The Arnold Family Association of the South Quarterly is published each Fall (August 1), Winter (November 1), Spring (February 1), Summer (May 1) at 2431 Eaton Gate Road, Lake Orion, Michigan, 48035. All contributions for publication or comments to the Editor, Mrs. Hazel Arnold MacIvor, should be sent to the above address.

Purpose: The purpose of the Arnold Family Association off the South is to bring into contact with one another all those who are researching Arnold and allied families, who either originated in the South, or came through it and stayed long enough to leave records. We hope to do this by publishing an Arnold Family Magazine, Quarterly, which will contain records of a private and public nature on the local, state; and national level. Our ultimate purpose is to publish an Arnold Family History containing as many branches of the Arnold Family as can be documented. To this purpose the Arnold Family Historian-Genealogist will accept, evaluate, file, preserve, and possibly publish records as they are received.

Publications: The Arnold Family Association at present publishes only its Quarterly. Other publications will be announced as they are projected.

Membership: All individuals regardless of surname, libraries or societies may apply for membership which is on a calendar year basis, August to May (four quarterly issues). Membership dues are $4 annually. Quarterly issues, if bought separately are $2.50 per issue. All members, other than Libraries or Societies, are required to complete applications and fill in pedigree charts to earliest known ancestor. Bequests should be made to Ann A. Hennings, 6600 Placid Street, Falls Church, Virginia 22043. Please make cut check or money order to Arnold Family Association of the South. No cash please.

Holdings: The Arnold Family Association will place all of its records, publications, books, etc. in the hands of its Historian-Genealogist. In the event of his/her death, the surviving officers will decide the place of repository.

Genealogical Inquiries: The Arnold Family Association keeps a record of all members' surnames in its files. Members will be furnished upon request, if accompanied by a self-addressed, stamped envelope, the names and addresses of others working on similar families. It will also furnish lists of genealogists (in most cases supplied by Archives in Southern states), but it cannot assume responsibility for nor guarantee the nature and accuracy of work done by any such genealogist.

Editorial Policy: Neither the Editor, or the Arnold Family Association of the South and or the members of the Editorial Staff, assume any responsibility for error of fact, or opinion, expressed by contributors. It is our earnest desire to publish only reliable source material of a genealogical nature. Materials for publication are welcome and should be sent to the Editor. Please type such materials or send xerox copies of original records.

From the Editor’s Pen: First, I want to thank each and every one of you who took the time to write ye auld Editor with warm words of thanks and appreciation for getting ye auld publication out. I think we should all keep in mind that all the work that goes into this Quarterly is given freely and with love. No one gets a red cent! That applies to all of the contributors as well. Secondly, I want to call your attention to the new format. It was called to my attention by Marie Garland of Enid, Oklahoma (who has a marvelous sense of humour) that she would “have to do a miracle with dough-nuts” on the margins as they were so narrow. It did not cross my mind that people would be wanting to bind our magazine in notebooks. Then came word from the Secretary, Ann Hennings, to the same effect. Hope this style suits you all better. Thirdly, our membership is up to 63 members, which at $4.00 each adds up to $256.00 plus a $6.00 donation by our President, Edwin A. Arnold, gave us a total of $262.00 in our coffers. This amount just barely covers the cost of putting out our first two issues, so we must push with all of our strength.
for new members. Fourthly, I am sure we all feel that our own pedigrees would advance by leaps and bounds if we could get our Arnold Quarterly into as many Archives and State Libraries as possible. But it cost us .52¢ each just to print up the first issue, to which we had to add .05¢ for an envelope and .16¢ for postage. Thus the cost of putting an issue gratis in the hands of the Virginia State Library, for example, is .73¢. Won't each of you who has a favorite Library, Genealogical Society or Archives please donate a year's membership to the repository of your choice? We will all benefit from your generosity. Just make out your check to the Arnold Family Association and designate where you wish a copy sent. Fifthly, we desperately need records from Alabama, Mississippi, Texas, Arkansas, Missouri, and Tennessee. I have a great deal of Georgia and South Carolina records and Ann Hennings has a great deal of Virginia records, but if we are to keep this magazine a well balanced one, we need records from all over the South, from early periods as well as late. We especially need Bible records, so blow the dust of GGG Grandfather's Bible and send us a copy in the next mail. We will publish everything as it is received. Lastly, I want to express my gratitude and thanks to all who have taken the time to type up or xerox copies of their records and sent them to me. I will publish them just as soon as I can get around to it.

