research Note
This is a significance property transaction. Prior to the Hamilton Iron Company known as the Hamilton Iron Works purchase in 1872 from Alexander A. Blanton, this property was known as Blanton Hollow and Blanton Creek. Old maps have been found naming them as such. After the Hamilton Iron Works began production of mining in the area, the name was changed to Hamilton Hollow and Hamilton Creek even though the Hamilton family resided elsewhere.

1839 Good Friends
by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2008
It should be noted here that Rinard Kimberlin was a good neighbor and a friend to the Henry Pratt family.
When the Pratts arrived in eastern Crawford County in March 1839, they moved into Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri after their ordeal on the "Trail of Tears". They settled near the Kimberlins and struck up a good friendship.
When James Pratt married Rinard's daughter, Catherine in 1847-1848, James probably told Rinard that he wanted a piece of property near Rinard or Catherine told James to buy some property near her parents either way, it was against the law for indians to own or buy land.
Rinard bought the land, the James Pratt family settled on from Firmin Desloge and 3 weeks later sold 24 acres of the 105 acres to his son-in-law, James Pratt.
Rinard did the same for his daughter, Mary after she married Alexander Pratt...James' brother.
After James became a property owner it was easier for James and Alexander to pass themself off as a white man even though they were ½ Cherokee. This led to Alexander's land purchase two years later in May 1856 from William & Martha Hughes which he later sold to the Ambrose Marion Pennock family from Ohio in 1859.

Obtaining the newspapers for that time period would reveal when he died and where he died. Nevertheless, his wife and children remained in Missouri after his death.

Research Note
When I first began my research back in 1975, several Kimberlin and Harmon researchers were confused as to Delilah's maiden name. They though she was a Harmon not a Harper. If they had researched the census records they would have found the 1850 census that settles the question once and for all. Obviously, her father had passed away between the 1840 census to the 1850 census dates, her mother died in Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States on 18 May 1859. On Pages 80-84, of the book "History of Forest Hill and Vicinity" by John Steele McCormick © 1970 Delilah is listed incorrectly as a Harmon.

1893 Marriage Stephen Luther Crow and Minnie (_____)
Luther Crow and Minnie (_____) were married in 1893 in Missouri.

Research Note
There are several reasons why Stephen Luther Crow's wife Minnie in the 1900 census is not Minerva Elizabeth (KIMBERLIN) Crow...1st Minerva was born February 1857 and Minnie in the 1900 census was born in November 1876. Also, Stephen Luther and Minnie (_____) get a divorce between 1900-1910 and Stephen Luther Crow is living with ex-wife; Minerva Elizabeth (KIMBERLIN) Crow in the 1910 census and remarries her in 1911. Since we don't know if Stephen Luther divorced Minnie or she died in Oklahoma or Missouri, without the marriage record, our only hope would be to track their son; Roy Crow and order his death certificate. Maybe we would get lucky and someone has listed his mother's maiden name on his death certificate.

"History of Benjamin Edward Kimberlin and Family" by Ethel K. Shaffer, in possession of compiler, Floyd Thomas Pratt
Benjamin Edward Kimberlin, son of Jacob and Delilah (HARPER) Kimberlin was born near Anthonies Mill, Missouri on July 14, 1870. In early manhood he went to Oklahoma Territory where he participated in the historic race for homesteads in 1893 on what was known as the Cherokee Strip near Blackwell. He and his brother-in-law Benjamin Pinson, each won a quarter section of land. I remember him saying that he spent his last dollar for a horse which he trained for weeks before the race was scheduled, then two days before the big day his horse stepped in a gopher hole and sprained a leg so badly he could not run. So, B.E. rode the race on a borrowed horse. He ran twelve miles before finding a claim he could stake as his own. The first thing you had to do was dismount, drive a stake in the ground, and start an improvement. His improvement project was to dig a well. He had quite a hole dug before the next man stopped on that section so of course his claim was first and therefore valid. He said the whole country was just a bare prairie till after the race but by sun up the next day there was a city of tents including restaurants, lawyers offices, stores, and most important a land office where you could stake your claim and get all the necessary legal papers. He ate in a tent restaurant where the sand was blowing in on the tables so thick he said "you had to scrape the butter before you cut off your slab." He built a 12 x 14 ft. sod house on his land and then came back to Missouri in 1893 and married Nancy (JACKSON) of near Richwoods, Missouri and took her back to Oklahoma.

On April 12, 1894 their first daughter, Hazel Ann, was born in the sod house with only his sister and another neighbor in attendance. I heard him tell her that the rats in the sod used to kick dirt out on her and they kept her bed in the middle of the room to keep the rats from jumping on it. They grew corn and wheat and made improvements on the homestead. Ben also hauled lumber for the town builders who were building the town of Blackwell by leaps and bounds. Their chief entertainment in those days was going to watch the Indian dances. Their war whoops would ring out over the prairie and that, linked with the howling of cayotes, was the only sounds they knew. Sounds like a small bit of heaven to us in 1960 with the noise of our trains, planes, automobiles, and last but not least, television!

In 1896, Ben sent his wife back to his father's home in Missouri where she gave birth to their second daughter, Jessie Delilah, on February 20, 1896. They returned to Oklahoma and in March 1897, a son was born and named Lester. His mother died when he was ten days old and then little Lester died a few weeks later. They are both buried in a cemetery near Blackwell, Oklahoma.

Left with two little daughters, he brought them back to Missouri by train, to his parents, who with the help of his brother Orville and his wife Sadie, took care of them for him while he returned to Oklahoma and sold his homestead. He loaded his meager possessions into a covered wagon and started back to Missouri. Roads were muddy and it was a long journey. Thirty days later he arrived at the home of his parents on Brazil Creek. His two little girls had completely forgotten him and he had to get acquainted with them all over again. After a few months B.E. bought a 240 acre farm on Indian Creek near Algire, Missouri. There were no improvements on the land and he soon built a six room house (frame) which was the envy of the old timers who mostly lived in log houses. This new "modern" structure built by the young handsome widower from Oklahoma, was two stories high and painted white with green trim and what was most amazing, the windows were large one pane affairs and the living room boasted a double window known as a bay window, which was as modern then as our picture windows were when they came out a few years ago.
Ben and his two little girls, with his Mother and a hired girl, moved into the new house in 1898 and in a few months he married again. This bride was Miss Dora Belle (NORTHCUTT), daughter of Rev. B.F. and Celia Northcutt, whose farm joined his on the south. On August 20, 1899 their first child arrived, Ethel Mae and on May 9, 1902 another daughter was born, Myrtle Alice, who died of pneumonia in February 1904 and is buried in the Bryant Cemetery one mile south of the home. The family lived at the Indian Creek place until all three daughters were married. Then in 1923 they traded farms with Mr. William Jackson for his farm on the Meramec River near Meramec State Park. They lived on this farm until 1946 when they moved to 228 Watson Road in Sullivan, Missouri where they lived the remainder of their lives. Dora Belle died July 7, 1953 at the age of 73 and Benjamin Edward died April 16, 1954 at the age of 84. Both are buried in Odd Fellows Cemetery in Sullivan, Mo.

The Mysterious Case of Dora Belle Northcutt
by Floyd Thomas Pratt  F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2011

The problem...

When researching family histories, one prefers discoveries to have an order. In fact the researcher depends on people, place and events to have a logical and precise order.

Every once in awhile, someone upsets this order and forces researchers like myself to become confused and frustrated over the events which have been discovered or…are in conflict with the known facts.

The birth and parental identity of Dora Belle Northcutt is one such person.

I was hoping I wouldn't have to write this article and I would discover the truth through hardcore research but it looks like if I won't take an interest in her, no one else will. I hope that someday, someone who cares will investigate Dora and find the answers; in the meantime, I will present the facts.

My interest in Dora Belle comes from her marriage to Benjamin Edward Kimberlin on the 14th of May 1899 in Washington County, Missouri. Both were living near Hulsey in Johnson Twp at the time of their marriage.

The village of Hulsey was named after Elijah Eli Elias & Sarah Naomi (CHOATE) Hulsey and family who had moved into the area in the early 1820's. Hulsey is located near the border of northeastern Johnson Township in Washington County and the southern border of Meramec Township in Franklin County.

The Kimberling families are direct ancestors of mine, i.e., Mary (KIMBERLIN) whom married Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt are my 2nd Great Grandparents. Mary is a daughter of Rinard & Frances Jane (PETERS) Kimberlin. Therefore, I have a vested research interest in the Kimberlin(g) family.

Establishing a birthdate...

The 1900, 1910, 1920 and 1930 census places Benjamin & Dora in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri.

However, it is the events prior to this marriage that seem to be in conflict.

In order to establish a birth date norm, we will take the census data and break it down into the Birthblock for Dora.

1879-1880 Birthblock for Dora Belle Northcutt daughter of [to be determined]
Date from the 1880 census states she was born [no record]
Date from the 1900 census states she was born May 1880 in Missouri.
Date from the 1910 census states she was born 1880 in Missouri.
Date from the 1920 census states she was born 1880 in Missouri.
Date from the 1930 census states she was born 1880 in Missouri.
Date from the death certificate states she was born 1 September 1879 in Washington County, Missouri.
Date from the headstone states she was born 1879.
Date from the obituary states she was born
Date from "History of Benjamin Edward Kimberlin and Family" by Ethel K. Shaffer states she was born September 1, 1879.

As you can see the range of birth is from 1 September 1879 to May of 1880. This in any case should reveal her parents in the 1880 census of Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri.

The 1880 census of Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri was taken in the month of June. So, any child born in 1879 or May of 1880 should be listed with their parents.

Since most researchers and like myself assumed that Dora was the child of Samuel Phillip & Mary “Polly” Cecilia Josephine (BALDRIDGE) Northcutt, I did not look into her parental background until now. (2011)

After reviewing the evidence I have come to the conclusion that Dora was not their daughter!

Conflicts and Contradictions

Since the evidence about Dora is pretty consistent with the September 1879 to May 1880 birthdate in all her census records, it would seem logical to establish her appearance in the 1880 census as being either 11 months old or 1 month old depending on when she was born for the June 1880 census date.

However, I cannot seem to locate a Dora, Belle or D. B. Northcutt in the 1880 census with any Northcutt family.

This can be explained in several ways. Either she was not born before the census date or she was not a Northcutt.

Looking at Dora’s alleged father; Samuel Phillip Northcutt, we find him in the 8th of June 1880 census living with his widowed mother; Susan (JACKSON) Northcutt in Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States and Samuel is age 19 and single!!!

Looking at Dora’s alleged mother; Mary "Polly" "Mollie" Cecilia Josephine (BALDRIDGE), we find her living with her widowed mother; Mary Ann (BRYANT) Baldridge and next door to Susan (JACKSON) Northcutt at Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States and her future husband; Samuel Phillip Northcutt and Mary is age 20 and single!!!

In fact, Samuel and Mary (BALDRIDGE) Northcutt did not get married until 1883!
1883 Marriage of Samuel Phillip Northcutt and Mary "Polly" "Mollie" Cecilia Josephine (BALDRIDGE)
<http://www.vienici.com/moabs/last.asp>

So, how could they be Dora's parents? This leads us to Ben and Dora's daughter; Ethel Mae (KIMBERLIN) Shaffer.

Ethel Mae (KIMBERLIN) Shaffer

Ethel Mae (KIMBERLIN) was born 20 August 1899 in Algire, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States. Algire was a hub of commerce in the Johnson Township of Washington County. It was also the local post office and most of the mail delivered through Johnson Twp came through Algire.

On the 31st of December 1919, at Union, Union Twp, Franklin, Missouri, United States, Ethel married Elmer Webster Shaffer, born 29 May 1889 in Franklin County, Missouri, died 26 June 1983 at Farmington, Perry Twp, Saint Francois, Missouri, United States.

Elmer is the son of Daniel Webster (1852-1934) & Perlina Frances (1858-1943) (HULSEY) Shaffer.

Evidently, Ethel was interested in her family history and she wrote an article about her father, which I will reproduce in its entirety here.

When I first read this document, I filed it and thought it was a nice historical piece about the Oklahoma theft of the land promised to the American natives by treaty. The treaty stated, "as long as the grass grows and the sun shines this land would belong to the native Americans."

was until the American Government decided like all the other 100 treaties they broke, to steal the land from the natives. When the Americans found gold in Tennessee and Georgia they took the land away from the natives, when they found oil in Oklahoma they took the land away from the natives.

But, that's another story. More about American treachery can be found in my book..."Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee" © 2003 by Floyd Thomas Pratt.

Documentation

It appears that Ethel, with good intentions, made a great effort in relating her family's history as she knew and lived the events.

However, if the article was written in the 1960's, then she would have been aged 60 + and maybe her memory was not the best.
Several errors are evident in her account. Without taking apart the whole article I want to bring to your attention when she stated that Dora Belle Northcutt was the daughter of Rev. B.F. and Cecila Northcutt.

Researched evidence has established that Samuel Phillip Northcutt married Mary "Polly" "Mollie" Cecilia (BALDRIDGE) in 1883.

The question arises…did Ethel make a known mistake about the parents of Dora?

Rev. B. F. Northcutt

I can't find a B. F. Northcutt. Checking the Northcutt's all the way back to Samuel & Nancy Sallee Northcutt and all the sons born and all the grandsons born I can't find a B. F., which probably stands for Benjamin Franklin Northcutt.

My only explanation is Ethel may have commingled and confused the names. This isn't the only time this confusion has taken place.

On Dora's death certificate, Ethel is the informant and states that Dora's parents were…S. P. Northcutt and Celia Bryant.

As you can see, when she put S. P. Northcutt as Dora's father; she was referring to Samuel Phillip Northcutt, which was in error and she put Celia Bryant as Dora's mother confusing Mary Ann (BRYANT)…Celia's mother.

This is not Ethel's fault; she wrote what she had been told by her mother!

Wildcards…

Therefore, another option as to locating Dora’s parents is to wildcard Dora…Belle…in the 1880 census and hope for a hit in the Washington County, Missouri area.

I found the following…

Dora B. Evans born 1879 daughter of William M. & Sary A. ( ) Evans in Belgrade Twp,
Dora Johnston born 1879 daughter of General & Serenia ( ) Johnston in Union Twp,
Dora Robinson born 1878 daughter of Richard and J. ( ) Robinson in Harmony Twp, Dora Woods born 1878 daughter of Paris E. & Ann ( 0 Woods in Walton Twp,
Dora Lucas born 1876 daughter of Phillip & Mary M. ( ) Lucas in Belgrade Twp,
Dora Morris born 1876 daughter of Jerry & Josephine ( ) Morris of Walton Twp,
Belle Gillam born 1878 daughter of B.H. & M. F. Gillam of Harmony Twp,
Belle Woolford born 1878 daughter of Pratte & Narsis ( ) Woolford of Belgrade Twp,

Of course there is no evidence that Dora was born in Washington County and there are an equally numbered Dora's and Belle's in same census in surrounding counties.

At first you might say, well, trace the path of each of those girls listed above and see if you can eliminate them due to death, marriage and death of parents or any other event that might discredit them as our subject. True…this would decrease the candidates but not give you conclusively the parents of our Dora Belle ________.

Therefore, my suggestion is to try to locate an adoption record of a Dora Belle ______? ?

Since Dora used the name of Northcutt on her marriage license, and we know she was living in the Hulsey area by her 1899 marriage date, then maybe her "adopted" name was Northcutt.

What we do know…

A girl named Dora Belle _____ was born between 1 September 1879 and May 1880 in Missouri. This has been established through census records, headstone information, death certificate and family records…all related to others by Dora herself.

How long she remained unmarried is a good guess. When people did not want secrets about their past known, then usually omitted the whole truth or fabricated new truth to hide their past.

Born in circa 1880 she would have been marrying age at 13 or more, which would have been after 1893.

She told her daughter; Ethel that she was the daughter of Rev. B. F. & Celia Northcutt. However, no evidence as to a Rev. B.F. Northcutt can be found.

This confusion is compounded in that her daughter; Ethel is the informant on her death certificate of July 1953 and states that Dora's father was S. P. Northcutt and mother was Mary Bryant.

