TEMPLETON CEMETERY

The Templeton Cemetery is located in Kanawha County, West Virginia near the Lincoln County line (see No. 1). While the deed to the cemetery is dated 1917 (see No. 2), there were burials before then.

At the time of my last visit to the cemetery in 1993, it was difficult to find the tombstones due to the growth of vines and bushes. However, Mr. William Glenn Templeton upon whose land the cemetery is located, said he would clear the vegetation away and maintain it. He lives on Coal River near the path leading to the cemetery and is the person to contact for directions.

In addition to the tombstones listed, I also found several field stones marking graves but with no information on them and was told there are burials there of people whose families have departed and about whom nothing is known. There was a field stone with the initials L ? M and one with the initial E - nothing more could be read. There were also two markers from a funeral parlor but the papers inside were completely illegible. I was also told that a Mrs. Bess is buried there but no stone of any kind was found.

Using census records, vital records and deeds in Kanawha County together with information from descendants of those buried in the cemetery, my research revealed that many of those buried there were related in some manner, either through birth or marriage.

The first recorded date is William Henry Templeton born 22 April 1833, died 5 February 1875. His was very probably the first burial in the cemetery.

The most recent dates are those of Isabelle E. (King) Templeton. She was born 12 May 1867 and died 31 May 1949.

b. 7 Jan. 1903 - d. 28 Feb. 1903
b. 28 Sept. 1907 - d. 1 Jan. 1908
b. 30 Nov 1912 - d. 30 Nov 1912

These are the children of Andrew Jackson Banks, Jr. and his wife Carnissa (Ronk) Banks. The youngest child of Andrew Jackson Banks, Sr. and Elizabeth Bailey, he was born in February 1864 in Mercer County, WV.

Andrew Jackson Banks, Sr. was the son of Samuel Banks and his wife Anna. On 1 January 1856 he married in Mercer County, Elizabeth Bailey the daughter of Clay Bailey and Rebecca Atkins who were married 10 December 1823 also in Mercer Co. After the death of her husband in January 1865, Elizabeth and family moved to Kanawha Co., WV.

Andrew Jackson Banks, Jr. married Carnissa Ronk on 7 July 1889 in Kanawha Co. She was the oldest daughter of Hamilton Ronk and his first wife whose name is unknown.

Carnissa was born in May 1870 and on 15 March 1877, Hamilton married Lectra Ann Banks, sister of Andrew Jackson, Jr. He was the son of Hannah Ronk and grandson of Joseph Ronk, husband of Mary (Showalter) Ronk.

Carnissa and Andrew Jackson, Jr. are shown in the 1900 census as having had 6 children, only 5 of whom were living. The dead child was undoubtedly Osa who died 3 July 1894. By 1910 they had had 12 children, 9 of whom were then living. The missing children were the above mentioned Osa, an infant son, and Melba. The last child was another son who seems to have been stillborn in November 1912.

They later moved to Boone County where it is believed they both died but no record of the dates has been found.

Beverly B. Bowman, (Sergt.) Co. C, 7th WV Cav.

Beverly Bird Bowman was born about 1837 in Kanawha Co., (W)Va, the son of John and Sarah (Anderson) Bowman.

On 1 April 1864 he married Martha Bowman, the daughter of Toliver R. and Sarah Bowman. They had several children before her death. On 17 April 1880 he married Julia (Anderson) Nelson, widow of Wesley Nelson.

From "7th West Virginia Cavalry," by Ronald Turner:

The exact date of his death is unknown but he and Julia were living in Lincoln Co., WV when the 1900 census was taken but had died before 29 June 1901.

It would seem that John and Sarah Bowman died between 1850 and 1860 as they were all living together when the 1850 census was taken but in the 1860 census, the three youngest children, Martha, Sarah and Charles were all living with William Henley.

Daniel Bowman was born 26 June 1878 the son of Charles A. and Lula (Priestly) Bowman. On 9 March 1897 he married Cora McComas the daughter of B.F. and Amanda (Leffler) McComas.

B.F. McComas was born in Cabell County the son of John and Lucinda McComas. After the death of Lucinda, John married a Martha.

Although his tombstone gives his death date as 30 March 1945, his death certificate gives his name as Daniel Montgomery Bowman and date of death as 26 March 1945.