Meet Our Members: As I write, two of our members are in Europe: President Edwin A. Arnold and Ruth Baker Moody. They both plan to see the Passion Play at Oberammargau. Perhaps these Arnold "cousins" will run into each other. Donald J. Arnold received his Ph. D. just after a tornado blew the stage away across which he was to walk to receive his sheepskin. This "whirlwind event" occurred in Lubbock, Texas. Gertrude Dean and daughter went on a genealogical vacation this summer and collected lots of material they have written they will share when Mrs. Dean's "Gray Family Bulletin" is put to bed. Mrs. Hennings has been helping her husband set up a new office. Mrs. Ona Edwards and Hubby flew to Europe on the 24th of September and will post her Profile and Pedigree to us on her return. It has been a busy summer season! Continuing the custom initiated in our first issue of publishing the profiles and pedigrees of our charter members (first 100 members) we present to you...Mrs. John Michael Van Drew who was born Kathy Sarah Arnold in Kewanee, Illinois, on 4 June, 1947. She lived in Buda, Illinois, until her marriage in Sheffield, Illinois, until just recently. As I write they are preparing to move to a new home. Mrs. Van Drew was Chairman of Concord Township, Bureau County, Illinois, for gathering data for "Big Bureau and Bright Prairies", a book of county history published in honor of Illinois' Sesquicentennial in 1968. Her hobbies are antiques, needlework and genealogy. That she is a very fine one indeed is evidenced by the lengthy pedigree she has assembled.

Lloyd Monroe Raymer one of our most enthusiastic supporters, was born 15 October, 1943, in Anna, Kentucky, in rural Warren County. Upon graduation from High School he went to Western Kentucky University. He is presently engaged in the raising of livestock and the growing of tobacco. A very active member of the Mt Pleasant Church of Christ, where he has been a member for fourteen years, Lloyd takes an active role. His hobby, besides genealogy, is photography, which is very useful in genealogical endeavors, too. Mr. Raymer is the Republican Chairman for his local precinct, and has served as an election officer. Floyd is a bachelor and lives one mile from the old Arnold Homestead. His Arnold ancestors settled there early in the 1800's having come from Virginia. He and other members of the Arnold families around here still have some of the relicts and books that once belonged to the "Old Arnolds". At present, Mr. Raymer busily doing research on as many family lines as he has presently uncovered and in the process is building a fine genealogical library. He is a member of the Kentucky Historical Society, and the Bowling Green/Warren County Historical Society and subscribes to a number of historical periodicals. He is most enthusiastic about the Arnold Family Association and is an avid genealogist who is really racing along in his search for ancestors.

Lloyd Monroe Raymer is the son of James Austin Raymer b. 9 June, 1914, Warren Co., Ky, m. 30 Dec., 1933, Mable

Both Mrs. Van Drew and Mr Raymer have sent in quite a bit of material for which we are thankful and will publish it in the very near future.

Will the following members post their complete pedigrees and Profiles to us for Publication in the Feb 1 issue: Mrs. J. B. Edwards, Mrs. Gertrude C. Dean, Mr William H. Arnold of Oak Ridge, Tenn., Mrs. Ezra P. Moody, Mrs. Robert P. Rutherford, Mrs. Phyllis J. Lee, Mrs. Ed McMann.

Please include your education, religion, work experience, children, hobbies and any other thing you feel might be of interest to us and your descendants. In making out your pedigree for publication, please use the form we have used here and double check it for accuracy.

One of the bonuses of doing Arnold research is that keep finding names of other ancestors. For example, in the "Naturalization of Foreign Protestants, etc" above I found My Jacob Deem in Cumru Township, Berks Co., Penna, in Apr., 1762. In the "Original Lists of Emigrants In Bondage, etc." just above, I found the name of Margaret Lawrence, whom I believe to be the progenitor of my Lawrence line, in the same list of passengers as are Henry Mitchell Arnold and James Arnold aboard the "Patapscoe" on Mar. 17, 1730. I sent to the British Public Record Office for the above reference T 53/35 p. 174-175, only to be told by the Deputy Archivist that both the Roll of Indictments and the Transcript of the Trial have been lost. He said some published accounts of these trials exist, "Old Bailey Sessions Papers for the City of London and the County of Middlesex, Volumes for 1728-1729" but so far I have been unable to locate them.

