In researching the family of Richard Taylor, I have tried to document as much as possible. I realize that there are mistakes in my research, as well as in my typing, and will appreciate any corrections or additions, as I plan to continue my research of this family. I am including the collateral lines, as I found so many interesting facts while researching them.

There are so very many people to thank for their contributions. I have formed a relationship with some who have become very close and dear to me in the last few years. My husband was my greatest booster. His interest in genealogy was as great, or greater, than mine. We spent countless hours in courthouses and cemeteries throughout West Virginia, Virginia, Ohio and Washington, D.C. We spent seven days, eight hours each day, at the library of the Church of the Latter Day Saints in Salt Lake City. We were very fortunate to make contact with Margaret Starrock, in Germany, who did research on both the Ruttencutter and Weber lines. I must acknowledge the help I received from the following: Esther Watts, Mrs. Irving Middaugh, Jim Green, Mrs. Dallas Noland, Mrs. Edward Vernon, Mrs. G. B. Varner, Henry W. Campbell, Robert Long, Jean Lehman and Jean Zuendal on the Taylor line; Gene Reynolds, John Ruttencutter, Mrs. Charles Ruttencutter, Paul Ruttencutter, Okey Ruttencutter and Martha Shepherd on the Ruttencutter line; Michael Foreman on the Foreman family; Diana McMahan on the Cochran family; Claudine Dick on the Cramer family and Dulcie and Frank Burton on my maternal Taylor line; The Cabell County Public Library, The Marshall University Library, West Virginia Archives and The Huguenot Society. To those that I have omitted, I apologize.
Richard Taylor of Old Rappahannock County, Virginia, later Richmond County, is the earliest documented ancestor found in this country. It is not known when he came from England, but Dr. Henry C. Taylor, of Chicago, who did much research on this family in the 1920's and 30's, and I find most accurate, believes that four brothers came together from England to Virginia about 1650 and that one of them, Richard, became the head of our family and another became head of the family centered in Orange County, Virginia and known as the James Taylor family. There were three branches of the Taylor family in the Farnham area. William, the one residing the closest to the county seat, Warsaw, changed his name to Tayloe, possibly by accident. He seems to be the one of greatest wealth.

The first evidence of the existence and activities of Richard Taylor, is a contract for the sale of land, dated 1 May 1671, in North Farnham Parish, Richmond County. John and Sarah Sugget sold to Richard Taylor, 200 acres of land for 3,500 pounds of merchantable tobacco. Since the maiden name of Sarah, wife of Richard Taylor is unknown, I checked with a Sugget family historian to see if there was any connection between the families, since both wives were named Sarah, but no evidence was found to suggest that they were related.

The will of Richard Taylor is recorded in Essex County, Virginia, Will Book 2, page 131. It was signed 22 March 1679 and probated 7 May 1679. It names his wife, Sarah, and three children: Constance, Richard and Simon. He gives his plantation to his sons, giving Richard the option, when he becomes of age, to sell his interest to Simon for 5,000 pounds of tobacco. It provides, that in case Richard did not choose to sell his interest to Simon, the land was to be equally divided and lots cast by both for their share. In Rappahannock County Order Book 2, page 72, are found two documents. One dated 23 March 1687/8 shows that Richard becomes of age and is freed from further service to Roderick Jones. The other document has Simon choosing William Glen, husband of his sister, Constance, as his guardian. In these nine years after the death of Richard, Sarah had evidently died and Richard had been apprenticed. These documents are significant in that they indicate the ages of Richard and Simon. Richard was born ca March 1667 and Simon was younger. There is no further evidence of Richard. Simon apparently acquired the land.

1704-Richmond Co., Va. John Glen chose Simon Taylor as Guardian

This is found in Lutz History from H. C. Taylor's files, Index to Marriages of Old Rappahannock Co., Va. Deed Book 6, Page 110 Birth of Children found in North Farnham Register-Richmond Co.
Simon Taylor, son of Richard and Sarah, married Elizabeth Lewis, daughter of Edmund Lewis, ca 1691. Edmund Lewis owned the adjacent 200 acres of land to Simon's. The Register of North Farnham Parish gives the birth of a daughter, Sarah, 28 September 1692. No other births for this couple are recorded. Elizabeth died 7 October 1727. Richmond County Will Book 5, page 126 records the will of Simon. It is dated 18 August 1728 and was probated 7 February 1729. The will names sons: John, William, Thomas, George and Septimus, a daughter, Sarah Jesper and granddaughter, Elizabeth Jesper. The will does not mention a Richard or Simon, two characteristic names but records show the death of a Richard Taylor, 23 January 1718 and a Simon Taylor, 2 February 1718. There is no court action after these deaths. They died minors or at least without heirs, other than their father. Additional names are required in order to make Septimus the seventh child in the family.

