DEDICATION

This book is affectionately dedicated to Adron Runyon and his wife, Jane Maynard, who entered into eternal bliss July 14, 1859, and May 30, 1883, respectively. They lie side by side, at rest beneath tall and stately beech trees on a slope of the mountain near where they lived, toiled, enjoyed life, and passed on to everlasting peace.

INTRODUCTION

Most genealogists agree that the American Runyon–Runyan families are descendants of Vincent and Ann Martha (Boutcher) Rongnion. All references to them found in public records and early history confirm this belief. There exist traditional stories that the ancestors of some of the families came from Germany, and others claim that England was the place of family origin. No evidence exists that supports either of these claims, and no record has been found that indicates that any Runyon family came from any European country except France. There are many variations of the spelling of Vincent’s surname. The spelling used by the authors is that which is found in his marriage license.

Almost three centuries have passed since Vincent Rongnion came to America and settled in New Jersey. His descendants are found throughout the United States, and many of them have scant or no information of their ancestor. No complete printed pedigree of this eminent French Huguenot, who sought refuge in America for a permanent home, exists; however much data is scattered through public documents, histories, and genealogical magazines, which should be gathered and published. The authors have compiled much valuable data of these Runyon families who came early to Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky, and West Virginia, and of their descending families.

The Runyons who came from Eastern Virginia to what is now Pike County, Kentucky, may have come as early as 1795 on hunting or Indian scouting tours, but no permanent settlements were made by any of them before 1810. William Ely, History of the Big Sandy Valley, erred in his narration of the Runyons. It was John Runyon who came with his son, Adron, and their arrival was after 1810.
In New Jersey the early spelling of the surname Runyon was either Runyon or Runyan; both spellings were pronounced the same, and apparently Runyon was the preferred spelling. Some of the Runyon families emigrated westward through Virginia circa 1770 or before. Those families who located in Virginia usually signed their names to marriage bonds and other public records as Runyon.

In Virginia the county court clerks and other officials who prepared public records usually spelled the name phonetically, such as Runion or sometimes Runnion. The early settlers as they went westward in Virginia soon lost contact with their ancestors in the eastern colonies. Their children had no opportunity to get an education, and they also spelled their names like they sounded. Some of the descendants of the Runyon families have accepted the Runion–Runnion spelling, and such spelling has been perpetuated to the present day.

Lt. Col Calvin I. Kephart, an authority on the Runyon–Runyan families, has said that John and Thomas, sons of Vincent and Ann Martha (Boutcher) Rongnion moved early to west New Jersey and spelled their name Runyan; while on the other hand Vincent and Peter, who lived and died near their parents’ homestead, used the Runyon spelling. There are exceptions to this rule; some have changed to Runyan from Runyon and vice versa.

After careful study of the Runyon–Runyan spellings, the authors have concluded that since all are descendants from Vincent Rongnion, they should adopt the Runyon manner of spelling.

Henry Runyon and his wife, Hannah (Collins) Runyon, apparently were the first Runyon families to settle in that part of Floyd County, which later became a part of Pike County. Soon after their arrival in that wilderness of southeastern Kentucky, Henry’s father, John, his wife, son Adron and two daughters settled on Pond Creek. Contemporaneous with the arrival of John and his family on Pond Creek, Adam Runyon and his family settled on Pigeon Creek, which was located in that part of Cabell County, Virginia, which later became a part of Logan County. Pigeon Creek is not far from Pond Creek. Both families apparently had lived in North Carolina, and later in Tazewell County, Virginia. In later years, descendants of Adam Runyon settled in Pike and Martin counties, Kentucky. Their relationship to the descendants of John Runyon is not known; however, a record may be found to exist. Before 1830, James Runyon, who is thought to be a grandson of Isaac Runyon, a Revolutionary War soldier, and his family settled in Pike County and lived there for a few years, then he went elsewhere. James may have left one or more offspring in Pike County. One of them apparently went later to Pulaski County, Virginia.

Soon after 1861, David Runyon and his wife, Elizabeth, came to Pike County from Russell County, Virginia. David located on Tug River, down stream a short distance from the mouth of Pond Creek. After 1870, David and a part of his family emigrated to Morgan County, Missouri, where he died. David is thought to be a son of Isaac Runyon, Jr., and a grandson of Isaac, Sr.

The infiltration of collateral lines of the Runyon families into the southeastern portion of Kentucky has contributed much confusion in search work. In preparing this book careful study of the various families in each territory has been made, and their lines have been carefully chronicled as completely as known data would permit. Amos Runyon, co-author of this book, has a vast knowledge of the descendants of Adron Runyon and allied families. It is through his efforts and active search work that this publication became possible. Clyde Runyon, Amos’ son, has contributed much valuable data which he has found in old court records.

The marriage records are a source of valuable genealogical information; unfortunately some of the early marriages of Virginia are missing, and others give meager data. It is possible that many marriages performed under the bann procedure were never registered, or perhaps they may never have been certified by the ministers at the county clerk’s office. The marriage records of Pike County are intact, well preserved, and modernly indexed. The Pike County Clerk has obligingly assisted in locating records for us. The marriage records of Boyd County, Kentucky, are also maintained in good order. The marriages given here may not in every instance have the date of the wedding ceremony, but the date is the one when the license was issued. The correct wedding dates are given when known.

The U.S. Census records are extremely helpful in tracing the travels of the early settlers. Before 1850, only the head of the family was listed, and the ages are difficult to determine accurately. The 1850 and subsequent censuses list the names of the entire family and also their ages and places of birth.

The will records are the best source for correct genealogical data, but only a few of the early settlers are mentioned in the will books. Deed records, county court law order books, survey books, and tax rolls are public records which also reveal much important genealogical data. The material in this book is based on information secured from public records, family Bibles, cemetery readings, and every other reliable source.

Local histories are considered to be very good sources for genealogical information. However, all items referring to dates, names, etc., should be carefully examined and compared with documentary data. Some local historians are careless when narrating family genealogy and follow traditional stories without verifying them. Family traditions which have been repeated through several generations usually are exaggerated, and many times they are not based on facts.

Hundreds of letters have been sent to descendants, and many remain unanswered. Many public records have been examined; many cemeteries and burial grounds have been visited; hundreds of pages of local histories have been read; family Bibles have been examined in quest of data to fill the pages of this book. There may be evidence of discrepancies of dates and names, and errors may be discovered by those who may have better and more accurate data. Those who may find incorrect matter are encouraged to report such to the authors with proper corrections.

The coat of arms which has been used by some of the Runyon families may or may not be correctly used. No proof has been found that Vincent Rongnion was a direct descendant of Henry Rongnion of Portiers, France, although Vincent did come from Portiers to America. The rules of heraldry adopted in England and other European countries require that only the direct male descendants of the original grantee have the right to the use of the coat of arms. Most of the early settlers in America were of yeomen class and had no coat of arms. To use a coat of arms because a person’s name happens to be the same as the original grantee is unwarranted. The line of descent must be in an unbroken lineage.

Jonathan Runyon, son of Reuben and Sarah (Robinson) Runyon, and a grandson of Vincent and Mary (Hull) Runyon, married Rachel Compton, daughter of Richard and Elizabeth (Cox) Compton of Somerset County, New Jersey, circa 1755. Jonathan and his wife had three sons, John, Joseph, and Hendrick, and four daughters. The daughters married in New Jersey, and many of their descendants reside there. No New Jersey record has been found of the three sons.

Apparently John was born circa 1761 and Joseph and Hendrick later. John Compton and his wife, Margaret, Abraham Compton and Mary, his wife, and John Brickey, and others came to Botetourt County, Virginia, early in 1772, where John Compton purchased 411 acres of land on Long Run Creek May 5, 1775. John and Abraham Compton were cousins of John, Joseph, and Hendrick Runyon.

John and Joseph Runyon were listed on the poll tax rolls of Botetourt County for 1773 and 1774, and John served on a jury there in 1774. No further record has been found of Joseph. The next record of John is where he was listed on the poll tax rolls in Montgomery County, Virginia, in 1782.
Montgomery County was organized in 1776. Before his taxes were paid, John and his family had moved to another location, probably Wythe County.

A John Runyon, his wife, and six children are recorded as living in Wilkes County, North Carolina, in the 1790 U.S. Census. William Ely, History of the Big Sandy Valley, says that John Runyon of Pike County, Kentucky, came from North Carolina.

Adron, John's son, named one of his sons John Compton Runyon, and Nancy, John's daughter, who married John Stafford, named one of her sons Compton Stafford. Mitchell, John's grandson, had a daughter Louise who married William McCoy, who also named one of her sons Compton McCoy.

The above is the only proof that we have indicating the relationship of John and Joseph Runyon to Jonathan and Rachel (Compton) Runyon. It is reasonable to believe that John and Joseph came with their cousins from New Jersey to Botetourt County. Further search should be undertaken to confirm this theory.

John Brickey and other settlers of Botetourt County went to Tennessee, and some from there emigrated to Missouri. Joseph Runyon may have been among them.

It has been definitely established that John Runyon of Pond Creek was the ancestor of a large group of Pike County Runyons. When the compilation of this book was begun, it was not definitely known that John was the father of Henry and Adron. The Register of the Kentucky Historical Society, vol. 48, p. 273, states that Henry Runyon, John's son, died of diptheria at Prestonsburg, Kentucky, September 11, 1859. Family tradition says that there were three brothers, and that John became separated from the other two, and the whereabouts of the other two is unknown. The three brother story is not new in genealogy, but in this particular case it may have some significance. Tradition also tells us that our ancestor spoke German, but we have no evidence supporting this.

John Runyon was probably a member of the Enon Baptist Church, but the church minute book is missing, and further search may lead to its discovery. The Pond Creek Baptist Church received its constitution from the Enon Baptist Church and was organized May 13, 1843. John Wallis was appointed the first minister, and Adron Runyon, John's son, was appointed secretary. The minutes of the new church do not mention John or his wife, perhaps because they had died before then. The authors have given herein all available information relative to John Runyon, and from this information, further search may be made with successful results. There is a possibility that family Bible records may exist among some of the Tazewell County descendants.

In the text, relationships may be readily identified within the families by the following numbering system: children are numbered with arabic numerals; grandchildren, lower case italic letters; and great-grandchildren with double lower case italic letters. Maiden names are enclosed in parentheses, as are nicknames, with the exception that the latter are also enclosed with quotation marks.

I : VINCENT RONGNION

Many accounts of Vincent Rongnion and his descendants are scattered throughout genealogical literature; however, the authors can give only limited space here to chronicles of our progenitor. Orra Eugene Monnet, First Settlers of Piscataway, New Jersey, gives much information about Huguenots in general, but specifically about those that came early into New Jersey. His narration of Vincent Rongnion (surname spelled as found in his marriage license) is quoted because the information cannot be improved upon.

“Vincent Rongnion, Huguenot, most strikingly illustrates the French Protestant origins, the religious schism in France, and the expatriation sacrifices, and the struggle for human freedom in a new environment, with a meritorious distinction, which gave vital effect to, and influence upon, the new civilization, in a new world. He was the sole head of a new race, whose progeny, with every French attribute, intermarried, and diffused itself through thousands of early New Jersey people.

“Vincent Rongnion should be memorialized as the distinctive and illustrious 'Head of the Race' in America. He originated in or near the city of Poitiers, in the Province of Ancienne Poitou, France.

“He came before 1668 to the Isle of Jersey, and then to America; married Anne Boutcher, alleged English woman, coming from Herts, England, who in reality was Anne Bouchierre, originally French.

“Vincent Rongnion, patriarch and progenitor of the New Jersey Runyon family, came to America some time before 1668, and first settled in Elizabeth Town, New Jersey. He may have accompanied Governor Philip Carteret, who settled that place in 1665, or migrated very soon after. It is no-noticeable that many French Huguenots soon appeared in the colony. He was a carpenter.”

Winnifred Beatty, The Baumgardner Family, gives a very excellent account of Vincent and his wife, Ann Martha:

“From France multitudes of protestants, called Huguenots, sought a refuge in America for permanent homes. It is a reliable tradition that the founder of the (Runyan-Runyon) Rognon family in America escaped from these cruel persecutions in his native place to the Isle of Jersey, off the coast of France and from there took ship to this country.

“The first reference to his name on this side of the waters is seen A.D. 1668 in a marriage license given by Phillip (sic) Carteret, the young governor of New Jersey at Trenton.”

The document is on file in the office of the Secretary of State of New Jersey at Trenton, and reads as follows:

To any of the Justices of the Peace or Ministers of the Province of New Jersey:

Whereas I have received information of a mutual agreement between Vincent Rognion, of Portiers, in France, and Ann Boutcher, daughter of John Boutcher, of Hartford, in England, to solemnize marriage together, for which they have requested my lycense, and there appearing no lawful impediment for the obstruction thereof, these are to require you or eyther of you, to joyne the said Vincent Rognion and Ann Boutcher in matrimony, and them to pronounce man and wife, and to make record thereof, according to the laws in that behalf provided, for the doing whereof this shall be to you or eyther of you a sufficient warrant.

Given under my hand and seal of the Province, the 28th day of June, 1668, and the 20th year of the raigne of our Sovereign Lord Charles the Second, of England, Scotland and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, &c.

(Signed) Ph. Carteret.

This couple were joyned in matrimony by me the 17th of July, 1668.

(Signed) James Bolton.
Quoting from Beatty again:

"Ann Martha Boutcher, daughter of John Boutcher of Hertfordshire, England, in all probability was of Huguenot origin from a French family of Boucher that settled in England. She was born about 1650. The date of her death is not known but supposed to be around 1723–25. The name Boutcher or Bouchoree, its original form, and the old French form "Burkhart" means strong castle.

"Vincent Rongnion, born in 1645 and died November, 1713, is buried with his wife in the First Baptist cemetery at Piscataway, New Jersey, but their graves are not marked.

"Ann Boutcher, the newly wedded wife of Vincent Rongnion may have been a descendant of the same family as Joan Boutcher of Kent, a lady of distinction and piety, who was a Baptist and was burned at the stake May 2, 1550 within sight of the Canterbury Cathedral.

"The next public notice of Vincent Rongnion's name is found as owner of a piece of ground at Elizabethtown which he bought March 20, 1671–2. He was probably induced to make his first settlement at that place because of the national affinity of the early settlers. The Governor, himself, was of Norman French ancestry and the Surveyor General, Robert Vanquellin, came from Caen, in France. The Secretary of the Province, James Bolten, was also of French extraction. Besides, there emigrated with Governor Carteret a number of French men and women.