Ethel writes a family history of her father's activities around the 1960's and stated that her mother was Miss Dora Belle Northcutt, indicating that Dora was not previously married prior to her marriage to Benjamin Edward Kimberlin on the 14 th of May 1899 in Washington County, Missouri…as far as Ethel knew.

This is important because, maybe Dora Belle had married a _______ Northcutt before she married Benjamin Edward Kimberlin…hence the married name Dora Belle Northcutt.

After checking the marriage records, I could not find a Dora Belle ______ marrying a Northcutt, but then again, I could not check all the surrounding counties either.

Dora tells her daughter that she is the daughter of Samuel Phillip & Mary "Polly"
"Mollie" Cecilia (BALDRIDGE) Northcutt and the rumor has continued to this day. However, as proven earlier in this report, Dora was born 3-4 years before these two married.

Therefore, either Dora Belle _______ was an orphan of someone else other than a Northcutt and Samuel and Mary took her in or Dora Belle was trying to hide her illegitimate heritage. If she was an orphan, then why hide her true parentage? Maybe she did not know the truth.

How long she lived with Samuel and Mary is undetermined and there is no evidence that she even lived with them. This is due to the void in census data from the 1880 to the 1900 census. And since Dora married before 1900 we cannot determine whom she was living with prior to the marriage.

She could have been taken in after the 1883 marriage of Samuel and Mary "Mollie" or anytime up until her marriage in 1899.

Looking at the 1900 census we see that she is living next door to her alleged Uncle William Smith Northcutt family at house #179 and way over at house #156 is living her alleged parents; Samuel and Mary (BALDRIDGE) Northcutt.

Since Samuel and Mary are living so far apart from Ben and Dora, checking William Smith & Amanda A. (HAYS) Smith family I see they were married in 1876 and could have had a daughter born 1879-1880. However, in the 1880 census, they do not have a daughter named Dora or Belle or D.B. listed as one of their children. This eliminates them as the parents of Dora.

Samuel had another brother named John Wesley Northcutt whom married in 1882 to Elizabeth (HULSEY) daughter of Charles LeRoy & Eliza Jane (RODERIQUE) Hulsey.

Since they were married after Dora was born…this eliminates them as Dora’s parents.

This covers all the male children of George W. & Susan Ann (JACKSON) Northcutt’s children.

Therefore, based on the facts surrounding her life, I cannot bridge her to the Samuel and Mary (BALDRIDGE) Northcutt family or any Northcutt family.

I suspect she was born someone else and as customary to orphans in those days, the family she lived with and was raised by gave her the Northcutt name. She could have been an orphan, or illegitimate and to verify this I would, as instructing an interested family researcher, check the Washington County probate, adoption and court records for any reference to a Dora Belle _______.

Also, check the newspapers from 1879-1900 concerning subjects about a Dora Belle _____ who was going to live with the Samuel & Mary (BALDRIDGE) Northcutt family.
Could Dora Belle be an illegitimate daughter of Samuel Phillip Northcutt? Yes, this is another possibility.

In the 1880 census, Samuel is living with his mother and is age 19 and single. Could he have fathered a daughter before he married Mary (BALDRIDGE) in 1883? Yes.

I had another relative who had a similar circumstance. Rev. Albert Paris Missey loved and courted Mary (MISSEY) a far distant cousin and wanted to marry her...before and even after she became pregnant. How we know these circumstances behind this relationship is… Rev. Albert Paris Missey kept a journal and detailed the information for his posterity.

For reasons unknown, maybe from pressure of both families, she refused to marry Albert and Albert later married Mary Jane (STROUP) and raised his illegitimate daughter; Ethel Marie (MISSEY) who lived with them until adulthood.

So, that scenario of Samuel being Dora’s legitimate father is another possibility.

However, Dora should not be listed with Northcutt as a maiden name. There is no proof that she ever was a Northcutt.

Dora has perpetuated all the evidence up to now on what has been revealed about her, including census, family records and hearsay evidence through her daughter, Ethel.

If adoption papers can be found...which I doubt, those papers should reveal her true parentage. Orphans or illegitimate children were often "adopted" into families without any legal requirements, even to the point of changing the child's surname without permission.

However, until the truth can be discovered, Dora Belle Northcutt can, in my opinion, out of respect, be listed with the Samuel & Mary (BALDRIDGE) Northcutt family with the stipulation that her true parentage has not been determined.

1839 Good Friends

by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2008

It should be noted here that Rinard Kimberlin was a good neighbor and a friend to the Henry Pratt family.

When the Pratts arrived in eastern Crawford County in March 1839, they moved into Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri after their ordeal on the "Trail of Tears". They settled near the Kimberlins and struck up a good friendship.

When James Pratt married Rinard's daughter, Catherine in 1847-1848, James probably told Rinard that he wanted a piece of property near Rinard or Catherine told James to buy some property near her parents either way, it was against the law for indians to own or buy land. Rinard bought the land, the James Pratt family settled on from Firmin Desloge and 3 weeks later sold 24 acres of the 105 acres to his son-in-law, James Pratt. Rinard did the same for his daughter, Mary after she married Alexander Pratt...James' brother. After James became a property owner it was easier for James and Alexander to pass themself off as a white man even though they were ½ Cherokee. This led to Alexander's land purchase two years later in May 1856 from William & Martha Hughes which he later sold to the Ambrose Marion Pennock family from Ohio in 1859.

Edit Virtual Cemetery info <fg.cgi?page=editVcInfo&vcIntId=79425204> [ Virtual Cemetery: ] body= What is a Virtual Cemetery? A Find A Grave Virtual Cemetery is essentially a collection of names from the Find A Grave database. As a Find A Grave contributor, you can build Virtual Cemeteries to group listings in whatever way you would like. For example, you might make a 'Smith Family Virtual Cemetery' where you would place all of the members of your Smith family tree. Other examples: 'My Favorite Actors' or 'Memorials I Visit Often'. Be creative! A VIRTUAL CEMETERY HAS NO RELATION TO A REAL CEMETERY! People listed in your VIRTUAL cemeteries can be buried in many different REAL cemeteries. You can add any name in the Find A Grave database to the Virtual Cemeteries you create. You can choose to make your Virtual Cemeteries visible to the visitors of your Find A Grave contributor page so that others can view the collections you have created. ] fade=[on] fadespeed=[.09]?

1839 Good Friends

by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2008
It should be noted here that Rinard Kimberlin was a good neighbor and a friend to the Henry Pratt family. When the Pratts arrived in eastern Crawford County in March 1839, they moved into Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri after their ordeal on the "Trail of Tears". They settled near the Kimerlins and struck up a good friendship. When James Pratt married Rinard's daughter, Catherine in 1847-1848, James probably told Rinard that he wanted a piece of property near Rinard or Catherine told James to buy some property near her parents either way, it was against the law for Indians to own or buy land. Rinard bought the land, the James Pratt family settled on from Firmin Desloge and 3 weeks later sold 24 acres of the 105 acres to his son-in-law, James Pratt. Rinard did the same for his daughter, Mary after she married Alexander Pratt...James' brother. After James became a property owner it was easier for James and Alexander to pass themselves off as a white man even though they were ½ Cherokee. This led to Alexander's land purchase two years later in May 1856 from William & Martha Hughes which he later sold to the Ambrose Marion Pennock family from Ohio in 1859.

Research Note
According to an affidavit filed on December 10, 1890, witnesses state that Francis Garrett was the only child of Samuel and Elizabeth Annie (NORTON) Garrett. However, this is untrue since the 1870 census clearly list a son William born 1865. This is an abstract of the affidavit… December 10, 1890 - Enos Hendricks age 66 (born about 1824) and a resident in Meramec township of Franklin county, Missouri, and G. W. Sullivan age 52 (born about 1838) and a resident of Sullivan, Mo., filed a General Affidavit. The both knew Samuel Garrett for 40 years and knew that Samuel married Elizabeth J. Norton on April 10, 1860 and she died January 15, 1872. They had only one child, Francis E. Garrett, living at the time and aged 22 (born about 1868). They also knew Samuel's second wife, Louisa, and knew their children, Mary E., Martha L., Amanda B., Levi B., Susan L., William J., and Minnie L. all living in Sullivan, Missouri. Both men made their mark.

Even though this Francis A. born 1868 is listed as a male in the 1870 census, I believe he was really a female and her name was Frances Jane "Fannie" (GARRETT) whom first married John Franklin Kimberlin (1886) and 2nd Marion Washington "Wash" Cain (1908). Her parentage has been proven from her death certificate at http://www.sos.mo.gov/images/archives/deathcerts/1929/1929_00020027.PDF
However, I did locate a female Francis Garrett in the 1876 Meramec Twp, Franklin County, Missouri State Census less than 10 years old, this would indicate that this is Fannie. However, since I have not been able to locate either a male Francis or female Frances in the 1880 census then I can not establish that they were two separate individuals. I will include them as two separate people until further proof can be located.

1929 Burial of Frances Jane "Fannie" (GARRETT) Kimberlin Cain
The death certificate states she was buried in the Oak Grove Cemetery. Their failure to list which Oak Grove Cemetery leaves us unsure exactly which one she is buried in.
[1] Oak Grove Cemetery, 7800 Saint Charles Rock Road, Saint Louis (county), 2nd spouse Marion Washington Cain is buried in the Sullivan IOOF Cemetery, Sullivan, Meramec Twp, Franklin, Missouri, United States they it makes me wonder why Wash buried her in the Oak Grove...unless she wanted to be buried near her children if any are buried in the Oak Grove Cemetery and which one?

Virtual Cemetery is essentially a collection of names from the Find A Grave database. As a Find A Grave contributor, you can build Virtual Cemeteries to group listings in whatever way you would like. For example, you might make a 'Smith Family Virtual Cemetery' where you would place all of the members of your Smith family tree. Other examples: 'My Favorite Actors' or 'Memorials I Visit Often'. Be creative! A VIRTUAL CEMETERY HAS NO RELATION TO A REAL CEMETERY! People listed in your VIRTUAL cemeteries can be buried in many different REAL cemeteries. You can add any name in the Find A Grave database to the Virtual Cemeteries you create. You can choose to make your Virtual Cemeteries visible to the visitors of your Find A Grave contributor page so that others can view the collections you have created.

As a Find A Grave contributor, you can build Virtual Cemeteries to group listings in whatever way you would like. For example, you might make a 'Smith Family Virtual Cemetery' where you would place all of the members of your Smith family tree. Other examples: 'My Favorite Actors' or 'Memorials I Visit Often'. Be creative!
A VIRTUAL CEMETERY
HAS NO RELATION TO A REAL CEMETERY! People listed in your VIRTUAL cemeteries can be buried in many different REAL cemeteries. You can add any name in the Find A Grave database to the Virtual Cemeteries you create. You can choose to make your Virtual Cemeteries visible to the visitors of your Find A Grave contributor page so that others can view the collections you have created.

Mary Kimberlin (Rhinehart "Rinard" E. 1) was born in 1835 in Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States, died from 1876 to 1880 near Osage Post Office, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States at age 41, and was buried from 1876 to 1880 in probably Hamilton Hollow Cemetery, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States.

Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile for Mary (KIMBERLIN) by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2008
In harmony with the first law of genealogy or family history research, i.e., documentation, I submit my famous Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile on this subject including all known documentation presented for the serious researcher. This has been done to help the serious researcher continue in their thirst for family history knowledge without a duplication of effort. All I ask is that you acknowledge my contribution to your family history research. My gift to you…Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

1835-1837 Birthblock for Mary (KIMBERLIN) daughter of Rinard E. & Frances Jane (PETERS) Kimberlin
Mary (KIMBERLIN) was born in either Meremac Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States or Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States in 1835-1836.
Date from 1840 census states she was born 1835-1840.
Date from 1850 census states she was born in 1835 in Missouri.
Date from 1860 census states she was born in 1837 in Missouri.
Date from 1870 census states she was born in 1835 in Missouri.
Date from a newspaper death notice states she was born
Date from the funeral home records states she was born
Date from the obituary states she was born

Research Note
Since her brother Michael is listed as age 16 in the 1850 census and Mary as age 15 then Michael would have been born in 1834 and Mary in 1835. In the 1840 census Michael is in the 5-9 range which would put his birth at 1841 to 1835 and Mary is in the 4 & under range which would put her birth in the 1836 to 1840 range. Therefore, Michael was born 1834 and Mary was born 1835-1836.

1839 Good Friends
by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2008
It should be noted here that Rinard Kimberlin was a good neighbor and a friend to the Henry Pratt family.
When the Pratts arrived in eastern Crawford County in March 1839, they moved into Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri after their ordeal on the "Trail of Tears". They settled near the Kimberlins and struck up a good friendship.
When James Pratt married Rinard's daughter, Catherine in 1847-1848, James probably told Rinard that he wanted a piece of property near Rinard or Catherine told James to buy some property near her parents either way, it was against the law for indians to own or buy land. Rinard bought the land, the James Pratt family settled on from Firmin Desloge and 3 weeks later sold 24 acres of the 105 acres to his son-in-law, James Pratt.
Rinard did the same for his daughter, Mary after she married Alexander Pratt...James' brother. After James became a property owner it was easier for James and Alexander to pass themself off as a white man even though they were ½ Cherokee. This led to Alexander’s land purchase two years later in May 1856 from William & Martha Hughes which he later sold to the Ambrose Marion Pennock family from Ohio in 1859.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seal this day and date first above written.
Attest: J. M. Anthony  William Hughes  Martha Hughes"

[It should be noted that because Rinard Kimberlin sold some land to James Pratt who had married his daughter Catherine, this paved the way for Alexander to be able to buy land. It was law that Indians were not allowed to own or exchange property. Even though Alexander and James were only ½ Cherokee this still presented a problem. also I imagine that Rinard would not let Alexander marry his daughter, Mary unless he showed evidence that he was and could settle down. After Alex bought this land on 22 May 1856, a little over a month later Rinard agreed to Alex and Mary’s marriage on 28 June 1856. This property was located near White’s Creek and close to Alexander's brother; James & Catherine (KIMBERLIN) Pratt family.-Floyd Thomas Pratt]

[It appears that after 3 short years the property almost doubled in value. Why they choose to move and leave is unknown. Rinard and Frances were still alive and according to the 1860 census Alex stayed in the area. Cherokees were not farmers so farming probably did not appeal to Alexander.]

Apparently the Union Army was having trouble raising enough able-bodied men to fight or he was already in the war and was discharged due to medical condition. 1838 Forced Move "Trail of Tears"
A full account of the Henry Pratt family is in my book "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee". In this book I give a full detail of the "Trail of Tears" episode and it is a lengthy discourse. Because of its length, I will not go into it here but suffice to say, due to Henry Pratt's Cherokee ancestry, the government forced him and his family on the "Trail of Tears" in September 1838 and they jumped the trail in March 1839 and settled first in Crawford County moving to Richwoods Twp of Washington County, Missouri by the 1840
census.-Floyd Thomas Pratt

1939 Arrival in Missouri
After a long cold, hard winter the Pratt's found a way to escape from their military escort and followed the creeks from the "Trail of Tears" or what is now known as highway 8 in Crawford County, Missouri and settled 12 miles north in Crawford County before moving into Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri by the 1840 census. They began to make friends with other "exiles" who were also in hiding from the government. A local family, the Rinard (Rhinehart) Kimberlin(g) family befriended the Pratts and was instrumental in helping the Pratt family to adjust to their new home life. Also, the Absalom Blanton family helped the Pratts and intermarried which was Cherokee tradition. More in the book "Henry Pratt Family of Greene County, Tennessee" (2003) by Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri after their ordeal on the "Trail of Tears". They settled near the Kimberlins and struck up a good friendship.
When James Pratt married Rinard's daughter, Catherine in 1847-1848, James probably told Rinard that he wanted a piece of property near Rinard or Catherine told James to buy some property near her parents either way, it was against the law for indians to own or buy land.
Rinard bought the land, the James Pratt family settled on from Firmin Desloge and 3 weeks later sold 24 acres of the 105 acres to his son-in-law, James Pratt.
Rinard did the same for his daughter, Mary after she married Alexander Pratt...James' brother.
After James became a property owner it was easier for James and Alexander to pass themself off as a white man even though they were ½ Cherokee. This led to Alexander's land purchase two years later in May 1856 from William & Martha Hughes which he later sold to the Ambrose Marion Pennock family from Ohio in 1859.

