FOREWORD

This effort, still incomplete, is more a set of working papers than a genealogy of the Alderton family. It encompasses five generations beginning with William\(^1\) whose name appears in 1786 as a witness to a lease of Thomas and Mary Edwards to James McBride in Hampshire County, VA. The Margaret Edwards whom William\(^1\) married the same year may well have been their daughter.

Presently it is not known where William\(^1\) was born, but he and his sons all settled on or near an old road between Winchester, VA through Paw Paw in what is now WV to Cumberland, MD.

In some instances dates from family records or gravestones differ from those taken from official records. In instances of multiple spellings, the ones on official records have been used, e.g. Vanosdol instead of Vanorsdale, Vanosdalen, etc. With five or six Williams it has been almost impossible to determine which William owned which land. There are also 15 Margarets, some them wives, and others, daughters.

Thanks to Mr. Galtjo Geertsema, a surveyor from Martinsburg, WV we can, with the aid of the fold-out map just inside the back cover, locate some of these early Alderton farms. The map shows the area between the Potomac and the Cacapon Rivers. The present Hampshire - Morgan County line runs to the southeast, beginning on the Potomac River, roughly at Tract 340 and runs off the map through the property of William Allender. It continues, off-map, to the Cacapon River, near Largent. Two other early Alderton farms do not appear on the map: Tract 246, which appears to be on both sides of the Capon River near the holdings of Schanholtz, and Tract 870, of 100 acres adjoining the land of William Allender and just south of the map.

In 1668 Isaac Alderton of VA received a conditional warrant for 3000 acres in MD

1782 No Aldertons listed in Hampshire County, VA

1786 James and Lucy Hiett deeded to William\(^1\) Alderton 100 acres on Cacapon River

1796 William Alderton obtained a Commonwealth Grant for 40 acres adjacent James Hiett and Robert Parker

1797 William\(^1\) Alderton and Margaret, his wife, deeded to Henry Taylor 53 acres on Cacapon

1812 William Alderton obtained 67 acres on Easter’s Run by Commonwealth Grant, adjacent John Easter, John Kesler, and Philip Crisman

1813 John and William Alderton witnessed the will of William Allender

1820 Morgan County, VA, was formed from Berkeley and Hampshire Counties, VA
Earlier Immigrant Aldertons from England

1686 Among the Naigate Prisoners sent to Jamaica or Barbados: William Alderton, St. Giles Parish, Cripplegate, London, Bound to John Cooke for 6 years with consent of mother, Elizabeth. (I saw the grave of a William Alderton in St. John's Parish in Barbados in 1954. BAS)

1695 John Alderton apprenticed to William Bayley, (Bristol) 4 years aboard the "Constant Martha".

1773 Mr. Simon Alderton, Master, bound from Bristol for South Carolina.

1774 John Alderton, peruke maker, indentured servant for 2 years, on ship "Elizabeth". (A John Alderton, private, enlisted June 1777, Col. David Hall's Regiment: missing Sept. 1777)

1822 William Alderton conveyed property to Sara Alderton, his daughter. This was perhaps, a marriage settlement for Sara's marriage to James Allender.

1863 West Virginia becomes a separate state from Virginia

The format of this work was chosen for its convenience; it is a standard size, there is room for added notes and additional pages easily may be inserted by any printshop, which will have the facility to remove and replace the spines.

The five generations are designated: William, Thomas, Jacob, etc. The children of William are listed by date of birth but succeeding generations are listed alphabetically.

A few very early Alderton deaths are listed here by date and (present) county:

Where did the Aldertons come from?

My father, Joseph Wilton Alderton maintained that we are "descended from Isaac Allerton, of the Mayflower and that an Alderton was on Washington's staff". Many Allertons and Aldertons spelled their names interchangeably in early Virginia, and there was an Alderton on the staff of George Washington's grandfather.

One of the sons of Isaac Allerton did not like what he saw of America and returned to England. Some of his descendants may have returned here.

In 1904, the Society of Mayflower Descendants erected a memorial tablet to Isaac Allerton at #8, Peck Slip in New York City, where he had a large warehouse. He also had land in Virginia and did much trading there, and with New England. Many of his descendants lived in Northumberland and Westmoreland Counties in Virginia.

According to Burke's General Armory (1884), the Aldertons of Ipswich, England had the following Coat of Arms: vert on a band Argent, 3 crescents sable in the sinister Chief point a mullet of the second. Crest: a crescent Argent. This tells us that they were Landed Gentry in the days when few people could read or write.

The following persons have generously shared family records and extensive portions of their research with me:

Capt. George Allender, USN (Ret), Severna Park, MD

Enos² owned 234 acres of land in Hampshire County

His parents were William¹ Alderton and Margaret Edwards

Marian Simmons' parents were Charles Simmons and Ann Davis

Charles Simmons was the son of Van Simmons, Sr.

* Enos² did not mention the name of his prospective wife, however in the Alderton family Bible there is a notation "Marian Simmons (Enos)" which may or may not be a clue to his bride

Ellen³ married Peter Vanosdol
Margaret³ married Isaac Hutchinson

The parents of Margaret² were William¹ Alderton and Margaret Edwards.

The Morgan County, WV records show Richard Vanosdol (d 28 Aug, 1889) as the husband of Rhoda Vanosdol. Was she a widow and Richard’s second wife, Rhoda Alderton (Bowman?), a cousin?

The parents of Rhoda Alderton Bowman Vanosdol were Jacob² Alderton and Sara Largent.
The parents of Jacob² were William¹ Alderton and Margaret Edwards.

This relationship is not proven, however it is entirely possible that William¹ Alderton came to Hampshire County from Maryland and may have been the pioneer settler there.

Jacob² Alderton's Will was made 8 Jan, 1877, probated 5 June, 1877; Will Book 22, page 175.

He refers to "3 older children by former wife already deeded them their shares: Thomas³, now deceased, he and his heirs, Harriett³ married to John Cowgill, and Rhoda³, married to Jacob Bowman.

Jacob² had Commonwealth Land Bonds to 153 acres (Great Cacapon), 400 acres (Great Cacapon Drains), and 204 acres elsewhere. He also had 117 acres on Drains of Potomac, 28 Nov, 1833, and 100 acres "25 miles NE of Courthouse" in Hampshire County. The 204 acres he sold to George in 1853. It lay between Sideling Hill and Spring Gap Mountain.