"Vincent Rongnion did not remain long among that settlement, for the stern Puritan element predominated and rendered his relation unpleasant. Disposing of his town property as soon as possible, the next notice of him was in the Baptist community, at Piscataway, Middlesex County, New Jersey. Here on the Raritan River in the Spring of 1677, purchased a farm of 154½ acres and from the homestead established there went out many children to become founders of other large and influential lines of the Rongnion family."

Calvin I. Kephart, *Runyon-Runyan Family (New Jer-
(1) John Runyan, born 1669 at Piscataway; md. Ann Elizabeth Donn (later Dun and Dunn) on July 20, 1692; lived in Hunterdon County, N.J. He died at Rocky Hill, Somerset County, November, 1745. She was born March 19, 1676, a daughter of Hugh and Elizabeth (Drake) Donn, the latter a daughter of Capt. Francis and Mary Drake. Issue.

(2) Vincent Runyon, born 1671; md. Mary, daughter of Hopewell Hull, on December 2, 1691. She was born August 10, 1670. Lived in Middlesex County, where he died in March 1724. Issue.

(4) Thomas Runyan, born 1675; md. Martha Donn, sister of above Ann Elizabeth, about 1698; lived near Hopewell, Hunterdon County, where he died April 1753. She was born July 13, 1681. Issue.

(5) Mary Runyon; born July 2, 1677. No further data.

(6) Peter Runyon, born July 1, 1680; md. Providence, daughter of Samuel Blackford, on October 12, 1704. Lived at Piscataway, where he died in October 1753. Issue.

(7) Jane Runyon, born January 19, 1683. No further data.

John and Thomas Runyon married daughters of Hugh and Elizabeth (Drake) Donn (later Dunn) and settled in West New Jersey before 1700. The following appears in the New Jersey Archives, Vol. XXI, pp. 517-18:

"March 18, 1699; grant from West Jersey Society to Ralph Hunt . . . John Runion, Thomas Runion . . . and others all of Maidenhead, Burlington County, for 100 acres of the society's 15,000 acres above the fall of the Delaware to be used for a meeting-house; burying ground and schoolhouse."

Many of the descendants of these two sons of Vincent and Ann Martha (Boutcher) Rongnion assumed the Runyan spelling, and this distinction persists in some of the descending families of these two sons, but not completely. There are other lists which have been compiled of the children of Vincent and Ann Martha (Boutcher) Rongnion; but they are apparently incorrect, since the lists do not include John and Thomas, and grandchildren are included, an error frequently found in the study of genealogy.

Mabel Louise Keech, Roygnon–Runyon Coat-of-Arms, discusses the armorial bearing. She says it “is registered in Gouget’s “Armorial Du Poitou et Etat Des Nobles,” under the names of Henry Roygnon, Sr., and Henry de Regnon.” The description given is: Porte Roygnon: d’azus (sic) a 3 mousches (sic) a miel d’or.” She quotes Gouget further: “Ete.—Pezenne, El. de Fontenay—Henry Roygnon, Sr. de Chaligne, idem Ste.—Pezenne Henry Roygnon, Sr., de Saligne.”

Keech gives another reference: “Rietstap’s ‘Armorial General’ registers Regnon de Chaligny still different spellings. He is a marquis from Poitou, and the Arms described D’azur a frois abeilles d’or. Supports: Deux lions. Devise, Mel Regi.”

Kephart, Runyon–Runyan Family, gives the following: “The family coat-of-arms is as follows: Azure, with 3 bees or. Motto: Mel Regi. That is, a blue shield with three bees of gold, with the motto as stated. (Reference: Armorial Général de France, by d’Hozier, volume Poitou, No. 794, in the Bibliotheque Nationale at Paris).”

There are discrepancies in these descriptions, and they are given without comment.
II: JOHN RUNYON (1751?–184?)
Of Pond Creek, Kentucky

John Runyon was born either in 1751 or 1761. No Bible record of his family is known to exist, and the traditional stories of his origin are conflicting. Some of his descendants believe that he came to Pond Creek, Pike County, Kentucky, from North Carolina, and others insist that he came from Russell County, Virginia, and settled on Pond Creek, which at that time was in Floyd County, Kentucky. There is evidence that John and his family lived in Wilkes County, North Carolina, in 1790, as shown in the U.S. Census for that year. The traditional story that he lived in Russell County is without evidence.

The name of his wife is unknown. However, there is a tradition that her name was Betsy Raemer (spelling uncertain). Nancy Jane Varney, who resides at Road Fork, Kentucky, said that the reason that she was so certain that Adron Runyon's father and mother were named John and Betsy was because her great-grandparents on the Varney side were also named John and Betsy. It is most likely that John was born in New Jersey and may have married there, but no record has been found to substantiate this conjecture.

The first notice of John's residence in Virginia is found in the tithe list of Botetourt County for 1773. The list, prepared by Benjamin Estill, does not mention the location of John's residence. John and Joseph Runyon (Runion) were listed as taxpayers in Botetourt County in 1773 and 1774. The 1774 tithe list was unsigned and again, the place of residence was not mentioned. No further record of Joseph has been found. Montgomery County was formed from Bote-tourt, Fincastle, and Wythe counties in 1775. John and Joseph may have lived after 1775 in Montgomery County.

John Runyon (Runion) was a juror for the trial of the famous William Donald & Co. v. Henry Yoacum law suit in Fincastle, Botetourt County, April 15, 1774.

George Peary, in a letter to Col. William Preston, dated December 17, 1782, named John G. Runyon and others as having departed from Montgomery County before he had collected their poll taxes.

Fothergill and Naugle, Virginia Taxpayers for 1782–87, list two John Runyons as taxpayers in Montgomery County in 1782. The other John Runyon was a son of Isaac Runyon, a Revolutionary War soldier, and lived in Montgomery County until 1790, when his parents moved to Wythe County.

The John Runyon under consideration may have lived in Virginia until after 1788, because some of his children were born in Virginia during the 1780's. John was listed in the 1790 U.S. Census of Wilkes County, North Carolina, with his wife and six children. John and his family departed from North Carolina soon after 1790, since his daughter Susannah was born in Virginia in 1797. John is not listed in the 1800 U.S. Census of Wilkes County, and the 1800 U.S. Census does not include Tazewell County, Virginia, which was formed in that year. However, John is listed on the Tazewell County tax roll for 1801 and thereafter until 1809. In 1805 there are two John Runyons listed. Again this other John may have been Isaac Runyon's son who in 1805 sold his land in Montgomery County to Frederick Shepherd.

The next record of John Runyon is in the 1820 U.S. Census of Floyd County, Kentucky. He is listed with his wife, one daughter, and one son. John and his wife were then more than forty-five years old.

Pike County, Kentucky, was formed in 1821, and John lived in that part of Floyd County which later became Pike County. The 1830 U.S. Census of Pike County lists John, his wife, and an unmarried daughter as living there. John was between sixty and seventy, his wife between seventy and eighty, and the unmarried daughter more than thirty years old.

The 1840 U.S. Census of Pike County does not show John as the head of a family. However, living with Adron Runyon's family was an elderly couple, which must have been John and his wife. The male person listed was between eighty and ninety, and the female was more than ninety years old. It is reasonable to believe that this elderly couple was John and his wife living with their son. All records indicate that John was one or two years younger than his wife. When the 1830 U.S. Census of Pike County is compared with the 1840 U.S. Census, a discrepancy of ten years in their ages is seen. Their birth dates may be near either 1751 or 1761.

Other records of John show that he assisted in surveying a parcel of land for the trustees of Pike County Seminary on April 15, 1824. Also John and his son-in-law Alexander Varney were assistants to a survey of fifty acres of land for Moses Maynard on Pond Creek, Pike County, September 15, 1825. John also assisted in surveying fifty acres of land for his son Adron on Pond Creek April 8, 1840. This last record verifies that John lived past 1840. John signed the marriage bond for John Varney to marry Anna Roman. John Varney was a son of Alexander and Susannah (Runyon) Varney and John Runyon's grandson. John also witnessed the signature of William and Nancy Roman, Anna's parents, to the letter of consent, dated September 2, 1833, for Anna Roman and John Varney to marry.

In the field of litigation there is another record of John. It is in the Execution Book of the Circuit Court of Pike County and was a suit for slander, John Runyon v. John McCoy. Apparently the case was tried and $100 damages were awarded John Runyon. An order of execution was issued August 16, 1830. The suit was filed May 12, 1830 and is listed under file number 204, Pike County Circuit Court. The evidence shows John Runyon was an old man with gray hair, and that he lived between William Davis and William Mainors.

The chronological order of the birth dates of John’s children is not certain. His children include:

1. Nancy, who married John Stafford in Tazewell County May 10, 1803, with John Tollett officiating. They went to Logan County, Virginia, settled at the mouth of Lick Creek, and owned land there. In later years John Stafford and his family moved across Tug River and purchased land above the mouth of Pond Creek. John Stafford died intestate in 1832. Their children were: (a) Sarah (“Sally”), married Andrew Varney May 9, 1820, in Floyd County. Andrew Varney was a brother to Alexander Varney, who married Susannah, sister to Nancy. Andrew moved to Pigeon Creek in Logan County, Virginia, in later years, where he was granted at least 822 acres of land, and remained there until his death. (b) Mary Ann or Maryan, married Randolph McCoy November 11, 1823, in Pike County, with Hammon Williamson officiating. (c) John, married Levisa Spratt August 12, 1830, consent having been given by their fathers, John Stafford, Sr., and Isaac Spratt, with Hammon Williamson officiating. (d) Compton, married Eleanor McCoy April 22, 1833, consent having been given by Samuel and Elizabeth McCoy, the bride’s parents, and Nancy Stafford, the bridegroom’s mother, with Hammon Williamson officiating. (e) Parlina, married John Sanson May 5, 1833, whose parents were John and Elizabeth Sanson, Sr., with Ferrell Evans officiating. (f) Matilda, married John Farley, brother of William H. Farley, June 30, 1833, with Ferrell Evans officiating. Matilda stated that she was of lawful age by record. (g) Nancy, married Daniel Scott July 10, 1836. The letter of consent was signed by his parents, William and Elizabeth Scott, and Nancy’s mother, and Ferrell Evans officiated. (h) Flemons (“Flemming”). (i) Elizabeth.

3. Anne, married Charles Lusk June 20, 1811, in Tazewell County, with John Perry officiating. It is not definitely established that Anne was a daughter of John. Charles and Anne Lusk lived in Tazewell County and had issue. Charles may have been a brother to Polly Lusk, who married Benjamin Runyon January 6, 1807, and William Lusk, who married Charity Runyon December 25, 1806. It is also possible that Benjamin may have been John’s son.

4. Charity, born circa 1792 in Virginia. She was an invalid, probably from birth. She died August 25, 1838, and is buried near her parents in the Pond Creek Baptist Church Cemetery.

5. Susannah, 1797–1852.

HENRY RUNYON (1778–1859)
Son of John Runyon of Pond Creek, Kentucky

Henry Runyon was born in 1788 in that part of Montgomery County which later became Tazewell County, Virginia. He married Hannah Collins February 1, 1810, in Tazewell County. During 1810 Henry and his wife moved to a place in Floyd County which later became Pike County, Kentucky. The 1810 U.S. Census of Floyd County lists Henry Runyon, his wife, and one son. The 1830 U.S. Census of Pike County lists Henry Runyon, his wife, five sons, and three daughters. By 1850 Henry and Hannah Runyon were living alone in Pike County not far from where his parents lived, all their children having married or gone elsewhere. Hannah died March 5, 1857. In 1859 Henry went to Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Kentucky, seeking treatment for a serious throat infection. He died September 11, 1859 and is buried in Prestonsburg.

The successive order of the births of Henry and Hannah (Collins) Runyon’s children is not known with certainty. They may have had more children than are listed herein. The children include:
1. William, 1810–?
2. Harvey, 1812–7?

They resided in Pike County, where three of their children were born, until about 1862, when they moved to a farm in Lawrence County, Ohio, where their next child was born in 1863. The 1870 U.S. Census lists Moses, his wife, and seven children living in Lawrence County. Their children were: (a) Alpha (“Albert”), born in 1853. He married (1st) Margaret E. He married (1st) Polly Maynard, daughter of William and Elizabeth Maynard June 3, 1830, in Pike County. The marriage bond was signed by Moses Maynard and John Bevins. The written consent was signed by William and Elizabeth Maynard and attested by Moses Maynard. William and his wife are listed in the 1830 U.S. Census of Pike County. Polly probably died soon after the birth of their first child, Harvey, in 1832. Before 1840 William and his son Harvey settled near Catlettsburg, Kentucky. William married (2nd) Susannah (surname unknown) probably in Greenup County, Kentucky, circa 1837, and they are listed in the 1840 U.S. Census for Greenup County, together with two sons and one daughter. Susannah was born in Virginia in 1815. Their residence was at or near Sandy City, near Catlettsburg, where they lived until their deaths. married at Ironton, Ohio. William J. Runyon and Octavia Stewart were married there November 27, 1872. Harvey gave consent to the marriage and stated that William J. was more than eighteen years old.

Children of William and Susannah Runyon were:

The marriage bond was signed by William Runyon, Harvey's brother. Mary was born in 1808 in North Carolina. Henry and Hannah Runyon gave their written consent for their son's marriage; and Margaret Stottz, Mary's mother, also gave her written consent. After their marriage and before 1840, they moved to Greenup County, Kentucky, since they are listed in the 1840 U.S. Census of that county. Nipps (surname uncertain), probably in Greenup County, Kentucky. Their first child was born near Catlettsburg. The U.S. Census of Greenup County and the marriage records in Boyd County, Kentucky, indicate that Adam and his family moved to Cabell County, Virginia, where two children were born. They returned to Catlettsburg and settled at Shepherd Hill on Catletts Creek, where their youngest child was born.

Adam left his family sometime after the youngest child was born and went to Brown Township, Vinton County. The 1870 U.S. Census of Vinton County lists Adam, forty-five years old, and Margaret, his wife, thirty-three. Living with them were Thomas Collins, seventeen, Nancy Collins, eleven, and Mary Adkins, eight.

The 1870 U.S. Census of Boyd County lists Hester A. Runyon, forty-three years old, born in Virginia, as keeping house at Shepherd Hill. Nancy Wilkes, seventy-three, born in Virginia, was living at the home of Hester A. Runyon, and may have been Hester’s mother. Also listed as living with Hester A. were John E., his wife Mollie, James A., and Sarah Runyon.