1841 Childbirth of sister; Matilda Jane "Janie" (PRATT)
Matilda Jane "Janie" (PRATT) was born 20 October 1841 in Richwoods Twp,
Washington, Missouri, United States.

1841 to 1850 Death of Father; Henry Pratt
Death of Henry Pratt calculated to be between 1841 and 1850. This deduction derived from the presumption that he conceived his last known child; Matilda Jane "Janie" (PRATT) who was born according to her death certificate 20 October 1841. Going back 9 months from her birth date indicates he was alive February 1841 if... Matilda’s birth date is correct.
His son; Alexander R. Pratt told his son; Carac Pratt who told his son; Orville Carac Pratt that Alexander had gone to California in 1848-1849 during the gold rush. Maybe Henry went with the group but he does not show up in the 1850 census like Alexander does. I have checked available newspapers for that time period but have found no references to Henry Pratt. One of my mentor researchers; Geraldine Mabel (MILLER) Reed said that she thought she had seen a court report in one of those books in the Crawford County Courthouse that mentioned Nancy Pratt, widow of Henry Pratt receiving a cash allotment from the County Court. She could not remember where it was or anything more about it. I looked for it when I was at the Courthouse but there are so many books...hundreds that have not been documented but just piled up in the vault that I could not cover all of them and had no time, or luck in finding any information about Henry Pratt. Therefore, Henry Pratt could have died on his way to California or on his return trip to Missouri. After his death, his widow, Nancy (CARTER) Pratt moved from Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri to be near her daughter; Susanna Rebecca (PRATT) Hansel family in Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri. In 1852, Nancy married widower, Absalom Blanton in Crawford County.
Regrettably, due to old age, I must leave the mystery of Henry Pratt's death for the next generation to solve.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

1841-1850 Family Move
It appears after the death of husband; Henry Pratt, Nancy Pratt and family moved from Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States to Boone Twp, District 24, Crawford, Missouri, United States between 1841-1850 to be closer to her daughter's family; Henry H. & Susannah Rebecca (PRATT) Hansel family.

Notice that in the occupation section of the census the census taker wrote "widow" not the usual and customary "farmer".]

1856 Family Move
Alexander R. Pratt began courting Rhinard & Frances (PETERS) Kimberlin's daughter; Mary sometime before his property transaction on 22 May 1856. This realtionship with the Kimberlin family goes way back to 1839 when Mary's father; Rhinard befriended the Henry Pratt family when the Pratts moved to Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri from Crawford County, Missouri. Alex's brother, James had already married Rhinard's daughter Catherine and Alex knew Mary from associating with the Kimberlin family. Alex moved from Boone Twp, Crawford County, Missouri, United States where he had been living with his mother and siblings in the 1850 census to Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri near Anthonies Mill where the Rhinehart Kimberlin family lived when he purchased 40 acres on 22 May 1856.

Now know ye that for and in consideration of the sum of paid us as above specified we have conveyed the said land to Alexander Pratt with all and singular the privilege, appertenancy an hereditaments of whatever nature there belonging or in any wise appertaining. To have and to hold the same free from us our heirs, representatives, and assigns to him the said Alexander Pratt his heirs, representatives and assigns forever. In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seal this day and date first above written. Attest: J. M. Anthony  William Hughes  Martha Hughes"

[It should be noted that because Rinard Kimberlin sold some land to James Pratt who had married his daughter Catherine, this paved the way for Alexander to be able to buy land. It was law that Indians were not allowed to own or exchange property. Even though Alexander and James were only $\frac{1}{2}$ Cherokee this still presented a problem. Also I imagine that Rinard would not let Alexander marry his daughter, Mary unless he showed evidence that he was and could settle down. After Alex bought this land on 22 May 1856, a little over a month later Rinard agreed to Alex and Mary’s marriage on 28 June 1856. This property was located near White’s Creek and close to Alexander’s brother; James & Catherine (KIMBERLIN) Pratt family.-Floyd Thomas Pratt]

[It appears that after 3 short years after Alexander R. Pratt, my 2nd great grandfather, the property almost doubled in value. Why they choose to move and leave is unknown. Alexander's inlaws; Rinard and Frances (PETERS) Kimberlin were still alive and according to the 1860 census Alex stayed in the area. Since I can not find any Pratt's fighting in the Civil War for the white man, then probably this was all a ruse to avoid the civil war conflict.]

Research Note
Seems to be a discrepancy of enormous proportions. When I read their marriage record in 1976, I was new to research and as an untrained observer, I thought I saw her name as Mrs. Other researchers have now reported that the Mrs. was actually Misf which was a double "s" indicating she was a Miss not a Mrs. After viewing the actual record, I must now conclude that it is written as Miss not Mrs. I have found in the census records a Miss Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) in Franklin County, Missouri who was 20 years old. Alexander would have been 53 years old at the time of this marriage and surely the newspapers should have written an article about the discrepancy in age of this marriage. I have not had the time to check the Sullivan, Potosi, Bourbon or Steelville newspapers to verify any such article. However, if Adaline, the 20 year old in the census is the one he married...that would explain her ability to bear two children and dying young, from childbirth complications in 1892.

The Death of Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 1982
21 June 1982 Story about the death of Alexander Pratt

In 1982, I used to travel throughout the middle portion of Missouri tracking down ancestors and related families. One such family was Thomas Livey and Polina (PRATT) Callahan family; Alexander's daughter who had lived in Cherryville, Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri for many years and had children who still lived in that area. One such child was Fred C. Callahan born 4 July 1907 in Cherryville, Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States and died 29 January 1992 at Rolla, Phelps, Missouri, United States.

After receiving a reply to my newspaper ad looking for Alexander Pratt's grave from Elsie Conaway, who told me where the gravesite was located, I started to contact the Callahan family and drove to Cherryville to visit Fred Callahan on 21 June 1982. He related the following story to me about his grandpa...Alexander Pratt.

When Fred was a little boy...about 5 years old, Grandpa Alex (Alexander R. Pratt) came to visit his Mom and Dad (Lina & Tom Callahan) who lived near Cherryville, Missouri. Little Freddie used to "pick" on his Grandpa by climbing on him and playing with him like little grandchildren do with their grandpa. [I know from personal experience that my grandchildren; Brian and Jacob love to wrestle with me and get me down on the floor and climb on top of me and "beat me up". I've watched my father play with his great-grandchildren the same way.]

One day, Grandpa Alex was rockin' in a rockin' chair by the fireplace chewin' tobacco, when little Freddie ran into the kitchen where his mother was cookin' and said "Momma, sumptins wrong with Grandpa", Lina said, "You quit pickin' on Grandpa or I'll box your ears." They went into the front room and Lina found that Alex Pratt had died of a heart attack in his rocking chair. He was 79. This happened in 1912. Unknown if it was in the earlier part of the year or the winter months of the year.

Fred told me because the roads were slick with ice from an ice storm, they couldn't get the wagon with Alexander's body up the hills to take him back to his home in Sullivan to be buried, so they buried him in the Freeman Cemetery outside of Cherryville, Missouri. [I have driven' those roads at Cherryville and they are extremely steep and even hard to drive up them when the road is clear let alone when there is snow or sleet on the highway.]

Carac Pratt, Alex's son from his second marriage, put a small metal marker at the grave site in 1975, which was still there when I visited the grave in 1982. Luckily, I took a picture of that metal plaque because I have now been told that someone took the plaque from the cemetery and it is missing. This is a drawing of where he is buried. It is now 2008, so I am trying to remember from my 1982 visit.
His gravesite was about 3 or 4 in from the back fence towards the gate. I had made 2 attempts to find his grave. I had ridin' my motorcycle from Springfield, Missouri where I was living and operating an insurance agency.

On my first visit I walked all over the cemetery and found nothing. I had left the radio on the motorcycle and it was playing "rock" music and I was not in tune with the spirit and I was unsuccessful. There was a spot that I felt a strange feeling come over me but I didn't know why, there was nothing there.

On my second trip on a different day, this time, I left the radio off and Elsie Conaway came with me and showed me where he was buried. To my surprise, it was in the same spot I had previously searched but found nothing. There it was...the metal marker clearly sticking out of the ground. How did I miss it the first time? I do not know. Maybe I wasn't intune with the spirit and was blinded by the ways of the world and failed to see. I don't know.

That is the story on how Alexander Pratt became buried in the Freeman Cemetery, Cherryville, Crawford, Missouri, United States. There should be newspaper accounts of his death in the Sullivan, Bourbon, Steelville and/or Potosi newspapers. Those newspapers are kept at the State Historical Society in Cloumbia, Missouri and I had to travel to Columbia to get to read them. Usually I was permitted to have one day because I was a working father and had to raise a family at the same time I was trying to research my family line. I found some references to the Pratts, Blantons, Carters and other families in those papers but time prevented me from doing a thorough research. Maybe one day they will be online.-Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

"WANTED: The burial place of Alexander Pratt father of Winslow Pratt, was living on Crows Creek, died between 1910-1920. Reward of $20 for information. Write: Floyd Pratt, 2926 W. Washita, Springfield, Missouri 65807."

[I ran this advertisement hoping to find where Alexander Pratt was buried. I was hoping to pinpoint a birth and death date. Up to this point all I had was census records and nothing else to go on. And you must remember, back in 1982 I was still light years ahead of other researchers who did not even know who Alexander Pratt was or whom he married. Two people answered my ad and wrote back to me informing me of the location of Alexander's gravesite. The first was Elsie E. Conaway; born 31 October 1925 and died February 1988 from Cherryville and the second was Margaret Wagner from Sullivan, Missouri. Neither one wanted the $20 and when I drove out to see Elsie, she took me to where his gravesite was located. Whoa!! [I am still in correspondence with Margaret Wagner as of this day 4 July 2010.]

But first I am getting ahead of myself. When Elsie wrote to me and told me where his grave was located I decided to ride my 750cc Honda Goldwing motorcycle up from Springfield, where I lived, to Cherryville. I remember going up highway 19 and getting off at the Cemetery. I had a radio on my Honda and I was fond of rock music, loud...rock music and of course everyone knows that rock music is not conducive to the Holy Ghost and when I arrived at the cemetery, I left my radio on and walked the entire cemetery looking for Alexander Pratt's grave. I thoroughly looked at each grave site in anticipation of finding his grave after all these years but something was wrong and I couldn't find him. I went over and over the cemetery checking carefully each headstone and marker and he was not there. At one point of my search, I remember walking straight towards the back of the cemetery fence and felt a strange sensation at about 2 or 3 graves in but did not see any marker or headstone. I was disappointed to say the least and drove back home after doing more research that day and was despondent.

I called Elsie and told her I could not find the gravesite and she offered to take me there in person. So, sometime later, a week, a few days I don't remember, I rode my motorcycle back up to the cemetery and met Elsie, but this time I did not play rock music. And to my surprise she took me right to the spot that I had felt a strange sensation before but could not see the marker and lo and behold there it was...a steel metal marker which said "Alexander Pratt 1831-1912".

I became very humbled and realized how grateful I was to my Heavenly Father for allowing me to see the marker and to Elsie for taking the time to show me his gravesite. Why didn't I see it before? It must have been there. It's been there since Carac put in there before 1975. I believe the reason I didn't see it the first time was because my spirit was not in harmony with the Holy Ghost and I was not ready. After humbling myself, the Lord blessed me and we found the marker. Those of you who know what I am talking about...understand. I took a Polaroid picture of the marker and have it at this day. It is included in the pictures of Alexander Pratt's collection. Sadly, I was told that someone has taken the marker and it is lost. This is a true story-Floyd Thomas Pratt PS: In appreciation Elsie (WORLEY) Conaway and Fred C. Callahan have had their temple work completed.

Orville Carac Pratt
I found another grandson of Alexander Pratt living in Bethalto, Illinois. Sometime in the 1980's I made a trip and visited with Orville Carac Pratt, son of Carac Francis Pratt. Carac Francis Pratt was the last known living child of Alexander & Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) Pratt.

Orville related the following information about his Grandpa Alexander Pratt. Orville said his father; Carac told him that Alexander was a big man 6' 4" tall and weighed about 240lbs. Alex was a blacksmith, auctioneer, and ran a threshing separator rig for a while. Since Carac made railroad ties then probably he learned this from his father. Carac also told him that his dad, Alex made the gold rush to California in 1849. [If Alex made the gold rush...
maybe that's where his father Henry Pratt died. Maybe his dad went with him to California because Alex was only 17 years in 1849."

Research Speculation

[In close proximity to Lick Creek in Greene County, Tennessee, next door to the Carter family, the Harmon family and the Blanton family, there was James & Ann (GIBSON) Pratt family from Rockingham County, North Carolina. A few years before Henry Pratt and Nancy (CARTER) were married on October 3, 1820 in Greene County, Tennessee, there was a Robert Pratt and Alexander Pratt getting married in Greene County, Tennessee. The question is; does the "R." in Alexander's middle name represent his uncle...Robert? Was Alexander named after another uncle...Alexander? Was Henry Pratt the son of James & Ann (GIBSON) Pratt since he named his first son James? Further research into this family needs to take place in the historical archives of Greene County, Tennessee.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008]

My Tribute to the Ambrose Marion Pennock Family by Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

When my 2nd great grandfather, Alexander "Alex" R. Pratt bought 40 acres from William & Martha () Hughes on 22 May 1856, this property transaction had a great deal more intrigue and suspense than a normal property transfer.

My 2ggfather, Alex was 1/2 Cherokee and Native Americans were not allowed to buy or own property.

When the Pratts were forced from their home in Monroe County, Tennessee by bayonets, they were force marched on the "Trail of Tears" from September 1938 to March 1939, this has been documented by personal journals of those who accompanied the Pratts on that journey.

When they arrived in the portion of Crawford County, Missouri which later became Washington County, before the 1840 census date, they settled near the local family of Rinard (Rhinehart) & Frances (PETERS) Kimberling family.

The Kimberlings hailed from Botetourt County, Virginia and had been in Missouri since 1825 and settled in the Richwoods Township area of Washington County where Alexander's father, Henry Pratt shows up in the 1840 census. Rinard later moved to Johnson Township and the Pratts followed.

One of Henry's sons; James Pratt took a liking to one of Rinard's daughter's; Catherine (KIMBERLIN). But, Rinard was not going to let James Pratt a Cherokee marry his daughter unless he settled down. I guess Catherine was relentless in her pleadings to her father and he finally consented to the marriage and James & Catherine were married sometime between 1847-1848. [No record has been located].

On 25 February 1854, Rinard sold 23 acres to his son-n-law, James Pratt. This was the first property transaction found for the Pratts. Their father, Henry Pratt never owned property because he was full blooded Cherokee and it was against tribal custom and government law. [Cherokees felt that everyone in the tribe owned the land and therefore it could not be bought or sold.]
Alexander, encouraged by James' success with land purchase but more intrigued by another of Rinard's daughter, Mary (KIMBERLIN) wanted to seek her hand in marriage. Rinard realizing that he wanted good stable husbands for his daughters, informed Alex that he had to purchase property and settle down, BEFORE, he would permit his daughter to marry him.

So, on 22 May 1856, Alexander purchased 40 acres from William Hughes and a little more than 1 month later, on 28 June 1856 he married Mary (KIMBERLIN). So these 40 acres were the original homestead of Alexander R. & Mary (KIMBERLIN) Pratt family.

Cherokees are not very good farmers and after trying to conform to the farming life, Alexander decided this wasn't for him and about that time a new family arrived in the Johnson Township area looking for good land to build a future. This is where the Ambrose Marion Pennock family purchased the old homestead of the Alexander Pratt family on 18 March 1859.

Alexander Pratt stayed in the Johnson Township area of Washington County until after his second wife...Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) Pratt died in 1892. He then moved to the Boone Twp, Crawford, Missouri area to be closer to his son, Henry Winslow Pratt family and Alexander died in 1912.