"Revolutionary Records":
The material in this issue has been contributed by Ann Arnold Hennings.

"Supplement to the National Genealogical Quarterly, March, 1943". Index of Revolutionary War Pension Applications and Bounty Land Records of the Veterans’ Administration Archives in the National Archives, Washington, D. C.

The original papers in these Revolutionary War Applications for pension and Bounty Land are in linen-lined envelopes arranged according to the full name of the Veterans. In addition to the full name of the veteran, the name of the state from which the service was rendered is shown, with few exceptions, and the file number. Continental (Conn.), or other State in parenthesis, means that the service was in the Continental line and the veteran was a resident of the state named. Continental and Connecticut, for instance, with no parentheses, means that the service was rendered in both the Continental and the State Regiment and the veteran a resident of Conn.
When the services were rendered in the sea forces the designations on the envelopes are Navy, State Sea Service, Privateer Service.

In regard to the file numbers, ie. S, W, and R proceeding numerals mean, respectively, Survivor, Widow and Rejector claims. The abbreviated Dis means Disability, for which the veteran was pensioned. BLWt means Bount Land Warrant. For instance, BLWt. 145-100 means that 100 acres of bounty land granted on warrant No. 145 prior to the 3 March, 1855 and BLWt. 145-160-'55 means that 160 acres of bounty land was granted on Warrant No. 145 under the Act of Congress approved 3 March, 1855 and BL Reg. '55 means Bounty Land Register and that the claim for bounty land under said Act was rejected. When a veteran and his widow both applied for pensions all papers pertaining to both claims are in the same envelope. When a veteran's claim was admitted and his widow's claim was rejected an R precedes the file number, her application being the last adjudicated. When the words, "No Papers" appear on the envelope it means that the application papers were burned in the years of 1801 or 1814.

The following are only a partial listing of Arnolds given starting on p. 26 and are those from Pennsylvania South.

(Some names have been missed due to the difficulty of reading the faded writing. The inventory was given here for two reasons: first, a sample inventory serves social history in that it gives us a view of how a middle class farmer such as John Arnold lived in 1824. We who love to hunt down our elusive ancestors, want to know more than their birth, marriage, and death dates. We also like to know how they lived, what they valued, who they knew, and what were their hopes.
An inventory throws much light on these things. Secondly, by listing the slaves some of you who are descendannts of this man, may be able to connect to him by these names, as I have been able to do in the past.)

* Rowland Hughes was the father of Susannah Hughes who mar-rried John Arnold. This Rowland must be Rowland, Jr. I have a letter from Mrs Rebecca Bouldin, who works in the Logan County Courthouse and who is a researcher and genealogist.
She said John Arnold married Susannah Hughes in Woodford
Co., Ky. They then came on to Logan County about 1807.
Rowland Hughes, Susannah’s father, died there about 1809.
He had earlier been in Orange and Caswell Counties, N. C.
A Deed of Settlement, Deed Book D, P. 267 shows the heirs of Rowland Hughes signing a partitioning deed. The following people signed this deed: James Holiman, Polly Holliman, , Alphous Wickman, Corby Hughes, Jos. Whitaker, Patsy Whitaker, Lewis S. Arnold, William H. Arnold, John Arnold, Younger H.
Arnold, Wyatt B. Arnold, E. H. Arnold, Mary S. Arnold, Nancy
Whitaker, Rowland Hughes, Daniel Hughes, Isaac Hughes, Polly Hughes, Bettsy Hughes, Atatia Hughes, John Hughes. Molly is called the wife of James Holiman, and Patsy is called the wife of Joseph Whitaker in the deed. They are all called the heirs of Rowland Hughes in the deed. Deed dated 15 August, 1827.

 Notice that one of the sons of Francis Arnold was named Colbert, see P. 44, this issue. This would seen to connect the Arnolds in Greenville and Spartanburg Counties, S. C. with this group. I think deeds in Spartanburg as they are printed will verify this.

Will Book D (1827-1831)
John Arnold, dec’d.