SUSANNAH RUNYON (1797-1852)
Daughter of John Runyon of Pond Creek, Kentucky

SUSANNAH RUNYON was born in 1797 in Virginia. Probably soon after 1811 she went with her parents to Pond Creek, which later became part of Pike County, Kentucky. She married Alexander Varney, son of John and Betsy (Hunter) Varney, in Floyd County, Kentucky. The exact date of the marriage is uncertain, since the only part of the date on the marriage bond that is discernible is "April 13." However, the marriage certificate was returned to the county clerk in Floyd County October 17, 1819, by Reuben Giddins, who officiated at the marriage. It is most likely that the marriage took place several years before 1819, because Susannah's first child married in 1833. Also, the 1820 U.S. Census of Pike County indicates that two children were born to Alexander and Susannah (Runyon) Varney by 1820.

Susannah died August 10, 1852, and is buried near her parents in the Pond Creek Baptist Church Cemetery near Belfry, Kentucky. Alexander Varney was born in 1797 in Virginia. He owned land on Peges Branch of Pond Creek and perhaps lived there during the life of Susannah, his first wife. After Susannah's death, Alexander married Susan Pain January 2, 1853, in Pike County, with Adron Runyon, justice of the peace, officiating.

Alexander purchased a parcel of land from his brother Andrew September 4, 1850, on Fall Rock Branch of Rockhouse Fork of Pigeon Creek, Logan County, Virginia, now Mingo County, West Virginia. Soon after his marriage to Susan, Alexander moved to Pigeon Creek and occupied his land. Alexander and Susan sold their land on Peges Branch of Pond Creek August 8, 1858, to Thomas Hunt, husband of Matilda (Varney) Hunt. Alexander died after 1870, and is buried on Elk Fork of Pigeon Creek.

The exact successive order of some of the children of Alexander and Susannah (Runyon) Varney is not definitely known. They were.

1. John, who married Anna Roman, daughter of William and Nancy Roman, September 5, 1833. John's grandfather, John Runyon, attested the letter of consent. By 1840 John and Anna had two sons and one daughter.

2. Francis, who married Polly Williamson in Pike County March 17, 1839. Consent to the marriage was signed by his parents.

5. Sarah ("Sally"), who married John White.

8. Jane ("Jennie"), born in 1826, married William Callahan Runyon, son of Alexander and Sarah (Starr) Runyon, and had a large family. Jane died after 1870 in Logan County, West Virginia.

10. Asa, born in 1833. He married (1st) Vicy Rutherford and (2nd) Basha Murphy.

11. Matilda, born in 1836, married Thomas Hunt and they had two children: (a) Nancy, born in 1854. (b) Alexander, born in 1855. Matilda may have died before 1860.

Adron Runyon was born in Tazewell County, Virginia, June 14, 1801. When a lad he came with his parents to Pond Creek, which is now in Pike County, Kentucky, in 1811 or soon thereafter. Adron was living with his parents in Floyd County, Kentucky, in 1820.

Adron married Jane ("Jennie") Maynard, daughter of Moses Maynard, December 23, 1824, in Pike County. Moses Maynard signed the marriage bond. Jane was born February 25, 1810, on John's Creek, which is now in Pike County, and died May 30, 1883. After the death of her husband she lived the remainder of her life at the homestead on Pond Creek.

Adron was granted 1,192 acres of valuable coal and timber land, and he purchased other large tracts of land on Pond Creek. He was justice of the peace in Pike County from 1847 to 1857. He devoted most of his time to clearing and cultivating his land holdings. In his later days he was known as "Squire Runyon"; however, his neighbors, friends, and young people called him "Uncle Add." His last will was executed May 26, 1857, and probated August 15, 1859. He left his estate to his wife and children, excepting a tract to be used as a church and cemetery site. He was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church and served as the first secretary until July 2, 1859. He was appointed deacon January 13, 1844.

Adron died July 14, 1859, at his residence. He and his wife are buried in the Pond Creek Baptist Church Cemetery near Belfry, Kentucky. They lie side by side beneath stately beech trees. Near them lie Adron's sister Susannah and an unmarried sister, Charity, and most likely his father and mother, whose graves are without headstones. The church stands beneath the rising ground on which the cemetery is located. The cemetery is maintained by his descendants and most of the graves are marked.

The children of Adron and Jane (Maynard) Runyon were:

1. Sarah ("Sally"), born September 14, 1827, in Pike County. She married William ("Billy") McCoy April 6, 1843. They lived in Pike County until about 1867, when they went to St. Joseph, Missouri, where they remained until their deaths. Some of their children were born in Pike County, and perhaps others were born in Missouri. Only scant information of this family is available. Their children are: (a) Epperson, married Emily Smith. (b) Levisa. (c) Walter. (d) Armenda. (e) Lucy. (f) Albert. (g) Lark. (h) Compton. (i) LaFayette.
5. Armenda, 1834–1918.
12. Adron, Jr., 1850–?.

All the children of Adron and Jane (Maynard) Runyon were married in Pike County, excepting William Anderson, who secured his marriage license in Floyd County. All of the daughters were married at their parents' residence. Most of the children reared large families, and many of these descendants live in Pike County.

Son of Adron and Jane (Maynard) Runyon

MITCHELL RUNYON was born January 26, 1830, in Pike County, Kentucky, and died January 24, 1886, at his residence near Catlettsburg, Kentucky. He married Margaret ("Peggy") Taylor, daughter of William A. and Sarah ("Sally") (Maynard) Taylor, January 6, 1848, in Pike County. He was granted 250 acres of land on Pond Creek, Pike County, and together with his portion from his father's estate, his holdings became large. All of his children except Constance were born at this site. On February 5, 1877, he purchased a farm of 213 acres from D. W. and Isabelle R. Eba at Catlettsburg. He lived there until his death. His last will was dated January 23, 1886, and is recorded in Will Book vol. 2, page 18, at the county clerk's office in Boyd County.

Margaret Taylor was born June 3, 1829, in Logan County, Virginia, and died July 12, 1899. She is buried by the side of her husband in the family reservation in the cemetery at Catlettsburg. Her father, William A. Taylor, was a Union soldier and a Civil War pensioner. William A. Taylor's family lived in Louisa, Lawrence County, Kentucky, during the Civil War. She is buried at Pikeville, Kentucky. In 1878 they went to Catlettsburg, where they were engaged in the hotel business. In about 1880 they returned to Pike County, where they lived most of the remainder of their lives. They had one child, Frances ("Fanny"), born November 29, 1881. She married (1st) Anthony Roland Williams March 18, 1903, at Catlettsburg. Frances was appointed postmaster of Pikeville March 21, 1928, and served a full term and perhaps another year before she resigned. IV : ADAM RUNYON

Of Pigeon Creek, Mingo County, West Virginia

The first notice found of Adam Runyon is in the first U.S. Census (1790) of Stokes County, North Carolina. His name was spelled “Runyan.” He married Elizabeth Davis either in North Carolina or Virginia. She was born circa 1770, and died soon after 1870. The 1870 U.S. Census of Logan County, West Virginia, lists Elizabeth Runyon at the residence of William J. Tiller. Her age was given as one hundred years and her birthplace as Virginia. Her relation, if any, to William J. Tiller is not known. Adam, his wife, one son, and one daughter were living in Stokes County until 1800 or after. Their son, Adam, Jr., was born in North Carolina in 1800. However, the 1800 U.S. Census of Stokes County does not list any Runyons.

Adam was living in Tazewell County, Virginia, by 1806. He is listed on the personal tax rolls of Tazewell County from 1806 to 1811. Apparently soon after 1811, Adam migrated with his family to Pigeon Creek in that part of Cabell County which later became Logan County, Virginia, and in 1895, Mingo County, West Virginia. The 1820 U.S. Census of Cabell County lists Adam Runyon and his wife, both more than forty-five years of age. They then had five sons and two daughters. Adam died before 1830, or at least he is not listed in the 1830 U.S. Census of Logan County. The 1830 U.S. Census lists Adam Runyon as the head of the family, but he is Adam, Jr. His mother was shown to be about sixty years old.

Adam Runyon is listed in a Cabell County Court Minute Book, indicating with certainty that he was living on the waters of Pigeon Creek in 1814 or before. Only the index, entitled County Court Alphabet 1814 continuing for the year 1815, has been found by Clyde Runyon, and it was lying loose in Minute Book 1814–1820.

Adam Runyon must have had more children than were listed in the 1820 U.S. Census of Cabell County, because at least one son was born afterwards, and for a period of ten years between 1790 and 1800, no children are on record. Adam, Jr., was born in North Carolina in 1800, and it is reasonable to believe that there were other children born between 1790 and 1800, while Adam, Sr., and his wife were in the prime of their lives. The successive order of the birth of their children is not known with certainty. There is a possibility that Joseph Runyon, who married Rebecca Adkins in 1827, may have been a son of Adam. The marriage is recorded in Cabell County. We have no further record of Joseph and Rebecca. Also, some of Adam's descendants claim that Joseph was a son of Adam.

Of course, some of Adam's children may have died, or some of the early Runyon marriages performed between 1803 and 1811 may have included children of Adam and Elizabeth. Some of these marriages are:

Charity Runyon married William Lusk December 25, 1806, in Tazewell County, with Henry Harman officiating. They lived on the waters of Bluestone Creek and owned land there.

Benjamin Runyon married Polly Lusk January 6, 1807, in Tazewell County. Polly may have been a sister to William Lusk. The marriage ceremony was performed by Henry Harman. Benjamin is listed on the tax rolls of Tazewell County from 1805 until 1832, or later. Benjamin purchased 100 acres of land on the waters of Bluestone Creek from William and Patsy Milam August 20, 1831. The 1830 U.S. Census of Tazewell County indicates that Benjamin and his wife were about fifty years old. Apparently they had only one child, a daughter. Benjamin and Charity may have been children of Adam and Elizabeth.

While Adam was living in Stokes County, John Runyon was living in Wilkes County, North Carolina. Apparently John moved soon after 1790 to Tazewell County, where he is listed in the personal tax rolls. About the time that Adam emigrated to Pigeon Creek, John and his family came to Pond Creek, which is now in Pike County, Kentucky. Pond Creek is not far from Pigeon Creek. The relationship of John and Adam has never been determined, but a family connection is apparent. The children of Adam and Elizabeth that are known were:

1. Adam, Jr., 1800?–95?.
2. Alexander, 1808?–1880.

3. William, born in 1814, probably in Logan County. He married Nancy (surname unknown) circa 1837. They are listed in the 1850 U.S. Census of Pike County. Their children are: (a) Greenville L., born in 1838. (b) Lucreta, born in 1840. (c) Mary E., born in 1842. (d) James H., born in 1845. (e) Sarah A., born in 1849. There may have been more children born after 1850. William and his family moved away from Pike County to an unknown place. The only record found of William is that he went West.

4. John A., 1818?–?.

5. James M., born circa 1823, in Cabell County. He married Polly Simpkins circa 1847, probably in Logan County. The 1850 U.S. Census of Logan County lists James M. Runyon, twenty-seven, and his wife Polly, twenty-five years of age, both born in Virginia. Their children were: (a) Andrew, born in 1848. (b) Rebecca, born in 1850. On the same census is found Andrew Runyon, twenty-six years old, born in Virginia, living with James M. and Polly (Simpkins) Runyon. The relationship of Andrew to James M. has not been established. James M. and Polly named their first son Andrew, indicating family connection. It is traditionally reported that James M. lived on Trace Fork of Pigeon Creek in Logan County. Apparently he had sold his land holdings before 1860 and moved to an unknown location.

Adam and Elizabeth had at least two daughters, who were living with their parents in 1820. Henry Clay Ragland, History of Logan County, says that Adam Runyon had two daughters, Christina and Anna, who never married. The 1820 U.S. Census of Cabell County lists Adam Runyon with two daughters under ten years of age.

ADAM RUNYON, JR. (1800?–95?)
Son of Adam and Elizabeth (Davis) Runyon

Adam Runyon, Jr., was born circa 1800 in North Carolina, and died about 1895 or afterwards in Martin County, Kentucky. Adam, when a lad, came with his parents to Pigeon Creek, then in Cabell County, Virginia, now in Mingo County, West Virginia. He married (1st) Martha Harris, daughter of Simon Harris, September 10, 1825, in Pike County, Kentucky, and afterwards lived on the waters of Pigeon Creek, where they are listed in the 1830 U.S. Census of Logan County, with one daughter.

Adam and Martha may have had other children than are listed below. Their marriage was annulled by the Circuit Court of Pike County during the July, 1837, term. The 1850 U.S. Census of Logan County lists Martha living with James Slater. The date of their marriage is not known.

The children of Adam and Martha (Harris) Runyon were:

1. Polly, born August 4, 1826. She married Clay Farley in Logan County in 1844. He was born March 6, 1819, in Logan County and died July 6, 1891, in Martin County. Clay served in the Civil War as a private in Company I, 39th Kentucky Volunteer Infantry. They lived and died in Martin County, where many of their descendants reside.

2. Emeriah, born circa 1828. She married Daniel Harman March 10, 1844, in Pike County. They lived in Martin County, where many of their descendants reside.

3. Uriah, 1830–6?.

4. Lewis G., 1831–.

Adam, Jr., married (2nd) Wealthy Aldridge, a widow, September 14, 1839, in Pike County. Wealthy had a son by her first husband, Ali Aldridge, and it is thought that she was a daughter of James Muncy. Adam and Wealthy were living in Pike County in 1840; later they moved to the waters of Wolf Creek, Lawrence County, Kentucky, which later became a part of Martin County. Adam was granted fifty acres of land on Embley’s Fork (Emily Fork) of Wolf Creek August 12, 1858. Adam and Wealthy sold their land March 7, 1860, to Moses Parsley.

Adam, Jr., and his family moved to Pigeon Creek in the spring of 1860, where he and his family are listed in the U.S. Census. He enlisted in the Union Army and served during the Civil War. It has been traditionally reported that Adam was received into the Army five years under his actual age.

Wealthy died before 1878, and Adam lived with his son, John W.; Adam later went to Minnesota to visit his son Alexander. After his visit, he returned to the vicinity of his old homestead, where he died at the age of ninety-five or more. Some of Adam’s descendants say that he was more than 100 years of age at his death. Both Adam, Jr., and Wealthy are buried on Nat’s Creek, near Peach Orchard, Martin County.

The children of Adam and Wealthy (Aldridge) Runyon were:

1. Saulsbury, born in 1840, probably in Pike County. He enlisted in the Union Army and served during the Civil War. He may not have married.