As you see, because of the friendship our ancestors shared with others, the Ambrose Marion Pennock family will always have a special place in the hearts of the Pratts, this friendship transcends generations and binds our families together forever. Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

Blanton Hollow now known as Hamilton Hollow
by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009
There are two cemeteries on the hills at Hamilton Hollow across from each other. One is called Hamilton Cemetery and the other is the Blanton Cemetery. There are only a few headstones that have survived but both have many indentations in the ground where people have been buried.

Since the Pratt's were of Cherokee ancestry, the government made sure that native indians were not allowed to prosper. This included preventing them from voting, buying and selling land, holding legal offices and even buying fishing licenses and they suffered other abuses kin to the way the whites treated the blacks.

Therefore, there were many mixed native families living in the 39th and 40th townships of Johnson Township in Washington County, Missouri. These families found a common bond by seeking refuse from the abuses of the whites by living in close proximity. Only by marrying into local white families did these mixed natives begin to gain acceptance after the turn of the century.

In the meantime, they survived by hunting and cutting ties and staves for the railroad and mining companies.

My grandfather; Columbus Benjamin Alexander Pratt known as "Lum" to his friends was not only taught those trades by his father; Henry Winslow "Win" Pratt but also became known as an accomplished concrete and rock mason. My dad has shown me many structures still standing in Bourbon and the surrounding community that my grandfather had built.

Hamiton Hollow was named after the Hamilton Iron Works Mining Company who purchased the land from Absalom Blanton's son; Alexander A. Blanton Sr. in 1872 which comprised of property around Henry Pratt's log cabin and Absalom Blanton's mansion which has now become known in these latter days as Hamilton Hollow.

The old maps of the region show that the hollow was named Blanton Hollow in honor of Absalom Blanton and the creek the Blanton Creek. Near the creek is a cold water spring now called Pratt Spring named by the Missouri Corps of Engineers in honor of where Henry Pratt had built his log cabin on the bluff above. The large cave near the spring is named Pratt Cave.

Absalom Blanton had bought this property on 3 November 1849 and developed a mining operation which employed many in the area. He built a large mansion with a winding staircase, which has been written in numerous local newspapers.

by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

The name Winslow is so unusual it is hard to determine where it came from. I can find no references or articles to famous people carrying that name circa 1860's or around the time of Henry Winslow Pratt's birth (1869). I can not find any family member in the Pratt, Carter, Blanton or Kimberlin lines that carried the Winslow name. However, there is a long shot I found through my research efforts, that may have a clue to the origin of the name.

David Jackson Staples married Mary Pratt (WINSLOW) in Boston, Massachusetts in 1848. This was the same year that gold had been discovered on the American River in California. David decided he had to go west to seek his fortune and with 25 men, including Mary's brother George Winslow from Newton, Massachusetts and her Uncle Jesse Winslow and others, formed the Boston-Newton Joint Stock Association.

In 1848 and with the intent of going to California to participate in the gold rush, David Staples kept a journal of the trip. Traveling by train and lake steamer they reached Ohio without incident. After reaching Cairo, Illinois by April 27th and heading north to Saint Louis (City) for provisions, the party was spurred on by a cholera epidemic in St. Louis and left for Independence, Missouri by paddleboat up the Missouri River.

On May 27th, Staples wrote of Indians, mule trouble, double-teaming the wagons through the wet prairie, a party".....returning haveing lost a husband father and friend of Cholera." Who this was and the party that returned is not mentioned. But, on June 8th, George Winslow died in Nebraska from cholera. David Staples and party continued on to California and in 1862 was one of the founders of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, in San
Presumptive Conclusions

The following questions and assumptions are based on several coincidences from the David Jackson Staples story. These queries are meant to provoke contemplation and engage the reader into action, so someone, somewhere will desire to investigate and find the answers.

(1) Could the Mary Pratt (WINSLOW) from Newton, Massachusetts, that married David Staples have been a relative of Alexander or one of the other Pratts?

(2) Was Alexander Pratt familiar with the Boston Pratts?

(3) When the Staples party left St. Louis by paddleboat, they probably traveled the Missouri River.

(4) They may have stopped at Hannibal, Missouri for provisions. Hannibal is not far from our Pratts in Crawford County.

(5) Did the Staples-Winslow party stop and visit with the Pratts from Crawford County, Missouri?

(6) One thing is known...Alexander Pratt went to the California gold fields in 1848-1849. This story was passed down by Alexander to his son; Carac who told his son; Orville, who told me in the 1980’s before he died about Alex making the trip to California.

(7) I have always speculated that if Alexander went west in 1848 to California for gold, he didn't go alone. I believe some of his brother's and maybe his father; Henry Pratt accompanied him.

(8) Let's take this one step further, could Henry & Alexander and his brothers have hooked up with the David Staples party when they were going through Missouri at about the same time?

(9) Could Henry Pratt, who we know was alive in 1842, could he have died on the trail out west? His wife, Nancy (CARTER) Pratt is a widow by the 8 October 1850 census date. After 35 years of researching, we still do not know where or when Henry Pratt died.

(10) David Staples' Journal says that "a party of their group lost a husband father and friend due to the cholera epidemic and returned". Could this have been Henry Pratt who died on the trail and his sons returned home to Crawford County, Missouri?

(11) Alexander is in the 1850 census with his mother and brothers. Why didn't he continue his westward trek to the gold fields of California? What would force him to return prematurely? Maybe the death of their father?

(12) Did Alexander's association with the Staples and Winslow men on the trail create an impression on Alexander, that in 1869 he named one of his sons--Henry after his grandfather and Winslow after his good friend George Winslow of Newton, Massachusetts?
(13) Alexander’s son; Stonewall Jackson Pratt after reaching adulthood, dropped the "Stonewall" and took the middle name of "Newton". All the while he was alive in Columbia, Missouri since his adult life he was known as Jackson "Jack" Newton Pratt. Where did he get the name of Newton? From Newton, Massachusetts?

(14) Henry Winslow Pratt named one of his sons, Jesse Lee Pratt in 1894. I can find no previous references to the name Jesse in the Pratt, Kimberlin, Missey families other than Carter family which I am sure they, meaning Henry Winslow Pratt, was not aware of...Jesse Carter Sr. his great-grandfather. The Pratts did not have any written record of their family history so I am sure Jesse Carter Sr. was unknown to them. I think Henry Winslow Pratt named Jesse Pratt after Jesse Winslow from Newton, Massachusetts, who accompanied his father, Alex and David Stapes westward to California.

(15) Once again Boston, Massachusetts pops up in my research. If the above hypothesis has any creditability, then maybe there was something to my great Aunt Eula’s story about one of Jackson Pratt's boys stealing some Boston deeds from Laura (MISSEY) Pratt in the late 1920's or early 1930's. More on that story can be found in my article, "Who Stole the Deeds?" Should be noted that many older family members retold the stolen deed story to me, not just my great Eula Viola (RICHARDSON) Pratt.

When my father was in the insurance business and owned his own agency, he contracted with Fireman's Fund Insurance Company as an agent (around 1969) and they gave him this book. He later gave me the book. Little did I know the mysteries I would find concerning the Staples, Winslow and Pratt families within its pages. I found it strange that the founder of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company had married Mary Pratt (WINSLOW). I realize without more collaborating evidence, the above hypothesis is purely speculation. In any case there are some coincidences that can not be overlooked. -Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

Debility is weakness caused by long sickness. Alex is listed next to his brother John. Unknown why his age was given as 19. Apparently the Union Army was having trouble raising enough able - bodied men to fight or he was already in the war and was discharged due to medical condition. 1928 Burial of Mary Ellen (PRATT) Studdard
Hamilton Hollow Cemetery, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States
Dolly (STUDDARD) Lahmann, her granddaughter, told me Mary Ellen (PRATT) Studdard is buried at Hamilton Cemetery. [no headstone]
Mary married James Franklin Studdard, son of James William Studdard and Betsy "Bacey" Susie Nancy Pruitt, on 3 March 1878 in Washington, Missouri, United States. James was born on 12 April 1856 near Steelville Post Office, Meramec Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States, died on 29 October 1939 in 25 Marshall Road, Valley Park, Saint Louis (county), Missouri, United States at age 83, and was buried on 31 October 1939 in Sullivan IOOF Cemetery, Sullivan, Meramec Twp, Franklin, Missouri, United States.

Date from 1870 census states he was born ???

Date from 1880 census states he was born 1854 in Missouri.

Since his parents listed his birth after his brother John in the 1860 census, then he must have been born in 1856.

Research Note

The surname Studdard has been loosely used by various members of these families. Even within siblings I have found the following variations...Stuthers, Struthers and so forth. Further research needs to be done to discover the origins of the Studdard name. Be mindful when researching legal as well as family records for these ancestors, the variations and include all known spelling possibilities. Remember, these people back in the 1700's and 1800's were not educated and pronounced everything phonetically. FTP from 11 February 1864 the date she filed for a pension as widow Betsey Studdard to 9 months prior to the birth of Mary Ellen (MURRAY) on 3 October 1865. There are so many John Murray’s in the 1860 census it is difficult to determine when he was born or if he was previously married (likely). [See the report: "What Happened to the Murray Children’s Surname?" by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2010]

1865 Childbirth of step-sister; Mary Ellen Studdard-(MURRAY) accurate that information is unknown.

1867 Childbirth of step-sister; Amanda F. Studdard-(MURRAY)

Amanda F. (MURRAY) was born in Washington, Missouri, United States on 5 December 1867. Amanda's death certificate said she was born in Washington County...how accurate that information is unknown.

1870 Federal Census age 14

Since we can't find them in the 1870 census, this puts us at a severe disadvantage for locating their residency. This also is important to acknowledge that Bacy was using John Murray's surname for his children. Lucas' death certificate says he was born in Crawford County in 1871 but using all kinds of variations on the Murray name as well as each of the two girls that we would know to be home in 1870 has produced no results.

1871 Childbirth of step-brother; Lucas Irvin Studdard-Murray

Lucas Irvin Studdard-Murray was born in Crawford, Missouri, United States on 4 December 1871.

1873-1880 Death or divorce of step-father; John Murray

John Murray died or they were divorced between 1873-1880 near Sullivan, Meramec Twp, Franklin, Missouri, United States, because Bacey is listed in the 1880 census as a single woman with her children. Finding the divorce record would be immensely helpful.

He was buried on 31 October 1939 at Odd Fellows Cemetery (IOOF), Sullivan, Franklin, Missouri, United States. The informant was Katie Ward, 25 Marshall Road, Valley Park, Saint Louis (county), Missouri, United States.

1939 Burial of James Franklin Studdard
Even though the death certificate states he was buried at Odd Fellows Cemetery (IOOF), Sullivan, Franklin, Missouri, United States, checking the burial book, "The Cemeteries of Meramec Township, Franklin County, Missouri" © 1997 by Four Rivers Genealogical Society page 67 does not list him. If his wife; Mary Ellen (PRATT) Studdard was buried in Hamilton Hollow Cemetery as reported by her granddaughter; Dollie (STUDDARD) Lohmann, then logic dictates he was buried beside her. However, without proof, i.e., newspaper, funeral home or other documents, we really don't know where he was buried. So, for now I will concede to believe Odd Fellows Cemetery (IOOF), Sullivan, Franklin, Missouri, United States as his burial location.

Name Change
What significance Confederate General Thomas Jonathan "Stonewall" Jackson had in Alexander R. Pratt's life is unknown. Since none of the Pratts in that family participated in the Civil War it is highly unusual for Alex to name one of his male children after a southern general. Obviously, Alex must have been influenced by others because he had no personal association with the general or the Civil War. Another observation, he named his son; Stonewal Jackson Pratt during the Civil War. When Stonewal Jackson Pratt met Mary "Mollie" Louise (TAYLOR) he dropped "Stonewall" and went by Jackson Newton Pratt after his marriage. Since, Mary "Mollie" Louise (TAYLOR) claimed her family was related to President Zachary Taylor, then obviously they were of northern affiliation and her husband having a southern general's name was not acceptable. So, shortly after Jackson's marriage, this new middle name of Newton appears on his legal documents. Also, when he married Mary "Mollie" Louise (TAYLOR) in 1884, she being of Catholic faith, converted him to the Catholic church and upon baptism, he chose Newton as his name in the church and for legal purposes. Several of their children were christened in the Saint Stephen's Catholic Parish in Richwoods, Washington, Missouri, United States. This probably caused some alienation within Jackson Pratt's family that resulted in Jackson leaving the Johnson Township, Washington County area and moving to Columbia, Boone County, Missouri. First, most of the other Pratt family members were Methodists, Baptists or Penecostal...not Catholic. Second, Jackson changed his name and rejected his birth name. I have found even in modern times, due to a lack of religious tolerance among family members, many family relationships were severed and have never found reconciliation. Nevertheless, in Columbia he was known as Jackson Newton Pratt.--Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

1864 Father's Military Medical
Between 1860-1875, Dr. John B. Bell was commissioned by the Union Army to give physicals for pension applications in Potosi, Mo. These records are known as "The John B. Bell Papers" and are housed in the library at the University Of Missouri in the manuscript room at Rolla, Phelps, Missouri, United States.

#57 Alex Pratt age 19 Diagnosis: Tuberculosis & debility."
[These medicals took place at Potosi, Washington, Missouri. Debility is weakness caused by long sickness. Alex is listed next to his brother John. Unknown why his age was given as 19. Apparently the Union Army was having trouble raising enough able-bodied men to fight or he was already in the war and was discharged due to medical condition. Since I can not find any Pratt's fighting in the Civil War for the white man, then probably this was all a ruse to avoid the civil war conflict.]

1906 Family Move
The Jackson Pratt family moved from Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States to Sexton Road, Columbia, Columbia Twp, Boone, Missouri, United States in 1906. It seems strange that of all of Alexander's children, Stonewall Jackson Pratt left the tri-county area i.e., Washington, Crawford, Franklin counties and moved his family to Columbia, Mo. He appears in the 1900 Washington County, Missouri census however, when he died in 1941 his son stated that his father had lived in the Columbia, Missouri area for 35 years. This means Jackson Pratt left our area about 1906. Jackson's father; Alexander, was still alive then and hadn't died until 1912. You would think he would have stayed close in the area to his brothers and sisters. By the 1910 census the Jackson Newton Pratt name was official. Apparently, his wife who was of northern roots, didn't want him to use a southern general's name. On 17 May 1994, I made a trip to Columbia, Missouri and visited Ralph Alexander Pratt II and his wife Anita. Ralph said that he had lived with his grandpa and grandma until he was 11 years old and they told him that they moved up to Columbia so their children could attend College and for a better financial opportunity. Since, Mary Louise (TAYLOR) Pratt was a school teacher back in Washington County, then this move sounds plausible. According to the death record of their daughter; Alice (PRATT), she was a student in 1916 when she died of typhoid fever. She was 19 years old at the time and she must have been attending college. What concerns me about this statement is...Saint Louis had older and better accredited and more prestigious colleges than Columbia. There may have been an additional undiscovered motive for the move.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile for Mary "Mollie" Louise (TAYLOR) by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2008

In harmony with the first law of genealogy or family history research, i.e., documentation, I submit my famous Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile on this subject including all known documentation presented for the serious researcher. 1861 Birthblock for Mary "Mollie" Louise (TAYLOR) daughter of Sr. Archibald Ritchie & Marie Louise (ROUSSIN) Taylor

Mary "Mollie" Louise (TAYLOR) was born near Old Mines Post Office, Union Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States on 26 May 1861.
Date from 1870 census states she was born 1859 in Missouri.
Date from 1880 census states she was born 1861 in Missouri.
Date from 1900 census states she was born May 1863 in Missouri.
Date from 1910 census states she was born 1865 in Missouri.

Date from 1930 census states she was born 1866 in Missouri.
Date from 1940 census states she was born 1866 in Missouri.
Date from husband’s death certificate states she was 73 years old in 1941...thus she was born 1868.
Date from the death certificate states she was born 26 May 1865 in Columbia, Boone, Missouri, United States.
Date from headstone states she was born 26 May 1866.
On Ralph Alexander Pratt's death certificate she gave Postoi, Missouri as her birthplace.