From documents recorded in the Richmond County Order Books, we are able to know something of the moral ethics of those times. We find that Simon, as well as several of his sons, were accused of being, drunk, using profanity or fighting. They were required to pay their fines in tobacco to the church.
In the name of God Amen This the 18th day of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty eight, I, Simon Taylor of Richmond County of the Parish of North Farnham being sick and weak but yet of perfect mind and memory thanks to Almighty God for it Doe make this my last Will and Testament in the manner and forme following, Revoking and absolutely Disannulling all others heretofore by me made either in word or writing Notwithstanding any clause derogatory in the same but this to be taken for my last will and Testament (Viz:) First I bequeath my soul to God my Maker and to Jesus Christ my Redeemer there to rest until the Joyful day of the Resurrection then my soul and body shall meet again and be made partakers of the never fading joyes of Immortality and my body to the earth from whence it came to be buried by my Exrs; hereafter named and Touching such temporal estate as the Lord hath been pleased to bestow upon me I Dispose of as follows:

Impr: — I give and Bequeath to my son Jno. Taylor and the heirs of his body This plantation whereon I now live with halfe the land to it which I always was used to hold and for want of such heirs to fall to my son George and the heirs of his body and for want of such to the next heir at law -- Item -- I give and Bequeath to my son Wm Taylor the old plantation from whence I lately removed with the other half of the aforsaid Tract of Land to him & the heirs of his body and for the want of such to the next heir at law -- Item -- I give and bequeath to my son Septimus Taylor That plantation whereon Patrick Doran now lives and all the land formerly belonging to it or which I bought with it and the heirs of his body and for want of shuch to fall to my son George Taylor and to the heirs of his body and for want of such to the next heir at law -- Item -- I give and bequeath to my Daughter Sarah Jasper one Thousand (pounds) of Tobacco to be paid her by my Exrs. hereafter named -- Item -- I give and Bequeath to my granddaughter Eliza Jasper one 2 year old heifer to be paid her as aforsaid -- I Give to my son Jno. Taylor the feather bed I commonly lye on Together with the furniture belonging to it. -- Item I Give the next two best feather beds to my sons Thomas and Septimus Taylor with all that belongs to them -- Item -- I give to my four sons named the best four Iron pots I have - to each son, one of them -- Item -- I Give and Bequeath to my son George Taylor my Negro woman, Jenny -- Item -- I make, constitute, and appoint my sons Jno., Wm., and Septimus Taylor Exrs. of this my last Will and Testament to whom with my other two sons Thos. and George I give all the Rest and Residue of my Estate not yet named to be Equally Divided Between the five - after debts paid. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year within written --

Simon Taylor, son of John and Hannah, purchased his first land in Frederick County, Virginia in 1751. This deed states that he was carpenter. In 1753, he constructed the home of Col. John Hite in Springdale. This home is still occupied and on the grounds are the remains of the "fort", or home, of Yost Hite, the father of John. Yost Hite was one of the earliest settlers and land owners in this part of Virginia. It is believed that Simon met and married, Anna Maria Hite, daughter of John, while constructing the house but John Hite did not approve of the marriage. It is only in the last few years, after finding other documents in Frederick County, that there has been a question about this marriage, unless Simon was also named John. Simon did not have a brother by the name of John so it may be that he was John Simon. Henry Campbell of Hardy County, West Virginia and who lived as a child in one of the old Taylor homes in Hampshire County and has done much research on the Taylor family, does not question this marriage. Henry's ancestor was a son of this Simon and Anna Maria. On the same date in 1755, Simon purchased land from John Hite and household goods from Absolom Hammond in Frederick County, which leads me to believe that the marriage took place as this time. In 1767, after Simon and Anna Maria (Mary), had settled in Hampshire County, this land was deeded back to John Hite.