These papers have to do with the division of land and slaves, among the heirs of John Arnold, dec’d. At a court held 6th of September, 1828 a survey of John Arnold’s land showed that it adjoined Thos. W. Taylor’s land and Hadon Eadson’s land. There were two tracts of land in question. The first tract was 346 acres. The second tract was 227 acres. Wyatt B. Arnold was allotted thirty-five acres.

Twenty-three acres was allotted to William H. Arnold. He was to keep a convenient 100 feet from the east door of the brick house and to allow Wyatt B. Arnold to use the spring. Elizabeth H. Arnold was allotted seventy acres.
Lewis S. Arnold was allotted seventy-three acres.
Younger H. Arnold was allotted eighty-five acres.
John J. Arnold was allotted (sixty?) acres.
Polly Ann Arnold was allotted one hundred and ten acres.
James H. Arnold was allotted one hundred and seventeen acres.

Lots No. 7 and 3 were opinioned to be better than the other lots by the commissioners, and the owners of them had to pay $25.00 each to all of the other owners of the lots. Polly Ann Arnold received Lot No. 7 and James H. Arnold received Lot. No. 8. The Commissioners were Samuel Wilson, William Aingell, and Thomas W. Taylor.

Then came a division of the Negroes and money.
Lewis S. Arnold got Negro woman Ann valued at $325.00 and $105.00 in cash making his share, $430.00.
William H. Arnold got a Negro girl named Eliza and a Negro boy named Joe valued at $430.00 together his fair share.
John J. Arnold got Negroes Charlott valued at $280.00 and Allan valued at $130.00 to which was added $20.00 in silver making his share $430.00.
Polly Ann Arnold got Negro woman Agness valued at $260.00 and a Negro boy Johnston valued at $75.00 and $95.00 in silver making her share of $430.00.
James H. Arnold got a Negro woman named Tamer valued at $260 and a negro girl named Milly valued at $150.00 and $20.00 in cash making his share $430.00.
Elizabeth H. Arnold got a Negro boy named Jesse valued at $260.00 and Negro boy named Sampson valued at $150.00 and $20.00 in silver making her share $430.00.
Younger H. Arnold got a Negro girl named America valued at $250.00 and a Negro boy named Henry (Hum! This one is not in the inventory!) valued at $130.00 and $50.00 in silver making his share $430.00.

Wyatt B. Arnold got a Negro girl named Rachel valued at $230.00 and a Negro girl named Mary valued at $160.00 and $40.00 in silver making his share of $430.00.

The Negroes amounted to $3090.00 and the money to $550.00 the remainder of the money to be equally divided among the heirs after all debts are paid. Respectfully submitted.

Samuel Wilson
Wm. Aingell, Comm’rs.

The next papers deal with the settlement with those who held accounts against the estate of John Arnold, dec’d.

To Tilgmann Offcutt Adm’r. of the Estate:
.75 for dinner for himself his son and another person
.12 for one half pint of whiskey
.25 for one quart of whiskey
$11.60 for a barrel of Kannaway salt at .05 per pound
All on August 4, 1824.

Received of Wm.L. Harding, attorney for Tilghman Offcutt, H. Davis, Polly Hughes Adm'r John Hughes, dec'd who was adm'r of John Arnold Dec’d.

Will Book E (1831-1835)
John Arnold, dec’d.
Fp. 24.

These papers deal with the ongoing expenses of rearing the minor heirs of John Arnold, to wit: James H. Arnold and Polly Ann Arnold. There are items for schooling and for room and board.

Note about the foregoing. Not everything in the papers has been given here. Furthermore I had to rely on Becky Bouldin to send me the zerox copies of the pertinent papers. I cannot guarantee that these are the only papers or that they all apply to the same estate. But I feel enough has been given to help anyone researching this particular line get ideas about where to go from here. Among some papers sent me by our Secretary, Ann Arnold Hennings, were the papers of Mrs. O'Neal. In these papers it states that John Arnold, son of Nicholas Arnold (whose brothers were Lewis and James)and Margaret ----? his wife, came to Kentucky with the Traveling Church in 1781. This John Arnold was born 1/10/1734 and he married Elizabeth Hitt who was born 3/12/1751. Elizabeth Hitt was the daughter of Peter and Sarah Hitt. They were the parents of ten children: Lewis, Younger, John, Wyatte, Thomas, Joel, Sarah, Elizabeth, Mary "Polly", Nancy. This John Arnold died in Woodford County, Kentucky. His will, dated 23 April, 1818, can be found in Will Book F, p.41 at the Courthouse of that County. Can some reader tell us what the connection was between the John Arnold who died in Logan County, Kentucky and the John Arnold who died in Woodford Co., Kentucky in that they gave their families of children almost identical names? Logan County, Kentucky records to be continued in a future issue.