[Mary "Mollie" Louise (TAYLOR) was not born as the 1870 census states in 1859 because she is not listed in the 1860 census with her parents. Since my St. Joachim Catholic Church baptismal records only go to 1845 then I can not verify her exact birthdate and baptismal date. Seeing that her father or mother was the Catholic influence in her life, I am sure there is a record for her at the St. Joachim Catholic Church at Old Mines, Missouri. Otherwise, we can only speculate that she was probably born the 26 May but between 1861 to 1863.]

Name and Description

Mollie was her nickname. She was a petite woman and she was well educated. She taught school in Washington County, Missouri and spoke French fluently. She told Ralph, her grandson, that Zachary Taylor was her uncle or Great uncle. She also said that her family came with the Cajuns to Missouri. I believe she was a strong influence for Stonewall Jackson Pratt to drop the Stonewall since her family were of northern persuasion.

1906 Family Move
The Jackson Pratt family moved from Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States to Sexton Road, Columbia, Columbia Twp, Boone, Missouri, United States in 1906. It seems strange that of all of Alexander's children, Stonewall Jackson Pratt left the tri-county area i.e., Washington, Crawford, Franklin counties and moved his family to Columbia, Mo. He appears in the 1900 Washington County, Missouri census however, when he died in 1941 his son stated that his father had lived in the Columbia, Missouri area for 35 years. This means Jackson Pratt left our area about 1906. Jackson's father; Alexander, was still alive then and hadn't died until 1912. You would think he would have stayed close in the area to his brothers and sisters. By the 1910 census the Jackson Newton Pratt name was official. Apparently, his wife who was of northern roots, didn't want him to use a southern general's name. On 17 May 1994, I made a trip to Columbia, Missouri and visited Ralph Alexander Pratt II and his wife Anita. Ralph said that he had lived with his grandpa and grandma until he was 11 years old and they told him that they moved up to Columbia so their children could attend College and for a better financial opportunity. Since, Mary Louise (TAYLOR) Pratt was a school teacher back in Washington County, then this move sounds plausible. According to the death record of their daughter; Alice (PRATT), she was a student in 1916 when she died of typhoid fever. She was 19 years old at the time and she must have been attending college. What concerns me about this statement is...Saint Louis had older and better accredited and more prestigious colleges than Columbia. There may have been an additional undiscovered motive for the move.—Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008

[Seems to be a discrepancy of enormous proportions. When I read their marriage record in 1976, I was new to research and as an untrained observer, I thought I saw her name as Mrs. Other researchers have now reported that the Mrs. was actually Miss which was a double "s" indicating she was a Miss not a Mrs. After viewing the actual record, I must now conclude that it is written as Miss not Mrs. I have found in the census records a Miss Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) in Franklin County, Missouri who was 20 years old. Alexander would have been 53 years old at the time of this marriage and surely the newspapers should have written an article about the discrepancy in age of this marriage. I have not had the time to check the Sullivan, Potosi, Bourbon or Steelville newspapers to verify any such article. However, if Adaline, the 20 year old in the census is the one he married...that would explain her ability to bear two children and dying young, from childbirth complications in 1892.]

1915 Burial of David McDonald Campbell
Hamilton Hollow Cemetery, Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States.
[Location given to me from son, Harry Campbell. I suspect Elizabeth (RUSS) Campbell had been buried in Hamilton Cemetery, Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, }
Washington, Missouri, United States when she died between 1872-1876. My reasoning for this is when David died in 1915 he was buried in this cemetery. When his 3rd wife Fannie (PRATT) Whiteside Campbell died in 1934 she was buried in the I.O.O.F. Cemetery, Sullivan, Meramec Twp, Franklin, Missouri, United States where most of her children and their spouses have been buried. Therefore, it appears David wanted to be buried next to his first wife, Elizabeth (RUSS) Campbell...if my hypothesis is correct.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

From Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States to Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States

Research Note
Unknown what prompted Thomas Livey & Polina (PRATT) Callahan family to move from Johnson Township in Washington County to Osage Township in Crawford County. Both of Thomas Calahan's parents had died long ago. One hint is Polina's father; Alexander moved from Johnson Township after the death of his spouses and moved to Boone Township in Crawford County living with his son Henry Winslow Pratt family. He lived with Henry in the 1900 census and the 1910 census. Apparently, Alexander was either living with Tom and Polina or visiting with them near Cherryville in Osage Township, Crawford County when he died in 1912. Checking the Washington County Deed Records might reveal if Tom owned property and when he sold it after 1900. Crawford County deed records won't help much since in the 1910 census he states he was renting.

1982 Story about the death of Alexander Pratt
21 June 1982 Story about the death of Alexander Pratt
[In 1982, I used to travel throughout the middle portion of Missouri tracking down ancestors and related families. One such family was Thomas Livey and Polina (PRATT) Callahan family; Alexander's daughter who had lived in Cherryville, Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri for many years and had children who still lived in that area. One such child was Fred C. Callahan born 4 July 1907 in Cherryville, Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States and died 29 January 1992 at Rolla, Phelps, Missouri, United States. After receiving a reply to my newspaper ad looking for Alexander Pratt's grave from Elsie Conaway, who told me where the gravesite was located, I started to contact the Callahan family and drove to Cherryville to visit Fred Callahan on 21 June 1982. He related the following story to me about his grandpa...Alexander Pratt.]

When he was a little boy...about 5 years old, Grandpa Alex (Alexander R. Pratt) came to visit his Mom and Dad (Lina & Tom Callahan) who lived near Cherryville, Missouri. Little Freddie used to "pick" on his Grandpa by climbing on him and playing with him like little grandchildren do with their grandfather. [I know from personal experience that Brian and Jacob love to wrestle with me and get me down on the floor and climb on top of me and "beat me up". I've watched my father play with his great-grandchildren the same way.]

One day, Grandpa Alex was rockin' in a rockin' chair by the fireplace chewin' tobacco, when little Freddie ran into the kitchen where his mother was cookin' and said "Momma, sumptins wrong with Grandpa", Lina said, "You quit pickin' on Grandpa or I'll box your ears." They went into the front room and Lina found that Alex Pratt had died of a heart attack in his rocking chair. He was 79. This happened in 1912. Unknown if it was in the earlier part of the year or the winter months of the year. Fred told me because the roads were slick with ice from an ice storm, they couldn't get the wagon with Alexander's body up the hills to take him back to his home in Sullivan to be buried, so they buried him in the Freeman Cemetery outside of Cherryville, Missouri. [I have driven' those roads at Cherryville and they are extremely steep and even hard to drive up them when the road is clear let alone when there is snow or sleet on the highway.] Carac Pratt, Alex's son from his second marriage, put a small metal marker at the grave site in 1975, which was still there when I visited the grave in 1982. Luckily, I took a picture of that metal plaque because I have now been told that someone took the plaque from the cemetery and it is missing. This is a drawing of where he is buried. It is now 2008, so I am trying to remember from my 1982 visit.

His gravesite was about 3 or 4 in from the back fence towards the gate. I had made 2 attempts to find his grave. I had ridin' my motorcycle from Springfield, Missouri where I was living and operating an insurance agency. On my first visit I walked all over the cemetery and found nothing. I had left the radio on the motorcycle and it was playing "rock" music and I was not in tuned with the spirit and I was unsuccessful. There was a spot that I felt a strange feeling come over me but I didn't know why, there was nothing there. On my second trip on a different day, this time, I left the radio off and Elsie Conaway came with me and showed me where he was buried. To my surprise, it was in the same spot I had previously searched but found nothing. There it was...the metal marker clearly sticking out of the ground. How did I miss it the first time, I do not know. Maybe I wasn't intuned with the spirit and was blinded by the ways of the world and failed to see. I don't know.

That is the story on how Alexander Pratt became buried in the Freeman Cemetery, Cherryville, Crawford, Missouri, United States. There should be newspaper accounts of his death in the Sullivan, Bourbon, Steelville and/or Potosi newspapers. Those newspapers are kept at the Missouri Historical Society in Cloumbia, Missouri and I had to travel to Columbia to get to read them. Usually I was permitted to have one day because I was a working father and had to raise a family at the same time I was trying to research my family line. I found some references to the Pratts, Blantons, Carters and other families in those papers but time prevented me from doing a thorough research. Maybe one day they will be online.-Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

1982 Lou Bobbit's recollections of his Grandmother; Polina (PRATT) Callahan

Lou Bobbit is the Grandson of Thomas & Lina Calahan. He lives on Hiway 49 between Davisville and Cherryville. He stated that Polina Pratt often told the story of how her family came from Tennessee in a cart pulled by oxen. When I asked him why the Pratts settled in Washington and Crawford Counties of Missouri he said his grandmother Polina AKA "Aunt Lina" to the locals in the Cherryville area said the area looked a lot like their home in Tennessee. He also said she was a midwife and has delivered much of the population of Cherryville, Missouri. Story related to Floyd Thomas "Tom" Pratt on 21 June 1982.
Paulina married Thomas "Tom" Livey Callahan, son of James Madison Callahan and Annie Elizabeth "Betsy" Yoder, on 3 February 1887 in Washington, Missouri, United States. 1900-1910 Family Move
From Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States to Osage Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States

Research Note
Unknown what prompted Thomas Livey & Polina (PRATT) Callahan family to move from Johnson Township in Washington County to Osage Township in Crawford County. Both of Thomas Calahan's parents had died long ago. One hint is Polina's father; Alexander moved from Johnson Township after the death of his spouses and moved to Boone Township in Crawford County living with his son Henry Winslow Pratt family. He lived with Henry in the 1900 census and the 1910 census. Apparently, Alexander was either living with Tom and Polina or visiting with them near Cherryville in Osage Township, Crawford County when he died in 1912. Checking the Washington County Deed Records might reveal if Tom owned property and when he sold it after 1900. Crawford County deed records won't help much since in the 1910 census he states he was renting.

Research Note

Seems to be a discrepancy of enormous proportions. When I read their marriage record in 1976, I was new to research and as an untrained observer, I thought I saw her name as Mrs. Other researchers have now reported that the Mrs. was actually Misf which was a double "s" indicating she was a Miss not a Mrs. After viewing the actual record, I must now conclude that it is written as Miss not Mrs. I have found in the census records a Miss Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) in Franklin County, Missouri who was 20 years old. Alexander would have been 53 years old at the time of this marriage and surely the newspapers should have written an article about the discrepancy in age of this marriage. I have not had the time to check the Sullivan, Potosi, Bourbon or Steelville newspapers to verify any such article. After researching the Dugan family, I am convinced Adaline, the 20 year old in the census is the one he married...that would explain her ability to bear two children and dying young, from childbirth complications in 1892.

1893 Childbirth of son, my grandfather; Columbus "Lum" Benjamin Alexander
Pratt
Columbus "Lum" Benjamin Alexander Pratt was born 1 December 1893 at Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States.

Research Note
Concerning his place of birth, my grandmother, Rue (JOHNSON) Pratt told me Lum was born in Catawissa, Calvey Twp, Franklin, Missouri. However, this is contrary to the location of his parent's residence which was at Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States. Since the 1890 census was destroyed by fire, we do not have the location of his parent's exact residence. The 1880 census states his father was in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri and the 1900 census states his father lived in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri since both censuses are in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri then I would conclude that he was born in Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri not Catawissa, Calvey Twp, Franklin, Missouri. Also, on his brother's, Jesse Lee Pratt's death certificate, it states that Jess was born near Sullivan, Missouri. Since Sullivan is the closest town to Hamilton Hollow then this also supports my assumption that Columbus was born in Hamilton Hollow. Without stronger evidence supporting the Catawissa birthplace, I believe that Columbus Benjamin Alexander Pratt was born at Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States. Therefore, until new proof can be found to support the Catawissa birthplace, henceforth based on the above evidence I stand by my presumptive conclusions.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

The home that my aunts and uncles remember between Crows Creek and Brazil Creek (see map) belonged to Columbus Francois Missey, Laura's father. He had entered a deed for 120 acres on 20 April 1889. Either he sold the property to Henry Winslow Pratt and they never filed the deed or the land was given to his daughter and son-in-law as a gift. Henry Winslow & Mary Laura Magdalene (MISSEY) Pratt's Crows Creek Family Home by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 16 August 2010
Back in the early 1990's Bonnie and I were attending the Pratt-Graddy family reunion in Bourbon, Missouri. They always held the reunion on the 2nd Saturday of each September.

After much coaxing, I was able to convince Dad, Uncle Jim and Aunt Edith to take me to Henry Winslow Pratt's cabin location on Crows Creek. I had never been there and after all these years I now knew some history of that property. I wanted to research the property and surroundings taking pictures for future posterity.

So, with about 15 to 20 people, piled into several cars, we drove out of Bourbon to Sullivan took Highway D to Sappington Road and drove down to Thickey Ford Road near Greens Branch creek...I think. I think we had to cross Greens Branch to get to the cabin's location because there were no roads into the property.

When we got to the section where Thickey Ford Road makes a sharp left, the dirt road continued straight on down the hill...but, at the entrance of someone's property there was a padlocked gate so, we had to park our cars up by the gate... and walk to the creek.

We walked down the hill towards the creek about 100 yards and when we got to the creek, the 2 wheeled road drove right into the creek and up the other side. You’ve seen those roads, where you have weeds and grass growing up in-between where the wheels drove. The creek was about 30 feet wide but not very deep.

It had rained the night before and the creek was up to about our knees-waist and it was flowing rather quickly and it was cold.

I was excited about being able to see the cabin location that Columbus Francis Missey had owned and gave to Henry & wife; Mary Laura Magdalene (MISSEY) Pratt family.

Uncle Jim knew the most about the location and said that when they were little, he and his brothers used to visit the cabin before it burned down. Now all that was left was a rock foundation and maybe a chimney. He said he would like to take a metal detector and look for old coins around the cabin.

I was of course, gung ho! And ready to wade the creek but the rest being of older years, feigned off and I did not get to cross the creek and walk to the Pratt family home site. Uncle Jim said it was quite a ways up the hill.

So, my fellow readers, cousins, brothers, nieces, nephews, grandchildren and children I can not give you an exact location or my impressions of the area...maybe one day, you may get to visit it.

Besides my 30-year insurance career, I also held two real estate licenses; one for Gundaker Realty in St. Charles, Missouri (about 1992-1993) and one for All Aces Century 21 Real Estate Company in Bradenton, Florida (1995-1996).

One of the purposes of getting a real estate license besides making money-selling properties was to teach myself how to read maps. This has come in handy when reading deed records and looking for ancestor's property.

In the C2G Profile of François Columbier Columbus "Lum" Missé, I list the exact location of that property he bought on Crows Creek in 1890.

That property he lived at from 1890 to 1911, when Henry & family moved in, I guess it became too much for Lum, because the Sullivan Sentinel newspaper article on 3 November 1911 said Lum was moving to Bourbon, Missouri.

I imagine Lum's second wife; Mary Lavina (CAUFIELD) Missey may not have liked being crammed into a small cabin with Henry's large family.

He left Henry and Mary the house on Crow's Creek and Lum and wife moved to Bourbon where Lum died on 26 April 1916.
So, there you have it, one of my disappointments of life...locating the cabin where my 2nd great grandfather; François Colombier Columbus "Lum" Missé (Lum) lived and owned, where my great grandfather Henry Winslow Pratt (Win) lived and died (1914) and where my grandfather; Columbus Benjamin Alexander Pratt (Lum) was born (1896).

Who knows, maybe...one day I may still get there yet. Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2010

1970 John McCormick's Book (as it was written)
"Forest Hills and Vicinity" by John Steele McCormick, 1970, states the following about Henry Winslow Pratt family, Page 376:
Over a century ago Alex Pratt came from Pennsylvania and settled on Brazeal Creek and Greens Branch. He married a Kimberlin. Their four children were.
I. Henry Winslow,
II. Rynard,
III. Carric,
IV. Cleave.