In 1754, Simon constructed "Abram's Delight", the home of Isaac Hollingsworth in Winchester. This home is now open to the public.

Probably one of the most interesting documents found in Frederick County, is a Bond, made between Simon and John Hite and the King of England, to build a jail in Winchester. The document contains the exact specifications and materials to be used in the construction. This document is dated 1764.

It is not known when Simon and Anna Maria settled in Hampshire County. Simon was at one time a Coroner and his name appears on various documents. Simon died there in 1786. The death of Anna Maria is not known. Simon's will names their children. From the inventory of his estate, he seems to have been a man of wealth. Several of his children settled in Hampshire county, others went to Kentucky and one daughter is known to have settled in Louisiana. From the wording of his will it is not known for sure the relationship of Elizabeth Hite Dudley.
In the name of God Amen, I Simon Taylor of the County of Hampshire & State of Virginia being an old man and weak of body but in perfect mind & memory thanks be given unto God for the same; and calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all Men one to die, do make and ordain this to be my last Will & Testament. JOHN TAYLOR

John Taylor, son of Simon and Anna Maria, married Elizabeth Foreman, daughter of Capt. William and Catherine Parker Foreman. The Parkers and Foremans were early settlers in Hampshire County. The death of William Foreman and two of his sons, Nathan and Hambleton, in Marshall County, where they were ambushed by Indians, can be found in old history books as well as school books. There is a roadside marker found in the county near the place where their deaths occurred. These two sons were by the first wife of William Foreman. She was a Hambleton. After the death of John Taylor, Elizabeth married William Inskeep. Elizabeth was wealthy in her own right. She had inherited land from both the Parkers and Foremans. John did not leave a will but his estate settlement was quite extensive.

Letter from William Johnson, husband of Elizabeth Taylor, to his mother, in Hampshire County.

Dated November, Sunday 28-1813

Dear Honoured Mother--I hope this will inform you and Brothers and Sisters of our journey,—Thank God we are here safe but had a disagreeable journey-on the account of bad roads and high water. Sunday, after Brother left us,-cold, but the road pretty good,—got only Cheat Mt'aine, a pretty day & the road good, got to Gandys Mon. night,—and Tuesday Starling was very lame in limbs, but got on to GaLy River that night & lay out.—Wednesday, the horse a little better and the road good, got on to Simsons Crick with in six miles of Clarks Burg with a little rain and rained all night, a Thursday the road bad and rain all day, the horse will, got to Thompsons, 8 miles from town. Next morning the snow four or five inches deep and mud to the nee, and snow all day, got to Davises on Middle Iland Saturday with mud snow and rain got to Arnals Crick 32 miles from Clarks Burg, next day went four miles and turned off and went across the round about way back to Middle Island, still a little rain and one of the worst roads I ever saw a wagon go. I had to get a pilot to take me through. Monday with a little rain and the snow, all gone went seven miles to the Jug handle Mill and lay by until Weddings day morn. Tuesday evening sat in to rain next morning I hurried across, it did not quite swim but ran in the wagon body and it a beginning to rain again, we then came on to Point Plesant and took out some of the things and swam over wagon and horses, then got in the things again and came to Charles Wells that day on the Ohio That evening sat in to rain hard again and rained on a Thursday till we got home. Thank God we got everything here safe. The things got a good deal wet in the chest but not much in the trunk. I would hardly travel the same road and run the same risks for the price of the wagon and horses.

I shall get the corn that I bought at 20 cts but it will cost me 31 cts per bu. I now finish my letter, I have an opportunity, of sending and you must excuse me for not writing sooner. When we turned off the State road, I tried two or three for pen & ink but could get none and this is the first. I now have one hundred and thirty bu. corn in the loft at 33 cts bu. I am a little doubtful in getting the land as Clemens seems not willing to make a title unless some satisfactions for a disappointment in Hughes not complying with his bargain. We, are both well at present and Betsy is pleased with the place. Jack is well. So I remain your loving son till death. Remember me to all inquiring friends. I am yours,

William Johnson

Catherine Johnson

The man is waiting.

