Parthenia Ellen Robertson (my great grandmother) was born January 13, 1846 in Perry County, Missouri and married Obediah Hudson there April 6, 1866, her father was William Albert Robertson Jane Erwin her mother. Parthenia Hudson Robertson died Sept 20, 1925 in Ponder, Mo. Need information on William Albert Robertson parents and kin of Ala.
My Great Grandfather John ROBERTSON was born around 1801 in North Carolina and living in Sumner County, near Castalian Springs, Tennessee in 1834 when my grandfather Robert Allen ROBERTSON was born. John ROBERTSON died in 1857. I know something of his second wife, Elizabeth Ann Burton, and their children but nothing of his first wife who was presumably the mother of grandfather. I was told years ago by my father that his father had told him he was related to JAMES ROBERTSON, the father of Nashville, but how they were related I do not know.

ANDREW P. ROBINSON: Prominent among the enterprising and progressive men who have been instrumental in promoting the agricultural prosperity of Ross County is Andrew P. Robinson, who has accumulated wealth in his farming operations, and is now living retired from active pursuits in Chillicothe. A son James McDill Robinson, he was born June 28, 1859 in North Union Township, Ross County, coming from pioneer stock, his grandfather, John Robinson having been an early settler.

JOSHUA ROBINSON, Mrs. Robinsons great-grandfather, came with his family to the Northwest Territory in 1795 accompanying Gen. Nathaniel Massie and his band of followers. A short distance below the falls of the Paint Creek, near the present site of Bainbridge, the party encountered a band of Indians, and in the fight which ensued Joshua Robinson was fatally wounded. He wore at the time a red broadcloth vest which was later found on an Indian, who had evidently exhumed the body, and appropriated the garment for his own use.

John Robinson was born in Fayette County, Penn. in 1788 and at the age of seven years, just after the death of his father, was adopted by his Uncle William. He grew to manhood in Ross Co., and during the war of 1812 served as a corporal in Capt. Alexander Manary's Company. He subsequently bought a tract of timbered land on Dry Run, South Union Twp. and from the wilderness hewed a farm, which is still owned by his descendants. There he lived until his death, at the venerable age of 98 years, and his remains are now resting in McDill Cemetery. His wife, whose maiden name was Hannah McDill died in middle life, seven of their children grew to years of maturity, as follows; Joshua, John D., Wilson, Sarah, Isabelle, James M.D., and Hannah.
Born in 1815 on the parental homestead in South Union Township, James Robinson became familiar with all branches of agriculture. In early manhood, hein partnership with his brother Wilson, he bought land in North Union Township, and begun life for himself as a general farmer and stock raiser. Several years later he bought out the interest of brother Wilson, who moved to Logan C., Illinois and began farming by himself. Later he moved his family to Circleville, where his children might have good educational advantages. In 1875 he bought a farm in South Union Township, and there, three days after assuming it's possession his death occurred in the month of March 1875. He married Catherine Poe, who was born in Chillicothe in 1816, a daughter of Andrew Poe, Jn. Her grandfather, Andrew Poe. Sr. was one of the early explorers of the North West Territory, coming to this part of the country when the Indians were numerous, and deeply resented the invasion of the pale faced whites, "From Volume I "HOWE’S HISTORY OF OHIO".

Mrs. Catherine Poe Robinson died Nov. 1875 leaving two children: Elwynn S., and Andrew P. Robinson.

Receiving his elementary education in the rural schools of his native township, Andrew P. Robinson continued his studies for a while in the Circleville schools, later taking a course at the Chillicothe Business College.

Returning to his home farm he assumed it's management and was there profitable engaged until 1906, when he removed to his present home in Chillicothe where he was living after he retired from active pursuits. Mr. Robinson married in 1886 Jennie Isabelle Woodside Clark, born in Chillicothe, a daughter of Hon. Wilton Lee Clark of whom a sketch may be found elsewhere in this work. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson have three sons: Elynn Wilson, John Drew who served for three years in the Regular Army, having been a Sergeant of Co. B, First U.S. Inf. on e yr. Vancouver barracks State of Washington, and two years at Schofield barracks. Hawaiian Territory; and Clark Woodside,