2. Haraford (Heniford), born in 1842. He enlisted in the Union Army and served during the Civil War. Haraford married Julia (“Jewell”) Fitchpatrick in 1867 in Lawrence County, Kentucky. 3. Alexander (“Alex”), born in 1845. He served in the Union Army during the Civil War. After the Civil War, Alexander emigrated with Benjamin Maynard and his family to Todd County, Minnesota, and later married Esther Maynard, Benjamin’s daughter. Alexander and Esther had two sons: (a) Claude, born in Todd County. When a young man he visited his relatives in Martin County and returned to Minnesota. (b) Amos. We have no information of this son, excepting the assurance of a cousin, Mildred Maynard of Marysville, California, that there was such a son. Alexander and Esther separated and he returned to Martin County, where he married (2nd) Margaret Meade May 30, 1885. After her death he married (3rd) Mary Davis, daughter of James Davis, June 8, 1903. They lived on the waters of Wolf Creek, where Alexander died and is buried. The children of Alexander and Margaret (Meade) Runyon were: (a) Charles, who was killed near Dingess, West Virginia, many years ago. (b) Thomas Garfield, married Anne Howard, daughter of Elijah Howard, February 28, 1894. (c) Haraford. (d) George W., married Jane Canada May 13, 1890, in Martin County. (e) Hattie. (f) Wealthy.

There was a child, Arena, born in 1838, who lived with Adam and Wealthy (Aldridge) Runyon. She may have been a daughter of Wealthy Aldridge and assumed the name Runyon. Evidently, she later married and had at least two children: (aa) Mary Jane, born in 1855. (bb) Chloe Ann, born in 1858, in Lawrence County.

They reside on Trace Fork of Pigeon Creek, near the old homestead of her father and grandfather. Their children are: (a) Leon, born March 12, 1921. (b) Bessie Norene, born May 21, 1927. (c) Scott C., Jr., born December 31, 1928. (d) Jake Taylor, born December 21, 1935. The first two children were born in Logan County and the latter two were born in Mingo County.

4. Bessie, born June 26, 1902. She married C. B. Stewart October 7, 1925, in Logan County. They have one daughter.

5. David S., born May 23, 1905. He married Anna Williams June 4, 1929. They reside in Williamson, West Virginia, where David operates a furniture store. They have one son, James Hamlet, born January 8, 1931. He married
Barbara Tackett July 3, 1949, and they have one son, David Allen, born May 5, 1950. James Hamlet is now serving in the U.S. Army.

6. Martha ("Mattie"), born September 22, 1907, and died September 27, 1939. She married Furlo Adkins January 1, 1930. Furlo died December 18, 1944.

JOHN A. RUNYON (1818?-?)
Son of Adam and Elizabeth (Davis) Runyon

JOHN A. RUNYON was born circa 1818, probably on Pigeon Creek, Cabell County, Virginia. John A. married Catherine Meade circa 1835, and to this union four children were born. Soon after the birth of the youngest child, John was murdered by George Aldridge, near the present site of Lenore, West Virginia. Their children were:

The 1870 U.S. Census of Logan County lists Catherine Runyon living with Samuel and Unitha (Chafins) Runyon. Catherine was born in 1851 and may have been a daughter of John A. and Catherine (Meade) Runyon.

2. William, born in 1840. He married Arisby Runyon, daughter of Alexander and Sarah (Starr) Runyon circa 1860. Their children were: (a) Sally, born in 1861, married George W. Meade July 31, 1883. (b) Matilda Catherine, born in 1863, married Thomas Marcum November 26, 1886. (c) John Tyler, born in 1864. (d) Rosa, born in 1868, married Silas Marcum. (e) Roxie, born in 1868, married Samuel White January 6, 1890. (f) Harrison M., born August 13, 1870, and died in 1948 at Parsley, West Virginia. He married Ruth Louisa Hardin August 21, 1892, in Martin County, Kentucky. (g) Andrew W., born circa 1873, married (1st) Yantis Runyon in 1892; (2nd) Sally Burget December 3, 1901, in Mingo County; and (3rd) Rhoda White, daughter of William and Mary (Evans) White August 6, 1916, in Martin County. (h) Thomas, born circa 1877 and died in 1948. (i) Jerusha, born February 18, 1881, married Matt Mounts, and they reside on Trace Fork of Pigeon Creek.

3. Julia Ann ("Juliane"), born in 1853. She married David White in Logan County, and they were the parents of Columbia White, who married Jacob Runyon, son of Alexander and Nancy (Shepherd) Runyon.

BENJAMIN RUNYON (1776?–?)

Benjamin Runyon married Polly Lusk January 6, 1807, in Tazewell County, Virginia, with Henry Harman officiating. Benjamin and his wife lived on the waters of Bluestone Creek, where he purchased 100 acres of land from William Milam and his wife, Patsy, August 20, 1831. The 1820 U.S. Census of Tazewell County lists Benjamin and his wife without children. The 1830 census lists them with one female child about ten years of age. The census records indicate that Benjamin was born circa 1776 and his wife circa 1775. He is not shown on the census records after 1830. Also, Benjamin’s name has not been found on the tax rolls of Tazewell County after 1832.
Charity Runyon married William Lusk December 25, 1806, in Tazewell County, Virginia. They reared a large family and lived on the waters of Bluestone Creek not far from the town of Tazewell.

Sally Runyon (17?-?)

Sally Runyon married Richard Lambert March 16, 1820, with John Perry officiating. Nothing further is known of this couple.

Thomas Runyon (1829?-?)

Thomas Runyon was born circa 1829 in Logan County, West Virginia. He married (1st) Milly T. Havins, daughter of Mary Havins, June 19, 1856, in Pike County, Kentucky. Thomas and Milly lived on Fall Rock Branch of Louisa Fork, Lawrence County, Kentucky, until about 1871. They owned land there and sold their holdings to George W. Thompson April 27, 1871. Thomas signed the deed of conveyance and Milly signed by her mark. Milly may have died soon afterward, because Thomas returned to Pike County, where he married (2nd) Polly Thacker November 28, 1871. She was probably a daughter of Nathaniel Thacker. Thomas, in his application for a marriage license, stated that Polly’s mother was born in Ashe County, North Carolina. He gave his age as forty-two years, and his birthplace as Logan County. The names of his parents are unknown; however, he may have been a son of Joseph Runyon, who married Rebecca Adkins in 1827, and their marriage is recorded in Cabell County, West Virginia.

Flemon Stone married Mary E. Runyon October 17, 1872, in Pike County. Thomas Runyon signed the marriage-bond. The application for a marriage license gives Mary E. Runyon's age as fourteen years, and states that her father was born in Logan County, Virginia. This indicates that Mary E. may have been a daughter of Thomas and Milly T. (Havins) Runyon.
Isaac Runyon was born in New Jersey circa 1738; the name of his parents and wife are unknown. In his application for a pension for service in the Revolutionary War he stated that he had served two months in Captain Bruce's company of militia in New Jersey. Soon afterwards he emigrated to Montgomery County, Virginia, and there enlisted in Col. William Campbell's regiment of Virginia militia and made a tour to North Carolina. Later he enlisted in Captain Frederick Edward's company of militia, which was attached to Col. Walter Crockett's regiment of Virginia militia, and made a second tour to North Carolina. Isaac also served one month on the Virginia frontier in Captain Edward's company. Captain Edward's muster roll, dated March 26, 1781, shows Isaac and John Runion as privates.

On November 7, 1785, Isaac Runyon purchased eighty acres of land on Peek Creek, a branch of New River, in Montgomery County from Thomas Griffin for the sum of fifty pounds current money of Virginia. However, the deed record of Montgomery County indicates that Isaac sold this same parcel of land to James Kennard February 2, 1789, for forty-five pounds.

It appears that Isaac continued to live in Montgomery County, or that part which later became a part of Wythe County, at or near Pine Run, until about 1804. His name was first listed on the tax rolls of Tazewell County, Virginia, in 1806.

Isaac applied to the Virginia legislature for a pension December 8, 1819. His petition was referred to the Committee of Claims December 15, 1819, reported December 17, and the bill was drawn December 20, 1819. The petition for his pension was from Tazewell County.
In a supporting affidavit to Isaac’s application for a pension, J. Prestoke, who had served in the same company of militia, stated that he thought that Isaac was the father of John Runyon, who had also served in the militia with Isaac.

Isaac probably died soon after 1820. His name was not listed on the poll tax list of Tazewell County after 1817.

So far, no authentic list of the names of his children has been found. The early marriage records of Montgomery County give only meager evidence of some of Isaac’s children, and the successive order of their births is not known. The data relative to Isaac has been compiled from public records, and further search may reveal other important records. Many descendants reside in Pulaski County and other counties of western Virginia. An arbitrary list of the children of Isaac Runyon includes:

1. Massie, married John Masoner July 1, 1789, in Montgomery County, with Edward Morgan officiating. It was a church wedding and no bond exists. John Masoner served in Captain Edward’s company with Isaac and John Runyon.

2. Mary, married William Brabston August 5, 1788, in Montgomery County. Adren Runyon signed the marriage bond with William Brabston, and Abram Tugg was a witness. Adren may have been a son of Isaac.

3. Isaac, Jr., born before 1770, probably in New Jersey. He married Mary Smith October 10, 1797, in Montgomery County. James Smith, her father, signed the marriage bond. John M. Taylor, D.C., signed as a witness. The 1810 and 1820 U.S. Censuses show Isaac, Jr., living in Wythe County with his family. The 1830 census lists Isaac, Jr., living in Russell County, Virginia. He was then more than sixty years of age, and probably died there. Their children include: (a) Joseph. (b) James. (c) David.

4. At a double wedding on April 7, 1798, Rebecca Runyon married Benjamin Carden, probably a son of Edward Carden, who signed the marriage bond.

5. Richard, married Hannah Carden, a sister of the above mentioned Benjamin Carden. Isaac Runyon, Sr., signed the marriage bond, and Aaron Graham was a witness. Richard and Hannah (Carden) Runyon lived many years in Montgomery County, in that part which later became Pulaski County, Virginia. They owned land in Montgomery County not far from the Wythe County line. Richard purchased from John Grayson, et al., 283 acres of land located on the west side of New River in Montgomery County August 7, 1804. The deed of conveyance was signed by John and Sarah Grayson and the consideration was $1,000. The 1850 census listed Richard living with his son William in Pulaski County, Virginia. Richard was then seventy-five years of age. Their children were: (a) Anna, married James Farmer November 30, 1818 in Montgomery County. Richard was witness to the marriage. (b) Mary, married Elijah Farmer March 6, 1819, in Montgomery County. James Farmer signed the marriage bond. Richard, Mary's father, and Barnett Farmer, Elijah's father, gave their written consent. (c) Stephen, married Nancy Farmer March 6, 1819. James Farmer signed the marriage bond, and Barnett Farmer gave his written consent for his daughter, Nancy, to marry Stephen. Stephen and his wife lived in Montgomery County or that part of Montgomery County which later became Pulaski County. Richard and Hannah (Carden) Runyon conveyed by deed their farm of 283 acres on the west side of New River to their son, Stephen, May 10, 1837. Stephen and his wife also lived in Giles County, Virginia, and owned 95 acres of land on Cave Branch, which was twenty-two miles southwest of the county courthouse in Pearisburg, Virginia. The 1850 U.S. Census of Giles County lists Stephen Runyon, his wife Nancy, and children. Stephen was fifty-one years of age, and Nancy was forty-nine. Their children were: (aa) William, married Orleany Bland in 1850. (bb) Aurencia, born in 1833. (cc) Hannah, born in 1831. (dd) Richard, born in 1833. The 1850 U.S. Census lists Aurencia and Richard as having been born the same year. They may have been twins. He married Elizabeth F. Privott in Mercer County, West Virginia, December 20, 1860. (ee) Elizabeth, born in 1835, married James Gussler March 6, 1852, in Giles County. (ff) Lucinda, born in 1840. John Runyon, born in 1827, married Caroline Hamman January 20, 1849, in Giles County. They had one son, James S., born in 1850. John may have been a son of Stephen and Nancy (Farmer) Runyon. (d) James, married Sally Shepherd May 22, 1819, in Montgomery County. Frederick Shepherd signed the marriage bond. James and his wife were living in Montgomery County in 1820, and they may have lived in Pulaski County in later years. Pulaski County was organized in 1838. (e) Joseph, married Martha Ridpath March 8, 1824, in Montgomery County. James Ridpath signed the marriage bond. A Joseph Runyon lived in Russell County as early as 1827 and was appointed administrator of the estate of J. Jessee (or Jesser), October 13, 1827. Joseph, his wife, and two children were listed in the 1830 U.S. Census of Russell County. (f) William, married Martha Kelly June 11, 1834, in Wythe County. It was a church wedding, and the marriage certificate was not returned until September 1, 1834. Richard and Hannah (Carden) Runyon conveyed to William by deed a parcel of land situated near the Wythe County line for $50 and other considerations March 10, 1837. William and Martha were living in Pulaski County in 1850. Their children were: (aa) Ellitte, born in 1835. (bb) Gordon, born in 1837. (cc) Julia A., born in 1839. (dd) Alexander, born in 1841. (ee) Eliza, born in 1843. (ff) Cephas, born in 1844. William was born in 1807, and Martha in 1803. (g) Rebecca, married William Corder September 27, 1825, in Montgomery County, Virginia. Richard Runyon, her father, signed the marriage bond.

6. A double wedding was performed July 24, 1809. Joseph Runyon married Nancy Jacobs, and Dreny Evins married Theodosia Jacobs. Joseph was more than twenty-one years of age. Nancy was a daughter of Roley Jacobs, who gave his consent to the marriage. Theodosia Jacobs was Nancy’s sister. The marriage bond was signed by Richard Runyon, Joseph’s brother, who had permission from Roley Jacobs to secure the marriage license for the double wedding. Thomas Evins, Jr., was a witness; he may have been a brother of Dreny Evins.
Joseph and Nancy (Jacobs) Runyon lived in Wythe County until 1810, and then they moved to Tazewell County, where Joseph had purchased 150 acres of land from William Taylor and his wife October 28, 1809. The deed records of Tazewell County indicate that his land was situated in Abb's Valley. By 1825 Joseph had acquired 213 acres of land on Mud Fork of Bluestone Creek, which was fourteen miles northeast of the Tazewell County courthouse.