Twice in the original letter Wednesday was spelled Weddings day. This note is by Mary R. Blue who copied this from the original.
Elizabeth Taylor Johnson died 4 April 1828 and was buried in the Long Reach Cemetery, Tyler County. The stone is a large flat stone, and I found the inscription most interesting. William Johnson had been left with 6 small children. The inscription reads as follows:

"Behold all who pass by
See if there is any Sorrow like unto
My sorrow where with the Lord has afflicted me.
Here lies the Body of Elizabeth Johnson who departed this life on 4 day of April 1828
Age 33 yrs. 2 mos. 9 days.
She had 8 children Left 5 little ones and one infant baby alive with her bosom friend to morn her loss."

Joseph Taylor, son of John and Elizabeth, settled in Tyler County, VA (now WV). Joseph probably moved to Tyler County with two of his sisters, Rebecca (Parker) and Elizabeth (Johnson) in 1813. In 1817, he married Phebe Cochran, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Morris Cochran. William Cochran, father of Thomas, was an Indian scout and the story of his death has been included. With both, Joseph and Phebe, having a grandfather killed by the Indians, what stories they must have had to tell their children and grandchildren! Joseph was a farmer, road commissioner and was Postmaster at Grape Island. He did not leave a will and I have not found an estate settlement. I am including the only notes I did find.
February Court 1852

Rebecca P. Taylor, Joseph W. Taylor and Friend C. Taylor children of Joseph Taylor deceased with the approbation of the court made choice of Phebe Taylor for their Guardian, who together with William Hammond and John F. Taylor her security entered unto and acknowledged a Bond in the penalty of Six hundred dollars conditioned according to Law.

The Court doth appoint Phebe Taylor guardian to George W. F. Taylor child of Joseph Taylor deceased. Thereupon the said Phebe Taylor with William Hammond and John F. Taylor her securitus intend into and acknowledged a Bond in the penalty of Two hundred dollars condition as the Law directs.

Phebe Taylor and William C. Taylor on their motions are appointed administrators of the Estate of Joseph Taylor deceased who came into Court and together with John Logan and Greenberry B. Riggs, their security entered into and acknowledged a Bond in the Penalty of Sixteen hundred dollars conditioned as the law directs whereupon the said Phebe Taylor and William C. Taylor took the oath prescribed by law Certificate is granted them for obtaining letters of administration on the said Estate in due form.

Zachary Taylor Taylor, son of John Foreman and Rosina Ruttencutter Taylor, married Amanda Jane Cramer, daughter of Richard A. and Mary Wilson Cramer. Zachary was tall and thin, as were his brothers and sisters, while Jane was a petite person. He was a building contractor. One history of Pleasants County states that the railway station at St. Marys, constructed by Zachary, was the best station on the road except that at Parkersburg. He was a contractor for the Greenbrier Military School at Lewisburg, now the West Virginia School of Osteopathic Medicine. A Taylor descendant told me that all of the Taylors were carpenters, Methodist and Republicans. Zachary and Jane were charter members of St. Andrews Methodist Church in Parkersburg. When Franklin Roosevelt was elected president, Zachary took to his bed and did not eat for several days. In his retirement, he made "what nots' or small corner shelves. He loved to play dominoes and his favorite expression was-"Oh Shaw". Jane was a musician and taught piano. She and several of her children had beautiful voices. While visiting in our home, she would set aside one evening to gather everyone around the piano for a family sing.