Leonard Andrea’s Notes on Arnolds: (Abstracted by Hazel Arnold MacIvor)

Leonard Andrea, a most careful and precise genealogist, had collected before his death two sets of Arnold Notes, based on many hours of research. Within the past year this editor has purchased both sets of notes. In this issue we give abstracts of the first installment of the set of notes he prepared for Mrs. Katie Arnold Smith, 2100 Hardy St., Hattiesburg, Miss. In a preface to this material, Mr. Andrea stated that he had not named the sources but would supply documentation upon Mrs. Smith’s request. He also stated that all of the data had been compiled from material under the surname Arnold on file in the South Carolina State Archives. It should be remembered that this report to Mrs. Smith was mailed in 1948.

Mrs. Smith’s lineage is given. Katie Arnold dau. of James Miller Arnold2 1879-1901, of Webster Co., Miss. M. in Ellisville, Jones Co., Mill., Temperance “Birdie” Ann Hardy. James M. Arnold was the son of Fernandis Nathaniel Arnold4 b. 1838 Bibb Co., Ala., removed to Miss. (Webster Co), M. Mary Jane Thomas5, 1845-1881, the Dau. of Dr. Andrew Hale Thomas10 and Martha E. Walker. Fernandis N. Arnold4 was son of William A. Arnold, 1800-1870, and his first wife Elizabeth Majors9. They resided in Benton Co., Tenn. and later removed to Ortibbina Co., Miss.

Mrs. Smith had a second Arnold line: Temperance Ann Hardy3 was the dau. of Thomas Judson Hardy6 b.17 Aug.1839,Lowndes Co., Ala. M. Lasper Co., Miss. 9 Mar., 1876. Nancy Moffett Heidelberg, dau. of John Christian Heidelberg14 and wife, Nancy Reeves15. Thomas J. Hardy6 was the son of Robert William Hardy12 of Edgefield District S.C. and his wife, Temperance L. Toney13 1813-1877, m. 12 Aug.1830. Temperance L. Toney13 was the dau. of Charles Toney and his wife Margaret Hamilton27. Margaret Hamilton27 was the dau of Thomas Hamilton54, M. Temperance Arnold55. Temperance Arnold55 was the dau. of Benjamin Arnold, Sr110. Revolutionary soldier D.1796, Greenville Co., S.C. and his wife, Ann Hendricks111. Thomas Hamilton54 was the son of David Hamilton 108 b. Ireland, m. Margaret Carilise109.

(Editor's Note: I have never tried to contact Mrs. Smith to inquire if she has done or has had done any further work on either of her Arnold lines. Perhaps one of our readers has. If so, please write us your comments.

"Land Grants in South Carolina before the Revolution:" As
Mr. Andrea explains, land in this period was granted by headrights. A single man or woman of or nearing 16 years of age was allowed 100 acres (except in certain years when land allowance was 50 acres). No married woman, except widows, was allowed land. Married men were allowed 100 acres (except in years when only 50 acres were allowed and 50 acres for his wife and 50 acres for each child under 16 years of age.

Abstract of Judge Winn’s Story of Daniel H. Arnold.: (Contributed by Hazel Arnold Mac Ivor).

Judge Richard D. Winn, judge of the Inferior Court, and a distinguished citizen of Gwinnett Co., Ga. wrote a number of biographical sketches of about 50 men who had lived in the County during its early history which were included in History of Gwinnett Co., Ga. One of those stories was about Daniel Hopkins Arnold. There are inaccuracies here but it is given as the Judge wrote it.