Joseph and his wife sold a parcel of land to Pleasant Franklin April 17, 1847. This was the same land that Joseph purchased from William Taylor and his wife. Nancy probably died before 1850, since she was not shown on the census for that year. Joseph and Nancy had issue, and from the U.S. Census records, it appears that they had two sons and five daughters. Joseph was born in 1881 in Montgomery County and died in Tazewell County early in 1853. John Knuckels was appointed administrator March 5, 1853, by the County Court of Tazewell County. Joseph A. Moore, David P. Waggoner, and Richard Tabor were appointed appraisers. Joseph's personal property was appraised and later disposed of by the administrator, but the 213 acres of land were not mentioned in the list of his property. The land was carried on the tax rolls a few years after Joseph's death as the Joseph Runyon estate. Mystery surrounds the disposal of Joseph's real estate not mentioned by the appraisers.

John Runyon, Joseph's brother, died at or near the same location and time as Joseph's death occurred.

The children of Joseph and Nancy (Jacobs) Runyon were: (a) Charity, married William Tabor October 30, 1834, in Tazewell County. (b) Elizabeth K., married Harden Knuckels April 16, 1835 in Tazewell County. (c) Nancy, married Harrison Tabor November 3, 1840 in Tazewell County. (d) Martha, married Lewis Belcher December 3, 1840, in Tazewell County. (e) Isaac Q., married Rachel Blankenship February 17, 1848, in Tazewell County. (f) Polly, born in 1831. She married Abraham Smith September 2, 1852, in Tazewell County. Harvey Runyon and his wife Jane, lived in Tazewell County. Harvey may have been a son of Joseph and Nancy (Jacobs) Runyon. Two of Harvey's and Jane's daughters married in Tazewell County: (aa) Milly Ann, married Thomas Marrs November 6, 1865. (bb) Susan, married Samuel O. Sayers, son of Bogden and Jane Sayers, January 30, 1873, in Tazewell County. The successive order of births is not known.

7. John, apparently the eldest son of Isaac. Evidently he was a hunter and an Indian scout. He is listed as an Indian fighter in a historical record at the County Clerk's office at Christiansburg, Virginia. He probably never married and resided with his father.

John and Isaac Runyon are listed as privates in Captain Frederick Edward's company of Virginia militia on a muster roll dated March 24, 1781. Captain Edward's company was organized in Montgomery County and served in North Carolina and on the Virginia frontier. J. Prestoke, in his affidavit supporting Isaac's application for a pension December 8, 1819, stated that he had been acquainted with Isaac since 1780 and saw Isaac and his son John in Captain Edward's company on the march in North Carolina.

The 1782 poll tax roll of Montgomery County lists Isaac and John Runyon, and also another John Runyon. The rolls for 1783 to 1786 inclusive are missing; however, the rolls for 1787 to 1790 inclusive list John and Isaac Runyon; after 1790 no Runyons were found on the Montgomery County rolls. After 1790 Isaac and his family were living in Wythe County, and John was listed on the roll in Samuel Crockett's District in Wythe County March 18, 1796.

John was living in Tazewell County in 1805. He was granted 155 acres of land in Montgomery County, probably for his services against the Indians. John sold this parcel of land to Frederick Shepherd for fifty dollars and fifty cents January 9, 1805. The deed of conveyance stated that John was a resident of Tazewell County. John signed this deed by his mark. The witnesses were Elijah Clay, Robert Stukesbury, Barnet B. Farmer, and James Ridpath. Frederick Shepherd and the witnesses apparently were former neighbors of Isaac. Elijah Farmer married Mary Runyon, and Stephen Runyon married Nancy Farmer March 6, 1819. The bridegrooms and brides were children of Barnett Farmer and Richard Runyon, John's brother. Also James Runyon, Richard's son, married Sally Shepherd, Frederick Shepherd's daughter, May 22, 1819; and Joseph Runyon married Martha Ridpath, James Ridpath's daughter. This matter is mentioned as evidence that John Runyon was a son of Isaac Runyon, who fought in the Revolutionary War.

After the sale of his land, John Runyon probably moved elsewhere, since he was not afterwards listed on the poll tax rolls of Tazewell County. Joseph Runyon, Isaac's son, owned land on Mud Fork of Bluestone Creek in Tazewell County. John probably returned to Tazewell County soon after 1850 and died about the same time that Joseph died. John Knuckels was appointed administrator of both estates March 5, 1853, and Joseph A. Moore, David P. Waggoner, and Richard Tabor were appointed appraisers of the estates March 5, 1853. It is likely that John Runyon was living on his brother Joseph's farm at the time of his death. His estate included personal property only, and no heirs were mentioned.

8. Adron (or Adrain), born either in New Jersey or Virginia. Apparently he spelled his name Adron. The first notice of Adron was when he signed as a witness to the marriage of William Brabston to Mary Runyon August 5, 1788, in Montgomery County.

The personal tax rolls of Montgomery County for the years 1789 and 1790 list Adron. The Wythe County personal tax roll for 1799 lists Isaac, Adron, and Isaac Runyon, Jr. The Tazewell County personal tax rolls for 1805 list Adron, and then his name is listed through the years until 1830. After 1830 his name has not been found on the tax rolls of that county. Apparently Adron never married. He is not listed in the U.S. Census of Tazewell County or adjacent counties, probably because he was never the head of a family.

When Isaac applied for a pension from Tazewell County, Adron was a supporting witness. Adron stated that Isaac had marched in the Virginia militia during the Revolutionary War.

Other data pertinent to Isaac Runyon and his descendants includes:

Rachel Runyon, who apparently never married, was living in Montgomery County November 3, 1795. She was most likely a daughter of Isaac.

Richard Runyon was a member of the first grand jury in Mercer County, West Virginia. Richard and John Runyon of Mercer County served in the 60th Virginia Regiment of the Confederate Army. Richard was killed May 31, 1864, at Cloyd's Farm, Virginia. John was killed August 17, 1864, at Winchester, Virginia. Richard and John were probably sons of Stephen and Nancy (Farmer) Runyon.

The name of the head of the family on the 1820 U.S. Census of Tazewell County is not legible. It may be, and most likely is, Adron Runyon, and his father and mother. It is thought that Adron is the crippled son of Isaac. Benjamin and Joseph Runyon also appear on the 1820 U.S. Census of Tazewell County.

DAVID RUNYON (?–187?)
Son of Isaac and Mary (Smith) Runyon

The first notice found of David Runyon is in the County Court Law Order Book 11, p. 256, August 4, 1833, Russell County, Virginia.

David and his wife, Elizabeth, lived at Rupell, Russell County, and some or perhaps all of their children were born in Russell County. David and his family came to Pike County, Kentucky, and settled near Tug River, below the mouth of Pond Creek, where they lived for a while. After 1870, David and Elizabeth and other members of his family emigrated to Tuscumbia, Morgan County, Missouri, where David died. The consecutive order of the births of their children is not known. The children were:
ISAAC RUNYON

1. Joseph, born in Russell County. He married Jane Lester, daughter of John and Nancy Lester, November 12, 1857, in Russell County. Joseph was born circa 1837. He emigrated with his parents to Morgan County, Missouri.

2. Jane, born circa 1840. She married John Stuart, son of Anthony and Stacy Stuart, November 6, 1856, in Russell County. After their marriage they resided in Tazewell County, Virginia.

3. George, born in 1846 in Russell County. He came to Pike County with his parents as a lad. George married Judy Maynard, daughter of William C. Maynard, November 16, 1865, in Pike County. They lived for a while in Pike County, and their first child was born there. George and his family moved to Ironton, Ohio, before 1870. Their children were: (a) Martha A., born in 1867. (b) William M., born in 1869 at or near Ironton. They may have had other children.

David and Elizabeth Runyon may have had other children, but no authentic record is available.

4. Aaron, 1845?–1903.

AARON RUNYON (1845?–1903)
Son of David and Elizabeth Runyon

Aaron Runyon was born circa 1845 in Russell County, Virginia. He married Rebecca Farley, daughter of John Farley, March 15, 1866, in Pike County, Kentucky, with Elder Stephen Trout, Baptist minister, officiating. They lived on Turkey Creek. Aaron died in 1903. Their children are:

1. Alafair, born May 24, 1867, in Pike County. She married John W. Reed, June 21, 1883, in Pike County. George W. Reed signed the marriage bond; he may be the father of John W. They were married at her parents' home.

2. John M., born March 20, 1869, in Pike County, and died June 10, 1928. He married Fanny Slater, of Slater
Branch, Pike County, May 31, 1897, at Williamson, West Virginia. They lived near Tug River at Slater Branch. Their children are: (a) George Dewey, born June 8, 1898, and died October 7, 1954. He married Hester Davis; she was born April 4, 1892. George D. was a prominent citizen and a minister of the gospel. They lived near Slater Branch on Tug River. (b) James B., born September 21, 1899, and died in November, 1940. He married Martha Sparks. (c) Jesse, born May 29, 1904, and died in February, 1933. (d) Ray, born in September, 1908, and died in July, 1933. (e) Thomas L., born in January, 1911, and died December 26, 1932. (f) Earsie, born in March, 1913.

3. Lena Leote, born April 17, 1871, and died in November, 1907. No further record.

4. Joseph C., born April 4, 1874, and died August 17, 1952. He married Minnie Francisco July 22, 1896, at Williamson, and his was the first Runyon marriage recorded in Mingo County, West Virginia. Their children are: (a) Clarence, who resides at Road Fork, Kentucky. (b) Joseph, Jr., who resides near Delbarton, West Virginia. (c) John D., of Huntington, West Virginia. (d) Mrs. Winnie Byrd, of Huntington. (e) Mrs. Eddie Taylor, of Road Fork.

5. Riburn, born March 17, 1877. He died unmarried.

6. Emery, born November 17, 1879, in Morgan County, Missouri. He married Mary Williamson September 6, 1902, at Williamson. The marriage register of Mingo County has his age as twenty-three years and his place of birth in Morgan County. Aaron and Rebecca (Farley) Runyon, Emery’s parents, may have gone with David and Elizabeth Runyon to Morgan County, and in later years returned to Turkey Creek, Pike County.

8. David, born August 17, 1883. He married Sarah Romans, of Pike County. They reside at Nolan, Mingo County.

10. Lilburn Toney, born in August, 1887. He married
Minnie Lockherd. They reside near Hardy, Pike County, and have children.

11. Ona Jane, born September 27, 1891. She married Hiram Reed, and they reside on Turkey Creek.

The Aaron Runyon family record was contributed by David Runyon.

JOSEPH RUNYON (17?-?)
Of Botetourt County, Virginia

Joseph Runyon was probably born in New Jersey and may have been a son of Jonathan and Rachel (Compton) Runyon. The name of his wife or where he married is unknown. The first notice of Joseph in Virginia was in Botetourt County. Joseph and John Runyon may have been brothers; they are listed on the poll tax roll of Botetourt County for 1773. The list does not give their place of residence. It was signed by Benjamin Estill. Joseph and John were also listed for 1774, and the tax roll is unsigned. No further record has been found.

John Sutton married Winney Runyon (Runnion) in Botetourt County September 4, 1783. The marriage bond was signed by John McCurdy. She stated that she was 21 years of age and lived in that parish. She may have been a daughter of Joseph. No further record.

JAMES RUNYON (1789?-18?)
Of Pike County, Kentucky

James Runyon was born circa 1789, most likely in Montgomery County, Virginia. The names of his parents have not been critically determined. He may have been a son of John Runyon of Pond Creek, Pike County.

The poll tax rolls of Tazewell County, Virginia, for 1818 list James Runyon as a taxpayer in that county. Apparently he moved elsewhere during 1819.

James Runyon is listed in the 1830 U.S. Census of Pike County with his wife, one son, four daughters, and three slaves. James and his family came to Pike County before 1830, and apparently moved elsewhere before 1840. He may have lived in nearby Floyd County, and he may have died there.

Dexter S. Runyon was born in 1842 in Floyd County. He married (1st) Sarah Phillips, daughter of Casuel Phillips, April 10, 1875, in Pike County. When Dexter S. made application for a marriage license, he gave Pulaski County, Virginia, as the place of his father's birth. Dexter S. married (2nd) Charlotte Brannum in 1896 in Washington County, Virginia, and in the marriage license application, he gave the names of his parents as James and Lucinda Runyon. He may have been a son of James Runyon, who lived in Pike County in 1830.

Dexter S. lived in Pulaski County and probably died there. His name occurs on the deed books in Pulaski County, and he has descendants there.

BROWN RUNYON (1858–1932?)

Brown Runyon was born in 1858 in Pulaski County, Virginia. He came to Boyd County, Kentucky, in 1882 or before, and married Mary Alice Dunnagan May 10, 1882, at Catlettsburg, Kentucky. Brown lived and died in Boyd County, and some of his descendants live in and around Ashland, Kentucky. In his last will Brown bequeathed his estate to Mary Alice, his wife. His will was probated January 25, 1932, at Catlettsburg. In her will, which was probated January 28, 1935, Mary Alice names Charles, Bert, and Rosa Prelty. Their children are: (1) Charles Cleveland. (2) Edward. (3) Rose. (4) Bert.

Isaac Runyon lived in that part of Montgomery County which became Pulaski County in 1838. Many descendants of Isaac live in Pulaski and Giles counties, Virginia.

JAMES S. RUNYON (1850–?)

James S. Runyon was born in Giles County, Virginia, in 1850. He may be a son of John and Caroline Runyon, who lived in Giles County in 1850. James S. married Hattie A. Flowers April 20, 1874, in Boyd County, Kentucky. She was born in Columbiana County, Ohio, in 1850. To this union several children were born. Anna, a daughter, was born in 1889, and she married George E. Wirtz, Jr., December 21, 1907, at her parents' residence in Pollard, a suburb of Ashland, Kentucky. Descendants of James S. and Hattie A. (Flowers) Runyon live in Boyd County.

ABRAHAM RUNYON (18?–7?)
Of Wythe County, Virginia

Abraham Runyon was not found in the 1850 U.S. Census of Wythe County, Virginia. He may have come to Wythe County from Pulaski or another adjacent county. He married Phoebe Amburn November 23, 1850, in Wythe County. Jason Amburn signed the marriage bond, and he may have been Phoebe's father. The successive order of their children's births is unknown. They are:

1. Jason, married Emma Burkett, daughter of George and Ann (Collins) Burkett, September 27, 1876, in Wythe County.

2. Sally, married John W. Hensley, son of Joseph Hensley of Pulaski County, October 10, 1876, in Wythe County.

4. Mollie J., married Bailey D. Lane, son of William A. Lane, September 4, 1881, in Wythe County.
5. John P. M., married Lettie A. Grimwell October 30, 1884 in Wythe County. Her mother’s name is registered as Pauline Bateman, perhaps her maiden name.