Henry Winslow Pratt married Laura M. Missey, daughter of Columbus and Cynthia (TALBOT) Missey. They were the parents of the following eight children:
1. Columbus, b. Nov. 1, 1893; d. July 27, 19; married April 12, 1919, Rue Johnson, daughter of James Millard and Mary Jane "Dosia" (BARTON) Johnson of Bourbon. The family always lived in or near to Bourbon. Their children;
   A. Edith, who married Chester Skaggs.
   B. Carl, m. Mary of St. Louis.
   C. Roy, of near Steelville.
   D. Floyd, who with his family of wife and three sons lives in Sioux Falls, S.D. where he is executive vice-president of Atlas Life Insurance Company and is regarded as a leading efficiency expert.
   E. Nadine, who died young.
   F. James, of California.
2. Jesse L., b. 1895; d. 1962; buried National Cemetery at Jefferson Barracks; of Leasburg; m. Nadine (SKAGGS).
3. Allan
4. Virgil of Bourbon m Eula, daughter of Pete Richardson of Steelville.
6. Mary
8. Orville, of Kansas City.

There was also a John Pratt family whose descendants spread into northern Crawford County. This family came from Tennessee, but if related to the Alex Pratt family, it is not known. John A. Blanton of Sullivan married Sarah (PRATT) of this family. There were two other wives.
The 1850 census, always unsatisfactory, especially in giving initials instead of given names of member of the families, lists a Pratt family in Crawford County at this date as follows:
"J. Pratt, age 23, b. in Ohio, and his wife, R. Pratt, aged 20, b. in N.C." and their two sons: N.C. aged 3 and J.M. aged one both here." (end of article)

This is the entirety of the text. However it is riddled with errors. When John McCormick was gathering information for his book, he sent letters to all the surnames he could find in the Crawford, Washington, Franklin county areas. One of these letters came to Floyd Theodore Pratt, my father.

Dad, not knowing a great deal about ancestors sent a copy of the letter to Rue Flavilla (JOHNSON) Pratt his mother; my grandmother. She wrote what she knew on letter paper about the Pratt, Johnson and allied families and sent it back to Dad in Sioux Falls, South Dakota where we lived in 1961. Dad added his comments to the information and sent all he knew with Grandmother's information and sent it to Mr. McCormick. Without my grandmother's effort there would have been no reference to the Pratt's let alone related families.

Concerning the validity of the information, as you know by now Alexander R. Pratt was born in Monroe County, Tennessee in 1831-1832. After a forced march on the "Trail of Tears" with his family, Henry and Nancy (CARTER) Pratt jumped trail in Crawford County, Missouri and by the 1840 census had settled in Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri.

After some time Henry and family settled in what is now called the Hamilton Hollow area of the Johnson Township of Washington County, Missouri.

In 1856 Alexander 1st married Mary (KIMBERLIN) daughter of Rhinard & Frances Jane (PETERS) Kimberlin(g). Alexander and Mary had 8 children; (1) Mary Ellen (PRATT) married James Franklin Studdard; (2) Michael Pratt died young; (3) Stonewall Jackson Pratt married Mary Louise (TAYLOR); (4) Frances "Fannie" Minerva (PRATT) 1st married Jackman Whiteside, 2nd David McDonald Campbell; (5) Polina "Lina" (PRATT) married Thomas Livey Callahan; (6) Henry Winslow Pratt married Laura Mary Magdalene (MISSEY); (7) Rhinehart "Rinard" Pratt never married; (8) Minnie (PRATT) married George William Richter.

On 20 August 1885, Alexander Pratt married 2nd; Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) they had 2 children; (1) Carac Francis Pratt married Olivea Jane (JARVIS); (2) Cleveland Pratt died young. It appears Catherine (DUGAN) Pratt died in childbirth in 1892.

Even though John McCormick's article was full of errors, written back in 1970, it gave me a roadmap to verify and validate the information I discovered about the Pratt family...thank you, John McCormick...good job, well done. And thank you Dad and Grandmother Rue. -Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009]

1980's Family Story
Sometime in during the 1980's, Ethel Isgriggs told me a story about Henry Winslow Pratt and his son; Columbus Benjamin Alexander Pratt having an argument over who was going to cut the firewood.
As of this date, I have not been able to identify this Ethel Isgriggs, I know Isgriggs was her married name and she lived in Bourbon. But, she was a good friend of my Great Aunt Eula Viola (RICHARDSON) Pratt, who also collaborated this story.

The story goes that "Winslow" told his son "Lum" to cut some firewood. Lum refused and Win told him he would have whip him if he didn't obey. Lum still refused and Win and Lum started to fistfight and brawl on the ground until Winslow was victorious and Lum succumbed and cut the firewood.

If this story is true, which I have no reason to doubt these ladies, this would have had to take place before Winslow's death in 1914. Lum would have been around 14 to 20 years old (1907-1914) and Winslow would have been in his 40's!

Columbus way to old for fighting with his father and Winslow way to old for trying to prove he was still the top dog in his house.

Ethel also said the Pratt's were hard cases and rough people. Not only were they financially poor and lacking higher educations, but this hard case characteristic in their personality was a carryover from their "Trail of Tears" survival mentality and Cherokee heritage when life was rough and survival was the order of the day. Hard times required hard men and the Pratt's and their counterparts; the Blanton's took second seat to no one.

My father often told me that you did not want to challenge or cross Lum Pratt because he was a tough character and a no nonsense type of guy. Whatever he said, you did with no backtalk or discussion…that is if you didn't want to pick your teeth up off the ground.

This type of rough love behavior had its positive influence and negative influence. The positive effect was that the Pratts were taught to stand on their own two feet and take charge and be responsible and accountable for their actions. This led to independence and strength with a get-it-done attitude. The negative result was a lack of or the ability to offer unconditional love or to express their affections for family and friends.

Dad says the only time his father (Lum) embraced him and gave him a hug was when Dad came back from WWII in 1947…my father was 20 years old at that time.

I am convinced without the saving graces of our dear wives teaching us to even the scales of justice…with love, we Pratts would not have the potential to be the loving husbands and fathers that we strive to be today. Hopefully, when dealing with friends and especially family, none of us in this period of education and enlightenment carry over the negative caveman characteristics exhibited by or forefathers.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

Bourbon Beacon Newspaper, Thursday, February 24, 1994 page 12 (as it was Over a century ago Alex Pratt came from Pennsylvania and settle on Brazil Creek and Green's Branch. He married a Kimberlin. Their four children were Henry Winslow, Rynard, Carric, and Cleave.

Henry Winslow Pratt married Laura M. Missey, daughter of Columbus and Cynthia (Talbot) Missey. They were parents of the following eight children:

Columbus was born on November 1, 1893 and died on July 27, 19__. He married Rue Johnson, daughter of James Millard and Mary Jane "Dosia" (Barton) Johnson of Bourbon on April 112, 1919. [This is what happens when people take other people's information without research or collboration. As you probably already have seen the similarities] between the John McCormick book and the above information Harry Wrote in this article. When Harry was alive in 1990’s I visited him at his home in Leasburg and he gave me many newspaper articles about the people of Crawford County. I have those in my collection of family artifacts. He admitted he did not do any research and just collected information for his weekly article in the Bourbon Beacon. This prompted my decision to submit articles to the Bourbon Beacon about families of Crawford County but the difference being, my material would be original with documented evidence. That’s when I sent my articles to the Bourbon Beacon for about a year before they went out of business. Concerning the article above, on the newspaper original that I have in the Henry Winslow Pratt family file, it is unknown to me where I got that article or who had written on it and made corrections. So, I did not write on it but maybe it was in Grandmother Rue’s stuff that dad had given me.]

My 2008 Rebuttal to the error ridden articles
First of all Alexander Pratt married Mary Kimberlin, daughter of Rinhard (Rhinehart) Kimberlin(g) and Frances Jane (PETERS). Alex was from Tennessee not Pennsylvania. Looking at the 1860 census it looks like the censustaker wrote PENN for a birthplace for Alex but if you compare the T’s you will see it actually is TENN for Tennessee. Alex and Mary had 8 children. Alex married 2nd Miss Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) and had sons; Carric & Cleveland Pratt.

Children of Alex and Mary (KIMBERLIN) Pratt: (1) Mary Ellen (PRATT) married James Franklin Studdard; (2) Michael Pratt died young; (3) Stonewall Jackson Newton Pratt married Mary “Mollie” Louise (TAYLOR); (4) Frances “Fannie” Manerva (PRATT) married 1st Jackman Whiteside, 2nd David McDonald Campbell; (5) Paulina “Lina” (PRATT) married Thomas Livey Callahan; (6) Henry Winslow ”Win” married Laura Mary Magdalene (MISSEY); (7) Rhinehart ”Rinard” Pratt never married; (8) Minnie (PRATT) married George William Richter.

Children of Alex and Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) Pratt: (1) Carac Francis Pratt married Olivea Jane (JARVIS); (2) Cleveland Pratt died young.

Children of Henry ”Win” Winslow and Larua (MISSEY) Pratt all 8 of them:
[Henry & Laura children are listed as 1a, 2a, 3, etc.]
(1a) Columbus was born 1 November 1893 in Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri and died 27 July 1947. He married Rue Flavilla (JOHNSON) daughter of Judge James Millard Sr. and Mary Jane Theodosia ”Dosia” (BARTON) Johnson of Bourbon on 12 April 1919. Children of Columbus & Rue (JOHNSON) Pratt all 6 of them: (1) Mary Edith (PRATT) married Chester Milford Skaggs; (2) Carl Benjamin married Mary Theresa (BRESCIA); (3) Roy Lee married 1st Mary Jane (STEIDEL), 2nd Gladys Louise (EATON), 3rd Bernice Irene (STRAIN); (4) Floyd Theodore married 1st Delores Virginia (BROWN), 2nd Dorothy (BEDNAREK); (5) James Henry married Evelin Juantia (MILLER); (6) Nadine Wilma Pearl (PRATT) died young.
(2a) Jesse Lee Pratt born 23 November 1894 and died 12 August 1962 married Nadine Mae (SKAGGS) no children.

Note: When you have amateurs giving information without documentation through research, mistakes like the above article are written. Harry states in the article that Winslow and Laura had the following 8 children and then he names only 7 of them leaving Albert Paris Pratt completely out of the article.

Remember, genealogy without documentation is mythology. - Floyd Thomas Pratt

Children of Virgil and Eula (RICHARDSON) Pratt all 6 of them: (1) Rosalie Ruth (PRATT) married James "Jim" William Mayberry; (2) Thelma Dorothy (PRATT) married David Andrew Rowland; (3) Mary Jessie (PRATT) married Calvin Mason Ivie; (4) Curtis "Curt" Albert Pratt married Tommie (MULLENS); (5) Donald Virgil Pratt married Wilma Laverne (GEORGE); (6) Eugene "Gene" Lee Pratt married Joann (GARCIA); (7) Virginia "Ginnie" Gay (PRATT) married Leonard Edward Slankard.

(6a) Ruth Jane (PRATT) born 8 August 1904 died 26 September 1961 married Rufus Allen Graddy. Children of Rufus & Ruth (PRATT) Graddy all 14 of them: (1) Dorothy Mae (GRADDY) married Ernest Otha Whitaker; (2) Mildred Opal (GRADDY) married Allie Hurst; (3) William Allen Graddy married Pearline (DAVIS); (4) Hilda Mary (GRADDY) married Murrel Clay Phillips; (5) Harold Lee Graddy married Mildred "Mickey" (MARTIN); (6) Edward James Graddy married Kathleen (REEVES); (7) Evelyn Laura (GRADDY) married Virgil Charles Schmitt; (8) Benjamin Lewis Graddy married Evelyn (BAYLESS); (9) Donald Earl Graddy married Faye (BRAY); (10) Cecil Arthur Graddy married 1st Rosemary Ann Hartl (FOLEY), 2nd Frances Marie (MANUES); (11) Hazel Bell (GRADDY) married Rolan Charles Pennock; (12) Laird Dean Graddy married Pearl (LITAKER); (13) Betty Jane (GRADDY) married Leo Mayberry; (14) Ronald Francis Graddy married Cathy (McMILLIEN).

(7a) Mary (PRATT) born 12 June 1907 and died 7 October 1918 never married, died young.

(8a) Orville Hayes Pratt born 17 December 1911 and died 11 June 1980 married
1st Mary Olive (MALLOW) they had 3 children; (1) Orville Willard Pratt married Patricia Janet (BARNES); (2) Kenneth Lee Pratt married Joan Marie (BENOIST); (3) Kathleen Mae (PRATT) married Gayle Starling; Orville's 2nd wife Marie Virginia (PARSLEY), no children.

Concerning the John Pratt family that Harry refers to, no connection can be found at this time. However, Harry's information was wrong again because the Sarah (PRATT) he mentions is not the daughter of John Pratt but the daughter of Henry & Nancy (CARTER) Pratt.

Harry speaks of another J. Pratt in the 1850 census but I have not been able to connect him to the above Pratts. All the above information is documented in my 35 years of research database.-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2008]

by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

The name Winslow is so unusual it is hard to determine where it came from. I can find no references or articles to famous people carrying that name circa 1860's or around the time of Henry Winslow Pratt’s birth (1869). I can not find any family member in the Pratt, Carter, Blanton or Kimberlin lines that carried the Winslow name. However, there is a long shot I found through my research efforts, that may have a clue to the origin of the name.

David Jackson Staples married Mary Pratt (WINLLOW) in Boston, Massachusetts in 1848. This was the same year that gold had been discovered on the American River in California. David decided he had to go west to seek his fortune and with 25 men, including Mary’s brother George Winslow from Newton, Massachusetts and her Uncle Jesse Winslow and others, formed the Boston-Newton Joint Stock Association.

In 1848 and with the intent of going to California to participate in the gold rush, David Staples kept a journal of the trip. Traveling by train and lake steamer they reached Ohio without incident. After reaching Cairo, Illinois by April 27th and heading north to Saint Louis (City) for provisions, the party was spurred on by a cholera epidemic in St. Louis and left for Independence, Missouri by paddleboat up the Missouri River.

On May 27th, Staples wrote of Indians, mule trouble, double-teaming the wagons through the wet prairie, _a party"....returning haveing lost a husband father and friend of Cholera."_ Who this was and the party that returned is not mentioned. But, on June 8th, George Winslow died in Nebraska from cholera. David Staples and party continued on to California and in 1862 was one of the founders of the

The following questions and assumptions are based on several coincidences from the David Jackson Staples story. These queries are meant to provoke contemplation and engage the reader into action, so someone, somewhere will desire to investigate and find the answers.

(1) Could the Mary Pratt (WINSWLOW) from Newton, Massachusetts, that married David Staples have been a relative of Alexander or one of the other Pratts?

(2) Was Alexander Pratt familiar with the Boston Pratts?

(3) When the Staples party left St. Louis by paddleboat, they probably traveled the Missouri River.

(4) They may have stopped at Hannibal, Missouri for provisions. Hannibal is not far from our Pratts in Crawford County.

(5) Did the Staples-Winslow party stop and visit with the Pratts from Crawford County, Missouri?

(6) One thing is known...Alexander Pratt went to the California gold fields in 1848-1849. This story was passed down by Alexander to his son; Carac who told his son; Orville, who told me in the 1980's before he died about Alex making the trip to California.

(7) I have always speculated that if Alexander went west in 1848 to California for gold, he didn't go alone. I believe some of his brother's and maybe his father; Henry Pratt accompanied him.

(8) Let's take this one step further, could Henry & Alexander and his brothers have hooked up with the David Staples party when they were going through Missouri at about the same time?

(9) Could Henry Pratt, who we know was alive in 1842, could he have died on the trail out west? His wife, Nancy (CARTER) Pratt is a widow by the 8 October 1850 census date. After 35 years of researching, we still do not know where or when Henry Pratt died.

(10) David Staples' Journal says that "a party of their group lost a husband father and friend due to the cholera epidemic and returned". Could this have been Henry Pratt who died on the trail and his sons returned home to Crawford County, Missouri?

(11) Alexander is in the 1850 census with his mother and brothers. Why didn't he continue his westward trek to the gold fields of California? What would force him to return prematurely? Maybe the death of their father?
(12) Did Alexander's association with the Staples and Winslow men on the trail create an impression on Alexander, that in 1869 he named one of his sons--Henry after his grandfather and Winslow after his good friend George Winslow of Newton, Massachusetts?