Richard Cramer Taylor, son of Zachary T. and Amanda Jane Cramer Taylor, was Cramer to his family and Dick or R.C. to his business associates. He first married Bess Truman in 1902. She died in 1904. They were the parents of one son. He married Bess Drake who died in 1917. They were the parents of three children. Later in 1917, he married Eva Maud Taylor, daughter of James Wallace and Drucilla Burton Taylor Taylor. At the age of 20 she became the mother of four children, three of which were in poor health. Without a formal education, Cramer became very successful in the business world. At an early age, he helped his father in the construction business. He, also, told of spending one summer with a carnival. He became associated with The Smoot Advertising Company in Parkersburg and became manager of the Huntington plant in 1924. He retired at the age of 75. Even with the tragedy of two marriages and early death of two children, plus the failure of a savings and loan company, which made it necessary to pay for our home twice, he was never bitter and enjoyed life to its fullest. He enjoyed hunting and fishing and Eva would accompany him until they had children. He was an avid gardener and our Belford Avenue home became a show place. He liked to experiment with the growing of plants. He enjoyed all sports. He attended the high school and Marshall football games both at home and away. He especially liked the Cincinnati Reds. Friends told of his calling to say that he had tickets and they would leave within the hour. I remember his deciding to attend a World Series game in New York at the last minute. He left on the train without a ticket or a place to stay. Later in life, he liked wrestling, both on TV and the local matches. During one stay in the hospital, he left to attend a match and returned to his room after the match. He was so interested in the world around him and the wonder of television. How he would have marveled at the walk on the moon and the way today's events are brought into our homes! He was a Deacon and Elder in the Second Presbyterian Church. He had lights installed in our back yard so that the men of the church could play croquet in the evenings. He was a long time member of the Rotary Club and was Program Chairman for many years. Eva attended business school and was employed by The Smoot Advertising Company at the time of their marriage. She, too, was a Deacon and Elder in the church. She served two terms as President of the Women of the Church, as well as, almost all other offices on the local and the Presbytery level. She was President of the Huntington YWCA in 1952-3. At this time the addition was added to the present building. Both parents were of a very easy going and even temperament. I do not remember that we, as children, were in need of discipline—we seemed to know what was expected of us. They were very loving and caring parents and grandparents.

2nd Marriate Cherly Toye maiden name born March 25, 1956
My father, William Cochran, was killed by the Indians at the time of the siege and battle of Fort Henry, at Wheeling on the 11th to the 13th of September, 1782. I was a young man past twenty at the time. My father was the most athletic man I ever knew and was noted for being the swiftest runner on that part of the frontier. He was a good surveyor and had some civil engineering. There was no better shot with the rifle, and in his pioneer life he had become thoroughly conversant with the characteristics of Indian warfare. He was a good scout, and his fleetness of foot had saved him more than once from capture while on perilous expeditions for the government forces.

Lewis Wetzel, with whom I was well acquainted, regarded father as one of the swiftest men on foot he had ever met, and Wetzel himself had never met his match at this. Father owned a tract of land near Forts Van Meter and Shepherd. At the time of the battle all the settlers with their families had flocked to the forts. An attempt had been made to reinforce Fort Henry, but it had failed. Those at Forts Van Meter, West Liberty and Shepherd feared that the whole garrison at Wheeling had been massacred, but were desirous of learning their fate, and of extending aid if possible. It was decided to send two scouts to ascertain the condition of affairs, and father and "Billy" Boggs were selected.

They made their way past father's farm and had gone but a short distance when they encountered some forty Indians, a part of the force which, after the failure to capture the fort at Wheeling, had broken up into small bands and were pillaging the whole country for a number of miles east of it. Father and Boggs each killed their Indian, and with empty guns started to run. The Indians attempted to surround them in order to capture them alive for the purpose of burning them at the stake. They had a particular desire to capture father, for they knew him to be an intrepid hunter and a dangerous enemy. He was too swift for them and soon distanced their best runners. Father had gained so rapidly on them that he was soon out of range of their guns, but he made the fatal mistake of attempting to cross over a very steep projecting point, instead of keeping along the creek and going around it. For while he was climbing a very steep bank the Indians were running down hill on the other side of the creek, thus gaining on him so as to bring him within range again just as he was passing over the point. Had he kept down the stream and around the point they could not have overtaken him.

But one shot of all those fired, hit, and killed him instantly. They scalped him and left the body where it fell. It was found the next day and buried by a party from the fort. Boggs was captured, and when they struck him in the face with the bloody scalp he knew what had been the fate of his companion. The Indians moved on quite rapidly to the Ohio River, crossing at Mingo Bottom, some sixteen miles above Wheeling. When the Indians reached the banks of the river they stripped Boggs, and forming two lines, facing each other, made him run the gauntlet between them, beating him with switches and clubs as he passed. He knocked one of them down, broke through their ranks, and jumped from a high bank into the river. He was a most expert swimmer, and struck out with all his might and swam down the river. The Indians, taken by surprise, ran for their guns, and following along the bank, tried to shoot him, but he escaped owing to the growing darkness and turned up at the fort at Wheeling that night, bringing the first news of the adventure.