The marriage records of Wythe County indicate that Abraham Runyon had died before 1876. No further record.

DAVID J. RUNYON (1857?–?)

David J. Runyon was born circa 1857 in Virginia. He married Anna F. Sturgell June 26, 1875, in Floyd County, Kentucky. She may have been a daughter of James L. Sturgell, who conveyed by deed to David J. Runyon a parcel of land on Tolers Creek, Floyd County, October 1, 1883. The deed records of Floyd County indicate that her name was Amy Frances instead of Anna F. They lived on Tolers Creek for many years and had issue. The names of his parents are unknown. He may have been a son of David and Elizabeth Runyon, who lived for a while on Tug River, Pike County, Kentucky. However, he may have been a son of James Runyon, who was living in Pike County until after 1830.

Nancy E. Runyon married James Howell August 11, 1873, in Floyd County. They were married at the residence of R. Tipton, and D. S. Runyon and Davis Tipton were witnesses.

Arminda Runyon married William D. Saulsberry January 31, 1886, in Floyd County. They were married at the residence of Dave Runyon. The witnesses were John Murphy, David Runyon, and Frances Runyon. William B. Price, J.P., officiated.

It is possible that Nancy E. and Arminda Runyon were sisters of David J. Runyon.
VI: MISCELLANEOUS FAMILIES

PHINEAS RUNYON (1744-1831)

Phineas Runyon was born February 13, 1744, in Hunterdon County, New Jersey, and died January 21, 1831, in Rowan County, North Carolina. Phineas married Charity Coates in New Jersey, and they were living there before 1774. Some of their children were born in New Jersey and others in North Carolina. There is evidence that Phineas and his family were living in New York in 1775.

Phineas, his wife, and children emigrated to Rowan County in 1779 or sooner. He was granted 250 acres of land situated on the waters of Lick Creek March 31, 1779. The survey record of Rowan County shows a square parcel of land surveyed by Harry Rutherford for Grifford Rutherford, surveyor, on the 18th day of July, 1779. Phineas and Barefoot Runyon were the chain carriers. Phineas is listed in the 1790 U.S. Census of Rowan County with his wife and eight children. Bafford (“Barefoot”) and Joseph also were listed from the same locality; they were sons of Phineas and Charity (Coates) Runyon.

Phineas Runyon and John Burwell were witnesses to the will of Joseph Hill, of Kingwood, New Jersey. The will was probated January 22, 1774.

Before 1800 Phineas, his wife, and children, including Joseph, John, and Bafford (“Barefoot”), with their families, emigrated to Kentucky; some of them settled in Madison County and others in Barren County, where they were granted land.

Phineas and his wife remained in Madison County until after 1810; then they returned to Rowan County, where he died.
The children of Phineas and Charity (Coates) Runyon were:

1. John, born in Hunterdon County in November, 1863. He came to Rowan County when a lad with his parents. John is reputed to have enlisted in the army as a private and served during the Revolutionary War until the surrender of Cornwallis. However, the military records of North Carolina list John Runyon (Runion) as being in the service of the North Carolina militia during engagements with the Chicamaga Indians (Voucher No. 2993, Salisbury District, July 14, 1781).

John emigrated to Madison County before 1800. He may have married in Kentucky, but the name of his wife is not known. He had at least four children: (a) John Harvey. (b) William. (c) Ellen, who married John Rice in Preble County, Ohio. (d) Mary ("Polly"), who married Philip Hornbaker at Eaton, Ohio.

John and his two daughters moved to Preble County in 1819, and he died there in 1833. He is buried in a small country burial ground near Eaton. His wife may have died in Kentucky.

2. Joseph, born in New Jersey and may have married there. He came with his parents to Rowan County during the Revolutionary War. He is listed in the roster of North Carolina soldiers of the Revolutionary War from Salisbury District as Number 2688. He was issued this voucher number for services against the Chicamaga Indians. The 1790 U.S. Census lists Joseph Runyon, his wife, and four children living in Rowan County.

4. William, married Katherine Low December 13, 1793, in Rowan County. Samuel Parks signed the marriage bond. William and Katherine went to Ohio. No further record.

5. Aaron, died in North Carolina in 1795.

Preble County in the 1820's, and he owned land there. The 1850 U.S. Census of Will County, Illinois, lists Michael Runyon at 75 years of age and his birthplace as the State of New York.

7. Charity, married Samuel Parks November 6, 1792, in Yadkin County, North Carolina. They lived in Rowan County until about 1797 and then emigrated to Barren County. They resided several years in Kentucky, and then they moved to Ohio, where they died and are buried by the side of Bafford and Nancy (Parks) Runyon in a small country burial ground near Eaton.

8. Martin, married Patience Baxter, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Sappington) Baxter, December 18, 1799, in Madison County.

9. Absolom, born in North Carolina in 1783. His wife, Mary (surname unknown), was born in Pennsylvania in 1784. The 1850 U.S. Census of Madison County lists Absolom and Mary, also James Runyon, forty-three years of age, Nancy Runyon, forty-one, and Charity Runyon, thirty years of age.

10. Emily, married in Madison County in 1806.

11. Isaac, married in 1812 in Madison County.

13. Mary, married in 1805 in Madison County.

BAFFORD RUNYON (1767–1844)
Son of Phineas and Charity (Coates) Runyon

Bafford ("Barefoot") Runyon was born in New Jersey June 6, 1767. He came to Rowan County, North Carolina, with his parents in 1779 or before. He married Nancy Parks, daughter of Charles and Catherine Parks, in Rowan County. She is a sister of Samuel Parks, who married Charity Runyon at Yadkin, North Carolina, November 6, 1792.

Bafford and his family emigrated before 1800 to Barren County, Kentucky, where he was granted land. After living many years in Barren County, Bafford and Nancy moved in 1841 to Preble County, Ohio, where he died in 1844, and Nancy in 1862. Some of their children married and remained in Kentucky. Samuel and Charity (Runyon) Parks and Bafford and Nancy (Parks) Runyon lie side by side in an old country burial ground near Eaton, Ohio. They have well-marked stones at the heads of their graves.

The children of Bafford and Nancy (Parks) Runyon were:

2. Catherine, born December 30, 1787, and died May 4, 1870. She was born in North Carolina, and married Joseph Conger of North Carolina in Kentucky. They lived in Barren County until 1810, and then they moved to Preble County, where she died.

5. Julia, born February 15, 1793, in North Carolina. She married Jonathan Burson in Kentucky. They emigrated to Preble County in 1810, and she died there.

6. Phineas, born November 27, 1794, in North Carolina. He came to Barren County with his parents and married there. The name of his wife is unknown. He died in Barren County September 19, 1827.

7. Charles, born March 25, 1798, probably in Kentucky. He was married in Kentucky and was living in Barren County in 1840 with his wife and eight children. He died in March, 1876.

8. Elizabeth, born August 19, 1800, in Barren County.
She lived and died in Barren County June 9, 1823. She probably never married.

9. Wilson, born March 1, 1802, in Barren County. He was living in Barren County in 1840 with his wife and five children. He died September 2, 1885, in Barren County.

10. Lucy, born January 4, 1804, in Barren County. She married Joseph Terry in Barren County and died there September 29, 1879.

11. Nancy, born December 30, 1805, in Barren County. She died September 15, 1807.

12. Jane, born October 6, 1807, in Barren County. She married in Barren County and died there March 13, 1840. The name of her husband is not known.

John Brough married Grace Carroll, daughter of James... and Laura Carroll, August 8, 1903. They had one daughter, Dorothy Carroll, born May 5, 1906. She married Richard L. Duncan.

JOHN RUNYON (17?-?)
Of Brocks Gap, Rockingham County, Virginia

John Runyon came to Rockingham County, Virginia, before 1773 from New Jersey or perhaps Pennsylvania. Neither his wife's name nor the place of his marriage is known. The first notice of him in Virginia is that he was granted 98 acres of land in Brocks Gap, Rockingham County, February 20, 1773.

In 1779 he was listed in Militia District No. 7 with 213 acres of land by Ralph Lostis, Commissioner.

John is also found in the tithing list of Captain John Ruddle's company in District No. 7 for 1792 with 1 tithe, 5 horses, and son Jacob.

The 1784 U.S. Census lists John, his wife, and seven children as living in Rockingham County.

John was a member of the Linville Baptist Church and served as deacon on several occasions. The vestry book of the church mentions several members of John's family. The Brocks Gap Baptist Church was organized February 18, 1843, and Anderson, Sarah, and Lena Runyon were charter members. Where John lived in Brocks Gap was later known as Runyon's Creek, and many of his descendants lived and died there. Several members of this Runyon family moved to Ohio and from there to Indiana and Illinois and westward to Missouri and other states. Many of them spell their name Runion.

John was a friend and neighbor of John Lincoln, the progenitor of Abraham Lincoln. The Lincolns were members of the Linville Baptist Church, and services were held at the Lincoln home on several occasions. The Lincolns came from Pennsylvania contemporaneous with the arrival of the Runyons in Rockingham County.

The children of John Runyon were:

1. John, Jr., listed in the 1792 tithing list of District No. 7 with 1 tithe and three horses. He was born circa 1770 and may have been the eldest son of John. John, Jr., was a member of the Linville Baptist Church, and he served as moderator November 16, 1811, and on other occasions.

2. Jacob, listed in the tithing list of Captain John Ruddle's company in District No. 7 with his father and was over sixteen years of age. Jacob was baptized September 17, 1814. Also John Runyon, Jr., a grandson, and his sister Esther were baptized on the same day. They were all received into fellowship of the Linville Baptist Church.

3. Mary, married Arnold Ford in 1794. Her father signed the marriage bond. Mary was a member of the Linville Baptist Church.

4. Anna, married John Hank (Hawk?) January 19, 1800. Her father signed the marriage bond. She was a very active member of the Linville Baptist Church.

5. Anderson, born in 1775 in Rockingham County. He married Anna Farney in 1803. John Hank (Hawk?), Anderson's brother-in-law, signed the marriage bond. Anderson's wife may have been named Leannah. The 1850 U.S. Census lists Anderson and his wife Leannah living alone in Rockingham County. Anderson was baptized August 28, 1814, at Brocks Gap and received into fellowship of the Linville Baptist Church.

6. Daniel, 17?-?.

The names of the children of John Runyon may not be in consecutive order of birth. The early spelling of their surname was usually Runion or sometimes Runnion, and some of the descendants continue that manner of spelling.

Abraham, John Runyon's grandson, married Elizabeth Bloser, sister of John Bloser. They had one daughter, Maria, born in 1838. She inherited the estate of her uncle, John Bloser, April 1, 1852.
DANIEL RUNYON (17?–?)
Son of John Runyon of Brocks Gap, Virginia

Daniel Runyon married (1st) Peggy Orebaugh, daughter of Andrew Orebaugh, October 29, 1805, at Brocks Gap, Virginia. Peggy probably died, and Daniel married (2nd) Madeline Weatherhalse. The minutes of the Linville Baptist Church indicate that Madeline was baptized Sunday, December 22, 1816. They emigrated to Ohio and reared a large family.

The children of Daniel and Peggy (Orebaugh) Runyon were:
1. Anna, no further record.
2. John, who married a Miss Cochran.

The children of Daniel and Madeline (Weatherhalse) Runyon were:
1. Soloman, who went to Boone County, Indiana. He accumulated a large fortune and left it to his two adopted children.
2. Lizzie, married a Mr. Shafer.
4. Margaret, married a Mr. Hart.
5. Lydia, married a Mr. Post.
6. Phoebe, married a brother of Lydia’s husband.
7. Deborah, married a Mr. Johnson.
8. Sarah, married a Mr. Pfiester.

Data contributed by Mrs. Alice L. Hirtle.

JOHN RUNYON III (1793–18?)
Son of John Runyon, Jr., of Brocks Gap, Virginia

John Runyon III was born June 28, 1793, at Brocks Gap, Rockingham County, Virginia. He is a son of John Runyon, Jr., and a grandson of John Runyon Sr. John III married Mary Price, daughter of Samuel Price, in Rockingham County August 8, 1815. John and Mary had gone from Rockingham County by 1830. In 1831 they came to Ohio and moved in a few years to Adams County, Indiana. Their children were:
1. Daniel, born in Rockingham County.
3. Sampson, born in 1827 in Virginia. He married in Indiana. He and his wife, Durcus, moved to Monroe County, Missouri. In 1850 they had two children: (a) Elizabeth Y., born in 1846. (b) William B., born in 1848. Both children were born in Monroe County, Missouri.
5. John Noah.
7. David.
8. Mary.
9. Dolly.

John had a brother, Sampson, who had two sons: Hugh, and John Murray, who at one time lived in Springfield, Ohio, but later moved to an unknown place.

BAREFOOT RUNYON (17?-?)

Barefoot Runyon (Runion) married Margaret Rambo May 12, 1777, in Rockingham County, Virginia, with Elder John Alderson officiating. Elder John Alderson was pastor of the Linville Baptist Church. Barefoot may have been a son of John Runyon of Brocks Gap, Rockingham County, and if so, he probably was born in New Jersey. After his marriage to Margaret, they moved to Shenandoah County, Virginia. He is listed in the 1785 U.S. Census with his wife and two children.

The County Court Booklet of Shenandoah County, under public service claims, lists Elias Runyon (Runnian) in May, 1783 for fifteen days collecting of cattle for the militia. The County Commissioner's Book No. 7, p. 159, November 27, 1783, lists Isaac and Elisha Runyon (Runion) for services in driving beeves for the militia. Elias, Isaac, and Elisha may have been brothers of Barefoot. It is very likely that they all were sons of a Runyon who settled early in Shenandoah County. Their relationship to John Runyon of Brocks Gap is not known.

The origin of the name Barefoot is obscure. However, it seems to have originated in New Jersey. The first notice of this name is in Daniel Brymson's will, dated 1696, in New Jersey, where he mentions his only son, Barefoot Brymson. It may have originated from the surname Burford.

RUNYON FAMILIES
Of Harrison County, Virginia

It is almost a hopeless task to compile a pedigree of early families without a Bible record or other reliable family data. Traditional information is helpful, but many times it is unreliable.

There is no information available that indicates the relationship between Henry, William, and John Runyon, who settled in Harrison County, Virginia. There is evidence that Elijah Runyon was a son of Henry. Family histories of these early settlers in Harrison County may exist. The documentary records herein compiled may be an assistance in preparing a more complete genealogical record.

Henry Runyon may have emigrated to Virginia before 1773; however, the first notice of him in Augusta County, Virginia, is found in the County Court Law Order Book, No. 15. There, at a meeting of the County Court of Augusta County August 17, 1773, "Henry Runyon was recognized."