(13) Alexander's son; Stonewall Jackson Pratt after reaching adulthood, dropped the "Stonewall" and took the middle name of "Newton". All the while he was alive in Columbia, Missouri since his adult life he was known as Jackson "Jack" Newton Pratt. Where did he get the name of Newton? From Newton, Massachusetts?

(14) Henry Winslow Pratt named one of his sons, Jesse Lee Pratt in 1894. I can find no previous references to the name Jesse in the Pratt, Kimberlin, Missey families other than Carter family which I am sure they, meaning Henry Winslow Pratt, was not aware of...Jesse Carter Sr. his great-grandfather. The Pratts did not have any written record of their family history so I am sure Jesse Carter Sr. was unknown to them. I think Henry Winslow Pratt named Jesse Pratt after Jesse Winslow from Newton, Massachusetts, who accompanied his father, Alex and David Staples westward to California.

(15) Once again Boston, Massachusetts pops up in my research. If the above hypothesis has any creditability, then maybe there was something to my great Aunt Eula's story about one of Jackson Pratt's boys stealing some Boston deeds from Laura (MISSEY) Pratt in the late 1920's or early 1930's. More on that story can be found in my article, "Who Stole the Deeds?" Should be noted that many older family members retold the stolen deed story to me, not just my great Eula Viola (RICHARDSON) Pratt.

When my father was in the insurance business and owned his own agency, he contracted with Fireman's Fund Insurance Company as an agent (around 1969) and they gave him this book. He later gave me the book. Little did I know the mysteries I would find concerning the Staples, Winslow and Pratt families within its pages. I found it strange that the founder of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company had married Mary Pratt (WINSLOW). I realize without more collaborating evidence, the above hypothesis is purely speculation. In any case there are some coincidences that can not be overlooked. -Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

In any case, in the Crawford County area, Henry Winslow Pratt was known by his contemporaries as "Win" Pratt.

My Mission Statement
by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.
The above information has taken 35 years to track down, collect, aquire and accumulate. When I began my research into the Pratt family in 1975, to fulfill the requirements of my church, very little was known about the Pratts.

Some knew of Winslow Pratt, only one person I met within the Pratt circle of family members knew of Alex Pratt, but just his name, but none not even the Blanton researchers had the facts straight or had done any serious research.

The research process was hard and difficult. Information could be obtained from very limited sources. Libraries, courthouses, cemeteries and personal stories from those who had lived and made history. Many hours were spent in front of microfilm machines looking at page after page, rolls after rolls of microfilm hoping to find you ancestor. Cemetery after cemetery were visited when one could make time between raising a family and working to support that family.

In the process, I met many new friends and shared stories with people, like ships passing in the night, sharing what I knew and finding out what they knew. This research process has and always will be a collective effort.

The research process required me to drive hundreds if not thousands of miles and led me into dusty record rooms of old courthouses, hundreds of cemeteries, small libraries in little towns across the United States documenting and looking for my roots and origins.

I traveled in pursuit of the truth from coast to coast, we have been to Washington D.C. to the Library of Congress, the Library of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the National Archives to name a few places.

I have sat in the chairs of Senators of Congress and seen the great hall, have picked up from the dirt a hand made nail in Spotsylvania, Virginia from my wife's family ancestral homestead. Brought back a homemade brick from the same ancestral home.

Have copied countless numbers of documents from all over this country and spent a small fortune in pursuit of the great question...Who was I, why was I here and who were those who had blazed trails before me? And most important of all...Why wasn't I rich?

I was not only able to answer those questions, but much, much more.

I discovered our Cherokee heritage and felt the sadness and heartbreak of Henry, Nancy and children leaving our Tennessee homeland, forced by bayonet on the "Trail of Tears", suffering the loss of children and family members on the journey. Having to jump the "trail" in order to prevent confinement in another concentration camp in Indian Territory...now known as Oklahoma.

I have walked over the hills of Monroe County, Tennessee on land where my Pratts and Carters lived.
Feeling, the struggle of the Pratts as they marched in the cold, without means and food to march over 800 miles to a strange land where they did not want to go to. Because of their Cherokee heritage, they were denied the rights of other men, to vote, to own land and to prosper as white men prospered.

Hiding in the caves of Johnson Township, Washington County, Missouri, from the US Army so they would not be forced to go to Indian territory, the cave they hid in is now named Pratt Cave by the Army Corps of Engineers.

Henry and sons, building a log cabin on the bluff overlooking Pratt Spring, while white men like Absalom Blanton who married Henry's sister Cynthia, a Cherokee princess, was able to buy land and develope a mining operation and build a manison in what used to be called Blanton Hollow is now known as Hamilton Hollow.

Living in fear of the government, Henry and family scratched a meek meager existance as did other natives in the region. Eventually, their sons and daughters had children who attended schools and became prosperous. Leaving a proud legacy for future generations.

I climbed the hills to see Blanton Cemetery and on the other hill, Hamilton Cemetery and found the unmarked graves of many of my ancestors. Many indentations of a burial site with a rock or a mason glass jar as a headstone, with artifacts inside, as was Cherokee custom.

So, remember my reader, while you bask in your proud heritage of your pioneer ancestors, remember...they walked over the bones of my native ancestors to get where they were going. Since my Pratts are only one line, I am a man in conflict, because the rest of my ancestors were those Eroupean pioneers.

Has my life been enriched because of my genealogy research? Indeed. Do I have any regrets, none, just wish I had more time on this earth to continue more research and find the answers to some intriguing questions. But, I leave that to you, the next generations, to find the answers...or not.

I and many like me have given you a road map to follow and pointed you in the right direction to find your family. To answer your questions for instance, "Who do you think you are?" I have found my answers and I challenge the next generation to magnify what you have been given and leave a true legacy for your children and grandchildren. Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile for Mary Laura Magdalene (MISSEY) by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 17 August 2010

In harmony with the first law of genealogy or family history research, i.e., documentation, I submit my famous Cradle to Grave (C2G) Profile on this subject including all known documentation presented for the serious researcher. This has been done to help the serious researcher continue in their thirst for family history knowledge without a duplication of effort. All I ask is that you acknowledge my contribution to your family history research. My gift to you...Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I.

1874 Birthblock for Mary Laura Magdalene (MISSEY) daughter of François Columbier Columbus "Lum" & Cynthia N. (TALBOT) Missé Missey

Mary Laura Magdalene (MISSEY) was born in Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States on 20 February 1874.
Date from 1880 census states she was born in 1874 in Missouri.
Date from 1900 census states she was born February 1876 in Missouri.
Date from 1910 census states she was born 1875 in Missouri.
Date from 1920 census states she was born 1875 in Missouri.
Date from 1930 census states she was born 1874 in Missouri.
Date from death certificate states she was born 20 July 1874.
Date from headstone states she was born 20 July 1874.

[This is another instance where the birthdate is not conclusive. In the 1900 census at age 24 she states she was born in February 1876. Her parents in the 1880 census states she was born in 1874. On the death certificate her son, Virgil was the informant and he made errors on the death certificate. Therefore, apparently he really didn’t know when she was born. I believe that the 20th day was correct, that February was the correct month and 1874 was the correct year. Therefore, I'm going with 20 February 1874.]

Name Variations

I was told that her name was Laura Mary Magdalene (MISSEY), however, her mother in the 1880 census states her name is Mary Laura (MISSEY). Therefore since we are striving to record accurate information she will be recorded as Mary Laura Magdalene (MISSEY). Also, my father; Floyd Theodore Pratt gave me the information of the middle name of Magdalene.

This is to certify, that undersigned a Minister of the Gospel did at residence of the bride in said County, on the 29th day of January A.D. 1893, unite in marriage the above named persons. M. A. Clayton"

[Should be noted that this is the only reference to Winslow's name as William. I attribute this error to the county clerk or minister recording this marriage due to their lack of familiarity with Henry Winslow Pratt. Laura (MISSEY)'s residence was with her father; Columbus Francis Missey at Vilander, Liberty Twp, Crawford, Missouri, United States.]

1893 Childbirth of son; Columbus "Lum" Benjamin Alexander Pratt Columbus Benjamin Alexander Pratt was born 1 December 1893 at Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States. [Concerning his place of birth, my grandmother, Rue (JOHNSON) Pratt told me Lum was born in Catawissa, Calvey Twp, Franklin, Missouri. However, this is contrary to the location of his parent's residence which was at Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States. Since the 1890 census was destroyed by fire, we do not have the location of his parent's exact residence. The 1880 census states his father was in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri and the 1900 census states his father lived in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri since both censuses are in Johnson Twp, Washington County, Missouri then I would conclude that he was born in Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri not Catawissa, Calvey Twp, Franklin, Missouri. Also, on his brother's, Jesse Lee Pratt's death certificate, it states that Jess was born near Sullivan, Missouri. Since Sullivan is the closest town to Hamilton Hollow then this also supports my assumption that Columbus was born in Hamilton Hollow. Without stronger evidence supporting the Catawissa birthplace, I believe that Columbus Benjamin Alexander Pratt was born at Hamilton Hollow, Johnson Twp, Washington, Missouri, United States. Therefore, until new proof can be found to support the Catawissa birthplace, henceforth based on the above evidence I stand by my presumptive conclusions.]-Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

Even though Henry Winslow Pratt says he owned the home in the 1910 census, I could not find the deed recorded in Crawford County deeds. I checked 1881 to 1917 deed records and could not find an entry where Henry Winslow Pratt was grantor or grantee. The home that my aunts and uncles remember between Crows Creek and Brazil Creek (see map) belonged to Columbus Francois Missey, Laura’s father. He had entered a deed for 120 acres on 20 April 1889. Either he sold the property to Henry Winslow Pratt and they never filed the deed or the land was given to his daughter and son-in-law as a gift. The deed records need to be searched from 1917 to Laura’s death to find out when C. F. Missey sold that land or how it was disposition. -Floyd Thomas Pratt]

1914-1916 Postcard
It looks like my Grandmother Rue (JOHNSON) Pratt's writing of the names on the postcard which states..."Mrs. Laura Pratt, Ruth Pratt, Mary Pratt and Arvill Pratt". The other writing says "from Mother to Lum" that looks like Laura's writing and addressed to her son, "Columbus "Lum" Pratt, Patsy, Missouri". This was in the possession of my Aunt Evelin Juanita (MILLER) Pratt, wife of James Henry Pratt and she sent a copy of the picture and postcard to my father with the following note, "This picture was a postal card that Laura Pratt sent to your father. I have copied it for you. In case you wonder, Patsy, Missouri was around Cherry Valley. Don't know what he was doing there unless he was doing a home. Juanita." Lum worked in masonry and was a tie maker. Unknown, if this took place before the death of Henry Winslow Pratt in 1914 on afterwards. I figure the date to be circa 1914-1916 because Ruth looks like she is 10-11, Mary looks like she is 6-7, Orville looks like he is 3-4 years old. Floyd Thomas Pratt, F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009

Family Story
Carl Benjamin Pratt told me that he remembers Grandma Laura Pratt used to carry a tobacco pouch under her petty coat. And when she chewed tobacco she would take a chunk out of the pouch and cut a slice off with a pocket knife. (Pioneer woman) FTP

Family Story
Floyd Theodore Pratt told me the story that his Grandma Laura Pratt told him that the Missey's owned land that the city of Boston is built on. Great Aunt Eula Pratt added to this that Laura Pratt had the deeds in her possession and one of the Pratt boys stole the deeds. She mentioned him by name, however I cannot verify this so no names are mentioned. FTP [See the report "Who Stole the Pratt Deeds"]

Family Story
Edith (PRATT) Skaggs told me the following story about her Grandma Laura Pratt. One day when Edith was a small child, she was riding in a buckboard wagon with Grandma Laura Pratt when they came to Brazeal Creek. It had rained the night before and the river was flooded. Grandma Pratt decided to go ahead and cross the creek without the benefit of a bridge. Edith said Grandma Pratt stuck her corn-cob pipe between her teeth and told the mules to giddy-up. As they crossed the high river, Edith said that the sides of the buckboard were almost flooded with river water. But this did not phase Grandma Pratt and they made it across to the other side safely. Edith said she was scared to death when the water almost overflowed into the wagon. [This shows the pioneer spirit that our frontier women possessed. Strong women raised strong men and kept families together in a time when survival against the animals, wilderness and weather was a primary concern. Laura Dea Pratt my daughter; was named in honor of this courageous ancestor. FTP]

[Seems to be a discrepancy of enormous proportions. When I read their marriage record in 1976, I was new to research and as an untrained observer, I thought I saw her name as Mrs. Other researchers have now reported that the Mrs. was actually Miss which was a double "s" indicating she was a Miss not a Mrs. After viewing the actual record, I must now conclude that it is written as Miss not Mrs. I have found in the census records a Miss Catherine Adaline (DUGAN) in Franklin County, Missouri who was 20 years old. Alexander would have been 53 years old at the time of this marriage and surely the newspapers should have written an article about the discrepancy in age of this marriage. I have not had the time to check the Sullivan, Potosi, Bourbon or Steelville newspapers to verify any such article. After researching the Dugan family, I am convinced Adaline, the 20 year old in the census is the one he married...that would explain her ability to bear two children and dying young, from childbirth complications in 1892.]

Anatomy of the Research
After finding Minnie Pratt born 1876 in the 1880 census with her father; Alexander R. Pratt, this is all I had known about her or anyone else when I began my research back in 1976.

Before my great Aunt Eula (RICHARDSON) Pratt died, she told me that Minnie Pratt had married George Richter and moved to St. Louis then on to California where she worked for the Disney Corporation and Walt Disney named Minnie Mouse after her.

Based on that information, my research skills kicked into action and I found a marriage license in Clayton, Saint Louis (county), Missouri naming George Richter and Miss Minnie Pratt.

My next research was to check the soundex of 1900, I could not find Minnie Pratt listed as living alone. Alexander, her father is living in Bourbon, Crawford County, Missouri with his sons...but not Minnie. She would have been 24 by the 1900 census.

Checking the 1910 soundex I could not find a George Richter with his wife Minnie any-where in the state.

However, checking the 1920 soundex I found a George Richter family living at 2238 Shenendoah Avenue, Saint Louis (city), Missouri, United States. I am not to sure that the Minnie that married in Clayton in 1906 is my Minnie Pratt.

After close scrutiny and investigation of the 1920 census, there popped up a mystery. Roy Pratt age 23 is listed as George Richter's step-son. There was also a daughter; Estelle age 12, a daughter; Clovie age 9 and a son; Elliott age 3 years and 2 months all with the surname of Pratt. This would mean that Minnie, his wife had been married before. If she was born in 1876, then she could have married at 15 years of age or anytime from 1891 to 1906. That means she could have had a different surname and Pratt was her first husband’s surname, or, she was married but changed her name back to Pratt, her maiden name before she married George Richter.

After checking the marriage records for Crawford, Franklin, Washington, St. Louis from 1891 to 1906 for our Minnie Pratt to see if she had married between those dates I found no references.
All this research took place in the 1970's and 1980's. It is now February 2009 and I have finally gotten around to researching this family again. Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

Update
The big break to cracking this family was finding Minnie and George’s death certificates and burial locations. The death certificate confirmed her relationship to George Richter and Alexander Pratt, this helped to bridge this family together.
However, her first spouse and the father of Roy Thomas Pratt is still a mystery unless I order Roy’s death certificate. Floyd Thomas Pratt June 2012.

Minnie married someone Pratt from 1895 to 1896.

Minnie married George William Richter, son of James Franklin Richter and Sarah "Sallie" Ellen Lamkin, on 16 May 1906 in Clayton, Saint Louis (County), Missouri, United States. Pertaining to the 1930 census, who Robert, Laurence and Lorma belong to is ambiguous. They don't match George's children with Minnie (PRATT) maybe they belonged to Mary, his second wife and he gave them his Richter surname.

Anatomy of the Research
After finding Minnie Pratt born 1876 in the 1880 census with her father; Alexander R. Pratt, this is all I had known about her or anyone else when I began my research back in 1976.

Before my great Aunt Eula (RICHARDSON) Pratt died, she told me that Minnie Pratt had married George Richter and moved to St. Louis then on to California where she worked for the Disney Corporation and Walt Disney named Minnie Mouse after her.
Based on that information, my research skills kicked into action and I found a marriage license in Clayton, Saint Louis (county), Missouri naming George Richter and Miss Minnie Pratt.