About the time of the attack at Wheeling, which occurred in September, 1777, Capt. Foreman and his men were surprised at the head of Grave Creek narrows; the account of which event, as given in the Border Warfare, differs somewhat from the way Robin Harkness, my uncle, related it, who was with Capt. Foreman at the time. I will therefore, give it as related by him. A smoke was discovered down the river in the direction of the fort at Grave creek, which induced those at Wheeling to believe that the Indians had not yet left the country, and that the fort at Grave creek had been set on fire. In order to make discoveries, on the 25th of September Capt. Foreman, with 45 men, set out for Grave creek. Having arrived there, and seeing the fort standing, and discovering no signs of the Indians, they returned. On arriving at the foot of the Narrows, a contention arose between Capt. Foreman and a man by the name of Lynn, who had been sent with him as a spy, about which road they should take, the river or ridge. Lynn urged the probability of the Indians having been on the opposite shore, and had more than likely seen them pass down; and the most likely place for waylaying them was in the narrows, and therefore urged the necessity of going the ridge road.

While passing along a narrow bottom at the head of the narrows, the foremost of Capt. Foreman's men picked up some Indian trinkets, which immediately excited a suspicion that Indians were near, which caused a halt. Before them some five or six Indians stepped into the path, and behind them about the same number; and at the same moment a fire was poured in upon them from a file of Indians under cover of the river bank, and not over fifteen steps from the white men. Those that escaped the first fire fled up the hill; but it being steep and difficult to climb, they were exposed for some time to the fire of the Indians. Lynn and his comrades, hearing the fire when they were below them on the ridge, ran along until opposite. They then proceeded to the brink of the hill, where they saw a man ascending near them, who had got nearly to the top when he received a shot in his thigh, which broke it. Lynn and his comrades ran down and lifted him up, carried him over the hill, and hid him under a cleft of rocks, and then proceeded to Wheeling. As Robin Harkness was climbing the hill near the top, and pulling himself up by a bush, a ball struck it and knocked the bark off against him, which alarmed him, as he supposed it to be the ball; he however proceeded on and escaped unhurt. In this fatal ambuscade, twenty-one of Capt. Foreman's party were killed, and several much wounded; among the slain were Capt. Foreman and his two sons. The Indian force was never ascertained; but it was supposed to have been the same party that attacked Fort Henry, at Wheeling, which was supposed to have been upwards of 300 strong. On the ensuing day, the inhabitants of the neighborhood of Wheeling, under the direction of Col. Zane, proceeded to the fatal spot to bury those who had fallen, and at the same time to get the man who was wounded and hid under the rocks, who was still alive and finally recovered.
The American Revolution, 1775-1783, which soon followed, again brought the stark horrors of war to the South Branch region. When the call was made for volunteers to join the command of Gen. Edward Hand and march against the Indian allies of Great Britain on the Ohio, Capt. William Foreman began at once to assemble a company of Hampshire County men. The company arrived at Fort Henry, now Wheeling, on September 15, 1777. Eleven days later Capt. Foreman and 45 men were dispatched to Grave Creek Flats, now Moundsville, to search for a party of Indians who were believed to have set fire to Fort Tomilinson, at that place. The fort was found undamaged by deserted and no Indians were seen. The troops spent the night at the fort and early next morning started back to Fort Henry, but at McMechen Narrows on the Ohio the party fell into an ambuscade. Captain Foreman, his two sons and 17 of his men were killed. These men represented some of the best families of Hampshire County, and news of the disaster brought deep mourning to many homes and cast a shadow of sorrow over the entire South Branch valley.

The names of those who were killed are preserved in a petition presented to the general assembly on November 2, 1778, by Lt. Anthony Miller, and Ensign David Wilson, asking for certain sums of money for the effects lost by "Hampshire County Volunteers, under command of Captain Forman who were attacked and killed by Indians at McMechen Narrows, on September 27, 1777."

These names are: Capt. William Forman, James Green, John Wilson, Jacob Pew, Isaac Harris, Robert McGrew, Elisha Shivers, Henry Riser, Bartholomew Viney, Anthony Miller, John Vincent, Solomon Jones, William Ingle, Nathan Forman, Abraham Powell, Samuel Loury, Samuel Johnston, Edward Peterson, Benjamin Powell and Hambleton Forman.