In Augusta County deed book No. 19, p. 406, William Samples and his wife Sarah sold to George Kessner 235 acres of land on Brocks Creek August 17, 1773. The land was patented to Adam Honerstick July 7, 1763. Henry Runyon and Obadiah Muncy signed as witnesses.

Henry Runyon and Morris Runyon are listed in Daniel Smith's Delinquent and Supernumerary Tax List of Augusta County for 1773. No further data has been found of Morris Runyon.
In Augusta County Will Book No. III, p. 133, in the settlement of the estate of Konrad Kustard, Henry Runyon was paid for services March 15, 1774.

In the Augusta County Will Book No. VI, p. 37, Henry Runyon was paid for services to the Martin Humble estate May 19, 1778.

The first (1790) U.S. Census lists Henry Runyon, his wife, and six children living in that part of Monongalia County, Virginia, which later became Harrison County. Also, John Runyon, his wife, and four children, and William Runyon, his wife, and five children are listed. This census was taken from the Monongalia County tax list for 1782. The same families were again listed for 1785 in Harrison County, which had been organized in 1784. Elijah Runyon was most likely married in Monongalia County circa 1772. He is also listed in the 1785 tax list of Harrison County and was included in the 1790 census with his wife and two children. By 1785 these Runyon families had permanent dwellings established in Harrison County, Virginia, now West Virginia.

The Monongalia County Commissioners Book IV, p. 351, Militia, December 22, 1783, states that Henry Runyon was paid for salt which he had delivered to the Virginia Militia August 1, 1782.

Henry Runyon was granted 100 acres of land situated on Little Buffalo Fork, 327 acres of land on the bend of the River Creek, and 400 acres on the waters of West Fork in Harrison County during 1786. Also in 1787 he was granted 182 acres of land on Coburnes Creek and 200 acres on Big Buffalo Creek, which makes a total of 1,209 acres granted to Henry.

During 1825, E. and H. Runyon were granted 225 acres of land on Spring Creek, Kanawha County, Virginia. This may have been Elijah and his son Henry.

Elijah and his wife were born before 1775, either in New Jersey or Augusta County. The 1810 U.S. Census of Harrison County lists Elijah and his wife as being more than forty-five years of age. They had three sons between 10 and 16 years, and one daughter more than 16 years of age.

In the same census Samuel Runyon and his wife are listed. Samuel was more than sixteen years of age, and his wife was under that age. Samuel may have been a son of Elijah.

Uriah Grandee (Grandy) made an application for a pension from Jackson County, Virginia, November 18, 1835. His application was supported by an affidavit signed by Elijah Runyon.

Peter McCune applied for a pension from Jackson County for service in Virginia during the Revolutionary War (Va. 7165). His claim was supported by an affidavit signed by Adam Flesher and Elijah Runyon.

Elijah Runyon, Jr., was born in Harrison County in 1806. The 1850 U.S. Census lists him and Rebecca, his wife, as living in Lewis County, Virginia. They then had three children: (a) Mary. (b) William. (c) Jacob.

Elijah, Jr., was living in Lewis County before 1830, or he may have lived in that part of Harrison County which later became a part of Lewis County. In 1830 Elijah and his wife were under thirty years of age, and they had one daughter under five years of age.

It may be concluded that Elijah, Sr., had a son named Henry, whose son, Henry, Jr., built the first water-propelled mill near Spencer, Roane County, Virginia.

Henry, Sr., sold a parcel of land to William R. Goff and his wife, Sarah (Bush) Goff, in Roane County after 1837.

The Henry Runyon mill was later owned by Gilbert and Isaac McKown and was in use for many years.

William Lane Reynolds, son of Thomas Reynolds, married Emily D. Runyon, daughter of Joshua and Samantha (Miller) Runyon. They lived in Roane County, now in West Virginia.

Henry, William, and John Runyon, who were listed in the first U.S. Census of Harrison County, may have been brothers, or they may have been descended from collateral lines. Their relationship is obscure. Further search of the early records of Harrison County may reveal interesting data.
In the Calendar of Virginia State Papers, Vol. 6, pp. 312 is a letter from Max Armstrong to the Governor of Virginia, dated March 23, 1793, from Clarksburg, Virginia. It says: “On Sunday, the 3rd Instant four Indians took 6 horses belonging to a man of the name of Rungan, within seven miles of this place, ...”

John Runyon lived at or near the mouth of Fremans Creek, and he was one of the first constables of the newly-formed county of Harrison.

In A History of Lewis County, West Virginia, by Edward Conrad Smith, p. 81, the following may be found: “On July 24, of the same year [1794] they [the Indians] took prisoner the daughter of John Runyon near the mouth of Fremens Creek. Two of the savages were detailed to conduct her to the Indian village, but after going ten miles they tomahawked and scalped her.”

John Runyon was born circa 1747 in New Jersey, and he died near Clarksburg, Virginia (now West Virginia), December 7, 1807. He married Susannah Kuster circa 1771 in Virginia. She was born April 25, 1748, and died September 12, 1823, in Pleasant Township, Clark County, Ohio. She was the first woman to be buried in the Ashbury M. E. Chapel Cemetery, eleven miles east of Springfield, Ohio.

Susannah was listed in the 1810 U.S. Census of Harrison County with three children. She and her three children emigrated to Warren County, Ohio, in 1811 and joined her sons, Abraham, George, and Joseph, who had gone there in 1802 and 1809.

The children of John and Susannah (Kuster) Runyon were:

1. John, Jr., born circa 1772. He moved to Ohio in 1808 and married Catherine Richards.

2. William, born circa 1774. He married Elizabeth Chie-roun.

3. Abraham, born July 14, 1783, and died November 15, 1836. He married Sophia Lynch April 12, 1801. Abraham served as a private in the War of 1812, having enlisted in Champaign County (now Clark County), Ohio. Nine chil-
Children were born to Abraham and Sophia (Lynch) Runyon. Sophia was a daughter of Peter Lynch.

4. Ruie (Ruby), born in 1782. She was killed by Indians July 24, 1794.

5. Joseph, born March 3, 1786, in Harrison County. He married Elizabeth Curl in Warren County, Ohio, November 10, 1806. She was a daughter of William and Sarah (Brown) Curl. Joseph died suddenly August 3, 1854, on his way home from a visit with his son, George. Elizabeth was born May 26, 1783, and died March 8, 1872. She is buried by the side of her husband in the Ashbury M.E. Chapel Cemetery. Ten children were born to this union.

6. George, born August 21, 1791, in Harrison County, and died March 23, 1855. George married Susannah Lynch, daughter of Peter Lynch, in 1810. She was born May 5, 1789, and died March 21, 1864.

William Runyon was born circa 1751, probably in New Jersey. He was living in that part of Monongalia County in 1782 which later became Harrison County in 1785. The U.S. Census lists William, his wife, and six children living there in 1782 and in Harrison County in 1785. William was granted 395 acres of land situated on the waters of Sycamore Creek, Harrison County, in 1786. He emigrated with his family to Butlerville, Ohio, in 1802, after his home and belongings were destroyed by Indians.

1. Henry, born in 1775. He married Abigail Lynch in 1796. She was born in 1777. Issue.

2. Elizabeth, born circa 1777. She married William Bennett in 1799.

5. Isaac, born circa 1783.
7. Benjamin, born circa 1787.

The list of John’s children and William’s children are from Winnifred Beatty’s The Baumgardner Family and a list published in Genealogy and History, Vol. 5, No. 2, prepared by the late Forest M. Runyon.

Ruben Gold Thwaites, Withers Chronicles of Border Warfare, may be in error when (p. 419) he reports John Runyon, Jr., son of John and Susannah (Kuster) Runyon, was killed by Indians.

DANIEL RUNYON (1750–1815)
Son of Benjamin and Ann (Van Coert) Runyon

Daniel Runyon was born in 1750 in New Jersey and died in 1815 at Mayslick, Mason County, Kentucky. Daniel married (1st) Ann Lenox in New Jersey, and they had four children: (1) Ruth. (2) David L. (3) Anna. (4) Susannah.

After the death of Ann, Daniel married (2nd) Rachel Morris in 1775 in New Jersey.

Daniel, with his wife and children, emigrated to Kentucky late in 1787. They came by the Wilderness Road and settled at Mayslick in Mason County. Daniel was one of the first Runyons to come directly from New Jersey and settle in Kentucky. He purchased land at or near Mayslick and held much valuable land in Mason County. He also owned several slaves. His will was probated May 9, 1815, in Mason County.

The children of Daniel and Rachel (Morris) Runyon were:
1. The first was born in 1786 and died at birth.
3. Asa R., 1789–18?.
4. James Morris, born in 1789. He was a twin to Asa R.
5. Peter, born in 1791.
7. Sarah, born in 1795.
8. A twin infant was born in 1795 and died soon after.

Daniel, Ruth, and Susannah, came to Mason County with their father and stepmother, married, and reared large families in Kentucky.

The descendants of this pioneer Runyon family are numerous in Kentucky and other states of the Union. Daniel, Asa R., and James Morris lived and died in Mason County. They were outstanding citizens who owned much valuable property. James Morris, a twin to Asa R., died in 1835, leaving a valuable estate to his wife and child. His will was probated May 10, 1835.

Vincent Runyon also came to Mayslick and was a contemporary of Daniel. Vincent was a witness to the will of John Thomas of Mason County December 2, 1809. His name appears in the early deed book. No further data is available concerning Vincent.

There were other Runyons who came to Kentucky either with or soon after the arrival of Daniel and his family, and most of them moved to, or near Cincinnati, Ohio, where many of their descendants now live.

ASA R. RUNYON (1789–18?)
Son of Daniel and Rachel (Morris) Runyon

Asa R. Runyon was born in 1789 in Mason County, Kentucky. He was a twin to James Morris Runyon, who died in 1835. They were probably the first Runyon children born in Kentucky. Asa R. married (1st) Mary Morris, and they had the following children:
1. Rachel, born in 1815 in Mason County.
2. David, born in 1818. He married Mary E. Warder Jan-

4. An infant was born and died in 1823.

5. Daniel R., born in 1825. He married Sarah Blackburn, and their children were:
   (a) Ellie, married Charles Warfield.
   (b) Asa, born in 1858. He married Emily Chenault in 1888. Their children were:
      (aa) Henrietta Bronston, who married Herman Winfry.

      (c) Virginia Blackburn, born in 1871.

After the death of Mary (Morris) Runyon, Asa R. married (2nd) Mary G. Gilman August 27, 1836. Their children were:

3. Frances O., born in 1847.

Asa R. Runyon was an active businessman and is often mentioned in the early history of Mason County. He was one of the first trustees of Mayslick, when it was organized February 1, 1837. For a few years before 1850, Asa R. operated a general store in Lewis County, Kentucky; however, he returned to Mason County in 1850 and established a drug store there. Asa R. and his family are listed in both Lewis and Mason counties for the 1850 census. Numerous descendants reside in Mason and other Kentucky counties.

The information for the Daniel Runyon genealogy was given by Mrs. Herman Winfry, Richmond, Virginia. The county court records of Mason County and the U.S. Census of 1850 have been partially examined. A complete pedigree is said to exist; however, the authors have not had an opportunity to examine it. A complete search of the marriage registers of Mason County may reveal much important data of Daniel and his descendants. A further search of the U.S. Census records of Mason and adjacent counties may also reveal valuable information.

RUNYON FAMILIES
Of Lawrence County, Ohio

JACOB RUNYON was born in 1803 in New Jersey. He married Keturah (spelling uncertain and surname unknown) probably in Maryland. She was born in 1803 in Maryland. The 1870 U.S. Census lists them living in Lawrence County without a family. The following Runyon families may be descended from Jacob and Keturah Runyon:

William Runyon was born in 1819, probably in Pennsylvania. The marriage records of Lawrence County indicate that William and his wife were born in Pennsylvania; however, the 1870 U.S. Census of Lawrence County lists his birthplace as Ohio. He married Sarah M. Bryan, and they had the following children:

1. Ellander, born circa 1845. She married Green Rose, son of Lewis Rose, December 21, 1865, in Lawrence County.

Reuben, William, and Benjamin were reported living in Owen County, Kentucky, in 1822.

A Reuben Runyon married Mary Trayne Greenwood, of New Hampshire, and she established the Greenwood Seminary, a school for girls in Frankfort, Kentucky. Their son William married Mamie Ayers, and they went to Missouri. The Reuben Runyon family record is reported to exist.

JOHN H. RUNYON
Of Fayette County, Kentucky

JOHN H. RUNYON came to Fayette County, Kentucky, in 1800 or before. He may have come with Daniel, Reuben, and Vincent Runyon, who settled in Franklin and Mason counties, Kentucky.

John H. Runyon’s will was probated during the July term of Fayette County Court in 1811. In his will, he mentions his brother, Francis. Witnesses to his will were Thomas H. Buckridge, Richard Baird, and Benjamin Adkins.

He signed the marriage bond of William Smith to marry Agatha Galloway, a widow, September 17, 1806. Anne Runyon, sister of Agatha, gave consent, and John Buchanan was the witness. Agatha and Anne were probably daughters of John H.

John Runyon married Sally Stout February 1, 1808. Anthony Stout signed the marriage bond. The Stouts came with the Runyons from New Jersey.

James Cord conveyed a parcel of land on the waters of Cane Run, Fayette County, Kentucky, for the Berea Church August 23, 1828, to John Runyon, John Graves, Adam Kem-
Nancy Runyon married Thomas Ryan November 23, 1807. Joseph Runyon signed the marriage bond and gave his personal consent. Joseph probably was a son of Phineas and Charity (Coates) Runyon. Joseph came from North Carolina and lived in Madison County, Kentucky, and later in Mercer County, Kentucky. Joseph and the Ryan families were Shakers.

Rachel A. Runyon married Charles M. Jennings April 16, 1863.

PETER RUNYON (1804-66)
Of Brown County, Ohio

Peter Runyon was born in Kentucky circa 1804; the names of his parents and the county of his birthplace have not been determined. He married Lucy Smith, daughter of Rev. Charles Burgess Smith, November 12, 1827, in Brown County, Ohio. The application for a marriage license was signed by Josiah Moore, and the wedding ceremony was performed by Lucy's father.

Peter purchased 50 acres of land from Meredith Helms situated on the headwaters of Eagle Creek, Brown County, August 8, 1828.

Peter and Lucy (Smith) Runyon sold their land to Isaac Willson on June 1, 1832, and they may have moved to Adams County, Ohio.