Mr. Arnold came to Gwinnett Co., Ga in 1823. He first settled on Redland Creek, later on Pugh’s Creek, where he lived until he moved to near Foswell, in Cobb Co., Ga. in 1858. Mr. Arnold was born 4 Nov., 1794 in Providence, R. I. His ancestry is traced back to the Pilgrims who landed at Plymouth Rock in 1620. His father was a sea captain who made a five year around the world voyage. On a second voyage around the world, his vessel was wrecked. All of the crew was saved except the Captain who lost his life to a shark in his efforts to regain his ship. His Mother was Deborah Hopkins, dau. of Stephen Hopkins, signer of the Declaration of Independence. (Judge Winn then gives a brief description of the Hopkins family.) Mr. Arnold was reared and educated in Providence, R. I. After an unhappy love affair, he came South and settled in Greenville Co., S. C. (no year given) and was employed setting up a cotton factory for a Mr. Perry, the first ever built in the state. He was superintendent there for several years. While thus engaged, he met and married Mary Dunbar, the dau. of John Dunbar, who moved to Gwinnett Co., Ga. on Pugh’s Creek. Soon Mr. Arnold followed him, where for many years he worked, as overseer for Robert Craig’s plantation. He was a farmer as well as a machinist and mechanic. He also worked as a miller for John Wright on Pugh’s Creek. Judge Winn relates that a distant relative of Mr. Arnold’s, Shubel "   ?", came and settled in Gwinnett Co. also. Now Shubel was in the custom of beating his wife. When Mr. Arnold found this out, he told him, "Shubel, if you whip your wife while I am here, you will have to whip me too." Mr. Arnold was forced by Shubel’s actions to keep his word a few days later. Judge Winn gives several other examples of Mr. Arnold’s opposition to wife beating, his courage and fortitude as well as his love of hard work and opposition to slavery. Mr. Arnold died 11 May, 1868, near Roswell, Cobb Co., Ga.

Administration of Edward S. Arnold, Greenville County, South Carolina --- Apt. #1, File #5, ( contributed by Hazel Arnold Mac Ivor).

The Administration of Edward S. Arnold consists of four papers.

On the back of this was the certificate of Jonathan Davis and Sarah P. Arnold’s petition would be cited in public meeting at the Fork Shoal on 14 May, 1820.

Paper #2: Spartan Goodlett, Ordinary of Greenville District Court, ordered Thomas Alexander, John Smith, William Arnold and George Terry, Senior to Inventory and Appraise the estate of Edward S. Arnold, dec’d. Dated 25 May, 1820. Sarah P. Arnold is called administratrix of Edward S. Arnold. On 7 June, 1820, three of the appointed four appeared before the Justice of the Peace, Micajah Berry, and made oath they would inventory and appraise the said estate before 25 July next. These were Thomas W. Alexander, John Smith, Senior and George Terry, Senior.

Paper #4: Papers relating to the sale: (1) Petition of Sarah P. Arnold to make sale of the goods and chattels of the Personal Estate of the deceased. Dated 25 May, 1820. Signed Sarah P. Arnold. (2) Order for the sale granted by Spartan Goodlett, 25 May, 1820. (3) The Sale bill: Buyers were Phillip F. Quinn (sp.?), Sarah P. Arnold, Shubel F. Arnold, William Arnold, Thomas Alexander, John Terry, George Terry, John T. Smith, Daniel H. Arnold*, Hudson Berry, Bruce Lassem (sp.?), and Allen Hing (sp. ?).

Editor's Note: The Grantee-Grantor Indices to the Deeds of Greenville County, S. C. revealed that neither Edward S. Arnold, Shubel F. Arnold, nor Daniel H. Arnold ever bought or sold land in Greenville Co., S. C. This Daniel H. Arnold was undoubtedly the one that went on to Gwinnett County, Georgia and Shubel Arnold here is probably the same Shubel that Daniel scolds for wife-beating. In the "History of Gwinnott County, Georgia, Vol. I.", there is given a brief history of the Berry family (pp. 409-413). There is also a story of Solomon Hopkins (pp. 437-439) whose first wife was Elizabeth Terry. These families lived in Greenville prior to coming to Gwinnett Co., Ga. and Hopkins served in Thomas W. Alexander's Cavalry there. I feel there were ties between these families that could be proved by a careful reading of the documents.

In our first issue I listed all of the deeds given in the Cross Index (Indirect Index, in which Arnolds were the buyers). I am completing these transactions with this issue by listing all deeds listed in the Cross Index for all other spellings of the name Arnold that could be found. Next issue I will list all of the deeds found in the Direct Index in which Arnolds were the seller. Then in the Spring issue deeds listed in the Direct Index for all other spellings of the name Arnold, that could be found, will be listed, thus giving as complete picture of land transactions as can be found in present day Spartanburg County Courthouse. All copied in the Summer of 1969 by Editor.