My next research was to check the soundex of 1900, I could not find Minnie Pratt listed as living alone. Alexander, her father is living in Bourbon, Crawford County, Missouri with his sons...but not Minnie. She would have been 24 by the 1900 census.

Checking the 1910 soundex I could not find a George Richter with his wife Minnie anywhere in the state.

However, checking the 1920 soundex I found a George Richter family living at 2238 Shenendoah Avenue, Saint Louis (city), Missouri, United States. I am not to sure that the Minnie that married in Clayton in 1906 is my Minnie Pratt.

After close scrutiny and investigation of the 1920 census, there popped up a mystery. Roy Pratt age 23 is listed as George Richter's step-son. There was also a daughter; Estelle age 12, a daughter; Clovie age 9 and a son; Elliott age 3 years and 2 months all with the surname of Pratt. This would mean that Minnie, his wife had been married before. If she was born in 1876, then she could have married at 15 years of age or anytime from 1891 to 1906. That means she could have had a different surname and Pratt was her first husband's surname, or, she was married but changed her name back to Pratt, her maiden name before she married George Richter.

After checking the marriage records for Crawford, Franklin, Washington, St. Louis from 1891 to 1906 for our Minnie Pratt to see if she had married between those dates I found no references.

All this research took place in the 1970's and 1980's. It in now February 2009 and I have finally gotten around to researching this family again. Floyd Thomas Pratt 2009

Update
The big break to cracking this family was finding Minnie and George's death certificates and burial locations. The death certificate confirmed her realtionship to George Richter and Alexander Pratt, this helped to bridge this family together. However, her first spouse and the father of Roy Thomas Pratt is still a mystery unless I order Roy's death certificate. Floyd Thomas Pratt June 2012.

1839 Good Friends

by Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2008

It should be noted here that Rinard Kimberlin was a good neighbor and a friend to the Henry Pratt family.

When the Pratts arrived in eastern Crawford County in March 1839, they moved into Richwoods Twp, Washington, Missouri after their ordeal on the "Trail of Tears". They settled near the Kimberlins and struck up a good friendship.

When James Pratt married Rinard's daughter, Catherine in 1847-1848, James probably told Rinard that he wanted a piece of property near Rinard or Catherine told James to buy some property near her parents either way, it was against the law for indians to own or buy land. Rinard bought the land, the James Pratt family settled on from Firmin Desloge and 3 weeks later sold 24 acres of the 105 acres to his son-in-law, James Pratt.

Rinard did the same for his daughter, Mary after she married Alexander Pratt...James' brother. After James became a property owner it was easier for James and Alexander to pass themself off as a white man even though they were ½ Cherokee. This led to Alexander's land purchase two years later in May 1856 from William & Martha Hughes which he later sold to the Ambrose Marion Pennock family from Ohio in 1859.

Research Note
This marriage record is vital to finding her maiden name and her maiden name has been obscurred with an ink blot over the name. It is clearly visible the maiden name starts with an M followed by several unknown letters which are hard to read due to the poor handwriting. It appears that outside sources are needed to find her maiden name. Unable to locate Fanny's death certificate, Julia died before death certificates were recorded, Charles' death certificate has omitted his mother's name. Newspapers would be the best source for locating an article on the following;
[B] Announcing the death of Hester Ann (MUDD) Scott (1868-1870) (Cuba)
[C] Announcing the death of Julia A. (SCOTT) Pratt (1882) (Potosi)
[D] Announcing the birth of any of the 3 children. (1862) and (1868) (Cuba)
[E] Obituary for Charles Edward Scott (1934) (Potosi)
[F] Obituary for Joseph C. Scott (1900-1910) (Potosi or Steelville)
Concerning the location of the newspapers, my choice would be 1st Cuba, Steelville, Potosi, Sullivan.

[Virtual Cemetery]

What is a Virtual Cemetery? A Find A Grave Virtual Cemetery is essentially a collection of names from the Find A Grave database. As a Find A Grave contributor, you can build Virtual Cemeteries to group listings in whatever way you would like. For example, you might make a ‘Smith Family Virtual Cemetery’ where you would place all of the members of your Smith family tree. Other examples: 'My Favorite Actors' or 'Memorials I Visit Often'. Be creative! A VIRTUAL CEMETERY HAS NO RELATION TO A REAL CEMETERY! People listed in your virtual cemeteries can be buried in many different REAL cemeteries. You can add any name in the Find A Grave database to the Virtual Cemeteries you create. You can choose to make your Virtual Cemeteries visible to the visitors of your Find A Grave contributor page so that others can view the collections you have created.

Peters, Rozier, Boring, and Hulsey Connections by Floyd Thomas Pratt  F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 2009
When one tries to locate the parents of a child, they begin by trying to get a birth certificate or death certificate or follow the census information backwards from the child's marriage date. This is the case with Martha Jane Peters who married Joseph Kimberlin on 10 December 1866 in Washington County, Missouri.

By finding the 1860 census which was 6 years earlier than the marriage date, one would feel they have a clear cut case for revealed parentage. Not necessarily so...as you will see.

In the 1870 and 1880 census records Martha is consistant with an 1842 birthyear in Missouri.

In the 1860 census she is living with John & Mary (HULSEY) Peter near Ironton City Post Office, Arcadia Twp, Ironton, Missouri, United States. She has siblings; William W. Peter age 14, Susan A. Peter age 12.

However, upon further investigation into the John & Mary (HULSEY) Peters family we begin to find disturbing peculiarities. First, let's take a look at John & Mary (HULSEY) Peters.

John or known as John Jacob Peters III was born in Giles County, Virginia around 1811 to John Jacob Peters II or Jr. and Sally (CLAY) who were married in 1801. These are also the parents of my 3rd Great grandmother; Frances Jane (PETERS) who married Rinard Kimberlin between 1825-1827 in Virginia.

I have found the Kimberlin(g) families, several of them moved from Virginia to Franklin, Washington, Stone and Greene counties of Missouri. They have extensive land records in each of those counties. John II or Jr. Peters moved after the death of his wife, with his son John III from Giles County, Virginia to Meramec Twp, Washington County, Missouri in 1830. This is documented because John II is listed in both censuses.

John Peters III was single and living with his father when on 1 September 1836 he married Mary E. Boring in Washington County. In 1837, John III went to the land office in St. Louis and bought 40 acres in Richwoods Township, Washington County, Missouri. There we find him in the 1840 census where you would expect some children and here are the following;
1. A son 10-14 years of age fits the age of Robert A. Boring, son of Mary from her previous marriage.
2. Besides his wife Mary, there is a daughter 5 to 9 years old. This girl could also be a Boring. Therefore, it appears this is not his daughter.
3. There are also listed two daughters age 4 and under. If they had a daughter in 1837 and in 1838 or in 1839 then this could possibly be their children. Answers as to their identity should be in the 1850 census. This is where the peculiarities begin.

In the 1850 census we find that John III and Mary (HULSEY) Peters family has moved after they sold their land on 21 September 1840 to Rinard Kimberlin. They show up at the 54th District, Madison County, Missouri with the following occupants: John Peters age 49; Mary Peters age 38, Robert A. Rozier age 21, Martha J. Rozier age 11, William W. Rozier age 5, Susan A. Rozier age 3.

Your first thought would be, where are the 2 daughters who should be 13, 12, 11 or 10 in the 1850 census? Good question. Your next thought would be who are these Rozier children? Good question. So, this histories mysteries begins to unfold.

After checking the 1850 census in detail, I observed the censustaker wrote the surname Rozier after each child, therefore eliminating the possibility that these young children were really Peters children but were recorded by error as Rozier children. In fact there are no Peters or Boring children listed. This can only lead one to conclude...that John & Mary’s children did not survive and they have Rozier orphans in their home.
Since the 1850 census is the first to record household members, the 1840 census would not tell us who these children really belonged to and who their parents are. So...to confuse the issue further, John and Mary have now moved near Ironton City Post Office, Arcadia Twp, Iron County, Missouri by the 1860 census.

What makes this census confusing is the fact that Martha J. age 17, William W. age 14, Susan A. age 12 are now listed in the home as Peters children with the Peters surname not Rozier. This new surname indicates one of two things. First, either John and Mary adopted the Rozier children and gave them the Peters name or the Rozier children were given the Peters name as a courtesy. In any case, note the following...

...all in Washington County.
I can not find any record of Robert A. Rozier after the 1850 census.

Checking the death certificates turned up no leads. I feel checking the Washington County Adoption Records for 1850-1860 might yield some results, otherwise maybe the Potosi newspaper at that time might help.

Concerning the Rozier family, in 1777, Jean Ferdinand Rozier was born in France and came to Sainte Genevieve, Sainte Genevieve County, Missouri in 1810. He married Constance (ROI) and began having children, 10 in all. The Rozier family were Catholic and I have an extensive collection of Catholic Church baptism, birth, marriage and burial records from Kaskaskia, Ste. Genevieve, Old Mines and Richwoods Catholic Churches ranging from 1766 to 1899, but not inclusive. I could not find any of the children listed under baptism or birth records from 1829, which would have been around Robert A. Rozier's birth to 1848 which would have been Susan's birth.

This means that they were not christened in those churches. I think a clue would be down in the Catholic Churches in Jefferson or Madison County, Missouri since that is where John and Mary (HULSEY) Peters shows up with them in the 1850 census.

Concerning the Mary Boring who married John Peters in 1836, I started researching the Boring family to discover her parents and by accident discovered the article in Goodspeeds about her son, Robert A. Boring. Wow, this article helped to clear her ancestry.

She was born in Georgia and came to Missouri at a young age. In 1827, she married Leroy Clark Boring in Franklin County, Missouri. They had 3 children. They are in the 1830 census and Mary "Polly" E. (HULSEY) Boring marries John Peters in 1836. This indicated the death of her first spouse between 1830 and 1836.

Goodspeed's article was written in 1888 and she was still living and the article said she had 3 children by her second marriage. Either, they were adopted or they were actually John and her children. In any case, the three Rozier children will be listed in my tree with two sets of parents until this can be solved.

Mary "Polly" E. (HULSEY) Boring Peters is the daughter of Major Elijah "Eli" & Sarah Naomi (CHOATE) Hulsey. Eli was born 1783 in South Carolina and Sarah was born 1788 in Georgia. Mary had a brother; William Henry Hulsey Sr. who married Elizabeth "Betsy" (HORINE). Someone had done a great deal of research and found he was born in Milledgeville, Baldwin, Georgia, United States. Since he was born in 1811 and Mary was born in 1812 then that is probably her birth location. See...nothing to it!!! Floyd Thomas Pratt F.H.C., M.A.G.I. 29 September 2009

At the age of 19, Tom Pratt embarked on a career in law enforcement. This experience gave him training in detective and investigative skills. Little did Mr. Pratt know, how useful these skills would be in the field of genealogy.

Tom Pratt started his family research career in 1975 after becoming a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. His first calling as a new member was to serve in the newly created genealogical department or known today as the Family History Center in the Springfield, Missouri ward. This two-year calling gave Mr. Pratt a tremendous amount of experience helping others to research their families.

In fact, he felt family research came easy and required little effort on his part. In reality, years of reading and studying increased his expertise and he made it look easy to others.

Over the course of several years, Mr. Pratt was asked by his church to instruct several family history courses. This experience established a deep profound love for family and ancestors.

It was not uncommon for Mr. Pratt to spend 4 to 8 hours a day researching and compiling family histories in addition to his duties, as an entrepreneur in the insurance business.

The first major achievement for Mr. Pratt was a breakthrough on his Pratt family back to the early 1800’s. Not satisfied with just the direct line research, Mr. Pratt branched out to research all connected lines and allied families.

This dedication led to 42,000 individuals and achieved expert status for Mr. Pratt on the families of middle and eastern Missouri, eastern and western Tennessee and central North Carolina.

Concerning Mr. Pratt’s style of research, he is a strong supporter of the “hands on” approach. When he took family vacations, they usually went to libraries, cemeteries, courthouses, National Archive centers, and visited family members in various states. He attended multi-state family reunions and obtained his material from the actual sources when possible.
Being a researcher of the highest degree, in 1991, Mr. Pratt formed the Pratt Publications Company and offered to the public, a series of books titled, The Prat Progenitor Papers. This series of volumes are a collection of legal documents, stories, pictures and historical presentations concerning the families of Missouri, Tennessee and North Carolina.

The first three Volumes were released to the public in 1991 and were issued to 18 different libraries including the Library of Congress and the St. Louis Public Library. The next 7 volumes were published with a total of 43 volumes scheduled for publication.

In 1996, Mr. Pratt formed the Genealogical Institute to further the education of serious researchers.

The Genealogical Institute offers a series of educational materials to teach and instruct the uninitiated in the procedures of family history research. These courses offer “a hands on” curriculum designed to instruct in investigative, deductive reasoning and logical procedures for tracking your family history.

Beginners and experienced researchers have found a treasure chest of knowledge when undertaking these courses. Mr. Pratt has taken the hobby of genealogy and has enhanced it into a science. Heavy on instructions concerning documentation, research procedures, alternative sources and common public records, this course is a valuable tool for the researcher. One of Mr. Pratt’s favorite sections of the course is teaching researchers “how to stop” researching and compile their information for publication.

Upon completion of the educational courses from the Genealogical Institute, the graduate is awarded the Master Accreditation of the Genealogical Institute. (M.A.G.I.)

This designation is equivalent to a Doctorate Degree and signifies the recipient has been trained and demonstrated superior research techniques.

Mr. Pratt’s ability in family history research has amazed many educated researchers. When Mr. Pratt is asked for help concerning their “brick wall” in their family research, his quick wit and logical mind rapid fires instructions and procedures so fast they cannot write the material quickly enough. Little do they realize this knowledge has been acquired over 30 years of experience and research.

In June of 2000, Mr. Pratt undertook a new and unprecedented task.

Outside of Washington, Franklin County, Missouri is an old cemetery called the Johnson-Caldwell Cemetery. This cemetery has many pioneer heroes and ancestors of various descendants from that region. Some of the inhabitants were born in the 1750’s and traveled west to Missouri after the 1803 Louisiana Purchase.
Mr. Pratt took down all the information off the headstones, including every person in the cemetery and researched each individual related or not. 1000 man-hours and two years later, he published the book “Johnson-Caldwell Cemetery of Franklin County, Missouri”© 2001.

Obtaining newspapers, legal documents, personal interviews with ancestors and researching various sources for any and all information concerning the history of the cemetery and the inhabitants produced this master text. What makes this book stand out among the rest is basic content and structure.

First, it is the only book to cover the known and reported inhabitants of an entire cemetery.

Second, this book reports on each inhabitant, their birth and activities throughout their life until their death, including their ancestors, spouses and children.

Third, even the index is unique, listing the individual and their father’s name if known. This is extremely helpful when several individuals have the same given name.

Upon examination, professional researchers have hailed this body of work as a masterpiece and a standard in which all future research of cemeteries should be based. In their opinion, no one has ever produced a body of work about a cemetery as unique and professional as this publication.

Currently, Mr. Pratt is working on a series of books from the Pratt Archive Collections, which is a series of biographical publications concerning a progenitor and a generation of descendants. This collection is a “cradle to grave” report, which covers the subject’s ancestry, birth, marriage, children, and geographical domiciles as well as the political environment during the subject’s lifetime.

In addition, Mr. Pratt is working on additional volumes of the Pratt Progenitor Papers and several books on public records.

With all these accomplishments, Mr. Pratt humbly refers to himself as a Genealogical Anthropologist...resurrecting progenitors.

We in the genealogical world are deeply grateful to be associates of a man of Mr. Pratt’s caliber. Through his dedication to helping the novice as well as the professional researcher, future generations will benefit by his advances in the genealogical field.

In addition, we are thankful for the inspiration that sparks men like Mr. Pratt to magnify their love for people and history. We feel, with a lifetime dedicated to the genealogical pursuit of truth and knowledge, Mr. Pratt’s accumulative body of work, will stand as a quintessential manifestation of this divine love.

Lewton Cole, Chairman
Genealogical Institute