Cora Lee McComas was born 16 August 1876 and died 8 April 1939.

It is said that there are young children of Daniel and Cora buried near them, but there are no markers so no information concerning them has been found.

William Fanning was born 1871 and died 1901. Information on him as been very difficult to find.

He may have been the William Fanning found in the 1901 census in Roane County with his wife Martha and son Roscoe.

He also may have been the William living with Silas Fanning in the 1880 census in Wayne County. I believe it is this William as the Silas mentioned had a son Eastern who had a son Silas of the age to be the Silas found in the 1900 census in Lincoln Co.

However, no proof of who this William was or why he is buried in the Templeton Cemetery has been found. If he died in Lincoln Co. no record has survived.
W.A. Grass - died 7 August 1906 - age 59 years.

His death record contains the following information:

"Died 7 August 1906, age 57. He died in Elk District and was a hotel clerk. The information was given by his son but no name for the son was shown."

He is listed in the 1880 census in Washington District, Kanawha Co., WV with wife Mary and 5 children. On 19 October 1881 he married Julia Hill in Kanawha Co. She was the daughter of Rowland and Lucinda (Manning) Hill and sister of Sarah Hill who married Webster D. Hill. Webster married as his second wife, Lura A. Grass the daughter of William A. and Mary Grass.

There is a field stone at the foot of William's grave with the initials M.E.G. scratched on it. Was this the Mary who was his first wife?

b. 30 May 1845 - d. 7 July 1908

Andrew E. Higgenbotham was born 30 May 1845 in that part of Fayette Co. which became Raleigh Co. in 1850. He was the son of Samuel and Rebecca (Lowry) Higgenbotham.

Samuel and Rebecca had a large family, at least 14 children. Their sons Madison and Samuel Augustus served in the Civil War, both of them enlisted on the same day 28 March 1864.

Samuel Augustus died in 1896 and in his will he names several of his family as he does not seem to have had any children. To his brother Charles, he left a parcel of land in Charleston once known as the Beech Hill Burying Lot.

On 5 October 1869 Andrew married Narcissus White. He died 7 July 1908.

Narcissus White was born 30 September 1849 in Logan Co., WV, the daughter of Benjamin Weasley and Marietta or Marcilla White. She may have been the granddaughter of James and Mary (Robinett) White.

She and Andrew had 11 children with 9 living when the 1900 census was taken. One was a daughter Mahala who married Andrew Hartwell, brother to Martha Jane (Hartwell) Hill who is buried next to B.C. Hill.

While her tombstone has her death date as 30 April 1910, she was living with her son William and his family when the census was taken on 9 May 1910. It is possible that her death date was either 30 May 1910 or 30 April 1911 but proof of the correct date has not been found.

Nancy A. Brown was born Nancy Thompson on 26 Oct 1808 in Virginia. She moved to Meigs Co., Ohio where she married John Anderson 1825/6. They had at least 9 children before John Anderson died in March 1847 in Meigs Co., Ohio.

After his death, Nancy married on 7 October 1855 Benjamin Brown. The 1880 census in Lincoln Co., WV shows them as the mother and father-in-law of William Wallace but this is incorrect. Nancy was his mother-in-law but Benjamin Brown was his step father-in-law.

She died 9 July 1896 in Kanawha Co. and was buried with her daughter Margaret.

Julia Ann Anderson, the wife of Wesley Nelson and Beverly Bird Bowman was a daughter of Nancy’s and sister to Margaret.

Margaret A.R. wife of William Wallace was born Margaret Anderson on 21 February 1840 in Meigs Co., Ohio. She too was a daughter of John and Nancy (Thompson) Anderson. There she married Oxisc Romine on 8 September 1861. The date of his death is unknown but by 1878 she had married William Wallace and they moved to Kanawha Co. WV at that time. Born 2 July 1850 in Ohio Co., (W)V, he was the son of William and Elizabeth (Kyte) Wallace.

It would seem they had one child that died young and while it is possible the child is buried in this cemetery, there is no marker.

When her sister Julia Ann applied for a pension on the service of Wesley Nelson, both she and William Wallace signed affidavits supporting the claim. William was a notary public in Lincoln County at the time.

Margaret died on 15 April 1907. After her death, William lived with the Templetons until his death, the date is unknown.