Peter purchased 100 acres of land where the present site of Manchester, Ohio, is now located in Adams County on November 16, 1846. The 1850 U.S. Census of Adams County lists Peter Runyon, aged forty-six, and Lucy, aged forty-nine, and also eleven children. After 1850, Peter and his family moved to Richland County, Illinois, where he died February 12, 1866, aged fifty-nine years and two months.
Lucy, Peter’s wife, died April 9, 1876. They are buried in Haven Hill Cemetery, Olney, Illinois.

James H. Runyon was born February 12, 1836, perhaps in Mason County, Kentucky, and died August 15, 1894. He married Susan Rebecca Moore. She was born October 29, 1839, and died April 5, 1932. They have descendants living in Mason County and are the grandparents of Mrs. M. M. Lewis, Jr., of Fredericksburg, Virginia.

In the Pittsylvania County, Virginia, Court Law Book No. 44, p. 31, November 22, 1856, is recorded: James Runyon v. Barber and Hopkins, a suit for debt. Judgment confessed by the defendants for $263.10.

JOHN W. TAYLOR (17?–18?)

John W. Taylor is reputed to have come from old Virginia, probably Bedford County, to that part of Virginia which was Logan County in 1824, and Mingo County, West Virginia, in 1895. He lived somewhere near Tug River, which is the dividing line between West Virginia and Kentucky. The exact date of his arrival is not known, but it was circa 1800. He married Mary A. Varney, daughter of John and Betsy (Hunter) Varney of Bedford County, Virginia, before or after they came to their new home. John W. is said to have served in the War of 1812. A tradition says he came from Tennessee. Their children were:

1. Margaret (“Peggy”), born circa 1800. She married Daniel McCoy, probably in Logan County, Virginia. They were parents of Randall McCoy of feud fame.

2. Jane (“Jenny”), was born circa 1804. She married Elder John Ferrell, a noted Primitive Baptist minister. Their descendants are numerous in Logan and Mingo counties, and in Pike County, Kentucky.

4. Harriet, born circa 1808. She married Alvis Maynard, son of Lewis Maynard, February 28, 1828, in Pike County. He was a brother to Sally Maynard, who married William A. Taylor. The application for a marriage license was signed by Mary A. Taylor, the bride’s mother, and Lewis Maynard, the bridegroom’s father. They were parents of Alvis Maynard, Jr., William Maynard, and Dr. J. B. Maynard. Many descendants live in Pike County and near Williamson, West Virginia.

10. Cyrus. No further record.

These dates of birth were contributed by a granddaughter, some of them from memory.

WILLIAM A. TAYLOR (1806–87)

Son of John W. and Mary A. (Varney) Taylor

William A. Taylor was born August 11, 1806, and died November 8, 1887, in Pike County, Kentucky. He married Sarah ("Sally") Maynard, daughter of Lewis Maynard, and sister to Alvis Maynard, Sr., who married Harriet Taylor. They resided on Pond Creek, near where the village of Stone is now located. William A. served in the Union Army during the Civil War. Being sympathetic with the Federal government, he was forced to leave his homestead and live in Louisa, Lawrence County, Kentucky, where he enlisted and served until the termination of the war. Their children were:

1. Margaret ("Peggy"), born June 3, 1829, and died July 12, 1899, at Catlettsburg, Kentucky. She married Mitchell Runyon, son of Adron and Jane (Maynard) Runyon, January 6, 1848, in Pike County. They lived many years on Pond Creek, at what is now known as Jerry Bottom near Huddy. They moved to near Catlettsburg in 1877, where they lived and died. Margaret is buried by the side of her husband in the family reservation in the cemetery at Catlettsburg.

2. Lydia, born in 1833 and died in 1888 in Pike County. She married James F. Lowe September 23, 1852. Their descendants are numerous around Mossy Bottom, Pike County.

3. Tabitha ("Vicy"), born April 2, 1835, and died March 5, 1894. She married Ransom Hatfield November 28, 1850. They lived in Pike County many years and in later years purchased land near Big Sandy River, near Catlettsburg, where they lived and died. They are buried in the cemetery near their old homestead. They were parents of a large family, among whom was Columbia (Hatfield) Runyon, mother of Amos Runyon.

4. Alvis, born March 20, 1837, and died November 29, 1870. He married Melvina Smith August 15, 1859. She was a sister to Sally Smith, wife of Asa H. Runyon.

5. John H., born in 1840 and died circa 1884. He married Jane Phillips September 9, 1860. She was born in 1837.

6. Pricy, born in 1843. She married Jacob Smith, wealthy merchant of the mouth of Pond Creek, October 22, 1865. They were parents of William M. Smith, former sheriff of Pike County, and Mrs. James Hatcher of Pikeville, Kentucky.

7. Jane ("Jennie"), born in 1847 and died in 1940. She married Kenis Leslie of Johns Creek, Pike County, at Logan, West Virginia. They were parents of Mrs. Ollie Auxier of Johns Creek, mother of Circuit Judge Jean L. Auxier of Pike County, and Mrs. Bruce Evans.

9. Parlee, born in 1850. She married Benjamin D. Williamson May 31, 1868, in Pike County. Benjamin D. was born in 1849. For many years they lived on what is the present site of Williamson, West Virginia. They afterwards lived in Catlettsburg, where Benjamin D. was in business. In their late years they resided in Ashland, Kentucky. Benjamin D. was a son of Benjamin and Esther Williamson.

10. Harriet, born in 1851 and died in 1873. She married Allen Williamson January 4, 1872. They were parents of Emzy B. Williamson of Pond Creek. Emzy B. lived in Fort Gay, and later at Huntington, West Virginia.

JOHN VARNEY

No authentic record of John Varney or his family is known to exist. The following narration is traditional and was contributed by Mrs. Nancy Jane Varney of Road Fork, Pike County, Kentucky.

John Varney married Betsy Hunter, and they lived in Bedford County, Virginia, before or perhaps after 1800. While mining saltpeter in a cave, John was killed by falling earth and stone.

The children of John and Betsy (Hunter) Varney were:
(1) Daniel, who remained in Virginia. (2) Mary. (3) Alexander, born in 1797 in Virginia. (4) Nancy. (5) Andrew, born in 1803 in Virginia. After John Varney’s death, his widow, Betsy, and their children emigrated from Bedford County to the wilderness of Tug River and settled in a part of Cabell County, Virginia, which is now in Mingo County, West Virginia. She probably came with John W. Taylor, John Stafford, and others. John and Betsy (Hunter) Varney may have had other children. Their known children were:
1. Daniel, who remained in Virginia and probably married there.

2. Mary, born circa 1790. She married John W. Taylor circa 1804; the place of their marriage is unknown. Their first son, William A., was born August 11, 1806, and died November 8, 1887. He married Sally Maynard, daughter of Lewis Maynard, and among their children was Margaret ("Peggy"), who married Mitchell Runyon, son of Adron Runyon, January 6, 1848, in Pike County, Kentucky.

3. Alexander, born in 1797 in Virginia. He married (1st) Susannah Runyon, daughter of John Runyon, circa 1816, in Floyd County, Kentucky. Twelve children were born to this union. Susannah died August 10, 1852. Alexander married (2nd) Susan Pain January 2, 1853, in Pike County, with Adron Runyon, justice of the peace, officiating.

   Alexander owned 110 acres of land on Peges Branch of Pond Creek, Pike County. This is probably where he and Susannah lived and reared their children. Alexander and Susan (Pain) Varney sold their land on the waters of Pond Creek August 8, 1858, to Thomas Hunt, who was the husband of Matilda (Varney) Hunt, daughter of Alexander and Susannah (Runyon) Varney.

   Alexander purchased a parcel of land from his brother Andrew Varney September 4, 1850, on Fall Rock Branch of Rockhouse Fork of Pigeon Creek, Logan County, Virginia, now Mingo County, West Virginia. Alexander and his bride, Susan, went to live on their land on the waters of Pigeon Creek, where they lived and died.

4. Nancy, born circa 1800; however, this date is uncertain. She married a Mr. Morris. No further record.

5. Andrew, born in 1803 in Virginia. He married Sarah ("Sally") Stafford, daughter of John and Nancy (Runyon) Stafford, May 9, 1820, in Floyd County. They lived near Tug River, and near the residence of John Stafford, about two miles upstream from the mouth of Pond Creek until after 1840; then they moved to the waters of Pigeon Creek. Andrew was granted a total of 822 acres of land on the waters of Pigeon Creek from 1843 to 1859. By 1870, he and his wife were living at their old homestead on Pigeon Creek. They reared a large family and many of their descendants live in Logan and Mingo counties.

MOSES MAYNARD (1766–187?)

William Maynard, father of Moses, was living in Chatham County, North Carolina, during the Revolutionary War. The names of his parents, his wife, and the place of his birth are unknown.

According to an account published in the Louisville Courier-Journal, June 30, 1874, Moses Maynard was born October 18, 1766, in Chatham County, not far from Hillsboro and near the Blue Ridge.

Moses Maynard married Sarah Greenstreet in North Carolina circa 1800. She may have been a daughter of Betty Greenstreet, who was living in Wilkes County, North Carolina, in 1790, with two sons and one young daughter. Sarah died in 1847 in Madison County, Indiana.

After their marriage they came to Pike County, Kentucky, and acquired land and lived there until about 1833, when they emigrated to Madison County. There they lived and died. Moses died June 15, 1874, and tradition says that he was 107 years of age at his death. Their children were: (1) William. (2) Julia. (3) Betty. (4) Richard, who married Charlotte Taylor, daughter of John W. Taylor, in 1833, in Pike County. (5) Jane ("Jenny"), who married Adron Runyon December 23, 1824, in Pike County. (6) Barnabith. (7) Christopher. (8) John. (9) Charity. (10) Susie. And perhaps (11) Louis.

The 1820 U.S. Census of Floyd County lists William Maynard, who was probably living on Johns Creek, which later became a part of Pike County. The census indicates that Willam was born circa 1750. He may have been the father of Moses Maynard or perhaps a brother.

In his story to the Louisville Courier-Journal reporter,
Moses said that he remembered when British soldiers, seeking information of his father’s brother who was a revolutionary soldier, whipped his father in the cornfield.

The 1820 U.S. Census of Floyd County lists Moses Maynard, his wife, six sons, and four daughters. Moses and his wife were between twenty-six and forty-five years of age. Apparently they lived on Johns Creek.

The 1830 U.S. Census of Pike County lists Moses Maynard, his wife, three sons, and two daughters. The census indicates that Moses and his wife were circa fifty-four years of age in 1830. Tradition says that Sarah, Moses’ wife, was six months younger than her husband.

The 1870 U.S. Census of Madison County lists Moses Maynard living with his son Barnabeth; and his age is recorded as 106 years. However, the Louisville Courier-Journal account gives his age at 107 in 1874. Apparently these two dates are erroneous. It is true that Moses Maynard was a very old man at his death, and he was probably ninety-seven years of age. His birth date may be October 18, 1776. Henry, John, and Josiah Maynard (Maine) served in the Revolutionary War in North Carolina. Their relation to Moses Maynard is not known.

Nathaniel and Henry Maynard served three years in the Revolutionary War in the Virginia line. Nathaniel was granted 200 acres of land and Henry 100 acres for their services. Their relation to Moses, if any, is also unknown.

The Mainards, Maynards, or Maignards came to England with William the Conqueror, and the name appears on the lists of his adherents in 1066.

After the Conquest the Maynard family was seated in Devonshire and held estates in Kent during the early period. The younger branches established the Hertfordshire and Essex county house.

It is thought, and tradition says, that there were three Maynard brothers who came from England to the Colonies; and this may be true, as the names of Henry, Thomas, and James occur in contemporary early records of that period. They were granted large estates in Maryland, and the American Maynards may have descended from Henry, Thomas, and James Maynard.

Page 162: Land Laws. An act of the General Assembly passed in October 1777, provided that all persons who on or before the 24th day of June, 1776 had settled on the western waters should be allowed 400 acres of land for every family.

Page 441: In a list of marriages celebrated in the county from 1784–94: Bridget Runyon married Archibald Morrison, January 19, 1790.

Dr Thomas Walker and his assistant surveyors may have been the first English speaking people who entered the territory of the Big Sandy River. Dr. Thomas Walker with his surveying party arrived at the Levisa River Thursday, June 7, 1750, and named the river “Louisa” which was afterwards corrupted to the name Levisa, by which name it is known to this day.

Daniel Boone, William Hill and probably Squire Boone,
Daniel's brother, came down the west fork of the Big Sandy River to a salt lick, near the present site of Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Kentucky, in 1767, and remained there during the winter.

The vast territory of the Big Sandy River and its tributaries was not settled for fifteen years or more after permanent settlements had been made in central Kentucky, perhaps because the report made by Dr. Thomas Walker was unfavorable. And in the entire territory there was very little agricultural land; the country was mountainous and travel was difficult. Also, the great Indian trails between the Ohio River Indian villages and the Cherokee territory in Tennessee passed through the entire valley, and large groups of these Indians were constantly travelling these trails. The territory was a favorite hunting ground for the Indians living in Ohio. The danger of Indian raids on lonely settlers never passed until close to 1800.

William Ely, History of the Big Sandy Valley, states that the Leslies attempted to settle at the mouth of Pond Creek in 1789, but were driven away by the Indians, so they returned to Virginia. In the same year Charles Vancouver and others attempted to settle at the forks of the Big Sandy, but the Indians stole all of their horses and they also returned to Virginia.

Again quoting William Ely, "The Leslies returned in 1791 and settled on Johns Creek where they remained." After this date settlers came in rapid succession and established permanent homes throughout the country.

Among the contemporary settlers were the Rutherfords, Taylors, Varneys, Keesees, Hunts, Bevins, Williamsonsons, Maynards, Leslies, Lowes, McCoys, Balls, Hatfields, and many others.

The country was a hunter's paradise, and nature was in its glory. The virgin forest covered the mountains and the valleys, where the environments were favorable. The tall and stately trees predominated in many localities with their trunks covered with moss and lichen, which pointed out the direction to the traveler and the weary hunter. The water that filled the streams was clear and pure and many species of fish were abundant. Wild life lived in nature’s paradise unmolested, and its abundance was long remembered by the early settlers.

Unfortuntaely, no naturalist entered this great undisturbed wilderness to leave a record of the plants and wild life for the future generations.

Some of the birth dates have been determined from ages recorded in the U.S. Census, and in every instance they may not be absolutely correct. Those dates following the word circa have been determined from various sources.

As far as the authors know, all families had issue, except where otherwise noted.