The slain men were buried in a common grave near the scene of the ambush but in 1875 were moved to what is now the Moundsville Cemetery. The stone reads:

This Humble Stone is erected to the memory of Captain Forman twenty—one of his men, who were slain by a band of ruthless savages (the allies of a civilized nation of Europe), on the 26th day of September, 1777. "So sleep the brave who sink to rest, By all their country's wishes blest." This monument was originally erected above the narrows on the Ohio River four miles above Moundsville, on the ground where the fatal action occurred, and the remains of Capt. Forman and his fallen men were placed here June 1st. 1875, by Capt. P. B. Catlett, under the order of the County Court of Marshall County.

DANIEL RUTTENCUTTER

There has been a great deal of research on the Ruttencutter (Rottengatter) family. I became interested as it was the only ancestor that I was able to research outside of this country and because the name Ruttencutter as well as Pacracy were so uncommon.

It was quite by accident that I found the old Minute Book in the attic storage room of the Tyler County courthouse. This led to the finding of the deed signed in German. My husband's family (Weber) had come from Baden and he had a couple do research in the church. When I found that Daniel was also from Baden and in a village not more than 15 miles from the home of the Weber family, I sought the help of the same couple to research the church records in Gernsbach. They were able to find records as early as 1646. I also did research in the archives in Salt Lake City which has copies of the original records and confirmed the German research.

I had already heard the story that Daniel came to this country on the same ship as Mary Pacracy. He, first class and she was indentured. They met while in quarantine, fell in love and were soon married. Mary Pacracy said that she was proud that she had arrived in this country on Christmas, her birthday was on Christmas and that she had joined the Methodist church on Christmas. With the help of the correspondence with the Library of Congress, I found that the arrival of the ship, "April", was mentioned in the American Watchman, a Wilmington, DE. newspaper, dated January 7, 1818. It reads as follows:

German Redemptioners.

On board the ship Aprill now lying at New Castle, about three hundred German Redemptioners of families, single men and women of different trades, but principally farmers. For information enquire on board, or of

Joseph Robinson,

January 5, 1818

in Wilmington

I was unable to find a ship passenger list for the Aprill but I corresponded with Jan Alberts of Holland who is doing research on the ship as the Captain was an ancestor of his wife.

I have been unable to find the name, Pacracy, in any records, including those in Salt Lake. Ruttencutter researchers find that she was said to be Dutch. She spoke German. Daniel spoke several languages, very well. It is said that Mary would not allow their children to speak German, tho. Daniel was a "wood carver" or cabinet maker and purchased the particular land on Middle Creek Island because of the fine trees growing there. Mary was very religious and would take children by horseback to church. She was a charter member of the Bethesda Methodist Church. The church burned but Mary is buried on the grounds. Daniel was buried on low ground on Middle Creek Island and his grave was washed away by the floods.

Richard A. Cramer, son of James and Elizabeth Cramer, married Mary Wilson. There is little information on this couple. Census records give their birthplaces as PA. Richard, Mary and son, Alonzo are listed in the 1850 Census of Iowa. Iowa is given as the birthplace for Alonzo. Richard's occupation as Merchant. The 1860 Census for Pleasants County, WV lists Richard, Mary, Alonzo, Albert, Amanda Jane and May. Albert and Amanda Jane being born in Ohio and May in WV (St. Marys). Amanda Jane gives Monroe County, Ohio on her marriage record. Richard's occupation is Pilot. In a 1859 Pleasant County document, Richard is agent for James Cramer who is managing a store. In May, 1861, Richard was elected as a delegate from Pleasants County to the 1st Wheeling Convention. In June he was elected as Captain of the St. Marys Home Guard. My grandmother said that her father was shot in the back while guarding the town and therefore she would not sing the song, "Dixie". At one time there was a gravestone in the old St. Marys Cemetery giving his death as October 2, 1861. The stone has been destroyed. Mary and her children moved to Wheeling. In the 1880 Census for Ohio County her occupation is listed as a milliner. At sometime after that, she moved with her children to Omaha, NB. Alonzo and Albert returned to WV and married sisters. Mary remained in Omaha with her married daughter until her death. There is no further information on May. I was told that she moved West to raise burros for the movie industry.