Arnolds—-Franklin (and other counties), Tennessee Miscellaneous Records: (contributed by Mrs. L. W. Ledgerwood Jr.).

Nancy Emmaline Arnold(1) was born 14. Sept. 1815 in Tenn.(2) She died (1) 22 Feb. 1892 in Washington Co., Ark., and is buried in the McCord Cemetery, near Elkins, in that country. Family tradition has it that she was a daughter of John "Big Foot" Arnold, whose feet were so long he had to have shoes specially made. She is said to have had red hair. According to 1880 census of Washington Co., Ark., her father was born in Virginia, her mother born in Georgia. Nancy Arnold was listed in the Wayne County, Tenn. census of 1850. In her household was a woman old enough, to be her mother, also also named Nancy, age 70, born North Carolina, and a Joseph Arnold, age 22, born in Tenn, (probably a younger brother). Also in Wayne County in 1850 were a John Arnold, born in Georgia in 1799, and a William Arnold, born in Georgia in 1798. It is assumed they were brothers.

Nancy E. Arnold was married(1) 3 July 1851 to Dr. George W. Carter. She was age 36; he was age 51. His wife had died in Oct. of 1850, and he had several children, some of them grown. They moved to Washington Co., Ark. where their only son, George Washington Carter, was born. (This was my grandfather.) His birthdate was 7 May 1852. After the death of her husband in 1875, Nancy (Arnold) Carter lived with her son, Dr. George W. Carter (Jr.) until her death in 1892.

In 1840 census of Coffee Co., Tenn., there was a Nancy Arnold with 1 male under 5, 1 female 20-30. This woman was 50-60, and may have been the Nancy Arnold, shown in 1850 Wayne Co., Tenn, in household of Nancy Emmaline Arnold. The female 20-30 could have been Nancy Emmaline, and the young male (though age is incorrect) may have been Joseph, who was then about 12.

In 1830-1840, Dr. George W. Carter was living in Franklin Co., Tenn., and from what records I have found, it seems he was living in what is now the eastern part of Moore Co., not far from Coffee Co. The maiden name of his wife is not known, but it is thought she may have been a Hasty. In 1840, George W. Carter served as executor of estate of Benjamin Hasty, dec’d. A William Arnold was living next to Mary Hasty (the widow of Benjamin Hasty) in the census of that year. Also, William Arnold was listed in the administration as holding a note for $5.37 due Dec. 1840. Others listed with notes were G. W. Carter, and Benjamin Hasty Jr. and William Hasty. It seems likely that William Arnold may have married a daughter of Benjamin and Mary Hasty.

1. Carter family Bibles
2. According to Census.

By 1850, the George W. Carter Family and the William Arnold Family were living in Wayne Co., Tenn., with Benjamin Hasty (Jr.?) nearby. There was a John Arnold who had been in Wayne Co., Tenn. in 1840, and was still there in 1850. In 1848, William Arnold furnished security in a deed of Trust for some money owed by John Arnold to James Arnett. In 1852, William Arnold sold a tract of land on Hardin Creek (in Wayne Co., Tenn.) which adjoined a tract of land in the name of J. Hasty. (This was Jourdain Hasty, dec’d. who was in Franklin Co., Tenn. 1820, but moved to Wayne Co. He is thought to have been the brother of Benjamin Hasty. His children were named in estate settlement, and he apparently did not have daughters who married either William Arnold or George W. Carter--but both these men named sons Jourdain, the Carter son being Jourdain Hasty Carter.) Since John Arnold and William Arnold were near the same age, both born in Georgia, it is assumed they were brothers.

In 1860, John Arnold was still in Wayne Co., as was Joseph Arnold who had married and had 3 children. William Arnold seems to be gone. George W. and Nancy (Arnold) Carter had, of course, moved to Arkansas. There was a Nancy Arnold living in the "Poor House"--listed as age 98, born Va., a Pauper. It is hard to believe she was the Nancy Arnold who in 1850 was age 70, b. N. C., living with Nancy Emmaline Arnold. With two married sons living in the county, it doesn’t seem right that she would be a pauper in the poor house, if she was the same. If she was not, then I don’t know who she was:
